PRUSSIAN FORCES CUT INTO THREE PARTS BY RUSSIAN ARMY, IS BELIEF

Centre Engaged in Desperate Effort to Cut Way Out and Join Left Wing--Stubbornly Faces Onslaughts of Advancing Troops Under Grand Duke Nicholas

THIRTY THOUSAND GERMANS, AUSTRIANS CAPTURED DURING CRACOW OPERATIONS

Enemy Suffers Terrible Losses--Capital of Bukowina Occupied--Defenses Taken in East Prussia--Go Forward Until Last Russian Is Subdued, Hurrah, Says Kaiser--ClaimTeuton Success in Poland

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PETROGRAD, Nov. 29, via London, 4:25 p.m.—A review of the military operations on both sides as the rear of Lodz is given out semi-officially here, indicating that the Germany army under Gen. Mavkenzien has been cut in three parts.

The right wing is still struggling 15 miles west southwest of Lodz, in an attempt to unite with the column sent to its assistance from Weslun. The centre is 10 miles northeast by north of Lodz and is still engaged in a desperate effort to cut its way west to rejoin the left wing which is partially cut off from the strongest position on the Vistula. This army, the review asserts, is moving back before Russian onslaughts, but is stubbornly resisting the Russian advance.

In this quarter the Russian advance is from Gombin, 50 miles north of Lodz. It is estimated that the centres of the three parts of the German force are at least 20 miles apart and that the middle one is acting entirely on its own initiative, being completely isolated from the others.

It is said that the main bodies of the German wing are maintaining a thin line of communication in the rear, extending in semi-circular shape for a distance of 40 miles. Russian experts declare this situation is almost unprecedented in the history of warfare. In the opinion of these experts the operations will not result in the complete surrounding of the Germans but they declare that the purpose of the German campaign on Warsaw has been completely frustrated.

The alleged failure of the German plan is attributed to what is termed a reckless attempt to cut the Russian centre line.

The Russian council of ministers has appropriated large sums for relief hospital work in the rear of the Caucasian army and for the support of families whose wage earners are at the front.

Thirty Thousand Captured.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 29.—While deprecating the exaggerated reports of Russian successes in the battle in northern Poland ,where the German emperor is reported officially to have joined Field Marshal von Hindenburg to offer his advice and encourage his troops, the latest available official reports from Russian headquarters state that the advantage in the fighting still lies with the Russians. It is also said officially that enormous losses have been inflicted on the Germans but no mention is made of the capture of German divisions which has been freely claimed by the Petrograd, London and Paris papers.

Opposed to this is the German official report which says the Russian attacks have been repulsed and that German counter-attacks have been successful. Some days must pass before this battle, which promises to prove the most decisive of the war, is concluded. So far, all that is definitely known is that the German advance has been brought to a standstill. Some of the German troops have been partly or wholly annihilated but they are still fighting stubbornly to break their way through the Russian lines, apparently to the northward, where they hope to join reinforcements sent from Thorn.

In the battle before Cracow the Russians do claim decisive successes. During the last week they took 30,000 Austrian and German prisoners in this district. This victory is taken in Petrograd to mean that Cracow will not bar the Russian advance in Silesia from the south but that with the Austrian army beaten it will be necessary only to mask the fortress.

The Russians likewise report success on their side of the Carpathians and against the Turks in Caucasus though in both regions the worst of weather has prevailed.

Enemy Holds Position.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PETROGRAD, Nov. 29.—The following official communication was issued from general headquarters today:

"Between the Vistula and the Warthe the enemy continues to maintain the position fortified by it at Strykow, Zgiers and Zdunakawola (Russian Poland). The fighting has been stubborn in the regions of Strykow and Zgiers. We captured at these places cannon, rapid firers and several hundred prisoners.

"Our troops have taken part in an engagement along the front comprising Glownow, Bielawy and Sobota. Along the left bank of the Vistula the Germans carried out a counter-attack.

German Losses Enormous.

"According to prisoners the German losses were enormous, many battalions losing all or their officers and the companies being reduced to from 60 to 80 men.

"On the Czenstochowa-Cracow front there have been no important engagements. The army which defended the approaches east of Cracow on the Schreniava and Raba were defeated Nov. 26, being driven back to the region of the fortress.

"In the Carpathians on Nov. 27 we took as many as 1,200 Austrian prisoners. The troops of the enemy have retired precipitately from Bukowina. We occupied Czernowitz.

"In the region of the Mazurian lakes and the Agerap river our troops have thrown back the Germans in several districts from their fortified positions."

Battle Not Yet Finished.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 29, 2:04 a.m.—Reuter's Petrograd correspondent sends an official report which warns the public to use caution in accepting rumors of a crushing Russian victory in Russian Poland. The statement says the retreating Germans are offering desperate resistance and the battle has not been finished.

The statement was issued by the Russian headquarters staff and deals with the various rumors circulated as to the scope of an alleged Russian victory between the Vistula and Warthe rivers. The statement says:

"The rumors are partly based upon private letters from the seat of war published in various journals.

"The headquarters staff warns the public these reports are not founded on fact and must be received with reserve.

"At the very beginning of the war the headquarters staff recommended the necessity of receiving with reserve all news not emanating from an official source.

Prussians Badly Cut Up.

"Undoubtedly the German plan to pierce our front on the left bank of the Vistula and surround part of the Russian army has completely failed. It appears that the Germans have been compelled to fall back from Rzgow and Tuszyn through Brzesiny on Strykow under conditions most disadvantageous to them. The Germans suffered enormous losses during the retreat.

"The fighting, however, is not yet finished. The battle on the whole front is developing favorably for us. The enemy, however, continues to offer stubborn resistance.

"It is impossible, therefore, to consider the operations ended and it is necessary to await the revelations of its final result in the firm assurance that the Russians are fully conscious of the necessity of successfully concluding their heroic efforts in order to shatter the enemy's resistance."

Sixty Thousand Prisoners, Says Kaiser

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 29, via London.—A telegram from Thorn, West Prussia, gives an army order issued by Gen. von Hindenburg, commander of the German army in Russian Poland, stating that "in the severe fighting lasting several days my troops brought to a standstill the offensive of the numerically superior Russian army."

The army order repeats the contents of a telegram sent by Emperor William congratulating von Hindenburg on his "new success"; thanking him and his troops for the protection they afforded to the eastern frontier and promoting the general to the rank of field marshal. The order concludes:

"I am proud of having reached the highest military rank at the head of such troops. Your fighting spirit and perseverance have in a marvelous manner inflicted the greatest losses on the enemy. Over 60,000 prisoners and 150 guns and 200 machine guns have fallen into our hands. But the enemy is not yet annihilated.

"Therefore go forward with God, for our king and the fatherland till the last Russian is subdued and at our feet. Hurrah!"

Unchanged, Says Berlin.

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—An official statement this afternoon says:

"In the east the situation on the right bank of the Vistula remains unchanged. Russian advances in the neighborhood of Lodz were checked and were followed by counter-attacks by our troops.

"There is nothing of importance to note in regard to southern Poland."

BEATEN BY PLUCK AND GOOD TACTICS

Another Great Offensive Movement by Germans in Flanders This Winter Considered Unlikely.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—Telegraphing from northern France Friday night, the Star's correspondent says:

"That there will not be another great offensive by the Germans in Flanders this winter is the opinion of French journalists I have just met, who were fortunate enough to have been along the allies' lines.

"There will not be another dash for either Paris or Calais this year for Germany's offensive machine has been beaten by the splendid pluck and military engineering of the French and British.

"What movements the German troops are now reported by our airmen seem to point to the need of all possible reinforcements on the Russian border and confirm reports reaching us here of the critical position of Von Hindenburg's army. In many places on the line from Ypres to the coast the Germans have such hazardous support that a less skilful leader than Gen. Joffre might be tempted to take the offensive.

"But our troops have built what is practically a little town of shell-proof trenches, warmed by stoves and coal the army service corps has conjured up from the base.

"They are comfortable and happy and what little prestige would be gained by the advancement of the allies' lines now would be lost by winter life in a land devastated by the enemy and the necessary attacks on a new strong line of entrenchments from Bruges and Ghent to Brussels.

"It is the allies who are gaining by this waiting game."

FRENCH FACTION LOSES OTTAWA BILINGUAL CASE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, Nov. 29.—Judgment in the celebrated Ottawa bilingual schools controversy was delivered yesterday by Mr. Justice Lennox, who finds that regulation No. 17 of the Ontario board of education, regarding interpretation of which the differences arose between sections of the Ottawa separate school board, is intra vires and also rules that the Ottawa separate school board has violated the Ontario regulations and issues an injunction perpetually restraining the board from continuing to do so.

The trouble within the Ottawa board over regulation 17 was respecting the time to be devoted to the teaching of French and English. The first step was taken by the English section of the board, which section issued a writ of summons. Following this the French section refused to allow inspection of French classes of pupils by English-speaking inspectors, and the board passed a resolution giving the chairman power to discharge and engage new teachers. Many teachers

Turk for Kaiser's Suite.

A similar appointment, says the message, will be made from Vienna as an expression of the present relations of Turkey, Germany and Austria.

The Frankfurter Zeitung intimates the plan contemplated is that Zeekki Pasha shall have the same personal relations with Emperor William as were long held by the Russian military envoy in Berlin.

VON HINDENBURG IS FIELD MARSHAL

Kaiser Rewards General for What Are Described as Great German Victories Against Russians.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BERLIN, Nov. 29.—The first field marshal's baton of the present war has been awarded to Gen von Hindenburg for his series of brilliant victories in defending East Prussia against the flood of the Russian invasion. His chief of staff and collaborator, Gen von Ludendorff, has been promoted to a lieutenant-generalship for his share in the success. The award to Von Hindenburg comes with the great eastern battle still undecided, as a reward for the preliminary victories at Kloclawek and Lodz, which it is said, have thrown the Russians on the defensive with a loss of 60,000 prisoners and 150 guns.

It is taken here to indicate that the emperor has confidence that Von Hindenburg will completely defeat the Russians.

The honor of receiving the grand cross of the iron cross, the emblem given a field marshall, is the highest military distinction a German commander can receive and was won by Von Hindenburg as in the cast of Von Moltke, Crown Prince Frederick and the Prussian "Red Prince" Frederick Carl, on the field of battle. The elevation of Von Hindenburg is generally acclaimed in Germany, where he enjoys great popularity. Commenting on the honor conferred on Von Hindenburg, the Tageblatt says:

"It is fitting that the first man to receive the rank since the death of Field Marshal Count von Schleiffen, the great teacher of the Clausewitzian-von-Moltkelan art should be Von Hindenburg, who has repeatedly demonstrated the teachings of the great master, namely, that German leaders must learn how to inflict decisive defeat even with inferior numbers."

The Lokal Anzeiger compares Von Hindenburg with Blucher, the victor at Waterloo.

"The whole nation rejoices at the appointment of its hero," the paper continues, "knowing that even the advance of new Russian armies will be no cause for apprehension so long as this keen-eyed master of strategy is on the watch to dare and to accomplish new victories."

Positions North and South of Arras Captured--Advantage Taken of Mistakes of Opposing Leaders--Morale of Hostile Force Impaired--British Artillery Does Execution--Indians Show Resource

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 30, 4:05 a.m.—The Mail's Rotterdam correspondent reports the allies are taking the offensive south of Ypres, having discovered that the German line is weakening.

Telegraphing from "On the Belgian frontier," Friday night, Percival Phillips, special correspondent of the Express, says:

"The German naval staff has arrived at Bruges from Antwerp. This and other movements of the Germans make the allies believe that fresh operations of an important nature are to be expected around Zeebrugge. An aeroplane squadron has been brought from its base near Ghent and is now stationed at Bruges to assist in the surveillance of the channel."

Lighter Guns Being Used.

The Germans, although making an occasional infantry attack, seem at present content to bombard the allied positions, but with somewhat lighter guns than they have been using, according to today's reports. This may mean either that they are sending troops and artillery to the east to use against the Russians or that they are preparing a new attack against the allies.

That the enterprise that failed in Flanders will not be repeated for the present seems probable, as the allies have been allowed to capture some points of vantage around Ypres which were previously considered necessary to the German plans. There has been a minor attack near Arras but not in strong enough force to suggest that the Germans have decided to try to get to the coast by direct route from the east.

German Loss Thrice Heavier.

An interesting report from Sir John French, covering the period of the battle in Flanders and the days immediately preceding it, shows that the battle was brought about first by the allies' attempt to outflank the Germans, who countered, and then by their plans to move to the northeast of Ghent and Bruges, which also failed, greatly superior German forces being responsible for the allies' inability to carry their plans to success.

After this the German offensive began with the French coast ports as the objective, but this movement, like those of the allies, met with failure.

Field Marshal French tells what the various units of the expeditionary forces have been doing—those that failed and those who against superior numbers held the trenches for a month. He gives it as his opinion that the German losses have been thrice as great as those of the allies and speaks optimistically of the future.

Repulse Attacks in Argonne.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Nov. 29, 10:35 p.m.—The following official report was issued by the war office tonight:

"Quiet prevails along the whole front except in the Argonne region, where the German attacks have not been more successful than preceding attacks."

Capture Several Positions.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Nov. 29,2:45 p.m.—The official statement issued this afternoon says:

"Nov. 29, Sunday, the enemy's cannonading was more active, carried on chiefly with 75-millimetre pieces. This heavy artillery has made itself felt but little. Under these conditions the artillery struggle has turned in our advantage.

"In Belgium our infantry captured several supporting positions to the north and to the south of Ypres. In the country to the north of Arras one of the enemy's attacks, undertaken by nearly three regiments, has definitely failed and afterward several of our counter-attacks were carried out in other directions.

Smash Hostile Artillery.

"Between the Somme and Chaulnes we have made perceptible progress. In the neighborhood of the village of Fair our troops are in contact with the wire entanglements of the defense.

"In the region of the Aisne between Vailly and Berry au Bac a group of machine guns and a cupola revolving turret for 30-centimetre pieces were destroyed by our shells, one of which caused an explosion in one of the batteries of the enemy.

"In the Vosges the counter-attacks undertaken by the Germans for the purpose of recapturing ground previously taken by us in the Ban de Sapt region were successfully repulsed."

Say Allies' Attacks Failed.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BERLIN, Nov. 29, by wireless to London, 4:30 p.m.—The following official report was given out today:

"This afternoon there is nothing to report from the western army. Yesterday the final attack of the enemy in the region to the southeast of Ypres and to the west of Lens failed."

Concentrate at Arras.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 29, 2:45 a.m.—The Weekly Despatch's Boulonge correspondent says:

"The Germans have collected 700,000 men in the neighborhood of Arras where they are preparing for a determined effort to break through the allies' line.

"Heavy fighting already has begun."

Bring Down Aeroplane.

PARIS, Nov. 29.—The following official statement was issued last night:

"As yesterday, there is nothing to report."

The German attack in Belgium just north of the French border, continues, although not with sufficient force to indicate that the expected new attempt to pierce the line and force a way to the English channel had been begun in earnest. Artillery and infantry attacks were repulsed, says yesterday afternoon's official French report.

A German aeroplane carrying three men was brought down by artillery fire, the French war office reports, resulting in the death of one of the aviators and the capture of the others. The German artillery fire is said to be diminishing in intensity and in some districts to have suffered severely from the French guns.

The British fleet is said to have resumed bombardment of the German positions on the Belgian coast.

Battle in Last Stages.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 29, 4 p.m.—Field Marshal French, commander-in-chief of the British forces in the field, speaks in an optimistic vein concerning the position of the allies in a report issued by the official press bureau.

The report covers in a general way the activities of the British troops from Nov. 11 to 20, with extensive references to fighting preceding those dates.

Summing up the situation in concluding his report Field Marshal French says:

"As I close this despatch signs are in evidence that we are possibly in the last stages of the battle from Ypres to Armentieres. For several days past the artillery fire of the enemy has slackened considerably and the infantry attacks have practically ceased.

"In remarking on the general military situation of the allies as it appears to me at the present moment, it does not seem to be clearly understood that the operations in which we have been engaged embrace nearly all of the central part of the continent of Europe, from the east to the west. These combined French, Belgian and British armies in the west and the Russian army in the east are opposed to the united forces of Germany and Austria, acting as combined armies against us.

Watch for Enemy's Mistakes.

"Our enemies elected at the commencement of the war to throw the weight of their forces against our armies in the west and to detach only a comparatively weak force, composed of a few of the first line troops and several corps of second and third line troops, to stem the Russian advance until the western forces could be completely defeated and overwhelmed. Their strength enabled them from the outset to throw greatly superior forces against us in the west.

"This precludes the possibility of our taking vigorous offensive action, except when miscalculations and mistakes are made by the enemy's commanders, opening special opportunities for successful attacks and pursuit.

"The battle of the Marne was an example of this, as also our advance from St. Omer and Hazebrouck to the line of the river Lys, at the commencement of this battle. The role which our armies in the west have constantly been called upon to fulfil has been to occupy strong defensive positions, holding ground gained and inviting the enemy's attack and to

PEOPLE OF SWEDEN ANGRY GERMANY MAKES THREAT

LONDON, Nov. 30, 3.15 a.m.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen, the Mail's correspondent says that Germany has demanded that the Swedish government suppress unfriendly utterances against Germany in Swedish newspapers and has threatened reprisals in the event of non-compliance.

Germany's declaration of wood as contraband of war has caused a tremendous revulsion of feeling in Sweden and Norway against Germany and agitation for an understanding with Russia. Sweden's loss by reason of this declaradtion, as estimated by the correspondent, will amount to $15,000,000 a year.

"The temper of the Swedes," he says, "is such that they are discussing whether or not it would be advisable to send cargoes of wood to England through the Kattegat and Skagerack under escort of Swedish warships and defy the Germans to attack them. It is contended that Sweden, Norway and Russia could form a profitable commercial agreement which would be greatly to the advantage of themselves and the allies and to the disadvantage of the Germans."

Nelson's New Police Chief and Officer Stewart Receive Presentations at Public Meeting.

(Special to The Daily News.)

ROSSLAND, B.C., Nov. 29.—One of the most enthusiastic and representative meetings of citizens ever held in Rossland assembled at the city hall last evening to express appreciation of the work performed by Chief of Police Long and Officer Stewart, who are going to Nelson. Ex-Mayor J. S. Deschamps was in the chair. As an old-timer and one who had control of the department, he was able to speak in the most feeling terms of the excellent service which these officials had rendered. On behalf of the citizens he presented Chief Long with a beautiful solid silver tea and coffee service, suitable engraved and also with a leather lined suit case. To Officer Stewart was presented a beautiful limoges china dinner sevice and a travelling bag. Among the speakers were L. A. Campbell, M.L.A., Police Commissioners Potter and Dunn and Police Magistrate Plewman; E. S. H. Winn and C. F. R. Pinchot representing the legal profession; Drs. Chandler, Coffin and Gunning, ex-Mayor P. R. McDonald, G. A. Lafferty, A. M. Betts, G. Cruickshank, Dan Thomas, C. J. Miles, William Wadds, D. B. Stevens and C. H. Wallace. All united in expressing deep regret at the departure of the officers, speaking in the highest terms of their efficiency and their willingness at all times to perform service whether within their duty or out of it, and whether in the city or out of it and said that Rossland was so well policed that the citizens had no fear of robbery. References were made to the unquestioned honesty and integrity of the force and the fact that during a long term of office nothing had ever developed which caused a stigma to attach to their characters. They were broad gauge men and had used good judgment in their difficult position. The departure of the families of the officers was also deeply regretted.

The chief in reply feelingly referred to the many acts of kindness and good counsel that he had received at the hands of the civic officials and the citizens of Rossland. He appreciated very much this evidence of their appreciation and the kind remarks. He pointed out that as public servants Mr. Stewart and himself were frequently subjected to criticism and appreciated it so long as it was used in a fair and open manner, because they were only human and prone to error. He bore no ill-feeling toward any who opposed him, for while he may have thought some criticism unfair, he might have been mistaken.

On Friday night at the Masonic hall Chief Long was presented with a handsome tea tray by R. E. Plewman on behalf of the members of Corinthian lodge A. F. & A. M. and Rossland chapter R. A. M. The tray was engraved with a suitable inscription and the emblems of the lodge and chapter. The chief is a past master of the lodge.

Friday was Maccabees' day at the Red Cross society.

The Royal Neighbors will meet at Oddfellows hall on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock for drill practise.

A free social is being given Tuesday night at 8 o'clock by the Salvation army in the army citadel. Refreshments will be served.

At the meeting of the Knights of Pythias on Friday night the following officers were elected: W. Hooper, C.C.; H. Whitford, V.C.; John Murphy, master of works; Thomas Embleton, master of exchequer; P. R. McDonald, master of finance; H. Brewer, inside guard; A. M. Johnson, outside guard.

A. M. Betts won the fruit cake raffled by the Red Cross society, 79E being the lucky number.

About 30 tables have been sold for the afternoon tea to be given in the armory on Wednesday by the Pythian Sisters. A program has been arranged.

The Red Cross society acknowledges the following contributions: Socks, Mrs. Gunning and Mrs Patenaude; cash, E. G. Montgomery; surplus from Fraser fund, A. W. Morgan, Mrs. D. Brown, S. J. Hackney, Antony Johnson. S. J. Hackney of the Star theatre gave $24.80 as his contribution from the proceeds taken in during the past two weeks.

Gerald Long left on Friday evening for Bonrdington where he will spend a few days before going to his new home in Nelson.

SILVERTON WOMEN WORK FOR PATRIOTIC FUND

(Special to The Daily News.)

SILVERTON, B. C., Nov. 29.—The Silverton branch of the Canadian Patriotic fund, which was organized by the women early in September, is doing splendid work in the collecting of cash and clothing for the relief of needy dependents of Canadian volunteers and homeless Belgians. Nearly $700 in cash was sent forward in September and since then the women have collected much clothing and by numerous entertainments, sales and cash contributions have purchased large quantities of materials, upon which practically every woman in town is engaged in making up, either by knitting or sewing. The Ladies' aid, W.C.T.U. and the Ladies' guild are all giving great assistance to the society, both by cash donations and otherwise, while the men of the entire neighborhood have generously responded to every appeal for assistance.

KOOTENAY CENTRAL TO OPERATE NEXT MONTH

(Special to The Daily News.)

FERNIE, B. C., Nov. 29.—Major Hungerford-Pollen of the 107th regiment arrived in the city on Friday evening from Cranbrook and conferred with the local military authorities. The major, who is president of the Kootenay Central railway, the line which connects the Crow's Nest line with the main line of the Canadian Pacific railway, at Golden, gave out the statement that this connecting link will be in operation by Dec. 15, when it will be possible to make very quick time between this city and coast points.

Ald. William Robichaud, from whom the skating rink was rented by the military authorities and used as a drill hall for some two months at a nominal fee, waited upon Lieut. Col. J. Mackay on Friday morning and presented him with a cheque for $50 as a small donation towards defraying the large personal expense that the colonel had been subjected to in connection with the organization of the 107th regiment and the dispatching of the two contingents from here. The colonel declined to accept this personal gift, but sugested that the donor could serve his purpose by applying equal amounts to the funds of the two local companies of the regiment.

BREAK FROM JAIL MURDER TURNKEY

Jailor Lies at Death's Door as Result of Attack by Indians—Posses in Pursuit.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PEMBROKE, Ont., Nov. 29.—Robert Coxford, turnkey of the Renfrew county jail here, was murdered and William Brown, the jailer, lies at death's door as the result of a successful attempt at jail delivery by two Indians, S. White Duck and Anthony Jocko, late this afternoon. The redskins were being held pending trial on a charge of theft from Grand Trunk railway freight cars at Golden Lake. Both got clean away and the countryside is being scoured by armed posses of special constables and citizens in search of them.

The Indians were in the corridor fronting the cells in the jail when Coxford entered with some supplies. The turnkey had occasion to enter a cupboard in the corridor and as soon as he had his back turned one of the Indians came up with a chair and dealt him a smashing blow on the head, fracturing his skull. Death ensued in a few minutes.

Aroused by the sound of the fall, Jailer Brown rushed to the scene, seizing the first available weapon he could find, an iron poker. Inside the corridor the Indians were waiting and Brown was soon overpowered and the poker wrested from him. He was beaten into insensibility with this implement and the Indians, believing him dead, made their way through the door, entered the corridor and then escaped by the main entrance to the county buildings.

As soon as the alarm was raised Sheriff Morris organized a posse and every road from the town was immediately placed under a strong guard but up to a late hour tonight no trace was found of the Indians.

A special train has been chartered by citizens and has left for Golden Lake, about 20 miles from Pembroke. It is thought the Indians will make for the reserve, there to secure supplies, arms and ammunition and then endeavor to make their escape to the upper waters of the Bonnechere river, where capture would be exceedingly difficult.

BERNHARDI TOLD CAMPAIGN PLANS

Paid Visit to States and Outlined the Scheme of War, Declares Rev. J. A. Macdonald

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—That Germany has long been preparing for the present war and that in 1913 a retired general of the Prussian army made a secret visit to the United States and informed prominent Germans of detailed plans of the proposed attack, was the assertion last night by J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, who spoke at the reunion of the Toronto University Alumni association of Chicago.

"I have it from excellent and undisputable authority that it May 1913 Gen. von Bernhardi made a secret visit to the United States and divulged plans of the European war which is now on," said Dr. Macdonald. "He visited New York, Chicago and other cities west of the Mississippi and then went to the coast. On May 26, 1913, he held a secret meeting of some 300 Germans in San Francisco, called by the then German consul there.

"At this gathering he outlined the plans of the present war, which, he proclaimed, would begin with what seemed to be an attack along the border of Alsace-Loraine, from where a feint would be made to get into France. The real intent, the German general said, would be to enter France through Belgium.

"The general outlined the number of days it would take to reach Paris, the cost and the number of men necessary to get there and said that when Paris had capitulated a levy would be made for its redemption.

"After France had been captured the German army would overcome Russia. It was pointed out by the German officer that Great Britain was expected to remain neutral and that the time would shortly come when Great Britain would be attacked. This general is most reliably quoted as saying: 'Law is a most unreliable makeshift.'"

Dr. Macdonald said he could not make public the name of his informant, but he attended the meeting at which Gen. von Bernhardi is said to have revealed the general plans of the German attack.

Meeting Public, German Asserts

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—Gen. von Bernhardi visited this city in 1913 and made a speech at a public meeting at one of the largest hotels in town, resident Germans said last night. There was no private meeting of any kind.

"He told us how the war would be conducted when it came," said one of them. "It's all in his books, anyway."

TRIES TO ESCAPE NOOSE BY CHARGING HIS FRIEND

PORTAGE LA PRAIRIE, Man., Nov. 29.—After less than an hour's deliberation tonight the jury returned a verdict of not guilty in the case of Charlie Fulford, aged 18, charged with the murder of Alex Seede, an Essyrian pedlar, at Edrans on Jan. 15. The principal witness for the crown was Ernest Boyd, Fulford's intimate friend, who was last Saturday himself convicted for the same murder. Boyd told a remarkable story of having gone along the railroad tracks at Edrans to look for young Fulford on the day of the murder and had seen him strike the pedlar with a hatchet three times.

Boyd also stated that he kept watch for Fulford while he dragged the body away from the track and buried it under the snow. The defense counsel charged that in his story Boyd told the narrative of his own crime.

ARGOS DEFEAT HAMILTON TIGERS

Win Championship of Interprovincial Rugby League—Ten Thousand See Game.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, Nov. 29.—Playing brilliant rugby, both on the offensive and defensive, the Argos defeated Hamilton here yesterday by a score of 11 to 4 and won the championship of the interprovincial union. Over 10,000 people witnessed the match.

To Everett Smith and Jack O'Connor of the Argos must go a great part of the credit for the win. The latter made a wonderful goal from the 45-yard line and in the final period he sent the ball over the bar from the field for three more points.

Billy Mallett for Hamilton caught and punted splendidly. His low bounding punts were on almost every occasion good ground gainers.

The Tigers had the better of the first quarter as the 2 to 0 score indicated. The Argos were on the defensive three-quarters of the period. In the second quarter the Argos' machine found itself and tied the score, 3-3. In the third quarter the Argos dominated the play most of the time and only brilliant tactics by the Tigers prevented them securing a big lead.

WESTERN CARRIES DUNDAS TEAM OFF ITS FEET

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Nov. 29.—Dundas was completely carried off its feet by Western university, London, in the final game for the junior championship of the Ontario Football union here yesterday.

The valley town squad was an easy proposition for the speedy Londoners, who won by the score of 50 to 14. The half-time count was 28 to 10, with 22 to 0 the score at the end of the first quarter. London notched no less than 16 points in the first five minutes of play. The game was rough all through and a number of fist fights occurred.

PEACE IN BASEBALL UNLIKELY NEXT SEASON

Outlaw Leaguers Go Ahead With Plans for Next Summer—Two New Franchises Asked.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Hope of making peace with organized baseball until at least another season of warfare has passed appears to have been abandoned by Federal league owners, who held their annual meeting Saturday. Preparations for the 1915 season were undertaken enthusiastically, the baseball managers not even stopping for lunch. A committee to draft a schedule of 154 games was appointed.

Twenty-one representatives of the league were present and both Cleveland and Cincinnati sent agents to plead for franchises in those cities. No action on the petitions of the Ohioians was announced.

TIGERS TO HOLD MEETING TOMORROW EVENING

Tommy Madden, well known in local junior hockey circles, has returned from Spokane, where he has been attending school and will start training at once with the Tigers. E. G. Matthew, manager, announced Saturday night. The Tigers have been short of material for left wing, but it is expected that with this new addition to the squad this difficulty will be overcome and the team will be strengthened considerably. A meeting will be held tomorrow evening of all interested to make arrangements for permanent training quarters, the lack of which has proved somewhat of a drawback.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AFFECTED HIS SPINE

Suffered For Forty Years Until He Used "Fruit-a-tives"

BRONTE, ONT., OCT. 31st. 1913.

"For about forty years, I was troubled with Lame Back brought on by Kidney and Bladder Trouble. I was never confined to my bed with the trouble, but it affected my spine and I had to rest for a time. I took advertised remedies which never did me any good. Then I saw "Fruit-a-tives" advertised and decided to try them. They did me more good than any other remedy.

My son suffered from the same trouble and frequently had to leave off working, but "Fruit-a-tives" remedied it for him. I would strongly advise anyone suffering from Kidney and Bladder Trouble to use "Fruit-a-tives".

FIND WEAK SPOT IN GERMAN LINE

throw back these attacks, causing the enemy heavy losses in its retreat and following up with powerful and successful counter-attacks to complete its discomfort.

Numbers Reduced, Morale Impaired.

"The value and significance of operations of this nature since the commencement of hostilities by the allies' forces in the west lie in the fact that at the moment when the eastern provinces of Germany are in imminent danger of being overrun by the numerous and powerful armies of Russia nearly the whole active army of Germany is tied down to a line of trenches extending from Verdun on the Alsatian frontier to the sea at Nieuport, east of Dunkirk, a distance of 260 miles, where they are held with much reduced numbers and impaired morale, by the successful action of our troops in the west.

"I cannot speak too highly of the services rendered by the royal artillery throughout the battle. In spite of the fact that the enemy brought up in support of his attacks guns of great range and shell power, our men have succeeded throughout in preventing the enemy from establishing anything in the nature of superiority in artillery.

Praises Artillery, Engineers.

"The skill, courage and energy displayed by the commanders of the royal artillery have been marked. The royal engineers have been indefatigable in their efforts to assist the infantry in field, fortification and trench work.

"I deeply regret the heavy casualties which we have suffered but the nature of the fighting has been desperate and we have been assailed by superior numbers. I have every reason to know that throughout the course of the battle we have placed at least three times as many of the enemy hors de combat in dead, wounded and prisoners as we have lost.

"Throughout these operations Gen. Foch has strained his resources to the utmost to afford me all the support he could. An expression of my warm gratitude is also due to Gen. Dubail, commanding the 8th French army corps on my left and to Gen. de Maud-Huy, commanding the 10th army corps on my right."

Discussing details of the operations from Nieuport to Armentieres, Gen. French explains that he was impressed with the necessity of giving the greatest possible support to the north flank of the allies in the effort to outflank the enemy and compel him to evacuate his positions.

New Plans Made.

The situation on the Aisne warranted the withdrawal of British troops from positions they held there as the enemy has been weakened by continual attacks and the fortifications of the allies much improved.

Gen. French made known his views to Gen. Joffre, who agreed with them. The French general staff arranged for the withdrawal of the British, which began on Oct. 3 and was completed Oct. 31 under Gen. Sir Douglas Haig. The plans arranged by Gen. French and Gen Foch, commanding the French troops to the north of Yonne, was that the British troops should pivot on the French at Bethune, attacking the Germans on their flank and forcing their way north. If the British forced the Germans out of their position, making possible a forward movement of the allies, the French and British troops were to march east with Lille as the dividing line between the two armies, the British right being directed on Lille.

The battle which forms the chief feature of Gen. French's report really began on Oct. 11 when Major Gen. Gough of the 2nd British cavalry brigade first clashed with the Germans in the woods along the Bethune-Aire canal.

The British cavalry moved toward Hazebrouck, clearing the way for the army corps which advanced rapidly in a northeasterly direction. For several days the progress of the British was only interrupted once.

Indians Get Into Action.

Gen French says the 2nd corps under Gen. Smith-Dorrien was opposed by overpowering forces of Germans but nevertheless advanced until Oct. 18 when the enemy's opposition forced a reinforcement of the second corps. Six days later the Lahore division of the Indian army was sent to support the 2nd corps.

On Oct. 16 Sir Henry Rawlinson, who had covered the retreat of the Belgian army from Antwerp with two divisions of British cavalry and two divisions of French infantry, was stationed on the line east of Ypres under orders to operate a wide front and to keep possession of all the ground held by the allies until the 1st army corps could reach Ypres.

Gen. Rawlinson was opposed by a superior force and was unable to prevent the Germans from getting large reinforcements.

With an army corps holding an enemy larger than its size justified Gen. Joffre conducted a stubborn resistance. The enemy was massed from the Lys and there was imperative need for a strengthened line.

However, Gen. French decided to send the 1st corps north of Ypres to stop the German reinforcements which might enable them to flank the allies. The shattered Belgian army and the

UNION JACK DIRTY RAG, SAYS LARKIN

Insults Stars and Stripes Also—Bomb Throwing Right, He Tells Industrial Workers.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—James Larkin, a labor leader from England, addressing 400 members of the Industrial Workers of the World at the Manhattan lyceum last night, insulted the American flag and, cheered by his audience, declared that "Bomb-throwing was right and that the whole city of New York ought to be blown up."

"You attempt to minimize the charge that you are bomb throwers," he shouted. "Well, what have you to apologize about? Why in —— are you not bomb throwers? The whole city of New York ought to be burned up.

"As to that rag there," and he pointed to the American flag, hung within a few feet of the platform, "I'll leave that to you. You will know what to do with it. I'd rather talk about the Union Jack, for I know the amount of crime that that dirty rag has covered."

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30

AN IMPETUS TO PROSPERITY.

News that the Granby smelter at Grand Forks will resume operations and that the Great Northern railway will return to its usual consumption of coal from the mines near Fernie gives examples of the return to normal conditions which is taking place not only in Kootenay and Boundary but in this continent generally. It means employment for a number of men who are now idle and a consequent impetus to the prosperity of the district.

The blowing in of the Granby smelter will be of especial importance to Grand Forks and Phoenix, where the smelter and mines of the company respectively are located.

The price of copper, which is the chief output of the Granby smelter, has been rising slowly but steadily and although it is not yet at the figure at which it was quoted before the war broke out it has evidently reached a value at which the company considers it can make arrangements to operate its Boundary properties. Indications are not lacking that the demand for copper may at no distant date so increase as to bring the price up to a figure satisfactory to those connected with the industry.

The operation of Granby smelter means also that the call for coke from the ovens in East Kootenay will be greater.

These developments are a matter for satisfaction on the part of the people of Kootenay and Boundary.

DOES NOT SPEAK FOR LABOR.

The calibre of James Larkin is shown by the statements made by him at a meeting of the Industrial Workers of the World at New York on Saturday. A man capable of commending the destruction of life and property which is the result of bomb-throwing and of insulting the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes calls for the serious attention of the authorities upon whom the preservation of law and order falls rather than for that of the general public, but there is one point that should be clearly understood: Larkin is not representative of the Labor party in the United Kingdom nor does he express the opinions of any but an infinitesimal number of the people in that country. He is no more representative of British labor men than is an anarchist of the Russian workers.

Larkin, in the announcements which told of his approaching visit to the United States for the publicly stated purpose of arousing anti-British sentiments, was heralded as "England's labor leader," a position to which he can lay no truthful claim.

The loyalty of the Labor party in Great Britain is beyond question. It has been repeatedly voiced by its representatives in the house of commons and by private members and shown equally strongly by their actions. Criticism of Great Britain's decision to draw the sword in defense of its plighted word was, it is true, made by J. Ramsay Macdonald in parliament when Sir Edward Grey placed the facts before the representatives of the people early in August when war was declared. Mr. Macdonald was the recognized leader of the Labor party, but he did not remain as such any longer than the time required to call a meeting and elect to the leadership another member, whose views were in accord with those of the party as a whole, in his stead. And Mr. Macdonald expressed no disloyalty to the flag; he simply declared it as his opinion that Britain was not called upon to enter the struggle.

The frequently stated view of the Labor party in Great Britain and of representatives who were sent to Canada to make that opinion clear in this Dominion is that while war is to be deprecated the Empire could not honorably have kept out of it and that, having joined the forces against Germany, the Empire must fight until the struggle has been brought to a successful conclusion.

Christmas is coming. Buy your presents while the stocks at the stores are complete.

The demand for fresh vegetables grown upon the white-owned ranches of the district was again shown at the public market on Saturday when the supply was greatly insufficient.

The announcement that a special session of the Nelson public market will be held on Christmas eve is bad news for the turkeys which are now being fattened on the ranches in the surrounding district.

Sweden is ordered to suppress unfriendly newspaper utterances toward Germany, a threat of reprisals accompanying the demand. Prussia does not yet appear to realize that the whole world is not subject to its will.

The imposition of a heavy tax upon flour sent from the United States to feed the starving people of Belgium should do much to impress the American people with the kindness of heart and humanitarian principles of the German authorities.

It is officially announced at Berlin that the kaiser is with the German army in the east. It may be true but on general principles any of the aviators of the allied armies who have been saving up bombs to deliver personally to his imperial majesty might do well to seek their quarry in the opposite direction.

Judging from what is being said in Great Britain about the young men who prefer watching professional football matches to fighting for their country a reprint of Rudyard Kipling's poem in which reference is made to "flanneled fools at the wicket and mudded oafs at the goal" would be popular.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING ..

Eat More Honey.

The Nelson Daily News is making vigorous efforts to induce residents of West Kootenay and the Boundary country to eat more honey, and to secure it from the farmers in that part of the country. In this connection it might be well for Cranbrook residents to do likewise. Each year witnesses the increased number of bee keepers in this district, and ere long Cranbrook will be quite a hive of industry in this regard. Start now and patronize the local apiarists.—Cranbrook Herald.

How War Hits the Newspapers.

People who think that newspapers coin money out of a war should read the recent annual statement of the London Times, admittedly one of the greatest newspapers in the English-speaking world. Last year the Times made a net profit of $95,000. This year with three months of the war included the profits have dropped to $30,000. The fact of the matter is that this war is costing the newspapers of Britain, Canada and the United States enormous sums. They are spending more money to obtain war news and they are losing advertising. Next year most of them will show losses instead of profits.—Ottawa Journal.

COLD STORAGE.

An enterprising American went over to England and decided to open a shop in London. He obtained premises next door to a man who also kept shop of the same description, but was not pushing in his business methods, preferring to jog along in the old conservative way.

The methods of the newcomer, however, caused the old trader to wake up and, with a spirit of originality strong upon him, he affixed a notice over his shop with the word "Established Fifty Years" painted in large letters.

Next day the American replied to this with a notice over his shop to the following effect:

"Established yesterday; no old stock."

"You will observe," said Professor Blank, "the higher the altitude the colder the temperature becomes."

"But ain't it warmer near the top of the mountains than it is in the valley?" asked a boy at the foot of the class.

"Oh, certainly not," replied Professor Blank. "Why should you think it would be?"

"Oh," answered the youngster, "I thought perhaps the atmosphere was heated by the mountain ranges."

WATCH Your Own Business

This business of keeping Nelson prosperous is not the work of any association. It is not particularly the duty of Preachers, Lawyers, Doctors, Politicians, or Others, excepting in so far as they are good citizens. It has nothing whatever to do with our civic rulers unless they are in close accord with the ordinary everyday householder in a great undertaking. It is above all parties, creeds and factions. It is as simple as rolling off a log.

There are a great many people who talk patriotism on the street corners, and buy their dry goods by mail. Others wave the flag, glory in the Maple Leaf and send to the United States for goods that could just as well be bought in Canada.

We Want None of This in Nelson

To keep prosperity in Canada and the spectre of hard times out just means that from now on every man and woman must consider their own business of first importance, and spend their money in Nelson for goods made in Canada. It is the necessity of maintaining payrolls—yours as well as ours—that puts us all on the same level.

We Are in to Help the Empire. Are You?

Every person in Nelson and its vicinity can contribute to the city's prosperity by patronising home institutions—the institutions that are contributing day by day to the city's welfare in so many ways. Are you prepared to do your duty in this matter?

IG LIQUIDATION ENTIRELY ABSENT

First Session of New York Exchange Some Increases and Some Decreases in Prices Noted.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—The New rk stock exchange reopened its doors sterday for the first time in nearly ir months, to permit limited trading bonds. The conservative element d successfully resisted efforts to reme business, even in tentative form, till home investment conditions rected some justification for such acn.

t was evident, however, that the remption of operations even under the ld terms imposed, which included e establishment of minimum prices, ercised a marked effect upon sentiint throughout the financial district. here was an unusually large attendce of members and the sound of the ening gong was echoed by loud and olonged cheers from the floor which s taken up by the visitors in the llery.

Trading all through the brief session flected timidity on the part of instors and brokers. There resulted a mber of material declines from July prices with a few gains, chiefly in industrial division of the bond list. no time was there any movement ggesting serious liquidation and of reign selling, concerning which some prehension had been felt, there apared to be none at all.

The largest single transaction was sale of 2000 Chicago, Milwaukee & . Paul general mortgage 4½ per cent nds, which was recorded in the early alings at a loss of 2½ points.

For the most part offerings were in s of one to five bonds, best prices ing established at the outset, after hich fractional recessions were genal. Altogether about 50 different isses were quoted instead of some 150 more as in the active times.

It was evident between July 30 prices d some recorded today that the exange authorities virtually had waiv minimum prices in a few of the inive issues. For instance, bonds on Southern, Wabash, Seaboard Air ne, Atlantic Coast Line and one or o other roads lost from 4 to 9 points ile the 4½ per cents of the Internanal Mercantile Marine company fell points.

Among the few issues which sold at ices higher than the closing of July were American Telephone and Teleph convertibles, Bethlehem Steel, unding 5s, Central of Georgia 5s. icago, Milwaukee & St. Paul convrtible 4s and Interboro Metropolitan 4s, New York Adjustment and Texas mpany convertibles.

CANADIANS GET BEER AT CANTEEN

No Other Alcoholic Drink Sold at Salisbury Camp—Effect of Sale Has Been Good.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 29.—From time to time many representations have been made to the government as to the so-called "wet canteen" which is permitted by the war office in the camp at Salisbury plain.

The regulations in such camps and the control and discipline of the men who constitute the expeditionary forces appertain to the British war office as the officers and men have enlisted as imperial troops. The Canadian government and the Canadian department of militia and defense have therefore no direct control of these matters, but the Canadian government can, of course, make representations in respect of important matters and these representations would undoubtedly receive careful and respectful consideration.

According to official information the complete abolition of the wet canteen, so-called, resulted in excesses and disorders among a few of the men when they obtained leave of absence and resorted to neighboring towns and villages where the opportunity to purchase liquor presented itself.

After careful consideration Gen. Alderson determined that it would be better to have a regulated wet canteen at which beer might be sold at certain hours and under careful supervision. Accordingly the regulations permit such canteens to be opened for one hour at noon and for three hours in the evening. Beer only is sold and noncommissioned officers are always on duty. The government is assured by the war office that the trouble in the neighboring villages which occasioned much concern at first has practically ceased since the opening of these regulated and supervised canteens.

TO ORGANIZE COMPANY IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

KINGSTON, Ont., Nov. 29.—Major W. A. Mitchell of No. 3 company C.A.S.C. has been appointed to the 11th military district, comprising British Columbia and the Yukon with headquarters at Vancouver. He will organize a company there for overseas service.

AT THE THEATRES

Owing to the Proulx sisters being unable to conclude an important engagement in Spokane the patrons of the Starland theatre were much disappointed at their nonappearance on Saturday evening. The management, however, states that the Proulx sisters will present the first performance of their return engagement this evening. It has been only after a great deal of trouble and expense and in response to numerous requests that the Starland has again been able to present these splendid juvenile entertainers to the Nelson public and a crowded house is looked for for their opening bill this evening.

A powerful Rex drama entitled "Circle 17," in which Herbert Rawlinson and Anna Little have the leading roles, is the main film feature for the evening, but this by no means excels a one-reel drama, "A Normandy Romance," in which Mary Pickford is the heroine. Miss Pickford will shortly appear at the Starland with the Famous Players, the greatest combination of moving picture actors in the world today. A Joker comedy entitled "Her Twin Brother," a very laughable farce comedy, completes the bill. The management announces that tomorrow night's pie-eating contest is open to all and that the drawing for $5 in gold will take place at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening.

A dramatic photo production of "Othello," William Shakespeare's immortal classic, produced in Venice, with its wealth of historic and poetic environment, is the unusually attractive program billed at the Gem theatre for this evening. A great deal of trouble and expense has been expended by the management in securing this costly production, which is in such great demand in the larger cities, where theatre-goers willingly pay an unusually high price in order to see "Othello" played, and as the Gem management has decided not to raise the usual admission charges a very large attendance is looked for at this evening's performance. In order to permit as many as possible to witness "Othello," which will only be staged at the Gem the one night, the first performance will commence promptly at 7:15 and the second performance at 8:45 o'clock. A special musical program will be rendered by the Gem orchestra.

POULTRY ENTRIES TO CLOSE TODAY

Exhibit Expected from Chilliwack—Grand Forks and East Kootenay Birds Coming.

A showing of fine poultry from Chilliwack, in the Fraser valley near the coast, is expected to reach the city today for exhibition in the winter show of the West Kootenay Poultry & Pet Stock association which will open on Wednesday morning.

Entries for the birds have been made with the secretary, George Horstead, who stated that up till Saturday the entries as a whole for the show had been heavier than during the corresponding period prior to last year's successful show.

Grand Forks and East Kootenay districts are expected to be largely represented, states Mr. Horstead, and already at the big poultry house at the exhibition grounds everything is ready for the reception of the large exhibit. Entries will close this evening.

Bissett will be present to receive donations of clothing, food, etc., or to give out supplies to any who may apply.

EGGS BECOME MORE PLENTIFUL

Record Attendance at Market Saturday—Christmas Market to Be Held Day Before Festival.

Eggs were more plentiful on the public market on Saturday than they have been for some time, but the demand was heavy and they were not long in being taken up. There was probably the largest attendance at the market since its inception and fresh vegetables were a much sought commodity. Potatoes were scarce on Saturday, as were also apples. As had been predicted by those interested there was an abundance of meat and chickens, but practically everything in this line was sold out by 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Ducks were scarce.

Home cooking which is for sale on the market is said to become more popular with each session of the institution and the patronage of the refreshment booth is on the increase.

Thursday, Dec. 24, has been set aside as Christmas market day and many of the ranchers on Saturday announced their intention of preparing for that day. Among Saturday's quotations were:

Beets, per lb., 2c; carrots, per lb., 2c; onions, per lb., 3c; cabbage, per lb., 2c; parsnips, per lb., 2c; turnips, per lb., 2c; potatoes, per sack, $1.75 to $2; kale, each, 5c; cauliflowers, each, 10c to 20c; celery, per bunch, 10c, 4 bunches for 25c; beef, fresh, per lb., 7c to 18c; pork, fresh, per lb., 10c to 17c; veal, fresh, per lb., 15c to 20c; chickens, dressed and drawn, per lb., 25c; chickens, dressed, per lb., 25c; fowls, dressed, per lb., 20c to 22c; ducks, dressed, per lb., 25c; chickens, live, each, 40c to 75c; hens, live, 50c to 75c; rabbits, per lb., 25c; butter, per lb., 40c to 45c; eggs, per doz., 65c to 70c; cider, per gal., 75c; apples, fall, per box, 75c to $1.25; apples, winter, per box, $1 to $1.50; bread, per loaf, 10c, 3 loaves for 25c; bread, brown, per loaf, 10c, 3 loaves for 25c; bread, fruit, per loaf, 10c, 3 loaves for 25c; buns, per doz., 15c; tea biscuits, per doz., 15c; layer cakes, each, 35c; honey, per lb., 30c.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories, and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal sub divisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

KEEP FOOD FROM STARVING PEOPLE

People Hold Meetings at Which Proposals to Attack German Garrisons Are Discussed.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Nov. 29.—There is imminent danger that, driven desperate by hunger, the Belgians in some districts will attack the Germans in an effort to obtain food, according to a report received by Herbert Choover, chairman of the American relief commission, from a special commission doing work in Maestricht. The commissioner cites a statement made by a refugee which was confirmed by others, in which the Belgian says:

"In Berichem (two miles south of Antwerp) and in the neighboring villages there has been for some time no food available except what was got through the commission. In Berichem the Germans stored the food which they seized at Antwerp and which they said was being sent to Brussels. Consequently the people, while starving, see quantities of food within reach. Meetings are being held nightly where the chances of success in attacking the German garrison and taking possession of the food are seriously discussed."

In the suburbs of Antwerp the commissioners report, refugees declare there was a food famine. The inhabitants were dependent solely upon the commission's distribution and when the supply temporarily became exhausted privation at once ensued.

The conditions at Louvain are still worse. The people are actually starving and are living in ruins.

LOSES OTTAWA BILINGUAL CASE

were discharged peremptorily and new teachers were engaged. Regarding this the judgment says:

"The defendants have not been and are not conducting schools in their charge according to law. The resolutions of the board, purporting to delegate to the chairman the powers to discharge, select and engage teachers, were ultra vires and the notices to teachers in pursuance therewith were unwarranted and the agreement with these teachers was not terminated."

Justice Lennox finds that it is the statutory duty of the board to see that the schools are run according to the regulations of the department of education and that the board violated this obligation.

Some violations named are: The use of French for more than one hour a day without the consent of the chief inspector; employment of unqualified teachers; obstructing inspectors and preventing inspection of schools; wilful failure to keep the schools open during the time prescribed by law; employing unsatisfactory teachers and dismissing competent teachers.

Will Go to Highest Court.

MONTREAL, Nov. 29.—An Ottawa despatch says:

"The French members of the Ottawa separate school board intend to take their case to the privy council.

"'Judge Lennox declares regulation 17 to be intra vires,' said Dr. A. A. Freeland, one of the leaders of the French section. 'This judgment will be appealed and go to the privy council.

"'The latter part of the judgment, referring to the dismissal of teachers, is already under appeal, Judge Meredith having postponed its consideration until after judgment on the original judgment.'"

RUSSIAN FORCES CUT INTO THREE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VIENNA, Nov. 29, via Amsterdam and London.—An official Austrian report issued under date of Nov. 28 at noon says:

"The situation is unchanged.

"In Russian Poland yesterday it was generally quiet. Some weak Russian attacks were repulsed. Fighting in the Carpathians continues.

"In the southern war theatre (Servia) fighting continued yesterday on nearly the whole front.

"No important positions were taken by our troops."

Flee from Bukowina Capital.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BUCHAREST, Nov. 29—Advices received at the Rumanian capital from Mamornitza say:

"After a bombardment and attacks from the Russian troops the Austrian forces have abandoned precipitately Czernowitz, the capital of Bukowina fleeing in disorder toward Dornavatra with the Russians in pursuit.

"The Russian advance guard marched into Czernowitz at 2 p.m. Nov. 27. They met with an enthusiastic welcome from the Rumanian and Ruthenian people in the city."

Russians Attack with Bayonet.

VIENNA, Nov. 29, via London, 1:25 p.m.—An official announcement issued here says:

"On the southern front the enemy is offering stubborn resistance and is endeavoring to delay the advance by heavy counterattacks, comprising bayonet charges. On the eastern banks of the Kolubara our troops have again gained.

"Our troops, advancing beyond Valjevo and to the south have reached the heights east of the Lyck river and the line from Suvotor to Uzice."

Call Lodz Teuton Victory.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BERLIN, Nov. 29—After a few days of comparative pause in the operations the battle in western Poland is again in full progress.

Gen. Mackenzien's army, which has been marking time since its victory over the Russians at Lowicz on Nov. 24, has resumed the offensive in this region. The Russians, according to an official report, are attacking heavily but unsuccessfully the German right wing near Nowo Radomsko and Merathian.

The Tageblatt reminds its readers that such a pause by no means signifies that the troops are exhausted. Wise commanders, the paper says, often find it more advantageous after successes like these near Lodz, to devote a little time to rearranging their forces and bringing up additional ammunition, than to follow up the advantage immediately. The spectacle of an army storming and reforming at all speed as in the first phase of the western campaign is most inspiring to the spectator but a source of anxiety to the commander when the movement is so rapid as to interfere with the successful maintenance of communications.

Give Credit to Austrians.

There is no official reference to the Austrian allies who cover the southern end of the Silesian frontier, but Major Moraht, military critic of the Tageblatt, says he understands they are standing fast and defending the ground which they have won.

Major Moraht declares that much credit for the present favorable situation on the eastern front should be granted to the Austrians who withdrew from western Galicia to assist Gen. von Hindenburg.

The headquarters report says the situation on the western front is unchanged.

Montenegrins Victorious.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Nov. 29, 4:31 p.m.—A victory for the Montenegrin troops in their campaign against Austrian forces is reported in a despatch received today by the Havas agency from Cettinje, Montenegro. It is said that eight battalions of Austrians were repulsed by the Montenegrins near Vishgrad, Bosnia, and that the Austrians suffered heavy losses in killed, wounded and prisoners as well as in ammunition and supplies.

Claim Success in Carpathians

(Special to The Daily News.)

LONDON, Nov. 29, 3.19 a.m.—Reuter's correspondent in Vienna, telegraphing Sunday via Amsterdam, sends the following Austrian official statement issued Sunday:

"In the Carpathians Russian forces which had advanced to Homona were beaten and repulsed. We made 1,500 prisoners."

worn French troops endeavored to check the German reinforcements and were powerless so Gen. French sent fresh troops to prevent the enemy executing movements which would have given him access to channel ports.

Belgians Resist Gallantly.

Sir Douglas Haig, with the 1st army corps, was sent Oct. 19 to capture Bruges and drive the enemy back toward Ghent if possible. Meanwhile the Belgians entrenched themselves along the Ypres canal. Gen. French commends the valor of the Belgians who, he says, exhausted by weeks of continued fighting, maintained those positions gallantly.

Because of the overwhelming numbers of the Germans opposing them Gen. French says, he cajoined a defensive role by the three army corps located south of Ypres. While Gen. Haig made only a slight advance, Gen French says it was wonderful that he was able to advance at all, owing to the bad roads and the overwhelming number of Germans who made it impossible to carry out the original plan of moving on Bruges.

The fighting gradually became bayonet charges. Oct. 21 brought forth the hardest attack made on the first corps at Ypres and in the checking of which the Worcestershire regiment displayed great gallantry. This day marked the most critical period in the great battle, according to Gen. French, who says the recapture of the village of Cheluvelt through the rally of the Worcestershires was fraught with much consequence to the allies.

Indians Justify Reputation.

After referring to some battles in which the Indian troops took part, Gen. French says:

"Since their arrival in this country and their occupation of the line allotted to them I have been much impressed by the initiative and resources displayed by the Indian troops. Some of the ruses they have employed to deceive the enemy have been attended by the best results and have doubtless kept the superior forces in front of them at bay.

Our Indian sappers and miners have long enjoyed a high reputation for skill and resource. Without going into detail, I can confidently assert that throughout their work in this campaign they have fully justified that reputation.

"The general officer commanding the Indian army describes the conduct and bearing of these troops in strange and new surroundings to have been highly satisfactory and I am enabled from my own observations to fully corroborate this statement."

Attacked by Kaiser's Command

Gen. French goes on to say that, while the whole line continued to be heavily pressed, the enemy's principal efforts from Nov. 1 had been concentrated upon breaking through the line held by the 1st British and the 9th French corps and thus gaining possession of the town of Ypres. Three Bavarian and one German corps, in addition to other troops, were all directed against this northern line.

About Nov. 10, after several units of these corps had been completely shattered in futile attacks, General French continues, a division of Prussian guards, which had been operating in the vicinity of Arras, was moved up to this area with great speed and secrecy.

Documents found on dead officers, the report says, proved that the guard received the German emperor's special command to break through and succeed where their comrades of the line had failed.

They took the leading part in vigorous attacks made against the centre on Nov. 11 and 12, says Gen. French, but like their comrades, were repulsed with enormous casualties.

Gen. French pays high tribute to Sir Douglas Haig and his divisional and brigade commanders who, he says, held the line with marvelous tenacity and undaunted courage.

Brilliant Chapter in History.

The field marshal predicts that "their deeds during these days of stress will furnish some of the most brilliant chapters which will be found in the military history of our time."

High praise is paid the 3rd cavalry division under Major-Gen. Julian Byng, whose troops were repeatedly called on to restore situations at critical points and fill gaps in the line caused by the tremendous losses suffered.

Col. Gordon Chesney Wilson of the Royal Horse guards, Major the Hon. Hugh Dawnay of the 2nd Life guards and Brig.-Gen Fitzclarence of the Irish guards, who were killed, and Brig.-Gen. Earl Cavan, who "on many occasions were conspicuous for their skill, coolness and the courage with which they led their troops," are spoken of highly.

Of the flying corps, the report says:

"Every day new methods of employing them, both strategically and tactically, are discovered and put into practise."

Concerning the territorials who have been employed the field marshal says the conduct and bearing of these units under fire and the efficient manner in which they have carried out the duties assigned to them "has imbued me with the highest hope as to the value and the help of the territorial troops generally."
