Lord Randolph Churchill Declines to Be a Tory Candidate for

CENTRAL BIRMINGHAM DISTRICT

Sir Charles Russell Opens the Case for the Parnell Defence—Bismarck Thinks Peace Is to Be Found in Monarchial Institutions.

THE PARNELL COMMISSIOF.

London, April 2.—The Parnell Commission resumed its sitting to-day after an adjournment of three weeks. Sir Charles Russell, of the Parnellite counsel, opened the case for the defence. He said Attorney General Webster's three hundred and forty witnesses whom he placed on the stand gave a great deal of irrelevant testimony, which was of no use in the present case. They but retailed stories of crime in Ireland. He admitted that crime existed in Ireland to a greater or less degree. The collapse of the forged letters upon which the case was built abolished the pith and marrow of the inquiry. The Court was asked by the Attorney General to indict a whole nation, an act which the eminent jurist, Sir John Burke, declared was not feasible according to official rules, and invalid in law. When the whole people were moved to consider the subject thoughtful minds would be convinced that the time had come to try the experiment of home rule for Ireland.

ARRAIGNED FOR TRIAL.

Paris, April 2.—Senator Naquet, Deputies Loquerro, Lasant and Turquet, and M. Paul de Roulede, members of the patriotic league, have been arraigned for trial. M. de Roulede claimed that the objects of the league were not secret, and that no military plot could be proved against them. The organization would continue to exist despite all opposition. The other accused members made similar speeches. They declared the league to be patriotic and faithful to the republic.

EARL SPENCER'S PLATE.

London, April 2.—The handicap race for the Earl Spencer's plate of 500 sovereigns for three-year olds was won by Hoem to-day, at the Northampton spring meeting. The race for the Althorp Park stakes of 10 sovereigns each, and 300 sovereigns added for two-year olds, distance five furlongs, was won by Weyland, a bay colt belonging to Leopold Rothschild.

BISMARCK'S BIRTHDAY.

Berlin, April 7.—In replying yesterday to birthday congratulations offered him by the Manufacturers' Association, Prince Bismarck said that he believed peace would continue, and that in consequence Germany's trade would increase. He believed that one assurance of peace was to be found in the desire of the people for monarchial institutions.

THE GALE IN SAMOA.

London, April 2.—The hurricane which swept the waters of Samoa, covered, according to dispatches received to-night, nearly 1,200 miles of the South Pacific, including the Harvey and Society Islands. The American ships Red Cross and Ada Owen were wrecked in the gale, but the crews were saved.

AFTER A NORWEGIAN EXPLORER.

London, April 2.—The Danish ship Heidbjornan sailed from Copenhagen on Sunday for Greenland to bring back the explorer Nansen and his party. Nansen, it will be remembered, is the Norwegian athlete who attempted to reach the North Pole on snowshoes, and actually succeeded in crossing Greenland. A grand reception is in preparation in the Danish capital for Nansen and colleagues when they arrive.

Paris, April 2.—The whereabouts of Gen. Boulanger are still unknown.

ONE FOR THE NEWSPAPERS.

Paris, April 2.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day, by a vote of 306 to 236, rejected the proposal of the Senate to prosecute summarily any newspapers having libelled the government or any official thereof.

BOULANGER IN HIDING.

The police are mystified, but the General will appear when duty requires him. Our information is that he is hidden temporarily, perhaps in Brussels.

AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE.

London, April 2.—An impressive scene took place in the Chapel Royal, St. James palace, on Sunday, when the Bishop of Ripon preached an eulogistic sermon on the late John Bright. Mr. Gladstone stood during the whole of the discourse, eagerly catching every word of the preacher's eloquence.

NIHILISTS ARRESTED.

St. Petersburg, April 2.—A large number of arrests of Nihilists have been made at Vilna.

"RANDY" DECLINES.

London, April 2.—Lord Randolph Churchill has declined to be the Conservative candidate for the Central district of Birmingham in the coming parliamentary election.

RAIN IN AUSTRALIA.

Sydney, N.S.W., April 2.—Heavy rains have fallen throughout the colony. They are of much value to the farmers.

THE QUEEN LEAVES FOR ENGLAND.

Biarritz, April 2.—Queen Victoria left here to-day for England.

THE GLADSTONIAN CANDIDATE.

London, April 2.—The Gladstonian candidate to contest Mr. Bright's constituency of Central Birmingham is Mr. Wm. Phepson Beale, a barrister.

A FAREWELL DINNER.

London, April 2.—The proposed Parnell banquet to Consul-General Waller will be given at the Hotel Metropole on May 2nd.

BOMBS TO KILL THE CZAR.

London, April 2.—It transpires that the bombs in the manufacture of which the Zurich students were implicated, were to be used upon the occasion of the Czar's visit to Berlin. Thirteen more arrests have been made in Zurich and three of the leaders among the bomb manufacturers have escaped.

UNITED STATES NEWS

American Naval Officers Are Surprised Nothing Has Been Heard of the BRITISH WARSHIP CALLIOPE.

The Denver, Colorado, Bank Robber Is Yet at Large—They Thought They Had Him, But Were Mistaken.

BRITISH WARSHIP MISSING.

Washington, April 2.—Naval officers are somewhat surprised that nothing has yet been heard of the British warship Calliope, which left the harbor of Apia during the hurricane that destroyed the American and German vessels. The Calliope has had ample time to reach Sydney, her supposed destination, but her arrival has not yet been announced, so it is safe to assume that she has not yet reached that port. A despatch sent to the state department from Berlin from Minister Pendleton stated that the Calliope was badly damaged; and if this be true, there is a probability that she may have gone down or been seriously disabled by the hurricane. Naval officers think the Calliope would not have sailed to Sydney on such short notice, particularly when her presence was needed at Samoa to protect British interests there. They think, too, that if she had escaped the storm in safety she would have gone back to Apia to see if assistance was needed by other vessels there, and if, on the other hand, she had been disabled, she would hardly have gone to Sydney for repairs when Apia was so near.

THE DENVER BANK ROBBER.

Denver, April 3.—W. B. Stephens, alias Spencer was arrested here yesterday afternoon, charged with being the principal in the robbery of the First National bank, in which President Moffatt lost $21,000. The information on which the arrest was made came from Wm. Levy, a miner from St. Paul, who knew of Stephens shady record in the northwest. President Moffatt, Teller Kelly and Cashier Wood visited the jail after the arrest, but could not make up their minds as to Stephens identity. Subsequently they reluctantly admitted that while the resemblance was exact the prisoner was not the robber. Stephens was then locked up on a charge of forgery. W. H. Clark, a gambler of St. Louis is still held as an accomplice in the bank robbery.

LAND TROUBLES.

Fort Dodge, Iowa, April 2.—The old excitement among the river land settlers, has been revived by the resumption of the evictions early yesterday morning. A large number of river land settlers, fully equipped with machinery and seeds started to plant a crop in the farms from which settlers had been evicted last fall. This action is in keeping with the threat made at the time to the effect that they would repossess themselves of lands from which they were then evicted. Information was filed against several settlers yesterday and warrants issued for their arrest, in as much as the settlers have declared they will resist all interference. There is great fear of serious trouble and excitement.

MINING EXCITEMENT.

Keokuk, Ia., April 2—The lead, coal and gold excitement is running very high at Lowell, Iowa. A. Williamson and J. Grey went out to prospect for lead a few days ago, and returned to-day with a large chunk of gold ore, and say they have struck it rich. Joseph Kirk has found a four foot vein of coal on his land about one mile from Lowell.

THE NEW BRITISH MINISTER.

Washington, April 2.—The State Department has been officially informed that sir Julien Pauncefort, the new British minister to the United States, will sail for New York on the 13th inst.

BILLY BIRCH ALIVE.

New York, April 2.—Billy Birch is alive and well. The story of his death was evidently started through malice, or possibly as a joke by some unknown persons who sent misinformation to the papers.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 2.—The returns from nearly all of the precincts are in, and now the election of the entire Democratic ticket for city officers and a majority of aldermen is assured, giving the Democrats full control of the city government in both the executive and legislative branches. Dewitt C. Creigien, Democratic candidate for Mayor, has an estimated majority of 1,200 over John A. Roche, Republican, the present incumbent.

BRIGHT CONDOLENCES.

Washington, April 2.—In the senate today Stewart's resolution expressing the sorrow of the senate at the death of John Bright was discussed and referred to the committee on foreign relations. Edmunds offered a resolution that in the absence of the vice president, Mr. Ingalls be chosen president pro tempore of the senate. The resolution was agreed to. At 3:10 the senate adjourned sine die.

THE INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

Washington, April 2.—About thirty railroad officials, representing southern and southwestern railways, were before the interstate commerce commission to confer with the commissioners about export rates. Sol A. Haas, traffic manager of the Atlantic Coast lines; T. H. Carter, President of the Southern Steamship Association; C. H. Cromwell, general freight agent of the Western Railway of Georgia; Charles Schiff, president of the New Orleans, Texas & Pacific Railway; Augustus Pope, general freight agent of the New York & Western Railway and a number of others were examined. Some of these gentlemen admitted that under their present method of making rates on cottons for export charges owing to daily fluctuations in ocean rates, were frequently lower than on the same freights when shipped over their lines for domestic use, and while admitting that this was violation of the interstate law, they claimed that it grew out of the only practical method of fixing rates on cotton for export so as to distribute traffic among different roads leading to the seaboard, and prevent concentration of cotton rates at any of the southern seaports. The commission now have the whole subject of export rates under advisement.

EARLY CLOSING.

We are pleased to note the determination of a number of our leading merchants to close their places of business at an early hour, and in this laudable endeavor they should receive the support of the public. There is no earthly reason, why people who wish to make purchases during the day cannot do so before 7. p. m. The life of the ordinary clerk in any branch of business is not, as a general rule strewn with roses and the early closing of stores, etc, will give him a chance to recuperate; time for rest and recreation, and he will enter upon his duties the following morning with a renewed spirit and a determination to serve the best interests of his employer. As a matter of fact there is too much work and too little play for the average business man anyway, and this will also apply to the employes as well as to the masters. In order to do good work men must have recreation; they must have a time during the twenty-four hours of each day in which they may restore the wasted energy of the hours in which they are called upon to work. We hope to see the movement general and let every business man fall into line and they will be gainers in the end, and the hard worked employes will do their work better and do more of it, the public will be satisfied and good to all will be the undoubted result.

DRAINAGE.

We have repeatedly called the attention of our citizens to the sanitary condition of the city. It is not what it ought to be, as many, very many, of our citizens will testify. We have also pointed out that it is absolutely essential in the maintenance of a healthy community that all foul matter, and impure substances should be deposited a respectable distance from the heart of a town or city. We have also referred to the fact that right in the city numerous backyards are used as depositories, and only one thing can be the result. The present sanitary condition of this city is well known, and, to say the least, it cannot improve unless some active measures are taken to make the city more cleanly and healthy. It is customary for all places to wait until an epidemic has dealt a death blow before a city is aroused to the vital necessity of a drainage system, and, as we have often said, we believe that our city should take the necessary steps to improve the sanitary condition. Where epidemics rage people begin to inquire the cause. That there is a primal source of such no one who is in the least versed in hygienic affairs will deny, and we wish to point this out to the people. The preservation of the health of the people is one of the first duties which the municipal rulers owe to the people. And, in fact, it is one of its first duties which the people owe to themselves. Some measures are necessary, and if the people are not alive to their own interests when premature disease and death comes they are primarily responsible for their very indifference. If we cannot have an efficient sewerage system we can at least have health regulations enforced to a certain extent. Therefore, it is time we looked to it. Let the by-laws on the subject be rigidly enforced, and we believe that much good to all would be the inevitable outcome.

THE NATURAL GAS SUPPLY.

Natural gas, says a contemporary, is being so extensively employed in lighting and heating, that in cities where large sums are being voted for appliances for its utilization, the public very seriously debate the question of the permanency of the supply. At Toledo, Ohio, the natural gas scheme, which involves the laying of many miles of piping to the gas fields, is expected to require an expenditure of at least two million dollars. A commission at that city has been examining evidence with a view to forming some conclusion as to whether or not the gas supply is likely to be maintained sufficiently long to justify the expenditure. But the commission is unable to arrive at any definite conclusion. No one knows how the gas is formed, and no one knows how long it is likely to last.

There is a common impression that natural gas is in some way a product of petroleum. But the chemical facts are against this idea; and besides, the gas is found in the Trenton limestone, a lower stratum than the petroleum-bearing shales. The gas has its origin probably still lower than the Trenton rock, in which it is stored in so great quantity. That the supply is inexhaustible is exceedingly unlikely, but it may be that the accummulation going on for ages has been sufficient to render exhaustion unlikely for several generations. But even this supposition has little to warrant it, outside of somewhat doubtful analogies. It is probable also that natural gas is being constantly produced in the depths of the earth, just as coal is constantly being formed. But the process would almost certainly be too slow to meet demands were the original accummulation exhausted.

Be this as it may, there is a good deal of encouragement to investment in natural gas schemes, in the fact that some cities which have been using the gas for many years have found the flow rather increasing than diminishing. The exhaustion of the petroleum beds in some districts, however, suggests the possibility that gas likewise may flow for a number of years and then cease.

—BANKERS—

The Bank of British Columbia.

The British Columbia Tanning Company is formed for the purpose of carrying on the business of manufacturing all kinds of leather, belting, trunks, and the manufacturing of all kinds of leather goods and goods in which leather forms any part.

Any number of hides can be procured at a reasonable price here and in other parts of the province.

Fuel can be procured here cheaper than in any other town in the province.

The shipping facilities here are of the best.

Any amount of bark for tanning purposes can be procured in the vicinity.

A large proportion of the heavy leather now used in this Province is brought from the United States.

The hides in this Province are better adapted for heavy leather than the Eastern hides.

Now most of the heavy leather manufactured in the Eastern Provinces is made out of hides brought from Chicago, Northwest Territories and British Columbia.

Besides supplying this Province, a market for these goods can readily be found as far East as Montreal.

Owing to the largely increased demand for these goods as compared with any previous period and the facilities which this city affords for manufacturing them, a large profit can be assured.

It is also proposed to manufacture buckskin gloves, as there is an unlimited supply of deer hides, and the hides can be taoned and made into gloves at a good profit.

It is proposed to erect buildings in the City of Nanaimo for the manufacturing of said articles; the buildings and machinery will cost about $15,000.

The calls on the stock will not exceed ten per cent, at any one time and will not be made oftener than once a month.

Sometimes my neighbor comes to me und says: "Mr. Dunder, I doant like to make you feel bad, but dot poy of yours goes mit der gallows if you doant pehave him better. He hits my dogs mit some snowballs yesterday." Vhell, der next day comes und somebody preaks my vindow mit a snowballs, und vden I goes oudt to speak aboudt it he call me oldt Knickerbocker. I look at him more closely, und lo! he vhas dot same neighbor's poy I can' make oudt how she vhas.

Sometimes my neighbor comes to und says, "Mr. Dunder, you doan' lif in dis country so long ash I do, und I tell you dot it vhas agin some law if you put ashes around. I shpeak to you pecaus I vhas your frendt." Vhell, dot makes me ashamed, nnd I goes off und puys a box. In two days a policeman comes along und says my neighbor keeps more ashes, swill, dead cats und straw-beds in his yard dan he sees pefore in two hoonered years, und he goes py der Recorder Court un' pays a fine. I can't make oudt how she vhas.

Sometimes my frendt comes to me und says: Say, Mr. Dunder, doan' make some fool of yourself. If der poys like you to run fer aldermans in our ward, decline mit thanks. Dere vhas no money in it, und der papers abuse you like some tiefs." Vhell, dot settles me, but vhen I goes py der polls to wote, lo? my frendt vhas on der teeket for aldermans und is electedl Somepody tell me he pays more ash $500 to be aldermans. I can't make oudt how she vhas.

Vhell, dot looks reasonable und I make 'em do it, but in four days my neighbor comes home so drunk on whisky dot I haf to help him in his house and his wife says it vhas nopody's peesness. I can't make her oudt.

MR. DONELLY

WEEPING AT THE TOMB OF SHAKESPEARE

Mr. Ignatius Donnelly, the cryptogramist who is trying to convince the world that Francis Bacon wrote the plays attributed to William Shakespeare, is beguiling his time in Stratford-on-Avon. He went in disguise, as if fearing the effect that he might have on the good people of the town; but when he finally condescended to reveal his personality, the inhabitants were not in the least astounded and treated him with the utmost indifference. Mr. Donelly requested the gentleman who conducted him around the church to leave him alone at Shakespeare's tomb; but the ubiquitous reporter must have been somewhere near, for he immediately cabled to this country that "Mr. Donelly wept." Truly a pathetic and inspiring scene, almost equal to Mark Twain weeping at the tomb of Adam. But why did Mr. Donelly weep? Beeause he was sorry for what he had done, or because people won't believe that Shakespeare was some other man, or because he thought it was Bacon's tomb on which he was shedding tears? In charity, let us hope it was for the first reason.

J. Hilbert has employed a first class upholsterer and is now manufacturing on the premises, beds, lounges and parlor suits which will be sold cheaper than they can be bought at any house in the city. The trade supplied as cheap as they can be bought from any factory. Encourage home industry and all white labor. Vancouver Furniture Warehouse.

A WARNING.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and as shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now ail is dangerous, and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nasal, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup It will give you immediate relief.

Subscribers

who do not receive papers regularly through the carriers will confer a favor by reporting the same to the office at once. Subscribers taking the paper in the city are requested to at once notify the office of any changes in their address.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c., &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists Medical Hall, Simla, January 5th, 1880: To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London, Dear Sir:—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and judging from their sale, we fancy their sojurn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and and Dysentery Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general Sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of the opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's, is A DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH ON THE PART OF THE CHEMIST TO PRESCRIBE AND PATIENT ALIKE. We are sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was, undoubtedly, the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, which, he regretted to say, had been sworn to.—See "The Times," July 13, 1884.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp, Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Caution—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

TEN DAYS ON TEXADA.

The Land of Untold Wealth, as Seen by One Who Has Been There.

I suppose it is customary to state (as all newspaper correspondents do, the time we left, and so forth.) Well, we left Nanaimo how, when and by what route we will not say; enough, we did leave, and eventually arrived at Texada. This was just about the time there was a big excitement over another rich find, namely, the "Nutcracker." Of course, as everybody in Nanaimo who was interested in Texada, know there was no steamboat available about that time, so everybody was on the lookout for some way of getting there. Amongst others, your humble servant. Well, "we got there," and having left the land of plenty without anything to sustain life, and not being of the famed Dr. Tanner breed we hunted around for a good square meal, and found it at the Puget Sound Lumber Co.'s boarding house, and were hospitably entertained by Mr. McGlew, the foreman of the works, where he has about thirty men under his charge. Here it is, the S.S. Ferndale loads her 250 to 300 tons of iron ore twice a week and conveys it to Irondale, near Port Townsend. Speaking of iron ore, not one-half of your readers have any idea of the enormous mass of that mineral that lies here--simply one huge mountain of iron. The Ferndale is carrying away about 2,000 tons per month; and there are thousands upon thousands more of it left —good magnetic iron ore. Thousands of tons of it, besides what good American money has paid for, with plenty of limestone that can be shipped from the same wharf; and coal abundant on Vancouver Island. Why is it Canadian or English capital does not take advantage of it? In my wanderings I saw two men staking off a 12 foot iron ledge. I was surprised; it was so near the beach on the east side of the Island. I asked them if it was not taken already. They answered, "We don't know; we should not think so, though, or else it would have been worked before." Now, as it is only about 750 yards from the beach and deep water, and a good heavy grade where you only need a drum with a brake to lower the full car on one rope, and it would bring the empty up on the other, right down to shipment.

But enough of iron; we will now proceed to gold. ng somewhst of a mining expert, as some one has said, I think I know virgin gold when I see it. I crossed the iron mountain on a "blaze," which led me to a camp belonging to the "Blue Bell Mining Co." Here I found two men working for the company; they were just about moving further back to where the rich strike had been made on the "Nutcracker." The company having some claims in that neighborhood they proposed to prospect them, and I being bound to the same place gladly accepted supper and bed with them that night. Bright and early next morning having partaken of a hearty breakfast of we started on the march, our route being mostly down hill till we arrived at a small stream. Here says Mr. Hamilton, "is the place we camp." The Blue Bell Mining company has seven claims around here and we are not more than 200 yards from the "Nutcracker" claim that all the talk in the newspapers was about. We will light a fire and have a cup of tea and then we will go and have a look at it. Well we went and lo and behold, sure enough we saw the gold in the rock, and human like wished the ledge was ours. The "Nutcracker" ledge lies true, bearing about E.N.E., and W.S.W. On the S.E. side of the "Nutcracker" lies the "Yellow Jacket" owned by H. Piercy and others of Comox. On the south side of the "Yellow Jacket" is a triangular piece of ground owned by the Blue Bell company, called the "Flora Hoy." Next is the "Jessie" belonging to the same company. On the west end of the "Jessie" is the "Golden Gate" running north and south. On the east end of the "Yellow Jacket" is the "Gladstone" owned by Mr. Hugh Kirk. On the west side of the "Gladstone lies the "Swamp Angel" owned by the Blue Bell company, while on the north west side of the "Nutcracker" lies the "Sally Bray" and "North Star." Crossing over again through the "Nutcracker" and "Yellow Jacket" we come to the "Eva" claim owned by Hugh L. Bates and the "Lizzie" of the Blue Bell Co. Around the immediate vicinity are the "Nancy," the "Courier," "El Padre," "Well, Maria," "Welcome," "Woodpecker," "Cuckoo," "Peg-Top," "Eureka," "Jolly Miller," "Bell Flower," and "Nettie Hardy."

Speaking from personal observation, there is no mistake, Texada is destined to become a great gold and silver producer, as well as iron. Of course, all the claims seen by me, as far as I could observe, did not have ledges visible upon them; but, when you take into consideration the number of claims already located and the number of ledges, you see, when you do not see any stakes, I think it will come out about even. For instance, you may travel all day and probably not see a single stake, and, perhaps next day you cannot, if you tried, run clear of them.

In the interior of the island are several lakes, of which Bevilockway is, I think, the most westerly. There is a stream running about northeast from this lake about three-quarters of a mile, and joins another which takes a northerly course to Prouse or Big Lake. On the east end of this lake is the outlet, where the stream by this time gets to be quite a river, and winds and twists around rugged mountain passes till it enters into yet another lake, but has to pass over a fall before it gets there. This time it starts from the northwest end and hurries through a limestone country to its ocean home about half a mile to the east of Stirt Bay. Quite a few prospectors are on the island, covering an area of say ten or twelve miles in length of the island, and some of them have curious experiences.

Not many days ago a certain Buffalo Bill (not the Bill of S. A. fame), accompanied by a noted bronco rider, started out from the hospitable roof of Messrs. Prouse & Co. to search for the hidden treasure; and to insure them safe return from whence they came They blazed their way. They carried a rifle, and all went well with them till they arrived on top of the mountain, when up jumped a deer; and as a Texada deer can get over the ground pretty fast, they could not get a shot, but gave chase, all thought of blazing having left their minds. They still pursued the "Mowitch," but they did not find him, neither did they find the "blaze" when they came to look for it, and so they wandered aimlessly on with a bright sun shining gloriously over them, and a compass in their pocket—but lost, lost were the bronco rider and Buffalo Bill till they arrived at the camp of the Blue Bell Mining Co., where they were entertained. After telling their sorrowful tale they were put on the right road back to the "Golden Slipper" camp. At one camp we visited one man had a terrible tale to tell. These are his words: "Tell the people the fleas--no, I mean the mice, are the worst mice I ever saw; they actually eat up a pair of boots for me, and also eat the buttons off my shirt, and of course as I have only got one shirt, I had that shirt on. Oh, you bet the Texada mice are having a picnic," and then he started whistling the Highland Fling.

The Invincible Mining Co., of Texada, have several claims on the east side of the lake, which look well, namely the "Great Eastern," "King Solomon," "Nanaimo Boy," "Tiger" and "Welcome Home." The Island abounds with deer, and the lakes are full of trout, but nary a bird larger than the robin or the woodpecker.

QUARTZ.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

FROM ALBERNI.

Mr. C. T. Haslam arrived yesterday from Alberni. He rode all the way the same day and reports the road in a bad condition, in fact it is little better than a trail. The object of Mr. Haslam's visit is to obtain bail for Mr. McQuillon, who is accused of incendiarism. McQuillon is being brought down here by Constables Gill and Bellevue. They stopped half way last night and will arrive to-day. Mr. Haslam speaks very favorably of McQuillon's chance of being cleared. The only two new witnesses, Bowditch and Cox do not give any very strong testimony against him. Mr. Huff. J. P., of Alberni was the justice of the peace who sent McQuillon up for trial.

Mr. Haslam says that the farmers in his district are busily engaged in their spring seeding, but that he does not know of any new settlers in Alberni.

NEWS FOR SETTLERS.

Mr. Cook, C. E., of Comox says that Mr. John Trutch, commissioner of railroad lands, informs him that in the future any person wishing to do so could pre-empt 80 acres of land at the usual price of $1 per acre, on the understanding that the settler make improvements, aggregating $2 per acre on the whole. The land to be paid for in the course of two years. This will be welcome news to intending settlers, as under the old method a person could only take up 160 acres, and as every one who has travelled over this island knows that it is a very difficult matter to find a sufficiently large area of good land to make it pay to buy such a quantity of waste land. This new departure will undoubtedly cause a large increase in the number of claims taken up this year.

FROM VICTORIA.

The steamer Amelia arrived from Victoria last night with a cargo of freight for the following consignees—A. R. Johnston & Co, Hirst Bros, N. E. P. Society, G. Bevilockway, R. Williams, Mayer & Co, W. Wilson, Mrs. Gibson, Caldwell & Lewis, A. Bullock, Richardson & Horner, E. Pimbury, Osterhout & Kennedy, Sabiston & Wilcox, W. Parkin, R. Watkins, Dempsey & Parrott, A. Langley. Vancouver—Passengers—F. W. Cook, C. E., W. A. Matthewson of Comox and three others for the Union mines.

MORE PROSPECTORS.

Major Downie, Ezra Cook and W. Goody returned from Texada yesterday afternoon. They went and returned by canoe, and report a fair wind each way. The major led his band of two on a prospecting tour into the mountains commencing about the centre of the island. The party returned with their pockets full of quartz specimens and the major says Texada is the place for him.

NEW STORE.

Mr. T. L. Browne, the well-known and popular salesman, late of Mr. Bullock's store, has started in business for himself on Victoria Crescent, with a full line of new goods. Everyone who knows Mr. Browne will be sure that nothing that is not thoroughly reliable will ever be in his store. He will open up next Friday.

HEAVY HORSES.

Mr. Matthewson, who arrived yesterday from Victoria on the Amelia, brought with him a very fine span of grey horses weighing about 1,500 pounds each. They were purchased in Victoria, and are destined to be used on Mr. Matthewson's ranch at Comox.

THE NEW BAND.

The first practice of the new band fixed for next Saturday, is to take place in the band house given them by Mr. Robins. The instruments are expected to-morrow, Thursday.

CLEARING OUT.

Mr. B. Aaronson has announced his intention of clearing out his entire stock of dry goods to make room for the new line of entries. Barney is well-known to the boys. Go and see him and be satisfied with your puchases.

MURDER OFF THE COAST.

Pedro Riberos, a Chilian, aged 23, coal passer on the steamer Corona was stabbed and killed by John Drouillard, third assistant engineer, when the steamer was 18 miles from San Francisco last Tuesday afternoon. Drouillard was handed over to the city authorities at Astoria. He was brought to Portland and was given a hearing before the United States commissioner Deady and held over to appear before a grand jury. The quarrel started when Drouillard complained to the chief engineer that the coal passer did not attend to his work. Riberos called Drouillard a Chinaman. Drouillared abused Riberos which led to their clinching. Some of the crew who saw the fight thought it was simply a scuffle, and did not interfere. Shortly after Drouillard went to Engineer Williams and said, "I have cut him," and then Riberos staggered out bleeding profusely from ten wounds in his breast and side, one of which had severed the aorta. He only lived a quarter of an hour. Drouillard claims that he killed Riberos in self-defence. The Corona is now in Departure Bay en route to Alaska. She has on board a number of passengers for the icy region.
