DEBATE WAXES RATHER WARM ON ESTIMATES

OPPOSITION ATTACKS EPERIMENTAL FARM

Tolmie Gets Unexpected Support From Lucien Canon, Liberal Member

OTTAWA, March 15.—(Canadian Press.)—The department of agriculture was under fire in the house today. It was the first occasion this session of the house being in supply. Nor was the supply motion carried without some lively preliminaries.

Last session the leader of the opposition declared that in future he would be unwilling to let interim voting of supply on the ground that supply pass. Today he opposed the the full report of the auditor-general (which contains details of the year's expenditures), was not before the house.

"The delay," Mr. King heatedly declared, "is a deliberate device by the government to prevent parliament from having the information to which it is entitled."

And, Mr. King charged, cabinet ministers were away in Spain, England, Belgium—anywhere except in Ottawa attending to business.

Nothing to Warrant Tone.

The prime minister sharply retorted that there was nothing in the situation to warrant either the heat or the tone of Mr. King's remarks. Nothing had been done by the government to defer presentation of the auditor-general's report. It was merely a question of the physical labor of presentation and three volumes of the report had been tabled. Under the Laurier administration the present delay had been greatly exceeded.

On the other hand, Hon. W. S. Fielding, who was minister of finance in the Laurier administration, claimed that when the Liberals were in power such delays as the present were unknown.

Criticism, in supply, on the agriculture estimates lay largely against expenditure on the central experiment farm at Ottawa.

Donald Sutherland of South Oxford called it "a show place for visitors. Would not the money be better spent on demonstration farms distributed throughout the province?"

Minister Defends Farm.

Hon. Dr. Tolmie, the minister of agriculture, emphasized the value of

MECHANICAL FIGHTING FOR FUTURE WARS

British War Secretary Introduces Estimates; Army Far From Complete

POWERFUL TANKS MORE USEFUL WITH CAVALRY

Aim to Recreate Six Divisions; Fourteen Territorial Second Line Divisions

LONDON, March 15.—Sir Lamington Evans, secretary for war, in introducing the army estimates in the house of commons, said the ultimate aim of the government was to recreate the expeditionary force of six divisions. At present, however, the army was very far from being as complete as before the war, he declared.

Regarding the territorials, the secretary said, it has been decided to provide 14 divisions as a second line. Provision had been made for the development of a light tank to cooperate with the infantry, he continued, and a fast, powerful tank which would be more useful with the cavalry. The general view, the secretary said, was that mechanical fighting must be developed because it was more economical in peace times and saved man power in a war.

Replying to the criticism that the army was too large, Sir Lamington asserted, it could not be reduced while the country's commitments were what they were. In Ireland, he said, there were 51 battalions of infantry, seven cavalry regiments, 32 batteries of artillery, four engineer field divisions and three signal units.

INVITE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS

Kronstadt Wants Foreigners Convinced of Falsity of Bolsheviki Reports

RIGA, March 15.—The Kronstadt authorities have transmitted a wireless message inviting the foreign correspondents to come to Kronstadt and be convinced with their own eyes of the falsity of the Bolsheviki accounts of the revolt.

At Krasnoya-Selo the railway men refuse to transport the Red army.

URGES SELLING LIQUOR OPENLY AND HONESTLY

Prohibition Leads to Bedroom Drinking, Worst Feature of Act—Farris

VICTORIA, March 15.—(By Canadian Press)—Discussing the question as to whether pure beer or near beer is to be sold in the province under the Moderation act Mr. Speaker Manson, from the floor of the legislature today, advocated the sale of liquor openly and honestly and under proper restrictions rather than under conditions which are capable of evasion and which, he declared, would work havoc to the young manhood and womanhood of the country.

Hon. J. W. DeB. Farris, attorney-general, declared that the worst feature of prohibition in the last three years has been the development of bedroom drinking, in defiance of the law, and police commissioners had realized the hopelessness of trying to stop it. He said he would prefer to work out a form to premit public drinking in government controlled places to safeguard morality.

The proposal to permit drinking in hotel bedrooms does not meet with the approval of Premier Oliver, who stated that in the face of the great evils resulting therefrom he would not vote to make it legal to consume liquor in bedrooms.

ABANDON HOPE NOTLAD'S CREW

Locate Wrecked Vessel; No Sign of Captain and Three Hands

PRINCE RUPERT, March 15.—(By Canadian Press)—The Canadian government steamer Thiepval has returned here from Narrows Point, Prince of Wales island, Alaska, and reports no trace of the crew of four men of the wrecked fishing boat Notlad, which left here Feb. 5, last. The craft was located upside down, but despite a long search for the men, no trace of them could be found and hope of finding them was abandoned.

The missing men are Capt. J. Smith, M. Haskell, C. Cook and J. Pearl.

Vancouver Veterans Seek Federal Investigation of Soldiers' Settlement Board

VANCOUVER, March 15.—(By Canadian Press.)—Investigation by the federal government of the administration of the soldiers' settlement board in British Columbia is being sought by great war veterans. Members of parliament for Vancouver city and district have been asked to press the matter with the Ottawa authorities.

The recent epidemic of resignations from the Vancouver office is said to be an incident of the conflict between British Columbia opinion and that of the soldier settlement board head office in reference to administration of the act in British Columbia.

Bolsheviki Submarines in Black Sea; Relations With the Turks Become Strained

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 15.—Russian Soviet cavalry has been recalled to the Kuban region on the eastern shore of the Black Sea, where insurrectionists hold Aramvir and Turgovais. The Bolsheviki submarines have appeared in the Black Sea.

Relations between the Turks and Bolsheviki have become strained.

DAY IN PARLIAMENT

HOUSE OF COMMONS

Government announcement that statements on the Canadian National railways and the Canadian Mercantile Marine would be submitted in a few days.

On the question of a general tariff revision this session the minister of finance said that work was proceeding day and night.

Sharp discussion arose over motion to go into supply. The leader of the opposition argued that the full report of the auditor-general should be first tabled. Nothing had been done declared the prime minister, in reply, by the government to delay presentation of the full report. It was merely a matter of physical labor.

House in supply for the first time this session.

Agricultural estimates discussed. Replying to criticism of expenditure on the central experimental farm, Ottawa, the minister of agriculture said necessary experiments could not be conducted without expense. Items passed: Salaries, (agricultural department), $541,955; experimental farms, $1,245,639.

Tomorrow in parliament: Private members' day.

NAVAL MAN INDIFFERENT TO POLITICS

Does Not Care two Straws Which Party in Power, Only Wants Strong Navy

VANCOUVER, March 15.—(Canadian Press.)—In a dispatch sent out last night Capt. Henry C. Adams of the Canadian naval squadron was incorrectly reported to have said in a speech at the Canadian club luncheon that England was paying $17 a head for maintenance of the navy, and that it was time Canada stepped into the breach and assumed her fair share of the burden. This remark was made by Gordon C. Jackson, secretary of the Dominion Navy League.

Capt. Adams' statement was as follows:

"I am not a politician and do not care two straws which party is in power. If she goes to war Canada must be in a position to strike terror into the hearts of her enemies. Two or three little ships are of little use. Canada must have something more—a real navy. We must make the navy our great task. This year is a milestone in Canadian history, when your minister of finance will be called upon to go to the United Kingdom and attend a conference on naval defense. What is wanted for the Canadian people to make up their minds and then realize their objective."

JAPANESE DISPLAY UNUSUAL ACTIVITY IN NAVAL AVIATION; IMPORT BRITISH INSTRUCTORS

Japan Purchases Planes in Europe; Endeavors to Enlist Expert Advice of British Naval Airmen; Failing to Get British Officers Japan Secures Ex-Naval Men From Vickers to Instruct; Airplane Factory to Be Completed This Spring; Starts Building Aircraft Carrier as Adjunct to Battle Fleet

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Embarkation by Japan on an elaborate program of naval aviation is to be expected, in the opinion of officials here, by the recent activity of the Japanese government in the purchase of airplanes in Europe and in the endeavor to enlist the expert advice of British naval fliers.

Until quite recently, naval statistics showed Japan had made little or no provision for naval aviation but advices received today in official circles declare there has been unusual activity in that branch of national defense on the part of the Japanese government.

Obtains Private Experts

Disappointed at the failure of the British naval air mission to send to Japan this year at the request of the Japanese government, 30 officers and men to give expert instruction in naval flying, the Japanese government has obtained instead a private mission of 30 naval flying officers and m[illegible] from the Vickers' company in G[illegible] Britain, according to the report[illegible] These experts, the advices decl[illegible] are to be used in instructing the new Japanese naval air service in the use of airplanes aboard war vessels and in the manufacture of airplanes and motors. The party which is expected to arrive in Japan next month, is taking with them for instruction purposes several of the latest model Short and Vickers airplanes.

The Japanese government, according to the same reports, has ordered recently from France, 80 planes of various types.

In addition the government has begun the building of an aircraft carrier as an adjunct to the battle fleet, capable of carrying 30 to 40 planes. Completion this spring at Kasumiguara of an airplane factory to equip the Japanese naval air service also is reported.

NATIVES OF UPPER SILESIA FLOCK IN FROM GERMANY FOR PLEBISCITE

BRESLAU, Silesia, March 15.—More than 100,000 of Upper Silesia's native sons and daughters from all sections of Germany have already reached their respective voting precincts in the forthcoming plebiscite.

Their presence is infecting the home population with unbounded enthusiasm and has served to give German hopes a mighty impetus.

The policing arrangements for Sunday next, the voting day, now have been perfected. They call for the united services of the plebiscite police, the military forces and officials of all branches of the government.

One of the novelties on voting day will be the balloting by inmates of jails and other penal institutions, who are eligible. They will be given one German and one Polish ballot. The valid ballot will be deposited in a ballot box, while the other one will be burned in the presence of the officials, this procedure varying from that employed in the open voting throughout the plebiscite zones, where both the valid and the destroyed ballots were deposited by the voters.

The prison officials claim this method will prevent the prisoners from obtaining scribbling paper with which they eventually would be enabled to carry on communications with themselves while confined to cells.

ORDER EVIDENCE ON MARKET PRICE

Create Commission o Investigate Grand Trunk Stock Prices on Change

MONTREAL, March 15.—Orders for the creation of a commission in England to take evidence as to transactions on the London Stock exchange with regard to Grand Trunk railway preferred and common stock from 1882 to 1920 were made today by the Grand Trunk arbitration board sitting here to determine the value of properties of the road prior to its acquisition by the Dominion government. Evidence will be sent under seal to the chairman of the board so as to reach Montreal before the work of the board is ended. F. A. Redden, a Canadian advocate, practicing in London, was named as commissioner to take evidence.

It was further provided that the costs of this commission should be borne by the crown and the Grand Trunk railway.

The matter will be put in his hands at once. Other evidence taken today included the testimony of G. T. Bell, passenger traffic manager of the Grand Trunk, in regard to the importance of the railway in Ontario, Quebec, and the United States.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS ATTACK DECISION OF LONDON REPARATIONS CONFERENCE

PARIS, March 15.—Spokesmen for the Communists, Socialists, Republican Socialists and Radical Socialists in London conference for the application today attacked the decision of the allies on of penalties.

Particularly strong was the declaration of Vincent Auriol, Socialist, that the penalties would be ineffective.

M. Auriol declared that an international economic office should be instituted in which France, Great Britain, Germany and other interested nations should collaborate for the reconstruction of the devastated regions and a revival of economic activity.

"The United States," said M. Auriol, "would finance such an organization."

This declaration was received with general skepticism by members of the chamber.

Jean Hennessey, Republican Socialist, declared that the penalties were inoperative. He criticized the government for not considering the proposition of Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign minister, that Germany collaborate in the restoration of the devastated regions through German industry and German labor.

Might Have Been Talking Still.

Premier Briand replied that if he had opened his ears to what he termed the vague and fragile suggestions made by Mr. Simons, he would have started a discussion which would not yet have been terminated.

Both M. Hennessey an M. Auriol asked Premier Briand whether the collection of export duties in Germany would not have for its principal effect the protection of British trade from German competition. They urged the premier to inform the chamber whether each ally would collect the levies on German goods for their own account, and if so, whether the part of the levy going to Great Britain would not be immeasurably superior to that going to France.

M. Briand replied that the sums collected would form a common fund, concerning which he would furnish the details at the proper time.

The interpellations will continue tomorrow and probably will end in a vote late in the evening.

WARNS MERCHANTS IN OCCUPIED AREA AGAINST INCREASING PRICES OF GOODS

DUSSELDORF, March 15.—General Gauchere, commander of the occupational troops, in a new order issued today, warns the merchants of the occupied area not to further raise prices. They are cautioned against creating the impression that the higher prices charged for clothing and foodstuffs are due to the Allied occupation. Offenders will be punished severely and their stores will be closed, the order says.

The merchants say the higher prices are caused by the fact that the goods are not now coming into the region.

Tennis balls four hundred years old were found by workmen reroofing Westminster hall. The men found two round objects in the dust and cobwebs in the old oak rafters 90 feet above the ground. When the dust and grime had been removed these objects proved to be ancient tennis balls. An antiquarian says that, judging from their size and structure, the balls date back to the reign of Henry VIII (1509 to 1547), who was an ardent supporters of tennice as it was then called.

work done on the experimental farm. Necessary experiments could not be conducted without considerable outlay. Were farmers to take advantage of the work done on experimental farms agriculture throughout the Dominion would benefit immensely.

"You can take a horse to water, but you can't make him drink," exclaimed Dr. Tolmie.

If people would not learn, the department could not assist them.

In passing, the civil service commission had some sharp knocks. Dr. Edwards of Frontenac thought some of the commission's appointments indicated absolute incompetence. National Progressives twitted the minister of agriculture over incongruities in salaries. There was a case of the head clerk of an experimental farm having a maximum of $3,200 a year. Yet the superintendent of the same farm was paid only $3,400. Dr. Tolmie replied that the superintendent's maximum was $3,000 and he had a house in addition. As to salaries, these were in the hands of civilians and perhaps there were a few things—so Dr. Tolmie admitted—of which "we don't approve but we can't help."

Canon Eulogizes Tolmie.

Rather curiously, perhaps, the warmest eulogy which Dr. Tolmie received during the day came from Lucien Canon, Liberal member for Dorchester, usually the keenest of critics.

"Let us hope," he said, "that so long as we have a government in Canada we shall have as competent a minister as the honorable gentleman who holds the present position."

A. B. McCoig, Kent, too, appealed for support of the minister of agriculture without consideration of party, in his efforts to establish experimental farms.

The house adjourned at 12:30 o'clock.

Had Bad Cough For Three Years

The constant hacking, racking, persistent cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it, is the kind that is dangerous.

The longer the cough sticks, the more serious menace it becomes to your health.

There is no remedy that will relieve coughs—coughs that won't let go—like Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It has a healing and soothing action on the air passages, and at the same time acts as a disinfectant of the respiratory organs, destroying the germs that produce serious complications.

Mrs. John Miller, Minburn, Alta., writes:—"I had a very bad cough for three years. I went to several doctors and tried different cough medicines, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend told me about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and after using several bottles I became completely relieved. I always keep a bottle in the house and also, recommend it to others."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup has been universally used for over 30 years, and so great has been its success, it is only natural that a great many imitations have been placed on the market. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 35c. and 60c a bottle; manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

EXPOUNDS STARKEY POLICY AT COAST

Robert Hedley Before Chamber of Mines Advocates Silver Fixed Price

Explaining the Fred A. Starkey policy of Dominion purchase of silver at a fixed price of 80 cents and the expansion of silver coinage, R. R. Hedley gave an address on the subject before the Vancouver chamber of mines at the end of the week. The report of the Vancouver Province says, under the head, "Slocan Man Has Plan for Marketing Silver of Province:"

That there will be an unlimited market for British Columbia silver for years to come was the prediction of Robert R. Hedley, the well known Slocan mining man, who addressed a meeting at the Dominion hall on Friday night under the auspices of the chamber of mines. He quoted many authorities to show that the present production has fallen to 475,000,000 ounces below the requirements of the world's supply.

Holding that lack of employment for labor was accentuated by the cessation of mining operations throughout the country on account of the low price of metals, Mr. Hedley suggested that the government should stabilize the price of silver to ensure production. This could be done, he argued, by the government undertaking to purchase all silver offered, which can be shown to be the product of domestic ores, at 80 cents an ounce. This, he said, would enable most of the Kootenay mines, the value of the ores of which is mainly silver, to continue or resume operations.

The speaker submitted that it could be demonstrated that, when world conditions returned to or approached normal, 80 cents an ounce was a reasonable minimum price for silver, and as long as the United States continued to purchase at 99½ cents and stored its own domestic production, thereby removing it from the world's market, it was probable that the law of supply and demand could compel a price for silver higher than 80 cents an ounce. He presented many arguments in support of this contention, leading him to the belief that Canada could with advantage coin such silver as she may purchase in the next two years at 80 cents an ounce. This production, he said, would not be greater than 30,000,000 ounces in the two years, and that it was probable that the world's market would absorb the major part of it at price better than [illegible] cents.

DR. ROSE PRESSES LOWER FUR FEES

Write Board of Trade That Government May Modify Royalty Scale

Dr. W. J. O. Rose, M.P.P. for Nelson, anticipates success in his efforts to secure the modification of the fur royalties for which the Nelson board of trade has petitioned the provincial government.

Writing to the secretary of the board, he states, in a recent letter: "I have been working on the fur royalty business ever since you sent me the resolution, and have secured their attention. I believe they are considering modifying these fees, and I got the attorney-general's department to write Dr. Baker, the head of the game department, along these lines, and I will let you know as soon as I get anything definite to report. They tell me it is a very small matter anyway, as all they received from these royalties last year was [illegible]000 or $6000."

Veterans Arrange to Produce Ultra Modern Idea 'Midnight Frolics'

For the first time in the history of Nelson "A Midnight Frolics" will be staged, according to a decision reached at a meeting of the entertainment committee of the G. W. V. A. held at the dugout yesterday afternoon.

The Revue will be staged by the Vagabonds, with the Symphony orchestra acting in the pit, in aid of the association benevolent fund. It was also decided that a matinee would be given in the afternoon.

William Sturgeon and W. M. Cobbett were placed in charge of the general affairs of the entertainment, programs and tickets. The full details of the revue itself and the music to be left to the producer.

MAYOR WANTS EVERYONE OUT

Hopes War Memorial Meeting Friday Night Will Be of Record Size

"I hope that Friday night's public meeting for the discussion of the war memorial question will be the largest held in the city council chamber for years," said Mayor C. F. McHardy yesterday afternoon.

"There could be no subject nearer to Nelson's heart than that of visibly perpetuating the memory of those who went overseas and did not come back, and I am sure everyone will want to participate in the discussion of what is the most fitting thing to do.

"We have the advantage of good work done by the board of trade in securing designs and figures along one particular line. Everyone who has a suggestion should be prepared to put it forward, so that every phase of the question may be considered.

"The meeting should be so representative that there should be no doubt of its mandate to proceed with whatever steps may commend themselves to it. Only sickness should be an excuse for staying away from it."

Daylight Saving

It is the intention also to raise the question of daylight saving, the mayor said, in order to obtain an expression of opinion, to serve as a guide to the council.

Emulates Steve Brodie; DIES IN THE ATTEMPT

NEW YORK, March 15—An unidentified man apparently 50 years old today jumped off the Brooklyn bridge and was killed on striking the water many feet below. It is believed he was a resident of this city.

Jumping from Brooklyn, made famous by Steve Brodie's spectacular leap for fame, has been attempted many times by others who sought either notoriety or death. Brodie was the first to leap into the East river from the bridge and escape with his life, but others also have done so. Several, however, have been killed in attempting to duplicate Brodie's feat.

BEATON ASKS POST FOR RETURNED MAN

Citizens Take Issue With Provincial Government on Recorder

Contending that the provincial government has violated the principle of giving the returned men the preference in appointments, in the case of the newly appointed mining recorder at Beaton, the citizens of Beaton have taken direct issue with the government on the matter, according to a letter received by the Daily News from W. E. Glenn of Beaton. Mr. Glenn writes as follows:

BEATON, B. C., March 10.—To the Editor of The Daily News: Sir—In your issue of March 7, under the heading "Lister Questions Civvy Appointment," as a subscriber to your paper and living at Beaton, I shall be glad if you will make public the following facts, which lead to Col. Lister's questions;

On Saturday, February 19, a public meeting was held at Beaton, to protest the appointment by the government of Ernest Roberts to the position of mining recorder—Lardeau district—on the following all-sufficient grounds; That Roberts does not possess the confidence of the local mining public, and that he is not suitable in other ways to fill the position.

It was unanimously decided to petition the minister of mines to reconsider the appointment, and to give the position to a returned soldier who had applied for the position in November last—a man in every way qualified, both by education, ability and experience, and who possessed in a marked manner the full confidence and support of 95 per cent of local residents and property owners, who signed the petition, which was duly forwarded to the minister of mines.

A strong letter of protest was also sent to Dr. Sutherland, the local member, who replied as follows:

"VICTORIA, B. C., March 4.—Henry Gunterman, Beaton: Dear Sir—I have your letter re appointment of Roberts as mining recorder. I would suggest we let the matter rest, as it might be thought advisable to close the office. I think you will find Roberts will give good service. (Signed)

"W. H. SUTHERLAND."

A letter was also sent to the minister of mines, giving further reasons why Roberts was unacceptable to the local mining public, to which no reply has as yet been received.

The returned soldier, Arthur J. Bishop, who has many friends in Nelson, was led to believe he would be appointed. The retiring mining recorder was assured that the position would be given to a returned man, and Mr. Bishop in good faith purchased the property and holdings of the former recorder. Thus, apart from the unsuitability of Roberts, a grave injustice has been done to a returned man, partially disabled, with four years' service to his credit—in contrast to Roberts, whose utterances during the war were the subject of much criticism.

Roberts is not an old-timer, has never been a prospector, knows little or nothing of the district, and is not in sympathy with mining interests.

Please note the implied threat to close the Beaton office.

But we have not finished with the matter yet. W. E. GLENN.

WANTS PROSPECTORS' SAMPLES FOR EXHIBIT

With still about three weeks to go before the opening of the third annual International Mining convention at Portland, Ore., Fred A. Starkey of this city, the Kootenay representative on the convention executive committee, has received some splendid samples of Kootenay ores to be forwarded as a part of the Kootenay exhibit. That there will be a thoroughly representative exhibit he confidently believes, and he is now looking for additional samples, particularly medium sized, handy specimens from prospects and new properties.

POSSESS GOOD HEALTH BY LOOKING AFTER THE BOWELS

A free motion of the bowels, once or twice a day, should be the rule of every one, as half the ills of life are caused by allowing the bowels to get into a constipated condition.

When the bowels are allowed to become constipated, the stomach gets out of order, and the liver does not do its work properly on account of holding back the bile so that it does not pass through the bowels, but is allowed to get into the blood, thus causing a poisoning of the whole system.

If you would escape constipation, sick and bilious headaches, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, foul breath; the nasty irritating, bleeding itching and protruding piles, you should keep your liver stirred up by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills.

These pills, being purely vegetable, keep your liver working actively, helping it to resume its proper functions, and thereby removing the bile that is circulating in the blood and poisoning the whole system.

Mrs. H. Barrows, Enfields, N. S., writes:—"I was troubled with sick headaches and constipation. One day a friend told me of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I got two vials, and found they did me a world of good. I therefore have great faith in them."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CANADIAN STONE MUST BE USED

Corrects Views Regarding Tenders for Headstones on Veterans' Graves

In reply to a resolution regarding the use of Canadian materials for headstones on the graves of soldiers and sailors of the Great War that are buried in Canada, which was passed at the recent convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Eastern British Columbia, at Penticton, notification has been received by Fred A. Confidence

Man's confidence in his fellow man is one of the greatest forces in our industrial and business life. Without Confidence in one another, and in our business institutions there could be little efficiency or economy; surely no progress or prosperity.

Let us have faith in ourselves and our industries. The nation needs confidence not indifference and doubt. Confidence is a tonic that strengthens us individually and collectively.

Efficient Housekeeping

By Laura A. Kirkman

THE SATISFACTION IN HOUSEWORK.

Of course there are housekeepers who would look at me with compressed lips and uncomplimentary private thoughts if I were to refer, in their presence, to the deep satisfaction which I believe the average housekeeper of today finds in her housework. But then, there are always "dampers" in any line of human endeavor.

And I feel sure that the majority of housekeepers will agree with me when I say that there is a joy to be found in housework—a very considerable joy.

Some years ago when the cost of living was lower and domestic help was more plentiful and less costly, some women had never known the deep love for their homes that they know today. Because then they didn't hav to fight to keep their homes together and to "make ends meet."

And it's natural to love the thing we fight for and into which we put our best effort. The pioneer found a lot more joy in his rude fireside than the millionaire of today finds in his ready-made comforts.

In other words, while the dollar has been shrinking in these past few years, the housekeeper has been developing. She has cast away her boudoir cap and donned a sweeping cap. She has come to the realization that she must fight for her home—fight with the weapons of economy and an honest day's work.

And she has found the fighting fun. She has learned the thrill of being able to put a few dollars in the savings bank instead of giving it to a cook who demanded a higher wage when the one she was receiving was already generously high.

"It's funny how one's viewpoint changes," wrote a friend of mine not long ago—a woman who up to a year ago had never been without a maid. "I used to consider myself blest because I had such a 'treasure' as my maid Annie; now that Annie has left me, and I have begun to take an interest in cooking and marketing and working out financial shortcuts and economies, I consider myself blest because I have the health to do my own work! I feel so sorry for women who haven't the strength to roll up their sleeves and do their own housework; they must feel like a sailor who has his hands bound and who sees his ship sinking and yet can do nothing to save it."

This is the spirit of our ancestors. It is the spirit of them that broke ground and dreamed big dreams of the future. The old saying that "Trouble either makes or breaks" is not one that will make the housewife of today hang her head; for her trial—the high cost of everything—has "made" her. She has had the courage to face it and dominate it.

And, in thus conquering her problem, she has found the deepest kind of satisfaction. One can't deposit without drawing. And Mrs. Housekeeper of today is drawing steadily.

ARCHDEACON BEER TRAVELS AGAIN

Letter No. 9

Bridgetown, Barbadoes, Feb. 15, '21.

I wonder if your readers are beginning to tire of my letters from this tropical island. I am so tied down on this occasion, by my duties at St. Leonard's church, that there is not that spice of variety in my communications that some of your readers may desire. I feel sure, however, that my numerous friends in Kootenay will be glad to hear of me, no matter how unvaried the things I write about may be.

When I find time to send you a letter, I just sit down and scribble away, telling of things just as they occur, without any attempt at grand efforts. I send the account just as I remember the events.

The Woman With Husband at Colon

For instance, I yesterday wrote a letter for a colored domestic in my boarding house, to the British consul at Colon. The poor woman lost her husband a few months ago at Colon, where he had gone for work.

This island is so densely populated that work is hard to get and is very poorly paid, so numbers who can scrape up the passage money go to Central America, or Cuba, or the United States, and some to Canada. They have two reasons for not being anxious to go to Canada, one is the expense and the other is the fear of the cold of Canadian winter. I have no doubt they are justified in being afraid of our cold. They are not used to even 60 degrees, our summer heat. Then again, being very poor it would be a problem for them to buy sufficient clothing to protect them at first.

But I am wandering away from my letter to the consul in behalf of the woman Ramsay. She lost her husband and her three children through sickness. When her husband died in Colon last fall, his clothes some tools, a cheap organ, and some other things, together with a little money, came into the care of the British consul at Colon, and they are there now. Mrs. Ramsay desired me to ask the consul to sell the tools and organ, as the freight would be more than the things were worth. She wished him to ship his trunk with the dead man's clothes to her here at Barbadoes. But she knew that a letter probably badly written by a colored woman, would have scant attention but a letter from an archdeacon might have some weight, so I wrote in her behalf and to excite the consul's interest I told him some facts connected with Ramsay's present job.

She comes between 6 and 6:30 o'clock in the morning and it is 8:30 at night before her dinner dishes are put away. Then she goes home a half a mile or so. So she puts in 14 hours a day under a mistress who—well, she is not an angel.

Four-Sevenths of Cent per hour

Now, for this 14 hours work every day and seven days a week, she gets her board, which I suppose is as good as mine, but I am not sure on that point. Then in addition to her board she gets 10 shillings a month. Ten shillings for a month of thirty days, any school child will tell you comes to four pence, or eight cents a day and if the school child knows anything of fractions he will tell you that eight cents a day for 14 hours work means that this poor woman gets the magnificent stipend of four-sevenths of a cent an hour for working under a carping mistress. Have you become seized of that fact? Four-sevenths of a cent for an hour's work! How does that compare with the 50 or 60 cents an hour for an eight-hour day?

Well in writing these facts to the consul I tried to excite his pity, so that he would sell Ramsay's effects to the best advantage and would remit to the widow as much cash as possible, and the trunk of clothing. Probably the whole layout will not bring $25, but that would be an immense sum to this widow. I shall anxiously await the consul's action in the matter.

I never saw so much misery in my life, and do not see why many do not take refuge in suicide.

A Forenoon Program

It is not quite noon yet as I am writing, and here is my program so far today: Up at 5:30; breakfast 6:30; morning prayer in St. Leonard's 7:30; visit in vestry from a poor fellow who has been sick and whose lips tremble as he told me of his sickness and his hungry children at home. Of course I had to dip into my pocket, for I have no relief fund from the church. This man had scarcely left when in came a woman, just of a sick bed, and so weak, her hands were shaking. She has to wear colored spectacles because of her weak eyes and the glare of the sun. Of course I went into my pocket again. Next came a poor woman with a petition from another parish. She was desperately poor. Her shack was rotten and falling about her ears. Another dip in the pocket. Next came a woman to whom I promised six pence a month as long as I am here, so she came for her February dole. Then I took a rest by going to see two women who were, one in bed and the other only able to stagger around. From there I went to another lady, whom I thought would die, but I found her better. After this I returned to the vestry, and did some clerical work about certificates of baptism. There goes my dinner bell!

Having now had my dinner at the good Canadian hour of noon, I feel refreshed enough to go on and finish my letter. After I had finished the clerical work, I started for my boarding house, and though it was not quite 10 minutes walk, I met anoher beggar. He was blind in one eye. He had had no supper or breakfast, and was a wretched specimen of humanity so I dip into my pocket again for a trifle for him. I begin to feel anxious about my return fare. It looks at present as though I in turn may have to appeal to the charity of your readers in Kootenay to pay my way home.

I suppose if I lived here a few years I should get as hardened to the sufferings of these poor wretches as the old timers appear to be. They go about day after day, and never give a cent in charity. They excuse themselves by saying "let them go to the alms house." But there seems a prejudice in the minds of these people against the alms house, and only in the direct need will they accept its shelter. I suppose it is the rules restricting them that is the obstacle.

It may give you an idea of my work here if I tell you that I had 90 communicants at 8 a.m. last Sunday. At 11 I had over 250 in the congregation, and at 7 p.m. I had 485. That is over 800 at the three services. The total collections at these three services amounted to just $12.00. How much would it have been in Nelson?

Would Disestablish Church

This miserable financial failure is the result of having a state church here. The clergy are paid by the state, and the church buildings are kept in repair by what they call the vestry, but which we would call the municipality. The result is what you see! They have been pap-fed all their lives and expect everything done for them.

The sooner this state of a fairs is changed the better. I spoke of it to the bishop, but he said he did not know what they would do if the state withdrew its aid. I know what they would do. Gradually they would buck up and pay their way as we do in Canada. For a time, no doubt, there would be great financial distress in the church, but in the end matters would be much better, and they would feel more manly and self respecting.

Styles

BY LENORE

Even if the frocks of the little maid have been running pretty closely parallel to the styles of maturity, one would scarcely know it in the joyously youthful and utterly delightful little dresses to be seen in a certain well-known Fifth avenue shop.

For the young miss whose age is ten was shown this blue jersey frock with long revers, the opening filled in with a white dickie striped green and yellow. Braid achieves this trimming, which is used also for the collar and the pretty sleeves. A charming little frock in which to finish the school term.

Another attractive school frock shown both in dark blue and in tan challis is finished around the neck, sleeves and hem with cherry red scallops of silk in buttonhole stitching, the waist girdled with ribbon to match. And as gay as a sprig of berries is a bright red frock also of challis, made with three tiers and long waisted, all bound in sand color.

PATTERN NO. 113.

A pattern for the above model (No. 113) can be obtained in ages 4, 6, 8, 10 or 12, by sending to the Daily News your name, address, the number of this pattern and age required and 15 cents in postage stamps. Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks.—The Editor.

RELATIVE LIVING COSTS.

To the Editor The Daily News: I, and doubtless many of your readers, have been interested in reading the literary discussion between Mr. A. P. Allesbrooke of Kaslo and Mr. H. Broadwood of Bonnington, referred to at length in your yesterday's issue under the caption of "Is Cost of Living Lower in Kootenay Than in England?" I anticipate that some old country folk resident in the district, especially the house and homekeepers, will mentally, or with pencil in hand make some frantic calculations to approve or disprove the figures quoted in the article in question.

Certainly one can find no fault with the menus outlined by Mr. Allesbrooke from the standpoint of nourishment and maintenance of bodily fitness, but, in view of the general nature of the question, as indicated by the heading of the article it would appear to be hardly reasonable that statistics regarding the cost of food only should be accepted as the standard of relative costs of living between the Kootenay district and "the little island under the North star." "The phrase "God's green country" used by our bachelor friend applies equally well, methinks, to England (not forgetting "the Emerald Isle") as to British Columbia.

To the cave man, exchange of barter for his food, if he was not energetic enough to forage for himself, would practically represent his total living expenses although judging from another article on the same page of yesterday's issue a writer tells us that the barter for cave rent was uncommonly high. This was probably the origin of the "shoot the landlord" expression. But, in this twentieth centutry, with its up-to-the-minute-wars of civilization, one has to consider such items as rent, taxes insurance clothing (Easter is coming!), wood and coal, to say nothing of incidental labor and furnishings and the hundred and one incidentals which so quickly make the money fly.

The old countryman though a long resident overseas, has not, I believe, altogether given up making mental comparisons between English and Canadian prices a habit which was unconsciously formed in the days when he first crossed the North Atlantic, and which comparisons at that time caused a severe shock to his system, recuperation being effected by counting the dollar as equivalent to a shilling, and no more.

Even now the relative costs serve as a tonic of light conversation when Englishmen foregather, maybe after a shopping exnedition in Nelson, Kaslo, or some far off point like Sandon. All this preamble is merely to give expression to my firm belief that any one with the same salary or wage as he may be earning in British Columbia would be able to have a longer run for his money in England, even though the cost of living there nowadays is a few hundreds per cent higher than in prewar days.

But this automatically lets one in for a knotty discussion of the standard of wages for the two countries, as summarized by the remark, "I can get twelve bananas for a shilling in England, but the trouble is to get the shilling." If Mr. Broadwood is living "de luxe," as queried by his up the lake literary opponent, I should think that his house parties would be very successful, and Bonnington is nearer than Kaslo, any way. So far as Mr. A's statement that Mr. B.'s letter will exercise a deterrent influence on intending emigrants, it is well that the latter should be under no misapprehension at all in regard to the economic situation. In any event the "big money in Canada" ideas has always been prevalent in England (and certainly in Scotland) and this impression was deepened through the war years by reason of the free spending capabilities of the Canadian soldiers, of whom the old country storekeepers took every advantage to the obvious inconvenience of the imperial Tommy who came along afterward with his shilling a day to spend. This impression would more than counteract that of any apparent high cost of living figures on this side and the emigrant would say "Let's go."

Yours truly, GERALD S. REES.

CO-OPERATION ESSENTIAL.

To the Editor of The Daily News: Sir—Will you kindly allow me a space in your paper? I saw the letter in the Daily News of Mr. Brown of Bonnington Falls the other day, in which he writes that the people say that they can't live in British Columbia on scenery, but Mr. Brown thinks they can live on scenery, by pointing out some other countries which have done so.

I will not need to mention the natural resources of British Columbia which are undergoing development, but there is one thing which Mr. Brown omitted to say, to get the outside people to enjoy the British Columbia scenery and healthful climate, fishing and hunting sports, pure water, which is very healthful. There is one thing we need very badly—that is, for outside guests and tourists—a good and better government road, stopping off points along gthe river, with tennis and resting places like Bonnington Falls, South Slocan, Castlegar, etc., where people stop off for a couple of days, enjoy the fishing and sports and rest as well.

To get this we need co-operation—government, farmers, business men and labor men, especially in a new country like this, and not until then we will be able to reap the fruit of our co-operation and give full satisfaction to the tourists and guests. Yours truly,

W. B. MELNERICK.

RAILROAD MEN REJECT CUTS

Eastern Workers Decide to Carry Fight to Railroad Labor Board

NEW YORK, March 15.—Railroad workers in the east have decided to reject all proposals of wage reductions and carry their fight to the railroad labor board if the cuts are put into effect.

Representatives of the workers who have been holding conferences here, it was definitely learned tonight, have decided upon this course, taking the position that the present wage standard must be maintained and economic conditions will not permit any reduction.

There is little danger of any cessation of work should the railroads put the reductions in force, union officials said, as the employes will appeal to the railroad labor board at Chicago and abide by its decisions. The railroad managements, it is understood, will also obey the board's edict.

Workers' Position Clear.

The position of the workers was officially made clear today, when representatives of the unskilled men notified the management of the New York Central railroad that they flatly refused to consider proposed wage cuts of from 17 1-2 to 21 per cent "as we find that these employees today are not receiving sufficient income to maintain their families properly."

Representatives of the skilled workers of the New York Central, with the exception of those in the "big four" brotherhoods, it was learned, have also decided to reject proposed wage cuts. Altogether approximately 70,000 employes of the Central lines have decided to oppose any reduction.

Union leaders declared tonight that if the New York Central put the proposed decreases into effect April 1, without first getting permission from the labor board, it would be a violation of the transportation act.

Railroad officials said the board would be requested immediately to authorize the reduction.

When Food Doesn't Digest

Give the Stomach a Rational Rest by Proper Aid, Not by Harsh Starvation Methods. Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

A sour stomach may indicate an acid condition that calls for alkaline effect.

This you will get from one or two

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after a meal. Sour risings, gassiness, a heavy bloated feeling and such distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia are usually only temporary. And yet they may lead to serious disorder. The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals reflects to a high degree the intelligent selection of preventative measures.

One cannot always select or inspect the quality of food to be eaten nor its method or manner of preparation. But it is possible to avoid the acidity that is so often the result. And it is a far better plan to eat without worry over what may happen, than to starve for fear it will happen. Many physicians recommend these tablets for stomach distress due to indigestion or dyspepsia.

Deceased came to Nakusp with her family some twelve years ago from Winnipeg, and besides her husband leaves a son, W. J. Wagstaff, hardware merchant, of Trail, and Mrs. Hall of Hall's Landing, near Arrowhead. The Rev. Mr. Wiseman of the Presbyterian church and the Rev. J. S. VIENNA PARADOX SHOCKS VISITORS

Vulgar Extravagance Shows Side by Side With Hunger and Squalor

VIENNA March 15.—(By the Associated Press—Vulgar display of extravagance in food and clothing is a nightly picture at the gay restaurants here while only a few blocks away hungry and scantily clothed persons are being poorly fed in community kitchens. Visitors to Vienna are shocked by this paradoxical economic condition. Others are either hardened to the contradictory sights or, in their inability to alter either extreme, can only shut their eyes to them.

Crawded theatres and operas at tremendously advanced prices, concerts sold out in advance, masked ball following masked ball in endless riot. Cabarets whose risque dancers would bring out the police in New York and where nothing to drink but wine is served, cafes and restaurants with never an empty table, not a room to be had in the big hotels whose prices go up from week to week—that is one picture. On its reverse, foreign relief straining itself and demanding unceasing contributions in aid of a suffering populace.

Bathe Pig in Wine

In Austria it is the custom on New Year's Eve to bring squealing suckling pigs to public dining rooms and the red ribbon with which they are decorated is distributed in bits to guests as talismans for the coming year. The newspapers report that in one fashionable resort a woman seized the pig and bathed it in a cooler of wine. Other women caught the original idea and imitated it to the cost of many bottles. That restaurant, incidentally, has had its license suspended for constant violations of the food and closing regulations.

Viennese claim that in all these resorts where display and expenditure of the most vulgar kind are evidenced not one real Austrian can be found, that they have not the money. They say they are supported by the horde of profiteers of every race and every nationality that infest and infect the city.

A recent demonstration of the populace is acknowledged to have been inspired by this prodigal display of extravagance and ready money on the part of this small element of the population.

Demand Profiteer Suppression

The workingmen demand the government shall suppress profiteering and eliminate the sheba (profiteering wholesaler or middleman) and the sleichandler (illicit trader) in an effort to lower the daily mounting cost of living, else they will undertake to do so on their own account. They carried a miniature gallows in a recent demonstration.

The authorities and the thoughtful Austrians acknowledge that this superficial froth of extravagance and display is doing great harm to the city and the country. Casual travellers who spend a few days in the inner city, visit these gorgeous resorts and see the high class restaurants crowded at every meal, tea dances in the afternoon, exceptionally well dressed men and women and the display of furs and jewels and articles of luxury in the shop windows probably unexcelled in any capital, are hard to convince that beneath this veneer lies widespread privation and in certain strata actual bitter suffering.

Charities Feed Children

Some 400,000 children are being fed one nourishing meal a day by American charity. Through American aid the hospitals are being refurnished with long absent necessities. Nearly 200,000 Austrian children are charity guests in other countries. Indeed the charity of all non-suffering peoples is being extended bountifully to this country regardless of creed or race, and all investigators who dig deeply into conditions acknowledge it is needed.

But not infrequently the visitor, especially the American, when he is told this, gazes on the evidence of wealth and well-being about him and remarks that it might be well to spend some of this money at home instead of demanding aid from other lands. One answer is that this phase of Vienna life brings money in and keeps it circulating. Another is that the temperament of a people must be considered.

The billboards are filled with announcements of redouts (masked or fancy dress balls). Wine is always served at these affairs at high prices. Among those about to occur, the star event is one at the State Opera for the benefit of the pension fund of the singers and musicians. The boxes, long since sold, went for from 20,000 to 28,000 crowns each and single tickets of admission for 2000 crowns.

Gamble in Currency

Even in depreciated Austrian currency 20,000 crowns represents about 30 perfectly good American dollars or a good many balanced ration meals such as Americans are giving Vienna's children.

Much of the money thus spent comes from the wild speculation on the stock exchange that has followed the constantly fluctuating crown, and from wide open speculation in foreign monies, theoretically prohibited but in full operation in cafes and restaurants and well covered private offices.

One American told the correspondent that in the Black Exchange, a little street where these operators gather and trade, he saw one man with $200,000 American money, and who admitted he had made 1,000,000 crowns a day on speculation.

The possibilities of this money market are made plain in one week's crown quotations against dollars. Private sales were made on Wednesday at 800 crowns to the dollar. The market closed on Saturday with dollars at 632.

Fluctuations in the stock market of thousands of crowns per share are commonplace. Men with foreign money smuggled in and out of other countries as the exchange varies, fatten on speculation and for them all Vienna is the Mecac.

FERROL Spain, March 15.—The steamship Orezabal has been driven ashore in a storm at Cape Ortagal, on the Northwest coast of Spain. The Cadoroca went to her assistnce, but was unable to render help. It is feared the crew perished.

REBELLION IN STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" at once ends Indigestion and Sour, Acid Stomach

Lumps of undigested food cause pain. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented and turned sour, head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the pain, acidity, indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest most harmless stomach antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores

TRIES TO SHAKE DEPRESSION OFF

Bears Cautious, Run to Cover When Stable Issues Get Organized Support

NEW YORK, March 15—Apart from a few of the highly speculative shares which were susceptible to further pressure because of peculiar and isolated conditions, today's stock market manifested a pronounced disposition to shake of the extreme depression of the last few weeks.

Shorts, it was observed, exercised greater caution, running to cover at the first sign of organized support in the more stable issues.

Obstacles to general improvement in the early and intermediate periods of the season were presented by Atlantic Gulf, General Asphalt, United Fruit, Crucible Steel and several other shares, these showing extreme recessions of 2 to 5 points. The rebound in the latter dealings was led by United States Steel, Southern Pacific and other issues of intrinsic worth. Affiliated stocks quickly reversed their course, together with a number of specialties.

Sales were 500,000 shares.

Rates on London and Paris were moderately firm, with reactions of varying degrees on Belgium, Italy, Sweden, Norway and Denmark.

Liberty issues figured a better and broader bond market.

Total sales $9,374,000.

FEBRUARY BAD MONTH FOR DOMINION TRADE

OTTAWA March 15.—(Canadian Press)—The total value of Canadian trade for the 11 months of the fiscal year ending Feb. 28, was $2,288,618,471, or $178,059,967 greater than the grand total of trade for the same period of the previous year, which was $2,110,458,504.

Trade figures issued today from the department of customs and inland revenue show that the figures for the month of February alone are smaller than those of February 1920, although the grand total for the 11 months is greater. The grand total of Canadian trade for the month of February in the present year is shown to be $138,285,697, while in February 1920, it was $177,854,194, or a falling off of $39,568,497.

Exports and Imports Decrease

Both domestic exports and imports show a decrease in value during the month under review. In February 1920, Canada imported goods from foreign countries to the value of $87,496,856, while during February of the present year this amount had fallen to $71,970,507, or a decrease of $15,526,349. Domestic exports show a still greater falling of during the month of February as compared with the same month in 1920. The total value of domestic exports during February this year was $65,237,738, as compared with $86,655,190 in 1920 a decrease of $21,417,452.

The figures for the 11 months period show an increase of $225,739,392 in the total value of imported goods, as compared with 1920. During the 11 months which closed on Feb. 28 of the present year goods were imported to the value of $1,147,558,227, while for the same period last year, imports were $922,018,804.

The total value of domestic exports for the 11 months on the other hand, is less than during 1920. Domestic goods were exported during this period in 1920 to the value of $1,146,359,229, while this year the value of these erports was $1,121,071,273, or a decrease of $25,287,966. Foreign merchandise was exported to the value of $19,888,971 this year as compared with $42,080,461 in 1920.

Says Tanlac Has Entirely Relieved Her of All Her Troubles

"No one can realize the pain and misery I went through, but Tanlac has made a strong healthy woman of me and I just can't praise it enough," said Mrs. E. Wilson, wife of a well known contractor of Vancouver, B. C.

"I had one of the worst cases of stomach trouble that I believe a person could have, and I ate little more than enough to keep alive. I could hardly stand anything on my stomach, and at times even a little toast would cause me to suffer from indigestion. I would bloat up with gas, which caused my heart to palpitate terribly, and often I had dizzy spells. I had awful pains through my back and shoulders and I was miserable nearly all the time.

"I kept reading and hearing so much about Tanlac that I started taking it myself and it has relieved me of all my troubles. I am eating heartily and I never have a sign of indigestion any more. Those awful pains are all gone from my back and shoulders and I am free from those dizzy spells. I have actually gained twelve pounds in weight and I'm feeling as strong and healthy as I ever did and can do all my housework without the least bit of trouble."

Tanlac is sold in Nelson by Canada Drug and Book Store, and by the leading druggists in every town.

TORONTO VARSITY WIPES OUT M'GILL

Walk Away With An Eleven to Nothing Victory; Qualify for Finals

TORONTO, March 15.—University of Toronto O. H. A., and intercollegiate senior champions qualified for the Allan cup finals here tonight by easily defeating McGill University 11 to 0. As the score would indicate, Varsity were the superior team and doubtless could have won by a bigger margin if they had desired. Varsity had speed stamina and skill and completely outclassed them in every department of the game. In the first period, Varsity scored twice and added six more in the second frame. Three goals in the final period concluded their night's work. Carson and Brown were again the outstanding players for Varsity.

Immediately after the game the Varsity team left for Winnipeg where they will play the first game of the finals on Saturday night, in all probability with Brandon. Flanagan showed to the best advantage for McGill, but he was playing against hopeless odds. The game was comparatively clean, the only penalties being handed out for minor infractions of the playing rules.

When Varsity scored 11 goals with only one minute of play remaining, Langtry, Varsity goal, was the cause of much surprise when he stick-handled his way down the ice before he was finally stopped.

First period—1, Varsity Brown, 6:00; 2, Varsity, Olson, 6:00.

Second period—3, Varsity, Ramsay, 3:00; 4, Varsity Carson, 1:00; 5, Varsity, Ramsay, :30; 6, Varsity, Olson, 7:00; 7, Varsity, Carson, 5:00; 8, Varsity, Sullivan, 3:00.

Third period—9, Varsity, Wright, 1:00; 10, Varsity, Ramsay, 2:00; 11, Varsity, Carson, :15.

OTTAWA SENATORS LEAVE FOR WEST

Champions of the World to Meet Pacific Coast Hockey Champions

OTTAWA, March 16.—The Ottawa hockey team, holders of the Stanley cup and champions of the world, are now speeding westward across the continent to defend their title against the champions of the Pacific Coast Hockey Association. They left Ottawa shortly after midnight. The Senators reach Calgary Saturday morning and will play an exhibition game there that night. They leave Calgary early Sunday morning and are scheduled to open the world series at Vancouver or Seattle Monday night.

The world series is to be decided by three out of five games and will be contested under a combination of the rules of the eastern and western leagues. There will be six-man hockey with the Pacific coast penalty system in vogue. The forward pass arrangement is to be neutralized by the reduction of the center ice area to 30 feet. This will make it an equal break and will be as near to "uniform rules" as the teams may ever get. Mickey Ion of Vancouver will referee all the games.

The Ottawa team took ten players west: Clint Benedict, Eddie Gerard, George Boucher, Sprague Cleghorn, Frank Nighbor, Jack Darragh, Cy Denenny, Harry Broadbent, Jack McKell and Morley Bruce.

President Dey, Secretary Gorman and Trainer Dolan were also in the party.

FALCONS WIS FIRST ABBOTT CUP GAME

WINNIPEG, March 15.—Displaying remarkable form against a team that out weighed them in every position, the Winnipeg Falcons, defenders of the Abbott cup, emblematic of the junior championship, took the Regina Vics into camp here tonight by five to three in the first game of a two-game series for possession of the trophy. The Falcons took a 2 to 0 lead in the first period, but were outscored 2 to 1 in the middle section, only to come back in the last period to regain their two-goal advantage to go into the final game on Thursday. It was one of the best junior games ever witnessed here, with both teams showing wonderful speed.

SECOND DEADLOCK OF ALBERTA HOCKEY TEAM

CALGARY, March 15.—Senior championship honors in the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association were not decided satisfactorily here tonight when University of Alberta of Edmonton, and Alberta Pacifics of Calgary clashed in the second game of their home-and-home series. Varsity lodged a protest, claiming a goal in the game that they played in Edmonton, and if it is awarded them the score would be six to six and the round eight to eight as the teams battled to a 2 to 2 score tonight.

President Frank Drayton and Secretary Barth were unable to decide the protest and the outcome will probably depend upon the decision of Jimmy Steele, who refereed the game in Edmonton.

This is the second hockey deadlock that Edmonton and Calgary have had this winter, the Big Four failing to decide their championship as a result of a protest.

MEYERS DEFEATS IRISLINGTER

Labor's Definition of Collective Bargaining Up Before Legislature

WINNIPEG, March 15.—Labor's definition of collective bargaining was brought before the legislature today by G. A. Tanner, Kildonan and St. Andrews, who moved the second reading of a bill to amend the Industrial Conditions Act. Mr. Tanner claimed that though the act recognied the right of collective bargaining, the terms defining it were very vague. The definition embodied in his bill was as follows:

"Employees shall have the right to bargain with their employers collectively through the organiations of the employees or their chosen representatives of such organizations."

John Stovel, Liberal, while not objecting to the bill going to the committee, claimed that there was nothing in it different from what had been practiced for many years. To give members time to familiarize themselves with the bill, second reading was deferred.

Premier T. C. Morris announced that it was 50 years ago today since the first legislature of the province had met. He also announced the acceptance of a statue of Sir George Etienne Carter, a gift from Quebec.

SUITS OF FRUITS COMING.

A French inventor, who has spent many years of his life in Brazil and Nicaragua, states that by next year women will be able to purchase blouses, jumpers and even costumes made of leaves and peelings. Men also may be offered suits and underwear of the same materials. This man has devised a machine which can extract weaving threads from bananas, pineapples and other fibrous plants. For example, the leaf of the wild pineapple gives a thread over two yards long, and when woven looks very similar to, and often brighter than the best silk and cotton mixture. He hopes to be able to utilie the skins of many other fruits for this identical purpose. It is to be hoped that he succeeds, for the cost of clothes will be considerably less than those made of present-day imitation silks and mercerized cotvolves the same intricate labor as tons. The process it will have to undergo preparatory to weaving indoes flax. That is, it will first of all have to be separated and disengaged, then put on spreading and drawing frames, after which it will be ready for spinning into yarn. When finally in the form of cloth it can almost be guaranteed to last as long as, if not outlast our present form of linen and other hard-wearing fabrics.

CARRYING MONEY.

Men of different naitonalities have different methods of carrying their money. The Englishman carries gold, silver and copper all loose in his trousers pockets, pulls out a handful of the mixture in an opulent way and selects the coin he needs. The United States business man carries his "wad of bills" or his "roll" in a long, narrow pocketbook in which the greenbacks lie flat. The Frenchman makes use of a leather purse with no distinguishing characteristics. The German uses one embroidered in silks by the hands of his wife or sweetheart. The half-civilized capitalist from some torrid South American city carries his dollars in a belt with cunningly devised pockets to baffle the gentlemen with the light fingers. Some of these belts are very expensive. The Italian of the poorer classes ties up his little fortune in gaily colored handkerchief secured with many knots, which he secretes in some mysterious way about his clothes. A similar course has charms for the Spaniard, while the Pole exhibits a preference for his boots or the lining of his clothes as a hiding place for his savings.

Sight Record Herd of Seals

QUEBEC, March 15.—The presence of a record sized herd of seal near Bird Rock, Magadelen Islands, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, was reported by wireless today by the schooner Viking, which also announced it had killed 4000 of them three hours.

A STRANGE PEOPLE.

Tibet is peopled by a branch of the Mongolian race. The 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 population are a mixture of Chinese and Tibetans as the races intermarried. They believe in both polyandry and polygamy. It is the most extensiveelevated country in the world, containing 750,000 square miles, with an elevation varying from 8,000 to 14,000 feet. Its climate is principally bleak and cold, although the summers in the southern part are mild and pleasant. The first white man to enter Lhasa, the capital, was Sir Francis Younghusband, who fought his way then in 1904. Dalia Lama, religious head of the Buddhist faith, which is the national religion, was so overcome by the fact that infidels had trodden the streets of the forbidden city, that he fled the country, and was for many years a wanderer in Northern China.

INTERNATIONAL TROPHY RACE TO BE HELD IN DETROIT

NEW YORK, March 15.—The British international trophy race will be held at Detroit, Sept. 3, 5 and 6, it was announced here Saturday by Commodore Judson, of the Motor Boat club of America.

The Detroit Yacht club now holds the trophy, which was won last year by Miss America.

McDONALD OUT TO "CLEAN UP" HOCKEY

MONTREAL, March 15.—Professor Bruce McDonald, principal of St. Andrews College, Toronto, and president of the Amateur Athletic union of Canada, who is in this city on his way to attend a meeting of the amateur Hockey association of Canada in Winnipeg, stated in an interview this morning that hockey in Canada had to be "cleaned up" and that it was going to be "cleaned up."

He further stated that, in his opinion, the officails who refused George Dufresne an amateur card had not exceeded their authority.

MONTREAL, March 4.—(By Canadian Press)—It is stated that John Kerry, a local lawyer, today drew up a contract between Tex Rickard and G. Graham, president of the Eastern Canadian Securties company, to bring the Dempsey-Carpentier fight to Montreal.

ham is leaving for New York tonight and expects to have the contract signed by Richard tomorrow.

In connection with this, it is pointed out, that before the big fight could be held here an amendment of the Criminal code would be necessary, and when approached on the subject the Quebec provincial government stated that such an amendment did not rest with them, but with the Dominion government, which has so far shown not the slightest inclination to amend the code.

Kills Wife and Suicides at Sea

BRIDGETOWN, Barbadoes, March 15.—Louis Campagna, a passenger on the steamer Vasari, bound to Buenos Ayres from New York, killed his wife, Ernestine, on the evening of March 10, and then committed suicide, it was learned on the arrival of the steamer here today. The bodies were buried at sea.

EDMONTON, March 15.—A motion before the legislature today to abolish frenks for members of the legislature over the government telephone system was defeated by an almost unanimous vote of the house. The motion came from J. E. Lowery, Alexandra, who also wanted recognition certificates over railways given by the clerk of the house instead of passes direct from the railways themselves.

Hon. J. R. Boyle pointed out that the issuing of railway passes was purely a matter of federal legislation.

Who said a Chorus Girl couldn't have a Romance that wasn't all wrapped up in sables and diamonds 'n everything?

SHE—certainly could shake a wicked shoulder.

HE—was a high-brow with literary ambitions.

ONE became a star—the OTHER a famous author—WHICH?

Remember the story in the Saturday Evening Post, "Head and Shoulders?"

Everyone said it would make a corking good picture. It did—and here it is!

Everyone like to see a picture with a DIFFERENT angle. Now, there are no angles to this girl—only the softest of curves, as you can plainly see. But the story—well, here are angles galore, brighter and more unexpected than any you have seen.

Sounds good, doesn't it? A Shimmy Dancer and a Book Worm? It is even better than it sounds.

Her heart was in her work—you know, the Shimmy. So it was easy for Romance to come her way.
