BROTHERS LIVES AT SCARBORO'

St. Martin's Church Contains Artistic Treasures—Knew Killed Citizens

H. V. Morgan, who left Scarborough eight years ago, and Mrs. Morgan who left seven years ago, have many relatives in the bombarded city, among them bring a brother of Mr. Morgan and two brothers of Mrs. Morgan.

John Hale, an alderman and a prominent architect of the city, who was wounded, sits for the same ward for which Mr. Morgan's brother is councillor, and Mr. Morgan knows well many others who are wounded or killed.

St. Martin's church, which is reported to have been damaged in the bombardment of Scarborough on Dec. 16, is, says Mr. Morgan, the fashionable church of the city, and is one of the most famous churches in the north of England. It was one of the first churches of the well known architect, Mr. Bodley, who designed the reredos in St. Paul's cathedral, London, and since it was consecrated 50 years ago has had a large and influential congregation. This church is well known for its unique series of stained glass windows, designed by members of the Pre Raphaelite school, Burne Jones, Watts and Millais.

The greatest treasure in the church is a small painting on the north side of the pulpit by Dante Gabriel Rossetti, representing the Annunciation. The present vicar, the Venerable Archdeacon Mackarness, has been in charge of the parish since 1888, and is the eldest son of the late Bishop of Oxford. The archdeacon has three sons serving in the British army.

He is known to have been associated with a man named Brewer who is wanted in connection with the post office safe blowing and against whom the police hold evidence. Concert and Games at School Closing

A Christmas tree and party closed the first half of the school term at the Revelstoke high school on Friday evening. The students assembled in the large typewriting room, which had been cleared for the occasion and very prettily decorated by the boys. A huge Canadian flag held first place in the decorations, and was surrounded by bugles and kettledrums. Many interesting games were played, the first of which was a smelling game There were 21 bottles with a different liquid in each, and the contestants had to give the correct name for the contents of each bottle. The prize fell to Miss Loretta Dupont and Ernest McKinnon. The company then listened to a splendidly rendered program, consisting of a chorus by the boys, a piano selection by Miss Dupont, a solo by Mr. J. M. Paterson, a mandolin selection by Arthur Fraser, a recitation by Miss Isabel Dunlop, a chorus by the boys. Santa Claus then gave out the presents from the huge Christmas tree. Beforehand the distribution of the presents had been arranged by a committee. The presents were not to cost more than ten cents, and givers were to study the characters of the recipients. The results was that the presents consisted of rattles, cakes of soap, boxes of face powder, comical dolls, A. B. C. picture books, etc. Refreshments were then served by the refreshment committee, and dancing was enjoyed for a short time. The party broke up shortly before midnight with the singing of Auld Lang Syne and the yelling of the R. H. S. cheers.

KEEP LAMPS TRIMMED

Foolish Virgins Should Buy Oil, is Alderman's Advice

"Citizens had better keep their lamps ready all winter," said Ald. McSorley at the meeting of the city council last night during a discussion of the electric light and power service. Mr. McSorley declared that it was no use deceiving the people and that until the new unit was installed at the power plant trouble might be expected from time to time. On account of the war it had been impossible for the council to obtain delivery of the new machinery.

During the discussion it was explained that a log in the flume was the cause of the present interruption of the service. It is possible to provide power from the old unit sometimes when the current is not sufficient to provide light.

The mayor said that comment had been made because Ald. Smythe had light at the Empress theatre when the rest of the town was in darkness, and Ald. Smythe explained that he had connections with both the power and light service and had special electrical machinery which enabled him to convert the power into light.

An attempt was made yesterday to blow away the obstructing log at the power plant with dynamite but without success. The auxiliary gas producer engine is being brought into service.

Civic Power Fails Newspaper Handicapped

Owing to the interruption in the civic power service, to-day's issue of the Mail-Herald is four pages instead of eight and some news is unavoidably omitted.

Let us steal from grudging life one joy
Just lie back in effortless peace,

Ere time and the world bid us—cease.

CONTRACTORS LICENSES

Must be Paid by Employers of Labor.—Municipal Elections.

Their deliberations illuminated by a couple of dim lamps and a flickering candle, the city council met last night in chill and semi-darkness, the electric light and heating apparatus being out of commission.

The necessary resolution for the holding of municipal elections was passed and B. R. Reynolds was appointed returning officer. Elections are on Jan. 14 and nominations on Jan. 11.

T. E. L. Taylor wrote saying that an account for $17 for water and light had been sent to the Home Guard and asking if the Council would waive payment. On the suggestion of Ald. McSorley an effort will be made to collect the money from the Dominion government.

Suggestions for safeguards over the electrical machinery, made by the inspector of electrical energy, were referred to the fire, water and light committee.

G. S. McCarter said that Mr. Hall of Hall's Landing proposed to drill for natural gas this winter and asked if the city would give him preference in supplying the city should his operations prove a success. The Council granted the request.

The question of contractors' licenses was again discussed and Mr. McCarter explained that a contractor was one who hired labor or supplied material for fulfilling contracts. Licenses will be collected from all who are liable. Mr. McCarter also explained that in the Hulett case he had given a legal opinion to the Council at the request of the police commissioners. He was not acting for J. D. Sibbald.

Big Eddy School Celebrates Closing

The Big Eddy day and Sunday schools gave a Christmas Tree entertainment and prize distribution last night. The school was crowded to its utmost capacity and an enjoyable time was spent. F. Paulding was chairman and the program was remarkably good for a district school. From start to finish, through songs, duets, choruses, recitations and dialogues, not a hitch occurred and the children did themselves credit. For their excellent training Mrs. F. Paulding and C. Somerville (teacher) were responsible. A pleasing variety was added to the program by Swedish hymns and a duet very ably rendered. A spelling contest was held which Mary Threatfall won and she received a prize presented by the teacher. Santa Claus came in for a great reception and the prizes were eagerly received. Refreshments followed, votes of thanks were moved by Messrs. Wiffin and Carlson, and the Rev. Lashley Hall pronounced the benediction.

BRIGGS IS IN FIELD

Has Decided to Become Candidate for Mayoralty—No Other Changes in List

W. I. Briggs is definitely in the field as a candidate for the mayoralty, having acceded to the insistent requests of his supporters that he should offer himself for election. His address to the electors will be found elsewhere in this issue.

There is no other change in the list of mayoralty or aldermanic aspirants.

T. Kilpatrick, ex-mayor, who has been asked by many friends to allow himself to be nominated for the mayoralty, to the Mail-Herald said that he would not be a candidate.

"Not this year," said A. McRae when asked if he would be a candidate for the mayor's chair. Mr. McRae is, however, thinking of offering himself as a candidate for the vacancy on the school board, which will occur if W. A. Sturdy becomes an aldermanic candidate.

Arrangements have been completed between the British and Canadian Governments for a new postage rate on newspapers, magazines and trade journals, to go into effect from January 1. By the application of the new scale there will be an increase of half a cent on all packages weighing between one pound and four and a half pounds. The present arrangement, which concludes on December 31, was first made in 1907. Under the arrangement Canada had to pay the entire cost of the sea conveyance from the United Kingdom to Canada. This was considered hardly fair, and the Hon. L. P. Pelletier opened negotiations with British authorities for a new plan which would divide the expense. The old arrangement expired on July 1, but was left in force for another six months, running out at the end of this month.

An alien of an enemy nationality who goes about his business peaceably is entitled to his rights under the law, according to a judgment of Mr. Justice Macdonald, of British Columbia. An Austrian miner named Topay sought to recover damages from the Crows Nest Coal company, for injuries owing to negligence and the company set up the defense that as the war is on, the alien enemy was not entitled to rights which otherwise would be his. The judge referes to the order-in-council declaring that peaceable aliens are entitled to the protection of the law and interprets it as meaning that it applies to the negligence of companies.

Miss Lawson held the theoretical examinations for her music pupils on Thursday afternoon at the High School. These examinations are presided over by Mrs. H. H. Godard and Miss Lawson. The results will be given to the public later.

Next Wednesday, the 23rd, the Methodist Church Sunday School will hold their annual Christmas tree entertainment, commencing at 7.30 p. m. A very interesting program will be rendered, and all adult friends are urged to be early in order to obtain seats.

The Seven Ages bazaar given by the ladies of the Methodist church, was undoubtedly the event of the season. It was held at Howson's furniture store, which was beautifully decorated for the eccasion with bunting, flowers and many colored lights. About $170 was cleared. The seven ages of woman were represented by seven tables side by side, very prettily decorated. The first age was the baby's table, presided over by Mrs. Swaney and Mrs. Jack Hume, where everything for the baby's use was sold. The second was childhood. A splendid fish pond was arranged for this, and fishes that were caught gladdened many a small heart. This was looked after by Mrs. Cressman and Mrs. Leonard Howson. The third was the sweatheart table, where candy and popcorn were sold by Mrs. Murray Hume and Mrs. Walter Bews. The next, the bride's table, was presided over by Mrs. Wadman. The fifth was the spinster's table, managed by Mrs. Lashley Hall and Mrs. C. B. Hume. The sixth, the mother's table, was loaded with good things in the culinary line, which were sold by Mrs. Saddler, Mrs. Corley and Mrs. Hogan. The last was the grandmother's table, managed by Mrs. Maxon and Mrs. Robert Howson. The tea room was in charge of Mrs. W. A. Foote, assisted by the young girls of the Auxiliary. The Riverside Orchestra played selections during the afternoon, and in the evening there was a very nice program in which were songs by Miss Borden, Miss Paulding, Miss Blanche McCarty and Mr. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Clay and baby are leaving on Sunday for Vancouver to spend a couple of weeks with Mr. Clay's parents.

All those having dishes for the culinary table of the Girls Sewing class bazaar will kindly leave them at the home of Mrs. J. Hack, Third street.

Mr. A. J. Collison had the misfortune to break his arm this week, and was taken to the hospital for treatment. On Friday he underwent an operation.

The following girls who sang at the concert at the opera house on Wednesday are pupils of Miss Parker: Florence Bourne and Hila Tomlinson in the junior class and Annie McLean in the senior class. Miss Parker deserves great praise for the splendid training she is giving her pupils.

Large crowds are enjoying the skating on the Y.M.C.A. rink which is well lighted and provided with tents and stoves. The rink on the river is also well patronized.

Mr. M. B. Wright and Mary Thomson Timmins were married at the manse on Thursday evening by Rev. J. W. Stevenson. Mr. and Mrs. Wright are spending their honeymoen in Edmonton.

The girls' sewing class of the Anglican Sunday school held a sale of work in aid of the Belgian Relief fund at the opera house on Wednesday afternoon and evening. Unfortunately owing to the failure of the city lights in the afternoon and the uncertainty of there being any light in the evening the attendance was considerably affected. Several stalls tastefully decorated displayed the articles for sale which had all been made by the girls, and were certainly a credit to them. There was also a fish pond, a fortune teller's booth and a tea table ably attended by the girls. In the evening a most successful concert was given by well known local artists every item being well received, especially the tableaux and the duet, "We've got a little Farm of our own," sung by Misses Tomlinson and Bourne. The tableaux given were "The Field Hospital" and "The Sleeping Beauty" in which all the girls took part and were staged by H. V. Morgan. The following also took part in the program, every item being well received, Misses Parker, McLean, McCarty, Lee, Corson, Messrs. G. R. Lawrence, G. Hawker, G. Hardman, H. V. Morgan and Master F. Terry. After the concert a dance was held, the music being supplied by Dave Orr's orchestra. The Belgian Relief fund will benefit to the extent of over $60, and great credit is due Miss Florence Lawrence, the president of the girls' sewing class, and her willing assistants.

On Tuesday next, a splendid program and Christmas tree, will be given by the Sunday school of the Presbyterian church. There will be a cantata, and motion songs, Santa has also promised to appear.

The class rooms at the different schools were very prettily decorated on Friday for Christmas, it being the closing day of the term. All the smaller children at both Central and Selkirk schools, were made happy with bags of candy. A great many visitors went to the Central school, were the usual closing exercises were observed. Miss Bruce and Miss Hyatt had a specially nice program arranged for the little ones and about 50 visitors were present. The concert was given in Miss Bruce's room, Miss Hyatt's class joining hers. The room was very gay with Christmas decorations and tree. There were some very beautiful drawings on the blackboard, and quite a display of the childrens' work was arranged around the room. There were paintings, mat weaving, and paper folding. Following is the program. Opening chorus by the children, "Welcome to the mothers." recitation by Mundy McRae; dialogue, by Elsie Creech and Marjorie Roberts; chorus, Jack Frost; Dolls dialogue by 10 little girls; Jack Horner song by eight little boys, Frank Robinson starring as Jack Horner; song by Elsie Br' ; recitation by Hilda Garnett, "There was an Old Woman."; recitation by Chris. Daeme; song by five little boys a Chinese boy called Mar Jok, and four Canadians; Star song, by four little boys; recitations by Mildred Barnes, Marjorie Garnett and Agnes Johnson; Chorus by school, "Pumpkins Pony Song"; Trio, by Morden Allum, Kenneth Bews and Elsie Brill, "Babes in the Wood." The A.B.C dialogue was very cute, a pupil representing each letter, and saying a verse for each. When the letter F was reached, a verse was said about F being for flag our country's pride, which brought forth much applause; Chorus, "Babes in the Wood." Santa Clause chorus. Closing chorus by class, "Now the Clock Upon the Wall."

The A.Y.P.A. had a very pleasant skating party on Friday evening. The society met at the home of Mrs. Paget and all went to the Y.M.C.A. rink, where they skated until 10 o'clock, then went to the home of Mrs. G. H. McCarter for supper and dance.

The literary and debating Club of the Y. M. C. A. has discontinued its weekly debates during the Christmas season but will resume early in January. While lack of lights prevents gymnasium classes being held and puts a check on the other recreative games, the boys at the building spend their time enjoyably at the fireside, with music, reading and checkers. The pleasant Sunday afternoon meeting for men will be held at 4 o'clock with song service at 3:45.

Sunday January 3, has by royal proclamation been appointed "to be throughout Our Dominion of Canada a day of humble prayer and intercession to Almighty God on behalf of the cause undertaken by our empire and our allies and of those who are offering their lives for it, and for a speedy and favorable peace that shall be founded on understanding and not hatred, to the end that peace shall endure: and we do invite all our loving subjects throughout Canada to set apart this appointed day as a day of humble prayer and intercession."

Advices received by the Hon. Thos. Taylor state that there is every indication of a large influx of settlers into the northern part of the province next spring. Many inquiries are being made for land along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway. During the past season there has been marked activity and development in the Lake Francis district, which boasts some of the most fertile farming land in British Columbia. There are now over 200 residents at Endanko, a depot and divisional point twenty two miles from Fort Fraser and 350 miles east of Prince Rupert. The Grand Trunk Pacific is constructing its new depot and roundhouses there.

TO THE ELECTORS:

Upon the insistence of my friends and the kindly feelings and proffered support of many who were not met me last year I now offer myself as a candidate for the office of Mayor for 1915.

If elected it will be my endeavour to conduct the affairs of your city on business lines. Finances will have to be carefully watched. Extension of improvements will necessarily be controlled by the state of the city's finances. Our city must, however, be maintained at a proper standard.

I have always had faith in Revelstoke, and hope when the present world-wide business depression is over to see an immediate revival in all lines of trade. I look to the mining and lumbering industries as our chief asset, and it will be my aim to encourage activity in these branches. There is also the tourist traffic which should be carefully fostered.

If elected I will make it my duty to thoroughly investigate our power and light plant with a view to obtaining thorough efficiency. The water service is another important utility which should be placed on a more satisfactory basis.

I hope good aldermen will be returned and all work for the general advancement of the community.

Yours truly,

W. I. BRIGGS.
