LIMELIGHT CENTERS ON EAST ELGIN

All Big Political Guns Are Trained on Approaching By-election.

GREAT SIGNIFICANCE ATTACHES TO RESULT

Meighen to Wind Up Government Candidate's Campaign at Aylmer.

AYLMER, Ont., Nov. 18—(Can. Press)—For the time being the center of political endeavor for the whole Dominion, the constituency of East Elgin, will make earnest endeavors to live up to its position in the limelight and turn out a record vote on Monday next in the bye-election to fill the long standing vacancy in the seat representing the riding in the house of commons. The constituency is considerably rural, and the volume of the vote will depend much on the state of the roads leading to the polling booths. At present there are prospects of a thaw which may make precarious or uncomfortable sleighing and motoring.

Each of the candidates, J. L. Stansell, National Liberal and Conservative; W. G. Charlton, Independent Liberal, and S. S. McDermand, United Farmers, will have the benefit of the appearance and speeches in the riding of the leaders of the different parties, Hon. T. Crerar, leader of the agrarian and other crossbenchers spoke in St. Thomas and Aylmer yesterday. The Liberal leader, Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, accompanied by W. C. Kennedy, M. P., for Windsor, speaks at Aylmer tonight.

Meighen Speaks Saturday

Hon. Arthur Meighen, the premier will, it is expected, wind up the campaign with a meeting at Aylmer on Saturday night on behalf of the government candidate.

Hon. Gideon Robertson, minister of labor, is also expected to take part in the campaign.

All the meetings to date have been well attended and the electors has evinced more than usual interests in the campaign. In the constituency itself, as well as throughout Canada generally the bye election in East Elgin is regarded as a most important one. The electors realize that the result will be of considerable significance in the political history of the Dominion.

Liberal Leader Speaks

AYLMER, Nov. 18—Delays on the railway beyond London delayed the arrival of Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King more than an hour tonight.

The crowd filled the town hall to capacity and a couple of hundred people were turned away from an adjoining theatre where Mr. King addressed an overflow meeting. Mr. Charlton and Mr. Kennedy also spoke.

The Liberal leaders address was a sweeping condemnation of the Meighen government and he urged the electors of East Elgin to register their disapproval of that government's record by defeating its candidate.

The election of the government candidate, he said, while it would not be a reality be merely a measure of the folly of the progressive forces in allowing themselves to be divided in the face of a reactionary dominion, would nevertheless be construed by the government as a mandate to continuing in office, irrespective of the wishes of the people of the Dominion as a whole.

MODIFICATION OF RATES EXPECTED

Premier's Expressed Hopes for Reduction of Freight Rates Significant.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 18.—H. J. Symington, K.C., counsel for the provincial government in the freight rates appeal, left this morning for Ottawa to attend the reopening of the case before the board of railway commissioners on Monday. J. B. Coyne, K.C., and F. S. Denison, who will represent the board of trade, will leave tomorrow morning.

There is a strong feeling in business and legal circles that, in view of the reference back to the commission of two points by the government, there will be a drastic modification of the original order.

Some significance is also attached to the statement by Premier Arthur Meighen at Holland, Man., Tuesday, that he hoped the commission would be able to reduce the rates after carefully considering these two points, although the matter was entirely in the for the commission, the only duty that could deal with the question of schedules. Strong efforts will also be made to get the order suspended pending the commission's decision.

CATECHISE VANDERLIP IN LONDON

Scotland Yard Wants to Know Meaning of Russian Activities.

LONDON, Nov. 18—The United States embassy here today was notified that Washington D. Vanderlip, California mining engineer, who was recently in Moscow, will be closely questioned by the intelligence department of Scotland Yard, on his arrival in London if the present plans of the police are carried out. The notification was given as a matter of ourtesy and is not given in like cases of lesser importance.

The interrogation will not necessarily be made with the view of taking action against Mr. Vanderlip's presence in England, it was stated, but with the intention of ascertaining exactly what his activities had been in Russia, in view of the many conflicting reports published in London. Such interrogation, it was pointed out, would be in conformity with the recently adopted attitude of the British government of discouraging trade between Russia and England.

Mr. Vanderlip was in Stockholm up to a few days ago. He recently returned from Moscow and gave out a statement asserting that he had secured a concession for 400,000 square miles of land in Siberia, including Kamohatk, for a syndiate of United States business men.

SUSPENDS COAST SKIPPER'S TICKET

Helm Put to Port Instead of Starboard; Prince Rupert off Her Course.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 18.—The certificate of Capt. Duncan MacKenzie MacKenzie, master of the Grand Trunk Pacific steamer Prince Rupert, when that vessel ran on the rocks in Swanson Bay during a heavy fog on Sept. 28, was suspended for four months, and that of Captain Rod McKenzie, chief officer, for three months, by the commissioners' enquiring into the wreck here today. It was declared that the primary cause of the grounding was that the helm was put to port instead of to starboard, and that the vessel was considerably out of her course at the time.

The steamship Prince Rupert was en route from Vancouver to Prince Rupert at the time of the accident, with more than 200 passengers aboard, all of whom were landed safely. The vessel is now being raised, and it will cost $200,000 to repair her, it is estimated.

DISCOURAGES BOLSHEVIKI PROPAGANDA

Washington Views Wrangel Collapse as Reason for Trade Resumption.

RED INFLUENCE DANGER TO ASIA

Britain More Anxious to Exclude Activities From East Than for Recognition.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18—The collapse of the Wrangel-anti-Bolsheviki movement in Southern Russia is viewed by government officials here as having prompted the declaration of Lloyd George in parliament today that the British cabinet has decided to resume negotiations for resumption of trade relations with Russia. At the same time, it was said, Great Britain is more interested in securing exemption from Bolsheviki propaganda in Asia Minor, Persia and India, than in establishing actual commercial relations with Russia.

Not Evacuating Wrangel's Forces

LONDON, Nov. 18—An authorized statement has been issued denying that the British government contemplates evacuating General Wrangel's forces or stores. PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, Nov. 18.—Additional evidence charging Freeman Lang, formerly a corporal in the United States marine corps, with murdering Haytian prisoners, was presented today before the naval court of inquiry investigating the activities of the United States marines in Hayti. The evidence was presented by Oratus Louissiant, a native gendarme.

He testified that Lang called a prisoner from the Hinche jail in 1918, questioned him and killed him with a machine gun at 10 paces while the prisoner was walking quietly away. The witness denied the victim was trying to escape when he was killed.

Louissiant also testified he saw Lang apply the electric current running from a wireless apparatus to a prisoner to make the man talk.

Asked in cross-examination if the application proved fatal, the witness replied:

"I cannot say, but he died in prison a few days later."

The former crown princess is named among those who have been the personal guests of the head of the bank, whose family is also reported to have enjoyed the hospitality of the former crown princess at her residence near Potsdam.

STUDIES PRISON ADMINISTRATION

Royal Commission to Investigate United States Methods.

OTTAWA, Nov. 18—Many important changes in the administration of Canadian penitentiaries are likely to be made as the result of the work now being done by the royal commission named by the government some time ago to draft new regulations for the penitentiaries. Several sittings of the commission have already been held and some valuable suggestions have been received form all classes of Canadian officials.

The commission before drafting its findings, will visit New York and learn what it can from people responsible for the administration of United States penal institutions. In this connection, it is pointed out that he Unied Sates offers a very wide field because each state is in charge of its own prisons and may have adopted features of prison management which might profitably be adopted by Canada.

SINN FEIN WITNESSES GIVE PARTIZAN EVIDENCE BEFORE COMMITTEE OF ONE HUNDRED

Irish-American Visitors Claim All Civil Processes at an End Under British Military Rule; United States Citizenship Derided, Papers Confiscated; Shooting Incidents Described; Ireland Virtually Unanimous for Independence, Witnesses Say.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18. — Eyewitness reports of recent disturbances in Ireland were given today at the opening hearing of the committee of one hundred on conditions investigating the Irish question.

All witnesses heard were partisans of the Sinn Fein movement.

Dennis Morgan, chairman of the town council of Thurles, Ireland, and three Irish Americans who visited Ireland recently—John F. Martin of Green Bay, Wis.; Father Michael English, of Whitehall, Montana, and Father James H. Cotter, of Lisbon, Ohio—were heard. All maintained that civil processes in Ireland, except those of the "provisional Irish republic" were practically at an end under the rule of the British military forces.

Morgan said his home was riddled with bullets prior to his arrest and deportation to England without any definite charges being preferred against him. With 200 other "Irish republican" leaders, he said, he went on a hunger strike until all were released.

Father English said that British soldiers had confiscated his papers. The military authorities derided his protests that he was a citizen of the United States, he said, and he also told of having witnessed the shooting of an Irishman, whose body, he said, was beaten into unrecognizable form.

Father Cotter, who is a Catholic editor, told of the killing of a Galway citizen by a British soldier without cause, he claimed.

The soldier, he said, was seized by another citizen and reprisals against the town followed an hour later.

Martin, who is a Knight of Columbus official, joined with Father Cotter in stating that "sentiment in Ireland was virtually unanimous for independence."

This applied, both witnesses said, to both Protestants and Catholics. Martin said he was halted and searched often by soldiers during a journey from Limerick to Cork.

ROWELL PROTESTS AT PROPOSALS TO DEPART FROM LEAGUE'S RULES

GENEVA, Nov. 18—In a somewhat agitated session today, the League of Nations assembly completed its organization by the election of six vice presidents, who with the six chairmen of the committees elected yesterday, form a sort of executive committee of the assembly. The non-European nations for whom much solicitude was shown yesterday, had no complaints to make, as they obtained four vice-presidents instead of the three they had asked for.

These were: Viscount Ishii, Japan; Honorio Pueyredon, Argentina; Sir George Foster, Canada; and Rodrigo Octavio, Brazil. The other vice presidents are: H. A. Van Karnabeek, Holland, and Dr. Eduard Benes, Checho-Slovakia.

Baron Hayashi, of Japan, usually an impassive observer of the proceedings, attracted attention when he arose to ask the delegates to vote for Viscount Ishii, Japanese ambassador to France, if Japan was to have a vice president.

As an act of courtesy, Giuseppe Motta, president of the Swiss confederation, who had delivered the address of welcome, was elected honorary president of the first assembly of the league.

Deny Combine Rumors

Rumors which have been current all week that certain combinations had been formed to carry pre-arranged programs through the assembly were denied today from two sources. M. Pueyredon, for the Argentine delegation said it was absolutely untrue so far as Argentine was concerned, that the South American republics were in an understanding with other neutrals to force the admission of Germany into the league.

The British Dominion's representatives made it clear that they were here to represent their particular Dominion without reference to sister dominions or the mother country.

All the delegates appeared to be satisfied with the progress made in the necessary preliminary proceedings, the work having been gone through with a minimum of friction, and they expect the final results to satisfy all the friends of the league.

With the exception of Rodrigo Octavio, of Brazil, all the vice presidents were elected on the first ballot. Delegate Octavio received 22 votes in the second ballot to six for Lord Cecil of South Africa.

Animated discussion took place in the Brazilian delegation between the two ballots while the matter of voting was being discussed, and Hon. N. W. Rowell, of Canada, formerly president of the Privy Council, made a brief but energetic protest against the continual proposals of departures from the rules.

Senor Da Cunhal, of Brazil, endeavored to put in a few words after the voting had begun, but Mr. Rowell's protest intervened.

PASSPORT FRAUDS BECOME GENERAL

All Kinds of Tricks Are Tried to Enter States and Canada via Mexico.

BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Investigation here has disclosed that many Polish passports for Canada, the United States and Mexico were fraudulent and the vises forged. The disclosures followed the investigation into the recent labor troubles in Belgium, which the authorities there expressed the belief were fomented by Russian agitators. Therefore the Belgian government instituted an inquiry there.

Information obtained by the British passport office in Berlin also led to the discovery that numerous holders of Polish passports vised for the United States were seeking to enter England on the representation that their passage had been paid on liners from English ports. Forged passports for the passage are said to have been shown.

The British passport office now refuses vises for transit through England until the holders produce steamship tickets.

Many Arrests in Belgium

It is said that about fifty arrests have been made in Belgium in connection with the fraud, but the Belgian consulate is not willing to discuss the matter in case wholesale arrests should be necessary. The destination of most of the emigrants who have gone to Belgium, it is understood, is Mexico, from which country they think they will be able later to enter the United States and Canada. All the passport officers in Berlin are exercising the utmost caution but the authorities say it is virtually impossible to weed out all undesirables. William Coffin, the United States consul-general, estimated that about 1,000,000 persons will have passed through European ports for the United States by the end of the year, a majority of them from Poland.

Rid the Face of Pimples and Such Blemishes by Using Stuart's Calcium Wafers — Surprising How Youthful One Looks

Pimples, blackheads and other such facal blemishes may be traced to an excess of impurities being eliminated through the skin and this condition calls for calcium to enable the process of elimination to be carried on more completely.

It is the calcium in Stuart's Calcium Wafers that has given this complexion beautifier such a wonderful reputation.

The results are soon noted in a much finer texture, the gradual disappearance of the blemishes and a really beautiful complexion. This considered the correct way to handsome, lily-like skin. Get the 60-cent box of these wafers at any drug store and observe how nicely the skin soon clears.

NIGHT COUGH

You know it! It begins with a tickling, irritating sensation in your throat. You cough to clear the throat. In a moment—there it is again!

A minute's peace, then again you cough, and so on until you cough your throat sore, and by the time the cough is sufficiently allayed to permit you to sleep, you are thoroughly worn out. This kind of experience is particularly trying to old people.

Peps make this sort of thing quite unnecessary.

Put a Peps pastille on your tongue and allow it to slowly dissolve. Healing fumes are then liberated, which mingle with the breath and are carried to the remotest parts of the air passages and lungs, allaying the irritation and soothing the inflamed membranes, thus ending the cough and making sleep possible.

REVIVE MEMORIES OF OLD COMRADES

Second Annual Reunion of the Fifty-Fourth Battalion Brings Many Together.

In the shadows of the storied colors of the battalion, mounted on a pedestal in the place of honor, on the anniversary of the taking of Desire trench, and with messages of good will from officers who led it, 57 former members of the 54th Kootenay overseas battalion, representing all sections of the Kootenay, in Eagle hall last evening, recalled old associations, fought over again the old battles, pledged the old toasts and further cemented the old friendships at the battalion's second annual reunion.

There were also present as guests, Major F. Arundle, of the Royal Artillery; Capt. A. H. Wallace, of the 13th Field Ambulance; Leslie Craufurd, P. G. Morey, and Edgar Mason, of Nelson; and W. J. Petch, of the Balfour sanatorium.

The menu, whih bore such interesting items as "bully" hot roast beef, "high explosive" lobster salad, "Desire" soup, and other uniquely named viands, was illustrated with the battalion shoulder colors, and also enumerated the campaigns in which the 54th battalion participated which were, in turn, those of Ypres, Somme, Vimy Ridge, Lens, Passchendaele, Arras, Amiens, Bourlon Wood, Cambrai and Valenciennes. All these names, except that of Ypres, embellish the battalion's colors. The ladies of the Mothers club of St. Saviours church were the caterers, and also made charming waitresses.

Four brief formal toasts, each appropriately honored, with enthusiasm or solemnity, as the ocasion made fitting, comprised the formal program, together with some rollicking songs and choruses, and the rest of the time was spent in getting together, with entire absence of all formality, swapping the old chestnuts, meeting old friends, and exchanging the last available information about former comrades.

The toast to "The King" was honored with military precision and patriotic fervor.

Lesson of the Colors

Major Turner Lee of Bonnington eloquently proposed the toast to "The Colors" reminding his hearers of the fact that the colors embodied the spirit and the history of a regiment, and that men had given up their lives for them. Canadian regiments earned their spurs and earned their colors on the battlefields of Belgium and France, and on those colors were inscribed the imperishable honors they had won. He referred to the Somme campaign and particularly to the engagement of Desire Trench, with its grim casualties, as marking the end of the old 54th as originally omposed, alnough its spirit carried on.

F. H. Dalrymple proposed the toast to "Our Absent Comrades" the reference being to those still living, but unable to be present at the reunion.

In solemn silence, and with a swifter heartbeat on the part of most, was drunk the toast to "Our Comrades in France," proposed by toastmaster Peters.

Wires of regret from Lieut.-Col. A. B. Carey, who commanded the battalion almost from the death of Lieut.-Col. A. H. G. Kemball, and from Captain H. B. Hickes, were read, and received with applause, as follows:

"Regret exceedingly my inability to be with you for dinner tonight Please give all present my kindest remembrances and assurances that my interest will never decrease where a member of the good old 54th is oncerned."

A. B. Carey
Vancouver

"I trust that your members present will be well over the hundred mark, and may everyone have a thoroughly god time at this second annual dinner. Regret exceedingly not being able to be with you."

H. B. Hickes
Cranbrook

Lieut.-Col. C. Hungerford Pollen, of Cranbrook, who is in charge of the reorganization of the Kootenay militia regiment of two battalions—the 54th and 225th—gave a brief outline of the reorganization plan, and urged moral support of it. It was proposed, he said, to make the Kootenay militia regiment the military home of Kootenay men.

Reminiscences

Dr. A. H. Wallace, in the course of some interesting reminiscences of occasions on which his unit, the 13th Field Ambulance, was working with the 54th, mentioned some incidents in which the late Don McQuarrie, of Nelson, figured, and stated that two Nelson boys in the 54th, Claude Miller and William Swannell, present at the reunion, were the first two casualties he had to treat on arrival in France.

During the evening many musical numbers greatly contributed to the success of the reunion. Major Arundle sang "A Sergeant of the Line," and encored with "Old Jolly Jenkins." Leslie Craufurd contributed "O, It's Nice to Get Up in the Morning," "We Parted on the Shore," and "The Wiggle o' the Kilt." Edgar Mason gave his old favorites, "O, What a Girl Was Mary," and "Up in the Gallery on a Saturday Night."

The reunion finally came to a close with the National Anthem just before midnight.

A MAN OF RENOWN

Among the notable professional men of this country who achieved great success along strictly legitimate lines, was Dr. R. V. Pierce, founder of Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute in Buffalo, N.Y. Devoting his attention to the specialty of women's diseases, he became a recognized authority in that line. His work, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," is now in over two and a half million homes in this country and Europe. At one time Doctor Pierce represented his home district in Congress.

Just fifty-one years ago he gave to the world a Prescription which has never been equalled for the weaknesses of women. Many women in every hamlet, town or city will gladly testify that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription did them a world of good.

Another of this great physician's successful remedies is known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and, like the "Prescription," is now sold by all druggists, in both liquid and tablets. This is probably one of the most efficacious discoveries ever made in medicine, for the list of men and women all over the universe who have successfully used it for indigestion and as a blood tonic and system builder, makes an amazing total of thousands. "Pleasant Pellets" for stomach, liver and bowels, introduced by Pierce fifty years ago, are recommended by thousands all over United States and Canada.

A new edition of the "Medical Adviser," over 1,000 pages, handsome cloth, can be obtained by sending one dollar (or on stamps) to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

POULTRY FARMER TO STAND TRIAL

Five Witnesses Give Evidence at Preliminary Hearing of Ruffle Case.

After hearing the evidence of five witnesses in the continued preliminary hearing of the case against Frederick Hardy Ruffle proprietor of Park House Poultry farm, of Fairview, at the police court yesterday fore and afternoon, Magistrate E. A. Crease committed the accused to stand trial at the next court of competent criminal jurisdiction on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The evidence of one other witness was taken on Monday. E. G. Mathew prosecuted. H. Clifford Irving, (O'Shea & Farris) defended.

The first witness called by the prosecutor was Capt. George Consort Massey.

Capt. Massey stated he was discharged from the C. E. F. on Jan. 20, 1920, and obtained employment with the Alberta Telephone company, Crossfield, Alberta. He had about $300 in gratuity to his credit. On Aug. 3 he advertised he had $1,000 and his services to invest in a reliable business.

Mr. Ruffle replied to the advertisement, stating that for a loan of $1000 he would be willing to engage Capt. Massey for one year at a salary of $85 a month with board and room if single, and if married, $125 a month, with the use of a cottge on the premises, rent and light free. It also stated Mr. Ruffle had 2000 birds and was expecting 4000 by October and claimed that the Ruffle system was capable of producing one egg per bird per day. The conditions were that Capt. Massey would not divulge the secrets of Mr. Ruffle's patented poultry foods and that he should not engage in the poultry business for himself within 100-mile radius of the Ruffle plant. The farm was described as one of the best in the west.

Birds at Banff.

Capt. Massey wired Mr. Ruffle he would meet him and came to Nelson on Aug. 16, for the purpose. When he saw Mr. Ruffle at his plant in Fairview he produced the letter, Mr. Ruffle stating he had forgotten what was in it as he had several such deals on. He saw no birds on being shown around the plant but was advised by Mr. Ruffle that they were expected in a few weeks, and further that Mr. Ruffle had his birds under the care of Mr. Bartlett, of Banff, Alta. He was requested not to converse with two employees, P. Gangee and a Mr. John Hume and was ushered from the premises at the rear.

He met Mr. Ruffle that afternoon at the Hume hotel, where the latter, refusing legal assistance, they drew up an agreement themselves by which Mr. Massey agreed to forward by wire $1000. This he did in August, through the Canadiaan Bank of Commerce, on his return to Crossfield, he then resigned his position with the telephone company. A second letter from Mr. Ruffle stated he had a contract to supply the local hospital with 2 dozen eggs daily and that he had secured a house for Capt. Massey, who had found the cottage unsuitable.

Advised Secrecy.

Continuing, Capt. Massey stated he arrived with his wife and family in Nelson on Sept. 4, and stopped at the Hume. There Mr. Ruffle advised secrecy regarding the investment, complained he was still badly in need of money and within 12 days of receiving the $1000, asked for a further loan of $200 or $300, as he wished to go to Vancouver to dispose of a house. He showed a photograph of the house and Capt. Massey advanced a further $150 on an I. O. U. the money to be returned on Mr. Ruffle's return. At the depot he advanced a further $25, and was requested by Mr. Ruffle not to visit the farm in his absence.

On September 18, Mr. Ruffle wired he had made out good and was returning and on Sept. 23 at the post office in Nelson, he returned Capt. Massey $25 at the latter's request. On Sept 27, at Capt. Massey's house, Mr. Ruffle begged that Mr. Gangee be not told of the investment, when Capt. Massey should go to work on the farm, and that he should inform Mr. Ruffle of anything Mr. Gangee might say.

Asked for Wages.

Badly in need of money Capt. Massey requested Mr. Ruffle to return him some. After working a few days on the farm the overheard a dispute over wages between Mr. Ruffle and Mr. Johnson. His wages being due on Sept. 30, he asked for his wages and the return of some of the loaned money.

Mr. Ruffle put him off for a few days. A few days later Mr. Ruffle on being questioned, stated he expected to have his birds in soon, as he was ready for them. According to Mr. Ruffle's estimate it would take four such hen houses as the one then under construction to house 2000 birds.

Hens Declined to Lay.

Capt. Massey received $90 of the $150 loan on Oct. 9. By that time 13 hens had arrived from Vancouver. The hens had declined to lay a single egg during the past four weeks. Capt. Massey had received no wages from Mr. Ruffle, who besides three months' wages and the $1000 loan, still owed him $60 on the $150 loan and an insurance policy promised him.

He was led to believe the plant had been constructed by Mr. Ruffle, who gave instructions regarding work to be done but during the past month had done no work on the place himself.

Cross-Examined.

Cross examined by H. Clifford Irving (O'Shea & Farris) Capt. Massey stated he knew nothing of poultry farming and that in his advertisement he did not specify the kind of business he wished to undertake. Mr. Ruffle had stated he had 2000 birds and he naturally thought they would be located at Park Hous Poultry Farm. He was suspicious when he found they were at Banff. He never examined the plant carefully before he went to work there on Sept. 27 and was not capable of forming an opinion on the plant in view of his lack of knowledge.

He went to work on Sept. 27, and worked at digging and building. He had no definite reason for believing Mr. Rufffle had no intention of bringing his birds to Nelson but was convinced Mr. Ruffle could not fulfill his agreement.

Was Dubious.

He knew Mr. Gangee was a partner and th amount he had invested. He was dubious as to the security of his own money after the first week. He didn't know if Mr. Ruffle intended to pay him his wages but he knew he had not. He had been led to believe Mr. Ruffle had a profitable going concern when he invested his money.

No land had been purchased by Mr. Ruffle to his knowledge. Judging from the last six months' construction it would take 18 months to put the plant into shape. He presumed Mr. Ruffle intended to put birds into the house now under construction when it was completed. No he did not feel very easy in his mind when Mr. Ruffle went to Vancouver on his money and he was convinced that there was no hope of him receiving his wages and monies due him under the present system of business of Mr. Ruffle.

Mrs. Massey was next put on the stand. Questioned by Mr. Matthew she corroborated her husband's statements in regard to two letters having been received from Mr. Ruffl, in the first of which he stated he had 2000 birds and expected to have 4000 by October, and offered a salary of $125 a month to Capt. Massey with a cottage rent free. The second had contained statements in regard to Mr. Ruffle having a contract with the local hospital for 12 dozen eggs weekly. She was questioned by Mr. Irving regarding the figures.

Neil McArhur, the third witness called stated he was formerly resident at Vancouver and he came into touch with Mr. Ruffle through an advertisement in the Vancouver Province, which asked for a man with $3000 to take an interest in a poultry farm in Nelson. He first met Mr. Ruffle in the office of Francis W. Taylor, financial agent, Vancouver, where Mr. Ruffle laid out the proposition of the farm. Mr. Ruffle said he had 2000 birds, three cows and a horse and led him to believe the birds were at the Park House poultry farm at Fairview. Mr. Ruffle further said he had a $3000 mortgage on the plant, which was worth $6000 but that he got 800 or 900 dozen eggs a week from his birds, which he sold at 60 cents a dozen. No partners were mentioned.

Mr. Taylor suggested they go to a lawyer to have an agreement made buit it was finally decided to let Mr. Taylor draw it up. Mr. McArthur claimed he paid $1000 to Mr. Ruffle on Sept. 17.

Coming to Nelson on Oct. 17 he was advised by Mr. Ruffle to wait a few day sbefore going to work, his wages to go on. He was to receive $85 a month, room and board and an insurance policy in the Monarch Life.

When he was shown over the plant by Mr. Ruffle one evening he did not see any hens, cows or horses, but the following morning when he visited the farm in Mr. Ruffle's absence he saw a few hens. Later he tackled Mr. Ruffle about it and the latter stated the birds were at Banff. He triedto verify a statement of Mr. Ruffle's that he was supplying a local grocery with eggs but was told no eggs were received from that source. He demanded his money back several times without success and wrote Mr. Taylor that the farm was misrepresented. He did not pay any more money over.

Cross-examined by Mr. Irving Mr. McArthur repeated his former statements regarding the number of eggs and stated his loan of $1000 was in the nature of a 15 per cent loan, with optional partnership. He had seen the farm employes preparing for birds, but had not worked on the plant himself. He had seen a gasoline engine and two bone crushers on the place. He had not gone far into the Ruffle system but had paid $1000 and was to have worked at the farm. Mr. Ruffle had claimed his system would produce one egg per day per bird.

The next witness called by Mr. Matthew was C. Vallor, who stated he was a returned sailor. He came into touch with Mr. Ruffle through an advertisement appearing in a Vancouver paper and through Francis W. Taylor. On the advice of Mr. Taylor, he wrote Mr. Ruffle, asking to be taught the poultry Business under the scheme of the department of soldier's civil reestablishment. Mr. Ruffle had answered him that he was willing and that he had 2000 hens, three cows and a horse.

He came to Nelson after making arrangements with the department of soldier's civil establishment, as a vocational student, and loaned Mr. Ruffle $750. He was asked not to say anything about the loan to anyone. After working a short time, he decided he wished to get married and settle in Nelson, and asked Mr. Ruffle for $50 back. Mr. Ruffle gave him a note for 30 days, but no money. A new agreement for $500 was made out. He loaned Mr. Ruffle a further $25 and expected to receive $275 returned in 90 days.

Under the cross-examination of Mr. Irving, he stated he was satisfied Mr. Ruffle honestly intended to run a poultry plant. He mentioned the arrival of some supplies, including oyster shell, piping, and a case of glass for windows, and stated he thought a poultry plant would materialize if Mr. Ruffle had sufficient capital, but that it would be a long time before any of the men saw their money returned. One building was nearly completed and the ground and joists were prepared for a second. Mr. Ruffle had told him that he could get contracts in town and outside for eggs and that he had an order from a grocery store in town.

The condition of his tuition was that he was not to divulge the secrets of the poultry food production.

E. C. Lewis, accountan of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commrce testified that $1000 had been placed to the credit of Mr. Ruffle through the Crossfield, Alta., branch on Aug. 23. He admitted he had no personal knowledge of who sent the money, when cross-examined.

Catarrh Of The Stomach Is Dangerous

"Thousands Have It and Don't Know It," Says Physician. Frequently Mistaken for Indigestion—How to recognize and Treat.

"Thousands of people suffer more or less constantly from furred, coated tongue, bad breath, sour burning stomach, frequent vomiting, rumbling in stomach, bitter eructations, gas, wind and stomach acidity and call it indigestion when in reality their trouble is due to gastric catarrh of the stomach," writes a New York physician.

Catarrh of the stomach is dangerous because the mucous membrane lining of the stomach is thickened and a coating of phlegm covers the surface so that the digestive fluids cannot mix with the food and digest them. This condition soon breeds deadly disease in the fermented, unassimilated food. The blood is polluted and carries the infection throughout the body. Gastric ulcers are apt to form and frequently an ulcer is the first sign of a deadly cancer.

In catarrh of the stomach a good and safe treatment is to take before meals a teaspoonful of pure Bisurated Magnesia in half a glass of hot water as hot as you can comfortably drink it. The hot water washes the mucous from the stomach walls and draws the blood to the stomach while the bisurated magnesia is an excellent solvent for mucus and increases the efficiency of the hot water treatment. Moreover the Bisurated Magnesia will serve as a powerful but harmless antacid which will neutralize any excess hydrochloric acid that may be in your stomach and sweeten its food contents. Easy, natural digestion without distress of any kind should soon follow. Bisurated Magnesia is not a laxative, is harmless, pleasant and easy to take and can be obtained from any local druggist. Don't confuse Bisurated Magnesia with other forms of magnesia, milks, citrates, etc., but get it in the pure bisurated form (powder or tablets), especially prepared for this purpose.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Agrees that Plain Bitro-Phosphate helps to build strong nerves and put on firm healthy flesh.

Feed your nerves plenty of phosphate with enough left over to give the blood and bone cells a generous helping and you should quickly note a return to old-time vigor with a power of endurance that will surprise you.

So say two prominent New York physicians. Thinness, weakness and lack of ambition are in most cases due to underfed nerves, and this is so simply because modern foods are lamentably weak in phosphoric elements.

Over 40 per cent of the people of America need more phosphate, and about the only way that many thin people can take on more pounds of firm, vigorous flesh is to feed the nerves direct with Bitro-Phosphate, a plain, ordinary, organic phosphate that druggists know all about.

Tens of thousands of run-down, delicate, frail underweight people have learned the way to better health through Bitro-Phosphate. It was just the one element lacking to put on much desired flesh and bring them health, happiness and a mind free from dullness.

Soldier Settlement Waste and Mismanagement

The soldier settlement policy of the Oliver government is a record of waste extravagance and mismanagement for the which soldier settlers and the people generally will have in the long run to pay.

The government at Victoria has spent practically two and a half million dollars, and everyone who has been in touch with soldier settlers in any of the areas knows how thoroughly unsatisfactory the government's administration has been.

One example of waste of money was the purchase of the Christian ranch near Kelowna for the sum of $34,543. This was purchased through Thomas Morrison, president of the Rutland Liberal association, who obtained an overnight option from the owner and made $9000 on the deal. Then $55,171 was spent in development work, making a total expenditure of $89,714. Last July the tract was abandoned, the government having discovered at this late date that the land could not be irrigated. The soldier settlers had to give up their holdings and move out, after having lost their time and the people of this province having lost nearly $90,000.

A similar case occured at Fernie, where $20,713 was spent on a tract which was then abandoned.

In other soldier settlements the cost of the land by the time it is improved is so high that the settlers can hardly hope to make a living when they finally get their tracts. The reason for the high cost is that the selling price to the soldiers is based upon cost of land and improvements, and the methods of improvement carried on by the government are so wasteful and inefficient that enormous charges are being piled up against the land. Supplies are bought from favored persons at exorbitant rates and the settlers are supposed to pay for it.

The only sound course a Conservative government can adopt when it is returned is to have all the land and improvements revalued and sold to the soldier settlers at a fair price. This would mean that the province would have to pocket the loss, but that cannot now be avoided and it is better to stand the loss in that way than to load it on to soldier settlers who through no fault of their own would be forced out of business by heavy interest charges. The soundest policy is to accept the loss now and give the soldier settlers the improved land at prices which will enable them to make a living and increase the agricultural production of the province.

Mr. Scorpion, M.D.

The scorpion is one of those things that nobody has had any use for. But from a report on the British expedition into the interior of Abyssinia presented at the recent meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, it appears that even the tip of a scorpion's tail may have its place in the economy of nature. While at Lake Rudolf Major Darley was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery when he was stung by a scorpion. This added misfortune proved to be a blessing in disguise for a rapid and complete cure started from that moment. Rheumatic patients have been known to subject their aching limbs to the sting of bees, but then a rheumatic will do anything to get relief—or diversion.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

THE GUEST IN THE HOME

"There's no use talking," I have heard women say "guests are delightful from a standpoint of sociability, but they are a lot of trouble."

The woman who talks like that is a pessimist, to my way of thinking. The optimistic woman says: "It pays me to have guests in more ways than that of enjoying their society; I always get so much done before a guest comes."

We all know how we fly around before the arrival of a guest, doing those numerous little thnigs that we have long meant to do but neglected. Mrs. A has intended for months to rehang the etching in her living room which she realizes, would look better in another spot—but she does not "get around" to rehanging it until the night before her mother-in-law comes to visit. Mrs. B. has been on the verge of rewaxing her hardwood floors for several months—but she doesn't do it until Cousin Lucy is expected for the week-end. Mrs. C has been vaguely distressed for three months over her soiled living-room curtains—but she is not to be found actually washing them until she has sent out invitations for an informal little guest dinner.

In short, guests give us impetus. They turn a tiresome duty into a task brightened by the excitement of a coming event. I believe that the housekeeper should plan to have at least one guest a month (twelve guests a year are not many, are they?), if only for the sake of the upkeep of the home.!

Not long ago I dropped into the home of a friend who had just said goodbye to a week-end guest.

"My! what a lot of changes you have made around your house!" I exclaimed. "One always gets a lot done before having a guest, doesn't one?"

"Yes, but not only before," she replied enthusiastically. "I got a tremendous amount of sewing done while she was here. As we sat and talked, I finished all the odd pieces of sewing I had started and laid aside—I never in this world would have found time to finish them if Alice hadn't come."

So a guest not only gives us the ambition to make improvements before the date of his arrival, but also enables us to finish odds and ends of handiwork during the period of the visit, as we sit and chat.

But I do not wish to give the impression that I believe in having guests frequently for the sole reason of "getting things done." There is a spiritual side to the guest question. We human beings were not meant to live like hermits; we were meant to share our loaf with others, to exchange our life experiences with one another for mutual benefit. A guest brings us his viewpoint and takes away ours; he brings a little piece of his world into our world to give us a change of thought, and when he leaves he takes away a little piece of our world away with him, to re-live in memory.

Many a guest has proved a substitue for a doctor's bill. I have known more than one woman who improved her health by having a visitor; for, without realizing it, we all crave change from the monotony of our daily lives, and there is nothing like a guest to take us out of ourselves. Just try it!

How popular the cape has become! From the full swirling affair of two seasons ago—or shall we say several centuries ago?—on through many variations, it makes its appearance this season in highly modified form on many dresses.

One can well imagine that a soulful-looking Young Person like the one in the sketch, would appreciate the romantic touch which a bit of cape can give to a simple blue serge frock.

The neck is entirely plain and rounded in front, and the skirt indulges in knife-pleated panels which start at the hip line. A young woman with generous hips, however, will find her figure more attractive with panels which start directly from the waistline.

For Ladies

Said Mrs. C——— to Mrs. T———
One bleak and cold and wintry day,
"You know, my dear, this time of year
Is hard on folks.
If only we could feel assured
Of health and comfort, 't would be fine,
But it seems we can't, in such a clime."

"Well, do you know", smiled Mrs. T———
"I used to think this time of year,
Meant colds and sickness always near,
But we heard of an easy way,
To be healthy and comfy every day.
You know Mrs. Wise, across the street,
(Just the picture of health and always neat)
Well, she was told by a doctor friend
She'd never regret the money she'd spend
On good wool 'Undies,' the 'Ceetee' kind,
Made by Turnbull's of Galt, I think she said.
An advertisement somewhere then she read—
Telling folks how that particular kind
Was fashioned by experts—and that you'd find
The 'Undies' they made were the better kind—
Fashioned of wool that was not one bit 'tickly'
(Others, you know, tickle and seem sort of prickly)
That all "CEETEE" garments are so downy and soft,
We'd just love to wear them—in fact, very oft
Mothers buy them for babies, all fears to allay
Should they go for an airing on a stormy, chill day—
Why! the rain would'nt matter, neither wind, snow or frost—
"CEETEE" garments, in truth, are worth twice their first cost.
They're the finest of high-grade underwear,
And the thriftiest, best-dressed women who care,
Know that it pays to buy none but the best;
Don't you think we'd do well to give them a test?"

"CEETEE" for ladies is made with low cut neck and no sleeves—also with elbow sleeves and in higher neck and long sleeves.

"CEETEE" is knitted on very fine needles—this makes it very warm, soft and light.

Any doctor will advise you to wear wool next the skin: it is a non-conductor, thus retains the warmth of the body, keeps out the cold—and safeguards your health.

EDGEWOOD, Nov. 18.—William Hunter Conservative Farmer candidate, T. Abriel of Nakusp, P. Macguire are touring the district and held a meeting in the Edgewood hotel on Monday.

T. Abriel, speaking on behalf of Mr. Hunter, said he was an honest supporter of the farmers, and mentioned several disabilities undr which they labored, particularly banking accommodation and the bad condition of many roads.

Criticizes Road Work.

Mr. Hunter then spoke, giving his own experience and interest as the reason for coming out as Conservative-Farmer candidate.

He criticized the overhead charges in connection with road work and the delays exprienced in this regard. He advocated the linking up of the present roads into a complete system and spoke of the attraction for tourists that would result.

Farm Committee to Raise Funds for the War Sufferers of Europe

EDGEWOOD, Nov. 18.—A public meeting was held on Monday in the Edgewood hotel for the purpose of interesting people in the work of the Canadian Red Cross society in connection with the British Empire War Relief Fund.

Col. Harington, chairman explained the objects of the meeting, alluding to the sufferings of the smaller nations of Europe and their need of help.

He called on Mr. W. A. Jowett, who gave statistics showing the terrible condition of famine and disease to which whole nations were reduced and their utter inability to combat the resulting distress themselves.

The Rev. H. Varley spoke of the Red Cross society as a society to be trusted. The appeal was for funds for the relief of suffering particulary of our younger comrades. "We live in an age when the world's boundaries are broken down," he said. It was not easy to realize the conditions resulting from the war and its effects; disease and distress were prevalent and must be relieved.

A committee was then elected with Col. Harington as chairman, J. H. Naylor, vice-chairman, Rev. H. Varley, secretary, and Miss E. Murton, treasurer and Mrs. Jordan.

HEAVY SELLING ON WALL STREET

Suspension of American International Dividend Starts a Rot in Transportation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18—Liquidation of securities on the stock market exchange made further progress today, the reaction being again accompanied by unsettlement in various branches of commerce and industry and additional confusion in the leading commodity markets.

Today's losses were sustained in the face of the easiest money conditions known for many weeks. Call loans opened at seven per cent and relaxed to six per cent during the mid session, while time funds were more freely offered than at any time since the early autumn.

It was pointed out however, that the ease of money could hardly be regarded as a bullish factor, inasmuch as this condition was almost wholly due to the release of enormous amounts of cash resulting from stock market liquidation.

One of the significant developments of the day, but which seemed to have been foreshadowed by recent events, was the passing of the quarterly dividend on the common shares of American International. That stock suffered an extreme loss of 11 points at 38¾, making only a feeble reovery later. Suspension of the American dividend was the signal for enormous selling of other shares, shippings, Mercantile Marine making a net loss of 5¾ points, United Fruit 8¼ and Atlantic Gulf 2¾.

United States Steel made a new low for three years at 80¾, but lost only one point on the day. Among the other outstanding features of weakness were the independent steels equipments, motors specialties and tobacco and leather issues at gross recessions of one to six points. Sales amounted to 1,150,000 shares.

Foreign exchange especially the British rate, was strong during the morning, but reacted sharply later. Heavy trading in bonds, including liberties and internationals, was attended by variable but moderate declines.

Total sales, par value, aggregated $18,875,000.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

BEWARE OF BRONCHITIS

Bronchitis is generally caused by neglecting a cold or exposure to wet and inclement weather. It begins with a tightness across the chest, difficulty in breathing, and a wheezing sound comes from the lungs. There is a raising of phlegm, especially the first thing in the morning. This is at first white, but later becomes a greenish or yellowish color and is occasionally streaked with blood.

On the first sign of bronchitis you should check it immediately by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, thereby preventing it becoming chronic, and perhaps developing into some more serious lung trouble.

Mrs. Bruce Culham, Sheffield, Ont., writes:—"In December, 1919, I was very sick with bronchitis, and had to stay in the house all winter. One day I saw Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup advertised, so I got a small bottle which helped me very much; I then got a 60c size, and it completely relieved me. I cannot praise 'Dr. Wood's' enough for what it did. Two of my neighbors are now using it for colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup; the genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 35c. and 60c.; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

7 Jewels

MEET Ingersoll Reliance—the seven jewelled star time-reporter of the Ingersoll Watches.

Smart as they make 'em, aristocratic in appearance, slim, suave and distinguished—but a regular fellow.

And he sure keeps regular time!

Reliance has been trained that way. Before he leaves the Ingersoll factory he is tested to tell time correctly in six different positions—two days in each.

But you don't know the half of it, yet. Reliance is given 127 other inspections to see that his seven jewelled, bridge-type works function perfectly.

Those works contain the best features of 362 different watches which were studied in constructing Reliance—yet Reliance has 29 less parts than the average watch.

Simplicity, accuracy, sturdiness and beauty make the Reliance a watch anyone can be proud to carry.

Yet the price is but $9.25 in nickel case. $14.50 in gold-filled.

ANTON BERNICK, of St. Paul, Minn., who says he now eats better, sleeps better and works better, as a result of taking Tanlac. Says all his friends are talking about his improvement.

"There must be something wonderful about Tanlac for it has made me feel better, eat better, sleep better and work better," said Anton Bernick, of 136 East Congress Street, St. Paul, Minn., a well-known employee of Swift & Company.

"Tanlac has helped me so much that all my friends are stopping me on the street and asking me what it is that is making me look so well, and of course I am always glad to tell them it is Tanlac. I hadn't been down sick in bed exactly, but I hadn't felt just right for a long time. I was just all run down, had indigestion, my appetite was poor and nothing agreed with me. In fact, I had to force down every mouthful I would eat and I would always suffer from indigestion for an hour or so after every meal. I also had headaches and would get so dizzy at times I could hardly keep from falling. I simply had no ambition or energy to do anything.

Just as I have already said, Tanlac has made a brand-new man of me and I am feeling fine now in every way. Of course I will always recommend Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Nelson by Canada Drug & Book Store, and by the leading druggist in every town. Advt.

STATISTICS OF FALL PLOWING

British Columbia Shows the Largest Percentage of Recovery.

OTTAWA, Nov. 18—(Can. Press)—The total area sown in fall wheat in Canada this season is estimated at 792,200 acres by the bulletin issued by the Dominion bureau of statistics. In 1919 there were 846,800 acres sown and 814,133 acres harvested in 1920. The decrease this fall is 54,600, or six per cent from the area sown, and 21,933 acres from the area harvested.

In Ontario the area sown is 738,500 acres, a decrease of seven per cent from the 794,100 acres sown in the fall of 1919. Alberta has an increase of one per cent from 38,400 in 1919 to 38,900 this year. British Columbia acreage this fall is 14,900 acres against 14,300 acres last year, an increase of 600 acres. The crop is reported to have made good progress, its condition on Oct. 31 being given, in percentage of decennial average, as 102 for all Canada, 102 for Ontario, 98 for Alberta and 104 for British Columbia.

Excellent progress has been made in fall plowing, which usually has an important bearing on the next year's harvest. In the maritime provinces, the percentage ranges from 57 in Nova Scotia to 81 in Prince Edward Island, only Nova Scotia falling behind the proportions of the two previous years. In Quebec the percentage fall plowed is 88 this year against 87 last year and 62 in 1918. Manitoba farmers reached the proportion of 83 per cent against 64 per cent last year, 54 per cent in 1918 and 40 per cent in 1917. Saskatchewan accomplished 45 per cent this proportion being larger than in any year since 1914 when it was 77 per cent. Alberta's proportion is 29 per cent against 24 per cent last year and 35 per cent in 1918. British Columbia has 65 per cent plowed as against 56 per cent last year and 35 in 1918.

The percentage for the whole of Canada is 71, as against 66 last year, this year's percentage being higher than that of any year since 1914, when the same percentage of 71 preceded the bumper harvest of 1915.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 18—Exclusion of foreign powers from direct participation in the operation of the proposed pipe line across the isthmus of Tehuantepec was recommended yesterday in a report by the committee of experts which was appointed some time ago to study the matter. The committee also urged that foreign warships be prohibited from using any oil products flowing through such a pipe line.

"They say they have not been through an apprenticeship. Are not five years of service to count? It is a great shame and a disgrace."

HEARTBURN LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain, in the stomach, attended by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin, and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaudince constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburns Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not gripe, weaken or sicken like the old fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strome, Glasnevin, Sask. writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver pills and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I dont think they can be beaten by any other medicine and I can highly recommend them."

MARKETS AND FINANCE

TORONTO BOARD

TORONTO, Nov. 18—For the time being selling pressure relaxed on the Canadian exchanges today and some advances were made. The market was dull and spotty, however, and it was not considered in a strong position. Towards the close, when Wall street showed signs of great weakness, there was a wavering in the Canadian markets which indicated that the liquidation was probably not over. Among the Canadian stock to show improvement today was Atlantic Sugar. Earlier sales here carried the price up to 22½, a gain of 1½. The transactions here amounted to only 80 shares against totals in the hundreds for some days past.

In the paper group there was steadiness, but some irregularity in prices. On the local stock market, Abitibi lost 1¼; Laurentide ½ and Walagamack 3 points, but the latter was a change after three days, and was really an advance of one point over Montreal's close on Wednesday. Spanish River and Brompton each gained a fraction. A sale of N. S. Steel preferred at 75 with a loss of 37 points, compared with the last previous sale in May, 1919, while a sale of one share of common at 40 is down six points from the last sale about a month ago.

Dominion Canners here sold at 29 ⅞ or more than 10 points down from the last sale late in October. Tucketts, Canada Steamships, Canadian Pacific, Canadian General Electric, British Columbia Fishing, and Mackay preferred also sold lower. Steel of Canada finished strong with a gain of one point on each issue. Barcelona sold one point higher at 5½.

There has been a good deal of activity in Toronto General Trusts right, which had a turnover of 133 shares today. From sales at six on the first day, the prices has droped to 1½. Yesterday's recession was quarter.

ARGUE ABOUT MOVIE SHOWS

Cannot Censor to Suit Eight-year-olds Says Ontario Treasurer.

TORONTO, Nov. 18—"You cannot censor moving pictures to suit eight year old children," remarked Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer to a deputation which represented various social service organizations of this city, in protest today against the showing of what the deputation regarded as objectionable pictures. Two pictures especially were objected to as dealing with matters of sex in a harmful way, and when protest was made in the interests of the young people against these, the provincial treasurer gave expression to the words quoted.

With regard to one of the pictures recently banned by premier Drury and then permitted on the screens by Hon. Mr. Smith, who has charge of the moving picture censorship, the minister produced a sheaf of commendations from medical, religious and other bodies on his action.

Chairman C. E. Armstrong of the board of censors, said that children too young to witness the pictures passed by the board were too young to be at the theatres.

CANADIANS SMOKE CHOPPED STAMPS

Surprising Evidence is Given Before Tariff Commission at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Nov. 18 (Canadian Press).—Excise stamps as a chopped up part of Canadian smoking tobacco formed a surprising part of the evidence at today's session of the tariff commission. The statement was made by G. Deniss, M.P. for Joliette, who said that as a result of the excise duties on Canadian tobacco, probably 200,000 pounds of stamps were cut and palmed off on the public as tobacco. Mr. Deniss further stated that Canadian tobacco grown in this province had so improved that it was largely used for cigars and it was practically as good as an ordinary imported American tobacco and rapidly becoming better.

He therefore argued that the tariff duty on foreign tobacco should be increased, while he strongly urged that the five cents a pound excise duty should be removed, together with the inland revenue stamps.

Sir Henry Drayton looked up the figures and remarked that the government was getting between thirty and thirty-six million dollars a year out of tobacco and cigars, which he considered pretty good.

Fiscal Theories Aired

A number of other small and large issues were discussed during the day which was devoted to clearing up many matters in the agenda and to the airing of a number of fiscal theories, apart from the application of the tariff.

The final session of the commission will be opened tomorrow and it is hoped to complete the work before the afternoon adjournment.

The main matter will be a factum to be presented by representatives of the pulp and paper industries.

Reviews Printing Industry

A carefully prepared statement was presented for the printing industry of the Montreal district by Anson W. Wright. Mr. Wright said there were 2000 printing establishments in Canada with a capital investment of $60,000,000, employing 25,000 persons and paying $30,000,000 yearly in wages with an annual output of $100,000,000. He pointed out that printing was a "key" industry. Trade returns showed that books and printed matter to the extent of $11,240,184 had been imported from the United States during the last fiscal year, and this, he urged, was not a good condition since foreign printed matter inevitably inculcated views differing from those of our own Dominion.

In view of these facts, Mr. Wright urged that at least the present measure of protection be continued.

STRIKE TALK FIZZLES OUT

No Strike in Maritime Provinces Coal Mines Expected This Winter.

TRURO, Nov. 18. — Strike talk among the delegates to the United Mine Workers' convention here has lost its vigor and if nothing else is settled it is clear that there will be no strike among the miners of the maritime provinces this winter.

The convention adjourned until tomorrow morning, when it is expected that the action will be put to a vote.

Unsuccessful attempts were made this morning by insurgent elements among Nova Scotia miners to kill the agreement drawn up between representatives of men and the operators recently in Montreal and which is now being considered by the executive of the mine workers' union here prior to passing it on to the rank and file for acceptance or refusal.

International Officers John Moore, Samuel Pascoe and William Huston assured the executive that although they recommended acceptance of the agreement, if the miners decided against it, assistance would be lent in fighting the operators.

ARRESTED VAGRANT WANTED FOR MURDER

CALGARY, Nov. 18.—Arrested here on Monday as a vagrant, Roy Rodgers was discovered by the police today to be Roy Howard, wanted in Minneapolis on a murder charge, and also for jumping a bond of $3,000 while appealing against a three year sentence for a conviction under the Mann act. Howard's queer conduct while being photographed led to suspicions by the police which caused investigation with the above results. Officers are now on the way from the States to take the man back.

REFINERIES DECLARE TRUCE IN SUGAR WAR

MONTREAL, Nov. 18.—A truce has been declared in the sugar war, and with the denial of officials of the Dominion Sugar company that its price has been reduced to $11.75 per hundred pounds and the statement that the wirm was still offering sugar at the old rates, once more a uniform price is being charged by all the refineries. The big four have followed the Dominion Sugar company in their price cutting, and the Atlantic, Acadia, St. Lawrence and Canada refineries are now selling to the wholesalers at $12.00, less five per cent per hundredweight.

BAKER STREET NELSON, B. C.

GIVE VERNON A CLINKER SURFACE

Blocks East of Josephine Being Improved; Boulevard Proposal.

Work was commenced yesterday on the ylaing of a clinker and coal ash surface on Vernon street from Josephine street east, the city street department procuring the material from the gas works. The first unit to be done will be the block between Josephine and Hall streets. The two blocks between Josephine and Cedar are invariably deep in mud after every prolonged rain, as this is about the second traffic street in the city.

Several private roads in Nelson are of clinker construction, and their good condition and apparent permanence led the city council recently to authorize surfacing these blocks with this material, as a move or less temporary measure until the final permanent improvement of the thoroughfare is undertaken.

Recently the western end of Vernon street has been macadamized, from the plant of the McDonald Jam company to Ward Street, this being the draying route between the city wharf and the C. P. R., warehouses on C. P. R., flat.

From Ward street east, Vernon is the subject of various improvement proposals, one of which is for a central boulevard or parking strip, ornamental with trees, and perhaps bearing the proposed war memorial column. A concrete retaining wall to hold the north bank in place also frequently discussed by the city council.

The longer oatmeal is cooked the more digestible it becomes.

Two Seattle railroad men, G. M. Andrews, district freight and passenger agent for the Southern Pacific lines, and C. M. Fowler, general freight and passenger agent for the Missouri Pacific railroad company, were in Nelson yesterday.

J. P. Morgan has men, a team and a scraper engaged in levelling his five vacant lots adjoining his house property in Fairview. The five lots are in the city, the city line separating them from the property on which his residence stands. Mr. Morgan intends to plant the lots to orchard and garden, and at some future time to erect cottages on them.

LIBRARY IS BECOMING INCREASINGLY POPULAR

That the Nelson public library is becoming increasingly popular was the belief expressed at the meeting of the library board last night when it was learned that a total of 1345 books had been circulated during the month of October, and 2141 persons had visited the building. Last Saturday alone there had been no less than 117 books taken out by borrowers in the day.

A carefully selected list of some 35 magazines and periodicals and 10 daily papers from widely scattered points in Canada, the United States and England, was drawn up and authorized to be purchased for the library stands next year. They will be available commencing Jan. 1.

The secretary was instructed to communicate further with Hon. Dr. J. D. MacLean, minister of education, forwarding receipts for book purchases and asking for a grant towards the purchase price in accordance with the Public Libraries act.

Some isolated cases of borrowers failing to return valuable books, brought to the attention of the board, was much discussed. The board decided to adopt stringent measures towards offenders in that respect in future. Those presennt were B. P. Steeves, Mrs. A. L. McCulloch, Mayor J. A. McDonald, B. I. Dawson and H. McArthur.
