REVELSTOKE AT THE FAIR

Calgary Exhibition Pronounced Success—Revelstoke Exhibit Universally Admired--Centre of Attraction for all Visitors.

The great Dominion Exhibition of 1908 was duly opened on Monday, June 29, over 26,000 persons being present. The pageant was gorgeous and successful, and splendid weather prevailed. Never has there been a better conducted fair. There was not a hitch from the moment the gates were thrown open to the moment they closed in the evening. Everything was as it should be and there was room for all, even though every acre of the quarter-section of ground had scores and scores of people on it.

On all sides none but good words could be heard for the big undertaking which it was predicted some months ago by some doubting Thomases would be too big for us westerners to swing, but which the men in charge have proven to be more than equal to. Too much praise cannot be given to all connected. The fire department, the hospitals the ambulance corps, the police, both local and mounted, the volunteer cavalry, the racing men, and the people who have exhibits and booths on the grounds are all doing their best to make the fair the biggest thing that ever was and if the weather keeps as propitious as the opening day the Dominion fair of Calgary, Alberta, 1908, will go down to the history of the Dominion as one of the greatest ever.

In the matter of exhibits the Fair this year far and away excels any previous one and in no better way can the progress of the west be demonstrated than by the increase in quantity and quality of the many exhibits this year in all departments and industries. B. C. is taking a prominent place in the general exhibits and its wonderful resources are being splendidly advertised both by the Government exhibit and also by the individual districts who have engaged booths.

The Revelstoke exhibit has attracted universal attention and has been considered the best from B. C. outside that of the Government. Revelstoke has the only mineral and lumber exhibit at the Fair and as such has received the closest interest and investigation from mining and lumbering men, the latter being particularly struck with the big cedar and pine boards, four feet across, from the Mundy Lumber Co. We learn from Mr. A. Johnson, of the MAIL-HERALD, who is in charge of the exhibit, that over 15,000 people passed and looked at Revelstoke, admiring the tasteful nature of the arrangements of the booth and remarking on the specimens of big game which are the only ones in the Fair. The grill work, moulding and casing of the Revelstoke Saw Mill Co. was quite an attraction. The interest of farmers and agricultural men centred on our fruit, the Revelstoke strawberries being exceptionally fine and keeping up well under the long exposure to carriage and other trying conditions. The fruit exhibit is a good one and thanks to the assistance of Mr. Hood of the B.C. Fruit & Produce Exchange can hold its own with any in the fair.

Our exhibit is the only one which is making a bid for tourist traffic. Many enquiries have been made as to the tourist routes up the Big Bend, and the Columbia River trip by the s. s. Revelstoke, besides all detailed particulars as to accommodation for hunting parties and the best game country. Our mountains have attracted considerable notice from the Fair visitors and many have signified their intention of visiting the city for sight seeing, etc. Taking it all round the Revelstoke exhibit is a feature of the exhibition and is doing much to advertise our possibilities in agriculture, mining, lumbering and fruit growing as well as our mountain scenery, sporting, hunting and tourist facilities.

The Calgary Herald says: "Revelstoke has the big mineral exhibit of the fair and shows samples of ore from the Big Bend, Camborne, Trout Lake, Ferguson, and Illecillewaet properties Boards, sawn out of pine and cedar, are on view that are four feet across. These are sawn by the Mundy Lumber company. The grill work, moulding and casing of the Revelstoke Lumber company are exceptionally worthy of notice. Nine heads of the game of this district interest the sportsman, and the fruit interests the farmer. This district has lately become a great tourist resort.

DOMINION DAY

Passed Off Very Quietly at Revelstoke

There being no celebration of any nature held locally. The weather was hot and oppressive, with little or no breeze. Many citizens took advantage of the demonstration at Armstrong and left by the 5 a.m. special for that busy town, the lacrosse team and Independent Band also going down. Reduced fares to all points on the C.P.R. tempted many to spend the day in other outside points. Local anglers armed with rod and creel spent the day with more or less success while the Big Bend road as usual lured many picnicers to take advantage of its cool, shady glades and magnificent scenery. Eight-mile Falls are a splendid sight just now, the volume of water coming over being swollen by the heavy rains and melting snows Williamson's Lake can always attract a gathering of the younger sections of the holiday-makers, and bathing was indulged in.

The Calgary exhibition has taken a number of residents away for a week or so, and the city on Wednesday presented an almost deserted appearance. The patriotic feeling was conspicuous by its absence, not more than a single flag, and that on a private residence, being in evidence. All the prominent houses and buildings where flagpoles are erected, neglected to hoist a color and even the Courthouse only woke up after dinner and ran its flag up. One noticeable feature was the absence of any disorder or riotous conduct on the streets on the part of those who were "celebrating" not wisely but too well. There were no disturbances of any kind and the police having sized up the situation had little or no extra work in that respect; this speaks well both for the police and also for the city as a whole.

KAMLOOPS R. M. R. SHOOT

Revelstoke Team Wins Eight Prizes and Challenge Cup

A Revelstoke team representing E Company, R.M.R., journeyed to Kamloops on Tuesday night to take part in the annual summer shoot.

The team consisted of Capt. H. A. Brown, Capt. R. Smith, Color Sergt., J. Donald, Sergt. Shardlow, Corp. Duff, Corp. Hall and Pte. Briegel.

The shoot took place at the new range which was formally opened by the mayor of Kamloops. In spite of the scorching heat the Revelstoke team acquitted themselves well and did some excelledt shooting, carrying away eight prizes and the Team Shoot Cup.

The following are the results of the Revelstoke men at the different ranges.—

Disappearing Target—2nd. Color Sergt. Donald.

Running Target—2nd. Capt. Smith; 3rd. Corp. Duff; 4th Capt. Brown.

200 Yards—2nd. Capt. Brown.

200-500-600 Yards — 2nd. Capt Brown; 3rd. Capt. Smith.

Team Shoot—Revelstoke won by 29 points against Kamloops, thereby securing the handsome cup for the year. The team reports having a most enjoyable time during their visit and speaks in high terms of the manner in which the Kamloops people entertained them. It is probable that the Kamloops team of the R.M.R. will visit Revelstoke on Labor Day in September. The local shots are to be congratulated on their success in the Kamloops competition.

OUTPUT OF B.C. LUMBER

Returns of Coast and Mountain Production

The British Columbia lumber output and shipments for 1807, as compared with 1906, show an increase of 6,000,000 feet in the output and a decrease of 39,000,000 feet.

On the other hand the mountain mills decreased their output by 19,000,000 feet.

The stock held by the Coast mills was 80,000,000 feet less than that held by the mountain mills on Jan. 1st, 1908.

The Coast mills shipped just over 50 per cent. of their output, while the mountain mills shipped just over 65 per cent. The Coast stock at the beginning of the year was only a little more than 23 per cent., and the mountain a little under 60 per cent. of their output.

IMPORTANT VISIT

Premier McBride to Visit City on Official Business

The Hon. Richard McBride, Premier of B. C., W. J. Bowser, Dr. Young and F. J. Fulton, who are on an itinerary of the Interior, will visit Revelstoke on Friday, July 10th, arriving at 5 p. m. from the south and remaining till the following morning.

The Board of Trade and City Council will be asked to co-operate and act in conjunction with the reception committee. We understand that the visit is entirely non-political and is the outcome of repeated requests from the local and municipal bodies for the Premier to discuss the many local affairs that have for some time been exercising the minds of the public. Hon. McBride and his party will be taken over the bridge and shown other things which the Revelstoke public are claiming. In the evening a public meeting will be held in the Opera House when the visitors will discuss the requests put up to them with the citizens. As it is very important that all interested in local affairs should be present, the public are requested to remember the date, Friday, July 10th.

As the visit of the Premier and ministers is of great importance to the city and its welfare, everybody, be they liberal, conservative, socialist or independent, should make a point of coming as all matters of local development and interest will be discussed.

The party will leave on the following morning for Field and Golden.

INVADE SELKIRKS

Alpine Club Meet at Rogers Pass, Near Revelstoke

Mr. H. W. Wills, manager, of the Royal Alexandra Hotel, Winnipeg and Mrs. Wills, passed through this week en route for Winnipeg from the Coast. Mr. Wills has been in the for three weeks on an official trip of inspection of the C.P.R. hotels.

Mr. Wills stated that although tourist travel this summer has not reached or is likely to reach the great record of last season, it has recently shown a very substantial improvement. The company is now in a position to handle visitors at the various mountain resorts, a condition of affairs that did not exist last year owing so the phenomenal volume of travel when half a dozen sleeping cars had to be requisitioned for use as permanent sleeping quarters for tourists at Banff.

Mr. Wills anticipates a large assemblage will gather at the Glacier House for the annual meet of the Canadian Alpine Club to be held in the Selkirks in the second week of July. Headquarters camp will be established in Rogers Pass, east of the Glacier House. Hundreds of mountain-climbers from all over the continent and Europe will participate in the mountain-climbing excursions for which the Canadian Pacific have loaned their corps of Swiss guides.

The Alpine Club camp will open on Tuesday next, July 7th, and close on July 15th.

The camp will be pitched at Rogers Pass, near Revelstoke, on the actual summit of the pass, an altitude of 4,351 feet above sea level. Immediately turrounding it are Mounts Macdonald, Avalanche, Cheops and Tupper—all are splendid climbs.

The official climbs this year are: Rogers Peak and Swiss Peak of the massive Mt. Rogers and Mt. Hermit. It will be a two-day climb, one night being spent at the C.P.R. hut, situated at timber line on the southern slope of the mountain. The altitude of Rogers Peak is 10,536 feet; of Swiss Peak 10,515 feet, and of Mt. Hermit, 10,194 feet.

Trips will be made to the Deutschman Caves, the Illecillewaet and Asulkan glacier and other important points.

Presentation

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Pettipiece on 4th street last Tuesday evening for their regular meeting. After routine business had been attend d to, Mrs. (Rev.) Hall read Mrs. Pettipiece an address, expressing the great esteem in which that lady is held as president of the Aid, and an ardent worker for the social and material good of the church and Mrs Mitchell, secretary of the Aid presented Mrs. Pettipi ce with a china fruit set and case of ivory handled fruit knives. Mrs. Pettipiece was taken completely by surprise, but replied in very suitable and appreciative words. Very dainty refreshments were partaken of and the Aid adjourned to pass over July and August, and hold their next meeting the first Thursday in September.

SATURDAY, JULY 4, 1908

NO REAL PATRIOTISM

We noted with considereble regret that the flag was conspicuous by its absence on Dominion Day, and even public buildings and institutions which should at any rate have hoisted their colors, had omitted or neglected to show that they at least were loyal and possessed the spirit of patriotism. If this had been on the other side of the line, there would have been a difference, for few nations are as patriotic and ostensibly so, as the Americans. We take it that the average Revelstoke citizen is proud of his country and would do all to serve it and we judge that Revelstoke as a whole is loyal to the province and to the Dominion and the least she could have done was to have acknowledged that she was full of pride and patriotic spirit on such an occasion as Dominion Day. We are too prone here, to make a fuss over minor affairs and forget what has brought about the prosperity of this great Dominion in which we live. We put it down to the fact that the celebration of Dominion Day, and flag flying, etc., does not ensure or bring in any material good or have direct benefit upon our own individual welfare. The perpetuation of the greatest day of all Canadians should, we judge, be worthy of the greatest enthusiasm and ostentatious display, yet it has taken, and always will do so, we suppose, second place to other public events which effect more directly our individual occupations and interests. If we claim to be Canadian patriots then let there be no hypocrisy about it.

CO-OPERATION MEANS SUCCESS

It is gratifying to know that Premier McBride has consented to visit Revelstoke in the course of his itinerary and that he will be here on Friday, July 10th, for the purpose of discussing all matters relating to local utilities and necessities. Revelstoke has many claims on the government, claims which are generally conceded to be of a perfectly legitimate nature, the adjustment of which, if concluded in a satisfactory manner will mean a great deal to the prosperity and development of Revelstoke. The premier, who is accompanied by the Hons. W. J. Bowser, Dr. Young, and J. J. Fulton, will have to give the public a patient hearing when the claims which will be submitted to him, will be explained and their validity proved. We judge that the public meeting held on Friday will be of a strictly non-political nature and one at which all parties and sects, no matter what their political bias may be, will serve all ends better by co-operating for the good of the city and for the welfare of the whole community. Matters of local interest only will be discussed, and the greatest good that can be accomplished will be in setting the facts and details before the premier in a manner clear and concise, pointing out what Revelstoke as a community, and not as a series of political parties, really wants. Party strife and political differences must be put aside, and the citizens as a whole should co-operate to secure the much needed public works and utilities which Revelstoke can in justice demand from the government, and which if carried out, will ultimately result in the increased development and enrichment of the district.

STREET IMPROVEMENT

Now that the sale of the outstanding city debentures has been satisfactorily concluded, the corporation can turn its attention to effecting some permanent repairs on streets and sidewalks. As years come and go the condition of the streets become worse, and there is not a road, street or lane in Revelstoke that can lay any claim to being in a good state of repair. In every case the crossings are too high above the street level, even taking into consideration the necessity of making allowance for mud and snow. The surface is pitted with holes and depressions and besides being the cause of many anathemas on the part of vehicle owners and drivers, look unsightly and neglected. The city will now be very well able to afford a rock crusher and with the necessary rock, commence a permanent system of macadamised roads. Some of our sidewalks are getting in horrible shape and if not fixed up will prove the stumbling block of some individual and a lawsuit for the city. It would not be a bad plan for the council to ascertain thoroughly the estimated cost of asphalt and cement walks, such as are being widely used in all larger cities; and on inquiries we learn that many rural municipalities are adopting this plan, finding them so much cheaper in the long run on account of their durability. Here where wood rots quickly as it comes in contact with the ground wooden sidewalks are constantly in need of attention, (if only to shave off the knots as the planks wear down) and two or three years outlay in repairs would probably more than equal the first extra cost of cement or asphalt. The council in all public works they undertake, should use good judgment in the letting of their tenders to responsible parties, and not employ cheap and indifferent labor which invariably turns out more expensive in the end.

A Journalistic Venture

New comes from England that the freakiest of newspapers is in contemplation. We wonder how the scheme would work out in Revelstoke.

It will have a supreme contempt for the law of libel, and will say just what it thinks in any way which seems best to it.

The intention is to furnish the public with tit bits of society gossip and scandal which cannot now be printed legally, and a city column run on the same lines of absolute frankness.

"There will be no more veiled references to rumors as to the alleged difficulties of a well known firm, which are understood to have large commitments in such and such a market," says the Financial New. "The new daily will announce that—

"'The affairs of Messrs. Jones and Smith of 1001 Threadneedle street, are in a condition of embarrasment. The firm was a heavy bear of Yankees and has lost £150,000. The partners had an interview with their principal stock exchange creditors yesterday, at which it was stated that the position was hopeless—Jones has already bolted.'

"The same novelty of treatment will be extended to all topics which come within the range of the newspaper record and discussion. Pending cases in the law courts are to be freely discussed in a manner calculated to take the curls out of the wigs of the counsel engaged.

"Not only will they be discussed in advance, but their progress from day to day, the demeanor and trustworthiness of the witnesses and the conduct of the presiding judge will come under criticism.

"If a witness is regarded as a perjurer, he will be so described. If the proceedings are considered by the conductors of the new daily to be of a blackmailing character the public will not be left in ignorance of their opinion, which will be given in plain English at any stage of the proceedings.

"But how, it will be asked, will any newspaper survive for a week amid the libel actions, prosecutions, motions to commit the editor and other legal hurricanes that will rage around a journal conducted on lines such as these?

"The answer is that the newspaper will not be printed in England. It will be produced at some point on the Belgian or French coast which will permit of its delivery by the first London post."

Reighleys are serving ice cream Sunday afternoon and evening, and have buttermilk and sweet cream on hand all the time.

The Latest Fad

The Merry Widow waltz is destined to be put in the shade by the "Mollycodle Twostep." It seems that the Mollycodle originated in Cleveland and this is a description of how it is done.

Cleveland is to blame for the Mollycodle two-step and the contagion is spreading in a web of directions. This is a dissection of its frightful workings:

The young man grabs the young woman at a point abaft her collar bone.

They do the "sky-scraper clutch" elevating their interlaced digits towards the chandeliers.

They two-step.

They reverse.

They plunge, they hop, they dash, they rush—the young man directing the onslaught and his partner counting victims.

Revelstoke society will have something new this winter in the dancing line if they practice the above.

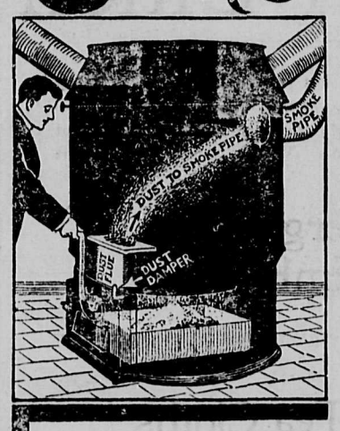
"Sunshine" Furnace



Where Shaking is Respectable

A Draft off furnace dome, with no other assistance, is powerless to overcome the dust nuisance in shaking time. Only surplus dust rises of itself above the fire. Great bulk descends into ash-pit, and unless legitimate outlet is therein provided, dust will escape through ash-door slits and into operator's face.

In "Sunshine" Furnace the legitimate dust outlet is provided. It's a great big dust-pipe running straight from ash-pit to dome, thence to chimney. When big pipe damper is opened, all dust in ash-pit ascends to dome; then, when direct drafts are opened, all dust passes up chimney.

Always the clean and quick dust route in "Sunshine" Furnace — via grate, to pan, to dust-pipe, to dome, to chimney, to open air.

Write to us for "Sunshine" testimonials received from your own townspeople.

Gotch Still Champion—Local Lacrosse and Baseball News

Frank Gotch is still world's champion catch-as-catch can wrestler. He won two successive falls on Wednesday night at Seattle from Dr. B. F. Roller. On the aggressive all the time he went from hold to hold with bewildering celerity, stopping now and then to rack his courageous and ever willing opponent with his notorious "toe hold." The first fall was obtained by Gotch on a half-Nelson in 15 mins. and 25 seconds. The second was in 25 mins. and 54 seconds, by the same hold, but in a different method. Roller was outclassed in all respects, not even having a look in.

Tom Longboat's entry for the Olympia Marathon has been accepted and Canada has now a gilt edged chance of winning a marathon.

Sir Thomas Lipton has practically decided to challenge again for the America cup.

C. P. Latham is playing good lacrosse for New Westminster. He will go east alright!

Revelstoke journed to Armstrong to play lacrosse on Dominion Day. The weather was sizzling when the Vernon boys in purple and fine linen lined up against the green. Vernon had the best of it to the end of the first quarter, the score standing 5-0. The green boys then bucked up and sailed thru' the Vernon defence in fine style. However their goalkeeper, held by the point, kept the rubber out and at half time the score stood the same. From then to the end the game was all Revelstoke, but the score was too big against them and the game ended 6-2 in favor of Vernon. The green boys all showed lack of combination although there were many redeeming features. Lack of sufficient practice lost them the game. Vernon will play a return here on July 13, Orange Day.

Enderby defeated Armstrong on the first of July at Armstrong by the handsome score of 11 5. Both teams played good ball, but costly errors by Armstrong lost them the game.

The baseball match between Salmon Arm and Vernon was the best event of the Armstrong Dominion Day celebration, and was anyone's game until the last man was out. At the end of the eighth innings the score stood 9-5 in favor of Salmon Arm, but Vernon pulled up in the ninth getting three runs, and finishing one short of the Salmon Arm score.

Next Wednesday evening at 18.45k. the Rovers play the Hopeful at baseball in a league game.

Kamloops is sending a baseball team to play the Y.M.C.A. here on Wednesday, July 8th at 5 p.m. on the McKenzie avenue grounds. All who have seen the association senior players acknowledge that they know how to play ball. Kamloops also has a crack team.

There is some talk of a motor and bicycle club being formed in Revelstoke this summer.

The lawn tennis tournament will open on July 11th.

The married against single cricket match on Saturday last ended in a victory for the former. A return match was played on Dominion Day with the same result.

INTERESTING RACE

Paddles Proved Superior to Oars in Heavy Current

Frequent and at times animated are the arguments that occasionally crop up during conversations among our old time citizens and pioneers of early Revelstoke, and in dilating on their feats of prowess both in forest, river and trail, these hardened and seasoned veterans are only too ready to demonstrate by actual test what they claim. Such an argument occurred on Monday during a conversation at the Central Hotel, Alex. McRae claiming that he could, by himself, with a pair of oars in a canoe make a straighter course across the Columbia in the strongest current, than two men with paddles in a canoe, from a given point on one side to a given point on the opposite bank. E. McBean and R. Blackmore took up the wager and engineered by F. B. Wells the race was arranged.

The contest created no little excitement and in the evening about 7 o'clock a large number of old timers and others wended their way to the river bank. The starting post was immediately below the high part of the dam where there is a strong riffle over the lower part, and the contestants had to make the straightest course across the current to a mark on the opposite bank.

The Columbia is about 500 yards wide at that point. Judges were appointed and McRae made the first attempt. Getting away with a bad start he lost considerable ground, but made up a little drifting down again as he reached the middle of the river and gaining as he neared the other side. McBean and Blackmore then started, using the same canoe, with a paddle each, and getting away in good shape were able to hold their own against stream, edging across until the full current swept them down, but not so far as McRae. On nearing the other bank they picked up again and slid into slack water. The two men thus won the contest their lowest point down stream being two canoe lengths better than that of McRae. It is quite probable that other boat and canoe races will be arranged this summer.

TRIP THROUGH THE ROCKIES

A Graphic Description of the Beauties of the Mountains——Banff an Ideal Tourist Centre.

The Rockies—Canada's mountain land of the west—form one of her greatest and most attractive of playgrounds, and this in a land passing rich therein. Great in the square-mile size, alluring in ways without number is this Alpine area, where only two per cent. has been opened up by railway or trail, but where the two per cent. yields such dividends of health and happiness as to satisfy the most exacting of summer day sojourners. The two per cent. is in itself a big bit of world in which one may renew his body strength, reinforce his mind powers and uplift his spirit as the hills of God uplift their granite thrones around him.

Frank Yeigh, in the Toronto Globe gives the following description:

Yes, our Canadian mountain land is a wonder world wherein the happy wanderer may climb colossal peaks and his picturesque forest trails, or drive or ride pony back or tramp through the finest scenery this scenic globe can show; where he may live in a houseboat on a lake of incomparable beauty, or experiment with the free life in a bungalow, cuddling close to a foothill; where he may stage it over Cariboo or other far flung trails to where the gold glitters in river gravels or mountain ribs

Or, if he will, he may fish or hunt, botanize or geologize, sketch or paint, or, venturing further afield remote from the sound of the locomotive "shrieking its material blasphemy" he may explore a far northern valley for the first time, for many there are to explore, as there are many virgin peaks waiting to be conquered by man.

Or he may, if he will—and he will be wise to so will—enjoy what the coastal cities and their environs have to offer, and it is much in itself; all this, and vastly more, are the allurements held out to the wise one who searches out our playground of the western hills.

Let me sketch more in detail a few sample holiday programmes among the mountains or their buttressing foothills. How does a summer on an Albertan ranch strike your fancy? Say on the banks of the Bow river as it sweeps on its winding way from the frontal line of peaks towards Calgary and the plains country. Sleek and well-favored are the cattle dining off the succulent nature grasses of the land, well-fleeced the countless sheep, lithe of limb the untethered bronchoes.

If you can make terms with a broncho, then this kind of a holiday on horseback, with the ranching cabin for headquarters, will be worth while and worth time and cost and letting some other things go. A great natural park area, with all creation to swing around in, the galloping over the soft earth paths, the joyous tingle of the nerves, the free now of the blood, the deep breathing of the lungs, the tonic of the free, earth and sky life—these are among the delights that await the holidayer on an Albertan ranch.

Then you are near the mountains and their Kananaskis portal, the Three Sisters guarding the Canmore Valley on the south. Grim old Cascade, scarred by the storms of all the geological ages, has set the valley, making narrow but not straight, the way into the government mountain peaks, that now comprise a total area of 3,450,720 acres. Beautiful Banff! One of the world's fairest Alpine gardens—a picture of forest and river and cascade, set in a gigantic frame made by a score of lofty peaks. What a drive that is to Devil's Lake with its ever-changing views of Lefroy and Cascade and Sulphur Mountains. What an intoxicating early morning tramp that is along the Spray Valley, in the delusive hope of reaching the Twin Peaks in an hour or two; what jolly climbs challenge one on every hand; what everything that makes it worth while to live the out-of-door life. No wonder the corridors of the Banff hostelries reveal holiday-hunting folks from all corners of the globe. They know a good thing when they seek out Banff.

But Banff is civilization, and good clothes and society, and the social life, and even these highly desirable things may well be left behind for a time, and they are left behind when one hits the trail.

Who shall adequately sing the song of the hill trail? The winding way, turfcarpeted, through the forest aisles; the breath-catching glimpses of guardian giants, the closer acquaintance with glacial rivers and wayward brooks, the greetings of the trail-side flowers, the greetings, too, of whistling marmots and lazy porcupines, and of all the varied life of the high hills.

Unless it be—and this is a part of it—the tented home beneath the talking trees and the winking stars, the camp fire glow and glare, the bannock, and beans, and brew of tea, and afterwards the perfumed bed of balsam boughs.

And there are not a few opened in recent years by the wise joint action of the C.P.R. and the Dominion government. Let me tell of three: To Paradise Valley; to Emerald Lake and the Yoho Valley, to the Cougar caves from Glacier, near Revelstoke, and the chance render of these lines will be a wise man if he makes note of these lines will be a wise man if he makes note of this trio of trails for future exploration.

The twelve-mile trail from Laggan leads to the enchanting valleys of Paradise and the Ten Peaks—the former encircled by Mount Temple and Seven Sister peaks; the latter revealing the wonder line of ten towering summits peering into the blue depths of Moraine lake. Both vales reveal the sublime in scenery. Avalanches, reverberate down the awful cliffs of Lefroy and Temple, of Delta-form and Fay; glaciers rest their wintry weight at the bases of the cordillerean giants, Niagaras shout and sing their way from icy caverns, through Alpine meadows, down hillsides and through the valley beds, and the deep-hearted forests help to carpet the floor of earth and to green it to match the blue of the sky, the grey of the rocky palisades and the sheeted white of the mountain roofs.

Then there is the trail from Field to the Yoho, through a cathedral aisle of trees bordered at either end by a snow curtained summit. A turn in the delectable way and Emerald Lake talks to you in colors; a still and steep climb carries you (or, rather, the pack pony does) to Summit lake, from whence one wriggles down, down, and still down in the Yoho Valley. And who shall do it justice in mere men-made words? You must needs camp over night and if it be at the base of the 1,200 foot Takkakaw or the 500-foot Laughing Falls, either spot will make you think of another land that is to be fairer than day.

Up the fifteen-mile floor of the valley the trail twists and turns, and back again by the upper way from where the fortunate pilgrim can look down into the well of delight and the eye can comprehend the massive scenic canvas at a sweep.

From Rockies to Selkirks next, and from Glacier to the Cougar peaks via a ten-mile trail that opens up yet another wondrous realm of nature. Narrow and seemingly precarious is the route at times, sharp the curves and steep the slopes before Deutschman's cabin is reached and the entrances to the cave world beneath into which Cougar river disappears. Those who love darkness as well as light will explore this weird underground region of eternal night, and many marvels will there be seen. Or he may test his powers of nerve and wind and strength by puffing up and over the Cougar ice and snow field to the series of peaks that make up the Cougar range. There, on the sky parlor of the continent, he will be rewarded with such a vision of an unheaval world as to thrill an entrance, while it inclines the mind to worship.

If there is a finer sport than mountain-climbing, and if there be a richer field for such a sport than our Rockies and Selkirks, I would like to hear of them. Not that the Alpine Club of Canada has been organized with its annual mountain-climbing camps, a much-needed stimulus will be given to this splendid pastime in the heart of one of the world's greatest Alpine arenas.

The tourist will, however, find much more on his mountain menu. If he is a man of family, and, therefore a man of parts, he will establish himself in a houseboat on Kootenay, Arrow or Okanagan Lake, and there in the heart of the highlands of southern Baitish Columbia live and dream the happy summer days away, or, if a more active life appeals to him, there remains staging over the famous Cariboo trail or around Kamloops, through the Nicola country, indeed, in any one of a half hundred directions and much pleasure lies that way if the roads are not too dusty nor the sun too warm in its welcome. Every such route reveals new scenic features, new ranching, farming and fruit districts, new towns, new evidences of timber, mineral and fishery wealth. Who is equal to the task of reducing the potential wealth of our big Pacific province to tables and figures?

Conservative Convention.

A convention of the Conservative Associations for the Kootenay district has been called and will be held on Tuesday, July 21, in the opera house Nelson, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Kootenay in the forthcoming federal elections.

Guard the Fires

Forest fires are caused, in only too many instances, by campers and tourists who leave their fires unguarded or are in other ways careless about their fires. Many of these holiday makers in the woods would one the last people in the world to wilfully destroy timber in this way, but yet a lack of care on the part of some has often had a most lamentable result.

Occasionally what seem cases of apparently wanton carelessness are met with. A flagrant instance of such neglect was shown some time ago by a party of seventeen campers from Hamilton, Ohio, in the Timagami (Ontario) forest reserve, who broke camp one morning leaving quite a large fire burning. The campers, in their special cars, however were stopped at North Bay, and not allowed to proceed on their journey until they had paid the expenses of extinguishing the fire as well as those of their own detention. Such cases are, fortunately, rare.

Attention to a few points may save much loss from this cause. No match, cigar end or other burning object should ever be thrown down in the forest until totally extinguished. Camp fires should not be left, even for a short time, until one is perfectly sure they are "dead out" Fires should not be built in dangerous places, such as among leaver, near rotten wood or any place where they are likely to spread. Avoid building a fire against a large or a hollow log, for in such a place it is hard to know when the fire has been thoroughly extinguished. In windy weather a hole should be dug down to the mineral soil and the fire confined in this.

The Lake St. John district, in Quebec, was the scene of a serious fire only a few days ago. The fire was caused, it is supposed by fishermen who neglected to extinguish their camp fires.

Royal Entertainers

The Kilties Band, which was selected from all the bands of Europe by His Majesty King Edward VII to celebrate his royal birthday at Sandringham, England, on Nov. 9th, 1894, will give one of their famous concerts here on Wednesday, July 8th, in the Roller Rink.

During this tour, which will embrace a period of four years, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, Japan, China, Russia, Norway and Sweden will be visited.

The band—forty strong—is augmented by the celebrated male choir, the famous Clan Johnstone troupe of pipers and dancers, and two giant drum majors—each over seven feet tall.

Pleasant Function

As the heat of summer advances and indoor recreations take a secondary place in the minds of pleasure lovers, dancing is but little thought of. By some happy inspiration on Monday a number of the young people got together and arranged to hold an impromptu dance in the opera house, engaging the Austrian orchestra that has been visiting the city for the past few days. A large number of invitations were sent out, and with a cool evening a most enjoyable time was spent The music was somewhat out of the ordinary, and the airs, with which most of us are unfamiliar, were typical of the Austrian race, being pleasing and novel, if not in accordance with our own ideas of harmony. An excellent light supper was served at midnight, and the affair was thoroughly enjoyed by all Miss Loretta Garvin played several extras on the piano after the orchestra had retired.
