RACE RIOTS

Sihks Badly Beaten By Bellingham Mob

POLICE WHOLLY HELPLESS

MILLMEN OBJECT TO REPLACING OF WHITE LABOR BY HINDUS AND FEELING PRECIPATES EXPELLING OF OVER 1,000 BRITISH SUBJECTS.

Bellingham, Wash., Sept. 5.—Six badly beaten Hindus are in the hospital, 400 frightened and half naked Sikhs are in jail and the corridors of the city hall, guarded by policemen, and somewhere between Bellingham and the British Columbia line are 750 natives of India, beaten, hungry and half clothed, making their way along the Great Northern railway bound for Canadian territory and the protection of the British flag.

The long expected cry "drive out the Hindus" was heard throughout the city and along the water front last night. The police were helpless. All authority was paralyzed and for five hours a mob of half a thousand white men raided the mills where the blacks were working, battered down doors of lodging houses and dragging the inhabitants from their beds escorted them to the city limits with orders to keep on going. The trouble started at C and Holly street, a district with Indian lodging houses. Three were cleaned out and the denizens started to trek for the Canadian line. The mob then swept down to the water front and mill after mill was visited, the white employees joining the mob and every black man was hustled outside. Here the police suggested that the undesirables be taken to the jail. This was hailed with delight and the blacks were hustled along. From this on very few were beaten as the blood thirstiness of the mob was seemingly satisfied during the attack on the lodging houses. The mob kept up its work along the water front, until early this morning, when Larson's mill at Whitcom lake was visited and a hundred blacks brought in from there. Four women were found this morning among the crowd in the city building. The city is quiet today but there is a strong undercurrent of opinion which apparently approves the action of the mob and it may be found impossible to prosecute the leaders.

Racial feeling has played no small part in the affair. Every day whites are being replaced in the mills by blacks. The invaders have become bold and insolent, many instances of women being pushed into the gutter, insulted on street cars, etc., being reported. General uneasiness of the whites is given as a reason for the outbreak. The Hindus are all British subjects and their case is being placed before the British authorities.

HOO HOO CONCATENATION

SIXTEENTH ANNUAL GATHERING TO BE HELD AT ATLANTIC CITY.

GREATEST ORGANIZATION OF ITS KIND IN THE WORLD.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 5.—With the arrival in Atlantic City of the supreme snark of the universe, accompanied by the bojum, scrivenotar, jabberwock, custocatian, arcanoper, gurdon and senior and junior Hoo-Hoo, the supreme nine is assembled for the sixteenth annual meeting of the Concatenated Order of Hoo-Hoo, which will open here on Sunday. The men bearing these fear-inspiring names are in reality exceedingly prosperous appearing business men, all being engaged in the manufacture or sale of lumber. In addition to the officials, hundreds of other lumbermen from all sections of the United States, Canada, and Mexico are arriving for the annual session. The meeting will begin Sunday morning with the annual assembly of the Osirian cloister, followed in the afternoon by the annual initiatory ceremony. The business session will be called to order by the snark of the universe, A. C. Ramsey of Missouri, at nine minutes after nine o'clock of the morning of the ninth day of the ninth month, the same being Monday.

The principal matter to be considered at the session is that of adhering more closely to the clause of the constitution governing eligibility to membership in the order. This provides that only manufacturers or dealers in lumber, owners of timber lands, newspaper publishers or editors, general railroad officials and manufacturers of sawmill machinery shall be admitted. It is alleged that in several places, notably in Texas, a number of men wholly ineligible have been admitted by local vice-gerents. This will be made the subject of some vigorous comment by the snark of the universe, and methods by which to prevent a recurrence in the future will receive considerable attention at the meeting. It is alleged that a drastic example will be made of these Texas vice-gerents.

The growth of the order during the last year exceeds all previous records and the membership rolls now conta n the names of nearly all lumbermen of North America. Nearly 2,500 men have been initiated during the last twelve months and concatenations have been held within practically every state and territory of the union, every province of Canada and every state of Mexico, as well as one at Shanghai, China. The latter was the first concantenation ever held outside the American continent. It will be followed shortly by a meeting of the order at Sydney, N. S. W.

Considerable interest is manifested in the election of officers, which includes all the members of the supreme nine. The eastern delegates are determined to capture the office of supreme snark of the universe, and have put forward John L. Alcock, the well known hardwood lumber exporter, of Baltimore, for the office. Originally a western order, the Hoo-Hoo has now spread all over the east, and the members in this section will put up a formidable fight to elect their man. This is the first general meeting to be held in an eastern city, recent annual meetings having been held in Oklahoma City, Portland, Ore., and St. Louis.

The Concatentated Order of Hoo-Hoo Nashville, Tenn., editor of the official Nashvill ,eTenn., editor of the official organ, is insistent that the name is Hoo-Hoo, both singular and plural, and not Hoo-Hoos, as it is usually written—had its origin in the little town of Gurdon, Ark., on January 21st, 1892. A train wreck detained a number of lumbermen, railroad officials and newspapermen in the little town for a day, and that day of leisure resulted in the inception of what has since become the greatest social organization in the world, based upon a community of business interests. Among the original Hoo-Hoo in the little Arkansas lumber village were B. A. Johnson, now editor of the American Lumberman, Chicago; William S. Mitchell, business manager of the Little Rock Democrat; William E. Barnes, editor of the St. Louis Lumberman; George Kimball Smith, secretary of the Southern Lumbermen's Association, and several others identified directly or indirectly with the lumber business.

It was decided that the official emblem of the order should be a black cat. Following out this idea, the meetings were later called concatenations, and, as a cat is supposed to have nine lives, so everything in Hoo-Hoo-dom runs by nines. There are nine supreme officers, the annual meetings always begin at nine minutes afer nine on the ninth day of the ninth month of the year, and the initiation fee is $9.99. Furthermore, it is alleged that a cat-o'-nine-tails plays a prominent part in the initiation of new members.

The order has branches in every state of the union, Mexico and Canada, and its interests are looked after by vice-gerent snarks, some states having as many as three of these officials. Nashville, Tenn., has been the official headquarters of the order for the last decade.

SUNDAY DRINKING CEASES

MAYOR GILLETT GIVES DEFINITE INSTRUCTIONS

FROM SATURDAY TO MONDAY MORNING ALL BARS CLOSE

In future there will be no drink sold at any bar in the city on Sundays. Every bar in the city, saloon or hotel, will be closed from 11 o'clock on Saturday night until 6 o'clock on Monday morning. Yesterday instructions were given to the chief of police by mayor Gillett to enforce the Sunday closing act under the hours given and the hotels and saloons will receive official notification to that effect today or tomorrow. After 11 o'clock tomorrow night every bar will be closed and will not be reopened until Monday morning.

Mayor Gillett on being questioned as to the matter said he had come to the conclusion that this was the only course to follow and he had therefore given instructions along these lines. It was his own action and not the action of the license commissioners nor had he been influenced by the representations of any society.

Most of the hotels visited last evening had heard nothing officially about the matter although most had received intimation as to the action proposed. As a rule they were opposed to the measure although one or two expressed an opinion that there was no money in Sunday trade anyhow.

As the law is carried out in the prairie provinces drinks can be obtained at the hotels at meal hours in the dining room and at no other times. In Winnipeg there is a further modification that the bar is opened for a few hours in the afternoon on Sunday and again for an hour or so in the evening immediately before church time. How the regulation will work out here remains to be seen.

FLAWS SHOWN

Enquiry Into Quebec Bridge Catastrophe

ENGINEERS EITHER SAW NOTHING OR THOUGHT THE FLAWS DETECTED TO BE OF INSUFFICIENT IMPORTANCE TO CALL A HALT ON CONSTRUCTION.

Quebec, Sept. 5.—The inquest into the cause of the Quebec bridge disaster was resumed today. Alexander Oulmet, who testified yesterday that there was a crack three quarters of an inch broad and 20 inches long in the shoe of the main pier, was called to complete his evidence. In a photograph he pointed out the alleged defect to the jury. The plate in question was six feet long and three quarters of an inch in thickness, the crack was the full depth of the plate and 20 inches in length. There were no bolts or rivets in the plate. He first noticed the defect in May and again in July when it was in the same condition. He did not inform the bridge authorities of it, but drew the attention of Alfred Esmond, and Zeephirine Lafrance, fellow workmen to the defect. Both of these men were victims of the accident. Raoult Lafrance corroborated Ouiment's evidence. He told his cousin about it fifteen days before the accident, but did not report it to the bridge inspectors because he thought they knew of it.

Mr. Kinloch inspector for the Quebec company, said he had made his last inspection fifteen minutes before the bridge collapsed and found everything all right. He has seen No. 9 cord since the accident and it was bent almost into the shape of an S. The pressure must have been almost a thousand pounds to cause that state. It is bent into the same position as it was before the accident. He knew of the defection, having discovered it on Tuesday, August 27th and reported it to Messrs. McClure, Yenser and Birks, the two last named now dead. Mr. Yenser and he had considered it a serious matter and he considered it as a matter that should be reported to headquarters at once. He had inspected that cord probably a thousand times and the aforesaid day was the first time he had discovered the trouble. He did not stop the work because he had no authority to do so, and it was generally supposed that on more metal would be put on prior to the receipt of advice. He, however, did not consider the matter of immediate danger and did not suggest that the work be stopped.

Mr. Hoare, the chief engineer of the bridge company, recalled, said he was never advised of the plate which was reported to be broken. Had the defect existed, however, it would not have been serious or have affected to any extent the solidity of the bridge. He said the distance of the plate from cord No. 9 was 75 to 100 feet. The cord was reported to him as being damaged at one end and subsequently repaired and the report conveyed to him the impression that it was perfectly safe. The inquest adjourned at 1 o'clock until after the government appointed to investigate the cause of the disaster has made its report.

The royal commission appointed by the dominion governmtn to investigate the cause of the accident will start its work next week.

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Collingwood Schreiber, consulting government engineer, J. M. Butler, deputy minister and M. P. Davis, contractor for the mansonry of the Quebec bridge, returned today from the scene of last Thursday's disaster. Davis, after alluding to the magnitude of the catastrophe ,observed that there was probably only one man alive who could be said to have witnessed the collapse and that was the bridge company's inspector. He noticed the structure tremble and sway. Knowing what this meant, as the horror of the impending catastrophe flashed upon him, he instinctively turned his head, tehn came the crash and when he looked again the mighty structure was a mass of ruin.

Asked about the masonry work, Davis said it remained intact, the piers standing exactly as they were built, notwithstanding the tremendous strain to which they were subjected.

The anchor pier did not show so much as a mark. As for the precise cause of the accident it would not be known until the termination of a long and intricate investigation by the government commission. Sterling Deans, chief engineer of the Phoenix Bridge company, also the designer, to whom Mr. Davis talked, could not discern where the fault had been.

"Sixteen thousand tons of metal," continued Mr. Davis, "are lying mostly in an indescribable tangle, great steel beams being twisted like elastic bands and yet there is not a suspension rod or any other piece of metal in the wreck that shows signs of weakness. I walked 300 feet along the wreckage without being able to discern the least flaw in a single member."

M. J. Butler confirmed this observation. "The masonry is absolutely intact, and uninjured in any way whatever," said the deputy minister, "and that after undergoing the most severe strain to which any masonry work was probably ever subjected to in the world. The thousands of tons of steel work look like torn up scraps of paper, yet the piers do not show any further damage than might be wrought upon them in a few hours by a couple of men with hammers."

The commissioners, Holgate and Kerry, were at work when Butler left the scene of the disaster. Their preliminary operations consist of making examinations of the wrecked material and marking the parts that will be photographed for comparison with their position and place in the intact structure.

"It will be one means of fixing the cause, which of course, must remain a mere matter of conjecture until the investigation has been finished."

RIVAL LOVERS' FATAL FIGHT

Vancouver, Sept. 5—J. Churchill of Nanaimo, is lying at the point of death in the hospital here, as the result of a fight between he and John Raney, his rival in a love affair. The men fell out over the affections of Miss Lola Griffiths. They attended a dance Saturday night, and at midnight the two men with a party of seconds, left the dance hall for an alleyway to fight it out. Getting the worst of the fist fight, Raney, unknown to those standing by, drew a knife and ripped his opponent in the abdomen and stabbed him in the lung.

IMPORT AUSTRALIAN COKE

CROFTON SMELTER UNABLE TO SECURE PROVINCIAL PRODUCT

VANCOUVER COAL DEALERS ALSO IMPORTING COAL

(Special to The Daily News)

Vancouver, Sept. 5—John Davidson, representing the British Empire Trust company of London, Eng'and, a firm which has financed Canada to the extent of ten millions, is in the city. He stated that in recent years a great change had come over British investors, and that now many large financiers who would not touch United States' enterprises, were ready to back Canadian projects. He says his concern receives fully 20 enquiries daily concerning Canadian projects, and his present trip was taken to gain a more intimate knowledge of the situation. Davidson will leave for the east on Saturday, taking in the Kootenay districts, en route.

Unable to secure coke from provincial sources the Britannia smelter at Crofton has arranged for shipments of coke from Newcastle, Australia. The ship Brabbock is now en route with 2000 tons and another large shipment will follow. The smelter tried 300 tons arriving by the steamer Pondo and found it satisfactory.

In anticipation of a fuel shortage this winter local coal dealers have chartered a vessel to bring 3000 tons of coal from Newcastle, Austra'ia. Because of the large increase in population during the year, the fuel situation is feared here greatly. Every wood yard in the city is stocked with orders for weeks ahead.

MUST BE WAR

France Recognizes Inevitable in Morocco

COMPLICATIONS IN EUROPE

FRENCH PRESS CALL FOR CONVOCATION OF PARLIAMENT AS QUESTION IS TOO SERIOUS TO BE LEFT TO CABINET TO DECIDE.

Paris, Sept. 5.—While there has not been any more fighting at Casa Blanca since the fierce engagement of Tuesday, the seriousness of the general situation in Morocco and the possibility of its leading France into diplomatic difficulties with the other powers of Europe, notably Germany and Great Britain, to say nothing of the apparently growing necessity of increasing the size of the French force on the Moroccan coast, is occupying the attention of the French people.

The press is calling attention to the difficulty of keeping within the terms of the Algeciras convention, and the call to convoke parliament to discuss and to decide what course the nation should pursue is becoming more insistent. There is a growing feeling that the important decisions in the matter of France's policy in Morocco saould not be left entirely to the members of the cabinet.

The seriousness of the fighting of Tuesday in which major Provost of the foreign legion was killed, further details of which are published today, has brought home to the French people a comprehensive idea of the persistent resistence of the Moors and a realization that France may be only at the threshold of a protracted campaign that may easily prove costly in lives and money. The situation is now referred to as a "war" and no longer as heretofore, as an expedition of pacification.

No other power yet has been drawn into the difficulty, but Germany is watching the progress of events in Morocco more closely every day and as it becomes apparent that the situation there is not improving, it is intimated in Berlin that the Algeciras convention, under the terms of which France and Spain are acting in Morocco, prescribes certain limitations and that France is approaching the bounds which she should not go without first obtaining the special permission of the powers.

The situation at Mazagan is reported to be growing more threatening. Native advices received at Tangier declare that 20,000 hostile Moors have concentrated not far from Casa Blanca, and that 10,000 Babile tribesmen have mobilized near Alcabasia.

Spain is preparing to send reinforcements of men and ships to Morocco. One Spanish batleship, the Emperor Carlos V, arrived at Tangier today.

Paris, Sept. 5.—The government announced today that it was convinced that the serious conflict in which the eight Frenchmen were killed, near Casa Blanca occurred Tuesday ,September 3rd, and that vice-admiral Philbert's cable message yesterday referred to the same engagement. The several dispatches received here from Casa Blanca, differ in regard to the details of recent fighting all of them emphacizing the falling back of the French troops before a powerful on rush of the Moors. It now appears that major Provost, of the foreign legion, was killed in the thick of the fighting, which raged at Sidi Moums, where the Moors attacked the French flying column as it was returning from Littelill, after bands of the enemy had been dispersed. Major Provost, who was in front of his men, said "courage, my children," and then, turning backward and forward about the foreign legion, which he had led so long, the major said, "forward, my children, forward," at that moment a bullet pierced Provost's heart. The fighting then became desperate, the opposing Moors and legionaries see-sawing bacwkard and forward about the body of the major, the men of the foreign legion refusing to abandon their beloved commander. Under the clash of bayonet and sword, when men were falling right and left and the field was covered with riderless, maddened wounded horses, the legionaries held their ground until they succeeded in carrying off Provost's body. During the fighting the Moors succeeded in turning the French flank, but the reinforcements hurried to the front by general Drude, turned the tide of battle and the conflict became a shambles for the Moors.

San Sebastian, Spain, Sept. 5.—Reinforcements of troops to the number of seven hundred men are preparing to embark here for Casa Blanca on the Spanish cruiser Extremadura.

Berlin, Sept. 5.—The development of events at Casa Blanca appears to be regarded with some distrust by the German government. Foreign secretary Tschersky in conversation with representatives of the powers, who have visited the foreign offices on various matters of business and who have taken this opportunity to ascertain the views of the foreign secretary on the Moroccan situation, has stated that Germany accepted fully the French assurances that the operations of the allied forces in Morocco would be within the terms of the Algeciras convention. Then Herr Tschersky has causually added in substance, that of course, the Algeciras convention did not contemplate France and Spain undertaking to suppress the civil war in Morocco. This reservation discloses the German interpretation of the Algeciras convention and shows that any extensive military operations by the allies must either rouse controversy or be preceded by the consent of the interested powers. The German attitude is simply to await developments. The British government seems to be waiting to see what Germany will do, and the latter power, the correspondent of the A. P. is informed, has determined to prevent the "Egyptianization of Morocco."

Herr Tschersky today received three leading German importers and exporters of Casa Blanca, Herren Fick, Mannesmann & Opitz, who went to the foreign office to file with the government claims for compensation for the needless destruction, as they affirm, of German property at Casa Blanca. The merchants left with Herr Tschersky a written account of the bombardment of Casa Blanca, including an expression of their opinion that the action of the French was incautious and provocative and that probably no fighting would have occurred had the French consul, M. Malpertuy, who is esteemed as being a man of much judgment, been at Casa Blanca at the time. On the other hand the provisional representative of M. Malpertuy was considered by the German merchants to have unadvisably agreed with the French commanders in their eagerness to give the Moors a "good lesson." Herr Tschersky dismissed the three German merchants with a promise that he would consider and investigate their claims.

HAGUE PEACE CONFERENCE

CHOATE BENT UPON SECURING PERMANENT HIGH COURT

MAKES STRONG APPEAL FOR SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTED POINTS

The Hague, Sept. 5—Joseph H. Choate, one of the American delegates to the peace conference, is credited with the statement that he will not leave the Hague until his project for the creation of a permanent international high court of justice has become an accomplished fact and at todays' meeting of the examining committee under the presidency of M. Bourgeois, which is dealing with this matter, he had the satisfaction of securing the approval of the American project, with the exception of the paragraph referring to the allottment of judges.

In a powerful speech, Mr. Choate urged the committee not to permit its differences of opinion on the matter of the allottment of judges to interfere with the solemn duty devolving upon it of satisfying, either permanently or provisionally, the universal demand for the establishment of such a court.

"It would be ignominious in the last degree for us to confess our inability to discharge this duty," Mr. Choate declared.

He suggested a number of solutions for the difficulty regarding judges, including a proposal for the election of judges by the whole conference voting by states, each state exercising absolute equality. He maintained that this method would assure equality of sovereignty, as well as equality in all other respects. Each nation would take its chance, he said, of a successful canvass. Mr. Choate then mentioned a long list of juriste of world wide renown, included among the delegates to the present conference, from among whom they might easily form a court which could command the confidence and admiration of the entire world. Speaking for the United States, Mr. Choate continued:

"I would be perfectly willing to trust the fortunes of the court and the success of the conference in creating it to the result of such an election, if no permanent method for a choice of judges can now be agreed upon. I trust that, laying aside all national differences, all pride of opinion and all desire for special advantages for our respective nations, we will devote ourselves with one mind and heart to the solution of the problem now before us."

HOTEL BURNS

Many Inmates Lose Lives By Jumping

TEN PERSONS IDENTIFIED

MORE VICTIMS ARE BELIEVED TO BE AMID RUINS OF THE BUILDING—ESCAPE FROM TOP STORY WAS CUT OFF BY THE FLAMES BELOW.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 5.—Fire destroyed the Webb hotel at Shelton, 20 miles from Tacoma early this morning and it was reported 15 persons were burned to death. Miss Bailey and Mrs. Mudge ,both of Shelton are known to be among those lost. All the other victims are said to be men. Seven bodies have been recovered.

The fire was discovered about 1:40 this morning, it had started in the hotel annex, probably from a lighted cigar dropped in the smaple room. The hotel was a three story structure,, the top floor was occupied by a number of lodgers but the actual number is not known. Within a few minutes of the time the fire was discovered the hotel was a mass of flames, screams and cries for help were coming from almost every window and there were dozens of people risking their own lives to help bring out the unfortunates. The hotel occupied a corner of a block in the center of the city that was solidly built of frame structures. Those in the upper stories were entirely cut off from the stairway and at least seven or eight jumped from the windows before help could reach them from the outside. Ten are known to be dead and one dying. All but three were killed by jumping from the windows.

The known dead are: Miss Ida May Bailey, waitress; William Holmes, master mechanic in the Peninsular Railroad shop; Leora Bideau, bartender; F. P. Larson, butcher; Mrs. Gray, employee.

D. J. Hennessy, Sam Holt, Mrs. Judge, Mr. and Mrs. Westall and an unknown man jumped from the third storey, to the kitchen floor and were killed.

LATEST CHINESE PUZZLE

WHAT TO DO WITH THOSE WHO ENTER IRREGULARLY

CAN BE IMPRISONED FOR ONE YEAR BUT NOT DEPORTED

Ottawa, Sept. 5—There are 18 Chinamen in custody in Sydney who are providing a puzzle for the chief controller of Chinese immigration at Ottawa and who seem to have hit upon a flaw in the fabric of the Canadian law. The Chinese came ashore from the schooner Colorus which brought them from Newfoundland. The captain alleges that they escaped. They were seized by the customs officials as smuggled goods and are now in confinement. The law provides that Chinese who enter Canada irregularly be placed in jail for a year, but it makes no further provision regarding them. No authority is given to deport. It is not considered good policy to keep 18 Chinamen in jail for a year and then give them their liberty without even the payment of the $500 entrance fee. A year in jail is hardly a qualification for a permanent Canadian resident. The only thing apparently that can be done is to keep the Celestials until a law may be passed next session for their deportation, and send them back. There is ample authority in the law for dealing with the captain who brought them. He can be fined not less than $500 and not more than $1000 for each Chinaman and his vessel seized.

AN INDEEPNDENT FORECAST.

Already the political quidnuncs are busy forecasting the outcome of the coming dominion general elections. The Toronto News is to the front with a forecast that certainly savors of dispassionate construction and whilst it is one that we should be inclined to seriously question, it is interesting as an indication of eastern sentiment, where among level-headed observers there is a feeling, amounting to a certainty, that the Laurier administration will be sustained in the coming campaign by a very substantial majority. Our own feeling is that the Toronto News writer underestimates the strength of the Laurier administration in the maritime and eastern provinces and instead of making a loss in those provinces we look for a considerable increase in liberal representation. However that may be it is interesting to note what the Toronto News expects to be the outcome of thecampaign:

Of the 224 members of parliament, the maritime provinces have 35, Quebec 65, Ontario 86, the prairie provinces 30, and British Columbia and the Yukon 8. In 1904 the results were: Maritime, 26 liberals, 9 conservatives; Quebec, 55 liberals, 10 conservatives; Ontario, 37 and 49; the prairies ,14 and 6; British Columbia and the Yukon, 8 liberals.

The News correspondent thinks the conservatives should gain in the maritime provinces. Prince Edward island is constitutionally in opposition, and is at present particularly dissatisfied. New Brunswick seems turning against the government, and in Nova Scotia the conservatives should gain at least a couple of seats. Therefore, from the maritime provinces, there should be from 20 to 23 liberals, and from 12 to 15 conservatives.

If there should be no change in Quebec, sir Wilfrid will come to the Ottawa river with 75 to 78 out of 100.

The writer figures that, in Ontario, the conservatives will pull out a majority of 20, and that the parties will go up to the Manitoba boundary divided as follows: Liberals 110, conservatives 76. If the conservatives do well enough east of Ottawa to hold sir Wilfrid down to 70, and carry Ontario by 26, the figures should be cut down to 100 liberals and 86 conservatives.

In view of the fact that 10 of the new western constituencies are new and under government influence, the conservatives will do remarkably well to break even. In British Columbia, the conservatives' cause is looking up, giving them the benefit of the guess, the 38 western seats will divide: Liberals 20, conservatives 18.

Total: Liberals, from 120 to 130; conservatives, from 94 to 104, or a liberal majority of from 15 to 35.

This, the writer admits, is the roughest possible estimate. Mr. Borden may not win, but he should return with a following considerably increased. The real conservative point of attack is 1912, when we shall be paying for the G. T. P. It is admitted that governments deteriorate as they grow older, and the present government is losing its administrative strength, and it is a fair conjecture that, even a liberal victory, the years from 1908 to 1912 will be marked by a good deal of administrative laxity. Therefore:

"One of the most urgent duties of the opposition during the eleventh parliament will be to watch the departments, to expose every doubtful transaction which can possibly be uncovered. Another will be to fight for all it is worth for the party's general policy. There is one thing worse than having a poor policy—it is having a good policy and being afraid of or indifferent to it.

"To fight a battle of this sort, it is not votes that are needed so much as men. It will matter little whether Mr. Borden has 70 followers or 100 to stand up in divisions. It will matter a great deal, for one thing, if he has men who will throw themselves into whatever policy the long-delayed conservative convention may decide upon, and fight it for all they are worth. For an opposition,: the period between general elections is one long-continued address to the big jury outside of Ottawa, and the party policy must be proclaimed and driven home, not by one man, but by many.

"It will matter a great deal, in the second place, if Mr. Borden has a force of men who can watch departments, scan the auditor-general's report, and generally play the watch dog.

"It cannot be repeated too often that Mr.Borden is shockingly ill supplied. alike with loyal supporters and with fighters. Eeverybody knows how weak his following is in public debating power. What is not generally understood is that it is very weak in men suited for the turbulent but necessary work in committee."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The term "dominion," selected by the fathers of confederation as the designation of this country—though sir John A. Macdonald made every effort to have the term "Kingdom of Canada" adopted, and declared in a letter written to lord Kuntsford in 1889 that in the refusal of the imperial authorities to take his view, "a great opportunity was lost"—is hereafter to be the official designation of all the self-governing nations within the British empire. The British possessions that are not self-governing will be styled colonies. This change of nomenclature has been promulgated by lord Elgin, the colonial secretary. The dominions are Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Cape Colony, Natal, Newfoundland and Transvaal, with Orange River colony presumably to be soon added to the list. The colonies are India, the various parts of Africa, Soudan, the West Indies, Guiana, and the many minor possessions that have no representative institutions or parliamentary government. Egypt is a protectorate.

The census bureau at Washington has lately issued an interesting bulletin on the printing and publishing industry: "No increase in the industry has been more striking than that reported for the number of pounds of paper used. Of the total amount of paper manufactured in 1905 more than 900,000 tons were used solely for newspapers and periodicals, representing almost one-third of the entire output of the paper mills of the United States. To make this paper required the services of nearly 15,000 men, and represented approximately $9,000,000 in wages. These mills used as raw material 1,300,000 cords of spruce and popular and hemlock logs, representing the timber product of approximately 100,000 acres, exclusive of the logs imported from Canada. Thus every working day in the year the forests of New England and the middle west states, with scattered areas eleswhere in the north and northwest, yielded approximately 1,765,000 feet of timber to be transformed into newspapers and magazines required to supply the people of the United States. As might be expected from its preeminence in population, New York reported in 1905 more than double the number of daily papers contributed by any other city, the total number being evenly divided between morning and evening papers."

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR HARVEST

Charles McHardy Returns from Trip to the Prairies

Chas. McHardy got back yesterday from a trip to Robson which was immediaately preceded by a six weeks' sojourn in the prairie country. "I chased my hat and shivered," said Mr. McHardy, "all the way from Calgary to Winnipeg and back and did not get any decent weather till I reached Lethbridge, in sight of Kootenay, on my way home. I visited Calgary, Moose Jaw, Regina, Indian Head, southern Manitoba and Brandon, staying the best part of a week in each place. I found the chief trouble was a stringency in the money market and it seemed impossible for the farmers to realize upon their holdings if they wished to do so. Everything seems to depend upon the harvest and of this, after all, there appears to be good prospects. The crops in southern Alberta seem to be all good. Round Moose Jaw they are good but late. Manitoba generally is fair but late. In southern Manitoba of which so much that was not good was predicted, there has been a wonderful change of late. The rains seem to have brought the crop on splendidly and it is now probable that the crop will compare well with the average crop of the rest of the province. There was a frost of two or more degrees towards the end of August but it is reported that very little damage was done, possibly the wheat wa set back a grade. It has been a bad season for hail all over the prairie provinces and indeed I myself picked up hailstones during my short stay in Winnipeg not less than 1 1-2 inches across. I am convinced that there will be a large number of settlers drift in from the northwest into the more equable climate of this district in the near future."

MARRIAGE OF PHOENICIANS

(Special to The Daily News)

Phoenix, Sept. 5 — Two weddings of well known Phoenicians occurred this week. Eugene Patrick Shea and Miss Esther Swanson were married by Rev. Father Hartman of the Catholic church, the ceremony taking place in the residence recently purchased by Mr. Shea, in the presence of a few intimate friends. John Milligan was best man and Miss Eva Swanson, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Mr. Shea is one of the old residents of Phoenix, having first reached the present site of the city in May, 1895. For several years he has been proprietor of the Bellevue hotel here and is one of the best known citizens of the Boundary. Mrs. Shea has resided here a couple of years and is also well known. Many presents were received from the numerous friends of the bridal couple one being a piano from the Phoenix branch of the Eagles ,of which Mr. Shea is one of the most active members.

Ernest Eugene Walter Mills and Miss Jessie M. Smith were married Labor Day at the residence of A. D. Morrison, in Grand Forks, by Rev. McLeod of the Presbyterian church. Mr. Millls has resided here several months and is manager of the jewelry store of Mr. Morrison in Phoenix, his bride coming from St. Mary's, Ont. Both bridal couples were favored with serenades by numerous friends and well wishers.

BINDERS AT WORK IN MANITOBA

Cutting Now Under Way Throughout the Province—Farmers Satisfied

Winnipeg ,Sept. 5—The farmers of Manitoba and the northwest are wearing broad smiles and setting their alarm clocks for hours that will beat out Old Sol these days, for the hundreds of miles of golden grain swaying and undulating throughout the land is ripe for the harvest and the most welcome season of the year is round again.

The crop report issued by the C.P.R. this morning will be read with delight by all those who are interested in the success and development of this, the greatest wheat belt in the world, for it shows that the welcome sound of the binder is heard in almost every district throughout the length and breadth of the country. In many districts over half the cutting is already completed, while in some from 50 to 75 per cent is finished.

MORE RIOTING IN 'FRISCO.

Street Cars Stoned and all Windows Smashed—Five Arrests Made.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Another riot resulting fro munion labor troubles occurred in the Mission district today, but was quickly quelled by the police after several arrests had been made. A large number of the structural iron workers union returning from the funeral of one of their former associates, J. J. Peterson, who was fatally shot during the labor day attacks of United Railway employees, had reached the corner of Guerrero and Sixteenth streets, when some of the men began to create a disturbance. Soon stones and other missiles were flying and in a few minutes the windows of four or five street cars had been broken.

No one was seriously hurt, however, owing to the prompt arrival of the police, who quieted the turbulent crowds. Five men, believed to have participated in the attack on the cars, were placed under arrest.

The streets were cleared and regular traffic over the car lines was resumed.

RALPH CONNOR AND THE JAPS

Winnipeg, Sept. 5—Rev. J. L. Gordon arrived home today from a five weeks' holiday trip through the west. There was no doubt to him that various people were taking advantage of the opportunity offered in the west. Along the coost he saw that Indians, Africans, Hindus, Chinese and Japanese were forcing their way in and taking a prominent part in the industry of the west. In the canneries especially they were doing the necessary work which Canadians do not care to do. Under the present conditions of development he considered that these people were necessary to assist. The Japanese were the most aggressive of the five foreign classes; wherever he saw a Jap the little man was busy and most courteous and affable, but with all his work and smiling exterior the man from the flowery kingdom had a book or two in his pocket, and spent spare moments in study. He was ever and always aggressive, preparing for omething better.

J. GRIFFIN TALKS ON THE MONETARY SITUATION.

J. Griffin, of St. Thomas, a partner in the firm of J. Y. Griffin & Co., is in the city on a business visit. Speaking yesterday to a Daily News reporter Mr. Griffin said that many people seemed to be laboring under a misapprehension as to the nature of the business of his firm. The old business of the firm had been sold out two years ago to Swift & Co., of Chicago. That sale included their house here. The firm was interested in farm lands all over the prairie provinces and in real estate in Fort William, Winnipeg, Nelson and Vancouver. Recently they had organized as the Dominion Wholesale and Produce company with headquarters at Winnipeg and branches at Brandon and Calgary.

Mr .Griffin is just from Winnipeg and on being queried as to the general prospects in the northwest provinces said: "If the weather is favorable for the next few days the crops, coupled with the very high prices they are likely to command for wheat, oats and barley, will make returns to the northwest and Manitoba farmers fully equal to those of last year. As to the financial stringency I think the banks are fully justified in husbanding their resources and keeping enough money on call, at New York or elsewhere, for any emergency. Of course if there proves to be a good crop it must relieve the monetary stringency but in any event there is no cause for alarm, for the dominion, at no period of its history, was in better financial position than it is at the present moment. Yet, owing to over speculation and, possibly, to extravagance in living there has been caused a stringency in the money market that really should not have occurred. However, it will have the effect probably of teaching people the value of money. I say so because I think credit has been too cheap or, in other words, money has been too easily obtained and you may rest assured that I don't make any mistake when I repeat that the banks have been justified in the course they have taken.

"The banks, after all, are but custodians of the people's money and the public would expect them to keep a restraining hand on the outflow of money under existing conditions. Yet we must not forget that at the rate Canada is now froging ahead we will have quickly recovered our lost position."

Australia's Preferential Tariff—Valleyfield Arbitration

Ottawa, Sept. 5 — According to advices from J. S. Larke, Canadian commercial agent at Sydney, the government has under consideration a new tariff which involves striking changes. The preferential tariff has now been extended to cover a large variety of lines. It will cover nearly all lines now exported to New Zealand from Canada as well as others in which a trade may be done. The Fiji islands are desirous of obtaining a tariff preference in Australia for bananas and other products, but Mr. Larke does not think the Commonwealth will grant the request. He, however, believes that such an arrangements might be made with Canada applicable to bananas, pineapples and other products.

The department of the interior has just issued a new map of the railway belt of British Columbia, an addition which shows all timber limits.

Representatives of the workmen and employees on the conciliation board in connection with the Valleyfield strike having failed to agree upon a third party, minister of labor Lemieux has appointed Hon. L. Fortin, at one time M.P. for Laval, to act as chairman of the board.

A well known resident of Ottawa passed away yesterday at his home, 450 Somerset street, in the person of Thomas Borbridge, who formerly conducted a large dry goods and tailoring establishment on Sparks street. He was 79 years of age. About 12 years ago he went to Brandon to manage the branch there of S. and H. Borbridge, harness manufacturers of this city. He was quite well throughout the west. About six years ago he returned to Ottawa and retired from commercial life. For the past five years he has been in declining health and last week suffered a stroke of paralysis. To mourn his loss he leaves a widow and three sons, Thomas, manager of the Calgary Sadlery Co., Edmund of the Hugh Carson Co., Ottawa, and Walter M., commission merchant of Brandon. He was a brother of Henry Borbridge of the S. and H. Borbridge Co.

TRIAL AGAIN POSTPONED.

Standrad Oil Company Given Until 15th to Prepare Statements.

New York, Sept. 5.—Another postponement of the taking of testimony against the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and affiliated concerns, was ordered today by former judge Franklin Ferriss of St. Louis, who is acting as examiner for the federal court. The hearing is now scheduled for September 15th and it is said there will be no delay beyond that date in the proceedings. The adjournment was requested by the attorney for defendant companies and joined in by the special counsel representing the government. It was granted to give the Standard Oil company time to prepare statements from its books and records, which are desired by those in charge of the prosecution. These statements it was claimed would do away with the necessity of bringing all of the books of the various companies to the federal building and would ultimately expedite the hearing. The testimony to be taken in New York will be largely of a documentary character and will be reported back to the United States circuit court in St. Louis where the government's suit to dissolve the so-called 'oil trust" was brought.

YOUNG LIBERALS TO ORGANIZE

Association to be Conucted on Social and Educational Lines

It is probable that within a very short time Nelson will boast a young liberal association, organized after the model of those now existing and doing good work in Vancouver and Winnipeg. A number of the younger liberals of the city have been discussing the project for some time and the scheme is commencing to take definite shape in the form of a proposal to hold an organization meeting next week, probably on Thursday evening. The idea behind the movement is to provide a means of promoting social intercourse amongst active liberals, keeping the organization alive and ready for action whenever necessity arises and developing a spirit of enthusiasm and loyalty amongst the young men who are just commencing to take an active interest in politics.

The Young Liberal association would be a social and educational society in the first place, but it would at the same time provide a nucelus of active young workers who would yield valuable service in electoral campaigns, either provincial or dominion. In Vancouver the Young Liberal association, under the direction of the senior association, takes entire charge of the duty of providing scrutineers for the polling booths ,of handling the preliminary canvass and of getting out the voters o&n election day. In addition it conducts regular meetings throughout the winter and arranges occasional whist tournaments and smokers. The same plan of work could be carried out in Nelson, although, perhaps, on a smaller anl less pretentious scale.

The movement amongst the younger liberals has met with the cordial approval of the seniors. Dr. Hall has promised the promoters his full support an&d believes that, within its own sphere, such an association could accomplish a great deal of good for the party. Fred Hume, S. S. Taylor and Dr. Arthur are other liberals of recognized standing and influence who are supporting the movement although they are not of it. A committee is at work canvassing young liberals for membership and a definite announcement concerning the time and place of the organization meeting will probably be made later in the week. In the meantime Lorne Stewart of the Bell Trading company, or V. W. Odlum of the Kootenay Land and Investment Co., will be pleased to hear from all those who would like to enter the ranks of the proposed Young Liberal association.

NELSON TO NELSON

Editor The Daily News—I am sory to see that the proposal to send a wreath to decorate the Nelson monument on Trafalgar Day has roused the righteous indignation of Mr. F. W. Rolt. Had the gentleman been present at the meeting at which the suggestion was made, I think he would have heartily concurred therewith, as the suggestion was received entirely in the spirit in which it was offered, and the writer was much struck with the patriotic feeling shown. As an indication of this I might mention that during the discussion of the matter it was suggested that the local lodge of the Sons of England might be asked to send the tribute, but this was ruled out of order with the remark that "We are all sons of England," and consequently equally entitled to participate in this little display of patriotism. It is doubtless regrettable that in the report of the meeting the word "advertisement" was used, as the idea was not conceived in that spirit, though at the same time it would not be out of order, I think, to carry out the suggestion made and to insert photographs of the wreath in some of the English papers.

I trust that the idea will be as favorably received by the citizens as it was by my committee and that we shall have the pleasure of sending a suitable tribute from Nelson to Nelson. Yours, etc.,

P. G. EBBUTT.

BIG ANNUAL FRUIT FAIR

EVERYTHING POINTS TO UNQUALIFIED SUCCESS.

PREPARATIONS WELL UNDER WAY —ENTRIES POURING IN.

It is gratifying to note the air of successful anticipation with which the inquirer is met when consulting the officials of the Nelson Agricultural and Industrial Association respecting the approaching fair. Evidence is not lacking to prove that the fifth annual fair promises to be the best and most entertaining of any in the history of the association. Already the entries are greater in number than in any previous year so early a date, and every section is certain to be well represented, while the competition promises to be keener than usual. In fruits, which are the main feature of the exhibition, the numbers and varities to be shown will far outclass anything heretofore seen in the interior ,and will not suffer in comparison with fruit exhibits anywhere in the dominion. From an educational standpoint to the practical orchardist, and as an evidence of the fruit possibilities of the Kooteneay district, this exhibit alone is of more value to Nelson and the surrounding districts, and the residents therein, than any other form of advertising that has been attempted in the past or is under contemplation for the future.

The field and garden produce section will also be well represented. Roots, vegetables and all other products of the soil will be there in abundance and of the best quality. What promises to be an interesting feature of the fair will be the competition for the handsome silver cup donated the association by sir Thomas Shaughnessy, which is offered for the best exhibit of products grown by an individual grower. To this is added by the association two cash prizes of $25 and $15. This competition includes everything that is grown in the orchard, field or garden, and should be a practical demonstration of the productiveness of the soil in the district, and also of the attention, care and knowledge of the individual fruit grower.

The mineral section under the supervision of Mr. T. G. Procter, promises to be even more successful than last year. Every mining district will be represented. Good prizes are offered in this section and the competition will be as keen as it is good-natured. Ample space for display has been reserved by the committee in charge and much interest is sure to center in this feature of the exhibition.

The district exhibits, which the directors this year have wisely confined to fruit, will afford even fore keen rivalry than in former years. Already four of the districts have applied for space, and it is expected that one other, and probably two ,will also compete. It is a fact to be regretted that more of the districts designated in the list do not take an interest in this competition. All sections of the Kootenay are interested in the advancement of the district, and all are anxious to see settlers come in and assist in building up the country. Exhibits of this nature afford the general public an opportunity of comparing results and are the means of introducing new settlers to cast in their lot with the others, and they also assist undecided ones in determining where they would prefer to settle. With no intention of being officious in the matter the suggestion is offered to the directors of the association of the advisability of featuring this exhibit in future more assiduously than heretofore with the object of securing keener competition, which would no doubt be of great benefit in advertising all sections of the district.

In the home made bread, jams and jellies departments the ladies are given an opportunity of displaying their kitchen handiwork. The needle and fancy work department also opens up possibilities which are certain to be taken advantage of, the result being a fine display and close competition.

Provision has also been made for exhibits of work by children, and it is to be hoped the young people will show their appreciation by making this section one of the best and most interesting of the fair, a result quite easy of accomplishment if entered into with the proper spirit.

The poultry section, as in former years ,affords fanciers an opportunity of demonstrating the success of their pet theory in the raising and care of birds, and also give to the public a view of some of the choicest varieties raised.

Efficient judges have been secured for each section, each an adept in his or her own line, and as far as is humanly possible, the directors guarantee that prizes will be awarded according to merit only.

In theentertainment line more and better features are promised than have ever before been offered. "The best ever" concisely states the case. A continuous two hours entertainment in front of the grand stand each afternoon and evening free; horse races during the afternoon of each day; firemen's reel and hose cotests, and many other free attractions promise a "continued round of pleasure" during the fair. In addition the Nat Reiss Carnival Co. will afford unlimited fun for all comers.

ATTACK OF DIARRHOEA CURED BY ONE DOSE OF CHAMBERLAIN'S CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

It cured me entirely, and I had been taking other medicines for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. KOOTENAY FRUIT LANDS

A conversation heard on Baker street, Nelson, on August 30th, is as follows:

Q. Who did you buy your fruit land from?

A. Mr. Annable.

Q. Where is it located?

A. At Burton City.

Q. Why do you consider it the best?

A. Well, it is good soil, free from stone, the land is level and there is a nice stream of water which can be run over every block and you can have it piped into your house; and above all he has all the blocks laid out so that each one has a lake shore frontage, and it is close to town and there is a nice settlement, one 30 acre orchard and several smaller ones on the next lots.

Q. How is the price?

A. It is not any higher than others are charging for land away back from the lake shore.

Q. What communication?

A. Two steamers every day and daily mail.

Q. Well I am going to see that Burton City land before I buy. Where is J. E. Annable's office?

A. It is next to the postoffice in Nelson. Good-bye.

IRELAND-FRASER

Hamilton, Ont., Times, Aug. 23: A very pretty house wedding took place this afternoon when Miss Edith Elizabeth Fraser, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs. James Fraser, 53 Erie avenue, was united in marriage with Mr. Edmund D. Ireland of Nelson, B.C.

The ceremony was performed at 3 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. D. R. Drummond. The bride entered the parlor to the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march played by Sadie Fraser, Mus. Bac. She was given away by her father. The bride was beautifully gowned in a magnificent costume of white embroidered muslin, with a Brussels net veil and a myrtle wreath. She carried white roses.

Miss Christie Waite of St. George, attended the bride, and was becomingly attired in white point d'esprit over white silk. Miss Waite carried a bouquet of white asters. Mr. George Ireland, brother of the groom was best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast. The usual toasts to the bride were honored in a most enthusiastic manner, showing the esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ireland left for a short trip but will return on Thursday evening and will receive their friends at the residence of the bride's parents, 53 Erie avenue, prior to leaving for Nelson, their future home.

Among the costly and beautiful presents that were received by the bride were a set of sterling silver spoons, from S. Paul's church choir, of which both bride and groom were formerly members; a cutlery set from Stanley Mills and company and a gold clock from the employees of Stanley Mills and company.

The bride and groom will carry the best wishes of a host of friends in this city with them to their future home in Nelson.

How Zam-Buk Saved a Girl's Hair

When eczema, ulcers or ringworm break out on the scalp the first thing the doctor orders is to have the hair cut o&ff. Don't do it before trying Zam-Buk, because it can cure these diseases without causing such a sacrifice. Mrs. J. Butler of 5 Bannockburn avenue ,Montreal, has proved this. She says: "My eldest daughter Annie, caught eczema. It broke out on her face and scalp, and the disease was quickly transmitted to Herbert and Edith, and in their cases not only their heads, but their hands and faces were covered with sores and scaly places. I tried various blood purifying remedies in vain and then consulted a doctor. He applied all kinds of lotions but the sores remained the same. He next ordered that the hair be all shaven off from the girls' heads in order to get down to the disease on the scalp. They each had nice long hair and I thought it such a pity to cut it all off. I refused; he thereupon withdrew his services altogether.

"After that I bought first one thing and then another, but it was all no good until we got Zam-Buk. That proved equal to the case and in a few weeks it cleared every trace of skin disease from each child. With it in use, there was no need to cut off the girls' hair or take any other extreme measures, it just went to work and healed the sores in fine shape."

Zam-Buk cures blood poison, cuts, old wounds, bruises, running sores, ulcers, boils, eruptions, scalp sores, eczema, itch, barber's rash, burns, scalds and all skin injuries and diseases. Best cure for piles yet known. All druggists and stores at 5c. a box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

Thirteen head of cattle, the unlucky thirteen got out of their corral on Wednesday night, near Robson and three were immolated on the C.P.R. track by the Rossland train.

Intending exhibitors at the Nelson fair are reminded that all entries must be in the hands of the secretary on or before Saturday, the 14th inst. As there are only eight days remaining the secretary requests that entries be made as soon as possible, thus preventing the possibility of being shut out by holding off until the last moment. The rule regarding the receiving of entries will be strictly enforced.

Great improvements have recently been made in the race track around the recreation grounds. The holes at the side have all been filled up and the track property sloped at the side. To do away with the natural stickiness of the clay subsoil, which in many places, through grading, has come to the surface, a couple of carloads of coal ashes were yesterday taken to the grounds and will be distributed over the surface.

Fred Starkey was busy all day yesterday getting up a drilling contest at the fair. He has a purse of $300 promised and has wired the Faulds Bros of Greenwood for an acceptance of the challenge made by the Silverton men. From Silverton it is asserted three drilling team will be forthcoming and it is likely that other teams will also be attracted. Altogether the event, thanks to the energy of the managing director of the fair, promises to be one of the most popular of the exhibition.

At a meeting of football enthusiasts last night a permanent organization was formed. The new club will be called the Nelson nUited and the officers elected are F. Hopkins, captain; E. Cameron, vice-captain; Elmore Chave, secretary-treasurer. The colors will be white and green.

As stated some days ago in these columns agent-general Turner will be a visitor at the fruit fair and he will be accompanied by finance minister Tatlow, who is also minister of agriculture. Unfortunately it is probable that premier McBride will be unable to attend as at first arranged to perform the opening ceremonies, his engagements necessitating his presence elsewhere.

Kaslo fruit fair managers are leaving nothing undone to assure the success of their exhibition, which comes on just after the close of the Nelson fair. They look for a large attendance from Nelson and the hearty co-operation of the people of this city and district in the way of exhibits. In both these particulars their hopes should be amply satisfied.

The dominion government has decided upon giving the asked for rifle range to the local company of the R.M.R. There had been a hitch inasmuch as a couple of Chinamen who held small plots of ground on the proposed range, refused to sell except at an exorbitant price. Now the government has decided upon expropriation proceedings and the Chinamen who stood in the way, will surrender at a just valuation, as much of the ground as the government chooses to expropriate.

There was a successful meeting of the Son of England last evening at which there were several initiations. The subject of the Nelson monument floral tribute was discussed and the following resolution was passed: "That this lodge, while fully concurring in the partiotic sentiment of the city of Nelson in sending a floral tribute to the Nelson monument on Trafalgar day, yet as the idea has been unfortunately, possibly wrongly, associated with advertising motives, cannot endorse any such movement.

Special freight and passenger rates for the Nelson fair have been granted over the C.P.R. and connecting lines. Exhibits will pay full rate from point of shipment to Nelson and on production of a certificate signed by the fair secretary, will be returned to original point of shipment free of charge, provided no change in ownership has been effected by sale or otherwise. Passengers will be carried at single fare return from all points in B..C, and also from Calgary and common points.

Lorne Campbell came in from Rossland last night, accompanied by A. B. Mackenzie.

It is probable that a cricket team will be got together to play a return match with Grand Forks at that city next week.

W. Dutton, steward of the steamer International left this morning over the Great Northern en route for his old home in Ontario, there to spend a three months' holiday.

The launch picked up by Frank Phillips belongs to B. Isaac who left it in his launch house on the other side of the lake near his residence, but had forgotten to close the door.

COSTLY BARNS BURNED.

Heavy Loss Sustained by Macdonald Agricultural College.

Montreal, Sept. 5.—The barns of the new Macdonald Agricultural college at St. Anne De Bellevue, being erected by sir William Macdonald, at a cost of there million dollars, were struck by lightning during a big storm at 4 o'clock this afternoon and burned to the ground. The main buildings of the college were not touched and as they are all fire proof they were never in any danger.

Professor Robertson, principal of the college, says that the destruction of the barns will not interfere with the work of the college, which opens its doors for the first time this month.

The loss is placed at $35,000, fully covered by insurance. The burned barns were among the largest in Canada and were built by Mr. Robert Redford from whom sir William MacDonald purchased the farm, which forms the site of the college, they were thoroughly modern and up to date.

BANK TELLER SENTENCED.

Montreal, Sept. 5.—J. S. Calther, the absconding teller of the Bank of British North America of this city, who gave himself up in London, England, and was brought here last week, pleaded guilty this morning and was sentenced to three years in St. Vincent penitentiary. The amount of his defalcation was $65.
