FIGHT COMING

Lords Will Not Pass Lloyd George Budget

AN ENLIGHTENING SPEECH

POSITION OF HOUSE EXPLAINED BY LANSDOWNE — HE DECLARES WORKING CLASSES DESIRE TARIFF REFORM AND NOT TAXATION OF CAPITAL

LONDON, Aug. 7—The vexed question as to whether the house of lords would interfere with the budget, which radicals declare would be unconstitutional, appears to be settled by the pronouncement of Lord Lansdowne, leader of the opposition in the house of lords, in a speech at Caline, Wiltshire, tonight. Declaring that the working classes desired tariff reform and not the taxation of capital and the expropriation of property, Lord Lansdowne suggested that the house of commons might no longer represent the will of the people.

"Those who advance the extreme claim on behalf of the commons," he said, "declare that any measure, however violent, however little it may have been discussed in parliament, and no matter whether it has been properly put before the people or not, must be passed over the heads of the house of lords. The scheme of the house of lords is much more moderate. We recognize that the will of the people must prevail in the end, but we demand that the people of the country be given a sufficient opportunity to express that will and to do so with a full knowledge of the situation.

"Upon that knowledge," declared Lord Lansdowne, "the lords are ready to try conclusions in the great struggle which must surely be upon us before very long. The lords are ready to meet their adversaries and will accept the verdict of the people."

WAR RUMORS

May be Trouble Between Japan and China Over Railway

PEKIN, Aug. 7—In defiance of the protestations of China, Japan today began the construction of the Antung-Mukden railway. Work was commenced by Japanese engineers and constructors, who have been awaiting the outcome of the negotiations for several months, simultaneously at each end of the line. They acted on instructions from Tokio.

The feeling of Japan in this matter which is due to China's objections to changing the existing narrow gauge of the line to the standard gauge of the connecting lines in both Koren and Manchuria, was reflected here today by a Japanese official of high standing who said that China-Japanese relations at the present moment bore a dangerous resemblance to those of 1894.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7 — The announcement that actual construction had been begun on the Antung-Mukden railway by Japan caused no surprise at the state department today. Japan has notified the powers of her purpose to build this railroad. It is understood that the United States has not expressed any view concerning the adoption of this country by Japan and so far this government is merely keeping informed as to the course of events.

VANCOUVER LOSES GAME

BEATEN BY CHAMPIONS IN LACROSSE MATCH

CONTEST CHARACTERIZED BY USUAL ROUGH PLAY

(Special to The Daily News.)

VANCOUVER, Aug. 7—Vancouver lacrosse team lost their chance of winning the Minto cup straight in this season of the lacrosse league by being defeated this afternoon by New Westminster by 5 goals to 4. Ten games constitute the season, and as New Westminster has won five and Vancouver only two, a tie is the best the latter team can hope for.

Eight thousand people saw the game, which is a record crowd for the coast. New Westminster desired to have the game postponed owing to their regular team being out of condition, but Vancouver refused to consent. As a consequence Westminster had two intermediates in the lineup. Just before the game president Jones formally entered a protest, alleging that one of the officials was not eligible owing to his name not being on the list assented to by both clubs for the official games.

W. J. Bowser, attorney general, faced the ball off, making a few preliminary remarks concerning playing the game in a sportsmanlike manner.

The contest was fiercely played from beginning to end, resulting in a tie of one goal each at the end of the first quarter, a lead of one goal for the champions at half time, a tie at the end of the third quarter, and New Westminster scoring the winning goal at the end of ten minutes in the last quarter. At times the game was rough, both teams having members on the fence almost constantly, but no player was seriously injured.

The most exciting incident occurred in the last two minutes when the referee ordered a Vancouver man off the field. His captain resented the penalty and came to blows with the referee. The crowd rushed onto the field from the bleachers and the grandstand and had to be controlled by the police.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE

Prosecutions Under Act May Be Conducted Independently

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—The direction of the affairs of the administration was tonight left in the hands of two cabinet officers, Secretary of Treasury McVeagh and Postmaster General Hitchcock. President Taft is keeping in close touch with Washington over the government wire from Beverley, Mass. Attorney General Wickersham started for New York today. While no definite time has been fixed for a conference respecting President Taft's plan to reorganize the interstate commerce commission, it is expected that the president and several members of his cabinet, including Attorney General Wickersham and Secretary of Commerce and Labor Nagel, will have such a conference early in September either at New York or at Beverley.

The president's tentative idea is to provide that investigations into violations of the interstate commerce act from which prosecutions may result shall be conducted either directly by the department of justice or by the bureau of corporations instead of by the interstate commerce commission. It is believed by administration officials that the carrying into effect of such a plan will remove from the interstate commerce commission any criticism that its action respecting freight rates might be the cause of.

Reid to Remain in London

NEW YORK, Aug. 7—Whitelaw Reid will remain ambassador at the court of St. James for at least a year longer, says a cable despatch to the World from London. It is said that Mr. Reid expected to relinquish his position as soon as Mr. Taft became president of the United States but Mrs. Reid desired to pass the present season here and president Taft obliged her. He was the more glad because of the difficulty he has found in choosing a successor to Mr. Reid.

TURKISH NOTE

Trouble With Greece Over Island of Crete

ACUTE STAGE REACHED

PORTE THREATENS TO BREAK OFF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS —UNDER NEW REGIME TURKS INSIST UPON RETAINING RIGHTS

ATHENS, Greece, Aug. 7—The Turkish government has communicated to Greece an urgent note asking that she express her disapproval of the annexation of Crete and formally declare that Greece has no ambition regarding the island. Otherwise, the note adds, diplomatic relations will be severed.

BERLIN, Aug. 7—In German government circles the situation between Turkey and Greece is regarded as being in a most acute stage. Germany has made representations to both Constantinople and Athens urging the necessity of a peaceful solution of the Cretan question.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7—Turkey will stand by what she regards as her rights in her controversy with Greece over the island of Crete. Such is her attitude as communicated to the United States state department and to the European powers. She is determined there shall be a return to the conditions preceding the Turko-Grecian war of a dozen years ago, when four of the powers of Europe, England, Russia, France and Italy landed troops and dispatched ships to pacify the Cretans.

The decisive policy of the Turkish government is ascribed to the progressive and determined attitude of the new regime in that country as contrasted with the apparent indifference of the administration of Abdul Hamid, which made no serious effort to bring about a settlement of the anomalous conditions existing in Crete.

NOW AWAITS DECISION

HARRY THAW IN GAOL PENDING COURT'S JUDGMENT

WILL BE DECLARED SANE OR INSANE ON THURSDAY

WHITE PLAINS, Aug. 7—In a cell at the White Plains gaol Harry K. Thaw awaits the decision that will hold him sane or declare him a lunatic. The hearing in the supreme court in the habeas corpus proceedings against the state of New York ended this afternoon when Attorney Charles Morschauser summed up his case. District Attorney Jerome preceded Mr. Morschauser this morning. Justice Isaac N. Mills said he would hand down his decision on Thursday morning next.

Mrs. Copley Thaw, the prisoner's mother, with her daughter Alice, the former countess of Yarmouth, and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Thaw, will remain until Harry Thaw's fate is settled. Thaw's mother and his brother and sister have not missed a day in court since the hearing began, and Mrs. Thaw's statements show that if this case goes against her son she will lose no chance of trying to free him by other means. An appeal to the state court of appeals from a decision of the appellate division, upholding Justice Mills' refusal to lay the question of Thaw's sanity before a jury is now pending. The summing up of District Attorney Jerome and Morschauser today was free from the outbursts of oratory that characterized the two homicide trials. The district attorney was particularly temperate.

IS IT CANARD?

Wall Street Says King Edward Made Million in Steel Common

NEW YORK, Aug. 7—One of the periodic unconfirmed reports burst on Wall street today to the effect that King Edward made a winning of more than a million in United States common. The report was based on the fact that J. P. Morgan had been entertained at Windsor castle by the king while aboard and that an order to buy 50,000 shares in steel common, coming apparently from an English source, was executed when the stock was at from 50 to 52 recently. The stock sold today at 70¼, and those who credit the English monarch with the deal estimate that he realized $1,000,000 on the transaction. The report could not be confirmed from any reliable sources.

Little Damage

CANNAN, Conn., Aug. 7—The Pittsfield express, bound from New York over the N. Y., N. H. & H. railway, was derailed at Cornwall this evening, the engine, baggage car and first parlor couch going off the track. None of them overturned, however, and beyond a bad shakeup none of the passengers were injured.

METHODS OF BUILDING

WHAT ENGINEER ON G. T. P. SAYS OF CONSTRUCTION

MR. WOODS GOES INTO FULL DETAILS OF WASTE

OTTAWA, Aug. 7—The government has been asked for the text of Mr. Lumsden's letter resigning his post of chief engineer to the national transcontinental commission, and so far has evaded making it public. It is suppressing the facts about the affair to the best of its ability. Under the circumstances, it is worth while to recall what was said by H. A. Woods, C. E., assistant chief engineer of the G.T.P. Woods comes in thus: "The government is constructing the eastern section, which is to be rented to the Grand Trunk Pacific company at 3 per cent of its cost. Naturally the company does not wish to pay 3 per cent on excessive and improper cost. Therefore it has its own engineers to watch construction and see that the money is not given away and that the road is properly built." Mr. Woods was the chief of this staff of inspectors. He wrote some letters which were not intended for publication, and they came into the light of day in the course of the Hodgins' inquiry.

In October, 1907, Mr. Woods wrote to Mr. Lumsden describing the methods which he had investigated on some 30 or 40 miles of the road west of Quebec. He said in regard to a 17-mile portion:

"In nearly every case where the cuttings were not entirely all ledge the estimate given for solid rock is double or more than double what it should be." Mr. Woods gives illustrations.

One place was classified 94 per cent solid rock, 6 per cent loose rock and no earth. Solid rock was over-classified at least 100 per cent.

Another was classified over 80 per cent solid rock, 20 per cent loose rock and no earth. In fact there was no rock, but loose boulders, and there was much earth.

At another station the government classification was 78 per cent solid rock, 22 per cent loose rock, and no earth. A large amount of this cut was hauled off with scrapers after ploughing with two horses. There are hundreds of yards of earth here without a stone, large or small, says Mr. Woods.

Elsewhere a sand cut with 80,000 yards of pure sand out of 95,000 yards moved was classified 40 per cent solid rock and 10 per cent loose rock.

On another cut, where Mr. Woods said that not 10 per cent should be classified as other than sand, the government officers returned 16 per cent solid rock and 44 per cent loose rock, or 60 per cent high class.

Mr. Woods gives a number of such instances where, as he said, the false statements were not made through error in judgment by the resident engineers, but by arbitrary orders from their superior.

In concluding Mr. Woods said:

"To such classifications as mentioned above, increasing the cost of the work to such an alarming extent, we must seriously protest."

The effect of classifying sand as rock will be understood when it is remembered that on the contract to which Mr. Woods referred the price for solid rock was $1.50 per yard, loose rock 50 cents, and common excavation only 21 cents.

Thus Mr. Woods says that the government paid $1.50 per yard for 71 per cent of a cut and 50 cents for the rest, when none of it should have been over 50 cents, and much of it 21 cents.

Also that 94 per cent of another cut cost $1.50 per yard and the rest 50 cents, when only 47 per cent should be charged at the high prices.

Also that in a third cut 78 per cent cost $1.50 per yard and the rest 50 cents, when a large part was earth worth 21 cents, ploughed up by two horses and thrown out by the scraper. Two horses cannot plough solid rock.

A calculation of a cut where Mr. Woods gives the quantities shows that the 55,000 yards cost $71,725, whereas if the engineer was right, the proper price would be $31,800.

Down to August 31, 1908, the contractor on this contract had been paid the following: For solid rock, $1,944,269; for loose rock, $555,124; for common excavation, $297,777.

If the quantity of rock has been doubled the country overpaid $180,000 on 100 miles of railway, but the work was not then finished. Down to ten months ago this part of the road (from mile 50 to mile 150 west of Quebec) had cost $69,862 per mile, without the sleepers, rails, fastenings or buildings.

NAVY DEFENCE

Several Plans Before Imperial Committee

LORD BERESFORD'S IDEAS

ADVOCATES DOMINION SQUADRONS FOR PROTECTION OF TRADE ROUTES — UNITS TO BE INTERCHANGEABLE WITH THOSE OF BRITISH NAVY

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The Imperial Defence conference has not yet announced the results of any of its sittings but it is known that there are at least three distinct methods proposed for contribution by the dominions to the imperial navy; the direct money contribution; local navies, whose duties are not clearly specified, and a local navy designed solely for coastal defence.

The direct money contribution is opposed by many on the ground that it would not carry with it the right of representation and there is the added disadvantage exemplified in the ancient axiom that "all subsidies fall to associate the contributors directly with the service they support." The connection would be purely mercenary. With regard to the local navies it has been pointed out that each dominion when starting to build its own fleet would commence with a tremendous handicap inasmuch as the older nations have had many centuries of accumulated experience and knowledge upon which to work. A Canadian or an Australian squadron could not be used home to cope with one of the big foreign fleets, and, while it might work in conjunction with a British fleet, the latter would be, owing to its longer experience and consequent greater discipline and skill, considerably superior and navy men state that an inferior squadron is a danger to the rest of the fleet. Another point is that sailors must be trained on deep water and the proposed local squadrons would necessarily be, to a very large extent, tied to the harbours of the various dominions.

The proposal made by Lord Charles Beresford, which is meeting with a great deal of approval, is briefly: Five nations, five fleets, one navy. Under this scheme the protection of trade routes would be entrusted to squadrons, built, manned and equipped by the dominions, but these squadrons would be trained so that they would be interchangeable with the ships of the British navy. Thus trade routes would be protected sometimes by local squadrons and sometimes by a cruiser force detached from the British fleet, while its duties with the British fleet were being performed by the local squadron. Working on this system it is thought that the dominion squadrons would gradually become a valuable and effective part of the navy and fit to share its work. The main principal of Lord Beresford's proposal is that there should be only one fleet.

As far as can be gathered the representatives of the various dominions who are now in London are of the opinion, and they are at one one with many of the English statesmen, such as Mr. Balfour, Mr. Haldane and Sir Edward Grey, that these proposed extra forces of the king should be under the control of the self-governing community which raises and pays for them. Recent despatches from Australia, however, indicate that that dominion is willing in a slightly modified form to concur with the proposals of the English admiral.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The Daily Telegraph prints a message from its Melbourne correspondent to the effect that the federal government, having already decided to increase the number of a local squadron, may suggest to the defence conference as a substitute for the offer of a Dreadnought the assumption of all responsibility in connection with the protection of the Pacific. This, if true, marks an almost complete acceptance by the present commonwealth government of the defence policy put forward by Andrew Fisher, the former premier.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 7—The Morning Herald declares that the articles in the London Times regarding a composite Pacific squadron are believed to crystallize the views of the admiralty and embody its suggestions to the defence conference. They meet with the federal minister's approval, and slightly modified will probably form a basis of a defence scheme which will eventually be adopted.

VICTORIA, Aug. 7.—The Esquimalt naval yard will be formally taken over from the imperial government by the Canadian government at the end of this month and arrangements are now being made by Capt. Barry, R. N., and Commander Cyfford, R. N., for the transfer.

(Special to The Daily News.)

PHOENIX, Aug. 7—The Granby smelter treated 18,158 tons of ore this week, which is about 1200 tons above the average of the past six months, and is the result of six enlarged furnaces being now in commission. New records in smelting are in the Granby may now be looked for. Furnace Nos. 7 and 8 are being reconstructed.

The Granby have built a wagon road from the Gold Drop outlet to the Monarch claim for the purpose of conveying a hoist and other machinery to be installed at the Monarch. A new trestle is also to be constructed for the dumping of waste from the mines.

Further development work is to be commenced on the Buster and Alaska Fraction on Wallace mountain, owned by the Alaska Mining company. There is already a 35-foot shaft on the property, and a lead of native silver has been uncovered. Five assays of the ore run from $33 to $91. The claims are in the same high grade belt as the Sally and Rambler and give promise of being a shipper in the near future.

Charles Taylor died at the general hospital here last night as the result of an accident which occurred on a new trestle being constructed for dumping waste from the Granby mines. While operating in clearing the route a large crane was overturned from the trestle to the ground, Taylor falling with it and receiving fatal internal injuries as well as fractured limbs. MILLION TONS

Ore Shipments for Year Total That Amount

ARE AHEAD OF LAST YEAR

FIGURES REFLECT ACTIVITY IN MINING THROUGHOUT THE KOOTENAY AND BOUNDARY COUNTRIES—OPERATING AT B. C. COPPER CO.'S PROPERTIES

With this week's shipments the total output of the Slocan-Kootenay, Rossland and Boundary mines has been carried past the 1,000,000-ton mark, the tonnage being considerably larger than was shipped in the same period last year.

This record is rendered all the more encouraging through having been made in face of the fact that the B. C. Copper company's properties in the Boundary were idle for three months and the Le Roi has been closed nearly all year. The B. C. Copper has, however, now resumed operations, the first shipments since May 2 being recorded this week, while it is also expected that the Le Roi will shortly be reinstated on the shipping list in the near future.

The outlook for the remaining months of the year is that the production will be much larger than for the past seven.

With this week's output from the Centre Star at Rossland the total for that mine for the year to date has exceeded 100,000 tons.

The Mother Lode appears on the list of Boundary ore shippers again this week. About 40 men are now employed at the property and about 60 are working at the B. C. Copper company's smelter. These figures will be materially increased within the next few days. When the mine forces are properly organized it is the intention of the company to smelt up to 14,000 or 15,000 tons of ore per week.

A strike of native copper is reported to have been made at the Fife mine during the past week. The erection of the mine buildings is now being proceeded with.

BRAVE WOMAN KILLED

Russian Authoress Has Revolver Duel With Two Robbers

KIEV, Russia, Aug. 7.—Madame Nirgovskaia, a well known Russian writer, was killed yesterday on her estate near Orsk during the absence of her husband. Two robbers stole into her room and pointed a revolver at her and demanded her money. With splendid courage Madame Nirgovskaia grasped her husband's revolver and opened fire on her assailants. During the exchange of shots she was wounded in the leg but she continued to fire and forced the robbers to flee. After their departure she died from loss of blood.

SUMMER PRUNING BEST

PROVINCIAL FRUIT EXPERT ADVISES APPLE GROWERS

ALSO SPEAKS ON METHOD OF KILLING GREEN APHIS

M. S. Middleton, assistant horticulturalist for the Kootenay district, who has been posted here by the provincial government in order to assist the fruit growers and ranchers in the district by giving them advice on horticulture and kindred subjects and, by making a study of conditions, to arrive at some conclusion as to the best varieties of fruit, etc., for growing in the Kootenays, has just returned from a trip through the Slocan country.

Interviewed by a representative of The Daily News last night Mr. Middleton stated that the growers were now giving most of their attention to the coming apple crop. He had been making a tour of a large part of the Kootenays and had been advising the ranchers to make a special point of summer pruning as opposed to cutting back the trees in the winter. Up to the present it had been, observed Mr. Middleton, the practise of the local horticulturalists to go in for winter pruning almost exclusively and while this method was not without its advantages it had a tendency to promote a too exuberant growth of wood. On the other hand summer pruning had the effect of producing fruit carrying spurs. By nipping back the twigs according to their strength the sap was forced into the lower buds and energy was stored up in them in preparation for the spring blossoms.

From now on to the beginning of September, said Mr. Middleton, was quite the best time for pruning apple trees. If the cutting back of the terminal growth were left till the late fall or the winter all the energy of the trees was taken up by these terminal shoots and the lower buds lay dormant and unproductive. The result was that long, lanky trees, producing fruit only at their extremities, were far too general in this province. There were some varieties of apple, such as the Northern Spy to which this applied particularly but his experience and training had taught him that summer pruning is the most advantageous in every case, no matter what kind of apple was under cultivation.

Another advantage of summer pruning continued Mr. Middleton, was that the ingrowing shoots could be more easily and successfully cut back so that they too became fruit producers. These shoots should be pruned to about four inches in length. Mr. Middleton believes that if this plan of summer pruning is adhered to that the trees, after they reach an age of about five years will need very little attention with the knife, apart from cutting back the ingrowing branches. The terminal growth would be almost wholly checked by the effect of the amount of fruit produced on the lower branches.

In making this last tour of the district Mr. Middleton noticed that the green aphis was somewhat prevalent. This could be done away with to a very large extent, he states, by summer pruning as the fly was to be found in almost every instance on the terminal and ingrowing branches, generally on the former. If the pruner when doing his work carried a sack with him he could throw the tips of the branches into it and then burn them, aphis included. In very bad cases the trees should be sprayed with Blackleaf mixture, one part to 70 of water, or with the ordinary whale oil quassia mixture.

Mr. Middleton is an advocate of fall spraying with fall strength lime and sulphur solution or double strength Bordeaux mixture, in preference to winter or spring spraying owing to the prevalence of black spot or Oregon canker, the spoors of which mature and start to grow in the fall.

FRUIT CROP CONDITIONS

REPORT OF DOMINION DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

MR. MIDDLETON TALKS OF FRUIT IN KOOTENAY

Below appears a dispatch from Ottawa giving the report of the Dominion department of agriculture on the state of the fruit crop for July. M. S. Middleton, assistant horticulturalist, who is stationed here by the provincial government, stated last night that although the report might be correct as far as the greater part of British Columbia was concerned, it did not give a very good idea of the state of the fruit crop in Kootenay.

It was true that there were very few, if any, peaches, but the cherry crop, which had been, to a very large extent, gathered, was a very good one. The plums were a trifle lighter than usual. As to fall and summer apples in the Kootenay, Mr. Middleton said that the crop from present indications would be good, though the winter varieties would probably be somewhat lighter. The raspberry crop this season had been entirely satisfactory. The currant, gooseberry and other small fruit, with the exception of the strawberries, which had suffered from the dry weather, had turned out excellently. Vegetables generally were looking well and gave promise of a more than average crop. The following is the Ottawa dispatch on general conditions:

OTTAWA, Aug. 7—The report of the department of agriculture on the fruit crop for July is not as encouraging as the June report. The drought of the early part of the month had its effect in reducing the crop materially. However, the latter portion of the month has somewhat revived the hopes of the growers and a crop above the average is looked for. The apples will be a light to medium crop, but winter varieties promise to be of better quality than usual. The pear harvest will be light, with the possible exception of Nova Scotia, where a full crop is expected. Plums, peaches, cherries and grapes will give a medium to full yield except in British Columbia. Tomatoes promise an average crop in Ontario and a medium crop in British Columbia, while a full yield is expected in the maritime provinces. The strawberry harvest was shortened by dry weather, but there is now being harvested a full crop of other small fruits. With the possible exception of aphis or plant louse insects have been very good to fruit growers this year. Codling moth has been noticeable and also blister mite, but the damage has not been very great. In Great Britain, the United States, Germany and France the apple crop will be light to medium, while other fruits will give a medium to a full crop.

The reader of a newspaper will readily agree that it is necessary for a merchant, with any pretension of agressiveness, to advertise. Merchants are also aware of this fact. Therefore it would seem that it is simply a question as to what form the advertising will follow.

BIG DETROIT REGATTA

WINNERS OF VARIOUS EVENTS OF SECOND DAY

OTTAWA ROWING CLUB CAPTURED THE FOUR-OARED RACE

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 7—Every oarsman attending the thirty-seventh annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which is being held on the Detroit river under the auspices of the Detroit Boat club, turned out today with the hope that the finals of the regatta this afternoon would be favored with the ideal weather and water conditions which fell to the lot of the contestants in yesterday's races. This was the "big" day of the regatta, with interest centered in the championship senior sculls, the senior eight-oared and the senior four-oared shells, which brought together practically the same crews which took part yesterday.

Wind and weather conditions were perfect when the single scullers began paddling up the course for the first event. J. N. Demegrae of the Minnesota Boat club was elected today a member of the executive committee of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen.

The results were:

Association single sculls, senior, final—First, William Merhoff, Nassau Boat club, New York; second, Samuel Gordon, Vesper Boat club, Philadelphia; third, A. Warneck, Springfield Boat club, Springfield, Mass. Time, 7:19.

For King Edward's Cup

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 7—The fourth renewal of the race for the King's cup, a $5,000 gold trophy, held by the New York Yacht club, which goes to the winner of yacht, schooners, sloops and yawls, all sailed in one class, was held off here today as the second preliminary event of the annual cruise of the New York Yacht club. The King's cup was presented to the club by King Edward in 1905 and the race is open to yachts of all organized yacht clubs over 56 feet on the water line. The race started from Brenton's reef lightship over a 18-mile course.

Svanberg Goes Home

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 7—John Svanberg, the Marathon runner, sailed today for Sweden, where he will rest for the summer before his coming contests in this country next winter. Svanberg said he was greatly disappointed because he was unable to get a match race with Alfred Shrubb, the English runner, for a 15-mile contest.

Tacoma Tennis Tourney

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 7—In the tennis tournament Walter Fitz and Sam Russell, the Seattle pair, won the Pacific northwest doubles championship yesterday afternoon by defeating Breeze of Tacoma and Gorrill of Oakland, Cal., in a stubbornly fought match that went the full five sets. The scores were 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 4-6, 6-0. Gorrill and Breeze tired in the last set and got only a half dozen points all told. Joe Tyler of Spokane went into the finals of the men's singles by winning from Dorman, the Tacoma man, 8-6, 7-5, in the prettiest match of the tournament. Dorman was within one point of winning the first set at one time and took the first four games in the second set. Tyler played magnificently when in danger and drew out of the holes. Miss Hotchkiss and Miss Ryan won the women's doubles championship by defeating Miss McFadon and Miss Baillie of Tacoma without great difficulty.

Men's singles—Tyler beat Russell 6-1, 6-4, 6-4.

Women's singles—Miss Hotchkiss beat Miss Ryan 6-0, 6-1.

LORD LANSDOWNE'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Lord Lansdowne has made a momentous declaration in announcing that the house of lords, or at least the majority of that body, had determined to reject the budget. This means a struggle between the present government and the upper house, in which the people of the Great Britain and Ireland will be called upon to act as arbiters. Following the rejection of budget by the house of lords the government cannot well do anything but appeal to the people. In the succeeding struggle the government, if it is true to its record, will present two issues to the people. One will be a request for an endorsement of the budget measure recently submitted to parliament by Mr. David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, which the conservative members of the house of lords, through Lord Lansdowne, have announced their intention of rejecting, and the other, and the one that is more likely to be put in the forefront, will be a cry for the abolition of the lords, based on the action of that body in departing from all precedents of the past century and a half in rejecting a money measure, a matter in regard to which the people, through their representatives in the house of commons, are supposed to be supreme. The members of the government have already made it plain that they will resent any unfavorable action by the house of lords on the budget as an interference with the rights of the people and will appeal to the people for support on that ground. With such an issue before them the people may possibly lose sight of the real question being submitted to them for their decision, the budget proposals.

Lord Lansdowne's announcement shows that the lords are not afraid of the verdict, but that, on the other hand, they invite it. The members of the upper house admit that under ordinary conditions they are not justified in interfering in matters relating to the budget. This, however, they point out is an exceptional case in which their action is justified by the fact that the budget submitted by Mr. Lloyd-George makes radical and far-reaching changes in the system of taxation, and that without giving the people of the country an opportunity to pronounce either one way or the other on the matter. Lord Lansdowne, in announcing the intentions of his fellow peers, makes it clear that the object of the lords in rejecting the budget is to give the people an opportunity for making a pronouncement of this kind.

This is certainly a reasonable stand on the part of the lords, but from their past course and their recent public declarations it can be taken for granted that Mr. Winston Churchill and many of his radical colleagues, if indeed he is not backed by all members of the government, will try to obscure this view of the situation and will attempt to make it appear that the house of lords has interfered with the liberties of the people and will ask the electorate to vote for the abolition of the upper house and incidentally in favor of another term in office for Mr. Churchill and his friends. Those who have faith in the sound common sense of the people of the old country will not believe, unless the contrary is actually demonstrated to them, that Mr. Churchill and his fellow can stampede the Britishers in any such way.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mr. Allan Purvis very deservedly pays tribute to the excellent work done by the fire brigade and the local employees of the C.P.R. at the fire in the company's yards yesterday morning. Had it not been for this work a disastrous fire might have resulted.

Here is what Earl Grey wrote Premier McBride after visiting Windermere valley last year, his remarks having special reference to the Kootenays: "It is estimated that the tide of tourist travel in Switzerland annually leaves in that country $200,000,000. It is in the power of your people to divert a large section of this enriching tide from Switzerland to British Columbia."

DAMAGE AT C.P.R. FIRE

ALLAN PURVIS GIVES PARTICULARS OF LOSSES

PAYS TRIBUTE TO CITY BRIGADE AND COMPANY'S MEN

The actual damage done by the big fire in the C. P. R yards early yesterday morning is estimated by Allan Purvis, district superintendent, at $6,000, which amount is covered by insurance. In addition to the car repair shops four cars with their contents, chiefly shingles and ore, were completely destroyed, and under the roof of the building itself was stored a large amount of lumber which added materially to the size of the blaze. There were in the shops a quantity of tools belonging to the C. P. R. These were, of course, destroyed. The surrounding buildings and property beyond a slight scorching were undamaged.

Mr. Purvis paid a glowing tribute to the work of the city fire brigade and to the energy of the local railway staff, who turned out almost to a man, in the following words: "Great credit is due to the city firemen. Their work was most effective and the water pressure from the city pipes was all that could be desired. I noticed that particularly. There is no doubt that the city has nothing whatever to fear from fire as regards the pressure in the water mains or the efficiency of the fire brigade under Chief Guthrie. I should also like to express my appreciation of the loyalty of the local staff. They turned out practically en masse and they did not come to the fire for the purpose of seeing a pretty blaze; every man was right there with his coat off. I may mention that I have written a letter to Mayor Selous expressing my thanks for the good work done by the city fire brigade."

Mr. Purvis stated that the work of rebuilding the shops would commence as soon as possible but in the meantime the 40 odd men employed there would not be out of work as the repairs to the cars would have to continue as before the fire. He is unable to assign any reason for the outbreak. No men were employed there after 5 p. m. but a large number of men were in and around the yards all the night.

Joint Sale Sanctioned

LONDON, Aug. 7.—At a meeting today of the bond and coupon holders of the Imperial Paper Mills of Canada, and the Northern Sulphite Mills of Canada, the joint sale of the companies, as suggested by A. W. Tait, the receiver, for $1,250,000 was sanctioned.

China's Troubles

PEKIN, Aug. 7—The Chinese maritime customs house at Aigum on the Amur river, has been put into operation. M. Korofovitz, the Russian minister to China, has taken the position that the collection of customs there constitutes a violation of the treaties of Aigum and St. Petersburg and as a result the question of the navigation of the Amur is now raised.

New York Fire

NEW YORK, Aug. 7.—Two hundred and fifty inmates of the House of the Good Shepherd in east Ninetieth street, near the east river, fled from the main building to the court yard early today while a fire burned out nearly all the rooms in the second floor. A passing policeman, who discovered the blaze as it was bursting from the sewing room on the second floor, experienced great difficulty in arousing the occupants, most of whom were girls and whose chambers were on the third floor. The blaze was soon extinguished, with a loss of a few thousand dollars. There was no loss of life.

W. B. Corsets

It doesn't matter if you are over developed you can have just as correct a figure as your more fortunate sisters and without discomfort or trouble.

The Reduso

Is a radical departure, an innovation in corset making for stout women. It performs the task easily and comfortably, being no heavier than the average corset except for the stauncher fabrics that enter for making. The W. B. Reduso Corset moulds large figures into shapier lines. It reduces the abdomen and hips from one to five inches. The Reduso proves the folly of burdening appliances and clumsy construction. It is the one perfect corset for tall or short women.

Price $5.00

The Correct Method of Lacing and Putting On a Corset

Two laces should be used of the necessary length, which is regulated by the length and size of the corset. One lace should be inserted beginning at the bottom of the corset and working upward toward the waist line and the second lace should be inserted at the top of the corset working downwards towards the bottom of the corset until both laces meet at the waist line or waist zone—the lacing to be carried out almost the same as when you lace a pair of shoes. In adjusting the corset to the figure draw the garment well over the abdomen and then anchor the corset by attaching the garters to the hose. Begin to tighten at the bottom eyelet, working upwards towards the waist line; then start at the top eyelet and work downward. The bottom should be drawn in as tightly as comfort will permit, also the top, but the waist line should be left normal and not drawn in tightly.

If these simple directions are carried out the long straight line figure effect will be produced and the greatest satisfaction obtained from the fit of the corset.

NEWS OF THE DOMINION

BRANTFORD, Ont., Aug. 7—Principal Gant has been dismissed by the Paris school board because, it is alleged, he placed his feet on the table during class hours.

OTTAWA, Aug. 7—Rea Bros. of Toronto have completed negotiations for a controlling interest in the T. Lindsay company's department store here. The price is around $300,000.

MONTREAL, Aug. 7—Henry Bradley, 12 years old, was taken to the hospital last night suffering from tetanus caused by a broken thumb. His condition is serious.

OTTAWA, Aug. 7—Liquor valued at $1,200 has been found concealed in bales of hay and is being confiscated. It was being shipped to Transcontinental construction gangs near Latuque.

OTTAWA, Aug. 7—There were 10,000,000 less cigarettes smoked in Canada last year than in 1907. The decline was due entirely to the restrictive legislation put through parliament by the government during 1908. It is believed that the law actually prevented smoking of some 40,000,000 to 50,000,000 cigarettes by the boys of the country, as the consumption was increasing until the law was put into force. The total consumption of cigarettes last year was about 370,000,000, compared with 400,000,000 the previous year.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 7—Lord Strathcona will visit Winnipeg at the time of the meeting of the British association here this month. He will arrive on Aug. 4. This is his first trip west in many years.

MONTREAL, Aug. 7—A single express wagon, belonging to the Dominion Hide and Yellow company, was struck by an electric car on McCord street last night and driver F. L. Ardriere was fatally hurt.

OTTAWA, Aug. 7—Two sons of L. Beaudry of Montreal were strangely drowned at St. Eugene. While staying at their grandfather's farm they were on a load of hay which, crossing Grace bridge, toppled over into the creek with the hay on top of the boys. Mr. Cadieux, the grandfather, jumped off in time to save himself.

They got over into Nary bay, and there Murray, who had been rowing, got up to change with Steer. As the men were standing the frail craft upset and all were thrown in the water. Murray was able to save himself. Mr. Steer was saved by Ernest Stanbridge and Dr. Bogart was soon working over him, and he recovered. The body of Mrs. Steer has not been found.

OTTAWA, Aug. 7—Efforts are being put forth in Ottawa and elsewhere for the organization of the excise officers in the employ of the inland revenue department. When completed the new organization will be a part of the civil service foundation. Already outside service customs officers in Ontario and postmasters in other parts of the Dominion are organized.

MONTREAL, Aug. 7—Herr Otto Zwarg, with a party of Germans, the advance guard of a small army of well-to-do German farmers, left here yesterday for western Canada to spy out land. If their report is favorable and if they do well in the next couple of years they will be the means of a large exodus of the better German class, men who have money enough to stock their farms and have a little left for contingencies. Herr Zwarg was sent to Edmonton by the C.P.R. some years ago and he came back to Montreal delighted with what he had seen. He went home two years ago and returned here this week with his wife, her mother and five well-to-do farmers.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

Kootenay Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., meets tomorrow evening in Oddfellows' hall.

C. H. Joy has gone to the coast cities for a two weeks' holiday trip.

W. Patterson left last night for a two weeks' visit to the coast cities including the Seattle fair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Strachan have returned to the city after spending a month in Tacoma and Seattle.

Mrs. J. H. Lowe of Spokane, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Frink of Baker street, returns to her home this morning after having a very pleasant trip.

The regular meeting of Court Royal Nelson No. 8394, A. O. F., will be held on Monday night at 8 sharp in K. of P. hall. All members are requested to be present.

The regular meeting of Nelson Council No. 678, A. O. P., will be held in I.O.O.F. hall on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock sharp. All members are requested to be present.

Nelson is possessed of a large number of assets which no other city can ever hope to boast, but still one more has been added to the list. Nelson has a tame musk rat. Around Lindsay's boat house there are a number of tame musk rats and for one in particular pieces of cheese have been put out. The rat has become so tame that it will eat beside the employees at the livery while they stand close by and watch it and will even eat from Mr. Lindsay's hand. It will also come to the call of a whistle. The reason the musk rats are favored by the employees at the boat house is because they are remarkably good scavengers.

All arrangements have been completed for the annual basket picnic in connection with St. Paul's Presbyterian Sabbath school picnic to be held next Wednesday, August 11th. The steamer Moyie will make two trips to Proctor, in the morning at 9 o'clock and in the afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. The Eagles' band will go up on the second trip and will furnish music during the afternoon. A full program of sports has been arranged to meet the requirements of the most fastidious, and there will be abundance of refreshments, including ice cream and peanuts. The teachers and scholars of the school are out to break the record for attendance at a Sunday school picnic, and the steamer Moyie has a special permit to carry up to 500 passengers. Tickets for adults will be 25 cents and 25 cents for children, scholars of St. Paul's Sunday school, of course, travelling free.

Blue Ribbon

If You've Been Using "Cheap" Tea

The rich, full flavor of Blue Ribbon Tea will be a delightful surprise to you.

No 25c or 30c tea has a flavor to compare with it. The choice leaf used in blending Blue Ribbon Tea costs too much to sell at any such price.

And as so much less is required to the cup, BLUE RIBBON TEA is REALLY THE MOST ECONOMICAL, as well as the best.

A pound of Blue Ribbon will make over 200 cups, rich and strong, so it costs less than 1-4c per cup.

Just try a pound of Blue Ribbon and judge it for yourself.

EARL GREY AT THE COAST

LOOKING FORWARD TO VISIT TO TOBY CREEK

LEAVES FOR YUKON TO SEE THE NORTH

"Your city will no doubt desire me to do many things on my return from the Yukon, but I fear I shall not have the time. I am going to the far north because it is the only part of Canada that I have not seen. On our return we shall go to that beautiful valley of Columbia, occupying the camp which the provincial government has so generously erected for us. Then we shall return to Ottawa."

It was as Sir Albert Henry George Grey, a welcome westerner and citizen of British Columbia since the day he purchased his ranch on Kootenay lake, and not as His Excellency Earl Grey, governor general of Canada, and noted imperialist, that the king's representative on the Dominion thus addressed a group of newspapermen this morning shortly after the arrival of his special train, right on the second that it was due, 10 a. m., says the Vancouver Province.

The question to which Sir Albert thus replied was as to whether or not he would accept the city's invitation to open the Granville street bridge, which will be in readiness for that ceremony on his return.

Contrary to the expectations of those who assembled on the platform the city was not represented.

"I have not received that invitation, unless," added his excellency, with a wave of his hand to the many unopened letters, "it is in that correspondence."

While the ladies of the party, his excellency's daughter Lady Sybil Grey, and Miss Broderick of Enderby, joined Mrs. and Miss Dunsmuir among the welcoming party, Earl Grey strolled the platform with Lieutenant Governor Dunsmuir and R. Marpole with the freedom of the silver clouds that curtained the inlet just as they did on his excellency's former visit to Vancouver three years ago.

Capt. Viscount Lascelles, the earl's aide-de-camp, announced that the party would leave for the north this afternoon on the government steamer Quadra under command of Capt. Newcombe.

The party were the guests of the lieutenant governor at luncheon on the palatial yacht Defiance glittering in the sunlight at the C. P. R. wharf, as she did on that day a year ago when she attracted the attention and received the praise of the kaiser.

It had been expected that the Defiance would convoy his excellency to Skagway and where await the return within the month of the party from Dawson. But the Quadra will have that honor. About the time that the party leaves the Yukon for the valley of the Columbia, Lady Grey and a number of her Ottawa friends will leave the federal capital, joining the Yukon party at Golden.

As the special train rolled into the depot, officials with watches observed: "She runs on time. She has 20 seconds to reach the depot and make the stop."

She did it to the second.

"That engineer must have stowed up out at Mosdmus to make the time," observed a knowing one.

The train was truly special for it consisted of the two famous York and Cartwall coaches upon which the prince of Wales, then Duke of York, toured the Dominion.

The earl's orderly, Sergeant Clark, in scarlet uniform, preceded the party warmly greeted by those who gathered to welcome them. Capt. Grant, agent of the federal department of marine and fisheries, was among the party, as was also Capt. Newcombe.

The York and Cartwall will return east in a day or two to bring to British Columbia Lady Grey and her party.

The earl looked the picture of health and strolled the platform with the easy grace of the traveller he is. A month ago he was in England. After his return to the Dominion on the Empress of Ireland he spent but a few days in Ottawa and then proceeded on his holiday trip to the coast.

But coming privately as a traveler and British Columbia citizen Vancouver was not expected to repeat that memorable loyal reception which her citizens three years ago accorded to the earl in his official capacity.

When on his return from the Yukon and his latest return to Ottawa Earl Grey will have travelled something like 5,000 miles within the space of three months, a little holiday trip for this noble world-girdler.

The camp which the provincial government has established for the viceregal party, where most of September will be spent on his return from the Yukon, is on Toby creek six far south of Golden, one of the most beautiful spots in the charming valley of the Columbia.

OLD COUNTRY FIRM WOULD INVEST MONEY HERE

WRITE BOARD OF TRADE REGARDING THE MATTER

Among the enquiries now coming into the board of trade is one from a firm in Scotland, which, E. E. Beeston, the secretary, has handed to The Daily News for publication. Should anyone be interested in getting into communication with writers of letters Mr. Beeston will be glad to act as the medium and to forward replies. The letter reads as follows:

"The Secretary, Board of Trade,
"Nelson, B. C.

"Dear Sir,—We are anxious to get in touch with some manufacturing business capable of expansion, or some partly developed small mining concern. Can you assist us? If we received a satisfactory proposal we might be prepared to invest a little in a business with the object of developing same, and of, perhaps, getting firms in this country to take an interest in it.

"Being ourselves merchants we would prefer some concern in the conduct of whose business we would take an active part, say as selling agents in this country, or in some other commercial connection with them. Nevertheless, we would be glad to hear of any sound commercial opening.

"We are buying brokers for a very large Continental firm and this brings us into touch with a number of firms of good commercial and financial standing.

"Our bankers are the Bank of Scotland, and they will answer any enquiries as to our financial position, provided these enquiries are sent through another bank."

LOOKING UP

Trade Conditions in Fernie Are Very Much Improved

(Special to The Daily News)

FERNIE, Aug. 7 — Business conditions have improved during the last few weeks owing to a certain extent to the more settled state of the coal mining industry and the resumption of work in the collieries which had been idle pending a settlement of the labor difficulties. In Fernie itself building operations have taken on a new lease of life and the payrolls in the trade have been greatly increased during the last few days. Good progress is being made on the big Trites-Wood departmental store, a large gang of men being employed on the structure. The excavations are also being made for the main building of the Hotel Fernie which will now be rushed to completion. Work will be commenced on the new bank of Hamilton on Monday and the Imperial bank premises will be started within the next ten days. These big buildings, with the business blocks that are already in course of construction and the numerous private residences will insure the distribution of a very respectable sum for some time to come and prospects are extremely bright in consequence.

A great many of the city sidewalks and crossings have been badly damaged by the removal of temporary buildings to new locations and as moving contractors are compelled to give a bond to cover any such damage, the city council is out on the war path and will insist on the guilty parties paying for them.

A. Berridge, who has been colliery accountant for some years at Coal Creek has resigned his position with the coal company to go into business for himself at Seattle.

Mrs. Bell, wife of George Bell, manager of the local branch of the Imperial bank, arrived in town this morning from Banff.

Game warden Jack Lewis has returned from the big game reserve up the Elk valley, where he has been defining the boundaries.

J. R. Lawry, manager of the local branch of the bank of Hamilton, returned from Ontario yesterday.

MAKES AEROPLANE RECORD

French Aviator Beats Wilbur Wright's Flight Last December

MOURLEMON - LEGRANDE, France, Aug. 7.—Rodmor Bonmer, the French aviator, today beat the world's record for prolonged flights in an aeroplane. His machine remained in the air for two hours, 22 minutes and 15 seconds. Bonmer started at 11 minutes past 3 o'clock this morning in the bright moonlight. In the evening he went slowly near the ground at elevations running from 6 to 20 yards. After the machine had become limbered up the aviator increased his speed and the coming of daylight showed him travelling and manouvring easily. When it became evident that he had beaten all previous records the assembled crowd cheered wildly and as Bonmer came to the ground at 41 minutes and 15 seconds past 4 o'clock he was given an ovation. Bonmer is one of the new school of French aviators.

The record for duration of flight made by Wright is 2 hours, 20 minutes and 23 seconds. It was made at Lemans, France, last December.

Air Clearing in Chicago

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—The impression was strong today that peace would be maintained between the street car companies and their employees. President Mitten, of the Chicago City Railroad company, intimated that he was willing to grant the required increase in wages provided the men would sign a three years' contract. President Roach of the north and west side lines said he would go as far as Mr. Mitten in this direction. Motormen and conductors, interviewed, appear to be jubilant over the prospects of peace. They voted to "stand by the demands made by the companies," but it is said without any real idea that a strike would become necessary. Mr. Mitten was in his office early and prepared to meet a committee representing the men of his road to discuss terms.
