EMERSON AND MORINE

Newfoundland's Delegates Advance a New Theory on the Situation.

PORTUGESE CABINET CHANGES

MR. PORTER REMAINS IN ROME

Messrs. Morley's and Parnell's Irish Land Purchase Bills Rejected.

LONDON, April 17.—Messrs. Emerson and Morine of the Newfoundland delegation, now in London, have given utterance to a novel theory as the cause of the recent postponement of the negotiations at Washington, looking toward reciprocity between the United States and Canada. They assert, that while Mr. Blaine may have been technically correct in ascribing the postponement to President Harrison's desire to be present during the negotiations, there was another consideration which had weight in the matter, and which explains why Sir Charles Tupper and his distinguished colleagues took the matter so coolly, and with such apparent satisfaction which seemed even to the Americans themselves a discourteously sudden deferment of the proposed conference. This hitherto unmentioned element in the situation was, according to Messrs. Emerson and Morine, the fact that the Canadian Government desired a postponement more earnestly than the Government of the United States. As a matter of fact, according to this version of the affair, Mr. Blaine had received a hint of this desire on the part of the Canadian authorities, else he should not have ventured to announce so suddenly the President's wish for a postponement, after the conferers had actually arrived in Washington. The explanation of the whole matter is that just as the negotiations at Washington were about to begin, the Canadian government became convinced that some prompt action was necessary, in order to place the relations between Canada and Newfoundland on a more satisfactory footing. Newfoundland was sending her delegates to London to press the demands of that colony in regard to the French fishery question, upon the imperial government; at the same time that Canadian fishing vessels were being refused the privilege of procuring bait in Newfoundland, though that privilege was being freely accorded to American and even French fishermen. Canada determined to checkmate Newfoundland, and in order to do so, it was necessary to have the Canadian commissioner, Sir Charles Tupper, at his post in London, instead of at Washington. The settlement of the difficulty with Newfoundland was deemed more important, for the time being, than the beginning of the negotiations for American reciprocity. Hence the hint to Mr. Blaine and the sudden announcement of President Harrison's absorbing interest in the reciprocity conference. Sir Charles hurried with all speed to New York, and took the first steamer to England, prepared to anticipate the Newfoundland delegates in their presentation of the grievances before the House of Commons. The commissioner is instructed to urge upon Lord Salisbury the policy of insisting that, before Newfoundland proceeds any further in her demand for imperial interference in her behalf, she shall withdraw her prohibition of bailing facilities and shall grant to the Canadian subjects of her majesty the same privileges which she confers upon Americans, who fish upon the banks. Messrs. Emerson and Morine declare, however, that the Newfoundlanders have too strong a cause to be thwarted by the injection of any such side-issue, as the one proposed to be introduced by Sir John McDonald's government. They believe that the Imperial Government is at last fully awakened to the danger of continued neglect of Newfoundland's just claims, and will not allow a minor difference between the two colonies to influence its action upon the petition presented by the representatives of the aggrieved people of Newfoundland. Be this as it may, however, the delegates declare that even should the imperial authorities see fit to favor such a declaration as Sir Charles Tupper is expected to suggest, the delegates will absolutely refuse to pledge themselves to any modification of the course adopted by the St. Johns government toward the Canadian fishermen, and will insist upon a direct response to the petition presented by them without any outside question being allowed to enter into the consideration. They are willing at the same time to express an unofficial opinion that if the home government gives heed to Newfoundland's representations and shows an intention to adjust the grievance complained of, Newfoundland will be disposed to look favorably upon any proposal from London looking toward a revision of the bait regulations on a basis more agreeable to Canada. While they have no doubt that this course will be pursued, they are not authorized to make any pledge on the subject, and in any event the discussion of the question existing between England and Newfoundland must proceed on its own merits uninfluenced by the selfish effort of Canada to impede it with a local issue.

TO CANADIAN FISHERMEN

NEWFOUNDLAND'S CASE.

In the House of Lords today, after an explanation by Lord Knutsford, Secretary of State for the Colonial department, it was agreed to postpone further consideration of the Newfoundland bill until Friday next, so as to enable the counsel for the colonial delegates to appear at the bar of the House in defence of the position assumed by Newfoundland toward that measure.

HIGH PRICED LITERATURE.

The Telegraph has offered Lord Randolph Churchill £100 per column to furnish that paper with letters describing his travels and observations in Africa. Before this offer was received Lord Randolph had accepted the proposal of the Graphic of £2,000 guineas for twenty letters, each to contain 4,000 words.

THE BRITISH WORKMEN'S BOON.

The workmen of the different trades in the Manchester district have demanded that the week's work shall close at noon on Saturday, making the number of hours worked per week 53 instead of 54. The employers have refused the concession and the hands have determined to strike on the 25th inst. Unless the masters reconsider the refusal 20,000 workers will be affected if the strike occurs. The 53 hour week was granted to all workmen in the shipping ports in 1890 and the interior cities are claiming equal treatment in this respect.

WILL THEY HAVE HIM?

Sir Charles Dilke has announced that he will next week forward his acceptance of the nomination of the liberal association of the Forest of Dean as a candidate for parliament. He boasts that nineteen of the local Nonconformist ministers support his candidacy while only three oppose it.

BOTH REJECTED.

In the House of Commons today Mr. Morley's amendment requiring the consent of county councils to advances for Irish land purchases, was rejected. Mr. Parnell's amendment providing that such consent should be required as soon as county councils should be established in Ireland was also rejected.

Cabinet Changes.

LISBON, April 17.—The Portuguese cabinet crisis is ended. The members of the ministry, with the exception of Senor Ferreira, minister of public works, have consented to retain their respective portfolios. Senor Ferreira, the retiring minister of public works, who was also minister of commerce and industry, will be temporarily succeeded by General Desones, president of the council and minister of war.

Servia's Pugnacious Queen.

VIENNA, April 17.—Queen Natalie of Servia has had her rebellious spirit stirred by a report that the efforts to proscribe her from Servia were about to be renewed. She has issued a declaration calculated to strike terror to the souls of her enemies, that on the day when the decree excluding her from Servia is promulgated her memoirs will be published in Paris. The partisans of the ex-King Milan are not likely to underrate the significance of this declaration. The revelations which Natalie has it in her power to make would complete the ruin of that least admirable of kings in exile.

He Is Not Going.

ROME, April 17.—The report that Mr. Porter, United States minister to Italy, is about to depart from this city on a three months' leave of absence, is denied.

ITALIAN ARMY SERVICE.

The Italian chamber of deputies has approved a bill extending the age of military liability three years. Henceforth every citizen is liable to military service up to his forty-second year. This is only one out of a number of steps which are being taken to strengthen the military resources of that country. The measures are not very popular, and together with the increasing burdens of taxation, are adding to the general feeling of discontent among the poorer classes.

A Regular Scene.

PARIS, April 17.—The Figaro in an evidently inspired account of the scenes at the opening of Prince Napoleon's will, states that during the reading of that document, when a clause was reached in which Prince Louis was ordered to read the correspondence between the Prince and the Princess Clothilde in order to be able to judge the merits of the separation of his parents, Prince Louis sprang to his feet with an indignant and tearful protest, crying, "Never, never, my mother, you who always showed such adorable abnegation; I will never consent to sit in judgment upon you. It is my duty to return to your hands all correspondence without reading a single word." The princess fell weeping in her son's arms and all present embraced one another in a spirit of family re-union.

City Police Court.

The only case yesterday morning was that of Lee Coy, charged with committing an assault on one Me Waw. Mr. Leamy appeared for the defense. The case was only a repetition of the other Chinese case, and very little evidence of any value could be obtained with the exception of that given by Constable Anderson. The charge was finally dismissed and the complainant ordered to pay all costs.

Supreme Court.

The following cases were tried in this court yesterday morning: Elson v. Noon. F. G. Walker for plaintiff and T. C. Atkinson for defendant. The case was adjourned and leave given to defendant to amend his pleadings on terms of payment of costs.

Williams v. Lee Coy. A. C. Brydone Jack for the plaintiff and A. Morrison for the defendant. Adjourned on payment of costs of the day by defendant.

Navy Versus City.

A very interesting cricket match will be played this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Queen's Park. The contending teams are from H. M. S. Nymphe and a picked team from the Westminster Cricket Club. The sides are as follows: H. M. S. Nymphe—Dr. Kellett and Messrs. Tyrer, Scott, Heylin, Hurley, Davenport, Martin, Weaver, Wright, Engman and Smale. Westminster—Messrs. Ransom, Parkes, Bell, Clinton, Brine, Woods, Mallins, Macfarlane, Kenny, Armstrong and Wyld. Wickets will be pitched at 2 o'clock.

More Vampires Wanted.

EDITOR MORNING LEDGER: Sir,—Having been present at the public meeting on Thursday evening last, re the Enabling Bill (or as Mr. Lord called it—Disabling Bill), I think Mr. McKenzie of the Dominion land office rather allowed his tongue to run away with his good sense, when he made the statement that such men as Mr. Douglas, Mr. Ewen, Mr. Cunningham, Judge Bole, Mr. A. M. Herring and other prominent men were vampires, and all came to this country poor men, and made their money by monopolies. Now I would like to ask any fair minded man what monopolies any of the above named gentlemen ever had. Yes, I had forgot there is one monopoly they have all had, and that monopoly is the base of all their success, and that was the monopoly of INDUSTRY AND HARD WORK, and I say all the more honor and glory to them if they did come to this country poor men and have raised themselves to their present positions. Looking over the above names and just making a rough estimate, I find that these vampires will have expended before the close of this year over one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in permanent improvements in this city, not counting the street railway. Now Mr. Editor, it seems to me that we want a whole shipload of such vampires. They are the kind of men that convert villages into cities, and the monopoly they have employed is open to Mr. McKenzie or any one else who has the industry and perseverence to hold on to it. Now, what are some of these men contending for? Simply to protect their rights. They don't object to the city running forty electric light systems if they wish, to supply all the needs of the city; but they do object to the city taking the taxpayers' money and entering into direct competition with citizens, thereby killing private enterprises. It is a well known fact that corporations cannot run a business as cheaply as a private company. The present electric lighting of the city is costing about $12,000 a year, whereas a private company can furnish the city with the same amount of light now in use for $6,000 per annum. VAMPIRE DE MCKENZIE.

New Westminster, 17th April, 1891.

THE ENABLING BILL

It Passes the House in a Seriously Amended Form.

NO MORE PAYMENTS CAN BE MADE

On Account of the Ferry and Private Electric Lights.

THE QUESTION OF DAMAGES

To Vested Interests is to Be Submitted to Arbitration.

(Special to THE MORNING LEDGER.)

VICTORIA, B. C., April 17.—The House entered on practically the last day of its existence today and all but closed up its work tonight. The Liquor Bill was passed through committee and the Columbia and Kootenay Railway Subsidy Bill was read a second time after much discussion, Mr. Kellie most emphatically protesting against the passage of the bill. Mr. Cotton thought the government was quite right in reducing the size of the blocks to enable the company to take up the amount of land agreed to. The bill was committed and read a third time and passed. The bill for the protection of cattle was also passed. Mr. Keith's coal mine regulation bill was defeated on the second reading by a majority of one. After passing a few bills through the final stage this evening the house went into committee on

THE ENABLING BILL.

Mr. Croft in the chair. Clause one, Mr. Milne proposed to amend by striking out all after the word "recited," on the fourth line.

Mr. Brown pointed out that such action would prevent the city keeping its civic works in repair or carry them on.

Mr. Milne said the opposition was made to the bill on principles of public policy. It was hard to find a father for the bill, which the Attorney General had dropped.

After some discussion on technicalities Mr. Brown said public opinion was in favor of the bill. It trenched on no private rights. The amendment of Mr. Milne would simply kill the bill.

Mr. Croft as a member of the Private Bills Committee thought the bill should be brought in as a private bill.

Mr. Brown contended if the bill was passed as proposed to be amended, it would destroy the credit of the city in the financial world.

Mr. Keith said it was no use trying to beat around the bush. Westminster wanted the right to conduct its own affairs, and a public meeting had proved that the people wanted the bill to pass.

Mr. Beaven thought this fact no reason why the House should vote for the bill. The House should exercise its own judgment as to what was right. A good deal could be said in favor of the clause, which not only whitewashed the past but laid the way for similarly treating the future. It was one thing to legalize a past wrong, but quite another thing to legalize a possible wrong in future. What was the use of a law unless it was maintained. The latter part of the clause should be struck out.

Mr. Davie agreed with Mr. Beaven.

Mr. Cotton was opposed to the way in which the corporation had conducted their work, but the bill proposed to legalize what that corporation had done, and the question was did the House propose to carry out the wishes of a majority of the people? The amendment would legalize what had already been done, but would not let the city finish it. The whole thing had better be either legalized or wiped out.

Mr. Booth held that as the bill had been recommended back to the house it was their duty to put in the amendments.

Mr. Beaven said the clause proposed to give the city of New Westminster power to override the laws of the province for all time; he was willing to help the municipality out of the difficulty, but not so far as to defy the law.

Mr. Turner took the same course as Messrs. Beaven and Davie.

Mr. Davie moved to amend clause 2 so as to empower the city to pay all moneys due on the passing of this act in respect to everything exclusive of the steam ferry and the private electric lights.

Mr. Brown did not think this right. The city had built a steam ferry to meet the demands of the city, and he did not see why the expenses should be illegal on that account. The city had not done any private electric lighting at all. The only effect of the amendment would be to prevent the city paying $200 for electric plant, as the final payment on the ferry had been paid a few days ago.

Mr. Beaven asked if the money had been paid since the bill was before the House. If so, it was extremely wrong,—worse than contempt of court.

Mr. Davie's amendment passed unanimously.

Clause 3 came up, and Mr. Davie pointed out that the amendment to clause 2 made clause 3 useless. It was therefore struck out.

Mr. Martin proposed a clause to the effect that the corporation shall make compensation to all persons whose property or interests have been injuriously affected by reason of the carrying out of the said works, and such compensation shall be arrived at by arbitration.

This was carried.

Mr. Brown introduced a clause empowering the city to make bylaws for the conduct of the library and for renting and leasing stores in said building. Carried.

Another clause empowering the city at any time, on consent of the ratepayers, to dispose of the steam ferry and electric plant, was introduced by Mr. Brown and carried. The preamble had to be altered to suit, and when the title of the bill came to be decided, there was much fun as to whether it should be called the "disabling" or "Brown's" bill.

The bill was finally passed.

The House rose shortly after 12, with the British Columbia dyking bill as the only item on the list. The House will sit tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

CANADIAN NEWS.

SHOWS BETTER FEELING.

QUEBEC, April 17.—Among Mercier's political friends here the opinion seems to be universal that Mr. Greenway has strengthened his government very materially by his recent arrangement with the C. P. R. to build a line to the Souris coal fields. Aside from the practical advantages that will result to the province from the construction of the line the arrangement would seem to indicate a better feeling between the government and the company than was supposed to have existed for some years past.

ACQUITTED OF THE MURDER.

GODERICH, April 17.—Donald C. McKinnon, fisherman, was acquitted of the charge of murdering his wife. The evidence almost conclusively showing it to be a case of suicide. McKinnon himself tried to commit suicide at the time of the alleged crime and on this charge he was committed to jail for four months.

WILL SWING FOR IT.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., April 17.—James K. Keane was yesterday tried for the murder of his wife, Elizabeth, whom he stabbed to the heart on March 23rd. The jury, after an absence of an hour, returned a verdict of guilty and the prisoner was sentenced to be hanged on May 2nd. Keane was the woman's second husband and they had lived unhappily together.

AN AWFUL DEATH.

STRATFORD, Ont., April 17.—Joseph Weldon, a sawyer in Seibert's sawmill at Logan, fell against a circular saw yesterday. His leg was cut off and the upper part of his body mangled horribly, the heart being completely cut in two.

A GRAND SCHEME.

MONTREAL, April 17.—It is learned that the Canadian Pacific Railway is about to put forth extraordinary efforts to fill up the great Northwest with the best possible class of settlers. With this end in view instructions have been given to have a car built in Great Britain which will be filled with specimens of Canadian Northwest products, given in charge of men who have the resources of the western prairies at their finger ends and sent all over England and Scotland, thus laying before the agricultural population of Great Britain the most practicable evidence of what can be done in western Canada.

A DISTINGUISHED PARTY.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 17.—A dispatch from Fort William says that President Van Horne and party arrived here last evening by special train, remaining here all night and leaving at 8 o'clock this morning. During the evening the new hotel and the company's works were inspected. The party consists of the following: W. C. Van Horne; R. B. Angus, Montreal; Hon. D. MacInnis, Hamilton; Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, Kingston; W. D. Matthews, Toronto; John S. Davidson, Toronto; E. B. Osler, Toronto; John Cassels, Montreal; P. A. Peterson, Chief Engineer and W. A. Brant, secretary to the president.

OVER FOR THE SESSION.

The Manitoba Legislature closed its labors this afternoon. Prorogation takes places tomorrow morning.

Bismarck Unflinching.

BERLIN, April 17.—The final election returns show a remote chance that Bismarck may be defeated on the re-ballot. The prince, however, gives no sign of retiring from the field. The element of possible danger will, it is expected, stimulate the National Liberals to poll a heavier vote and secure Bismarck's election. The Kaiser is said to be anxious.

A Fiend's Work.

LITTLE NARROWS, Neb., April 17.—A blacksmith's apprentice named Logan burned another boy named Matheson today to death. He drew a red-hot iron rod from the fire and seizing the boy, held the rod against his abdomen until a hole had been burned entirely through. The boy's injuries are fatal. Logan escaped.

Pleasant People.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, April 17.—A family row at Leclaire, twelve miles north of here, will result fatally to one person if not to two. Newton Nesbitt and wife were eating breakfast this morning when the husband made a reflecting remark. Mrs. Nesbitt drew a pistol and sent a ball into the back of her husband's head. She then shot herself twice, the first ball taking effect in the neck and the second making a scalp wound. Nesbitt was a steamboat fireman and lived unhappily with his family.

Blessed Boulders.

The practice of blocking waggon wheels with a large stone, when taking a rest on the steep grades of this city, may be very handy to the teamsters, but it is not at all an improvement to the roads. Of course the stones should not be on the roads even at the sides, but in that position they do little harm, while in the centre of the streets they are decidedly dangerous to traffic, and the practice, which is common, is to say the least reprehensible.

Josh Enjoys Himself.

Last night the excellent life and drum band of H. M. S. Nymphe gave an open air concert at the corner of Columbia and McKenzie streets. They played a very enjoyable programme of popular music, and on the invitation of mine host of the New Grotto, entered that hostelry and held a smoking concert. There were several capital selections on the banjo, vocal solos and other interesting performances. Supper was spread for the sailors and they and their entertainers had what they called a "right jolly good time."

Life's Voyage Ended.

The news of the death of Mrs. Margaret Strang, widow of the late Captain James Strang, at her residence, Albert Crescent yesterday, was received with sincere sorrow by her many friends. Mrs. Strang was 79 years of age, and her life had been a very remarkable and interesting one. Many years of her life were passed at sea with her husband. The deceased lady leaves one son, Mr. J. F. Strang. The funeral takes place this morning from the house to the Roman Catholic Cathedral, thence to the Sapperton Cemetery.

They Had a Good Time.

Yesterday afternoon some of the bluejackets off H. M. S. Nymphe, made their way up the hill to an out-of-the-way stable, each man armed with a bottle, evidently bent on having a royal old time. This social meeting was carried on in a most orderly manner, and the failure in the first supply of liquor was marked by one of the party making his way down Columbia street at breakneck speed and returning in short order with a fresh supply. This was kept up for a considerable time until apparently a change was thought necessary, and a visit was then paid to a brewery where wholesale orders for beer were given. Songs and other diversions served to enliven the passing hours until such time as a move towards the vessel was in order, when all filed off down the hill, two of the party being very anxious to exhibit their powers of wrestling, which at the time seemed to be a trifle handicapped by the apparently obstinate behavior of the sidewalk, which had evidently laid plans for their downfall. At last, however, by the combined efforts of the party, all got under way and the landing was reached in safety. However, from the amount of liquid that was consumed at the meeting, which lasted some four hours, there is strong evidence that Darwin's theory has great truth in it, as nothing but long association with the father of waters could have enabled the bold sons of Neptune to imbibe so much fluid without fear of some mechanical disaster

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

Last night's citizens' meeting was made up of representative men and did good work. All present manifested a desire to establish in our midst a suitable market, and at the same time felt the matter one of such importance as to demand careful consideration of such details, as the size and arrangement of the building, the choice of a site, and the best method of attracting to and centralising in our city a large part of the wholesale fruit and general produce trade of the Province. A strong consultative committee is therefore to be formed in conjunction with the Council; and we have no doubt that the result of their deliberations will be a decision that will satisfy even the most ardent advocates of the market scheme. The opposition to the proposal, threatened by a few, seems meanwhile to have melted into their air.

A STRONG BILL.

The Sale of Liquors Bill, which the Hon. John Ronson has introduced on behalf of the Provincial Government, is a measure that should do much to diminish drunkenness. One of its provisions is especially good, as dealing drastically with the difficult case of the habitual drunkard. Any stipendiary magistrate may, under this bill, issue a written prohibition against any licensed persons selling liquor to a specified "drunkard," for the space of one year from the date of the order. The penalty, on breach of the prohibition, is for a first offense to be a sum not exceeding $50, and for a second or later transgression, a minimum fine of $20, or any higher sum in the magisterial discretion, not exceeding $100. In case, however, of emergency, a medical man or minister of religion (the latter apparently having authority in order to provide for the needs of up country districts possessing no resident doctor) may direct or sanction liquor to be sold, to "the drunkard" in special case of sickness. Habitual drunkards being generally settled residents of some particular district, it should not be very difficult to enforce such a magisterial order of prohibition, and it is to be hoped that if the bill passes, the magisterial restraining power will be exercised frequently in proper cases. Many a poor dipsomaniac will thus be saved from self destruction.

Another provision, long ago adopted in England and in force also in Ontario, will render it unlawful to furnish liquor to drunken persons under a penalty of from $20 to $50. This clause will, if duly enforced, put an end to a malpractice of which certain liquor sellers of a baser sort are too often guilty. Another section, over which there will be doubtless more debate, enforces a very early Saturday and complete Sunday closing system throughout the Province. No liquor is to be sold, either on or off the premises, between seven o'clock on Saturday night and six on Monday morning, except on medical requisition, signed by a doctor or justice of the peace. Nor is any liquor to be drunk on licensed premises between the hours named on Saturday and Sunday respectively, except by the occupant of the saloon or hotel, or some member of his family. The penalty on breach is from $20 to $50 on a first, and from $30 to $100 on a subsequent offence.

The fear we have as to this last provision, is that it will be found too stringent, and this provoke such frequent and condoned breaches of the law, as virtually to become inoperative. We are in favour of a measure of Sunday closing and also prepared to support a provision for an early closing of saloons and hotels on Saturday evening, the interval of leisure between Saturday and Monday being the period during which much heavy drinking takes place; but we doubt, whether public opinion is ready to support so early an hour of closing, as seven on Saturday evenings. We doubt, too, whether it will be found practicable to enforce a complete prohibition of liquor selling on Sundays to guests, actually boarding at an hotel and accustomed to take, it may be a glass of beer or wine, to dinner or supper.

We would rather see a somewhat less stringent law thoroughly enforced, than a drastic measure rendered virtually null and void and the law therefore made abortive and ridiculous by back door or other evasion, practised with public connivance.

The Hon. John Ronson's bill has however yet to be threshed out in committee when some of its details will doubtless be revised and amended. We hope, subject to this, that the measure may pass, as it makes several long steps forward in the right direction.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The ferry is understood to be very far from self supporting at present, a very considerable monthly loss resulting from its operations. No doubt, however, its takings will materially improve shortly, with the development of South Westminster. It is nevertheless evident that the ferry must ere very long, be superseded by a good traffic bridge. This, some experts suggest, might be made at comparatively small cost by adopting the pontoon principle. Others, on the contrary, think that the occasional winter onrush of floating ice here renders a pontoon bridge inadvisable, the Fraser current being so swift and strong.

The Attorney General struck a very needful blow, in defence of freedom of trade, on Thursday last, when he carried the omission of a clause in the Vancouver City amendment bill, "preventing and prohibiting the sale of any "meat, vegetables, fish or poultry within "the city elsewhere than at the public "market or markets, and for regulating the same: Providing that the "rights of existing dealers be protected." It should be within the power of no body, municipal or otherwise, to say that only at a certain place shall any ordinary inoffensive retail trade be conducted. The utmost, that a corporation can claim, and no little objection may even be taken to this, is to require wholesale trading in produce to be carried on within a town market solely. Such a privilege could of course only be justified by very large expenditure by a corporation on a thoroughly well appointed wholesale market. The Vancouver clause went beyond this, and would have enabled the municipality to interfere vexatiously with ordinary retail trade, which is for the public convenience, best conducted at several points in and about a city, as selected by freely competing traders. Monopolies should always be most jealously scrutinised before conferment, even in cases where public bodies are intended to be grantees. Some rights have almost of necessity to be in the nature of monopolies, but they are few, monopolies being in general vexatious and against the public interest.

Victoria, determined as usual to vie with Vancouver, has decided to celebrate the arrival of the Empress of India in the capital city, where the good ship is expected to call on the 27th instant. What Victoria wishes to emphasize is the fact, that although the new line of mail steamers will run from Vancouver to the East, the vessels will make Victoria a port of call en route to and fro. The collectors of subscriptions for the Vancouver festivities are said, by the bye, to be receiving every encouragement.

A Lively Bluejacket.

Yesterday afternoon while some work was being done on the steam launch belonging to H. M. S. Nymphe, one of the bluejackets slipped and fell overboard, getting a rather chilly bath. He, however, soon had hold of a rope ladder that was handy and was out of the water in a time. Doubtless the apparent ease with which he got out was more due to the activity and hardiness of the man than to the convenient position of the ladder, as anyone who has tried a dip in the Fraser at this time of year is not in very good condition for shinnying up a rope or climbing a ladder.

More Base Ballists!

The Sunflower Base Ball Club of Victoria has been reorganized for this year, with the following officers: E. A. Powell, captain, and Sport Byrns, secretary-treasurer. The managing committee are William Engelhardt, E. Hayward, E. A. Powell and Sport Byrns. It is expected that the club will this year have a good team in the field and will be able to challenge the James Bay Juniors at about two weeks' time. And while every town and city in the Province is organizing base ball teams and getting into earnest practice, Westminster is standing still. There are enough players to form a fine club.

Not Really Jolley.

The Seattle Telegraph says: Mary Jolley is the latest complainant in a divorce suit. The marriage of the plaintiff appears to have been anything but a happy harbinger. Mary and Henry Jolley were spliced October 20, 1889, and he soon displayed his real nature to his bride. In the month of January, Mr. Mary's life was rendered the very reverse of jolly, for her husband beat her with his fists, battered her face black and blue, and marred her beauty by knocking out a couple of her front teeth and on divers occasions laid her low for repairs. Mrs. Jolley has enough. She longs to be loosed from the bonds of oppression and matri-

Sunday Ferry Service Wanted.

The ferry steamer Surprise is becoming patronized every week. The service amply meets all wants, and yet loud murmurs of complaint are heard against the weekly tie-up on Sundays. From all indications the public seem to stand that very inconvenient. It may be a horribly sinful thing to run the ferry on Sundays, and might possibly plunge the irretrievable moral degradation. It would be extremely useful, safe, cheap, expeditious and comfortable compared with the present method of getting a small boat and ten oars, flagrantly breaking the Sabbath, rowing and straining at the oars against a strong current. If the ferry ran on Sundays all one would have to do would be to get aboard, and in a quiet and orderly manner come up town and go home again the same way. A man don't feel very good when he reaches the church door in a perspiration and puffing and blowing exertions at the oars. But the numberless other reasons of common sense and ordinary justice appeal to the minds of all reasonable people why the ferry should run on Sundays as well as other days. And the strongest advocates of such a service are good, devout Christians as those who are most bitterly opposed to it. The matter is one of two evils—to run Sunday is the smaller and should

High Class Horse Flesh.

James Bryce had yesterday on the C. P. R. wharf some splendid specimens of horses, which have just come from Ontario. Amongst the band, numbers 15, is a splendid thoroughbred mare, from a shire horse by a thoroughbred mare. This fine beast has won a number of first prizes in Canada and is certainly a large, fine horse of this class. Strongly crossed with her is a first-class specimen of the "Shetty," better known to fame as the Shetland pony. This little animal, standing about three feet and weighing only 350 pounds, is a perfect picture, showing to perfection what a class of pony so often seen in the Highlands of Scotland, carrying burdens that almost seem heavier than the animal. Mr. Bryce has sold it to Mr. Hall of the Albion Iron Works in Victoria. Among the band is also a fine horse and one of two general horses that will undoubtedly be sold in Victoria, where they are now in demand. The average weight of these horses is about 1,700 pounds, and after their long, wearisome journey are in good condition and in perfect health. A fine draught horse was sold out at Kamloops, but the gentleman who bought them through has received instructions to sell no more. He has been offered many tempting offers, but had to be ignored. One of the horses is a magnificent dappled dark bay mare, injured herself by throwing around in the car so that the damage is only skin deep. She will go down on the boat from Louise today.

A Stormy Voyage.

This afternoon, says the Colonist, a boat from the sealer Geneva arrived and reported to the owners that she had left the schooner at Sooke in a gale with light winds, to receive her cargo of furs, and was detained by rough weather in the Straits. The Geneva tried sealing off the Charlotte Islands, but with her catch only numbered The Charlotte G. Cox off the coast, with eighteen skins in three days. Though seals were plentiful the Geneva found disastrous weather. In one of these, a boat was sprung and a fine sealer was almost battered to pieces. The foremast had before this gone away while the schooner was off Flattery. After deciding to go to Victoria and make good repairs before entering Behring's Sea, the Geneva clapped wings on her and came down in seven days. The much lamented incident of the day was the drowning of a young man named Sanders, for some time a resident of Victoria, who shipped as a boat puller and afterwards acted as cabin boy. He was walking aft, carrying a dish of potatoes, on the morning of April 4, when the schooner gave a lurch, and he fell overboard. He did not seem realize the danger, and, instead of throwing the tray and trying to catch hold of the schooner as he fell, he held on to possession of the tray, even after he was in the water. A boat was quickly lowered but before it could reach the feeble swimmer in the rough water he was swept away. It was impossible to recover the body. The deceased, it is thought, had no relatives in British Columbia. He came from the East about a year ago, and worked for several months in a drug store in this

NEWS OF THE CITY

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mission City. *

Navigation on the river yesterday was very brisk.

Yesterday was a very quiet one in police circles.

H. M. S. Nymphe will probably leave for Vancouver next Tuesday morning.

Those who enjoy rollicking fun should be on hand at the opera house this evening.

Do not forget the great sale of Mission City lots on May 19th. *

The steamer Gladys left yesterday with 20 passengers and 10 tons of freight.

Money to loan on first mortgage. F. J. Coulthard & Co. *

Two carloads of lumber leave the city this morning for Mission from the Royal City Planing Mills.

The steamer Delaware left for Chilliwack yesterday with 35 passengers and a fair load of freight.

List your property with us if you want to sell it. E. H. Port & Co. *

Queen's Park is beginning to blossom as the rose. As a promenading ground it is unrivalled.

The steamer Gladys arrived yesterday with 30 passengers, 5 calves and 10 tons of freight.

Mr. D. Wilson, B. A., inspector of schools, visited the central school yesterday and found everything satisfactory.

For Bookbinding, Ruling, etc., go to Lewis & Greig, Powell Block. *

Reports from the Junction state that fishing in the Coquitlam is now good. Some fair sized logs have been made lately.

Law Books, Magazines, etc. bound in any style by Lewis & Greig. *

The wind that blew all yesterday was a regular Arcadian zephyr, and delightfully tempered the somewhat sultry atmosphere.

The steamer Delaware came down from Chilliwack yesterday with 40 passengers and 10 tons of freight.

The warm weather is already encouraging our city oarsmen to practice. Quite a lot of boats were on the river yesterday.

Lots for $325 on Douglas street.—BRENCHLEY & BENNETT. 17*

The schools at Wellington have been closed since Friday, the 10th inst., owing to the outbreak of diphtheria in that settlement.

McDonald Bros. have now the largest and best selected stock of crockery and glassware in the city. *

Miss Maggie McKeown, daughter of Mr. William McKeown of the Oriental Hotel, Victoria, was married on Thursday night to Mr. John McDougall of the same city.

The cheapest property on the market. THE BRENCHLEY PROPERTY. *

Several bluejackets were around the city yesterday industriously distributing programmes for this evening's grand show. This is the way to boom up a performance.

We are agents for Goddie & McCulloch's fire tested safes. E. H. Port & Co. *

Mr. A. M. Herring is about to extend his present business premises on account of the rapidly increasing demands of his business for more room. The extension will be on Victoria street.

If you want a choice lot on the route of the Electric Tramway, call on E. H. Port & Co. *

Rev. Dr. Campbell of Collingwood, Ont., who is at present the guest of Mr. J. A. Forin, will preach both morning and evening in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church tomorrow.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men, which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune". Those who take Mission City at the flood tide will be fortunate mortals. *

The R. M. S. Empress of India reached Kobe, Japan, on the 13th and was expected to reach Yokohama on the following day. The Empress of Japan passed Gibraltar on Thursday.

Towle & Wilcox, architects and superintendents have opened an office over D. Lyal's book store, Columbia Street. Modern designs made promptly and practically. *

Three carloads of flour arrived yesterday two being from Winnipeg, the other from Keewatin. Messrs. Campbell and Anderson and the Royal City Planing Mills were the consignees.

To investors—There will be few lots left for sale after the excursion to Queenstown. Get in now before the advance in prices. Particulars from P. M. Watson & Co., agents. *

Messrs. T. F. Sinclair & Co., who have the contract for making and laying the mattresses at the mouth of the river have chartered the Cara Port for that purpose from G. W. Gilley & Co.

Heavy Blank Books, Ledgers, etc., ruled, printed and bound in any style by Lewis & Greig. *

If the city authorities intend to make the roads of broken granite, the sooner a suitable roller is got the better, as the present stone one that has been fitted up will be found of very little use.

Remember the grand entertainment by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening, April 24th. *

The audiences at the Y. M. C. A. evening gymnastic classes are almost opera house ones in size. The spectators derive no little amusement watching the class go through the various movements.

McDonald Bros. have just received one car crockery and glassware direct from the manufacturers. *

The work of piledriving on the Armstrong and English block was begun yesterday. A 2,500 pound hammer is used and the piles are driven until they will go no further. This makes the best of foundations.

A full stock of D. M. Ferry & Co.'s celebrated seeds in bulk and packages at McLean & Morrison's. *

Mr. James Punch received quite a welcome from his many friends at the Capital, and the sincere congratulations of his brother members in the House upon his happy recovery from a long and dangerous illness.

The Y. M. C. A. gymnastic class for men over eighteen, meets this evening at that institution for practice as usual.

The Burrard Inlet Rowing Club met yesterday and decided to hold their first regatta of the season on the second Saturday of May. They may also get up some rowing races in honor of the arrival of the Empress of India.

McDonald Bros. having paid cash for their entire stock of crockery and glassware are now prepared to sell both wholesale and retail at very low prices. *

Messrs. G. W. Gilley & Co., who have nearly completed the piling for Mr. Ewen's new cannery, will start at once on the repairs to the Pitt River bridge, this firm having the contract for giving that structure a thorough overhauling.

Pneumonia rages in Victoria; many prominent citizens are laid up with the dangerous ailment. Westminster is singularly free from disease of all kinds. The very appearance of her citizens as they walk the streets is sufficient guarantee of the salubrity of this city.

We are agents for Stalshmid & Co. office desks, call and see our samples. E. H. Port & Co., 613 Front Street. *

The transmutation of the late mud into the present, ever present, dust is not devoid of interest to those who have to be out on the streets most of the day. And soon the grateful watering cart will appear and cool off the avenues and streets according to well established usage.

"Ah, if I had only bought then!" That will be the burthen of the vain repinings of those who fail to accept the golden opportunity at Mission City next month. *

There will be a general meeting of the Westminster Rowing Club next Tuesday evening in the City Hall at 8 o'clock. This fine young organization deserves generous support, and it is hoped that all the gentlemen in the city who affect the oar will be present and take a hand in the discussion.

The great auction sale of real estate at Mission City on Tuesday, May 19th, will offer an opportunity to get in "on the ground floor" of what is bound to be at least the third city on the Mainland of British Columbia. *

The lower road to Sapperton, that is the continuation of Front street, has been until the recent dry weather set in, in a disgraceful condition. There is now a large amount of heavy hauling done to that end of town and as this road is a more suitable grade for all purposes it should be kept in better order.

If you have a few hundreds to spare, put it in Mission City property, and sit back and smile as you see those few hundreds growing into thousands. *

Two men had a narrow escape while working in No. 5 mine, Wellington, on Thursday. They fortunately heard the roof creaking and made tracks, but not before one of them, a negro named Jones, had received a severe blow on the head from a falling rock, tons of which fell within a few inches of the pair of them.

Lots for $325 on Douglas road; ⅓ down; balance, 6 and 12 months at 8 per cent. The cheapest property on the market.—BRENCHLEY & BENNETT. 17*

Mr. Gloucross of the Queen's is having the bar of that popular hotel entirely redecorated. The bar itself will be lengthened and two handsome mirrors will be added. The decoration of the walls and ceiling, which is now finished, is mostly of heavily gilt paper which gives the room a very handsome appearance.

Let your courage rise to the sticking point on May 19th next, at the Mission City sale. *

The inimitable Johnny Carter gave one of his laughable entertainments at Port Moody last evening to a crowded house. Johnny, as a genuine minstrel and all round amuser, has few equals on the continent, and he can keep an audience in roars with greater ease than most of the professors in his line of business.

On Thursday afternoon, in the provincial legislature, in Committee of Supply, the vote on the Supplementary Estimates of $1,800 for twelve months salary of superintendent of provincial police was discussed, several maintaining members expressing the hope that the selection of such an officer would not be confined to residents of Victoria.

G. A. Rowlde, practical bookbinder, paper ruler and blank book manufacturer, Vancouver, B. C. *

Mr. Pike, the celebrated engineer who will control the works of the Pitt River Meadows Reclamation Company, was so impressed with the beauties and prospects of this province that he has sold out all his eastern interests and brought his family here to make it his home. The work in which he is to be engaged will last a considerable period and take up most of his time.

Full sized lots on Tramway line, close to city, $150 and $200 each; ¼ cash, balance 6 and 12 months. Cheapest thing on the market. Secure one at once. S. T. MACKINTOSH & Co. *

Mrs. Wrigley, who accompanied her husband, Captain Wrigley, around the Horn from Liverpool to Victoria, on the steamer West Lending, died at sea on her way home to England by one of the regular Atlantic liners sailing from New York. The sad news was received yesterday by friends in Victoria, who had hoped to hear of Mrs. Wrigley's safe arrival at home.

Mr. A. M. Herring has concluded arrangements with the celebrated Lew Johnson Colored Minstrels, who will appear in the Opera House next Wednesday evening. This well known company has been completely reorganized and fitted out with new costumes, scenery, repertoire and people. The company is twenty strong. They will come from Fairhaven over the Southern Railway.

W. L. Fagan of Vancouver arrived over yesterday.

L. C. Beckwith of Victoria is stopping at the Colonial.

H. and H. G. Andrews of England are guests at the Colonial.

W. Hargraves of Vancouver is a guest at the Hotel Douglas.

E. A. Wadhams was a passenger by the steamer Princess Louise last night.

Mrs. H. N. Rich and Miss Green of Ladner's Landing are visiting in the city.

Messrs. A. D., S., J. F., M. and H. Walker returned to the city yesterday from Minneapolis after a lengthy stay in that city.

Princess Louise.

The steamer Princess Louise arrived last evening from Victoria with the following passengers: Mrs. Parr, E. A. Wadhams, H. Godfrey, J. Godfrey, A. S. Mackenzie, J. K. McDonald, J. B. Elliot, H. Gorgeson. The steamer brought ten tons of freight for the city and thirty for the C. P. R. She leaves this morning with a large quantity of miscellaneous freight and fifteen thoroughbred horses from Ontario, for the Victoria Truck and Dray Company. The Louise also takes quite a number of passengers.

MARKET OR NO MARKET.

A Small Meeting of Prominent Citizens Discuss the Matter Last Night.

The public meeting held in the City Hall last night was poorly attended, so much so that Acting Mayor Curtis on rising to speak said that it was evident from the small attendance that the people did not take sufficient interest in the proposition to warrant the council in taking any further steps in the matter; he would therefore call the meeting to order and ask some gentleman present to move an adjournment.

Mr. T. Cunningham hoped that the matter would not be shelved in this manner as something must be done in order that this city holds its own. He thought that the press, and the people through the press should ventilate this matter as much as possible, and he therefore moved an adjournment for one week.

Mr. J. C. Armstrong thought that Westminster should take warning by Vancouver. He was not opposed to a market, but he thought the first step was to establish a free wharf where farmers could land their produce, but of all things he recommended that things should not be done hastily.

Mr. Eastman on rising said that he agreed with the former speakers, but could say from experience that retail buyers would not patronise a market. He thought that Market Square was the place for it, as Lytton Square would some time be needed as a wholesale market for fish and fruit.

Mr. Johnstone thought that the council should prepare a good market bylaw, but he was opposed to an expensive permanent building, and thought that it should be located as a free wharf at the foot of Tenth street.

Mr. Curtis said that the council had discussed the scheme of a temporary building, but had discarded it in favor of a permanent self sustaining market.

Mr. J. E. Lord next addressed the meeting and said that he did not consider Lytton Square big enough; he thought the city should sell it and purchase with the proceeds a site that was now vacant close to the electric power house, which would be convenient to the North Arm bridge, and in Mr. Lord's opinion to a railroad and traffic bridge that must ultimately cross the river on way of Annacis and Lulu Islands. Mr. Lord thought it would be advisable to appoint a committee of citizens to look into the matter.

Mr. Scoullar said that he would like to see the meeting adjourned for a week, and he would therefore second Mr. Cunningham's motion. Mr. Curtis thought the meeting had better be proceeded with.

Mr. W. Baillie was of opinion that some action should be taken at this meeting, and he would second Mr. Lord's motion for the appointment of a committee.

Mr. Curtis said that as there were eleven members of the council he considered them able to cope with the question. A question was asked as to whether the committee would be expected to advise the council or to absolutely take the work out of their hands. Mr. Lord, in answer, said that he merely intended that the committee should report on the matter, and the council could then accept or refuse their views as they thought proper.

Mr. Scoullar was opposed to this idea, as he thought the council could look after the matter, and he thought the ratepayers individually should look into the thing and be prepared to give their views at the next meeting. Mr. Lord did not think people could be got to speak out at a public meeting, but a committee would be able to aid the council in the matter. Mr. Scoullar then remarked to the speaker:

Well, you can take my place.

Mr. Lord—I know I can. [Laughter.]

Mr. D. Robson proposed that a committee of three or four be appointed by the Council to act conjointly with members of that body, who might lay before the next meeting some scheme that could then be freely discussed. Mr. [illegible] strong again cautioned the citizens to take warning by Vancouver, which had built a market that was, according to all ideas, to be the making of that city. Mr. Scoullar did not think this city a parallel case.

Mr. Baillie then said that he would support the idea of a committee as everyone's business was nobody's business. A motion was finally framed by Mr. Robson, embodying his former proposition, that a committee be elected by the council to act conjointly as a committee with certain members of that body, who shall bring forward a scheme at the next public meeting. This motion was carried unanimously, after which the meeting adjourned.

Tonight's Entertainment

The sterling entertainment to be provided at Herring's Opera House by H. M. S. Nymphe Dramatic club this evening, with the kind permission of the officers of the ship, should not be missed by anyone. The sale of tickets has been most encouraging, and there is every reason to believe that the house will be packed. The programmes, which have been profusely distributed about the town, show a most tempting bill of fare. The Artillery Band, it is said, will surpass themselves and give a concert on their own account that cannot fail to win deafening plaudits from the delighted audience.

South Westminster.

Messrs. Woods & Gamble have been appointed special agents for the sale of subdivisions of lots 7 and 3, group 2, with frontage on Yale road and the Fraser River. The subdivision map is now in course of preparation, and the entire property will be placed on the market on Monday, March 16th.

These are splendid lots, all 66x132 feet, and prices and terms will be found of the easiest.

Intending investors will do well to wait until this choice property is open for sale, as the lots are bound to treble in value within a year. Apply on Monday, March 16th, to WOODS & GAMBLE, General Agents. *

A Pointer to the Public.

District Lot No. 28 lies immediately adjoining the city limits. The continuation of Mary Street goes directly through it, and the Electric Tramway will in a couple of months be running its cars every hour of the day through the centre of this property. The lot (No. 28) is composed of 128 acres of land as level as a table. Contracts have been let to clear and grub the ground, and leave it in perfect condition for building purposes. Already six citizens have decided to erect handsome residences there, ragging in price from $4,000 to $7,000 each. The whole of this splendid piece of property (except some limited portions already disposed of) will be put on the market in a few weeks. One great advantage in buying a lot and erecting a residence on this property is that the owner will avoid heavy municipal taxation. Make a note of it, and wait till the property is put on the market before buying. *

Offer the following as good, safe investments, some of them sure to yield a big profit in a very short time:

Southeast Quarter of District Lot 339, 40 acres, situated on Westminster Road, about halfway between Vancouver and New Westminster, adjoining Public Park and only 10 chains of the route just selected for the Westminster and Vancouver Electric Tramway Co. This property is beautifully situated, and commands a fine view of Vancouver. Very little timber on it—$50 per acre would clear it. Set to a garden. Price $50 per acre. Terms can be had if necessary. Adjoining land held at $250 per acre.

10 Acres in District Lot 352, on North Arm of Fraser River, 4 miles south of Vancouver, and about 6 miles from New Westminster. There is a good graded road from Vancouver, and a road is to be opened to New Westminster soon. There is a schoolhouse within a quarter of a mile. Land slopes gently from road to river, on which it has 10 chains frontage; is surrounded by market gardens. Steamers pass daily to New Westminster. Price $1,500—which is $50 per acre less than adjoining land.

North Half of District Lot 657—[illegible] acres, for $1,300. Terms one-third cash, balance in 6 and 12 mos. Suitable for fruit ranch. Fine view of Fraser and straits of Georgia. Graded road past land.

9 Lots (including 2 corners) on New Westminster Avenue, Vancouver, for $1,200, ¼ cash, balance in 6, 12 and 18 mos. Size of lots, 33x99, to lane. Vancouver Electric Railway runs to within a few blocks. This is a good buy.

Block 199, subdivision 172—C. P. R. Co.'s "Fairview" addition to Vancouver. Price $1,100. Contains 24 lots, 33x132. Is cleared and commands magnificent view of English Bay, the city and Burrard Inlet.

9 Acres within the city limits of Vancouver in subdivision 264 "A" on line of Westminster-Vancouver Electric Tramway. Price $9,000, ¼ cash, balance in 6 and 12 mos. Surrounding land is subdivided into town lots. This piece can be subdivided into 72 lots, which should readily sell at $125 per lot, showing a profit of nearly $3,000 on the deal.

We have the largest list city property in Vancouver, and a large list of acreage. Farms in every part of the Province. Homesteads located.

It will pay investors to call upon us before buying.
