Ymir Mine Discovers a Blind Lead

CAPITAL NOW COMING IN

SHIPMENTS FOR THE WEEK FROM SLOCAN DISTRICTS RESTRICTED BY STATE OF ROADS—GOOD SEASON GENERALLY IS BEING EXPECTED.

The shipments for the past week from the Boundary and from the Rossland camp are about normal, Rossland being rather in excess of its average shipments through a renewal of activity upon the Le Roi. On the other hand the shipments from the districts east of the Columbia river are rather less than usual and are, in fact, lower than at any time for the past six months. This is entirely explicable by the state of the roads which now are either mud or which have been carried away by the snowslides of the spring. Within a week or so the Slocan mines will have resumed their ordinary rate of shipment and will, as more properties are being developed than was the case at this time last year, send out a greater tonnage than for several years past.

In this regard it is gratifying to those who take an interest in the progress of mining in the Kootenay to note that the Ymir mine which has been a non-shipper for months past, has again struck the lead for which the management has been carefully working. In the same district it is also to be noted that there has been an access of American capital in the purchase of the Queen mine by Wisconsin capital. Altogether the Sheep creek district is one which is commanding the attention of the mining public at the present time.

Following are the shipments for the past week and year to date:

HARD JOB FOR LEONARD

HAS BEEN GIVEN THE TASK OF RETRENCHING

IT MEANS REDUCED STAFFS OR WAGES OR BOTH

A splendid type of self-made man, broad of mind, large of heart, and strong of purpose, is the character given by a recent eulogist to James W. Leonard, of the C. P. R.

Mr. Leonard is just now looming large in the eye, especially of industrial labor. To him has been given the task of "retrenching." That means reduced staffs or reduced wages—perhaps both.

It is a common saying among railway men that he has a genius for railroading. It is the description of genius that Anthony Trollope and others have recognized as the power of sticking at it combined with natural faculties for organization and execution that has brought him to the front rank. A tireless worker, is his reputation.

Away back in 1872, 36 years ago, he started as a telegraph operator at Peterboro, in charge of the tape in the Midland railway. In those days messages came in on the tape, as they do now in the brokers' offices.

As superintendent of the C. P. R. at Montreal from March 19, 1890, till March, 1893, he enhanced his experience and became superintendent of the lines east of Montreal, where he remained till May, 1901. The next step was as superintendent of the Ontario & Quebec division till December, 1903. He was presented with an address soon, leaving this position to become superintendent of the western division, with headquarters at Winnipeg. He thus became conversant with every department of railway service, and as superintendent of construction of the Toronto Sudbury line he proved the practical character of his knowledge once more. Then followed his appointment as assistant general manager of the C. P. R. lines east of Fort William, with headquarters at Montreal.

Someone asked him once if he were ambitious. He nodded.

"Would you mind telling me what your ruling ambition is?"

"It's to do the thing entrusted to me as it ought to be done, that's all," was the illuminating reply.

Mr. Leonard has always been popular among his associates. An earlier presentation than that mentioned was made to him when he left the Victoria railway, and only the rules of the service have prevented other tributes, spontaneous as good-fellowship could make them. He was banquetted at the National club, Toronto, June 12, 1901, and presented with an album containing portraits of the staff, etc.

"Don" Sheppard, then of Saturday Night, wrote an appreciation of him some years ago which can scarcely be bettered:

"Perhaps there isn't another man in the world of his age who is so well loved by his subordinates as the unassertative and sweet-tempered fellow known by his friends as Jim Leonard. As gentle as a woman in his manners, as firm as the ever-lasting rock in his purpose, this quiet and unostentatious young man has grown to be regarded as one of the coming men, if not the coming man, in railroad circles. At no time has he ever sought or received any notoriety; he has simply been an operative and administrative railroad man. I possibly might make one exception to this statement, and that would be in the nature of declaring that at one time, if his wife had not watched him very carefully, he would have been the worst-dressed man in America. All adornments of speech, or raiment, or of face fixtures, are apparently objectionable to him. He has nothing to say, does not wear good clothes, and one has one vice—that is chewing tobacco.

"It is strange now to find a man with such big interests who retains a nervous system that cannot be jarred. Every sectionman and engine-driver and fireman on some 2000 miles of track look to Jim Leonard as his friend. In construction or reconstruction he is noted as the swiftest thing that ever came along a pike, yet when he goes up against the city council or legislature he is the quiet, unobtrusive man who never says anything, and waits till he has an opportunity to act."

Mr. Leonard was born in 1858, and so far has only half a century behind him. He will probably make the most of another half and wind up with a title and the respect of 30,000,000 Canadians.

TO RAISE FUNDS

President of Kettle Valley Line Going to England—Customs Receipts

(Special to The Daily News)

Grand Forks, May 2—Word reached here from the east that J. J. Warren, president of the Kettle Valley Line railway, is going to England at once for the purpose of raising funds to continue the building of the north fork extension of the Kettle Valley Line to Franklin camp. It is stated that work will in all probability be resumed on this line within the next six months. This is the only real definite information yet to hand respecting the building of the line to Franklin camp. Already this railway has the rails laid to Lynch creek, a distance of 19 miles from Grand Forks, the distance from Lynch creek to Franklin being a further stretch of 31 miles. The people of this district are jubilant over this good news respecting the railway to Franklin.

The following are the receipts from the various customs offices in the district for the month of April as received by R. R. Gilpin, the chief collector at G and Forks: Grand Forks, $2365.76; Phoenix, $1219.26; Cascade, $128.91; Carson, $87.33; total, $3801.

After securing permission from the city of Grand Forks to destroy the north pier at the old First street bridge, the Yale-Columbia Lumber company put men to work and when the job was finished it was ascertained that they had destroyed the wrong pier, being the south pier and not the one intended to be removed. It seems that the north pier was very much damaged and was so situated that it created a bad log jam each year while the other or south pier was in good condition and could have been used for a new bridge. The workmen who removed the wrong pier say that they received orders from some of the aldermen to do the work. It now appears than an endeavor is being made to shift the blame in this matter. One thing, however, is certain that by the removal of the wrong pier damage to the extent of some $300 was done and the prospects for a new bridge at the foot of bridge street is still further off.

STEADY WORK

SALE OF THE QUEEN MINE

Patient perserverance, intelligently directed, seldom fails in missing its mark. The truth of this adequately shown in the sale of the Queen mine at Salmo to Wisconsin capitalists by William Waldie, who has realized, after five years of work, a comfortable fortune through the disposal of his property. Yesterday the Queen mine was sold by the owner, W. Waldie, to Wisconsin men for $175,000, $50,000 being paid down and the remainder to be paid at the end of 30 months. In the meantime the purchasers will pay 15 per cent of the mint and smelter returns to the vendors, the amount thus accruing to be installments upon the purchase price.

But Mr. Waldie has not forgotten his men who have been working under him for so many years past. The deal falls through and the property reverts if the payments fall in arrear or if the mine is closed down for a period of 60 days.

The deed was signed yesterday, on behalf of a syndicate of Wisconsin people, by A. D. Westby, who has negotiated the deal, E. V. Buckley, of Alma, Wis.; G. J. Corscot, of Madison, Wis.; G. O. Linder, of Osseo, Was., and J. Cannon, of Merrilan, in the same state. The purchasers will go to work at once.

Just now the property is being opened up by a force of 38 men and a mill of 10 stamps is in constant operation. On the railway siding, awaiting the opening of the roads, are 10 more stamps, which will bring up the capacity of the mill from 185 to close to 400 tons a week.

It is 12 years since the mine was located. It has not, however, been worked continuously from that date. There have been many vicissitudes. Six years ago it was leased and 12 months later W. Waldie took hold of the property and has worked it continuously ever since.

Mr. Waldie is originally a lumber man and five years ago knew nothing of mining. He has learned and has spent money in learning but the outcome has been good. He will now, however, go back to his old love and is taking up lumbering again. He is interested in the Sunset Mills, Ltd., a new company which has just acquired limits in Vancouver island. In this he will be joined by another Nelson man, Fred Wolverton. Mr. Waldie, however, proposes to make his home for the future in this city.

FIVE BODIES RECOVERED

Death List at Chicago Fire is Still Growing—Seven Still Missing

Chicago, May 2—Five bodies were recovered today from the ruins of the Chicago Reduction company's plant at 39th and Iron streets, which was destroyed by an explosion and fire last night. The death list now totals six. Seven men are still unaccounted for.

Five seriously injured, one of them dying, are at the county hospital; seven others are at their homes suffering from wounds and burns. The number of killed, injured and missing, is thus about 25. Officials of the company said that at the time of the explosion the six naptha tanks had a capacity of 78,000 gallons. Firemen kept streams of water playing upon the ruins all day and it is thought that the debris has become sufficiently cooled down to allow a thorough search for the corpses tomorrow.

THOUSANDS LOCKED OUT

CLYDE SHIPBUILDERS ARE CAUSING MUCH TROUBLE

ALL BRITAIN WILL BE AFFECTED BEFORE LONG

Glasgow, May 2—The Clyde shipbuilders this morning locked 1000 wood workers from their yards. This measure is an outcome of the dispute between the shipbuilding employers and the ship workers of the northeast, who struck rather than accept a reduction in wages and who have not been able to get the federation to arbitrate their demands. Lockouts have been decided upon by all shipbuilding yards in the United Kingdom and workmen in other branches are being locked out. There may be a complete stoppage of the shipbuilding industry, which would indirectly affect no less than 250,000.

London, May 2—The wood workers in all the shipbuilding yards of the country about 15,000 men, were locked out today in the determination of the masters to close the yards unless the northeast coast strikers agree to their terms. Other workmen, totalling many scores of thousands, will have to cease work before long unless a settlement is reached.

God Save The King

WANTS HEAVY DAMAGES

(Special to The Daily News)

Spokane, May 2—Five thousand dollars each is the price which Mrs. F. M. Parsons of Minneapolis asks the Spokane county superior court to require Harry H. Shallenberger, a mining man of 1051 College avenue, Spokane, to pay her for letters he is alleged to have written to other parties. She declares he has written at least ten missives to different persons and she now brings suit claiming $50,000 damages.

Mr. Shallenberger and Mrs. Parsons are stockholders in the Alliance Gold and Copper Mining company, which owns the Moreen property at Greenwood, B.C. Mrs. Parsons is secretary-treasurer of the company and has been looking after its interests at Minneapolis. The letters were written, the plaintiff alleges, for the purpose of ousting her from the position as an officer of the company.

A., was second; time 2 hours 33 minutes 50 seconds. There were 35 entries in the race, most of them being local runners.

HIS INSTRUCTIONS

Ottawa, May 2.—According to a letter sent to G. P. Watson, K. C., Toronto, by Hon. A. B. Aylesworth in connection with his appointment as one of the counsel to enquire into the marine department affairs, the minister says: "What in a general way is expected of you is, that you prosecute enquiry into all matters covered by the order in council authorizing judge Cassels' appointment. You will be responsible for the bringing before the commissioner all such evidence as may be required to make the enquiry thorough and to enable the commissioner to make a complete report."

THOSE DOUKHOBORS

Regina, May 2—Despite the statement of the minister of the interior in the house of commons yesterday that the provincial government is responsible for the Doukhobor being shipped to Yorkton from Fort William, the attorney general today states that the Saskatchewan government does not accept the responsibility and has nothing to do with the caring for the Doukhobors until forced to take action. Mounted police have been instructed, however, to take in charge any who are breaking the law, or who may be insane.

MANY PARADE

Roman Catholic Procession in New York

STANDS AGAINST DIVORCE

CARDINAL LOGUE IS EMPHATIC IN HIS UTTERANCES AND UNCOMPROMISINGLY DECLARES THAT THE CHURCH IS STEADFAST IN THIS REGARD.

New York, May 2.—Sixty thousand Roman Catholic laymen marching in procession this forenoon brought to a climax and formally ended the week's celebration of the centenary, or the founding of the Roman Catholic diocese of New York.

The parade had been looked forward to as the crowning public event of the week and in every way anticipation was surpassed. No more perfect day could have favored the event. The sky was almost cloudless, the air clear and fine.

Along Fifth avenue and through 25th street, where the line marched to the disbanding place, hundreds of thousands of persons were massed and the immense reviewing stand, which had been erected in front of the cathedral, make a picture, the like of which was seldom seen. It had been built to accomodate 4000 people and its whole capacity was placed at the disposal of women and children and the distinguished prelates who have been participating in the observance of the ceremony. All of the 60,000 who took part in the parade were on foot. The parade foremd at Washington square and moved up Fifth avenue, past the cathedral and to 57th street, where it was dispersed.

The line of march covered three miles.

Cardinal Logue, of Armagh, who has seen and participated in the grandeur of Roman Catholic ceremones at Rome and elsewhere, made this statement to a group of newspapermen when the last company of the Catholic host had passed the reviewing stand in front of St. Patrick's cathedral: "I never saw such an impressive gathering in all my life; and I never expect to witness such a demonstration of loyalty to the Catholic faith."

It was announced tonight that the Irish cardinal will remain here for a few days more and having rested will visit other cities.

In an interivew, cardinal Logue, speaking on the divorce question, said: "I have watched and studied the divorce problem here with a good deal of interest, and the time has come for all religious bodies to unite upon this subject. It has been a great pleasure to me to note that the ministers of all the sects are united in preaching against it. It is not entirely a matter of religion. The welfare of the state demands that something should be done in this country to check this evil.

"A continuation of the divorce evil means the degredation of the race. The reason for this is very evident—the welfare of the family being the foundation of the race.

"Another evil which one cannot freely speak of has been referred to a number of times by president Roosevelt. It appears that the families are not as large as they should be. There is no excuse for this, for this is not a poor country. This matter of small families is directly opposed to the welfare and glory of your country."

Cardinal Logue declared that socialism was making great advances in England, and that he believed socialism could be remedied by Christianity in relieving the poor.

LIBERATE THE BLACKS

SOCIALIST LEADER IN BELGIUM DENOUNCES LEOPOLD

WANTS GREATER REFORMS THAN THOSE PROVIDED

Brussels, May 2—M. Vandervelde, the socialist leader in arguing today against the plan for the annexation of the Congo independent state, now before the chamber of deputies, declared strongly that he favored the right kind of annexation because he wished to liberate the blacks who have been the victims of such greatwrongs.

He charged that king Leopold had inaugurated a reign of absolutism under which he bought up consciences and the press. Mr Vandervelde characterized the confiscation of vacant Congo lands as robbery, asserting that they really belonged to the negroes. He demanded a treaty assuring greater reforms than those provided for in the present treaty and incidentally warned the Belgian government that the correspondence of the United States and Great Britain on the subject of reforms, might soon be published abroad.

TELEPHONE BILLS

Regina, May 2.—Telephone bills were considered in committee of the legislature yesterday. In reply to Dr. Elliott, as to whether the government was negotiating for the purchase of any system at the present time, Calder asked that such questions should be left until a general discussion on the bills, at the same time adding that the government had received communications from the two largest telephone companies, the Bell company and the Saskatchewan company, operating at Moose Jaw, to the effect that they were prepared to sel out their telephone plants. He did not believe there would be any difficulty in making the purchase or other agreements satisfactory to all concerned.

One of the clauses of the department of railways, telegraphs and telephones bill provides for the adjustment of rates. Calder explained that the board of railway commissioners had certain powers over the telephone companies which had received their charters from the dominion government, but he doubted if the commission could fix the rates of municipal and rural telephone companies which held their powers from the local government.

A PANTHER STORY

Big Fellow Killed at Perry Siding—Postmaster Attacked

(Special to The Daily News.)

Perry Siding, May 2.—Two ranchers, named Frank Nixon and John Reynolds, while out hunting for bear near here today came upon a panther, which promptly showed fight. The panther came at Nixon, who drew his revolver and fired, turning the animal back towards Reynolds. Reynolds fired his rifle but failed to shoot the panther, and the animal came right at him. Reynolds found himself in an awkward position, but he clubbed the panther with the butt of his rifle and kept him off till Nixon came to his rescue and laid the panther out with one blow on the head. The panther is the largest ever seen in this locality.

Postmaster Shanburg was attacked by a man with whom he had some dispute yesterday and, it is said, badly injured. He was found on the station platform by a trapper, who carried him off to his home, where he now is in a critical condition.

Vancouver, May 2.—Rev. Dr. Shearer, secretary for the moral and social reform work throughout Canada, is in town and speaks hopefully of conditions. Organization work in each of the provinces is being taken in hand systematically and the good effects are being daily more evident.

Judge Henderson, Yukon commissioner, is down from the north. He says he is proud of the moral and industrial improvement shown throughout the vast territory during his control. The Guggenheim undertakings are attracting renewed attention to the gold fields and he looks for a new era of solid prosperity. Law and order are maintained in an exemplary manner.

Patrick Cudahy, the millionaire Chicagoan, is in town. He thinks the turn of the financial tide has come and is fairly optimistic as to the future. It is understood that he may invest in Vancouver real estate, if he has not already done so sub rosa.

REACHED AN AGREEMENT

MUNICIPAL TRACTION PROBLEM IS SOLVED

CLEVELAND WILL CONTINUE TO HAVE STREET CARS

Cleveland, Ohio, May 2.—After voting 1452 to 128 in favor of a strike, the motormen and conductors of the Municipal Traction company practically reached an agreement with the mayor and traction officials that will eliminate the prospect of a cessation of work.

Two sessions were held today between the union executive committee and the mayor and a third will take place tonight, at which the smoothing over of many disputed points is expected finally to occur. Concession on the part of both sides to the controversy marked the day's discussions. The men failed to secure outright the two cents an hour increase in pay demanded, but are given an assurance that they may anticipate an advance after the municipal traction comanpy shows a sufficient surplus.

GREAT RUSH OF GRAIN

Port Arthur, May 2.—Never in the history of this port has there been witnessed such a rush of grain as there has been the last few days. At the head of the lakes today is a fleet of 43 boats, with a carrying capacity of four and a half million bushels. It is believed that at the close of today over six million bushels of wheat will have been shipped from here. The elevators are lined with vessels waiting to get under the spouts.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

Brockville, May 2—A story of vile brutality to animals comes from a district across the river from here. Getting home, a drunken farmer went out to feed his young stock and finding that ten calves, which he had been feeding to sell, did not eat fast enough, he drew a knife and cut their throats. Then continuing his drunken frenzy, he started to cut the throats of his horses. The first animal which he slashed, kicked him with sufficient force to render him unconscious, on recovering he came to a realization of what he had done.

LINE TO HUDSON'S BAY

Ottawa, May 2—The government will, according to present intentions, submit to parliament shortly a bill providing for the construction of a railway to Fort Churchill on Hudson's bay, thus providing a new outlet for the rapidly increasing quantity of western grain. This is understood to be along lines suggested in the commons last session by sir Wilfrid Laurier and by Hon. Clifford Sifton in March last.

FATE OF KOREA

Is Being Repopulated by the Japanese

HOPELESS INSURRECTION

Seoul, Korea, May 2. The government of Korea, acting in cooperation with the office of the Japanese resident general at Seoul, prince Ito, are preparing plans for an active and final campaign against the disorderly forces in Korea. These forces, insurgents and bandits, are making much trouble; they prevent the Korean agriculturists from disposing of their products and hamper general business.

The concensus of opinion of unprejudiced foreigners, merchants, missionaries and officials, Japanese as well as Koreans, is that business must be restored to normal condition by whatever power undertakes to administer to the country, be it Japanese or Korean. The disturbing element today is composed largely of men out of employment, discharged Korean soldiers and regular bandits. It is the practice of these marauders to oppress and rob the farmers, to attack villages and to kill Japanese. The bandit element probably numbers altogether not more than 3000 men. The real Korean patriots, who are irreconcilable toward the idea of a Japanese protectorate, do not exceed a total of 1000, but it undoubtedly is a fact that there exists a deep feeling of unrest and hatred towards the Japanese among a majority of the Korean people. The Japanese residents in general are convinced that they can overcome this ill-feeling by a gradual but persistent demonstration of their good intentions, of their desire to benefit the masses of the people and their purpose to prevent injustice. Japanese officials say that the Japanese administration has been greatly hampered by the actions of certain irreconcilable Japanese, and that even the Japanese soldiers have committed serious offences. Assurances have been given that every case was investigated and that all offenders were being punished vigorously.

The residency has just issued some stringent press regulations directed against Japanese, Korean and foreign-owned vernacular newspapers. It proposes to confiscate these journals to prevent the circulation of inflammatory articles.

Another evidence of the unrest is found in the fact that two American missionaries recently received letters threatening them with death if they aided the government against the insurgents. The casualties in the recent encounters with these armed bandits, however, have been insignificant. The forces of unrest operates in small bands, seldom exceeding 100, and when they are pursued they scatter and hide their arms.

The government now proposes to thoroughly police the entire country with a force of about 800 men, including 400 Koreans.

While commerce and trade are practically at a standstill here and in other towns, general improvement work is going forward. The Japanese population is increasing rapidly.

CUSTOMS OFFICER

J. H. Macdonald Appointed at Rossland to Vacant Position

Rossland, May 2—John H. Macdonald, superintendent of the Rossland Engineering works, has received notification from the customs department at Ottawa that he had been appointed collector of customs for the port of Rossland.

There were several applications for the position, but last winter Mr. Macdonald received the endorsement of the executive of the local liberal association for the position and he had the backing of W. A. Galliher, M.P., and in addition to this he has been a life long liberal and an indefatigible worker for the party during campaings, spending his time and his money freely in sustaining the interests of the party.

B. R. Macdonald, who held the position of collector of customs here for over ten years, and who is succeeded by the new appointee, left here about a year since for Prince Rupert, where he was acting collector of customs up to two or three months since when a collector was appointed. Mr. Macdonald is now a clerk in the Prince Rupert office.

BUSINESS OUTLOOK

At the close of last fall it was suggested locally that possibly the real estate market, meaning more particularly ranching and fruit lands, was a little overloaded, and the opinion was then expressed, that although the spring might witness a forward movement, it was at least doubtful if this would prove to be the case. There was a good reason at the time for thinking that, in real estate circles at least, there would be a marked pause before the winter was over. The money market was unusually tight, there had been panicky times in the United States, and the banks in Canada were sounding notes of caution regarding the financial outlook generally, and this city and district felt the natural result of the distrust then prevailing.

But the fears felt last fall have not, most fortunately, been realized. During the winter months, as is the rule, real estate has been quiet, but with the coming of spring, the local market is more active than ever it was, and while deals in Kootenay lands of importance are frequently reported, a large number of smaller holdings are finding ready purchasers, and in the vast majority of cases, these smaller deals mean the coming of actual bona fide settlers to the district, really a matter of far more moment to the community at large than the more important transactions where large acreages pass into new hands. It is the coming of the settler, in the second stage of this land deal, that means so much to the business man and to the whole community.

We were told some two years ago by high authority that the best guarantee we could get for the permanent advance of this city, was the settling up of the lands in this neighborhood by actual settlers of the best class, and earl Grey's expressed hope, for he is the authority referred to, is rapidly and quietly accomplished, far more rapidly, perhaps, than a great many people really appreciate.

Interviews with many of the new settlers and chats with the men who are bringing them here, all go to demonstrate that the outlook for Nelson and district from every point of view at the present time is an exceedingly bright and satisfactory one. There are some drawbacks, but the good advertising work accomplished in the past year is bearing fruit, and as a result there is a sound feeling of confidence at the moment locally that was temporarily lacking at the close of least season and there is every reason for the belief that the coming summer will be the best from a business and financial standpoint that Nelson has ever experienced.

EDITORIAL NOTES

An Ontario school boy was asked to write a composition on "The Editor." Here is what he handed in: "The editor is the happiest beggar in the world. He can go to the circus in the afternoon and evening without paying a farthing, also inquests and hangings. He has free tickets to the theatres, gets wedding cake sent to him, and sometimes gets licked, but not often, as he can take it back in the next issue, which he generally does. While other folks have to go to bed early, the editor can sit up every night and see all that is going on."

Among all classes throughout Canada there will be but one opinion as to the wisdom of the government's course in determining to aid in the establishment of a great grain port on Georgian bay, and that will be hearty approval. This measure of assistance to the enterprise which the C. P. R. has in hand will hasten the day when the millions of bushels of grain now going to the seaboard via Buffalo will be diverted to the St. Lawrence route. As all are Canadians first and partisans afterward the government's course in this matter will meet with universal commendation.—Victoria Colonist.

Despite the fact that the press and officials of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway company warned workingmen to keep away from Prince Rupert until such time as they were sent for, there are assembled at that point a great crowd of laborers, who, being without money, and no work offering, are in a destitute condition. But a statement of the fact that these men have no one to blame will not relieve what is apparently quite a distressing situation. Fortunately, with the advent of spring, weather conditions are improving; and we assume it will only be a short time before employment can be secured from the railway company. But the plight of the unfortunates should serve as a warning to others who may be tempted to go north before they are required. Workingmen and others without sufficient funds to fall back on will be acting wisely if they secure employment before buying their tickets for Prince Rupert or obtain some assurances from official quarters that work will be awaiting them on arrival.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CO., Ltd.

Gentlemen—In January last Francis Leclare, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work.

FERNIE CUSTOMS

Receipts for Months Show Increase—Personal Mention

(Special to The Daily News.)

Fernie, May 2.—The returns of the local customs office for the month show a very satisfactory increase, reaching the respectable sum of $17,627.98. Some idea of the expansion of trade which has taken place during the last year will be had when these figures are compared with those of the same month last year, which amounted to $6037.20. Goods on the free list this month amounted to $11,305.50, as compared with $1311.25 last year. Inland revenue collections this month were $2845.32.

Through the courtesy of general manager J. D. Hurd the Bowling club has been granted the privilege of using the splendid lawns surrounding the coal company's offices for the season. The ground is in an excellent condition this year, and as the membership is large, the teams should give a good account of themselves in the games which are scheduled to take place with representatives from neighboring towns. At the annual meeting held this week the following officers were elected: Hon. president, J. D. Hurd; hon. vice president, R. W. Wood; president, A. C. Liphart; vice president, W. R. Ross, M. M. P.; secretary-treasurer, James H. Marshall; executive committee, J. S. T. Alexander, W. R. Ross, J. R. Pollock, Rev. I. W. Williamson and Sherwood Herchmer.

The Bachelors' ball, which is always looked forward to with such keen anticipation, took place in the opera house last night and as usual proved an unqualified success. The energetic committees in charge of the different arrangements spared no pains in looking after the comfort and enjoyment of their guests and their efforts were thoroughly appreciated by the large number who accepted their hospitality and were present.

The Fernie Liberal association will hold a meeting on Monday night to select delegates for the Liberal convention of Kootenay, which is to be held in Nelson next week to choose a candidate to succeed W. A. Galliher in the dominion house.

An enormous number of settlers bound for the territories are passing through here weekly. They are mostly from Washington, Montana, Oregon and Idaho points and are bringing in household effects and good stock, and are of a most desirable class.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Cambridge, Mass., May 2.—The deeds of the property now occupied at Chestnut Hill by Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the Christian Scientist leader, were transferred by record in the Middlesex registry of deeds to her today by Robt. F. Walker, of Chicago. Mrs. Eddy's transferring her residence from Concord, N. H., to Chestnut Hill on January 6 last was much to the surprise of even her closest friends.

PROCTER NOTES

(Special to The Daily News)

Procter, May 2—This district is now getting well settled up, and within the post few days some sales of land have taken place with the prospect of more during the coming week.

The local mill is now being operated to its full capacity and the work has settled down to a steady swing. This industry has added about 60 people to the population of the village.

G. B. Kerr will hold services on Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. in the large dining room of the new boarding house at the mill. All are welcome.

J. Douglas Lawson of the Ontario agricultural college, Guelph, is spending a part of his vacation here, the guest of W. Haig-Smellie and is looking into conditions with a view to settling.

S. S. Fraser returned here a few days ago after having spent the winter in the east and looks better for his trip.

Negotiations are now pending for either the erection of a new church or for permission to remove the present building on the Balfour townsite to Procter. The population now is sufficient to warrant a regular weekly service and it is up to the residents in general to stand by the efforts made in support of the church. By next year it might be possible to maintain a curate.

The school question will again be taken up this month and a rigid enquiry will be made into the school age of all children in the settlement and the report will be presented to the board of education.

There have been a few small trout catches this week and prospects of good luck this season are brightening.

NEW YORK FASHION LETTER

New York, May 2.—In "the good old summer time" which is now rapidly approaching, milady of fashion will need a new stock of parasols to protect her delicate complexion from the torrid rays of Old Sol. The New York shop keeper has had this idea in mind for some time, and the result is one of the most elaborate displays of sunshades that have ever been shown in this city. As in the past, the woman who desires to be "in style" will have a parasol to match every dress. The distinctively new feature in parasols is the use of pongee, and very handsome they are as well as practical, as the natural colored material they can be used with a great number of costumes and it is in the natural color that they are most often seen. Border effects, too, are singularly satisfactory in combination and there are both lined and unlined sorts offered, so that there is ample opportunity for choice and a great many things are provided for in the one material.

There are a great many contrasting border effects and many of them are exceedingly beautiful, but there are also tucked borders, and the plain coaching parasol is always in order for general use. For the carriage the simple sunshade of lace over white silk with the hinged handle will be exceedingly used and no doubt its very general revival is in part due to the needs of the motor car, for it shades the eyes without becoming the toy for the wind and it really provides all the protection that is needed while its form is such that it is easily adjusted. But in no one style of parasol can be said to prevail for the carriage any more than for the street. For lingerie costumes and those to which lingerie styles are suited, there are a whole host of exquisite things in linen that are embroidered and lace trimmed and that are just as dainty and fascinating as well can be.

While silk parasols will be seen both in the plain varieties and those that are painted or printed in lovely floral designs. There are those that have Dresden designs upon them, and lace insets that perfectly fit the sections as though they were made for them. Many of the new parasols are of light colored silks with tucked bordered edges, which will be used at the seaside and summer resorts.

Among this host of sunshades were a number of dark green, some of brown and ecru and even navy blue with printed borders, and some that looked as though they were cut from very wide ribbon with fancy borders. A favorite style seems to be a group of three tucks with a border above on the darker colored parasols.

Painting is always a favorite mode of decoration, but to be satisfactory it must be done well. Great trailing branches of roses, wistaria, a loose bunch of violets or a number of lilacs, as though strewn across the sections, are much liked as designs.

Embroidery is another feature of decoration that is much liked for parasols and dress accessories. There are beautifully embroidered Japanese styles and all sorts of embroideries are used as well as the introduction of laces and woven insets.

Of course, there is the lace and chiffon parasols, which is used for very dressy functions, and for carriage use. In contrast with these are those of cretonne and it is said in Paris that they are quite the fad, while a few have been shown on this side of the water, but a whole parasol of cretonne is not to many minds an artistic effect.

Handles are of many kinds. For the plain coaching parasols, handsome wood is preferred to everything else, but there are to be noticed some extreme effects in the carvings, such as birds' heads, swans' necks and the heads of animals; but after all the simple, plain finished knob handle is liked best by women of good taste. For the most elaborate parasols of lace, embroidered borders, painted or printed effects, long handles of delicately tinted wood that resembles enamel, toppd with a gold or gold inset with a jewel at the end, are much favored. Some handles are shown of bone with especially fine carvings upon them, especially those of ivory.

RUN-DOWN PEOPLE OF NELSON NEED VINOL

THE MODERN STRENGTH CREATOR AND BODY BUILDER

Many people right here in this vicinity are all run down and hardly able to drag about—don't know what ails them.

Our local druggist, Wm. Rutherford says "Such people need Vinol, our cod liver oil preparation without oil, which contains in a highly concentrated form all of the medicinal and strength creating elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but from which the useless oil has been eliminated and tonic iron added."

Vinol cures conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood and strengthens every organ in the body.

We ask every man, woman and child in this vicinity who is run down, tired and debilitated to try Vinol on our offer to return money if it fails. Wm. Rutherford, druggist, Nelson.

POLITICAL WISDOM

Ontario Protesting Against Arrival of Undesirables from Abroad

(Canadian Courier)

Last year the Ontario and dominion governments combined their operations in regard to immigration into Ontario. This year the dominion authorities have withdrawn from an arrangement covering several years. Further the Ontario people are doing all they can to show that a large number of immigrants who came to Ontario last year were "undesirables." Is all this politics or political wisdom.

The Hon. Mr. Hanna took occasion to point out in the legislature how the foreign population of Ontario, was contributing more than their fair quota to the prisons and asylums. Now, Dr. Bruce Smith, inspector of prisons for Ontario, follows the line taken by his chief and says that the increase in the number in jail is due entirely to "Canada, especially Ontario, being made the dumping ground during the past year for some most undesirable immigrants." He comes out boldly against the dominion regulations. "There must be something wrong with our immigration regulations that will permit such apparent neglect in the inspection of persons seeking and obtaining passage as immigrants to this country." Among the figures given in his report are those for drunkenness. The commitments numbered 4774 persons, the largest number since 1888. As it is well known that Canadians are gaining in sobriety, this increase must be mainly due to those who come from Great Britain and the continent. Being lonesome and living in forced idleness may account for their over-indulgence to some extent, though much of it is due to deeper causes.

Whether or not there is political motive behind all these protests of the Ontario authorities—and we do not believe that there is—there is a warning in all this for the people generally. We must not urge the authorities at Ottawa to rush in new citizens; must rather discourage such a course. Every government does mainly what the people desire, and the dominion government is no exception.

MAY DAY RESULTS

Paris, May 2.—May Day in Paris passed off quietly, the only incident being the arrest of two individuals who exhorted the soldiers to throw down their arms and join in the anti-military movement.

Chicago, May 2.—May Day in Chicago passed with one minor strike to mark the harmony that exists between employers and employees. Only 70 men were involved in that one strike but, notwithstanding the small number, the result was a tieup of all cut stone yards in the city. The men walked out to force an advance of 2½ cents an hour in wages. No efforts were made by the employers to fill the vacancies and it is thought the trouble will be soon patched up.

Berlin, May 2.—The socialistic May Day demonstrations passed off without disorder despite the fact that the unemployed were numerous participants. Twenty-two socialist meetings were organized in Berlin and its suburbs, a smaller number than in previous years. Despatches received from the principal cities in the provinces report that May Day everywhere passed off quietly.

CRIME AT PORTLAND

Portland, Ore., May 2.—Nathan Wolf, a pawnbroker and jeweler who has been in business in Portland for 25 years, was murdered last night. Wolf was evidently first shot in the neck and then beaten to death with a hatchet. His face and head were hacked. There is little doubt that robbery was the cause of the crime. Wolf carried a large stock of diamonds. It is said that the robbers took jewelry to the amount of $1700.

THE MOST COMMON CAUSE OF SUFFERING

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or changes in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost; 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists and dealers.

PREMIER AND CABINET

COMMENT ON THE NEW BRITISH MINISTRY

MR. ASQUITH'S NOMINEES AND PUBLIC OPINION

I met Mr. Asquith, the prime minister, walking alone in Oxford street on Sunday morning. While the country was expectant as to the contents of his new cabinet the maker of it was walking unrecognized down one of the chief streets of the capital. Mr. Asquith was good enough to express to me the hope that Public Opinion was flourishing, on which point I was able to assure him. Readers will remember the statement of the Daily News that "We know of two prime ministers who have read Public Opinion," and Punch's addition, "We know one prime minister who has misread it. That prime minister is not Mr. Asquith. Lord Rosebery told me quite recently that he used to read the paper and had begun to do so again.

The personalities of this week are, of course, political. Of Mr. Morley as a peer something is said elsewhere. Of Mr. Lloyd-George as chancellor of the exchequer, the Himes says: "No better man could have been found for the post, however free Mr. Asquith might have been in his choice. Mr. Lloyd-George has no direct financial experience, but he has shown at the board of trade business qualities of a high order, by the aid of which he will very rapidly master the affairs of the new post. Though the new chancellor is a thorough-going radical, he has commanded no small amount of confidence among those politically opposed to him, by the proofs he has given of sturdy common sense and rapid grasp of the political aspects of national business, as well as by conciliatory methods which, however, really depend upon the clearness with which he realizes his practical aim and his indifference to little victories that stand in the way of attaining it."

"The promotion of Mr. Churchill to the cabinet and to the control of a great department, board of trade, will," says the Manchster Guardian, being an even greater accession of strength to the government than Mr. Lloyd-George. Mr. Churchill has yet to approve himself in high office, but he has great industry, great administrative talent, and, besides these workaday qualities, a gift of political imagination and in action a courage and resource which must make him a powerful ally in any company." The Times says that Mr. Churchill, "though possessed of many striking qualities, has not done anything to command the confidence of business men."

"Mr. Runciman is not a man of the same calibre," says the Manchester Guardian, "but he has shown read administrative capacity, and in taking up the tangled skein of the education question he will have a great opportunity of success as of failure. He is young, able, and adaptable, and should give a good account of himself." As to Mr. Runciman, the Times says that though he is a nonconformist, "a fact which will reassure the nonconformist supporters of the government, he has a clean slate on the education question, never having taken a prominent part in the controversy. He is, therefore, well fitted to carry out a policy of conciliation and compromise. He has made a good impression on the house of commons, where he has represented the foreign office when sir Edward Grey was unable to be present, as well as the treasury."

"Mr. McKenna will be a real gain at the admiralty," says the Manchester Guardian. "His strength is in business and finance, and he will approach the great and critical question of naval administration and expenditure with a sane and independent mind. There is no department in which it is more necessary for its head to be able to judge and decide for himself, and in this duty Mr. McKenna is not likely to fail short. The transfer of lord Crewe to the colonial office will give him for the first time the opportunity of showing his real quality, and his handling of the critical question of the continuance and mode of administration of martial law in Natal will at once supply a somewhat crucial test. In the piloting of the education bill in the house of lords last year he showed great readiness, admirable temper and a happy mixture of conciliation and firmness which inspire no small hopes."

"Lord Crew and Col. Seely make a very strong combination at the colonial office," says the Daily Chronicle. "Mr. Buchanan leaves the war office for the India office, where he takes Mr. Hobhouse's place as under secretary. To Mr. Buchanan's old position as financial secretary to the war office succeeds Mr. Francis Acland, scion of a fine old liberal family who himself has shown marked parliamentary aptitude. Another change in the war office is the appointment of lord Lucas (son of the late Mr. Auberon Herbert) is a very young peer who has shaped well as private secretary to Mr. Haldane."

"Mr. Asquith has earned a fresh title to the gratitude of liberals by the manner in which he has made the necessary changes in the government," writes the Chrnonicle. "He has taken a broad view of the situation, and has shown courage alike in dealing with individuals and with facts. His administraton is strong effecient, busness-like and, and will create a highly favorable impression on the public mind. It starts on its way auspiciously, and we believe that Mr. Asquith's premiership will revitalize and reinvigorate the liberal party."

"It is a conservative recognition," says the Manchester Guardian. "With a minimum of personal changes Mr. Asquith has strengthened the ministry," says the Morning Post.

"It is somewhat surprising," thinks the Times, "that, with the prime minister's desire for new blood, the two oldest members of the cabinet, lord Ripon and sir Henry Fowler, should still remain; but there is reason to believe that both showed a strong desire to lend Mr. Asquith their support, and it may easily be understood that a man who in age might have been their son would find it impossible to ask for their places. The experience of both might be expected to be useful; and in any case neither occupies a post with any administrative duties of serious consequence."

Some of the minor appointments to the government are very interesting. Mr. C. F. G. Masterman, who will be associated with Mr. John Burns at the local government board is a great idealist, and has the making of an orator. He recently became engaged to the daughter of general the Hon. sir N. G. Lyttleton. For several years he lived in model dwellings in Camberwell. Mr. Hobhouse becomes financial secretary to the treasury. Dr. Macnamara is promoted to the secretaryship of the admiralty; and Mr. McKinnon Wood is parliamentary secretary of the board of education.

The Chronicle points out that the government is younger in average age than any of ministry of the past half century. The average of the outgoers is 61, and that of the incomers is 39. "The younger generation knocking at the door has not knocked in vain."

DRESS-MAKERS

The nervous strain through which dressmakers have to pass at certain seasons of the year seems almost beyond endurance, and frequently brings on nervous prostration, fainting spells, dizziness, sleeplessness and a general breaking down of the feminine system, until life seems altogether miserable.

For all overworked women there is one tried and true remedy.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

restores the feminine system to a strong, healthy, normal condition.

Mrs. A. D. Trudeau, Arnprior, Ontario, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I suffered terribly from ulceration of the feminine organs for eight years. I tried four doctors but got no relief, and thought I would have to die.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me. I hope every suffering woman will take my advice and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

EDITOR THE DAILY NEWS:

May I, as one of your regular readers, express the surprise which is felt by a large number of citizens at the fact that no arrest has followed the almost open charges which were made at the investigation into the recent fires? I can only suppose that this is due, not to any slackness of the police, but to the almost superhuman skill of the criminal. Certainly his ability as an acrobat must be very great if he could open one of the Globe valves on the cit transformers by kicking it, drain off 200 gallons of oil, close it again in the same manner so tight that it took "a good hard pull with both hands" to open it; the whole operation taking only five minutes and being performed without attracting the notice of a man who was within 15 feet.

Have you ever attempted to open a valve in this way, Mr. Editor? I have and I am forced to the conclusion that, while it is quite easy to start the valve enough to cause a leak which might in time drain out the oil, it takes a long time and very many picks to open the valve wide and it is quite impossible to close it in this way as tight as this valve was closed.

R. W. HINTON.

DAILY CANADIAN ENDS

NELSON'S EVENING PAPER GOES OUT OF BUSINESS

HAS ACCOMPLISHED PURPOSE FOR WHICH IT WAS FOUNDED

In its issue yesterday the Daily Canadian, the evening paper published in this city, announces that it retires from the journalistic field. Editorially the Daily Canadian says:

"With this issue The Daily Canadian ceases publication as a newspaper. A small issue will be printed next week for outside circulation to fulfil certain legal contracts, but as a newspaper today's is the last issue.

The Daily Canadian has now, for nearly two years, served the people of Nelson and vicinity as a medium of news and of fair comment. It was established in protest against what seemed to its founders unfair and misleading reports of political events. As the danger of such reports is unlikely to recur the necessity for the publication of this paper no longer exists.

"The Daily Canadian has aimed constantly to furnish its readers early, accurate and fair reports of all public events, chiefly of those of special interest in this city and province. It is gratifying to recall many unsolicited testimonials as to the lucidity and absolute fairness of The Canadian's reports.

"In politics, imperial, dominion and British Columbian, it has been a consistent and loyal advocate of the cause of conservatism. It stood always for maintaining and strengthening the imperial connection and for the spontaneous performance by Canada of all the duties and the fulfillment of all the responsibilities incidental to that connection. It has advocated the development of the dominion of Canada on the lines laid down by sir John A. Macdonald and it has from the first appeal of R. L. Borden, supported his demand for the cleansing of the civil service and the immediate abolition of the spoils system and the conservation of all the national wealth for all the people of the nation.

"In British Columbia politics the Canadian has supported the administration of the Hon. Richard McBride and his colleagues, believing that the maintenance of his government was essential to the stability, efficiency, and progressiveness of the administration of the province.

"In regard to the local affairs of the city of Nelson The Canadian has been on the side of progress. Its watchword for the city has always been "Forward," and for the attainment of that it has urged, and done its utmost to promote harmonious cooperation of all citizens for the public welfare.

"In spite of some unfavorable circumstances, the degree of support accorded has been most gratifying and sincere thanks are here extended to those who have given the paper their steady, generous and loyal support.

"With the purpose for which it was founded now accomplished The Daily Canadian takes leave of its readers, wishing them and the city of Nelson continued prosperity."

BUSY PLANTING TREES

All Going on Well at Fruitvale—New Settlers Arriving

(Special to The Daily News)

Fruitvale, May 2—The glorious weather of the week just ended has put all the settlers in good humor. The planting of fruit trees and small fruits, is being prosecuted vigorously and a great deal of work has been done all week.

Mr. Sideler had the misfortune to lose a valuable mare this week. There is plenty of room here for the employment of two or three good teams in plowing, stumping, etc.

Mrs. Hustwayte and family have arrived from Paris, Ont. The lady has purchased an orchard tract and has started to get the land in shape.

Mrs. Underwood, from The Dalles, Ore., is one of the latest arrivals. She says Fruitvale is ahead of Oregon in some particulars for fruit raising.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

The returns from the last shipment of the Slocan Sovereign to the Trail smelter, go 90 ounces in silver and 62 per cent lead.

Wolverton and company report sold two lots in Fairview to H. Shaw and two others to A. Dawson. Both purchasers will build this year.

Walter Fleetwood and Miss Margaret Skelly, both of Nelson, were married yesterday evening in St. Paul's manse by Rev. J. T. Ferguson.

There will be a football match next Saturday between the two Nelson clubs if it can be arranged. The Nelson United say that they are ready to play on that date.

In the Presbyterian church this evening Rev. J. T. Ferguson will give another of the series of addresses on the gospel in the poets, his subject being, "John Milton's sonnet on his blindness."

A meeting of the R.M.R. association will be held in the armory tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Efficiency certificates will be issued to the members and invitations for Friday's dance.

The Ymir housebreaking case came up before judge Wilson yesterday morning and the four prisoners, Church, Brydges, Bennie and Pickerell were each sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

June, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ink, who is seriously ill with pneumonia, was reported by Dr. Wilson, the attending physician, to be slightly better last evening.

Miss Patrick yesterday won the $5 prize offered by Harry Gibson to any lady beating the bowling score of Mrs. Frank, 143. The prize is still open except to those who have already won it.

The timber limits on Cooper creek, Slocan, which are in the name of the Vanstone Bros., may be disposed of to Minneapolis parties. The owners have gone to Minneapolis to negotiate the deal.

The excavation of the new Methodist church is about finished and rock is being placed upon the ground for the foundation. G. C. McKay has been appointed superintendent of construction, under architect Hopper of Vancouver.

There was only a small house at the theatre last night to witness the presentation of the double bill which earned such commendations on Eagle night last Wednesday. The company will probably be back in Nelson within the next few weeks and promise to play old English comedies and forego melodrama as a theatrical sin.

On Friday last Sisters Radcliffe and Smith and Tims of the local Salvation army paid a missionary visit to Slocan City. The held an open air meeting opposite the Victoria hotel and a Salvation meeting later in the Presbyterian church. The visitors were cordially received and asked to return at some later date.

The blind lead on the Ymir mine, for which search has been persistent for the past year, was struck early last week and from the development since that it was yesterday announced that the lead was undoubtedly present. This may make a considerable difference in the fortunes of this property.

Fred Bosquet is keeping tab on the local fishermen. He reports that during the past week Bert Dill can truthfully be said to have landed a 3 lb. 2 oz. beauty, and he adds that Archie Johnson had lawfully in his possession, and presumably captured by himself three trout, the total weight of which was 6 lb. 4 oz. Yesterday Mr. Bosquet says that J. Brenan of this city went down the track in the afternoon and fished off the shore between the city and the railway bridge for a couple of hours and had a basket of 38. None of the catch were remarkably large, but they were all of a nice size.

A general inspection of the 102nd regiment will be made here on June 25 by general Lake, inspector general of the Canadian militia, of the Nelson, Rossland and Kaslo companies.

A letter has been received by Joe Thompson from Paul Greyerbiehl at Victoria, asking that steps be taken to arrange a game of lacrosse with a Victoria team for Dominion day in this city. Greyerbiehl says the Victoria players are a "warm bunch" and will give the Nelsonites, if a game is forthcoming, some busy moments. The matter will be taken up by the lacrosse club.

Word was received yesterday from the coast that in the case of Scott v. McCorter, tried last December in Rossland before Mr. justice Martin, and appealed to the full court, being heard by chief justice Hunter, Mr. justice Irving and Mr. justice Morrison, the appeal has been dismissed. Scott was an employee who was hurt in the Broadview mine and engaged G. S. McCarter of Revelstoke to bring action. This McCarter failed to do whereupon Scott brought action against him. His case was undertaken by Macdonald and Winn of Rossland and was defended by C. Hamilton, K.C. and S. S. Taylor, K.C. The case was dismissed on the ground that no action could be taken under the Employers Liability act, inasmuch as no negligence could be proved. Therefore the action must be under the Workmens Compensation act. But in the latter case only the mine owner, not the lessee or bond holder could be made responsible. Now Scott was hurt while working for a bondholder. On an appeal this view has been sustained.

OTTAWA MINE

Ore Shipments to Restart Shortly—Slocan's Cleaning up Day

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Slocan, May 2—The Ottawa mine, which, for several years was Slocan's best shipper will soon again begin sending down her daily wagon load of high grade silver ore. Drifting on the vein has been steadily in progress for almost a year, and last week, at a distance of 500 feet under ground, solid ore of the old time richness and thickness was encountered. The compressor plant will be started up at once and a full crew of men will be put to work getting out the ore.

Mayor McNeish has issued a proclamation setting aside May 5 as a holiday and requesting all citizens to assemble on that day and clear up a couple of blocks for a park. A band stand will be erected in the park.

Felix Rindler has bought 20 acres of land adjoining the townsite from Tony Long and will erect a residence on the ranch and proceed to plant an orchard.

T. D. Woodcock of Alberni is spending a few days in town.

GUN CLUB SHOOT

At the shoot of the gun club yesterday afternoon the scores made were as follows:

Bishop	37	268
Ward	30	250
Moe	67	226
Johnson	24	166
Larsen	19	163

J. Moe who was absent on the previous occasion shot yesterday at 100 instead of 50 birds. Besides those mentioned above there were three other shooters, Blackwood, Patrick and Holmes, each of whom shot at 25 birds. Blackwood scored 22, Patrick 11, and Holmes 15. The weather was rought and the scores suffered accordingly.

FIRE IN MONTREAL

Montreal, May 2—One of the most exciting and peculiar fires that has occurred in Montreal for some time, broke out last night in a four storey building at the corner of Bleury and Dowd streets, and was atended by the rescue of two young women by deputy chief Tremblay and foreman Lapointe, amid cheers from the crowd of onlookers that blocked the street. The women rescued were Mrs. Facella and rMs. Craig, who lived on the third floor. When they first noticed the fire they attempted to go down the stairs but were almost overcome and were obliged to go to the top floor on the gallery from which they were rescued.

CULPRITS STILL FREE

Pittsburg, May 2—Rumors were current here today that four men had been arrested in connection with the holdup and robbery of the St. Louis express train on the Pennsylvania railroad at Walker's Mills, eleven miles from here, on Thursday night. An investigation, however disclosed the fact that the four men had been arrested for an alleged postoffice robbery near here and when brought to the city handcuffed it was supposed they were the train robbers. It is denied that any arrests have been made in the case. Up to tonight there seems to be no definite clue to the identity of th culprits. Many officers are engaged in the case but there has been found nothing which would lead to important developments.

IT MADE A DIFFERENCE

Washington, May 2—As a result of the investigation of the Fassett-Cassidy telegram, alleged to have caused the defeat of governor Hughes racing bill, through the insertion of the word "not" in the telegraph office at the capitol, representative Fassett will introduce a bill making it an offense to alter a telegram. The district attorney's office is understood to have been unable to find any law covering the offense.

TEMPORARILY INSANE

Boston, May 22—Henry F. Fowle of New York, expert accountant, auditor and cashier for Warren Bros. company of eNw York, New Haven and Boston, committed suicide today by shooting himself through the head on the grounds of the Boston athletic association at Riverside. Mr. Fowle came here last night to visit his sister, who lives in Newton. He is believed to have been temporarily insane on account of overwork and despondency. He had of late been working for the firm with which he is connected in New Haven. He leaves a wife and daughter in New York.

FLOODS AT QUEBEC

Montreal, May 2—Floods are reported in many points in the province from high water in the Ottowa, St. Lawrence, Lievre and Restigouche rivers. A landslide is reported from Louiseville, where about 16 acres of land slid into the Chacoura river.
