ABDUL'S CASH

Late Sultan's Money Sent to Foreign Banks

DISORDERS NEAR CAPITAL

CONSTANTINOPLE SEES HUNTING PARTY—EXECUTIONS FOLLOW TODAY—NEW LIGHT ON ORIGIN OF RACE WAR OF ARMENIANS AND TURKS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 7—There is considerable disorder in the country surrounding Constantinople and brigandage is being carried on in the very suburbs of the capital. This state of affairs is a result of the rapid change in government and undoubtedly can be laid at the doors of the deserters from the former Constantinople garrison and political refugees who have undertaken to live on the country.

The parliamentary commission which is taking an inventory of the contents of the imperial palace at Yildiz, the residence of the deposed sultan, has learned that Abdul Hamid deposited during recent months considerable sums of money in New York banks through a confidential agent. The amounts sent to America and the institutions holding them are, however, strictly withheld. It appears that Abdul Hamid has in the neighborhood of $10,000,000 in German banks.

Mehemmed V drove to the mosque of the Dolmabagtche palace for the customary ceremony of saying his prayers today. After his devotions he drove to Maslak, his summer residence, a mile outside of the city. Following the selamlik a stag hunt was participated in by Enver Bey, Mahomed Meukhter, a former military attache of the Turkish embassy at Washington, Reached Bey, Fuad Pasha, count Deym Destriter, first secretary of the Austrian embassy, and fifteen others. The hunting party met in front of the Cheeragan palace, where the present sultan was a prisoner for some 30 years. The hunt which was over a rough country, requiring the clearing of many walls and ditches lasted 35 minutes.

It is expected that another series of executions will take place tomorrow, and that probably 12 persons will be put to death.

ADANA, May 7—The grain on the Adana peain is ripe for the harvest, but no Armenian refugees dare go back to their farms as the surrounding district is still dangerous for any not a Turk. Consequently there is no present prospect of employment. The relief work is being carried on systematically in Adana. Special camps have been established for persons suffering from contagious diseases such as typhoid fever and smallpox. It is costing about $1205 a day to run these places.

BEIRUT, May 7 — An investigation who has just returned here from a trip to Kessab, reports that all the American property at that place was completely destroyed by the Moslem raiders. It included a girls' high school under the direction of a missionary of the American board of commerce for foreign missions. Three-fourths of the national houses also were destroyed but the Armenian church and the new Protestant school building are still standing. Almost all the people who fled from Kessab, thus saving their lives, have returned. They found that their homes had been completely looted. They are today absolutely destitute.

PARIS, May 7 — A letter received here from an officer board the French armored cruiser Victor Hugo at Mersina, dated April 24, while fully confirming the horrors of the recent massacre, says that the previous attitude of the Armenian population undoubtedly was provocative. The writer declares that after the proclamation of the Turkish constitution in July of last year, the Armenians became insolent and quarrelsome. They boasted openly their separatist intention and of their purpose of re-establishing the Armenian kingdom. At Armenian theatres plays were produced flouting the Turks, the authors of this piece going back to the days of Tamerlane to find subjects with which to inflame the hatred against Moslem oppression. Consequently when the signal for reaction was received from Constantinople the worst passions of the mob were unchained.

ROME, May 7—Hakka Bey, the Turkish ambassador, who has been appointed minister of justice in the new Ottoman cabinet, in an interview with the Giornal d'Italia, said that the program of the new regime in Turkey is to ensure the integrity of the empire through good political and economic relations with the powers which will be satisfied with the revival of Turkey as a guarantee of peace.

Speaking of the new sultan, the ambassador said that he was a man of the highest character, cultured and a lover of his country and liberty. He had suffered much under the past despotic regime; Hakka Bey added: "And for many years was a prisoner of his brother surrounded by spies." Mehemmed V, the ambassador said, loves the constitutional regime because it insures justice and liberty. He will be a true constitutional monarch, maintaining the right of all classes and races and will reorganize the administration which will ensure the economic internal development of the country.

NEW YORK, May 7—No confirmation of the report from Constantinople that Abdul Hamid, the deposed sultan of Turkey had a considerable sum of money on deposit in New York banks, could be obtained here today. While it was suggested that the deposits may have been made with some of the large international banking houses, bank officers who were questioned said that they knew nothing about the matter.

CAMPAIGN ENDS TODAY

MOST EXCITING IN THE HISTORY OF NEWFOUNDLAND

RESULT OF NEW APPEAL MAY NOT BE KNOWN FOR WEEK

ST. JOHNS, May 7—The most exciting election campaign known in Newfoundland since responsible government was established came to an end tonight. Although balloting will begin tomorrow, it is not expected that the outcome will be known until the latter part of next week as a number of districts are remote from the railroads and all ballot boxes have to be brought to St. John's.

The election is the second within seven months. At the November polling 36 members of the legislature were elected, 18 supporting Sir Robert Bond, who was then premier, and the othe rhalf favoring Sir Edward Morris. After Governor MacGregor had summoned the legislature half a dozen times and each time prorogued it, that body finally attempted to elect a speaker but the deadlock continuing the government dissolved the assembly and ordered a new election. In March a short time before dissolution, Sir Robert Bond, and his cabinet, resigned their offices and Sir Edward Morris succeeded to the premiership.

Violence, libel suits, arrests and bitter campaign attacks on the stump and in the party press have characterized the struggle. The most sensational incident of the campaign was the attack on Sir Robert Bond when he attempted to land from a schooner attempted to land from a steamer at Western Bay on April 30 for the purpose of addressing a meeting. A large crowd of voters in sympathy with the Morris party prevented the former premier from stepping on the wharf. Sir Robert Bond was kicked in the chest and knocked overboard. He saved himself from drowning by seizing the gunwale of a small boat nearby. Another sensational incident occurred on April 23 when Walter Blaine one of the leading merchant and ship owners of St. John's, was placed under arrest charged with criminally libeling Sir Edward Morris. Sir Edward sued the Bond newspaper in St. John for $50,000 damages for seconding the charges alleged to have been made by Mr. Blaine. The Morrisites made counter-charges that the late Bond ministry had been in communication with the Canadian government regarding the question of annexation.

OFFERS NO TESTIMONY

Woman Kidnapper Will Trust To Her Counsel's Argument

MERCER, Pa., May 7—The court room was packed this morning when the trial of Mrs. James Boyle, indicted as Mary Rae, as an accessory to the kidnapping of "Billy" Whitla was resumed. Billy Whitla, the kidnapped boy, was the first witness. He repeated substantially his testimony of yesterday given in the case against James Boyle, adding that when he arrived at teh house in Cleveland with Boyle they met a woman who told him was his cousin. "Billy" identified Mrs. Boyle as the woman who cared for him in Cleveland, and whom he had known as Mrs. Jones. He identified a nurse's outfit as the clothing Mrs. Jones had worn and said she had red spots on her face which she said were the result of having recently had smallpox.

Declaring that he had not had a fair trial and that he wanted to tell the whole truth about the kidnapping case, James Boyle, who was put on the stand for the state, created a commotion in the court room today and was with difficulty prevented from telling his version of the affair. Attorneys for both state and defence, court officials and Judge Miller himself, took part in the effort to stop Boyle's tongue.

The state rested its case at 3.30 o'clock. A conference followed between Mrs. Boyle and her counsel lasting about half an hour. It resulted in a decision to offer no testimony in her defence. Announcement of the decision was promptly made to the court and arguments will be made tomorrow morning.

MILWAUKEE, May 7 — Judge M. L. Palmer, for 35 years president of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance company, died at his home here early today. He was also the oldest past grand master of the Knights Templars of the United States.

Debate in Senate Recalls Former Days

CARTWRIGHT ON TARIFF

SIR MACKENZIE BOWELL CHAFFS SIR RICHARD ON CHANGE OF VIEWS—SIR WILFRID LAURIER REBUKES FOLLOWERS FOR NON-ATTENDANCE.

OTTAWA, May 7 — The senate in committee of the whole reported the bill amending the Exchequer Court act bringing the court employees under the civil service act. Some surprise was expressed when senator Choquette pointed out that there was no provision for Quebec cases being tried by a French speaking judge. It was pointed out that while judge Cassels was an excellent jurist, he was not sufficiently familiar with the language. Sir Richard Cartwright said he would call the attention of the minister of justice to the matter. A bill incorporating the Catholic church extension passed the third reading.

Sir Richard Cartwright in the senate yesterday, on the second reading of a bill to give effect to tariff changes announced in the budget, declared he would very much like to see sugar, which is a necessity of life, on the free list.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell said he was surprised to see sir Richard introduce a bill to give more protection to manufacturers such as sugar refiners. He approved of the principle but did not think sir Richard could. Sir Mackenzie doubted the claims of refiners that a combine existed.

Sir Richard said that Mr. Fielding when in London had inquired and had become convinced that a combine existed.

In the house this morning Mr. Oliver explained an ordinance respecting the imposition of a tax on ale, porter, beer and lager beer imported into the Yukon territory, which was passed by order in council last September. A tax of 50 cents a gallon on these liquors imported from any foreign country is imposed. This is in addition to the customs tax.

The commons indulged in an academic discussion of Alphonse Verville's motion to provide for an eight hour day on public works, Mr. Verville, who is president of the trades and labor council, having withdrawn the bill which he has brought up for three sessions.

Mr. Verville argued that increased energy would make up for shortened hours. Hon. Mr. Lemieux sympathized with the principles, but declared this was a matter for the provinces. The dominion would have to pay the same amount for eight hours that the provincial and other contractors paid for ten. Mr. Lemieux added that the bill will be reintroduced next session. Pressed by the opposition the minister of labor said he would not support the bill in its present form. A good deal of sympathy was displayed by the house.

Mr. Henderson, Halton, attacked Mr. Verville's good faith in the matter, saying that for himself he did not believe in class legislation an da man on a public building has as good a right to work ten hours as a man on a private building.

At the caucus of liberal members this morning, John Tolmie presiding, sir Wilfrid Laurier gently rebuked some of his followers for inattention to work of the session. He pointed out the necessity of attending faithfully the sittings of the house in order to expedite business. Several members expressed regret that they had been absent yesterday when the important division on Mr. Crothers' motion w called.

The caucus declared its confidence in confidence in Hon. Mr. Pugsley.

M. Lewis, M.P. for West Huron, has given notice of a bill seeking to stamp out the tramp nuisance. His object is to set aside ten thousand acres in northern Ontario and ten thousand acres in northern Quebec, contiguous to each other, as a prison farm where all offenders and criminals, except those convicted of the most heinous crimes, may be imprisoned and made to work at hard labor.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced that the bill increasing civil service salaries would be taken up on Monday. This led Mr. Foster to remark that he had been blamed for the bill having been held up since March 15th. He had received many letters of protest. He was not responsible. Mr. Fisher was to blame. Mr. Fisher admitted this, saying that the arrangement of the classification had caused the delay.

Mr. Arlesworth gave notice of a bill providing for the appointment of an additional district court judge for Alberta at a salary of $3,500 for the first three years and after that $3,000.

Getting Down to Details

MONTREAL, May 7—There was nothing of outside interest in today's session of the civic commission. Most of the evidence was as to the value of No. 12 police station. The inquiry will continue Monday.

LOCAL LOAN COMPANY

FERNIE BOARD OF TRADE WON'T WAIT FOR ENTERPRISE

CITY BUILDING RAPIDLY — CAPITAL NEEDED FOR PURPOSE

(Special to The Daily News.)

FERNIE, May 7.—The board of trade held a well attended and enthusiastic meeting in the city hall tonight, and several matters of importance to the district came up for discussion. New rules, regulations and bylaws were presented by a committee appointed to draw them up and after they had been fully discussed were adopted. The question of assessment of city property occupied the attention of the board, the general opinion being that the assessment was too low, but as the city council is now taking the matter up, the meeting decided not to take any action at present. The subject which evoked most discussion was that of the necessity of inducing building or loan companies to operate in Fernie; splendid business could be done by such companies on the very best of security, but as yet they have failed to seize the opportunity. It was suggested that a local company be organized, and a committee was appointed to investigate the mater, and it is more than probable that such an organization will be floated at an early date, as the proposition was most enthusiastically received and will have the unqualified support of the business men of the city.

The meeting decided to hold monthly luncheons at which prominent visitors will be asked to give short addresses, and arrangements will be made to hold the first one in the immediate future. Great interest is being taken in the board of trade meetings by the members, and the effect is already noticable in the conduct of public affairs.

The funeral of Mike Kuhle and John Pianetta, the unfortunate victims of the blow out in the Carbonado mines, took place here today, under the direction of the Slavonian society. The remains were brought to Fernie by special train then they were met by the members of St. Joseph society, to which the deceased belonged, and a procession was formed and marched to the Catholic church where a service was held. Interment took place in St. Margaret's cemetery, the Rev. Father Hebner, officiating.

N. H. Baldaby returned to town yesterday from a two week's visit to the Okanagan valley.

The ladies' society of the Methodist church held a largely attended and most enjoyable tea today at the residence of Mrs. Wilkes at Pellatt avenue.

BAD YEAR IN TRADE

All Countries Show Diminished Exports and Imports

WASHINGTON, May 7 — Measured in values of merchandise imported and exported as compared with those of a year ago trade conditions in practically all sections of the commercial world show a decline according to a report of the bureau of statistics issued today.

"This fall in the value of imports and exports of the principal cities of the world," says the reports, "is probably due in part to the lower prices of the principal articles forming commerce and while it cannot, of course, be said that 1909 prices are lower in every article than those of 1908, the figures indicate yower prices in foreign countries in many of the principal articles forming our own import trade and also a fall in prices of certain important articles of our own export trade. On the export side," the report continues, "among the principal articles of export from the United States, raw cotton shows a drop from 11 cents a pound in March, 1908 to 9.5 per pound in March, 1909, and sharp declines were made in steel rails, pig iron, cotton cloth, unbleached, canned salmon, rosin, turpentine, crude mineral oil and illuminating oils."

Easy Way Round

NE WYORK, May 7—There can be no bookmaking without writing or recording, under a decision of the appellate division of the New York state supreme court, rendered today in sustaining the writ of habeas corpus releasing from custody Orlando Jones and Sol Lichtenstein. These men were arrested at race tracks last summer on charges of violating the penal code by bookmaking but were released by habeas corpus. The district attorney of King's county appealed fro mthis decision but the appellate division sustained the lower courts. The contention of the prosecution that bookmaking was the making of a plan of odds to be followed in betting which was not necessarily recorded but could be communicated orally, was declared by the court not to be sustained.

The plan comprehends the moving of the clock two hours ahead for the period of the year between May 1 and October 1, this having the effect of bringing two daylight hours into the leasure period of the day and is intended to conform in a measure to the system advocated some time ago in England.

LATE APPEAL

Miners Now Ask for Board of Conciliation

AND NOMINATE SHERMAN

DISTRICT PRESIDENT, WHO HAS CONDEMNED LEMIEUX ACT AND IS AT WAR WITH INTERNATIONAL UNION, WILL ACT AS MEN'S ARBITRATOR.

(Western Associated Press.)

OTTAWA, May 7—The department of labor has definite information to the effect that the disputing parties in coal mines controlled by members of the Western Coal Operators' association in Alberta and in eastern British Columbia have agreed that the dispute in question shall be referred to a board of conciliation and investigation under the Industrial Disputes Investigation act. It is understood that the employers and miners concerned will each recommend a member for appointment to this board.

COLEMAN, May 7—A new and interesting feature has been added to the coal miners' strike by the application of Robert Evans, who is at present directing the struggle on behalf of the men, owing to the illness of president Frank Sherman, for a board of arbitration under the Lemieux act. In the communication sent to Ottawa Frank Sherman is named as the men's representative on the board. With the application for such an arbitration board the end of the strike, it is hoped, is in sight. That this cannot come any too soon is the view of the men in this as well as in other camps, and also of the general public.

The application by Mr. Evans for a board of arbitration was rather unexpected. President Sherman has personally condemned the Lemieux act, the officers of district No. 18, United Mine Workers of America, of which he is the head, have passed resolutions declaring its uselessness and unfairness to organized labor and the present strike was declared in violation of its provisions, with the result that thousands of miners have now been out of work for over five weeks.

One of the factors which have resulted in the action taken by Mr. Evans has been the stand taken by T. L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers of America and his representatives on the ground, Messrs. Morgan and Lewis, the former of the state of Washington and the latter of Idaho, both being members of the international executive. According to the Fernie Ledger, Mr. Sherman's newspaper organ, it now transpires that Messrs. Lewis, Morgan and Rogers have from the start condemned Mr. Sherman's action in refusing to sign the agreement drawn up by the representatives of the men and the operators at Macleod last March and approved by the miners by a referendum vote and also in declaring the strike. These officers have made it plain to the men on strike that they may expect no financial assistance from the international body. They say in effect that, as the strike was not properly called, the men who obeyed Mr. Sherman's order must fight their own battle as best they can.

The attitude of the international has aroused Mr. Sherman an dthose who were associated with him in calling the present strike, and what started as a dispute between capital and labor has developed to a large extent into a struggle between Mr. Lewis and the international union, who, it is claimed, in this instance represent the best elements in organized labor, on the one hand and Mr. Sherman and his autocratic methods on the other. According to present appearances the international officers are beginning to get the better of it so far as the men are concerned. After Mr. Sherman called the strike, it will be remembered, he called a convention of the district at Fernie, over 60 per cent of the delegates to which were from the mines of the Crow's Nest Coal company, in which there was no strike, and less than 40 per cent from the mines in which the strike was declared. The convention endorsed Mr. Sherman's action in calling the strike but only after a hard fight among the delegates, many of the delegates from the affected districts opposing such a move. Since then some discussion has arisen and the feeling of the men on the strike has been taken again by open vote in the various camps and the men at Coleman, Bellevue and Hillcrest went against the continuance of the struggle, while, it is said, there was also a substantial vote of a similar character in the other districts although the figures have not been given out.

One of the ironies of the strike is the fact that Mr. Evans in asking for an arbitration under the Lemieux act, has named Mr. Sherman as the men's representative on the board, although Mr. Sherman has always contended that this act was no good and also although he is now supposed to be too ill to conduct the strike.

Now that Mr. Evans has asked for an arbitration board, the operators who all along have been standing pat, have something to say. At each of the various conferences which have taken place between their representatives and those of the men since the strike began they have held the Macleod agreement open to acceptance by the men. They now, however, take the ground that the application by the strike leaders for a board of arbitration does away with the Macleod agreement altogether and they will place several demands before the arbitrators. These, compared with the agreement, include a reduction in several contract prices, a differential or lower rate for mining pillars and the striking out of the "check-off" clause.

The situation now is that as a result of the rejection of the Macleod agreement by Mr. Sherman and his declaration of the strike, followed by the application for an arbitration board, the men stand to lose, while there is nothing for them to win that they would not have got under the Macleod agreement. This is apparently the net result of a strike which has cost the men over a month of idleness, the companies considerable loss through the shutting down of their mines and the general public and the industries depending on these mines for a fuel supply, much inconvenience and in many cases heavy loss.

LAKE STRIKE GENERAL

All Shipping Trades Friendly to the Sailors

BUFFALO, May 7—A meeting of all classes of workmen employed in shipping at this port was held tonight to discuss the strike situation. The talks by the leaders of the various organizations were general and no definite promises were made of a sympathetic movement but there was a decided tone of friendliness towards the strikers. The fact that the marine firemen and various organizations in the longshoremen's association were represented is regarded as significant in view of the reports that officials of the latter organization who meet here tomorrow contemplate an important move.

DEFIANCE TO GOVERNMENT

SAILORS ON MAIL STEAMERS SYMPATHIZE WITH POSTMEN AND OTHER OFFICIALS—DANGER OF PARALYSIS OF PUBLIC SERVICE.

PARIS, May 7—The attorney general began proceedings in the tribunal of the Seine this afternoon for the dissolution of the postmen's syndicate.

Both public sympathy and law seem today to be clearly against the post, telegraph and telephone employees' association which yesterday threw down the gage of battle to the government by transforming themselves into a syndicate or union under the laws of 1884. This action placed the association on the same footing as the workmen's unions and was calculated to give it the right to strike against its employer, the state. Despatches received here from Havre, Lyons and other cities say that the post telegraph and telephone employers' association have voted in principle for a general strike.

The congress of railroad men, at a secret session had today, decided to submit the question of a general strike to a referendum and appointed a permanent strike committee.

AJACCIO, May 7—The railroad employees on the Corsican lines voted today to commence a general strike on Sunday.

DISCUSS PAYNE BILL

German Papers on the Proposed New American Tariff

BERLIN, May 7—An extraordinarily difficult situation for Germany has been caused by the announcement of the intention of the United States to terminate the commercial agreement, according to the Tageblat, which discusses the question at length. "Germany must again struggle for the advantages secured in the provisional agreement," says the Tageblat. "The new American tariff is in many points explicitly directed against German imports and the concession which Germany is able to offer so as to set aside this protective tariff will probably be insufficient under the present agrarian domination.

"Trade and commerce must for the moment pay the agrarian minority's bill, though statistics prove that the percentage of the agricultural population is continually diminishing. These conditions, however, are becoming impossible of continuance. Enormous issues are at stake. The United States is one of Germany's best customers and it will be difficult to find other markets for our industrial exports now going to that country. The United States on the other hand, can easily dispose of her agricultural produce, the entry of which we make difficult."

The Tagliche Rundschau says "We need not weep over the termination of the agreement whereby we were the givers and the United States the takers. If we must reach a fresh understanding, it is to be hoped that we will lay more stress than hitherto on demonstrating our national unselfishness The state is, and must naturally be, selfish."

The Vossische Zeitung says: "For the German export industry the provisions of the Payne bill are in no way favorable even should the minimum duties be accorded."

Labor Riots

KINGSTON, May 7—Rioting here today on account of the strike of brick makers tied up all the large yards in this section. At the yards of the Ulster Brick company at Ulster Landing, a horse and half a dozen wagons were thrown into the river by gangs of strike sympathizers. In several yards quantities of half finished brick were ruined by the mob, while a foreman, D. McDonald, was attacked and seriously injured. The number of men out has now reached nearly 600. It is feared rioting may reach serious proportions in case the employers attempt Monday to carry out their plan to fill their yards with non-union men.

SERAPHINO IS ACQUITTED

THE JURY ACCEPTED PRISONER'S PLEA OF SELF-DEFENCE

TOOK NEARLY THREE HOURS TO AGREE—ADJOURN TO MONDAY

The case of Rex v. Seraphino, a charge of wounding with intent to kill, took up the time of the supreme court yesterday till after 6 p.m., and ended in the acquittal of the prisoner.

The Seraphino case was resumed yesterday morning, the first witness called being constable Stewart of Rossland police force.

Constable Stewart told of his going with chief Long to Seraphino's cabin and arresting him. No resistance and no attempt at resistance was made.

Tony Jacino, who had come on the men as they were struggling and separated them first, deposed that Seraphino was down and Mastrella on top of him. He did not know how the fight began. He saw Seraphino stab Mastrella several times. The struggle was renewed after he, Jacino, had helped Seraphino to his feet, and Seraphino struck Mastrella a blow in the stomach with a knife while they were both standing. The second time he took Seraphino's hand to help him up. Seraphino's hand was covered with blood. Each time the struggle was renewed Mastrella got the better of Seraphino and put him down on the ground. He, Jacino, finally took the knife away from Seraphino.

Eustachio Mastrella, the complainant, who it is alleged, Seraphino stabbed, gave his evidence through the interpreter. He deposed that on the night in question Seraphino met him late at night on the wagon road and wanted to talk. Mastrella wanted to go home and told Seraphino to do the same. Seraphino complained of dirt left in the drift by Mastrella. Mastrella said it concerned only the boss. Seraphino then undertook to walk home with Mastrella, the latter walking ahead. As they reached the G.N.R. track Seraphino attacked him from behind, first taking hold of him. He Mastrella was carrying cigars in one hand and a dinner pail in the other. He dropped them and tried to clinch. Just then Tonio Jacino arrived and separated them and told them to go home different ways. He, Mastrella, stooped to pick up his cigars and tobacco. He was then struck from behind by Seraphino with a knife, in the abdomen, in the shoulder and in the head.

His, Mastrella's clothes were then produced and the knife cuts were shown to the jury.

Mr. Macdonald then began to cross-examine. The witness said he was less than two years from Italy whence he had come straight to Rossland.

The witness contradicted what he had said in a declaration taken in the Rossland hospital when he was thought to be dying, that he had seen a knife and a revolver in Seraphino's hands or pockets. Seraphino, he maintained had told him that he had both. Tonio Jacino had afterwards searched Seraphino and found neither revolver or knife.

Mastrella admitted that he struck Seraphino on the head with his dinner pail. They fell together, he on top, but he did not strike while Seraphino was down. At the second attack neither went down, both were standing when Seraphino stabbed him, but he would not give a straight contradiction to Jacino's statement that when the stabbing was done Seraphino was down and Mastrella on top.

Charles Seraphino (no relation to the accused) deposed in good English that on the night after the struggle on passing the scene on his way home from the Centre Star mine where he works, he saw blood stains in the snow and found a knife, which he identified when it was produced and shown him.

John Hendrickson, a miner, told that on the night of the 21st of February he was passing a switch on the Great Northern track; he saw one man lying on the ground, evidently hurt, and two men standing up. The one the ground was Mastrella, one of those standing up was Tonio Jacino. He, Hendrickson, had helped Mastrella and then had notified the police.

To Mr. Macdonald the witness said that Seraphino had remained for a moment or two over Mastrella after he arrived.

To his lordship the witness said that Seraphino after a brief hesitation, ran away.

Chief of police Long told of the arrest of Seraphino by constable Stewart and himself. He then went to the hospital and took the deposition of the injured man.

To Mr. Macdonald he said there was no difficulty in arresting Seraphino.

Mr. Harvey declared the case for the crown closed.

The accused was the first witness in his own defence. To his counsel he said he had been in Rossland for four years and a half, was a married man with one child and had never been in trouble.

He told of the meeting with Mastrella. Mastrella had cigars. He asked for one. Mastrella said he could not give him one as they were not his. He, Seraphino, walking behind, stooped to tie his shoe. Mastrella struck him with his dinner pail and jumped on top of him.

Then Jacino arrived and stopped Mastrella, who, the accused believed, wanted to kill him. Mastrella said: "see what this man has." While Jacino searched him, Mastrella was kicking him and afterwards threw him on the ground. Mastrella also bit his hand and head, saying "I'll eat you right here." Seraphino then struck with the knife he had, to defend himself and make Mastrella release his hand.

To Mr. Harvey Seraphino said he had been taken to the hospital for the preliminary hearing. He had told the doctor of his bitten hand but not the police. He had not told anyone of the cuts on his head made by Mastrella's teeth.

When he stabbed Mastrella, Jacino was present. Jacino also saw Mastrella bite him. He remembered stabbing Mastrella but couldn't say how often.

Re-examined by Mr. Macdonald he said he had had his hand attended in the gaol at Nelson by Dr. Rose.

To Mr. Harvey he said Dr. Kenning had washed his hand in the hospital.

At the court's direction Seraphino and Mastrella stood side by side before the jury, Mastrella being noticeably the bigger man.

Dr. Rose, the first witnes called after lunch, testified that on examining Seraphino's hand in the Nelson gaol he found on it marks that he certainly believed to be the imprints of human teeth.

Mr. Harvey called constable Stewart to rebut this evidence, but Mr. Macdonald objected that the constable could not give expert evidence as to the cause of the cuts on Seraphino's hand.

The objection was sustained and the witness was withdrawn. Mr. Harvey offered no more evidence

J. A. Macdonald, K.C., then addressed the jury for the defence.

He explained that the defence did not deny the stabbing, nor that it was done by the accused but they submitted that it was done in self defence, while the prisoner was on his back on the ground, held down and being beaten by a bigger and stronger man.

Mr. Macdonald emphasized the contradiction between the statements of Mastrella in the witness box and those of his supposed dying declaration, on which, had Mastrella died, Seraphino might have been convicted of murder.

He contended that the evidence of Tonio Jacino, the chief eye witness, firmed in every particular the statement of Seraphino as to the struggle.

Mr. Macdonald attacked the evidence of chief Long and officer Stewart, ascribing it to "the inborn desire of a certain class of police officers to secure a conviction by any means."

Referring to the natural dislike of Britishers for the use of a knife, he asked the jury to remember that it was an Italian custom not at all repugnant to Italian ideas, and also that by British law he was entitled to use a knife or any other weapon to defend himself against attempt to murder or against grevious bodily harm.

Mr. Macdonald's address lasted only about half an hour.

Mr. Harvey, closing for the crown, asked the jury to disregard consideration of the punishment which did not concern them, or of the possible suffering of his family, and to think only of the evidence of guilt or innocence.

Mr. Harvey deprecated Mr. Macdonald's reflections on the Rossland police force, and invited the jury to judge of their credibility by their appearance and their manner in the witness box.

Dealing with the discrepancies in the accounts of the struggle given by Mastrella and by Jacino, he contended that the disagreements were unimportant while the general corroboration was complete. Naturally a spectator's point of view differed from that of a combatant.

His lordship then charged the jury, explaining the legal right of a man attacked, and suggested that the main issue was as to whether Seraphino or Mastrella was telling the truth as to what happened before Jacino arrived on the scene. The truth or falsehood of the story of the biting, he considered a vital point and a decisive test of veracity. On this point the jury had the positive evidence of Dr. Rose, against the possibly preconceived ideas of the chief of police and his officer.

He agreed with the crown counsel that the Italian custom of using knives was one to be discouraged in Canada, so was the American custom of using revolvers. But if his life was in danger or if he thought so, he was entitled to use any weapon at hand.

The jury retired at 3:25.

At 4:15 the jury returned and foreman Edward Baillie reported that they found the prisoner "Not Guilty" on either count in the indictment, but could not agree as to the count of "common assault" mentioned by his lordship.

His lordship informed the jury that they were not bound to pass upon that matter at all, it was merely a suggestion to help them out of a possible difficulty.

The jury then retired again and returned in a few minutes to report "Not Guilty" adding a rider that they considered the use of a knife by the prisoner should be censured.

The prisoner was then discharged.

The court adjourned to Monday at 10:30 a.m.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm-hearted wish of the writer to be of use to someone else. This remedy is for sale by all Druggists and Dealers.

MARSH NOW TO FRONT

WINNIPEG MAN LIKELY CANDIDATE FOR MARATHON

RECENT PERFORMANCE PLACES HIM IN FIRST RANK

J. D. Marsh, the Winnipeg runner, is now breaking into the limelight as a Marathon runner, his performance at Toronto last Saturday having made him an important factor in the big race slated to take place in New York on May 17 in which he along with St. Ives and close on a dozen other long distance men are entered. The following is a brief description of Marsh's performance when he made the track record for the distance:

A chilling wind and a sprinkle of rain kept a large crowd from attending the long distance marathon at Hamilton's Point. Meadows took the lead at the start, but was passed by Sellen, who kept the lead for three laps only, when John D. Marsh, Winnipeg, steadily forced ahead at the end of the first mile. Stripping his sweater, Sellen got the lead at the third, only to lose it at the fourth mile to the westerner.

Windmill and McNeil dropped out almost at the beginning, and Coley, Wood and Simpson followed. Marsh lapping them in the fourth mile, running evenly without effort. Sellen took the lead in the fifth, in 27.56. At the seventh mile Marsh was again leading and the two leaders gained another 75 yards on the straggling field in 39.20. Hall began to sprinkle about this time and Sellen in the ninth pulled up with Marsh, leading by fifty yards, in the tenth in 56.25.

When the two lapped the field, Abbie Woods fell behind, and kept close Meantime, the two Indians, Simpson and Jackson, displaced Coley. In the eleventh mile Sellen again lapped the Indians and Marsh had reduced his lead to thirty yards. In the twelfth Marsh lapped Simpson for the second time, Sellen again pulling away, but began to show signs of fatigue, and gradually Marsh, going strong, gained and recovered the lead in the sixteenth mile. Sellen shortly after blew up and dropped out. Woods two laps behind, now took up the running and began to reduce the lead slightly, but Marsh was running comfortably. At the 22 miles Wood gained a quarter of a lap and in the 23rd as much more, time 2:17:53, but 17 seconds behind St. Ives time in New York, and keeping the lead Marsh finished in good shape in 2:39:447. Woods finished second and Meadows third. First mile, 5:31; second, 10:53; third, 16:53; fourth, 22:09; fifth, 27:56; sixth, 33:-38; seventh, 39:20; eighth... 45:06; tenth, 56:24; eleventh, 1:02:18; sixteenth, 1:33:50; twentieth, 1:58:39; twenty-fifth, 2:31:20. The finish time was 2:39:47.

NEWFOUNDLAND ELECTIONS

Today, for the second time within a few months, an election is taking place in Newfoundland. With the issues of the previous campaign the people of Canada had little concern and it is very questionable whether they have any more regard to the one which is taking place today, even though Confederation with this country appears to be the issue in the fight.

Were the question being fought out fairly and squarely, there would be interest, and a great deal of interest, in this country as to the otcome. But it is not. The benefits or otherwise of confederation have not been discussed. Both sides have contented themselves with referring to confederation as in the nature of a calamity for the people of the colony, and each has tried to convince the electors that the other side is in favor of such a step. The election, no mater how it goes, will neither retard nor advance the cause of confederation.

The only question that is being settled today is whether Sir Robert Bond or Sir Ewward Morris is to be returned to power. It is merely a case of the ins and outs in which both sides have used the question of Canadian confederation as a means of obscuring all other issues without asking the people to pronounce upon it. Canadians, therefore, have no special interest in today's contest, although there may be some curiosity as to which of the rival leaders has gained the ear of the people of the ancient colony.

MANAGER OF THE EMPIRE

"Manager of the British Empire," is the position which the Saturday Review of London recently suggested as one worthy of lord Kitchener. This suggestion is offered in connection with a remark that it had once been suggested that lord Kitchener would make a very good manager of the imperial army and navy stores. The Review thinks the former position very much more in keeping with lord Kitchener's ability and policy than the latter.

This is a remarkable tribute to a man, but there are many who are familiar with lord Kitchener's record, who will agree with it, although, of course neither of the suggested positions will ever be available for him or for anyone else. This, however, does not detract from its justification, for the recipient has earned it by the manner in which he has administered military affairs committed to his charge.

Throughout the years that he has been connected wth the army his motto has been efficiency with economy. Where it has been necessary to spend money to secure efficiency he has never hesitated to advise such a course but at the same time he has always been careful that no money was needlessly frittered away. He always requires value, and good value, in return for any expenditure he may make.

So remarkable have been the results of his methods that the late sir William Vernon Harcourt once said that all he feared was that lord Kitchener might make war quite popular—he waged it so cheaply. The world has seen many other military geniuses, but perhaps none who has sustained his reputation as a fighting man and at the same time conducted his work on such thoroughly practical and businesslike lines as has he.

Lord Kitchener is just concluding a term as commander-in-chief of the forces in India, during which he has put them on a new and most remarkably efficient footing, and is shortly to return to England where he will be given a high position, although exactly what it will be has not been announced. This, it is to be hoped, will be one in which he can put his talents to as good use as he has in India and elsewhere during his career. Lord Kitchener, in an army position in the old country which would give him scope for his ability, can render the empire just as good service as though he were its manager.

SIR RICHARD, FREE TRADER

One of the most interesting incidents of politics in Canada during recent years was the spectacle afforded yesterday of sir Richard Cartwright, as government leader in the senate, moving for an increase in the duty on sugar.

For eighteen long years, while the liberals were in opposition, sir Richard went up and down the country denouncing the evils of protection. He was then a free trader. He was wont to picture in forcible language the manner in which the people were being bled white through the national policy. Once the liberals were in power the doughty blue ruin knight promised on almost every platform from which he spoke, the gates would be opened wide and goods would be allowed to pour into Canada free of the obnoxious customs duty.

Thirteen years have passed since some people took sir Richard and his confreres of the liberal party at their word and voted for the return to power of sir Wilfrid Laurier. That ended the free trade policy of the liberal party and now the spectacle is presented of sir Richard, in his declining days, actually moving a resolution the effect of which is to increase the duty on a staple article such as sugar. As sir Richard used to say of the tariff in the old days: "It's monstrous."

EDITORIAL NOTES

The idea of "Mother's day," which is to be observed in Nelson tomorrow, is beautiful in the extreme.

Abdul Hamid, with eleven of his wives and a number of servants, it is announced, is living in a cottage at Salonika. Is it a case of love in a cottage?

Even while he is in the heart of Africa, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, late president of the United States, is keeping himself prominently before the people of his native land through his magazine articles. He is apparently determined that although absent he shall not be forgotten.

Mr. Pugsley will likely take the votes in the house of commons on Thursday and in the liberal caucus yesterday as a complete vindication of his character. How many others will agree with him?

The party whips at Ottawa, particularly those belonging to the government side of the house, had difficulty Thursday in drumming up members to vote on Mr. Crothers' resolution relative to Mr. Pugsley's connection with the Central railway and the result was the government's majority against the motion was the smallest that has been recorded in the house on a party question for years. Apparently some of the liberal members have as little use for Mr. Pugsley as have other people who desire to see clean government in this country, but yesterday's caucus was dragooned into voting confidence in him. It is not often that a party caucus is called upon to pas a vote of confidence in one of the party leaders.

Gentlemen:—In January last, Francis Leclerce, one of the men employed by me, working in the lumber woods, had a tree fall on him, crushing him fearfully. He was, when found, placed on a sled and taken home, where grave fears were entertained for his recovery, his hips being badly bruised and his body turned black from his ribs to his feet. We used MINARD'S LINIMENT on him freely to deaden the pain and with the use of three bottles he was completely cured and able to return to his work. SAUVEUR DUVAL.

SEVEN YEARS AN INVALID

Then She Took "Fruit-a-tives" And Is Now Well.

Arnprior, Ont., Nov. 27, 1905.

I was an invalid for seven years from fearful Womb Trouble. I had falling womb, with constant pain in the back and front of my body and all down my legs. There was a heavy discharge and this made me weak, sleepless, restless and miserable. Often I was obliged to be in bed for a month at a time. I was treated by several doctors, but their treatment did me no permanent good.

A few months ago, I was persuaded to try "Fruit-a-tives." I took several boxes, and from the outset of this treatment I was better, the Constipation was cured, and the discharge lessened. I took, for the paleness, several bottles of the Iron Mixture as recommended in the "Fruit-a-tives" book, but I feel that it was "Fruit-a-tives" alone that cured me.

(Mrs.) Ellen Levesque.

Take Mrs. Levesque's advice. Take "Fruit-a-tives" and cure yourself. 50c a box, 6 for $2.50; trial box 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

NEW AMBULANCE HERE

FINE NEW VEHICLE ARRIVES IN THE CITY

IS NOW AVAILABLE FOR USE BY GENERAL PUBLIC

The new ambulance, the funds for which have been raised through the efforts of Mrs. J. M. Lay, has arrived in the city and was yesterday on view at the barns of the Nelson Transfer company and was the object of a great deal of admiration from those who saw it. Not only is it a handsome vehicle, but it is also modern and in every respect excellently finished. The exterior is in dark green varnish, ornamented with red lines and presents a simple yet extremely tasteful appearance. The tires are of solid rubber and the whole vehicle is so designed as to give absolute comfort to patients using it. However rough the ground driven over the vibration and shaking will be reduced to a minimum.

The interior is fully in accord with the latest principles of hygiene and comfort, there being practically no decorations. The stretcher for the use of injured has a thick rubber bed and soft cushions. At each of the four corners and in front and behind are plate glass windows and there is a ventilator at the top of each side.

The driver's seat is large enough to seat two persons and a special spring seat is provided for the purpose of warning pedestrians or other vehicles of the approach of the ambulance. This instrument is operated by the driver who has merely to press his foot on a large button to keep the bell ringing. Over the driver's seat is a canopy which will act as protection in wet weather.

The ambulance will be stored at the barns of the Nelson Transfer company who will keep two swift horses always in readiness for emergencies. It should, however, be clearly understood that in cases of accident the Kootenay Lake General hospital must be telephoned and instructions will then be given for the ambulance to be sent out. A telephone message to the transfer company would have no result as they have no authority to send out the vehicle. It must therefore be remembered that in cases of accident the number to be called is 16.

Although the ambulance will be strictly in the charge of the hospital it will be for the use of every person in the city who has need of it, whether to be taken to his own house or anywhere else. It was necessary that the vehicle should be under the management of some responsible body and the hospital was chosen as being by far the most suitable.

Below appear the list of subscribers to the fund to procure an ambulance for the Kootenay Lake General hospital. To this list should be added the names of Thompson & Douglas who are painting the words "Kootenay Lake General Hospital" on the vehicle as their donation. There are also a number of people to be heard from. Mrs. Lay desires to thank through the columns of The Daily News those who gave so liberally to the funds and also W. A. Ward who kindly assisted in making the collections. A cheque for $[illegible] was handed by Mrs. Lay to the directors of the hospital yesterday. The ambulance has already been insured.

Object to Strong Medicines

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little or any swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by all Druggists and Dealers.

By "FOOTLIGHTS."

Glau and his overweight chorus from the "Aeroplane" company have returned to New York in what may be described as greatly reduced circumstances. Not as to finances, let it be said, nor yet in numbers, glory be, but in avoirdupois—that is to say, gross flesh. The entire galaxy has lost out in this respect, much to its advantage.

It seems the people out west will support slim ballerinas, and no other, and our famous "balloon chorus" carried, so to speak, no weight with them. They treated that prize collection of fat New York beauties with an unprecedented coldness, consequently, Glau faced the problem of reducing the entire front and rear rows at once, or shipping them back—"excess" baggage. It was a terrible job, as all who saw the "Aeroplane" before it left this tolerant town will admit, but our ingenious townsman tackled and succeeded—broke all records, in fat. And thereby hangs a tale worth of any fat lady's attention.

Glau didn't rehearse his flock into shape, nor starve them into line, nor yet worry them, virtually, into slenders. He paid salaries regularly and let them eat and drink as they listed. He simply hung up a new rule in the dressing rooms to the effect that every lady less than five foot seven who weighed in excess of 160 pounds must take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime or about where her bedtime ought to be, of the following: One-half ounce Marmola, 8 ounces Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic, and 4½ ounces Peppermint Water.

They did it and in a month averaged a loss of a pound a day apiece. "That's a daily receipt," says Glau. "Simple, pleasant, harmless and a winner from the word go." Wish I could get a railroad rate reducer half a good."

Boy Fell From Car.

CHICAGO, May 7—Four year old Paul Maurice Montfort, who was killed yesterday by falling through a window of a south side elevated train to the sidewalk, was known among his intimate friends as "The Most Photographed Boy in America." His father A. Montfort, a photographer, does a large amount of commercial work and whenever a firm wished a baby picture to advertise its goods, Mr. Montford had his little son for a model. Yesterday he climbed up on the seat of an elevated car and placing his hands through against what he imagined to the window pane, plunged to the stone sidewalk below, a distance of thirty-five feet, and died two hours later. His skull was crushed in like an egg shell. The boy had just boarded the train, accompanied by his mother, who was carried, screaming and frenzied, to the next station by the train crew. When told that her boy was dead she was with difficulty prevented from doing herself bodily harm

Still Out of Jail.

NEW YORK, May 7—Evelyn Thaw did not go to Ludlow street jail today, instead of paying the fine of $25 imposed upon her by Justice McAvery for contempt on failure to appear in supplementary proceedings.

A Woman's Sympathy

Are you discouraged? Is your doctor's bill a heavy financial load? Is your pain a heavy physical burden? I know what these mean to delicate women—I have been discouraged, too; but learned how to cure myself. I want to relieve your burdens. May not end the pain and stop the doctor bill? I can do this for you and will if you will assist me.

All you need do is to write for a free box of the remedy which has been placed in my hands to be given away. Perhaps this one box will cure you—it has done so for others. If so, I shall be happy and you will be cured for in the cost of a postage stamp. Your letters held confidential. AN ECONOMICAL TEA

Blue Ribbon

Tea selling at 25c or 30c a pound is not really cheap, but is extravagantly dear.

Because so much of it is usually required that the cost per cup is actually more than if a good tea like Blue Ribbon were used.

A pound of Blue Ribbon Tea will make 250 cups of good rich tea, so, even at 50c a pound you would get four or five cups for one cent.

Not a very dear drink, is it?

And as for flavor, there is simply no comparison between Blue Ribbon and the "cheap" teas.

Just try a pound, and see.

COMMUNICATIONS

Mr. Deane on Revision

EDITOR THE DAILY NEWS.

Sir: Your reference to the sittings of the court of revision Monday, in your issue of Tuesday, might well be ignored by myself, and this is the course I would have pursued were it not that you omitted all reference to the main point raised at the sittings, a point which certainly merited attention and will have to receive it at the next session of the provincial legislature. I refer to the retention on the list of names of absentees such as Arthur Hamilton Buchanan, Henry E. Croasdaile, Montague L. Davis and James A. Cryderman to mention a few. The amended election act definitely states than any person who has not resided in the district during the six months previous to the court of revision should have his name removed from the list. The names above mentioned are those of men who, to the knowledge of every elector in Nelson, have been absent from the city electoral district for a period considerably longer than six months. Mr. Robert Lennie, who appeared as counsel for the local Conservative Association, contended that the names of these men should be retained on the list. The only reason advanced for this course being that these individuals had property interests in the city and might at some future date return. No provision of this kind is contained in the act, but upon the representations of Mr. Lennie the registrar allowed these names to be retained. Now it appears to me that this was the one feature of Monday's court that specially called for comment. If the decision of the registrar is to be accepted as final then we have established in this province a new principal, that the ownership of property, affecting the voters list. Heretofore the ownership of property was not a condition governing a voter's eligibility. From my knowledge of the act I was not prepared to accept any such construction, however, Mr. Lennie, a lawyer, put forward that view and he was sustained by the registrar. To my thinking this was the chief feature of the court and one which will certainly have to be dealt with by the legislature, for heretofore the ownership of property has not been regarded as a requisite qualification for registration of the voters' list and I am still of the opinion, notwithstanding the views of Mr. Lennie and the registrar, that non-resident property owners have no right to be retained on the list if at present non-resident within the electoral district for which they and formerly been registered.

F. J. DEANE.

Superior Court Motions

On the retirement of the jury in the Geraghty case, court motions were heard.

In Carrigan vs Grandy, action for damages, J. A. Macdonald, K. C., for the defendant, applied to have the motion for trial set aside; S. S. Taylor, K. C., contra. Mr. Macdonald wished to amend the application to set aside an entry. Mr. Taylor objected and was sustained. The point was technical. The notice of trial had lapsed through negligence; a motion to cancel the setting down for trial must have been granted, but, by mistake the motion read, "to set aside the notice of trial."

Mr. Macdonald then, argued for a postponement of the trial on the ground of the absence of a material witness for the defence.

Mr. Taylor opposed. The action was brought on several grounds. The absent witness' evidence was material on only one ground. The plaintiff alleged that the company's whole system was defective.

Mr. Taylor further charged that in all cases against the Granby company there were always motions for postponements, very serious, never pressed on the trial, but only to gain time, perhaps to settle with claimants by "humbugging" them from court to court."

Mr. Macdonald objected to Mr. Taylor's remarks, and his lordship reminded Mr. Taylor that no such allegation was on the record.

Mr. Taylor continued, stating that the defence had made no effort to obtain their witness, and that any delay would work a grevious hardship on the plaintiff a working man and now a cripple.

The application was denied.

In Whitmier vs. Watson, W. A. Macdonald, K. C., for some of the plaintiffs in an action to set aside a trusteeship, moved for an order of cancellation. He submitted that all acts of the trustee were satisfactory to the principals. His clients attempted to revoke the trusteeship without process of law but the defendant notwithstanding continues to deal with the trustees. As the property in question consists of timber licenses his clients had no redress but by application to the court for an injunction until trial.

The motion was refused.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

The Amalgamated Society of Carpenters and Joiners meet in Miners' hall tonight at 7:30.

Born, on Friday, the 7th inst., to the wife of W. Heron, Josephine street, a daughter.

L. H. Hunter, who is managing the Hudson's Bay company's store in Nelson during the absence of E. P. Gigot in Germany, will leave for Pincher Creek tomorrow morning and expect to be away four or five days.

An orchestra will play from 8 to 9 o'clock this evening in Meagher & Co's. new store in the Eagle block. Everyone is cordially invited to come and listen to the music and look over all the pretty things that will be displayed.

The entertainment given in Trinity Methodist church last evening by the Swiss hand bell ringers was largely attended, the auditorium of the church being filled almost to its capacity. The program was a long and varied one and many instruments apart from the bells were performed upon. The troupe showed themselves to be clever and versatile musicians and were greeted with rounds of applause.

His honor Judge Forin handed down judgement yesterday in the case of Canavanagh vs. McRae, a claim for commission on the sale of the lease and business of the Silver King hotel. The action was dismissed, the court holding that as there was a disagreement as to facts the burden of proof was on the plaintiff and the relation of principal and agent was not proved.

O. S. Peters, who for the past year has conducted the Palace meat market has purchased the business of the West Kootenay company from H. C. Traves, who has managed the business for the past 12 years. Mr. Peters will take charge on Monday. The new owner is well and favorably known in Nelson and vicinity and will no doubt be highly successful in his new enterprise. The Palace meat market will be closed.

Lord Aylmer of Queen's Bay came in from Procter yesterday and is staying at the Hume.

The executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. and subscribers are requested to attend an important meeting at 12 a. m. sharp today in the office of G. H. Plaxie. There are some special matters to deal with and it is especially desired that as many as possible attend.

Work is to be resumed on the Mohican group at the head of Gainer creek in the Lardeau country. This property is under development by the Poplar Creek Gold Mines, limited. Over 600 feet of work has been done and a body of ore 55 feet long and four feet in width opened up, a trial shipment from which ran over $40 per ton. The Mohican has been worked intermittently for several years and adjoins the Black Prince. In the workings a large body of concentrating ore has been encountered which can be reduced to give values of about 200 ounces of silver to the ton. Nine tons of assorted ore have been shipped since the property was first worked. These shipments show values of about 80 ounces silver and 50 per cent lead.

The entertainments in connection with the public opening of the new Eagle hall which began on Wednesday with the highly successful bazaar organized by the lady friends of the order were brought to a fitting close last night by a grand ball. There were about 100 people in attendance. The music was provided by the Hughes' band and orchestra who on this occasion excelled themselves. The music was chosen with excellent taste and rendered in that polished manner for which Nelson's newest orchestra is becoming famous throughout the district. The floor in spite of the fact that it had not been previously danced upon, was in good condition and will undoubtedly become one of the best dancing mediums in the city. Dancing was continued until about 3 o'clock this morning.

J. B. Read of Erie is at the Hume.

Thomas McNeish, mayor of Slocan city is at the Hume.

J. M. Cameron of Grand Forks, C. P. R. trainmaster is a guest at the Hume.

The Nelson ladies of the U. C. T. will meet in Fraternity hall this evening.

T. H. Gray of Ymir, and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Gray of New York are at the Strathcona.

The subject of Rev. A. N. Prith's sermon in the Baptist church tomorrow morning will be "The Spirit of Motherhood." All children attending the Sunday school in the afternoon are asked to wear white flowers in honor of their mothers. At the evening service the ordinance of Christian baptism will be observed.

The annual business meeting and social of the Baptist church took place Thursday evening, when annual reports were presented and other business incident to the occasion transacted. The receipts for the year were $[illegible], which met all the expenses. At the conclusion of the meeting about 80 members of the church sat down to an excellent banquet.

DEVELOPING WESTMOUNT

F. E. GRIFFITHS AND PARTNER HAVE PLANS PREPARED

COMPRESSOR WILL BE INSTALLED AND OTHER WORK DONE

F. E. Griffiths, manager of the West mount mine, who returned from the east on Thursday, leaves for his property this morning. Mr. Griffiths stated yesterday that he had been delayed at Toronto, where he had been in order to confer with his partner, P. H. Ellis, for over a month on account of sickness.

While in the east he made a trip to Cobalt and was very much struck by the rich properties at that camp and also the unusual formation of the silver ore. In the Gow Ganda country in which the geological formation was similar to that of Cobalt a large amount of speculation was going on. Mr. Griffith felt somewhat skeptical in regard to the opinions expressed that Gow Ganda would equal Cobalt as a silver producer. On many of the claims staked and which were being sold at big prices there was no sign of silver and he thought that a great deal more money would be put into Gow Ganda than would ever come out of it.

With regard to the Westmount Mr. Griffiths said that he and his partner had decided to proceed with a plan of extensive development. This particularly applied to tunnel No. 3 which was believed to have now reached a point immediately under the main ore body and from which it was intended to make a large drive up. Before doing this, however, it was necessary to install an air van which was already on the way to the mine. Mr. Griffiths said he also intends to put in a compressor

THE UNION IS ASSURED

Parties in South Africa Have Reached Agreement.

(Canadian Associated Press)

BLOEMFONTEIN, May 7—Union is virtually assured. It is understood that the lines of settlement are, on the one hand, abandonment of proportional voting for election to the assembly, and on the other hand, further safeguarding of the basis of representation as laid down in the draft.

Need Sir Robert Again

LONDON, May 7—The Chinese government has invited Sir Robert Hart, former director of the Chinese customs to return to China. Sir Robert has reached no decision as to whether or not he will comply with the invitation.

Will Buy Experience

LONDON, May 7—A party of 175 settlers from Burnham sailed by the Empress of Britain today for Ontario. The party is presumably the wealthiest that has ever left England for Canada. They represent capital of a quarter of a million dollars. The majority of them will take up land, while others will seek farm work in order to gain experience.

Bookmakers Feel Easy

NEW YORK, May 7—Robert H. Elder, assistant district attorney of Kings county, announced that he would take immediate steps to appeal from the Gaynor decision to the state court of appeals at Albany. Justice Gaynor says he has quoted no authority to sustain his decision in favor of verbal betting but had merely asserted his own opinion. The effect of today's ruling will be to accord bookmakers greater leeway during the season of 1908 than they enjoyed during the district attorney's raids of last season.
