DOUBLE LINE OF WARSHIPS

Great Naval Pageant from Trinity Pier to Portsmouth.

Two Fleets With Foreign Battleships Will Be There.

Portsmouth, Jan. 30.—The warships are assembling for Friday's great naval pageant. The arrangements which have been completed provide that eight torpedo boat destroyers will lead the procession from Cowes, followed by the royal yacht Alberta, with the Queen's body on board. Following this will be the royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with King Edward and Queen Alexandra and the English royal family, the royal yacht Osborne, with other royalties, the imperial yacht Hohenzollern with Emperor William, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught and others, the admiralty yacht Enchantress and a Trinity house yacht, with the officials on board.

The main squadron of battleships and cruisers will be moored two and a half cables apart in one line extending from Cowes to Spithead. The Channel fleet, under the command of Vice Admiral Sir Henry Houldsworth Rawson, will form the eastern portion, and the reserve fleet, under Rear Admiral Sir George Henry Noel, will form the western portion. The foreign war vessels are to be moored southwest of the British ships in the order of their arrival and alongside of them will be moored eight British gunboats, the Antelope, Gleaner, Shipjack, Lede, Rattlesnake, Alert, Circe and Speedwell.

After leaving Trinity pier, the Alberta with her attendant escort will steam along the deep channel between the coast of the Isle of Wight and the single line of battleships and cruisers. The mainline will be as follows, beginning at Cowes: Alexandra, Camperdown, Rodney, Benbow, Collingwood, Colossus, Sanspareil, Nile, Howe, Melampus, Severn, Galatea, Bellona, Pactolus, Pekorus, Diana, Conqueror, Arrogant, Minerva, Niobe, Hero, Hood, Trafalgar, Resolution, Jupiter, Hannibal, Mars, Prince George, and Majestic.

On the arrival at Portsmouth the royal yachts will remain in the harbor that night. Minute guns will be fired by all the ships in the Solent and at Cowes, commencing when the Alberta leaves the pier. Each ship will be directed to cease firing immediately after the tail of the procession has passed her. After the procession has passed the Majestic, the forts and ships in Portsmouth harbor will commence firing minute guns and continue firing until the Alberta is alongside the wharf. No standard will be displayed and ensigns and Union Jacks will be at half mast. The bands are to play the funeral marches of Chopin and Beethoven only. The national anthem also will be played.

On the approach of the procession the ships will be manned and the guards and bands will be paraded. The officers will wear full dress and the men "No. 1 rig" and straw hats. The guards will present arms as the Alberta passes each ships and then rest on their arms reversed until the procession has passed. A detachment of marines and the admiral's band will be on board Nelson's old flag ship, the Victory, lying in Portsmouth harbor. All the sea front and the dockyards will be manned by marines and sailors while Barrow Island is to be manned by boys from the training ship St. Vincent and men from the gunnery ship Excellent.

The Spanish battleship Pelavo, Spain's representative at the funeral, is commanded by Capt. Diaz Moreau, who was commander of the Christopher Colon which was lost in the battle of Santiago.

SCENE IN LONDON.

London, Jan. 30.—The procession in London, as indicated by the war office orders issued this afternoon, will be a gorgeous military pageant. Detachments of forty regiments, with an almost equal number of distinctive uniforms embracing all arms of the service, will make a constantly changing picture. The uniforms of all the great armies of the world will appear, and in addition to the brilliant entourage of the visiting kings and princely envoys, there will be the military attaches of the embassies and legations. All the field marshalls of the British army, able to endure the fatigue, will ride with their staffs. The naval corps will also take part in the procession, which will be two miles long.

Londoners are just awakening to the fullest proportion of the obsequies and the result of the days of mourning, which to numerous tradesmen and others means absolute closure and is causing consternation. Suddenly to stop every industry in the United Kingdom and to turn the masses into the streets with millions hoping to concentrate along the two miles of the route of the procession is an undertaking which has begun to be fully appreciated by the police, but the public of London is dismayed to find that all the great markets, Covent Garden, Smithfield and others, where the food of the metropolis is supplied, are to be absolutely closed at the end of the week.

Restaurants and bars will be shut down and the crowds will have to wander in the streets. There is a world in itself living from hand to mouth; and the closing of the accustomed avenues for the supply and distribution of food, drink and amusement from Friday to Monday will mean a loss and inconvenience that no American city could appreciate.

London learned last year how totally inadequate the police and military are to protect, and the apprehensions of Saturday's crush are enough to appal Londoners, but, apparently, these considerations do not deter thousands of every rank from flocking to the metropolis.

OBSEQUIES AT WINDSOR.

Chief Dignitories of the Church to Conduct the Service.

Windsor, Jan. 31.—Rehearsals of the distinctive features of the obsequies are recurring constantly. Practically the whole of the royal borough will be draped in mourning, whereas elsewhere, only the route of the procession will be thus marked. The services in St. George's chapel begin at 2 o'clock. The body is expected to arrive at Windsor at 1:30 p. m. The route to the chapel, which occupies half an hour, will be lined with troops two deep, the Eton volunteers participating with the guards.

The service will be the ordinary service used for the burial of the dead with special music. The choir will sing from the altar steps whence also the Garter King of Arms will announce the decease of the sovereign and all her titles. Accommodation has been reserved on the left of the coffin for the princesses. The King and other crowned heads will stand at its head. The service on Saturday will be conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Winchester and the Dean of Windsor. The Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Oxford will be present.

Masses of flowers made up in crosses and crowns from rare blossoms that are the gifts of royal personages down to humble posies sent in by children, several thousands of flower pieces, including tokens from most of the members of the aristocracy, numerous clubs, country towns, cities and societies, regiments, inmates of workhouses and even the smallest nosegays are laid out for public view side by side with the designs of the great florists. Some of the flowers are fading.

NO WORK SATURDAY.

London, Jan. 30.—During the morning King Edward presided at a meeting of the privy council. The business transacted was of a formal character. The King signed a proclamation suspending business on Saturday thoughout the United Kingdom. The closing down will be so complete that even the restaurants and saloons will be shut up for four or five hours in the middle of the day. Some of the afternoon newspapers will not be published on Saturday.

KING AT COWES.

Cowes, Jan. 30.—King Edward arrived here soon after four o'clock. Count Von Eulenberg, Emperor William's grand court marshal, accompanied him. A large crowd of spectators were present.

Letters received here from the government offices at Ottawa are written on square mourning paper, the black edge being a quarter of an inch wide.

STORES ARE IN MOURNING

The Merchants of Nelson Rise Generally to the Occasion.

A Short Description of Some of the Best Draped Windows.

The Nelson merchants are very generally decorating in mourning hues as a token of respect for Saturday's observance of the late Queen's funeral. In many instances the windows are effectively draped, considerable taste being shown in the arrangement of the displays.

The centerpiece in William Hunter Co.'s store is a portrait of the departed sovereign draped in black and overhung with union jacks. The balance of the window is draped with black relieved by flowers. F. A. Tamblyn has a neatly arranged window, the principal feature of which is a portrait of the late Queen draped with black tied with purple ribbon. Black hangings with purple streamers complete the display.

J. F. Weir and Charles Parker have their windows hung with purple and black steamers.

Lillie Bros. window is purple, backed with black curtains part of which are draped with white ribbons. Black shoes only are shown and the effect is excellent.

I. Dover has a window filled in with black cloth relieved here and there with purple ribbons.

Hamilton Byers & Co. have a couple of well dressed windows. Both are hung throughout in black and purple. One contains a portrait of the late Queen with a portrait of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall at one side. The other has the portraits of the King and Queen beneath which are the words "the King and Queen." picked out in Mauser cartridges

Martin O'Reilly & Co. still show the handsome window design which they arranged on the day of the Queen's death. Fred Irvine & Co., Kerr & Co., and Paternaude Bros. also adhere to their original displays. The Nelson Hardware Co. exhibit a very large portrait of the late Queen heavily draped in black with a display of rifles in the foreground.

J. A. Gilker has one of his large show windows filled in with purple and black with suitable goods displayed while the other is finished in black and white.

Kirkpatrick & Wilson have a strking display in purple and black. Streamers of these hues are draped from the plate glass front to the back of the window as a setting for a portrait of the late Queen, the effect being quite novel.

The Lawrence Hardware Co. also show a portrait of the late Queen appropriately draped. The Dominion Express Company have festooned the window of their office with crape and draped a couple of pictures of royalty.

The Royal Bank and Bank of Commerce have each draped their entrances with the purple and black of the royal mourning with excellent effect.

The west window of the Hudson's Bay Stores is devoted to the insignia of mourning, a tasteful design having been arranged. The front of the Hamilton Powder Co.'s office is also draped with black and purple.

In other stores more or less effort has been made to comply with the request of Mayor Fletcher in the matter of draping business houses. Others will doubtless follow the example prior to Saturday.

ANOTHER DISASTER AT SEA.

Pieces of Wreckages Strewn Along the Coast.

Victoria, Jan. 30.—News was brought by the Queen City tonight that much wreckage has been found on the west coast. Four days ago a piece of teak believed to be from the back of a ship's boat was picked up on Bonilla point by Lighthouse Keeper Daykin. It had the letters Andra cut into it, and it is believed to have come from the missing ship which was blown from the Columbia some weeks ago. On an island near Kyoquot, a pair of oars, lead color, ten feet long, stamped with the letter "H," a bundle of corn brooms, and much lumber of all kinds lay on the beach for miles and a number of tins of salmon without label were found there. There was lumber all along the coast.

The Queen City brought another $600 from Wreck Bay placers. The cutter Grant was seen at Cloose.

LACROSSE IN AUSTRALIA.

A British Columbia Team May Tour There.

(SPECIAL TO THE MINER.)

Vancouver, Jan. 30.—H. H. Allangham, Vancouver, has received official notice that the colonies of New South Wales, Victoria and South Australia, have come up with their guarantee of £200 sterling each, towards the expenses of a Canadian lacrosse team's tour through Australia. Mr. Allangham, who is the father of the scheme to send a Canadian lacrosse team to Australia, states that all his efforts to enthuse Montreal and Toronto have been in vain, and if the guarantee of the Australian colonies is to be taken advantage of, the team visiting Australia must be made up of British Columbia players, something after this fashion: Five from New Westminster and the balance from Vancouver, Victoria and Nelson. Mr. Allangham is calling a meeting of lacrosse enthusiasts this week with the idea of arranging a plan by which an additional $3,000 may be raised in British Columbia in the shape of a supplementary guarantee to the touring team. It has been suggested that the Provincial government be asked to contribute $1,000, the several city councils $1,000, between them and that an additional $1,000 be raised by a series of popular concerts.

TWO NORTHERN TRAGEDIES.

Japs Caught Selling Liquor to Indians.

Victoria, Jan. 30.—The steamer Willapa brings news that on the 22nd two Indians arrived at Port Simpson and reported to the government agent that the schooner Kionso, Port Roberts, Wash., was found drifted on Dundas Island, with two men dead in her. Clothes of children were found on the beach. The names of the dead could not be learned or how many were lost.

Harman Wooster, tannery man of Skeena, was found drowned on January 21. He left in a skiff to go to his sloop on January 12 and on not arriving his wife went ashore on the 20th and informed the agent who instituted a search. Wooster was found floating next day.

Discoveries of black sand have been made at the extreme north of Vancouver island.

The Indian agent today seized 16 cases of liquors consigned to Japanese who were alleged to be supplying Indians. The liquor was intended for a potlach which the Indians propose to hold.

POLYGAMISTS NOT WANTED.

Question Came Up in the Agriculture Appropriation Bill.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The anti-polygamy crusade which resulted in driving Mr. Roberts, Utah's representative, from his seat at the last session had an echo in the house today during the consideration of the Agriculture Appropriation bill. When the section making the appropriations for agriculture colleges of the several states was reached, Mr. Landis of Indiana offered an amendment providing that no money should be paid to the college in Utah until the secretary of agriculture was satisfied that no trustee or teacher in the institution practised polygamy. The amendment came as a complete surprise. Mr. King who succeeded Mr. Roberts tried in vain to head it off with a point of order and then inveighed against it as simply an aftermath of the Roberts crusade. He insisted that polygamy was a thing of the past. Mr. Landis replied by alleging that two of the professors of the Utah agricultural college were polygamsts and that one of the trustees had seven wives and 39 children. The amendment was adopted.

Subsequently when the bill was reported to the house, the Landis amendment was stricken out by a vote of 69 to 19. The bill passed.

HOCKEY AT SANDON.

Sandon, Jan. 30.—In the hockey games tonight Sandon defeated Rossland by 8 to 5 and Kaslo defeated Silverton 7 to 2.

REVIEW FOR LAST MONTH

January Shows Increased Mining Activity Everywhere.

Several Mines Have Recently Reached a Shipping Basis.

The first month in the new century has witnessed several interesting developments of the mining industry. The period opened with a feeling of unrest in the silver-lead camps of the district beause of the smelter trust's refusal to renew old contracts but the feeling of unrest has passed away or the mine operators now understand exactly what they have to face in the way of freight and treatment charges. The most apparent effect of this move on the part of the smelters is the recent closing down of the St. Eugene concentrator. The C. P. R. is said to have been the direct cause of this and a heavy increase in the rate on St. Eugene concentrates was the instrument in the railroad's hands. The general impression is, however, that the C. P. R. must, in justice to itself, as deeply interested in the advancement of the country, concede a few points rather than permit the St. Eugene to lie idle and act as a drag on the development of the district. Other properties are shipping as usual.

The failure of the Globe concern in England was thought to be a serious setback to the mining industry in this province in common with other parts of the world. Apparently no very serious harm has been done as yet. No English companies operating in the country have closed down. In fact within the month at least one English concern has taken up property in the Kimberley camp, and it is freely stated that several bonds recently made in the Slocan were on behalf of companies, capital for which had been secured in England. Local promoters are adhering to their plans for the spring campaign and do not look for any particular trouble.

In the Nelson district January has been a month of marked progress While in no special instance have the advances been sensational, in the aggregate the indications of progress cannot fail to elicit attention. Many mining camps have been boomed far and wide on the strength of less real progress than has been witnessed in the last month about Nelson.

During January a couple of properties have entered the shipping list on an extensive scale. The London Consolidated shipped some ore last month from their Silver Hill mine but it was not until January that the real shipping operations commenced. During the last thirty days the output of ore has aggregated close to 1,000 tons, and, while the management has declined to issue any statement as to the returns, it is freely reported that the month's output has netted not less than $50,000. The Molly Gibson also shipped in December and previous to that month, but during January the shipments were regular and large, practically indicating that the property is now on a proper shipping basis. At both mines the development is kept well ahead of the mining operations and both promise to be shortly regarded as among the banner producers in the Nelson district.

Much was accomplished at the Highland mine near Ainsworth. The 100-ton concentrator which had been under way there for several months was completed and commenced crushing. The plant has worked smoothly and is undoubtedly among the best mills in the country, a special feature being the labor saving devices adopted for delivering the ore from the mill to the wharf. The first shipment of concentrates from the Highland mill will be delivered to the Hall Mines smelter today. The advent of the Highland to the permanent producing stage adds another important porperty to the list of mines which help to build up the country's reputation as a field for investment.

The United Gold Fields took steps during January to place their May and Jennie property on Forty-Nine creek on a producing basis by installing a stamp mill, or, rather making the initial move in this direction. Two cars of the plant were delivered at Granite last week and arrangements are being made to transport the outfit to the mill site.

At the Poorman mine an interesting experiment was made with the Rand baby drill, a one-man machine of which much was expected. It was demonstrated that the drill did excellent work and it is stated that the company will put in several more drills at an early date. Operations at the Poorman have gone on quietly and the mill has been running constantly, about 1,000 tons of ore having been treated, the result of which will be known later. The programme of work for the Granite has not been settled as yet. It is expected, however, that this work will be commenced within a comparatively short time and that the operations will be on an extensive scale.

Nothing of special importance has developed at the Silver King mine where development is proceeding steadily. The new plant brought in to expedite the opening up of the lower levels is in position and in this respect the mine stands in a very different position at the present time than it did at the first of the month.

The cyanide plant at the Athabasca mine is complete or almost so, the final touches having been put on this month. This addition to the reduction works will enable the management to handle the tailings from the mill, and from now on the returns from the Athabasca will be solely in bullion instead of containing a large item for values represented in the tailings. Another feature is that the Athabasca will be enabled to treat the Exchequer ores which are not susceptible to the free-milling process.

At the Tamarac mine, near Ymir, a tramway is in the last stages of construction and will be in operation early in the coming month. The tram, which is being built by B. C. Riblet, of Nelson, is 6500 feet long and will have a capacity of 100 tons a day. When the tramway is in operation this mine will also join the ranks of the shippers.

In the Slocan the month has been one of considerable activity. Several deals have been put through, others advanced almost to the final stage and several strikes of more than ordinary importance are recorded. At the Enterprise, on Ten Mile creek, tunnel No. 2 cuts the vein in ten inches of clean ore which assayed 46 ounces silver and 60 per cent lead. At the Phoenix back of Slocan City the development work came into ore of good width and quantity while similar strikes were made at other properties.

February opens up with all the properties in the vicinity of Nelson working with full crews and a probability of advances during the month equal to those of January.

* * *

A. H. Gracey returned yesterday from Lexington mountain after a trip of inspection over the Imperial Development Syndicate's property. He states that there has been no special change in the aspect of affairs since his last inspection, and that the properties are showing up well. The syndicate has about 20 men on the ground and the work in hand consists of seven tunnels under way at various points. The greatest depth attained in any of the tunnels is 90 feet at which level the ore seems to be identical in appearance and richness with that found on the surface.

* * *

It is reported here that the Ottawa group on Springer creek has been bonded to the new syndicate which J. Mallinson Williams has formed in England. The price is stated to have been in the neighborhood of $30,000 which is a fair price for the property in its present shape. The Ottawa is one of the oldest locations on the creek and the pioneers of the section set it down on the list of claims which would round into a mine with development. Recent work has shown up the property in good shape and considerable high grade ore could be shipped this winter if desired.

* * *

Randolph E. Fishburn has returned from a trip to the Bachelor property which he is developing on Two Mile Creek near Slocan City. The Bachelor is one of the dry ore properties in the Slocan so much in demand at the present time because of the self fluxing properties of the ore. A contract for 100 feet of tunnelling on the vein has been let and the work will be concluded during February. The vein is not wide but carries excellent values and if further work demonstrates that it holds good with depth, the Bachelor will prove a valuable proposition.

POSITION IN THE CITY OF PEKIN

The Punishment of Chinese Officials Is Still Discussed.

Missionaries Suggest Amendments to Note of the Powers.

Pekin, Jan. 30.—The minister's punishment committee met this morning to continue the discussion of what measure of punishment to demand for provincial officials, where foreigners have been killed. The ministers refused to furnish any information as to the result of their deliberations. A meeting of all the ministers will probably be held tomorrow.

Three Italian soldiers intending to loot, entered a house occupied by Mr. Jamieson, an American, near the legation, supposing it to be inhabited by Chinese. They insulted Mr. Jamieson's guests and Mr. Jamieson sent for the guard stationed at the legation. In the struggle an Italian was wounded. They were all arrested and turned over to the Italian authorities who have requested an explanation.

The missionaries last night met and prepared final resolutions which were presented to the British minister, Sir Ernest Salow and to Minister Conger today. The preamble sets forth the fact "not sufficiently emphasized in the note," that the Chinese attacked everything representing progress; that there has been no adequate rebuke of the flagrant violation of treaties and that no indemnity is asked for the Chinese Christians who suffered heavy loss. Finally, the missionaries say nothing has been inserted in the note safeguarding the missionaries, and they earnestly requested Sir Ernest Salow and Mr. Conger to see that the former treaties protecting missionaries are reaffirmed, that the government should be forced to live in the interior, that friendly intercourse between the missionaries and officials be encouraged and that relief should be found for the suffering native Christians.

The missionaries earnestly hope that Great Britain and the United States will take a leading part in the coming transformation of China, helping the rulers to enter those lines of reform which alone can save the country.

OPERATIONS IN CHINA.

London, Jan. 31.—A strong German force, with a month's supplies and preceded by an advance guard of Japanese, says a despatch to the Standard from Tien Tsin, has left Pekin for Shan Fu. It is evident that no withdrawal of the German forces is intended, summer clothing having been ordered for the troops.

CLUMSY JAPS.

Shanghai, Jan. 30.—The North China Daily News asserts that while a quantity of Chinese gunpowder was being destroyed at Shan Kwan, there was an explosion and forty Japanese soldiers were killed.

NEWFOUNDLAND'S GOVERNMENT

London, Jan. 30.—Sir Cavendish Boyle, K. C. M.G., (government secretary of British Guiana since 1894), has been appointed governor of Newfoundland. Sir Cavendish Boyle succeeds Sir Henry Edward McCallum, who was recently appointed governor of Natal.

REVOLUTIONISTS DEFEATED.

Caracas, Venezuela, Jan. 30.—Via Hayti.—The revolutionists have been defeated near Carupano, with numerous losses. Two sons of General Acosta have been made prisoners. Mejano and Rojas have also been defeated.

FAMOUS STALLION SOLD.

New York, Jan. 30.—Hamburg, the famous stallion of the Marcus Daly string, was sold tonight in Madison Square Garden. He brought $60,000. William C. Whitney was the purchaser.

BOARD OF TRADE CLOSES.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 30.—There will be no session of the board of trade on Saturday, the day of Queen Victoria's funeral.

The mining season of 1901 bids fair to be a prosperous one. Elsewhere will be found a sketch of the progress made during January in some of the properties tributary to Nelson. The account is by no means exhaustive, but it indicates a steady development right along the line. The London & Globe smash will undoubtedly render the flotation of new mining companies more difficult for a while, but meritorious propositions can always find a purchaser. In the meantime dividends are the best advertisement this country can have. A dividend paying mine makes each of its shareholders an advertising medium for British Columbia. A great deal of money has already been invested in this country, and it is satisfactory to note that increasingly handsome returns are likely to be reaped therefrom.

The sad but impressive naval scene between Cowes and Portsmouth will remind many of the great naval review off Spithead (near Portsmouth) when 125 British war vessels were drawn up in two lines, without counting the foreign squadrons, on the occasion of the Diamond Jubilee nearly four years ago. But what a difference! Then it was a great empire rejoicing in the prolonged reign of a beloved sovereign, and in the blessings her rule had brought; tomorrow, the fleet that rules the seas will stand sentinel while the remains of their dead Queen are borne to their last, long home, the last resting place of us all.

Our morning contemporary yesterday made the statement—for purposes best known to itself—that Mr. H. W. R. Moore, late secretary of Mr. Galliher's campaign committee, had been engaged as editor of this paper. Mr. Moore is engaged on The Miner at present having consented to act in the capacity of editor until the arrival of Mr. C. A. Gregg, late of the Victoria Colonist, who will next week assume the duties of editor of The Miner. Mr. Moore's present plans would not permit of a permanent engagement in Nelson.

NEW COMPANY LAW.

The general opinion in London is that we shall see very few new companies floated for some time to come, as the new English company law has put a serious obstacle in the way. The promoters and vendors have to state in the prospectus what their profits are, a perfectly fatal provision from the promoters' point of view. Even the most respectable flotation involves the multiplication of the purchase price by three, before the property can pass from the original owner to the company. The margin partly goes to one and another, promoters or intermediaries, and partly to Stock Exchange firms, as inducements to create a market. What will happen when shareholders find that such large slices go to their advisers remains to be seen, but it is obvious that promoters and Stock Exchange men are not enamored of the new law. They threaten, therefor, to take up no new companies unless there is some amendment to the law.—Engineering and Mining Journal.

GERMANY ANTI-BRITISH.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—It is noteworthy how coolly the German press treats the news regarding the honors shown to Emperor William and the Crown Prince in England. Comparatvely little comment is made. However, the alleged remarks of the kaiser with reference to the little sympathy displayed by the Reichstag and the Prussian Diet in connection with the death of Queen Victoria, although frequently repudiated, still continue to be challenged by the ultra conservative papers.

IN THE U. S. SENATE.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The shipping bill was kept at the front in the senate throughout today. No appreciable progress was made, most of the time being occupied by Mr. Turley of Tennessee and Mr. Jones of Arkansas in speeches opposing the bill and severely arraigning its alleged favoritism. Mr. Jones declared it should be entitled, "A bill to permit a select coterie of ship owners to loot the United States treasury." After the speeches the formal reading of the bill was completed but the consideration of amendments was not entered upon. Early in the day an unsuccessful effort was made to secure an agreement to the conference report on the army reorganization bill.

THE CUNARD LINE.

From statistics at hand it appears the Cunard line landed in America last year 32,970 steerage passengers. This line is now in a better position than ever to take care of its constantly increasing steerage passenger traffic. With their already grand fleet of floating palaces, i. e., Campania, Lucania, Umbria, Servia, Aurania, etc., and the late additions, viz., the magnificent new twin-screw steamers Saxonia and Ivernia, 600 feet long, 13,930 tons, having special new features for steerage passengers, in fact, twentieth century steerage accommodation, and the large twin-screw steamer Ulonia, 313 feet long, 9,000 tons (latter carrying steerage passengers only), the Cunard line will be able to maintain a service of two steamers each week, with fortnightly extra sailings during the rush season, thereby giving ample room for all passengers at all seasons, giving them prompt transportation with no delays.

NEWS OF THE TOWN

Mayor Pitts of Sandon is in the city today.

W. E. Zwicky, manager of the Payne mine, was in the city yesterday en route to Sandon from Montreal.

James Hogan was committed for trial yesterday morning by Magistrate Crease on the charge of non-support.

P. J. Russell entertained seven of his bachelor friends last night. The dinner, wine and cigars were alike excellent and a very pleasant evening was spent.

H. R. Cameron moved offices yesterday and is now to be found on the ground floor of the building recently vacated by Kirkpatrick & Wilson next to the Nelson cafe.

The rates between Nelson and St. Paul over the C. P. R. have been reduced by $2.50 and now stand at $42.50 instead of $45. The reduction affects the rates to Winnipeg, Chicago and other eastern points.

Most of the mines in the vicinity of Nelson will close down on Saturday to enable their crews to attend the proceedings in Nelson. The miners will parade from union hall and a large turnout of the members is expected.

Petitions were circulated yesterday among the business men requesting the city council to withdraw the issue of debentures made last year and to make a new issue of $100,000. This is required by the statutes before the council can take action along the lines mapped out at the last meeting.

The officers of the militia company are anxious to have any militia or imperial veterans join the local corps in the parade on Saturday next. There are half a dozen men in Nelson at least who have fought the late Queen's battles at home and abroad and wear medals for their services. This invitation is for their benefit, and the militia men hope for a hearty response.

The directors of ceremonies of the various fraternal organizations, in the city, who propose to take part in the ceremonies on Saturday, are requested to meet the marshall and his aides at Fraternity hall tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting is for the details of the procession. They are also requested to be prepared to furnish the dates of organization of their societies for the purpose of establishing the order of precedence in the line of march.

The supreme grand master of the Sons of England has ordered that all lodges observe the national day of mourning next Saturday. The charter is to be draped for six months and mourning badges are to be worn for three months. The officers of the local lodge, Nelson Queen No. 241 are anxious that all members will take part in the public service in the morning and at St. Saviour's church in the afternoon of Saturday next. They also extend their invitation to all Englishmen who are not members of the order.

HARD LINES

To Make a Man Toe the Mark.

To take both tobacco and coffee away from a man seems pretty tough, but the doctor ordered me to quit both as my health was very poor, and I had got where I could do but little work.

About a month after quitting I commenced on tobacco again because I could hardly stand it. I got along without the coffee for the reason that I had taken up Postum Food Coffee, which I found very relishing to the appetite and wonderfully beneficial.

I have gained twenty-five pounds by its use, and today I am a well man I discovered in this way that it was the old fashioned coffee that hurt me and not the tobacco. When I first tried Postum I did not relish it, but found that it was not made right, that is, they did not boil it long enough. Next time it came on the take it was fine and I have been using it ever since.

Mr. Fetcher, an old soldier of this pace, was troubled with dyspepsia. I told him of my experience and my cure, and told him to quit coffee and use Postum Food Coffee. This was some time ago. I saw him yesterday and he told me he had not felt better in twenty years, and nothing would induce him to go back from Postum to the use of common coffee. He had the same trouble in getting it made right to start with.

John Ashford of Dillon was also troubled with dyspepsia. I told him of my cure by the use of Postum Food Coffee, and warned him to be careful in having the Postum cooked long enough when he did try it. To-day he is perfectly well and his appetite never better. I could give you the names of a number of others who have been benefited by using Postum Food Coffee. I believe you are a true friend to suffering humanity—Thomas Spring, Deavertown, Ohio.

CLOSE CURLING GAME.

Rinks to Play in Rossland Practice Together.

A close and exciting game of curling took place yesterday evening between the rinks which are to compete at Rossland, skipped by F. A. Tamblyn and J. Rae. Twelve ends resulted in a tie with eight points apiece, Rae's rink winning out in the 13th end by one point. The rinks were as they will play at Rossland, except that A. Grant took J. H. Fox's place and J. G. Bunyan, B. Archibald's. The rinks were as follows:

D. S. Stanley,	J. G. Bunyan,
A. Grant,	C. G. Mills,
J. H. Wallace,	G. E. McLaughlin,
F. Tamblyn, s. 8.	J. Rae, s. 9.

Two rinks also completed for the consolation prize, a rink skipped by W. Mackenzie being beaten by a rink skipped by R. R. Hedley by 18 to 9. Mr. Mackenzie has had bad luck of late. The players' names are:

Dr. Stoddart,	W. M. Irving,
Dr. Hall,	J. L. Stocks,
C. Morrison,	C. W. Wilson,
W. Mackenzie, s. 9.	R. R. Hedley, s. 18.

WERE BEATEN THRICE.

The Nelson curlers did not do as well at the Sandon carnival as the hockey club. The single rink from the Queen City of the Kootenays played in three series and was bowled out in each. The first match was for the Bostock cup and resulted as follows:

Sandon	Nelson
H. H. Pitts,	J. Kirkpatrick,
D. McLaughlin,	C. Archibald.
A. Sanford,	G. C. Hodge,
M. Grimmett, s. 15.	W. Richardson, s. 8.

In the merchants series the Nelson men were pitted against J. V. Martin, William Hegler, Dr. Gomm and Robert Moe, and lost again. Their third defeat was in the Harris cup series when M. L. Grimmett's rink, the winners in the Bostock series, with the exception that Harold Hatt was substituted or Mayor Pitts, took the game.

GROCERS VS. C. P. R.

After the skating at the rink last night two amateur hockey teams crossed sticks. The players were chosen from local grocery firms and the C. P. R. staff. The latter seven was stalled at the No. 1 goal post, while the grocers ran on to the third post, thereby winning the game by three goals to one. The sides were:

CURLING CHALLENGES.

The curlers among the local clothing merchants have issued a challenge to play any rink in the club. The clothiers rink wil include W. M. Irving, J. F. Weir, B. Walley, and J. H. Wallace, skip.

The members of the Quoit club who are interested in curling are also on the warpath for glory. They have challenged any two rinks in the city outlining their own rinks as follows

E. J. Smyth, W. M. Irving, Capt. McMorris, Judge Forin, skip.

C. E. Miller, J. F. Weir, B. Walley, J. H. Wallace, skip.

S. P. Jones, the destitute Englishman, whose applications for charity have been before the council on several occasions recently, slept on the soft side of a plank at the police cells Tuesday night. Jones cannot secure lodging at any of the hotels where his reputation is known and it looks as though he would have to go to work.

THE NEW CHALLENGER.

Glasgow, Jan. 30.—In the frame work of the America cup challenger already set up, the Associated Press learns, are indications of some striking departures from conventional yacht designing. The most noticeable of these is that the bulk of the yacht is thrown extarordinarily far forward. The timbers at present in position suggest the framework of the old buff bowed type yacht, more than the modern racing yacht. This appearance will be modified when the frames to carry forward the overhangs are in position. But it is certain the greatest beam will be forward of the mast. Every precaution is still taken to prevent information about the cup challenger getting abroad.

ROYAL VISITORS ARRIVE.

London, Jan. 30.—The King of Greece, the Duke of Sparta and the Grand Duke of Baden reached Victoria station at 5 o'clock. They were received by Prince Charles of Denmark and members of the King's household. The visitors proceeded to Marlborough House.

TROOPERS ILL.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—The following cable was given out by the militia department this morning: "Capetown, Jan. 28.—No. 361, Fernie, at Bloemfontein, and 639, Armitage, at Springfontein, both of Strathcona's Horse, dangerously ill. (Sgd.) Milner."

LILLIE-TAMBLYN.

Ceremony Performed Yesterday at the Bride's Home.

A pretty house wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Tamblyn, Vernon street east. The contracting parties were their eldest daughter, Miss Louise A. Effingham Tamblyn and Mr. William Graham Lillie. The bride is one of Nelson's fairest daughters, while the groom is a well known young business man, being a member of the firm of firm of Lillie Bros., retail shoe merchants.

At 4:30 the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Wright, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, in the drawing room, which was tastefully decorated with flowers. The bride was given away by her father and was accompanied by a maid of honor, her sister, Miss Elsie Tamblyn. The groom was supported by Charles W. Young. The bride looked charming in a handsome costume of white silk trimmed with real lace. She wore white narcissus in her hair and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful diamond ring. After the ceremony the small gathering of friends was entertained at dejeuner, the bridal table being most effectively arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Lillie left by the 6:40 train on their wedding tour which includes Rossland and Spokane. On their return they will reside on Mill street.

COLSON-CLARK.

A quiet wedding took place last evening when Mr. George Colson was married to Miss Mary Jane Clark at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Finnerty, on Silica street. The bride was attired in a brown travelling suit and the bridesmaid, Miss S. Napp, wore a black satin gown. Mr. and Mrs. Colson will leave in a few days for Honolulu where Mr. Colson will engage in business.

DEWET IN CAPE COLONY.

Queen's Last Inquiry Was After Her Army.

London, Jan. 31.—"It is reported unofficially," says the Capetown correspondent of the Daily Mail, "that General Dewet has entered Cape Colony with a fairly strong force. The impatience felt in Great Britain at the slow progress of operations is not warranted, as preparations are being made for a general movement shortly.

"King Edward has sent the following despatch' to Lord Kitchener: 'One of the Queen's last inquiries was after yourself and the gallant army under your command.'"

MURDER WILL OUT.

Paterson, N. J., Jan. 30.—Charles Coleman, a colored man who was sent to jail here today as a vagrant, is believed by the police to be the murderer of a policeman who was killed in London, Ont., two years ago. Coleman's description tallies with that of the murderer for whose capture a reward of $1000 is offered. Chief Graul sent a picture of the man under arrest to the London police for the purpose of identification.

The work up to the present time all goes to support this theory and further operations will be watched with interest.

* * *

Recent ore shipments received at the Prospectors' Exchange are as follows: Copper ore from the Faller group, White Fish creek, East Kootenay; gold ore from the Ophir, on Bird creek; gold ore from the Etlente group Nelson district; gold ore from the Redaina group, Butterfly Pass, Windermere; copper ore from Orinoco group, Nelson district; gold ore from the Alpine group, Slocan City district; copper-gold ore from the Lily group, White Grouse basin.

* * *

The syndicate now developing the properties of the Dominion Copper Co., in this camp, are sparing no time or expense in the operation. Men have been added to the force steadily as fast as a place can be found for them to work, and today there are over 100 men on the payroll—more than twice the number employed when the company ceased operations in March of last year. Supt. Parker evidently believes in the theory that the top expenses are not more for 100 or 150 men than for 50, and is acting accordingly. One immediate result is that excellent progress is being made in opening up the excellent properties of the company.

This week the raise from the 150 foot level, in the south drift of the Brooklyn, to the surface, broke through, the distance being about 85 feet. This shaft is a short distance to the rear of the company's office, and will be of no small utility in working the property, as it will provide fresh air in that part of the mine.

On the Stemwinder the force has gradually been added to, and that well known mine is also being thoroughly exploited. This week the old 200-foot tunnel, the portal of which is just above the old stage road, was opened up for the first time in many months and some exploratory work will be alone there. A draw bridge has been built to carry the waste over the road way. A raise from this tunnel comes up directly under the assay office. The tunnel was used for a time as a powder magazine, but a new log building was erected this week, far back on the upper part of the hill, for this purpose.

This week a small force of men has been at work on the Idaho claim owned by the company, which will doubtless be the scene of active development operations in a short time. Many of the old time prospectors had a better opinion of the Idaho than of any claim in the camp, on account of its phenomenal surface showing.—Phoenix Pioneer.

JEFFRIES-RUHLIN FIGHT.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 30.—The trial of both Jeffries and Ruhlin, who were arrested Monday last, charged with being in training for a prize fight, in violation of the state law, will begin before Squire Roebling tomorrow afternoon. The coming examination will be of the utmost importance because if Squire Roebling shall, after a hearing, find the intention is not to engage in a prize fight, his judgment would bar any possible prosecution on a similar charge.

SHOULD BE BARRED OUT.

Paris, Jan. 30.—The Duke of Orleans has decided to attend the funeral of Queen Victoria. He will arrive in London on Saturday and on Sunday he will deposit a wreath on the casket containing Her Majesty's remains. The duke's decision is interesting in view of his message of congratulations to the Paris artist who caricatured Queen Victoria in a most insulting manner which resulted in the duke being ostracized in England.
