LYTTON'S SUCCESSOR

LORD DUFFERIN MENTIONED FOR THE PARIS EMBASSY.

His Tact and Businesslike Qualities Fit Him—A Clear-Headed Statesman Required—Brighton Lifeboatmen Receive a Severe But Merited Scoring—Salisbury's Birmingham Speech Was Disappointing—Massacre of Belgians in China by Rioters.

LONDON, November 25.—The death of Lord Lytton has left to Lord Salisbury the most important appointment in the diplomatic service of Great Britain, and one that requires careful consideration. The name of Lord Dufferin is prominently mentioned in connection with the vacant post. He is now ambassador at Rome. It is probable he will be transferred to the embassy at Paris where his diplomatic tact and statesmanlike qualities are much needed. Lord Lytton's occupancy of the position was more ornamental than useful. The serious questions pending between Great Britain and France require an energetic and businesslike treatment for their settlement and all agree that they would have it from Lord Dufferin.

PARA QUITE SATISFIED.

Additional despatches from Brazil say that the province of Para, which up to date had remained silent, on the news of the resignation of Fonseca has pronounced itself satisfied with the steps to restore Brazil to its normal condition.

SNUBBED BY A FLUNKEY.

An odd incident occurred today at the Malborough house, where Prince George of Wales lies seriously ill. Three pugilists called to inquire after the prince's condition and entered along with the stream of high personages who had come on the same errand. They were just about to sign their names in the visitors' register when one of the flunkeys, more vigilant than his fellows, had his suspicions aroused and inquired if the callers were friends of the prince. The pugilists replied that they did not have the honor of a personal acquaintance, but had called to show their respect and admiration for him. They were permitted to go no further in their friendly design, being politely shown the door.

VERY UNFIT MEN.

The official report of the inquiry into the inefficiency of the lifeboat service near Brighton during the recent storms, bears heavily on the coxswain at the station at Shoreham. It says that in the midst of the storm he was apathetic, resourceless and neglectful. He declined to launch the lifeboat by way of the canal, which was practicable, and failed to make requisition for a carriage for the transfer of the boat to the scene of the wreck. The coxwain at Brighton is also censured for deserting his station, walking out to see the wreck and failing to summon the crew and launch his boat at once. It is painful to observe that among the hundreds of people witnessing the wreck, none were immediately summoned to man the lifeboat. The report winds up by recommending the enrollment of double crews and the practical portion of the coast guard.

BETTER TIMES IN BRAZIL.

A dispatch from Rio de Janeiro this evening states that President Peixotto has issued a manifesto which has been received with general satisfaction by the people. In this proclamation the new president of Brazil says that he has decided to abandon anything which may appear too arbitrary or dictatorial in the authority assumed by Marshal da Fonseca, and he declares that the regular order of affairs has been re-established. Further the manifesto announces that the dissolution of congress decreed by Fonseca is annulled and that the state of siege has been raised. In conclusion the manifesto summons congress to reassemble on December 16th. Upon reassembling congress is to resume its functions as previous to having been dissolved by the dictator. Senor Pereira, The minister of justice, will temporarily take charge of the ministry of public instruction and of the ministry of the interior.

DISSATISFIED WITH SALISBURY.

Lord Salisbury's speech at Birmingham today was rather a disappointing one to his followers, many of whom would have been glad to hear the premier show a leaning toward protection as a remedy for the evils which he admitted had been brought upon England by the hostile protectionism of rival nations. Discontent is expressed by his critics at his plaintive murmuring in regard to the defects of purely free trade policy as revealed by its results, and at his intimations that something was necessary to be done, while at the same time he apparently did not dare to propose that something. It is evident that Lord Salisbury does not care to be the first prime minister since Peel to propose a retrograde step in England's free trade policy. On other topics he was less timid. He showed a strong desire to solve the problem of improving the condition of farm laborers, but even here he was unable to outline a definite plan, and could only declare the determination of the party to do all that was possible. The party was open to proposals, the troubles of the rural population could not be attributed to any persons or party, but had resulted from the action of economical sources, originating out of England. The effect was a constant drain of laborers from the country to the towns. Referring to Sir William Vernon Harcourt's old taunt that the Parnellites should be left to stew in their own juice, Lord Salisbury sarcastically declared that in his opinion painters missed some of the best historical subjects. Nothing for instance could be more beautiful or touching than a painting of Gladstone leading his embarrassed, enthusiastic yet hesitating neophytes to their baptismal bath in Parnellite juice. The premier's humorous treatment of this topic was hugely enjoyed by his Tory hearers.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Doing Justice to the Connollys—Consolidation of the Anglican Church.

OTTAWA, Ont., November 25.—The Connollys have submitted a proposition to the government addressed to the Hon. Frank Smith, acting minister of railways and canals, dated November 16th. The document is under the consideration of the council. The Connolloy, members of the late firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., feel that their characters had been aspersed and they suffered great injustice as citizens and contractors by the report of the committee on privileges and elections on account of the aspersions made regarding the firm's contract from the Quebec harbor commission and under the public works department. During the enquiry they were assured that there was no charge against them. They were not on trial, hence they made no defence. An expert's statement was allowed that during eighteen years of contracting with the Quebec harbor commissioners they had always endeavored to do full justice in their work. They propose that the government appoint one engineer, the Connollys a second and these two a third to decide if any changes suggested by their firm were not for the public benefit, and if the work was not of the best quality. Should the arbitrators decide adversely, the Connollys will pay the costs if the government will drop the prosecution.

MEDICINE HAT, N. W. T., November 25.—The body of the boy Walton, who was lost in the great blizzard last week, was found frozen stiff yesterday.

STRONG LIBERALS THERE.

KINGSTON, Ont., November 25.—The Whig says it is probable Alexander Gunn will again be a Liberal candidate for Kingston, as the feeling is strong that way.

THEY CANNOT GO.

HALIFAX, N. S., November 25.—The proposed trip of a team of Canadian cricketers to Great Britain next season has been abandoned owing to the inability of a number of the cricket players to get away.

ANGLICAN CHURCH CONSOLIDATION.

HAMILTON, Ont., November 25.—After a lengthy discussion the special commission appointed by the Niagara synod to consider a scheme for the consolidation of the Anglican church in British North America, by the formation of a Dominion diocese, has decided by a vote of 9 to 6, to endorse the scheme.

GETTING BETTER AND BETTER.

TORONTO, November 25.—A cable from London says that the Canadian-American footballers scored another victory, defeating the London Caledonians, a leading organization of the metropolitan district, by 5 goals to 0.

GOING TO CANAAN.

Rev. Dr. Caven, principal of Knox college, will leave about the end of January on a trip to Egypt and the Holy Land, where he will spend the winter, returning to Toronto in May.

GOLDEN GATE GOSSIP.

Notorious Fighters Matched—Stage Robbers in Custody.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., November 25.—The California Club has matched George Dawson the champion lightweight of Australia, and Danny Needham for a fight to take place in March. The purse is to be $4,000.

In the United States district court today the bail of Cornelius Howard was reduced from $10,000 to $7,000. Howard is the father of William Howard who was shot and killed in his father's house in Shasta County, while trying to escape from the officers who wanted him on a charge of stage robbery. The father and Jack Rice have been held as accomplices in the robbery.

DAMAGED IN COLLISION.

The barquentine George C. Perkins, which left for Seattle this morning, is being towed in this evening evidently in distress. She is coming very slowly and the presumption is that she has been in a collision.

La Grippe Again Stirring.

HAMBURG, November 25.—Great dismay exists in this city over the advance of influenza which is fatal in many instances. The number of deaths in the past week was 210 above the average, and there is no present sign of any abatement of the epidemic. The symptoms are said to be, in many respects, similar to those of la grippe. As to the origin of the disease some claim that it was brought here from Russia, and others from America, although it is not known to have raged in America for some time past. The authorities incline to the Russian theory, and there is talk of establishing a quarantine against Russian immigrants coming to Hamburg. The dreaded feature of the disease is the large proportion of fatalities.

Rebels Advancing on Pekin.

SHANGHAI, November 25.—The special correspondent in China of the United Press is able on the best authority to state that the rebellion is spreading rapidly in the northern provinces, so much that there is considerable alarm felt at Pekin. The rebels are advancing in masses upon Pekin, and they are being joined en route by reinforcements from the people and from the army. Several squadrons of the regular cavalry have already joined the rebels in addition to bands of deserters from the troops classed as regular infantry. Finally the rebels have been joined by a number of mandarins, and each day their strength and audacity are increasing.

Cupid versus Cupidity.

DETROIT, November 25.—A fashionable church on Woodward avenue is already prepared for a wedding which will never take place. Tomorrow was the time fixed. Society declared it romantic that Clarence Gould, son of the richest wholesale grocer in the city, should espouse the girl who had only beauty, charming manners, a delightful voice, and a few acres of Canadian soil to recommend her. Mr. Gould, senior, had furnished a fine residence for the couple. The bride-elect had purchased a $1600 trousseau for the payment of which young Gould had given security. The young lady was Miss Edna Percy of Napanee, Ont. Her parents died a year ago leaving her one-third interest in a small farm, from which she realized no cash. Her friends supplied her with money and she left Detroit to study in Mehan's School of Music. In Napanee there lived a druggist's clerk, named Edward Fullerton, whom Miss Percy loved, and had promised to marry. It is not known whether this engagement was broken by her, but it was secret from her sister and brother in Napanee. A prettier blonde never came to Detroit, and saw and conquered the quiet and exclusive set to which the Goulds belong. She lived in fine style. Life in Detroit made her ambitious, and she accepted Clarence P. Gould's proposal of marriage, as she explained in Napanee "for his money." Her heart remained with the dispenser of drugs at $8 a week, in her native village. The cards were issued, and nearly all the preparations made for the wedding. The young woman took part of her trousseau a week ago and went to her sister, Mrs. Dr. Cowie of Napanee. She and half a dozen relatives were expected to arrive in Detroit last evening. Mr. Gould had engaged rooms for them at the Hotel Cadillac. The party not arriving, Mr. Gould telegraphed to Napanee. Dr Cowie replied "Edna gone away; don't know where." Young Gould took the blow very much to heart. He subsequently learned that Edna had run away to Toronto to marry Edward Fullerton.

LAW VERSUS LOTTERY

PROMINENT NEW ORLEANERS IN THE COURTS.

Must Stand Trial for Infraction of Anti-lottery Law — Interesting Statement of the Debt of Virginia—A Denver Doctor Held for Murder. Father McGlynn's Remarkable Statement at Cooper Union—He is Frequently Interrupted by Applause.

NEW ORLEANS, La., November 25.—United States Marshal Donnelly has served warrants on Messrs. Paul Conrad, M. Arnall, Augustus Herner, P. F. How, Joseph Herwig, W. Veleton, P. Labarre, L. Poche, J. Bruletour, H. Vorhies and J. Pachenin of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, on the indictments found by the United States grand jury of Sioux Falls, N. D., some time ago, for violating the anti-lottery mail law. Those served with warrants appeared in court this morning for arraignment, but at the suggestion of the United States district attorney the cases were deferred until tomorrow, all being released on their parole. The marshal also has warrants for John A. Morris, N. Hyams, Paul C. Ravende and C. Howard, who are not in the city.

Virginia's Debt.

NEW YORK, November 25.—The Virginia bondholders committee submitted their report yesterday to their advisory board, composed of Grover Cleveland, chairman; Thomas F. Baird, Edward J. Phelps, George G. Williams and George S. Coe. The board immediately took the matter under consideration and today rendered an opinion approving and recommending the plan of settlement of the Virginia debt as embodied in the report of the bondholders committee as follows: The State of Virginia in settlement and cancellation of twenty-eight millions of such indebtedness shall execute and deliver its bonds for the sum of nineteen millions of dollars, or in proportion for the amount of indebtedness which shall be surrendered. Said bonds shall be payable in 100 years after date, and draw interest from the first day of July, 1891, at the rate of two per cent for the first ten years; after that date at the rate of three per cent for the remaining 90 years and until maturity of the said bonds. The advisory board says it is decided in its judgment that if the terms of settlement now presented are rejected the prospect of an advantageous agreement in the future is far from encouraging.

BOLD FATHER M'GLYNN.

Cooper Union was packed this evening with thousands who had assembled to hear the reply of Dr. McGlynn to the offer which the propaganda at Rome, through Archbishop Corrigan, had made him. Dr. McGlynn affirmed his conscientious belief in his anti-poverty doctrines and declared his intention to adhere to them. If he is relieved from excommunication and suspension, he said, he will submit to the judgment of Rome, but he will not do so under any other circumstances. His remarks were frequently interrupted by applause and cheers.

Foster Getting Better.

WASHINGTON, November 25.—Secretary Foster is much improved this morning. He has left his bed and is sitting up in his room.

Chinese Rioters.

PARIS, November 25.—A despatch from Pekin confirms the statement recently made that armed bands of rioters have devastated a whole district in the northern portion of China and that they have burned and pillaged the Belgian mission stations. At Tayou and at Sanchi over a hundred converted natives were massacred and at Schol the Belgians in charge of the mission and a number of other Christians were killed.

STRIKING FRENCH COLLIERS.

A despatch from Lens in the Pas de Calais, says that there has been further rioting among the miners who are on a strike in that district. A body of strikers today tried to prevent a number of imported workingmen who were loading coal for the Paris gas works, from carrying on their work. A fierce fight followed. The police interfered and five strikers were arrested. Tonight the district is said to be quiet.

TO REFORM EMIGRATION.

The international conference on emigration opened in this city today. M. Jules Simon, president, was supported by Prince Cassano and by Major Frederick Brackett, special foreign agent of the United States, who is attending the conference under instructions from the treasury department at Washington. The conference will last four days. M. Jules Simon in his opening address declared that the object of the conference was not to oppose emigration, but to assist emigrants in seeking new homes, and to protect them against the abuse complained of through the public press and other channels, by emigrants who had been ill-treated on board ship or elsewhere, or who had been misled by alluring advertisements of unworthy agents. Major Brackett for the United States Government said that the United States desired to restrict the emigration of vagabonds and criminals, but that it would welcome good, honest, temperate emigrants. The conference, Major Brackett said, could depend upon the good will of the United States in all matters tending to improve the class of emigrants going to America, and also in all efforts to protect them from abuse, ill-treatment or deception of any description. Major Brackett's remarks were heartily applauded and evidently gained for him immediately the sympathy of all present. The meeting today may be said to have been a preliminary, or of an organizing nature. The technical business of the conference will commence tomorrow.

LO, THE POOR HINDOO.

Horrible Propitiatory Tortures Endured by a Native.

CALCUTTA, November 25.—Much indignation is expressed among Europeans throughout India at the failure of the government of Madras to interfere with the ceremony of hookswinging, the particulars of which were recently cabled. Investigation does not sustain the excuse of the authorities that it was a case of voluntary suffering, as the victim selected for the torture was chosen by lot, and after this case the practice would probably have been discontinued for 24 years, having been denounced, if not actually prohibited by a former administration. The unusual visitation of famine, cattle disease and other misfortunes led to its revival. It appears that the victim was not merely swung upon hooks; a knife was first thrust through the muscles of his back on one side and an iron hook pushed in. Then the same was done on the other side. The man was then swung by the hooks to the end of a pole 50 feet long, which was fastened to a car in such a way that the victim was elevated in the air about 40 feet. The car was then drawn through the streets amid the cries of the people. All this was done to propitiate the goddess of evil destinies, and a figure of the goddess was carried where she would have a full view of the proceedings. The victim stood the torture stoically and when released showed no sign of fatal injury. For some months he will be the recipient of liberal gifts at the hands of those for whose assumed benefit he endured the torture.

The Manchester Martyrs.

DUBLIN, November 25.—There were prayers in the churches of this city and generally throughout Ireland today for the souls of the "Manchester martyrs," Larkin and O'Brien. In many places celebration of the anniversary of the martyrdom were held on an elaborate scale. In this city a large procession marched to Glasnevin cemetery, where the graves of the martyrs are located. There were ten bands of music in line, playing the "Dead March in Saul," the "Manchester Martyr's Dirge," etc. The presence of a goodly number of anti-Parnellites in the procession was noted.

At the cemetery there were numerous speeches, in which Ireland's wrongs at the hands of England were rehearsed. Music and recitations filled out the programme. The meeting was held in the shadow of the famous Celtic memorial cross. Afterward the graves of the martyrs and of the many prominent leaders in Ireland's cause who repose in Glasnevin were decorated, the most recently raised mound, that of Nally, being the most liberally bedflowered. The procession then re-formed, and on its return march stopped at Parnell's tomb, which, with reverent silence, was heaped with floral tributes. The celebration was the most imposing witnessed on this anniversary for years.

PEACE REIGNS ONCE MORE.

The People, Army and Navy of Brazil Are Completely Republican.

RIO DE JANEIRO, November 25.—Members of congress and others arriving today announce their entire satisfaction with the restoration of the old government in the person of acting President Peixotto. Several of those who had been most violent in their opposition to Fonseca visited Peixotto today and assured him of their cordial co-operation. The date, December 16th, was set for the re-assembling of congress, after consultation with members of that body now in Rio de Janeiro and is as early as will give time for these members who have to return from their homes in the more distant parts of Brazil. There seems to be no special animosity against Fonseca, and even the most active of his opponents speak with approval of his course in having resigned so quietly. It is recognized that much of the antagonism which provoked Fonseca to an arbitrary course was inspired by a source favorable to the restoration of the monarchy, and that Fonseca had ground for believing that a monarchical conspiracy existed. If such was the case there are no signs of it now. The few prominent restorationists appear to be entirely silenced by the course of events, showing that there is no sentiment whatever among the people, the army, or navy in favor of the empire.

To Peixotto yesterday the leading officers of the army and navy at Rio de Janeiro stated their unalterable devotion to the republic, and their resolve that that constitution should be maintained. The new cabinet is composed of thorough Republicans, and not one of them would have accepted office with any other understanding than that the constitution should be restored and the republic maintained. The assurance from papa of satisfaction with the change of affairs is considered as ending all danger of division or secession, and no doubt is felt that Rio Grande do Sul will resume its normal condition as a Brazilian state, satisfactory assurances having already been received that as soon as congress reassembles the provisional junta will surrender its powers. There is already talk of punishing the members of the imperial house who have attempted to take advantage of the recent troubles to agitate for the restoration of the monarchy. The only way in which punishment could be inflicted would be for the state to seize again the property which had been restored to Dom Pedro and his family, and it is probable that this subject will be brought before congress when it reassembles.

In for Murder.

DENVER, Col., November 25. — Dr. Thather Graves pleaded not guilty of the murder of Mrs. Josephine Barnaby this morning and after the settlement of some preliminaries, an adjournment was taken until Friday morning, when the work of selecting a jury to try the accused will be begun.

Violence For Violence.

FRESNO, Cal., November 25.—Fulton G. Berry, the well-known capitalist of this city, was seriously cut today at Pulaski, twenty miles from here. An excursion and barbecue was given to celebrate the opening of the San Joaquin and Mountain Railroad. Arrangements were made to have the ladies at the first table. A surveyor named Irwin sat down, and refusing to leave on Berry's order, was pushed by the latter, and getting abusive was struck by Berry, whereupon Irwin picked up a knife and turned on Berry cutting him in the neck. Irwin was arrested and brought here.

Broke the Law.

NEW YORK, November 25.—Peter H. Wickof, general freight agent of the Central railway of New Jersey, was arrested today upon an indictment found by the United States grand jury of the eastern district of Missouri on October 31st. The charge is the violation of the interstate commerce law. The Central railway of New Jersey, the Wabash, the New York, Chicago and St. Louis, and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western had established joint tariffs of rates and charges upon the shipment of locomotive brakes over a continuous line operated by them from East St. Louis to Philadelphia, of 38½ cents per hundred pounds. The charge is that the American brake company was allowed a rebate a charge of 31½ cents per hundred pounds, being charged against it. Mr. Wickoff was released on $15,000 bail. An examination will be held before commissioner Shields on Friday.

The Ledger

GROWING SATISFACTORILY.

Whilst our population certainly increased last year by at least twenty per cent, our city's progress has during the same period been proportionally large in all other respects as the many statistics given at the end of the just published annual report of the Board of Trade amply prove. To this report which is excellently compiled and does full justice, but no more than justice, to our city, we are indebted for the bringing together, amongst many others, of the following facts, which though published before may well be recapitulated now.

The foreign shipping entering our port is in particular increasing very steadily, and though we are still in this regard in the day of comparatively small things, there is every promise for the early future. Thus in the last fiscal year 28 foreign ships with a tonnage of 11,989, entered New Westminster, as against the ten vessels of the previous year and four only in the year before. Our exports also grew in value from $36,594 in 1889 to $201,749 in 1890, and our imports meanwhile advanced from $155,549 in 1889 to $255,055 last year. It is satisfactory also to note, that no less than 61 vessels, some of them however of small size, are registered as belonging to New Westminster. These facts and figures surely speak encouragingly enough of the future of a port, which as the returns of the arrivals of foreign vessels show, had until three years ago no existence, except as the point of arrival and departure of a small number of river and coasting vessels.

A NEW DEPARTURE IN BRITISH CONSERVATISM.

The Marquis of SALISBURY has, as the head of the British Conservative party and the Government which it supports, just formulated an important policy on the small holdings question, which at least embodies a large development of the former English views of his party. The "new departure" may almost certainly be ascribed directly to the spreading revolt from Conservatism of many English rural constituencies, a change largely due to the same "land hunger," which has long but more forcefully agitated the Irish laborer.

The British Conservative party has now for some time encouraged the creation by the landlords of small allotment holdings rented to laborers on easy terms. The present suggested policy of the party, however, goes much further and forshadows an extension to rural England, Wales and Scotland of Mr. BALFOUR'S Irish land purchase policy The State being able, in the case of the United Kingdom, to borrow money freely at three per cent, it becomes possible by a use of this faculty to obtain a sufficient sum to buy small holdings for a multitude of laborers, and afterwards resell them to such laborers on a very easy hire purchase system of many small half yearly instalments. By the adoption of this policy, British farm laborers may be enabled, not merely as now to rent allotments, but actually obtain such holdings as property, by gradual purchase from the State. Such a policy would probably have great social effects by largely increasing the number of small freeholders, a class of men who are by virtue of their own proprietorship, keenly opposed to socialism and are speaking broadly, conservative in tendency. Hence the end which Lord SALISBURY has in view is one in full accord with the general policy of his party, the means only which he apparently intends to employ being, however, bold enough to alarm some of his old Conservative followers who will nevertheless support their leader rather reluctantly. It will be interesting to note the extent of Lord SALISBURY'S proposals when submitted next session to British parliamentary approval, still more interesting to note whether they succeed in their primary object of stemming the flowing tide of rural England towards the general policy of Mr. GLADSTONE and his Liberal and Home Rule allies.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

This years' estimated decrease of the population of Ireland as a result of emigration should have been given yesterday as 33,000 not 22,000.

The Vancouver city police committee has just made an unwonted confession of weakness in reply to a communication from the Temperance Society, as to the local enforcement of the Sunday closing bylaw. The answer is, "we are powerless to enforce it." The bylaw would therefore seem to be somewhat in advance of local public opinion in the Terminal City. The regulation should, however, either be enforced or repealed as nothing is more undesirable than the sufferance of a general contempt for existing laws.

The people of Victoria are, in view of the rapid advance of a rival city, making every effort to add to the attractive advantages of their city. Hence a bylaw has just been drafted by the city council for subsequent adoption and ratification, with a view to obtain a loan of $50,000, in order to make Victoria the home of the provincial university. This sum will, it is hoped, be supplemented by an equal voluntary contribution from leading citizens, when an academic beginning is intended to be made that shall attract to Victoria at least a hundred, or it may be two hundred students, together in some cases with the other members of their families. This and other signs of the times show that Victoria is alive and doing, and resolute not to lose her "pride of place" by lack of local energy and public spirit.

We learn that we were mistaken in attributing the errors of of the Fraser river chart to the Dominion Department of Public Works. The fault lies with the marine department, Ottawa. In other respects our strictures are accurate and deserved. It may be added, in justice to the officials who in this province drafted the rough chart, that the mistakes in the one finally issued from Ottawa are mainly due to miscopying and misprinting. These errors might have been avoided, had the chart before issue been submitted to those who prepared the original draft, for careful examination and revision. Ottawa officials, some 3,000 miles away, seem however to have been foolishly confident that they could do this work in the rooms of their department so accurately as to need no scrutiny by the river surveyors in British Columbia. The result of this over-confidence is a badly printed chart, which will needs be withdrawn from circulation for revision and re-issue.

It would seem by the Municipalities Act, 1889, that the Rev. Mr. HADDON will be unable to be elected an alderman, by reason of one of the numerous disqualifications under that statute, which by section 28, clause 1, excludes any person "being a minister of any religious denomination." Municipal disqualifications are in this province unusually numerous, not only by virtue of certain occupations held for some reason or other, to be incompatible with the mayoral or aldermanic office, but also by reason of the property qualification required. In the United Kingdom the city councils of even the greatest towns are constituted, as regards the qualification of members, on a much more liberal and democratic system than here, any voter being ordinarily eligible however small his assessment. Hence many working men are elected members of British town councils without possessing a yard of real estate. That they directly or indirectly pay local taxes as householders, is regarded as sufficient qualification, however small the individual levy may be. It is left to the electorate to discriminate between eligible and ineligible citizens.

Mr. BALFOUR, who has lately, as a distinguished Scotsman, received the further honor of a unanimous election to the chancellorship of the University of Edinburgh, seems determined ere leaving the Irish office, to do what he can to conciliate the men of the Emerald Isle by urging the adoption of a policy of industrial encouragement, rather than emigration. He holds that emigration should only, as a last resource, be tried as a remedy for Ireland's ills, every effort being first made by the British Government to develop the country's resources. Fruit growing might well, in particular, be tried in parts of the south of Ireland, where a climate of much rain and more sunshine is, in spring, summer and autumn, very like that of southern British Columbia, the usual winter season being, however, milder than ours, whilst a southern Irish summer is slightly less warm than that of this part of the Pacific province. The culture of small fruits and early vegetable produce, a form of agriculture little practised in southern Ireland, should there near the coast, be capable of large and profitable development, as a source of supply for the great cities of England.

Alleged Discourtesy.

Complaints are heard that some of the electric tramway conductors are not more courteous to passengers than they should be. In fact one gentleman informed a reporter yesterday that he never in his life felt so much like making an assault as he did that day in dealing with one of the conductors on a car between Vancouver and this city. In the eastern cities, singularly enough, the very reverse is the case. There contact with the public for years has made the conductor all that the most exacting passenger could desire.

Should be Settled.

The celebration committee should have a final meeting to wind up all affairs connected with the late annual festival. There is still a good deal of unfinished business waiting adjustment, which should be attended to without further delay. Matters are liable to become somewhat complicated if they are allowed to run on untouched much longer. It has been suggested by several members of the committee that the chairman, president or whoever has the power to do so, should call a meeting at as early a date as possible and have some definite understanding about the unfinished affairs of the celebration committee.

A Suggestion.

It looks a good deal as though two Scotch teams took part in the tug-of-war tournament in San Francisco. There was only one in the Canadian team who was not a son of the "land of brown heath and shaggy wood." Following are the names and measurements: J. J. McKinnon, captain; George Duppliesi, clerk, 40 years, 180 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches, Canada; J. A. McDonald, stonecutter, 27 years, 216 pounds, 5 feet 6 inches, Prince Edward Island; R. J. McDonald, plumber, 24 years, 190 pounds, 5 feet 5 inches, Prince Edward Island; D. R. Campbell, engineer, 27 years, 200 pounds, 6 feet 1 inch, Bruce county, Ont.; A. E. McNeill, carpenter, 43 years, 190 pounds, 6 feet, Cape Breton; J. A. McLeod, carpenter, 24 years, 175 pounds, 5 feet 6 inches, Prince Edward Island; J. A. McLennan, machinist, 22 years, 180 pounds, 6 feet, Cape Breton; A. D. McKinnon, clerk, 26 years, 180 pounds, 5 feet 11 inches, Prince Edward Island; William McDonald, blacksmith, 22 years, 200 pounds, 5 feet 5 inches, Nova Scotia; George Fraser, ship carpenter, 37 years, 200 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches, Nova Scotia. It is said this team would have won if it had been well handled.

It would be a splendid thing if Westminster made a grand international tug-of-war tournament the chief attraction of the annual celebration of 1892. A Vancouver paper has suggested that such a thing be done there, but poor Vancouver after that shameful affair with Hanlan could not get even the Siickeen and Squamish Siwashes to pull against one another in the Terminal City unless the cash was paid down to the last dollar before the event took place. Westminster on the contrary is known far and near as a spot cash sporting centre and athletes would just jump at an opportunity to come here and compete in a world's championship contest such as the aforementioned tug-of-war. The next celebration committee might do worse than put this in their pipes and ruminate upon it.

How to Combat Evil.

EDITOR MORNING LEDGER: Sir,—Will you allow me, whilst acknowledging the admirably temperate tone of Mr. Secretary Davie's utterances on this difficult problem, and agreeing with him in his general policy of stopping evil at the fountain head, to demur to his apparent suggestion of mitigated police restraint of the "social evil." It is I think at least arguable on the other side that a policy of continual police harassment of the "unfortunates" is really best for the women. It is a case of being cruel only to be kind, for the best kindness that can be done them is by rendering a vicious avocation dangerous and intolerable, to make them turn to honest work for a living. Then, too, if the frequenters of their abodes know that the police are ever likely to swoop down upon them and expose all found on the premises, is not a knowledge of this risk very likely indeed to deter generally respectable men from thus going astray? Granted that the women may migrate outside city limits, it is not likely that they can go far away, and if only public opinion is sufficiently strong they can still be followed and punished for wrongdoing. Thus, as I hold, the evil may be minimised, though in this imperfect world of ours, it can never be suppressed wholly. In European crowded centres of labor a great difficulty in driving unfortunates away from their wretched life is found in the fact that as they can otherwise (their characters being known) obtain but little work they may thus even be forced to suicide. No such difficulty exists here. Everyone of them could here on reforming in the quietude of an honest home and by the kindly help of the well disposed, earn a very fair living by either needle or laundry work. In view of these facts, is there not something to be said for a policy that shall first seek to reform the unfortunates by kindly effort, and this failing, drive them either across the international boundary or better still lead them to seek for honest work and thus help to save them "body and soul."

Yours, etc., CITIZEN.

WITHOUT MOTHER'S CONSENT.

Two Souls With but a Single Thought Flee to Wed.

Seymour J. Huff and Maggie Corbett, both of Mud Bay, were made one by the Rev. Thomas Scoullar yesterday morning. The fact of it all is not amazing, for two loving hearts are often bound in wedlock by a pious parson or a mercenary magistrate. But this marriage has a history peculiarly its own. The bride is a daughter of Farmer Corbett, well-known in Westminster as an honest, good-hearted man. Mr. Seymour J. Huff, the bridegroom, is the brother of the popular "Sim" Huff of the Occidental Hotel. The bridegroom's occupation is of the bucolic kind. For some time he has been paying his addresses to the woman who is now his wife. Maggie was gallantly wooed and won. Seymour popped the question and the answer brought him a wife. The young gallant then asked the parental sanction. Mr. Corbett replied "Yes, my boy you may have her." But Mama Corbett made the happy lover take quickly to his heels. The result was clandestine meetings which finally ended in the elopement and marriage. The couple drove from Mud Bay early this morning to the Occidental hotel, Westminster, where all was in readiness and hastily repaired to get the knot tied. They then returned to the hotel and held a reception. A banquet that lasted all day was set for the many friends of the bride and groom and all went considerably merrier than a marriage bell. Mr. and Mrs. Huff will remain at the Occidental for a few days, return home, obtain the parental benediction and leave romance for the stern realities of a farmer's home.

Cars Every Two Hours.

The Westminster-Vancouver Electric Tramway Company have augmented their service. Beginning on Monday, November 30th, cars will run between the cities every two hours. The first cars will leave Westminster and Vancouver simultaneously at 8 a. m., and regularly every two hours thereafter until 10 p. m. Reference to advertisement in another column will show all particulars.

It is now stated that Thomas Hallstone's story of the alleged murder of his son John in Limerick township, Ont., is unfounded, and that it was a case of suicide.

The Port Arthur fishermen have formed a union with Captain Maloney, owner of the steamer "Mocking Bird" as president, and Captain Gervais, of the Kakabeka, as vice-president. All the wooden buildings of the nut and bolt works at St. John, N. B., in which all the heavy machinery of the company is kept, and the main buildings were burned last week. The loss is heavy and the fire will throw many mechanics out of employment.

The Toronto Globe's Ottawa correspondent says the indications are that the whole proceedings against Thomas McGreevy and the Connolly brothers will be abandoned as uncle Thomas threatens to make exposures which will wreck the Tory party completely if the prosecution is pushed any further. He wants to know why he is to be punished for conspiracy to raise funds to keep Abbott and Thompson in office, especially when the prosecutors are the chief beneficiaries of the alleged conspiracy.

At a meeting of the Baptist ministerial association of Toronto, attention was called to the elopement from St. Thomas, Ont., of the Baptist minister, Rev. Walter Nelson, a married man, with a young lady school teacher. The secretary was instructed to write to the Canadian Baptist warning churches of the danger of accepting ministers from other countries without having unquestioned credentials as to their standing and character. Nelson was formerly pastor of the Baptist church at Centreville, Ills.

The report of the Ontario Bureau of Industries shows that the yield of grain in Ontario this year is extraordinarily large. Fall wheat averages from 25 to 30 bushels per acre in many sections and weighs from 60 to to 66 pounds per bushel; spring wheat and oats are also far above the average. Crops of wheat, spring and fall, are estimated at 32,584,926 bush is nearly half as much again as the crops of 1890. The oat crop exceeds the light one of last year by more than 22,000,000 bushels, while the average per acre is the highest in ten years. The root crops are enormous, but potatoes are much damaged by rot. The acreage of barley sown is 148,000 acres less than last year, yet the crop is 541,737 bushels larger owing to the great yield of 292 bushels per acre. The acreage sown in fall wheat this year is 15 per cent greater than that sown in the fall of 1890, but prospects of yield are hardly as good as they were last year.

St Jerome, Que., can boast of a woman who has lived for 35 days in the open woods, within a stone's throw of her own house, without any food. Her name is Mathilde Gropin, widow of one of the foremen in Rolland & Son's paper mills, who died in April. Ever since she seems to have been slightly demented, with a fixed idea that the husband would some day return. She disappeared last October 6th, and as far as can be made out from her own story and additional discoveries made, she passed from that time to last Wednesday in a little lane in the woods near by, subject to a series of fits, which prevented her from regaining all her senses sooner. She remembers parts of her experience and claims that though she suffered terribly from thirst, hunger did not trouble her. When found, gangrene had set in in her hands and feet, which were frozen, and she was merely skin and bone.

LOAN BYLAW 1891.

A Bylaw to raise by loan the sum of $25,000 for certain purposes hereinafter mentioned.

Whereas certain works undertaken by the Council of the City of New Westminster have exceeded the amounts appropriated therefore out of the general revenue for the current year, and it is expedient that the amount of such excess should be provided for by loan;

And whereas it will be necessary for that purpose to raise by loan the sum of $25,000;

And whereas, for the purpose of raising the said sum of $25,000 it will be necessary to issue debentures for that amount;

And whereas, for the payment of said debentures, sinking fund and interest, it will be necessary to raise the sum of $1,649 by special rate each year;

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said city, according to the last revised assessment roll, is $3,267,520;

And whereas the total amount of the existing debt of the said city is the sum of $783,500;

And whereas, for the purpose of raising the said yearly sum of $1,649 an equal special rate of four-thirteenths of one mill in the dollar will be required;

Therefore, the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster enacts as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the said city to raise by way of loan from any person or persons, body or bodies corporate, who may be willing to advance the same on the credit of the debentures hereinafter mentioned, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $25,000.

2. It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of debentures to be made for such sums of money as may be required, but not for less than $100 each, such debentures to be sealed with the seal of the Corporation, signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Treasurer of the city.

3. The said debentures shall bear date the 1st of January, 1892, and shall be made payable in fifty years at furthest from said date, and the same may be payable in any place or places authorized by law, as may be agreed upon between the purchaser or purchasers thereof and the said Mayor, and the said debentures shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest.

4. The said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half-yearly on the first days of January and July in each and every year.

5. For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures, and for the payment of interest thereon, an equal annual special rate of four-thirteenths of one mill in the dollar shall be levied and collected, in addition to all other rates, in each year upon all the rateable property in the said city during the currency of the said debentures or any of them.

6. All moneys arising from the said rate beyond the amount required for the payment of interest upon the said debentures may be invested from time to time as the trustees in that behalf may direct, for the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the redemption of the said debentures as they become due, without prejudice to any of the powers conferred upon the said Council by the act of incorporation.

7. The proceeds of the sale of the said debentures shall be applied as follows, and not otherwise: $500 towards meeting the expenses unprovided for on Prospect Park (generally known as Albert Crescent); $500 towards meeting expenses unprovided for on Queen's Park; $1,000 towards meeting expenses unprovided for on the streets.

8. This bylaw shall come into force and take effect on the 31st day of December, 1891.

9. This bylaw, before the final passing thereof, shall receive the assent of the electors of the said city in the manner provided in the "New Westminster Act 1886" and amending Acts.

10. This bylaw may be cited as the "Loan Bylaw 1891."

NOTICE.

McKenzie Street Loan Bylaw, 1891.

A Bylaw to raise by loan the sum of $11,000 for the purpose of purchasing part of lot 22, in block 13, for widening McKenzie Street, in the City of New Westminster.

Whereas it is expedient that McKenzie Street, in the City of New Westminster, should be widened to the extent of eleven feet, between Columbia Street and Clarkson Street;

And whereas it has been ascertained that the land required for the widening of said street can be procured for the sum of $10,250, and it will require the sum of $750 in addition to pay the cost of the award of the arbitrators in respect to said expropriation and the expense of making said street;

And whereas it is provided by the "McKenzie Street Expropriation Bylaw, 1891," that one-third of the cost of the expropriation of the said land shall be provided for by a special rate to be levied upon the lots or part of lots belonging to persons directly benefited by the said improvement.

And whereas for the purpose of raising the said sum of $11,000 it will be necessary to issue debentures for that amount;

And whereas for the payment of interest and creating a sinking fund for payment of the said debentures it will be necessary to raise the sum of $370 by special rate in each year;

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property in the said city, according to the last revised assessment roll is the sum of $3,267,520;

And whereas the total amount of the existing debt of the said city is $783,500;

And whereas for the purpose of raising the said yearly sum of $370 an equal special rate of three-twenthsths of one mill in the dollar will be required;

Therefore the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of New Westminster in Council assembled enact as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the said city to raise by loan from any person or persons, body or bodies corporate, who may be willing to advance the same upon the credit of the debentures hereinafter mentioned, a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $11,000.

2. It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of debentures to be made for such sums of money as may be required, but not for less than $100 each, such debentures to be sealed with the seal of the Corporation, signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Treasurer of the said city.

3. The said debentures shall bear date the 1st day of January, 1892, and shall be made payable in fifty years at furthest from the said date, and the same may be payable in any place or places authorized by law, as may be agreed upon between the purchaser or purchasers thereof and the said Mayor, and the said debentures shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest.

4. The said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of five per centum per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half-yearly on the first days of January and July in each and every year.

5. For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures, and for the payment of the interest thereon, an equal annual special rate of three-twentieths of one mill in the dollar shall be levied and collected, in addition to all other rates, in each year upon all the rateable property in the said city during the currency of the said debentures or any of them.

6. All moneys arising from the said rate beyond the amount required for the payment of interest upon the said debentures may be invested from time to time as the trustees in that behalf may direct, for the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the redemption of the said debentures as they respectively become due, without prejudice to any of the powers conferred upon the said Council by the act of incorporation.

9. This bylaw shall come into force on the 31st day of December, 1891.

10. This bylaw, before the final passing thereof, shall receive the assent of the electors of the city in the manner provided in the "New Westminster Act, 1886," and Amending Act.

11. This bylaw may be cited as the "McKenzie Street Loan Bylaw, 1891."

The genial scarecrow who operates the Westminster bric-a-brac in that journalistic nightmare, the Vancouver morning paper, sneers at the local papers of Westminster because they sometimes have items in regarding the Southern railway. ASPIRANTS FOR THE COUNCIL.

What Several Well-Known Gentlemen Confess to This Impeachment.

Ald. Thomas Ovens will again be a candidate for aldermatic honors. He says: "I think I can stand another term, and I flatter myself with the belief that the ratepayers can bear with me for that period. If I am again returned I shall go in for a policy of retrenchment. Our taxes are already high enough. We want to economize."

Would you favor an appropriation for sewerage?

"Yes. That is something that is absolutely necessary for the city to provide. For very soon we shall have water connections. Sewerage is a counterpart, as it were, of the waterworks system. Pure water and good drainage go hand in hand for the welfare of any community. They are two important factors in the public well-being."

And the crematory?

I agree with opinions that have been expressed through the columns of THE LEDGER that the cremation of garbage is very desirable. And if we had money sufficient, I would say by all means let us have a crematory. But our finances are limited. We have to creep before we can walk. And the crematory properly belongs to the walking stage of our existence as a city. 'All things comes to him who waits," said the jocular alderman with a comical expression of countenance. And he gave the time of day and sought pastures new.

Ald. Kennedy had not quite made up his mind when first asked if he would seek re-election. But during the course of the interview he reflected and as good as decided in the affirmative.

Will you run again, Ald. Kennedy?

Ald. Kennedy stroked his beard, looked up and in true Hiocrnian style, answered the question by asking another.

Let's see, who are you for?

For THE LEDGER, sir.

Oh, yes. Well I have not quite made up my mind.

But I am sure the public would like to know who are in the "chase," Mr. Kennedy.

I suppose they would. I have been asked to run again. I cannot give you a definite answer.

So you will run?

I didn't say so.

I can then book you as a retiring candidate?

Oh! no. In all probability I will again seek re-election. Won't that suit you?

Very Favorably Impressed.

Mr. A. S. White, who represents Kings county in the New Brunswick legislature, and is speaker of the House, was in this city for a few hours yesterday. He is on a pleasure trip through to southern California, and expects to return to the east through the United States, though it is possible he may come back this way, in which case he will remain a week or two in the province. Mr. White is enthusiastic in his admiration of what he has seen in British Columbia, and will carry home with him a strong impression of the future greatness of the Pacific province.

The Home Variety.

The Washington oyster is not noted for its size and beauty and will not compare with some of the eastern oysters in flavor, but the oyster fisheries of this state are nevertheless an industry of growing importance, and with the cultivation to which it is susceptible the virgin beds, now worked with considerable profit will yield a revenue of no mean import. The Olympia oyster is now well known and 300 sacks a week are being shipped from Oyster bay, Hood's canal and North bay, Shoalwater bay and Willapa harbor are yielding large quantities, and also portions of Gray's harbor. Oysters show the most notable advance since the last census year of all Washington's fisheries, the product having increased from 15,000 to 60,993 bushels.—Port Townsend Leader.

Visiting Good Templars.

Last night detachments from Harmony, Vancouver and Mount Pleasant Lodges, I. O. G. T., Vancouver, to the number of 52 came over by tram to visit Dominion Lodge, Westminster, by whom they were most hospitably received and entertained in the Good Templars Hall, Columbia street. The visitors arrived at 9 o'clock and an immediate adjournment to the hall took place. A fine programme was there carried through with much success. Interesting speeches were delivered by Messrs. C. W. McCain, grand messenger; R. W. Allison, grand secretary; Mr. Mitchell, chief templar of Harmony Lodge; W. E. Johnstone, past grand marshal, Westminster; G. M. Callaghan, grand marshal, Westminster; and J. Hendry, Vancouver. The singers of the evening were Messrs. Stenchcomb, J. McMurphy, McCain, and a duet by the Foxley brothers. Miss Taylor and Mr. J. McL. Smith rendered enjoyable recitations. At 10:30 the meeting adjourned to the Occidental Restaurant where a tempting repast was served and done justice to by all. After a social time around the table the visitors boarded their car and departed for home at 11:15 well pleased with their excursion.

Should Have Been Labelled.

Although fast dropping into toothless old age and general senile decrepitude the evening agglomeration of dead ads. and stolen paragraphs can occasionally pump up a rusty joke from the well of its cob-webbed imagination. Last night it did one again, selecting as its victim Number 1 Battery B. C. B. G. A. The superannuated remnant of antediluvian journalism makes the bald and baseless statement that: "The non-commissioned officers of the B. C. B. G. A. have accepted an invitation from the non-commissioned officers of the First National Guard of Washington for their first annual ball at Seattle. Permission to go has been accorded by Colonel Holmes, D. A. G.

The people who were most surprised at this piece of information were the non-commissioned officers, commissioned officers, gunners, bombardiers, band, buglers and drummer boys of Number 1 Battery B. C. B. G. A. They never heard of the invitation and they cannot imagine how Colonel Holmes, D. A. G., can have "accorded" permission, what ever that may mean.

IN SPECIAL SESSION.

City Council Meeting—McGillivray's Land. —Library Regulations.

At a special meeting of the city council held yesterday afternoon, the conveyance of the acreage granted to D. McGillivray on Lulu Island, in consideration of the erection of a bridge joining that island to the mainland, the dyking of the land and the construction of a wagon road was formally ratified.

Upon resolution of Ald. Keary, the city clerk was instructed to write informing the library commissioners that that building was not to be used for outpurposes except with the approval of the council. The occurrence that induced this resolution is that the commissioners have granted permission to a labor organization to hold a meeting in the building on Saturday evening. The council were unanimously of the opinion that were the use of the library rooms granted any one body it would establish a bad precedent. Several unimportant communications were also read and referred to their proper sources and the council adjourned to convene again next Monday evening.

Revival Services.

Special revival services are being held at the Central Methodist church, Sixth street. Mrs. Barrett of Port Townsend, is conducting the meetings. That lady spoke last night to a large congregation. Her subject was "The King's business requireth haste." Mrs. Robson touchingly sang the hymn, "Why Not Tonight?" The services will continue nightly for the remainder of the week.

Amateur Dramatic Society.

At a meeting of the Westminster Amateur Dramatic Association held in Mr. E. M. N. Woods' office last night, the production of "Our Boys" was selected as the one to be rendered by the society during the winter months. There is a considerable amount of dramatic talent in this society, as they have already pretty well proved, and much is expected of its members this season. "Our Boys" is full of fine opportunities for good work.

Not in the Run.

Since the return of Mr. I. B. Fisher from his "globe trot," his name has been mentioned as that of a probable candidate for the mayor's chair next year. Mr. Fisher would no doubt make a very popular candidate, but he has no thought whatever of competing for the honor. It is, indeed, he says about the last thing he would think of, his inclinations not being at all swayed in the direction of the hurly-burly of public life. His large private interests, moreover, monopolize the bulk of his time.

Danger in Delay.

Few people would, if they were aware of what they were doing, deliberately set about abusing their sight, either by over-working or by wearing glasses which irritate or weary the eyes. Such a course can have but one result and that is to shorten the life of the eyesight. The organs of vision are the most delicately formed of any of the varied parts which go to make up the human mechanism, and, like all things delicate, require the best of treatment and the most constant care in order to preserve, as long as possible, the priceless blessing—good eyesight. People who have defective eyes should have the immediate attention of a skilful optician or oculist. The time when one feels the need of glasses is one of the most important periods of life for if proper glasses are not then selected and accurately adapted to the eyes, the damage done by the improper glasses is immediate and usually permanent. It is fortunate for the good people of Westminster that they have now in their midst a man thoroughly qualified in every way to test their eyes and fit them with proper glasses. We refer to Prof. Seward the eminent New York optician now at the Queen's Hotel. Prof. Seward makes a specialty of fitting the most defective eyesight, artificial eyes, cataract lenses, etc. His terms are reasonable considering the work and he makes no charge for consultation and examination, so that the Westminster people should find out for themselves exactly the condition of their vision and what to do by calling upon Prof. Seward at the Queen's Hotel without further delay. In a day or two Prof. Seward will announce the exact date of his intended departure from British Columbia. *

A Pointer to the Public.

District Lot No. 28 lies immediately adjoining the city limits. The continuation of Mary Street goes directly through it, and the Electric Tramway will in a couple of months be running its cars every hour of the day through the centre of this property. The lot (No. 28) is composed of 128 acres of land as level as a table. Contracts have been let to clear and grub the ground and leave it in perfect condition for building purposes. Already six citizens have decided to erect handsome residences there, ragging in price from $4,000 to $7,000 each. The whole of this splendid piece of property (except some limited portions already disposed of) will be put on the market in a few weeks. One great advantage in buying a lot and erecting a residence on this property is that the owner will avoid heavy municipal taxation. Make a note of it, and wait till the property is put on the market before buying *

A letter from Hon. C. F. Fraser, member of the Ontario government, who is now in the Southern States for the benefit of his health, states that he already feels much improved. He will not return home until spring.

MAN AND BOY SHOULD KNOW IT.
