Bitter Accusations Made in the House

GRIEVANCES IN THE WEST

PRESERVATION OF CANADIAN FORESTS COMES UP IN THE SENATE—HEAVY LOSS TO THE DOMINION THROUGH EXPORT OF PULP WOOD.

(Special to The Daily News)

Ottawa, May 7.—In the upper house today senator Baird moved a resolution declaring it advisable to appoint a commission of representatives of all provincial legislatures and other persons concerned with the crown lands of Canada to report on the best means for the preservation of Canada's forest, in view of the large amount or logs and pulp wood annually exported from Canada. He declared that Canada had great, but not inexhaustible, areas of timber. Fire had wrought great destruction but organized efforts to end this were now being made. Canada, according to official figures, has sent 650,000 cords of pulp wood to the United States in 1907. At four dollars a cord this was worth $2,600,000. If it had been made into pulp in Canada it would have been worth seven dollars a cord, or a total of $4,550,000. If made into paper in Canada it would have been worth $20,000,000.

Senator Edwards declared fire had wrought 20 times more destruction than the lumberman's axe had ever inflicted on Canada's forests. Had fire been kept out and the axe used with scientific moderation, as much lumber could have been taken out and the forests would today remain practically intact.

Senator McMullen adjourned the debate.

Senator Domville called the attention of the government to the desirability of financial assistance being given ship builders.

Sir Richard Cartwright said the question deserved and would receive the attention of the government.

A bill granting a divorce to Edith May Gillmore was read a third time today.

In the commons today Conmee resumed the debate on the Aylesworth election bill, citing instances where enumerators appointed by the Ontario government were employed by government candidates. In another case at Fort Williams no one was aware that the enumerator was at work at all. The history and records of the courts should preclude the opposition from attacking the bill on the ground of past corruption.

Dr. Roche, Marquette, declared there was nothing in the bill to minimize Manitoba and British Columbia grievances, if any existed. Greenway's assertions were absolutely unfounded and were only surpassed by the shameful imputations of Bole. He challenged Greenway's statement that some people had travelled a hundred miles to register. The province was splendidly supplied with registration places and he declared it was impossible to unlawfully get on the lists without committing perjury.

John Crawford, Portage La Prairie, asked about the three men at Morris.

Roche replied that these names were put on the wrong form but the judge offered the names put on the list, declaring that no mere technicality should stand in the way. No complaints had been made in the legislature as to the way the lists had been prepared and the opposition leader, the Hon. Mr. Mickle, in the legislature declared them to be the cleanest he had ever seen, and Mickle's only complaint was the heavy expense of the annual revisions, but the conservatives were unwilling to let a matter of expense interfere with fair play. There were one or two constituencies where the revision time was too short, but he pledged himself this would be remedied. He charged Greenwith inconsistency in attacking the residence qualification and declared Bole's affidavits as not bearing the impress of truth. He stated to Rodueski, who signed one of the affidavits, was a criminal who fled from the country. He had queried Hon. R. Rogers, who, in reply, wired that: "Rodueski's affidavit was made by himself, and the other eight affidavits were sold to George Walton, liberal organizer, and have latter's check for $25 in payment of these affidavits. Original will be wired you at Ottawa. Do not lose check, as I wish to cash it some day. Insist on Bole reading other affidavits for which Rodueski is responsible. Affidavits by all parties named will be published tonight or tomorrow to show the statements by Bole and Rodueski are absolutely false."

Roche dilated at soem length on the opposition view of the "thin red line."

E. M. Macdonald asked why Manitoba's attorney general entered a nolle nosequi in the case Roche was magnifying.

Roche did not answer then but later he said that the final action of the federal government in sending E. L. Howell to defend the threatened official turned the matter into a political trial, and with an appeal there would be a cry of prosecution. After warning the premier that the opposition would be justified in refusing supplies unless the bill were withdrawn, Roche moved a resolution to the effect that the Dominions Election Act should be effectually amended during the resent session to prevent corrupt practices and ensure honest elections but that the discrimination against Manitoba and British Columbia, contained in the first clause of the proposed bill, was not founded upon any inquiry, evidence, report or other sufficient information, and is a radical departure from the principle of accepting the provincial lists and is invidious and unjustifiable.

Crawford followed, asserting that the premier had the warmest support of Manitoba in the propdsed legislation and stated that Roche had misrepresented the time allowed for revision. He had stated that four days were allowed in Beautiful Plains and 12 in Gladstone, while the time was respectively three and eight days.

Roche admitted he had made a mistake in these cases.

Crawford proceeded, and declared that conditions were unbearable. Though he objected to the Manitoba law, it was the administration that was at fault. The administration was taken from judges and officials and controlled by the executive council. He declared the returning officers had made the best of a position they should never have been put in. No polling places in Manitoba were appointed by law.

Lancaster objected.

McDonald, Pictou, pointed out that chief justice Howell made the same statement before a special committee.

Crawford then went on to illustrate the difficulty officials had in locating voters in Portage la Prairie, where there were seven provincial constituencies. He contrasted the present law with the Greenway regime to show that there was more time for revision even then, and the new bill provided ample time. Personally, he would be better pleased if the Manitoba act of 1902 was followed, but that was much changed, and the present bill was the best possible in the interest of justice. Crowford moved the adjournment of the debate at 11:30.

Ottawa, May 7—The senate banking and commerce committe resumed consideration of senator Campbell's bill to prevent steamship copanies using bills of lading by which they contract themselves out of liability for damaged goods in transit. D. A. Watt of the Allan line, Montreal, was heard and he declared that American goods were not carried from Canadian ports at better rates or terms than Canadian goods from Canadian ports. The condition was just reversed, Canadian goods being carried for less than American goods. In reply to sir Mackenzie Bowell who asked why ocean carriers should not be subject to the same liability for damage as was imposed on railways and all inland carriers, Watts replied that railways were common carriers and every nation in the world which built up any tonnage had not treated ships as common carriers by contract. The exception to this was the United States which had only a small tonnage and by the Harper act treated a ship as a common carrier. This was done as a blow to foreign tonnage. Mr. Watts said that to pass the bill would not benefit Canadian shipping nor would it lower insurance. It would, however, place Canadian shipping at serious disadvantage compared with rivals in other countries. If the bill passed a Canadian ship owner would have to insure himself against liability at a rate on not less than 2500 tons. On large ships this would amount to several thousand dollars a cargo and it might be necessary to refuse to accept delicate classes of cargo. Watt expressed the opinion that the Canadian miller had started an a puntitive expedition against the steamship companies.

W. I. Gear of the Redford line, corroborated Watt's views. The committee adjourned without reaching any conclusion.

The special pensions committee of the commons met this morning and decided to call Prof. Mavor of Toronto university; Prof. Shortt of Queen's university, and J. D. O'Donoghue, K.C., legal adviser to the organized labor bodies of the country, to appear before the committee and present their views regarding the adoption of an old age pension system in the dominion.

It is understood that the amendments to the Manitoba grain inspection act will make provision for the establishment in Winnipeg of a sample grain market, through which miller and others may purchase grain on sample instead of depending on standard grades.

Before the public accounts committee today commissioner Young of the Transcontinental railway commission, was examined in regard to purchase of land in St. Boniface for railway terminals, from Keene a Winnipeg hotel keeper. Young said every precaution was taken to prevent premature information leaking out as to the intended site. He had eventually made the purchase by taking options from Keene. An adjacent block of land had been offered him at $725 an acre but subsequently it passed to Hon. Mr. Rogers and E. K. Mackenzie of Moose Jaw, who in turn offered it to the commission for $2000 an acre.

PENSION FUND

How Asquith Would Use Surplus of Last Year

REDUCE SUGAR BOUNTIES

...THAN CUT IN HALF—PENSION ... STRONGLY ATTACKED THIS MORNING BY THE LIBERAL PRESS OF LONDON.

PROVINCIAL LIBRARY

London, May 7.—The new budget presented to the house of commons today reduced the duty on sugar from four shillings two pence to one shilling ten pence per hundred weight.

The budget was presented by the premier, Mr. Asquith, instead of by the chancellor of the exchequer. This departure from precedent is a result of the recent changes in the cabinet.

Mr. Asquith, after commenting briefly on the present slackening of trade throughout the world, following the boom year of 1907, announced that Great Britain's realized surplus for the year 1907 has amounted to $23,630,000 which, he said, would be largely applied to the reduction of the national debt, which had already been reduced by approximately $90,000,000 during the past year. Mr. Asquith estimated the total expenditure for 1908-9 at $764,345,000 and the revenue on the existing basis of taxation at $788,850,000. The reduction in the sugar duties will be effective May 18 on raw and refined sugar and on July 1 on articles manufactured with sugar.

Asquith's pension scheme is hotly attacked by the unionist newspaper this morning on the ground that Mr. Asquith recklessly started plans requesting millions but left the onus of finding money to his successors in the chancellorship.

The discussion in parliament last night, both in the house and in the lobbies, however, left the impression that the cleverly designed budget is likely to be fairly popular. It had been generally supposed that it would propose increase of taxation, instead of which, while continuing to reduce the national debt, it reduced the sugar duty and proposed no new or increased taxes. The criticism is devoted to the details of Mr. Asquith's pension system, especially by the members of the labor party, who regard it as inadequate, but there is little doubt but that it will be adopted without serious opposition.

THE SUPREME COURT

Ottawa, May 7—The supreme court today was engaged in an appeal from one of the late Mr. justice Burbidge's judgments at Dawson City last January, that of the Bonanza Creek Hydraulic concession v. GOOD CROP PROSPECTS

SEEDING IS COMPLETE IN SOME DISTRICTS

HOMESTEADERS ARE POURING INTO THE NORTHWEST

Edmonton, May 7—Reports received by the Edmonton board of trade up to date indicate that seeding operations are about completed in the Edmonton district. The farmers of the surrounding country are at least three weeks ahead of last year. The area under crop will show an increase of from 20 to 30 per cent. A great deal of wheat will be sown, as it is expected that the prices of wheat will remain high.

Edmonton is busy, but generally speaking there are more people seeking work in all lines than are actually required.

Jasper avenue and Nanaimo avenue are being paved and doubled tracked for street railway purposes.

The G.T.P. is making rapid progress in grading the yards and city belt line.

Many building permits are being taken out. Up to the end of April permits amounting to $155,418 were taken out and for the first six days of May permits for $19,550 for five residences were issued. There are, however, a sufficient number of mechanics at present in the city to do work in hand. Considerable property has changed hands. The best Jasper avenue property sold at $800 per foot frontage in the center of the city and further west at $200 to $300 per foot. Residential lots are selling freely for building purposes only.

Homesteaders are pouring in and locating to the west and northeast. Homestead entries for April numbered 528, 84,480 acres of land being taken. Edmonton and Strathcona will have a creditable exhibit at the dominion fair and could fill ten times the space allotted to them.

The bylaw to grant a franchise to the American-Canadian Oil company was endorsed by the rate payers of Strathcona yesterday, the vote standing 598 for and 36 against. The company has now got franchises from Edmonton, Strathcona, Morinville and St. Albert corporations and are ready to commence work. The Strathcona agreement is very similar to the one in Edmonton and gives a franchise for 15 years. The company is now engaged in boring wells at Morinville, Egg lake and Edison. They state that they will begin the laying of pipes in Edmonton and Strathcona this fall and will be in a position to supply gas next year.

KILLED AT SEATTLE

Noted Criminal is at Last Accounted for—Led into a Trap

Seattle, May 7—In a desperate running fight in a crowded thoroughfare in this city tonight, Joe Garia(alias Joe Cordova who now confesses to having killed policeman Joseph Ford in Salt Lake City on the night of December 24, immediately after a holdup and robbery of a saloon by Garcia and his companions, was himself shot and fatally wounded by detectives

Garcia was led into a trap by a lifelong friend who turned stool pigeon for sheriff Emery of Salt Lake City. Emery had arranged with his accomplice to lead Garcia into the hands of a waiting posse, led by the sheriff himself. This was done, but when Garcia say Emery, he drew two revolvers and opened fire on the sheriff. His aim was erratic and he soon fell, his wrists being pierced by bullets from the detectives' revolvers. After the shooting Garcia admitted that it was not Jos. Sullivan who was recently convicted of the crime in Salt Lake City and was sentenced to life imprisonment, but that he is the man who murdered the policeman. Garcia made a daring escape from the Colorado penitentiary several years ago and ws never recaptured.

OLD HOTEL GONE

New London, Conn., May 7.—The Pequot house, situated at the mouth of the harbor, was destroyed by a fire which started early this morning. A terriffic easterly gale was blowing at the time and 14 other buildings in the Pequot colony took fire but were saved by the fire department. The old hotel was erected over half a century ago and was one of the most prominent summer places on the coast. It was owned by the Pequot Hotel association, of which senator Brandage is president. The amount of the loss has not yet been ascertained. The structure was of wood. The fire was probably of incendiary origin.

MORE VICTIMS

Additional Bodies on the La Porte Farm

WAS MATRIMONIAL LURE

COMELY NORWEGIAN WIDOW ADVERTISES FOR HUSBAND WITH CASH AND MURDERS THE APPLICANTS FOR THE SAKE OF THEIR MONEY.

Laporte, Ind., May 7—What the authorities have declared as an attempt to disturb the nine bodies dug up on the Guiness farm so that identification of the remains would be impossible, was made today.

Two men whose identity is not known broke into the carriage house of the farm where the bodies were placed but were driven away by a watchman before they could do harm. The authorities are searching for the men. The day watchman at the farm, Daniel M. Heuston, said that the men claimed to be doctors and had attempted to justify their presence in the place on professional grounds. He ordered them from the premises but they refused to go until they learned that Joseph Maxson, Mrs. Guiness' man of all work had been sent to summon the sheriff. The men gained an entrance to the carriage house by placing a ladder on the side of the building and forcing open a window.

Matt and Oscar Budsberg of Iola, Wis., sons of Ole Budsberg, whose disappearance from the Guiness farm is one of the mysteries of the case arrived here at 3:15 p.m. They brought photos of their father and information of his movements before his departure from Iola.

"My father said before he left Iola that he was coming to Laporte to work a farm," said Matt Budsberg in broken English. "He brought with him all the letters he had received from Mrs. Guiness and also $800 in money. After his arrival here he raised $1000 by selling a mortgage note through the Farmers' state bank of Iola. We have not had a word from him and have been working the family farm ever since he left in March, 1907. We had a letter from Mrs. Guiness addressed to my father and which read as if he had left Laporte for Iola. I believe this letter was written for the purpose of throwing investigation off the track. I am sure that my father's body was one of those dug up on the farm. There is no trace of the $800 which he had in his possession in April of last year. I believe that woman killed my father and took his money."

Laporte, May 7—The gruesome story of the private grave yard at the farm of Mrs. Bella Guiness, a mile north of Laporte is still in its early chapters.

Today the estimate of the number of persons murdered at the place through the lure of a matrimonial bureau run all the way from 12 to 20. The exhumation yesterday of four dismembered bodies wrapped in burlap, brings the total of victims known to have been murdered to 13. There was a rumor about that sheriff Smutzer today would discover evidence of murder in two more suspected graves, as yet unopened. All suspicious parts of the premises are to be dug up with special attention to the soft spots beneath rubbish piles, which so far invariably have been found to conceal bodies.

Roy Lamphere, under arrest in connection with burning of the residence, has declared that Mrs. Guiness had urged him to insure his life in her favor, asserting that she had offered to pay the premiums on such a policy provided that he agreed to marry her. He said that he believed that his refusal to fall in with her plans had caused the enmity which the latter manifested towards him, resulting in his arrest on three occasions and his trial before a lunacy commission on a fourth. Lamphere's statement about a closed room in the Guiness home to which he asserts he was always denied admission, is partially corroborated by the evidence of Joseph Maxson, who was working on the farm when the house caught fire on April 28. Maxson asserts that he had never been allowed access to the second storey of the farm house where the closed room was located.

Additional light on the methods by which Mrs. Guiness caused the deaths on her farm one mile north of here, by persons who are supposed to have fallen victims to her lust for money was shed today by A. H. Helgelin, brother of Andrew Helgelin of Mansfield, S.D., whose dismembered corpse is among the nine thus far found. Helgelin told the coroner that not only had his brother been in communication with the woman, but also that she had written to him after Andrew's disappearance in an attempt to induce him to some to this city also. "Sell your brother's stock and come here, and we will hunt for your brother together," was the gist of the epistles written in Norwegian and as yet only partially translated. The letters are jealously guarded by Helgelin under orders of Ralph N. Smith, prosecuting attorney, but enough has been revealed to show that the woman had attempted attempted to gain a hold over the nearest relatives of her latest victims.

Chicago, May 7—The following is Mrs. Guiness' matrimonial advertisement with which victims were lured to their death:

"Personal—Comely widow, who owns a large farm in one of the finest districts in Laporte county, Ind., desires to make the acquaintance of gentleman unusually well provided, and with the view of joining fortunes. No replies by letter considered unless the sender is willing to follow answer with personal visit."

Waupaca, Wis., May 7—The letter which Carl Peterson of Waupaca received from Mrs. Bella Guiness has been translated from Norwegian into English. It reads:

"Karl Peterson, Waugaca, Wis. Dear Sir—It is some time ago I received from you a letter in answer to my ad in the Scandinavia and with pleasure answer the same. The reason I waited for some time is that there have been other answers to the ad., as many as 50 have been received and it has been impossible to answer all. I have picked out the most respectable and I have decided that your is such. First, I will tell you that I am a Norwegian and have been in this country for 20 years. I live in Indiana, about 59 miles from Chicago and one mile north of Laporte.

"I am the sole owner of a nice home and pretty location. There are 75 acres of land and all kinds of crops, improved land, apples, plums and currants. I am on a boulevard road and have a 12-room house, practically new, a windmill and all modern improvements, situated in a beautiful suburb of Chicago, worth about $15,000. All of this is pretty near paid for. It it in my own name; I am alone with three small children from 5 to 11 years old. The two largest are girls, the smallest a boy, all well and frisky. I lost my husband by accident five years ago and since then I have tried to get along as well as I could with what help I could hire. I am getting tired of this and I have found that it is not well to trust too much to others. It is too much for me to look after things and things are not as I want them any way. My idea is to take a partner to whom I can trust right and as we have no acquaintance ourselves I have decided that every applicant I have considered favorably must make a satisfactory deposit of cash or security. I think that is the best way for partners to keep away grafters who are always looking for such opportunities. Now, if you think you are able in some way to put up $1000 in cash we can talk matters over personally. If you cannot, is worth your while to consider? I would not care for you as a hired man, as I am tired of that and need a little rest in my home and near my children. I will close for this time, with friendly regards. Mrs. P. S. Guiness, Laporte, Ind."

From the dead messenger the robbers took the keys to a small safe in the baggage car, which they opened and took the contents, all, worth less than $100. A big safe on the car contained a large sum of money, the combinat on of which is known only to clerks of the company at the principal stations along the route, was tampered with, but the robbers were unable to enter it.

The robbery was discovered by Wm. Bysop, chief night clerk of the Globe company's office at the Denver union depot, who went to the car to get express matter.

COTTON MILL STRIKE

Montreal, May 7.—The strike of the cotton mill workers still goes on, but signs of discord are breaking out in the union and it would not be surprising if the collapse would come within a short time, especially as the mill owners do not appear to be in the least concerned as to whether or not the employees return to work. The action of the employees of the Magog mills in refusing to go out has had a somewhat depressing effect.

WALKEM CASE IN HEARING

MAN KILLED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT AT PORT MOODY—PREPARATIONS FOR THE ALASKA-YUKON EXPOSITION IN SEATTLE IN 1909.

Vancouver, May 7—Robert Bowell, a well known settler on the Port Moody road, was instantly killed yesterday by a runaway accident. The man was moving some furniture from one building to another on his farm, on a sled over a rough trail, when a jolt threw him under the horses' feet; he was kicked in the head and the heavy load passed over his neck causing instant death.

After the long address by deputy attorney general McLean in the Walkem case, judge Cane announced that there were one or two points of law he would like to look up and he reserved his decision until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

As a result of the extensive boundary inspection system inaugurated by the dominion government between Vancouver and the great lakes, further action has been taken by the Ottawa authorities this week, the first step to preclude all undesirables from Prince Ruper, was taken. The department of the interior has sent instructions to the customs officer at the G.T.P. terminal city, to take upon himself the additional duties of immigration officer and enforce the new order in council which excludes from admittance to Canadian territory all intending immigrants not holding tickets purchased by themselves direct from the land of their birth or citizenship, besides all persons morally or physically undesirable.

En route to Ottawa to visit sir Wilfrid Laurier and earl Grey, from thence to Washington where president Roosevelt will be interviewed, Harry J. Landahl, one of Dawson's most prominent business men, who is also past Arctic chief of Dawson camp No. 4 of the Arctic Brotherhood and representative of Dawson's active board of trade, is in Vancouver today.

Mr. Landahl is waiting the arrival on the coast of three specially prepared invitations which will be presented personally to the premier and the governor general and to the president of the United States, inviting them to visit the Klondyke at the close of the Alaska-Yukon exposition to be held in Seattle next year. The making of these invitation cards, each of which will cost at least $300, is being rushed to completion and in three weeks time they will be in the hands of Mr. Baird of Seattle, past grand Arctic chief of the Arctic Brotherhood, who with Mr. Landahl will convey them to the celebrities to whom they are addressed.

Steps were taken today at a representative church meeting to organize a provincial branch of the moral and reform association.

The Presbyterian synod of B.C. opened this evening. The session was devoted to organization work. The election of a new moderator resulted in the appointment of Rev. J. M. Millar of Nanaimo.

A special from Hazleton says that the steamer Hazleton arrived there this morning, being two days lining up the river, and the Port Simpson is expected tonight. Both steamers had 149 passengers and but 139 tons of freight, having to lessen their cargoes owing to the unusually low water, which is more shallow than known in past seasons.

In the criminal assizes today the jury disagreed in the case of the second Jap held for the New Year's day stabbing affray. In the Walkem case deputy attorney general McLean severely cross examined the witnesses for the defense, some of the exchanges being notably sensational.

NEW ORLEANS BIG FIRE

New Orleans, May 7.—Twelve hours after it was thought that the fire which last night destroyed the stores of S. F. H. Hansell & Bro., and H. B. Stevens & Co., in Canal street had been entirely subdued it broke out this morning in the store of the Dreyfus Co., Ltd., next to the other burned buildings. The Dreyfus building, with a large stock of dry goods, was edstroyed, thus bringing the total losses up to nearly $600,000.

ANNEXATION QUESTION

The question of annexation with the United States has recently been discussed in two widely separated places. A Vancouver weekly paper states that of late there has been more talking about secession in Vancouver than is pleasant to contemplate, and asserts that the men who are doing the talking are not politicians, but business men.

Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, has expressed the belief that the North American continent will ultimately have but one flag, the Stars and Stripes. The The governor states that he can see no reason for the continuance of the imaginary division between the Dominion and the United States and suggests that were the trade barriers removed that flag would follow United States products into Canada. He adds that such sentiments expressed by himself and others at a meeting held in the border town of Sarnia, Ontario, quite recently met with a great deal of hearty applause and he argues that the question is likely to become a live issue in dominion politics before long.

Governor Johnson of course is mistaken. No politician could take the stand today and advocate annexation with any hopes of getting even a lookin when the ballots were counted up on election day and the reason is not difficult to find. When Canada found the United States' commercial doors barred against her, and the boast openly made, that even against her will she must enter the Union at some time, a commercial revolt took place and we have since discovered there were other and equally profitable markets available. We have advanced along our way, commercially speaking, too far now to think about commercial reciprocity, and aside from this consideration we may be excused if we prefer our own constitutional system to that of our neighbors and are so busily occupied in working out the upbuilding of a lasting federation that we have not time to consider commercial reciprocity, let alone annexation.

So far as the situation in Vancouver goes, the Sentinel-Review, of Woodstock, Ontario, a liberal paper, makes rather a good suggestion. After stating that it is not alarmed at the secession sentiment referred to, it sums up the the situation and its solution in this way: "It does seem that British Columbia's grievance is a matter for the people of British Columbia themselves to remedy. If amongst the British Columbia representatives at Ottawa there is not a British Columbia voice, whose fault is it? Why don't the people of British Columbia send down some people who have a voice."

Possibly after the next general election the whole or a majority of the "solid seven" will be retired, and this province will be represented in the next parliament by people who have a voice.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CO., Ltd.

Gentlemen—In January last Francis Leclare, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The opposition at Ottawa are making a vigorous and personal protest against the Aylesworth election bill and have declared their intention of opposing this measure to the bitter end, even if the house is kept in session until next Christmas. The government has already show that rather than continue this state of affairs they are prepared to withdraw the bill and that is the next step most likely to be taken. It cannot be taken soon enough.

The resolution unanimously adopted at the annual meeting of the Methodist churches of West Kootenay district here on Wednesday evening last has caused a good deal of comment and an old subscriber of The Daily News was moved yesterday to inquire if parts of the resolution had a distinctly political bearing. He referred for instance to this section of the resolution in question: "It is a question whether the responsibility for much of the political corruption may not be placed upon those who seem most to deplore their existence, because of their failure to bring to bear upon the political representatives the influence of their personal interest and activity." The correspondent in question asks if "the movers and supporers of the resolution of which this extract is a part, mean to cast doubt, as this would seem to imply, upon the bona fides and earnestness of Mr. R. L. Borden and his political associates in their advocacy of electoral purity and honesty? Do they mean to uphold the measure which the Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, the minister of justice, has introduced into the house of commons legalilizing 'the thin red line," which was illegally so much in evidence in Manitoba during the last election? I have not the least doubt that the conservative party will readily cooperate with every person and in every effort to secure purity in elections and an honest voters' list. It is universally admitted in the province of New Brunswick that the recent election which took place there was the purest election, at least during recent years, ever held in that province. The result is well known—the conservative party came out with a large majority, sweeping the province. I repeat my statement: I have not the least doubt that the conservative party will be found ready to join, nay, desirous of, cooperating with all who with singleness of purpose wish for an honest voters' list and a clean election. They are fighting now for an honest voters' list in the house of commons, and later on they will stand shoulder to shoulder in having a clean election." Doubtless those who were instrumental in passing the resolution referred to can explain fully what our correspondent wants to know.

A measure of civil service reform is promised at Ottawa as soon as the elections bill is out of the way. It is not clear what this measure will contain, but to be satisfactory to the country, it should be sweeping in its scope and fully up to the terms of the British act now in force—nothing less will satisfy the people. In order to attract good men to the service there must at the same time be a re-arrangement of salaries proportionate to the admitted increase in the cost of living. There must be reasonable encouragement to those in the service do their whole duty. The salaries, if not as high as those paid by the railway companies, must be high enough to allow public service men to devote their whole energies to their duties, and, as well, a system which encourages zeal and capacity by promotion.

Several Ways in Which Rhubarb Can Be Well Used

If you have never tried making rhubarb shortcake, give it a trial this year, when you are looking for something new. And also try a rhubarb roly-poly, making it exactly as you make an apple roly-oply, and serve it with sweetened cream. Following are other recipes, which I have found good:

Let one cupful of rhubarb juice come to boiling point, add a heaping tablespoonful of sugar and a stick of cinnamon, then stir in enough corn starch to thicken it, let it boil a few minutes while stirring it constantly, remove the cinnamon, and turn the pudding into a mold. There is a difference in the thickening qualities of corn starch. About two tablespoonfuls, dissolved in a little cold water, should be sufficient. When the pudding becomes cold, insert the mould over a plate and it will fall out, a clear, jelly,like mass. When you are warm and tired, try eating some of this cooling pudding with or without cream and sugar. If desired very tart, omit the sugar or use a larger proportion of the juice.

Take one cupful of strained juice of rhubarb, one lemon, and a large cupful of sugar. Add water to taste, and you have a most healthful, cooling and appetizing drink.

Stew the rhubarb to a pulp, adding scant cupful of sugar to one and one-half cupfuls of the pulp. Bring to a boil and stir in one small tablespoonful of corn starch which has been dissolved in a little cold water. Remove from stove and add the well-beaten yolks of two eggs and one teaspoonful of lemon extract. Bake in one crust and when done meringue with the whites of the eggs beaten to a stiff froth, adding two teaspoonfuls of sugar and a little lemon extract to each pie. Before using, rub the pulp through a colander and your pies will look and taste like lemon pie. I think these some of the easiest and most palatable ways to serve rhubarb.

COMBINED INDUSTRIES

FRUIT AND POLTRY GROUPED TOGETHER

SOME REASONS AGAINST AND FOR THE PROPOSITION

Certainly we need not argue at length the possibility of producing both fruit and poultry on the same grounds. Everyone who has given the subject intelligent consideration admits the possibility; it is the advisability of doing so that comes up for argument.

Some "reasons why not," always present themselves when considering any new project ,and in this case the following are more worthy of attention:

1. "I'm making a success of the fruit. I'd better stick to that one thing and continue to be a specialist." The same argument would make you a producer of just one variety of apples, devoting all your areas, time and attention to the one variety, even though your work of picking and marketing must be done in a single fortnight, and you and your help remain idle the remainder of the season, when you might be picking and marketing a half-dozen other varieties.

2. "I have my fruit houses, my picking sheds and my storage cellars. I dont' wish to clutter them up with chickens."

Don't imagine for a moment that the writer of this article will advise you to put hens into your cold storage houses, or that he will urge you to run incubators in your fruit cellars. When he comes to outlining the subject he will urge the erection of additional houses, convenient and comfortable, but of small cost, for the exclusive use of the poultry.

3. "I fear that attention to the fowls will be demanded at the very time that the fruit most needs it and the fruit will be sadly neglected."

In this series of articles the writer will not be urging poultry breeders to raise fruit, although he does both preach and practice that doctrine. He presumes that his readers are already fruit growers and he will simply give some reasons why they should add the poultry. In no case will he advise that the poultry be substituted for the fruit.

4. "I fear the presence of the poultry will damage my trees or my fruit."

The same objection was formerly raised to bees—"spoil the blossoms and puncture the fruit." No one thinks of such a thing now. Producers of fruits are urging apiarists to establish colonies of bees on their grounds, so that they may have the recognized advantage of the presence of bees. We shall try to prove that the hen is more of an advantage to the fruit grower than is the bee and that she pays better.

5. "I do not know anything about the poultry business and am too old to learn."

If both these statements are strictly true, don't take time to read these articles. We wish to be candid without any false ideas. The poultry business must be learned. To make it a success requires as much ability as does the fruit business. To the man past middle life who knows nothing of animals, who has no knowledge of the habits of the hen and who does not take naturally to a close study of details, we say "keep out of the poultry business."

1. The man (or woman) who has a natural love for animal life, who can find as much pleasure in noticing the peculiar actions of a little chick as he will in the day-by-day development of a choice variety of fruit.

2. The man who feels that he has some time, especially in the fall, winter and early spring that he could devote to some side line without interfering with his main business. The busiest time with the fruit is when the poultry requires the least attention.

3. The man who has built up a private retail fruit trade, covering many months of the year. The very people who want choice fruit are the people most want choice poultry and fresh eggs, and they are the people who have the money to pay for what they want. More and more in both industries are the middlemen being eliminated. The man who has learned how to put up his fruit in neat, attractive packages is the man who will so handle his eggs as that people will buy whether they need them or not.

1. The chickens destroy insect enemies of the fruit. With all your spraying, and trapping, the insects do get past you. The hens may not get all that remain, but they and the little chickens will get many of them. Hens like fruit, and hens in an orchard will eat the unmature fruits as they fall and in doing so they kill off the worms that made these fruits fall prematurely. Just watch a flock of little chicks in an orchard! They seem to be constantly chasing insects, many, of them so small we can scarcely see them; but we know when a chick catches one of them by the chick's self-satisfied manner. That chick has probably saved several apples. And it is good for the chick.

2. The poultry destroy the root enemies of the trees. Most enemies of fruit trees pass through three stages of life, and one of these is generally a worm, and many of these worms burrow in the ground under the trees. Just dig up the old sods a little under a fruit tree ,scatter a little millet seed there to get them started and see how thoroughly the hens will harrow that ground. And they do this too without damaging the rootlets as you often do by a thorough cultivation. Many a fruit grower fails to cultivate his orchard as he should lest he peel the trunks of the trees or unduly cut the roots. Just a few strokes here and there with a pick or a strong fork, followed by scattering small seeds, and the hen will do his cultivation just right.

3. The poultry enrich the ground. The properly managed hen is a busy creature. She seems happiest when working hardest for something small. During these working hours her droppings, so rich in the needed nitrogen, are scattered just where they will do the most good. The fertilizing value of the droppings of a well-fed hen (and when we come to speak of feeding, we shall advocate liberal feeding) are worth much to the truck gardner or orchardist. For good hen droppings we much prefer to pay one dollar per barrel than to any commercial fertilizers at market prices.

If two trees of same size are planted, one in the poultry run and the other not, the difference in the growth and vigor can readily be noted at the end of the first season.

One of the chief advantages of this combination is the benefit derived by the poultry and their greatest advantage is not found in the fruits or insects they pick up, but in the comfort they get in the shade. We have observed many time and do not hesitate to repeat it here—"fowls suffer as much from heat in summer as they do from cold in winter." All the larger houses of the writer were built in orchards, so there would be two or more trees in each yard, and in all our extensions we have set out young fruit trees in the runs. The pleasure of a hen in digging, scratching and wallowing in the fine cool soil under a tree is only surpassed by the pleasure of a brood of half-grown chicks when allowed to do the same .

BAD ATTACK OF DYSENTERY CURED

"An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the west. LOOK FOR THE "SIGN OF THE SLATE"

¶ There is only ONE Slater Shoe—only one "Sign of the Slate," and you should look for this Seal of Certainty when buying.

¶ The salesman who tells you different, wants to sell you different shoes; his shoes may not be any more reliable than his word.

¶ Slater Shoes at $5.00 carry a larger profit to the buyer than to the seller—that is the way to build a good business.

TUMULTUOUS GREETING

THOUSANDS OF JACK TARS SWARM AROUND 'FRISCO

ALL CIVILIANS FORCED TO TAKE A BACK SEAT

San Francisco, May 7—A grand street parade in which nearly all the 15,000 sailors of the fleet participated, opened the festivities in fleet mad San Francisco today. Tonight there were athletic events in the naval pavilion for the sailors, band concerts and other amusements. The governor's banquet to secretary of the navy Metcalfe was held at the Fairmont this evening.

Not since the memorable days when the First California volunteers returned from the Philippines has San Francisco entertained such a vast crowd as that which is today swarming through the streets, lining the water front, piling pell-mell into the excursion boats and other craft and clamoring for admission to the big battleships of Uncle Sam which lie at anchor in the bay. The fleet is a magnet which has attracted countless thousands and the hotels are having great difficulty in caring for the throng. Among the arrivals are scorts of men of national reputation but they attract little attenion from the enthusiastic crowds. Today all civilians must take a back seat for the men who wear the uniform of the United States navy.

Thousands of Jack Tars came ashore today and were given a tumultuous greeting when they paraded through the streets. Following the great street pageant every Jack not a confirmed woman hater, soon found a Jill and many found more than one. A brawny sailor, with a beaming, admiring girl on either arm, and other fair Californians jealous and disconsolate, trailing in the rear, was a common sight. Other tars sought enjoyment in the cup that cheers and also inebriates. Civilians with coin-filled pockets swarmed about the convivial ones and begged them to "have one on me." It was not strange in the face of this temptation, that many fell by the wayside early in the day. These were cared for by the ship's police and hurried out of sight.

The grand review will take place tomorrow and later rear admiral Robley D Evans will be relieved of the command. He will be succeeded in command of the fleet temporarily by rear admiral Charles M. Thomas, now commanding the second squadron, but before the fleet leaves San Francisco, for the orient admiral Thomas will also be relieved and the fleet will complete its cruise under the command of rear admiral Charles S. Sperry, now commanding the fourth division.

Following the review, a banquet will be held at which secretary of the navy Metcalfe will be the guest of honor, and in which the admirals and officers of the fleet in full uniform, the governor and his staff and other prominent men will take part.

Nor will the enlisted men of the fleet be neglected for a moment. On next Tuesday night they will be given a grand ball at the Auditorium, when the belles of society of San Francisco and California will be their associates. Nothing resembling social discrimination will be permitted and the sailors will dance with whom they please.

The round of events for the blue jackets began this evening with wrestling contests in the naval pavilion. Tomorrow evening will be devoted to the same sport in the same place. Monday in the afternoon, athletic sports will begin at the stadium in Golden Gate park. At night there will be the first boxing tournament in the auditorium rink.

Tuesday afternoon will be left open for the regatta on the bay, when the crews of the different ships will compete for prizes and trophies. The night will be the occasion of the official reception and ball of the enlisted men.

Wednesday afternoon will be children's day at the stadium, when the sailors will again compete in athletic events. The night will be devoted to another boxing tournament in Dreamland rink.

The Auditorium rink is assigned for the afternoon and night of Wednesday for the use of friends of the sailors. Athletic contests at the stadium will be held in the afternoon of next Thursday and Friday, and a tug of war will take place at night on May 15 in the Auditorium.

The final athletic events will be held on the afternoon of Saturday, May 16 at the stadium. Then the contests will be for the champions who were tried out at the former field days.

Upon the completion of the grand review by secretary Metcalfe in San Francisco bay tomorrow, tht Pacific fleet will leave port on Saturday for the southward to carry out a program of drills and exercises.

The battleship fleet will leave for Puget Sound on May 18 and upon arrival there on May 21, four ships will visit Port Angeles; eight ships will visit Bellingham bay and three ships will visit Port Townsend, one ship proceeding at once to the navy yard at Bremerton to be docked.

On Saturday, May 23 all the ships of the fleet with the exception of the one in dock, will rendezvous in the vicinity of Port Townsend and will proceed to anchorage in the vicinity of Seattle.

On Tuesday, May 26, 12 ships will leave the anchorage near Seattle and will steam to Tacoma in order that the people in that vicinity may have a view of the fleet. Thence, without anchorage, leaving four ships at anchor near Tacoma for a visit of three days, when the vessels will bo to Bremerton for docking.

It is expected that eight ships will arrive at San Francisco on Friday, May 29 where they will be docked in succession.

The ships docking at Bremerton will sail for San Francisco as soon as they are ready, the last one not to arrive until July 3. Preparations will be made for the fleet to sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on Tuesday, July 7. This date, however, is only tenative and may possibly be advanced if the docking is completed sooner than expected.

Blue Ribbon

TEA

Is Most Carefully Selected

Of all the countries in the world, Ceylon and India have proved the best adapted for producing good tea. So Indian and Ceylon teas are exclusively used for Blue Ribbon.

And as hill-grown leaf is superior to the coarse, rank growth of the lowlands, only "hill" tea is allowed in Blue Ribbon.

Of the hill plantations, a certain number of estates are especially noted for the unusual and uniform excellence of their product.

From these celebrated hill estates, the very choicest of the crop is selected and reserved for blending Blue Ribbon Tea. So it is unusually delicious and fragrant, with none of the woodiness or bitterness that spoils so many teas.

Just get a pound of Blue Ribbon Tea and see for yourself how good it is.

INFORMATION

ABOUT A RELIABLE MEDICINE

We want the people of Nelson to know that we believe the most valuable cod liver preparation—the best tonic reconstructor, health restorer and strength creator known to medicine today is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine as everything it contains is named on the label of every bottle. We guarantee Vinol contains besides tonic iron all the medicinal, curative and body building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of the useless oil to clog the system, upset the stomach and retard work. This is why Vinol is so far superior to old fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

Vinol is guaranteed by over five thousand leading druggists of the United States to create health and strength for old people, weak, sickly women and children, nursing mothers and after a severe sickness and for hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and throat and lung troubles.

Try Vinol on our guarantee, Wm. Rutherford, druggist, Nelson, B.C.

A MUSICAL SURPRISE

The Pioneer Press of St. Paul said of the violincellist Miss Edith Adams of the Louise Brehany company, which appears here shortly: "Miss Adams showed that woman's slight fingers may transmit on elegant delicacy into the autumnal moaning of the big strings. It was dainty, thoughtful playing. Among other selections she played two tone pictures "Twilight," and "At the Fountain" by Davidoff, with tender grace and sympathy. So real a mastery of this instrument by a woman is a musical surprise."

To the Ladies of Nelson

You are cordially invited to meet Mrs. Lloyd at our store this week. Mrs. Lloyd is demonstrating Cowan's Perfection Cocoa, Cake Icings, etc., and will be pleased to explain to all visitors the advantage of using these goods.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

Dr. Hall is leaving for Europe tomorrow morning.

Born, in this city, on May 6, at the Home hospital to captain and Mrs. Sanesberry, a daughter.

Born in this city on May 6, at the Home hospital, to the wife of John Lundin, a daughter.

The Hudson's Bay store is putting in an electric elevator for the better communication between the floors of that building.

There was a successful meeting of the S. O. E. lodge last evening. This lodge has lately greatly increased its membership.

Secretary Roy C. Brock of the Fruit Growers' association, says that he secured yesterday no less than eight new members.

There are quite a number of landseekers in the city and the prices of fruit land, especially in frequented districts, are fully up to the mark of last year.

The dance tonight at the armory will be for the benefit of the caretaker. Any members of the R.M.R. not having tickets are asked to apply to J. Teague.

F. Starkey, managing director of the Nelson fair, said yesterday that he was satisfied with the progress being made in almost every direction and thought that the Nelson fair of 1908 would be the banner fair in the history of the city. He is paying particular attention to the grounds and would like to see a better track for the races.

Complaint has been made that there has been no investigation into the death of the man drowned in the Narrows near Procter, ten days ago. It is stated that until the body has been found the coroner can take no action, but perhaps the provincial police could give some information as to whether a look out is being maintained for the body.

Mrs. Lloyd is demonstrating Cowan's Perfection Cocoa at J. A. Irving's grocery store this week and will be pleased to explain to all visitors the advantages of using these goods.

A party of McGill students will visit this city at the beginning of next week. There are just now at Coleman looking over the Crow's Nest coal fields and will probably go on to Moyie tomorrow or Sunday thence coming to Nelson.

Charles Erickson of Rossland is in the city for the purpose of organizing a lodge of the Scandinavian Aid and Fellowship society of America. All male Scandinavians, over the age of 18, are requested to meet at the I.O.O.F. hall this evening at 8 o'clock.

A meeting of the baseball enthusiasts is called for this evening at 8 o'clock in Fife's barber shop, Baker street. A game is in sight for Empire day, the 25th, between Trail and Nelson teams, and the meeting tonight is for the purpose of organizing and getting into shape for the season. A full attendance is requested.

John B. Garvin writes from Denver, Colo., on May 4: "You may be interested in learning that Denver is the center of a severe snowstorm today, nearly a foot of snow having fallen since last evening. It is the only precipitation of any consequence since September last, when over a foot fell. The fruit trees which lost fully 50 per cent of their blossoms in the frost of last week, are likely to lose the remaining ones now. I am puzzled to know why it should take five days for mail to come from Nelson to Denver. The time from Spokant is only two days. Why three days should be needed for mail to go 200 miles further is beyond me."

Old residents in the city generally concede that all danger of frost is now over and are setting out tender plants. In a few weeks the Nelson gardens will be a glory to the city.

A drill parade of the 1st Nelson company Boy's Brigade will be held in St. Paul's church hall this evening at 7 o'clock. All members are requested to attend in uniform.

Mrs. A. H. Hannington of St. Johns, is at present the guest of her daughter Mrs. (Dr.) Wardlow Taylor, Ash street, Vancouver, and is expected here on a visit to R. W. Hannington of this city.

If you want any building or repair work, Phone A173 and estimates on contracts or jobbing will be cheerfully furnished by McDonald and Williams, Shop, Front and Ward Sts., opposite court house. P.O. Box 307. 271-tf

THE HUB FURNISHINGHOUSE

A Few Facts About Clothes

A WOMAN shops around—she examines and compares and, when she is satisfied, she buys.

A MAN, as a rule, doesn't shop—he goes almost mechanically to one store from force of habit, or because his friends buy there.

But each year men get more wide awake and appreciate the fact that there's something more to the Clothes Question that attractive outside appearance.

We see increasing numbers of men each season who know more and more about the "unseen" parts of the suit.

When a Store Says Suits $12, $15 or $20

What does it signify until you have examined the suit?

It's what you get for your money and not what you pay that makes good value. We ask comparison.

NEARLY A BAD BLAZE

FIRE AT FERNIE CAUSES LOSS OF $5000

THREE ACCIDENTS AT MINES OF COAL CREEK

(Special to The Daily News)

Fernie, May 7—At 3 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the rear of the Fernie hotel on Victoria avenue and before the flames were subdued about $5000 worth of damage had been done. The fire originated in an alleyway at the back of the hotel pool room and Suddaby's drug store, where some tar barrels were stored, the material being used on the roof of the addition that has lately been added to the hotel. The greatest damage was done to the stock of the drug store mostly by smoke and water and the billiard room next door, was badly scorched. The hotel was crowded with guests at the time, who lost no time in seeking places of safety.

The fire department is worthy of the greatest praise for their prompt and effective work and it is to their excellent work and good judgment that the business center of the city is standing this morning. The origin of the fire is a mystery, though the opinion is gaining ground that it was caused by thieves who were endeavoring to gain an entrance to the drug store and threw matches into the tar, as three men were seen running away from the locality just before the alarm was given.

Yesterday appeared to be an unlucky day at the Coal Creek mines for not only was there an accident involving the loss of one life, when John Cattell met his death under most distressing circumstances, but two more mishaps were reported in the afternoon, which might have resulted fatally for those concerned. John Kitchener, a driver employed in No. 2 mine, while endeavoring to couple some cars, was caught between the buffers and before he could be extricated from his perilous position, had his legs severely crushed. He was brought to Fernie by the mine train and taken to the hospital where his injuries were attended to. Later in the day a miner working in No. 2 mine was struck on the head and shoulders by falling rock, miraculously escaping with slight injury.

A coroner's jury was empannelled yesterday to inquire into the circumstances surrounding the death of John Cattell, the machinist who was killed by the dinky engine at Coal Creek, and after viewing the body adjourned until tomorrow. The flag on the fire hall was hung at half mast today out of respect to the memory of the unfortunate young man, who for the past year has been a valued member of the brigade.

A gang of petty thieves or burglars are again operating in the city and last night an hotel was entered and a quantity of tobacco and cigars stolen. The unwelcome visitors had secured an entrance by forcing open a window admitting them to the office. A Great Northern railway car was also broken into and about sixty dollars worth of goods extracted. Strong hopes of apprehending the culprits are entertained by the authorities and if caught will receive a lesson that will probably induce them to give this district a wide berth in future.

The Kootenay Rifles held the first parade of the season last night and presented a very soldierly appearance. Owing to the lack of a drill hall them made use of the new rink which is admirably suited for such a purpose.

Mrs. Sherwood Herchmer gave a most enjoyable little "bridge" party yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. McEvoy who leaves for Ottawa on Monday. At the tea hour several others dropped in to enjoy the hospitality of this popular Hostess.

FAT FOLKS FAVOR

HOME MIXTURE THAT TAKES OFF THE FAT RAPIDLY—CAUSES NO WRINKLES—NO STOMACH ILLS AND REQUIRES NEITHER DIETING NOR EXERCISE.

Too much fat is both uncomfortable and dangerous, but usually fleshy people prefer to put up with its inconveniences rather than punish themselves with the tiresome exercising usually prescribed, or endanger their health by taking the so called "cures" and patent fat "reducers."

This self sacrifice of comfort and health to overabundant fat is entirely unnecessary however, as Mrs. Luella Bigger tells us there is a home receipt that is far superior in every way to anything money will buy for reducing superfluous flesh. It is said this simple mixture will take the fat off man or woman at the rate of at least a couple of pounds a week without even causing wrinkles. Moreover it does not disturb the stomach but is a good thing for the system, clearing away pimples, and, best of all it does not interfere with the diet. You can use it and at the same time eat whatever you like. This receipt is as follows: One-half ounce Marmola; three-quarters ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and four and three-quarter ounces of Sydup Simplex. Get these ingredients at any drug store, mix them together at home and take one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Mrs. Bigger, as is well known, is a famous beauty expert and whatever she recommends is sure to be found eminently satisfactory.

HE TRIED A TOUGH JOB

MONTANA LAWYER HOLDS UP F. AUGUSTUS HEINZE

FALLS INTO EASY TRAP AND IS ARRESTED

New York, May 7.—Edward A. Brennan, a lawyer of Butte, Mont., was arrested in the office of F. August Heinze late this afternoon, charged with attempting to extort $40,000 from Mr. Heinze.

Brennan is 31 years old and his people are said to be prominent residents of Indianapolis, Ind. When he was arraigned in the police court immediately after his arrest he was held for 48 hours for further examination.

According to a detective of the district attorney's office, who made the arrest, Brennan came to New York several days ago, after having been in communication with Heinze for some time. The complaint which led to Brennan's arrest was made by Heinze at the district attorney's office yesterday. He said that an attempt was being made to extort money from him, that Brennan had told him that he (Heinze) had violated the laws of Montana in some of his copper transactions there and he charged than Brennan threatened to start the law after him (Heinze) if he was not paid $40,000. The first threats were made by letter, according to Heinzie, and getting no satisfaction in that way Brennan came and visited Heinze in his Broadway office. The detective was assigned to the case and had Heinze make an appointment with Brennan for today. Before the appointed hour the detective concealed himself in a closet where he could see and hear all that was said. According to the plan after the conversation Heinze was to make out three demand notes to Brennan. One note was for $15,000 and two notes for $12,500 each. After these notes had been made out and passed over to the Butte man, the detective placed him under arrest.

Although he had no bondsmen in court when the bail was fixed at $5000, Brennan said that he thought he could furnish the amount without bail.

THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF SUFFERING

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost; 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists and dealers.

REPORT IS UNTRUE

Tokio, May 7.—Not a shadow of truth exists in the rumor of the banishment of the Korean emperor by Japan. High officials of the foreign office simply ridicule its absurdity.

LASHED LAKE ONTARIO

TERRIFIC STORM RAGED ALL DAY YESTERDAY

LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY AT CHICAGO ALSO

Toronto, May 7—Lake Ontario has been lashed into fury by the action of a strong east wind and according to reports received from exposed locations on Hanlan's island and on the lake shore both east and west and from the captains of lake steamers, the storm which is raging today, equals if it does not exceed that of a few weeks ago. It looks as though the effect of the disturbance will be to completely destroy whatever work the city has done since the last storm. On the island the sand pumps have been kept busy daily filling in holes and washouts made two weeks ago. Similarly on the lake shore on the east and west considerable filling has been done to strengthen the sidewalks. All this has again been washed away and in addition new land has been taken out into the lake.

Chicago, May 7—One man was killed and many pedestrians were put in peril by falling live wires and others were blown down and injured during a terrific rain and wind storm which set in early today and continued this afternoon. The official report of the weather bureau was that the wind attained a maximum velocity of 40 miles but in the suburbs and along the lake shore the force was much greater than this. John Lucas, 65 years of age, employed by the belt line railroad, was blown down several times by the wind at 75th and Halstead streets. He died within a few moments of heart disease, brought on by the treatment he had received. Mrs. H. Briggs was blown down at the corner of South Water and States streets sustaining injuries which compelled her removal to the hospital. Frank Jones, a teamster, wos blown from his wagon at State and Randolph streets and seriously injured. Policeman M. Schlater was badly injured by a live trolley wire at 118th street and Sangamore avenue.

Wires of the fire alarm and police telegraph systems were badly crippled in all parts of the city and all telephone communication with the life saving station at the mouth of the Chicago river was lost. It was reported from keepers of the waterworks cribs that the sea running today was the highest in several years.

Only two steamers put out from this port early in the morning and both came back for safety. No other boats will leave before tomorrow unless the gales moderates.

AMATEUR OR PROFESSIONAL

What the Former May Not Do and Retain Standing

At the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Federation of Canada, held at the M.A.A.A., Montreal, recently, the secretary, C. A .Sprigings, was instructed to have published an explanation of the amateur definition of the federation which, simple enough in itself, has given rise to much misconception and misunderstanding.

Explanations of what do and do not constitute infringements of the rule, as compiled by Mr. Sprigings, are as follows:

What Disqualifies the Amateur—1st. The acceptance of any money or other consideration of a monetary nature on any pretext, either before or after the competition, whether as a gift or bonus for services rendered as an athlete, either in team games or in individual competition.

2nd. To compete for a staked bet or where a staked bet is placed on the contest either directly or indirectly, or from any source whatsoever.

3rd. To compete against a professional individually where gate receipts are charged, or where a prize or any other consideration is given.

4th. To teach or assist in any athletic exerecise or sport as a means of livelihood.

5th. To receive any payment for loss of time while playing as a member of any club, or competing unattached.

6th. To enter any competition under any name other than his own.

7th. Nor is an athlete permitted to sell or pledge his prizes.

What an Amateur May Do—1st. May receive actual travelling and hotel expenses, and produce properly attested vouchers if called for.

2nd. May compete against professionals in team games, such as lacrosse, hockey, football, and the like, but not in track or field events, boxing wrestling, or other like sports of individual contests.

It is hoped that the above explanation of what an amateur may not do will be closely studied by all athletes who may have any doubts as to what would render them ineligible to receive a registration card or compete in any event held under the jurisdiction of the federation

TORONTO'S BIG SUIT

City Architect and His Claim—Many Undesirable Foreigners in City

Toronto, May 7—The city of Toronto will contest the claim of architect J. E. Lennox for $09,090.32 for services alleged to have been rendered while Lennox was architect of the new city hall building. The city also makes a counter claim against Lennox, one item of which is for $150,000. It is claimed that by dispossessing contractors and doing the work by day labor, Lennox increased the cost by this amount.

More evidence regarding undesirable foreigners who are congregating in Toronto, was given in police court today. Two Bulgarians, Yank Peleitch and George Page, known as "Big Joe," were charged with assaulting another Bulgarian with a beer keg. The men live in shacks at the foot of John street and are employed on the water works tunnel. Peletich was given 60 days and "Big Joe" 90 days. The foreman of the contractors building the tunnel testified that a gang of Bulgarians who were not employed on the works, hung around the shacks where the men live, drank and quarrelled and gambled all night and could not be driven away. Magistrate Kingsford gave instructions to the crown attorney to see the proper authorities and have these men rounded up and sent out of the country, as he considered them fit subjects for deportation.

The contract between the city of Toronto and the Hydro-Electric Power commission, was today officially signed for the city by mayor Oliver and city treasurer Coady. Toronto is the first city to sign a contract with this commission.

THE BEEF COMMISSION

Edmonton, May 7.—The provincial department of agriculture is now making arrangements for making a thorough inquiry into the pork industry in Alberta. With this end in view a commission of three men is being appointed to conduct the investigation. The commission will gather information regarding the extent of the pork industry in the province in order that the government may have authentic information as to the advisability of establishing government pork packing factories in Alberta. W. T. Finlay, minister of agriculture, said this morning that the government was also considering the report of the beer commission, presented last year, gives a view to improving conditions prevailing in the beef industry in this province.

ON FAST TIME

Regina, May 7—It is likely that before the summer is out the citizens of Regina will rise and retire according to the hours of the "fast time" and the hands of the clocks in Regina will be set up an hour to catch up with Winnipeg and other places The movement for the fast time has now become general and it is not without the range of probability that the whole of Saskatchewan should adopt the Central Standard time. The movement is gradually spreading west and if the board of trade of this city takes it up as it is expected to do, the adoption of the new time in Regina is especially assured.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

J. C. Drewry came in from his ranch in East Kootenay last night and is at the Hume.

The thermometer yesterday varied between 58 and 51 degrees, the recorded rainfall being .04 inch.

The next meeting of the Sons of England will take the form of a smoker and will be held on Thursday week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Clute, who have been spending the winter in southern California, have returned home to Victoria.

The water in the lake was recorded at 6 feet 2 inches above low water mark yesterday, far higher than is usually the case at this season of the year.

Members of the grand and petit juries are informed that they can obtain their fees by calling at the mining recorder's office any time during office hours today.

Died, yesterday, May 7, at Nelson, Francis Joseph, the youngest son of C. A. Benedict, aged 14 months. The funeral will take place from the church of Mary Immaculate this morning at 10 o'clock.

Arrarngements are being made for a big parade of the Sons of England, local members of the 102nd regiment, all army veterans and Englishmen generally, which shall attend the church of England on May 24, Victoria day.

The Dutch tea under the auspices of the Altar Guild of St. Saviour's church which was to have been held on Thursday evening, April 30, will be held next Tuesday evening in the opera house. The ladies of the Guild will appear in full Dutch costume and altogether they have prepared what promises to be a splendid entertainment.

A meeting of the special committee of the board of trade and allied societies is to be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the officer of the secretary of the agricultural society in order to discuss the occupying of the space allotted next month at the Dominion fair at Calgary for a Nelson exhibit. Miss Murcutt's lecture last night at the Congregational church treated upon Russia, especially Russia in the far east and she gave some exciting experiences of her own while travelling in that little known and somewhat jealously guarded part of the world. Her trip to Saghalien, the Russian penal settlement, which is really an island in extension of the Japanese archipelago was vividly narrated and she succeeded in interesting her audience in a manner to which lecturers do not always attain.

LAND CASE OCCUPIES WHOLE OF THE DAY

J. B. WINLAW IS FINED $100 FOR ASSAULT

The sitting of the supreme court yesterday was almost wholly taken up with the continuation of the case of Lyon et al v. J. Laing Stocks. The evidence of W. S. Drewry was finished and that of Lyon and Gladstone, for the plaintiffs, was taken, the whole case for the plaintiffs not yet having been heard. The evidence given was to establish the fact that the land was not equal to the representations made. If the case is heard in its entirety probably the whole of today will be consumed.

In the matter of the assault charge preferred by Schonberg against J. B. Winlaw, on which the jury disagreed on Wednesday last, the defendant yesterday pleaded guilty and was fined $100. Mr. justice Clement remarked that this fine would not save the defendant from a civil action.

IMPORTANT JUDGMENT

Grand Forks City Council Held Responsible —Mining Co. Meeting

Grand Forks, May 7—Judgment in one of the most important cases ever originating in Grand Forks has just been given by his honor judge Brown in the county court. This case involves the authority of an alderman to expend money. It is the case of McIntosh v. the City of Grand Forks, and Ald. P. T. McCallum. Ald. McCallum had engaged the plaintiff to do certain work as inspector at the 4th street bridge. Afterwards the council repudiated the account and claimed that Ald McCallum had no authority to engage the plaintiff. The learned judge in a lengthy judgment sets forth the liability of the respective parties, the purport of which is that judgment is given against the defendant corporation for $50 and costs and the action against Ald. McCallum is dismissed, while costs were reserved. This case originated with last year's council.

The LaFleur Mountain Mining and Smelting company which is the very latest mining company to be organized in this district, held a meeting of shareholders yesterday when the following officers were elected: President, Gus. Peterson; vice-president, A. E. Fennell; secretary, G. C. Stutz; treasurer, G. Bell, all of whom live in Danville. At this meeting it was decided to run a long tunnel on the Cuba claim, it being estimated that the ore body could be reached in 500 feet. The properties owned by the company are the Cuba, Mountain Lion fraction, Cumberland, Last Chance, Jim, Tellaright and Standard. They are all situated just two miles from Danville in a southwesterly direction. This company which has a capitalization of $1,500,000, has one million shares in the treasury to use for development purposes. G. H. Norquist a prominent mining engineer of Wallace, Idaho, has just completed an exhaustive inspection of the claims and returned yesterday to Wallce where he will complete his report.

MULLEN IS ARRESTED

WANTED FOR MURDER AT MICHEL LAST SEPTEMBER

STORIES OF WRECKS AND LOSSES IN THE PACIFIC

Victoria, May 6—Patrick Mullen, wanted for the murder of Angelo Orlando, an Italian mine worker at Michel, B.C., on September 1, last, in a dance hall, has been arrested in Great Falls, Montana. He will be brought here to stand trial.

On Sunday morning, midway between Honolulu and Victoria, the steamer Aorangi which arrived this morning from Australia, was stopped for a burial at sea. Hans Dietz, the three year old son of R. Dietz and wife of Samoa, fell from the boat's deck and died soon afterwards.

A telegram from Clayoquot reports the steamer Otter of the C.P.R. derelict, with a broken tail shaft, 25 miles west of Ahousaht, off the west coast of Vancouver island, with a cargo of whale oil. The weather is good. The steamer Tees left at 8 p.m. The B.C. Salvage company is sending out the tug William Jolliet, its fastest salvage steamer. There will be a race between the two steamers, the C.P.R. steamer being forced in the endeavor to prevent the salvage boat from securing the derilict and earning salvage from the company.

An official announcement was made this afternoon that the steamer Princess Victoria will start the service between Victoria and Seattle on Saturday in opposition to the steamer Chippewa, leaving here at 5:30 p.m. daily.

The steamer Aorangi brought the news of the sudden sinking of the steamer Bega, an Australian coasting vessel, under suspicious circumstances and investigations were being held to show whether the vessel had been scuttled by striking seamen, as she was carrying a nonunion crew during the recent strike of coastwise shipping unions. The Bega was steaming in a smooth sea at night when she suddenly began to fill, listed to port and foundered in 20 minutes, with the sea rushing into her open ports. There was 47 of a crew and the passengers included 20 women and children, and excepting an old man who died from shock, all were saved by a raft. Most of the passengers were asleep and were awakened by the stewards and many dramatic scenes ensued in the scurry to reach the boats. The officers are given great credit for saving the ship's company by the Australian papers.
