GREEK CABINET RESIGNS WHEN KING OPPOSES WAR

People Want to Join Fight Against Turkey

NEUTRALITY IS ROYAL POLICY

Damage to Hellenic Interests Irreparable, Says Retiring Premier

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ATHENS, March 8, via London.—The Journal Patris, which is regarded as a Venizelos organ, gives the following account of the crisis in Greece which has resulted in the resignation of the cabinet whose policy of intervention is opposed by the king:

"During the second sitting of the crown council Venizelos proposed that only one division of troops had been sent to aid the allies against the Dardanelles, thus overruling the objections raised previously by the military staff that on military grounds it was not in the country's interest to join the allies.

"M. Venizelos then pointed out the danger to which Greece was exposed by the threatening descent of the Austro-German forces on the Balkans, adding that since no guarantee had been offered by Austria or Germany they would respect Greek interests Greece was obliged to join the allies, who had given such a promise. He said he was convinced that on the allies winning not only were the present possessions of Greece guaranteed and added that her interests would gain. M. Theotokis, former premier and minister of war, answered:

Pro-German Policy Obsolete.

"'I formedly advocated a pro-German policy, but now recognize that such a policy seems obsolete.'

"M. Rechallis, a former premier, then addressed the king as follows:

"'Your majesty knows well that I am an opponent of M. Venizelos. On this occasion, however, I am fully of his opinion and heartily congratulate him on the policy he wishes the country to pursue.'

"M. Venizelos further stated his belief that Bulgaria was ready to join the allies in an attack on Constantinople. The king nevertheless announced that, taking into consideration the present international position, he considered it not in the country's interest to abandon neutrality. Therefore he accepted the cabinet's resignation."

Injury Irreparable, Says Venizelos.

LONDON, March 7.—A Reuter despatch from Athens says that M. Venizelos, speaking in the chamber today, declared that he had advised King Constantine to send for Zaimes to form a new cabinet.

"M. Zaimes," the retiring premier added, "will follow the policy of neutrality and I hope that this policy will not endanger our newly acquired territory.

"Our party will refuse to support any government which may be formed. Besides, M. Zaimes if he forms a cabinet will not come before the chamber."

M. Venizelos told his supporters that the injury caused by the failure to adopt his policy was irreparable, says the correspondent. He advised them, however, to submit to the king's decision.

Cabinet at Athens Resigns.

PARIS, March 7.—A despatch to the Havas agency from Athens says:

"King Constantine has accepted the resignation of Premier Venizelos and his cabinet and has requested Alexander Zaimes, governor of the National bank and a former premier, to form a ministry.

"M. Zaimes has asked the king to give him until tomorrow to consult with his friends.

"The Turkish minister, Salih Bey, has declared openly during the last few days that massacres would take place in Turkey if Greece broke negotiations with the porte, while Count Mirbach, the German minister, informed the diplomatic corps that Austria and Germany would immediately declare war on Greece if it moved against Turkey."

Reuter's Athens correspondent in another despatch says a grand council of former Greek premiers, which was summoned by the king, was presided over by the king personally.

King Disapproved of Policy.

M. Venizelos and former Premiers Dragoumis, Theotokis and Rhallis and Gen. Bousmanis, chief of staff, attended. M. Venizelos explained at length the policy which his government thought it possible to carry out. M. Dragoumis and M. Rhallis also spoke.

The Athens correspondent of the Havas agency says the resignation of the cabinet of Premier Venizelos was brought about because the king did not approve of the government's policy regarding intervention in the war. He gives the following account:

"Premier Venizelos went to the palace at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon and remained with the king for more than 30 minutes. The chief of the

FRENCH TROOPS READY FOR TURKS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, March 7.—The ministry of war announces that on account of the situation in the Dardanelles, and in order to meet every eventuality the government has decided to concentrate in North Africa an expeditionary force which will be ready to put to sea at the first sign that it is needed and will be directed to the point where its presence is required.

TWO TO HANG FOR ONE MURDER

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WINNIPEG, March 7.—J. G. Kuzin was on Saturday sentenced to hang on June 9 for the murder of Mike Kuczick on a train in Selkirk some months ago. A. Malakoff, already sentenced to death for the same murder, was a witness in the trial.

DYNAMITER HORN ON ANOTHER CHARGE

United States Federal Authorities Charge German With Illegal Transportation of Explosives.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

MACHIAS, Me., March 7.—Werner Horn, the German reservist who attempted to blow up the international bridge at Vanceboro early last month and asserted that he did so as "an act of war" against Great Britain, became a federal prisoner tonight. He will be taken to Bangor tomorrow for arraignment on indictments charging illegal transportation of explosives from New York to Vanceboro, returned by a federal grand jury in Boston.

Horn has just finished a sentence of 30 days in the Washington county jail here on account of property damage in Vanceboro caused by the explosion at the Canadian end of the bridge. He will have a hearing in Bangor tomorrow.

Proceedings for the extradition of Horn to Canada, on the charge of attempting to blow up the bridge, which were instituted in Portland on behalf of the Canadian government, will be delayed until the federal indictment has been disposed of.

ELECTION COMING IN THIS PROVINCE

House at Victoria Will Be Dissolved Today

SIR RICHARD M'BRIDE MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

Date and Cabinet Changes to Be Given Out in Day or Two

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VICTORIA, B. C., March 7.—At the prorogation of the provincial legislature at Victoria Saturday Sir Richard McBride announced that the house would be dissolved on Monday. He said that within a day or two he would announce the date of a new election and possibly some minor changes in the cabinet. It is expected that the election will occur in April.

Hon. Price Ellison, who is quite aged and may soon be appointed a senator, will probably drop out of the cabinet.

No selection has yet been made for minister of finance and agriculture.

THOUSAND SHELLS TO WOUND ONE RUSSIAN

Austrians Expend Much Ammunition at Przemysl—Violent Fire is Directed Against Aeroplanes.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PETROGRAD, March 7, via London.—The ollowing statement was issued Saturday:

"The garrison at Przemysl no longer is attempting sorties, but the fortress artillery is developing great activity and firing an enormous quantity of heavy shells. The fire, however, is quite harmless.

"A thousand heavy shells from the fortress have only wounded one man.

"The Austrians are directing a particularly violent fire against our aeroplanes, which fly over the fortress almost daily. We brought down on March 5 a German albatross machine at the station of Zokolka and captured the aviators.

"As the Germans require Russian prisoners from whom they may obtain information concerning locations of our forces on the north bank of the Vistula, they are offering a reward of $25 for each Russian soldier captured. On March 5 we captured a German lieutenant with a party of volunteers who were out seeking Russian prisoners."

PORTUGUESE MINISTER OUT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, March 7.—A Lisbon despatch to the Havas agency says the minister of finance in the Portuguese cabinet has resigned and that the minister of foreign affairs has taken over his department.

BISHOP FALLON DENIES JUDGMENT

Asserts Father Beaudoin Was Not Awarded Any Sum Against Him, As Was Alleged

MONTREAL, March 7.—Right Rev. Mr. Fallon of London has denied categorically an article despatched from Montreal on Feb. 19 in which it was alleged that his lordship must pay off an indemnity of $7,000 stated to have been awarded by Rome to Rev. Father L. A. Beaudoin, parish priest of Notre Dame du Lac, Walkerville, Ont. The award was said to be the result of an action taken by the parish priest against the bishop because the latter had taken part of Father Beaudoin's parish and added to another the detached district containing a school on which the parish priest had spent $12,000 to $14,000.

Bishop Fallon says the story is false and without foundation and that Father Beaudoin was not awarded judgment of $7,000 or any other sum against himself.

GAIN GROUND TO NORTH OF ARRAS

German Losses Important, French Declare

CAPTURE OF BRITISH TRENCH IS CLAIMED

Allies make Progress in Vosges, Repulse Enemy's Attacks

PARIS, March 7.—The following official statement was issued today:

"We continued to gain ground to the north of Arras. In the region of Notre Dame de Lorette, where our counter-attacks resulted in the seizure of several trenches, the enemy's losses were important.

"In Champagne we progressed slightly north of Perthes and northwest of Beausjour.

"In the Vosges we captured successively west of Munster two summits of little and great Reich Ackerkopf. The enemy twice counter-attacked from Mulbach and Saint Ollafwehr, that is, from the south and the north. These attacks were completely repulsed. Moreover on the right bank of the Fecht river we took Imberg, southeast of Fultzern. This success was completed further north by the capture of Hill 865, south of Hautesliuttes. Finally at Hartmansweiler we repulsed a counter-attack by a German battalion which lost heavily and left many prisoners in our hnds.

"In Belgium in the dunes our artillery has executed effective firing on the heavy batteries of Westende. In Champagne in the ravine to the northwest of Beausjour a German counter-attack has been repulsed. Rain, which has fallen all day has caused a slackening in the operations."

German Attacks Near Arras Fail.

PARIS, March 7, 11:40 p.m.—The following official statement was issued this evening:

"To the north of Arras, at Notre Dame Lorette, the Germans attempted a counter-attack which did not succeed. Subsequently they delivered another attack which also failed.

"In Champagne, to the west of Perthes, we gained a footing in a strongly fortified wood, capturing prisoners to the north of the same village.

"We repulsed a counter-attack on the ridge to the northeast of Le Mesnil. Ground was gained and we carried another trench to the north of Beausjour.

Make Progress in Vosges.

GENEVA, March 7.—Count Zeppelin arrived at Friederichshaven Saturday to hasten the completion of two zeppelin balloons which are now building. One of them will be ready in a few days, it is stated.

It is confirmed that one zeppelin was destroyed and another badly damaged at Cologne during a windstorm which blew down the balloon sheds.

FIRE IS CONTROLLED ON FRENCH STEAMER

Liners Hurry to Aid of La Touraine—Blaze Less Serious Than Feared

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, March 7.—Fire which threatened the French steamship La Touraine has been brought under control and all passengers are safe on board, according to a formal announcement issued at noon today by the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, owner of the La Touraine. The vessel is proceeding under her own steam to Havre, her destination, and is expected to arrive there tomorrow night.

Only the Rotterdam, which responded to Captain Caussin's wireless call for aid, is standing by as a measure of precaution to give assistance. Commanders of other vessels which speeded to the rescue have been informed that their services will not be required.

The statement given out by the company said:

"The fire which broke out aboard the La Touraine was less serious than was at first thought. The fire is under control and all passengers safe.

"The La Touraine has resumed her voyage to Havre under her own steam, but, nevertheless, for further security, she is being escorted by the Rotterdam and probably will arrive at Havre Monday evening."

According to officials of the company they have not been informed what caused the fire. They assert, however, that the flames were confined to one of the departments in the hold. It was feared for a time that it might be necessary to transfer the passengers to another ship to avoid danger, but this plan evidently was abandoned when it was seen the blaze was being mastered.

HEAVILY ARMED INNER FORTS OF DARDANELLES HARD TO REDUCE

Fifteen-Inch Guns of Queen Elizabeth Are Trained on Strong Defenses on Asiatic Side, After Having Damaged Those on European Shore

SULTAN WANTS TO STAY AT CONSTANTINOPLE GERMAN OFFICERS ARE TO CONDUCT DEFENSE

Populace Grows Alarmed, Disbelieving Government Stories--Foreigners in Danger--British Ships Shell Smyrna, Hit Forts--Marines Suffer Losses in Fight With Turks on Land

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 7.—The allied fleet continues the bombardment of the forts of the Dardanelles, the forcing of which would make such great changes in the Near East—changes which it is considered none of the Balkan states, and least of all Greece, can afford to treat slightingly.

Having damaged two of the forts on the European side of the narrows previously the British battleship Queen Elizabeth and others of the allied warships Saturday started a bombardment by indirect fire on the forts on the Asiatic side of the narrows. As had been expected these forts are proving hard nuts to crack. In addition the Turkish army with modern German guns is concentrating on the Gallipoli peninsula to oppose any landing and, until it is disposed of, naval experts declare ships will not be safe in the straits.

Germans to Defend Constantinople.

"According to the latest advices received here," says a Reuter despatch from Sofia "the sultan and the government are still in Constantinople. The government is prepared to cross to Asia Minor at any moment but the sultan is in favor of remaining at the capital.

"It is understood that it has been decided to entrust the defense of Constantinople exclusively to the Germans under Commander Gen. Lyman von Sanders, the instructor of the Turkish army, while Bedri Bey, the prefect of police, will be entrusted with the general control of the city, with power equivalent to that of a viceroy.

"Measures of precaution already have been adopted to prevent the capture of the city. It is reported that all the troops at Adrianople and Demotika have been hurriedly despatched to the Gallipoli peninsula."

Telegraphing from Cairo the Mail's correspondent says:

'During the retreat of the Turks after the recent Suez operations the German officers had an open conflict with their allies and 3000 of the allies were killed in a single fray near Jerusalem.."

People Afraid; Massacre Talked of.

The Mail's correspondent at Sofia sends the following:

'Refugees from Constantinople indicate that the populace is alarmed by the allied attempts on the Dardanelles and refuse to believe the government's assurances of safety in Constantinople, which is crowded with refugees from the Marmora coast. The authorities are suspicious of all foreigners and Christians, even Germans being in a precarious position.

"The authorities are seizing all the gold in the possession of individuals, firms and banks. There is fear of a massacre. The vicinity of Constantinople is being constantly strengthened with trenches and fortifications."

Reach Marmora in Two Weeks.

An Athens despatch to the Chronicle says:

"Bombardment of the Dardanelles forts proceeds with success but with caution. It is now hoped that within two weeks the allied fleet will be in the sea of Marmora and Constantinople will quickly follow.

"In the first place the number of mines laid in the straits is enormous. They must all be picked up and the work takes time. The Turks seem to have learned a lesson from the Germans, for they are using floating mines to be floated out to sea.

"These swirl around the capes at the mouth of the straits. Some of them have been picked up as far away as Tenedos island. Secondly the larger Turkish batteries are still fully hidden and it is necessary to knock out each gun individually.

"The latest advices are that something like 50 guns have been destroyed already."

This was the first of a series of meetings to be held with the object of carrying the school case to the high courts.

BERLIN HEARS MANY SUBMARINES SUNK

More Than Seven German Plungers Lost Since Beginning of Paper Blockade of Britain

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 7.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Amsterdam says:

"A correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt declares that since the beginning of the blockade seven British merchantment have been sunk but admits that according to news received in Berlin from neutral sources more than seven German submarines have been sunk during the same period."

The German admiralty, the Exchange correspondent says, publishes no information concerning the loss of submarines.

AUSTRIA MAY CEDE TERRITORY TO ITALY

Rome Expected to Press Demands Insistently—No Negotiations Begun, So Far as Known.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

BERLIN, March 7, via London.—The Italian situation is occupying the attention of serious-minded men. Newspapers, including the Koelnische Zeitung, the Frankfurter Zeitung and Lokal Anzeiger, give prominence to long despatches from Rome which dwell upon the insistence with which Italy is apt to press demands for territorial compensation for possible Austrian gains in the Balkans. These despatches also emphasize the extent of popular feeling on this subject which is expected to find expression in the policy of the government.

So far as can be ascertained no negotiations have been begun.

The attitude of Austria in case such demands are made is problematical. A few weeks ago it seemed as if any suggestion along this line would be met with a flat refusal to cede an inch of Austrian territory, no matter by what euphonious phrase, such as "frontier regulation," it might be designated. At the present time, however, there are signs that Austria is more inclined to enter into the discussion provided the Italian proposals are not presented in too brusque a form.

RUMANIA MAY BE PLACED IN SIEGE STATE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 8.—A despatch to the Telegraph from Bucharest says the Rumanian parliament has passed a law empowering the government to proclaim a state of siege until the end of the war, if such a step should be necessary.

ATTACK ON TURKEY CONCERNS ITALY

Rome Newspaper Representing Majority in Government Gives Reasons for Intervention.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

ROME, March 7, via Paris—The Giornale d'Italia which, although it is not the official government organ, represents the political majority supporting the cabinet, in an editorial argues that it will be difficult for Italy longer to remain neutral, declaring that the attack of the allied fleet on the Dardanelles has brought up three great problems affecting Italian interests.

"The first of these problems," the paper says, "is the plan to allow Russia access to the Mediterranean through the Dardanelles; the second concerns the equilibrium of the Balkans and the third the partition of Asiatic Turkey, which affects the equilibrium of the eastern Mediterranean.

"It is impossible for Italy to keep out of the solution of such problems, unless it is satisfied to see not only the powers of the triple entente settle these affairs according to their interests but also the small but audacious and resolute nation, Greece."

GERMANS LAUNCH FRESH ATTACK SOUTH OF WARSAW

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 7.—Russia still has another battle on its hands. While it is declared to be pressing its offensive in north Poland and eastern Galicia and holding up the Austrians in the Carpathians, the Germans have launched an attack in the region of the Pilica river, to the south of Warsaw, where a big battle is developing.

In north Poland the Russians declare they are still forcing back the Germans but Berlin asserts that the operations there are proceeding "according to our plans."

In the Rawa region Berlin says that 5,400 prisoners and 18 machine guns were taken from the Russians.

In the Carpathian region brisk fighting continues, with victories chronicled by both the Russian and Austrian war offices.

Extremely heavy snowstorms in the Carpathians have stopped military operations completely, even where the opposing lines are in close contact, says a Venice despatch to Reuter's. The Austro-Hungarian troops are reported to be suffering severely because of the sudden change in weather for the reason that many of them are without supplies owing to the fact that their lines of communication have been cut off by the snow.

Push Russ Offensive

PETROGRAD, March 7, via London.—The Russian war office issued the following statement tonight:

"Our offensive continues on the left bank of the Niemen and in the district north of Grodno. Our troops drove the Germans back behind the front of Sopotskin-Lypskov and then pushed on vigorous'y.

"In a similar manner the Mlawa attacks were crowned with success. We took about 500 prisoners, including seven officers and three machine guns.

"On the left bank of the Vistula, in the region of the Pilica, the fighting is assuming the character of a great battle.

"In the Carpathians, between the Ondawa and San rivers, the Austrian attacks continue. Southwest of Tutowisko the enemy tried to cross to the right bank of the San, but in a counter-attack Saturday night the Austrian units which had succeeded in crossing the river were annihilated."

BRITISH-INDIAN TROOPS WHIP TURKS HAND-TO-HAND

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 8.—British troops occupying the head of the Persian gulf located two Turkish forces accompanied by hostile tribesmen during the past week and in the fighting which followed heavy casualties were inflicted on the Turks and their allies, while the British also suffered heavily, according to a report of the fighting issued last night by the Marquis of Crewe, secretary of state for India. The statement says:

"For some time it had been known that about two or three regiments of Turkish troops, together with Turkish Beni Tam tribesmen from Amara (on the Tigris river), with contingents of Persian tribesmen and other disaffected tribesmen hostile to the sheik of Mohammerah, had been collecting west of Ahwaz (in Khuzistan) and the Ahwuz garrison was despatched on a reconnaisance in force to ascertain their numbers and disposition.

"On March 3 the enemy, which had been located at Ghadir, and which apparently had been further reinforced the previous day, turned out in great strength. Its number was estimated at about 12,000. In the course of our withdrawal the enemy made repeated and determined to cut off the reconnoitering party.

Hand to Hand Fights Bloody

"Several hand to hand encounters took place, in which the attackers were successfully held at bay while our party made good its retirement. From reports received and supported by the absence of all further activity it appears that the enemy lost no less than from 200 to 300 killed, including brothers of the sheik of the Beni Turefs, besides from 500 to 600 wounded. Our casualties were: British officers: killed 5 ,wounded 3; British rank and file, killed 1, wounded 5; Indian officers, killed 1, wounded 4; Indian rank and file, killed 55, wounded 115.

"On the same date a cavalry reconnaisance was made in the direction of Nakala, about 25 miles northwest of Basia, on the Persian gulf. The reconnoiterers on returning to camp were followed by a body of some 1,500 hostile horsemen. This enemy force was skilfully drawn on to a concealed position occupied by infantry with machine guns and field artillery. The enemy fled back to Nakala after suffering heavily. Our losses in this fighting were: British officers, killed 4, wounded 2; Indian officers, killed 2, rank and file killed 4."

FIRED ON HOSPITAL SHIP BY MISTAKE

German Government Says Submarine Commander Thought Asturias Was Troop Transport.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The German embassy issued last night the following explanation of the recent attack on the British hospital ship Asturias:

"Government sorry to admit British ship Asturias was attacked on Feb. 1, 5:05 p.m. Coming up, in the twilight carrying lights as prescribed for ordinary vessels, ship was taken for transport conveying troops. Distinctive marks showing character of ship not being illuminated were only recognized after shot had been fired. Fortunately, torpedo failed to explode. The moment ship was recognized as hospital ship every attempt at further attack immediately was given up."

The statement, signed by the German ambassador and in quotations as shown, has the appearance of a cablegram which had been filled out on translation form code. No comment on the statement was obtainable.

The Asturias was about 15 miles northeast of Havre, France, when it was attacked on Feb. 1. Press reports said the vessel's commander saw the torpedo fired by a submarine and succeeded in evading it.

of Verdun, we repulsed counter-attacks.

"In the Vosges we made progress on the flanks of the Reich Ackerkopf and took prisoners at Hartmannweiler. Here we repulsed four counter-attacks.

"Despite vigorous and well planned attacks, the Germans were repulsed for the fourth time before a blockhouse in the Le Pretre woods.

"An attack on March 4, in which, under cover of artillery fire, the Germans sought to take the position by a hand to hand encounter was unsuccessful."

Capture British Trench.

BERLIN, March 7.—A statement issued today by the German general staff says:

"On March 7 in the western theatre of war, southeast of Ypres, we made a counter-attack and captured an English trench. An attempt by the French to take the conquered positions on Lorette heights failed. We took 50 French prisoners.

"In the Champagne district the French continued their attacks near Perthes and Le Mesnil but were repulsed.

"Near Perthes we captured five officers and 40 French soldiers.

"In a counter attack we occupied the small wood north of Perthes and the Piro trench of their positions near Le Mesnil.

"The French attacks against our positions near Vauquois and east of Badonvillers and northeast of Celles were unsuccessful."

LAUNCH FRESH ATTACK SOUTH OF WARSAW

p.m.—The following official statement was issued today:

"In Poland yesterday fighting occurred in limited areas.

"The Russians were compelled by our artillery to evacuate advanced positions in the Carpathians, where at several points fighting continues. The Russians have suffered considerable losses by night attacks which were all repulsed. Five officers and 75 men were captured in one of these attacks.

"In northeast Galicia calm prevails."

Germans Collect Booty.

BERLIN, March 7.—The general staff reports:

"In the eastern theatre of war our entire war booty in the forest district northwest of Grodno and around Augustowo has been collected in spite of the energetic Russian counter-attacks.

"Our troops which were employed in this task are now at our disposal for other positions. There is nothing of importance to report from around Grodno and near Lomza.

"Northeast of Przasnyrz a Russian attack broke down with severe loss to the enemy. Northwest of Plonsk a Russian attack was also repulsed.

"South of the Vistula there is nothing important to report."

Austrian Fire Called Effective.

VIENNA, March 7 via London.—The war office issued the following statement Saturday:

"Attacks by the Russians on sections of our line east of Piotrkow, in Poland, were foiled by our effective artillery fire.

"There is no other news either on this front or in western Galicia.

"In the Carpathians fighting continues for some ridge positions. Unfavorable weather conditions prevail.

"In southeast Galicia temporary quietness has set in after recent attacks."

RESIGNS WHEN KING OPPOSES WAR

general staff of the army and the principal officers were also at the palace to give their advice if necessary.

Returning to his residence the premier notified the ministers of the resolution of the king. The ministers then went to the chamber of deputies, where the premier accepted the resignation of his cabinet. News of this action caused excitement in diplomatic circles, where it was a surprise.

"Yesterday Premier Venizelos, on receiving the foreign ministers, announced to them that he would resign if his actions did not receive the approval of the king."

Crowd Acclaims King.

Concerning other events which took place yesterday prior to the resignation of the cabinet, the correspondent says:

"Yesterday morning when the king, accompanied by Premier Venizelos, left the cathedral where a te deum was sung on the anniversary of the taking of Janina, they both were acclaimed by the crowds. This manifestation was interpreted as indicating the perfect accord of the nation, in pursuance of its traditions. The newspaper La Patsis in this respect says:

"'The Greek people who have a real admiration for their king have no doubt he will safeguard the rights of the nation and will lead them to the way of victory.'

"Salih Bey, the Turkish minister, visited Premier Venizelos this afternoon."

Intervention Considered Certain.

All the Greek army officers in Switzerland were recalled Saturday. Other Greeks of a military age must present themselves at the offices of the consul-general in Geneva before March 11. The opinion is expressed by many here that there is to be a general mobilization of the Greek army.

A despatch to the Havas agency from Athens says the newspapers there consider as certain the intervention of Greece in the European conflict. Several opinions are expressed with regard to the extent of Greece's co-operation with the allies.

Students Favor Intervention.

LONDON, March 8.—The Exchange Telegraph's Athens correspondent says that the university students in the Greek capital made a demonstration today in favor of immediate action by Greece. The legations of the triple entente powers were visited by students and cheered.

The same correspondent says the Greek press in its comment on the operations against the Dardanelles has declared itself in favor of Greece's participation in the war, taking the ground that no breaking up of the Ottoman empire should be permitted to take place without the collaboration of the Hellenic troops.

What Will Greece Do?

LONDON, March 8.—The crisis in Greece is commented on today by the principal Paris papers, although the announcement concerning the situation was received here late.

"What will Greece do?" naturally is the principal question asked and there is much speculation as to its probable plans. Some of the papers declare that the crisis exceeds in proportion the mere change in the ministry.

COTTON VALUED AT $200,000 BURNED AT GALVESTON

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

GALVESTON, Tex., March 7.—Approximately $200,000 worth of baled cotton was threatened in a fire which broke out here shortly after 1 o'clock this morning.

At 2 a.m. the entire city fire department was fighting the flames in the face of a stiff northwest wind.

At 2:20 a.m. the fire was under control. It was estimated that the loss would total $200,000, fully covered by insurance.

principal forts upon the European side of the narrows in the Dardanelles.

Two of the forts were damaged and the magazine of a third was blown up. These forts guard the narrow part of the straits from the European side and are believed to be the strongest along the entire waterway, although those on the opposite side of the narrows almost equal them.

One of these forts, marked on the admiralty maps as L, is armed with two 14-inch guns that could hardly reach the Queen Elizabeth, which fired 29 rounds from its 15-inch guns by indirect fire and had the advantage of aeroplanes to direct its gunners.

The other two forts are armed with three 11-inch guns and some smaller cannon.

Marines in Clash on Land.

Meantime lighter cruisers continue attacks on the fortifications along the coast of Asia Minor from Besika, which is near the entrance to the Dardanelles, to Smyrna. This was doubtless to prevent reinforcements being sent to the straits, where there are already a large number of Turkish troops with whom the marines who were landed to complete the destruction of forts at the entrance to the straits have been in contact.

It was in this land fighting that the allies suffered casualties, according to the British, of whom 19 were killed and 25 wounded, with three missing. The Turks, however, place the British losses at a higher figure.

Smyrna Forts Damaged.

Saturday night's official despatch from the admiralty disclosed that the East India fleet, under Vice Admiral Sir Richard Pierce, who is flying his flag on the Euryalus, has joined the allied fleet and that he undertook the bombardment of the fortifications of Smyrna, which were seriously damaged.

On Wednesday the ships continued the bombardment of Fort Dardanus on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles. Destroyers and mine sweepers are pursuing the work of clearing the outer straits of mines. French ships are keeping up a bombardment from the Gulf of Saros.

The report said:

"Our fire was confined to Forts Rumilieh, Majidch, Uamideh, No. 2 and Hamazich, which are armed as follows: Fort J, two 11-inch guns, four 9.4-inch guns, five 3.4-inch guns; Fort L., two 14-inch; Fort T., one 1-inch, one 11.2-inch; one 11.4-inch; three 8.2-inch and three 5.9-inch.

"The Queen Elizabeth fired 29 rounds with satisfactory results. The magazines in Fort L which blew up, is an important fort, armed with the best and heaviest guns. The other two forts were damaged.

Smyrna Forts Hit 32 Times.

"The fire of the Inflexible and Prince George were observed from inside the Dardanelles by the Irresistible, Canopus, Cornwallis and Albion. Although these vessels were much fired on by concealed guns they were not hit. The Sapphire again fired on troops in the neighborhood of the Gulf of Adramiti and destroyed a military station at Tuzburne.

"On March 5 the commander in chief of the East Indian squadron Vice-Admiral Sir Richard Pierce arrived with a battleship and cruiser squadron off Smyrna. A methodical bombardment of Fort Yonikala was carried out during the afternoon for two hours under favorable weather conditions. Thirty-two hits were recorded inflicting considerable damage on the fort and there were two heavy explosions apparently magazines.

Bombardment at closer range has now begun weather conditions being good.

"Reduction of the Smyrna defenses is an incident in the main operations."

Bombardment Continues.

PARIS, March 7, via London.—The bombardment of the Dardanelles fortifications was continued Saturday by the allied fleet, according to an official statement issued tonight. The statement says:

"The British battleship Queen Elizabeth, posted in the Gulf of Saros, bombarded by indirect fire two big works in the Gulf of Saros, alongside of Chanak and the straits, Forts Hamidieh and Sultanieh.

"At the same time cruisers inside the Dardanelles continues a direct fire against the works at Dardanus on the Aisiatic side, and Souain Dere, on the European side."

Magazine Is Exploded.

An earlier official statement from the ministry of marine says:

"At the Dardanelles during the day of March 5 three cruisers stationed in the Gulf of Saros bombarded by indirect fire across the Gallipoli peninsula the Turkish forts at Kilid-Bahr, which guards the European coast of the narrow straight between that point and Chanak.

"The fire was directed by four vessels stationed at the entrance to the Dardanneles. The result of the bombardment was satisfactory.

"The magazine of one of the forts exploded. None of the vessels was damaged.

"During the day of March 5 three vessels of the allied fleet bombarded from a great distance the fort at Yeni Kale at the entrance of the Gulf of Smyrna, which was seriously injured and was unable to reply."

British Ships Undamaged.

PARIS, March 7.—The Athens correspondent of the Havas agency, in a despatch dealing with the bombardment of the forts at Smyrna, which was commenced by a British squadron Friday, says that the ships opened a hot fire on the Turkish batteries situated on the Mount Dyo Alphi. He adds that "the damages" are unknown as yet.

The five mine sweepers which were working in the Gulf of Smyrna, he says, five steamers, four Grecian and one Dutch, hastily left the port of Smyrna.

News from the island of Chios says that two English dreadnoughts, two submarines and one cruiser arrived today at Bryoula (Vulra). The Smyrna forts opened fire during the afternoon but the British ships were undamaged.

No Damage, Turks Assert.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 7, via London—Bombardment of the forts on the Smyrna coast by the allied fleet Saturday was without result, according to an official communication issued today, which says:

"Two enemy warships bombarded the forts on the Smyrna coast for three hours yesterday without result.

"At 8 a.m. one French and three British warships, accompanied by three large mine sweepers, again bombarded Smyrna forts for one and a half hours. Several shells fired by our batteries struck the warships which had been the first to open fire. One mine sweeper was sunk.

"Two airmen who flew across the Gulf of Saros fell into the sea. The aeroplane disappeared into the water.

"Our casualties yesterday and today were four killed and seven wounded.

"The enemy's fleet undertook no serious action against the Dardanelles yesterday or today."

AMSTERDAM, March 7, via London.—A despatch from Constantinople says that a British cruiser yesterday appeared before Dikeli off Mytilene (off th coast of Asia Minor) and fired eight shots without result.

DISPELLING ILLUSIONS ABOUT KITCHENER

One of the tests of a great man is that he inspires legends. We hear about Washington and his inability to produce an alibi in reference to the cherry tree, about Lincoln and his inveterate habit of telling funny stories and what is more to the point about Kitchener's unsmiling sternness, says the Toronto Mail and Empire. At the time of the South African campaign a writer of nonsense verse asked a correspondent who knew Kitchener what would be the most preposterous thing that could be associated with him. The answer was "laughter." The idea is that Kitchener never laughs. For this we are indebted chiefly to George W. Steevens, the brilliant newspaperman who wrote "With Kitchener to Khartum." He invented the Kitchener myth—the stern, silent man of destiny, who plays the war game as others play chess. Then we had a cketch from T. P. O'Connor which revealed some of the more human and likeable attributes of the secretary of war. Later still, we had Irvin Cobb, the humorist, who accidentally wrote the most humorous thing in his career when he represented the war lord as panting for information about the German army which only Cobb was able to give.

The Kitchener Legend.

The latest contribution to the literature of the subject is Harold Begbie whose book "Kitchener, Organizer of Victory" has been published within the last few days. Mr. Begbie is known as the author of "Twice Born Men" and also for the verses displayed in the street cars to the effect that when the troops return from slaughter and the ships come home from war every hero shall be welcomed, every orphan shall be fed by the man who continues to carry on business as usual. Begbie's work is important chiefly because it undertakes to dispel some illusions about Kitchener. He does not view the secretary of war as a demigod and the rather slighting things he says will be forgiven because he predicts that given time Kitchener can and will do anything that is expected of him. Interesting as is his study of Kitchener we have the idea that it is too late and that the fabulous qualities with which he has been invested will cling to him as long as he lives and even as long as he is remembered in history.

The Bulldog.

According to Mr. Begbie the chief quality of Kitchener is not his machine like precision but his tenacity. He is the bulldog that is beaten but does not know it and consequently never quits. This tenacity is, however, little more than the obstinacy of a very slow and laborious mind. Begbie denies Kitchener the slightest gleam of genius. He is even unconscious of his own dulness. He is not bloodless. He is not a woman hater. The fact that he is unmarried is adequately explained when it is known that he proposed to the woman of his heart and was refused. He is no machine. On the contrary he has been the life of more than one house party. He has three hobbies, architecture, gardening and collecting. He is shy and silent. He is not spectacular. He has an abhorrence of red tape, but his biographer doubts if he has succeeded in abolishing it from the British war office. He is not a great general nor a great statesman. In Egypt it is said that he was known in some circles as "K of Chaos."

The Capacity of Taking Pains.

Nevertheless, Kitchener is a success. He has achieved "great and enormous victories" by incessant, slow and unsparing labor. An American once described him as "silence and work and silence—and then the end." This is accurate in the opinion of Mr. Begbie. In the present war the biographer says it would be difficult to point to a single great achievement by Kitchener. His chief contribution is that of his legendary personality. But in the same breath he points to a great achievement. Kitchener stood like a rock against the popular clamor to hurry untrained troops to France. He would not let the men go until they were trained and Begbie believes that the new armies will be a sufficient answer to his critics. "With his dogged and unswerving passion for absolute efficiency" he will probably send some astonishingly fine men to the firing line. He does not get anywhere for a long time, but "when he arrives, the man on the spot knows immediately why he has come."

Kitchener's Eyes.

One illusion which Begbie does not attempt to dispel is that concerning Kitchener's eyes. In the Khartum campaign a private said they were like the day of judgment. Another observer said "They strike you with a clutching terror; you look at them, try to say something and look away; and then, trying to speak, find your eyes returning to that dreadful gaze and once more choke with silence." There is an element of Prussianism in his character. He announces that he will inspect a certain bridge on a certain day, and if the engineer says he is doubtful if the bridge can be completed Kitchener merely says that he will be ready to inspect it. The result is that he has the bridge to inspect. He is not lavish of praise to those who serve him well. He merely asks that they shall serve him still better. Given time Kitchener can do anything. He is a real "organizer of victory" and the present war will add still more laurels to those he now wears.

BISHOP GIVES FIRST MESSAGE TO DIOCESE

Co-Operation of Churchmen of District Asked on Occasion of Initial Sermons in Nelson

"Let us be bound as brethren, priests and people by love. Let us be united in effort and in service to advance the kingdom of God and prepare the way for the coming of the Son of God in power and great glory." This was the first message of Right Rev. A. J. Doull, first bishop of Kootenay, to the churchmen of his diocese at the morning service at St. Saviour's church yesterday.

The bishop reached the city on Saturday night and yesterday he preached for the first time in the diocese since his consecration as bishop. The magnificent pastoral staff, symbolical of office, which was presented to him by the diocese of Kootenay upon his consecration, was carried by his chaplain, Rev. Fred H. Graham of St. Saviour's church. At the morning service the church was crowded, while at the evening service many were turned away, the church, long before the hour for the commencement of the service being filled to its capacity. Archdeacon Beer of Kaslo also assisted at the services.

His second message at the evening service took the form of an appeal to the churchmen of his diocese to assist in the work of reaching a universal peace which could only be obtained through God. Peace came, he said, when sin was destroyed. God was the only one who could overcome sin and he could only overcome it through his people, who must by godliness and sanctity drive sin from the world.

Bishop Doull took as the text of his morning sermon Ephesians 5:1. It was his first message to the church people of his diocese, to his own flock over whom the Holy Ghost had made him overseer. He, in his official position, could do nothing without God, which meant that he would be unsuccessful in his work without his people, who were the manifestation of God. "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children and walk in love."

This was a tremendous thought—"Be ye followers of God"—it brought all at once to the incarnation—to the realization that "We as human beings could not be followers of God unless he had revealed Himself in human form—unless he had become a man."

The incarnation, he said, was the basis and pivot of the religion of his church people as regards both faith and practise. Theirs was the old faith. It was the faith that he and they must believe and preach. "God as our father," he continued, "was revealed in God the Son, who redeemed us from sin and left us an example." The bishop urged, "that God's steps should be followed by the power of the Holy Ghost who sanctifies us through the church by means of the sacraments and the sacrimental ordinances whereby sin is forgiven and we are made partaken of the divine nature and able to live the life and do the work Christ would have us live and do."

This was the faith which had been received and must be preached by word and by example, but chiefly by example. Men were fellow workers with God, were members of Christ and Christ was the saviour of the world, but through men. Men in their lives should commend Christ, should be followers of Him who was and is God manifest in flesh.

For that reason Chrstians should walk in love. "Love," stated the bishop, "was the keynote of His life; love must be the keynote of your life." It should not be a sentimental or emotional love but a love manifesting itself by giving. Each must realize that God loved him, that God had given Himself for him, that He had greater love for no man than for any other, but that "God had commended His love to man in that whilst he was yet a sinner Christ had died for the ungodly."

Thus if men were to be followers of God they must give, the kneynote of their lives must be love of which self-sacrifice is the token. "We must give ourselves to God and to the service of our fellow man." The early church had won the then world by love inspired lives and today the task was the same; to win the world and, bringing the realization closer home, to win Kootenay to Christ by love inspired lives.

Nor had there been a more favorable time for this work of winning the world for Christ. Materialism had been checked and men, consciously or unconsciously, were crying out for the Saviour, the results of anti-Christian spirit were being revealed in the Ger-

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK CROSS, FEVERISH

When constipated or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs"

Look at the tongue, mother. If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

ROBSON RANCHERS TO GET GOVERNMENT SEED

(Special to The Daily News.)

ROBSON, B.C., March 7.—The March supplementary meeting of the Robson Farmers' institute was held Thursday evening. A communication regarding seed distribution from the department of agriculture showed the government was anxious to do all in its power to assist the ranchers along this line and offering liberal inducements in seeds. It was decided to leave a list open until March 20 for those desirous of obtaining corn and oats and until Tuesday, March 9 for mangel seeds.

A communication regarding crop contests along similar lines to that of previous years, was also received from the department. It was decided to compete this year in potatoes and mangels. A bonus of $5 is offered by the department for ranchers who will keep an accurate account of the cost of production of the crops entered for competition.

A communication from the department strongly urging the entering of the boys and girls of the community in the children's crop contests, resulted i nthe adoption of the suggestion. A committee composed of H. P. Golden, A. D. Clyde and Walter Johnson was appointed to act in connection with Dr. A. P. McDiarmid, president, and Gordon R. Brown, secretary.

A talk on "How to make life more attractive on the ranch" was given.

Miss Ruth McDiarmid is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Wolverton of Nelson.

The monthly meeting of the Robson Women's Mission circle will be held on Thursday next at the home of Mrs. James Fowler.

Gordon R. Brown was a visitor to Trail on Tuesday last.

A. D. Clyde spent Frida and Saturday in Nelson, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Lindsay.

HALCYON NOTES

(Special to The Daily News.)

HALCYON, B. C., March 7.—Mike Skully returned from Revelstoke Friday and left for Nelson Saturday. D. Gallarno, Revelstoke, was here Friday and F. P. Armstrong and R. A. Kilpatrick, Nelson, from Friday till Saturday. Leslie Prest returned home to Rossland this morning.

William Barr, Canadian Pacific railway lineman, who was at Arrowhead on Friday, says the town is on the qui vive with the prospect of the sawmill industry being re-established there. The Forest Mills company has been awarded the insurance money for the property recently destroyed by fire at Comaplix and the probability is that Arrowhead will be the site chosen for the new mill.

AT ONCE! STOPS STOMACH MISERY AND INDIGESTION

"Pape's Diapepsin" makes sick, sour, gassy stomachs feel fine

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down; Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes— they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back.

You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—Your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories, and in a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Application for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-agent of the district of which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections or legal subdivisions of sections and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applies for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent of Sub-agent of Dominion Lands.

GREEKS WANT WAR; THEIR KING MORE CAUTIOUS.

Despatches indicate that an interesting situation exists in Greece. King Constantine, a popular ruler, who was responsible for the reorganization of the Greek army, favors a policy of continued neutrality, while the people wish to enter the war against their old enemies, the Turks.

For the moment the king's will seems to prevail. It is doubtful if it will continue to sway the policy unless King Constantine is awaiting circumstances which he believes will develop a more propitious occasion for the Hellenic forces to be thrown into the scale.

The people of Greece are hereditary enemies of the Musselmans. It is less than 85 years since Greece after nine years of struggle won her independence from the rule of the sultan, a success in which the destruction of the Turkish fleet at Navarino by the Franco-British-Russian fleet was a contributing factor. And, again in 1896 Greece took the part of the Greek Christians who revolted against the Turks in Crete and declared war against the porte. Greece suffered a disastrous defeat from the full effects of which she was only saved by joint action by the powers.

In the Balkan war of 1912-13 Greece after the Balkan league had beaten Turkey attained an extension of territory. But her desires, despite success in the war in which she and Servia engaged in against Bulgaria over the division of the spoils, were not entirely fulfilled.

But the Greeks had a taste of victory over the Turks and the desire for further territorial expansion and for another fight with their hereditary enemies is probably the controlling factor in the popular demand at this time for intervention on the side of the triple entente and its allies.

THE SALE OF BONDS DIRECT TO THE PUBLIC.

There should be more over-the-counter bond sales. Kaslo about two years ago was successful in disposing of a substantial issue of school debentures to the people of its own city. Nelson had success in selling baby bonds of $100 denomination to local investors. Recently Philadelphia in seven hours sold $5,000,000 4 per cent bonds direct to the public. The provincial government of Ontario met with such success in selling to the people of the province an issue of bonds soon after the war commenced that a second issue has been determined upon.

In this province municipalities have as collateral against loans from banks large issues of bonds. Most of these issues could be sold at a price which would bring in 5 per cent or over to the investor.

By selling these bonds over-the-counter to the public the cities could secure a market for unsold issues and the public would benefit by the returns upon its money which would be larger than paid on savings accounts. The security behind the bonds is ample enough to make the investment as "safe as the Bank of England."

To reach the investor the cities should advertise their issues, placing before the public in an attractive way the benefits of investing money in the home town debentures from a personal and public standpoint.

LUMBER TRADE COMMISSION TO AUSTRALIA.

The appointment of H. R. Macmillan as lumber trade commissioner to Australia is a most satisfactory one. Mr. Macmillan as head of the forest branch at Victoria has gained a wide knowledge of the industry in British Columbia which will stand him in good stead in his mission to build up trade in lumber for this province.

British Columbia once controlled two-thirds of the lumber business to Australia; it now has only 5 per cent of it. It is in an endeavor to improve this situation and, by finding a market for the glut of lumber from the coast mills, to provide better trade for the industry in the interior of the province that R. F. Green, M.P., pressed upon Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, the need for the appointment of a commissioner. Sir George, as was announced, consented and Mr. Macmillan has been appointed to carry out the work.

JOE MARTIN GETS QUICK ACTION IN VANCOUVER.

Joe Martin gets action. During the first week of publication of his new Liberal paper, the Vancouver Evening Journal, he has been sued for $25,000 for libel, a despatch reports he has retracted the statement complained of and has apologized; he has got into a warfare of words with the two other Liberal newspapers of Vancouver, he has been openly designated a "liar" at a public meeting and his statements regarding the Liberal party in this province have been condemned by the Main Street Liberal club of Vancouver, after a heated discussion during which the president left the chair to support Mr. Martin.

For one week's work that is pretty good, even for Mr. Martin.

There is always room on top. That is where the business of the persistent advertiser arrives.

The German government says that one of its submarines fired on the British hospital ship Asturias by mistake. It undoubtedly was a mistake but not of the kind that the Germans claim.

The British soldiers in the firing line make it "a duty to keep well," according to a war correspondent. They consider it their duty to their country to keep in the best physical condition for fighting. The citizen at home owes the same duty to the state.

It is said that the people of Constantinople are beginning to suspect the truth of government assurances that the allied fleet is doing little harm to the Dardanelles defenses. They soon will be able to hear the shells explode.

The Vossische Zeitung says that whoever in Germany eats more than he actually needs to maintain his bodily strength is guilty of treason to his country. The Prussian government is seeing to it that no one has a chance to make much of a glutton of himself.

It is estimated by Commissioner Grace of Lethbridge that if every available foot of vacant ground in that city were placed under cultivation and planted with garden vegetables and potatoes the citizens could raise $10,000 worth of produce from that source this year. There may not be as much vacant ground in Nelson but this city could do proportionately as well.

Bangert & Lindemann, a firm of North Dakota land agents, has sent out a circular stating that Canada is "out of the question" as a country in which to buy land at this time because "the proposed tax levy per 160 acres for non-resident Canadian land-owners is $500." That is one of the latest lies about Canada which is being spread in the United States by interested persons.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING.

An Eastern View.

The Nelson, British Columbia, board of trade urges the citizens to grow foodstuffs on all vacant lots in the city. The west begins to learn the most valuable mines have been lying unworked.—Toronto Globe.

The Common Enemy.

Germany is the common enemy of the nations of Europe, both great and small, and the allies are obviously prepared to welcome to their standards all who are able to contribute to her more speedy and complete overthrow.—London Telegraph.

Panama Canal Receipts.

In the first six months of its operation the Panama canal has collected $2,000,000 in tolls. Not so bad for a beginning, but at the same rate the revenue at the end of the year will fall $11,000,000 short of meeting the annual interest and sinking fund on the bonds issued and permit of their retirement within a reasonable time. But the canal was something like the street car system in western cities—they were never expected to be self-sustaining for the first few years.—Lethbridge Herald.

Kaiser Worship.

The military caste in the kennel provinces of Prussia has always delighted in a dog-like attitude toward its Hohenzollern sovereigns. Prussia owed its military success to it; and if the dogs have shown a devoted fidelity, their successive masters have been careful to throw them the best bones. But what has developed during the last half century, and still more during the present war, has been the steady extension of this blind personal feeling, natural and almost admirable in the primitive robber-nobility east of the Elbe, to the masses of a great modern nation, in whom it appears not only incongruous but immoral. Yet the basis is much the same; it is as the winners and distributors of the spoil of a world that the German nation has learned to look up to the Hohenzollerns; the national self-surrender can hardly be the same when that role has been taken away for ever from its sovereigns.—London Chronicle.

RED CROSS NOTES.

At a meeting of the active members of the Red Cross society Saturday afternoon it was decided that a general meeting of all the members, active and associate should be held the first Saturday in each month at 3 o'clock at the depot when the business of the society can be discussed.

It was also decided to give a tea and sale of home cooking and homemade candy. Mesdames Armstrong, Hinton and R. J. Smith were appointed a committee for the tea; Mesdames C. Watts and D. Kerr a committee for the home cooking and Mrs. G. A. Hunter will look after the candy table.

The society acknowledges another bale from Creston containing the following: Seven pairs hand knitted socks, three pairs wristlets, six cholera belts, two pairs bed socks, six wash cloths, three days shirts, one nightshirt, seven surgical shirts and one housewife.

COLD STORAGE.

"She hesitated a long while. I wonder how she finally came to decide to take the matrimonial plunge."

"I think her younger sister pushed her off the dock, so to speak."

The Gourmand—I suppose you've had to put up with "Tipperary" ever since the war started?

The Waiter (his labors unrewarded)—Yes, sir, and tip a rarity.

Rather unexpected was the reply of a Mrs. Tommy Atkins to a gentleman who inquired if her husband was at the front: "Yus," she said; "an' I 'ope 'e'll serve the Germans as 'e served me."

Caller—Pardon me, sir, but is there another artist in this building?

Artist—There is not. There is, however, a man on the fourth floor who paints.

INDIAN PRINCES GIVE TO EMPIRE

Enthusiasm for Successful Outcome of War Is Unabated—Five Million for Relief

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 7.—Through Reuter's Ottawa Agency.—A special despatch from Delhi indicates that enthusiasm for the successful outcome of the war continues unabated. The Indian relief fund now reaches a total of $5,000,000.

The largest sum previously raised in India was $1,263,000, contributed in 1900 for relief of the acute famine of that year. The chiefs and nobelmen of India continue to present valuable gifts of every description for the prosecution of the war. Last month's donations included $8,100 annually from the Maharajah of Dati and his sirdars; from another native potentate, $8,100; from the nizeamo of Hydrobad, a hospital of 50 beds.

More ambulances are given by another and 50 camels come from another, while from others there are con*tributions of large quantities of hay* and blankets. One loyal rajah announces that he will pay his soldiers from the revenues of his estates.

ACTION AGAINST LIQUOR LICENSE BYLAW HEARD

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Ont., March 7.—Mr. Justice Middleton of Toronto, at the weekly session of the high court here yesterday, reserved decision in the decision of the London Licensed Victualers' association to quash the license reduction bylaw, which was endorsed by the ratepayers in January last. The hotel men claim that the petition upon which the vote was based was insufficiently signed.

MEDICAL STUDENTS AT FRONT WILL GET THEIR DIPLOMAS

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

TORONTO, March 7.—The medical council has agreed to grant without examination its diplomas to fifth year students, otherwise qualified, who are going with the overseas contingent. FRENCH AIRMEN NEARLY LOST LIFE IN ARABIA

A thrilling flight by a British and a French airman, in which the latter nearly lost his life is reported from Egypt. Seaman Grall of the French navy, and Capt. Stirling left one of his majesty's ships on Dec. 31 on a seaplant to make a reconnaissance of the Wady el Araba, a broad valley between the Gulf of Akaba and the Dead sea. On the return journey the engine stopped at a height of 4700 feet, but Grall cleverly volplaned, alighting on the eastern side of the valley. The landing was so violent that he was shot out of the machine and badly bruised, while Capt. Stirling received a severe shaking. Calculating that Akaba was 18 miles away they set off out to find their ship, Capt. Stirling supporting Grall. They covered five miles in three and a half hours when Grall collopsed and Capt. Stirling pushed on alone. After an exciting journey, continually hiding to avoid Arabs he reached Akaba Beach 11 hours after the accident. He hailed his ship and was taken on board in an exhausted condition. The following morning a party set out for Grall, but searched unsuccessfully all day. Meanwhile Grall by great exertions had reached Akaba Beach in the evening but was to exhausted to attract the attention of the ship and was mortified to see her steam away. She returned later, however, and her searchlights discovered the Frenchman, who was rescued after he had been without food for nearly three days.

G. Ralph Lawrence of Revelstoke, assistant manager of the Forest Mills of British Columbia, came in on the coast train last night and registered at the Hume.

RESTA CAPTURES VANDERBILT CUP

Italian Driver Who Won Grand Prix Makes 67½ Miles Per Hour at San Francisco.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 7.—D. Resta, driving car No. 9, in which he won the Grand Prix a week earlier, captured on Saturday the 300.3-mile Vanderbilt cup race over the course of the international exposition, in what is said to have been one of the most thrilling contests ever run in this automobile classic. His time was 4 hours 27 minutes and 27 seconds. He maintained an average speed of 67½ miles per hour.

Howard Wilcox, No. 26, was second in 4:34:36; Eddie Pullen third, 4:35:57, and Ralph De Palma fourth, 4:30:07.

Other cars finished as follows: Fifth, William Carton; sixth, C. R. Newhouse; seventh, Barney Oldfield; eighth, Louis Disbrow; ninth, Hughie Hughes; tenth, A. Klein.

It was a gruelling race from start to finish. The pace set by the winner subjected the cars to a terrific strain, so that long before the finish less than half of those who answered the starter's call were left in the running.

Every few minutes a car went into the pits for repairs. Upsets were frequent because the track became slippery from oil drippings. Notwithstanding this, only one serious accident occurred. When Bob Burman's car turned over his mechanician, Joe Cleary, received a broken thigh and may be internally injured.

METHODISTS WIN IN OVERTIME PLAY

Down Presbyterians in Hotly Contested Game—Losers Led by 15 Points at Half Time

*In a closely contested game, the out*standing features of which were the hard checking throughout, the great shooting of the Presbyterians in the first half and the excellent work of the Methodists in the last period in overcoming a 15-point lead, the Methodist basketball team on Saturday night defeated the Presbyterians 35 to 33. At the end of full time the score stood 33 all and overtime play was necessary. The winning basket came in less than a minute after the ball was centred, Curran passing the ball up the floor to Turner, who made a pretty shot from some distance out.

The Presbyterians had easily the best of the first half, leading their opponents at the end of the period with a 25 to 10 score. The shooting of the losers in this period was phenomenal, baskets being scored from every point on the floor, several being shot from some distance past centre, and others resulted from difficult one-handed shots from scrimmages. At the close of the first half it looked very much as if the Presbyterians had the game stowed away on ice but the Methodists came back in the last period and by steady hard work caught up.

In this period Turner, who was playing guard for the victors, replaced Elliott on the firing line, and the latter went back to guard. This arrangement considerably strengthened the offensive powers of the team and just before the whistle went for full time, Nagle, who had been playing a good game all evening, dropped the ball into the basket for the tying goal, bringing the crowd to its foot. There were no individual stars of the game, all the players filling their positions equally well. The Methodists proved the hardest checkers and thus kept their opponents away from the basket, but the latter had a little the better of the combination, particularly in the first frame.

A. B. Godfrey handled the game and, considering the stiff checking, kept the fouls down to a minimum. C. H. McHardy acted as timekeeper.

It is expected that a meeting will be held early this week for the purpose of organizing a church league with the Anglicans, Methodists and Presbyterians entered. The teams:

Methodists—Forwards, R. S. Turner, H. Nagle; centre, W. A. Curran; guards, G. Elliott, R. Maurer.

Presbyterians—Forwards, J. Laughton, H. Gibbs; centre, Bruce Sutherland; guards, A. Simons, A. E. Graham.

BUSINESS MEN WIN TWO VOLLEY BALL GAMES

As a preliminary to the basketball game on Saturday night in the Y.M.C.A. the business men's volley ball team defeated the young men's team in two straight games, the scores in the first being 21 to 18 and in the second 21 to 9. The teams:

Business men—T. D. Stark, C. H. Stark, A. B. Godfrey, G. Arnesen, W. B. Kinnear.

Young men—R. S. Turner, G. Amas, G. Elliott, C. E. Armbrister, H. Gibbs.

TORONTO VICTORIAS ARE AUTOMATICALLY SUSPENDED

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, March 7.—Notice was sent today by wire to Secretary Rob*inson of the Canadian Hockey associa*tion and President Haydon of the Saskatchewan hockey association that the Ontario Hockey association had withdrawn its challenge for the Allan cup and that it was not represented by the Toronto Victorias.

The latter automatically supended themselves from the Ontario Hockey association by violating instructions of the executive.

BRITTON BEATS TOLAND.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Jack Britton outfought and outpointed Jack Toland of Philadelphia in a 10-round bout in Brooklyn last night. The men weighed in as follows: Britton, 138½; Toland, 146.

VICTORIAS HOLD MELVILLE TO TIE

Sensational Work by Mackenzie Brothers Is Feature—Eskimos Beaten by Monarchs

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

MELVILLE, Sask., March 7.—Playing whirlwind hockey all the way, the Toronto Victorias, winners of the Ontario Hockey association championship and the contenders for the Allan cup, held the Melville team to an 8 to 8 tie in the first game of the series, played here last night.

Sensational work by the Mackenzie brothers was the feature of the game and time and time again either Harry or his brother Billy would bring the spectators to their feet with thrilling end to end rushes.

Monarchs Beat Eskimos

REGINA, Sask., March 7.—Not counting the thirteenth goal scored as the gong for time sounded in the timer's box, the score of the first two elimination games between the Winnipeg Monarchs, Manitoba champions, and the Edmonton Eskimos here last night, was 9 to 3 in favor of the Monarchs.

As for the merits of the game, considering the condition of the ice it was not as bad as it might have been, but capture of the Allan cup will take better hockey than either team showed at any stage of the game.

The ice was lumpy and soft, scaling off under the skates and the players found it most difficult to carry the puck along with any speed. Before the ice got bad, which was not long, the players put up some fast work and it was mostly in the Monarchs' favor, but they found Lyne, the Eskimos' rover, everywhere. He was almost in every play. His tactics were absolutely clean and though he got a bruise on the foot in the second half it was an accident, Marples checking him when he had the puck close to his toes.

The Regina fans who saw the Edmonton-Vancouver game declare that the Eskimos appeared to be an entirely different team against the Monarchs.

ROSEBUDS EASILY DEFEAT VICTORIA

Final Game of Season in Pacific Coast League Finds Former Champions in Deep Cellar.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PORTLAND, Ore., March 7.—In the final Pacific Coast Hockey association game here last night the Portland Rosebuds defeated Victoria by a score of 6 to 2. The former champions were outplayed in every position. The final standing of the league is as follows:

	Won.	Lost.	For.	Against.
Vancouver ..	13	4	115	71
Portland	9	9	91	83
Victoria	4	13	64	116

Wants Western Officials.

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 7.—Frank Patrick, president of the Pacific Coast Hockey association, announced today that he would insist on the appointment of western officials for the world's series this month.

He has submitted the names of Thomas Phillips and Skinner Poulin to the National Hockey association. The dates fixed for the games are March 22, 24 and 26, and on alternate nights if further play is necessary.

SPORTING NOTES.

Lacrosse magnates are attempting to form a national commission which will govern the professional game from coast to coast.

If the basketball game on Saturday was a fair sample of the class of ball which will be played by the church teams, the league is assured of success.

The Olympic games which were to have been held in Berlin in 1916 will be called off on account of a big military meet which will likely take place there this year.

The Pacific Coast Hockey league will be composed of six clubs next season if the negotiations of the Patricks to include Seattle, Spokane and Tacoma are successful.

In order to keep his players in strict training, Manager McCreedie of the Portland Northwestern league club, has stated that his players must eat but two meals a day, and must also hike to and from the park.

Col. Ruppert, part owner of the New York Americans, has confirmed the report that he has offered the Philadelphia club $25,000 for "Home-Run" Baker. Baker is likely to remain with the Philadelphia club as Connie Mack states that Baker's price is $50,000.

CANADA HAS MUCH WHEAT FOR EXPORT

After Seed and Food Requirements Have Been Met Dominion Will Have 28,174,973 Bushels

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, March 7.—That after allowing for seed requirements and for food requirements until the fall threshing, the Dominion will have on available for export to Great Britain, if required, 28,174,973 bushels of wheat, is the statement from the government for publication today. The statement shows that on Feb. 8 last there were 37,004,717 bushels in elevators and flour mills; 12,571,876 in transit and 29,545,000 in the farmers' hands. For seed requirements it is estimated that 19,250,000 bushels will be needed; for food requirements until the fall threshing is done, 25,000,000 will be needed, or a total of 44,250,000. Deducting this from the amount on hand, 34,880,593 bushels are left, to which are to be added imports from Feb. 8 to March 2, totaling 36,370 bushels, or a total altogether of 34,916,963. Subtracting from this amount exports from Feb. 8 to March 2, amounting to 6,741,990 bushels, a margin is left for export, if required, of 28,174,973 bushels.

CAUTIOUS TRADERS FAVOR SHORT SIDE

Business Is Small at Short Session in New York and Mostly at Expense of Quoted Value.

(By Daily News Leased Wire)

NEW YORK, March 7.—Some reaction from Friday's strong undertone was manifested by Saturday's stock market, trading in the short session being generally at the expense of quoted values. Dealings were restricted by a storm which cut off communication with interior points.

Traders as a whole were again committed to the short side but were cautious in their attitude. Shares of the Soo road were almost the only railway issues to make further improvement, most of the Pacifics, trunk lines and grangers being under moderate pressure.

Financial operations of the week were primarily responsible for the large actual expansion of bank loans which exceeded $32,000,000, while the cash holdings were slightly increased. Cash reserves were contracted, however, to the extent of over $5,000,000.

Bonds were steady with total sales, par value of $1,597,000. Panama registered 3s advanced ⅝ on call on the week.

JOSEPH MARTIN HAS TO MAKE APOLOGY

L. D. Taylor Entered Suit for $25,000 Because of Statements Which Were Promptly Retracted.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 7.—Vancouver is seeing quite an exciting election for the mayoralty. There are three candidates, nominated Saturday—ex-Mayor L. D. Taylor, who was elected in January but disqualified on a technicality; Ald. Hepburn and W. T. Whiteway.

One of the spicy episodes of the campaign was an attack against Mr. Taylor by Joseph Martin, M.P. for St. Pancras, London, who challenged Mr. Taylor to sue him for libel when he charged that the latter was getting funds for his campaign from people interested in reopening of the restricted district and Chinese gambling. Mr. Taylor entered a suit for $25,000 on Friday and on Saturday night Mr. Martin published in his new paper, the Journal, an apology and retraction of statements made against Mr. Taylor. The election will occur Tuesday.

FIRE BRIGADE CALLED TO FIRE CAUSED BY GASOLINE

The fire brigade was called out Saturday afternoon about 6 o'clock to a fire in a clothes cleaning establishment on the second floor of the Wallace block. The fire was caused by gasoline. An open gas jet was being burned alongside the working table where clothes were being cleaned with gasoline. The fumes caught fire and a mattress and some clothing was burned. The fire was extinguished without water, the chemical being used. It is thought that the damage will not be more than $50.

HARRY F. MUERLING GETS COMMISSION

Is in Charge of Machine Gun Section in Canadian Mounted Rifles at Sherbrooke, Que.

Harry F. Muerling, formerly of the Dominion public works department and engineer in charge of the Columbia river survey and who went east to volunteer for active service, has obtained a commission in the 5th Canadian Mounted rifles and is at Sherbrooke, Que. He is in charge of a machine gun section and is training the men in that branch of the work.

Before he was with the Dominion government, Mr. Muerling made a report to the provincial government on the Kootenay flats reclammation scheme.

SANDSTORMS AND BULLY BEEF.

A signaller in the 1st Rhodesian contingent which is now in German Southwest Africa, writes:

We left Capetown on the 21st inst. and arrived here on the evening of Christmas day. We travelled with a skeleton crew, all signalling, swabbing of decks, etc., being done by the troops. A church service was held on deck on Christmas eve which was followed by a smoking concert. Another church service was held the following morning and our popular chaplain attracted to it all the troops of various religions and sects. Christmas on board was not a very merry one owing mainly to the fact that there were too many horses and stores about to permit us to indulge in sports. However, we had the satisfaction of eating quite as good a Christmas dinner as we could have got on land in normal times. Greetings were exchanged between our vessel and the remainder of the boats and a message was received from the King.

We are camped just outside the town, which is a dreary and desolate sandy waste, swept generally by chilly sandstorms. The water is brackish and consequently all our fresh water has to be brought from Capetown (about 700 miles.) You can guess it is something of a luxury. We get an issue of a gallon and a half a day a man for cooking purposes, and our water bottles are also filled. We cannot run to the precious liquid for cleansing our utensils, so we fall back on sand which forms quite a good substitute. As long as we are near the sea we are able to indulge in a bathe but once we strike inland, we shall have to be content with a cat's lick—a sponge being a very useful article in a man's equipment, as he is able to have a sluice on a minimum expenditure of water. That is one hardship which I don't suppose is being contended with in the European campaign. Having to go without a decent wash, much less the glory of a bath maybe for months is by no means a pleasing prospect. Considering it is midsummer the weather is cold, the temperature during the day having kept below 75 degrees so far. Every Morning a thick Scotch mist covers the country for hours and produces remarkable mirage effects. For instance our men posted on the hills look bigger than if they were close at hand, while the hills themselves though only a mile away appear to be at least three miles distant. Another and disagreeable illusion is that you fancy you see water at different spots where it doesn't exist.

We have settled down to bully beef and biscuits as staple forms of nourishment, having to trust to luck for fresh meat and bread. But you can do a lot with bully beef and biscuits; at least some of our fellows are proving veritable chefs in covering up the brutal substantiality of this diet. The biscuits we turn into pancakes and porridge, while the beef is at times converted into succulent stews, dry roasts or fried slices. Cigarettes and matches are already becoming a luxury and we can buy nothing of this sort anywhere near here. Tobacco is a ration, a quarter of a pound each a week. Today shots were exchanged with the enemy so we expect to be on the move soon. Our fellows are keenly looking forward to a scrap.

NELSON NEWS OF THE DAY

BULGARIA NOT AROUSED BY ATTACK ON TURKEY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, March 8, 3:21 a.m.—A Sofia correspondent of the Mail says that the Bulgarian premier has promised to make a definite statement regarding the government position and policy to parliament in a secret session. This, states the correspondent, is in reply to a question by the opposition regarding "the attitude of the government in view of the decisive move of England in the Dardanelles."

Bulgaria is said not to have been aroused by the attack on the Dardanelles and is looking to the future. It is stated that King Ferdinand is considering the formation of a coalition government to direct the affairs of the country through the crisis which is expected.

EGGS DROP BACK TO THIRTY-FIVE CENTS

Largest Attendance at Market on Saturday in Considerable Number of Weeks—Suggest Improvements.

Eggs were again retailing at 35 cents per dozen on the public market on Saturday and this drop of 5 cents from the quotation of 40 cents a dozen on the previous week was the only feature of Saturday's market, aside from the large attendance, which was the largest in a considerable number of weeks. The increased attendance was regarded favorably by those interested in the institution, for it was felt that it showed the feeling of the people of the city that every encouragement should be offered the ranchers in their efforts.

The board of control did not take charge on Saturday, or rather, did not hold a formal meeting, though several members were in attendance, probably owing to the absence from the city of Mayor Malone. However, members of the board of control present did some criticizing and one of the most pointed suggestions made was to the effect that steps should be taken to have the ranchers display and handle their produce in the most inviting manner possible. One of the first things which it is expected the ban will be put on will be the use of newspapers for wrapping purposes, particularly for wrapping meats. Saturday's quotations:

Beets, carrots, turnips, per cwt., $2; potatoes, per sack, $1.50; onions, per cwt., $2.50 to $3; cabbage, per cwt., $1.75 to $2; squash, per cwt., $2 to $2.50; apples, per box, $1.25 to $1.50; honey, per lb., 30c; butter, per lb., 40c, 2 lbs for 75c; eggs, per doz., 35c; pork, per lb., 10c to 18c; veal, per lb., 15c to 20c; chickens, per lb., 25c; fowls, per lb., 20c; chickens, live, 50c to 75c; laying pullets, each, 75c to $1.25; bread, white, brown and fruit, per loaf, 10c, three loaves for 25c; buns, per doz., 15c; tea biscuits, per doz., 15c; pies, each, 20c; layer cakes, each, 35c to 40c; meat pies, each, 10c, 4 for 25c; cider, per gal., 75c; doughnuts, per doz., 15c.

WHY AMERICANS CANNOT PROTEST LID ON GERMANY

French Paper Says Similar Blockade by French Aided General Washington.

PARIS.—The quiet and dignified manner in which the American press and public received the Franco-British declaration of proposed naval reprisals against Germany has made a strong impression in France. Writers in the leading newspapers point out that a nation so devoted to business interests as the United States scarcely could be expected to remain unmoved at the proposal of closing the sea routes to a country with which it does an annual business of $500,000,000.

"We can prevent loss to neutrals," says the Matin, "by purchasing intercepted cargoes of which we desire to deprive Germany. We should lose on these purchases what we neither could use nor resell until later, but the loss would be a mere drop in the ocean of enormous war expense and very little in comparison to the extra blood it would have been necessary to shed for having neglected the enemy's capitulation by economic strangulation."

Prof. Charles Richet, writing in the Figaro, declares that while the Germans contend the allies' blockade is barbarous and contrary to international law a blockade carried out by a French fleet prevented British admirals from re-victualing Gen. Cornwallis, thus forcing him to capitulate at Yorktown in the American revolutionary war. Prof. Richet says no historian has pretended this was a disloyal act "and we should be greatly surprised if the Americans in 1915 condemned a proceeding which permitted Gen. Washington in 1781 to win American independence."

DRUGGISTS DO NOT FEEL WAR TAX YET

Only Appreciable to Liquors and Sparkling Wines, According to Information Received.

The wholesale and retail drug merchants will not for a while have to resort to the work of taking stock of proprietary and patent medicines on hand preparatory to obtaining their quota of stamps in compliance with the War Tax act. This is the welcome news for the druggists which has been received in the city by T. V. Scanlan, deputy collector of inland revenue, from Vancouver.

It had, up till the time of receiving this notification been the opinion that the tax was immediately applicable to proprietary and patent medicines, but this makes it only applicable for the present to wines and liquors.

BRITISH NAVY'S LUCKY DAY

If the British navy has a "lucky day" it should be a Friday. It was on Friday, July 29, 1588, that the Spanish Armada was destroyed.

True, it was also a Friday, Nov. 29, 1652, when Van Tromp sailed the channel with a broom at his masthead to indicate that he had swept the English from the seas, but luck has a habit of turning and, according to the most reliable chronologies, Friday, June 13, 1653, was the decisive day in the battle off the North Foreland, when six of Van Tromp's ship were taken and 11 were sunk.

It was on Friday, April 20, 1657, that Blake won his greatest victory, in the harbor of Santa Cruz; on Friday, April 12, 1782, that Rodney defeated the French; Friday, Sept. 13 of the same year, that the British totally defeated the fleets of France and Spain in the bay of Gibraltar.

It was also on Friday, July 16, 1779, that the great siege of Gibraltar began, to end in the total overthrow of the hostile armaments. Trafalgar, indeed, was fought on a Monday, but at least it was on the previous Friday that the French admiral made the fatal decision to come out and give battle.

Nelson would have been the last to dispute the "luckiness" of Friday, for he was born on that day, created a viscount on that day, and it was on Friday, May 20, 1803, that he assumed chief command in the Mediterranean.

man aggression in Europe and these facts were impressing upon Christians just where lay the privilege and responsibility of winning over the world for Christ by love, by love-inspired lives.

"But only if in our lives and actions we commend our creed, only if we are followers of God, only if men are able to take knowledge that they have been with Jesus, only if one light so shines only if they glorify one Father," could this privilege be that of churchmen could they shoulder the responsibility.

"Let this be our aim: Be followers of Christ, lead others. Let us pray for help. Let us be bound as brethren—priests and people, by love. Let us be united in effort and service to advance the kingdom of God and prepare the way for the coming of the Son of God in power and great glory," he concluded.

A Yearning for Peace

The text for Bishop Doull's evening service was taken from St. John 14:27.

"What a yearning there is in the world for peace today," he said. The very essence of the church hymns were appeals for peace. Prayers were being offered daily for peace and nearly everybody was craving for the end of the strife into which practically the world had been thrown. "We are realizing now," continued the bishop, "that we have lost peace and what a blessing it was and is. Hearts everywhere were full of misery, suffering, anxiety and sorrow and they were praying to God for peace."

"How can we have that which we lost and for which we pray? How can we regain it? God never created the world to be what it is today—something has happened—the entrance into the world of sin."

People were, he said, just beginning to realize that it was the result of sin—that it was sin that was filling individual lives full of cares, trials, tribulations, and that prayers were going up—there was no other explanation of how peace had been lost.

"How can we regain it?" asked the bishop, and here he offered his second message to the churchmen of his diocese. Peace came, he said, when sin was destroyed. Christ had come to destroy sin, to crush it, to deliver His people from its guilt, bondage and power, to destroy the work of the devil and to bring eternal peace. He was the Prince of Peace. The gift of peace was a gift from Christ by Christ upon His own terms and conditions. If there was no peace today it was because sin had entered into the world, because there were no Christian nations, because there was no Christian world—only a mere handful of Christians here and there.

The bishop then defined Christ's peace, which, he said, was a peace that did not exempt His people from trials, troubles, tribulations and humility. There would always be tribulations. Christ's life had been full of trials, troubles and tribulations. It was this fact that brought confidence to the people of the world—the fact that "Our Father in Heaven" was doing His best. He was near and nothing could happen to the nation except by His permission and for His own good. He was shielding and protecting the nation.

Christ's peace was one that was won by conflicts. The conflict would end in peace. There had been a conflict between the Son of Man and the devil—it had resulted in peace. The present conflict was one against an anti-Christian spirit, a conflict which would result in triumph, a conflict in which power and might attempted to trample on a small and comparatively defenseless nation, a conflict against the doctrine of "Might is Right," and it was this fact that imbued the nation with confidence. The confidence did not come with the realization that God was fighting for the nation but it was a realization that the nation was fighting God's battles.

Without Christ there was no peace. Those who were advocating the reconstruction of the world's society on a universal peace basis without consideration of Christ were placing their hopes on a mere heap of sand. People would have to accept his will, which was easy, and his burden, which was light. Christ has peace to give His people but it must be accepted by His people becoming His servants, His followers, His disciples and in this Bishop Doull urged the churchmen of his diocese to join. He wished them to tell others, to enlist themselves under Christ's banner, join his army and make sacrifices for him just as the boys in the trenches at the front were sacrificing themselves for the Empire and thus they would bring to themselves that gift—the Peace of God—which all desired so much today.

After the evening service Bishop Doull attended the meeting of the Churchman's club, where he mingled and made acquaintance with its members and took part in the discussions which took place there.

Spends Week in Parish

Bishop Doull, who is the guest of Rev. Fred H. Graham, rector of St. Saviour's parish, will spend the week in the parish. This evening he will be at Willow Point, where a meeting of welcome will be held in Crystal hall by the congregation of St. Andrews-by-the-Lake. On Tuesday morning he will be the celebrant and preacher at a celebration of holy communion in St. Andrew's church, Willow Point.

Tuesday evening is being made the occasion of a semi-public welcome to the bishop in Nelson by the congregation of St. Saviour's church and on this occasion the presentation will be made to him of the pectoral cross which is the gift of the congregation of St. Saviour's church.

Bishop Doull will on Wednesday for the first time preside over a meeting of the executive of the synod of the diocese of Kootenay.

The following five weeks will be spent in visiting the various portions of his diocese and on April 15 he will for the first time take his seat at a meeting of the house of bishops of Canada, which will accemble at Fort William. At this meeting he will have the dual honor of being the youngest member and representing the largest diocese geographically in Canada. The diocese takes in that portion of the province from Tete Jaune Cache to the international boundary and from the 120th meridian to the Alberta boundary. It includes 36 parishes.

Just previous to leaving Victoria for his diocese, Bishop Doull received a magnificent bishop's ring from his former parishioners of the Church of the Advent, Westmount, Que., and he expresses deep appreciation of this valuable token of remembrance from his friends in the east.

SUPPLY OF PETROLEUM IN GERMANY IS SHORT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

COPENHAGEN, March 7, via London.—Reports received here from Schlesweg are to the effect that the supply of petroleum in Germany has become so small that persons who formerly were permitted to purchase one bottle a week now have been deprived of that privilege. The stock in Schlesweg has been practically exhausted.

CURLEY SAYS FIGHT INTERESTS GET TOGETHER

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

HAVANA, March 7.—According to Jack Curley, the prize fight promoter, all doubts concerning the holding of the championship battle in Havana between Jack Johnson and Jess Willard have virtually been eliminated by agreement of all the conflicting interests. The only possible obstacle to the fight taking place here, according to Curley, is the acceptance of terms by Willard and this, Curley said, he expected to receive today.

The fullest assurances of financial support have been guaranteed and only Willard's acceptance of the terms and the choosing of a site remain unsettled.

TELEPHONE CABLE REACHES PROCTOR

Expected to Be Laid Shortly—Will Connect Up Nelson and District With Kootenay Landing.

The last link in the connecting of Nelson and other points in West Kootenay and Boundary by telephone with the north shore of the Kootenay lake line will be completed shortly. This was practically assured by the arrival on the ground on Saturday from the old country of the long submarine telephone cable which is to be laid across Kootenay lake between Proctor and Pilot Bay.

W. H. Stevens, superintendent of government telephones and telegraphs in eastern British Columbia, is expected to reach the district shortly to supervise the laying of the cable.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND MEN SHOVEL SNOW IN NEW YORK

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, March 7.—The heaviest snowstorm of the winter swirled across New York on Saturday night, when the storm had swept eastward, after having played havoc with steam and foot traffic. The weather bureau announced that 5.2 inches of snow had fallen. The snow was melting fast. Fifteen thousand men were put at work clearing the streets.

At the Theatres

Trey o' Hearts Tonight.

The eighth episode of "The Trey o' Hearts" will be shown this evening at the Starland and it promises to surpass any of the episodes yet shown. It is entitled "The Mock Rose," and is of great interest throughout, owing to the number of exciting scenes. A fine one-reel drama entitled "Srange Evidence" will also be shown and a very amusing comedy. The full theatre orchestra will render a special musical program.

Tomorrow the twelfth instalment of "The Million Dollar Mystery" will be shown, together with a splendid two-reel feature, "As Fate Wills," in which Warren Kerrigan has the leading role. On Wednesday some of the latest war scenes will be shown.

Civil War Story at Gem.

The special feature in tonight's program at the Gem is entitled "A War Baby." At the opening of the civil war duty calls Capt. Willis of the northern army from his bride, Louise, daughter of the confederate officer, Col. Frear. At the same time Belle Darring, a zealous confederate, breaks her engagement with Lieut. Fiske of the union troops. Belle becomes a confederate spy and falls into the hands of her lover, Lieut. Fiske, but is beguiled into letting her go. Louise Willis determines to visit her husband with the baby and writes him to meet her at Simpson's Corners. He is unable to obtain leave, but goes to the meeting under cover of night. He is delayed by the presence of confederates and reaches the corners only to find that Louise has passed through in company with another woman, who, he guesses, is Belle Darring, the spy. Louise has secured a pass through the union lines and depends upon her friendship with the southern officers to obtain her passage through the confederates. She and Belle are captured by union soldiers, and Belle persuades her to take a paper which she carries and give the pass in exchange, since, as the wife of a northern officer, she would easily escape search. When searched Belle's paper is found on Louise and she is taken for the confederate spy.

Returning from the meeting place Willis is placed under arrest, accused of abandoning his post and of permitting Belle Darring to pass through. Louise and her husband are both sentenced to be shot. Belle uses Louise's pass to reach the union general and pleads for clemency for Louise. When the general refuses Belle promises to deliver to him the famous woman spy if he will delay the execution until it can be referred to the authorities at Washington. The general agrees. Then Belle turns to Gen. Slogan with "I am Belle Darring, general, and you are prisoner."

A good musical program will be rendered by the orchestra.

A. A. J. Collis of Creston is at the Strathcona.

John H. Hoyle of Queen's Bay is at the Hume.
