OH WOMAN!

A Police Court Incident.

"WHEN THE PIGS BEGIN TO FLY."

A Spicy Letter And What Came Of It—

Yesterday In The Police Court.

George Simpson was charged upon the information of Edward McDonough with committing an aggravated assault by inflicting grevious bodily injury upon him on the 8th March instant at Victoria Crescent, Nanaimo. Mr. Scoular appeared for the prosecution, Mr. Yarwood for the defense.

Edward McDonough, agent for Fletcher's Sewing Machine of Victoria, sworn deposed:—I was coming down Victoria Crescent, Nanaimo, at about 12:20 this afternoon. I met George Simpson, the defendant, and an other man of about the same size. I could not recognize that man again. Mr. Simpson said to me "I want to see you." He said "I want to see you right now" in a very angry manner. I told Simpson that I was a cripple and had been for four or five weeks with rheumatism and was not able to meet him on equal terms. I told him that I would meet him with either a revolver or a rifle if he couldn't wait until my foot was well. He then struck me two or three times with his fist about the head. I was unable to defend myself having but one able leg to stand upon. I then ran across the street as best I could, but Simpson overtook me in the middle of the road and assaulted me again—he caught hold of me by the whiskers—he got me down on the ground and began punching me—I cried out to the bystanders to assist me as I was a cripple and could not protect myself—Simpson then commenced to kick me—he kicked me while I was on the ground, twice on the right side of the head over the eye brow, in close proximity to the temple—I then put my hand over my temple to save my life as I did not want to be kicked in the temple—Defendant then kicked me on the head—the kicks on the head produced the abrasion and cut which are now visible on my head and the kick on my hand caused the contused swelling now visible there—These are the injuries that I at present feel—I have not yet been examined by a medical man.

Cross-examined by Mr. Yarwood for the defence—All I remember Simpson saying when he met me was that he wanted to see me. I am not sure whether it was in front of Whitfield's or of Mr Webb's bakery. I have a good memory: defendant used words signifying that he wanted me to fight. I cannot remember the precise words although it was only two hours and a half ago; to the best of my knowledge I swear that nothing was said about a letter. It is some two months and a half ago since defendant was pointed out to me as being "Mr. Simpson," I was not looking about to have him pointed out to me. The cause of the attack upon me was I presume because defendant had received a letter from me in which I had expressed my opinion of him. The letter produced, consisting of four sheets, or eight pages is the letter which I refer to; I consider that some underhand work of Mr. Simpson, which I told him was cowardly, was the cause of the ill-feeling. It was in connection with a lady in the town, a friend of mine, at least I was under that impression, unfortunately the lady is considered a "fast woman." In a few words it might be summed up as "jealousy." A woman was the cause of it. The woman did not "bounce" me; I swear to it. I did not drop my cane until the assault took place; I might have done so simultaneously with the blow.

Mr. Yarwood read the following letter which was put in.

MR. G. SIMPSON, Nanaimo,

Dear Sir—As I was called away from Nanaimo on business before I got an opportunity of seeing you personally, and expressing my exalted opinion of your noble, manly and generous conduct, I take the liberty of doing so now in very plain if not flattering terms. To your general character for honesty, etc., I have nothing to say, but of the course you pursued towards me in connection with the object of our mutual regard, I hound as underhand, unmanly and cowardly in the extreme. Of course the lady is certainly at liberty to bestow favors or affections on whom she pleases regardless of the worth and intelligence of the object or his possession of the necessary qualifications to insure her future happiness. The lady is an exceedingly intelligent and noble-minded one, filled with a lofty and soul-inspiring ambition, notwithstanding her unfortunate condition at present. It is a mystery to me and will be to a great number of her friends how such a superior woman could allow herself to waste a second thought upon a man of your calibre. You would certainly be a most congenial companion for such a woman, and one she would be proud to introduce to the refined society that would welcome her back on her return home, and of which she is so eminently fitted to adorn, and knowing your perfect familiarity with the ways of good society, and your wonderful conversational powers, together with your other brilliant accomplishments she no doubt feels confident will reflect great credit on her choice. "She will surely be the envied of all" when she is reminded of the fact that a man elevates the woman of his choice to the position he holds in society, but when a lady marries beneath her she has to descend to his social level. I can amagine the lady in question taking you home and presenting you to her family, what a glorious realization of her bright, sunny dreams and noble aspirations, "and what a lovely prospect for the future." As you may not find any black diamonds to dig in the vicinity, you might get yourself painted in proper colors and hire yourself out for a barber's pole, or failing you might get a job as shoe-black, dish-washer, scavenger or something of that kind. If you are possessed of any business tact, "with which I suppose you are overflowing," judging from your general appearance, and I have no doubt you are possessed of the necessary good judgment and self confidence essential to success in business, I would advise you to start a pea-nut stand and in the course of time you may become a great merchant "when the pigs begin to fly." The lady will certainly find that she has an elephant on her hands and a mill-stone around her neck if she attempts to scale the social ladder. Poor creature she is to be pitied for she played with fire and got burnt, and it may be flattering to you to know that she set herself to win you and bring the big ox. She called you a big ox, she made a mistake, she should have called you a big sheep, as she called you to her feet, to gratify her womanly vanity. Well, she got the play-toy. (?) What will she do with it? And now to enlighten you a little, let me tell you that if you knew anything at all or had a particle of manly pride or spirit about you, you would have scorned to touch a present from a rival unless to cause it to be returned and replace it with a better one, "but no danger of your doing anything like that," or any of your clan; for they never allow their generosity to carry them away, for it is not characteristic of your race. But if you lack in generosity or the principles of a gentleman, I must certainly give you the credit of being possessed of unlimited gall, to take my gift and place your picture in it. I would have liked to study the countenance of possessed of such monumental cheek, but I could not on account of those beautiful locks being brought down to meet the eyebrows, as worn by all empty-headed fellows and Macques. You will never find an intelligent man hide with his hair his forehead the index to his character and the evidence of intellige nce stamped there by the Almighty. When I carried the watch for a few weeks with your picture in it I guarded it with jealous care for my sense of honor and manly pride would not allow me to touch it, although you took French leave when you put it there, however, I believe your milk countenance "if it could be seen through the lair" no longer adorns the watch. When the lady took sick I did everything in my power for her, I got the best doctor in Nanaimo and got everything I could think of or anyone suggest that would be likely to relieve or benefit her. Before I started for Comox I made arrangements with a particular friend of mine, a responsible business man, that if necessary to telegraph for the best doctor in Victoria and I would pay any fee he demanded. When I left for Comox she had as kind, faithful and devoted a nurse as ever lived, but poor fellow he had the misfortune to love her with all his heart and soul. He gave up his work and waited upon her night and day, and never hesitated to spend his last dollar or borrow from his friends to benefit her.

How well he was rewarded for his noble devotion, when he left the bedside for a few moments to go to town to the drug store to get some medicine for the patient, on his return he found the door closed up on him and was informed that he was no longer needed, in fact got the G B on the spot. "Oh, what gratitude." But the poor tool has been useful since then, he had $30 laid away for a suit of clothes, but when she needed anything he drew on it, and would if it were his heart's blood if he thought that it would benefit her, with the last $12.50 he was allowed to pay one of the doctor's bills. "No danger of you doing anything of that kind," but if you had the spirit of a louse you would not have allowed him to do so, "you must be a dandy." When I came to the conclusion that she could not get well there, I wrote to her and told her so, and made the necessary arrangements for her comfort and left my business here to go over and bring her, and engaged the best doctors on the mainland to attend, and again got everything that he or any one else suggested for her benefit. When I was in Nanaimo and she wrote to me telling me that she was better and the doctor said that she might return home, and begged of me to come at once and take her home. I again set my business aside and took a flying trip over here for her, but she could not come, and I had to return, but I made arragements to insure her comfort on the next boat. It was due at 1 p.m. but was delayed, and I again set my business aside and spent the whole afternoon waiting to get her home safe. And of course you took good care not to put yourself to any trouble or expense, you never do. If you had any shame or sense of justice about you you would have known and conceded the fact that I was entitled to the lady's society for that night at least, after doing what I did for her whilst you remained gloriously inactive, but you ignorant boor, you took advantage of my absence to take possession of her room and would not leave it when she requested you to do so. When I was at the house the last time I was in Nanaimo I was talking to the lady in the parlor whilst you were in her room listening to what I said, but you did not dare to resent it or make your presence known. You heard me I am sure, for you had but to open the closet door and hear every word distinctly, and a man with your sense of honor would not hesitate for a moment to eavesdrop or do anything else that a gentleman would not stoop to. As you might not have heard all I will repeat part of what I said. I told the lady that since I first knew her I have always entertained the warmest and purest regard for her, in fact my love for her was almost if not wholly, platonic, for I admired her for the beauty of her mind and heart alone, free from the baser or animal passion, for only brutes in human form that allow their animal passions to control them; a true man or gentleman is governed by reason and intelligence. I told her that I was now and would be until the hour of my death, her most devoted friend, ever ready and pleased to do anything that I could for her or her family that pure and unselfish frienship could dictate. Were I a man of your stamp I would have been glad of the chance that offered to take revenge on her and forced her to leave Nanaimo, but God forbid that I should ever stoop to anything so far beneath the dignity of a man. On the contrary I was heartily sorry for her knowing her circumstances so well, and begged of her to accept my offer, although I could have done much better by letting others have the house, which she knows, but she had my word, which is my bond as everybody is aware that knows me. I have promised to let her have the house and to do all within my power for her but impose one condition, (viz) that she never allows you to enter her room or receive or entertain you in any other room alone for even the smallest space of time, if she does, as true as there is a God in Heaven the moment I hear of it, which I surely will, I will, if absent from Nanaimo, telegraph her notice to leave the house, and will enforce it, and she knows that I mean what I say. Knowning the conditions, if you have any pure love or regard for her, "which I doubt very much," for such as you know not what pure and unselfish love is. However, if you do not wish to injure her, you will keep away from there, and allow her to keep her promise, for I will keep my word let the consequence be what it may. And now sir, in conclusion let me state I am proud to say that I am a native born American and as such am ever ready to accord the respect and protection due the fair sex from a gentleman. Another trait in the American character is that they fear no MAN, and bend to none but God, or his grandest work, (viz) a true and noble woman, and as a rule are polite, courteous and accommodating. If I have offended you by my plain language, you will find me in Nanaimo about pay-day, when I will be pleased to accord you any satisfaction you may require. I fear that my rheumatism will prevent me from meeting you with the weapons which nature provided, but I am and will be able to handle a revolver or rifle. God did not create all men physically equal, but Colt of revolver fame, did, if they have any sand. However, you will find me there about that time and I promise I will not disappoint you, for I know that you have courage, for I have heard you call the lady a damn liar when she was lying sick, you were drunk at the time but nevertheless it takes a brave man to insult a sick woman.

Yours Respectfully,
J. McDONOUGH.

William Edmund Webb of Nanaimo, baker, sworn, deposed—At a quarter past twelve this afternoon I was working in my bakery when hearing a noise I went down to the street where I saw McDonough and Simpson in the road. McDonough was down upon his knees and Simpson was kicking him in the face. I halloed to Simpson to stop that kicking as it was regular cowardice. I don't suppose he heard me as he was excited at the time. Some one took hold of defendant and led him away. The bystanders were nearly all strangers to me.

Cross-examined by Mr. Yarwood.—It all happened in a few minutes; the toes of defendants boots struck McDonough.

The case was remanded till Monday, the 11th inst at 2 p. m. Bail allowed defendant and one surety of $100 each which was at once given.

UNITED STATES NEWS

The Report That The German War Ship Olga

HAD BLOWN UP AN AMERICAN

Man-Of-War Is Disbelieved—A British Schooner Seized By American Custom Officials.

THE REPORT DISBELIEVED.

Washington, March 9—At the state and navy departments no information concerning the alleged blowing up of the American war ship Nipsic by the German corvette Olga at Apia has been received. It is generally disbelieved at the department and by naval officers that such an occurrence has taken place. A similar story was received from Apia a week ago, but it could not be either affirmed or denied. The nearest cable station to Apia is at Auckland, New Zealand and this is distant a week's journey. The United States steamships Trenton and Vandalia are supposed at the navy department to have reached Apia during the latter week in February. The United States steamer Nipsic has been stationed at Apia for some time and was probably joined by the other two vessels before the alleged occurrence took place. The navy department usually receives prompt advices concerning the movements and conditions of all United States vessels and it is thought there that if such an event had occurred the department would have been informed of it at the earliest moment. The Nipsic is a bark rigged vessel with six guns mostly smooth-bore and is unarmored, The Vandalia and Trenton are also unarmored and have eight and ten guns respectively four of which are rifles.

TO BE LAID BEFORE THE AUTHORITIES.

New York, March 8.—The president and several directors of the Dayton, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad are here, and it is understood they come for the purpose of laying before the authorities facts in relation to the alleged larceny by Henry S. Ives & Co., in March, 1887, of bonds to value of $1,250,000 and of mortgages of the Dayton & Chicago Railroad. Sometime before the board of directors of this road had passed a resolution that these bonds be cancelled and returned, and they were delivered to Henry S. Ives & Co. for that purpose. Instead of cancelling them it is said that Ives & Co. put these bonds in circulation, pledging them to Irving, Evans & Co., of Boston, C. P. Potter & Co., of Cleveland, and other bankers for the debts of Ives & Co.

ELECTRIC SUGAR SWINDLERS.

New York, March 8.—The electric sugar quintette Mrs. Olive Friend, Mr. and Mrs. Howard and George and Gus Halstead were arraigned before Recorder Smyth in general sessions this afternoon on an indictment of grand larceny. They pleaded not guilty and with the privilege of withdrawal of their pleas on next Tuesday Recorder Smyth postponed fixing bail until next Monday. In the meantime the prisoners were sent to the city prison.

RETALIATION.

Booth Bay, March 9.—The British schooner Eleanor, Henderson master, from St John for New York was seized here this noon by custom officers for non-entry and is now in charge of the revenue cutter Woodburg. The fine is $1500.

TEN OF THE MARRYATH'S CREW RESCUED.

New York, March 8.—The ship St. Nicholas from Liverpool for New York, arrived in port to-day with a crew of ten Norwegians, of the bark Marryath, bound from Bapia for New York with a cargo of sugar. The Marryath sank of Hallees February 35th.

REPUBLICAN EXPELLED.

Denver, Col., March 8.—The house of representatives yesterday expelled Thos. E. Mitchel, one of the Republicans from Arappoe county for having entered into a corrupt bargain to vote for a candidate for United States senator at the late senatorail election in this state.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Cincinnati, Ohio, March 8.—A wreck occurred on the Lanesville & Nashville Railroad between Morris' station and Independence, Ky., six miles back of Covington last night. The last car next to the caboose on the local freight broke an axle, throwing the car and caboose from the track, wrecking both. Three men were seriously injured.

MARRIED AGAIN.

New York, March 8.—Dion Boucicault and Miss Louise Thornthicke were married yesterday afternoon in Mr. Boucicault's home on Forty-fifth street, near Fifth avenue. The ceremony was performed by Chief Justice McAdam and witnessed by Mr. Clark Bell. Miss Thornthicke was married to Mr. Boucicault in Sydney three and a half years' ago. The divorce recently obtained in England by Agnes Robertson rendered that marriage void in the opinion of some people and Mr. Boucicault decided to set matters right and protect his wife's interests to the full extent of the law.

KILLED AT HIS OWN FIRESIDE.

Birmingham, Ala., March 8.—While sitting at his fireside with his wife about ten o'clock last night A. W. Bushy, a prominent citizen of Cotte City, Alabama, was shot dead by some one at his window. The bullet entered his temple killing him instantly. While in this city yesterday he had a desperate fight with a man by the name of Grant over some business transaction and it is said Grant made threats against him. The sheriff and a posse have gone after Grant.

Mr. James O'Neil is authorized on behalf of the Nanaimo MORNING COURIER to canvass for subscriptions, advertising, receive payments and give receipts for the same in the city of Victoria.

MR. JOHN CURRIE is authorized on behalf of the Nanaimo MORNING COURIER to canvass for subscriptions, receive payments and give receipts for the same in Wellington.

A FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

"The true university of these days," says CARLYSLE, "is a collection of books." The COURIER has heretofore referred to the necessity existing for the formation of a reading room, or free library in this city. Its need is absolute, and is daily becoming more apparent. A free public library is the home of true democracy, where all classes without the distinction of wealth, birth or religion may have equal facilities of learning from youth to age. It is the proper complement of our system of free public schools which are established only for definite terms of life. In it there are no limitations of age, color, social standing or religious opinion. All are privileged alike to share the fellowship of its books and drink from its fountain of knowledge. As Holmes happily expresses it:

"Behind this ever open gate,
No pikes shall fence a crumbling throne;
No lackey cringe, nor courtiers wait,
This palace is the people's own."

No more useful service could be rendered to this city by the men who have prospered here, than through liberal contributions of money to provide the city with a good public library. It would be the best evidence of the prevailing intellectual culture and social virtue of the city. It would be the visible sign of the culture of our people, which we may justly claim to be as high as that of any other city on the Pacific coast. We have no doubt that for many of our people a good library is one of the things we lack. We should have a full collection of literature and science within the reach of all citizens, and the common possession of all.

The latest fact of science, the last work on education and religion, political economy and social science should be furnished to the public. Such a library once started would be the recipient of gifts and bequests and grow with the growth of the city. We trust that the movement which has begun for the establishment of a public library and reading room, will not flag, but that it will be fostered and urged by those who have interested themselves in its formation as well as insisted upon by others. Its establishment would introduce a new form among the influences which strenghten and support the social order. It would lend a new impulse to intelligence and virtue, and the social, moral and intellectual improvement of the whole people would undoubtedly be the result.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The proposal of the faster, Dr. Tanner, to be buried alive for four weeks, and at the end of that period to resume consciousness, is certainly a sensational one. It provokes very naturally, perhaps, the ghastly comicalities which are going the rounds in the shape of suggestions as to the completeness with which the job of interment should be done. It may be in order also to suggest that the experiment would be more satisfactory if he would try cremation instead of burial. Yet there is a serious view to be taken of the matter. Those who aid and abet the doctor in his experiment will share his glory if he shall carry ont his plan of resuming consciousness; but if he should fail they will find themselves behind the bars on a charge of homicide.

That enormous sums of money are spent in elections is a matter of common notoriety. The assertion that the Republican National Committee sent a hundred and fifty thousand dollars just before the election for use in N. Y. City has never been denied. "It is claimed," says Governor Hill, of New York, in his recent message to the Legislature, "That at least a hundred thousand dollars were expended in the Twentieth and Twenty-fourth Congressional districts in this State." We hear of judges paying ten, twenty and even fifty thousand dollars to secure their re-election. It is no uncommon thing for rich candidates to pour out money like water.

THE NANAIMO COURIER.

In future this paper will be known as the NANAIMO COURIER, for as was announced yesterday morning a joint stock company is in process of formation, which will carry on the publication of the NANAIMO COURIER. A charter has been applied for and just as soon as possible this paper will be issued in an enlarged form, and a weekly edition will also be issued. The paper will be devoted to the best interests of Nanaimo and district and the province generally, and it will be of a non-political character. Increased efforts will be put forth to give this constituency a really good paper—one which the growing importance and the varied interests of this city demand. It will be essentially a paper for the people, and while it will never be a vehicle for either the expression of malice or hatred, it will endeavor to aid in the ventilation and discussion of all questions of public import. The new management asks for it a fair support, trusting to merit it by the course the COURIER will pursue.

A WARNING.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all is dangerous, and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintain its reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its literature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and household departments of the most practical and economical character. Its pattern-sheet supplements and fashion-plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories, and timely essays are among the best published; and not a line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume will be serial stories by Mrs. FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT, Mrs. ALEXANDER, WILLIAM BLACK, and THOMAS HARDY, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. CHRISTINE TERHUNE HERRICK.

—BANKERS—

The Bank of British Columbia.

The British Columbia Tanning Company is formed for the purpose of carrying on the business of manufacturing all kinds of leather, belting, trunks, and the manufacturing of all kinds of leather goods and goods in which leather forms any part.

Any number of hides can be procured at a reasonable price here and in other parts of the province.

Fuel can be procured here cheaper than in any other town in the province.

The shipping facilities here are of the best.

Any amount of bark for tanning purposes can be procured in the vicinity.

A large proportion of the heavy leather now used in this Province is brought from the United States.

The hides in this Province are better adapted for heavy leather than the Eastern hides.

Now most of the heavy leather manufactured in the Eastern Provinces is made out of hides brought from Chicago, Northwest Territories and British Columbia.

Besides supplying this Province, a market for these goods can readily be found as far East as Montreal.

Owing to the largely increased demand for these goods as compared with any previous period and the facilities which this city affords for manufacturing them, a large profit can be assured.

It is also proposed to manufacture buckskin gloves, as there is an unlimited supply of deer hides, and the hides can be tanned and made into gloves at a good profit.

It is proposed to erect buildings in the City of Nanaimo for the manufacturing of said articles; the buildings and machinery will cost about $15,000.

The calls on the stock will not exceed ten per cent. at any onetime and will not be made oftener than once a month.

Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c., &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880: To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London, Dear Sir:—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and judging from their sale, we fancy their sojurn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and 2nd Dysentery Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general Sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of the opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's, is A DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBE AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellancy the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was, undoubtedly, the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1884.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

Sole Manufacturer—J. T. Davenport, 33 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London.

LIBEL SUIT.

Canton, Ohio, March 8.—In answering the demurrer of the Reporter Printing Company and ex-Juege Lathurs in the damage suits brought against them for $30,000 by Paul Field and William Volkman in the Common Pleas, Judge Rily yesterday decided that it was not libel for a newspaper to publish a man before the world as a bastard. The article for which the suit was brought the plaintiffs were stamped as of illegitimate birth. Judge Rily held that "Libel was that which would bring one into ridicule, contempt or hatred and that which would tend to degrade one against whom it was directed. A number of His Honor's associates on the bench had been born out of wedlock but they stood high in social and legal circles, if anything being of illegitimate birth elevated them The decision has caused a great stir in the legal fraternity.
