UNITED STATES REJECTS PEACE MOVE

ALLIED FORCES ADVANCE ON MACEDONIAN FRONT

Bulgarian Strongholds Stormed

1500 FOEMEN ARE CAPTURED

Balfour Tells of Battle at Luncheon in London

(By the Associated Press.)

In the various theatres of war the fighting is going on steadily and with added impetus in Macedonia, where the reconstituted Serbian army, co-operating with French forces, has stormed three strongly fortified Bulgarian positions and occupied Vetrenik, Dobropolje and Sokal, considered the most important part of the Macedonian front.

Farther to the east, on the Doiran-Vardar front, the first and second line Bulgarian positions have been captured by the allies over a 10-mile section. This operation, according to Mr. Balfour, who announced at a reception of the Greek delegation in London, is "the prelude to an important offensive bringing greater triumphs, in which the British and Greek troops would take an equal and glorious part."

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A Serbian official statement issued here tonight gives the positions captured by the Franco-Serbian forces as Vetrenik, Dobropolje and Sokal, which is the most important part of the Macedonian front.

1500 Taken Prisoner

LONDON, Sept. 16.—(Canadian Press Despatch from Reuter's, Limited.)—Reuter's learns that after an intense artillery fire, the French and Serbian troops yesterday attacked the most powerful Bulgarian positions that had been organized and for the first time in over two years.

The whole position is on a front of 15 kilometres. Fifteen hundred men were taken prisoners and a great number of guns and material were captured.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The capture of the first and second line Bulgarian positions along a 10-mile section of tht Doiran-Vardar front Sunday was announced by Arthur J. Balfour at a reception to the Greek delegation tonight. He referred to this, which involved the taking of 800 prisoners and 10 guns, as the prelude to an important offensive, "bringing in greater triumphs, in which the British and Greek troops would take an equal part."

Greece Has 200,000 Men.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Canadian Press despatch from Reuter's Limited.—Reuter's correspondent interviewed Michael Acopoulos, the Greek minister of agriculture today. The minister said that Greece had 200,000 soldiers under arms and could raise an additional 100,000 but was handicapped owing to the lack of shipping facilities. They were immediately commencing to build shipyards. He concluded that he was convinced that the Saloniki front was far more important than was generally realized. "Soon there will be big developments there," he said.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 16..—Regina ministers at a meeting of their association today passed a resolution endorsing the request of the Guelph Ministerial association for a parliamentary inquiry into the raid on the Guelph novitiate after listening to an address by Rev. K. H. Palmer of Guelph.

FIRE DESTROYS PART OF ABBEY VILLAGE

REGINA, Sask., Sept. 16.—Abbey, Sask., is minus the Union bank building, a garage, a livery barn, two restaurants, a butcher shop and a real estate office as the result of a fire which threatened the whole town on Saturday. Other buildings took fire, but were saved.

LLOYD GEORGE, IN BED, URGES STRIKERS TO WORK

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Greatly concerned over the cotton strike, Premier Lloyd George tonight from his sick bed issued an appeal to the strikers to return to work and leave the decision in the matters under dispute to the government after an inquiry by a special tribunal to be immediately appointed.

The premier based his appeal on the fact that the strike will seriously interfere with the production of war material.

The spinners in Yorkshire and Lancashire cotton mills quit work Saturday on the question of the abolition of the rota system. The Amalgamated Association of Cotton Spinners has a membership of 20,000 but indirectly the strike will affect 300,000 operatives.

FORM POLISH UNIT IN SIBERIA

Estimate 13,000 Trained Military Men Will Soon Be Available in Region of Vladivostok.

(By Associated Press.)

While the Czecho-Slovaks have been courageously and successfully carrying on the war against the Bolsheviki, steps have been taken looking to the organization of a Polish division under Polish officers, to wage the fight in Siberia westward to their fatherland as integral units in the American army. It is estimated that 100,000 trained men can be made available at once in the regions of Harbin, Nikolsk and Vladivostok.

Organize Polish Division.

HARBIN, Saturday, Sept. 14.—A movement exceeding perhaps that of the Czecho-Slovaks, is being organized by Polish officers to form a Polish division to fight in Siberia westward to their oppressed fatherland as integral units in the American army. According to a conservative estimate an army of more than 13,000 trained military men is immediately available in the region of Harbin and Vladivostok.

Japanese Winning.

TOKIO, Sunday, Sept. 8.—An official statement issued today by the Japanese war office, reporting operation on the Ussuri front, in Siberia, says:

"The main strength of our cavalry has entered Khabarovsk on the Ussuri branch of the trans-Siberian railway. Between the Uaizenskaya and Khabarovsk, 17 locomotives, 191 freight cars and four passenger cars were captured. Thirty-five prisoners, including some Germans, were taken. These were in addition to the 150 prisoners, including German officers, captured on Sept. 6."

AVIATORS DOWN 37 FOE PLANES

British Sky Riders Take Advantage of Better Weather Conditions—Four Airdromes Bombed.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Sunday along the British front in France was characterized by various air fighting. The weather improved and the air forces were up in large numbers. The British aviators brought down 37 hostile machines. At least 29 of them were totally destroyed. Sixteen of the British machines failed to return.

These aerial operations are described in an official communication tonight as follows:

"On Sept. 15, with improving weather, there was a marked increase of aerial activity. Enemy machines were encountered in large formations on the German side of the line and there were many combats.

"Twenty-nine hostile airplanes were destroyed in the air fighting during the day and seven were driven down out of control. In addition, a large enemy night bombing machine was brought down after dark.

"Four enemy airdromes were successfully attacked and heavily bombed, one by day and three by night. During the 24 hours, 30 tons of bombs were dropped by us.

.."Our balloons took advantage of the clear atmosphere to send down many useful observations and our airplanes engaged in reconnaissance, photography and observation for artillery fire carried out much visible work.

BRING DOWN BOMBING PLANE IN PARIS CITY

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

PARIS, Sept. 16.—(Havas Agency)—A German bombing plane was downed by a direct shot from the artillery defense of Paris during the aerial attack upon the city last night. The wrecked machine fell in one of the northern suburbs. In the wreckwere found the bodies of an officer and two men.

FRENCH ADVANCE; 600 PRISONERS

Push Ahead to Depth of Nearly a Mile—American Front Quiet

(By the Associated Press.)

French troops in their advance toward the Chemin-des-Dames have gained two-thirds of a mile on a two and a half mile front to the northeast of Sancy, where they captured an additional 600 prisoners.

American and German patrols are doing the major part of the work on the Lorraine front, but there are reports of a possible great attack by one side or the other in the Vosges. In that mountainous territory, the artillery fire has developed great intensity and hostile airplanes have been unusually active.

All reports indicate a marked increase in the work of the airplanes along all the fronts. The Germans, who quite recently appeared to lack adequate air forces, have now sent augmented forces into the air and there have been numerous engagements. As an illustration of the severity of the fighting, the British airmen on Sunday accounted for 37 German planes, while they themselves reported 16 missing.

Paris Official

PARIS, Sept. 16.—To the northwest of Sancy, northeast of Soissons, French troops today advanced about a kilometre on a front of four kilometres, according to the war office announcement tonight. Six hundred additional prisoners were taken.

Airplanes Active

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN THE VOSGES, Sept. 16, 9 p.m.—Artillery activity of an intensity to suggest a possible attack or an extended attack occurred in the Vosges today. It was accompanied by an extraordinary amount of signalling. Enemy airplanes were unusually active. Ten flew over St. Die and 20 over Gerardmer.

Americans Quiet

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE LORRAINE FRONT, Sept. 16, 1 p.m.—Aside from slightly increased artillery activity this morning the day thus far has been largely devoted to patrolling by both sides. The Germans seemingly are holding the Hindenburg line, from which they are sending out patrols, while the Americans and French, encamped a few miles on this side, continue to feel out the line by the same method.

German Official.

BERLIN, Sept. 16.—As a reprisal for the continued bombing of German towns, says the official statement issued today by the German war office, 22,000 kilograms of bombs were dropped last night on Paris.

In engagements between the Ailette and Aisne rivers, the enemy gained a footing in the southern part of Vailly. The text of the statements reads:

"On the Lys plateau, south of La Bassee canal, we carried out successful encounters.

"There was a vigorous artillery engagement in the morning between Havrincourt and Epehy, which was followed by enemy partial attacks near and south of Havrincourt. The enemy was repulsed. Fighting activity remained within moderate limits the whole day.

"North and east of Vermand, at Holnon wood and near Essigny-le-Grand there were infantry engagements.

There have been vigorous partial engagements between the Ailette and the Aisne. After futile thrusts early in the morning the enemy in the evening again broke forward to attack. On the main he was repulsed but he has somewhat extended the point which he broke through on the previous day and has gained a footing in the southern part of Vailly.

Infantry Inactive.

"Between the Aisne and the Vesle the enemy infantry remained inactive. We cleared up a small French nest which remained as a result of the fighting on Sunday.

"From the Cotes Lorraine as far as the Moselle river the artillery duel was revived in the evening. Vigorous infantry engagements developed on sev-

PEACE NOW HUN VICTORY

Hon. Rowell Speaks in Saskatchewan

GERMANY HAS WON MUCH

Says Allies Goal Has Not Yet Been Reached

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

SASKATOON, Sask., Sept. 16.—Austria's peace proposal was laid at the door of Germany in a speech delivered by Hon. N. W. Rowell at Prince Albert tonight.

The president of the privy council declared that the proposal would doubtless receive the consideration it deserves from all the allied powers, and that it would be called in before any definite decision has been reached. He declared that now was the time when we should recall the words and spirit of Abraham Lincoln on the battlefield of Gettysburg, and dedicate ourselves anew to the achievement of the great task for which so many brave men have died.

A large and enthusiastic audience welcomed Mr. Rowell, who was introduced by Andrew Knox, M. P., who acted as chairman. At the close of the meeting a collection for the Red Cross was taken.

Expected Drive Is On.

"The expected Teutonic peace drive is upon us," Mr. Rowell said. "The Austrian proposal for a peace conference is undoubtedly the result of acute political and economic affairs in Austria and of the war-weariness of the Austrian people. Following so closely after the statement of Germany's war aims, and the basis on which she will be prepared to consider peace, made last week by the German imperial vice chancellor, it would appear without doubt to be another effort on the part of Germany to bring about a peace discussion while she is still in possession of all her conquests and while she still believes she can dominate the situation at a peace conference. The proposal made by Austria calls for and will receive the consideration of the allied powers. Canada will undoubtedly be recognized before the imperial government makes its reply, which will no doubt express the sentiments of all the free governments of the British kingdom.

"We must read the Austrian proposal for a peace conference in the light of this declaration of the German vice-chancellor, in which he said that Germany would not submit to the allies for a provisional or alteration to any conference dealing with terms of peace treaties which Germany had signed with Russia, the Ukraine and Rumania. Do we realize that under the terms of Germany's treaty with Russia and the Ukraine, Germany today has Russia practically at her feet?

"Under the treaty of Brest-Litovsk, Russia is dismembered, her great industrial and her great wheat-growing provinces in the west, containing a population of about 50,000,000, while nominally independent, are, in reality, German provinces. Russia in the Caucasus has been dismembered for the benefit of Turkey. Germany also controls the Balkans and through Turkey, the Near East. If Germany is not compelled to submit for cancellation or revision her treaties with Rumania, Russia and the Ukraine, she will have won one of the greatest military victories in history. We should view the Austrian peace proposal not only in the light of the startling disclosures just made by the United States government of the extent of German intrigue and corruption in Russia, which contributed to the overthrow of the Russian democracy and the establishment of the present Bolsheviki administration and Lenine and Trotzky, who appear to have been in the pay of Germany. We must also view the proposal in the light of Germany's latest submarine horror, in which helpless women and children, journeying to South Africa, have gone to a watery grave.

Germany Wants Beating.

"We might as well frankly face the fact that all available references point to the conclusion that Germany will make no peace at the present time, nor until her armies are decisively defeated which the allies can accomplish in justice to those who have so nobly fallen in the struggle. Now is the time we should recall the words and spirit of Abraham Lincoln on the memorable field of Gettysburg, and dedicate ourselves anew to the achievement of the great task for which so many brave men have died. That appeal should

WILSON IGNORES AUSTRIA'S OFFER

Secretary Lansing Says U. S. Has Made Its Position Clear—No Compromising.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Austria's proposal for peace discussion was delivered to Secretary Lansing tonight by W. A. F. Ekengren, Swedish minister to the United States. After reading the document Secretary Lansing said the United States will entertain no proposal for a conference upon a matter concerning which it has made its position and purpose so plain. The secretary of state let it be known that he was speaking on authority of the president.

KARLSRUHE IS TARGET FOR ALLIED AIRMEN

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

LONDON, Sept. 16.—British aviators have again bombed the railway at Metz-Sablons and Mainz and docks and sidings at Karlsruhe, 17 direct hits being obtained on Karlsruhe according to the air communication tonight. The statement reads:

"On the battle front, on the night of Sept. 15-16 four hostile airdromes were heavily and repeatedly attacked by our machines with excellent results. Four fires were started, three hostile machines on the ground were wrecked, two hangars were completely demolished and several more hangars received direct hits. A transport convoy was hit four times.

"The railways at Metz-Sablons were again bombed and a fire started .The railway junctions at Mainz and the docks and sidings at Karlsruhe were successfully attacked.

"Very good results were observed on both targets, and at Karlsruhe, where 3½ tons of bombs were dropped, 17 direct hits were obtained. During the night 350 bombs totaling 16½ tons in weight were dropped. All our machines returned."

C.N.R. EMPLOYEES TAKE STRIKE VOTE

System West of Winnipeg May Be Affected—Reconsideration of Board Question, Demand.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

EDMONTON, Alta., Sept. 16.—A strike vote is now being taken among the Canadian Northern railway employees, members of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, throughout the system west of Winnipeg.

The reason for the vote being taken, according to statements made to the trades and labor council on Monday night, is the refusal of the company to consent to the board of conciliation reconsidering a number of points in the schedule alleged to have been negotiated.

The strike vote is being taken as the result of resolutions passed by the general grievance committee to cover western roads and it was stated that results of the vote from local unions were all in favor of a strike, provided that the railroad company did not consent to the reconsideration.

BRITISH MINISTER SAYS FOOD SITUATION FAIR

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—The following cable dealing with food conditions in England, compiled by the minister of information under the authority of the war cabinet, was received here by the director of public information:

Supplies of ham and bacon are coming in satisfactorily and the quality is improving. There is general satisfaction at the arrival on the market of an excellent quality of home killed meat. Failure of the fruit crop involves the rationing of jam when the next books are issued in November.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—Anton Troubat, under secretary of the questorship in the senate, was killed during an aerial bombardment.

AMERICAN POSITION HAS BEEN MADE PLAIN—LANSING

ITALIANS CAPTURE 321 PRISONERS AND SOME GUNS

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

ROME, Sept. 16.—In the region north and northwest of Grappa on the northern Italian mountain front, Italian detachments this morning raided the enemy lines and advanced at some points to the position already occupied, says the Italian war office statement issued today. The Italians took 321 prisoners and captured numerous machine guns. On the remainder of the front, there were artillery duels and patrol activity.

U. S. EXPOSES BOLSHEVIKI

Reveals Further Secret Documents Captured by American Officials and Showing Underhand Methods

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Secret activities against the United States and the allies of the German paid and controlled Russian Bolsheviki government are the subject of today's chapter of "confidential documents" from Russia, given to the public by the American government. One of the documents, a terse note from the German general staff to the council of peoples commissaries, discloses that as long ago as November, 1917, when the Russian regime still was regarded as an ally of the nations at war with Germany, the Germans were brusquely requiring Lenine and Trotsky to furnish information regarding the amounts and the places of storage of supplies received by Russia from America, England and France.

Bolsheviki Peace

Others tell of the launching in January and February this year of a Bolsheviki peace and Socialist propaganda against the United States, England and France, at the direction of the intelligence service. This was at the very time that Scheidemann, the powerful German Socialist and world Socialism apostle, was in communication with his Russian brothers regarding the destruction of the traces of the party's business relations with the imperial government, the intelligence service required the Bolsheviki to send to the allied countries through neutral Europe, "comrades" under assumed names and with false neutral passports, to preach their doctrine of disorganization and to carry on campaigns of "counter revolution, sabotage, looting, etc."

Plans of the Germans for sending three submarines, disassembled, by rail overland to Vladivostok for service on the Pacific, are disclosed in a communication on the German high seas fleet general staff to the commissaries.

One of the naval communications reveals a scheme conceived in January of employing Russian ships on the Pacific under the Russian flag to carry agitators and a general—destructors—to the United States, Japan and the British colonies in eastern Asia.

Personal notes from the German intelligence service to the commissaries describe the assault upon the robbery of the Italian people of Petrograd in February last in a vain effort to get possession of important papers believed to have been in the ambassador's possession. Other notes tell in detail of the watch kept upon American and other allied embassies.

Like the remainder of the documents of the series, those made public today are accompanied by notes explaining which are original and other photographs and by explanatory comments by Edgar Sisson, who obtained the correspondence in Russia for the committee of public information.

German Plot

The following documents with Mr. Sisson's interpretative notes expose the German plots against the allies.

"Document No. 16. — (Counter Espionage Stavka, Jan. 21, 1918, No. 215)—To the commissariat of foreign affairs:

"We hereby advise you of the arrival in Mogilev of the following German officers, who are being ordered to England, France and America:

Newspapers Speak in One Voice

BALFOUR IS COLD TO OFFER

German Papers Deny Fatherland's Part in Action

(By Associated Press.)

The United States has turned its back on the Austro-Hungarian peace proposal. Secretary Lansing, by authority of President Wilson, announces that the United States "can and will entertain no proposal for a conference upon a matter concerning which it has made its position and purpose so plain."

The British secretary for foreign affairs, Mr. Balfour, has stated, though unofficially, that he was utterly unable to see that such a peace as proposed by Austria could have the desired effect, adding:

Incredible Says Balfour.

"It is incredible that anything can come of this proposal."

While the German newspapers comment on the proposal as though Germany had no part in it, the Vienna newspapers declare emphatically that all Austria's allies had been informed of Austria's intention though the action itself was Austria-Hungary's own.

U. S. Rejects Offer.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The United States, as was fully expected, has unconditionally rejected Germany's peace feeler. In doing so, the government has spoken for all the co-belligerents. Almost immediately after receiving the Austrian government's note from the minister of Sweden, Mr. Ekengren, Secretary Lansing tonight issued this formal statement:

"I am authoried by the president to state that the following will be the reply of this government to the Austro-Hungarian note, proposing an unofficial conference of officials:

"The government of the United States feels that there is only one reply which it can make to the suggestion of the imperial Austro-Hungarian government. It has repeatedly and with entire candor, stated the terms upon which the United States would consider peace and will entertain no proposal for a conference upon a matter concerning which it has made its position and purpose so plain."

Prompt Answer.

Mr. Lansing's statement was given out within half an hour after he had received the Austrian proposal. It would have been forthcoming almost immediately upon the delivery of the Austrian note, had it not been found necessary in order to avoid the policy of grave error to make a careful comparison between the official text and that which was received in news despatches last night from Amsterdam.

Thus emphasis was added to the declination, if any were needed, the quickness of the reply indicating the existence of no shadow of doubt in the mind of the administration as to what it should be. As soon as Mr. Lansing's reply can be put in form, it will be handed to the Swedish minister for transmission to Austria.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Foreign Secretary Balfour today said that Von Payer made a long speech last week in which he gave utterance to words which were perfectly explicit and quite unmistakable.

"Take Belgium, for example," he said. "The phrase he uses is a very curious one, but I suppose it is intended to mean that Germany feels that she really must restore Belgian independence. She does not say what she is going to do to restore Belgian prosperity or that indemnities are to be given to the country she wasted, brutalized and ravaged.

"But it seems that if Belgium will consent to make certain modifications in her international arrangements she is to be allowed to get back her independence .Explicit though it be its explicitness refuses that which we think obviously just, namely, restoration and indemnity to Belgium which has been so monstrously treated.

"Von Payer, stated that the German boundaries should remain intact, which of course, means that Germany will keep Alsace-Lorraine. How are conversations going to set that right? There are no misunderstandings between the belligerents on the score."

LESS BOLSHEVIKI IN EUROPEAN RUSSIA

(Special to The Daily News.)

VLADIVOSTOK, Sept. 16.—Bolshevism from Sretensk, in Trans-Baikalia to the Volga, in European Russia, is dead. The Bolsheviki leaders in this region have been hanged or have hidden themselves, while the Red Guards who are arriving here have renounced Bolshevism forever. The peasants are returning to the fields and the workmen are resuming work at the factories. A solid foundation is ready to be laid to save Russia from German clutches. The Czecho-Slovak leaders say, however, that their forces are merely a hundred compared with the Austro-German legions in Russia and they feel there are too many odds against them to accomplish single-handed the task of fighting and reorganizing the Russian army, by force.

Four thousand Czecho-Slovaks have fought their way for a distance of more than 2500 miles in three months. They speak, therefore, they say, from experience and they claim the facts given should be sufficient grounds for the conclusion of entente allied action in the despatch of troops and munitions and the forwarding of raw material to the Siberian factories.

HARBIN, Sept. 7.—(Delayed)—Entente allied consuls have presented an ultimatum to the striking employees on the Chinese Eastern railway demanding that the strike come to an end, as it retards military movements.

An attachment has been patented to link together a rocking chair and baby coach, the motions of the former making the latter serve as a cradle.

Under the seat of a new study chair is a drawer for books and papers, while a shelf for writing can be swung across the arms from one side.

PEACE NOW HUN VICTORY

come with especial force to us in Canada in view of the sacrifices and glorious achievements of our own valiant troops in this task."

Mr. Rowell stated that activities in France during the past few weeks was the turning point of the war. He declared that the cup of victory had been dashed from the kaiser's lips. "Germany is not yet defeated," he said. "Belgium, Rumania, Serbia, Montenegro and a large part of Russia are at her feet. She dominates Austria and Turkey. Could Germany make peace now, even by completely evacuating Belgium and northern France, she would still have gained the greatest military victory in history and the German people would still believe that the war was the most profitable national enterprise and that crimes against God and humanity were sanctified by success."

Great Britain and France realize that the goal for which they entered the war has not yet been reached and are prepared to make even greater sacrifices until Prussian militarism has been defeated and the German people learn that war does not pay.

Premier Borden Sends Letter of Endorsation to Chairman Lyons at Ottawa

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—The Knights of Columbus, who inaugurated today a Canadian-wide campaign for a fund of $500,000 in connection with the Canadian army hut campaign, have received letters of endorsation from Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

The premier's letter to Chairman Lyons says:

"I have already made a contribution to the fund raised in Halifax by the Knights of Columbus for the same purpose, but the cause which you are supporting is so worthy that I gladly send an additional contribution to the fund here."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's letter says:

"The citizens of Canada, without distinction of race or creed, will generously assist the military chaplain service and the Knights of Columbus in carrying on the welfare work which they have undertaken and which resembles to a great extent the excellent work which is being carried on by the Y. M. C. A.

"Both have for their object physical moral and mental health of the boys who are standing between us and German militarism."

REPEAL ARMY ACT DEMANDS UNION

Montreal Body Presents Resolution to Labor Congress Meeting in Quebec.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

QUEBEC, Sept .16.—The Trades and Labor congress initiated the first of the business sessions of its convention here today in Columbus hall with four spirited debates on questions upon which the delegates were clearly divided. The first was a motion to pass on to the resolutions committee a recommendation that the Military act should be repealed. The congress refused by a abre majority to let the resolution come up for consideration.

The second was the application of a number of Russian workers in Toronto to allow their delegates to be heard on the floor of the convention. The request was refused because the Russians were not members of a trades union. The third was the request that a message of greeting be sent from the congress to the Canadian army. This was submitted to the convention by P. M. Draper, secretary, at the request of Senator Robertson and was finally carried amid cheers.

The last issue dealt with the time and day of electing officers and was indicative of the keenness with which the elections are regarded.

The resolution in reference to the Military Service act came from local No. 33 of the International Machinists' union of Montreal. It reads:

"We demand the immediate repeal of the Military Service act."

Secretary Draper pointed out that as the resolution was in the form of a demand and had not been deposited with him 10 days before the congress, it would require a two-thirds vote to get it considered by the congress. He reminded the delegates that at the last session of the congres sin Ottawa legal advice was taken upon the question of criticizing the Military Service act and it was then found that it was illegal to condemn the act. He asked that a vote be taken as to what disposal was to be made of the resolution.

J. H. Houtson, Montreal, said he suggested the motion to send the resolution to the committee because we are making war on the Russians without asking the people for their ndorsement.

Michael Buhay, Montreal, said he though it would be all right to discuss the matter in the light of present conditions, and after two hours' deliberation on the constitutional side of the matter with all considerations of the measure was debate, the congress decided to refuse to pass the resolution on to the resolutions committee.

Some doubt exists this morning as to the position of President Watters who has been refused credentials by his union. It was established this afternoon that Mr. Watters is entitled to take his place in the convention and to run for office again under an amendment passed at Ottawa last year.

Thought She Would Lose Her Little Girl With Diarrhoea

Thousands of infants die annually who could be saved by the timely use of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

There can be no doubt about it.

During the seventy-two years that this wonderful remedy has been on the market, it has been proved conclusively that it is the best for diarrhoea dysentery, colic, cramps, cholera infantum and all looseness of the bowels, especially when the children are teething .

Many of the imitations of "Dr. Fowler's" being offered to the public today are positively dangerous, as they often check the diarrhoea too suddenly, cause inflammation and leave the bowels in a constipated condition. "Dr. Fowler's" will not do this, but will impart a healthy tone to the mucous surface and stop the diarrhoea in an easy and natural way.

Mrs. M. Tyler, Orland, Ont., writes: "I have used your wonderful medicine for nine years with great satisfaction.

My little girl was only five months old and she was so sick with diarrhoea I thought she would die. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and it gave her quick relief. I have used it ever since for the whole of my family, six in all and can praise it more than anything I ever used"

PEACE NOTE DOES NOT AFFECT MART

Money Situation and Political Significance at New York Overshadows Feeler from Enemy.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A dull and featureless session of the stock market today and the restricted money situation overshadowed the political significance of the Austrian and German peace offer.

After a steady opening, sharp recessions developed in a few of the speculative issues, notably American Sumatra Tobacco, which suffered a decline of 7 points during the day to 107⅛, its lowest in many months.

The so-called peace shares, as standard rails, gave a good account of themselves, notably Southern Pacific and Northern Pacific. Speculative operations were resumed in the volatile specialties, particularly the oil group, which scored 1 to 4 point advances on reputed large earnings. United States Steel, offered freely, declined about a point with similar loss in affiliated properties. There was marked weakness in distillery shares, which, however, reduced losses before the close. During final dealings, the trend was generally downward.

Liberty bonds were inclined to yield. U. S .bonds, old issues, unchanged on call.

STOCKS AT MONTREAL SHOW STRONGER TONE

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

MONTREAL, Sept. 16—A firm opening in Wall street today was reflected in slightly higher range for Canadian stocks. Pronounced strength was displayed in one issue, Maple Leaf Milling advancing to 125, a rise of 5 points over the stock's local high record for the year. Local explanations of the advance were vaguely based on possibilities of another bonus distribution. Other strong and moderately active stocks included Brazilian which rose a point to 44½ at the opening, but lost half of the gain later; Montreal Power, which held at 86¼, Laurentide ½ higher at 175½, Dominion Iron ½ up at 62; Canadian Car preferred 1 point higher at 85, Brompton ½ higher at 60, and Asbestos common ¾ up at 26¾. Steel of Canada held at 71¾. Steamship preferred ex-dividend sold at 76¾ at the opening, but small lots sold at 76½ later, and there were offerings at 76¼ at the close.

St. Lawrence Flour sold at 96½, a decline of 4 points. Ontario Steel was marked 1¾ lower at 30, but closed 31 bid. Canada Forgings was a point down at 207. The old war loans continue fairly active and strong. Sales: Shares, 2686; bonds, $36,500.

PEACE NOTE DOES NOT AFFECT LONDON MART

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Austro-Hungarian peace note did not affect the financial district today. The belief prevails that nothing will come of it. Business on the stock exchange was quiet with a good undertone. There was renewed support for consols and other allied bonds, but home rails weakened on account of the labor situation. Oil and mining shares firm; Russian shares dull; money was in good supply and discounts were quiet.

The treasury announces a new issue of three and six months treasury notes at the rate of 3¼ per cent.

MAPLE LEAF MILLING RISES TO HIGH POINT

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

TORONTO, Sept. 16.—Maple Leaf's sharp rise to the highest point of the year and the strength and activity of the stock were incidents of note in the local market today. Maple Leaf, which had closed on Saturday at 120½, thereby equalling the previous top level of the year, opened ½ point higher today at 121 and then added a 4-point advance to this, closing at 125, the day's best price, although the stock was on offer later at 124¾, with 124¼ bid. Brazilian opened at 44, advanced to 44½ and sagged to 44 again, closing at the latter figure for a net gain of ⅝. Among the firm issues were Steamship preferred, ex-dividend, with an advance of ¾; Russell preferred, a point up at 84 and Nova Scotia Car preferred, with a 2-point advance to 40. Steamship common and Steel of Canada, common and preferred, showed no change. Nova Scotia Steel was ⅝ lower at 66⅝.

The third war loan was ¼ lower at 94.

CORN PRICES HIGHER.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 16.—Scantiness of offerings rallied the corn market today from a decline brought about chiefly by a railroad embargo on grain shipments to Kansas City, St. Louis and Omaha. Prices closed off to 1¼ net higher, with October $1.53¾ to ½ and November $1.49⅝ to ¾.

Oats gained ⅜ to ⅝ cent and provisions finished 2½ cents to $1 down.

MUST CONSERVE SUGAR SUPPLY

Canada Food Board Urges Householder to Be Very Careful for There's Little on Hand

The Canada food board urges householders to assist in arranging a fair distribution of sugar. Owing to the fact that the Cuban cane crop has proved to be 300,000 tons short of the original estimates upon which sugar allotments for Canada and the allied countries were based, with additional shortages due to disappointments of the Louisiana cane crop and the sugar beet crop of the United States and losses from submarine attacks off the American coast, the International Sugar Commission have been obliged to reduce the amounts allotted to the various allied countries, including Canada. The Canada food board has, therefore, imposed radical restrictions upon manufacturers using sugar for the purpose of providing sufficient quantities to supply householders. It would be manifestly unfair, however, if people in the homes ate up the sugar saved by regulations of manufacturers by wasteful or extravagant use, or even by permitting consumption of amounts normally used in normal years. The food board urges that a family of two should not use more than an aggregate of one quarter of a level cupful of sugar per day for cooking, table use and all other purposes, except preserving, and for other families consumption should be limited to the same proportion.

Candy manufacturers have had their allowance of sugar reduced to one-half of the amount used by them last year. Cake and biscuit makers have been placed on a rigorous ration basis and are now using syrups and other available substitutes to a large extent. Jam manufacturers are even using raw sugar. Bakers are not permitted to use any but yellow or brown sugar in making bread and only a very small amount even at that. Glucose is being used extensively as a sugar substitute. No manufacturer can obtain sugar today except on presentation of a sugar certificate and under no circumstances to a greater amount than the allotment by the food board.

But even these far reaching regulations cannot save sufficient sugar to provide for canning and preserving requirements, unless the householder, too, will make some sacrifices. If all the people of Canada would use only one teaspoonful of sugar in their tea or coffee instead of two, the aggregate annual saving for preserving would be fifty thousand tons, or more than three times the amount of sugar now allowed to all the candy and confectionery manufacturers in the Dominion for one year.

Public eating places have been put on a ration of two pounds of sugar for 90 meals for all purposes, and it is the duty of the householders to observe a similar ration in their homes. There simply is not enough granulated sugar available to meet the usual domestic consumtption demands and also to provide for canning and preserving. Not only must, householders reduce their use of all cane sugar, but part of their honor ration should be brown sugar instead of granulated.

Saving Ways.

Among the ways in which the public are asked to conserve sugar, in addition to observing the honor ration of not more than two pounds per person per month, are the following:

"Use white corn syrup in part in canning and preserving.

Use no more than one level teaspoonful of sugar in sweetening any cup of tea, coffee or other beverage.

Discontinue the making of rich pastries.

Use no more sugar in canning and preserving than is absolutely necessary.

The making of heavy jams and preserves is not necessary and should be stopped.

The greatest waste of sugar does not occur in the manufacture of candy, or in commercial uses, all of which are now under drastic regulations. Instead it is found in unnecessary and excessive use of sugar in the homes," says the food board. "The time has come when the people of Canada must understand that sugar consumption must be reduced. With reasonable conservation there will be sufficient to take care of preserving requirements, and to meet the necessary demands until the end of the year when the new crop will be available, but this can only be assured by reduced domestic consumption. If extravagance is continued in the homes, shortage is unavoidable and the blame will rest with the householder."

That HE may NOT need in vain

From across the sea there comes a plea to the loyal hearts of Canada. On the blood-soaked field of battle, suffering the intense anguish of a mortal wound, many a brave Canadian lad is calling, pleading, praying for the relief, the comfort, the assistance of those for whom he is fighting He has nobly borne his cross, but the barbarism of a heathen foe has placed him helpless at your mercy, and from out the awful abyss comes to YOU his voice, begging in all the pathos of his agony for the relief which YOU can give.

Won't you give as freely of YOUR MONEY as HE has of HIS BLOOD?

THE CRIMINAL MUST BE PUNISHED.

Germany's latest peace maneuvers have met with the reception that might have been expected. The allies will not be fooled into walking into the enemy trap. They are not going to allow Germany, having failed to get all she wanted, come out of this war with part of what she wanted and without suffering any punishment for the crimes against humanity that she has committed.

Germany must be punished, not for the sake of inflicting punishment, but in order to warn the Germans against making another attempt to pound the world into submission to Prussia and also as a warning to others. When a man tries to commit some horrible crime and is wholly or partially prevented we do not then allow him to go free. We punish him for having attempted the crime. We inflict this punishment in order to safeguard society against similar attempts. The same rule applies in international affairs. The international criminal must be punished both for the crimes it commits and the crimes it attempts to commit.

A WARNING OF FOREST FIRE DANGER.

News of the serious forest fires which are raging in the state of Washington should have the good effect of bringing to the attention of British Columbians the fact that the forest fire danger is not by any means over.

The delightfully warm weather of recent weeks has made the woods as dry as tinder and it would take only a little spark to cause forest fires which might wipe out thousands of dollars worth of property and some lives.

Hunters and campers, ranchers burning slash, lumbermen, prospectors and others who go into the woods should keep before them the ever-present danger of starting a forest fire through careless handling of matches, piper, cigars, cigarettes or camp fires.

WHAT THE PEERS HAVE DONE

The idea put forward in some quarters early in the war that the common people must do the fighting, make the sacrifice and pay the cost while the titled or wealthy aristocracy enjoyed the benefits it would bring did not long survive, the Galt Reporter points out. British casualty lists soon showed that as far as Britain was concerned nobles and commoners were fighting and falling together.

It was hardly to be expected, however, that representative Socialists would consider it incumbent on them to go out of their way to defend the upper classes. That on occasion they do so indicates the departure on the part of leaders in class strife from the policy of using any means offering to gain their ends, whether they be fair or not. An old country newspaper of recent date relates an interesting case in which Victor Grayson, the Socialist, took up the defense of the nobility against a charge that it was not doing its share in the war. He went to the trouble of making an investigation into the matter, and his finding is of interest. He says:

"Up to date there are 251 peers (members of the house of lords) who have served or are serving with his majesty's forces. Of these, 14 have been killed in action, one has died, 18 have been wounded, and one is a prisoner. In addition, eight Scottish and 28 Irish peers have been or are with his majesty's forces, of whom two Irish peers have been killed, three Scottish and six Irish peers have been wounded and one Irish peer has died. Taking into consideration the number of peers who must be over military age, I think it will be readily conceded that the house of Lords has 'played the game' in the world's crisis.

"But this is not all. The sons of peers who served or are serving with his majesty's forces number 824. Of this very creditable total 162 have been killed in action, 126 have been wounded, 14 are prisoners and eight have died. Out of this 824 sons of peers, 329 were heirs to the title and of these 75 were killed and five died. These figures scarcely indicate any tendency on the part of the upper classes to cling to the comforts and luxuries of their existence or to shirk the risks and privations of war."

Don't start a forest fire.

The shooting season is on and no one can be to careful how he handles a gun—unless he is overseas and pointing it at a German.

The completion in the United States alone of two ships each day is setting the German sub commanders a pace which is leaving them behind in a fog.

In their assaults against the Lorraine border the Franco-American troops are hitting at one of Germany's vital spots. But for the iron mines of Alsace-Lorraine Germany could never have continued this war beyond the first year.

Possession by the American government of documents which give details of the German intrigues with the Bolsheviki settles that matter once and for all. The Bolsheviki leaders are proved beyond peradventure of a doubt to be knaves who have been leading fools.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING

Punished Ohio Politicians.

In Cleveland last week the Democrats declined to renominate Congressmen William Gordon and Robert Crosser because of their opposition to war measures. Both voted for the declaration of war, but both subsequently adopted an attitude toward war measures which they probably thought would be popular, but which their constituents have repudiated.—Detroit News.

Failed in Practise.

General Bernhardi, whose spouting made at one time such a hit in Germany, has had a chance to put into practise some of his military theories, but as his happens to be the corps that is being driven back by the British around Merville, it wouldn't appear that his policies were a success.—Buffalo Commercial.

TOLD IN RHYME

TIME'S CONQUESTS

Palmyra's haunted streets are lone and dim,
And strewn with broken columns, where the crowd
Surged to her shows and praised her gods aloud.
The setting sun, athwart the desert's rim,
Mocks at her plight—her pride was known to him
When vassal nations to her glory bowed,
And her great towers reft the passing cloud—
War's bastions magnificent and grim!

Persepolis, whose palace outshone
The sunset hues—Baalbec's pillars tall,
Karnac and Luxor, and the Parthenon—
The dust of death hath covered one and all—
Lo, where Tyre lies, her throne and sceptre gone,
And joyous Time hath riven Babylon's Wall!

—James B. Dollard.

COLD STORAGE

Officer—Young man, why haven't you enlisted?

Darky—Me enlist, sir? Why, say, man, my feet is so bad Ah couldn't retreat, let alone advance.

"Our product is thoroughly tested before leaving the factory. No man can sell stuff today that has not been tested."

"We manage to sell our product without testing it?"

"That's odd. What do you sell?"

"Dynamite."

He—Miss Sweetthing seems to have a constant succession of new admirers.

She—Well, that shows they have at least a modicum of intelligence. They can't stand for her very long.

"My husband tells me that he was out late last night with your husband."

"That isn't so. I want you to understand that my husband was out with your husband."

WAR CANNING BULLETIN

NEED SKILL TO MAKE GOOD JELLY

(Issued by Canada Food Board.)

It takes skill and care to make a success of jelly-making. Jam manages to take pretty good care of itself, providing it gets a moderate amount of attention but jelly is the spoiled child of the canning family and it needs careful and continuous watching. To make a good currant jelly, take three pounds sugar to four pounds of currant juice. Boil the currant juice without the sugar for about 10 minutes, or until the quantity is reduced. Heat the sugar in the oven and add when very hot to the liquid, so that the temperature will not be greatly reduced. When all is dissolved, bring to a boil again, and continue boiling for from three to five minutes. Test and when done, remove and put away in unsealed jars. When cool, seal with melted paraffin.

STEFANSSON BACK FROM FAR NORTH

Explorer Reaches Vancouver After Long Trip in the Arctic Regions.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B.C., Sept. 16.—Back from the far north, Vilhjalmur Stefansson, Canadian Arctic explorer, arrived here late today on the steamer Sophia from Alaska. He leaves tonight for Victoria from which he sailed over five years ago on the trip he is now bringing to a close.

"It seems as if I've never been away," Stefansson said on arriving. "Although I am outside I'd rather be up in the Arctic. I hope to return north some day but have no definite plans for future explorations."

Stefansson said his party did everything it set out to do. "We did not discover a continent northwest of Prince Patrick Land as reported," he asserted. "We did find several new islands, we mapped and explored this new land, we made explorations of the country around Coronation gulf, we studied the Eskimos, the plains and the animals and mapped the ocean currents and channels."

The explorer plans to start Oct. 31 at New York on a tour of the country giving lectures for the benefit of the Red Cross. The next two years he thinks probably he will spend compiling reports of his work for the Canadian government.

Blonde Eskimos.

Stefansson did not say much about the blonde Eskimos he has been reported as having discovered on an earlier expedition into the country east of Coronation gulf. "They were not really blonde Eskimos," he declared. "We found a colony of about 1000 natives, about 1 per cent of whom had light eyes and light hair."

Stefansson returned alone. About 25 men were with him when he left the outside world aboard the old whaler Karluk, June 17, 1913. According to the explorer some of these men are back in the United States, some are fighting in France, others are still in the arctic, while a number are dead.

When he left Stefansson planned to negotiate the northeast passage to the Atlantic ocean. The failure of a boat to met him at Melville island, when he had completed the hardest part of his eastern trip on foot, caused him to give up the plans to complete his journey to the Atlantic.

He confirmed the reports that copper and coal were found by him in the north. "We found coal on nearly every island we touched," he said. "These coal lands may some day be of great value for it was only 10 years ago that the Spitzbergen islands in the Arctic were little thought of as coal producers. Now, the Spitzbergen islands, farther north than many islands on which we found coal, rival Wales in coal production."

PARROTS VERY GLIB

When Macquarrie island, situated 600 miles to the south of New Zealand, was discovered in 1810, it was inhabited by a peculiar flightless parrot described by a contemporary who saw numbers of the birds which were brought to Sydney by sealers as "the glibbest of the loquacious tribe." Recent investigation of the island makes it almost certain that this strangely isolated specimen of the parrot family is completely extinct, probably as a result of the introduction of cats, which have become wild and overrun the place.

From fresco paintings of women in the Cretan palaces of about 2000 B.C., it is learned that women of that time pinched in their waists, wore elaborate coiffures, shoes with high heels and hats which have come from a Parisian hat shop.

TO every home there comes a time when every thought, every hope, every prayer for the future centres on the recovery of one loved one. In that hour of anguish, every means to recovery is sought—the highest medical skill, trained nurses, costly treatment. Does the price matter?

* * * *

It may be so great as to stagger the imagination—a sum beyond the possible.

But does anyone ask, "Can we do it?" Money or no money, they do it. And somehow they pay.

It may mean doing without things they think they need. It may mean privations, sacrifices, hardships. They make unbelievable savings, they achieve the impossible, but they get the money to pay.

* * * *

To-day in this critical period of our nationhood, there is imperative need for MONEY—vast sums of money. Only one way now remains to obtain it.

The nation must save, every community, every family, every individual Canadian must save.

If anyone says "I cannot save" let him consider to what extent he would pinch himself to relieve the sufferings of a loved one at home; and surely he would not pinch less for our fighting brothers in France.

Without suffering actual privations, nearly every family in Canada can reduce its standard of living, can practice reasonable thrift, can make cheerful sacrifice to enrich the life-blood of the nation.

You who read this, get out pencil and paper NOW. Set down the items of your living expense. Surely you will find some items there you can do without.

Determine to do without them.

Start TO-DAY. Save your money so that you may be in a position to lend it to your country in its time of need.

Dandruffy Heads Become Hairless

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

PUT ON FEW DROPS AND LIFT OUT CORNS

Try This Yourself, Then Pass it Along to Others—It Works!

Good things should be passed along It is now said that a few drops of a drug called freezone applied directly upon a tender, aching corn relieves the soreness and soon the entire corn, root and all, can be lifted out without pain.

For little cost a quarter of an ounce of freezone can be obtained from any drug store which is claimed to be sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This is a drug recently announced from Cincinnati. It is gummy but dries the moment it is applied and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the healthy tissue or skin.

Cut this out and lay it on your wife's dresser.

SHAUGHNESSY REACHES COAST

C. P. R. President Sees Big Possibilities for Future in Mountains of the West.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 16.—Lord Shaughnessy, president of the C. P. R., with his party of directors of the company, have practically reached the end of the cross-continent tour of inspection, arriving in Vancouver on Sunday night at 6:30, after a splendid trip across the Dominion. Their impressions of conditions on the prairies have strengthened their belief in the great future that lies before Canada in her share in the participation in the world effort of reconstruction when war ends. The party will remain in Vancouver until late Monday night, and will then sail for Victoria, arriving there on Tuesday morning. They will return to Vancouver on Thursday morning and leave Friday night, going via Edmonton and Saskatoon on the return across the prairies.

Stronger Realization.

The entire party arrived in good spirits, but somewhat wearied. They made a fast and active journey and have realized more strongly than ever the great future that lies in the west. Of Canadian Pacific plans for the future Lord Shaughnessy said nothing, the belief of the president of the Canadian Pacific railway being that the war came first and that after it has ended with victory for the allies then will come the time for further great development of the transcontinental system.

"This is not yet the period of reconstruction," Lord Shaughnessy said, "and plans for the west must necessarily wait. But the time is nearer when there will be a great period of development. It is to Canada and its resources and its freedom that the steps of many will turn. Immigration to Canada will be resumed after the war ends and this immigration will be increased because of the war. The reconstruction period following the war is in a measure still a dark page. We must face many of the problems as they arise, but preparations are being made to adjust industries to a change in production in the event of a cessation of hostilities. Canada, with her great resources, will be able to adapt herself and adjust her industries very quickly after the war is over.

"In order to meet the reconstruction period in the proper way there must be a better understanding between capital and labor, and I hope all industries will follow the example of the railways and reach agreements with employees. Each side must endeavor to grant the maximum and not the minimum of concessions.

World's Market.

Canada will find a ready market for the output of peace industries once war is over," said Lord Shaughnessy. He does not believe the war will last longer than 12 months and believes that the American participation in the war has caused a marvelous speeding up of the termination of hostilities.

Baron Shaughnessy does not believe that the nationalization of railways will include the Canadian Pacific railway. He did not wish to be quoted as being opposed to government ownership, but he did desire that the electorate, before approving such a step would carefully weigh the advantages and disadvantages of such a move.

"Government ownership of railways," he said, "implies government operation, which is akin to political operation, which is destructive financially and morally."

Speaking further of reconstruction he believes that it will be a huge undertaking. He hoped that long before hostilities ceased the government of Canada would have made complete arrangements for the demobilization of troops and for the rehabilitation of those now fighting. He hoped the government had laid plans for the gradual assimilation of the troops and of the working men and women employed in war work. One of the first industrial enterprises after the war should be the production of finished products for devastated Europe. Lord Shaughnessy does not see that the industrial disturbance caused when the munitions manufacturing plants shut down will be serious because Canada will be called upon immediately war ends to produce great quantities of articles for war-swept Europe. There will be a particularly heavy demand for lumber and this was of special interest to the province of British Columbia with its great wealth of timber.

Lord Shaughnessy was of the opinion that immigration from enemy countries would be discouraged, though in time the bitter feelings against the enemy nations would be reduced and immigration may again be resumed. But this would require a long time. Though Canada would be the aim of many immigrants from countries other than enemy countries in Europe he did not think that this stream would begin to flow toward Canada for some little time after the war, as the ships sailing here would all be required in bringing back the Canadian troops.

MAKE VANCOUVER WEST WHEAT PORT

Australian Grain Reaches Canadian Coast—Will Mark New Era in Transportation.

(By Daily News Leased Wire.)

VANCOUVER, B.C., Sept. 16.—Marking a new step in the development of the port of Vancouver as a wheat distributing point, Australian wheat is for the first time in history being bulked and cleaned at the Canadian government grain elevator preparatory to being shipped to the old country. When one of the big locally built steel freighters clears from this port she will have in her holds some 50,000 bushels of combined Australian and Canadian wheat for England.

Two big cargoes of wheat have been delivered at this port from Australia within the last few days. These were brought by the locally built auxiliary schooners, Geraldine Wolvin and Jessie Norcross and have been deposited at the government elevator. This is only the forerunner of many more cargoes, the auxiliary schooners Jean Stedman and Janet Carruthers also be in gen route to this port wheat laden. It is believed that a large percentage of the Australian wheat yield in future will find its way to this port as a distributing point .

AMERICAN POSITION HAS BEEN MADE PLAIN

Mr. Balfour recalled that Von Payer said the Brest-Litovsk treaty should stand, and declared:

"There is no misunderstanding there. It is there in black and white without circumspection. No dexterity of dialogue is going to smooth differences of that kind."

The secretary said he could hardly conceive of such a note being sent so soon after the German government, through its vice-chancellor had so definitely laid down its policies on subjects which were uppermost in the minds of all the belligerents. He considered it one of the plainest statements ever made by a German diplomat and contended that it made impossible a settlement by conversation.

"Until the central powers are of open mind and are prepared to discuss our views of what we believe to be right and justice, and for the uplift of civilization," continued the secretary, "mere conversations for practical results are useless."

He could not help comparing Von Payer's speech with the note and wondering what was the central powers' idea of the culpability of the allied peoples, adding:

"They evidently think they can embitter whatever differences may exist between the allied countries and counteract the present allied successes on every front. I cannot bring myself to believe that this is an honest attempt at peace by understanding. But I am driven to the opposite opinion—that it is an attempt to weaken the forces of the allies in the field which are proving too strong for them."

Mr. Balfour's speech was cheered by 200 colonial and American newspaper men, particularly the statement that the proposal would result in nothing and that the belligerents were diametrically opposed on the colonial question. His reference to Belgium and the eastern treaties as well as to Alsace-Lorraine, were also applauded.

London Comment

LONDON, Sept. 16.—No peace parleying with the central powers until they unconditionally accept the allies' basic demands for the security of civilization. This is the attitude of most of the London evening papers towards the Austrian proposal.

The Standard, in an editorial under the heading, "No Conference With Criminals," welcomes the note, however, not only as a new sign of enemy distress, but because it affords the allies an opportunity of making a plain statement to the real obstacle to peace.

The Pall Mall Gazette says: "If Austria wants peace she can have it by separating herself from Germany, withdrawing her divisions from the western front, retiring from her annexations in Rumania and opening negotiations of her own in accord with the allies."

In the Globe's opinion "anything more impudent than this move to cheat civilization could not be imagined, even from Germany."

Answer to Socialists

BERNE, Sept. 16.—It is generally believed that Austria-Hungary made her peace proposal with the consent of Germany and it is even maintained in some quarters that Germany really inspired it. It is pointed out that the German Socialist leaders have been using threatening language to Von Hertling. In addition the rapidly growing food and clothing difficulties in Germany must have had a considerable part in bringing about the steps.

League of Nations

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The Westminster Gazette considers that the Australian note gives the entente powers an opportunity to set forth a new idea before the world, a league of nations —that and not the contemptuous negotiations which some people seem to favor is the right way to challenge the German war lords and to appeal beyond them to the peoples of Austria and Germany.

Referring to Vice-Chancellor von Payer's speech, which the newspaper says contemplates an unqualified German victory, the Westminster Gazette concludes:

"In answer we must make it clear to the enemy peoples that our principles apply to the east and west."

Clinging Cat's Paw

PARIS, Sept. 16.—The newspapers in general declare that no attention must be paid to the Austro-Hungarian propositions, arguing that Germany's ally is merely a clinging cat's paw. They see in the new peace offensive a proof of the weakness of the enemy, who is endeavoring to reestablish unity among the powers in the Teutonic alliance while creating division among the entente allies. All the newspapers agree that it would be a most serious mistake for the entente to fall into the trap.

Boosts Coin Values

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 16.—The Austro-Hungarian peace proposal reached the Dutch Sunday newspapers just in time for its publication without comment. The possibilities of the situation created, however, were eagerly canvassed in various headquarters and excited speculation in foreign currency is stated to have run into the millions, was in progress throughout Sunday. Marks, which closed Saturday at 31.55, were largely bought privately on Sunday afternoon at 34, while Austrian crowns rose from 17-25 to 19-50.

Says Action Independent.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 16.—The Berlin Tageblatt editorially expresses the opinion that the "independent action" of Austria-Hungary, will probably cause the entente to redouble its military efforts. The Austro-Hungarian offer, coming on top of the program enunciated by Vice-Chancellor von Payer, it comments, betrays very bad stage management.

With all respect to the nobility of the Austro-Hungarian government's motives, the Tageblatt adds, this was not a physcological moment for the move as far as the entente was concerned. The editorial also expresses disappointment that no mention was made in the note of the crucial Alsace-Lorraine question.

Say Action Austria's.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 16.—The Vienna papers, discussing the Austro-Hungarian peace proposal, point out emphatically that the monarchy undertook the step with the knowledge of its allies, but declare that the action itself was exclusively Austro-Hungarian.

AUGURS SIBERIAN FORCE WILL BE FIRST TO BERLIN

LIEUT.-COL. HARVEY, OFFICER COMMANDING BRITISH COLUMBIA DETACHMENT OF SIBERIAN FORCE, SEES POSSIBILITIES FOR MEN GOING TO EASTERN THEATRE OF WAR—SAYS IS EASIER TO DRESS FOR COLD OF NORTH THAN MUD OF FLANDERS OR FRANCE—RECEIVES GOOD RESPONSE IN INTERIOR

Lieut.-Col. J. S. Harvey, officer commanding the British Columbia detachment of the expeditionary force to Siberia, arrived in the city on the Crow boat last evening on his tour of the interior in connection with recruiting for the force. Col. Harvey was optimistic in his remarks concerning the Siberian force and the response which was being received in British Columbia, especially from re*turned soldiers who had again become* sufficiently fit for service, from returned soldiers who had been discharged on account of being under age and from young men who had just attained the age of 19 years.

Men at Camp

Col. Harvey said that when he left Camp Willows, where the British Columbia detachment is being mobilized, there was a number of men attached to the depot battalion for training. He expected there would be many more before his return to Vancouver in a few days. The men had their own lines and quarters and only combined with the other men at camp insofar as drill was concerned, when battalion maneuvers were taken.

Seventy-seven applications had been received from young boys who had been returned from the expeditionary force on account of being under age. Only a few of these would be taken owing to the order that only boys over 19 years of age could be accepted for the Siberian force.

Col. Harvey explained the procedure for boys who had just become 19 years of age to enlist in the force. If a boy was 19 years of age he was required to be registered under the Military Service act. After registering he could enlist in the Siberian force and thus escape from being conscripted under the act.

He also pointed out that men of Class B, under the Military Service act, could also prevent becoming conscripts when their class was called by enlisting in the Siberian force.

Interesting Siberia

When asked what he thought of the Siberian contingent and its prospects for the future, Col. Harvey said that in his opinion the force was the best opportunity in the war to see something worth while and to take part in a section of the war which would bring experiences which would be even ahead of those witnessed by men who had gone to France.

Early in the war it had always been a belief that Russia would be the first to enter Berlin. And he thought that, had it not been for German propaganda in Russia, the armies operating on the eastern theatre would have been in the capital of Germany long ago. It was true that the Canadian force now being mobilized would only be a small porion of the army of the allies on the eastern front. The Japanese would no doubt constitute the largest force and he believed that the entry of allied armies into Germany from the east would not only detract large German forces from the western front and allow the allies to push into Germany from that direction, but also was emphatic in his statement that the eastern forces would be the first to reach Berlin.

In speaking of the hardships of the cold winters in Siberia, Col. Harvey said that it was much easier to dress for cold as found in Siberia than it was to dress for the mud of France and Flanders. Col. Harvey has been to France and was wounded early in the war. He will remain in the city today and will leave for the west on the Kettle Valley train tomorrow morning. He is a guest at the Hume during his stay here.

AT THE THEATRES

"My Soldier Girl."

"My Soldier Girl," which was shown for the first time at the Regina theatre last night might be given credit for all advance notices said of it, particularly as to the costumes and scenery which are probably the best shown on a local stage. Particularly is this so in the last scene, a battle scene in France, the setting is excellent and the acting in keeping with the rest of the act. The first act which opens on the roof of a New York theatre presents an excellent stage setting, 14 girls in gorgeous costumes amuse and entertain the audience until the scene passes to that of an aviation field with aviatrixes in profusion. An excellent plot runs throughout the show, following the breaking up of the "Follies" of the New York theatre.

The New Story of an Old Stove

They thought it a wonderful thing when they bought it, five years ago. It had big shiny places on it, and it glittered and looked like a million dollars—that old hall stove.

"Then they moved."

Steam heat sent the old stove to the basement in disgrace; in fact they were even "sorry they'd brought the old thing with them." They'd paid $40 for it when they got it, now it wasn't worth anything —to them.

So they forgot the old stove until one evening they read the Classified or Want Section in The Daily News, and little Mrs. Busybody saw a great light. She hiked down into the basement next morning, right after breakfast, and what she did to that old "glitterer" was a plenty. Solomon in all his glory wasn't in it with the old stove. Then she ran a want ad., 7 lines, in The Daily News. She sold the stove for a brand new crinkly ten dollar bill. It was worth three times that to the people who bought it. Both made by the bargain—and all from a little sensible, plain, truthful want ad.

Moral: What have you in your house that ought to be sold and used in somebody else's house instead of letting it go to waste in your house?

Also, why not get back some of that good "old money." Want ads are money finders.

DISALLOWED FOUR APPEALS

Local Tribunal Gives One Man Further Exemption Out of Five Applications.

Only one application for further exemption from military service was allowed out of five cases considered by the local tribunal at a sitting in the court house yesterday morning. J. R. Woods of Fruitvale was exempted until March 1, 1919.

John Houston, who was exempted while residing on the prairie and engaged in farming, appeared on the request of the chief public representative because he had discontinued his former occupation. The local tribunal disallowed further exemption.

Vincent McEachern, a local fireman for the Canadian Pacific railway, was disallowed further exemption.

J. M. Miller's appeal for further exemption was disallowed. The tribunal considered that as former exemption was allowed on the understanding that another brother, Arthur, will be enrolled, and as he had been granted exemption by the central appeal court, the local tribunal considered they had no alternative but to disallow the appeal for exemption, as in that case, if appeal, the central appeal could allow or disallow exemption as they considered fit.

The appeal of J. E. Hawes, a miner from Ainsworth, was given a rehearing on recategorization by the medical board of review. Further exemption was disallowed.

CLAIMS M'LEOD STOLE REVOLVER

Man Charged Pleads Not Guilty to Theft from Poplar Creek Cabin

Norman McLeod appeared in the provincial police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of stealing a revolver from Patrick Sheran's cabin at Poplar creek. McLeod pleaded not guilty to the charge and the case was remanded until this afternoon. McLeod stated that he was just bringing the revolver to Nelson to give it to the owner.

Following information received from Sheran, Sergt. Alex Stewart of the city police force obtained a search warrant and found the missing revolver among the belongings of McLeod. As the robbery took place outside of the city limits the alleged thief was turned over to the provincial police.

CORP. WALLEY IS WOUNDED

Nelson Boy Admitted to Hospital in France With Gunshot Wound in Left Shoulder.

Corp. G. A. C. Walley, M. M., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Walley of this city, was admitted to No. 47 Canadian General hospital, France, on Aug. 29, with a gunshot wound in the left arm, according to a cable received yesterday from the director of records.

Corp. Walley had returned to his motor machine gun battery but a few days previous to the date on which he was wounded, judging by letters received from comrades who told of his return from being in hospital with shell shock. Saturday's edition of The Daily News stated that he was awarded the Military Medal for actions on the Somme, where his battery was instrumental in keeping back the Huns while the British artillery and infantry removed war materials from the German line of advance.

YOUTH IS REMANDED ON ROBBERY CHARGE

Louis Ferino appeared in the city police court yesterday morning on a charge of robbing Kitto's store on Sunday morning. The case was remanded for eight days and the boy was allowed out of jail in the meantime. His parents, it is stated, are trying to have him placed in the navy and it is thought that, under those circumstances, he will not be required to serve in jail for the serious offense.
