TWO CANDIDATES IN CHATEAUGUAY

Independant Conservative Is Not Nominated

CONTEST IS POLITICAL PUZZLE

Slight Swing of Sentiment May Change Result--Sir Wilfred Speaks.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—J. O. Dubois failed to put in an appearance at the nominations at Chateauguay yesterday and the contest will therefore be between Hon. Sydney Fisher, Liberal, and James Morris, Conservative.

There was an enormous crowd present from the surrounding country when the nominations were declared closed and both candidates made speeches predicting victory. Next Saturday is poling day.

Is Political Puzzle.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Ont. 5.—A number of residents of Ottawa who returned today from attending the nominating day proceedings in Chateauguay county declare that the by-election being fought there is a political puzzle of the first magnitude. Both sides are working desperately, but neither one nor the other is over-confident as to the probable result. Nearly 10,000 attended the meeting which followed the nominations proceedings and the honors appeared to be about equally divided. Conservatives claim that the retirement of Dubois, the independent Conservative, will improve the chance of Mr. Morris, their candidate, who has the advantage of being a life long resident of the county. The strength of the candidature of Mr. Fisher is, however, admitted by all who are taking part in the fight. Workers on both sides are very numerous, and while hopeful none are over-confident. They say that a little swing of sentiment one way or the other will mean success or failure. The Conservatives hope that the swing will be in favor of the local man, while the Liberals believe that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's meetings next week will turn the battle in their favor. He added another to his list of meetings and will speak three times, on Wednesday at Ormston, Thursday afternoon at Ste. Martin and on Thursday night at Chateauguay village.

May Make Mistake Again.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ST. JOHNS, Que., Oct. 5.—The Liberal demonstration here on Saturday afternoon was attended by a trainload from Montreal and a great gathering from all parts of the dual constituency, including Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The Liberal leader said the time had come for the government to consider another revision, or as he put it a modification of the fiscal policy. Sir Wilfrid wants more bars thrown down, otherwise the tariff is satisfactory to the Liberal party. A country capable of producing 200,000,000 bushels of wheat must, in his opinion, have a wider market, and although he will not attack the present government, he wants them to think over the matter and he will judge them on the result of their labors. The leader of the opposition intimated that the change of government had made money tighter and harder to get, wages lower and real estate more of a drug on the market.

When the train arrived at St. Johns a large crowd greeted Sir Wilfrid at the station and Mayor Papineau read an address, welcoming him to the town and thanking him for what he had done for St. Johns when he was prime minister. A procession was then formed, after which the meeting was organized at the market square.

Sir Wilfrid said the people had made a mistake at the last election and they might do so once more, but he did not want the Liberals to lose courage. He compared the situation which existed in the Dominion during his 15 years' tenure of office with that of today or during the past two years. When he left power the whole face of the Dominion had been changed, the country being known all over the world, and everyone gazed with pleasure on the bright new star in the firmament. Speaking to Conservatives present, the speaker asked: Is the country as prosperous, are your lands as valuable, are salaries as high and is work as plentiful as when we were in power? The change which the Laurier government brought to this country was almost miraculous but the Conservatives say it was providence which did all this. I admit that providence loved us; but why does not providence do as much for the Borden government? The present government, he would repeat, had done absolutely nothing yet.

Sir Wilfrid alluded to his trade policy, stating that this country with its 200,000,000 bushels of wheat must have wider markets, and this was what he thought in 1911. Everybody wanted better trade relations with the United States, but, he said, when Sir John Macdonald and Sir John Thompson had been sent upon fruitless missions, and when he also had failed at Washington, he made up his mind that we would never go to Washington on a begging errand; but whenever Washington felt disposed to come to us we would treat with them.

Sir Wilfrid claimed that the Borden government had done nothing since they came into power to improve the conditions existing in the Dominion. In fact, it would take a microscope to find any act on their part in the interests of the people. The government has a surplus of $50,000,000 and yet the cost of living in Canada was never so high as at the present time.

WANT CLERGY TO PRAY FOR WOMEN

Service Interrupted at Westminster Abbey—Women Chant Prayer for Imprisoned Suffragettes

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Because the clergy do not include women in their prayers a party of suffragettes today interrupted the morning services at Westminster Abbey by chanting a prayer for the women now in prison. The party rose as the Litany was being recited and ignored a request to desist from singing. At the conclusion the women left the Abbey quietly. Addressing a crowd outside, one said, "This is nothing to what will happen unless women are included in the clergy's prayers."

WASHOUT STALLS MAIN LINE TRAINS

Passengers Held Up Sixteen Hours Through Trouble Near Port Arthur—City Inundated

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

FORT WILLIAM, Ont., Oct. 5.—For the second time this season the streets in the low lying land between the two cities are flooded with water, caused by an excessive rainfall. All day Saturday the rain fell and continued till this morning. In the coal dock section of Port Arthur the water lies knee deep in the streets and the foreigners there are compelled to lay planks on blocks to reach their houses.

The washout held up all trains on the Canadian Pacific railway between here and Schrieber for 16 hours yesterday. Although trouble was reported at a number of places the most serious occurred near Gravell and Rossport. At Rossport a piece of track about 45 feet long slid into the lake. The piece of track most seriously affected was the line of double track. The Imperial Limited and eastern express were held at Nipigeon until the line was cleared.

DYNAMITE SAFE FIRE AT POLICEMAN

Desperate Criminals Operating Near Winnipeg—Every Window in St. Boniface Station Broken.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 5.—Yeggmen are again at work in and around Winnipeg. This time the Canadian Northern railway station at St. Boniface suffered, losing $125, a shattered safe, broken windows and walls badly damaged. The men, two of whom are desperate, for they did not stop when asked what they were doing by Constable John Doran of the St. Boniface police, but fired at him point blank. When the constable, who was unarmed, ran for safety in the station, the robbers escaped. They were pursued by the constable, but he lost them among the cars in the yard.

The safe blowers took practically no precautions in this case, not even waiting to pull down the blinds. They used three charges of nitroglycerine to blow the safe and every window in the building was broken with the explosion.

ADVOCATES DOMINION BAR ASSOCIATION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 5.—Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice, arrived today in this city on a general inspection of penal institutions on the coast. Next Friday he will start on the return journey. During his trip the minister is advocating a Dominion bar association. "Not," he said, "that it would be any more legal than the provincial association, but I think if all were affiliated under the name of the Canadian bar they would do much good toward legal assistance of one another." He spoke favorably of the progress that Vancouver is making.

CANADIAN FLOUR SHIPMENTS OUT OF CONDITION

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—Complaints of a serious nature have reached the department of trade and commerce to the effect that large shipments of Canadian flour have gone out of condition when shipped to semi-tropical countries. The Canadian export trade in flour is consequently placed in a doubtful position so far as competition with United States shippers is concerned. Some foreign importers have declared that if flour from the Dominion is to compete with that from the United States it must have the same keeping qualities as that shipped from the latter country.

BRAKEMAN FINED FOR ACCEPTING BRIBES

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MOOSE JAW, Oct. 5.—John Branniff and Relay Southwick, the two Canadian Pacific railway brakemen, were found guilty in the police court on Saturday evening of corruptly accepting the sum of 50 cents from each of nine hoboes riding on a freight train from Estevan to this city. They were let off with a nominal fine of $2 and costs apiece. The nine hoboes appeared as witnesses.

WILL RECOGNIZE NEW REPUBLIC

Election Will Take Place in China Today

FEDERAL FORCES SURROUND BANDITS

Relations With Japan Become More Cordial--Missionaries Are Prisoners.

PEKIN, Oct. 5.—The presidential election in the Chinese republic is to take place on Monday. The members of the two houses of parliament will assemble in the morning for this purpose. Immediately after the election the powers will recognize the Chinese republic. It is asserted here that Japan has taken a prominent part in the movement for recognition and that the relations between the Chinese and Japanese governments have greatly improved on this account.

Bandits surrendered.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

HANKOW, Oct. 5.—Four thousand government soldiers completely surrounded the town of Tsao, in the hands of the Chinese bandits. Official telegrams received today at the office of Gen. Li Yuen Heng, vice-president of the republic, report an attempt on the part of the bandits to make their way out of the city. On Thursday evening they opened all the gates and tried to escape through the government gate, but failed. Desultory fighting ensued and the bandits retired within the walls of the town. Two hundred bandits and 11 horses were killed. One report estimates that the bandits number 1,000, all of them well armed. Skirmishes are occurring daily.

Rewards for Missionaries.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PEKING, Oct. 5.—The American legation fears the consequences of the fighting which has already occurred between the government forces and the bandits, in spite of the instructions issued at Peking. The government has telegraphed to the authorities at Sang Fue to offer liberal rewards if all the missionaries at Tsao Yang are returned alive. It is urged that the local gentry act as intermediaries.

Up to the present no official news has been received here regarding the fate of the missionaries. Edward T. Williams, the American charge d'affaires at Peking, notified the state department at Washington today that the legation as yet had not been able to learn the nature of the brigands' demands. J. P. James, American consul at Sing Fu, has notified the legation that one of the foreign women was injured when the town was attacked. The captives, according to latest reports, are: Rev. George Holm, wife and son and Miss Sather, American; Miss C. L. Rasmussen, Mr. Berdahl and the Rev. H. Fauske and wife, Norwegians. The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Fauske was killed. The Fen Cheng missionaries promise to communicate with the American legation at once.

POOR POSTOFFICES OBSTACLE TO PARCELS POST

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 5.—Inadequacy of postoffices throughout the Dominion is proving a serious stumbling block in the way of the establishment of the parcel post. The government has now one or more inspectors looking into this important phase of the situation and it is being found that in some of the cities and towns postoffices are too small to meet the demand which the parcel post will make.

Ottawa is given as an illustration of this condition of things. For the past two or three years the local postoffice had been found hopelessly inadequate during the Christmas rush and the addition of a parcel post would be well calculated to cripple it hopelessly.

The same difficulty was encountered in the United States, although it was not of such a serious character there as it would be in Canada, where the growth of the country during the past few years has been too rapid for the growth of adequate buildings.

MRS. KENNEDY, MANITOBA OLD TIMER, IS DEAD

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VIRDEN, Man., Oct. 5.—Mrs. Eleanore Elisa Kennedy, widow of Capt. W. N. Kennedy, the former Arctic explorer, died here yesterday at the age of 88 years. Mrs. Kennedy was a noted personage in this province, having come to Manitoba, the Red River settlement, in 1861. She went to Oak Point Lake, Man., the same year to work under the auspices of the Canadian Church Missionary society and found a well established Catholic mission and Anglican clergymen in the field. After a winter strenuously spent in teaching and ministering to the wants of many natives there, she went back and settled with her husband in the parish of St. Andrews, Man., having been deterred by the outbreak of the Sioux massacre in Minnesota. Returning to England after the death of Capt. Kennedy in 1880, she moved here later, where she resided to the time of her death.

ENTIRE BUSINESS BLOCK BURNED

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WARROAD, Minn., Oct. 5.—An entire business block was destroyed by fire this morning, causing a loss of one or more lives and damage to the extent of $75,000. The blaze started in the kitchen of the Slatten restaurant and under a heavy wind swept the entire block. The charred corpse of Harry Gibson, a trapper, was found in the debris of the restaurant. The Lakewood hotel is the only building left standing on Main street. Eleven buildings were destroyed, including three hotels and two saloons.

HOUR IN PRISON FOR BIGAMY

Ex-Alderman Must Also Pay Hundred Dollars Fine—American Divorce Not Valid.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANVOUVER, B. C., Oct. 5.—For the crime of bigamously marrying Jessie Bailey, a young clerk in his employ, ex-Alderman Sidney Miller was yesterday sentenced by Judge McInnes to undergo one hour's imprisonment and to pay a fine of $100. Miller, who was alderman for ward 8 for three years and who has been for some time postmaster at Adela postoffice, went through the form of marriage with Miss Bailey in July of this year, following an agreement with his wife that they were to live apart. The couple had been married for 15 years. Prior to this second ceremony he had obtained from the court of Seattle an American divorce by swearing that he had been for five years prior to April 1, 1913, a resident of the state of Washington and had been deserted by his wife after he had given her all his savings.

On the advice of counsel, who told him that the American divorce was valueless as a defence, Miller pleaded guilty.

REPORTED DEAD—SURVEYOR GIVES FRIENDS SURPRISE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., Oct. 5.—Friends of M. Montague Connelly, who was reported to have been killed at the Cape Muzon camp of the Dominion government Alaska boundary survey, received a pleasant surprise when he arrived home in Vancouver yesterday looking as fit as the proverbial fiddle. At the time of the land slide which snuffed out the lives of two young Vancouverites, Messrs. Roberts and Bodie, Connelly was about 50 miles away.

The slide, Mr. Connelly says, must have come with terrible suddenness, the entire side of a mountain 1,500 feet high toppling over and burying the camp under many hundred feet of rock, dirt and snow. He says that it will be impossible to recover the bodies of the men killed.

Some Facts for the Manufacturer's Eyes

A certain manufacturer spent $100,000 in a "general publicity" campaign to advertise his product. The campaign was not a success.

One of the things he noted was that he got the most inquiries from places where he had no distribution.

He changed his whole program, and instructed his agents to plan a campaign in the newspapers.

Newspapers have been used since then to the exclusion of other mediums and wherever possible they have been used in cooperation with local dealers.

Hardly an ounce of power has been wasted.

No money has been spent in places where there was no distribution.

Sales have doubled and trebled, and the cost is much less than that of the previous campaign.

A card or letter to the Bureau of Advertising, American Newspaper Publishers Association, World Building, New York, will bring you any information you desire in regard to the planning of a cooperative newspaper campaign.

TREATY WITH UNITED STATES PROPOSED

Three Thousand Budhists Talk of Universal Peace and Progress.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TOKIO, Oct. 5.—The newspaper Jiji Shimpo says that negotiations are shortly to be reopened with the United States in the matter of the California Land act.

"Japan," says the paper, "desiring to reach a fundamental solution of the California question, and finding the acquisition of naturalization for Japanese in California most difficult, is about to proceed by treaty with the United States. Formal negotiations which have been delayed on account of Washington's pre-occupation with the Mexican trouble and the tariff bill, will be begun at an early date."

Only by War.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TOKIO, Oct. 5.—Buddhists assembled in mass meeting today in the Hong Fanji temple adopted a resolution in the form of a message to President Wilson bearing on the Japan-American relations. The message which was forwarded to the president was as follows: "For the sake of universal peace and progress, which are the ideals of Buddhism, we, in paying homage to the president, earnestly wish for the development of the friendship between Japan and the United States, based on liberty and justice, with the exclusion of religious and racial prejudice." Three thousand Buddhists were present.

M. Oshi, leader of the progressive party, declared that only by war could Japan obtain a fundamental solution of the California land question. He urged determination on the part of the nation.

PANIC CAUSED BY EARTHQUAKE AT NAPLES

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NAPLES, Oct. 5.—A strong earthquake shock occurred here at 7:20 o'clock yesterday evening. It lasted 30 seconds and was followed by another shock at 7:30. Both were undulatory and caused a considerable panic, although the damage was insignificant.

Another at Panama.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PANAMA, Oct. 5.—Another earthquake shock occurred on the isthmus at 5:06 o'clock this afternoon. It was almost equal in intensity to the shock of Wednesday night, its duration being from 10 to 15 seconds. Buildings were severely shaken, but apparently no damage was done beyond the falling of plaster and the opening of slight fissures in the case of a few structures.

Reports from there announce, officials indicate, that neither the locks nor any part of the canal suffered in any degree whatever. The recording instruments indicated that the shock this evening had about half the force of that of Wednesday night, although it covered the same territory.

Shocks Follow Mountains.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, Man., Oct. 5.—The earthquake which occurred on the isthmus of Panama was recorded by the St. Boniface college seismograph on Saturday, the time and distance shown corresponding to the report received. Rev. Father Blain, S.J., professor of science at the college, stated that the quakes at Panama were clearly recorded. Although the shocks were due south they were recorded almost due west. This, said Father Blain, is explained by the fact that the shocks follow the Rocky mountains.

REGINA JEWS ENTER PROTEST

Russian Story that Human Blood Used in Ceremony Is Slander—Fair Trial Denied

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

REGINA, Sask., Oct. 5.—In accordance with a world wide movement to protest against the accusations of the Russian government that Mindil Bailis, of Kiev, Russia, used human blood in celebrating the feast of the Passover, a Jewish ceremony, a mass meeting of local Jews was held in the new synagogue on Saturday evening. A strong protest was filed at the meeting and a committee was appointed to wait upon the members of the city council in an effort to get them to take similar action at their next meeting and also to see that the protests get publicity.

The accusation of the Russian government is considered as an insult to the Jewish race and meetings of protests are being held in all parts of the world. They claim that there is no blood, human or otherwise, used at the ceremony and state that the charge is denied by the highest dignitaries in England and other countries. They also declare that Bailis will not be given a fair trial in Russia, as all attempts have failed to bring forth favorable evidence in court. According to information, Bailis has been in prison for two years awaiting trial. The feast of the Passover is celebrated in April.

TARIFF GIVES CANADA CONTROL

Chicago Pit Observers Say Dominion Can Fix Amount of Protection for American Grain.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 5.—Sentimental effects of the signing of the tariff bill showed themselves yesterday in the wheat pit. The market, although steady at the close, was five-eighths to three-quarters under Friday night. Corn finished three-quarters down and oats three-quarters to seven-eighths. Notwithstanding that it has been a foregone conclusion that the tariff measure would receive the president's signature the knowledge that the law was actually in operation had considerable to do with depressing wheat. Observers declared that new buyers were kept out and that short sellers were encouraged. Attention again fixed itself on the point that the only protection now against Canadian wheat was purely optional with Canada.

APES BLUEBEARD SLAYS FOURTEEN

Twelve of Victims Were Slain for Robbery

RELATES LONG CAREER OF MURDER

Does Not Smoke Nor Drink--Laid Plans to Kill Land-Lady--Shot Policemen.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 5.—Mrs. Mildred Allicon Rexroat, dancing teacher, who was shot to death at Wheaton, Ill., a week ago, was the victim of a modern Bluebeard, who, according to his own confession, had killed thirteen others in as many years. Henry Spencer, arrested in a room near the south side levee district tonight, confessed that he had not only killed Mrs. Rexroat, but that he had slain 14 persons. He was positively identified as the mysterious Mr. Spencer with whom Mrs. Rexroat left Chicago on the night she was killed.

Mrs. Rexroat's blood-stained rattan suit cases were found in his room as was the revolver with which he said he killed her. The police, while in doubt as to the full truth of Spenser's story, are confident they have found a wholesale murderer and that he would be proved to have killed at least several of those whose deaths he described in a long confession tonight.

Marked Out Another Victim

Spencer's confession was so startling that it probably would have received no credence had not the blotstained suitcase and revolver confirmed at least part of his statement.

"I intended to kill Mrs. A. J. Scofield, the proprietor of the rooming house where I had been living," he said. "If I had not been arrested at just this time I would have killed her."

Spencer admitted that robbery was his only purpose in killing Mrs. Rexroat. He told the police that he had killed seven persons since his last release from the penitentiary in September, 1912, and four men, a woman and Policemen Pennoll and Devine before that. Except in the slaying of the policemen, who Spencer said were shot by himself and a companion named Murphy, in escaping arrest for burglary, the killings were all for the purpose of robbery. Following is the list of killings Spencer related to Chief of Detectives Halpin:

Gives List of Victims

One man and a woman about 14 years ago.

Policemen Pennoll and Devine, 12 years ago.

First wife, killed near Westpoint, N. Y.

One man, shot in Chicago this fall.

One old man, shot in a south side house two months ago.

One woman, shot and burned on the northwest side of Chicago late last summer.

One woman killed near the Cook county hospital a few days ago.

Does Not Smoke nor Drink

The police cannot account for all the victims Spencer claims to have slain. One of the victims Spencer was able to name was Fannie Thompson, who probably is the woman he said he killed before he started on his alleged career of murder.

Spencer told his grewsome story calmly to Capt. Halpin and a room full of detectives and newspapermen. He said that he never drank nor smoked, but chewed and smoked opium. He had not, however, the appearance of a drug victim, having a healthy complexion and clear eyes.

BARN WILL HOLD SIXTY FOUR COWS

Large Building Being Erected at Proctor—New Houses—Clearing Rifle Range

(Special to The Daily News.)

PROCTOR, B.C., Oct. 5.—The large cow barn which is being erected for T. McAstocker at Harrop by Messrs. Waters & Pascoe of Nelson is making rapid progress. The roof is on and the iron stalls have been put in place. The building, which is 117ft. by 37ft., will be capable of holding 64 cows, and it is expected that the concrete floor will be finished by Monday night.

Grant McKean is building a new house for Clarence Ogilvie at Harrop.

W. M. Kennedy of Willow Point has rented the large meadow of Mr. Briggs at Harrop, and intends building a new house there.

Fred Starkey and George Motion of Nelson came up by the Kuskanook on Saturday to Harrop to look over their orchard there.

W. H. Symonds of Queen's Bay, who was recently married at Calgary, got off the Nasookin at Proctor with his bride on Wednesday evening on his way home to Queen's Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Snow of the Outlet hotel, Proctor, who have been spending a few days at Spokane, returned on Tuesday evening.

Raymond T. Hickes was staying at the Outlet hotel on Tuesday arranging with growers at Harrop, Proctor and Balfour for the shipment of apples in carloads.

Although only a few volunteers turned up on Thursday and Friday to slash the new rifle range for the Outlet Sports club rifle association, considerable progress was made during the two afternoons. With the exception of a few stumps which require powder, the range is cleared from the 700 to the 200 yards firing points.

All the guard rails have now been removed from the Sunshine Bay wharf and as the gradient of the wharf is somewhat steep, 1 in 12, it is hoped that removable chains will be provided as in the case of the Mirror Lake wharf.

MINISTER ADVISES MIXED FARMING

Money in Poultry—Good Roads Being Built—Nakusp Fair Memorable Occasion

(Special to The Daily News.)

NAKUSP, Oct. 5.—The fourth annual fair of the Arrow Lakes Agricultural and Horticultural association has taken place. The exhibition was graced with the presence of the minister of agriculture and finance, Hon. Price Ellison, who gave the opening address, as well as by the presence of several other distinguished visitors, who seconded his expressions of enthusiasm. At 2:30 sharp the doors of the large building were opened to visitors, the Nakusp brass band being in their places on the platform rendering music, and the visitor accompanied by President Fauquier and Manager Abriel, walked up to the platform. F. G. Fauquier, in well chosen words, introduced the Hon. Price Ellison to the audience. Mr. Ellison was received with cheers.

The speaker expressed his pleasure of having this opportunity of being among the farmers and others to declare the opening of the exhibition. He was impressed with the immensity of entries before his eyes from a district which only a few years ago seemed impossible to produce them, a land which was only looked at from the value of its timber and the possibility of bearing mineral to some extent. British Columbia, especially the interior portions of the province, was not as favorably known for its agricultural possibilities until comparatively a short time ago, and well may his hearers be surprised at what they saw before their eyes that day in that building. Closely connected as he necessarily was with matters of this kind in every part of the province, he could say that, optimistic as he was, he had no idea that the people of Nakusp and the Arrow lakes were making such strides as were shown him that day. He knew that the government had contributed what he considered handsomely towards the erection of the building in which he was then speaking, and as was sometimes the case, he expected that perhaps the government grant was the only, or nearly so, amount expended on the building. But instead, he found this huge structure over his head, unfinished it was true, but showing that private funds were added and much voluntary labor furnished in order to make it adequate and a credit to the town and district, and he eulogised the work of the people locally. Yet he found that it was already too small for the ever-increasing fruit and vegetables placed in competition, and that a better and larger building was necessary. He felt that if the wind blew hard on the outside, he did not wish to be inside this structure, and he realized that something had to be done, and he assured his hearers that he would see that a special appropriation was set aside for the Nakusp building for completion and enlargement, until it would be second to none within this province (cheers). The government was ever ready to help those who did a little helping themselves, and the Nakusp people deserved anything he could grant them. This impressed upon him the necessity of a visit of this kind sometimes, for without such opportunity, he would have but little idea of what was required, but now he saw with his own eyes.

Speaking of the exhibits, he did not want to give them any taffy, but he saw before him that day an assortment which he could not credit had he simply been told of them. He was himself a pioneer of the famous Okanagan valley and had gone through all the vicissitudes of farming life before the days of transportation and good roads, times when present conditions were undreamt of and when the farmers' life was a truly hard one. From Vernon to Enderby he was compelled to haul his grain and hay over the most primitive roads in the pre-railroad days, selling his product at less than for what he could grow it. En route he paid 50c for his meals and the apology of beds, such meals and beds as the present generation would hardly be satisfied with. But he had the satisfaction, if that was any, of doing his part in this grand province, for he considered his vocation was one of the grandest that man could occupy. Farming was, and is, and will be, the backbone of British Columbia, and without ranching everything else fails. Fruit growers should not be satisfied with growing for local needs alone, but should reach out for the export trade as well. He drew attention to the policy of growers across the line, who infested the markets of western Canada with their second and third rate grades, keeping their No. 1 at home. British Columbia farmers should educate themselves that they be able to take care of themselves and meet legitimate competition from all quarters. Always go in for the other fellows money, and he instanced a grain deal at Victoria in early days where a Washington farmer sold apparently at a loss in order to take some good British Columbia across the line to Seattle. Competition these days was the soul of life of the farmer. At Prince Rupert, farmers along the Grand Trunk for the time being were getting, or had got, as much as $125.00 per ton for hay. That was easy farming, but it was only momentarily. But that was not farming. Anyone could farm under those conditions, but it required a great deal of application and intelligence to farm in competition with the world, and everyone should prepare himself for this. They had the assurance of the Canadian Pacific railway that it would do everything possible for the farmer of Canada to meet the competition with United States growers if the farmers themselves would do their part. He emphasized the necessity of growing the right varieties of apples, such as Grimes Golden. He had seen no better apples anywhere than he saw there that day, and he looked forward to the day that the Arrow lakes district would perhaps be the banner district in British Columbia for apple growing. He was not losing sight of the Okanagan, but the two districts were so mingled together that there was no difference in their growing qualities. He drew attention to the United Selling agency, which the provincial government assisted wherever formed by a loan of 80 per cent. of the capital of the agency at the low rate of 4 per cent. interest. The province had loaned the banks of Victoria $8,000,000 at low rates and he and his colleagues had considered that if money should be put out at low interest it would benefit the country far more by lending it to the farmers, who would use it in cultivating the soil and helping them to market their product to the best advantage.

He desired to especially express his surprise at the grand display of the Women's institute here. He had just come from the New Westminster fair, and had seen the work of seven institutes there, but the ladies' work at Nakusp would actually put the whole of them to shame, in comparison. He was about to sit down when he remembered he had not officially declared the exhibition duly open to the public, and jocularly said that this reminded him of the Irishman who had had a similar duty, and who said, "What's the use anyway, begorra, you are all inside already."

Deputy Minister Speaks

The fruit fair banquet in honor of the minister of agriculture at the opera house was a pronounced success, nearly 100 being seated. F. G. Fauquier, president of the association, was in the chair. The tables were tastefully decorated with flowers and the trophies contested for by the various exhibitors. The menu was excellent, catered by Mr. Bohart of the Leland hotel. The toast to the King having been drunk, that of the Dominion and provincial governments was proposed by L. J. Edwards, and responded to by W. W. Foster, deputy minister of public works, J. P. Forde, Dominion engineer, and B. R. Atkins, customs collector of Revelstoke. Mr. Foster dwelt chiefly with the work of the government in road making, which was such a necessity to the farmer, and without which no rancher could expect to succeed in bringing his products to market cheaply enough to compete with the outside world. He gave figures where it was shown that with roads in certain conditions it cost from 27c to 30c per ton per mile to haul grain to the station, whereas it was hoped with modern equipment and up-to-date roads this cost would be reduced to 7c or 8c per ton. In years gone by the financial condition of the province of British Columbia had been such that road work as well as other expenditures were of necessity limited in their scope, but with the progress and increased revenue now enjoyed the government saw fit to spend the money where it would do the greatest good to the settlers, and that was in giving them facilities to reaching the markets. But when it was considered that this province covered the huge proportions of 400,000 square miles, good roads could not be built everywhere at once, but they had a set policy, and as soon as money was available from year to year, so were the roads throughout the length of the province extended and improved. The old Dewdney trail and the Cariboo road were instanced as the best the government could do in those days in the way of road construction, and he lauded these landmarks, now almost obliterated, as being excellent under the conditions then prevailing. The country was small in population, and without population there was no revenue. But all this was changed from year to year in line with the continued prosperity of the country which was inducing increased immigration and settlement, until before long there would be standard roads throughout the length and breadth of the province. The advent of railways brought settlement with them and he compared the requirements of roads now with nearly 5,000 miles of railway to a few years ago when there were only 500 miles of railway. The government looked upon the scenic magnificence of the province as a great asset, which would induce thousands of tourists to come to our midst, bringing money with them to spend, and they felt that roads should be built for that class of people as well as for the settlers.

Columbia Navigable

J. P. Forde dwelt on the work his government was having done in this district, one gang of surveyors being placed between Revelstoke and Arrowhead, another at Burton City, with a view of making the Columbia river navigable throughout the year. A suction dredge was being built and the narrow channels would be deepened and widened, until he felt assurance that steamers would run through from Revelstoke to Robson any time of the year within three years. The plans for the wharf at Nakusp had been prepared and estimates made and the whole would be in readiness to forward to Ottawa by Monday for final approval. The removal of the dangerous snags south of Nakusp would be carried out within a week, and he felt that R. F. Green, M.P., was alive to the interests of the Arrow lakes in all matters tending to the district's progress necessitated by increased settlement which was evidenced by what he saw with his own eyes that day at Nakusp.

B. R. Atkins gave an interesting address relating to the progress of the district and gave statistics of his department which showed that in a few years the increases had been tenfold. The toast of the evening was proposed by Thomas Abriel, who in a splendid speech gave figures relating to the district, his efforts in inducing the minister to attend that day, enlarging on his abilities as a minister of agriculture and on the keen interest Mr. Ellison always took in matters pertaining to his department by aiding societies and organizations for the betterment of the farming community.

Mr. Ellison, in reply, gave an address in which he considered that he could justly claim to be the pioneer settler of the Arrow lakes, for, many years ago, he had staked what was afterwards known as the townsite of Killarney, just below Edgewood. He, like many more, full of enthusiasm and optimism as to the greatness of this country and its future, had failed to find the money to pay for the land, and had consequently allowed it to lapse. Had he held it, the location would have proved a remunerative investment. He had the foresight, but

FIERCE ASSAULT ON REFEREE

New Westminster Players Lose, but Take Revenge on Referee—Victors in Match.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., Oct. 5.—Although winning the game and having a comfortable lead on the series, New Westminster players, alleging that he was unfair in his decisions, set upon Referee J. Fred Linch of New Westminster, former president of the champions and secretary of the British Columbia Lacrosse association, on Saturday, and before he was finally rescued by police and friends he was badly beaten up. The assault took place in the New Westminster club dressing rooms immediately upon the conclusion of the match. Lynch made his way there to don his street attire and he had no sooner crossed the threshold than he was charged by players and was a mark for flying fists. As a result his face was badly beaten and battered and he was otherwise bruised. Friends of the referee outside appealed to a policeman to enter and afford him some protection, but it was several minutes before he could be prevailed upon to enter the rooms. He was followed by a number of lacrosse fans and the referee was finally rescued and escorted to a waiting automobile, which conveyed him to his home.

It is understood that every Westminster player, with the exception of Johnny Howard, who left before the trouble, piled on to the referee. Just what caused the trouble is not known, but it is alleged that certain players had wagered $500 that the challengers would not score after half time. After this period play became rough and it was necessary to Lynch to bench two New Westminster men. Then the Vancouver Athletic club scored. Tommy Gifford hinted to one or two of the officials that there would be something doing after the game and then came the big mixup.

Playing much faster lacrosse, the Vancouver Athletic club held New Westminster to as near as three goals to five, the Minto cup defenders therefore successfully holding their trophy by an aggregate for the two games of 14 goals to four. The game was played before a crowd of 7,000 or 8,000 people, but the last quarter and the subsequent scene around the Westminster dressing rooms are not calculated to restore the national game to grace.

HISTORY OF CHAMPIONSHIP FLAG

Providence First Winner of World's Championship—Last Three Years in American League.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Act. 5.—Twenty-one times have the pennant winners of the country fought for the world's championship on the diamond.

The world's series will pass its 29th birthday, however, with the forthcoming contest between the Giants and Athletics. It first came into being in New York in 1884, when Providence, winners of the National league pennant, crossed bats with the victorious Metropolitans—New York's standard bearers—of the old American association. There were lapses in 1891 and 1893 and a big gap from 1898 to 1902, inclusive, and still another lapse in 1904, when no games were played, but from 1884 to the present, barring these intermissions, the post season fight for the apex of the baseball world has been an established custom.

The flag has flown in 10 states during this short generation. Once it strayed west of the Mississippi river and breezed from a flagstaff in the St. Louis park of the American association. This was in 1886, 27 years ago. It stayed there but one season, came back to Detroit and never since has crossed the Father of Waters.

A flag without a home, it has floated over 11 cities. Providence, Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, New York, Louisville, Boston, Cleveland, Baltimore Pittsburg and Philadelphia—all have sent forth, from time to time, clubs that have fought victorious battles for the trophy. One hundred and thirty-four games have stamped these teams in various years premier baseball players of the world, in no uncertain brand.

Ninety-seven of the 134 games have been won by the teams which captured the flag. Thirty-seven have gone to the losers. Fifteen times a National league club has won the flag; the old American association captured it; five times it has floated over an American league park. In fact, the American league clubs have been its keeper five times out of nine years in which the American and National league clubs have played for it. For the past three years it has breezed over an American league park.

First winners of the world championship were the Providence team, which defeated New York three straight games. Next year, 1885, the flag went to Chicago. Chicago and St. Louis fought again for the championship in 1886 and this time St. Louis triumphed. Detroit captured the flag in 1887. In 1888 it came to New York for a two-year stay. Louisville got it in 1890. Boston in 1892 and New York again in 1894. In 1895 Cleveland won it in a contest from Baltimore, but the next year the old Baltimore Orioles took it away from Cleveland to keep it for two years. The Boston Americans took it in 1903, first year of the post season fight between the National and American league pennant winners. New York regained it in 1905. Chicago Nationals and Americans fought for it in 1906, and the White Sox won it in 1907 and 1908 the Chicago Nationals won it easily from Detroit. Pittsburg took her place on the championship map in 1909, the Detroit team being defeated for the third consecutive time in the world's series games. For two years thereafter the Philadelphia Athletics captured it. Last year it went to the Boston Americans.

Six of the 11 cities—Providence, St. Louis, Detroit, Louisville, Cleveland and Pittsburg—have been world's champions but one season. Two, Baltimore and Philadelphia, have been champions twice. Baltimore in 1896 and 1897, and Philadelphia in 1910 and 1911. Three times the flag has floated over a Boston park, in 1892, 1903 and 1912. New York and Chicago have each had it four times, the former in 1888, 1889, 1894 and 1905; the latter in 1885, 1906, 1907 and 1908.

SNODGRASS NOT IN CONDITION

Giants Likely to Be Without Services of Star Centre Fielder—Rush for Tickets.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Final stages of preparation for the series between the New York Nationals and the Philadelphia Americans to decide the baseball championship of the world are at hand with the assembling here of the national commission to put the last touches for the big event. August Herrmann, chairman of the commission, and Thomas J. Lynch, president of the National league, already are on the ground, and Ban Johnson, president of the American league, the third member of the governing baseball body, is expected early tomorrow.

The commission is scheduled to meet tomorrow morning to give its instructions to the umpires and to clear up any points of uncertainty that may remain regarding the playing of the series. All then will be in readiness for the calling of the play at the polo grounds at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon for the opening game of the four or more which will tell whether the world laurels of 1913 are to rest with the men under the tutelage of John J. McGraw or the band of athletes guided by Cornelius McGillicuddy.

Distribution of the 8,000 odd reserved seat tickets for the series at the New York grounds was well under way today and the prized cards of admission will all be in the hands of those to whom they have been assigned by tomorrow. The greater part of these tickets have gone to baseball men throughout the country and to New York club patrons of long standing. Aside from these 5,000 seats in the upper stand at the polo grounds and the few downstairs required for working press reporters, no reservations have been made either by the New York club or the national commission, and some 30,000 seats in the lower stand and bleachers will be available to the public at the grounds for each game of the series.

So far as the condition of the teams who will do battle is concerned there seems no doubt at all that the regulars of the Athletics will be ready to take the field and play the game without physical handicap. Not so much can be said for the Giants. While it appeared to be settled tonight that Larry Doyle, the hustling second baseman of the New Yorks, would be in shape to take his position at the beginning of play on Tuesday, the impression prevailed that McGraw would be without the services of Fred Snodgrass, the team's regular centre fielder, when the series opened. Doyle, with the exception of a little stiffness in his throwing arm, appears to have recovered well from the effects of his recent automobile spill. Snodgrass' "charley horse," however, still is bothering him so much that it is out of the question to expect him to play to his usual form.

It looks to be probable, therefore, that the Giants will line up on Tuesday with Merkle, Doyle, Fletcher and Herzog filling the infield positions, and with Burns, Shafer and Murray in the outfield. Some close watchers of the playing of the team are inclined to think that the team as thus formed will not be a bit weaker than with a lineup that included Snodgrass and left Herzog out. Herzog was one of the stars of last season's series with the Red Sox, his batting being hard and timely, and his "peppery" personality adding appreciably to the life and spirit of the team.

Waiting for Tickets.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5.—Men, women and boys are lined up here tonight in front of the department store where the advance sale of the tickets for the world's series games to be played here will open at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. First in line, which before midnight extended for more than a city block, are two messenger boys who took their positions here early in the afternoon. Each had an empty soap box to sit on and a package of lunch. They declare they do not expect to be relieved and will be the first to purchase tickets. Shortly after the boys started the line a colored man arrived with a big rocking chair, on which he proceeded to make himself comfortable. The first woman to take her place among the ticket purchasers arrived at 2 o'clock. She is No. 30 in the line and is accompanied by her husband.

Final Practice.

The American league champions will have their final practice here tomorrow and will leave at 8 o'clock tomorrow night for New York to be prepared for the opening game with the Giants there on Tuesday. The regulars on Connie Mack's team will oppose a team of substitutes with a regular pitcher in the practice game at Shibe park tomorrow. It is believed that Bender will be chosen to oppose Matthewson in the opening game. Plank and Lapp may be the battery in case Manager McGraw should decide to send Marquard to the mound.

In Fine Condition.

All the Athletics regulars are in fine condition but Orr, first utility infielder, who broke his hand in the game with the Highlanders on Friday will be out of the series. Lavane, however, can give a good account of himself at second or third, and the veteran, Harry Davis, could step into the breach in case of an injury to McInnes.

he lacked the capital. He, however, little dreamt that the valley would produce the luscious fruit he had that day seen at the exhibition building, apples, pears, and plums, the better of which it was impossible to find. So impressed was he with what he had seen that as minister having charge of such matters he was gathering the best the province could produce to send to the land show at Winnipeg just now, and he begged that boxes seen that day might be sent to that show with others from other parts of British Columbia. It was late to send with the original consignment, but he would be glad to purchase the fruit and to send them specially by express, so impressed was he with what the Arrow lakes grew. He advised the farmers to try and go in for mixed farming instead of growing fruit wholly. He dwelt on the policy of good roads, which enhanced the value of lands. He advised the farmer to go in strongly for poultry raising. Nothing paid better. One man on Vancouver Island had bought 11,000 head of poultry, cheaply, fattened them, and sold them at a handsome profit, at 35c per pound. The farmer need not be afraid of the so-called money depression so much heard of today. There was just as much money available today as at any time, and if the farmer did his part, he had no need to fear the cry in this country where the opportunities were such that exist in no other country.

No Militants

The toast to the agricultural interests was proposed by the chairman, himself one of the pioneers in the fruit industry of the Arrow lakes. In reply, the audience was treated with one of the brightest addresses of the evening by Mrs. James Johnstone of Nelson, who was one of the judges at the fair. She took the audience by storm, and in reply to one of the audience who felt that certain districts were negelected for want of roads, contended that if they would only be a little indulgent and consider that all portions could not be supplied at once, she was sure that in due time means of access to their properties would be furnished. She mentioned what the government had done near Nelson giving them an automobile road to Balfour after years of waiting. The government were to be commended on its assistance to the women's institutes, which taught women modern housekeeping qualities and to be of assistance to the settler. These institutions were the means of giving women delightful occupations at their homes, and as long as this continued there would be no suffragettes in British Columbia, at least not militant ones. These remarks brought down the house in applause.

Among other speakers of interest were: Messrs. Boyd of Halcyon, Ben Hoy, W. A. Banks of Salmon Arm, S. Hall of Burton, W. Tomlinson of New Denver, J. Naylor of Arrow Park, and J. H. Vestrup of Nakusp. The toast to the ladies introduced by H. L. Rothwell and responded to by Messrs. Leary and Lavelle, brought a memorable evening to a happy conclusion. During the evening songs were given by Messrs. Lavelle, Hansen, Bastin and others.

NEW AMERICAN TARIFF AND THE PRAIRIE PRODUCERS.

Those prairie papers, the Regina Leader, for example, who have not ceased since September, 1911, to bewail the great loss to the western farmer occasioned by the defeat of reciprocity, will now have an opportunity to demonstrate the correctness, or otherwise, of their position for the new American tariff which went into effect Friday is to a large extent identical in its terms with the proposals so emphatically rejected by the people of Canada two years ago.

Under the new American tariff meats and live stock of all kinds will enter the United States free. Only on Friday last the Regina Leader, in a typical article, pointed out that beef cattle the previous day were selling at $6.25 per cwt. at Winnipeg, while $9.50 was the price at Chicago. The difference is described as the loss to the western Canadian producer by reason of the fact that reciprocity is not in effect. Under the new American tariff Canadian cattle will be admitted free into the United States just as they would have been under reciprocity. Time will show whether the Canadian producers will ship their cattle to Chicago, whether the new American tariff will merely mean a rise in the price of beef to the Canadian consumer, or whether the situation will be in any way affected. If the removal of the American duty on cattle is to benefit the western Canadian producer it must do so through either one of the means mentioned.

The same applies to a very great extent in regard to grains. In the same article the Leader quotes the prices of wheat and other grains at Winnipeg and Minneapolis, showing wheat prices from seven-eighths to one and seven-eighths cents per bushel higher in the latter market than in the former, while in the case of oats the difference is about 5 cents per bushel, in the case of barley about 13 cents per bushel and of flax 19 cents per bushel. Under the new tariff large reductions are made in the duty on these goods entering the United States, much greater in each instance than the difference in price quoted. This being so, the Canadian producer, if the argument of the Leader and those who think with it is correct, should benefit to the extent of the reduction of the American tariff.

The coming into effect of the new tariff places upon the Leader and other reciprocity advocates the duty of demonstrating that the Canadian producer is benefiting from being given freer access to "their natural and most profitable market to the south," to quote the Leader, and that he would benefit to a still greater extent were the small remaining countervailing duty on wheat and other grains removed, something which the Dominion government has power to bring about by removing the duty on American wheat entering Canada. If the right of free entry of Canadian grain into the United States would work such wonders for the western producer, as the Leader and its friends would have the producers believe, surely the sweeping reductions which have just gone into effect should prove proportionately beneficial. The situation, it is quite apparent, is up to the advocates of reciprocity.

A PROPER CENSORSHIP.

The Vancouver Sun hits the nail on the head when it expresses the hope that the provincial government will strengthen the hands of moving picture censor, C. L. Gordon, in his efforts to curtail the use, in the shows in this city, of films manufactured in the United States, dealing with events in the neighboring republic which appeal to the national vanity or patriotism of that people. Ever since the moving picture show became an institution, says the Sun, the Stars and Stripes have been waved in the faces of the audiences in Canada to an extent that has shamed the people of our own country, and it is about time a halt was called.

The moving picture show has become a highly popular form of entertainment and if rightly directed might be made an educative influence. But as an educative influence it can hardly be of service to the people of this Dominion if it is employed to stimulate a sentiment of regard for another country than our own and to teach lessons from the history of a foreign nation.

We are endeavoring to build up and strengthen a national sentiment in Canada and yet we permit, or have permitted in the past, the most popular form of entertainment in the country to manufacture American as opposed to Canadian sentiment. No one objects to occasional incidents from the history of the American republic being displayed or illustrations of that country's scenic beauty. But we have material in our own country that will appeal to a Canadian audience. United States scenes should have no larger share of attention at these shows in Canadian theatres than those of other foreign countries; and they should never be given precedence of incidents or episodes of a strictly Canadian character. Mr. Gordon has shown his fitness for his position by the attitude he has assumed and we are satisfied public opinion in Vancouver is with him.

MAKES APPEAL ON BEHALF OF MINERS

J. W. Bennett of Fernie Reviews History of Labor Crisis in Calumet Copper District.

An appeal for financial assistance to carry on the strike in the big copper district in eastern Michigan and more particularly on the Calumet & Hecla properties was made to the members of organized labor in Nelson on Saturday evening by J. W. Bennett of Fernie, representing the Western Federation of Miners.

Mr. Bennett is touring district No. 6 for the Western Federation of Miners in the cause and had previously visited Kitchener, Moyie, Ainsworth and Bluebell, in all of which camps his appeal had met with encouraging response.

"Men are selfish," he said, "and therein lies the cause of all strikes." Not the workingman alone is selfish," he said, "but the capitalist, too. The men want more wages and the employers more profits—selfishness governs us all."

As for public opinion in the matter of strikes, most people were too apothetic, said Mr. Bennett. They did not investigate the cause of the trouble; they looked calmly on the matter and, turning away, let it pass out of their minds.

Sometimes people said, if it were not for agitators there would be peace, but, said he, agitators were necessary, for without them there would be stagnation. Agitation caused movement, and where there was movement there was life—where no movement there was stagnation.

So intense had competition in various industries become that now there was no place where there was not trouble, he said. A man or corporation resorted to any means to get ahead of the other fellow, actuated, of course, by selfishness.

Mr. Bennett then turned to the great strike in Calumet, which he termed a labor crisis, and reviewed the history of that camp, leading up to the present trouble.

Little was known of Calumet, he said, prior to 1873, when some slight labor trouble brought it into the limelight. Between 1873 and 1904 mining in the camp followed the even tenor of its way, the employers gradually encouraging an influx of foreigners, such as Finlanders and Austrians, thinking they would be more submissive than English-speaking miners in time of trouble.

The Western Federation had immediately commenced to organize these men and every step taken to better their condition had been fought tooth and nail by the employers. The employers used the blacklist to no avail, he said, and the men's organization became stronger and stronger until fully 15,000 were organized. Finally, on July 23 last, the climax came and the men struck and foreigners and all had to this day stood firm. Very little strike breaking was being done, said Mr. Bennett, despite the fact that the employers had scoured Europe for foreign workmen. The foreigners were making the firmest stand, he stated, particularly the Finlanders.

Finally deploring the employment of hired thugs or gunmen whom, he claimed, were being hired to fight the strikers, and the calling out of the militia, Mr. Bennet closed with an appeal for assistance in obtaining finances to carry the strike to a successful termination for the men.

This Day in Canadian History

The news of the capture of Detroit in the first weeks of the war of 1812 and of the surrender to Gen. Brock of Hull and his whole army, with all the territory of Michigan, reached London on October 6; and immediately the church bells were set ringing and salvoes of artillery were fired at the Tower and in St. James park. William Brock, the hero's elder brother, lived near the city; and, when (so the story goes) his wife asked him the reason for the joyful noise from steeples and batteries, he answered merrily, "Why, it is for Isaac, of course. You surely have not forgotten that this is his birthday!" (On that day Gen. Brock was 43, having been born on October 6, 1769, at St. Peters Port, the little capital of Guernsey). "There is many a true word spoken in jest"; and to his own amazement William Brock learned on going to town that it was "for Isaac" who a few days later was created Knight of the Bath, in token of the royal appreciation of his services. Sad to say, the gallant soldier never heard himself called "Sir Isaac," for exactly one week after his birthday his noble life was cut short by the foeman's bullet, but his work of inspiring the Canadians to courage for the desperate struggle still went on.

MINING COMMISSION OBJECT OF VISIT

Dr. Wilson of Geological Survey Here to Look Into Need for Enquiry Desired

For the purpose of looking into the need for the appointment of a royal commission to inquire into the requirements of the lead and zinc industries, Dr. A. W. G. Wilson of the federal geological survey, Ottawa, is visiting Nelson. He arrived on Saturday night and registered at the Strathcona.

Dr. Wilson's visit is in accordance with a promise made to the Nelson board of trade some time ago in a letter from Dr. Eugene Haanel, director of the geological survey, which was forwarded to the board by Hon. Louis Coderre, minister of mines.

In resolutions to the Dominion government the Nelson board, the associated boards of trade and the British Columbia Mining association have urged that such a commission be appointed, and R. F. Green, M.P. for Kootenay, brought the matter to the attention of the house of commons in a speech urging the discussion on the renewal of the lead bounty.

Dr. Wilson was in conference yesterday afternoon with the secretary of the board of trade.

NO NEW PHILOSOPHY FOR NELSON PEOPLE

So States Rev. C. W. Corey in Inaugural Sermon as Pastor of Nelson Baptist Church

Stating that the basis of his ministry now beginning in this city was the gospel as seen in Christ crucified for sinners and raised again the third day and that he had no new philosophy to bring to Nelson, Rev. C. W. Corey, late of Kamloops, preached his inaugural sermon as pastor of the Nelson Baptist church last evening to a large congregation.

Mr. Corey took for his text Romans 1:16, "I am not ashamed of the gospel for it is the power of God unto salvation." The apostle, he said, was in no sense apologetic of the gospel, but was rather glorying in it in the words used in the text.

Had the hymn, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," been extant in his day, he doubtless would have used it to express his excellent attitude toward the message, said Mr. Corey. Thus the apostle gloried in the gospel as it was of God and not of man—it was the power of God and not the fancy or fable of the times. This power was God at his best, while nature is the expression of God, the gospel is God manifest in flesh, he said.

The universality of its application and the effectiveness of the gospel as an agency for redeeming the individual and society made the apostle glory in it.

Continuing, Mr. Corey declared his faith in the old gospel and set forth the fact that he had no new philosophy with which he might face the people of Nelson, the basis of his ministry which he was now beginning here being the gospel as seen in Christ crucified for sinners and raised again from the dead on the third day.

SMUT DISEASE OF CULTIVATED PLANTS

It is estimated by the directors of the experimental farms that smut diseases of cultivated plants cause an annual loss in Canada of at least $15,000,000. If these diseases were properly understood and the best known remedies applied at proper times much of this serious injury would be prevented.

In order to teach crop growers how best to protect their fields against damage by smuts there has been issued by the department of agriculture a comprehensive, plainly written treatise which is issued as bulletin No. 73, of the experimental farms. The author, H. T. Gussow, Dominion botanist, has gone into the subject very thoroughly, not only describing the smuts in their various stages that affect wheat, barley, oats, corn and millet, but attention is given to methods of infection as well as the preventive measures and curative remedies that have been found useful. The text, which occupies about 50 pages, is much helped by numerous illustrations. This work is being sent out free to all who apply for it to the publications branch of the department of agriculture at Ottawa.

STAGE FRIGHT AFFECTS MONTREALS

All-Star Aggregation Wins First Interprovincial Union Rugby Game of Season.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—It was the combined forces of the Ottawa, Alert, Ottawa University and Queens teams that the M.A.A.A. rugbyists had to meet in their opening game in the interprovincial union with the Ottawas on Saturday, and the All-Stars succeeded in winning by the lopsided score of 21 to 4. The weather was warm for football. The attendance was about 3,000.

Montreal's back division had an attack of stage fright in the opening 10 minutes of play and before they settled down the boys from the capitol had landed two tries, one by Vaughan and the other by Quilty, one of which was converted. After that the locals put up a very creditable struggle against big odds, the Ottawa team having the advantage of experience and much heavier line. Montreal was also handicapped in not being able to play Kelly, the husky wing man, who at the last moment was suspended by the big governors as the result of a protest against his amateur standing by the Ottawa club during the week. The M.A.A.A. officials filed a counter protest along with the affidavits of all the other members of the team, claiming there was no grounds for Kelly's suspension.

Play grew rough in the second period, when numerous penalties were handed out, but in only one case was there a serious injury. T. Lawson of the locals had his shoulder thrown out.

COMMUNICATION

THE AUDITOR AND THE STREET RAILWAY

To the Editor of the Daily News:

Sir,—In your report of the meeting held Friday evening to consider street railway affairs, in the course of Mr. Taylor's remarks he is said to have mentioned certain items that I as auditor had stated I was unable to check up. I was not at the meeting (did not see the notice in fact) so beg the use of your columns to state that neither in my report to the shareholders nor to any soul at any time have I ever referred in that connection to the two cash items mentioned.

The statement as to "the only vouchers which could not be found" is also incorrect.

While generally it would not be advisable for a company's auditor to enter into public discussion of the company's accounts, in the present case as the matter is up and my name used, and the street railway being a concern of public interest to all citizens, and shareholders and citizens are in fact scarcely indistinguishable, I would like now to make the following statement.

This question about the accounts first came up at the last annual meeting of the company, when, owing to changes in the secretaryship during the previous year and consequent inefficient book-keeping, proper accounts were not available. Accounts were prepared by me and presented to the meeting with the report that while they were not in accordance with the books, and the complete information required in connection with the audit was not in all respects available, yet the accounts as presented were to the best of my information and belief correct. This report it was my statutory duty to make and the directors' duty to present to the annual meeing; the latter duty was rather evaded. However, the report was read by me and discussed and the condition of the records of the company referred to, and Mr. Taylor gave his personal assurance to the meeting that everything should be put right and the auditor satisfied. Since then, if any step towards doing this has been taken I have not been informed of it.

I venture to make this suggestion, however, that the whole matter can be effectively and finally disposed of if a committee be appointed of representative men, one from the city corporation, one from the shareholders, and one from the general body of ratepayers, to look into the company's financial transactions with the auditor and the management, and make a report which would no doubt be considered by everyone satisfactory and final. There will scarcely be a suggestion by anyone having any knowledge of the matter that there has been misapplication of moneys, but my criticism is that there has been a regrettable disregard or ignorance of both the moral and legal obligations that public policy imposes on those who administer other people's money.

I join with all other citizens in appreciation of the excellent work done by the management of the company in keeping the street railway in operation, but as auditor of the company I had no other course but to report the facts regarding the accounts as I found them. As I am obliged to be absent from the city at the time of the meeting next Tuesday, I take this means of putting this aspect of the matter before the public.

GEO. H. PLAYLE, Chartered Accountant, Auditor Nelson Street Railway Company, Limited.

Nelson, October 4, 1913.

TO KILL OR TO SWAT

The Spectator, reviewing a book on sanitation, is pleased to head its article "Kill That Fly" and to refer to this caption as "the phrase which we lately imported from America by way of a joke." We have thought (if we have thought about it at all) that the vapidly piffling injunction "Kill that fly" was an effect, derived in England, quite independently, from the same causes which on this side of the Atlantic have evolved the vividly forcible expression "Swat the fly."

If the Spectator may be understood to claim that "Kill the fly" is the same "joke" as "Swat the fly," one finds it hard to avoid the conclusion that there is a measure of truth in the fifty-seven well-known jests which hinge on an Englishman's sorry attempt to repeat a funny story told to him by an American.

SUFFERED SO MUCH SHE WANTED TO DIE

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Her And Brought Her The Joy Of Living.

ENTERPRISE, ONT., OCT. 1st.

"For seven years, I suffered with what physicians called a "Water Tumor". Hypodermics of Morphine had to be given me to ease the pain.

During one of these bad spells, a family friend brought a box of "Fruit-a-tives" to the house. I was so bad that it was only when I had taken nearly two boxes that I began to experience relief.

I kept up the treatment, however, and after taking five boxes, I was cured, and when I appeared on the streets, my friends said "The dead has come to life" and this seemed literally true because I certainly was at death's door"

MRS. JAMES FENWICK.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 for $2.50—trial size, 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

The Individuality of the Fall Styles Is Most Pronounced in the

New Fall Coats

A style for each individual woman, instead of a similar style for every woman, as in the old days. That is the dominant feature of Fall styles, a diversity which gives every woman a style of her own should she wish it.

One cannot gain even an approximate idea of the new fashions except through a personal and critical inspection. Nothing by which to judge the present season has ever preceeded it, because nothing like the fashions of this Fall have had an existence.

The position occupied by our Coat Department is proof that the coat to suit you is here if anywhere. From the top of the market we made our selections, from coat makers of known reputation and from them only, because a thoroughly good garment is best for you, for the present and for the future.

GAME IS JOKE

TORONTO, Oct. 5.—The game between Varsity and the Old Boys, played here yesterday, was a joke. The Old Boys hardly put up a good enough fight to give Jack Manard's squad a good workout. The final score was 52 to 16 in favor of Varsity.

Mining Opportunity

FOR SALE OR REALIZATION AT A LOW FIGURE.

Silver lead and zinc blende mines, situated in the West Kootenay District, Slocan Mining Division. The property consists of the Bosun and Monitor and Ajax groups of mines, comprising sixteen mineral claims, a concentrating mill, with a capacity of about 160 tons per diem, worked by water power; townsites, forest and other lands, containing together several hundred acres, some of the lands having a lake shore frontage. A branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway runs through the Monitor property. The mines have been considerably developed and have in past years shipped large quantities of very rich ore, but for want of capital have not been worked since the year 1907. A large sum has been spent upon the purchase of the properties and upon the mill and in development. They afford a good opportunity to investors with a limited amount of cash at their disposal, as, apart from the fact that they can be acquired on easy terms, the mines can be worked with a comparatively small capital. The mines can be taken on lease and bond with an option to purchase, provided that a substantial and sufficient sum in cash be paid down on the signature of an agreement, or on the grant of a lease, or on giving possession. The properties can be treated for as a whole or in portions, and the mill and certain of the lands can be acquired separately from the mines.

Application should be made to:

Mr. R. N. Macdonald, Barrister and Solicitor, 901-912 Metropolitan Building, 837 Hasting Street West, Vancouver, B.C., where a copy of a report of a leading firm of London mining engineers can be seen and from whom further particulars can be obtained.

STEEL STOCKS SLUMP ON ON NEW YORK MARKET

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—A decline of Steel was the conspicuous movement of the day in the stock market. Republic Steel, common and preferred, Colorado Fuel, Lackawanna Steel and both of the United States Steel issues were under pressure and their leases ranged from fractions to 4 points. In the remainder of the list the movement was varying with a downward tendency. St. Paul, Lehigh Valley and Amalgamated fell a point or more each. In the last few minutes of business several issues were bid up quickly, reducing net losses on the day. Weakness of the Steel group was associated with a reduction in the price of steel billets, announced yesterday.

Additional unfavorable reports for August from some of the southern lines were influential in weakening the standard railroad shares, which were under pressure in the second hour. Instead of the gain predicted the bank statement revealed an actual loss. The unfavorable character of October inland dividend payments the statement was ascribed to operations incidental to the unusually large October inland dividend paymetns during the week.

Total sales, $770,000. United States 2s and Panama 2s declined a point.

CANADIAN PACIFIC LEADER ON EXCHANGE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, Oct. 5.—C.P.R's fine statement of earnings for the closing days of September resulted in a strong market for the stock in London on Saturday and opening quotations were at an advance of about 2 points from Friday. From 234 there was a subsequent advance to 234¾, a reaction carried the price off to 233¾ and the last sale went out at that price with 233¼ bid. The balance of the local list was dull and ragged.

CANADIAN SECTION STEADY ON LOMBARD STREET

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Money and discount rates were steady. The stock market declined in the absence of any material improvement in the money situation. Lack of support and further realizing depressed Brazilian issues, while Paris offered its favorites moderately.

The American section was the steadiest. After a quiet opening prices advanced under the lead of Canadian Pacific. The latter closed 2¼ and the rest of the list from ⅛@½ above par.

DUTY REDUCTIONS OF IMPORTANCE

New United States Tariff on Lead and Zinc Ores Will Have Marked Effect, Says Kootenian.

Speaking of the reduction in the United States tariff on lead and zinc ores to three-quarters of a cent per pound on the former and 10 per cent ad valorem on the latter, the Kaslo Kootenain says:

"Something like this has been anticipated for some weeks past by those in touch with the situation at Washington, and unless the treasury department scares up something to put a damper on things, the new tariff should have a marked effect upon mining in this section, particularly in regard to zinc ores and mixed silver-lead-zinc ores, on which a considerable proportion of the profit, particularly in the case of the lower grades, has been eaten up by the duty when it was shipped to the American smelters, the only market at present available for this class of ores. With the duty as reduced, according to the new tariff bill, the gain will be considerable to the local producer, in both high and low grade ore shipments, and it should result in a stimulation of production from the low grade zinc properties, such being unable to operate at a profit under past conditions.

"Some local properties have been withholding zinc shipments pending the final adjustment of the tariff question, and now that it is settled it may not be long before ore will be moving southward briskly."

CAUGHT SIX POUND RAINBOW TROUT HERE ON SATURDAY

Fishing off the Fairview shipyards of the Canadian Pacific railway, John French on Saturday landed a beautiful 6lb. rainbow trout. An ordinary pearl spinner was the lure that attracted the fish.

Fishing is said by many to be excellent on the west arm, though the number of sportsmen pursuing the elusive ones is comparatively small, perhaps owing to the inauguration of the hunting season, which is at present occupying the time of many.

EXCITING BABOON HUNT

A baboon which escaped from a show at Dudley, Eng., attacked three people in the main street of the town, and in the subsequent chase scaled walls and reached the roofs of houses, where it had to be shot.

The animal had been conveyed on the day of its escape from the barracks at Lichfield, the soldiers there parting with their regimental pet, which had travelled with them from Gibraltar.

At the show it was chained to the wall, but during the evening wrenched itself free, and knocking an attendant down, rushed into the street, which was filled with people. A boy was severely bitten on the leg, and had to be taken to the hospital, and a woman and a girl received lesser injuries. The animal, after being followed by an exciting crowd, reached the roof of a house, and although it eagerly devoured the fruit was that was thrown, it showed fight when its capture was attempted. Eventually it had to be shot.

MRS. C. H. BURGESS DIES SUDDENLY

Heart Failure Is Cause of Death of Well-Known Resident of Four-Mile.

Jane Horton Burgess, wife of C. H. Burgess of Four-Mile, died suddenly early yesterday morning at the family residence. The deceased, who was in her twenty-ninth year, succumbed to heart failure.

Besides her husband, deceased leaves her father, Edward Horton, of Australia, formerly a resident of Tagh-um; a brother, Rev. H. E. Horton of Ashcroft, and a sister, Mrs. A. E. Lloyd of Vancouver.

The deceased was very well known in Nelson and vicinity and until a year ago had been a resident of Tagh-um.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been made and are awaiting the arrival of relatives from the coast and Ashcroft.

THOUSANDS ENJOY TRIP ON FERRY

Craft Crowded from Morning Until Evening—Issues Warning to Motorboat Enthusiasts

Thousands were said to have enjoyed the trip across the west arm on the new ferry yesterday and from early morning until dusk last evening the craft was filled on each trip almost to its capacity. Trips were made continuously throughout the day.

Along the road many enjoyed the delightful pedestrian excusion afforded, while bicycles, automobiles and horse vehicles of all descriptions were to be seen. From the city to Connaught park by street car, thence across the west arm on the ferry and along the new driveway will, it is expected, prove one of the most popular Sunday afternoon excursions in or around Nelson.

The pilot of the ferry wishes to warn all motor boat enthusiasts from approaching too close to the stem or stern of the ferry in her journeys across the arm as the craft while on the journey lifts the cable from the bottom of the lake and for some distance it runs but a little depth under the water and might easily be fouled by the propellors of the motor craft.

AT THE THEATRES

Miss Verna Felton and the Allen players have just completed a long and successful engagement at the Victoria theatre in Victoria, where they opened their season this year. Concerning these popular players the Victoria Times speaks as follows:

"The Allen players made a welcome reappearance here last night in 'The Spendthrift' and their loyalty and enthusiasm gave their own reward. Always good, the Allen players are now qualified to stand with the very best touring companies that visit the city, and in the play presented last evening they found a particularly pleasing medium for reintrodusing themselves here. The company has improved immensely and the production last night was undoubtedly one of the most finished that has been given by them here."

"The Spendthrift" will be presented by the Allen players at the Nelson opera house on Monday evening, October 27, and will mark the opening of their local engagement, during which several plays of equal interest will be produced.

CONFER ON YMIR ROAD QUESTION

Roads and bridges needs in the Nelson district were laid before W. W. Foster, deputy minister of public works, by the roads and bridges committee of the board of trade, at a meeting on Saturday morning. Particular emphasis was laid on the desirability of the early construction of the road between Nelson and Ymir.

Members of the committee present were C. F. McHardy, R. W. Hinton, T. A. Robley, A. L. McCulloch, J. A. Irving, W. F. Roberts and E. K Beeston, secretary. James H. Schofield, M.P.P., W. R. Maclean, M.P.P., M. B. Wescott, public works engineer, and George M. Benney, road superintendent, were also present.

The fact that Nelson, a city of 7,000 people, had had until last week no road facilities except the highway to the city power plant at Bonnington was pointed out and the benefits which had immediately followed the opening of the Balfour road were touched upon. In a resolution presented to the deputy minister it was urged that the government, when making appropriations for roads and bridges, should take into consideration the needs of city ridings.

Mr. Hinton spoke strongly on the need for the Ymir road and Mr. Schofield pointed out that the appropriations which he received for a large riding with a population of 14,000 people were such that he found it extremely difficult to meet the many requirements brought to his attention from various places. Mr. Roberts and Mr. Irving also spoke, the latter dwelling on the value of good roads in permitting the agricultural population to visit the city at their own times and in their own manner.

In reply Mr. Foster pointed out the great requirements of the province as a whole and stated that it had only been during the past two or three years that the government had been able to formulate a definite policy for road construction. He felt that the application for a special appropriation for the construction of the Ymir road would, if granted, be a departure from the policy of the government, which made appropriations as equitably as possible in proportion to the needs of the various ridings. To grant a special appropriation such as that suggested would create a precedent that would be very difficult to follow.

He thought that the road could be considered a part of the trunk highway and announced that he was prepared to advocate an appropriation for it at the proper time. He conveyed the impression that even if the whole road were not built during the coming year a substantial portion of it would be constructed.

He found, however, that the cost of the road would be far greater than had been generally thought. He believed it would cost nearer $60,000 than the $40,000 which had been spoken of.

The meeting passed a vote of thanks to the deputy minister for coming to Nelson to look into the highway matter and for the statement he had made on the Ymir road question. Votes of thanks were passed also to Messrs. Schofield and Maclean.
