REBUILDING COMMENCES

At Fernie—In a Week Business Will be Resumed—Most Perfect Organization for Relief—Insurance Claims.

Fernie, Aug. 7—The work of relieving distress is well organized. As carloads of supplies arrive they are taken to the new kitchen and relief quarters on the school grounds and are being distributed only as required. There is the most perfect organization for relief, the maintenance of order and the disposal of cash.

Only one case of sickness was reported today. This is of typhoid fever a patient in the St. Eugene Hospital, Cranbrook.

What are supposed to be the remains of three men were brought in today in a bucket. A skeleton was found near the Elk Lumber Company's mill and was immediately taken to she cemetery and buried.

The work of rebuilding the town has already started. Fifteen carloads of lumber arrived today and every man who could drive a nail is at work The new C.P.R. station was started yesterday morning and is almost ready for occupation.

P. Burns, of Calgary, is here sizing up the situation, and let the contract for a new shop, to be built in mediately.

The Bank of Commerce will start tomorrow in a temporary building at the rear of its lot. It will have an architect examine the foundation of the burned building to see if it is safe to build on.

Other small buildings are being rushed up, and in less than a week business in many lines will be resumed.

A safe expert today opened 15 safes, and the contents of twelve were found all right. None of the bank safes have yet been opened, or in the principal business houses, as they are too hot yet.

As far as can be ascertained in conversation with business men, nearly all will rebuild and resume business as soon as the insurance is adjusted.

Exaggerated reports are being sent out in regard to the fire at Coal Creek The men were called out, but only as a precaution against fire, which was coming up the hill. President Lindsey reports that the mines are not in danger. Mr. Sherman, of the Miners' Union, also states that there is no danger and all the members are being well provided for.

G. Stanley Rees arrived this afternoon with a carload of supplies from Calgary, just what was required in the way of clothing, bedding, etc.

A persistent report has been current since the beginning of the Elk Valley conflagration that the major number of insurance companies are protected from paying the claims of the fire sufferers by a bush fire clause in the policies. It is gratifying to learn that all companies in the B. C. Mainland Underwriters' association, who are thus protected, have agreed to overlook this clause and, furthermore, will waive all the usual technicalities.

A number of local offices have been burning the midnight juice in the preparation of the "proofs of loss," and are intent on showing a typically western spirit by paying the claims with as much despatch as a due amount of caution will allow.

Whether outside offices will refuse to overlook the bush fire clause, which exempts certain companies from reimbursing fire sufferers who lose their effects as a direct or indirect result of a bush fire, remains to be seen.

Fraser, 750; Francis W. Daniels, 744; Eva M. Thompson, 744; Frank Tapping, 738; Elizabeth H. Hooley, 724; Ethel Blackberg, 705; Agnes Blackberg, 702; Sidney Robbins, 700; Robert G Lawrence, 557.

C. P. R. STRIKE

Both Sides Firm—Orientals Are Employed

Winnipeg, August 7.—The second day of the C.P.R. mechanics' strike opened without incident here and during the forenoon nothing startling developed, though indications are that picket cordons will be more tightly drawn by the strikers before sundown, as a rumor is current that the Canadian Pacific will endeavor to-day to bring a number of men from the south.

The company has made no effort so far to operate the big local shops, and as practically every machinist is a union man and loyally responded to the call to strike, it must be some days before the company can get together any temporary force.

Reports received from various western divisional centres show that all union men obeyed the headquarters call without question.

At Moose Jaw, Swift Current, Medicine Hat. Revelstoke and other western points the company has endeavored to keep the shops open. They are bringing in gangs of Japanese from off section work, but there is not enough skilled labor to leaven the mass.

Both sides are standing pat, each apparently waiting for the other to make a move before showing their hand.

The hope of the men lies in the prospect of trainmen, including engineers, firemen and conductors joining them, and these are expected by the strikers to inform the company in the course of a few days that they cannot continue to operate trains which have not been properly inspected. Much therefore depends on the trainmen, but even without their assistance the strikers themselves express confidence of winning.

Locally matters are progressing quietly and there has been nothing in the way of a disturbance of any sort. The strikers are determined that outsiders shall not be brought in to work in the shops here and are using all their influence to prevent those that have come in from remaining. Meetings are being held daily in Selkirk hall, but as yet there has been no demonstration of any description.

The C,P.R. is said to have already had assurance of all it needs in the Old Country and the United States to man its shops. There is nothing in the Statute books to prevent importing all the men it requires from the Old Country. The Alien Labor Law would prevent the engagement of men under contract in the United States, but this is easily got round and unless the company's expectations miscarry, it will have no trouble in filling the strikers' places.

CITY COUNCIL

Lawn Sprinkling Restrictions—Campbell Ave. Improvements

The regular meeting of the city council was held last night, with Mayor Lindmark and Aldermen Foote, Stone, Sawyer, Lefeaux, and Woodland, present.

Minutes of the previous meetings were read and adopted.

COMMUNICATIONS

From F. W. Terry, acting chief of police, reporting fire alarms O.K., but several house boxes being out of order and subsequently repaired.—Filed.

From the acting chief of police reporting on the alarms of fire at the C.P.R. section house near the shops, and at the Molsons Bank.—Filed.

From the superintendent of the power house reporting on the operation of the light and power plant for July. The report stated that the plant had been working satisfactorily, and that both light and power dynamos were O. K. The load was increasing on the power dynamo, which was now about 10 k.w. The lighting plant ran a total of 325 hours, generating 17.320 k.w.—Filed.

From T F. Sinclair in connection with the bond for the contract for the sewerage construction. Mr. Sinclair stated that in his opinion the bond was correct. The city claim that they are not liable for the premiums for more than $2,000, which bond was to bind Mr. Sinclair to enter upon the contract if the sewerage debentures are sold, and not on the full amount when the work was done. A reply to that effect will be sent to Mr. Sinclair.

From J. H. Jackson, city auditor, reporting on the accounts and books of the city office to the end of July and stating that the accounts were in excellent shape and order and reflected the highest credit on Mr Floyd.—Filed.

From J. R. W. Rodgers requesting that the taxes on his house, which was only completed last year when the assessment was taken, be refunded.—The council agreed that the claim was justifiable and resolved to refund the taxes.

A resolution was passed that the work on the covered drains on Campbell Ave. be done by day labor, the repairs to the street to be included.

Under new business a resolution was passed that the council request Supt. T. Kilpatrick to have the C.P.R. right-of-way from the main line, along the Smelter spur on Campbell Ave. to 2nd Street, cleared and all obstructions and unsightly objects removed.

The by-law authorizing the borrowing of the sum of $13,000 from the Molsons Bank to meet the current legal expenditure of the city for 1908, before the revenue from the taxpayers becomes due, was read the third time and passed with the unanimous consent of the council.

The mayor said that owing to the fact that the city office work was a long way behind, he had asked Mr. Floyd to remain a month to assist in the work until it was caught up with. A resolution to this effect was passed by the council.

Ald. Foote said that there was too much water being used on gardens and lawns, and that the city tanks were nearly empty which was a serious condition in case of fire, this dry weather. He urged that the people be informed that all sprinkling must stop except between 7 and 9 p.m. The council recognising that a shortage of water now would be a dangerous contingency in case of fire, resolved that measures be taken to stop unnecessary sprinkling.

The council also agreed that the superintendent of the water works be instructed to keep a check on the man who sprinkles the streets and to see that no more water is used than necessary and that such sprinkling is to be stopped if deemed advisable. A deputation from residents outside the city limits, near the south track, waited on the Council to know what was to be done regarding the water pipe in their vicinity. The mayor said that an inch pipe would be put in from Swan Carlson's house to the city limits. The question of scavenging was brought up and a settlement with W. Fleming arranged for.

The accounts were passed and the meeting terminated.

CIVIC EXPENDITURE

Considerable interest is being evinced over the striking of the tax rate and in what measure the city has fulfilled its first intention of cutting out all municipal work, except where urgent calls make such work necessary. Although the public express objection at the expenditure of their hard-earned money without any real tangible result, yet it is a very difficult matter to determine at the beginning of the financial year that no street or other work will be done, and that expenditure generally will be cut down. As the year advances, little side issues crop up which must be done and the Council are between two objective fires; their resolution not to give into every request for public work and their duty towards an ever-growing city. The public have every right to object against their money being used for anything that will not be a permanent work and to be taxed for something of which nothing will be left in a few years. We believe that the Council have some humane traits of character as to realize that our citizens have other calls on their pockets besides those which emanate from the city treasurer. The public are looking for a reduction in their taxes and trusting to the Council that by the keeping down of civic expenditure this year this will be an accomplished fact. We are glad to see that a start has been made with the water and that that burden on the city has been materially reduced. On the other hand a growing city necessitates a large expenditure, but the assessment of ratable property which is increasing year by year should counterbalance much expenditure and in a measure leave a free opening for the people to enjoy a little easy living, at the same time giving the rising and coming generation an opportunity to share in the beautifying of the city. Permanent public works should be the aim of the Council.

THE GARDEN OF SLEEP

It is gratifying to see that the city council, in their endeavors to benefit the citizens and the living, have not forgotten the respect due to the dead, in that they have been taking active steps to clean up the cemetery and make it as neat and tidy as a place of that description should be. A grave yard is a depressing spot at the best of times, but doubly so when the grass grows long and rank, the paths by long neglect become covered in weeds, the very tomb stones that mark the last resting place of those dear to us, allowed to fall over and decay. The least we can do is to make our cemetery neat and clean and show that we respect the dead. The motive in this respect should be more apparent among our people, the sentiment which lingers toward the departed may be made even a pleasure if we take pains to refresh the environment where they are sleeping their long sleep. Now that the city council have set the example, the people too should follow it up and make our cemetery a spot where our care and respect for the dead can be seen, a spot which should be typical of neatness and not a mournful decaying wilderness.

REVELSTOKE APPLES

Elsewhere in this issue will be seen an announcement of the National Apple Show at Spokane, Wash., on December 7th to 12th. The exhibition will practically eclipse every previous one by reason of the fact that the prizes offered are the highest on record. This is perhaps the greatest exhibition of its class on the continent, and fruit growing as an industry will be demonstrated to such extent as to include every section both in the United States and Canada. The apple will be seen in every variety and condition and the visitors to this show will be able to study the fruit of every part of the continent and draw their comparisons. B. C. as a whole should prepare an exhibit which will hold its own with any, and the better our exhibit the more likelihood of booming our apple industry and substantiating our claims to unequalled perfection. Here is an opportunity which should be readily seized by our local fruitgrowers. What is there to prevent an exhibit of Revelstoke apples from being sent to the show? We have definitely proved that our small fruits are as fine as can be grown elsewhere, and no better demonstration of our orchard possibilities can be made, or the truth told quicker than by an exhibit of local fruit at the National Show when comparisons will show where we fail or gain. This is a matter which should be brought home to our local orchardists and deserves attention.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Socialism

Editor MAIL-HERALD.

SIR: Your editorial of a few weeks ago re "They have not told Us," seems to be an invitation to the local Socialists to make an effort to do so in the columns of your paper.

That which the Socialists recognize is the development of society by natural material processes and their propaganda is carried on to inculcate the working class with a consciousness of their victimization by capital because of its natural concentration by the form of production—labor nature. The discovery and application of these forces have been the means by which labor is robbed of its product through a competitive system, which pits laborer against laborer, and while the workers scramble for the jobs offered by capital, the capitalists swipe the product. I want particularly to call your attention to the word natural as used here. Hundreds of volumes are extant, giving analyses of the origin and development of capitalist production; the revolutionary period that ushered it in by the overthrow of Feudalism which in turn took the place of production by ancient chattel slavery. Now a knowledge of these social processes is essential to an understanding of the inevitable outcome of the present social conditions.

They have already caused a somewhat disturbed state of affairs as we observe. But the Socialist, instead of punching the inoffensive atmosphere full of holes in protest against the great capitalists, as do the squeezed out middle class, go about calmly giving a scientific analysis of capitalist production of the impossibility of its existence under much greater concentration of its inability of meeting social needs of its enslavement of the human race and call upon the working class to take control of production to the end that the producers of wealth may appropriate th ir product. Impossible! My dear Sir! You don't know the law of necessity of an intelligent working class. You ask for details! We reply that if the workers are intelligent enough to vote themselves into political power with the principles of International Socialism for a platform, we can safely leave the details in their hands. Read the platform of the Socialist party of Canada. Yourself and readers may benefit greatly by reading the few dozen excellent scientific works on Socialism in the local Socialists library here. Apply to the writer. If you do this, we "will have told you."

Mr. Coursier's letter a few weeks ago was a surprise. Though a Socialist, he no doubt takes pleasure in stirring up the opposing camps of the morally dead and dying and the living and more life.

I am sure the Revelstoke people are greatly interested in these social problems. All the Socialists and, I think, many of our opponents will feel grateful for any space kindly given in their discussion.

Yours truly,
B. F. GAYMAN.

Religion by Inches

Much amusement has been caused in the dominions of the Grand Duke of Hesse by a State regulation limiting the number of lines the editors of a new school book are to give to religious matters. It is scoffed at as religious instruction by the inch. The history of the Creation has been reduced from 55 lines in the old book to 36. Adam and Eve in Eden from 74 lines to 53. Cain and Abel from 33 to 26, and the Deluge from 73 to 55. Moses and Aaron before Pharoah suffered severely, being reduced from 128 lines to 79, and the history of Israel in the desert has only a miserable six lines instead of the original sixteen. Pastors crying out against this curtailment are told that the Old Testament history is not good for modern children, and that even with these reductions the Hessian children get far more of the Old Testament than the rabbis in the Jewish schools devote to it.

Gas is liable to puff out of the front door of any furnace unprovided for gas escape.

"Sunshine" Furnace has Automatic Gas Damper directly connected with smoke-pipe. Gas pressure sways damper sufficiently for it to escape up chimney (see illustration), but heat doesn't escape.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" Furnace? Means protection to the furnace parts against evil effects of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" householder? Means furnace can be operated without fear as to "puffing" gas; furnace can be left without doubt as to whereabouts of gas.

What does "Sunshine" Gas Damper mean to "Sunshine" coal account? It means, instead of owner with "ordinary furnace" fear having to keep check-draft indefinitely closed to "let off" gas—when there's two-thirds parts of heat-energy to one part of gas passing up chimney—draft can with all safety be opened, and coal saved for another day's duty.

ROBINS IN THE SOUTH

Louisiana Adopts a Law to Save Them.

Providence Journal: The statement has been made and not contradicted, that in past winters as many as a million robins have been killed in Louisania alone, partly for food, partly in order to protect growing fruit. There was obviously need of a law for their protection; and through the unwearying efforts of the Audubon society such a law has at last been enacted by the Louisania legislature. Hereafter this warfare upon one of the most useful as well as most attractive songbirds must cease. Had it gone unchecked, its victims might in time have become as rare as the bobolinks now are. For in the case of migrating birds it is not enough that they should be protected in their breeding haunts; irreparable damage may be done during the periods of migration or when they are in winter quarters.

Few birds deserve better treatment of the human race than the thrushes, to which family our misnamed robin belongs. The accusation, that they eat small fruits is, of course, true. But the amount of destruction thus wrought is easily exaggerated, and what there is may be largely averted by a few simple precautions. On the other hand, the robin is probably more valuable to the farmer than almost any other single bird. It is a constant forager for insects which the farmer finds it most difficult to control and it destroys obnoxious caterpillars in great abundance. Moreover, there is reason to believe that the robin prefers wild fruits to cultivated; if these be reasonably abundant, it will let the gardens alone. Its diligence in hunting its insect food is a matter of common observation; note how it runs across the lawn or garden digging up and eating pestiferous cutworm. A careful scientific examination of its diet justifies the conclusion that it should be protected by law.

There are other southern states where legislation like that secured in Louisiana is needed. The north has not been guiltless in its treatment of the songbirds, but an enlightened public sentiment has accomplished much for their protection. The shooting of robins in this state, for example has been practically suppressed by the imposition of heavy fines upon offenders. The word should go forward vigorously so long as there are wretches who destroy the feathered friends of man.

National Apple Show.

The premium list of the coming National Apple Show, to be held in Spokane, Wash., U. S. A., December 7th to 12th, inclusive, will be issued shortly, and will contain a list of prizes such as have never been offered before by a show devoted exclusively to any one fruit.

In the aggregate, the amount of prizes in cash, orchard tracts, cups, agricultural implements, and other articles, will be $35,000 and individual premiums of $2,500 in value will be offered. Cash prizes ranging up to one of $1,500 will appear in the list.

The Chamber of Commerce of Spokane has given $15,000 in cash, land companies have donated valuable acreage, some carrying perpetual water rights, and individuals, commercial bodies and manufacturers have contributed cups of large value, farming and orchard implements, and many other articles adapted to the orchardist's use.

Up to date, applications for space for exhibits have been received from all apple growing sections of the United States and Canada and, in many instances, states have decided to make collective displays, holding in cold storage all their prize winning apples until time to ship to the National Apple Show.

Copies of the premium list can be had by addressing the secretary of the National Apple Show, 223 224 Hutton Building, Spokane, Wash.

All members of the committee are requested to attend.

An alarm of fire was turned in to No. 2 fire hall about midnight on Thursday by special constable Bennison, who for some little while previous had noticed smoke issuing from the Molsons Bank building. After making an investigation of the building and being unable to detect any flames, although the smoke was circling in clouds round the roof and being unable to reach the roof and see, he judged it advisable to ring in an alarm. Before the fire bell had stopped ringing the boys of No. 2 were on the spot and promptly arrived at the bank with the apparatus. A thorough investigation was made by the brigade but fire was not found and water was not turned on. Although the alarm proved to be without cause, yet on such occasions where a possible outbreak is suspected, it is better to be sure than run any risks of the destruction of a whole block, which would be the result if a fire started in that business section.

THE HONORED GUEST

Banquet and Presentation to H. Floyd.

A genial, good-natured and hearty gathering of Revelstoke citizens met last night at the Central hotel to take part in the banquet and send-off to H. Floyd, retiring city clerk. An excellent repast had been prepared, and the party, their appetites sharpened by the walk in the night air, did full justice to the viands laid before them.

Mayor Lindmark took the chair, and after the toast of the King, started upon a long toast list. The Dominion and the Province were ably responded to by A. McRae and Robt. Gordon. A series of interesting remarks from the aldermen and ex-aldermen on the City of Revelstoke, brought out some salient features of the progress of the city.

J. Abrahamson reviewed the water and light plant as a great asset to the city as well as a revenue producer.

The various city officials present spoke at more or less length on city development and all testifying their appreciation of the good work that Mr. Floyd had done and how valuable his services had been to Revelstoke and how the citizens generally regret his departure.

Mr. Field, as city assessor, said that there was an increase this year in valuation of $500,000.

Ald. Foote read a letter from F. B. Lewis expressing regret at not being able to attend the banquet, but on behalf of the Board of Trade he expressed regret at Mr. Floyd's departure and wished him all future success.

F. H. Guffey on being called upon to tell something about the Big Bend, said that there was a great future before it, in timber, lands and minerals. He urged that transportation be secured there and pointed out that the development would be enormous if that were done. He vehemently claimed that freight rates up the Bend were practically prohibitive and were retarding commerce, and there was urgent necessity for cheaper transportation, firstly round Death and Priest Rapids and then on the upper Columbia. The development of the Bend would materially benefit Revelstoke and make it a big rich city. The country was rich and Revelstoke was its natural headquarters and must of necessity develop as well.

C. R. Macdonald responded to the toast of the Agricultural Association. The Board of Trade, Press and other city toasts were all ably responded to, the sentiment of Mr. H. Floyd's departure and his unqualified value to the city during his term of city clerk being the main theme in each case.

H. Floyd said that he felt leaving Revelstoke deeply and had done all he could to make the city progress. He thanked the citizens generally for their kindness and testified to his courteous treatment by the various mayors and aldermen. He would always keep a warm place in his heart for Revelstoke and pointed out that he hoped that his successor would receive the same courtesy from the city generally as he had.

The Mayor reviewed in brief the chief features of the city's work touching on its progress and municipal improvements. On behalf of the citizens he presented Mr. Floyd with a purse of $100 as a mark of their esteem for his valuable services.

Mr. Floyd replied feelingly, expressing his appreciation of such a hand some gift.

A general good humored talk interspersed with a few excellent comic songs by Ald. R. H. Sawyer, and the gathering broke up, after a pleasant, sociable entertainment.
