PREMIER WEIGHS CONTENDING VIEWS

PREMATURE TO PREDICT PEACEFUL OUTCOME OF COAL CONFERENCE

URGES STUDY OF UNITED STATES WHEN RENEWING ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY

Commonwealth Premier Speaks Frankly; Treaty Has Obvious Bearing on Empire Naval Defense; Hope of World Is Alliance Between English Speaking Nations Australia's Duty to Use All Endeavors for Renewed Treaty Agreeable to States as Well as Japan; Australia's Interests Lie in Modified Treaty; to Stop War World Must Turn Back Upon It.

NEW YORK, April 11.—(Canadian Press)—The text of the speech made last Wednesday in the Australian parliament by Premier Hughes in which he advocated renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty in a form agreeable to the United States, was made public here today by the Australian high commissioner. Warning of naval rivalry on the Pacific, Premier Hughes appealed for "an alliance, an understanding between the two great branches of the English speaking peoples," and declared that renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty, modified if need be, should be sought at the British imperial conference of dominion premiers in London next June.

Hughes Speaks Frankly

In his address which was regarded as one of the frankest discussions of international relation on the Pacific ever carried on in the Australian parliament, Premier Hughes dealt with Japanese-American affairs. He said, in part:

"The bearing of the Japanese treaty upon the naval defense of the Empire is obvious. As we have seen lately, there has been much talk of strained relations between the United States and Japan. Now in that lies the germ of great trouble—possibilities of infinite disaster to this world.

"What is the hope of the world? As I see it, it is alliance—an understanding beteen the the two great branches of the English-speaking peoples. Now, here is our dilemma. Our safety lies in a renewal of the Anglo—Japanese treaty, yet that treaty is an anathema to the people of the United States. The United States has said that she must have the greatest navy in the world—that she must have a nevy sufficiently strong to defend herself. To defend herself against whom? She has left the world in no doubt, or in very little doubt as to whom. We not only have no quarrel with the United States, we have no quarrel with Japan. We have our ideals, Japan has hers. There is room in the world for both of us. We want to live on terms of amity with all the nations of the earth.

"One reason why the people of the United States want the strongest navy in the world is that they have a great coast line to defend. But we have a coast line nearly three times as long as that of the United States. They have one hundred millions of people with which to defend a country slightly smaller in size and only vulnerable by sea on two sides.

Differences Appear Trivial

"Even when one comes to the alleged causes of disputes and difficulties between Japan and the United States, those differences appear to be trivial compared with the tremendous evil which war would inflict upon both nations.

"What do the Japanese want? They want to hold land in the United States and the right to enter the United States. Our attitude is very much like that of the people of the western states of the United States towards Japan.

"It is utterly wrong for the Japanese people to think that because we have passed certain laws we regard them as our inferiors. We admire their bravery and their patriotism and we stand amongst those who are loudest in admiration of their magnificent achievements, for no other nation has advanced so far in so short a time.

Do Not Ask All Friends Home

"But as I had the honor of telling Japanese representatives at the peace conference, while we were friends of Japan, and while we consider them the equals of ourselves, we do not always invite our friends into our house.

"Our treatment of the Japanese will compare quite favorably, I think, with our treatment of foreigners in general. The Japanese are so intensely patriotic that they do not recognize naturalization by any country as denationalizing any Japanese. A Japanese, no matter what he does, cannot divest himself of his nationality.

"These are the main grounds for the differences of opinion between the United States and Japan. It is the duty of Australia to use every means at her disposal to effect such a modus vivendi as will assure a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese treaty in a form agreeable to the United States. Whether she is a party to it or not, is not material so long as she accepts

Seek Solution of Irish Problems

COPYRIGHT KEYSTONE VIEW CO., NEW YORK

SIR HORACE PLUNKETT

Presides over meeting of moderates in Dublin, who propose members of both Irish parliaments join in drafting a Dominion Status constitution.

PROPOSES NEW IRISH SOLUTION

Moderates Suggest Elected Members for North and South Draft Constitution.

DUBLIN, April 11.—At a meeting of the Dominion league and moderate home rule element held here today, presided over by Sir Horace Plunkett, resolutions were passed suggesting as a solution of the Irish problem, that the members of the two Irish parliaments to be named in the approaching elections under the Home Rule bill, be regarded as a constitutional assembly, charged with the responsibility of drafting an Irish constitution on the basis of a full dominion status. If the northern section of the country desired to proceed in putting its own government into operation under the act, it is proposed that the southern parliament be free to effect a settlement for its own area. It is also proposed in the resolutions that if the Irish republican parliament approves, representatives from it and the government arrange a truce in Ireland.

It is considered probable here that the memorial thus prepared will be signed largely by leaders of moderate opinion in Ireland, but there appears to be no general expectation that the government will abandon its own act.

BALLANTYNE CHALLENGES OPPOSITION

Steamers Needed to Feed Railways; Compares With Canadian Pacific.

RESISTS PRESSURE TO BUILD WOODEN SHIPS

Marine Initiated in Dark War Days; Followed General Lead.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The Canadian government merchant marine again led the battle in the house today. It was private members' day and there has been considerable talk on private members' motions. Then came announcement by the prime minister of the personnel of the standing committee which is to inquire into government owned roads and shipping, and subsequently the house was once more in supply on the marine estimates.

J. H. Sinclair, Antigonish and Guysboro, renewed the opposition attack. He argued that construction of government owned tramp steamers should have ceased with the four keels laid down when the armistice was concluded, and the ships built were of no value (as they were too slow), for cooperation with government owned railways. To this point of view, Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine, took strong exception. He challenged Mr. Sinclair to persuade the Canadian Pacific railway that its steamers were of no use as feeders to its railways.

Try It On Canadian Pacific

"If," said Mr. Ballantyne, "he can persuade the Canadian Pacific I shall be willing to recommend a similar course to the Dominion government."

Mr. Balantyne emphasized that the government building program was initiated in the dark days of the war, when everywhere there was a demand for tonnage. Canada had done only what other allied countries had done. The Canadian government, too, had resisted pressure to build wooden ships, while the United States now had a million tons of ships on hand with which the United States did not know what to do.

Mr. Ballantyne urged that the report of the Canadian merchant marine was far from being as unsatisfactory as was claimed and that depreciation should be made to cover a period of one year.

The committee on government-owned railways and shipping (announced by the prime minister) will consist of Messrs. Allan, Ballantyne, Bureau, Cahill, Cosgrain, Duff, Copp, Crerar, Davidson, Duff, Hocken, Long, McLean (Halifax), MacLean (York), Manion, Papineau, Dr Reid (Greenville), Reid (Mackenzie), Stevens, Stewart (Lanark), Tweedie, White (Victoria, Alta.), McLean (Royal), Mewburn, Murphy and Nicholson, Algoma.

Private members' motions brought discussion on a variety of topics.

Hon. W. S. Fielding had a proposal that the house should adjourn at 11 o'clock unless exceptional circumstances made later sittings necessary. There was much argument pro and con, Mr. Fielding eventually withdrawing his motion.

Suggests Union of Orators

"If long hours continue," humorously commented H. C. Hocken, Toronto, West, "it will be necessary for members to form a national union of Canadian orators and insist on the eight-hour day."

In the early evening, J. A. Campbell, Nelson, Man., withdrew his motion calling for completion of the Hudson Bay railroad. He claimed that, in its amended form, the resolution was of no value.

A motion by Hon. W. S. Fielding was carried asking that all correspondence since Jan. 1, 1920, between the department of railways and canals, the Inter-Colonial railway and G. T. Davis & Son, respecting the expropriation of land at Levis, Quebec, should be tabled. Mr. Fielding said the original price agreed upon was $1.25 a foot, whereas the government finally paid over $1.75 and the area was increased from 36,900 feet to 38,723 feet. Hon. J. D. Reid said no difficulty had been placed in the way of obtaining all the correspondence.

Incorporate Amendment

When Ernest Lapointe, Quebec, East, rose to speak on his resolution to amend the Immigration act with regard to deporations, he stated that the minister of immigration, J. A. Calder, had suggested that Mr. Lapointe's amendment be incorporated, which he (the minister) was having drafted covering necessary amendments to Immigration act. Assurance was given by Mr. Calder that the amendment proposed by the member for Quebec East would be in the amended bill.

CLAIMS SLEEK GENTRY OVER BORDER HOLDING PISTOL AT RAILWAY HEADS

VICTORIA, April 11.—(By Canadian Press)—Solution of Canada's railway problem can be found in a business discussion between business men who run railways and business representatives of employees, Hon. F. B. Carvell told the Canadian club today. He believed the solution would come in a year or two and expressed the hope that before long railway matters in the Domnion would be handled by Canadians.

Discussion of railway problems while traveling in his official capacity, the chairman explained by saying the board's award of increased freight rates had evoked criticism.

"Consequently," he said, "we are going to give the public the truth about the railway situation."

The McAdoo award, he said, was given to Canadian railway workers not because if affected Canada, but because "sleek gentlement from the States" had journeyed up to Canada and threatened that they would call a strike in this country if the award was not given to Canadian workers. It was difficult to imagine anything, he thought, more humiliating, than that American labor leaders should be able to hold a pistol to our heads.

The McAdoo award added more than $40,000,000 a year to Canada's railway expenditures. The railway commission was forced to grant increased freight rates to prevent the Canadian National railways from going to the wall. It had been suggested that the Canadian Pacific railway should have paid the extra wages out of its reserve. It was proved, however, that if they did there would have been no reserve in four years and the Canadian Pacific railway would be in the same position as the Canadian Northern and Grand Trunk railways today.

DENIES CHARGES OF INTERFERENCE

Meighen Repudiates Alleged Protest Against Labor Office League of Nations.

OTTAWA, April 11.—(By Canadian Press)—Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, prime minister, in a letter to Tom Moore, president of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress, denies that the Canadian government has lodged any protest against the activities and expenditures of the international labor office of the League of Nations. Recent European dispatches alleged that protests had been made that the labor office was dissipating its funds and interfering unduly with European politics. Mr. Moore requested the premier to state the government's attitude.

The prime minister further assured Mr. Moore that nothing would be done by the government which would possibly interfere with the efficient operation of the labor office.

APPOINT HASLAM ON GRAIN BOARD

REGINA, April 14.—J. H. Haslam of Regina has been appointed to sit as the third members of the proposed Dominion board of inquiry into the grain trade.

The invitation to Haslam to accept the appointment came in the from of a telegram from Sir George Foster, minister of trade and commerce, to which Mr. Haslam replied in the affirmative.

The board will comprise Judge Hyndman, Edmonton; W. D. Staples, Winnipeg, and J. H. Haslam.

RAILWAY BOARD GIVES JUDGMENT

Approves Transfer Connections; Compares Island and Kootenay Lumbering

VICTORIA, April 11.—(By Canadian Press)—A score of cases were down for hearing by the board of railway commissioners for Canada today. Most of them were minor cases, local in their application, and several dealt with matters which will occupy the board's attention throughout its present tour. All had been attended to at the end of the day. Judgment was given on the application of the Victoria chamber of commerce for transfer connections in Victoria between the Esquimalt and Nanaimo and the Canadian National railways. The board decided that the necessity for economy in railroad construction under present adverse conditions compelled the dismissal of the application, but left the matter open for renewal at a more favorable stage. Th gneral qustion of equalization of rates and the application of the British Columbia Telephone company were formally introduced and postponed without discussion.

The question of whether differentials in lumber rates from island points, was argued. Judgment was reserved.

GOVERNMENT PRESUMABLY CONTEMPLATES TEMPORARY FINANCIAL HELP TO MINES

Owners and Miners Present Respective Cases to Lloyd George; Premier Has Both Under Advisement; Meets Owners First, Then Strikers Today, Followed by Renewed Joint Conference; Insists That Government Will Refuse Even Temporary Aid Unless Claim to National Basis Is Abandoned; Believed Miners Will Insist; Triple Alliance Has Not Withdrawn Strike Notices; Great Britain Not Yet Out of the Wood.

LONDON, April 11.—The respective contentions of the mine owners and striking miners are now in the hands of the prime minister, who is to take them under advisement and meet the representatives of the two sides in the coal dispute tomorrow.

The conference of the owners and miners with government officials participating, met at the board of trade this morning, and at the re*quest of the premier*, submitted at the afternoon session exhaustive statements of their cases, which Mr. Lloyd George has arranged to discuss with them separately, meeting the mine owners at 11 o'clock in the mornng, and the miners at 12:30, after which the joint conference will be resumed.

Prospects Appear Favorable.

The prospects, therefore, are favorable, although it still is too early to say that the crisis has been averted. The mine owners, even if they were willing to make new wage proposals, were today unprepared with any concrete scheme, and the present indications are that the conference proceedings will be protracted. An official statement was issued announcing that the premier had presided at the afternoon session which lasted from 4 o'clock until nearly 9. There were present also Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, T. J. McNamara, labor member, and William Brace, minister of mines.

Evan Williams made a long statement of the owners' case, and Frank Hodges an equally long statement of the miners' case. The prime minister then expressed a desire to have an opportunity of perusing the statements, and it was mutually agreed that no report or the respective statements should be published in the meantime. The prime minister added *that he desired to have an opportun*ity of meeting the respective parties separately preliminary to a further joint meeting. This was agreed to and the meeting was arranged for tomorrow.

Significant Development.

It is significant that, although in recent phases of the trouble the government has taken the attitude that now the industry has been taken out of government control, it was a matter solely between the mine owners and miners. Mr. Lloyd George presided at the conference. The presence of the chancellor of the exchequer especially gave color to the reports that the government contemplated affording temporary financial assistance to meet exceptional circumstances of poor yielding mines being unable to afford wages to provide a decent standard of living.

This was, in fact, indicated by the prime minister himself at the morning sitting in the course of his statement on the government's position, when he said the government was unable to grant any "permanent" contribution to maintain the industry out of taxes.

Anxious to Expedite.

The prime minister showed anxiety to expedite the work of the conference. The mine owners today wanted an adjournment until tomorrow to prepare their statement, but Mr. Lloyd George insisted that the conference reassemble at 4 o'clock. According to some unofficial reports, the government will refuse even this temporary assistance unless the miners, on their part, abandon their claim for a settlement of the wage dispute on a "national basis," such national basis not necessarily meaning uniform rates of pay in different districts, but insuring a universal minimum living wage. As it is believed the miners will insist upon a "national" settlement, it would seem premmature to predict a peaceful outcome of the conference, and in the meantime, the Triple Alliance is not withdrawing its strike notices.

Triple Alliance Issue Manifesto

The Triple Alliance tonight issued a manifesto setting forth its case in minute detail for firmly supporting the miners in resisting the "monstrous proposals of the mine owners and defending the standard of living of the whole working class and the vital trade union policy of national wage agreements." The manifesto blames the prime minister and the government for the whole trouble and protests in the strongest language against calling up the reserves and "the government's odious expedient of forming a volunteer force as an instrument against organized labor, whereby the government lightly assumed the responsibility of provoking bloodshed and civil war."

C. T. Cramp, president of the national union of railwaymen, also issued a manifesto warning the railwaymen that they may be treated as the miners have already been treated when the railways come to be taken out of government control next August.

NEW YORK, April 11.—(Canadian Press)—The British coal strike has not yet given stumulus to the United States industry and the coal trade is doubtful if any sales will be made to British shippers or their customers unless the stoppage proves prolonged, according to the Wall Street Journal.

Scores of inquiries from British sources were received during the past week, but their object apparently was to feel out the United States markets and no orders are said to have been placed.

Fine Negro Park Orator

LONDON, Auril 11.—The first case in London under the new emregency regulations promulgated by the government was heard in police court today when James Matthews was sentenced to pay a fine of £20 or to serve two months in jail. He was charged with committing an attack calculated to cause dissatisfaction among the civil population.

Matthews, speaking from a Bolsheviki platform in Hyde park yesterday, was alleged to have declared:

"Now is the time to overthrow the rotten government system and the capitalistic class."

The prosecution of the man was unusual because of the customary tolerance of the authorities toward Radicals, including Bolsheviki, who use Hyde park for their violent oratory.

NELSON ON EASY STREET NEXT YEAR, SAYS M'HARDY TO COUNCIL

Will Ask Government to Make New Revenues Quickly Applicable—Current Taxes Come Due in May—Road Policy Will Be Debated at Special Informal Session—Ideal of a Clean City Will Be Enforced.

Entering the realm of prophecy, Mayor C. F. McHardy, at the council session last night, predicted that municipal finances next year would be on an entirely different footing, as a result of the fight made by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, which had at last convinced the provincial government that something must be done.

"I predict that we will get relief," he said; "it will not be a question of the liquor revenue only, but real, straight relief, the revenues that we are entitled to. As a result of the changed conditions we in Nelson will be able to put our roads in good shape next year, and reduce our taxes at the same time."

The mayor asked City Clerk W. E. Wasson what time of year the new legislation should be made effective, so as to be of use next year, in order that Premier Oliver's query on that point could be suitably answered.

Mr. Wasson favored Dec. 31, next, as that date would make the new revenues fully available for the council of 1922.

It was decided to express preference for that date.

Las Year's Penalties Re-enacted

While next year appears to have rosw prospects for the Nelson property owners, this year's taxes ahe realities that will shortly have to be faced. The council set May 10 as the date on which the real estate taxes will fall due. Taxes unpaid on Aug. 1 will have a 10 per cent penalty added to them on that date. If unpaid on Dec. 31, a further 5 per cent penalty will be added.

These terms, which are identical with those of last year, are embodied in a bylaw, which was put through several stages.

The city now having the privilege of the $5 poll tax on non-tax paying males, Ald. George Turner advised that the full facts regarding those who were liable for it should be formally placed before the public.

Ald. C. D. Shaw advised against getting the C. P. R. to collect the poll tax from their employees, as it had done for the government, stating that the men would prefer paying it to the city direct, rather than have part of it diverted to the company by way of commission. Ald. Turner took the same view, pointing out that the company, when collecting for the government, received a commission of 15 per cent.

Devise Road Program

On the matter of drawing up a road program, Mayor McHardy advised getting together, and having a full interchange of views with the aim of working out a sound program covering a period of years, on lines that the citizens would endorse.

It was informally decided that the road question should be exclusively discussed at a special informal meeting of the council.

In connection with the present road work, Mayor McHardy secured an endorsement from the council of the arrangement he had made when alderman last year, with the C. P. R. respecting the improvement of the ground around the C. P. R. station and the adjoining section of Baker street.

The works committee was given authority to purchase a grader, as it will be needed immediately, and will save money from the day it starts work.

A Clean City

Measures to be taken to keep the city spick and span, or at least reasonably so, were discussed at great length, Mayor McHardy reporting that the chief of police felt that he could not act as scavenging inspector. The mayor recommended placing a special man on the job for two months, with nothing to do but go over the city with a finetooth comb, notify persons whose disposition of garbage was at variance with the city bylaws, and report the cases of those persons who refused to place themselves in harmony with the bylaws, whereupon the city would prosecute them.

A number of alternative suggestions to the mayor's were adduced by the aldermen. Ald. Turner, for example, being of the opinion that the collector would make a first class scavenging inspector.

Ald. W. M. Cunliffe opposed that idea, because, while the city would thus get an efficient scavenging inspector for the time being it would be without a collector.

Eventually it was agreed to authorize Mr. Byers, the scavenger, to turn in to the city offices the names of owners or occupiers who refused to observe the bylaw, and to give him authority to employ extra help as required, this plan being given a fair trial before another plan is taken up.

Mayor McHardy expressed the opinion that judicious use of printers' ink, in the form of appeals to the citizens to keep their city clean, would also help.

City Clerk Wasson ponted out that if the citizens were to be encouraged to burn rubbish for the next few weeks it would be necessary to have an understanding that the permit requirement would be relaxed.

Ald. Cunliffe said the authorities would have to interpret the bylaws reasonably in this connection, and that persons taking reasonable precautions would have nothing to fear.

The Festive Cows

Another street question brought up was that of the treatment to be meted out to owners of cows that were tethered on the street or were allowed to wander on the street.

Ald. Turner was particularly insistent on this, claiming that he and others were tired of notifying the police three or four times a day of erring cows, and seeing no results accrue.

The mayor said in his case he utilized his garage yard as a temporary pound, and whenever a cow was missing in his section the owner at once telephoned him. He said he could guarantee that if the police received instructions to enforce this bylaw strictly it would be done.

This question arose in connection with a suit that is being brought against the city by Sam Thomas, for a broken leg sustained by his son, Theodore Thomas, it being claimed that the chief of police brought this nuisance to the attention of Mayor J. A. McDonald on a number of occasions last year, and was informed that no action was to be taken.

It is understood that this matter will be brought before the police commission at its next session.

Fairview Asks Weigh Scales.

A petition signed by 141 residents of Fairview requested that a set of weigh scales be placed near the C. P. R. track in the vicinity of the shipyards. Supporting the request the petition proceeds:

"The erection of the scales at that point will facilitate the handling of coal from bunkers which, we are informed, will be erected there by a firm competent and prepared to deal in this commodity.

"In the past we have been handicapped by the excessive drayage charges added to the exhorbitant prices of fuel.

"If we are supplied from the proposed yard the drayage at least will be considerably reduced owing to the shorter haul."

Kenneth Campbell and Ross Fleming were present in support of the petition.

Ald. Cunliffe stated a weigh scales near the wharf would be very useful.

The mayor said if the petition was acted upon it was certain other firms than the one referred to in the petitio would also build bunkers and use the Fairview scales, spotting cars at Fairview to avoid long hauls.

In view of the fact that the government has not yet proclaimed Fairview a part of the city, it was decided to have the works committee make a report on the project, to be acted upon after the union is consummated.

An application from J. E. Calvin for a lodging house license for the upper flat of the K. W. C. block, to July 15, was referred to the city clerk to deal with in accordance with the license bylaw.

V. Eperson wrote asking for extension of the Ward street sewer 25 feet farther south between Latimer and Hoover streets, to serve a new dwelling, and for removal of the catch basin now on the building site. This communication was referred to the city engineer

An offer from R. L. Johnson of $150 for the small steam boiler lying near the gas plant was accepted.

Football Deputation.

J. Lundie and George Talbot appeared as a deputation from the football club to ask for Tuesday afternoons at the recretation ground and for fixing up the dressing rooms.

Mayor McHardy regretted that a central sport body did not exist this year, with whom the council could deal. He promised, however, every consideration.

The questions raised by the deputation were referred to the parks committee, with power to act.

Mayor McHardy asked for endorsement of the action of himself and Ald. Cunliffe in guaranteeing the fee of the specialist called in to operate on Fire Chief Donald Guthrie.

The endorsement was given, Ald. Turner, however, asking to be excused from voting, on the ground that while he approved what had been done in this case, he did not want to be associated with the action unless the principle was to be applicable to all city employes.

Those present were Mayor C. F. McHardy, and Aldermen L. H. Choquette, A. D. Emory, W. M. Cunliffe, George Turner, C. D. Shaw and John Bell.

That two Cranbrook basketball teams are coming here to stake return matches with the Nelson high school teams on Saturday night, was the statement yesterday of C. W. Tyler, the manager for the local teams. Mr. Tyler stated that the Cranbrook high school boys are due to clash with the local high boys, and the Cranbrook senior girls similarly are due to clash with the local senior girls' team. The visitors will arrive on Friday night, play off their games at the central school on Saturday night, and leave for their homes on Sunday. While here the Cranbrook sports will be the guests of their Nelson opponents.

Harold Kirby Displays Dramatic Vocal Qualities at the Methodist Church

An audience of about 300 greeted Harold F. Kirby, the distinguished English baritone, at the Methodist church last evening, when he rendered a varied program of selections ranging from light ballads to grand opera numbers requiring not only quality of voice, but also extensive dramatic powers. In each of his 20 individual numbers Mr. Kirby displayed a rare ability of inflection and control.

The program was divided into six groups comprising dramatic, Indian love lyrics, sea songs, ballads, folk songs and operatic numbers, rendering several extra numbers for the heavily encored items.

ing that while the right atmosphere had been achieved for the coal conference, neither the country nor the parties to the dispute were at the end of their difficulties. The sudden impoverishment of the coal trade rendered the finding of a new wage basis troublesome, he asserted, adding that the negotiations promised to take some time.

Mr. Chamberlain declared there was an element outside the trusted leaders and outside the great unions of workers who were not unready to propagate ulterior aims and, therefore, it was necessary to pursue the precutionary measures already entered upon.

"It is vital the community should show that in the last resort, if its life and existence are attacked, it has the capacity to, and will, protect itself," he declared.

it and does not regard the renewal of it as being in itself a hostile act by Britain directed against herself. While making every effort to retain the friendship of the Japanese, we cannot make an enemy of the United States. Nor can Britain do so.

Calls for Renewal of Treaty

"I think the interests of Australia lie in a renewal of the treaty in some modified form. I see no reason why the treaty should not be renewed in a form which would be satisfactory not only to the British Empire and Japan, but to the United States as well. An uninterrupted era of peace is impossible to contemplate while the world is responding with the clang of naval construction. I have always taken the attitude that, while very little may be expected from the League of Nations, yet, because peace is so desirable and war so aful, all civilized nations ought to do all things possible to prevent war.

"The most powerful agency for the world's peace today is the British Empire. The hope of the future peace of the world seems to lie in some understanding—call it what you will—between the United States, England and France. The League of Nations is an unwieldly contrivance. There is only one way to prevent war and that is for the world to turn its back upon it; and, since progress of the world is uneven, some nations surging ahead of others, if war is to be prevented, there must exist amongst those who are opposed to war, power to prevent war."

HEADACHES
Make Life Miserable

Headaches are one of the most aggravating troubles one can have, and it is hard to struggle along with a head that aches and pains all the time.

Headaches seem to be habitual with many people; some are seldom, if ever, free from them, suffering continually from the dull throbbings, the intense pains; sometimes in one part, sometimes in another, and then again over the whole head.

There is only one way to get relief from these persistent headaches, and that is by going direct to the seat of the trouble, for unless the cause is removed, the headaches will still continue to exist.

The fact that Burdock Blood Bitters keep the stomach, liver and bowels toned up is proof enough to show that it will eliminate the cause of the headaches.

Mrs. Harold Lanain, Owen Sound, Ont., writes:—"My system was run down and my blood out of order. I suffered a great deal from severe pains in my head, which made me feel very miserable. After having tried other remedies I purchased a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and was very glad to notice a decided improvement in my health, so I took another and am glad to say that it has done me an enormous amount of good. I have recommended it to my friends, who were in a similar condition, and they all say it is a wonderful remedy."

"All the Boys Want a Ride on My New C.C.M."

TOMMY STEVENS has one big kick—

All the boys want to ride his new C. C. M. bicycle.

Tommy says, "The fellows pester the life out of me. Before one of them has finished a ride, some other fellow is

Coaxing for a Turn

They all seem to like my new C. C. M. a lot better than their own bikes."

Aside from this one kick, Tommy is tickled to death with his new bicycle.

He admits he can hardly blame the fellows for wanting to ride it. It runs so much easier. And when the boys ask him why, Tommy tells them about the

C.C.M. Triplex Hanger

It reduces friction. And there's a freedom from those mean "tight and loose" spots often developed by other hangers.

Tommy says, "It makes a C. C. M. bicycle run so smooth and easy you'd almost think you were riding down grade. And I can feel the Triplex fairly sizzle with power and pull away like mad when I hit her up!"

Boys! Girls! Have you ridden a C. C. M. Bicycle with the C. C. M. Triplex Hanger? Get your father to go to the dealer's with you and see one.

The New Models Are Beauties

The last word in bicycle style and smartness. Wonderfully smooth enamelling that fairly sparkles. And the "bright as sunshine" nickelling is done over copper so it can't rust.

All C. C. M. Bicycles have the New Hercules Positive Drive Coaster Brake — the kind that coasts farther and has no clumsy side arm.

The C. C. M. is "A Real Bicycle for a Real Boy."

And there's a special one that the boy won't outgrow. Equally good for a lad of nine or a youth of twenty. Step into a C.C.M. dealer's and ask to see the C. C. M. 18-in. Curved Bar Model.

Roads for Nelson.

It is good to see that the mayor and city council are proposing a definite scheme of road building for Nelson which will extend over a period of years. If it is carried out, and there is every reason why it should be, Nelson in five years should possess a fairly good system of roads. That is what the citizens want and the council can depend upon wholehearted support.

Whether the amount to be authorized by bylaw is expended in five equal annual installments or whether $50,000 is spent this year and the balance in four equal installments of $25,000 is a matter of detail. The important thing is to get somethinng started.

With the exception of a few blocks Nelson's streets are in a disgraceful shape. The average backwoods village would be ashamed of them.

The year 1921 is getting along. More than a third of it has gone. Not more than five months of good roadbuilding weather remain. If much is to be accomplished this year, no time should be lost in getting the plan in concrete shape and translating it into action.

Let's get some action. Otherwise another year will have drifted away.

TORONTO, April 11.—While over 100,000 couples were married in Canada during 1920, only 11,117 homes were built in the same period, according to building construction statistics, available today.

Construction contracts to a total of $5,774,300 were awarded in Ontario during March. Building projects contemplated totalled $8,620,230. Work was started on 642 dwellings.

Efficient Housekeeping

BY Laura A. Kirkman

READERS' DISCOVERIES

Miss S.—"I used to order from grocer and butcher on Saturdays—as most women do. But since I've been doing my over-Sunday ordering on Fridays, I find that I get much better service, better foodstuffs (the early Saturday morning shoppers snap up the choicest foods) and a good measure of appreciation from the tradesmen who are so rushed on Saturday that they can hardly take care of all their orders. I advise other housekeepers to try this plan. It pays."

Newly Married—"My husband has so many bright ideas! This is his latest: as we cannot afford jardiniers for our indoor plants, he has plainted the red pots an old-blue to harmonize with the dining room color-scheme. Each pot stands on a blue saucer. They are very pretty."

A Reader—"While lying in bed to read, I find it tends to comfort if I slip a bathrobe or sweater on backwards, outside the covers. This covers the arms, which are outside, holding the book, and also covers the chest.

"Here is another hint: often I forget my shortening for biscuit or pie-crust until after I have added milk or water; in this event I simply melt the lard and whip it in thoroughly.

"Here is still another one: I find it much easier to finish up dishwashing if I heat every receptacle that has hardened grease in it and pour a little water into it, running the water ouarnd until it bubbles and steams into every corner, then quickly pouring this off into the garbage can (not the sink). This keeps my dishwater clean and free from grease until every bit of wiping is done, clear down to the stove. I have a separate stove-cloth and I always wash my stove with soap, rinse it, and dry it thoroughly."

A Busy Housekeeper: "In house-cleaning time and other very busy periods, I make myself the following quick lunch to save cooking anything: I simply take two pieces of whole-wheat bread, spread them with butter then with peanut butter, and put a layer of raisins between them. This sandwich is a well balanced little meal in itself, as it containes protein, fat and sugar."

A Young Housewife: "Will you please publish the following in your column? I believe it will help other brides to make tender bread: For months and months I tried to bake soft bread but it was always hard and leathery—then I tried not kneading it at all when I set it up and leaving it just like a wet, heavy batter. My recipe is: Put 4 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon lard and 1 tablespoon salt in a bowl and pour 1 quart of hot milk over them; let stand for three-quarters of an hour or until luke warm, then dissolve two yeast cakes in a cup with a little of this milk, add the dissolved yeast cakes to the bowl, and stir in 2 quarts of white flour. Cover with a clean towel and set in a warm place to stand overnight. In the morning, early, turn this batter-like mass out onto a floured board and knead into it 1 pint more of flour. Cut with a knife into 2 loaves, take these up in the hands and pat them with flour, then put them into tins and cover with a towel until they are double in bulk (about two and a half hours); bake them for 45 minutes in a medium oven. Other recipes may be all right for good cooks, but every young and inexperienced housekeeper should, in my opinion, have this one to begin on in learning to bake delicious, tender bread."

Tomorrow—Two Good Home Luncheon Menus.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Kirkman in care of the "Efficient Housekeeping" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

The blue vault of heaven remains in place
And the seasons come and go,
As the stars whirl their dizzy flight through space,
While the hands of time move slow;
Each morning and evening make one more day;
One more tick on the clock of time,
And the sun shines above to brighten our way,
And endue us with hope sublime.

The land and water meet and embrace,
The mountains and rivers grand
Are controlled by a power we cannot trace,
And but dimly understand;
The stars watch over us while we sleep,
And the moon from her throne above
Points each straying mortal adrift on the deep
To a haven of light and love.

The birds of the air, the fish of the sea
Are sustained by nature's aid,
Created in love they happy and free,
And of man alone are afraid;
All nature with perfect precision performs,
Only man in his love and hate,
With his selfish desires so often deforms,
So that he may his greed satiate.

Inventive, constructive, yet selfish at heart,
Claiming most for the least he may spend,
As he barters soul on iniquties' mart,
That he may his ambitions extend,
Overlooking the golden rule at will,
His own narrow pathway to frame,
Nor helping his fellows to climb the hill
For a start on the ladder of fame.

With a prayer on his lips to God on high,
With his heart and brain on fire,
He plunges to conquer the world or die,
And attain his heart's desire;
A citidel formed with foundations of gold,
Where from this world's sorrow secure
He heeds not Christ's words to the rich man of old:
Sell your substance and give to the poor.

Yes, the firmament set has retained it place,
The movements therein have no flow;
Nature's God, though unseen, from limitless space,
Guides the system of worlds with his law.
Oh, that we in His image could realize
That the love of our fellowman
Is the highest attainment beneath the skies,
The translation of God's own plan.

FROSTS ALARM FRUIT GROWERS

HAMILTON, April 11.—Reports from the Niagara district this morning indicate the growers to be extremely nervous over the heavy frost which fell over the fruit belt last night. Officials at the government experimental station at Vineland, after an examination of the orchards there this morning concluded, however, that the peaches and apricots had withstood the cold, but said it would be two or three days before an accurate report would be available.

BY LENORE

Although satin novelties in coats have made a strong appeal to women of good taste, and in quilted or embroidered effects this new idea in outer apparel has taken a definite hold in the spring fashions, there seems little inclination to abandon the cape. Everywhere capes continue to be shown and worn, in practical twills or duvetyns, but especially in the softer, clinging crepes and satins. Quilting and kimmer collars are sometimes added, or two lengths of material may be gathered simply about the neck and finished with a full and gracefully draped shawl collar. Charmingly demure was a grey crepe cape on this order seen at the theater recently.

A wrap which may serve nobly for many occasions all through the spring and summer, is the type of cape shown in the sketch. This favors two tones of gray crepe, joined by rows of broad flat stitching in black silk suggesting braid. It has also been made in combinations of gray crepe and navy serge.

Be sure to keep this newspaper clipping of the sketch and description of the garment to use as a working model when the pattern reaches you—which will be within two weeks.—The Editor.

Daily Recipe

COTTAGE PUDDING

One cup of sugar, three tablespoons melted butter, one egg, one cup milk, two heaping cups flour, one teaspoon of soda, two of cream-tartar. If the milk be sour, leave out the cream-tartar. Bake in about half and hour; add fruit is you like.

Gardening In the Kootenay

Writing of tests made with tomatoes at the Invermere experiment station, Superintendent R. G. Newton writes:

"Our season in eastern British Columbia without frost is comparatively short, running around 75 days, from June 15 to September 1. On account of this short period we have to force out tender plants and vegetables if we are to produce a crop during the season. Our yields from variety tests this past season were very encouraging, so we shall go into detail in showing how the results were obtained.

"The seed was planted in hot frame on March 24, and the heat regulated so as to run around 55 to 60 degrees Fahrenheit. On April 4 the seed had germinated, and it was pricked out into flats on April 20. The cold frames were prepared by tramping the soil so as to form a hard pan. On this was placed a three-inch layer of nice loamy soil and well rotted manure. The young plants were transplanted into this on May 12, the distance between the plants being eight inches. From this on until planting out time, the plants were hardened off, and developed a strong root system.

Set Out Middle of June.

"The plants when set out on June 15 averaged about ten inches in height, and the majority showed bloom. It was a comparatively easy operation to slip a spade under the plants, along the surface of the hard pan, and remove the plants without disturbing the root system. As the plants were set out they were pruned and all auxiliary shoots removed. Each plant was staked with a two-foot stake, as the plants were set a foot apart in the rows, and rows two and a half feet apart. They were trained to a single stem and stopped on leaf beyond the second truss of fruit. This system left two trusses of fruit and seven or eight leaves on each plant. Pruning was done once a week, and great care was exercised to destroy any mal-formed flowers, from which distorted fruit develop.

"The crop was irrigated twice during the season and surface cultivated when required. The first ripe fruit was picked on August 7 and for the next month there was continuous picking. The average yield per acre for the ten highest varieties was 25 tons, 1,854 pounds, 864¼ bushels. Alacrity A. I.-18, C. E. F. was the highest producer, yielding at the rate of over 36 tons per acre.

Systems of Pinching Back.

"Besides the variety test the following cultural tests were tried out in training the tomato plant:

"1. Terminal bud of plant pinched off after the first truss had formed, and three side shoots with a truss of fruit allowed to develop.

"2. Terminal bud of plant pinched off after first truss had formed, and two side shoots with a truss of fruit allowed to develop.

"3. Terminal bud pinched off before any truss of fruit had formed and three side shoots with a truss of fruit allowed to develop.

"4. Plant trained to a single stem and stopped after the second truss of fruit.

"5. Plant trained to a single stem and stopped after the third truss of fruit.

"6. Naturally grown.

"The following are a few general observations from the above tests. All the methods of training were much superior to the natural grown. Plants with the fewest trusses of fruit were the first to ripen. This season the three-truss system produced the largest yield of ripe fruit, but largely because we did not have as early a frost as usual. Under the first three systems plans require to be set at least 18 inches apart in the rows: Nos. 4 and 5 a foot apart in the rows; and No. 6 four feet apart each way. It was also noticeable that different varieties require different training to produce the best results.

WILL INVESTIGATE CATTLE EMBARGO

British Premier Hopes to Announce Personnel of Commission Soon.

LONDON, April 11.—(Canadian Associated Press)—In the house of commons today the prime minister said he hoped to be able to announce in a short time the names of the commission which will make an inquiry into the embargo on Canadian cattle. Asked if Ireland would be specially represented on the commission, Lloyd George said he hoped there would be no representation of any particular locality, as the object was to hold a judicial inquiry.

Sir Arthur Boscawen, the minister of agriculture told the house that only three consignments of Canadian fat cattle had been landed in Britain since the trade was resumed, and that only 400 more head had been booked for shipment here. The freight charges were approximately £10 a head, the minister added.

EDMONTON, April 11.—Warm temperatures prevailed here during Saturday and Sunday, and at noon today the indications were that the mercury would continue to rise for some time to come.

Around the noon hour the glass stood at 55 in the shade, and the sun shining on the glass a temperature of 107 was registered.

Farmers say it will still be a week or more before they will be on the land in some places.

IMPROVING ROADS ROUND INVERMERE

Contractors Working on Lake Windermere Borders; Circular Auto Tours.

INVERMER, April 10.—A concert of local talent was held in the ball room of the Hotel Invermere this week in which many local artists took part. One of the chief features was the rendering of Haydn's Toy Symphony by a number of the young children of the community under the direction of Miss Dora K. Bodecker.

Begin Western Side

Work has been started on the main artery of what is known as the road around the western side of Lake Windermere. A large gang is engaged under the direction of Road Foreman Arthur Newton. This road commences at the junction with the Banff-Windermere highway in the center of the village and passing west turns to the south and borders the famous Lake Windermere until it reaches the southern end of that lake, where it joins the main highway of the east side connecting Golden with Cranbrook. This gives an alternative route around the beautiful lake and with its connecting links makes one of the circle tours popular with automobile travelers—forty miles in etent.

Bridge Kootenay River

The latest device relative to the construction work on the Banff-Windemere highway is that there are about 35 men working on the western end and possibly another 30 work*ing on the eastern end of construc*tion. The bridging of the Kootenay river at "The Crossing" has been completed, so now when the season commences it will be possible for cars entering here to make a run into the mountains of some miles, and enable the occupants to dip their feet in the swift running blue waters of the Kootenay river. The main span of the bridge is about 60 feet. "The Crossing" is at a point about 25 miles from the headwaters of the river, not far north of where the Vermillion river joins the parent stream, the Kootenay. Unless a very much larger gang is put on there is but little hope that much more of the road than to the bridge will this year be open for automobile traffic.

SALE OF WORK RAISES FUND

CRAWFORD BAY, April, 11.—A most successful sale of work was held in the public hall on Saturday afternoon, the funds raised to be used for the cleaning and renovating of the hall.

The opening ceremony was performed by Miss Blair, who was presented with a bonquet by Margaret Jacobson at the conclusion of her speech, which was short and to the point.

The stalls, which were very attractive, were speedily emptied of their contents. The candy stall, presided over by Miss G. Willoughby and Miss D. Woolgar, and the children's stall by Mrs. D. Fisher and Miss Blair, did a very brisk trade. The women's work stall, which contained some very dainty articles, kept Mrs. M. M. Fraser, Mrs. W. Fraser, Mrs. Bourne and Mrs. Corbett very busy and a dainty and abundant tea was served by Mrs. Macgregor, Mrs. Westbury and Miss Walker.

A fishing contest also afforded considerable amusement and was won by W. J. Kidman.

The sale resulted in an addition of $100 to the fund and was followed in the evening by a dance.

DISCUSS WAGES IN FRIENDLY DEBATE

Brotherhood Vice-President and Former Railway Board Member Argue.

TORONTO, April 11.—D'Arcy Scott of Ottawa, a former member of the Dominion railway board, and James Murdock of this city, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and a member of the Canadian board of commerce until that body went out of existetence, debated the question of "railway rates and wages" before the Canadian club here today in the presence of one of the largest gatherings in the club's history. One of the guests of the club was D. B. Hanna, president of the Canadian National railways. Several Canadian National and Grand Trunk railway officials were present. Each speaker was given 25 minutes in which to present his side of the argument, and Mr. Scott, being the first to speak, was allowed five minutes in which to reply to Mr. Murdock.

Effect of High Wages

Mr. Scott claimed that the present high scale of wages paid to railway employees in Canada was based on the McAdoo award and Chicago award sanctioned by the United States government and which were arrived at without the slightest consideration of the Canadian system. He contended that the wages were too high. If the wages were reduced it would result in a decrease in the passenger and freight rates and so increase prosperity throughout the Dominion. He claimed that the high railway wages were the cause of high wages in other industries, that curtailed these industries and so hampered the prosperity of Canada. He favored a fair wage, higher than the pre-war scale but more in keeping with the situation in this country than the wages now being paid and which are based on the McAdoo and Chicago awards.

Railwaymen's Argument

Mr. Murdock was of the opinion that a reduction in the wages of railway men would be an act similar to placing them on the altar of sacrifice and he was just as firm in his contention that the scale of wages should remain unchanged as was Mr. Scott that there should be a reduction. He stated that a fair wage was one that all owed the wage earner to live decently, and while giving his children a proper education, should permit him to save enough to provide for the care of his family. He pointed out that the average working period of a railwayman was but eight years owing to death and accidents which caused total disability. On account of the high cost of living and the fact that the Canadian dollar is worth but eighty per cent in United States currency, he did not think that the Canadian railway employees were getting more than they justly deserved in comparison with the railway men in the United States.

FORMER EMPRESS DIES IN HOLLAND

Funeral of Ex-Kaiserin to Take Place at Potsdam Saturday.

BERLIN, April 11.—The funeral of Former Empress Augusta Victoria will be held in Potsdam Saturday morning, it was announced here today. The body will arrive in the Wild Park railway station there, once the private station of Former Emperor Wilhelm, Friday night, and will remain in the reception room until Saturday morning under an honorary guard of officers formerly attached to the imperial body guard who will wear full dress uniforms.

Will Not Protest

"The monarchists are not expected to seize the occasion for agitation, and it is believed the Radicals appreciating the solemnity of the event, will not protest against such simple services", a government official said this afternoon. "While the radicals objected to the reichstag adopting a resolution of sympathy, declaring it would be a pro-monarchist demonstration, the former kaiserin has not been attacked for she did not mix in political affairs and was known as a good mother and a good woman."

The Conservative and Monarchist newspapers this afternoon appeared with a black mourning border round the headline "our kaiserin is dead."

Vorwaerts, the organ of the Social Democrats, said the efforts to make a martyr and heroine of the former empress must fail, in view of her career, "which does not entitle her to more consideration than any other German mother deserves."

Former Crown Prince Arrives

DOORN, Holland, April 11.—Former Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm arrived here during the day in the company of the burgomaster of Weirengen and Adjutant Von Jean. J. B. Kan, secretary-general of affairs of the Dutch government, met Frederick Wilhelm in the village.

MARKET YIELDS UNDER PRESSURE

Bear Attacks Counteract Encouraging Opening on Better Week End News.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The stock market today resumed its recent dull and hesitant character, although domestic and foreign developments over the week-end were mostly of an encouraging nature.

The local money market was tighter, however, call loans opening at 7 per cent and holding at that rate throughout the session.

There were fewer offerings of time money and little enquiry for merchants' paper.

Rails were under moderate pressure, some of the high class investment issues easing one to two point. Conditions in that group were not improved by the further fractional decline by Pennsylvania to the new low record of 32⅝.

Oils, motors and many of the specialties comprising the food, tobacco leather and textile issues, were higher at their best by one to almost three points. Coppers also displayed a better trend. Much of this advantage was cancelled in the final hour when shorts raided the steels and equipments, Republic, Crucible, Bethlehem and Baldwin reacting sharply and causing a heavy close.

Sales amounted to 350,000 shares.

Exchange on London was responsive to the better labor outlook, rising 3½ cents over last week's loy point. All other European rates were stronger.

Liberty issues, almost without exception, closed at losses. Chinese railway five featured the foreign division, showing marked strength.

Total sales, par value $6,350,000.

TORONTO BOARD

TORONTO, April 11.—After a dull opening, Canadian stocks took a change about the middle of the way and finished strong. There was little bullish influence from New York and the turn was apparently the natural development of home conditions. Some brokers were so encouraged by the altered position of the stocks that they began to talk of a real upward movement due in a month. The steady accumulation of gold in New York has given rise to the belief that there is a fresh outburst of inflation and speculation may be the result and should that come, it is presumed that the stock market will be affected.

Whether Canada would follow the lead of Wall street in that case is another matter, but it is an interesting subject for discussion.

Brazilian easily lead in the day's turnover on the regular list and strengthened up half a point to 30¾. Twin City had another advance, a 2-point rise to 55. Winnipeg railway and Porto Rico common each lost a point. Canadian Pacific was higher by 1⅜. A good deal of interest was shown in the mining stocks and Dome, stimulated by the New York demand, was exceedingly active and a net gain of fifty cents resulted.

EGG MARKET

OTTAWA, April 11.—There are indications of a firmer feeling and in the prairie provinces prices have advanced in the egg market.

Newspaper advertising enables manufacturers to check advertising results and costs in every market which they enter.

A penny postcard mailed once to the 30,000,0000 daily purchasers of United States and Canadian daily newspapers would cost $300,000. The same sum would buy more than one and one-quarter pages of advertising in all of these newspapers—2154 in number.

BRINGING UP FATHER By George McManus

CONVENES AND THEN ADJOURNS

Harding Will Deliver Opening Message to Congress Today.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The sixty-seventh congress convened today with few departures from time-honored precedent. In the house introduction of bills and other organization business formed the program, while the senate was in session only twenty minutes. Adjournment was taken until tomorrow noon at 1 o'clock, when President Harding will deliver his opening message. The president's message, his first to congress, will be the signal for the real beginning of the session's work.

The first business in the senate will be debate on the Colombian treaty with Senator Lodge of Massachusetts as the first speaker. The emergency tariff bill, introduced in the house today, is the first business of that body.

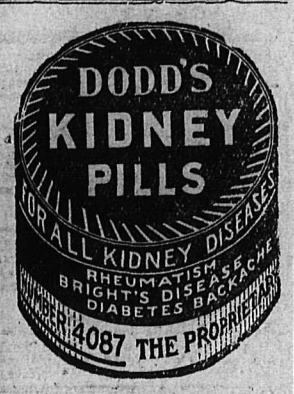
Debate is to start Wednesday and leaders hope for a prompt passage of the measure. Chairman Penrose of the senate finance committee, said tonight that the bill also would be rushed through the senate. Democrats, he added, were disposed to withhold discussion until the permanent tariff bill is brought in.

The emergency bill as introduced today by Representative Young, Republica, North Dakota, chairman of the house ways and means committee, was exactly the same as the old Fordney bill passed by congress in February and vetoed by former President Wilson. Its effective period was fixed at six months after enactment instead of ten, as in the vetoed measure of last session.

Most of the house bills brought in today were old measures which failed during the last congress. A similar situation in the senate tomorrow is expected. Among the measures to be introduced tomorrow is Senator Borah's proposal for a naval reduction conference between the United States, Great Britain and Japan. Introduction by Senator Knox of his separate peace resolution promised tonight to be delayed a few days pending further development of the Republican program for effecting peace.

Chairman Cummins of the senate interstate commerce committee will introduce his resolution for an investigation of railroad affairs and plans to begin extensive hearings about May 1.

In the opening preliminaries today the overwhelming Republican majorities of 22 in the senate and 170 in the house worked with precision. Speaker Gillett was reelected, 298 to 122 against Representative Kitchin, Democrat, North Carolina.



AIR SQUADRON LEADER KILLED

Keith Tailyour, Commanding at Camp Borden, Meets Death in Accident.

OTTAWA, April 11.—The following statement was issued tonight by the air board:

"The air board regrets to announce the death of Squadron Leader Keith Tailyour, A. F. C, Canadian Air Force, through a flying accident today at Camp Borden. The deceased officer's home was in Edmonton, Alta. He has been an instructor on the staff at Camp Borden since last August and was one of the most efficient and experienced instructors there. He has been in command of a squadron ever since his appointment and recently has had charge of the school of special flying. At the time of the accident he was in command of the camp during the absence of Wing Commander Williams.

"A full report of the accident has not yet been received, but Squadron Leader Tailyour was flying during the forenoon, and at the time of the accident his machine was at the height of 1,500 feet.

"The deceased leaves a wife and one child, who were residing with him at the camp.

"This is the second fatal accident that has happened at Camp Borden since the commencement of flying in June, 1920, the other being the death last week of Flying Officer J. Leroy. These two accidents occurring so closely together, and involving the loss of two very experienced officers, is all the more regrettable since it follows on an unbroken record of many months' flying without injury to personnel, which is quite unexampled in the records of flying training camps."

O'CALLAGHAN MUST LEAVE THE STATES

Labor Secretary Orders Deportation of Mayor of Cork; Resistance Likely.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Unless the courts intervene, Donald O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, who came to the United States last January as a stowaway and without a passport, must depart on or before June 5.

Orders that immigration inspectors take O'Callaghan into custody should he be found within the United States after that date were issued today by Secretary Davis of the department of labor. At the same time it was disclosed that on last Wednesday the state department denied the lord mayor's petition contending that he was entitled to asylum in the United States as a political refugee.

O'Callaghan was in Washington today. Michael Francis Doyle, counsel for the lord mayor, said at Philadelphia that notice had been served on the labor department that a writ of habeas corpus would be applied for if any effort was made to deport O'Callaghan.

O'Callaghan will remain in this country until he considers it safe to return to Ireland, Mr. Davis said.

Fine Weather Encourages Early Hopes for Seeding In the Prairie Provinces

WINNIPEG, April 11.—(By Canadian Press)—Western farmers in many districts will be at work on the land by the end of this week, and in 10 days or two weeks, seeding will be general save for sections where local conditons have caused exceptional delay. Fine weather is general in three prairie provinces and the ground is drying rapidly. There seems to be general agreement in reports received today that conditions are satisfactory and that the 1921 crop should get away to a good start.

EDMONTON, April 11.—The high schools strike situation in the city has cleared considerably since Monday morning, Superintendent Carpenter stating that grades 11 and 12 will open Tuesday morning in Strathcona and Victoria high schools. Pupils of grades 11 and 12 in McDougall high will take their classes in Victoria school, every preparation having been completed to give them the best qualified instruction.

Of the 11 teachers who will start work Tuesday, all are university graduates fully qualified for the profession.

Seven in the Running For Appointments On Liquor Control Board

VICTORIA, April 11—No decision has yet been reached on the personnel of the liquor control board. The cabinet gave lengthy consideration to the subjject today, holding sessions both morning and afternoon. Another meeting will be held tomorrow. Seven names are now mentioned in connection with the board, those of A. M. Johnson, J. H. Falconer, J. McArthur, Major D. B. Martyn, Major McAllister, Major F. V. Young, and Captain Brown.

PUSSYFOOT GETS ROUGH RECEPTION

Half-brick Intended for Lecturer at Windsor Hits Escorting Police Inspector.

WINDSOR, Ont., April 11.—The reception tendered W. T. ((Pussyfoot Johnson, in this city tonight must have brought to the prohibition exponent vivid recollections of his experience in Britain. Not only was Johnson not permitted by the crowd to begin his scheduled address on "What I Can See Through My Glass Eye," but he was obliged to call for a police escort in order to reach a ferry boat which carried him back to the shores of the United States.

On the march to the dock, a distance of less than three blocks, the half dozen police officers detailed to see to the safety of Mr. Johnson were the target for all kinds of missiles. While none struck Johnson, a half brick aimed at him hit Police Inspector Mortimer Wigle on the shoulder, inflicting a painful bruise.

TEACHERS FAIL TO REACH AGREEMENT

Situation at Moose Jaw Remains at Deadlock—Will Submit to Arbitration.

MOOSE JAW, April 11.—The situation between the Teachers' Alliance and the school boards remained at a deadlock late tonight with a committee of the city council still striving to bring the two together.

Scholars putting in an appearance at the schools this morning were neraly all dismissed. It is understood that one teacher holds sway over a class of about 10 pupils, but outside of these the children of the mill city are enjoying a holiday.

Mayor Smith is working hard to effect a settlecment, together with Aldermen Fletcher and Watson, he met with a committee of the Alliance this afternoon and whn askd the result of the meeting, replied that nothing in the way of a settlement had been effected.

If the request of the teachers was granted it wauld mean an additional expenditure for the year 1921 of only $2860, according to a statement given out by the Alliance. This amount would be divided among 15 teachers.

The teachers claim that they have at all times been enxious to discuss the salary schedule with the boards but have not been permitted to do so. *They now express their wil*lingness to submit to a board of conciliatio nqr arbitration.

STANTON TRIMS HIS CHALLENGER

Luther Gordon of Trail Puts Up Game Battle in Main Bout of Boxing Tourney.

Horace Stanton of this city, the 1918 runner-up for the Canadian army overseas championship, was given the decision on points over his challenger, Luther Gordon, of Trail, in a six-round bout with the mitts at the Y. M. C. A. boxing club's tourney staged in the "Y" gym last night. The battle was the main bout of the evening and was a gruelling go from the first to the final ring of the gong. There were times when Stanton appeared to have the Trail boy in a position to send him down for the count, notably at the end of the third round when only the ring of the bell saved the challenger, who had reeled groggy to his corner from getting his sleeper. The Trail boy took lots of punishment and came up gamely for more, but could make little impression on his weightier opponent with his well known simultaneously left and right to the neck. About 450 people witnessed the clash, among them being a fair sprinkling of ladies.

Except for the first mix, when Stanton bore the Trail boy across the ropes and had to pull him into the ring again, the first round was little more than a size-up with the principals sparring around, feinting, and looking for an opening. A clinch or two and an interchange of body blows found them back in their corners. In the second round, also honors were pretty evenly divided. Stanton got in some nasty jabs to the stomach, while Gordon kept after him with blows to the neck.

The third round was Stanton's and brought the principals right into action. Stanton led off with a straight left onto Gordon's chin, followed with an uppercut with lots of jar in it. Gordon was not averse to mixing in and rapped Stanton over the ribs and on the cheek in a lively interchange that had the fans excited. A straight down crack with his left that landed across Gordon's eyes followed with a staggering swing to the jaw, and Stanton had his man groggy and clinching for a breather. Pushing him off, Stanton got in a couple more face blows that swung his opponent to his corner dazed. The bell rang as Stanton stepped around to finish his man.

Recovering quickly, Gordon hopped out from his corner for the fourth, in a comeback that was pretty to see. Stanton met him with lefts and rights to the face and chin and bore him to the ropes. Undaunted, the pluck Trail boy bored in again and again in efforts to land on Stanton's neck, which the latter could not always avoid. The round ended with Stanton landing a teeth rattler on Gordon's jaw. The fifth and sixth rounds were repetitions of the fourth, with Gordon scrapping gamely for his favorite neck blows, and Stanton checking with a two handed guard, and returning smashing leads and swings to Gordon's fact and body. Towards the end of the fifth the Trail boy broke away from the melee and danced around the ring out of harm's way, we was still battling up strong without showing any distress when the gong rang at the end of the sixth after a gruelling mixup that showed he had lots of stamina and sand.

Four other bouts, each of three rounds, were also staged. Hughie Horswill and Stanley Allebone, two snappy boys of 105 pounds, mixed in a peppy bout in which Allebone got the decision after a hard fought battle with Horswill, who is a clever two-fisted fighter.

Joe Holland and Finny Campbell, catchweights, put on a five-round go that ranked second only to the main bout. No decision was given. The bout brought out some very pretty work and a wonderful contrast of action. Holland, apparently open and inviting trouble, was as slippery as an eel. He would draw Campbell out with a feint, get in a jab from under, and be away with really fancy foot work. Campbell frequently bored in, managed to get in nifty jolts, and forced the pace up, sometimes, to his own undoing.

Johnny McLean and Elmer Gustafson, two flyweights, tickled the fans into roars of laughter as they tied into each other in great style obviously to their own enjoyment, also.

Ted Black and Hughie Horswill also put on a pretty bout in which Horswill was given the decision. They mixed well, showed lots of style and closed the third round with a whirlwind finish.

Frank Boyd refereed the main bout of the evening. The others were refereed by D. T. DesBrisay and Griff. Morris. The seconds were F. Whitefield, Joe Holland, H. David and C. W. Tyler.

TO EXCLUDE BOYS FROM POOL HALLS

Police Commission Makes Recommendation to City Council—Bylaw Promised

A request from the police commission for the enactment of a bylaw excluding minors under 18 years, and girls of all ages, from pool rooms, billiard halls and bowling alleys, was received by the city council last night.

Mayor C. F. McHardy expressed the opinion that action on the basis of the petition would be a move on right lines.

Ald. W. M. Cunliffe said that while the proposed enactment might be a good thing and all right, he thought the police commission should be willing to state the reasons why it wanted the change.

In reply to a question, City Clerk W. E. Wasson said the enactment asked was within the powers of the city council, as prescribed in the Municipal act.

The mayor said that, under the existing bylaw, the police could not order a boy to leave a pool hall, and it was desirable that he have this authority, as contemplated by the act.

On the motion of Alderman George Turner and A. D. Emory the report of the police commission was adopted.

Ald. Turner thereupon gave notice of a bylaw that would embody the changes asked by the police commission.

The commission's report to the council read as follows.

"The board of police commissioners would recommend the introduction and passage on a bylaw under section 15 of the Municipal Act Amendment act, 1917, (license and regulating places of amusement and prohibiting the presence of women and girls, and of boys less than 18 years of age, in any pool room, billiard room or bowling alley, as proprietors, employees, patrons, customers, spectators or otherwise."

Red Roses and Ribbons Feature in Decorations of Hospital Aid Dance

Scarlet and white will be used as the key colors for the decorating scheme at the Hospital Aid dance tonight. Mrs. George Kurtz having secured masses of American Beauty roses for use on the tables, and F. J. Boles, who is in charge of the main hall beautification, will use a profusion of streamers and flowers of the same colors.

Mrs. W. Waldie, Mrs. C. V. Gagnon, Mrs. Gilbert Hartin, Mrs. C. Ink, Mrs. George Horstead, Mrs. H. E. Dill, Mrs. R. Jarvis, Mrs. P. J. Rutledge and Mrs. F. R. McCharles, are arranging to have one of the most sumptuous table suppers ever served at a like affair in Nelson.

The proceeds will be devoted towards the furnishing of a new ward and for supplying the linen needs of the next six months.
