RUSSIA'S AUTOCRAT

Changes His Mind, and Wants the Jews to Quit Russia.

FEARFUL BLIZZARD IN ENGLAND

Henniker-Heaton will Oppose The Vancouver-Japan Mail Service.

FLORENCE BOEHM VICTORIOUS

LONDON, March 10.—Advices from St. Petersburg state that by order of the Czar all restrictions have been removed from the emigration of Jews, and the authorities everywhere are instructed to facilitate such immigration. The severity of the anti-Jewish laws has not, however, been in any degree mitigated. In accordance with the new policy the Jews are flocking in multitudes towards Odessa, in the south and the German frontier in the north. They avoid the Austrian frontier, owing to the strong anti-Jewish feeling which prevails in Austrian Poland, and which has lately found expression in acts of violence against the Jews. Baron Hirsch is supplying the money to assist the emigration of Hebrews by way of Odessa. It appears that not only have a considerable number of Russian and Polish Jews been forwarded through England to the United States during the past few months, but many foreign Jews already resident in London and who have been living here in poverty, have been assisted to emigrate to America, so that the actual Jewish population of London is diminishing instead of increasing. The Czar has appointed his brother the Grand Duke Sergius, who is married to a grand daughter of Queen Victoria, governor of Moscow. This honor is bestowed in recognition of the conversion of the Grand Duchess to the orthodox Russian faith.

BLIZZARDS IN BRITAIN.

The snow storm which prevailed last night was one of the severest that ever visited England at this time of year. In London at midnight, traffic and locomotion ceased. The streets were piled up with snow, and the wind blew a hurricane, so that few dared to face it, filled as it was with fine particles of hail. Today the streets are almost impassable, and the entire force of city and metropolitan laborers are at work trying to clear them up. Railways are interrupted and telegraph wires are down in all directions. Reports filtering into the city show that the snow, which fell without cessation for 14 hours, has covered the south of England in some places to the depth of 8 feet. Nothing like it has been known before. Americans can only compare it with the New York blizzard of 1888.

The effects of the storm at sea are terrible. From Plymouth, Dover, Sheerness and ports along the East coast as far North as Newcastle, come reports of wreck and disaster. The channel boats have been unable to put out and service is suspended. No communication has been had with Paris for thirty-six hours. The Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh are detained at Dover waiting for the storm to abate that they may cross over to Calais. The mail cart plying between Sittingbourne and Sheerness was snowed up and the driver nearly perished. He was compelled to abandon his cart and make for the nearest refuge, but was overcome and found in a snowdrift this morning half dead. A driver sent in search of him is missing.

The only topic of discussion in England is the fearful blizzard which has paralyzed business in town and country. The visitation has had no precedent in Great Britain at this time of year. What the snow may conceal is not yet known, but it is certain that many lives have been lost. A fearful amount of distress is reported from all parts of the country.

THE HURRICANE'S VIOLENCE.

The rumor that a channel steamer had sunk between Calais and Dover proves to have been unfounded, and the vessel referred to, which proves to have been the mail boat, has arrived in Calais in safety after a terrible rough voyage of eighteen hours.

The yacht Sapphire, owned by Mr. McLure of Glasgow, went ashore at Harwich during the storm. The admiralty pier at Dover was so battered by heavy seas that ten ton stones were displaced, while blocks of iron weighing two tons each were swept away.

At Dorking, in Surrey, a man has been found frozen to death.

STORMY NOTES.

In the north of England and Scotland the storm is somewhat milder. At Dumfries the cold is fifteen degrees above zero.

For 24 hours the gale has been intermittent in the south of England.

Business is suspended at Bristol and trains are snowed in all sections.

The Duke of Edinburgh, who was on his way to resume his naval command at Devonport, has been snowed in at Taunton.

The blizzard is unabated in some sections, and at Tiverton the snowdrifts are 20 feet high.

Continental mails are many hours late.

A Norwegian bark has been burnt in the channel trying to light signals of distress.

The weather continues terrible. Snow has been falling in London all of Tuesday night.

ARISTOCRATIC PHYSICAL WRECKS.

The Duke of Bedford, who succeeded to the title a few weeks ago when the late Duke committed suicide by shooting himself through the heart, is so seriously ill that doubts are entertained of his recovery. The new Duke is about 39 years of age. He is staying at Woburn Abbey suffering severely with pleurisy.

PADLEWSKI AGAIN.

The Berlin police arrested a man named Frietz, who was suspected of being the Pole Padlewski, who murdered the Russian General Sellverskoff in Paris. The evidence of identity was unsatisfactory, and the man was released. No sooner was he released than he made haste to get away from Berlin, and now the police think they had the right man after all. It appears that the report that the body of Padlewski had been found, partly eaten by wolves, in Bulgaria, was started by a Bulgarian newspaper as a hoax.

JUST JUDGMENT.

The court has rendered a decision in the case of Miss Florence Boehm, daughter of the sculptor, Boehm, whose petition for an alteration of the wording of her father's will was recently heard and decision reserved. The obvious intention of the testator was to bequeath £10,000 each to his daughters Florence and Georgiana, but by an error in drawing up the will the name of Georgiana appeared as the inheritor of both bequests. Evidence was produced to show, that Boehm had expressed his purpose of leaving an equal sum to each of his daughters, and the court decided that Florence is entitled to £10,000.

MUSCOVITE INTRIGUERS.

A despatch from Berlin says that Chancellor von Caprivi had a long conference on Monday with the Swedish Ambassador, Lagerheim, and that the subject of discussion was the reported Russian intrigue to unsettle the relations of Norway and Sweden. The Kaiser has, it is stated, been anxious for a long time to draw Sweden into an alliance with Germany in the event of war. If he acted at all, he preferred to stand alone for the present.

HENNIKER HEATON OPPOSES IT.

It is said that the proposition to include in the postal service estimates the sum of £39,000 for a mail packet service between Japan and Vancouver will be opposed in the House of Commons by the member for Canterbury, Mr. J. Henniker Heaton, who has recently returned to Great Britain after a prolonged visit to the United States and Canada in connection with a system of one cent postage.

ON THE FRONTIERS.

A Berlin despatch says that the German Emperor will make an extended tour shortly, in the Rhenland near the French frontier, but without entering France. The Kaiser has given no sign of intention to deal more leniently in the matter of Alsace-Lorraine passports.

NATIONAL PRESS STOCK.

Mr. Sexton stated in Dublin today, in answer to the charges of English support of the McCarthyite faction that only nine of the 600 shareholders of the new McCarthyite organ, the National Press, were well known men, and only £900 of the £45,000 of capital stock were held outside of Ireland.

GOOD GENERALSHIP.

The Socialist leaders in Westphalia, while defending the justice of the proposed miners' strike, have, it is stated, advised the miners to refrain from any offensive or violent demonstrations that would give a pretext to the authorities to put down the movement by force.

WELL WARMED.

Mr. Gladstone gave a house warming in his new house in Park Lane last night. Mr. John Morley, Earl and Countess of Aberdeen, Earl Rosebery, and many others were present.

German Mine Disaster.

BERLIN, March 10.—By the ignition of fire damp in the Monopol pit at Camen, Westphalia, today, six men were killed and a number imprisoned in the mine, whom, it is feared, are also dead.

SHOCKING FATALITY.

The residence of Gustave Bander, owner of a large estate at Finsterwalde Brandenburg, Prussia, was burned this morning and his wife and two children perished in the flames. The barns, outhouses, stables, etc., were also burned to the ground with a large number of horses and cattle.

FREE, ENLIGHTENED GERMANY.

BERLIN, March 10.—A soldier in Breslau has been sentenced to a long term of imprisonment for expressing an unfavorable view of the Kaiser's military abilities. An officer who heard the man, knocked him down, and then ordered him to be court martialed.

REQUIRES WATCHING.

It is reported that Philip Darke Roche, who has figured in a noted American divorce case, is in a fair way to be taken care of in the civil service of the Empire. Roche is a near connection, by a brother's marriage, of Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and has other powerful friends at court. Just at present he is dependent upon his own relatives for support.

Cobbled the Last One.

BERLIN, March 10.—The Government has completed the negotiations for the purchase of the Lubeck-Buchen railway, about the only road in Germany remaining in private hands.

Napoleonic Brevity.

ROME, March 10.—Prince Victor was today brought by the Princess Clothilde, wife of Prince Jerome Napoleon, to the bedside of his dying father. Prince Napoleon recognized his son and said to him, "I am going; all is over." The attending physicians say that it is not likely that death will occur immediately.

Abducted His Own Wife.

MANCHESTER, March 10.—Jackson, who ran away from Clitheroe, carrying off by force his own wife, is still besieged in his own house at Bradford by friends of Mrs. Jackson. The blockade was kept up throughout the night in spite of the blizzard. The police guarding the house had to be relieved every hour, owing to the intense cold. Fresh supplies of sympathizers supplied the places of the besieging party as needed. They threatened to take the house by storm, but the rapid reinforcement of the police prevented them doing so. Now they declare they will lynch Jackson the moment he dares show himself abroad, but he remains securely barricaded within his well guarded house and with friends to assist in his defence. He obstinately refuses to surrender Mrs. Jackson into the hands of her friends. The poor lady is locked in a chamber and is in a condition of great distress. She is more than ever determined not to live with her husband, and since she has been in his power she has refused to speak or take food. The sympathy for her in Bradford and Clitheroe is intense and growing, and threatens to take a form of action which the authorities will be unable to resist.

MR. CHAPLEAU TO BE KNIGHTED

A THOROUGH ANNEXATIONIST

Langevin says the Government Will Have a Majority of Forty.

MONTREAL, March 10.—The Star's special from Chicago gives the following interview with General Traffic Manager Reeves of the Grand Trunk, who makes no attempt to deny that a large number of residents in that city and other States were shipped to Canada to vote at the recent election. In conversation with a reporter he said: It is true that we carried between 150 and 200 Canucks to Canada a day or two before the election. We also carried several hundred from various points in Indiana and Michigan. They went to Canada for the purpose of voting the Liberal ticket, which favored closer relations with the United States. I am not ashamed of it. I am an annexationist and have been for twenty years. I would like to see the stars and stripes floating over every mile of the Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific systems. I wish we had been able to muster thousands more. As it was, we could not muster enough, for the election went against us. Mr. Reeves smiled sadly.

"Did you furnish the men with free transportation?"

"No, we were paid for it; we are not running a gift enterprise."

"Did any one furnish them with free transporation?"

"I could not say as to that, I know that I did not furnish them with transporation. Of course I tried to invite as many to go as possible; it made business for the road and helped our cause. I see now, however, that I made a mistake in not working harder. I ought to have organized bureaus and induced every Canuck in the Western States to have gone and voted against Macdonald. As it is, I don't think we persuaded over 500 or 600 to go home and vote. You can say that I have done nothing to be ashamed, unless it was that I did not work hard enough."

BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

Sir Hector Langevin thinks that the Government's majority in the new House will reach 40, and fully expects that if a vote be taken on the election of a speaker, a Government man will have a majority from every Province in the Dominion.

OUR OWN WIGGINS.

OTTAWA, March 10.—Professor E. Stone Wiggins, the weather prophet, says there is at this moment on the North Atlantic and approaching the American coast a greater storm than any that will happen during the remainder of this year or during 1892. There will be no earthquake beyond a few shakes north of our equator during these two years. There will some disturbance south of the equator owing to Jupiter's southern declination which is twelve degrees. His large right ascension of 22 hours will contribute greatly to the storm now pending. There will be great earthquakes with displacement in North America until August 17, 1904. This will rock the surface from Philadelphia to Prince Edward Island, and may produce some damage in the maritime cities of the Northern States and the Dominion.

CHAPLEAU TO BE KNIGHTED.

TORONTO, March 10.—The Globe's Montreal correspondent says that it is not improbable that Hon. Mr. Chapleau may be raised to the rank of knighthood as a reward for political services.

MORE RIGID THAN EVER.

A Washington dispatch says that it is the intention of the United States government to exercise a more rigid policy of control over Alaskan waters during the coming season than ever before, and to use the utmost care to protect the seals there.

WILL DO GOOD.

A cablegram to the Globe says the Farmers' delegates reports are now issued and in course of circulation throughout the country. Their general tenor is highly satisfactory.

MANITOBA PARLIAMENT.

WINNIPEG, March 10.—The Manitoba Legislature opened today. It is thought that the session will be short.

RAILWAY MEETING.

MEDICINE HAT, March 10.—A collision occurred on the Great Falls and Canada Railroad two miles west of Dunmore, yesterday evening. Three men were injured, only one seriously, an engineer named Barrett.

NOT VERY PROBABLE.

HALIFAX, March 10.—Charles Langelier of Quebec and C. W. Weldon of St. John are in the city. Their mission is asserted to be an attempt to purchase Conservative support to defeat the Government.

KILLED BY COLD.

LETHBRIDGE, Man., March 10.—Word has been received of the finding of Pullbreman Haron's body. He was frozen stiff, the eyes and mouth open and his watch in his hand. His horse, with one foot caught in the saddle-strap, was almost dead when discovered.

New Irish Federation.

DUBLIN, March 10.—The Executive Committee of the new Irish federation intended by the McCarthyites to take the place of the National League, are, as appointed today: Messrs. Justin McCarthy, M. P., Arthur O'Connor, M. P., Thomas Sexton, M. P., Thomas J. Condon, M. P., David Sheehy, M. P., Timothy Sullivan, M. P., and Alfred Webb, M. P., and Dillon and O'Brien if they are willing.

Denies Complicity.

VIENNA, March 10.—Garaschine, who was Servian Minister of the Interior when Helen Markovics and another were strangled in prison for the attempted killing of King Milan, disowns the responsibility for the crime. He was absent in France when the women were strangled, and had no authority over the soldiers who were guarding the prisoners.

Lowered Again.

DETROIT, March 10.—The 6-day bicycle race, eight hours a day, was concluded tonight, Ashinger winning by one lap. The following are the totals and awards: Ashinger 733 miles and one lap, gold medal and 40 per cent of the gate receipts; Reading, 733 miles, 25 per cent of gate receipts; Martin, 659; Shock, 605; Clark, 440. The best previous record for 48 hours riding is 715 miles. Ashinger thus broke the record by sixteen miles and one lap.

Behring Sea Settlement.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Behring Sea negotiations have taken a most favorable turn, and the Governments of the United States and Great Britain appear to have reached a basis upon which to settle their difficulties.

[Space forbids the publication of the lengthy correspondence between Lord Salisbury and James G. Blaine, on which rests predictions of an early settlement of this protracted diplomatic struggle between the two governments.—ED.]

For the Widow.

NEW YORK, March 10.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says: The movement made by a few personal friends of Secretary Windom to raise a fund of $50,000 for Mrs. Windom, has been successful and the entire amount has been secured and will be handed to Mrs. Windom in a few days. It is made directly as a present. Stephen B. Elkins leads a list, ten of whom gave $2,500 each. Many well-known New York business men were among the subscribers.

Puget Sound Dry Dock.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Herald's Washington special says: Strong influence is being brought to bear on Secretary Tracy by certain New York capitalists to prevent the carrying out of the provisions of the new naval appropriation act authorizing the construction of a naval dry dock on Puget Sound. These parties have learned through the debate in Congress on the provisions referred to of the large and constantly growing shipping interest in that section, and have concluded that it would be a profitable investment to build a dock of their own, if they could succeed in preventing the construction of one by the government. They hope to be able to get the secretary to stave off action until Congress meets again, by which time they expect to have their dock under way.

Hardy Settlers.

Settlers are swarming up the coast regularly to claims they have taken up among the islands in the Gulf. Last evening the steamer Agnes was expected to leave Vancouver with a party of six settlers and supplies for Hernando Island where they propose spending the summer on claims they have taken up there. The party take with them about 6,000 feet of lumber for houses and all requisite supplies.

Another Settler Gone.

Mr. Charles H. Croker, aged 35, farmer near Englishman's River, died yesterday at the residence of Mr. H. Lee in that district. Mr. Croker was well known in Nanaimo as he took a prominent part in the last Provincial election, canvassing for Dr. Walkem, the defeated candidate. He had been sick for two weeks, the immediate cause of his death being attributed to heart trouble. Mr. Croker was very well connected in the Old Country being a nephew of Lord Monk, but had been out here some time following the life of a farmer.

Characteristic Bunglingr.

The Vancouver World in reporting a sermon preached by the Rev. R. R. Maitland of that city, committed this ludicrous blunder, just like the World though, and is down on its marrow bones with both hands up begging pardon: "Christianity does not differ in so very many particulars from heathenism." What the World admits it should have said was, "Christianity does not differ in this particular from heathenism." But public opinion will be unanimous that the "Vancouver World's Christianity does not differ in so very many particulars from heathenism;" that $100 bluff scandal for example.

The Tramway Route.

A meeting of the New Westminster and Vancouver Electric Railway Company, Limited, was held in Vancouver on Monday afternoon, at which it was decided to call for tenders and proceed with the clearing and grading of the right of way from the limits of the corporation of New Westminster to that of Vancouver. The route to be taken between these two points was likewise finally decided upon. The contract has already been awarded to a contractor for the construction of the roadbed in the city of New Westminster and on towards Vancouver to and including district lot 26. Here it is proposed to locate the power house and repair shops of the company. The route from this point deflects slightly to the south and proceeds westerly through lots 28, 30, 95, 96, 97 and 98 to the Government reserve; Crossing this reserve diagonally it will then pass through lot 33, at the northwest corner of which it strikes the southern boundary of the Hastings townsite reserve. To this point the line has been laid out and staked as well as having been cross-sectioned and proper profiles made thereof for construction and tendering purposes. From the point already referred to the line will take a northwesterly direction until it reaches lot 195. Continuing through this lot and skirting the little lake near its northwestern boundary the line passes through South, or Clarke's park, marked on the map as block 169, until the southern boundary of block 162 in 264A is reached, beyond which, as yet, the final route to be taken has not been decided upon. This will now rest entirely with the property owners and the support they are prepared to extend to the company as to the route which it will ultimately adopt.

COMPULSORY VOTING.

The fact that a considerable number of the Dominion Parliamentary electors of each constituency omit to record their votes is causing some, once more to argue in the columns of the press, in favor of compulsory voting. Those, who support this, hold that the electoral franchise is a public trust, the active exercise of which should be legally enforced, excepting where there are really grave preventative reasons, such as physical or other incapacity or legitimate absence by long distance from the constituency on the list of which the abstaining elector is. A compulsory voting system has, we believe, never yet been adopted in any country; and there are, in our opinion, valid objections to be urged against such a limitation of individual freedom of action, which cannot in this case, as in some others, be justified by urgent considerations of general public advantage. Those who now refrain from recording their votes, though unprevented by physical or other incapacity or far distance, mostly do this, either because they disapprove the policy of both parties or the local candidates; or because they think, know or care so little about the political issues at stake that they will take no trouble to vote.

A compulsory voting system would therefore, in some cases, result in an attempt to force electors to poll for men and principles disapproved by them, no candidates of their views being locally forthcoming. This would conflict with conscientious scruples; and public opinion would probably refuse to support any action taken to punish electors, who refused to vote under these circumstances.

Compulsory voting would be very [illegible] suit in [illegible] would force to the poll large numbers of electors either too ignorant of or indifferent to public affairs to record any intelligent or well considered decision upon them. These men, who now largely abstain from voting, would in comparatively few cases be induced by a compulsory poll system to take any more active or intelligent interest in politics than they do now. They would be led to the polls like sheep; and their unthinking record of the suffrage, easily biassed by wholly unworthy or utterly trivial considerations, would often decide the issue of the day, and perhaps with it the fate of this country. Our present canvassing system, although presenting some advantages in the form of political instruction thus conveyed, is nevertheless, open to some objection as bringing up to vote a larger number of the unintelligent and ignorantly indifferent than would otherwise record their suffrages. A compulsory voting system, would, however, as we have shown, tend to place the control of grave issues of state policy in the hands of the least capable voters.

Fortunately, indeed, compulsory voting is unlikely ever to become a question of practical politics. What can, and should be done, is to impress upon electors the fact that the franchise is a public trust, which ought to be honestly and intelligently exercised, in order to do which, each voter should acquaint himself, to the best of his ability and opportunity, with the great national questions of his time.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A "little nonsense now and then is relished," says the proverb, "by the wisest men," and some of our city aldermen accordingly indulged in this excusable amusement on Monday, and thus relieved of motony the routine proceedings of the evening. The passing of the "Trespassing Chicken Bylaw" afforded the desired occasion; and upon this a worthy alderman promptly seized, making a suggestion that a rider be added to include the feline tribe. To keep the "harmless necessary cat," especially of nights, within the bounds of his own domain would, however, surely prove a task worthy of Sisyphus, for puss knows nothing and cares less for lot limits. Conceive, too, if one can, the hapless plight of a poundkeeper with a pair of lively tomcats nosed behind his heels; and imagine the feelings of lady owners deprived of well-furred and beribboned pets. The suggestion was manifestly impossible, and accordingly "laughed out of court" amid a guffaw in which the proposer joined as heartily as any one.

The Lord Lieutenant of Ireland stated on Saturday last, that despite much distress in certain localities, the general level of Irish prosperity was steadily rising. Agrarian crimes, too, were diminishing, having fallen from 1656 in 1886 to 891 in 1890. Lord Zetland also gave some interesting facts as to the administration of Mr. Balfour's relief fund of £50,000, towards which it seems the much abused Irish constabulary have contributed no less than £1,370. The fund is now aiding more than 10,000 people weekly in the west of Ireland. These and other poor folk have also received from the relief committee more than 45,000 warm suits of clothes. The government railway works are in addition employing 15,000, and thus directly or indirectly benefiting families, representing in all at least 70,000 souls. Things Irish are accordingly looking more hopeful.

The Victorians have cleared part of their Chinatown by fire, fearing to pull the shacks to pieces, and thus pollute the air with germs of disease engendered by the foulness of the place. The property had previously been purchased and the Chinese inhabitants peacefully evicted in order to make room for a public market. The city firemen superintended the purgatorial process and kept the flames in check within safe limits. Many here will hope that a similar lawful dispossession and cleansing process may ere long be applied to some of the vile hovels in "the swamp" and elsewhere. They are absolutely unfit for human habitation; and myriad germs of disease surely lurk in every nook and corner of them. Happily the sites they occupy are rapidly becoming so valuable for business purposes that these dens are fairly certain to be removed ere long to give place to stores or warehouses.

The Victoria Times "despairs of the republic." The "plutocracy rules; "simplicity is giving way to the cloth "of gold;" the people are in danger of becoming "the puppets of unscrupulous men" and "no better than helots." Thus is our Province editorially described, because a certain contested election "went wrong." Cheer up Sir, editor, cheer up! "Better luck next time," should be the motto of a plucky politician, "thrown" in a first effort as a Parliamentary candidate. Comparatively few win at a trial election. Even Disraeli failed at first.

It seems, even now, all but impossible to get an accurate estimate of the result of the Dominion elections of last week. It, however, seems fairly certain that with three constituencies yet to poll the Government has a majority of not more than twenty-one or twenty-two. Our local contemporary's estimate that Sir John will meet Parliament on the 28th February with a majority of at least 35 is therefore, likely to be excessive by at least ten members. Many of the constituencies having been very closely contested, there will probably be a larger number of election petitions than usual. These may ultimately affect the relative state of parties considerably, the present [illegible] nearly balanced.

La grippe is said to be again spreading [illegible] only a few isolated cases have, as yet, occurred here. The epidemic is also once more becoming general in Europe, having made its first appearance, as before, in Russia. This tends to the conclusion formed last year by many medical experts, that the disease takes its rise in the East and is originally due to the foul conditions of life in oriental lands.

Great excitement prevails in municipal circles in Vancouver over the break up of Monday's meeting of the City Council. The quarrel has mainly arisen over the dismissal of Mr. WARREN, the chief engineer of Vancouver, with whom Mayor OPPENHEIMER sympathises, as indeed do also many professional men conversant with the facts of the case. It is generally believed that the mayor will ultimately emerge from the conflict victorious, though at present things municipal are at a deadlock in the Terminal City, as six of the Council decline to attend and form a quorum at its meetings.

It is stated that there were on the Batavia, which the other day touched at Vancouver en route for Seattle, seventeen young Japanese women, destined to a life of infamy in the Washington State city. This is, if true, horrible. One is therefore inclined to doubt the report, for surely the Japanese authorities would intervene to prevent such a traffic as this.

A conscientious effort made to strike the golden mean, e a performance equally interest- the most artisic and the most ele- nts. Next Tuesday evening is St. k's night, and every son of the ald Isle in Westminster will crowd to the beautiful melodies of Ire- layed and sung to perfection. The California Senatorship.

he death of Senator Hearst has ed a lively scramble at the California tal for the succession. A Seattle per says the legislature in session at ramento is not by any means a high s one, and it is well understood that lover wants the vacant senatorship d have to "put up." The California pers are discussing the situation with eat freedom. The most prominent didates are Charles N. Felton, a yer of ability, who has served two terms in congress, and who is presumed to have the railroad backing; M. M. Estee, lawyer, politican and vineyard owner, who is favored by Dan Burns, who aspires to be the Republican state boss; and M. H. De Young, publisher of the Chronicle, who is advocated by Crimmins and Kelly, Republican bosses in San Francisco.

Resurrection of Football.

Every football man in Westminster should be present at Queen's Park grounds on Saturday next. The intention is to have a rattling practice game if the ground is found to be in anything like good condition. The matches with Nanaimo, Victoria and Vancouver must be played off in the near future, and it is very important that the team which is to uphold the Royal City standard in the fray should be in condition to play a winning game.

To Check the Flames.

It is stated that most of the new brick blocks soon to be erected in this city will contain interior brick partitions wherever feasible. These will be made substantially enough to check and perhaps stop altogether the ravages of fire and confine it within narrow bounds. This will be a great advance on the present system of construction and should render those blocks as nearly fire proof as possible. It is not improbable that all large buildings to be erected here in future will have those fire walls built into them.

Gun Club Meeting.

An unofficial meeting of the Gun Club was held last evening in the Hyack Hall. General matters of business were discussed, and it was decided to write to Mr. S. H. Webb while that gentleman is in England, asking him to make arrangements to export for the club twelve brace of partridges and six pair of hares. An unofficial communication was read from Mr. S. Williams, relative to a union of the Mainland Game Protective Association and the club in this city. It was arranged that there should be a practice match at 1 o'clock on Good Friday from 1 till 5, on the south side of the river.

From Osoyoos.

Mr. H. S. Pittendrigh, son of Captain Pittendrigh of this city, and manager of the Haynes ranch, Osoyoos Lake, Okanagan, says in a letter dated the 1st inst., that the weather is wet. February was very cold, but not to be compared with last winter. The coldest day was February 27th, when the thermometer registered 2 degrees below zero. It was much milder on March 1st. The cattle are looking well; only the young stock were fed and there is over 500 tons of hay left. There will be a great boom at Osoyoos, as the Great Northern are expected to have trains running this year. Another railroad company is coming down Kettle River across to Osoyoos and up the Similkameen to the east.

Their Mail Service.

The people of the Kootenay Lake country only obtained a weekly mail service by agreeing to pay half the cost of such service, the Government very generously contributing the other half. The contract was awarded the late Joe Wilson, but with the distinct understanding on his part that he was to be allowed a full week in which to make the round trip between Nelson and Ainsworth, because of the uncertainty of communication between the two points. He also stipulated that the mail must leave Nelson for Marcus and for Ainsworth on Mondays. The Wilson estate has lived up to this agreement to the letter. All towns on the route have received a weekly service. The inbound mail leaves Marcus on Mondays, Trail Creek on Wednesdays, Sproat on Thursdays, and Nelson on Mondays, arriving at Ainsworth on Monday nights or on Tuesday forenoons. Returning, the mail leaves Ainsworth on Fridays or Saturdays, Nelson on Mondays, Sproat on Tuesdays, and Trail Creek on Wednesdays, arriving at Marcus on Thursdays. By this arrangement, the people at each point have ample time to answer letters, and know that the arrival and departure of the mails will be on the same day each week. This does not suit the people of Ainsworth—they want the Ainsworth mail to leave Nelson the day after its arrival, returning from Ainsworth to Nelson on Mondays. The contractor claims that to do this will necessarily cause delays at every other point on the route, and he is unwilling to do it. He also claims that had it not been for the people of Nelson, the lake country would have had but a semi-monthly service during the winter, and that Ainsworth has no just cause for complaint. As the present arrangement expires on March 31st, the people of Ainsworth will, no doubt, manage to get along, even if the service does not exactly suit them.—Miner.

Lessons of the Late Fire.

EDITOR MORNING LEDGER: Sir,—The citizens ought not to let such a calamity as the late fire pass into forgetfulness without deriving some lessons therefrom and using the experience obtained to advantage in the future. I refer more particularly to the Masonic Block, the destruction of which every true citizen deplores. Enough has already been said about the deficient water force, in failing to reach the height where the fire was raging and eating its destructive way into the centre of the building—and "a word to the wise is sufficient." But has not the time now fully come when the council and the leading citizens generally should take into consideration the introduction of building bylaws, which almost every advanced city has in operation, and thus use every endeavor to prevent such a dire calamity occurring again? Whilst zinc cornices and zinc embellishments may be very economical and easy of application, the timber brackets and supports necessary for fixing purposes, prove a veritable fire-trap, when that destructive element is raging around, as was conspicuously observed in the late fire; and it may be said with much truthfulness that had it not been for these fire-traps the Masonic building might have been standing to-day. Then what complete shells these public building are; every internal division composed of combustible material and no party walls to check the flames and so confine the destruction to one section, let alone the structural utility of such walls. The west wall has now blown down, (though someone prophesied it was all right) discovering the scandalous manner in which the brickwork had been allowed to be put together, no regular brick bond or tie, and bad mortar into the bargain, in many instances the outside half brick casing or facing, scaling for some feet, showing the rottenness of construction. Alas! where are our architects and what are they doing to allow work, which should be substantial and enduring, to be thrown together like this? I do not know who the architect or builder was for this particular building; but with well defined building bylaws, rigidly enforced, the risk of total destruction in case of fire would be reduced to a minimum, the adjoining properties and the public would be mutually protected and insurance premiums reduced. OBSERVER.

New Westminster, March 10, 1891.

Why Not Here, Too?

Early on Monday morning, Chief Engineer Deasy of the Victoria Fire Department, was busy making all preparations for the burning of the old shacks on the site of the proposed new public market. Every precaution was taken, several extra men beside the members of the fire department being engaged. At about 9 o'clock the torch was applied to the Kwong Lee cabins, and in a few moments the greedy flames had wiped them out of existence. Hordes of rats rushed from the burning shacks, and crowds of youngsters who had played hookey from school to see the fun, had a grand rat hunt.

So well had all arrangements been made, and so efficient were the streams of water at command, that wooden houses four feet from those which were in flames, were not even scorched. The burning was done by sections, and at no time was the fire beyond control of the men. Crowds of sightseers gathered to look on, and the sight was not an uninteresting one on the whole. Despite the many streams of water from the hydrants, the pressure on the high levels was not decreased, which speaks well for the 16-inch main's supplying capacity.

A reserve of nearly half of the regular firemen was kept in readiness to answer any call which might be made on them, and all the details of the burning were carried out. The city is well rid of a lot of old rubbish, which, had it been hauled through the streets, might have spread disease and sickness.

LIVERPOOL LAND AND IMPROVEMENT CO.

The Property of this Company
Will be placed on the market on the 1st MARCH next, and consists of upwards of 400 Acres of the most desirable land at the New Town of Liverpool, including the whole of the deep water frontage which extends one and a half miles on the Fraser River, from the N.W.S. Railway wharf east, and is the only really desirable location for Manufacturing and Shipping Industries near New Westminster.
Liverpool is the terminus of the New Westminster Southern Railway Company, who have bought 30 acres of the Company's land. Extensive buildings have been located at this point by the Railway Company. The Yale Road has been surveyed to this point and an excellent grade secured through sections 19 and 3, and profiles prepared for the work. This road will be opened up and graded as soon as permission can be secured. Streets running through the Company's property will also be cleared and graded, which work will be well under way before any of the property is offered for sale.
Sections 2, 3, 4 and 10 have been laid out and staked on the ground. The lots are all 66 feet wide and front on streets one chain wide. Every inducement will be offered to manufacturers and investors. Whoever has money to invest will do well to consider Liverpool before investing elsewhere.
REMEMBER MARCH 1st
AND LIVERPOOL

REASONS FOR INVESTING IN LIVERPOOL
LIVERPOOL is considered by parties who are authorities on the subject to be The Best Speculative Property in sight today.
Liverpool is the terminus in B. C. of the American system of railways. In two years, if present arrangements are matured, three railways will terminate at Liverpool. In a few weeks all traffic for Sound points over the C. P. R. will go by way of Liverpool.
All material for the railway from Sedro to Seattle will be transferred in bulk by the Railway Company's Ferry at Liverpool.
Passengers and Freight from Seattle and Puget Sound for the East, per Great Northern, will be booked via Liverpool, and New Westminster over the C. P. R. Seattle, in a few days, will be reached by an all-rail route in seven hours from New Westminster, via Liverpool, without the inconvenience of a sea voyage.
Freight for the Sound points, over the C. P. R., can be shipped by Liverpool without breaking bulk. Lumber and all manufactures can be shipped from mills at Liverpool to all points in the Northwest at the same rates as from New Westminster.
Capitalists have a better and surer chance of making money at Liverpool than at any other point.
A Sawmill and Shingle-mill will be erected at Liverpool immediately. The Company's property at Liverpool is excellent value; their lots are large and terms easy. All particulars of Active preparations are being made for the annual spring cremation of stumps and cleaning truck.

Columbia Street is being dug up to its proper level and mud is the order of the day on that thoroughfare.

The ice in the river at Langley is now entirely broken up, but is still sufficiently plentiful to prevent crossing in open boats.

The British Columbia Cattle Company in this city received last night from the upper country one carload of cattle and one of hogs.

Yesterday was another bright day in the real estate line. Prices show a slightly upward tendency which daily becomes more confirmed.

The produce market shows signs of revivifying in all departments. As soon as the up-river boats begin business the season's rush will set in.

McLennan & Co., cash buyers of grain, hay and feed. *

The dairy belonging to Mr. J. Sinclair of Cadboro Bay caught fire on Saturday. No water being convenient, the flames were extinguished with milk.

A severe blizzard raged at Calgary on Monday last. A leading firm of butchers in this city received a telegram stating that until the storm abated no cattle could be shipped.

The Surrey Licensing Board sits today in Surrey town hall. One of the applicants will be Mr. Phil. Smith of this city, who is establishing a hotel in the new city of South Westminster.

The frost has begun to come out of the ground and on the country road around the city there is no chance of a man losing the number of his mess; the mess he has with him, and palpably so.

Another young man, a resident of Seattle, is disgraced and in danger of the penitentiary because of gambling. The amount of his employers' money which he laid upon the green cloth is $5,000.

Panthers are reported to be very numerous around Nanoose Bay District, but as yet no stock has been reported destroyed. The farmers are taking great interest in hunting the "varmints."

Should the run of salmon during the coming season prove good it will be almost conclusive evidence that the hatchery is a success. There are many old timers who hold that the undertaking is only money thrown away.

The steamer Dunsmuir left the river yesterday morning, and made the round trip to Vancouver and Nanaimo, and back to Ladner's, where she loaded hay, turnips and potatoes for Westminster, arriving here at 10 o'clock last night.

Passenger traffic over the Southern is becoming better daily, but when the track is in good solid shape there can be no doubt this will be the favorite route south. Several new buildings are being erected on Liverpool townsite.

Many farmers in Surrey are going to set aside a portion of their cleared land for the purpose of experimentation with hops. The statements regarding hop culture published lately in THE LEDGER have induced many to make at least a trial of the plant.

Great progress was made on the library building yesterday. The stone arches over the upper windows will give the front a very handsome appearance. Work will be steadily maintained on the building from the present date until finished and ready for occupation.

Look out for Lot 12, Group II, South Westminster, which will be placed on the market on the 12th inst. Prices range from $100 to $275 per lot. Mowat & Turner, Agents. *

Ore from a claim on the north side of the Kootenay, and nearly opposite the mouth of 49 Creek, is creating no little excitement at Nelson. The gangue is quartz and the ore iron pyrites, carrying gold and silver to the value of $180 to the ton. Corning and Conners are the owners.

The latest thing in "striking a light" is strictly in accordance with the term. When any of the electric arc lamps go out, by vigorously kicking the pole from which it is suspended the desired effect of relighting the globe is often accomplished. The effect on the boots of the kicker is less satisfactory.

There is a probability that before many days are past a branch office of one of the energetic real estate firms in the city will be opened at South Westminster. That thriving suburb will then only require a blacksmith shop, a corner grocery and a Chinese laundry to advertise itself as "the populous metropolis of North Surrey."

Messrs. T. J. Trapp & Co. have commenced business in their temporary premises. The store is quite roomy, being 80 feet by 20. A portion of the front end is partitioned off, measuring 9 feet by 20, and will be used as a counting room and real estate office, all the remainder is to be used as a store, and will give plenty room for business.

The contrast at present to the wars and rumors of wars with which the air, earth, sea and sky were filled last week is almost ghastly. One gentleman who had taken a feverish interest in the late elections moaned pathetically to a crowd of acquaintances yesterday, "Good gracious, gentlemen, won't somebody please kick up a row?"

Several Victoria Chinese merchants gathered together the other night in one of their buildings for the purpose of protesting against Chinese gamblers being arrested. A large subscription was raised so as to test the legality of the gambling cases in the Supreme Court. They claim that the police have no right to break their doors to get into their cabins.

Rand Bros. invite attention to some choice lots overlooking the North Arm, inside the city limits, which they are selling at prices ranging from $100 to $175 per lot. Terms, one-fourth cash, balance four, eight and twelve months. *

A horse attached to a light wagon had the foolhardiness to attempt to run away on one of the upper city streets yesterday. Before the frisky animal had gone two blocks there was enough mud on the wheels of the wagon to make a load for a team. The friskiness quickly evaporated and the boy who was driving couldn't lick a trot out of the beast with a two pound bludgeon.

A large grey eagle seized an Indian child at the wharf near Plumper's Pass on Saturday, but the war whoops of the youngster soon made the would-be child eater let go, when a well-directed bullet from W. T. Collinson's rifle, at long range, settled the eagle's account. The bird was taken to Victoria by the steamer Louise for Mr. R. Maynard on Saturday, and measures over eight feet across the wings.

McLennan & Co. have received two cars more of assorted cattle feed. The increased demand and ready sale of this article is sufficient proof of its merits, and only needs a trial to convince those who have not yet used it. Also in stock, wheat, oats, barley, peas (feed barley and oats, wheat and barley, oats and peas), oil cake meal, bran, shorts, hay, etc. *

Settled at Last.

Messrs. D. Lyal & Co., the well-known book, stationery and fancy goods firm, have settled at last in the commodious premises lately occupied by Mr. Z. S. Hall in the Hamley block, Columbia Street. Messrs. Lyal have had their full share of ill-fortune in the past eighteen months, having been burned out twice and forced to occupy places of business little adapted to the needs of their trade, but have at length reached the end of their tribulations in this respect in the comfortable quarters referred to above. Here the Messrs. Lyal will welcome back all their old customers to inspect a stock of goods worthy of the title first-class.

Matters Mainly Military.

The arms and accoutrements of No. 1 Battery R.C.G.A. are being thoroughly furbished up for inspection, the end of this month, by a man who has had extended experience at the business. The battery experts to pass the most creditable inspection in its existence this year. The parades have generally been well attended, firm discipline maintained, and flattering progress made in details of drill, manual, heavy gun, company and squad. Amongst the gunners are some of the finest specimens of manly physique in the city; and at full dress turn outs the battery presents a most soldierly, efficient and well-trained appearance. To the officers, who have so faithfully devoted their time and attention to the drilling of the corps, with the assistance of Master Gunner Cornish, praise is due. They will have no reason to feel disappointed with the behavior of the battery on inspection day, if the men go through the evolutions then as well as they do now. It is mentioned as one of the things within the limits of possibility that a second battery may be established here next winter; this would very well take the place of the rifle company, now defunct. It is also stated that the conversion of the force here from garrison to field artillery is one of the things to take place at no very distant date.

An Important Transaction

On the 28th of July last, says the Miner, M. S. Davys secured a half interest in the Whitewater mine on Rover creek, for running a 200-foot tunnel on the property, building a trail and making other improvements. At the same time he secured an option on the other half interest. The development work proved the property better than expectations, milling tests of the ore giving returns of over $100 a ton in gold. In fact, the return from the Revelstoke smelting company was $110 in gold and 89 in silver, with the "remark" that it was the best ore sampled by the company. Mr. Davys has succeeded in placing the property in Victoria, as documents now on record at Nelson prove. On the 4th instant John Francis Wallace and Howard Pearson Hencock sold their half interest in the Whitewater to John Gospel of Victoria for $10,000, $2,500 of the purchase money being paid in cash. Of the remainder, $2,500 is to be paid on August 1st, 1891, and $5,000 on October 31st, 1891, with interest at 6 per cent per annum. It is understood that work will be resumed on the property within 60 days. A new trail will probably be built up Rover creek, so as to shorten the distance for packing in machinery and supplies. The Whitewater is situated about 20 miles southwest of Nelson, and not more than 10 miles from the Columbia and Kootenay railway.

The Enabling Bill.

Yesterday morning in the Provincial Legislature the Enabling Bill was considered in committee and an immense amount of evidence taken down. The investigation will be resumed this morning and probably be finished before the committee rises. The bill, then, if not thrown out, will come before the Legislature in a day or two in amended form.

He Didn't Know.

A young man went into a certain city grocery store yesterday, and asked the clerk, a friend of his, for some real maple syrup, such as his grandparents used to employ to lubricate the intricate machinery of the unctuous buckwheat flapjack. The clerk smiled, and said, with a "Private Secretary" simper, "Do you not know?" "What?" queried the other. "Well," replied the clerk, coming down to plain business, "aren't you aware, you chucklehead, that real, genuine, true, vral verite, honi soit qui mal y pense maple syrup expired along with the dodo, the mastodon, the great auk, the unicorn, the Jonah whale, the man who never told a lie, the ———, the young man sled."

"Morning," said the clerk genially to another customer, "that fellow's just been asking for 'real' maple syrup; he might as well ask for a gallon of otto of roses for ten cents." And they both laughed at the simple young man.

Not a Tough's Retreat.

At the present time there is little to exercise the crime-detecting energies of our police force, except to discover the perpetrators of the recent burglaries, and that matter seems to have dropped into the limbo of the past. It is well that the town is so free from crime, and considering the mixed character of our population, it speaks well for the vigilance of those who are charged with the enforcement of the law. Doubtful characters arrive from the States every little while, but when they strike this settlement they are promptly offered three means of passing away the time, by our genial and considerate Chief of Police and his emissaries, viz.—leave town, go to work, or put in a few days' labor for the benefit of the taxpayers, at the skookum house on the hill. Either one of these three alternatives is a sickener for the average Sound tough, and consequently the town's standard of respectability is a high one among coast towns.

The Coal Market

The receipts of coal at San Francisco during the past week consisted of 22,157 tons from the coast mines, and 36,927 tons from foreign sources. These heavy receipts have naturally demoralized values. Jobbers and dealers have all become sellers at once and there are no large buyers on the market to sustain prices. The few who have surplus yard room will be gainers eventually, as spot cargoes will be sold within the next 30 days at as low a figure as they will probably reach this year. Forced sales will be made by some who in some cases have not the storage capacity, and by others who cannot financially compass the strain on the bank accounts brought about by the large quantity arriving together. All that has so far arrived has gone into second hands. Most of this coal was sold six or eight months ago. Those best posted in the trade look for an improvement in values after this tie-up is over. Notwithstanding our very encouraging crop prospects, the latest freight quotations from Australia for loading several months hence will not permit importers to make contracts for future delivery at very low figures, as they usually do at about this season of the year.

Publishing a Book.

Mr. Forrester, a passenger from England by the West Indian, and now in this city, is publishing an account of the voyage from Liverpool to Westminster. Mr. Forrester certainly has good reasons for doing so, for the voyage was one of the most eventful ever experienced by a merchant vessel since the good old days when Captain Kidd, Henry Morgan, Hernando los Calzon, and other gentlemen of buccaneering proclivities scuttled Indiamen and compelled the passengers to walk the plank. The West Indian ran right into the middle of the Chilian revolution, was repeatedly under fire, miraculously escaped; was boarded by the rebels who tried to bully the captain and couldn't; and at last she steamed away from the seat of war without the loss of a man or damage to herself. Then she met with storm and gale at the Horn and elsewhere on the voyage, and altogether had a thoroughly exciting time. All this Mr. Forrester proposes graphically to narrate in the pages of his little book, which will also contain descriptions of the many interesting places called at on the way out. The work is now in press, the Vancouver Evening Telegram being the publishers, therefore assuring good and satisfactory work, both to author and reader. The volume will contain about 120 pages, and should meet with a very large sale.

This property is beautifully situated, and commands a fine view of Vancouver. Very little timber on it—$50 per acre would clear it $3 for a garden. Price $150 per acre. Terms can be had if necessary. Adjoining land held at $250 per acre.

10 Acres in District Lot 327, on North Arm of Fraser River, 4 miles south of Vancouver, and about 6 miles from New Westminster. There is a good graded road from Vancouver, and a road is to be opened to New Westminster soon. There is a schoolhouse within a quarter of a mile. Land slopes gently from road to river, on which it has 10 chains frontage; is surrounded by market gardens. Steamers pass daily to New Westminster. Price $1,200, which is $50 per acre less than adjoining land.

9 Lots (including 2 corners) on New Westminster Avenue, Vancouver, for $2,200, ¼ cash, balance in 6, 12 and 18 mos. Size of lots, 33x120, to lane. Vancouver Electric Railway runs to within a few blocks. This is a good buy.

Block 159, subdivision 172—C. P. R. Co.'s "Fairview" addition to Vancouver. Price, $1,000. Contains 24 lots, 33x132. Is cleared and commands magnificent view of English Bay, the city and Burrard Inlet.

Surrounding land is subdivided into town lots. This piece can be subdivided into 72 lots, which should readily sell at $125 per lot, showing a profit of nearly $3,000 on the deal.
