CONFER RE SUNDAY LAW

Premier Invites Members of Alliance to Victoria

Cabinet Will Meet Them on Friday—Vancouver and Victoria Did Not Observe the Law

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, March 4.—At a meeting of the local branch of the Lord's Day Alliance here this afternoon, the fact was brought out that premier McBride has invited a deputation from all branches of the alliance in the province to meet the cabinet in conference at Victoria on Friday afternoon for a complete discussion of matters pertaining to the new Sunday law. Before this invitation was divulged, the attitude of the alliance had been strongly in favor of pressing vigorously for the enforcement of the act, whether against the will of the government or not. It was claimed that the attorney general was simply over-riding the law by his present attitude and that such action would not be allowed by the higher courts, as it practically sets his opinion above the law of the land. When the conference was mentioned, however, it was immediately agreed that no action should be suggested until after its session. The meeting appointed ministerial and lay delegates. Had the alliance desired to find a basis for charges of local violation of the new law as passed by the dominion, their task would have been easy, as the city yesterday was not different to what it has been on former Sundays. The News-Advertiser appeared, the Seattle papers were sold on the streets, the shoe shining stands were open, etc. In fact, no attention whatever was paid to the new law. This has greatly angered the Alliance men, and the hostile attitude of the early part of the meeting this afternoon was the result. If the conference of Friday is not satisfactory to the alliance, it is probable a test case as to the power of the attorney general to refuse assent to a prosecution will be worked up.

(Special to The Daily News)

Victoria, March 4.—Little, if any, attention was given the new Sunday law here. Those who have been in the habit of keeping open on Sunday were doing business as usual. Cigar, candy, fruit and drug stores were open, while the restaurants did business the entire day. As a result of doing business, however, all will be reported to the attorney general. Chief of police Langley received instructions to take the names of all houses open, and during the day it was a common sight to see constables with little books jotting down the names of those doing business. In all, about one hundred were reported. It was not generally known that this action would be taken, and storekeepers were somewhat non-plussed when their names were written down. It is not likely that any action will be taken by the attorney general as his announced decision that no action would be taken was itself responsible for leading many houses to remain open which would otherwise have closed. Instructions for the police activity were issued by mayor Morley with a desire to obtain definite knowledge as to how many stores would be affected if the law was enforced. Although it was intended that the names of stores only should be taken the order was issued in such a form as to include the B. C. Electric and the Colonist Printing companies, although in the case of the former, several ministers used the cars to get to their places of worship. Mayor Morley was forced to act by the Lord's Day Alliance, which called his attention to the law and requested him to act.

PRESS WAS EXCLUDED

SHORTLY AFTER COAL CONFERENCE CONVENED.

G. G. S. LINDSEY ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF THE CONFERENCE.

Calgary, Alta., March 4.—The miners' convention started out with a feast of brotherly love and goodwill this afternoon but before half an hour was over, the different parties got into a tangle and the press was excluded, not to be admitted again during the day. When the miners' president took the chair and welcomed the operators to the meeting, though regretting that more were not present at such an important gathering, he called upon the meeting to elect a chairman, stating that it was usual for an operator to fill such a position.

G. G. S. Lindsey, president of the operators' association, was elected unanimously. J. A. Macdonald, district secretary of the miners' union, was elected secretary, with W. F. Little, of Canmore, an operator, assistant secretary.

Mr. Lindsey in addressing the meeting, referred to the coal business of western Canada. Last year close upon three millions of tons of coal had been mined, proving the magnitude of the industry. This year would greatly surpass that amount. He regretted the absence of John Mitchell and spoke words of commendation of the work done by that gentleman. He believed, however, that the miners would be well represented by Messrs. Lewis and Burke, of the international executive. He referred to the advance of the district; and said that the operators gladly welcomed the invitation of the miners to meet in joint convention. They were going to make an agreement, a permanent agreement, for the first time, and he believed that, with patience, they could build a foundation here so that those who followed them in the future could build ahead, knowing full well what a good foundation there was for them to build on. He objected to making any temporary agreements. He urged all to exercise good feeling and fellowship throughout the convention. He knew that in the west it was not always possible for miners and employers to meet on common grounds of equality, but much might be done in this conference towards that end. In the east the operators and miners had mutual loyalty to each other. If this convention accomplished no more than that, much would be done.

ORONHYATEKHA DEAD.

Ottawa, March 4.—A telegram has been received here stating that Dr. Oronthyatekha, head of the Independent Order of Foresters, died at Savannah, Ga., on Sunday.

BOLD TRAIN ROBBERS

MAKE PASSENGERS ON EXPRESS SHELL OUT.

NEGRO WHO RESISTED SHOT THROUGH THE HEAD

Pittsburg, Kas., March 4.—The Missouri Pacific passenger train which left her at 7.30 this evening was held up by two men in disguise. Lou Jeff, a colored miner, employed at the Central Coal & Coke company, was instantly killed because he protested. W. L. Westlake, of Toledo, Ohio, who, with his wife and two children, had been visiting relatives in Kansas, was shot through the hand by a shot that had been fired at the negro. The robbers got $2000. The men were disguised only with false moustaches. Both boarded the train at Pittsburg and began "working" the train as it passed the Kansas City Southern railroad shops. Both men had dark complexions and wore dark slouch hats and dark clothes. They began at the smoking car. One robber walked ahead with a large revolver in each hand and quietly asked the passengers to "shell out" to the man behind, who followed him closely. They were not far behind the train auditor and followed him closely into the coach. When they came to him in the day coach, he realized a hold up was going on. After the auditor had passed, he drew a revolver and shot at the foremost robber, who shot twice at the negro in return. The first shot went wild and struck Westlake but the second shot hit the negro in the head and killed him instantly. The robbers then quietly made the auditor deliver his money and hurriedly left the train as it entered the yards at Cornell. Westlake, the wounded passenger, was taken to Liberal, where his hand was dressed by a surgeon of the railroad company. As soon as communication could be had with Pittsburg a switch engine with several officers was sent to Cornell, four miles west of here. The country surrounding Pittsburg is thickly settled and is dotted with villages and mining camps. It is reported that a miner was killed by the bandits and it has aroused hundreds of other miners who will attempt to capture and lynch the robbers.

NELSON'S NEWS OF THE DAY

There was a well attended practice of the Nelson choral society at the K. of P. hall last evening.

Early Monday morning the thermometer recorded 12 degrees of frost, an unusually cold dip for this date. Early this morning it was nearly as cold.

The dining room at the Hume has been done over; plate glass panels in the entrance doors, fresh wall and ceiling decorations, and other improvements, all of which will come in appropriately for the private dance to be given this evening.

Ald. McMorris and city clerk Wasson dealt out justice in the police court yesterday in the absence of Mr. Crease. A visitor from the Boundary was fined $35 and costs for improper behavior on Baker street and an ordinary drunk was fined $5 and costs.

S. S. Moyie after her long winter's rest at the C.P.R. shipyard, has now been placed in commission and will be used at Kootenay Landing to assist in the transfer work, and will also attend to the clearing of the channel, which has recently filled up at that point owing to the wreck last week.

BY THE GAS ROUTE

Toronto, March 4—Julius H. Wadd, who escaped from the asylum last Wednesday and on Thursday morning was found unconscious from deliberate inhalation of gas in a room in Maple Lodge, is dead.

Holland, Ont., March 4—Mrs. Connell, found unconscious yesterday afternoon from fumes of gas, died this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Connell had just removed here from Michigan.

WANT MORE CHINA BOYS

Vancouver Women Agitate for Reduction of Head Tax

Petition is Being Circulated, Urging That Demand for Domestic Labor is Imperative

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, March 4.—The women of this city are taking a hand in the Chinese head tax question, because of the shortage of domestic servants of that race. A public petition was placed at prominent points in the city today, reading as follows:

"Whereas, girls coming to, or at present living in, British Columbia prefer occupations in offices, stores and facories to domestic service, and as at present the demand for them in these vocations far exceeds the supply, the undersigned women wish their names to go on record as being in favor of a reduction of the tax on Chinese coming into Canada as domestic servants."

Women are being importuned to sign this, and many are yielding to the pressure. One of the prominent supporters of the movement spoke of it as follows this afternoon:

"This is not a political proposition at all; neither are we discussing economics, or the general subject of Oriental immigration, except, perhaps, in so far as it affects our own pockets. What we are trying to do is to supply the great demand for servants in Vancouver homes. Half a dozen years ago, housekeeping was a pleasure in Vancouver. China boys, who could look after heavier work around the house, could be hired for from ten to twenty dollars a month. But now you are very lucky to get one at all, and an Oriental lad gets from $35 to $50 per month. Girls for housekeeping work cannot be secured at any price. There are so few available that they cannot be depended upon as a source of supply to fill the demand and then, year by year, China boys are becoming scarcer and correspondingly more difficult to hire. In another couple of years, conditions will be such that from $50 to $75 per month will have to be paid and sometimes more than that, according to how fully capable the Oriental is of looking after the affairs of the household. The result of all this will be that the citizens of the cities of the province will be driven to flat and restaurant life such as prevails in San Francisco."

VOTE FOR AN EMPIRE

DEBATE ON THE POSSIBLE INDEPENDENCE OF CANADA

IMPERIALISTIC SENTIMENTS SWAY AN ATTENTIVE MEETING

The second of the series of debates that is now being held under the auspices of the Churchmen's club, came off last night and was well attended. The speakers were forceful and the room was crowded. Despite the fact that the musical program entirely fell through, owing to a fit of mental oblivion on the part of the "absent minded beggar" who was detailed to look after it, such was the interest evoked by the theme that the debate was continued long after its legitimate conclusion, the meeting being addressed by Rev. R. N. Powell, Dr. White, W. Brown of Thunder Bay, and others.

The subject of the debate was the resolution that Canada would be better off as an independent nation than as a part of the empire. President Steel called the meeting to order at about 8:30 and Wm. Ebbs spoke eloquently in favor of the independence of Canada. His chief argument was that there nowhere existed on the globe a country so important, so wealthy, so large as Canada in a dependent condition. He drew an affecting parallel between the condition of dependent Ireland, whose native measures were vetoed by a foreign house of lords, and the independent United States. The population of the one had decreased and of the other had increased.

George Johnstone ,taking the opposite view, said the alternative before Canada was either federation or annexation. He believed the best interests of Canada would be better served by closer union with a country which had high ideals of statesmanship and manhood before it, than with the other which apparently acted on the principle, exemplified in its "captains of industry" of "whatever was profitable was right." Small nations existed by sufferance and it was certainly the duty of every member of the empire to strive that it should become even larger. There might be hardships in Canadian measures being vetoed in Downing street, but there were equal hardships in British Columbia bills being negatived at Ottawa. But neither fact argued for disintegration. Canadians could not afford to be parochial in their views.

R. J. Clark, speaking in support of Mr. Ebbs, found occasion to quarrel with almost everything that gentleman had said. He took the point of view that it was not worth while continuing in the empire. It was of no advantage. He had been an imperialist, but his faith was weakening over the events of the past few years. New Zealand had become avowedly socialist; Australia was following in the same path and Great Britain was evidently falling into line. That condemned the empire to his mind. Moreover it was of no advantage for a colonial to claim British protection. The liberal government in England had lately given away Newfoundland's rights, without consulting the colony and New Zealand had been similarly treated over the New Hebrides question. This was the line of the liberals, for Gladstone himself had said he wou'd not quarrel with the United States for the whole of Canada. Canada as an independent nation could fight for itself. In 1812-13, without the aid of British troops, it had repelled the Americans and had even occupied points on United States soil. At that time the disparity of population was far greater than it was today. Canada having increased more rapidly in proportion.

John Fraser declared the ways were parting. It must be either a separation or closed union. If separate Canada must pay for a fleet. At the present moment it was not contributing a cent, though other colonies were. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had declared that closer union meant fiscal union and that was impossible. Mr. Fraser denied the impossibility. As to the Irish question, the speaker declared himself to be Irish, but pointed out that the most prosperous portion of Ireland was just that portion that did not want Home Rule.

Dr. White,formerly Methodist minister here, contributed to the debate by singing the praises of Nelson and its people in a well received speech but entirely neglected to state whether he was convinced that the facts of Nelson's beauty and culture justified the city in setting up for itself.

Rev. R. N. Powell regretted the partizan method taken by Mr. Clark. He thought that the empire came a long way before any party. Nor did he for one moment believe that patriotism was a matter of trade or of money. Love of country came a long way ahead of greed or graft. The response given to the call of the empire to its children for their help in the days of the war in South Africa proved this to be true if it had not been so proven hundreds of times in the history of the British people and was not so proven in every man's breast today.

A. W. Dyer said a conservative statesman ,lord Salisbury, had declared in favor of socialism, and a liberal, lord Palmerston, had made possible for the Briton the proud Roman boast "Civis Romanus sum." Patriotism was not a question of politics. For those who argued for peace he recalled the pax Britannica within the empire, the wider the empire, the greater its power, the wider, the more lasting the world's peace. The choice seemed to be between socialism and plutocracy, and the lesser evil was certainly socialism.

W. Brown agreed with the propounders of the resolution and declared that Canada's loyalty to the old country should be measured by the old country's loyalty to Canada. That particular loyalty was conspicuous by its absence, as witness the Alaskan question, to take the most recent of a hundred similar incidents. On a vote being taken, only four men could be found to support the resolution and one of these took pains to declare that he was doing so on the academic merits of the debate, in which view, however, he was alone.

CARNEGIE'S OFFER TO B.C.

Montreal, March 4.—Principal Peterson, of McGill, has received a letter from Mr. Andrew Carnegie, offering a donation of $50,000 towards the building fund of the McGill university college of British Columbia conditional on a similar sum being raised within a certain period.

ANTI-CIGARETTE BILL

GETS DOWNED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

TWEEDIE APPOINTED LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR FOR N. B.

(Special to The Daily News)

Ottawa, March 4.—The house this afternoon debated Blain's resolution prohibiting the manufacture or sale of cigarettes. Blain quoted figures showing that the trade had advanced 200 per cent in the last decade. Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared the bill too sweeping in its nature, as it deprived adults of the right to smoke cigarettes. He said he would welcome a reasonable measure on the subject, but such legislation could not be passed this session.

At a meeting of the cabinet today H. J. Tweedie, premier of New Brunswick, was appointed lieutenant governor of the province of New Brunswick in succession to the late governor Snowball, deceased, and will be sworn in on Thursday at Fredericton. William Pugsley will succeed to the premiership. C. W. Robinson, of Moncton, the present speaker, will be provincial secretary, and C. J. Osman, Albert county, will be speaker.

Mr. C. Eustace Burke, Canada's trade agent at Kingston, Jamaica, writes to the department that the details of the catastrophe were so fully reported in the press and, in the main, with accuracy and without exaggeration, that it is useless for him to repeat them. The loss is estimated at from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000. The legislative council passed a resolution in favor of asking an imperial loan. The people were grateful to Canada for the handsome and liberal vote of the dominion parliament to the people's needs, and, from those charitably disposed, gifts of money and building material would be welcomed by the committee in charge of relief.

THAW CASE IS RESUMED

Expert Says Prisoner Was Sane After Firing the Shot

"Brain Storm" Immediately Subsided—Big Forward Step Taken in Monday's Court Session

New York, March 4.—A long stride forward in the trial of Harry K. Thaw was taken today when district attorney Jerome announced the conclusion of his exhaustive examination of doctor Briton D. Evans, one of the alienists for the defense. Dr. Evans has been on the stand each session since Wednesday last. He was immediately succeeded on the stand today by Dr. Charles G. Wagner, of Binghampton, N. Y., who accompanied him on most of his visits to Thaw in the Tombs. Mr. Jerome indicated by his questioning of Dr. Wagner that he may finish with the witness tomorrow. Mrs. William Thaw, it is expected will be the next person in the witness chair. She may be sworn either late tomorrow or early Wednesday. With Mrs. Thaw's testimony, the defense will practically have completed its case and it seems likely that the state's case in rebuttal may be begun before the end of the week.

Attorney Jerome cannot go far in disproving Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's testimony. He has admitted that even if he could prove that Stanford White was out of the country at the time of the alleged experience of Evelyn Nesbit in the Twenty-Fourth street studio he would not be allowed to do so on the grounds that it would be a collateral fact. It appears, however, that the prosecution can call upon any one to contradict Mrs. Thaw in instances where she had made certain statements to a third party. On this principle, Mr. Jerome has indicated that he will call Howard Nesbit to testify that his sister told him that Thaw treated her cruelly because she would not tell lies about Stanford White.

Dr. Evans left the witness stand today subject to recall for re-direct and re-cross examination but he may not be called for either. He protected the interests of the defense throughout his cross-examination and at all times appeared a match for the district attorney who displayed so much expert medical knowledge during his famous grilling of Dr. Wiley, the Pittsburg alienist. In explaining Thaw's actions subsequent to the shooting, his quiet demeanor, his directions as to what should be done with his wife and who should be sent for, Dr. Evans declared that as soon as the defendant shot Stanford White, the "brain storm" subsided and his senses began to re-organize themselves so that the man knew quite well what he was about. He also knew he was attacking Stanford White when he shot the revolver, Dr. Evans admitted, but the knowledge was that of an insane man and the act was the result of insane reasoning.

Dr. Wagner also declared that Thaw had irrational knowledge of what was transpiring on the roof garden. He believed the prisoner's insanity dated from the time Evelyn Nesbit told him her story in Paris in 1903. Dr. Wagner caused quite a stir in court by using the present tense in responding to a question by district attorney Jerome as to what form of insanity Thaw "has or had." Dr. Wagner testified that "Thaw is suffering from symptoms which lead toward a melancholic state and a state of dementia praecox." When asked to describe the latter phrase, Dr. Wagner said it covered such a wide field as to be difficult of strict definition. He said Thaw's condition of mind at the time of the shooting was the result of one of the insanities of adolescence. He would not further classify the form. The district attorney today continued his somewhat puzzling tactics. His questioning of Dr. Evans seemed to have the purpose of showing that Thaw never was insane to the extent contemplated by the criminal statutes of this state. Again, with Dr. Wagner as the witness, he worked toward the same end at one time and at another toward having Dr. Wagner admit that Thaw was suffering from a form or forms of insanity which might be curable. Dr. Wagner was still on the stand when adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

LEAVES FOR VICTORIA

NELSON'S NEW MEMBER OFF FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

IS CLOSELY STUDYING SUNDAY LAW PROBLEM.

Dr. G. A. B. Hall, M.L.A. for Nelson, leaves this morning for Victoria, there to attend the session of the legislature which opens on Thursday next. Dr. Hall does not think that the session will be a protracted one; he believes that business will be concluded and the members scattered to their homes again in, at most, six weeks.

The doctor is very much interested in two measures which are certain to come before the house, One, of course, is the bill which will define British Columbia's attitude towards the new Lord's Day Observance Act. He views the general tenor of the dominion law favorably, but thinks that one or two alterations to suit the special conditions prevailing in British Columbia would be wise. For one thing, he is convinced that miners, in out of the way places, where there is nothing for them to do but work or drink, should be permitted to continue their labor on Sunday if they should so desire, but that the mine owners should not be allowed to compel them to do so against their will.

The second measure in which Nelson's representative is keenly interested is one which he will himself introduce. It will be intended to make it possible for the interior of British Columbia to secure representation on the provincial medical council by dividing the province into seven medical council electoral districts, corresponding to the seven federal districts. Their are seven members on the council; but as the coast and island cities have such a tremendous voting strength, they are able to control the whole seven. Dr. Hall believes the bill he is framing will serve to rectify the inequality and make it possible for the interior to secure recognition.

KILLED BY EXPRESS

Chatham, Ont., March 4.—Sam Goddard, a British veteran, whose sixth wife survives him, was struck and instantly killed by a C. P. R. eastbound train at Thamesville this morning. The unfortunate man stepped out of the way of a freight train, and, in doing so, placed himself directly in front of the swiftly approaching express.

CONGRESS REACHES END

TAME CLOSING DAY AT THE AMERICAN NATIONAL CAPITAL

FIGHT AGAINST SHIP SUBSIDY BILL ENDS INGLORIOUSLY

Washington, March 4—With a new record for large appropriations and far reaching legislation, the 59th congress was brought to a close shortly after noon today. The last hours were tame by comparison with what had been expected. Long before noon, senator Gallinger's fight for the passage of the ship subsidy bill was abandoned and the filibuster opposition, led by senator Carmack, being no longer necessary, he surrendered the floor much to the disappointment of the galleries. Extreme fatigue, due to the night sessions in the house last week, had a dampening effect upon many representatives and the usual "last day enthusiasm" was confined to less than half the membership .Despite these conditions, the audiences in both houses were large as they have ever been. Thousands thronged the corridors unable to secure admission to see either branch. One of the interesting features incident to the closing of congress was the visit of president Roosevelt who, with his cabinet, White House staff, and a number of guests, occupied the president's chair in the senate room. Seated at a big table in the center of the room, he signed bills as they were unrolled and presented to him. On account of the despatch with which business was conducted last week, there were forty bills to be signed today.

PROVINCIAL TEACHERS

TENTH ANNUAL MEETING HERE EASTER WEEK

PROMINENT EDUCATIONISTS TO ADDRESS INSTITUTE

The tenth annual meeting of the provincial Teachers' institute which will be held in this city during Easter week, on April 2, 3 and 4, promises to be one of the most successful gatherings ever held by the association.

The principal of the public school, A. Sullivan, has been quietly engaged in making all the local arrangements necessary and although it would have been much easier to entertain the visitors during the summer holidays than during the brief Easter vacation, no effort will be spared to make it certain that the visitors will enjoy their stay in Nelson. Among the prominent educationists who will address the association are: W. A. McIntyre, principal of the normal school Winnipeg; Wm. Burns, principal of the normal school, Vancouver; David Wilson, formerly stationed here, provincial inspector of schools; J. D. Buchanan, vice-principal of the normal school, Vancouver.

An elaborate program has been arranged for the three days' session and it is expected that much practical work will be accomplished. The officers of the association are: President, inspector J. S. Gordon, Vernon; secretary, Miss E. M. Bell, Vernon, and treasurer, A. Sullivan, Nelson.

JAILED FOR PERJURY

Brantford, Ont., March 4.—Joseph C. Drummond, who committed perjury in defense of Kennedy in his trial for the murder of Irene Cole, in this city, in 1905, and who was granted a new trial on a technicality, was brought before judge Hardy this afternoon and pleaded guilty, his counsel asking that he be released on suspended sentence because of the destitute condition of his family. The judge gave him the same terms as before, five years. The two years which he has served will apply on it.

SIKH WAS CREMATED

Remains of Sundar Singh Burned With Oriental Rites

Strange Ceremony Witnessed on Silver King Road—Large Crowd Was Orderly and Respectful

The incineration of the body of Sundar Singh, the unfortunate Sikh who was run over on the C. P. R. tracks near Slocan Junction on Friday evening last, was carried out yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large crowd of people near the site of the isolation hospital on the Silver King road.

Chief of provincial police, W. H. Bullock-Webster, was present to see that order was kept and the city's medical health officer, Dr. Arthur, was also there inspecting the sanitary arrangements. The funeral was carried out without any outrage to the feelings either of the community of Nelson or of the Sikhs themselves. Although the manner of disposing of the body was strange yet there was no denying the fact that everything was done decently.

Shortly after 2 o'clock the funeral cortege was brought to the grounds by W. M. Lacy of the Standard Furniture company. The hearse could not get through the snowclad slope on the eastern side of Cottonwood creek and the body was taken up in a wicker casket deposited on an ordinary express waggon. Behind this walked half a dozen Sikhs among whom were included the "granthi" or priest and the foreman of the work upon which deceased was killed, Ishiyat Singh. The preparations for the burning were simple—a cord of four foot wood and a can of coal oil. The wood was piled on the ground about 2½ feet high and eight feet long, the sticks being disposed lengthwise. The pyre ran north and south. To the eastern side was brought the wicker casket and the body, which was sewn up in white cotton cloth over the ordinary clothes of the deceased, was then taken out and placed on the wood, the head to the north. Then the remainder of the wood was piled over the body until it was completely hidden from view. Standing at the north east corner of the yet unlit pyre the granthi and his fellow Sikhs began reciting the preliminary funeral rite. There was included a short recital of the manner of life of the deceased, how he had served his country as a soldier for 20 years, how he had reared a family of three of whom, the boy, was not, and how his excellencies were his own and his faults the results of his surroundings, commending his soul to the protection of the Almighty (Indra) in heaven and thanking Indra that the deceased was now going to a world in which there were no troubles such as affect mankind here. While this recital, accompanied by prayers, was going on the priest's Sikh audience broke in now and again with set responses and on its conclusion all bowed to the ground, giving the deceased his last salute on earth.

Then the pyre was deluged with kerosene and a light was set to it. For over an hour the pile burned steadily. There was no exposure of the body nor was there any perceptible odor. The pyre will have hardly died through the night and the ashes would not be cold ordinarily for a couple of days. It was the intention of the Sikhs to leave the pyre entirely alone until Sunday next, putting up a notice requestion that the ashes be not disturbed. The Sikhs believe that if any profane person touch the ashes of the deceased he will presently fall ill. However, chief Bullock-Webster explained to Ishiyat Singh that he could not be responsible for the acts of some misguided youngster and it would be better to remove the ashes at an earlier date. Hence it was arranged to dampen the fire this evening and gather up the remains. These will amount to about a couple of pounds. With the exception of a small portion, these will then be taken down to the river side and after another religious ceremony, committed to the water. A tooth, a nail, a fragment of the skull and a pinch of ashes will be reserved to be transmitted to the home of the deceased near Amritsar. There will be performed a third ceremony and the remains will be thrown into the river while the father, brother and family of the deceased will give a dinner to the little village community whence came Sundar Sigh.

Sundar Singh served with the 33rd Burmese infantry until two years ago, rising to a sergeant of A company. With him, sergeant of B company, was Ishiyat Singh, the foreman of the Slocan Junction Sikh gang. In the same regiment is at present a brother of the deceased. The father is still alive. Sundar Singh leaves a widow and two little children, both girls. Accompanying the ashes sent to the Punjab will be a photograph of the burning pyre and attendant Sikhs, taken and presented by F. N. Gillis.

BIG TOLEDO STRIKE

Toledo, March 4—Fully 3000 people employed by the Pope-Toledo Motor company, here, struck today. Last week the machinists' strike was declared settled and the striking men reinstated. The latter say the company violated the agreement.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A despatch from Ottawa announces the appointment of Fred A. Acland, western editorial representative of the Toronto Globe, as secretary of the department of labor at Ottawa. Mr. Acland entered upon his new duties on the first of this month. Mr. Acland is a distinct accession to the department of labor, which under the direction of Mackenzie King, has become such an efficient branch of the public service, administered in such a manner that both sides of the house unite in praising its important work. The new secretary to the department has been connected with the Globe for over fifteen years, and he has served in almost every reportorial and editorial capacity on the paper during that time. His trip through the west a year or two ago, and his interesting letters from Manitoba and the new provinces led the Globe to establish an office in Winnipeg, and Mr. Acland was offered the post of western editorial representative of the paper with a roving commission from the Great Lakes to the Pacific ocean. Only a trained journalist with well developed powers of observation and a mature judgment could have dealt as intelligently as he has done with territory, conditions and problems which were entirely new to him. Many Nelsonians will recall with pleasure the articles he wrote last summer descriptive of Nelson and the surrounding district.

The Quebec government has lost no time in making it certain that so far as that province is concerned, the federal Lord's Day Act, which came into force on Friday, shall have no effect in that province. A measure, which was "railroaded" through the legislature in order to become law before the end of the month, provides that "The laws of this province, whether general or special, respecting the observance of Sunday and in force on the first day of March, 1907, shall continue in force until modified, replaced or repealed, and every person shall be and remain entitled to enjoy on Sunday all such liberties as are recognized by the custom of this province."

The principle of labor conciliation which Hon. Mr. Lemieux, is striving to have placed on the statute book in regard to public utilities, has been adopted by the bricklayers and the builders of Montreal. The agreement, which is quoted in the Labor Gazette for February, just to hand, is one which it would be well for other trades in other communities to imitate. It is provided that the conditions of labor shall be arranged between the Bricklayers' union and the Builders' exchange and their application assured by a board of conciliation and arbitration. This board will be composed of three representatives of the men and of three of the employers, renewable yearly. Each year, upon the renewal of the board it will elect a referee, who shall not be a workman, nor an employer and his services will only be called upon in case the other arbitrators fail to agree. The board will meet yearly in the month of January in order to fix the conditions of labor during the then current year. It shall also meet whenever so requested by one or the other contracting parties having special cases to submit.

It is stated that Hon. Sir James R. Gowan, the oldest member of the Canadian senate, has forwarded his resignation as a member of the senate to the governor general. By his disappearance from the parliamentary arena Canada loses a picturesque figure. Born at Cahore, county Wexford, Ireland, on December 22,1815, he came to Canada in 1832 and five years later served in the force which aided in the suppression of the Mackenzie rebellion of that year. He was appointed a lieutenant in the Fourth North York regiment of militia in 1838, was called to the bar of Upper Canada in 1839, and was appointed county court judge of Simcoe in 1843. "Judge" Gowan, as he was familiarly known, was called to the senate in 1885 and for years, was chairman of the committee on divorce, a subject upon which he was an authority. He was an LL.D., of Queen's university, a fellow of the imperial institute, and one of the oldest Free Masons in Canada. Sir James was chairman of the board of judges of Ontario from 1869 to 1888, was called to the Irish Bar in 1893, and was several times a commissioner for the consolidation of the statutes. Created a C.M.G. in 1893, he received the honor of knighthood.

A great deal of public interest, especially on the part of employers of labor, has been directed towards the trial of Mr. Alexander Maclaren and two constables of the village of Buckingham on the serious charge of manslaughter in connection with the fatal riot which occurred there on the 8th October last. The trial has just ended in the acquittal of the prisoners. It will be remembered that the employes of the Maclaren company went out on strike over a question of wages and the company shut down the mills and suspended operations. In deference to the insistence of the insurance underwriters' company the company employed a number of special constables to protect their properties. At the north end of the village there is a fall in the river and above the fall a large quantity of logs was held in a boom. The pulp mill where these logs were to be used is situated below the falls. As winter was approaching the company decided to open the boom and let these logs run down the river to the pulp mill so that they might be available as material for operating the mill during the winter in case the strike was settled. When the operation of opening the boom and starting the logs over the falls was commenced the strikers gathered in large numbers and many of them were armed. So deliberate was the process of arming that a vehicle had been sent into the surrounding country to gather up rifles and shotguns. Hearing rumors of a possible disturbance the Maclarens applied to the village for police protection and got all the protection the municipality afforded in the persons of two constables, the men who were on trial with Mr. A. Maclaren. The Maclarens also took with them to the point where the logs were being moved the armed watchmen, about a dozen in all, who has been employed in protecting the mills. The mill owners, with the officers of law and order as represented by two policemen and the watchmen who were employed by the company, were engaged in clearing the logs when they were charged by a mob of strikers, some of them armed with revolvers, rifles, clubs and stones. One of the first to suffer in the attack was the chief of police who was struck over the head with a club. There has been a great deal of evidence pro and con as to who fired the first shot in the collision that ensued. But the case has finally ended in the acquittal of the defendants on the ground that British law gives a property owner the right to defend himself and his property from all illegal interference so long as he does not use harsher measures than the occasion demands.

GETS LIGHT SENTENCE

CLAYTON FINALLY ADMITS HE ASSAULTED VERRINDER

IS SENT UP FOR SIX MONTHS FROM DECEMBER 24.

Before his honor judge Forin yesterday, Andrew Clayton, of Fairview, was charged with seriously assaulting A. P. Verrinder on Baker street on the afternoon of December 22 last. Verrinder, it will be remembered was brutally assaulted with the result that he lost one of his eyes and had to go to Spokane for special treatment. The eye was removed and a glass one inserted in its place. Then when the case was ready for trial, the accused was taken with an attack of diphtheria, from which he has just recovered. Clayton was arrested on December 24 and in default of bail has been in jail ever since.

When the case was called yesterday R. M. Macdonald appeared for the crown, and A. M. Johnson defended the prisoner.

Dr. Hall's testimony given at the preliminary hearing at the police court, was admitted yesterday by consent in place of calling the witness.

The prisoner pleaded not guilty and Verrinder, the assaulted man was the first witness. He identified Clayton as his assailant and detailed the circumstances of the assault. Clayton knocked him down twice and hit him when down. It was a ring on Clayton's finger that damaged his, the witness' eye.

Arthur Perrier and J. O. Patenaude positively identified Clayton and at this stage Mr. Johnson, after conferring with his client, withdrew from the case, and Clayton withdrew his original plea and admitted his guilt.

His honor said that both men were probably the worse of liquor at the time. He did not think Clayton meant to cause Verrinder the loss of his eye and sentenced the prisoner to six months in the provincial jail with hard labor, the sentence to run from the date of the prisoner's arrest, December 24. Under all the circumstances the sentence is regarded as a very merciful one.

WRESTLERS WILL MEET

WILL BE HELD IN VANCOUVER AT THE END OF MARCH.

B. C. CHAMPIONSHIPS IN ALL CLASSES TO BE DECIDED.

The Vancouver Athletic club is to hold an amateur championship wrestling tournament on Friday, March 29th. The B. C. championship and medals will be presented in each of the following classes:

Bantam, 105 lbs. and under.
Feather, 115 lbs. and under.
Special, 125 lbs. and under.
Light, 135 lbs. and under.
Welter, 145 lbs. and under.
Middle, 158 lbs. and under.
Heavy, 158 lbs. and over.

For the information of possible contestants from the interior, secretary Suckling has sent the following tournament rules, with a request for their publication:

1. The weights shall be as above.
2. Any hold, grip, lock or trip allowed except the strangle, full Nelson, hammer lock or hand-up-the-back.
3 Nothing heavier than light slippers or rubbers without heels allowed on feet.
4. Both shoulders shall be on the floor at the same time to constitute a fall. Flying or rolling falls shall not count. Pin falls only shall count.
5. No striking, kicking, gouging, hair pulling ,buttings, strangling, or anything that endangers life or limb, will be allowed.
6. A rest of not less than 5 nor more than 10 minutes shall be allowed between falls.
7. Each contestant shall be entitled to the assistance of two seconds only, and no advice or coaching shall be given during the bout to any competitor by his seconds, or either of them, or by any other person. Any violation of this rule or of rule 5 by any contestant, or the refusal of any contestant to break any hold when so ordered by the referee, may be punished by the referee by the loss of the bout to the offender, and his exclusion from further competition.
8. Immediately before the competition each competitor who has weighed in shall draw in person his number and compete as follows: Have a preliminary round of as many contests as the total number of contestants can be divided by two. In case any contestant does not compete in the preliminary series he shall be alloted a number in the next series of bouts, so as to avoid the possibility of again drawing a bye. This leaves 2, 4, 8, or 16 contestants, and the bouts then proceed regularly with no byes or uneven contests.
9. The contestant who has last been defeated by the winner shall receive second prize.
10. Duration of bouts shall be 10 minutes.
11. The referee shall have full control of the competition, and his decisions shall be final and without appeal.
12. A timekeeper shall be appointed.
13. If in the preliminary bouts no fall has been obtained by either contestants at the expiration of 10 minutes, the referee may award the bout to the contestant having shown the best qualities or who evidently has acted mostly upon the offensive; or the referee may, after allowing 3 minutes rest, order a supplementary bout of 5 minutes.

If in the final bouts a fall has not been obtained at the expiration of 10 minutes, another bout of 5 minutes shall be ordered. If at the expiration of the second bout a fall has not resulted, an additional bout of 3 minutes shall be ordered. If no fall, referee shall award.

14. Contestants shall be weighed within one hour of the beginning of the contests.
15. If the wrestlers work off the mat, the referee shall order them to the centre, where the same holds shall be renewed.

Entry blanks can be secured at the office of The Daily News.

ITS RECOMMENDATIONS

SUGGESTIONS MADE BY THE INSURANCE COMMISSION

STANDARD POLICY IS ONE OF THE CHIEF FEATURES

Ottawa, March 4—The report of the insurance commission, presented to parliament last week, contains the following recommendations:

That a standard form of insurance policy restrictions as to investments by the company and publicity will cure nearly every evil now complained of by the policyholders, including those who are entitled to participate in profits.

That steps be taken to secure a large attendance at the annual meetings and that the shareholders be notified of any important matters to be discussed at the meeting.

That voting by mail be permitted and that proxies be limited to election purposes only.

The commissioners are at a loss how to prevent control of any insurance company by a man sufficiently wealthy to buy up the majority of the stock, and admit that he is then in a position to "engineer those powerful aggregations of money" for speculation, underwritings and syndicates.

The report continues: "The select machinery of finance is operated with insurance funds." In this connection the commissioners add: "The control by one man creates a situation which requires the most zealous scrutiny."

The report does not recommend the mutualization of insurance companies and suggests that the "majority of policyholders prefer the additional security afforded by capital stock."

All the insurance companies are found to have been extravagant in expenditure. Not one of the companies kept its expenditures for 1905 within the loadings. The great leak is found to be in the enormous expense attending new business.

Rebating is condemned and the opinion expressed is that it is in the power of the companies to stop it. Penal provisions are deemed of no use.

The frantic struggle for new business is deprecated and the taking of promissory notes for premiums should be forbidden.

Dealing with investments, the commissioners recommend the exclusion of all speculative investments and of "stocks," that is, the unsecured stock of public utility or industrial concerns. They also regard as undesirable investments the stocks of foreign companies, although controlled by Canadians.

A standard union of policy forms is desirable. All policies should be made incontestable, save for discontinuance of payment of premiums after a reasonable time.

Policyholders, it is pointed out, have been unfairly treated in the application of deferred dividends which should go to the policyholder and thus cheapen his insurance, rather than be paid in maintaining the fierce struggle for new business of "funds providentially in hand for purposes of speculation."

Greater publicity in the matter of returns is another recommendation.

It is pointed out that the work of the inspector of insurance has been conducted rather as a check than an audit and greater stringency is advised in dealing with companies making fictitious returns.

What People You Know Say About Gin Pills

Jan 23rd, 1906.

THE BOLE DRUG CO.,
Winnipeg, Man.

GENTLEMEN,—

I cannot refrain from writing you as to the great benefit I have derived from "Gin Pills." The true facts of my case are as follows:

"Last fall, while in the employ of the C.P.R., between Winnipeg and Brandon and also on the Souris branch, I was on the verge of giving up from a severe pain in the small of my back. I tried a menthol plaster without any relief. I afterwards bought a bottle of ——Oil and used it nearly all with no better results. Then one of the Conductors said to me: 'Why don't you try Gin Pills?' I purchased a box from a store at Douglas, on the main line near Brandon, and before I had taken the half of them the pain began to subside. I continued until all the box had gone with the result that the pain entirely left my back, greatly to my relief. I am sending in this testimonial unsolicited, hoping others will benefit thereby. For any disorder of the kidneys there is nothing can hold a place with Gin Pills.

Yours faithfully,
J. C. TAYLOR.

NOTES FROM FRANK

Merchants Put up Bonds to Secure Adoption of Cash System

(Special to The Daily News)

Frank ,Alta., March 4—A young man by the name of R. H. Schoevieber, 22 years of age, was killed in the coal mine of the C. A. C. and C. company Saturday. When found by the miners, he was buried under several feet of coal. Coroner Beech was notified and an inquest will be held.

F. C. Frank, owner of the C. A. C. and C. company, is on a visit to Frank. He will remain here for a visit to Frank. He Moore, the manager, has gone to Calgary to attend the conference with the U. M. W. of A., which is being held there.

The merchants of Frank have formed themselves into a Merchants' association and have adopted the cash system, which will be put into force on the 11th instant. Bonds of $200 have been signed and placed in the hands of the Union bank which will be used for the benefit of the association when the first one breaks the agreement.

Mr. Budd of Budd and Alexander of Calgary, was here last week and purchased land near the town and it is his intention to commence the erection of a cement factory which it is understood will provide work for some 75 men. Abundance of material is near at hand to manufacture cement.

As will be seen by reference to the advertisement in another column of this issue, the Royal bank of Canada will hereafter, until further notice, pay interest on savings bank accounts quarterly instead of semi-annually, as heretofore.

LORD'S DAY ALLIANCE

ISSUES STATEMENT CONCERNING THE NEW ACT

FULL TEXT OF SECRETRAY ROCHESTER'S EXPLANATION

The Daily News yesterday received from Rev. Mr. Rochester, western secretary of the Lord's day alliance, the following statement with reference to the new act, with a request for publication:

"So far as the alliance is concerned it regards it as a matter of no consequence from what source legislation comes, whether from the provincial or dominion government. It may be that the legislation contemplated by the local government would be more acceptable to the alliance than the dominion act. The important requisite, however, is that legislation comes from a competent source.

"In the public's view of the present situation one fact may easily be overlooked, namely that the dominion Lord's day act is now in force, and it is assumed to be known in force. Everyone, therefore, violating its provisions by an open Lord's day, is violating the law of the land. The words of the act are specific in this particular, "that this law shall come into force on March 1, 1907." The action of the provincial government in no way alters that fact. The attitude of the attorney general is an important consideration. Whether rightly or wrongly the dominion government has placed responsibility upon his shoulders. As to the nature of this obligation there is a difference of opinion. Our view is that the attorney general, by virtue of his office, has no option but to give consent to prosecutions under the dominion law, unless such prosecutions shall be shown to be petty or malicious; and, further, the intent of the law is not that the attorney general shall, if he desires, override the law, but that he shall secure its just administration. He is but an officer designated by the act, to secure its fair enforcement. Otherwise he annuls a law which, the competent legislature passing that law, says is in force. The jurisdiction of the dominion in this particular has never been questioned.

"It is well to notice that British Columbia alone in the west has taken that position with respect to the dominion act. Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta have signified through their respective attorney generals their desire to secure the enforcement of the Lord's day legislation. In its application to this province it may be fittingly urged that this Sunday legislation can give little ground for complaint. The act, while aiming to secure national well being, is broad in its consideration of individual liberty, and is generous in its provisions with respect to the commercial interests of the province. This has been clearly brought out in the recent interview with the attorney general, published in the daily papers. The whole question of jurisdiction is at once raised by the government's announcement. Has the province power in this particular? It is asserted that the dominion Lord's day act purports to give liberty to the province to legislate in its own interests in respect of the Lord's day. It is to be remembered, however, that its saying so does not necessarily convey such power to the province. The provinces have their constitution under the British North America act, and if they have such power in Lord's day legislation, they have it independent of the dominion parliament; if they have it not, the dominion cannot bestow those powers.

"So far as this question has come under review, the provinces have no encouragement to move in the direction of Lord's day legislation. The judicial committee of the privy council of England has given its decision that the provincial Sunday laws of Canada were ultra vires and before consenting to introduce to parliament a Sunday law the Hon. C. Fitzpatrick, then minister of justice, prepared a draft provincial law and submitted it to the supreme court of Canada, with the result that such legislation was declared incompetent for the provinces. In view of these decisions, and notwithstanding the example set by the province of Quebec, it would seem inconsiderate on the part of any province to attempt direct Sunday legislation.

"Assuming, however, that the question of power to pass Lord's day legislation has not been settled, and that there is still ground for believing that the province has the power to enact a Sunday law ,a course is open to the government which would commend itself as fair and one that would save much trouble later. According to the "act regarding the constitution, practice and procedure of the supreme court of British Columbia," it is competent for the lieutenant governor in council to refer to the full court or to a judge for hearing and consideration any matter which he thinks fit to refer and the full court or judge shall thereupon hear and consider the same. The act then specifies particularly matters which "relate to the constitutional validity of any act which has heretofore been or shall hereafter be passed by the legislature of this province, or of some provision in any such act." Therefore, in the present circumstances, it would seem a reasonable method to pursue that the local government should prepare a draft bill of its proposed legislation and submit it, according to the terms of the act quoted, to the supreme court of the province for consideration and judgment.

"Meanwhile, awaiting whatever action in the judgment of the provincial government may deem best, every citizen ought to remember that the dominion Lord's day act is now law, and, because it is the law of the land, it should meet with respect from every honorable citizen. If its provisions are unreasonable in any particular, redress may be sought not in disregard of the law, but in amendment thereof, when opportunity offers."

FOR OR AGAINST ACT

FORM OF PETITION NOW BEING CIRCULATED

MINE, MILL AND SMELTER MEN TO GO ON RECORD

A meeting of the committee appointed last week to draw up a petition for signature to employees of miners, sawmills and smelters, for or against the enforcement of the Lord's day act, met in Leslie Hill's office yesterday afternoon and decided upon the following circular letter:

Sir—A meeting was hell in Nelson on the 1st March, 1907, to consider the effect of the enforcement of the Lord's day act upon the mining smelting and lumber industries. It was decided that the opinion of all those who employed in these industries in East and West Kootenay and Southern Yale should be obtained as to whether they desired the enforcement of Lord's days act or were opposed to the enforcement of the same. In order to obtain the opinion of these men it was decided that a petition be circulated among the employees of the mines, smelters and sawmills and you are requested to lay the enclosed petition before all your employees and to request them to sign their names in one or other column as being either in favor or opposed to the enforcement of this act. It is desired that the employees should not be influenced in their decision. It was decided that a meeting of the owners and managers of all mines, smelters and sawmills in East and West Kootenay and Southern Yale should be held in Nelson on Thursday, 14th of March, 1907, for the purpose of taking such steps as may be deemed necessary in regard to this most important matter. You are particularly requested to have the petition signed and sent to the secretary as early as possible and certainly before the date of this meeting and to attend the meeting either personally or by deputy. Enclosed are some forms of the proposed petition.

J. J. CAMPBELL, Chairman.
LESLIE HILL, Secretary.

The petition is addressed to premier McBride and contains the number of the men employed, the name of the mine, mill or smelter ,and is divided into two parallel blank spaces, over one of which is printed "Sir—We, the undersigned, respectfully submit that we are opposed to the enforcement of the Lord's day act"; and over the other: "Sir—We, the undersigned, respectfully submit that we are in favor of the enforcement of the Lord's day act."

The petition will be circulated all over the Kootenays and returned here with the signatures attached for or against in time for the general meeting in the board of trade rooms on the evening of Thursday, March 14, at 9 o'clock.

DO NOT CROWD THE SEASON

The first warm days of spring bring with them a desire to get out and enjoy the exhilirating air and sunshine. Children that have been housed up all winter are brought out and you wonder where they all came from. The heavy winter clothing is thrown aside and many shed their flannels. Then a cold wave comes and people say that grip is epidemic. Colds at this season are even more dangerous than in midwinter, as there is much more danger of pneumonia. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, however, and you will have nothing to fear. It always cures, and we have never known a cold to result in pneumonia when it was used. It is pleasant and safe to take. Children like it. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

S.S. PAPERS GIVEN OUT

LOCAL SABBATH SCHOOLS DISREGARDED NEW ACT.

THEY MAY BE EXEMPTED FROM ITS APPLICATION.

In the Sunday schools of Nelson, yesterday, despite the new Lord's Day Observance Act, which is, legally speaking, now in force, Sunday papers were distributed as usual. But no prosecutions are likely to follow, nor is the regular Sunday supply of papers likely to cease, even if the act is enforced in its entirety.

Correspondence has been received from N. W. Rowell, K.C., Toronto, an active official of the Lord's Day Alliance, who gives the opinion that the clause does not apply to Sunday school periodicals as they could not in any proper sense be described as foreign newspapers or publications classified as newspapers. The publishing houses further guanartee to protect their customers from prosecution for using the publications.

Another letter is from Rev. John Potts, D.D., president of the Lord's Day Alliance of Canada. Rev. Dr. Potts states that the impression that the papers could not be distributed on Sunday were based on the assumption that these periodicals are "classified as newspapers by the postal regulations of Canada. It appears, however, that the ordinary Sunday school publications will not be in any way affected by the new act and Sunday school workers may continue to distribute these periodicals in Sunday schools notwithstanding section nine of the act.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Lord's Day Observance Act went into effect on March 1st, everything will go along in the same old way so far as Moyie is concerned, said the Moyie Leader on Saturday. Superintendent W. P. White informed the Leader this morning that as yet he had no instructions to close down the St. Eugene, and that therefore the mine would be in operation tomorrow as usual.

RHEUMATIC PAINS RELIEVED

B. F. Crocker, Esq., now 84 years of age, and for 20 years justice of the peace at Martinsburg, Iowa, says: "I am terribly afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in my left arm and right hip. I have used three bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it did me lots of good. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

George McL. Brown, general passenger agent of the C.P.R. company's steamship lines at Montreal ,advises that all cabin accommodation on the Lake Champlain, sailing from Montreal on July 6th, and on the Lake Erie, sailing from Montreal on July 20th, has already been disposed of. It will thus be seen that early application for spring and summer reservations on the other steamships of the C.P.R. company is most advisable. This does not apply to the third class bookings. There is ample accommodation in the third class section.

Synopsis of Canadian Homestead Regulations

ANY available Dominion Lands within the Railway belt in British Columbia, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry must be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situate.

The homesteader is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of the homesteader resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Six months' notice in writing should be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

Coal lands may be purchased at $10 an acre for soft coal and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of 10 cents per ton of 2000 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

MURDERERS EXECUTED

OF 47 CONDEMNED, 27 PAID THE DEATH PENALTY.

CANADIAN CRIMINAL STATISTICS FOR FIVE YEARS.

Ottawa, March 1.—The annual report on criminal statistics, just issued by the department of justice, states that during the last five years 47 persons have been convicted in Canada on the charge of murder. Not all of these went to the gallows, however, but 20 had the death sentence commuted to imprisonment for life. The other 27 suffered the extreme punishment of the law. In only eight cases had recommendations for mercy been made by judge or jury. During the last four years there have been 17 commutations and 17 executions. Of the 47 murderers, 13 appear to have been French, seven Indian, and nine foreigners. The names of those convicted of murder and the punishment, appear below:

EXECUTIONS IN ENGLAND.

London, March 1.—A remarkable analysis of the crime of murder for the last 20 years by sir John Macdonnell, master of the supreme court, is the principal feature of the criminal statistics of England and Wales for 1905, which was issued recently. The number of people sentenced to death for murder from 1886 to 1905 was 488 males and 64 females. In the last decade the actual number of cases in which execution followed the death sentence is shown in the following table:

	Sentenced.	Executed.
1905	32	17
1904	28	16
1903	40	27
1902	33	22
1901	28	15
1900	20	13
1899	29	15
1898	27	11
1897	14	6

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IS BOTH AGREEABLE AND EFFECTIVE.

Chamberlains Cough Remedy has no superior for coughs, colds and croup, and the fact that it is pleasant to take and contains nothing in any way injurious has made it a favorite with mothers. Mr. W. S. Pelham, a merchant of Kirksville, Ia., writes: "For more than 20 years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been my leading remedy for all troubles. It is especially successful in cases of croup. Children like it and my customers who have used it will not take any other." For sale by all druggists and dealers.

NOTICE

A Meeting of the Employers of Labor in the Mines and Smelters and in the Lumber Industry of East and West Kootenay and Southern Yale, and of the Representatives of the men employed in these industries in these Districts, will be held in Nelson on Thursday, 14th March, at 9 p. m., in the Board of Trade Rooms, for the purpose of considering the effect of the Lord's Day Act upon these industries.

HEADED OFF IN QUEBEC

LORD'S DAY OBSERVANCE ACT OF NONE EFFECT.

NULLIFYING MEASURE RAILROADED THROUGH HOUSE.

Quebec, March 4.—The Sunday Observance bill, which was hastily framed in order to head off the operation of the new dominion Lord's Day Observance Act, was railroaded through the legislature in time to go into effect on Friday. As a result, yesterday saw no change in the nature of Quebec's Sunday.

The bill practically nullifies the federal act in the province of Quebec. None of the federal bill's provisions will apply. Apparently the only advantage of the federal act of 1906, as far as the province of Quebec is concerned, is to set the limits within which the provincial legislature can legislate for Sunday observance. The legislature can now impose any of the restrictions contained in the federal act upon the province. Previously the courts had declared that the imposition of any restrictions regarding Sunday observance was outside the powers of the legislature.

Mr. Langlais has questioned the premier as to how the new act and the federal act will affect the publication of news papers on Sunday, and also work on Sundays for Monday morning newspapers. Mr. Gouin replied that there was nothing to prevent the sale of newspapers on Sundays, but papers which were to be published on Sunday morning must get all their printing work done before Saturday midnight. Mr. Langlois did not think that this would suit the newspapers like the Standard, but Mr. Gouin replied that he had an interview with the manager of the Standard, and that the latter had thought the arrangement perfectly satisfactory. The bill would not interfere in any way with the publication of Monday morning papers as they did not go to press until long after Sunday midnight.

TORONTO THE GOOD.

Chinese Fan Tan Resort Raided and 121 Persons Taken To Jail.

Toronto, March 4.—One hundred and twenty-one Chinamen, the large number ever taken in a police rail in this city, were arrected late last night, when inspector Cuddy and several of his men from the Agnes street station paid a visit to the cellar of a Chinese store at 101 Queen street west, where a big game of fan tan was said to be in progress. The officers had to break down three doors to get at the occupants and upon their entry they gathered a crowd which filled the street completely. Every one in the building with the exception of one man was taken into custody and nine patrol wagon loads of prisoners were driven to four stations.

CASTRO AND GOMEZ.

Friendship Has Been Re-established But Secrecy is Maintained.

Caracas, Venezuela, Via Willemstad, March 4.—Senora Castro, wife of the president is credited with having taken the initiative in a highly important political move looking to peace in Venezuela. When president Castro became seriously ill, certain minister succeeded in disturbing the previous strong friendship between Castro and vice president Gomez, senora Castro after months of argument persuaded her husband that Gomez was his true friend with the result that negotiations between the president and vice president were opened and today Gomez went to Macuto where the president is convalescing and conferred there with Castro. Only four men and possibly one woman know what passed at the conference. The only statement elicited was to the effect that the interview was satisfactory to both sides and that the friendship between Castro and Gomez had ben re-established. Apparently all concerned are pledged to secrecy.

EMINENT PORFESSOR DEAD

Halifax, March 4—Prof. George T. Kennedy, former professor of geology and chemistry at Acadia college, and afterwards professor of science at King's college, died at Wolfville today. He was 52 years of age, and a native of Montreal.

THE AFRICAN WON.

Melbourne, Australia, March 4.—Jack Johnson the colored American heavyweight, fought here today with Lang, a Victorian pugilist, and easily defeated him in the ninth round. The fight was witnessed by 15,000 spectators.

Acushla Machree you won't forget to call round to Rutherford's and reserve a seat for that concert on the 18th.

INSTRUCTOR AT FERNIE

PROVISIONAL MILITARY SCHOOL OPENED BY SERGT. WHITE.

FERNIE BANKER PROMOTED TO SKAGWAY MANAGERSHIP.

(Special to The Daily News)

Fernie, March 4.—Classes of instruction for the officers and non-commissioned officers of the local militia was opened tonight, a drill instructor from the permanent force having arrived in town from Nelson. The officers of the Kootenay Rifles have been busily engaged making preliminary preparations for the event and a large number have signified their intention of taking the opportunity of qualifying for their commissions and everything is now in readiness. Colonel McDougall, of Wolsley barracks, London, Ont., who is in command of the schools of instructions is also expected to be present in a few days. The classes will last for three weeks.

W. T. White, accountant of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, has been notified of his appointment to the managership of the same institution at Skagway, and will leave in a few days with Mrs. White to assume the duties of his new position. Mr. White resided for several years in the Yukon country before coming to Fernie.

Mrs. R. W. Coulthard received Saturday afternoon and evening for the first time since her marriage and her pretty home was the mecca to which all Fernie society flocked.

SAVE THE FLAG.

U. S. Supreme Court Declares Flag Laws Constitutional.

Washington, March 4.—That the states may pass laws prohibiting the use of the flag of the United States for advertising purposes was declared by the supreme court of the United States today in deciding the case of Nicholas V. Halter and Henry W. Hayward coming to the court from the supreme court of Nebraska. Halter and Hayward are engaged in the liquor business in Omaha and were prosecuted under a law of the state on the charge of selling beer in bottles decorated with the national colors.

JUDGMENT IN LONG STANDING CASE

New York, March 4—Judgment for $52,000 was obtained by the Baltimore baseball club against the Brooklyn baseball club in the supreme court in Jersey City today by default. Attorney for the plaintiff say they will apply for a receiver. The Brooklyn club is incorporated in New Jersey. The claim dated from 1900 when the Baltimore club left the National league and several of its players went to Brooklyn. The claim was for $10,000 with $12,000 interest. Baltimore alleged that the National league agreed to pay $40,000 for its franchise, that this money was paid to certain persons in the Brooklyn club but never was given to Baltimore.

U. S. CABINET CHANGES

Washington, March 4.—George Bruce Cortelyou, this afternoon relinquished the office of postmaster general to Geo. Von. Lengerke Meyer, of Massachusetts, recently American ambassador at St. Petersburg. Mr. Meyer took office in the private office of the postmaster general. Mr. Cortelyou was later sworn in as secretary of the treasury.

WINNIPEG'S NERVY BURGLAR

Winnipeg, March 4.—A nervy burglar attempted to rob the jewelry store of Dingwall & Co. here this evening while the street was crowded with pedestrians about 7 o'clock. A large number of expensive watches were on display in the window and he walked up and threw a big jack knife through the plate glass, smashing a hole large enough to permit him to grab a bunch. However, he failed in his attempt to secure the booty but made good his escape.

See the samples of tailor made suits at Fred Irvine and company's today. No two suits alike. 268-1

NELSON'S NEWS OF THE DAY

Born, in this city on March 2, to the wife of Matthew P. Reid, Front street, a daughter.

The Women's Hospital aid society has decided to hold their annual ball during easter week in the armory. The exact date is Thursday evening, April 4.

Charles Waterman and company advertise a sale of household furniture at the residence of H. M. Fullerton, Carbonate street, next Thursday at 2 p.m.

A. H. Tuttle is installing a four stamp mill at Salmo on the Kootenay Belle. A Crawford aerial tramway from the mine to the mill will also be installed at once.

A miner named Hammond Sanderson, died at Sandon on Saturday from an attack of pneumonia. The deceased had been a resident of the Kootenays for several years, coming here from the maritime provinces. The remains will be sent to New Brunswick for burial.

Miss Rhea Patrick of Toronto, but recently engaged at Winnipeg, has arrived to take charge of Fred Irvine and company's millinery department. The lady is an artist in her particular line and is thoroughly posted in the very latest fashions.

The Young People's society in connection with St. Paul's church will hold their usual weekly meeting this evening in the church hall at 8 o'clock. A hearty invitation to attend the meeting is extended to all friends and members of the congregation.

The International reached port yesterday at 1 o'clock, bringing two carloads of ore from the Bismark for the Hall Mines smelter. The steamer will sail today and on Thursday and Saturday at 8 a.m. for Kaslo and way points. Captain Moore reports that the ice between 5-Mile and 7-Mile still remains very strong.

Mary, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roslancie, residing on a ranch between Slocan and the junction, died from an attack of croup early on Sunday morning. The parents brought in the little body yesterday and the funeral will take place this morning at 9 o'clock from the church of Mary Immaculate.

It has usually been customary for the mayor of this city to nominate some one to act for him whilst he is out of the city, but it is said that the appointment lies with the council. Mayor Gillett is at the coast attending the meeting of the provincial municipal union and there is no acting mayor, nor can there be until the council meets and appoints some one.

The S. F. and N. railway has reduced its passenger rate from four to three cents a mile extending west from Marcus. The reduction has been in force from Spokane to the boundary line for some time. To and from the boundary line on this side the company still charges the four cent a mile rate, just because that is the rate charged by the C.P.R. Both roads should adopt the lower rate.

In chambers yesterday his honor judge Forin granted probate of the will of J. F. Folkhard, formerly of Kaslo. The estate was valued at $900 realty and $150 personalty. R. M. Macdonald made the application. W. A. Macdonald, K.C., obtained an order cancelling the plan of lot 526, notice of cancellation to be posted in the postoffice and the C.P.R. station at Creston.

The figures to date in the library contest will be published tomorrow, when a surprising result will be shown. Some of the delivery boys of The Daily News got so interested in the contest that their honesty was affected. They cut out the coupons from these columns and put in their votes. Incidentally several subscribers failed to get their morning paper and there was trouble in consequence. Subscribers are particularly requested to report promptly at this office failures to deliver The Daily News.

At the mining recorder's office on March 4 a bill of sale was recorded from Marion Horton, John Benson and Sydney Ross to G. D. Bell of Salmo, conveying the Salmo, Pioneer and Lakeview, comprising the Iron Mineral group, situate between the Salmon and Pend d' Oreille rivers; consideration, $1. A bill of sale was recorded from Bella Devlin to Margaret Clark of Spokane, conveying a three-quarters interest in each of the J.D., New York, Copper Butte, Plum Hollow and Devlin claims, and a quarter interest in the Copper Wire; consideration $1. A power of attorney to make a specified deal was filed from R. Bear to A. H. Tuttle.

W. B. Sherman of Calgary, opera house manager and lessee of the local opera house, who was in the city yesterday, has added two more houses to his circuit, making a total of 38 places of amusement now controlled by him. The last two additions are the Miners' union, Rossland, which Mr. Sherman will fix up as a first class opera house, and the lease of the Greenwood opera house. The Miners' union opera house, Rossland, will be opened on March 8 by the Amsden opera troup. The next two bookings for Nelson are the Amsden opera company on March 18 and 19 and "My Wife's Family" company on March 25. Mr. Sherman leaves for Calgary this morning.

Fredi Irvine and company today are showing special manufacturers' samples.

FOR JAPANESE MISSIONS

Toronto, March 4.—The Sherbourne street Methodist church last night tendered Rev. Dr. Sutherland a farewell on his departure for Japan in the interests of missions. On Thursday he leaves for Vancouver. Rev. Dr. Carman joins him in Vancouver, sailing March 18th on the Empress for Japan, returning in June.

NELSON'S NEWS OF THE DAY

George Ferguson yesterday brought in 16 head of fine horses for the Nelson Transfer company. The animals were shipped from Pincher Creek, and are in fine condition.

The Spokane Sunday papers were distributed here as usual on Sunday night, in view of the official announcement that the Lord's day act would not be enforced by the attorney general until further notice.

The regular meeting of Queen City Rebekah lodge, No. 16, I.O.O.F., will be held this evening in Fraternity hall at 7:30. There will be initiation and business of importance to discuss, and a full attendance is requested.

A subscriber writes from Poplar under date March 1: "We got the Daily News of Feb. 20 today, eight days from Nelson to Poplar. We were glad to get it as it might have taken a month to come. It however appears to have stood the journey well."

J. W. Banfield, formerly manager of the Royal bank here, and until last week manager of the bank's branch at Havana, Cuba, has been appointed assistant manager at the head office, and with his wife, is now on his way to Halifax.
