COAL MINE STRUGGLES

Western Federation Fails to Oust the United Mine Workers

Labor Conditions Now Existing in Vancouver Island Collieries--Socialist Body is Likely to Win

(Special to The Daily News)

Victoria, Aug. 3.—In the failure of Western Fuel company to open up the Brechin mine at Northfield this morning, the local representatives of the United Mine Workers of America claim a signal victory over the Western Federation of Miners in the admitted struggle of the rival governing bodies for control of labor in the Vancouver Island collieries.

The company has heretofore recognized the Federation and continues to recognize it as against the U. M. W., in the difficulties charged to the coal mine amendements of last session which resulted two months or so ago in the cessation of mining at the Nanaimo centre.

Recently manager Stockett announced that while No. 1 mine would remain closed for still another month at least, and the contemplated improvement of plant would be deferred, yet the company desired to inaugurate extensive development work at the Northfield mine, closed for some time past, and looked to the Federation to provide the necessary number of men, the elements of dispute elsewhere not applying at this mine and there being no dispute as to shorter wage hours.

The federation put forth an especial effort to equal the emergency in view of the fact that it was more than hinted that unless the force was secured the company would cease to recognize the Federation, thus presumably transferring its recognition to the rival body. This morning no more than 62 men all told were mustered, or less than half the number for whom work was available. The United Mine Workers now expect to be treated with by the company and given official recognition.

ROUGH ON GERMANY.

The sultan has since shown opposition to the holding of a conference.

NOT ON ANXIOUS SEAT

BALFOUR GOVERNMENT THINK WELL OF STATE OF EUROPE.

WILL BUILD RAILWAY UP THE VALLEY OF YANGTSE RIVER

London, Aug. 3.—The session of the house of commons today was taken up with a discussion of the foreign policy. Earl Percy, under secretary for foreign affairs, said that under the present circumstances it was impossible to discuss the changes in the far east that might be brought about by the war, or changes that it might be desirable to introduce into the Anglo-Japanese alliance when it was thought right to renew it. He noted with satisfaction that all agreed upon the desirability of renewing such an alliance. He thought that the general state of Europe presented no cause for anxiety.

Reverting to the far east, he said that it was true that while Great Britain in common with other countries, was losing trade in China, Japan's trade in that country was increasing. Efforts were being made to obtain fresh markets in the interior, he continued, and China had promised, if the Chinese were unable to finance the proposed railway through the Yangtse valley to the Redstone basin, in the province of Szchuen to apply first to British and American capital to build it. Great Britain, he said, was now negotiating with France for the joint construction of the line.

Earl Percy's speech was made to avoid parliamentary discussions on the subject while peace negotiations were proceeding. Sir Charles Dilke, who initiated the discussion, intimated that a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance would be warmly supported by the liberal party.

It is stated that Japan recently has given further considerable orders for khaki clothes in the Bradford, Yorkshire, district.

The statement of earl Percy in the house of commons yesterday afternoon concerning Great Britain's foreign policy, will be the subject of considerable satisfaction in the editorials on Friday morning on account of its reassuring view as to the relations of Great Britain with Germany and with Europe generally as well as on account of the evidence that Japan's pre-occupation in a great war does not prevent her rapid commercial growth.

Negotiations for the renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance have progressed much further than was indicated by earl Percy's guarded allusion to it. It is believed, in fact, that little remains to be done beyond the signing of the new instruments.

FRUIT FOR REGINA FAIR

Collection Will be Sent for Exhibition Early Next Week

Local fruit growers are making preparation to send a large exhibit to the fair at Regina, which begins next Tuesday. Small fruits, raspberries, gooseberries, currants, and cherries are all in good condition at present and an excellent display can be made. It is possible that a collection of peaches and early apples will be sent also.

The daily shipments show no falling off. They are limited only by the capacity of the growers to fill the orders they are receiving. The demand for Kootenay fruit is growing, especially in Alberta among the growing towns on the Edmonton branch.

NATIONAL ASSEMBLY

Russian Councillors Fear to Trust Power to Russian People

Revision of the Bouligan Program Causing Grave Trouble to Ministers--Hopeful Outlook to Muscovite Troubles

St. Petersburg, Aug. 3.—The emperor's counsellors today resumed consideration of the national assembly project at Peterhoff, penetrating deeply the nature and extent of the representation to be granted.

The problem of according a voice in the proposed assembly to all classes and interests without giving undue weight to the representatives of the uneducated peasantry, comprising 67 per cent of the whole population, or throwing the control of the assembly into the hands of demagagues and agitators, is one of the points of the whole system and is the cause for the greatest perplexity, both to those who drafted the original Bouligan program and to the ministers by whom it was to be revised.

The sections considered at Tuesday's session were unimportant in comparison with the topics now under consideration. Though no details of the discussion have appeared in print, several papers comment on the extreme importance of the Peterhof conference, and base on them great expectations of a brighter future for Russia.

The discussion of the question of the assembly lasted until nearly 7 p.m. Tomorrow, which is the name day of the dowager empress, is a general holiday and all the high functionaries will go to Peterhof for their felicitations.

Pittsburg Tactics Have Resulted in a Dearth of Workmen

PROGRESS OF TELEGRAPHERS STRIKE ON NORTHERN LINES

BOTH SIDES PREDICT VICTORY IN A FORTNIGHT.

St. Paul, Aug. 3.—The second day of the telegraphers' strike on the lines of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific railway, ends with the railroad officers tonight asserting that the strike has already been broken and the officers of the telegraphers' union declaring that the strike has only begun. Both sides profess great satisfaction with the situation tonight, and each maintains that the struggle will be ended within a fortnight.

Rumors of a sympathetic strike of the trainmen have been in circulation, and although conferences have been held with this plan in view, it is declared tonight that such a movement is not impending.

SEEING THE SIGHTS.

M. Witte is Delighted With Beauties of New York.

New York, Aug. 3.—M. Witte had an active day today. He has already seen more of New York than most visitors see in a week. Accompanied by Mr. Wilenkine, the Russian financial agent at Washington, M. Witte left his hotel at 9 o'clock in an automobile on a ride through the Central Park, then to Grant's tomb, where M. Witte insisted on getting out of the car and went into the mausoleum to stand for a few moments at the tomb of the great general. From there he went to the stock exchange, where he spent more than an hour studying its workings and mingling freely with the crowds. From there he went to the top of one of the towering downtown buildings to get a bird's eye view of the city. This quite entranced him: "The most magnificent of all," he exclaimed.

M. Witte then went into the subway, and took an express train up town. "Now," he said, "this is all splendid, but I want to see all of New York; let's go to the east side."

Back down into Houston street he went in the automobile, through the Chinese, Jewish, Russian and Italian quarters. Soon after reaching this section of the city, M. Witte got out of the automobile, and made a considerable part of the trip on foot. When he reached the more congested sections he walked into the streets. Many times he was greeted by his countrymen and punctiliously returned each greeting by doffing his hat. It was about 1 o'clock when M. Witte and M. Wilenkine went to an uptown cafe for luncheon. M. Witte said he had greatly enjoyed the trip.

Through the afternoon he was receiving callers but only by appointment. His visitors included prominent business men in various lines of activity. Tonight he dined quietly at his hotel with his suite, and tomorrow he will go to Oyster Bay with baron Rosen.

THE QUEEN'S APPEAL.

Women of the Empire Asked to Aid Red Cross Society.

London, Aug. 3.—At the suggestion and under the auspices of their majesties the king and queen, it was recently decided that a new Red Cross Society be formed to co-ordinate all those existing societies which are concerned with the succour of the sick and wounded in war. The first meeting of the council was held at Buckingham Palace, the queen presiding.

The queen said:

"It has been on my mind ever since the South African war, and I became the president, to try to reorganize the Red Cross Society on a more practical and sound basis.

"It affords me, therefore, the greatest satisfaction to learn that the Red Cross council has consented to join hands with the National Aid Society, under one title 'The British Red Cross Society.'

"The society shall be entirely voluntary, and while in touch with the war office and admiralty, the society shall be organized and act wholly independently of those departments in time of peace, but naturally in time of war it must be under naval and military control.

"I, therefore, now appeal to all the women of the empire to assist me in carrying out this great scheme, which is essentially a woman's work, and which is the one and only way in which we can assist our brave and gallant army and navy to perform their arduous duties in time of war."

BRITISH PENSIONS PAID.

London, Aug. 3.—A return made to parliament today showed that upwards of $540,000 were paid in annuities to members of the royal family yearly and that the judicial pensions amounted to another $245,000. CEREMONY ARRANGED

Peace Conference Opens at Portsmouth on Monday Next

Japanese Envoys Given Precedence by Pres dent Roosevelt Because of Their Prior Arrival in the Country

New York, Aug. 3.—Acting for the president, third assistant secretary of state Peirce today communicated to baron Rosen and Mr. Takahira, the official program for the formal presentation to the president of the Russian and Japanese plenipotentaries to the Washington conference. Mr. Pierce will accompany the Japanese envoys to the protected cruiser Tacoma and the vessel will start for Oyster Bay on Saturday morning.

Half an hour later, Mr. Pierce will perform a similar ceremony for the Russian plenipotentiaries, who will go on board the protected cruiser Chattanoga. Mr. Pierce will lead the two vessels in the Sylph. Arriving at Oyster Bay the squadron will be given an ambassadorial salute of 19 guns for each mission, from the Galveston, Mayflower and Dolphin, which will be in waiting to convey the plenipotentiaries to Portsmouth.

The president will board the Mayflower about 1 o'clock and, as soon as his flag is hoisted on the Mayflower, the Japanese plenipotentiaries will come on board.

Half an hour later the Russian envoys will come aboard and be presented. Immediately the president will formally present the Russian and Japanese plenipotentiaries to each other. A buffet luncheon in the cabin of the Mayflower will follow.

Under convoy of the cruiser Galveston, with Mr. Pierce aboard, the Russians on the Mayflower and the Japanese on the Dolphin will sail for Portsmouth, arriving there on Monday morning.

Because baron Komura was presented to him first at Sagamore Hill, almost a week before M. Witte arrived in this country, it was decided that for this reason baron Komura must take precedence over M. Witte. This, however, will be recognized only in the half hour's difference in the time of the presentation of the two missions.

INTERVIEWS THE PRESIDENT

English Ambassador Sir Mortimer Durand Pays a Visit to Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 3.—Sir Mortimer Durand came down this morning from New York and was closeted with president Roosevelt for some time. Nothing has transpired as to the cause of the sudden visit.

After the interview the ambassador was asked as to whether his visit had anything to do with the peace conference and sir Mortimer replied that being in New York from Lennox to meet his son who is to arrive from England, next Saturday, he embraced the opportunity to see the president about some pending matters of minor importance.

"I wish you would make it clear," said he, "that I did not come here to participate in the negotiations. That is no affair of mine."

Ambassador Durand returned to New York on the 4.20 p.m. train.

TO REGAIN CUP.

Many Challenges For the Seawanhaka Trophy.

It is probable that the recovery of the Seawanhaka cup by Manchester will bring forward a new style of defender and challenger, says a Boston despatch. England may also be brought into the contest for small yacht honors. As long as the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht club held the trophy it was sailed on inland waters and the boat had a style of centreboard which adapted to circumstances used both to challenge and defend. Now that the cup has come to Boston the race will be held in salt water and keel boats will have the call, for although the yachts which sailed for the race this year are fast, they are not adapted to the heavier weather which they will encounter on the coast. Canada has not yet challenged for the cup, as the Royal St. Lawrence Club wants to consider this proposition before a challenge. It is possible that Great Britain also may challenge and the English yachtsmen's familiarity with salt water racing might make them more dangerous challengers than the Canadians.

The Seawanhaka cup has been shipped to Manchester from Montreal. Club officials advices received from Toronto say that Toronto yachtsmen feel that they have a golden opportunity of bringing back the Seawanhaka cup and a challenge to the Manchester Yacht club may be forthcoming shortly. Strangely enough the Royal Canadian Yacht club is not the aggregation that is feeling most interested in the matter. This is explained by the fact that this club has the Canada's cup very much on its hands just at present. A less known and old established club, the Queen City club is contemplating a challenge. Vice-commodore Edward Leadley, one of the wealthiest members, is back of the project.

He has intimated that it would be discussed with commodore World and other leading members in the near future and a decision arrived at. The club has a membership of 200, and ranks next in importance to the Royal Canadian Yacht club.

The Queen City Yacht club is not alone in its aspiration for Seawanhaka cup honors. Aemilius Jarvis, of Toronto, built Ronshaw for the Seawanhaka cup in 1898, and may have another go at the trophy. In that case the challenger would come from the Royal Canadian Yacht club. It is possible, also, that when Wm. Fife, the famous international designer, visits Toronto, during the Canada's cup races, he may receive an order from Mr. Frederick Nicholls, owner of Temeraire, for a Seawanhaka cup challenger. While Mr. Fife's fame has come through the designing of large yachts, his acquaintance with salt water conditions renders his services valuable in an attack on the Manchester stronghold.

DROWNED IN COLUMBIA

SAD FATALITY AT ROSSLAND METHODIST PICNIC.

DEATH OF THE SON OF HARRY McINTOSH OF HALCYON.

[Special to The Daily News]

Rossland, Aug. 3.—Reginald McIntosh, the 13 year old son of Harry McIntosh, the proprietor of the Hoffman hotel here, and of the hotel at Halcyon Hot Springs, was drowned this afternoon while on a picnic given by the Methodist church on China creek.

It seems that at the mouth of the creek there is a sort of basin formed and in this several children were bathing. Outside of the basin, in the Columbia river, itself, there is a strong eddy. Into this the unfortunate ventured and only by a hard struggle got out. His strength, however, was exhausted by his efforts and he sank on his way to the bank. Some mill hands were close by and three of them dived for the body but some fifteen minutes elapsed before recovery. The boy was brought ashore, the spark of life not being quite extinct. Efforts for resuscitation were immediately made and the boy responded twice faintly but eventually gave a gasp and expired.

AMERICAN SILVER

Ottawa, Aug. 3—The banks have been notified of a postponement in putting into effect the plan to get rid of United States silver in Canada. The delay is not caused by any serious obstacle, but arrangements for deporting alien coin will take longer than at first anticipated. Experts estimate that between $500,000 and $800,000 worth of American silver has come across the border.

DEMAND NO INDEMNITY

Russia's Only Possible Concession to the Japanese

Talk Indulged in by War Party in Russia--M. Witte's Mission is Termed a Disgrace to the Nation

St. Petersburg, Aug. 3.—The press generally continues to avoid treading on the ground to be covered in the peace negotiations, though the Sviet, which neither hopes for nor wishes for peace, predicts that the pour parlers will result in nothing but empty and idle talk.

The Moscow Gazette, an apostle of the uncompromising section, declares that the despatch of M. Witte to the United States is a disgrace and holds that the only concession Russia can make, is to demand no indemnity from Japan, and declares for no peace until defeat and retribution have overtaken the enemy.

The Boulevard predicts a general European alliance, headed by Russia, Germany and France, to preserve the peace of the world, restrain Japanese preponderence in the far east and to prevent Great Britain interfering in the affairs of the continent.

FINED FOR FLIRTING.

Montreal, Aug. 3.—A noval legal process has been recorded at St. Louis de Mile End, a municipality adjacent to Montreal, when two young men, Henri Bilodeau and Joseph Bechard, were each fined $6 and costs or 15 days in jail for flirting. The young men had made a practice of loitering in the vicinity of Peck's clothing factory, and warm weather with open windows, afforded a good opportunity to flirt with the girls at work within. The management of the factory observed that repeated distraction of that kind decreased the output and so a complaint was registered at police headquarters. As a result constables Laframboise and Delorme hid near the factory and surprised the two youths while they were flirting. Recorder Pelletier imposed the fine.

SAN JOSE DAY AT PORTLAND

Portland, Aug. 3—This was San ose day at the exposition and it proved one of the most successful of the special days set aside in honor of the chief cities of the Pacific slope. There was a large delegation on hand from the California city headed by mayor Warwick and other city officials.

The visitors gathered in the California building this forenoon and listened to addresses of welcome by president Goode of the exposition company and others, to which felicitous responses were made. After the formal exercises were concluded the visitors dispersed to inspect the sights of the exposition and particularly the interesting displays illustrating the products of the famed Santa Clara valley.

OPPOSES THE GRAB

Montreal, Aug. 3—Le Nationaliste opposes the salary grab fro start to finish except the increase to the premier. Le Nationaliste says, however, that R. L. Borden's case is not the same. Mr. Maclean, Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Monk are all leaders, and is the governent going to pay them $7000 each.

Speaking of the members, the same paper says that, with all the talent of Hon. Mr. Lemineux, his pay is good, and why add $1000? Charles Marcili is a good talker and he was made deputy speaker, although he never made more than $30 a week as a newspaper man. Dr. Ross, M.P. of Rimouski, as a county doctor could not have made more than $2000 a year at his practice.

ADVERTISE THE FAIR

Every effort should be made locally to advertise the Nelson fair which will come off on September 20, 21 and 22. The committee in charge and the energetic secretary are working systematically and well and their efforts should be warmly seconded by everyone. We are all deeply interested in making the forthcoming exhibition a particularly successful one, and individual enterprise can assist the directors in many ways. The prize list and program will soon be in the hands of the public and anyone knowing where the receipt of a copy would do good either in the way of obtaining an exhibit or of attracting visitors, and generally of bringing the fair to the front should advise Mr. Annable, or procure and send the prize lists personally. The directors of the exhibition are doubtless open to receive suggestions, and wherever possible to follow them out. The board can be relied upon to do excellent work between now and fair time, and they should be assisted in every way The good success of the fair is a matter we are all agreed upon, and the only question is how best to accomplish the desired end. Having good grounds, most conveniently situated in the heart of the city, with admirable transportation facilities, so adapted that the sending, receipt and handling of exhibits of all kinds is an easy matter, and with a handsome and extensive prize list, publicity and plenty of it is the chief thing now wanted. The Dominion Day celebration, one of Nelson's annual events, clashes more or less with local celebrations elsewhere in the Kootenays, but the Fall exhibition has no rivals hereabouts, so that the neighboring cities and camps should send large contingents of visitors here during the three fair days. In the east it has long been the fashion for Ontario people to time, at least one of their yearly visits to the capital of the province, during the fair fortnight with consequent good results to the Toronto fair and incidentally to the Toronto merchants. In a similar way people from all over southern British Columbia can be educated up to visiting this city at fair times, each year should witness larger contingents of outsiders.

The local press can be relied upon to publish full accounts of the three fair days' doings with, of course, the list of prize winners, and all the other details, and private enterprise can aid the good work of giving publicity to our resources, by mailing copies of the papers to many persons and places not within the knowledge of the fair directors. There are other ways in which the general public can assist in materially advancing the best interests of our fair, and of making the most of an annual event that is likely to prove right along one of the very best means of advertising this city and district.

The Royal Agricultural and Industrial society of British Columbia have just issued the Dominion exhibition prize list and program for the show to be held at New Westminster from September 27th to October 7th inclusive and possibly our own people can gain some interesting hints from a perusal of the pamphlet in question, which is replete with useful information about the fair.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The picture of the great American Republic falling over itself in its haste to assure the despised heathen Chinese, that its past treatment of them has been all a great mistake, and that in future they will receive every consideraion, if they will only not boycott Yankee trade and Yankee traders, is hardly an inspiring spectacle. The English have been termed rather scornfully, a "nation of shopkeepers," but it is questionable if they have even been compelled to adopt the attitude now taken by the Americans, as a result of the Chinese boycott.

The most extensive survey work in its history is now going on under the geological survey. There are 35 parties in the field, about two-thirds of whom are employed west of the Rocky mountains, some of the parties consist of eight or ten men, while one or two geologists, with assistants, are able to carry on the work in other districts. The campaign is with the view to ascertain the extent of the mineral deposits and to enable the department to issue a complete geological and topographical map of the dominion. Most of the parties engaged began the season's work in March, and their home coming will be about the middle of October.

In seconding the adoption of the British Empire League's report for the past year, at the annual meeting held in the Mansion House recently, sir William Mulock said: "Such a policy as that of forcing the question of direct contributions, at the present state of colonial development would, in my opinion, imperil the integrity of the empire. I will not say what the view of all Canada is, for I speak here today merely as a citizen, and not in my public capacity. But I venture that we will all endorse this clause in the report that the true basis of co-operation in Imperial defence is to be found in developing and maintaining the efficiency of local forces, and in relying upon voluntary assistance to the mother country and the colonies whenever it is needed. We must remember, what is was that lost to Great Britain the colonies which form the United States. Lord Derby has said he would not touch the thorny question of mutual trade preference. But, to my mind, there is a higher form of reciprocal preference. That is, a reciprocity of sentiment and mutual aid in time of need."

Japan's notable success against Russia, will undoubtedly result in a largely increased trade between Japan and European countries, but the terms upon which the Japanese merchants are prepared to do business will have to undergo a change as from all accounts the commercial Japanese is a peculiar person, not at all to be trusted. The big banks and all the large mercantile firms in Japan will not employ their own countrymen if they can avoid doing so. Almost invariably they employ Chinese cashiers. Representative business men of every country have found it exceedingly difficult to carry on satisfactory commercial relationships with the Japanese, owing to the fact that they will not act squarely and will often break a contract on some pretense. Perhaps under new conditions, when the war is over, the Japanese merchants may change their methods of doing business, but the general opinion of all those who have had business transactions with them is that they will stand a lot of close watching.

VISIT KOOTENAY MINES

T. A. NOBLE OF PITTSBURG HERE TO LOOK AT PROPERTIES

INTERESTED IN OTTAWA AND RELIANCE COMPANIES

"Quite pleased with the prospects of the mines in which I am interested," is the expression used by T. A. Noble of Pittsburg. Mr. Noble arrived from the east last night accompanied by C. Lydle of Pittsburg.

Mr. Noble is president of the Ottawa mining company, and a director of the Reliance Mining company. He will remain round Nelson long enough to visit both properties. Tomorrow he will go out to the Reliance, accompanied by A. H. Kelly, R. S. Lennie, R. J. McPhee and C. Lydle.

Mr. Lydle is a mining engineer of long and varied experience. He is familiar with mines and mining operations in Utah, Colorado, Nevada, Mexico and Brazil. He accompanies Mr. Noble as an expert adviser. Mr. Noble has long been interested in British Columbia mining properties, and has the utmost confidence in the future of the country in which his money is invested. It has been largely through the influence of his example that other moneyed men of Pittsburg and other eastern American cities have invested in mines of Kootenay.

It is just a year since Mr. Noble, after visiting the Ottawa mine, gave an interview to The Daily News in which he expressed his opinion that British Columbia would in time be the greatest mining district in North America. He says that nothing has occurred since to cause him to alter that opinion.

TO ADVERTISE KOOTENAY

G. N. RAILWAY CO. PLANS TO ATTRACT TOURISTS

PARTY OF OFFICIALS INSPECTING BRANCHES IN B. C.

The Great Northern railway has always been pre-eminently a colonizing road. Its aim has been to constantly encourage settlement and development along the line of its roads. The benefit derived by the company from this policy is only the indirect one of gradually serving a larger population and consequently increasing its receipts receipts from general traffic.

The company has now seven branch lines in British Columbia, two in East Kootenay, the Nelson and Fort Sheppard, the Kaslo and Slocan, the Red Mountain, the "Hot Air" line to Grand Forks and the branch through New Westminster to Vancouver.

Special attention is to be given in future to all these short lines. It is the intention of the company to investigate the resources and attractions of the districts through which they pass and to advertise them extensively in the east with all the means at its disposal.

With this end in view a party of Great Northern officials is travelling leisurely over the whole system, including the British Columbia branches, collecting information and data for advertising matter, for the company's own publications, and for contribution to several large eastern newspaper syndicates.

The party consists of E. C. Stone, general passenger agent; J. F. Morrow, general advertising agent; J. W. Searls, western industrial agent; E. R. Sheppard and P. Sheppard, official photographers; S. Glen Andrews of the Chicago Record-Herald and Mrs. Andrews and their son. The party arrived at Nelson in a private car, the Wisconsin, Monday afternoon. They took the steamer Kaslo at Five Mile point and went to Kaslo and Sandon. They returned yesterday morning and will leave for Rossland this morning.

To a reporter of The Daily News, Mr. Morrow said: "We are travelling over the whole line, collecting fresh material for our advertising pamphlets We want definite information about the resources and attractions of this country, to convey it to our public in the east.

"Yes, the company has land grants in British Columbia. It has none at all along the main line. Our object, however, is not to sell our lands in a hurry but to encourage and assist settlement in the districts served by our roads. For this purpose we want to have bona fide agreements to offer people in the east who are thinking of moving west.

Last year the company distributed more than 800,000 pamphlets. This year a larger number will be distributed, and I can promise, a large proportion of them will contain mention of Nelson and its district.

"In addition to the pamphlets circulated by the company directly, articles will be written for eastern papers. We have connections with several thousand newspapers which reach millions of people.

"Our visit has been too hurried to allow us to get much detailed information about the mining industry or the fruit growing industry at first hand. But one thing we can all see as we travel. This is an ideal tourists' country. These mountains, rivers and lakes, and the temperate climate offer attractions to the summer tourist with which no other district that I know of can compare. It will be to tourists in the first instance that we shall try to proclaim the attractions of Nelson and Kootenay.

"To most of us this is the first trip to British Columbia. We have enjoyed the weather and scenery very much. Our photographers have collected numbers of splendid views which will be used to illustrate the articles on Kootenay.

"This is a very pretty city and one that deserves a visit from every one looking for a cool and pleasant place to spend the summer months without getting out of touch with civilization.

"I am told there is a tendency in British Columbia to blame the railway companies for the treatment of cities. I think that is a mistake. Of course the management is always looking for the interests of the company, but it is to the company's interest that every city on the line should grow and prosper.

"We hope as a result of the descriptions of this country which we shall publish and circulate, that we may be able to divert to Kootenay a considerable share of the American tourist travel. That is our aim and the purpose of this trip."

LUCKILY ESCAPED.

Derailed Coaches Stayed From Serious Fall by Telegraph Pole

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 3.—The morning train from Rockwood to Johnstown over the Baltimore & Ohio Railway was wrecked today between Border and Foustwell, seven miles from this city. One woman was fatally injured, another probably so, and half a dozen others so badly hurt they had to be taken to the hospital.

The most seriously injured are: Miss Mable Beach, 26, Somerset, Pa., skull fractured, and internal injuries, cannot recover; Miss Emma Vicroy, Windber, Pa., upper jaw broken and internal injuries, recovery in doubt. That the 40 passengers on the train escaped death is little short of miraculous. Thrown from the track by a broken rail, the only car to roll down the steep embankment was the baggage coach which went tumbling over and over and finally landed in the creek. The smoker and day coach, well filled, went only part way down the embankment, the second car being held up by a telegraph pole on the brink of the embankment.

DOWN WITH POWER PLANTS

Editor The Daily News—I was reading a paper about the children of the fishermen of Cornwall being wiser than the children of light—electric light, I suppose.

The paper said, it did, that these fishermen had petitioned, they had, to have the Marconi wires taken down; 'cause why, they made storms and drove the fish away.

The paper said that all the wires would have to come down. Now, Mr. Editor, what is the use of going on building electric power plants and all these things, if they are going to cause storms and scare away the fish?

The oldest settlers never saw as much thunder and lightning as there has been this summer, nor the fish so slow to bite; and just see the wind storms that have been since Lorne Campbell and John Houston began putting in their power plants down the river.

"I aint big enough to go fishing, but Mark Carley was down to the lower falls last Sunday and he said that, what with rocks floating down the river and some kind of boiling in the water that might have been made by the lightning getting away from where the big power houses are going to be, so that it wont have to work—that he only got one bite and that turned out to be a piece of bark 17 inches long, and weight three pounds and three ounces. I wish you would send that paper down to Dave McBeath and let him see what a foolish thing he is doing; maybe he would stop before Mr. Martin down at the coast has to tell him to.

Hill Party Visits Michel Coal Mines—Some Local Jottings:

(Special to The Daily News)

Michel, Aug. 3.—Michel was paid a flying visit yesterday by the Hill party of the Great Northern officials, who came here in a special train. Nothing transpired as to when the extension of the Great Northern will be made to Michel, but the party visited the coal mines and made many enquiries as to output and possibilities of shipment.

The Michel gymnasium has been presented with $50 by the Crow's Nest Pass Coal company.

The necessary repairs to one of the fans in the mines caused the laying off of a number of miners for a couple of days this week.

Mrs. A. Robertson and family, together with Mrs. Leadbeater, her daughter, who have been resident here for some time, left yesterday for Nelson where they will live in future.

A wedding took place here last week between Hugh Bell, contractor of Fernie, and Mrs. Margaret I. Davis, daughter of Mr. A. Robertson, at the house of the bride's mother, the Rev. G. R. B. Kinney, B.A., officiating.

GERMANY REALLY APPROVES

Germany Was Told Officially of Impending Visit of British Fleet.

London, Aug. 3.—George Pretyman, secretary of the admiralty, today stated that the German foreign office was informed months ago of the impending visit of the British fleet to the Baltic and no protests have been received.

Comment in German papers leads to the belief that king Edward and kaiser Wilhelm are together in supporting prince Charles of Denmark in his aspirations to the Norwegian throne.

Dr. Oronhyatekha Of Foresters Presented With a Jewel.

Atlantic City, Aug. 3.—The supreme court of the Independent Order of Foresters, at a final meeting of its convention today, endorsed the plan for the purchase of big tracts of land in Northwest Canada for a settlement by members of the order.

Dr. Oronhyatekha, chief ranger, was presented with a jewel to commemorate his 25th year as head of the order.

NO FAITH IN HAYTIANS.

Port au Prince, Aug. 3.—The national bank recently attached customs duties which it declared was collected as a security for the Haytian domestic loan. The government claimed these receipts, and the Haytian parliament has ordered them to be given up, and Haytian officers have been appointed to collect the duties which were hypothecated for the loan.

A WARNING TO MOTHERS

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not give any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh, as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrohea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its incipiency and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept for an emergency, as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears This is the most succesful remedy known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

AT THE THEATRE

To lover of intelligent romance the forthcoming production of "Fabio Romani" at the opera house will particularly appeal. It is claimed that a possible tenth of the world's population has already read Marie Corelli's famous novel, "The Vendetta," from which book "Fabio Romani" is an adaptation. The story is one of love and honor and deals with the faithlessness of Romani's wife, his false friend, and their successful efforts in having his consigned to entombment for life, during which he registers the Vendetta, or vow of eternal vengeance. The terrific volcanic eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, however, causes his release and resurrection, after which he puts his oath into execution, and then follows the death of his erring wife and false friend. The play is romantic in nature, full of emotion and human interest and while brisk in action, never borders on the sensational. The various picturesque characters are all in the hands of capable players and a most elaborate scenic and electrical production is given.

A little forethought may save you no end of trouble. Anyone who makes it a rule to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrohea Remedy at hand knows this to be a fact. For sale by all drugists and dealers.

James Band, proprietor of the Grove hotel, Fairview, has had that favorite summer resort nicely fitted up. It is conveniently located within a half block of the street car line and good meals and the best of liquors and cigars make it a popular house of call. Drop in any time when passing and sample some of those choice thirst quenchers always on tap.

Quaka Brand of canned goods are grown and packed among the Quaka community of Prince Edward county, Ontario, the garden of the Bay of Quinte district, celebrated for growing the finest flavored fruits and vegetables in the world.

Lifebuoy Soap—disinfectant—is strongly recommended by the medical profession as a safeguard against infectious diseases.

Do you hunt or fish? Halcyon Hot Springs affords unequalled sport. Scenery superb. Everything first-class. Harry McIntosh, prop.

The date for the event will be announced shortly.

The members of St. Saviour's choir went out yesterday morning to C. W. Busk's ranch on the lake where they had been invited for their annual outing. The steamer Idler was chartered for the occasion. The passage out was somewhat boisterous owing to a strong head wind but the picnickers enjoyed themselves, and the hospitality of commodore Busk was something that they all say they will remember.
