PRINCELY BAIL

MAVERICK BANK DIRECTORS BOUND OVER IN VAST SUMS.

Boston Savings Banks Slightly Affected—Some Anxiety Felt—Arrest of a Clever Canadian Forger—United States Warships Ordered to Chili—One Detective Captures Twenty-One Escaped Convicts—Athletic Contest at San Francisco.

BOSTON, Mass., November 3.—Before United States Commissioner Hallett this morning Mr. Dana of the Maverick National Bank was held in $75,000 bail for a hearing on Saturday. Charles A. Browning is one of his sureties. Mr. Potter and Mr. French are still waiting for sureties and for their bail to be fixed. District Attorney Allen wants Mr. Potter's bail fixed at $200,000, and Mr. French's at $150,000. Notwithstanding the official announcement made by Chairman Chapin of the savings bank commissioners yesterday, that none of the savings banks of the state can be involved in the failure of the Maverick National Bank, the depositors in the various savings banks have shown some little anxiety. During the day a number of depositors have drawn their money from the five cent savings bank, which institution is said to be among the best in the city, and without a dollar in issue with either of the recent subjects of financial detriment here. The statement of the bank's standing made to the trustees in the second Wednesday in October shows the nominal net surplus to be $1,234,458, and the actual net surplus according to the market value of the securities of the bank to be $1,655,392.

A private conference in the case of Messrs. Potter, French and Dana was held today between the counsel for the men named and the court. Nothing, it was announced, would be given out for publication except what might be decided at the conference as being proper for the public to know. No additional arrests have been made, and it is stated that neither Potter, French nor Dana have given bonds. The conference it is asserted was for the purpose of deciding the amount of bonds in which the three men should be held. The district attorney insisted that they shall not be less than $200,000 in each case. The counsel for the men assert that $20,000 is ample security. If the district attorney carries his point, it is believed the three men will have to go to jail. At 2 o'clock it was announced that Mr. Dana had secured a continuance, that Mr. Potter had not been arraigned, and that Mr. French had just been brought into court. Mr. Dana's bail was reduced from $75,000 to $50,000. Mr. A. C. Brownell is his bondsman.

Asa Potter was arraigned before United States Commissioner Hallett today and pleaded not guilty. United States District Attorney Allen asked that his bail be fixed at not less than $200,000. Potter was held in $100,000 for the district court. His surety is Grenville W. Branan.

Another New Line.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 3.—The steamer Mineola, the first of the new steam line between New York and this coast, came into port yesterday after a rather long passage of 72 days. The Mineola did not leave New York for nearly a month after the pioneer steamer, the Keweenaw. The latter is now at Valparaiso without a propeller, having lost it while passing through Smith's straits. The third steamer of the line, the Mackinaw, left New York on Tuesday, but did not go very far. Her machinery gave out, and she will have to be towed back to New York for repairs.

TUG OF WAR TOURNAMENT.

An immense crowd of 10,000 people witnessed the international tug-of-war tournament tonight at the Mechanics' Pavilion. The excitement was great and each team was greeted with tremendous cheers by the vast assemblage. The results were as follows: Scotland v. Canada—Won by Scotland. Time, 19m. 20s. Germany v. Norway—Won by Germany. Time, 44m. Denmark v. Ireland. Won by Denmark. Time, 2m. After drawing lots Norway was matched against America. The Norweigan captain protested against pulling the same night, and the referee declared if the Norweigan team was not on the platform to pull at the stated time he would then award the bout to America. The American team appeared upon the platform and was greeted by tremendous cheering. The Norweigan team failing to appear the bout was awarded to America. The referee explained that as America had pulled twice in one night he would put the teams on the same footing and compel them to pull or forfeit the bout.

Something Like a Policeman.

SOMERSET, Ky., November 3.—Detective William Bates captured twelve of the Tennessee convicts who lately escaped near the state line yesterday afternoon, and nine others this morning, all negroes, and brought them here and placed them in jail to await orders from the governor of Tennessee.

Careless Picknickers.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., November 3.—Forest fires broke out last evening near New Providence and are destroying thousands of dollars' worth of orchards of the fruit region. Another fire is raging in Knobs, near Henryville, started by picnickers. If the parties can be found, the people, who are all fighting the flames, threaten to lynch them.

Ordered to Chili.

NEW YORK, November 3.—The Herald says: "It is now known that the Newark is booked for Chilian waters. Orders have been sent to Boston to have her fitted out with a year's supply of provisions and to complete her crew with two-year service men. Officers have also been sent on from Washington to expedite the work on her electric light plant, and especially her search lights, which are the chief cause of delay. When the Newark was sent to the Boston yard it was estimated that a month or six weeks would be required to fit her for service as the flagship of the South Atlantic station, for which duty she was then intended, but later developments have caused the department to postpone some changes contemplated, so she might be ready at an early date for services in Chilian waters. With these omissions and an extra force of men, who have been put to work on her, it is now believed that she can be got under way inside of ten days. She will steam direct to Chili. Admiral Benham, who was to go out in her to command the [illegible] will it is thought be given another vessel as his flagship, and will not get away for several weeks yet. "There have also been developments which indicate that the Philadelphia will get under way for Chili about the same time, or perhaps a few days earlier than the Newark, and the Atlanta will follow as soon as she is ready. This trio of vessels, together with the Boston and Yorktown, now en route, and the Baltimore and San Francisco already in the Pacific, would form a fleet of seven of the best vessels now available and would make quite a respectable showing for whatever ordinary purposes might be intended. "One object in the selection of the Philadelphia for service in Chili it is understood is to place Admiral Gherardi in command of the forces in these waters. He is known to be anxious for duty, and it is said both President Harrison and Secretary Blaine look favorably upon his detail for this service."

CANADIAN NEWS.

Chisholm Sentenced—Chapleau Sues Figaro—Lord Salisbury on Reciprocity.

WINNIPEG, November 3. — At the assizes today Chisholm was sentenced to five and two years for assaulting little girls under fourteen, the sentences to run concurrently. The prisoner made a speech strongly pretesting his innocence. On the application of counsel for the defendant the Crown cases were reserved for argument before the full court.

BAIE DES CHALEURS SCANDAL.

QUEBEC, November 3.—J. C. Langelier, commissioner appointed to settle the claims of the Baie des Chaleurs railway was the first witness before the Royal Commissioners this morning. He stated he had not been able to find certain letters he was ordered on Saturday to produce.

M'GREEVY'S VACANT SEAT.

R. R. Kobel, a well-known lumber merchant has definitely accepted the nomination as a candidate for parliamentary representative for Quebec West rendered vacant by the expulsion of Thomas McGreevy.

WHAT SALISBURY WANTS.

TORONTO, November 3.—The Globe's Washington correspondent states: Lord Salisbury would like to see the United States make a reciprocity treaty with Canada and Newfoundland as well as a McKinley convention with the British West Indies and British Guiana, and that he has started out by saying that in any McKinley agreement between the United States and the West Indies, Canada and Newfoundland shall be put upon the same footing as the States so far as the enjoyment of reduced duties is concerned.

OUR FOOTBALLERS ABROAD.

A cablegram from London says: The Canadian-American football players scored a notable victory yesterday by defeating Stoke, one of the English League clubs, by two goals to one.

A. B. CHAFFEE DEAD.

MONTREAL, November 3.—A. B. Chaffee, well known in railroad circles, is dead. He was for many years treasurer of the Southern Railway, severing his connection with it when it was taken over by the Canadian Pacific.

MORE LIBEL.

Chapleau has taken out another action for libel. It is against Figaro of Paris, which recently stated that Chapleau had benefited by commissions paid to his man Senecal and also on invoices.

Shot His Own Son.

MATTEWAN, N. J., November 3.—Ben Warde a resident of this place last night attempted to beat his wife. Their son Erin, a young man of 20 interfered. In a quarrel that resulted from the boys interference the father was whipped. He swore vengeance. Knowing his father's revengeful temperment the young man left the house after the quarrel and spent the night at a neighbor's. This morning he started for his work at the piano factory here. His father lay in wait for him at a secluded spot on the road which he knew his boy would take in going to his work. When he passed the spot where his father was concealed, the latter took careful aim with an old shotgun and put a load of shot into the boy's body and arm. The doctors say he will die. The father made no effort to escape and was placed under arrest. Mrs. Warde is distracted over the attempt to murder her boy.

Not so Very Desperate.

TEXARKANA, Ark., November 3.—Napoleon McDaniels, the famous cotton-belt bandit, who, with three others, on the night of June 9, 1890, ditched and robbed a cotton-belt passenger train at Spur switch, five miles west of here, and who was in the October following given a life sentence in the penitentiary, and who escaped from jail by braining his jailer December 8th last, was captured in his house in the north suburbs this morning. He has been here at home ever since his escape, though reported in Mexico. Yesterday he gave his 15-year-old son a beating and threatened to kill him and the boy went to the officers last night and told where his father was. A posse guarded the house all night and this morning McDaniels surrendered, after parleying two hours with the officers. He is a fearless and desperate man and great surprise is felt that he was taken alive.

Bring your little ones; the play is as good as a sermon. Don't forget to secure your reserved seats at Herring's drug store.

The Mysterious Ritchie Affair.

The Victoria Colonist thinks the Ritchie incident which lately attracted so much attention was a hoax, and says so pretty plainly. Ritchie it seems, nettled at the Colonist's remarks turned up at the office on Monday morning perfectly conscious, and indignantly denied that he was the writer of the telegrams, or that he caught on to the clumsy hoax—if such were perpetrated upon him. It was rumored in town yesterday that he had recovered his old affection, and was about to marry the young lady who so faithfully nursed him through his illness. He was not married yesterday evening, but it is said he will be this evening in the First Presbyterian church—according to present arrangements.

DOWN TO BUSINESS

NOMINATIONS TAKE PLACE IN CORK WITHOUT DISORDER.

Redmond for the Parnellites—Flavin for the Antis—Kaiser Wilhelm Offended at Judge—He Can't Take a Pictorial Joke—Reasons Advanced for the Chilian Junta's Action—Divided as to the Presidency.

CORK, November 3.—The nominating conventions of the Parnellites and McCarthyites met today and went through the formality of placing their candidates before the people. Mr. John E Redmond was of course named by the Parnellites and Mr. Martin Flavin by their opponents. There was no disorder.

Persian Amenities.

LONDON, November 3.—Advices received from Yezo, Persia, describe the cruel persecution of the government which is said to be bent upon exterminating the Sects, and the governor of the province of Yezo, who is a grandson of the Shah, has had seven of the Sects strangled and beheaded. Numbers are rotting in prisons and many have fled to the deserts, probably to starve.

WHY THEY REFUSED.

A despatch from Valparaiso to a firm in the Chilian trade, in reply to a despatch of inquiry, says that the secret of the junta's refusal to give satisfaction to the American Government is that the members of the junta and their associates in command are divided on the question of the presidency, and each faction is afraid to make enemies by seeming to yield to American demands, and that after the election of a president there will probably be a change for the better in the situation. This cheerful view is not generally accepted, however, by those having Chilian interests, although it is believed that rivalry for the presidency is causing considerable bitterness among the chiefs of the revolution. The failure to capture Vicuna is greatly regretted, as many even of the junta party consider that Vicuna was the legal president-elect, his situation having been different from that of Balmaceda and he having been chosen by the electorate body in accordance with the constitutional forms. Had Vicuna been captured said a former Balmacedist, he would probably have been got rid of by murder or under the covert of pretended suicide, and the junta would have a free field. As it is the fact that Vicuna is alive so far as known, and willing to undertake his duties if permitted to do so, is a rankling thorn, and will remain so for the five years of what would have been his term. The official added with a significant shrug, that Vicuna might be invited back to Chili yet. The Times today published a letter signed "An American," asserting that the attitude of the United States in regard to Chili is entirely due to the approaching elections.

INTERESTED WILLIAM DEEPLY.

A cablegram despatch was received today at the office of Judge, the comic illustrated weekly of this city, announcing that the German emperor had confiscated every copy of that paper of the issue of October 10th found within the borders of the empire. W. J. Arkell, editor and proprietor of Judge, said the only reason he could assign for the action was that a cartoon published in that issue was displeasing to Emperor William. It represented him in a group of European potentates watching a set-to between McKinley and Campbell, free trade and protection. It was labeled "A deeply interested audience."

Experienced in Crime.

TRENTON N. J., November 3.—Adolphus Chamberlain of New York wanted in Canada for a number of forgeries, was arrested here today by the chief of the Canadian Secret Service and has been locked up to wait the necessary extradition papers. Chamberlain is charged with having committed forgery. He has a number of aliases. He has been the superintendent of the Berkshire Apartment House.

Guards and Miners Fighting.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., November 3.—The miners and guards are fighting at Briceville and the firing can be heard for several miles. One hundred and fifty convicts have been released, given citizens' clothes and ordered to skip. The Tennessee company's stockade has been burned. The miners will repeat the dose at the Knoxville Iron Company's and Oliver Springs mines. Further particulars are not to be had.

Kentucky Society News.

MT. STERLING, Ky., November 3.—A prominent society man named Wilson, unexpectedly came home, finding his wife, two other prominent married ladies and three prominent married men locked in the house engaged in a drunken orgie. A prominent lawyer named Thompson jumped through the second story window, taking the frame and all. Wilson shot Mr. Pangborne five times who, after falling, shot Wilson in the leg. Pangborne will die. Wilson is searching the town with a shotgun for the others. Three divorce suits have been filed.

O'Connor Back in Toronto.

The Toronto Globe of October 28th, contains the following: William O'Connor, champion oarsman of America, returned from the Pacific coast yesterday. He went west early last month to take part in the regatta at New Westminster, B. C., where he won first prize. He won again at Portland, Oregon, and then went to San Francisco to see the Peterson-Dutch race. O'Connor is in the best of health and condition, and hopes that the report that Stanbury and Beach are coming on the next Australian steamer is true. He has received no special advice of their coming, but believing in Stanbury's public statement of his visit, O'Connor left articles with Mr. M. Laven of San Francisco to arrange for a race for the championship as soon as they arrive.

"I will row Stanbury anywhere and on any course," he said last night. "And I think I can beat him. If I do I'll retire from the business. I saw Archie Mackenzie, "Tip" Arthurs, Suckling, Ross, Eckardt and other old Toronto boys on the coast and they are all doing well. Dutch was a coming man when I was in Australia, and he could not get a race at home when he left unless it was for the championship. His work out here shows the difference a change of climate will make. Australians rated him as one of the best scullers in the world and he is only second-class here. He had an idea he would find it easy to win in America. I never saw a man more confident than he was before the race at New Westminster. Even after that he was not satisfied and at Portland he said he would turn the tables. He talked so much that I made up my mind to give him a sound beating there. Dutch can get away very fast and he went off the line at 42 strokes, but I dug them in, too, at a pretty lively rate and I soon headed him. Hanlan says I was seven lengths in front of Dutch at a quarter of a mile. He should have beaten Peterson though. Dutch's eyesight must be bad, because if there is an obstacle of any kind in the course he'll run into it. He led Peterson to the turn, but lost 40 yards by going around both buoys when he needed to have turned only one. Peterson talks of rowing Hanlan. I think Ned will beat him. The Australians speak very highly of young Sullivan, the New Zealander who challenged Stanbury for the championship. In fact they say he is a wonder."

STATE ELECTIONS.

Progress of the Democratic-Republican Struggle in the States.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, November 3.—There were four complete state tickets in the field today, and one of the hottest fights the Buckeye State has known has been settled at the polls. James R. Campbell, the present governor, was the Democratic candidate, and William McKinley was the Republican candidate. John Leitz was the People's candidate, and J. J. Ashenhurst was the Prohibition candidate. For lieutenant governor the principal candidates were Andrew L. Harris, Republican, and W. V. V. Mercus, Democrat. For auditor, Ebenezer W. Poe, Reblican, and T. E. Peckinhaugh, Democrat. For treasurer, William J. Cope, Republican, and C. F. Ackerman, Democrat. For attorney-general, J. N. Richards, Republican, and J. P. Bailey, Democrat. Additional importance is lent to this election from the fact that the legislature on a joint ballot will elect a United States senator to succeed H. K. Paine, whose term expires on March 5, 1893.

VIRGINIA NOT ENTHUSIASTIC.

RICHMOND, Va., November 3.—Reports received here show that fair weather prevails throughout Virginia. The election here is progressing quietly and up to noon a light vote had been polled. The election is for 21 members of the senate, and one hundred members of the house of delegates. The Democratic state committee claim the Democrats will elect 70 out of a 100 members of the house delegates, and seventeen out of 21 senators. Of nineteen hold-over senators thirteen are Democrats and six are Republicans and Alliance. The Republicans have but a few candidates in the field. Of the Alliance candidate more than one half are pledged to enter the Democrat's caucus if elected.

FLOWER IS BLOOMING.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 3.—From full election returns received here up to 11 o'clock, New York time, the situation may be summarized as follows: In New York, Flower, Democrat, for governor leads Fassett by a majority of about 20,000, and unless Fassett's majority outside of New York, King and Queen counties fails to extend beyond what it is at the present hour Flower will be elected by the above mentioned figures. In Ohio the Republicans have made large gains and have wiped out numerous Democratic majorities. McKinley will probably have a large majority over Campbell, Democrat.

In Massachusetts the Republicans have made gains and Allen (Rep.) leads Russell (Dem.) for Governor. Returns from other states indicate nothing of a definite character. As this dispatch is being written, a bulletin from New York states that the city complete gives Flower, 145,693; Fassett, 87,708; Delton, 5,136; Bryce, 964. Flower's plurality is therefore 58,290.

THE AUSTRALIAN SYSTEM.

CHICAGO, Ills., November 3.—The election today in this city, which was for county officers only, marked the introduction of the Australian system into Illinois. Considering the fact that it was the first trial of the system, the method proved all that was claimed for it. There was an utter absence of the scenes of violence and episodes of a scandalous character which have heretofore marked the day of an election in Chicago. The weather was all that could be desired.

Medical Examinations.

The candidates for the medical examinations which, if passed, will entitle them to practice in British Columbia, are at present being heard before the following board of examiners: Medical jurisprudence, Dr. De Wolf Smith; practice of medicine, Dr. McGuigan, Vancouver; surgery and pathology, Dr. Lefevre, Vancouver; chemistry, Dr. Davie of Victoria; midwifery and diseases of women, Dr. Milne of Victoria.

Go, Mark Him Well.

Whenever a wholesale house receives a letter from a merchant written on a scrap of paper without anything to indicate what sort of business he is engaged in, or the sheet is ornamented with one of those hideous daubs called rubber stamp, his name is immediately checked with a "D" indicating duffer. This mark serves as a notice to the travelling salesman that the said merchant is a fit subject on whom to palm off all the old, worm-eaten, shelf-worn, shoddy goods that you possibly can. The poor merchant then wonders why his customers never come back the second time to buy goods. The rubber stamp is the cause.—Slaughter (Wash.) Sun.

High Steam Pressure.

A scientific exchange says: While the working pressure maintained in the average steam boiler rarely reaches 100 pounds, there are circumstances under which a far greater pressure is desirable. There is a 51 horse-power boiler at the works of Alexander Turnbull & Co., Glasgow, in which a pressure of 300 pounds is regularly maintained. A 36 horse-power boiler in the shops of Alexander Friedman in Vienna is run at 264 pounds pressure, and the Cambrian Patent Fuel Company, Cardiff, Wales, has a 96 horse-power boiler which is worked at 250 pounds. The electric lighting companies in London run their boilers at a very high pressure, three of the largest stations having 42 boilers that are kept at 200. The Wood Vulcanizing Company in New York uses a pressure of 235 pounds in its boilers, and the Baldwin locomotive works in Philadelphia has a battery of four 100-horse power boilers that are run at 225 pounds pressure.

A gravestone was recently pulled out of the harbor at Kingston. On it was inscribed: "Sacred to the memory of Johnnie Crothers, a bright, intelligent and most affectionate child; died February 24, 1882, aged 5 years." The stone on which the inscription was cut is in the shape of a shield and was of Vermont marble, perfectly clear and white. Who was Johnnie Crothers and how the tombstone came there is the mystery.

THE CARE OF OUR DESTITUTE SICK.

An important question, the earliest possible decision of which is urged by every consideration of humanity, was incidentally mentioned at last Monday's meeting of the City Council. We refer to the making of some provision for the indigent sick of our community, a matter to which the mayor called the attention of the council, in reference to the case of two moneyless men, suffering from typhoid fever, whom he had, acting in anticipation on behalf of the city, ventured to send to the hospital last week to be tended at the public cost.

Sick persons without means are in this city too often placed in parlous plight. There seems to be no sufficiently definite provision made, either by the city authorities, or by organised charitable effort, to meet the care of such sufferers, although tardy action is as a rule taken after public notice has been attracted in any particular instance by some striking attendant incident. Thus we hear occasionally of a sick and destitute sufferer being taken to the police station as a temporary refuge, and only the other day an unfortunate man was released from prison, suffering from a horrible cancer which seems to have been the sole cause of his offence. He had committed some small theft, because he knew not how else to call attention to his terrible case and thus secure gratuitous medical aid and careful nursing. Once in prison, he felt sure that his case must receive attention. Hence his unrelieved suffering drove him to a crime, that in truth was not a crime, though punishable as such. This did what was necessary, but did it in a very wrong way. The prisoner was medically examined and an order of release obtained, after which steps were taken to place the poor man under proper care. This state of things, represented by cases such as the above, should assuredly be allowed to continue no longer. It is nothing short of a scandal for the police cell or the prison to be made the general first refuge of a destitute sufferer from disease. This discredits alike our public spirit and our charity, and we are assured that the subject has but to be considered and discussed publicly, in order to secure the provision of whatever aid is needed. The yearly cost of the comparatively few cases in which hospital relief is as yet needed in our midst by the absolutely destitute will not be very great and can readily be met. All that is necessary is the provision of a proper scheme, this matter should be taken up at once. If the work cannot be done, or can only in part be done by the city authorities, the charitable public will doubtless be able to deal with the case.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Not all the British territories in South Africa are booming like Mashonaland and the other districts recently annexed and explored. In Natal so great is said to be the surplus of labor that thousands of men are out of work in the various cities. We may therefore expect some diminution of the tide of British emigration which has lately flowed rather strongly towards South Africa. By this change Canada may benefit somewhat next year.

The Grand Trunk Railway seems ever in trouble. Suspected of breach of election law the general manager was subpoenaed as a witness in the North Perth election case at Stratford last week, when he astonished the court and the two political parties there represented by showing that his company was about $7,000 out for passes supplied to Dominion voters at the request of both representatives Liberals and Conservatives. The passes were sent, the voters presumably went and polled but the company still "whistles for its money," though living perhaps, after its wont during many years, in hope.

The people of Blaine, the little "international city" of the neighbor state of Washington are ever on the alert for new openings. Some of those already tried have failed, but the townsfolk are now confident that they are about "to strike it," both literally and figuratively. Borings have just been commenced and the more sanguine assert that already they can see and scent the oil oozing slowly to the surface of the soil. It is sincerely to be hoped that they may not be disappointed, for the find would also do us good. If there is oil in Blaine, there must also be oil in many a like district of our own province near at hand. It will not, however, be wise to be very sanguine yet awhile. Our friends across the border are so very hopeful.

A gentleman named McDONALD lectured at Winnipeg last week and there satisfied his audience by assuring them that our climate was too mild, as well as too rainy. He seems incidentally to have forgotten the very dry and moderately severe climate of our upper country, and evidently does not know too much even of this part of the coast. The lecturer put in a specially bad word for the statutory terminus, asserting on the authority of a questionable meteorological report of "some years ago," that whilst Winnipeg was the sunniest place in Canada, Port Moody was the cloudiest and rainiest. Mr. McDONALD's remarks were very cordially received and considered valuable. They made the assembled Winnipeggers well pleased with themselves and their city and less inclined to think of going west, and thus at any rate served one local purpose. The lecture was delivered to the Winnipeg "Historical Society," and in certain respects curiously illustrated historic methods, some of the points made being peculiarly inaccurate.

Bravely Earned.

A great sporting event took place on the river yesterday afternoon, and a gastronomic celebration thereof at the Douglas last night. It was the great inter-boarding house, double scull, go-as you-please rowing contest for oysters and English ale a la ad libitum. The contestants were Messrs. H. M. Martin and J. Hodge, against Messrs. C. B. Innes and L. Springer. Notwithstanding the pouring rain and the damp and gloomy character of the afternoon these gentlemen repaired to the Westminster Rowing Club's headquarters, and in the language of Sportiana, "peeled" for the fray. The fine physical proportions of the athletes were much admired by the crowd of friends and backers who accompanied them to the boat house. Indeed, one failed to see where the bill of fare of the one boarding house gained the supremacy over the other. Mr. Martin, who played so distinguished a part in Saturday's regatta, appeared to be in tremendous form, and his style in the boat spoke well for the brand of steak purveyed at his private hotel. The other gentlemen were full of confidence, and neither pair wasted much time in getting into their "light shalloops." Mr. E. H. Port officiated as referee and starter, while Mr. A. E. Pittendrigh acted as judge at the finish. The course was rather longer than that rowed on Saturday. A fair start was made, both boats getting away cleanly and easily. Soon Springer and Innes began to forge ahead and were seen to be rapidly increasing the distance between the two boats. It was noticed, however, that the other pair seemed to be holding back in the manner of the Irish jarvies so as to make a grand 2:40 gait entry into the town. Soon Martin spoke the word and they shot forward at fine speed, pulling a splendid steaky stroke that told its own tale too well. The finish was full of fun and excitement. With foam flying from their bows the plucky oarsmen came down the course at full speed. Martin and Hodge gained steadily on their gallant opponents and crossed the mark (water mark of course) a length and a half ahead of Springer and Innes. The victors were congratulated and the losers consoled, and an assignment made to meet at the Hotel Douglas the same evening and partake of the succulent bivalve and the nut brown mead in unmeasured flagons at the charges of the two gentlemen who did not win. It is reported that all hands had a capital time at the banquet and that more matches were made for future days.

CONCORD OF SWEET SOUNDS.

Dedication and Recital on the Only Grand Organ in Westminster.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian church was filled last night to its full seating capacity by one of the finest audiences ever drawn together in this city. No one known to have the slightest pretensions to musical talent or taste seemed to be absent. It was at once a fashionable and intellectual throng, something by the way, paradoxical, but nevertheless in this instance true. The church, brilliantly illuminated and filled with this fine audience presented a very imposing appearance. The St. Andrew's organ is truly a noble instrument, filling up the north end of the church and giving to the interior of the sacred edifice an indescribably improved and majestic aspect. The avoidance of sombre colors in the decoration and painting of the organ was perhaps a wise measure, and the soft tones and tints give a cheerful air of "sweetness and light," that is as consonant with the dignity of the place as it is pleasing to the eye. One could see by glancing over the programme that it had been prepared by someone who had abiding faith in the statement that has been made, but disputed, that Westminster people will enjoy classical music if they feel certain that it is in proper hands. It was indeed a classical programme. Beethoven, name synonymous with music's deepest joys; Wagner, the Carlyle of harmony; Schumann the ideal family man, unrivalled teacher and subtle charmer where melody dwells; Chopin the late lamented genial gymnast of the gamut; crown prince of arpeggio and chromatics; quite too too for the ordinary piano titillator; Costa, little known to "the herd," but peer with mighty Handel and his compeer, "he of Halle," John Sebastian Bach. In such good company of immortals was the audience in St. Andrew's last night asked to share. The opening number, the ascription, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," was heartily joined in by the audience. Rev. Thomas Scouler then offered up a feeling and impressive prayer of dedication. Mr. Paul Ambrose next took his seat on the organ bench and soon the glorious strains of Wagner's "Tannhauser" march were pealing forth. The grandeur of the piece admirably fits it for organ recital. Mr. Gibson's bass solo, "He shall give his angels charge," did him great credit, and was a very enjoyable number. Beethoven's famous Romance in G by Miss Nora Clench enraptured the audience. The delicacy of her touch and complete command over her violin are marvellous. Crabbed old Ludwig himself could have found no fault with Miss Clench's handling of his work. Miss Clench's playing of Schumann's "Traumerei" thrilled every heart in the audience, and the nocturne by Chopin gave her splendid scope to exhibit her wonderful skill with the bow. Miss Clench graciously accorded two encores in answer to the enthusiastic applause which greeted her; they were Blumenthal's "Jessa Lover of My Soul," given with inexpressible feeling and beyond criticism; the other was "Home Sweet Home," the effect of which in such hands can be better imagined than described. Mrs. C. H. Watson sang Torrente's "Show me thy ways, Oh Lord," in her best style, charming the audience and winning well deserved plaudits loud and long. Mrs. Watson's solo was one of the best numbers of the evening. Mr. Paul Ambrose's work at the organ showed him to be a master of that noble instrument. A prelude by Chopin, literally bristling with passages requiring the utmost precision of touch and delicacy of expression, gave Mr. Ambrose a grand chance to display not only his own powers, but the qualities of the organ. This number was very enjoyable and from all points of view a success. In the concluding number, the march from "Eli" by Costa, Mr. Ambrose had another opportunity to completely gain the good opinion of the audience and succeeded. The congregation of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church should rest satisfied in the assurance that they have an organ equal in power and sweetness to any on the Pacific coast, as the selections played upon it last evening were aimed to test fully its qualities in every direction. It is understood that the concert from a financial point of view was also eminently satisfactory.

The Potter's Art.

A large lot of first-class pottery ware came down the river on the Gladys yesterday from Winger's Landing; it is the manufacture of Mr. Popplewell, late of Leeds, Yorkshire, England, an old and experienced hand at all kinds of pottery work and the specimens are first-class articles of their class. Those brought down yesterday were flower vases, pots, etc., but Mr. Papplewell says that he is prepared to make all kind of clay ware such as drain pipes, tiles, fancy ware, rustic work, and in fact everything that can be made from the first-class clay beds from which he draws his supply of raw material. The vases are attractive in appearance and do not show a single flaw or crack in the drying and subsequent burning which shows that the maker thoroughly understands the business of mixing and drying his material. The industry is one which should be encouraged, and no doubt Mr. Popplewell will reap a rich harvest as the fruits of his labor in this new line of work. The few specimens brought down are to be seen at the place of business of Mr. Burns, the contractor, who will look after the enterprising manufacturer's interests in this city.

Pleasures of the Chase.

Two drenched duck hunters arrived in town last night from Pitt Meadows. The experience which they had undergone on the meadows they described briefly as "damp; tough." One of them stalked an old hat floating in the water for two mortal hours, got drenched to the skin crawling through the grass, wet his cartridges, and only after firing both barrels at the supposed mallard did he discover that it was a chapeau that had seen better weather. The other man had meanwhile discovered that he had a bayoed cross ways between the little toe of his left foot and the toe just next of that. So he sat down on the soppy bank of the slough and did all he could to pull of his long gum boot, but it would not. Just as he had it half off he saw a flight of ducks coming, seized his gun and on pulling the triggers found that he had failed to reload after the last discharge. He almost wept with vexation, but as the skies were doing so much in that line he wept not, just for spite. The climax came when his comrade arrived after the notable assault on the hat. "Where's that brandy flask, Jack?" That worthy turned pale, felt his pockets, game bag, boots. Gone. Both groaned and turned their faces towards the railway and set off for home in the plashing rain torrents. Floundering through bogs and sloughs and ponds; climbing over logs and toiling through the thick brush; speechless, but thoughtful. Ducks flew up almost under their noses and seemed even to linger to give them a chance to shoot; but they never heeded. Trudged on as the gloomy night stalked down from the mountains. When they go duck hunting again they say they will be much fonder of the excitement of the chase than they are at present. There may be plenty of fun in it if gone about in the proper way, but they think they must have left some principal ingredients out of the recipe for that way.

No word has been received from Washington as to the intentions of the American seal fisheries commissions, and it is possible that the report of the British delegates will be sent direct to the Imperial Government, leaving a decision upon the points in dispute to be reached by diplomacy.

The railway from the new iron mine in Belmont township, to connect with the Central Ontario railway, is being pushed forward and it is expected that the grading will be done this fall. The gold mine in the same vicinity is being developed and 30 men are employed at it. Rich returns have been obtained from the samples tested.

John Thompson died in London last week in the 82nd year of his age. He was a native of Yorkshire, England, and left in 1816 for Canada. He settled in St. David's, near Niagara Falls, until the year 1837, when he went to London, where he had ever since resided.

In a recent interview at Ottawa Chapleau said: "I have never put the pistol to Mr. Abbott's head. I have never asked anything from Mr. Abbott. It was his own promise made in June last, when the present Government was formed. Certain articles appeared in the Empire and Gazette evidently inspired by the Premier. I wrote asking what they meant; hence the situation."

The Canadian steambarge Sovereign, loaded with grain, from Port Arthur for Kingston, sank in lake Superior on Sunday morning. The Soverign had the schooner Sligo in tow, also grain laden, and the latter managed to reach the Soo in a battered condition, with the Sovereign's crew aboard. The lost vessel was owned by Capt. P. Kerwin, of Sarnia, and was valued at $12,000. The cargo was valued at $20,000.

The grand division of Sons of Temperance of New Brunswick, have passed a resolution pledging themselves to use the ballot to elevate to the legislatures men who favor prohibition and not to support any party that opposes making prohibition a part of the organic law of the Dominion, and also pledging their support to the party who will make the total prohibition of the liquor traffic the principal plank in its platform.

Prairie fires did great damage in Eastern Assiniboia during the early part of last week. At Red Jacket Hector McLean lost stable, 500 bushels of oats, all his hay and a colt; Angus McDonald lost four hay stacks, and Duncan McDougall lost all his grain. The fire started about one mile east of Wapella. Large fires are reported from Cannington and from Fairmede and in each case quantities of hay have been burned. The buildings on the unoccupied farm of Mr. W. A. McCorkell were destroyed.

The Toronto Globe's Montreal correspondent says: "Granting that his, Chapleau's, resignation is a fact, and that the breach cannot be healed, the programme of the Chapleau faction is that he will engage in a hand-to-hand fight with the Premier; that he will not make overtures to the opposition, that he will remain at the head of his own party and inaugurate a movement against what his friends style the 'ostracism of the province of Quebec,' opposing every ministry at Ottawa, which will not concede to the province what they claim to be its due."

Women's Christian Union Convention at Toronto last week passed resolutions which demanded a provincial franchise for women, believing such a step would the sooner bring about prohibition; condemned the display of indecent prints for advertising purposes of theatrical companies; protested against the traffic in Chinese girls for immoral purposes in Victoria, B. C.; recommended the closing of the World's Fair at Chicago on Sundays, and advised the raising from fourteen to eighteen the age limit of lads to whom the sale of tobacco is prohibited.

"Alpha Omega Perpetual Cook" was the name handed in to the city clerk of London, Ont., last week for registration in the births department of the local vital statistics. The owner of the somewhat unique name is a bright male youngster, who has recently come to brighten the home of Mr. P. H. Cook of that city. "Only once before do I remember a name of the same character being registered here," the clerk said, "and that was years ago, when a man came here and persisted in having his son registered as Jesus Christ."

Alex. McK. Barclay, a farm laborer in Nichol, Ont., has been committed to the county jail on a charge of bigamy. On October 16th he was married at the rectory by Ven. Archdeacon Dixon to Kate O'Neil, of Nichol, when every publicity was given to the wedding. It is alleged now, however, that Barclay was married previously to Martha Cruikshank, of the county of Bruce, where Barclay resided at one time. This statement the prisoner denies, although he admits that he kept company with Marth Cruikshank, who he alleges, is now a married woman somewhere in the Northwest. The defendant is about 33 years of age, rather an intelligent man with only one arm.

A despatch from Paris, Ont., says a destructive fire broke out last Wednesday morning at 2 o'clock, burning Gillies Bros.' large stock of lumber, wood and coal sheds, water tank and several cars of the Grand Trunk railway. The fire is supposed to have orginated in Gillies Bros.' engine house, and as a strong wind was blowing from the north it carried the fire to the roof of the freight house. Owing to the early hour at which the fire occured it gained too much headway before the fire brigade arrived for them to be of any service in saving the Gillies property. The express trains were delayed for some time before they could pass, the heat and flames being so intense. Gillies Bros.' loss is a heavy one, and they have only about $900 insurance.

SIR, One man is better than another, just in proportion as he dresses well. Talk as you will, it is the external appearance by which we judge a man at first sight, and first impressions are the most lasting. No man who can afford to buy a suit of clothes, can afford to have that suit ill fashioned. That is sound philosophy, and it can be lived up to only by ordering your garments from the Famous Westminster Tailor Manson

Before regular through trains are started on the Westminster Southern there will be a grand excursion from Seattle to Westminster with stops at Blaine and Whatcom. The regular trains are expected to make the run from Blaine to Seattle in four and a half hours.

The Westminster Association Football Club is open to receive challenges from clubs in the neighboring cities. Address: F. Jackson, Hon. Sec.-Treas., New Westminster. *

Work on the buildings at present in course of erection has been stopped by the heavy rains, and the contractors are eagerly looking forward to a spell of fine weather, that they may be able to get them roofed in and continue work on the interior during the winter months.

The editor is in receipt of a letter for publication signed "Jemima," which, while we appreciate the excellent spirit in which it is written, we do not think it would be judicious to print. On second thought, "Jemima" will probably agree with us that "Judith" needs no defender.

It is a genuine pleasure to use Silver Star Stove Polish. No dust, no dirt, no smell, no labor. It polishes almost instantly. Try it. Corbett & Cliff, opposite the Opera House. *

Stephenson, says the Colonist, is not by any means satisfied with the result of Saturday's boat race, and expresses himself as willing and anxious to try conclusions with Hanlan again for larger stakes—$1,000 aside. He says he will be prepared to row a second race in skiffs.

The steamer Danube arrived at Victoria on Sunday from the north. She brought 17,000 cases of salmon. While loading salmon at Balmoral cannery a few days ago a Chinaman was knocked into the hold by a sling of salmon, and died shortly afterwards from his injuries.

Lost.—A young fox terrier dog. Black marking all on left side. Had collar inscribed with owner's name. A suitable reward will be paid anyone bringing the dog to this office, or supplying information that will lead to his recovery. *

The congregation of Knox church, Sapperton, yesterday insured their building with Messrs. H. G. Ross & Co., for $3,000. The handsome church is just completed and is a practical monument to the earnestness and push of the Presbyterians of the rising burg to the east end of this town.

The artillery band are practising a peculiar piece which carries out the idea of a storm at sea. In the grand concert soon to be announced, this piece will be one of the principal dishes. It is so realistic that some of the auditors on Monday night became very seasick, and one man asked to be put ashore at once.

Some drivers of vehicles in turning from Sixth into Columbia street coming down hill, are very careless. There will be an accident there soon if more caution is not exercised. Last night a hack dashed down Sixth street and into Columbia at great speed. The wheels dug a piece clean out of the crosswalk in turning.

The lepers, who have been in strict quarantine in Vancouver, were given their liberty yesterday. The guards were removed at 2 o'clock and the leprous Chinamen allowed to join their countrymen in Chinatown. The World says of the circumstance. It is to be hoped that Ald. Templeton and the other five feel elated at their work. Theirs is a very grave responsibility.

The R. M. S. Empress of China arrived at Vancouver yesterday morning. She brought 37 saloon, 8 second saloon, 165 Chinese and 13 Europeans in the steerage. Also 34 sacks of mail, one parcel post basket and one paper parcel. Amongst the cargo is an unusually large amount of silk from Japan, the balance being tea, rice and general merchandise. The total weight is 2,263 tons.

Crowds of sportsmen are visiting Pitt meadows to have a shot at the ducks and other winged game of which that locality is such a favorite resort at this season of the year. For some reason or another, they are not as plentiful as usual this fall and many shootists have their day's prance for nothing; it is expected, however, that the first cold spell will bring the game round in great quantities.

A good many enquiries have been made lately why one or two of the modern languages are not included in the evening classes now being carried on in the city. Very practical people are fond of saying, "what's the use of learning French or German?" But only those who have learned them are qualified to tell of the splendid mind-broadeners and incubators of mental discipline those languages are, besides other vast advantages that would not a little astonish the intensely practical. No man who has attained even a moderate degree of familiarity with those two languages ever begrudged the time spent on their acquirement.

Appealing the Case.

The appealed case of the Chinese gamblers against the conviction of Mr. T. C. Atkinson, P. M., and Mr. P. McTiernan, J. P., made on August 20th last, came up before his honor Judge Bole yesterday. The appellants were fined $100 for looking on at a gambling game in Chinatown at the time when the house was raided by Chief Houston and his men, and have now placed their case in the hands of Mr. Morrison of Messrs. Corin & Morrison, who, with Mr. Wilson for the respondents, is arguing it before his honor Judge Bole. It promises to be a lengthy business.

A Man of Expedients.

Another "genuis" has been discovered in this city he had no umbrella or overcoat yesterday and the rain was meandering down his spinal column and filling his off boot; the unaccustomed application of water was too much for his feelings and his physiognomy portrayed the agony which bored holes in his soul. A packing case lay by the side of the street and with a glad cry the tortured one ripped off the lid and turned it upside down upon his head; it shed water like a duck's back and with a beaming, four-ply smile the gentleman of leisure went his way down the busy street in his cedar hat regardless of the looks of amazement his novel headgear called forth from those who witnessed the strange spectacle.

Endorsed by All.

The hearty endorsement of clergymen, oculists, physicians and leading business gentlemen in every city he has visited affords ample evidence that the eminent Optician of New York, Professor F. D. Seward now visiting this city, is a conscientious and thoroughly competent professor of physical optics. If further evidence were needed, it is found in hundreds of grateful letters from ladies and gentlemen all over the United States and British Columbia, who are wearing, with the utmost pleasure and satisfaction, fine glasses adopted by Professor Seward.

The work in New Westminster has been no exception to the rule as will be seen by reading the following endorsement:

QUEEN'S HOTEL, October 24, 1891.

To the citizens of New Westminster:

Realizing the great importance of retaining good eye-sight and personally knowing of the wonderful skill of Professor F. D. Seward of New York, now visiting this city, we, the undersigned heartily commend his work and recommend that all our citizens who wear or need glasses should take advantage of the present opportunity of consulting this eminent specialist.

BISHOP SILLITOE, Anglican.
REV. THOS. SCOULER, Pres. church.
REV. E. BONSON, Meth. church.
REV. J. REID, D. D., Reform. Epis.
REV. ROBT. LENNIE, Baptist.

Professor Seward's optical parlors are at the Queen's Hotel. He will remain but a short time longer, consequently all those intending to call should do so without further delay. *

A Pointer to the Public.

District Lot No. 28 lies immediately adjoining the city limits. The continuation of Mary Street goes directly through it, and the Electric Tramway will in a couple of months be running its cars every hour of the day through the centre of this property. The lot (No. 28) is composed of 128 acres of land as level as a table. Contracts have been let to clear and grub the ground, and leave it in perfect condition for building purposes. Already six citizens have decided to erect handsome residences there, ragging in price from $4,000 to $7,000 each. The whole of this splendid piece of property (except some limited portions already disposed of) will be put on the market in a few weeks. One great advantage in buying a lot and erecting a residence on this property is that the owner will avoid heavy municipal taxation. Make a note of it, and wait till the property is put on the market before buying *
