MORE BROUGHT WITHIN THE LAW.

Buffalo, Aug. 15.—Big fish concerned in the Sherman defalcations are rapidly being gathered within the meshes of the law. Frank H. Tyler, former business manager for the firm, was arrested at Minneapolis, yesterday upon an order from the Chief of Police here. Wilson Sherman, though located at Victoria, just over the river, is practically in the clutches of the law. It is expected that he will return here voluntarily when wanted, but if he should decline to do so he can be extradited. Stephen Sherman and E. C. Loveridge are still in jail, not having been able to procure bail.

DISASTROUS FLOODS.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 15.—A heavy wind storm passed over this vicinity last night and a heavy rain fell east of here. There was but little rain and people are rapidly repairing the damage done by the recent flood, the losses from which reach about $100,000. The Rio Grande Road is running trains west on time. The West Cliffe branch will not be in running order for a month. In a distance of seven miles, seven bridges were carried away and a passenger train caught in the flood is still there.

NO CHANGE IN THE PRICE OF COAL.

New York, Aug. 15.—Coal sales agents met to-day but adjourned for two weeks without changing the present schedule prices.

SKIPPED OUT.

Lowell, Mass., Aug. 15.—Wm. H. Carter, a well-known woollen manufacturer, and an old resident, is secretly embarrassed through the failure of the firm of Brown, Steese & Clarke. His trouble is due to accommodation notes given by him to the firm as a matter of personal friendship to Mr. Brown, the absconding partner. It is not yet ascertained what his liabilities will be, but they are understood to be large.

NEW IRON AND STEEL LIST.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—At a meeting of the freight committee of the Central Pacific Association to-day, it was recommended that the special iron and steel list be put in force on Sept. 18th.

SHOT IN THE BACK.

Lyons, Iowa, Aug. 15.—H. M. Stone shot Dr. Hitchcock on the streets of Comanche, yesterday. The assassin fired four shots, every one of which took effect in the back of the victim, inflicting wounds which may prove fatal. Both are well-known citisens and no cause for the assault is known.

ONE PUGILIST KILLS ANOTHER.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—John Gallagher was fatally shot shortly before 12 o'clock last night by Ollie Smith in Sinclair's saloon, 100 South Halstead street. The men are heavy weight pugilists. They were recently matched to fight for a purse of $500 and the fight was arranged for next Saturday night. Last night Gallgher sat in a rear room of the saloon reading a newspaper when Smith entered and made a move as if to strike him. Gallagher squared off to defend himself, when Smith drew a revolver and fired, the ball striking Gallagher near the heart. Smith escaped.

FATAL STORM.

Kansas City, Aug. 15.—The storm which passed over Mission Valley on Monday night was the most disastrous known in this section this season. Over twenty persons, it is said, were killed by lightning, and the damage in animals killed and crops ruined will reach over half a million dollars. This includes damage to railroads. Among those killed was a son of H. H. Silver, of Corland, Neb.

COMING TO CANADA.

Winona, Minn., Aug. 15.—H. J. Flenlye, cashier of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway in this city, disappeared, leaving a note with his wife stating that he was several hundred dollars short in his accounts.

$40,000 SHORT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 15.—William Jones, for twenty years a trusted employee of the firm of E. H. Butler & Co., publishers, of this city, has disappeared, leaving, it is said, the large deficiency of $40,000 in his accounts.

AFTER THE PUGILISTS.

New Orleans, Aug. 15.—A special to the Times-Democrat from Purvis, Miss., says that yesterday afternoon the grand jury handed in eight true bills. They are against Frank Stevenson, Kilrain's manager; W. E. Harding, representative; Johnny Murphy, Kilrain's bottle holder; Dan Murphy, Sullivan's bottle holder; Dennis Butler, who built the ring; James Wakely and Charlie Johnson, Sullivan's backers, and G. D. Edwards, general passenger agent of the Queen and Crescent road.

A jury was obtained in the Sullivan prize fight case to-day and the trial began. Sullivan pleaded not guilty. Major W. W. Robinson, a deputy sheriff, was the first witness. He described the fight, and testified as to seeing money handled and men hit and bruise one another. On cross-examination the witness said he could not swear that the ring was in Marcon County. The State then rested its case, and as there were no witnesses on the other side it was agreed that the case go over until to-morrow. The jurymen were locked up for the night.

DARING ROBBERY.

Olean, N. Y., Aug. 15.—Twenty robbers boarded a freight train of the Western New York and Pennsylvania Railway at Irvington yesterday, intimidated the trainmen and broke open and robbed the cars of a large quantity of goods. Officers were sent from here and four of the robbers were captured. A quantity of goods were found hidden in a hay mow and brought here.

DEVENPORT ARRESTED.

Garrott. Ind., Aug. 15.—Wm. Davenport, the ex-pugilist, for the last three months private secretary to H. N. Coffinburg, train master of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway with headquarters here, was arrested at Muncie yesterday afternoon, charged with robbing the Company's safe of nine hundred dollars.

JAKE KILRAIN RELEASED.

Baltimore, Aug. 15.—Jake Kilrain was released on $1,000 bail to-day until Thursday next.

LYNCHED.

Boslyn, W. T., Aug. 15.—At 12 o'clock last night Fred Loshman, a saloon keeper, shot a man named Thomas. The victim owed him $2. Loshman asked him for it but Thomas said that he did not have it, then Loshman fired. This morning at 7:30 o'clock an angry crowd took Loshman from the jail and lynched him, hanging him to a beam in the engine house, near the railroad track. He was a hard character and had threatened to shoot four or five other men. Thomas is not expected to live.

AFTER THE INDIANS.

Glenwood Springs, Col., Aug. 15.—Private parties are planning a raid on the Indians, who are said to be moving east toward their old hunting grounds near the head of the White River, and a lively time is expected. A good deal of adverse comment is caused by the inaction of the officials in the face of the fact that the game is rapidly disappearing.

A TRAIN ROBBER CONFESSES.

Detective Thatcher, of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, states that at San Quenten prison yesterday he obtained from Jack Gordon, convicted at Auburn last week and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for robbing the express train at Clipper Gap last Christmas, a full confession of his crime. Gordon implicated his brother in the robbery, and also admitted that they robbed the stage in Sonoma county, of which crime he was acquitted at his trial on the charge a few weeks ago. The Gordons came to Sacramento after the robbery of the express train and subsequently went east. Jack was captured in Kansas City.

CORRALLING THE BEER.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 15.—It has just been learned that an agent of the English Syndicate has secured control of all the large breweries in this city.

WILL RESIGN.

Winnipeg, Aug. 14.—Hon. J. E. Prendergast, provincial secretary, representative in the Manitoba government of the French, has resigned, owing to the announcement by his colleagues of their intention to introduce legislation at the next session of the legislature abolishing the dual language system and separate Catholic schools. It is also said that Col. McMillan, provincial treasurer, will resign.

Training.

D. S. McLeod is training hard for his wrestling match with Schumacker, who arrived in the city yesterday with his trainer, F. Lewis, and will settle down to work, preparing for the contest, at once.

SUPREME COURT.

Before Hon. Justice Crease.

Mr. S. Drake, Sheriff, made application calling upon the creditors of T. Bell to show cause why he should still retain and sell the lease of his premises, the lessor, Mr. J. Gordon, of Cedar District, having entered action to restrain the Sheriff from disposing of the lease.

Mr. A. T. D. McElmen represented the Sheriff.

Mr. Gordon said that owing to his only receiving the order last night he had been unable to have Mr. Theodore Davie to represent him. His Lordship said he had consented to have the case heard in Nanaimo so as to lessen the expenses. He believed the entire question would turn on the wording of the lease, which provided that T. Bell, lessee, should not sublet or assign the lease without the consent of the lessor, Mr. Gordon. At present he was under the impression that the lease could not be assigned by the Sheriff, or any other parties, without the consent of the lessor. He did not think that the Sheriff had acted wisely in taking the lease.

Mr. McElmen—The Sheriff simply wishes to get rid of the case.

His Lordship—Why did he take it in the first place?

The Sheriff—I took it under instructions from the Stipendiary Magistrate and Mr. Yarwood.

The case was adjourned until next Monday at 2 p. m., but subject to change of date if inconvenient to the Court.

The London "Lancet" Claims that the Evidence in the Maybrick Case Substantiates the Verdict.

The Sentence of Boulanger Creates no Great Commotion in Paris—Efforts made for his Extradition.

Sexton and the Home Secretary have an Argument in Regard to Intercepted Letters.

MORE BOULANGISTS IMPLICATED.

Paris, Aug. 15.--The Court which is trying the Boulanger case adjourned in order to frame the text of the decree which will be voted on in secret session and then read at the sitting. Different Republican groups in the senate held a meeting immediately after the adjournment of the Court and passed resolutions requesting the government to enforce the decree after the dissolution of Court. They called attention to the gravity of the conduct of some of the ministers in absenting themselves during the trial and demanded that steps be taken to bring to justice other officials implicated with Boulanger, Dillon and Rochefort in their treasonable plots for the subversion of state.

THE MAYBRICK CASE.

Liverpool, Aug. 15.—Mr. Stewart, an analytical chemist of Glasgow, has written a letter stating it as his deliberate opinion that Jas. Maybrick died from the effect of his secret habit of arsenic drinking, the poison being taken as a desideratum. Mr. Stewart was prepared to testify at the trial of Mrs. Maybrick, and is a witness whose evidence the condemned woman declares was kept back.

The Lancet, the most noted of medical journals, prints a five column review of the trial, and comes to the conclusion that the verdict was warranted by the evidence.

BOULANGER'S TRIAL.

Paris, Aug. 15.—Republican journals are convinced that public opinion will ratify the decree of the Senate court, and this conviction is strengthened by the fact that the sentence imposed upon General Boulanger, Count Dillon and Henri Rochefort created no excitement whatever in the city, nor is there any movement to indicate that the court's judgement will be resented. Conservative and Boulangist papers, however, express themselves as sanguine that the general election for members of the Chamber of Deputies will show that the people do not acquiesce in the verdict. It is alleged that M. Waddington, French Ambassador to England, has been instructed to sound the English Government on the question of extraditing General Boulanger, Count Dillon and M. Rochefort.

THE ORIENTAL MAIL.

London, Aug. 15.—The government is making a great effort to secure the conformation by parliament of a contract with the Canadian Pacific Railway for transfer of mails for Hong Kong, which it is proposed to send by way of Halifax. The proposal has developed great opposition on the part of the many important interests affected, and it is doubtful if the government will succeed in securing the necessary approval of parliament before adjournment. The contract also provides for the transfer of troops between Halifax and Hong Kong and between intermediate points.

SEXTON'S CORRESPONDENCE.

London, Aug. 15.—In the Commons to-night Thos. Sexton, member for West Belfast, stated that it had been told him that the Home Office had authorized postal officials to open all letters which came from America addressed to Parnell by his mother. He asked if this was correct, and also if the Home Office had directed the postal officials to open and examine letters sent to him, Sexton, as mayor of Dublin, by President Harrison. Mr. Matthews, Home Secretary, stated very emphatically that he had not authorized the opening of any of the letters to which Sexton referred; nor, said he, was there the slightest ground for believing that President Harrison's letter to the mayor of Dublin had been opened by anyone connected with the post office department. If it was opened at all before it reached the hands of Mr. Sexton, it was done without the knowledge of the Home Officer. Regarding the alleged surreptitious filchings of letters from America addressed to Parnell, the Home Office was likewise without any information on the subject. He could only say that inquiry as to the alleged tampering with President Harrison's communication to Mr. Sexton was progressing.

EXCITEMENT OVER THE MAYBRICK CASE.

London, Aug. 15.—In the House of Lords to-day, Lord Fitzgerald addressed an enquiry to the government as to whether it was prepared to consider the necessity for constituting a Court of Criminal Appeal. In this connection he referred to the Maybrick case which at this time was forcing the question upon the public conscience. Lord Salisbury, the Lord Chancellor, deprecated every attempt to make the question a subject of discussion at a time when the public mind was in a state of uneasy excitement. It was not desirable, he said, to debate so grave an alteration in Criminal Law, as that proposed, at a time when jurors, witnesses and judges were being subjected to most brutal violence and when intimidation and insult were being heaped upon the Home Secretary in order to influence him in the discharge of a solemn duty. Lord Herschell held that wrong decisions were rare in criminal cases still he trusted that the government would seriously consider the matter during the recess, in view of the widespread feeling that a criminal appeal tribunal would provide needed security against possible injustice.

TELEGRAMS IN BRIEF.

Collated from Despatches Received Late this Morning.

The storm which swept over the Missouri river valley yesterday was the worst ever known in that section. It extended as far east as New York.

Fifteen hundred journeymen plasterers of New York city went on strike yesterday for an increase of wages from $4 to $4.50 per day.

J. Frank Callom, the Minneapolis forger, has had eight more indictments, aggregating $20,500, filed against him. His total forgeries will amount to about a quarter of a million dollars.

Stimulants and the Voice.

Tobacco, alcohol, and fiery condiments of all kinds are best avoided by those who have to speak much, or at least they should be used in strict moderation. I feel bound to warn speakers addicted to the "herb nicotian" against cigarettes. Like tippling, the effect of cigarette smoking is cumulative, and the slight but constant absorbtion of tobacco juice and smoke makes the practice far more noxious in the long run than any other form of smoking. Our forefathers, who used regularly to end their evenings under the table, seem to have suffered little of the well-known effects of alcohol on the nerves, while the modern tippler, who is intoxicated, is a being whose whole nervous system may be said to be in a state of chronic inflammation. In like manner cigarette smokers (those at least who inhale the smoke, and do not merely puff it "from the lips," as Carlyle would say), are often in a state of chronic narcotic poisoning. The old jest adout the slowness of the poison may seem applicable here, but though the process may be slow there can be but little doubt that it is sure. Even if it does not kill the body, it too often kills or greatly impairs the victim's working efficiency and usefulness in life. The local effects of cigarettes in the mouth must also be taken into account by those whose work lies in the direction of public speech. The white spots on the tongue and inside of the cheeks, known as "smoker's patches," are believed by some doctors with special experience to be more common in devotees of the cigarette than in other smokers. This unhealthy condition of the mouth may not only make speaking troublesome, or even painful, but it is now proved to be a predisposed cause of cancer. All fiery and pungent foods, condiments, or drinks tend to cause congestion of the throat, and if this condition becomes chronic it may lead to impairment, if not complete loss of voice. The supposed miraculous virtues of the mysterious possets and draughts on which some orators pin their faith exists mainly in the imagination of those who use them; at best they do nothing more than lubricate the joints of the vocal machine so as to make it work smoothly.—[Sir Morrell Mackenzie in the Contemporary Review.

Runaway.

What might have resulted in a serious accident occurred last night. Two young ladies were driving in a buggy on Wallace street when the horse became frightened and bolted, but the young lady handling the ribbons with commendable presence of mind steered the animal into some loose gravel and stones on the side of the road which stopped his mad career. No one was injured.

"Evangeline," said old Basil, as he sat in the gloaming, without knowing what it was. "Evangeline, child of my heart, why do you call your heifer Oleomargarine?" "Because, papa," said the girl, who could not tell a lie, "because she is no butter." For an instant Basil sat as one in a trance, and then he leaped from his chair like the roe when he hears in the woodland the voice of the hunters, but Evangeline was gone.—Burdette in Brooklyn Eagle.

Charlie Was Economical.

Just a Fit.

Miss Spinster (to shoe dealer)—I see that you have marked down some of your shoes.

Shoe Dealer—Yes; that line of ladies' shoes is marked down. We have marked 'em all down two sizes. Now there's a tidy little gaiter, 1½, I think will just fit you.

Miss Spinster blushes and buys the shoes.—Harper's Bazar.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

Returning again to the question of sumptuary laws as applied to the curbing of the liquor traffic, we have but a few words to say, and will put them so as not to be misunderstood by the most obtuse or self-appointed judge that may take it upon himself to argue the case. We do not wish to be understood as in the least favoring the wholesale indulgence in strong liquors which is so prevalent today in nearly every town or city in the land. Far from it. There is temperance in all things, even to the eating of meat and bread, for does not Holy Writ equally condemn the glutton with the drunkard? Certain trades and callings are more conducive to a desire for stimulating drinks than others, and to these must be linked the characteristic of all who have been any length of time upon the Pacific coast for companionship. The length and breadth of this coast is sadly deficient in those home comforts which are to be met with in nearly every city, large or small, in the eastern provinces of Canada and the States of the great republic to the south of us—i. e., reading rooms, or libraries, or places of resort where one will not be subject to the sight of whiskey-guzzling loafers or card-playing sharpers who make a living by fleecing the unwary. Take Nanaimo, for instance. If a young man, a stranger, comes to town, he of necessity has to stop at an hotel, which in nearly every case has the whiskey, card, and billiard auxilliary attachment. He has none of the comforts of home thrown about him. On the contrary, he is thrown amongst the vices of the world, and we maintain that he must be of a strong will to resist the fascinations of vice which will be presented to him in every form. His first step may not be radically wrong, as we who have seen the world may judge; but one step leads to another, and

"Vice is a monster of such frightful mein
As to be loathed needs but to be seen;
But seen too oft, familiar with its face,
We first pity, then endure, then embrace.

And hence we claim that those who shower their rant and cant against the intemperance prevalent to-day should provide places of innocent amusement for those whom they would seek to save from the clutches of what they are pleased to term the demon of drink, before they open the vials of their wrath upon those who do a licensed (and hence legitimate) business in selling intoxicants, and against those who avail themselves of the presence of the public houses to indulge in stimulants when they so feel disposed. As well say that a man shall not eat meat for his dinner, and then place meat temptingly before him, surrounded by all the delicate touches of a master cuisine. No man ever filled a drunkard's grave from choice. Surroundings and companionship were the primal causes which started him on his downward course, and the hypocritical fomentations of self-constituted temperance ranters sent him further into the depths of degredation by their predictions of his eternal damnation, without holding out to him a helping hand or giving him one word of encouragement or assistance. Society, as at present constituted, with its almost insurmountable bann of exclusiveness, has many sins to answer for in this respect. Our youth, raised more or less in the associations of the saloon, cannot help but be vicious to a greater or less extent, and if no restraining hand is placed upon them they will certainly grow up callous to all the finer feelings and teachings of pleasant home life. So if you would wean them from their present paths, provide equally comfortable and attractive places of amusement for them outside the realms of temptation. Do not berate the saloon-keeper for selling them drinks or furnishing them with a comfortable place for an evening's entertainment, without first providing an alternative attraction.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.

THE Shah of Persia declined to ascend the Eiffel tower. A man with forty wives or so does not care to venture any nearer the grasp of Providence.

THE milk inspector at Montreal finds that the wet season has had its effect on the quality of milk. The cows, it seems, imbibe too much water through the grass being saturated. So it is reported, at least. When the cows take to watering the milk the public may as well give up the fight in despair.

Joy to the Afflicted.

Dr. McLennan, Monarch of the Healers, for many years past a resident of San Francisco, California, arrived on the noon train. His record in the past has been remarkable for marvellous success with chronic, lingering and difficult cases, such as resist the potency of drugs and baffle the best efforts of other physicians. His system of treatment is based on new principles, using no medicine, no surgical operation and no pain. Office Central Hotel.

CORPORATION
OF THE
CITY OF NANAIMO

NANAIMO REVENUE BY-LAW, 1889.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for raising a Municipal Revenue in conformity with the Municipal Act, 1889; Be it therefore enacted by the Municipal Council of the City of Nanaimo, as follows:—

1. The Nanaimo Revenue By-Laws of 1875, 1876, 1878, 1881, 1882, 1885 and 1887 are hereby repealed, excepting so far as may be required for securing and enforcing the payment of any rates and taxes now outstanding or in arrear, or the recovery of any penalty thereunder.

2. From and after the passage of this by-law, the general Municipal Revenue of the City shall be raised, levied and collected for the use of the Corporation from such sources as hereinafter provided.

3. There shall be raised, levied and collected in each year upon all real estate mentioned in the Assessment Roll for the time being in force in the said city an equal rate of one per cent. on the assessed value thereof as appears by the said roll.

4. The said rates shall be due and payable by the person or persons liable for the same to the Collector of the Municipal Council at his office in the City Hall, Bastion street, Nanaimo, on the 1st day of August in each year.

5. There shall be levied upon and collected from every male person above 21 and under 60 years of age, resident in the City of Nanaimo, as and for Road Tax an annual sum of Two Dollars.

6. Every person using the trades, occupations, professions or business in Schedule A, hereunto annexed, particularly described, shall take out a periodical license for such period as in the said Schedule A set out, paying therefor such periodical sum as is there specified, which said sum shall respectively be paid in advance to and for the use of the Corporation of the City of Nanaimo, and their successors.

7. No person shall use, practice, carry on, or exercise any trade, occupation, profession or business in the said Schedule A described or named, without having taken out and had granted to him, her or them a license in that behalf. The licenses to be granted as aforesaid are to be granted so as to terminate on the 30th day of June and the 31st day of December, and no proportionate reduction shall be made on account of any person or persons commencing business between those dates.

8. In the construction of this By-law, in describing or referring to any person or party, matter or thing, any word importing the masculine gender or singular number, shall be understood to include and shall be applicable to several persons and parties, as well as one person or party, and females as well as males, and bodies corporate as well as individuals, and several matters or things, as well as one matter or thing, unless it be otherwise provided, or there is something in the subject or centext repugnant to such construction.

9. For the purposes of this By-law, the term wholesale trader shall mean proprietors of express offices, gas companies, fire insurance companies, coal merchants, lumber dealers, fur traders, founders, warehousemen, waterworks companies, and all persons who sell articles in bulk or unbroken packages.

10. For the purposes of this By-law, a retail dealer shall be held to mean any person or persons carrying on any business or calling (not otherwise specially mentioned) within the city limits.

11.—This By-law may be cited for all purposes as the "Nanaimo Revenue By-Law, 1889."

Passed the Municipal Council this 5th day of August, 1889.

Affirmed by the Municipal Council this 13th day of August, 1889.

S. GOUGH, C. M. C. — M. BATE, MAYOR.

SCHEDULE A.

1. From any person vending spirituous or fermented liquors by retail, for each house or place where such vending is carried on, $100 for every six months.

2. From any person not having a retail license as above, and vending spirituous or fermentad liquors for wholesale, that is to say in quantities not less than two gallons, for each house or place $25 for every six months.

3. From any person keeping a saloon or building where a billiard table is used for hire or profit, for each table $3 for every six months.

4. From any person keeping a bowling alley or rifle gallery, $5 for every six months.

5. From any person selling opium, except chemists and druggists, using the same in preparation of prescriptions of medical practitioners $50 for every six months.

6. From any person carrying on the business of a wholesale, or of a wholesale and retail merchant or trader, $10 for every six months.

7. From any retail trader $5 for every six months.

In case any wholesale or retail trader has more than one place of business he shall pay a license for each place.

8. From every person who either on his own behalf or as agent of another or others, solicits or takes orders for goods, wares or merchandise to be supplied or furnished by any person or firms doing business outside the Province and not having a permanent and licensed place of business within the Province $40 for every six months.

9. From every person who keeps or carries on a public wash house or laundry $5 for every six months.

10. From any person carrying on the business of a pawnbroker, $75 for every six months.

11. From any cattle drover, $20 for every six months.

12. From the owner or owners of cabs, buggies, carts, wagons, carriages, omnibusses and other vehicles kept for hire $2.50 for every six months for every such vehicle, provided that no person or company holding a license under this subsection shall be liable at the same time to take out or pay for a license in respect of the livery stable at which the vehicle mentioned in such license is kept.

13. From every livery stable keeper, $10 for every six months.

14. From any person carrying on, on his own account, the business of a banker at one place of business, $10 for every six months.

15. From each person practising as a barrister or solicitor, $12.50 for every six months.

16. From any person (other than a barrister or solicitor, who has taken out a license to practice as such) following the occupation of a conveyancer, or land agent or both, $12.50 for every six months.

17. From any auctioneer, (not being a government officer, selling by auction, or sheriff, or sheriff's officer or bailiff, selling lands, goods or chattels, taken in execution or for the satisfaction of rent or taxes), in addition to any other license before mentioned, $50 for every six months.

18. From every person who exhibits a public circus or menagerie, $25 for each exhibition.

19. From every person carrying on any trading business or calling, other than those mentioned in this Schedule, the sum of $5 for every six months, provided always that no person employed as a journeyman or for wages only, and not employing other persons or having a regular place of business, shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

PROCLAMATION.

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT CHANcellor Browning, Commissioner for the C. P. R. has this, the 26th day of July, 1889, issued a proclamation warning all persons from purchasing lots from Samuel Greer in Lot 526, Group One. Now, may it please Your Lordship, I have offered for sale any lots in said Lot 526, for that would be deception on the public, as the highest legal authority in British Columbia pronounced the title to that lot straw—not one cent as consideration having been given. Now, if Your Lordship will adjust your wig and recover from your deep studies of Blackstone and the laws of estoppal, you will be able to see that the four Judges who threw your case out of Court last April were fully able to comprehend the difference between 526 and Pre-emption Record 1003, this being the REGESTERED NUMBER of may land on English Bay. Come down and see us. I have a few corner lots (with a smattering of coal) yet left. I mean to sell, and the public will persist in buying them, notwithstanding Your Lordship's decision. Things will move just the same at English Bay.

All parties are hereby warned that Angus and Smith have no title to Lot 526 till confirmed by the Legislature, and all sales will be void.

SAMUEL GREER.

LIGHT AND AIRY.

The Monkey.

Now the poor, consumptive monkey is thoroughly thawed out.
And gathers in the shekels by shinning up a spout;
Then sits upon the curbstone shivering in the cold.
While his ancient Roman master grinds out a chestnut old.
Oh, what a sad affliction to be chained to a thing
That's letting out "Sweet Violets" and "Spring, Gentle Spring."
'Tis bad enough to hear it while passing on your way,
But that poor monkey gets it a thousand times a day
Fed on a steady diet of "Spring, Gentle Spring,"
I would not blame that monkey for doing anything
He'd kill that old Italian and thus thin out the ranks.
I see he got a pension and a hearty vote of thanks —Chicago News.

Summer Life on the Hudson.

Lady Fair (in her summer villa on the Hudson)—Perkins, have the Pinkerton guards had their breakfast?

Perkins—Yes, madam; they are now cleaning and reloading their Winchesters.

"Have the night sentinels come in from the park?"

"They have, madam, and they report that no gangs of tramps have been seen since mid night."

"Very well. Request the guards to form ranks and be ready to accompany me. I wish to walk a few moments in the garden."—Omaha World.

The Awakening.

Oh, not the night and not the storm,
And not the lightning's fire;
But sunlight's torch, the kind, the warm,
This, this awoke the lyre.
—Felicia Hemans.

Oh, not the fight, the foeman's rout,
The coolness under fire,
But going out to fish for trout,
This, this awoke the liar
—Boston Courier

Looking Out for Number One.

Bobby (whose uncle has given him a dollar)—I wish you would give me a nickel, Uncle James, instead of a dollar

Uncle James (astonished)—But, Bobby, a dollar is better than a nickel!

Bobby—That's the trouble; if it's a dollar, pa 'll want it, if it's only a nickel, I can have it.—The Epoch.

He Couldn't Refer to Her.

Newspaper Humorist (sarcastically to his best girl)—People may sneer and laugh at my special line of work, but it brings in the dollars just the same.

Best Girl (reproachfully)—I hope, Charley, you don't include me. I never think of laughing at your work.—New York Sun.

His Spring Suit.

Belinda, Belinda! for charity's sake,
An end to my cardiac agony make.
Relieve my distress that is keen and acute,
And say in a word what you think of my suit.

Augustus, Augustus! I regret that I must
Reduce the fond hopes of your heart into dust,
And crumble your yearnings in ruin and wreck,
But your suit does not boast of a large enough check. —Judge.

About Barking dogs.

Tommy, being out walking with his mother, was much scared at a dog that barked at him.

"Why, you are a regular little coward. Don't you know that the barking dog never bites?" said the maternal ancestor.

"I know the barking dog never bites, but how do I know that the dog knows it?" was the tearful reply.—Texas Siftings.

Words and Their Uses.

Mrs. Squildig—I suppose, Mrs. Snaggs, that your daughter graduates this year. When do the commencement exercises begin?

Mrs. Snaggs—Yes, dear Jennie will be through college next week. Dr. Firstly will preach the tobaccalaureate sermon next Sunday.—Pittsburg Chronicle.

Philosophy.

This world is but a fleeting show,
And no wise man regrets it,
For man wants little here below,
And generally he gets it.
—Somerville Journal.

A Straight Tip.

Young Lady (at the races)—What is meant by saying, Jack, "He looks like a dead sure winner?"

Jack—A horse that is apt to win the race.

Young Lady—How can one tell a horse looks like that?

Jack—When you see his nose under the wire first.—New York Sun.

Evidences of Genius.

"Yes, several members of our family have won illustrious names."

"Is that so?"

"One of my brothers distinguished himself as an author and another as a soldier."

"That's nothing. Three of my brothers are star players in the best baseball club in the country."—Lincoln Journal.

No Spooning.

He held her hand and her fingers pressed,
But he never spoke of love;
For he was a clerk, and at her request
He was trying on her glove.
—Somerville Journal.

A Terrible Disaster.

Telegraphic Editor—Terrible accident! Twenty cars go through a bridge.

Managing Editor—Give it a triple head and get me some points for an editorial. By the way, what bridge was it?

Telegraphic Editor—A covered bridge.—Tid Bits.

Settled for a Moment.

"There," exclaimed an inexperienced young woman at the Polo grounds, as Welch landed the ball in the pit of the batter's food department, while the latter lay down and tore up handfuls of grass, "he has hit him at last. Does that win the game?"—New York Sun.

A Bad Habit.

He loved her once, or so he thought;
But now he stays away.
She could not possibly be taught
To keep from saying, "Say!"
—Detroit Free Press.

A Meaty Conversation.

"How do you feel?" asked the Mutton of the Sausage Meat.

"All cut up," replied the Sausage Meat. "How are you this morning?"

"I feel quite chop fallen."—Tid Bits.

Slow of Movement.

Guest (in restaurant)—Waiter, where's that cheese I ordered?

Waiter—It's coming, sir, coming.

Guest—Well, I wish you would ask it to hurry up.—Texas Siftings.

Shoo!

Now in suburban haunts
Once more begins the fun,
Where hens bring up the plants
Much quicker than the sun.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's

CHLORODYNE.

THE ORIGINAL and ONLY GENUINE.

Advice to invalids—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c., &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880: To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London, Dear Sir:—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and judging from their salet we fancy their sojurn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœ, and 2nd Dysentery Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as general Sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even if the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of the opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's, is A DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBE AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellancy the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J, Collis Browne was, undoubtedly, the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to —See "The Times," July 13, 1884.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp, Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

NANAIMO :-: COURIER

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16, 1889.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

THE COURIER subscription list within the city limits has been taken charge of by Mr. A. E. PLANTA, who will hereafter see that each and every subscriber gets his paper, and gets it regularly. We specially request that all complaints of subscribers be at once sent in to the business office, and they will be rectified. There may possibly be some mistakes occur during the next few days, owing to new carriers being employed.

St. Ann's Convent.

Studies will be resumed next Monday the 19th of August. *

Start Business in Tacoma.

It is rumored that a popular barkeeper of this city will start an hotel in Tacoma. We wish George luck but he will be missed by his many friends here.

Fire and Burglar Proof.

A handsome Kimballs Champion, fire and burglar proof safe for Ezra Cook, of the Park Dairy, arrived yesterday on the steamer Dunsmuir consigned to Mr. J. M. Brown, watchmaker and agent for these safes.

Business College.

W. H. Routledge, of Victoria, (late Commercial Master at the International College in Switzerland), has still room for one more pupil, in his house. For particulars apply Box 13, P. O. Victoria B. C. *

Football Challenge.

Mr. A. Potts yesterday received a challenge from the New Westminster Football Club to play a friendly game with the Nanaimo Rovers at New Westminster on exhibition day.

To Arrange a Baseball Match.

Mr. C. S. Bradford will go to New Westminster next Tuesday to endeavor to arrange a baseball match between the Bradfords of this city and the New Westminster Nine. The match will probably take place some time during the next two weeks.

A Close Call.

While Rev. James Millar, Presbyterian Minister, and several others were passing the new opera house, at present in course of construction, yesterday afternoon, that gentleman had a narrow escape, a plank falling from the second story and nearly striking him. It is about time the sidewalk near the new building is fenced off.

Nicol Rock Blast.

A very heavy blast will be set off about 5 p. m. on Monday by Ald. Nightingale, who has charge of the work of removing Nicol rock. The charge of 500 pounds of dynamite will be stowed in about 42 holes and this amount of powder exploding simultaneously will be a sight worth seeing.

Don't Swear.

The Nanaimo Cricket Club wishes to state that they have no objection to baseball matches being played on their grounds but have a decided objection to un-Parliamentary language being used while the game is in progress. It is stated that some of the expressions made use of yesterday were simply awful in their intensity.

Honesty.

Yesterday morning after the train had steamed out of the depot, Daniel McLean, day telegraph messenger, found a satchel, containing two watches and a large sum of money, in the waiting room. He immediately handed it over to Mr. Shaw, station agent, who will take steps to discover the owners of the property. Honesty is rather a scarce article in the present age and this youth deserves great praise.

An Old Acquaintance.

Hon. J. S. Clute, inspector of customs and postmaster at New Westminster, was in town to-day. He is the same jolly, whole-souled Clute we knew years ago, when both were younger and the Royal City gave less evidences of being a commercial centre than it does to-day. Mr. Clute is the bearer of a kindly message from us to Hon. Peter Grant, a staunch and true friend of ye days gone by, when both were "boys" together in the metropolis of the mainland—when he divided his time between curbing lightning with Mackintosh and acting as president of the Nameless Club, in which latter he (at times) divided the honor with Jimmy Kennedy of the Columbian.

Shooting on the Streets.

A new phase of rowdyism in Nanaimo occurred the other night, to wit, some young men amused themselves firing off a revolver at the lamp post near Dr. Praeger's new residence. A gentleman passing endeavored to remonstrate with the sheotists but was promptly consigned to sheol with many wishes for his future comfort in that place. He passed along not caring to risk an impromptu introduction to the place named and was surprised to hear several bullets whistling past his head. He was under the impression that the emulators of Buffalo Bill were endeavoring to see how fast they could load and fire and deeming it possible that they were not particular as to where they aimed he "stayed not on the order of his going but went at once," and so remains to tell the tale.

Remedy for Sunstroke

Whatever is to be done in this disease, must be done quickly. Clinical as well as experimental observations, enforce this doctrine. There should in such case be no waiting for the doctor. The remedy is so simple, the death so imminent that the good Samaritan passing by should save his brother. The good Samaritan must, however, have a cool head to be useful. Not every man who falls unconcious on a hot day has sunstroke. There is fortunately one criterion so easy of application that any one can use it. Go at once to the fallen man, open his shirt bosom and lay the hand upon his chest: if the skin be cool, you may rest assurred that whatever is the trouble, it is not sunstroke. If on the contrary the skin be burning hot, the case is certainly sunstroke, and no time should be lost. The patient should be carried to the nearest pump or hydrant, stripped to the waist, and bucketful after bucketful of cold water dashed over him until conciousness begins to return, or the intense heat of the surface decidedly abates.

BASEBALL MATCH

Bradfords versus Calithumpians.

A very interesting game was played yesterday on the N. C. C. grounds, between the Bradfords and the Calithumpian base ball teams, resulting in a decisive victory for the Bradfords. The Calithumpians have only been organized a short time and showed great pluck on their part to challenge the Bradfords, who have already done some good work on the diamond.

Following are the respective teams and positions:

BRADFORDS.	POSITION.	CALITHUMPIANS.
Speers	Pitcher	Gallagher
Watson	Catcher	Morden
Mallandaine	1st Base	Burt
Edwards	2nd Base	McGregor
Belsea	3rd Base	Crossen
Van Houten	Right Field	Peck
Williams	Left Field	Horne
Bradford	Centre Field	Duffy
McKenzie	Short Stop	Beveridge

Purcell, umpire.

Seven innings were played, the Bradfords scoring 23 and the Calithumpians 6.

For the Bradfords, Speer made a splendid fly catch, then putting the ball to Mallandaine on 1st, thence to Edwards on 2nd, making a very pretty treble play. Beveridge very nicely caught a fly for the losing team, and putting it to McGregor at 2nd made the only double play of the day for that side.

PERSONAL.

Mr. S. Tait went to Victoria yesterday en route for England.

Mr. A. Lindsay passed through this city on his way to Wellington.

Capt. Collister arrived by the noon train yesterday.

Dr. Praeger, colliery surgeon, will probably return next Saturday.

Mr. R. Scott, contractor for sinking the Northfield shaft and Mr. E. M. Yarwood left for Victoria yesterday.

Mr. J. Argyle and Mr. T. Davis were passengers to the Capital yesterday.

Dr. Eberts, of Wellington, has been chosen one of the Vice-Presidents of the Canadian Medical Association.

Mr. F. Wickham, travelling for the Vancouver News-Advertiser, made us a call yesterday. He goes to Victoria this morning.

POLICE COURT.

Before J. P. Planta, S. M., and Mayor Bate.

Duncan McLean, charged with obtaining a chair, valued at $10, from E. Davis et al.

The chair in question was one raffled at the firemen's picnic and for which there are two claimants, the defendant and T. Rains.

Mr. G. Norris, printer and publisher, testified that he printed the tickets produced in Court and then demonstrated to the Court the manner in which the printing was done.

Mr. T. Rains testified that he purchased five tickets for the lottery, and the number winning the chair was one of them. I gave the ticket to Mr. Wenborn.

Mr. R. Wenborn, machinist, testified that a man named Hutcheson brought to me a ticket bearing number 230, which was perforated both top and bottom, but that I did not notice at the time I received it. I had charge of the winning numbers. The ticket marked B, perforated only at the bottom, is the one that won the prize. I gave Hutcheson an order for the chair.

Mr. G. Norris, jun., testified that he was able to identify the ticket produced in Court as the one belonging to Rains, by the single perforations.

The Bench here remarked that it would be better for plaintiff and defendant to sue the firemen for possession of the chair at the next County Court, and the case will be adjourned for that purpose.

Bail was fixed at $200, himself in $100 and two sureties of $50 each.

If you want to buy dry goods at cost price remember Arthur Bullock's sale closes in two weeks. *

ABOUT MUSIC.

Lightning struck a hall where some of Wagner's music was being rendered, and the leader of the orchestra merely motioned to the man at the big drum to hit more gently at the next innings.

"They tell me Barney has a great ear for music," said Gubbins. "Yes," said the General, "I know he has a great ear—two of them in fact, but I did not know they were for music. I supposed they were for brushing the flies off the top of his head.

A man on the train was heard to groan so frightfully that the passengers took pity on him and one of them gave him a drink out of a whisky flask. "Do you feel better?" asked the giver. "I do," said he who had groaned. "What ailed you, anyway?" "Ailed me?" "Yes; what made you groan so?" "Groan! Great Land o'Goshen! I was singing!" The generous man will never cease to regret the loss of that drink of whisky.

A Yankee was taken by a friend to a Roman Catholic church, celebrated for its Gregorian music, and he replied that he didn't think much of it. "But," said his friend, "that was Gregorian music, the oldest that we have. That is the music that David used to play before Saul." "Wal, is it now. That explains a part of the Scriptures to me. I never could understand why Saul should have shied his javelin at David; but now that I am aware that David inflicted that quality of torture upon the poor old man, I'm heart and soul with Saul."

When Verdi was putting the last touches to Il Trovatore, he was visited in his study by a privileged friend. The friend was one of the ablest living musicians and critics. He was permitted to look at the score and run over the Anvil Chorus on the pianoforte. "What do you think of that?" asked the master. "Trash!" said the connoisseur. Verdi rubbed his hands and chuckled. "Now look at this, and this," he said. "Rubbish!" The composer rose and embraced him with a burst of joy. "What do you mean?" asked the critic. "My dear friend," cried Verdi, "I have been making a popular opera. In it I resolved to please everybody except the great judges, the classicists, like you. Had I pleased you I should have pleased no one else. What you say assures me of my success. In three months Il Trovatore will be sung, and roared, and whistled, and barrel-organed all over Italy."

UNION MINE NOTES.

A correspondent says that the recently imported negroes are not giving such satisfaction as was at first expected. They are not nearly as reliable as white men and, it is claimed, do not earn the wages paid them. No more of them have started for Nanaimo as yet, but several talk of tramping soon.

Mr. Macauley, of the Victoria Lumber and Mfg. Co., is at Comox examining the timber limits of the company.

Rain is needed very badly, the air being thick with smoke, which hangs like a pall over the Gulf, making navigation very difficult.
