MODERATES CALL CONFERENCE OF ALL SECTIONS IN IRELAND AT DUBLIN MEETING TODAY

Sinn Feiners and O'Brienites Decline; Prominent Catholics To Be On Platform; Ex-Member Irreconcilables Take Umbrage at Mannix Treatment; Gwinn's Party for Unity To Uphold His Views; MacSweeny of Cork is Obdurate Hunger-Striker; Sees Catholic Bishops in Brixton Jail.

DUBLIN, Aug. 23.—Seven hundred tickets have been issued for Tuesday's conference of the Irish Moderates to representatives of every section of Irish life, except the Sinn Feiners and O'Brienites, both of which refused to attend.

At the conference will be present men who heretofore have been prominent Unionists, Nationalists and Moderates, among them Col. Sir Nugent T. Everard, lord lieutenant of County Meath, and the Rht. Rev. R. J. Plunkett, Episcopal bishop of Meath, who is a son of Baron Plunkett, once lord bishop of London.

Although not many Catholic priests have applied for tickets there will be some representatives of the Catholics on the platform, including Monsignor Ryan, of Tipperary.

The chairman of the meeting probably will be Sir Stanley Harrington, a large chemical manufacturer and commissioner of national education in Ireland, who has accepted Viscount French's offer of a seat in the lord lieutenant's advisory council.

O'Brienites are Irreconcilable

The O'Brienites, Timothy and Maurice Healy, William O'Brien, Eugene Crean, John Guiney, D. D. Sheehan and John Walsh, all former members of parliament, have jointly refused to attend the conference on the ground that a moment when "measures are on foot to take the lives of the lord mayor of Cork and his fellow political prisoners; when Archbishop Mannix is refused admission to Ireland, and when our country lies under the scourge of a atrocious military despotism," the only course is "to refuse to enter into peace negotiations with Lloyd George and refer him to the elected representatives of the Irish people."

Gwinn's Party Will Attend

The party headed by Stephen L. Gwinn, formed in April to advance unity in Ireland, held a meeting this afternoon and decided to attend the conference in support of the views of Mr. Gwinn.

Cork Mayor is Obdurate

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Lord Mayor MacSweeney, Cork, who is in Brixton jail, London, on a hunger strike, was reported weaker today, but still determined not to abandon the strike.

Answering those who tried to persuade him to change his mind, MacSweeney declared: "It is useless to compare my case with that of others. I feel that, as lord mayor of Cork, and chief magistrate, my case is different. If I give way now I shall give away the cause of Irish liberty. I would rather die than do that."

Archbishop Mannix, Australia, with the bishops of Ballard and Killaloe, visited the lord mayor in the prison this afternoon, remaining with him 25 minutes. When the three departed, a crowd which had gathered inquired as to the prisoner's condition. The Bishop of Killaloe replied briefly:

"He is very prostrate."

Cannot Trace Swansey's Assassins

LISBURN, Ireland, Aug. 23.—Further rioting occurred here this morning while an inquest into the death of Police Inspector Swansey, murdered yesterday, was in progress. A butcher's shop belonging to an Irish Nationalist was burned, and other premises were attacked.

The inquest threw no light on the identity of the inspector's murderers, it being recorded that the inspector was murdered by persons unknown.

Take Reprisals for Swansey

DUBLIN, Aug. 23. — With the shooting of Police Inspector Swansey at Lisburn, it is calculated that only one of the men held responsible for the shooting of Lord Mayor MacCurtain of Cork now remains alive. It is true that it is alleged 40 men participated on that fatal night in April, but it is declared that only the leaders are being hunted, and the man who is said to be still alive, is hiding in Killarney, afraid to show himself in public.

Official information is to the effect that 40 houses were burned at Lisburn as reprisal for the killing of Swansey, and it is said the disturbances will spread to Belfast.

Postpone Inquest Lacking Jury

BELFAST, Aug. 23.—An inquest into the death of Constable Brennan, who was shot and instantly killed at Dundalk, was abandoned today as only eight of the 17 jurors answered to their names.

Require Anti-Sinn Fein Pledge

LISBURN, Ireland, Aug. 23.—In most of the business establishments here today the workers were required to sign the following pledge:

"I hereby declare I am not a Sinn Feiner, nor have I any sympathy with the Sinn Fein. I also declare I am loyal to the king and country."

The police have little hope of tracing Inspector Swansey's assassins.

Object to Political Duty

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A large number of the Royal Irish constabulary at Dublin informed the commanant Monday that they are unwilling to be used to suppress political opponents says the Dublin Correspondent of the Central News.

They took off their uniforms and left the depot in civilian clothes.

BAGDAD, Aug. 23.—The British Sikh force operating near Hillah engaged the Arabs and repulsed them with heavy loss. The Arabs, concentrated at Karabu, 30 miles from Bagdad, have been effectively dealt with. All is quiet on the Tigris and at Bagdad and in the direction of Mosul.

Persians Put Reds to Flight

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A despatch from Teheran to the Daily Mail says it is reported that a counter revolution has broken out in Daighestan, on the Caspian Sea, and that the Bolshevik are evacuting Baku. The Bolshevik are retreating toward Resht, pursued by Persian cossacks.

TOLEDO, Aug. 23.—Two men are known to be dead, another is missing and two city firemen are in hospitals following a fire and explosion in the plant of the Toledo Seed and Oil company here last night.

One of the dead is William Jensen, engineer, who after turning in the alarm from a nearby fire box re-entered the plant and was burned to death. The other body has not been identified.

SEND TELEGRAM TO MILLERAND

Italian Conference Over, Premiers Want to Meet French Statesman.

LUCERNE, Switzerland, Aug. 23.—The conference between Lloyd George and Signor Giolitti concluded this evening, when the premiers sent the following telegram to M. Millerand, the French premier:

"In finishing our Lucerne conference, we send you a cordial salute and look forward with pleasure to the earliest occasion when both of us can meet your excellency."

The official statement with regard to the proposal of the allies to give Poland freedom in the use of Danzig did not say whether diplomatic or military action was contemplated.

TWO COUNTIES SCORE INNINGS VICTORIES

LONDON, Aug. 23 (Can. Associated Press).—In championship cricket today, Lancashire defeated Worcestershire by an innings and 99 runs. The losers only scored 68 runs in the second innings.

FLAMES ROB FARMERS OF HOMES

Gale Fans Manitoba Bush Fires to Devasting Blaze; Appeal for Aid.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 23.—Appealing for assistance to the scores of families whose farms were devastated by the bush fires that swept through the Mulvihill district last week, two of the suffers, W. F. Gold and H. Kiddier, have arrived in the city to approach the government and arrange for supplies, equipment, food to be sent to the settlers.

Several returned soldiers who took up land in the district under the Soldiers Settlement act are those burned out.

Three Killed in Fire Stream

It was last Wednesday when a gale blew up from the south, fanned the creeping bush fire into flames, and swept down on the settlements before any preparations could be made to stop it or any stock or other property saved. Burning a lane three of four miles wide through the bush and destroying everything it touched, the mass of flame swept northwest. Reaching a small lake the flames were broken into two paths, one travelling north towards Sleeve lake, the other continuing in a more westerly direction. It was this stream that caught the home of George Ward and caused the three fatalities, the wife mother and father of Mr. Ward.

Destroys Everything

At this point which is about five miles northeast of Mulvihill, another path of fire, coming north from just below the town, near the railway, united with the first path and, fanned by the gale, surged down on the homesteaders between the railway and Sleeve lake, towards Ashern and Idylwild. It was in this area that the bulk of the damage was done. Twenty homes were totally destroyed, and all household property, all stock and all crops were lost.

The flames swept onward towards Ashern and it was only due to the efforts of scores of fire fighters from all over the district that the town was saved. Business men united with the farmers in their efforts to save the town.

Settlers in this district have lost everything. Many escaped only with what they were wearing. Their crops are gone, their homes are destroyed and they are in urgent need of assistance.

WILL TOUR IN WEST EXPLAINING PENSIONS AND INSURANCE ACTS

OTTAWA, Aug. 23.—For the purpose of explaining to returned soldiers and their dependents, and also the public who are interested, the provisions of the amended Pensions act, and also the "Returned Soldiers' Assurance act," Col. John Thompson, chairman of the board of pension commissioners, and Col. J. W. Margeson, commissioner, will make a tour of the western provinces next month, addressing public meetings. At the same time the pension commissioners will hear appeals from pension board awards.

Leaving Ottawa about Sept. 16 the pension commissioners plan to commence a series of meetings in one of the British Columbia cities and thereafter visit every large city in the four western provinces.

Then they will go to some of the United States cities where there are a great number of foremer C.E.F. men, and address them also.

CONDEMN BOLSHEVIK OLIGARCHY

British and Italian Premiers Agree on Vital Need for World Peace.

RUSSIAN PEACE IS PRIME NECESSITY

Consider Soviet's Terms to Poland Breach of Faith After Kanseneff's Pledge.

LUCERNE, Aug. 23.—An official statement issued regarding the conference today between Premiers Lloyd George and Giolitti, says that the premiers agreed to the vital need of the re-establishment of the peace of the world at the earliest possible moment, and that the first guarantee of such a peace is to be found in the various treaties already concluded.

Victors Should Show Moderation

"The victors in war," continues the statement, "should display a spirit of moderation in their enforcement of terms, and the vanquished a spirit of loyalty in their execution. With this aim, Britain and Italy trust that the good understanding at Spa will be further developed to cover all outstanding questions.

"Before peace is fully established, however, there are a number of important questions to be decided, a majority of which are indissolubly connected with the march of events in territories of the former Russian empire. Until peace is fully established between Russia and the rest of the world, an atmosphere of disturbance and unsettlement will continue to menace the world.

Endeavor to Restore Russian Communication

"Therefore the British and Italian governments have been taking steps in the face of such misrepresentation to restore communications between Russia and the outside world. Therefore with profound regret they have just heard that the Soviet government, despite repeated assurances to the contrary given officially on their behalf in London, have sought to impose on Poland conditions incompatible with national importance.

Denounce Soviet's Terms

"The government of Poland is based on the choice of the whole adult male population of the country without distinction of class, and this so-called civil army to be drawn from one class only, which is referred to in the fourth condition of the Soviet terms, is only an indirect method of organizing a force to overthrow by violence this Democratic constitution and substitute for it the despotism of a privileged few who may have absorbed the doctrines of Bolshevism.

"We cannot help but apprehend that when the detailed conditions of the composition of this force—kept back as they are now—are revealed later on, they will be found to be moulded on the plan of the Russian Red army. For one nation to insist as a condition of peace with another that the force organized for the protection of life, property and good order to the latter country shall be drawn from only one class of its citizens, to the exclusion of all others, is an unwarranted infringement of

JUSTIFY THEIR QUORUM BREACH

Tennessee Members Quitted State to Stultify Suffrage Amendment.

DECATUR, Alta., Aug. 23.—Members of the Tennessee house representatives here today issued a formal statement addressed to the people of Tennessee, setting their reasons for breaking a quorum in the house by leaving the State. It bears the signatures of 37 members enumerating reasons for our action in breaking a quorum in order to prevent the passage of the resolution ratifying the suffrage amendment to the constitution of the United States" the statement says:

"We are convinced that the methods which were adopted to secure the passage of the resolutions were improper and not justified.

"We believe that the majority of the people of Tennessee do not favor the ratification of said amendment.

"We felt to have ratified said amendment would have been to surrender the soverign rights of the state on the question of suffrage, which is one of the most important and sacred rights conferred, and the only defense that the people of Tennessee have at this juncture rested in our hands, and the only way that we could serve was to take the course that we have taken. We fully understand that our action could only be justified by the tremendous issues involved."

PREPARE BIG SHIPMENT OF PLANES FOR CANADA

MONTREAL, Aug. 23.—It was learned today from one party of fifteen airmen of the Canadian expeditionary force who arrived in Montreal that three hundred aeroplanes are now being prepared for shipment to Canada for the Canadian air force. A number of German planes which were completed just prior to the armistice will also be shipped here.

VISCOUNT TRAVELS ON ENGINE CAB

Burnham in Overalls Enjoys Riding With Engineer; Press Party Enjoys West.

GOLDEN, Aug. 23.—"I've had a splendid ride," said Viscount Burnham, as he stepped from the cab of a locomotive this morning, clad in business-like overalls. The chairman of the Imperial Press conference travelled from Lake Louise to Field this morning beside the engineer of the C.P.R. train carrying the visiting newspapermen of the British Empire across Canada.

Like Unorthodox Recreation

In the last few days the visitors have been doing just such unaccustomed things and enjoying relaxation from formal functions and continuous travelling. The beauties of the Rockies have occupied them to their great satisfaction.

A weekend at Banff and Lake Louise will be followed today with a visit to Lake Windermere camp for boating and fishing, and tomorrow the fruit country of British Columbia will be inspected and the Vernon board of trade will entertain the party to luncheon at the Long Lake Country club.

Vancouver will be reached Wednesday morning.

Have Pot Pourri of Sports

There have been pony rides and long tramps up hill and through the valleys of the Rockies, motor rides through the valley of the Ten Peaks to Moraine lake, swimming and golf and tennis, during the few days the party has been made free of Canada's famous beauty spots in the hills.

Southern Alberta afforded the newspapermen their first real holiday since their arrival in Sydney nearly a month ago, since when they have been entertained in twenty-eight cities and towns and have listened to several score speeches of welcome and have responded in kind.

ISLAND FORESTS A SEA OF FLAME

Campers' Trail Marked by Forest Fires; Hundreds Still Are Blazing.

VANCOUVER, Aug. 23.—Although the forest fire situation is said to be easing somewhat, there are literally hundreds of fires still ablaze in the coast districts of the mainland and Vancouver Island. On the east coast of the island, south of Campbell river, no fewer than 250 have been reported to date, both large and small, and much valuable green timber is being destroyed.

The worst is in the Stillwater vicinity, where miles of forest are a vast sea of flames. The cause of this has not been determined but on the island the trail of the camper is marked by forest fires.

CAPTURE OF BIALYSTOK AND NAREW STRATE GIC FORK CUTS LINE OF BOLSHEVIK RETREAT

Red Army at Melawa Between Polish Scissors; Make Desperate Efforts to Extricate Advance Guard; Attempts to Break Przasnysh Line Fail Completely; Ostrolenka-Lomzea Passage Is Only Hope; Pole Troops Hasten to Intercept.

WARSAW, Aug. 23.—Russian Bolshevik forces are retreating virtually along the whole line in an effort to save the remnants of the Red army, but they have so far been easily frustrated by the Poles.

On the north, there is heavy fighting in the region of Melawa and Soldau. Forced to face two Polish armies, one advancing from Modlin and the other from Graudeniz, the Bolshevik are making desperate efforts to extricate their advance guard, some of which adventured as far as Silau. The Red lossess in prisoners in this region have amounted to 11,000 in the past two days.

The attempt of the reds to break the Polish lines on the Przasnysh Makov-Rosany road and cross the Narew river has completely failed.

Polish troops advancing up the right bank of the Narew threw back the Bolshevik to the north. Meanwhile the main body of the Poles, advancing from Warsaw, occupied all the territory in the fork of the Bug and Narew.

Reds Condition is Desperate

The only chance of the Bolshevik is to open a passage in the direction of Ostrolenka and Lomzea so as to get Bialsyk and Grodno. The Polish troops accordingly are hastening their march towards Ostrolenka and Lomzea while the Polish cavalry which has reached the upper waters of the Narew, has already cut the road between Lomzea and Bialystok.

Narew Battle May Decide Fate

The battle now beginning on the middle Narew, is likely to decide the fate of all Bolshevik forces between the Narew and the Russian frontier.

Red troops are making a bold thrust in the direction of Brody and Lemberg. Further north, Bolshevik detachments in debonching from Lutsk and Vladimir-Volinsky tried to force a passage of the bug before Pruberzzof, but were hurled back with heavy losses.

The same fate befell the Reds who appeared in the region of Lemberg.

Recapture Bialystok

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 23. — The Poles have recaptured Bialystok after desperate resistance by the Bolshevik, says a dispatch to the Berlingsku Tidende, from Warsaw.

Reds Appeal for Volunteers

PARIS, Aug. 23.—The Bolshevik official statement on the fighting operations picked up at Eiffel Tower today virtually was undecipherable. It contained a reference to a Soviet success in the region of Brezany and Lemberg, Galicia. The communication concludes:

"The pressure of Polish troops compelled us to abandon a few towns. We must reinforce our own reserves. We need a large number of volunteers for ever to crush the Polish landlords."

Show no Mercy to French

PARIS Aug. 23.—A wireless message was received here from Moscow today declaring that inasmuch as France is not in a state of war with Russia, any French officer taken prisoner on the Warsaw front, will be shot summarily Intransigeant says.

MEIGHEN SPEAKS TONIGHT AT TRURO

Minister of Militia Will Also Address Nova Scotia Audience.

TRURO, N.S., Aug. 23.—The prime minister of Canada, Hon. Arthur Meighen, accompanied by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, arrived tonight in a private care attached to the Ocean Limited. It was after 10.30 before the train pulled into the station, but despite the lateness of the hour there was a large gathering on hand to welcome the premier and Hon. Mr. Guthrie. Ex-Mayor Stuart, of Truro, on behalf of the citizens of Truro, read an address of welcome, to which Mr. Meighen replied briefly. Hon. Mr. Guthrie and Hon. F. B. McCurdy also spoke a few words.

The premier and Mr. Guthrie will address a mass meeting tomorrow.

Will Support McCurdy

OTTAWA, Aug. 23.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, who speaks at Truro, N.S., on Tuesday night in support of Hon. F. B. McCurdy's candidature in Colchester county, will not be back in the capital until Thursday night. This will make a quiet week in government circles, with no cabinet meeting of any importance before Friday.

While reports from Colchester indicate a pretty stiff fight a belief prevails in government circles that Mr. McCurdy will win by a fairly substantial majority over Dixon, the farmer candidate.

Mr. McCurdy will remain over in the constituency until the vote is polled, and the prime minister's speech tomorrow night is expected to give an impetus to his campaign. There are as yet no indications when the writs will be issued for West Peterboro and Yale, the two other federal constituencies, in which votin gmust take place within the next few months.

STRIKE OIL IN ARCTIC CIRCLE

Flow is Small but Discovery Significant; Alberta Prospects Better.

TORONTO, Aug. 23.—Oil has been struck by the Imperial Oil Co., Ltd. at a point just within the Arctic circle, north of Great Slave lake and close to the MacKenzie river, according to an announcement made today. The flow of oil is small and possibly cannot be made use of economically, but it is regarded as significant that oil has been found there. The flow is 10 barrels a day. Much more hopeful enterprises are being carried on at other points, and good results are expected at Czar, Alta., where the company's well is already 2000 feet down. It is said that oil will be found in another 500 feet of boring.

Addition is Breach of Faith

"To have added such a condition, after Kameneff's pledges to the British government that nothing not of a secondary nature was omitted from his summary of the terms, is a gross breach of faith, and negotiations of any kind with a government which so lightly treats its words becomes difficult, if not impossible.

"The Soviet government has rejected the suggestion by the British government for a truce under conditions which would have guaranteed Russian territory against any acts of aggression, and has continued its career of invasion of Orthnographical Poland with a view to the conquest of that country by force of arms for Soviet institutions.

Soviet May Be Ostracised

"If the Soviet government, notwithstanding the punishment which its aggression is encountering, still refuses to withdraw this sinister proposal, but continues the war inside Polish territory in order to force its acceptance on the Polish people, no free government can either acknowledge or deal with the Soviet oligarchy.

"What has happened in this short war to the invaders of national rights, whether in Russia or in Poland, ought to teach wisdom to aggressors. The world, east and west, is crying for peace, but peace is only obtainable on the basis of full recognition of the liberties of nations.

Alarmed at Prolonged Conflict

"The British and Italian governments are alarmed at the indefinite prolongation of the present state of conflict amongst nations. The peoples engaged in these antagonisms bring nothing but ever-increasing misery to the peoples of the world at large, for they involve continued unrest. Until these conflicts cease the betterment of agriculture, industry and the interchange of commodities, on which the economic life of nations depends, cannot come into full operation. Scarcity and high prices, with attendant privations and perils, are the inevitable results.

"Sivilization itself, shaken and weakened by five years of incessant warfare, is menaced by the prospect. The British and Italian governments therefore are united in urging that every effort should be made to bring to a conclusion the conditions of strife between nations."

VETERANS URGE FAIR RENT BILL

WINNIPEG, Aug. 23.—The joint council of industry is to ask the provincial government for permission to launch an investigation into rentals in Winnipeg, according to a report current today among those actively engaged in frustrating profiteering by apartment block owners.

Endorsation of a plan to call a public meeting of tenants, to be followed by an interview with provincial cabinet ministers, at which a demand would be made for the passage of a "fair rental" bill at the next session of the legislature, will be considered by the army and navy veterans association at an executive meeting to be held Wednesday evening.

Apartment owners and rental agents today declared that they would welcome an investigation into the general advances being made in rentals.

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

ALL HUNGER TO GET RICH QUICK

Ponzi Gamblers List Shows Patrons From All Sections of Community.

BOSTON, Aug. 23.—A list of investors in the Ponzi post scheme—Persons who trusted in the ability of the over-night financier to make riches for them in a month or two—looked like a cross section when it was printed today.

All walks of life were there, men and women of the professional class of business and of labor. It is estimated that 30,000 in all placed their money in the scheme which is now in receivership, and of these about one half withdrew it with or without fifty per cent interest which Ponzi paid before the crash.

The others are relying on federal receivers to work what is left.

This list runs te gamut from judge to office boy. Whole families joined in trusting to Ponzi, to bring them wealth, the word of mouth method by which his propaganda spread being traced in the lists through families, communities and business circles.

In the Italian quarter especially his investors were legion.

The investments noted ranged form $25 to $53,000, the latter being attributed to a man associated with Ponzi as an agent.

Denies He Is Bankrupt

Denial that Ponzi is bankrupt was made by his counsel. The petition demands that a trial by jury be ordered to determine the issue.

HAS NO FAITH IN DORSEY'S SCHEME

Winnipeg House Warming Plan Discredited; University Does Not Vouch for It

WINNIPEG, Aug. 23.—J. G. Glassco, manager of the city light and power department, spoke rather skeptically at a meeting of the civic fire, water and light committee today of Prof. Dorsey's scheme for electrically heating houses "and so reducing the cost of keeping them warm in the winter."

Mr. Glassco said the experts here were rather skeptical of the invention and what it could do. Whether the statements made by Prof. Dorsey were utopian or premature had still to be proved.

At a recent meeting instructions were given Mr. Glassco and City Electrician Cambridge to get information from Prof. Dorsey about the invention. Mr. Glassco reported that he had endeavored to get this information, but Prof. Dorsey had gone east and nothing more had been heard about the invention.

"I don't think you will hear anything more," he added. While in the east Mr. Glassco said, Prof. Dorsey had been advertising his scheme. "I have had two letters every day from people in different parts of the continent wanting to know what this is, and it has got to be a regular nuisance."

He had approached Prof. E. P. Featherstonhaugh regarding the matter, and the professor in a letter, had stated: "Please note that the opinions expressed by Prof. Dorsey are his own personal ones, and that the university has not been taken into his confidence in connection with the scheme."

MEETING OF FAIRVIEW TAXPAYERS ADOPTS MOTION FAVORING UNION

Instructs Committee Now Acting to "Continue Its Good Work"; Majority of Speakers Strongly Advocate Entry Into City; Mr. St. Denis Discusses Taxation Points.

At the conclusion of a lengthy discussion on the proposed union of Fairview with Nelson, held in the Hume school last night after the school meeting, the meeting of Fairview taxpayers adopted two resolutions tending to further this project. The first resolution instructed the committee which has been representing Fairview in the matter to "continue its good work." The second resolution represented the assemblage as favoring the union of the communities. Both resolutions were unanimous.

Probably 60 were present at the meeting, over which Inspector F. G. Calvert, as an available neutral, was commandeered to preside, on motion of D. St. Denis. At first declining, Mr. Calvert, when the call was seconded from many parts of the room, consented to hold the stop-watch on the speakers, who, it was suggested, should have three minutes each.

The school aspect of consolidation was prominent all through the discussions, starting with a statement from Inspector Calvert, given by request, on the status of the project of uniting the school districts. Mr. Calvert said the Hume school district's part was now done, and it rested with the Nelson school board to decide its attitude. The question, he understood, would be taken up at its next meeting. If the city board decided in favor of consolidation, and so reported to the education department, the latter would take the steps to give effect to the mutual desire of the two districts. This would finally go through by order-in-council, and both boards would vacate office, and a new board of five members would be elected from the combined district.

St. Denis Says Unworkable

On the question of the union of Fairview and Nelson, Mr. St. Denis discussed the taxation end. He said he would adhere to the statement he made at the previous public meeting, that he would not oppose a complete union of the two communities, but he was of the opinion that the union of the school districts was unworkable. He said he did not think for a moment the city school district would take the Hume district in, instancing as one drawback from the city's point of view the increase given to the Hume teachers of some $2000 more than they had agreed to work for. The average salary for a Nelson public school teacher was $1,300, and the Fairview average exceeded that by more than $200.

The assessment for the Hume school district Mr. St. Denis estimated at $525,000, divided between land and improvements in the ratio of $300,000 to $225,000. The district had voted $8480, and adding the government's safety margin of 20 per cent, the amount to be collected for school purposes would be $10,176. Taking his own assessment of $2400, of which $600 was on land, Mr. St. Denis worked out that his school tax the coming year would be $72. He figured that in the city, on the same assessment, his school tax would be $38.40 on land alone.

Mrs. Robert Vyse asked why, if Mr. St. Denis was not opposed to union of the two communities, he was finding arguments against it. She suggested he had mis-stated the facts regarding the Jackson property, at the previous meeting, until corrected by Ald. Mrs. W. G. Foster.

John Notman said that, according to Mr. St. Denis' way of thinking, efficiency consisted in what was not paid the teachers. If the Nelson school board should for any reason turn down the proposal for union, the reason would not be the petty $2000 excess in salaries. He said it was nt hard to see the underneath purpose of Mr. St. Denis' criticisms.

Come Out of Woods

A. S. Horswill said for 13 years he had consistently advocated union, though now he had 18 lots, and he would be hard hit in taxes. But as an offset his 18 lots would come out of the woods, and the community would have improvements. The average Fairview resident could figure out his taxes would be less in Nelson. As an incidental benefit to Nelson, union would give a population entitled to postal delivery.

Mrs. Thomas Jerome asked if it was polite for Fairview to discuss going into the city before it had been invited in, seeing it was now said the initiative lay with the city.

In answer to Mrs. Vyse, Mr. Calvert stated that 46 Fairview high school pupils received free tuition in Nelson last year.

Kenneth Campbell expressed the view that union would be to the benefit of both communities.

A Sewerage District

Ross Fleming said union was a matter of both economy and of securing progress. Last year's city council had informally expressed the view that if Fairview came in, it would be fair for the city to contribute 40 per cent of the cost of installing sewerage. This improvement must be secured anyway. If outside the city, Fairview would have to provide the clerical staff to look after collections. Fire protection was also urgently needed.

Thomas Roynon said the city took no cognizance of acreage, and the taxes would be prohibitive on a property such as his.

Mr. St. Denis said there was some misunderstanding on the sewer question, for the users paid rentals in perpetuity. The city could not bear a portion of the burden.

A suggestion from Mr. Roynon that the committee was self-appointed, brought the explanation from several that it held its authority from a public meeting of two years ago.

Mr. Campbell, who has just settled in Fairview, said many prairie farmers would be coming to Nelson, and they would prefer locating in Fairview if it joined the city and had fire protection. He had located in Fairview supposing it was a part of the city.

Committee Continued

On motion of Charles Maltby and Kenneth Campbell, the committee was continued in office, and instructed to continue its good work.

A suggestion emanating from Mr. Maltby, that the meeting ought not to disperse without expressing its favorable opinion on the subject of union, in order to give the cue to the city council to take up the question, under the procedure laid down by the deputy attorney-general, A. M. Johnson, was acted upon. A standing vote was taken, and no contra votes were recorded against the proposition that "This meeting of the taxpayers of Fairview declares itself in favor of a union of Fairview and Nelson."

ENGINEER AND INVESTOR VISITING SLOCAN MINE

W. J. Elmenorf, mining engineer of Seattle, and G. T. Mogan attorney of the same city, left yesterday morning for the Slocan to inspect a mining proposition at Sandon in which the former is professionally interested and the latter is viewing on behalf of the United States investors.

Mr. Elmendorf regretted that being out in the mountains and beyond reach at the time he could not attend the recent mining convention. But both he and his colleague expressed a certainty that "it was more far reaching in its results than is locally imagined and is doing good work over the border."

PAPER CLOTHING NOW INTRODUCED

LONDON.—There seems to be no end to the sartorial sensations of the season. I am not thinking at the moment of what the pretty ladies wear—or don't wear—but of suits for mere men. First, we had the Mallaby Deeley sensation, when measured suits of quite good cloth were offered at prices which some of us had been paying west end tailors for part of a waistcoat.

Then came the numerous challenges to Mallaby Deeley from suspiciously aggrieved tailors, and the humble citizen seemed to be rapidly approaching a sartorial millennium, when, instead of paying Saville Row eighteen guineas for a very passable suit, the Strand would blithely present him with one for nothing, on much the same principle that some philanthropic tradesmen, who take the late Colonel Roosevelt's views on eugenics, give away half-a-dozen electro-plated spoons with each guaranteed 12-carat wedding-ring. And, as a fact, that era really shows its rosy dawn.

There is a place in the Strand now where you can buy a suit of clothes for half-a-crown. It is true that these suits are made of paper, being imported ersatz German goods, and not guaranteed to strike on the seat, let smokers well observe. But they are said to "look the part" very approximately. And a new suit every week would enable the suburban knut to be extremely dressy on £* 10s per annum, which is half the price of one very ordinary suit purchased anywhere west of the large policeman on traffic control in the Haymarket.

Is Plenty of Sleep a Waste of Time

WORK is pressing. Every man has about twice as much on hand as he ought to be asked to do.

Few men sleep long enough—or soundly enough. Even if there is nothing else to keep them awake, the average metal or wooden bed creaks just enough to prevent the nerves from complete relaxation.

No one can sleep deeply unless he is completely relaxed.

* * *

IT IS wonderful how the right kind of Bed Spring invites perfect relaxation and deep, sound sleep—and what a difference the right Bed, Mattress and Pillows can make.

The good spring is taut and flat, yet resilient. It supports the body at ease in any sleeping position—conforms to the contours — never weakens, humps or sags.

The sleep-inducing Spring is a Simmons "Waldorf," of specially tempered spring coils. Fine springs that fit the contour of the body and support the spine in a straight line, insuring perfect circulation and restoring the energy used up in the fatigue of the day.

Simmons Felt Mattresses are the result of twenty-five years' study of equipment for sound, natural sleep. Made of pure, new cotton in clean, sun-lit factories. Used in thousands of fastidious Canadian homes.

And Simmons Pillows, which rest the head and neck exactly as they need to be rested.

Simmons Limited is the maker of really noiseless Metal Beds—beds that stand sturdy and firm—not a shake, creak, or rattle anywhere.

IF YOU know only wooden beds or ordinary metal beds and springs—ask the leading merchant in town about Simmons Metal Beds, Brass Beds, Springs, Mattresses, Pillows, Day Beds and Children's Cribs.

They are built for sleep — yet they cost little if any more than the casual merchandise of the ordinary store.

And when you are selecting your Simmons Beds with an eye to their appearance in the room, you will see that Simmons has for the first time established beautiful and authoritative design in Metal Beds.

Have Renewed Confidence in Commercial Stability of Canada

In a general survey of business conditions can be discerned the appreciable lightening of the credit strain, which is of happy augury and betokens the fundamentally sound conditions under which business is being transacted.

The general movement of tightening credit which manifested itself in the United States in May, and swept to Canada in June, has resulted in the liquidation of a material percentage of stocks on hand and a more liquid condition of business accounts, a financial student points out. Merchants are perhaps yet too extended in this community, and the situation is not so comfortable as it should be, yet the trend is in the direction for smaller stocks on hand and the doing of business on a more day to day basis than previously. Manufacturers, wholesalers and jobbers are complaining that retailers are not buying for future delivery in the volume that they have hitherto, and in consequence has resulted in midsummer dullness among these classes of business, which has materially affected the situation at manufacturing centres. This has had its effect in turn on production and has relieved the labor situation to a material extent. It remains to be seen just how far retailers in particular will be able to meet public requirements and keep sufficient stocks on hand for desirable assortments. Yet the merchant in co-operation with his banker has been adopting the principle of more frequent buying and has gotten his accounts appreciably nearer the cash basis.

The credit situation, however, has been materially helped by business confidence in the immediate future through the making of the crops throughout Canada. The moving of crops will prove a severe task on the banks, but the placing of tremendous harvests into the process of consumption will relieve all doubt that anyone may have had of the sound stable basis on which business is being carried on. Although money, it is declared, will be tight, there has arisen in the course of the last six weeks high confidence that money loaned on individual business transactions will be returned when the special transactions are completed. It was this suggestion of doubt that stimulated the idea of credit contraction and the reassuring developments since the beginning of July have given business an increased confidence in what will later occur. It is expected this condition will continue until after the moving of crops, when business interests may expect banking accommodations on a more liberal scale.

Burning Up Our National Wealth

Canada's fire loss for the current year bids fair to exceed any thus far recorded, with the exception of that of 1918, when heavy losses were entailed through the destruction of munition plants. If the average of the first five months of the current year is maintained, our fire loss for 1920 will reach almost $28,000,000.

Canada cannot afford this waste, and the consequent destruction of money and effort. The government is earnestly seeking new revenue; there is a shortage of help for building purposes and many factories are hard pressed to supply the market for manufactured goods; yet we are burning up our capital at the rate of 2 1-3 million dollars per month.

According to the Monetary Times, from which the above figures of fire losses are taken, 103 residences were damaged or destroyed. The serious shortage of houses is thus accentuated by the fire waste.

The toll being taken by fire is a charge which must be met by the people of Canada. In 1919, $40,000,000, or over $22 for each family of five members. Had the minister of finance, Sir Henry Drayton, announced in his budget speech that to replace the fire loss, a direct tax of $22 would be levied upon each family there would have been a storm of protest from one end of Canada to the other. We are, however, silently paying this tax, which includes the loss by fire, $15, and the charges of the insurance companies to cover business costs, dividends, etc., $7. Everything we buy carries its percentage of this tax, and will continue to do so as long as we allow our national wealth to be burned up at its present rate.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Mackenzie King does not like Premier Meighen's suggestion to sane Canadians that they should walk along the middle of the road in these days of world unrest. The opposition leader tries to score on it by referring to the parable of the Good Samaritan, in which, according to him, the Pharisee walked along the middle of the road. The Calgary Herald suggests Mackenzie King should study his Bible again. The Pharisee passed by on the other side, according to the Bible text.

Some of the fashion details of the greatest interest in fall frocks are the wide stole collar forming wide embroidered revers over a simple frock and the use of the embroidered apron front and back.

Latest Solutions of the Clothes Problem

With praiseworthy good taste, a frock which goes forth to the dance faithful to pleats, seeks no other embellishment than a few flattering rosebuds cleverly placed. That charming mauve called "periwinkle," which seems to promise so well as a new shade, is the color used throughout, taffeta and georgette combining most agreeably for this girlish design.

To maintain slender lines the foundation skirt should be made exceedingly narrow. Skilful dressmakers accomplish a slim silhouette and yet provide ample walking width by tucking a deep fold all the way down in the back, which they stitch down to about 12 inches from the hem. This device keeps the foundation snug about the ankles, and the folds open up with the motion of walking.

TOLD IN RHYME

"REMINISCENCES"

W. C. MOTLEY

We like to think of those old friends
Whom we were proud to know
When Nelson was a mining camp,
Way back—long years ago.
When Ward street was a deep ravine
Bridge-spanned from side to side;
And Baker street a place of ruts
Where Steeper's pack-trains shied.

We like to think of those old days—
The Wild West then was real,
When men were judged by what they did,
When each got his "square deal."
We think of those old "Tribune" days,
When Houston first was mayor,
When Bill McCandlish beamed his smile—
When A. J. Marks was there.

Our thoughts roll back near thirty years.
Our depot was a shack—
The gambling joints then ran full blast—
For morals then were slack.
Old Paddy Miles, our only cop,
Caught many a gambling dip
Whom Sheriff Robinson taught law
With "six-gun loose on hip.

Can we forget those days of old—
Old "tillicums" long dead?
How swiftly those old friends have passed—
How fast the years have sped!
We think of those who built this town,
Of how they paved the way.
'Twas years and years and years ago,
Seems just the other day.

And now our street cars belt the streets
Which once were camp-trails dark,
We have fine schools—electric plant,
Our gas plant and our park.
But still we dream of days of old—
Those days which could not last,
Alas, old friends, why reminisce?
Those good old days are past.

LARGE FAMILIES

"The difficulties in paying family allotments, family allowances, compensation and war risk insurance due to errors of the soldier himself and to the frequent changes of residence of his family without giving any notice of changed addresses, are not fully appreciated by the general public or the soldiers themselves," says a circular issued by the U. S. war department. In order to emphasize the tremendous task confronting clerks in the department, the circular continues, "it should be noted that the Johnston family has 53,000 men in the United States forces; the Smiths, 51,900; the Browns, 48,000; the Williamses, 47,000; the Joneses, 28,000; the Andersons, 22,000; the Walkers, 18,500; and the Millers, 2,500. FOOD FOR THE SKIN

The girl who values her complexion will do well to remember that a lunch of bread and butter (or beef dripping, if butter is scarce) and watercress is far better for the beauty of her skin than one of jam tarts or buns and lemonade. Watercress is distinctly valuable for the complexion. It is a real blood purifier.

Spinach is also a splendid food for the blood. It is richer in iron than any other vegetable. A poached egg on spinach makes a splendid luncheon for a girl with a tendency to anaemia and a poor complexion.

The blood often needs enrichment for the benefit of the complexion. Fat gives such enrichment, such fat as is found in eggs, meat and fish, though the fish fat is more correctly called oil.

Girls often suffer from blemishes of the skin, especially on the face, largely because they live too much on food that does not strengthen the blood. They prefer cakes, pastries, chocolates and bananas to beef and mutton. Cakes and chocolate are well enough now and then but they must not take the place of real food, or the blood is likely to be impoverished.

THE DISCOVERY OF "VITAMINES"

The study of beriberi and pellagra led to the discovery of a group of food essentials known as "vitamines." They are necessary to normal nutrition and to normal growth. They are found in the whole wheat grain. In making Shredded Wheat Biscuit all the vitamines are retained—all the elements that are needed for building a perfect body. Two of these little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk or cream (or hot water) make a nourishing, satisfying meal for a few cents.

PLAN PROGRAM FOR LABOR DAY

Trail Athletic Bodies Want Ball Games and Sports; Dokeys Fix Celebration.

TRAIL, Aug. 20.—The public meeting held at the Veterans hall on Thursday evening to make arrangements for a Labor day program was fairly well attended. J. A. McKinnon was voted to the chair and A. L. Reading secretary pro tem. The chairman explained the purpose of the meeting and called on several of those present to explain what had been done up to the present time. J. Balfour explained that the Athletic association had been in communication with several outside ball teams with the view of having games on that day. N. E. Read, also explained the position of the association in reference to the labor celebration. Messrs. Melville, Reimann, Windram, Jackson and others spoke on the matter. It was finally decided to call a general public meeting on Monday evening, Aug. 23, at the Veterans' hall, to enlarge the organization and complete arrangements for making it a real Labor day affair.

Pythians to Celebrate

It is understood the D.O.K.K.'s intend to hold a big ceremonial in Trail on the evening of Labor day, and the street parade which will take place in connection therewith will be an eye-opener to those of our residents who have never witnessed anything of this kind. The parade will be strictly Oriental in its make-up and will provide lots of fun for the spectators, though something entirely different for the poor pilgrims who have to traverse the hot sands of the desert.

Want Nelson Kilties

It is expected that the Nelson Kiltiest will be a feature of that procession.

High words are often used to express low thoughts.

TAKE PHOSPHATE WITH MEALS IN SUMMER-TIME

Your Nerves Demand It, Your Blood Needs It, Say Physicians.

There's not enough Phosphorous in modern foods to benefit nearly one-half of the men and women of America, scientists declare.

To overcome this lack of an element of your body that is necessary to your health, your happiness and even your success in life, weak, anaemic, nervous, run-down people are advised to take Bitro-Phosphate as dispensed in leading drug stores in the original package.

Speaking of people who are easily fatigued, who lack ambition, nerve, and are oftimes thin, weak and sadly lacking in firm, healthy flesh, Joseph D. Harrigan, formerly Visiting Specialist, North Eastern Dispensary, N.Y., says:

"Patients who were apparently physical wrecks, who foolishly thought they needed only a blood tonic to enrich the blood, have come for treatment trembling and shaking, their nerve force almost exhausted and in many such cases the administering of Bitro-Phosphate has produced seemingly magical results."

People who feel the heat of Summer, tire easily, and often become irritable and depressed, will find Bitro-Phosphate an inexpensive and helpful friend.

Druggists report a wonderful increase in the demand from men and women who are anxious to renew old-time ambition and who are making an honest effort to become vigorous and keen-minded with a power of endurance that denotes almost perfect health.

They ask for Bitro-Phosphate because they know they need an inexpensive organic phosphate.

GIRL WILD INDIANS WAKE TROUT CREEK WITH WAR WHOOPS

BATTLE LINE IS ON HOLY GROUND

Many Monuments in France and Belgium Mark Sites of Supreme Sacrifice.

High up on the Somme battlefield there stands a simple monument to the officers and men of the 18th Division, who fell in the desperate fighting, eighteen times renewed, for the possession of Trones Wood, writes a special correspondent of the London Times.

There is a message for the battlefield tourist on this plain white stone, marching, as it seems, at the head of a ghostly column of bare tree-trunks. From the road-side one line of the inscription, printed in bolder lettering than the rest, can alone be read, but memory can recall no more illuminating moment than that in which these words were imprinted on the mind:

"The greatest thing in the world."

This sublime affirmation is the key to the wonder of the great belt of devastation which stretches league upon league from the North Sea to Verdun and the Swiss frontier.

Who can remain unmoved as he drives into Ypres by the Menin Gate and reads the notice which the Burgomaster, M. Colbert, has set up in three languages, here, as at other prominent points in the ruined city:

"The burgomaster and the city council of Ypres urge you to remember that the ground you walk on is hallowed by the sacrifice of 250,000 British officers and men, who were killed or wounded in four terrible years of battle endured in the salient of Ypres, and whose heroism Belgium can never forget."

Canadian Memorials

And when at last the traveller stands in silent awe before the majestic ruins of the Cloth hall, he will read a second notice put up by order of the Town Major of Ypres:

"This is holy ground. It is the heritage for all civilised peoples."

This is holy ground, not Ypres alone, but Armentieres, Lens, Arras, Albert, Peronne, and the broad lands which stretch in front and on either side of the once fair cities whose names will be linked for all time with the valor of the British race. There is happily little need to impress this truth upon the parties of British visitors who are now passing over the country in motor-car, char-a-banc, or converted army lorry. In a recent tour of the battlefields I never heard a jarring word or saw a ghoulish action.

It is a question whether the decisive part played by the troops of the homeland in the campaigns in Belgium and Northern France are being fitly commemorated on the spot. Monuments, which will endure the for centuries, are now rising on commanding positions on the old British front. The Canadians have commemorated their victories at Vimy Ridge and on the high ground by Passchendaele by noble memorials which can be seen for miles around.

Australian Monuments

Australia has set up a wonderfully fine series of monuments to the valor of its sons. Go where you will in any part of the vast expanse of the Somme battlefield, and you will never be long out of sight of an obelisk to remind you of the contribution which the Commonwealth made to the common cause. The Australians have three monuments, each of extreme simplicity, in the Somme area, and they are so placed as to command wide views of three different sectors of the battlefield.

The finest site of all is Mont St. Quentin, above Peronne. When the monument now building on the hill is complete it will be seen for miles down the valley of the Somme, which was finally opened to the allies when the Australians, in one of the most gallant feats of the war, stormed this key position.

The other monuments are at Pozieres, towering above an Australian cemetery, in which the foremost graves were a glory of paeonies at the time of the visit, and on the Bray-Corbie road, with a downland outlook towards Morlancourt. They will serve to keep green the memory of brave men from overseas when every village for which they fought has been rebuilt and the last scar of war has disappeared from every field which they trod in the battle array.

One looks in vain for any national monument to the millions who crossed the narrow seas from Great Britain to uphold the honor of their native land. Here and there the story of a brilliant feat of arms or of a superb act of self-sacrifice is told by a divisional or regimental memorial. But few of these are of permanent character.

The Holiest Shrine

The British race has no holier shrine than the long line of cemeteries which stretches from the Belgian plain to the uplands of Picardy. These burial-grounds of the flower of our manhood are the most moving spectacle of any to be seen in the wide sweep of the Western battlefront. Still, although nothing can dwarf them or lessen their poignant appeal, the English visitor cannot resist the thought that something more might have been done to remind future generations of Belgians and Frenchmen, no less than of Britons and Americans, of the four years' battle which was fought out at Ypres and on the Somme, chiefly by the troops of Great Britain.

It is very difficult to avoid the feeling that the authorities have little appreciation of the meaning of simple symbols to the mass of mankind.

Amiens Cathedral supplies an extraordinary illustration of British detachment from the realm of sentiment. English troops fought as stoutly and as successfully as any to save this glorious church from the fate of the Cloth hall of Ypres and the Cathedral of Reims. Yet, what does the Englishman find on renewing acquaintance with it? He sees tablets on the walls to Canadian Dragoons and American Engineers who fell in defence of the city. He stands before a side-chapel, uplifted by the spectacle of Australian, New Zealand, and United States flags, presented to the cathedral as a token of remembrance of the association of the troops of those three nations with the citizens of Amiens in their time of trial. The French flag, too, is there, and a vacant place has been left. But, when I was there, there was no Union Jack to complete the symbolism of the Great Alliance. How an Englishman's heart would have leapt up at the sight of the Flag in a spot of such historic and hallowed memories!

FOREST ON DRIFTING SANDS

In the southwest corner of France, between the rivers Adour and Garonne, are long stretches of pine woods, green and cool. Where these pines now stand was a barren waste in the middle of the eighteenth century. Sun and wind vied with each other in making the land drier and dustier. Over the stormy Bay of Biscay came winds that set up great sand storms and sometimes buried whole villages. But at last there came along a man who acknowledged fate only as something to be overcome. His name was Bremontier and he was an inspector of roads. He began fencing in the desert. He built a fence and behind it planted a handful of broom seeds. Behind the broom seeds he put seeds of the pine. The fence protected the broom seeds and the broom grew. Then the broom in its turn afforded shelter to the delicate pine shoots. Soon the pines spread and their tough roots bound the sandy soil together. The first step was accomplished. Then canals were made to drain the wet parts and carry water to the dry.

STRANGE MARRIAGE CUSTOMS

A very odd marriage ceremony takes place in Afghanistan just after one of Afghanistan's brown daughters weds. Then a number of men in weird masks surround the bridegroom's house, and after that a dozen or so men clad in black, with skeletons outlined on their skin-tight garb, dance frantically round the figure of a woman stretched on the ground.

This is to teach the bride what will happen to her if she seeks affinities or does not conduct herself with proper decorum towards her husband's mother; what will happen to her if she does not conduct herself with proper decorum towards her husband they indicate will be far worse.

This is the native Afghanistan manner of teaching women their proper places and making them properly humble.

Don't marry a girl who thinks she might learn to love you. A little learning is a dangerous thing.

SHORTS SPRING A SLIGHT SURPRISE

Raise Bulls and Call For a Showdown; Clearing House Contracts Severely.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—Probably on the assumption that last week's rally was not warranted by technical conditions, shorts renewed their aggressive tactics in the stock market today, an irregular to heavy tone ruling at the close. The reversal occasioned surprise in some quarters, however, because many of the developments over the week end were distinctly favorable to the long account, one noteworthy exception was the clearing house statement which disclosed a severe contraction of actual reserves.

The money market steered an even course, interior banks landing time funds regardless of further prospective withdrawals of cash for crops and federal payments. Call money was offered in small amounts at 7 per cent. and additional purchases of commercial paper were reported.

Rails were the only sustaining features, Reading coming forward with a burst of speed in the final dealings, with a fair demand for Southern Pacific, Norfolk and Western, and several of the secondary coalers.

Shipping oils and equipment were under intermittent pressure notably Mexican and Pan-American Petroleums, Houston Oils, Atlantic Gulf, Baldwin Locomotive the Motors and their accessories, and numerous specialties in the food, tobacco and leather divisions.

Sales amounted to 400,000 shares. Liberty and other active bond issues were irregular on light trading. Total sales, par value $6,550,000.

Old U. S. Bonds 2's rose ¼ per cent on call.

LIVING WITH WOLVES

Not long ago there was the case of a child who was reared by monkeys. A human being was discovered near Naini Tal having a thick coating of hair which gave him the appearance of a monkey. It is thought that owing to this curious resemblance a troop of monkeys had adopted him as a child. When discovered, this strange creature was treated as a wild animal, but on further examination vaccination marks on both arms gave convincing proof of his true origin. A curious incident befell a shooting party in India in 1884. Dr. Condon, of the Indian civil service, was in command. In a forest they discovered an unkempt object, which they prepared to shoot, but on closer inspection proved to be a boy walking on all fours. It was at first difficult to capture him, but after a good deal of trouble he was persuaded to come nearer. Later it was found that he had lived in a den of wolves and ate only the raw flesh brought to him by his animal foster parents. His arrival in Europe created surprise and consternation, but willing guardians were found for him and he was won back to civilization.

Fall hats reveal tendencies toward the Louis XV. styles being shown in small hats that cover the head snugly on one side and are correspondingly lacking on the other.

FINE VETERAN HERO FOR LIQUOR BREACH

TORONTO, Aug. 23.—Joseph Bruno, the first D. C. M., man to return to Toronto from the war, was today fined $1200 and costs or three months plus 60 days at the jail farm for selling a bottle liquor at $6.00 out of which he made a dollar.

THE TRAVELS OF THE CHINESE EGG

That China exported, in 1918, some 5,664,000 more fresh eggs than in 1917 is an interesting indication of the growing cosmopolitanism of the China egg, not, to be sure, the deceptive and indestructible china egg that human ingenuity invented to fool the hen, but the real China egg laid in a Chinese hen yard and gathered, one likes to imagine, by ehe Chinese farmer's daughter. To the average Canadian, China, no doubt, still seems a long way to go for an egg; but an experi has been devoting hours, and, very likely, days in Tientsin to studying the egg-producing industry of that district; and he reveals the Chinese egg as a great traveler. Originally the eggs traveled without their shells, for the dried egg entered into international commerce some time before the fresh egg first started on what might fairly be called its individual journey. As the industry began with an equipment of trays and drums for drying the eggs, which imparted also a metallic content to the product, the earlier stages of the business were handicapped by its methods, and Chinese ingenuity must needs invent a method of blowing an egg into a heated chamber in a fine spray, which was transformed into powder that contained nothing but egg. So nowadays a continuous procession of egg shells is emptied, and millions of pounds of dried egg are produced for exportation to foreign cooks, bakers, and confectioners. Exportation of fresh eggs followed, and during the war the proportion of fresh eggs diminished. And now, before long, the real China egg will travel frozen, for the first steamer with a cold-storage equipment for eggs will presently be voyaging between Tientsin and Vancouver.

A match between two dentists would probably result in a draw.

WANTED

Listings of IMPROVED Farm Property

I have completed arrangements with the largest farmers' organization in the Prairie Provinces to act as their Agent for the purpose of getting listings of Improved Ranches that are for sale in this district.

On your advising me that your property is for sale, I will forward you a listing form which you will fill in, giving the required information.

I will (when possible) make a personal inspection of the property.

From the information I have, it would appear that there are a number of farmers in the Prairie Provinces who would settle in here if they can get property that is suitable to them, and I believe that where this information can be placed before them by their own organization, that better results can be obtained than by any other method.

If you wish to list your property, advise me, and I will forward you a listing form for particulars.

VILLA'S WAY WITH THE PROFITEERS

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Aug. 23.—The whimsical caprices of Francisco Villa, which have ranged all the way from practical jokes to violent outbursts, had an odd climax at the little town of Sabinas, Coahuila, when Villa concluded the terms of surrender to the De La Huerta provisional government of Mexico.

After closing the Sabinas brewery and all the saloons, Villa dispatched four "auditors" to audit the books of all the larger mercantile establishments of the town and report to him the names of those men whose books showed the most profit made during the past 12 months. This being accomplished, he requisitioned on these stores for shoes, hats, breeches, underwear, socks, shirts, forage, horseshoes, leather, pack mules and horses.

Later Villa told General Martinez with whom he concluded terms of surrender, that he did not expect the provisional government to pay for these goods as "the people he had taken clothing and provisions from were able to lose it on account of the large profits made during the past year." All of the materials seized were issued immediately to Villa's command.

PRISON WARDEN PLANS REFORMS

Says Inmates Should Do Useful Work and Families Get Proceeds.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 23.—Warden P. E. Thomas, of the state penitentiary here is strongly in favor of a law providing that families of criminals receive the proceeds of the prisoner's labors while a ward of the state. "The state of Ohio has no right," he says, "to punish the families of criminals by depriving them of support by the head."

The state, he says, should put every prisoner to work. He says the state should have five brick plants instead of one to keep the vast number of prisoners confined in the penitentiary employed.

"Work, religion and education bring about growth in prisoners" he says, "Idleness is a curse. Ignorance is a curse. Folks like to talk about the college graduates in the penitentiary, but they are the exception; ignorance is the rule."

PROHIBITS BOTTLES TO PRESERVE THE UMPIRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(By Canadaian Press).—A new form of prohibition has gone into effect at Ebbete Field, the Brooklyn Baseball club's grounds.

President Ebbets has issued an edict prohibiting the sale of soft drinks in bottles within the enclosure. Ebbets notified the caretaker at the grounds that if the fans must have cooling drinks served during their visit to the Brooklyn ball park he must serve the liquid in containers or paper cups instead of bottles, in order to protect the umpires, players and patrons of the club from injury.

During the game between the Chicago and Brooklyn teams on August 11, Umpire Quigley aroused the ire of the home rooters by one of his decisions. Immediately a showed of "pop" bottles directed at the official came from the upper and lower stands. In order to prevent a recurrence of this disorderly and dangerous manifestation by some of the fans, President Ebets decided to deprive them of their handy weapons.

TATOOES RECORDS OF PRISON TERMS

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—(By Canadian Press).—Henry Stevenson, a piano player, pleaded guilty in a Brooklyn court the other day to stealing an automobile fire extinguisher and was asked by Justice Freschi if he had ever been convicted before.

In reply Stevenson rolled up his sleeve, displaying on his forearm the tattooed legend, "Workhouse, 1918." In addition he admitted having done time in 1919, but explained he had neglected to "record" it.

"Well, you will be able to add that now, and also 'Workhouse, 1920' said the judge "Four months' hard labor."

VANDALS CARRY OFF CHURCH POOR BOXES

QUEBEC, Aug. 23.—The Parish church at St. Anzelme, Dorchester county, was broken into last night. Five poor boxes were carried off and four others destroyed. The thieves gained entrance through a cellar door.

The water forced out of a cubic mile of air by the sudden shift in temperature from 95 degrees to 32 degrees amounts to a matter of 140,000 tons or about 35,000,000 gallons.

Lace as a trimming is coming into its own again and will be very popular this summer. Some very chic gowns are trimmed with Irish and Valenciennes lace dyed to match the material of the gown.

Some of the newest evening gowns have the exact effect of those quaint old-fashioned lamp shades made of silk and lace.

HUME ELECTION IS UNANIMOUS

Campbell, Horswill and Notman Compose New Board; Inspector in Chair.

Kenneth Campbell, A. S. Horswill and John Notman will conduct the affairs of the Hume school district until the latter is merged in the Nelson school district, or, alternately, will be hold office as trustee for three years, two years and one year, respectivey, if the merging should not materialize, their election last night being unanimous.

F. G. Calvert, inspector of schools, representing the education department, presided, and Ross Fleming was elected to the post of secretary for the evening. Mr. Calvert stated he had been instructed to first see if the trustees who resigned could be induced to carry on up to the consolidation, if it should be effected, and if they would not, to call the meeting. He announced that he was equipped with two lists of persons whose names were on the assessment roll, one list embracing those who had paid their school taxes for the last school year and who were thereby entitled to vote, and the second list embracing those who were delinquent.

On motion of D. St. Denis and Charles Maltby it was decided to nominate and elect expeditiously, rather than to adopt the long-drawn-out formula for a school annual meeting.

Mr. St. Denis raised a question of privilege before the nominations should commence, stating he had never at any time had any aspirations to be a trustee, and that the report in The Daily News of a ticket to be headed by him had no suggestion in fact. He acquitted the newspaper of any wrong intent, and placed the blame on an individual member of the staff, whom he named.

The newspaperman stated the report had been published in good faith.

Nominations were then proceeded with, and after some adjustments it was found that Kenneth Campbell, nominated by Walter Poole, was the only candidate for the three-year term; A. S. Horswill, nominated by William Gosnell, was in a similar position of isolation for the two-year term; and John Notman, nominated by Fred Chapman, for the single year, was also unopposed.

On motion of D. St. Denis and D. Smith, nominations were closed, and the three men named were declared elected.

The meeting tendered a vote of thanks to Inspector Calvert, on motion of Mr. St. Denis.

In answer to an inquiry, Mr. Calvert read a section of the statute imposing on the annual school meeting the duty of fixing the salary of each teacher.

Adjournment was then taken.

APPLICATIONS IN CHAMBERS

Four applications were heard in chambers by Judge J. A. Forin, in the supreme court yesterday.

In the matter of O'Neil Irvine & Mann Lumber company, E. P. Dawson of Donaghy, Brown & Dawson, obtained an order to extend the time for holding the statutory meeting of the company.

In the matter of Wallace vs. Fraser, E. P. Dawson obtained an order for payment of monies out of court to the judgement creditor.

E. A. Crease was granted an order for letters probate to issue to petitioners, H. Jeffs, jr., and Alfred Jeffs, in the estate of William Henry Jeffs.

An order for letters of administration, in the estate of John Boyle deceased, were granted to H. Clifford Irving for O'Shea and Farris, to issue to the official administrator, J. H. Doyle.

NEW MANAGER OF COMMERCE HERE

Mr. Whitehouse Arrives from Alberta—Is Authority on Insects.

F. C. Whitehouse accompanied by Mrs. Whitehouse and children, arrived in the city from Red Deer Sunday evening, to take charge of the Nelson branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce succeeding P. B. Fowler Fowler, who recently became assistant manager of the Vancouver head office. The Red Deer News says of Mr. Whitehouse:

F. C. Whitehouse, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the past eight years, has been promoted to Nelson, B. C., branch of the Bank and will leave to take up his duties in that city about the end of the week.

"Mr. Whitehouse has been one of Red Deer's most active, useful and valued citizens. He is a director of the Agricultural Society, a member of the Council of the board of trade. President of the Red Deer branch of the Alberta Natural History society, and he has been a member of the Red Deer library board since its inception. He has always been interested in the boys and girls of the farm, and has been in charge of fairs for several years to encourage the young people to take a greater interest in stock. He is at present head of this branch of the Red Deer Agricultural society.

"His most noted achievement while here, we believe, was the publication of a pamphlet a couple of years ago, entitled "Dragonflies of Alberta," a work that drew forth words of praise and commendation from all parts of the world.

"His removal will be a distinct loss to the city.

"Mrs. Whitehouse, who has also been an active worker in prominent societies in the city, will be sadly missed by a host of friends."

STATES RELEASED FRY IS THRIVING

Run of Kamloops Trout in Lardeau River Smallest In Years.

After visiting a number of the lakes and streams in the Kootenay that have been restocked with fish from fry from the Gerrard hatchery, Capt. James H. Hamar, superintendant of the hatchery, expressed himself last evening as pleased with the results of the method of restocking, and stated that all through the Kootenay excelent catches of fish have been reported during this season.

At each of the lakes he visited, including Trout Lake Armstrong lake, Stobart lake, and Violin lake, he found evident traces that the fry of Eastern Brook trout that had been inserted were thriving splendidly.

Owing to a large log jamb in the Lardeau river, obstructing the passage of Kamloops trout on their way to spawning grounds at Trout lake, the smallest run in years, had been experienced this year. It being estimated that only about 400 of the trout, usually called salmon, succeeded in passing the jamb as against several thousands in previous years.

Mr. Hamar stated that 30,000 fry, of Kamloops trout have been inserted in that river this year. About 65,000 are being kept in outside points at which time they outside ponds at the hatchery until the freeze up and another 40,000 are being kept in the hatchery until spring, at which time they will be yearlings and ready for disposal, in different creeks between the hatchery and Lardeau.

The average man never fully realizes at midnight how very sleepy he is going to be at 7 o'clock in the morning.
