GIBRALTAR'S GUNS READY FOR ACTION

"Hot, Dry" Is Forecast Today; 75 Fighting Pend d'Oreille Fire

MERCURY HELD AT 96 SEVENTH DAY OF ARIDITY

Hundreds Flock to the Water; No Relief in Sight

GRAND FORKS IS AGAIN HOTTEST

Alberta May Have to Evacuate 500,000 Head of Cattle

A slight breeze yesterday brought sweltering Nelsonites so little relief from 100-degree weather that there were comparatively few who guessed that the sun's score was held to a maximum of 96 degrees as the seventh successive day of 90-or-better temperatures sent hundreds to take advantage of the Wednesday half-holiday in or on the cooling waters of the West Arm.

Although again beaming down are-faced on the perspiring populace Old Sol. throughout the day failed by a few degrees to equal his previous day's marks. At noon yesterday the mercury was at 90, compared to 94 at the same time the previous day; and by 2 p.m. it was at only 92, compared to 97 Tuesday. By 4:15 it hit 96, the maximum for the day, at precisely the same time it registered its high of 100 on Tuesday. It was back at 95 yesterday at 4:30 p.m.

The minimum temperature for the 24-hour period ending at 5 p.m. yesterday was 56, the same as Tuesday.

The Wednesday half-holiday combined with the heat to leave Baker street virtually deserted during most of the afternoon, except for packed street cars and autos conveying their burdens of humanity in search of cooler territories. Similarily, peddlers or agents would have had a poor day, with most homes temporarily vacated, but they, themselves, most likely were in the vanguard of the seekers after relief.

Debutantes Meet King Edward

LONDON, July 22 (AP)— The London social season moved to a close tonight with the second garden reception of debutantes by the King.

Seated under a silken canopy in the grounds of Buckingham palace, His Majesty received a second group of smartly-gowned women. Presentation ceremonies yesterday were cut short by rain after half of the 400 waiting guests had been announced by the Lord Chamberlain. Among those presented yesterday were 11 Canadians.

Girls! Get in the Swim, If You'd Be Shapely and in Good Health

TOBY WING
In Smart Satin Bathing Suit.

With the temperature in the Kootenays soaring past the century mark, few need to be coaxed into the waters so abundantly provided in the district. Yet there are a great many of the fair sex who are afraid to do any amount of real swimming, fearful of the effect that the exercise will have upon their muscles. The following article by Gladys Glad, who knows her beauty business from the ground up, scoffs at such a belief, and offers evidence that, on the contrary, plenty of swimming develops physical beauty and lays the basis of health necessary for loveliness.

By BLADYS GLAD
"America's Most Famous Beauty"

Not so long ago, a well-known swimming champion and motion picture hero—Johnny Weissmuller by name—stated that he considered swimming bad for women. His contention was that swimming tends to rob a girl of her femininity and sex appeal. But according to some of our most pulchritudinous radio and screen players, Johnny's ideas on the swimming subject are all wet. For players, they claim, swimming is just about the best all-round exercise going.

Many women, however, seem to share Tarzan Weissmuller's opinion. They apparently believe that swimming will overdevelop their muscles and make their bodies bulgy and masculine. As a consequence, they fear to indulge in this healthful and enjoyable sport. They're foolish. If you like swimming, and have the opportunity to indulge in it, by all means don't pass it up. And forget the idea that this sport might make your muscles as bulgy and knotted as a prize fighter's. For I can assure you that it won't. Look at the shapely damsels whose pictures illustrate this article if you desire any proof. Toby Wing has one of the shapeliest and most symmetrical of figures, and yet she does plenty of swimming, not only in the summertime when the beaches are open, but all year around!

VIMY OFFICIALS AT MONS

By CAPT. W. W. MURRAY, M.C.
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

MONS, Belgium, July 22 (CP cable).—Nearly 18 years ago an advance party of Canadian infantry filed into the darkened streets of Mons to mark the city's deliverance from German occupation. A few hours later the final "cease fire" of the war was sounded.

Today the advance guard of the dominion's "peace-time army" came back to this old Belgian city. Led by Brig.-Gen. Alex Ross of Yorkton, members of the Canadian Legion official party were met with affection and acclaim by the burgomaster and citizens. Saturday many veterans now on the way across the Atlantic to the Vimy dedication ceremonies will revisit familiar scenes around Mons.

In the more than three years of his war service, said General Ross in an address, the memory of Mons stood out most clearly. Before the Canadians had left the dominion the story of the first stand of the British army at Mons in August, 1914, had already thrilled them.

LOCARNO TALKS OPEN TODAY

LONDON, July 22 (AP). — Prime Minister Baldwin, Foreign Secretary Eden and Lord Halifax, lord privy seal, will open the three power Locarno parley as representatives of Great Britain at 10:30 a.m., tomorrow, it was announced today.

The conversations with French and Belgian representatives will be held at No. 10 Downing street, with the prime minister presiding.

12 FACTORIES WORK AGAIN

WINNIPEG, July 22 (CP).—Winnipeg's garment manufacturing strike appeared drawing to a close today as workers in 12 of 16 factories were back at work and negotiations reopened with two of the four plants where the strike is still in progress. It was estimated approximately 700 of the 950 strikers returned to work today.

Supposing a Cop HAD Come Along?

ACT I

Scene: Baker street, few feet from Hall street.

Time: Something about 4 p.m. yesterday.

Setting: Auto parked slap bang in the center of Baker street, while driver absents himself within the confines of the new creamery plant.

Five minutes elapse during which numerous autos from both directions approach, slow down, then cautiously swing around (some on the wrong side incidentally) the parked car, the while the drivers mutter something about—"Where the heck are the police around here, anyway?"

ACT II

Same scene.

Chief of Police Alex Stewart emerges from creamery building, steps into his car parked in the middle of the street, and drives away.

10,000 POLITICAL PRISONERS FREED

VIENNA, July 22 (CP-Havas)—A general amnesty affecting 10,000 political prisoners throughout Austria was proclaimed by Federal President Wilhelm Miklas tonight.

This decree was the first major step taken as a result of the recently signed Austro-German agreement.

Kootenay Scouts at Lewiston

LEWISTON, Ida., July 22 (AP). —Sixty Canadian Boy Scouts from Nelson, B.C., and vicinity, paid a goodwill visit to Lewiston today, leaving this evening to spend the night at Scout Camp Laird, near Potlatch.

Swimming, an inspection of the Potlatch Forests, Inc., mill, largest pine sawmill in the world, and luncheon and dinner at which service clubs and the district CCC headquarters were mosts occupied the attention of the visitors.

Picnic Party to Come Here Today

Trail Committee Will Work at Park

TRAIL, B.C., July 22 —Advance party for the C. M. & S. company employees' picnic committee will leave Trail at 7 a.m. tomorrow morning to make the necessary final preparations at Lakeside park, Nelson prior to the inrush of Trailites on Saturday when the park will become a veritable beehive of fun, frolic and entertainment.

At a special meeting this morning, a discussion was held by members of the picnic committee, to assure proper preparation for the gala day.

It was reported at the meeting that Chief of Police W. Campbell of Tadanac had removed parking restriction in Tadanac for Saturday so that those who have cars that are going to the picnic by train may leave them at Tadanac for a drive home from the return train. Members of Trail service clubs who have cars have volunteered to visit the trains on arrival in Trail Saturday night and convey women and children to their homes.

As no reply from a letter to the Nelson Kinsmen club had been received regarding a baby clinic, R. W. Savage was instructed to check up on the matter on arrival in Nelson and if the Kinsmen club are unable to conduct the clinic they have sponsored helpfully at former picnics, he is to purchase necessary equipment and hire nurses.

The advance committee comprises R. W. Savage, Tim Buscomb, Ed Laarz, D. Duffus, Bert Repton and Rusty O'Sullivan.

LAMSON TO WED AGAIN

LOS ANGELES, July 22 (AP)—David Lamson, formerly of Red Deer, Alta., who was tried four times on charges he murdered his wife and once was sentenced to die on the gallows, is going to marry again. Lamson, former Stanford university press executive, and Ruth Rankin, magazine writer, appeared at the marriage license bureau late today and filed notice of intention to marry.

NEW FIRE ON A WIDE FRONT IN THE FLATHEAD

FORESTS ABLAZE AGAIN, ALBERTA

Fires Rage in Three Sections of the Province

Crews aggregating 75 men were fighting a 25-acre forest fire at the junction of the Salmo and Pend d'Oreille rivers late Wednesday, with excellent prospects, it was believed here, of stamping it out in the course of the night.

Spreading from a prospector's cabin, the fire got into the adjoining bush, and had attained an area of 25 acres when reported to the forest branch here at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

A crew of 25 men was rushed to the scene from Salmo, and two bunches of 25 each left Nelson for the Pend d'Oreille around 5 o'clock, the object of the big concentration of men on the fire being to overwhelm it.

ILLINOIS AUTO GOES OFF ROAD AT KIMBERLEY

Five in Hospital But Not Seriously Injured

KIMBERLEY, B.C., July 22—An Illinois car carrying five persons, two men and three women, went over the bank at the Catholic church hill tonight, and the five are in hospital. It is understood all escaped without serious injury, though considerably shaken up. Their names were not available.

The car was said to have been going slowly but too close to the edge of the road slipped over, turned on its side, and slid down the bank about 75 feet toward a flume. One of the men was able to get out of the car and up the hill, and obtained assistance.

CHILD HURT WHEN STRIKERS RIOT

SYRACUSE, N.Y., July 22 (AP). —Workers were stoned, a child was injured, a foreman critically hurt and 19 men and women were arrested when striking Remington-Rand, Inc., employees rioted tonight.

Hundreds of strikers were gathered in a leased parking lot across from the plant when workers began to leave the plant. The workers were greeted with an angry boo from the crowd and stones were hurled.

Entrance Results Out on Friday and Matric on Saturday

VICTORIA, July 22 (CP)—The department of education today announced that high school entrance results would be made public Friday afternoon and matriculation results on Saturday afternoon.

Urge Farmhands Back to Work for Harvest

PARIS, July 22 (AP) — Labor threw its support tonight to the government in an attempt to induce striking farmhands to return to work before the wheat harvest.

Leon Jouhaux, president of the Labor confederation, denied organized labor had called a general farm strike in sympathy with the local farmworkers' union in more than four departments.

He requested the workers to "keep calm."

Modern Car Can "Take It"

The car pictured above is in pretty bad shape; but if it hadn't been of modern, all-steel construction it would probably have been in a good deal worse condition, for it went over the bank on the road to the Reno mine and crashed down nearly 900 feet into a canyon. The radiator is undamaged except that a decorative cap was knocked off. Neither of the headlights is broken though one is twisted, the double windshield is splintered a little in one corner only, and some of the glass on the left side is good. Just how much can be salvaged is unknown as yet.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Anderson were on their way to the Reno mine when the car went over the bank. Stopping to replace a flat, Mr. Anderson jacked up the auto and Mrs. Anderson stepped out of it with her baby. The jack kicked over and on the narrow road the car was over the bank almost at once.—Staff Photo.

BRUNER RECLAMATION PROJECT IS APPROVED BY JOINT COMMISSION

$70,000 Development to Reclaim 2053 Acres on Kootenay Flats Can Now Go Ahead; Approval Filed With Governments

Two weeks ago today the international joint commission filed at Ottawa and Washington its approval of the reclamation project of Dr. Peter Charles Bruner of Calgary, involving 2053 acres of flood lands on the Kootenay Flats near Creston, respecting which a hearing was held at Nelson May 15, a copy of the commission's order just being received by The Nelson Daily News from the commission's offices at Ottawa.

This approval, which was arrived at May 15 immediately after the hearing, by the date of the order, but was referred to one of the commissioner's to put into form, and probably has been circulated to all of them since for acceptance, means that Dr. Bruner is now free to proceed with a $70,00 reclamation of Nick's island, between Kootenay river and French creek, also known as the Big slough, on the side of river toward the international boundary. Dr. Bruner stated for publication at that time, though not before the commission, that if the project was approved, he would be ready to start work August 1. That date possibly had relation to the water level. The water is now lower than usual at this period, so that offers no obstacle.

As originally drawn, the Bruner application was for permission to reclaim 3440 acres, but at the Nelson hearing Dr. Bruner's solicitor, I. W. McArdle, of Calgary, submitted an amended application which stopped at French creek instead of going on to the international boundary.

Nick island actually has an area of 2330 acres, but 227 acres of it is in No. 4 Indian reserve. The permission given the applicant extends to the 277 acres also provided he succeeds in making a deal with the Indian department.

At the Nelson hearing, all interests, American and Canadian, consented to the proposed reclamation after the amendment had been announced.

This will be the third reclamation development at Creston.

Boys Beg on Street for Cash for Camp; Spend on Ice Cream

VANCOUVER, July 22 (CP). — The love of two small boys for ice cream led them into police hands today.

Receiving reports of begging, police discovered the boys in an ice cream parlor spending money they had solicited with slotted cans on the street, supposedly for aid of a fresh air camp.

The youngsters were turned over to their parents who promised to "take care" of them.

FAIL TO SCALE BRUSSELS

JASPER, Alta., July 22 (CP).—Three members of the Alpine club today were back at the club's camp at Fryatt creek after an unsuccessful attempt to scale the 10,370-foot peak in recent years.

"We found it was no longer a sporting proposition, merely dangerous," Dr. S. B. Hendricks of the Smithsonian Institute and one of the three, told campers later. Dr. Max Strumia of Bryn Mawr hospital, leader of the party, said he would not make any attempt to climb Brussels again this season. Capt. E. Rex Gibson of Winterburn, Alta., the third mountaineer, said "we hope, however, someone else will try it and succeed."

FIVE KILLED IN EXPLOSION

CHICAGO, July 22 (AP).—Five persons were reported killed and a half dozen injured today in an explosion and fire which wrecked the plant of the National Fur, Dressing & Dyeing Company, Inc.

MRS. D. C. HIRSCH AT COAST

VANCOUVER, July 22 (CP). — Mrs. David C. Hirsch of New York, daughter of David Oppenheimer, Vancouver's second mayor, arrived here today. She was accompanied by her husband and daughter, Marian. After a visit here the party will proceed to California.

RICHARD ARLEN LOSES $50 TO A THIEF AT LAKE

REVELSTOKE, B.C., July 22 (CP) —Police today were searching for a thief who yesterday stole $50, a gold pen knife and other articles from Richard Arlen's clothes as he and other stars of British Gaumont's "Great Barrier" were swimming at Williamson lake, near here.

SARRON WINS

DALLAS, Texas, July 22 (AP).—Peter Sarron, little Birmingham jumping jack, retained his National Boxing association featherweight title here tonight with a clean-cut 15-round decision over Baby Manuel, touted Cuban southpaw, in Texas' first titular battle.

British Warn Spanish Fighters Fire Will Be Returned

GIBRALTAR, July 23 — (Thursday) (AP).—British authorities early today warned the commanders of Spanish warships that the guns of Gibraltar, one of the world's mightiest fortresses, were ready for instant action.

The British officials declared that if further shells fell on the great rock as a result of the warfare between Spanish rebels and loyalists, the fire would be returned by British artillery.

RESIDENTS FLEE

GIBRALTAR, July 22 — (AP).—Anti-aircraft shells burst high over this famous rock tonight and hundreds fled for shelter from a raging air-sea battle between loyal Spanish warships and a rebe fleet of airplanes.

CANAL DU NORD

When Canada's 6000 pilgrims, en route to Vimy Ridge arrive over this week-end at Arras they will be at the gateway of an area hallowed by the memory of great and brave deeds. Should they travel for 16 miles south-east down the road which leads as straight as an arrow from Arras to Cambrai, they will come to the Canal du Nord; and there memory will compel a halt, for it was at this waterway Canadians achieved one of the most brilliant feats of the Great War, on Sept. 27, 1918. In that and subsequent actions leading up to the capture of Cambrai, nine Canadians won the Victoria Cross.

The days of open warfare had come; attacking troops moved on distant objectives and not infrequently small groups operated on their own, isolated from their larger commands. In two such operations Lieut. G. T. Lyall, 102nd (Central Ontario) Battalion achieved the extraordinary feats of capturing not less than three officers, 182 other ranks, 26 machine guns and one field gun. They were not single-handed actions, but in them Lyall led his small and somewhat isolated command with such magnificent dash that this amazing result was accomplished.

All through the piece there was a certain similarity about the affrays in which Canadian youths stood out from their fellows, actions to perform which demanded the supreme in physical and moral bravery. Lieut. M. F. Gregg, the Royal Canadian Regiment, dragging his seriously-wounded body from shell-hole to shell-hole, organizing resistance and attack, eliminating assailants and capturing others; Sergeant W. Merrifield, 4th (Central Ontario) Battalion standing on Blecourt Ridge, north of Cambrai, with his Lewis gun, facing alone the advancing hordes, such are the stories of these epic days.

Lieut. S. L. Honey, 78th (Manitoba) Battalion; Lieut. G. F. Kerr, 3rd (Toronto) Battalion; Capt. J. C. MacGregor, 2nd Canadian Mounted Rifles; Capt. C. N. Mitchell, 4th Canadian Engineers; Lieut. W L. Algie, 20th (Central Ontario) Battalion; and Sergt. Hugh Cairns, 46th (Saskatchewan) Battalion were all heroes whose names were added to the scroll of the Victoria Cross in the last Hundred Days of the war.

Initiation Is Highlight at Camp Koolaree

Find "Treasure" Left by Braves 1935 Camp

CAMP KOOLAREE. — The sun rose bright and early over the campsite on the eighteenth day of July knowing something exciting was going to happen. It did. Girl braves from far and wide gathered to hold council for 10 full, happy suns. Great Chief Ruth McLennan journeyed many miles from the City-by-the-Salt-Water to direct the ceremonies and the activities at the campfire and on the stamping ground.

When the teepees had been chosen camp-keeping set up and the tribes formed, then were the braves ready for life at Koolaree.

The first ceremony was the finding of the "treasure" left to them by the braves of 1935. Great Chief, closely followed by 80 braves, dug up and brought to the campfire the messages that had lain in wait 12 long moons. From them was caught the gleam carrying on from campfire to campfire.

On Sunday the Great Spirit brooded over the camp. The day began with early morning chapel, through morning church service to afternoon talks, walks in the out-of-doors, and on to the ceremonies of campfire and "Taps".

The ceremony of initiation was one of the highlights of camp. With due solemnity the new councillors and braves were received into the ever-widening circle of comradeship. Only then did these new friends don their blankets and enter into the fellowship of the campfire makers. Tokens of loyalty were gathered from the tribes and presented to the Great Chief before the council seat. Bound with the red ribbon of courage these tokens were later purified in the fire, symbolizing the purity of the ideals the camp seeks to impart.

Kid Berg Knocked Out in Second

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—Aldo Spoldi, Italian lightweight champion, knocked out Jackie "Kid" Berg of England in the second round of a 10 round bout at Ebbets field tonight. Spoldi weighed 137 and Berg 141. The Englishman, making the first start of his latest United States comeback drive, was on the canvas three times.

Hill Shortage Applies Knife To Sprinkling

Hours Cut to Three; Abnormal Drain in Full Pipes

Speeding up of daylight sprinkling Tuesday, apparently as a result of the city council deciding Monday night to place a ban on sprinkling between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m. under the impetus of the heat wave, left the hill section of Nelson largely without domestic water late in the afternoon and in the early evening, and the civic authorities coped with the water shortage by reducing sprinkling to a total of three hours in the 24—from 7 to 8 in the morning, and from 6 to 8 in the evening.

Waste of water, rather than its use, made the restrictions necessary, it was explained at the city hall Wednesday.

WATER OVER DAM

The water in Five-Mile creek is still three inches above the dam at the city intake, so the distributing system is receiving all the water it can take, but the drain of countless open taps and hose nozzles in addition to normal use is more than the reserve supply in the reservoir can stand.

While the hill section experienced a reduction of pressure last evening when the hoses got going for the authorized sprinkling, there was water available, in contrast to the condition Tuesday evening, when the taps simply refused to deliver.

Another lovely summer wedding was solemnized in Trail, when at St. Francis Xavier church, Wednesday morning, Nellie Zita, daughter of Mrs. Lydia Cancian of Trail, was married to Cerino Besaro of Red Lake, Ont., son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Besaro. The bride wore a becoming gown of white satin fashioned on modish lines, white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink roses and maidenhair fern. Her beautiful veil was draped to the head, the folds being held in place by clusters of orange blossom, Miss Victoria Colonello of Trail, in a delicate frock of pink satin attended the bride. Included in the accessories worn was a fitted turban of pink satin and her bouquet was of pink carnations. Miss Romilda Tesan of Powell River, also bride's attendant, was charming in a frock of pink net with blue dot. Pink silk crepe fashioned the turban, her bouquet being similar to that of Miss Colonello. Mr. and Mrs. Besaro left on a wedding trip and will return to Red Lake to take up residence.

THE WEATHER

The official weather forecast from Victoria promises "fine, hot and very dry" weather for Nelson and district today.

Grand Forks with 100 again officially led the northwest yesterday, with Kamloops at 98, the only other point hotter than Nelson. Spokane had 96, and Vancouver a mere 74.

MORE HOT WEATHER

CHICAGO, July 22 (AP).—More 100-degree plus heat was forecast for a limited section of the middle west today as first threshing reports and late field surveys etched deeper the lines of drought's ravages in many areas.

The situation as disclosed to Gov. Henry Horner moved him to dispatch Illinois' first plea for relief to Washington authorities.

In the capital, President Roosevelt set up a national committee to study "practicable measures" for remedying conditions on the parched western plains through utilization of natural resources.

The heat wave death total remained just around 4600 as additional deaths were reported in Nebraska and southern California.

TO EVACUATE CATTLE

OTTAWA, July 22 (CP).—Rapid spread northward of drought conditions in Alberta will necessitate evacuation of about 500,000 head of cattle from the province, Hon. Charles Cockroft, Alberta treasurer, today told Dominion government ministers.

During the last three weeks, he declared, the drought area had crept within 30 or 40 miles of Edmonton.

NO LET-UP IN SIGHT

VANCOUVER, July 22 (CP)—A cool wave, with scattered showers, was having its session on the northern coast of British Columbia tonight but the interior of the province still sweltered in temperatures close to the 100 mark with no let-up in sight.

Grand Forks in the Kootenay district was the hottest spot in the province reporting today with a temperature of an even 100 while Nelson had an official maximum of 96 and Cranbrook recorded a high of 94.

Kamloops, in the lower Cariboo district, reported an official high of 96.

Coast cities remained comparatively cool. Nanaimo recorded a high of 77, Vancouver 74 and Victoria a maximum of 70.

RAINS NEEDED

WINNIPEG, July 23 (CP)—Blistering heat in Southern sections of Alberta and Saskatchewan and generally clear skies over the Canadian prairies intensified the need today for drenching rains to save crops still standing after six weeks of drought.

Eastern and central portions of southern Alberta suffered most from the heat as the mercury climbed to 104 in Medicine Hat, up four degrees from yesterday. Lethbridge sweltered in 97-degree weather and Calgary had a high of 96.

South-western Saskatchewan also was decidedly hot with 94 at Swift Current. The heat moderated further east and it was only 88 in Moose Jaw.

As a physical culture feat, 20 Russians, including six girls, recently made a militarized march of over 600 miles, wearing gas masks and carrying rifles.

DEPENDS ON GOOD HEALTH

As you and I both know, physical beauty is basically dependent upon good health. And swimming tends to lay the basis of health so necessary for loveliness. It strengthens muscles and gives contour to under or over-developed bodies. It is a balanced form of exercise that brings into play the muscles of the entire body.

Consequently, it does not over-develop muscles or induce awkwardness. Indeed, it has quite the opposite effect. For because of its balance, it tends to develop muscle evenly, equalize the distribution of weight, and give suppleness to the body.

Dentonia Office Moves to Coast

Directors Reelected Annual Meeting Calgary

All directors were reelected at the annual meeting of Dentonia Mines limited at Calgary, and the shareholders approved a bylaw moving the head office from Calgary to Vancouver, according to a report by A. E. Jukes & Co., Ltd. The report added:

Major Angus Davis, M.E. reported that in the Rowe section downward extension of the ore had been picked up about a week previously on the 500 foot level and that this section is looking quite promising. The exploratory work on the 700 level in the main section has disclosed quartz showings but no commercial mineralization as yet.

The proposed deal with Gold Mountain was not submitted formally to the meeting but in answer to a question directors advised that discussions were still in progress. It is understood that directors of both companies are agreed on the general principles but that some details are still to be settled.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of calomel but have no calomel or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. 25c.

NEWSPAPERS FACE CONTEMPT OF COURT CHARGES AS A SEQUEL TO MAN POINTING GUN AT THE KING

Two Charged as Result of Stories After Incident

LONDON, (CP Cable)—Contempt of court charges against two London newspapers for commenting on the activities, character and past career of the accused in last week's attempted attack on King Edward was launched in the court of King's bench Wednesday.

On the application of Sir Donald Somervell, attorney-general, the court granted rules nisi for attachment for contempt of court against the editors and publishers of the Evening News and The Daily Express.

Sir Donald told the court, consisting of the lord chief justice and two judges, that the action concerned comments in the newspapers upon the proceedings against George Andrew McMahon, the man who allegedly pressed through the crowd on Constitution hill last Thursday and levelled a revolver at the King. McMahon is charged under the Firearms act with unlawfully having in his possession a loaded revolver with intent to endanger life and property.

The attorney-general declared the motions for rules nisi rested on the ground newspaper comments might gravely prejudice the fair trial of the accused. He proceeded to quote lengthy passages purporting to describe McMahon's activities, character and past career.

The court, in granting the rules nisi, fixed next Wednesday for a hearing, when representatives of the newspapers will have to appear in court.

English law sets forth every man is innocent until he is proved guilty. This ancient provision loses none of its validity even though the person of the sovereign is involved, a London legal authority pointed out to the Canadian Press a few days ago in commenting on the position of English newspapers at the time of the episode on Constitution hill.

Golfers' Trout Beaten by Heat

"Pete's Lake" Gets Too Warm for Them

On the seventh fairway at the Nelson Golf and Country club there is a water hazard popularly called "Pete's Lake". Golfers stocked it with trout several years back. About two years ago when the fish were getting large, someone came along and helped himself to a fine trout dinner, taking every one. The fish had been well cared for by golfers, who took great delight in feeding them, and were an easy catch.

The pond was restocked and by this year the trout were quite a good size. Tuesday's excessive temperatures were too much for them and that night they were found floating on the surface of the water, dead. The water was lukewarm.

Red Sox Girls May Entertain Salmo

"Chum" Arcure, coach of the Gelinas Red Sox Girls' Softball club, announced Wednesday evening the Salmo Girls' club would probably play the Red Sox at the Nelson Recreation grounds Sunday afternoon following the baseball game between Spokane Colored Monarchs and the New Grand Cubs. A couple of weeks ago the same two girls' teams played in Salmo with the Red Sox taking the honors 4-1.

DISTRIBUTION OF FREE PICNIC TICKETS ENDS

Total Tickets Issued 3700 Checkup Shows

TRAIL, B.C., July 22—Issue of 262 tickets at the Trail employment office between 6 and 9 p.m. and 186 at Rossland during the same hours Tuesday has boosted the total issue of railway tickets for the Consolidated Employees' picnic at Nelson Saturday to 3700, according to T. O. Davies, transportation chairman, after a checkup Wednesday night.

Of this number about 1300 were issued to children.

No more free tickets are available, it was announced, but purchased tickets may be obtained at Hodge's store, Cedar avenue, Trail, at the board room, Tadanac; and from members of the committee.

The committee has asked that picnickers again be reminded that all refreshment booths close at the time the first train leaves Lakeside park for Trail.

The advance party leaves Trail for Nelson early Thursday morning. H. W. Hankin, chairma. of the picnic committee, will not leave until Friday.

Roy Anderson to Remain in Nelson

Roy Anderson, Cubs' second sacker, is remaining in Nelson, at least for the present. It was Roy's intention to start work in Trail on Tuesday, but he has obtained employment in Nelson and will continue to play for the Nelson N.G H. Cubs Senior Baseball club.

BOWER ORGANIST AT ST. PAUL'S

LONDON (CP cable). — John Dykes Bower, organist and choirmaster of Durham cathedral, has been appointed organist of St. Paul's cathedral. This ranks with the post at Westminster abbey as the most notable position of its kind in the world. Bower succeeds Dr. Stanley Marchant, appointed principal of the Royal Academy of Music.

Temperature 100 Nothing to Boys In Veneer Plant

Mercury Climbs 110 and 124 in Plant

Employees of the B.C. Veneer Works haven't any hot weather tribulations once they leave the plant. They've worked in the heat long enough that when they finish the day and step out into temperatures of 90 to 100 it's like a cooling breeze to them.

Despite the mill being on the waterfront, and getting the benefit of what breezes might be stirring, the lads work in temperatures of 110 to 124 degrees Fahrenheit, the steam press and veneer dryers being responsible. The high of 124 is in the vicinity of the press. Just what the mercury might do in the boiler room is anyone's guess.

Fireworks in Trail On Eve of Picnic

Pyrotechnic Display Will Last for 45 Minutes

TRAIL, B.C., July 22—For the first time since the inception of the monster C. M. & S. company employees' picnic held at Nelson annually, a celebration in Trail will be held in conjunction with it.

An oil company made the offer to the picnic committee to put on a pyrotechnic display at Nelson, but as the majority of picnickers leave Nelson on scheduled trains before dark it was considered best to stage it in Trail on the night previous.

So Friday night, commencing at 8:15 a great fireworks display will be put on at Butler park that will last approximately 45 minutes. A special pyrotechnician will be on hand from the coast to supervise erection of the fireworks and to see that it is handled in the proper fashion.

A parade, commencing at Colombo hall, Rossland avenue will be headed by the Maple Leaf band and will arrive at the park prior to the first big boom.

Kulai Returns to Nelson to Reside

George Kulai, well known to Nelson baseball, basketball, softball, soccer and track enthusiasts, returned to Nelson from Kimberley Tuesday morning and will make his home here. George expressed pleasure at again residing in Nelson, and hopes to again take part in sports.

BRADLEY'S RINK WINS GROCERIES

Beats Ball's Four in Lawn Bowling Test

Three-man rink skipped by N. B. Bradley won the groceries in the Country Store competition by defeating J. Ball's rink 22-7 at the Nelson Lawn Bowling club Wednesday night. In other games J. E. W. Penwill, Mrs. A. G. Lane, and D. Laughton.

Softball Team to Resume Practices

Practices for the Nelson rep girls' softball team will be resumed at the Recreation grounds this evening at 6 o'clock and all regular players with the exception of Hazel Spiers are expected to be on hand. At present Hazel is holidaying in Colville, Wash.

In addition to the players travelling to Trail last Sunday, Wilma Milne will be invited to turn out for practice with the team if she returns from Cranbrook in time. Pat Leask is showing up well in practices.

Ymir Second and Third in Drilling Contest at Coast

VANCOUVER, (CP) — Algot Erickson and Halver Roning, veteran drillers from the P.E. mine in the Bridge River district, won today's rock drilling contest, with two crews from Ymir, B.C., placing second and third.

The rock-drilling contest being held in Stanley park in conection with Vancouver's Golden Jubilee, was watched by several thousand spectators. Another contest will be held tomorrow.

Erickson and Ronning drilled 37 7-16 inches into solid granite with their hand drills in the space of 15 minutes.

Edward Emilson and A. Burgess of Ymir placed second, drilling 27 15-16 inches, and John Clark and Pete Ness, the other Ymir crew, were a close third, hammering their way 25 15-16 inches into the granite.

A.M.A. Manager Logs Roads Here

Gets Information for Alberta Motorists About District

Harold W. Bell of Calgary, manager of the Alberta Motor association arrived here Tuesday night on his way home from the Shrine convention at Seattle, and Wednesday he "logged" the Trail-Nelson section of the Southern Scenic Highway, making an exact description, mile by mile, as shown on his speedometer, of the road as now existing. The notes were taken by Mrs. Bell, who was sitting by his side, from his dictation, and recorded the exact facts as to black top, gravel, washboard, pot-holes, and other conditions.

Thursday Mr. Bell will similarly log the Nelson-Kaslo highway, for the purpose of the Alberta Motor association.

In addition to getting information for his association, Mr. Bell is organizing servicing of the district, for the Vancouver Automobile club which was formed after the British Columbia Automobile club went to pieces, has relinquished the interior to the Inland Motor association at Spokane to service, and the latter has handed it over to the Alberta Motor association. He is interested in lining up hotels, garages and motorists for membership, pending such time as there is reorganization in British Columbia.

The Alberta Motor association, Mr. Bell stated, issues a monthly magazine, also a large map for the national parks, and strip maps for various tours.

BEATEN AND ROBBED

VANCOUVER, (CP)—Police are searching for two thugs who attacked and brutally beat J. S. Grier and left him lying bleeding in the street after rifling his pockets of $30. Grier was found semi-conscious on Abbott street early today but was able to proceed home after being given first aid at Police head quarters.

KILLED IN PALESTINE

JERUSALEM (AP).—A private of the Second Lincolnshires was killed and two others wounded when a patrol was ambushed near Tulkarem. The patrol was believed to have inflicted heavy casualties on its attackers.

NO GOVERNMENT IN MADRID

LISBON (AP).—A rebel broadcast picked up here stated a proclamation issued by General Emileo Mola declared there no longer is a government in Madrid but merely a series of anti-revolutionary committees striving desperately to organize a defence of Madrid, Barcelona and Valencia.

LARGEST BOOM OF COTTONWOOD ARRIVES HERE

Contains 400,000 Ft.; Veneer Orders Received

Boom of veneer logs aggregating 400,000 feet has arrived at the B.C. Veneer Works here, the largest cottonwood boom thus far brought to Nelson.

M. L. Greenlaw, who brought the logs in, declared the trip was one of the finest he has experienced, though the size of the boom slowed down his tug to a speed of about a mile an hour. The logs were taken from Lardo to Kaslo in 1½ days, and were held there until a strong wind ceased. Leaving Kaslo at midnight Saturday, the tug and boom arrived at Nelson about 10 o'clock Tuesday, after losing a day at Procter while the boom was split up and taken through the narrows in sections.

Second boom of the season brought to the Veneer works, it contains sufficient logs to keep the plant in operation for the remainder of the season. The boom previously brought in was not as large and is almost entirely in veneer now.

Several repeat orders have been received by the B.C. Veneer Works from New Zealand, and supplies in Spokane are being replenished.

THIRTY CUBS ENROLL CAMP

Hope Pass Number of Badges During Outing

Thirty Wolf Cubs are enrolled so far for the week's outing at Camp Busk, Kokanee, August 8 to 15. It is expected the total enrolment will be considerably larger.

Called to a meeting, the intending campers were told what they would need in the way of equipment and were checked over for proficiency badges. They hope to pass a number of tests during camp week.

Present arrangements call for a leader for each unit of six Cubs.

Boy Scouts See W.S.C. Campus

See Buildings State College Before Broadcast

By SCOUT DONALD GIBBON
(With the Nelson District Party at Pullman, Wash.)

PULLMAN, Wash. — Meeting at the headquarters hall, we were taken to Bryan hall to have our pictures taken and were then shown around the various buildings of Washington State college. We went to the college of agriculture, the college of science, the transmitting room, machine shop and power plant. Then we had luncheon at the Washington hotel.

After luncheon everybody rented bikes and then we went swimming. We had dinner at the hotel and then went to Station KWSC for the broadcast.

At the opening we sang "We're Here for Fun" and "Grandfather's clock". Then Bert Auld played a Schubert number on his violin; I played "Evening Shadows", cornet; George Gill played "Turkey in the Straw", harmonica; and Glen Price played "Don't Say Aloha When I Go", guitar. Everybody sang "Old Black Joe" and we went home.

Drive Close Girls' Softball Schedule

With five games remaining in the schedule to be played and with considerable difficulty being experienced in getting the teams to turn out, officials of the Nelson Girls Softball association announced on Tuesday evening that an effort would be made to get all the games cleaned up next week. When games are scheduled again the club turning up with a full team will be awarded the game by default should the other club fail to make an appearance.

James McIvor Enjoys Trip To Old Land

Visits Mother's Home; His Son Acquires Accent

James McIvor, who with his young son Jimmie is just back from a year's sojourn at his old home at Thiumster, Caithness, northernmost country of Scotland, had a great trip he avers. He expresses himself greatly impressed by the service received on the trip both going and coming, employees on the trains and on board ship being always obliging and willing to help him.

On the trip over weather was ideal both on the ocean and in the old land. Scotland last winter experienced, however, the severest weather in 30 years according to natives. The return voyage was eventful, the weather having been rough in spots, especially off the northwest coast of Ireland where they struck a bad storm. Weather was dull and cold all the way.

People in Scotland, states Mr. McIvor, are well satisfied with living conditions. Good work and wages are to be had although the dole system has been extended to include farmers, ship-builders and almost every other type of workman.

Except for a week in Glasgow, both going and coming, most of the time Mr. McIvor spent at his mother's home in Caithness. He also visited Edinburgh and went through historic Edinburgh castle.

Jimmie, his son, took a great liking to Scotland during their stay, and picked up the Scottish accent quickly. He put in a full year of school, missing only two days. The term started August 14 or 15 and finished the day after they left, July 3.

TRAIL BOWLERS HERE SATURDAY

Trail Lawn Bowlers will journey to Nelson Saturday to compete in the second leg of the Kootenay Brewery cup competition. Nelson is the holder of the cup but Trail is leading on points by way of last Saturday's play at the smelter city. Games are to start at 4:15 p.m. sharp.

Nelson rinks playing Saturday in order of skip, third, second and lead are:

G. A. Meeres, A. G. Lane, F. Doodson, C. I. Archibald.

J. Draper, J. Ball, T. McMillan, and J. Simons.

F. E. Wheeler, J. S. Goulding, E. L. Wright, and F. C. Davis.

H. H. Kingzett, W. T. Calbick, D. Laughton and J. Graham.

KILCREGGAN, Argyle, Scotland (CP). — Bagpipe lessons given by Pipe-Major Maclean via long-distance phone to a London man resulted in the pupil taking first prize at an exhibition.

VICTORIA, N.S.W. (CP).—Snow is just an incidental to Victoria club skiers. On snowless days members carry skis, two ski-sticks or broom-handles, straw, paraffin wax, a rake and a tough hide. And results are just as good.

TOURIST SIGNS ARE ORDERED BY COMMITTEE

One 20 Feet Wide to Be Placed Near Yahk

5000 ROAD MAPS WILL BE PRINTED

Fund Will Be Put in the Board's Bank Account

An order was placed in Nelson Wednesday, by the joint tourist committee headed by Walter Hendricks, for a sign 20 feet wide and 10 feet high, to be placed between Yahk and the West Kootenay turnoff from the Kingsgate road. The sign will have three horizontal panels, the two upper combining to invite the beholder to "Visit Nelson and the Glorious Kootenay," while the lower will announce "Magnificent Lake and Mountain Scenery."

A smaller sign, five by 10 feet, to be set up just at the turnoff, will give the mileages from that point to Creston, Kootenay Lake Ferry, Nelson, Trail and Rossland respectively.

The contract includes erecting them, and A. S. (Pat) Aitken, the committee's publicity agent stationed on the Crow to contact tourists, will be on hand at the time and will locate them.

An adequate sign with a pointing hand will be placed at the Fraser's Landing crossroads to show the way to Nelson.

In a lengthy letter Mr. Aitken reported on numerous facts he had turned up since going over to Cranbrook Sunday to assume his duties, facts that showed he had covered a lot of ground very quickly. He also asked for more road maps, as the supply of 800 he had from the Nelson board of trade is already largely distributed in small lots.

It was decided to have 5000 more printed at once, the cost to be defrayed from the special fund just raised for this season's effort on the Crow.

This matter raised the question of the committee's relation to the board of trade. It is just a fortnight since the board decided to call into conference the hotel, garage, restaurant and oil men to consider the tourist situation in the light of reports that the Canadian traffic was being directed south via Kingsgate, and just nine days since the conference appointed the special committee, which the same day decided to canvass the business men for a $500 fund to finance placing an agent on the Crow for the balance of the season.

With $500 raised and more to come, a grant of $250 from the city, and a subscription of $5 just received from the Bide-a-Wee camp at Erickson, and with various contracts being entered into for printing, painting and other services, the committee decided it would be best to have the board of trade take care of the fund. So it will be deposited in a special account, to be expended by the joint committee, or its successor, for a tourist drive.

Water Is Below Six Foot Mark

Passing the six-foot stage Wednesday morning, the West Arm dropped .13 foot during the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at which time it stood at 5.91 feet above the low water mark. Tuesday's reading by the old Launch club gauge was 6.04 feet.

20,000 DEAD IN SPAIN

BORDEAUX, France, (AP)—The newspaper Petite Gironde said reliable estimates placed the number of deaths in Spain's civil war at more than 20,000.

Careful, Jimmy, It May Still Carry Dynamite

Jimmy Braddock repeatedly averred that a good right hand could beat Joe Louis, and here the heavyweight champion points as proof to Max Schmeling's explosive-laden fist which battered the Dark Angel into oblivion in 12 rounds. He may be saying "I told you so," though that will be cold comfort, since Braddock himself will be next to dodge that powerful right. When this pair meet it will be the duel of fistiana's prize comebacks.

HOT WEATHER SUPPLIES ARE MOVING FAST

Butter Two Cents Up; Staples Fairly Steady

WHEAT, SHORTS OFF $1.50 TON

Prices Jar Fittings to Go Up, Renew Supplies

Hot weather supplies command the attention of wholesale dealers as cooling drinks, cooked meats, picnic provisions and so on move out of the warehouses. Prices for the most part remain fairly steady. Butter was the one staple to advance in the past week, two advances of 1 cent each being recorded.

Republican, Black Tartarian and Lambert cherries are moving, though they have about reached their peak. In a short time the full extent of the damage done by mid-season rain will be known, for a complete checkup of shipments will be possible.

Bran, shorts and middlings, among the most spectacular performers on the wholesale price list latterly in response to heavy United States buying, steadied during the week and dropped back $1.50 per ton.

FEAR HIGH PRICES

Price of wheat today is at about the same level as in October last, but coarse grains are considerably higher. Considerable apprehension is felt as to winter prices of flour and other grain products in view of extensive damage to prairie crops during the heat wave. A great many farmers have been "burned out," it is reported.

Field tomatoes are arriving in quantity, and the space between the end of the hothouse crop and the beginning of the field crop has been bridged without excessive price advances such as had been feared. These are mainly from the Okanagan. The Okanagan is also supplying new celery in quantity.

JAR FITTINGS TO CLIMB

Chief among fruit arrivals at this time are currants, raspberries and gooseberries, with cherries getting fewer. Apricots are coming in from Washington.

Sugar and other preserving materials continue to move speedily from the wholesalers' warehouses, and it is expected supplies of wide mouth jars will be short. Threatened shortage of fittings has been overcome by bringing in additional supplies but prices will be higher.

Advance in canned tomatoes is expected, since the pack will probably not be as heavy as in previous years. Pork and bean prices are higher.

There is a strong market for strawberry jam, the price having advanced twice since the new pack.

Carlot arrivals included sugar, canned milk, cereals, groceries, salt and oranges.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday July 4 at 1:30 o'clock in St. Lukes Anglican church, Broadview, Sask., when Hilda Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Frost, became the bride of Donald Albert Edwards of Nelson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edwards of Broadview. The church, of which the bride had been organist for a number of years, was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Gollmer of Outlook, Sask., recently of Broadview. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" played by the groom's mother. She looked lovely in a gown of imported ivory lace. Over it she wore a jacket of lace with wrist length sleeves and ending in a short train. Her veil of embroidered white silk net was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses and Lilies of the Valley. Her sister, Miss Winnifred Frost was bridesmaid. She wore a dress of pale blue organza appliqued in pale pink and with it a hat of pale pink mohair and long matching lace gloves. Her bouquet was of pink gladioli. The groom's brother Chris Edwards, was best man. A buffet luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents to immediate relatives. After the reception the couple left amid showers of confetti for Banff and Lake Louise where they spent their honeymoon. For going away Mrs. Edwards chose an ensemble of pink silk crepe. WARRINGTON, England (CP).—Henry Berry, 27, professional rugby player with Streatham and Mitcham, died the other day after being kicked in the mouth during a game.

CRESTON W.I. GETS CHECKS

CRESTON, B. C.—Creston and District Women's institute's July meeting was at the home of Mrs. James Cook Friday. In the absence of both the president and vice-president, the chair was taken by Mrs. H. W. MacLaren. Fourteen members and one visitor were present.

Correspondence included checks from school, West Creston and Boswell, also a promise of $5 from the trustees at Erickson. This is prize money for the school fair.

There was an account from the house matron of the School for Deaf and Blind of money expended by the Women's Institute on a local girl attending.

A letter from Robson institute regarding a Union Library at Nelson was again tabled, due the absence of the library secretary.

The Women's institute Bulletin No. 3 was read, giving a list of B. C. institutes subscribing to transportation fund. Also a paragraph from London, England, Weekly Times, regarding the twentieth annual meeting of the England Women's institute at Albert Hall, London, when Sir John Carr addressed 7000 members. There are 300,000 women's institute members in England.

Regarding a delegate to provincial conference in Vancouver in August, Mrs. J. E. Johnston will represent Creston.

Discussion took place as to date of school fair but no decision was reached.

As to whether institute will undertake the clothing of a local girl attending deaf and blind school will be decided at the August meeting.

The tea hostesses were Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Hayes. Tea collection showed improvement over June meeting. The August meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Hayes, assisted by Mrs. Cherrington.

Bride-Elect Is Shower Guest

GRAND FORKS, B. C.—Honoring Miss Winnifred Lightfoot, a bride-elect, Mrs. Herbert Clark and Mrs. Basil Flynn entertained at a delightful shower at the Clark home. No. 2
Puffy Omelet With Tomato Sauce
Parsley Potatoes Berry Pie
Tea

No. 3
Hamburg Steak Smothered in Onion
Boiled Potatoes
Lettuce With Thousand Island Dressing
Spicy Cup Cakes Tea or Coffee

These three very simple menus are suggested for dinners for hot weather. They do not require much work in preparation, and are easy to digest when the appetite may lag. The last is a little bit more elaborate than the others, you will note, but all three are easy to prepare and economical.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Salmon Salad.—One can salmon drained from oil and flaked, one cup diced celery, eight or ten olives, chopped; one sour pickle. Mix, season with salt and pepper. Serve with mayonnaise on lettuce leaves.

Puffy Omelet—Four eggs, one-half teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, two teaspoons baking powder, one tablespoon cornstarch or flour, one-half cup milk or half milk and half water. Separate eggs; mix salt, pepper, baking powder, cornstarch and milk with yolks of eggs. Beat whites until light though not dry, and mix in well with yolks. Put into greased, hot frying pan and cook slowly until well puffed up. Dry out in oven; fold over in half and serve immediately in hot platter.

Tomato Sauce—Three slices bacon cut into small pieces, one slice onion, chopped; two tablespoons flour, one and one-half cups strained tomatoes, one tablespoon chopped green peppers, one-half teaspoon salt, few gratings nutmeg, cayenne. Put bacon into saucepan, add onion and brown slightly. Add flour, tomatoes which have been heated, and stir until thick and smooth. Add seasoning and peppers.

Spicy Cup Cakes—Two cups raisins, two cups water, one-half cup butter or other shortening, one and a half cups sugar, two eggs, two and one-half cups sifted cake flour, one-half teaspoon cloves, one teaspoons nutmeg, two teaspoons cinnamon, one teaspoon salt, two and one-half teaspoons baking powder, one cup nut meats. Wash the raisins, then cover with the two cups of water and simmer gently for 15 minutes. Drain and cool them, saving the water, which should amount to one cupful. Add cold water to make a full cup if there is less. Cream the shortening and sugar, and add the well beaten eggs. Sift the flour once before measuring, then sift it with the baking powder, spices and salt. Sprinkle two tablespoons of the flour mixture over the drained raisins, and add the remaining flour to the creamed mixture, alternating with the raisin water. Finally add the raisins and nutmeats. Bake in well greased and floured muffin pans for 25 or 30 minutes. Makes two dozen cakes.

THE SMITHS STILL LEADERS

The late Adolph Ochs of the New York Times was the Maecenas for an undertaking which is now rapidly approaching completion and the value of which was seen in its very earliest stages. We refer to the great Dictionary of American Biography which has now reached its eighteenth volume and will probably be completed in the next two volumes. England set a precedent for such an undertaking by the production of the Dictionary of National Biography, more familiarly known as the D. N. B., and also set a high standard for any similar undertaking. The American work is characterized by a more sprightly style; indeed, one may browse with great pleasure in any volume opened at random for here not only the commonly recognized important figures appear but also many names that have not usually been thought of as historic.

When a new city directory appears there is always interest in seeing how many Smiths appear and similarly it is not without interest to find that beginning with Abby Hadassah Smith and continuing to Xanthus Russel Smith there are no less than 151 members of the famous tribe who have made the pages, while there are also eight Smyths and two Schmidts which are but variants to the more common name. Thus there is ample documentation provided for Arthur Guiterman's familiar lines:

In countless tasks they've proved their pith,—
The tribe denominated Smith;
They've stood their ground and have not quailed,
Though White and Robinson have failed.
I would not dim the fair renown
Of Messrs. Johnson, Jones and Brown.
But when I count the kin and kith
Who bear the honored name of Smith,
I know, with Lincoln, God must love them,
Because he made so many of them.

It is a wonderfully varied picture of American life that is presented in even a single volume of this great work. This latest volume tells of William H. Taft, president of the United States and chief justice of the supreme court. It tells also of Tom Thumb, the famous dwarf who was one of the greatest circus features that P. T. Barnum ever presented to the public. Roger Brock Taney, who gave the Dred Scott decision in 1857, one of the preludes to the Civil War, is here along with the great Indian Chieftain Tecumseh. The Shermans, soldier and statesman, Joseph Smith, founder of the Mormon church, Leland Stanford, railroad builder and university benefactor, and a host of others including some of the "bad men" of the frontier period, appear in the volume.

Some of these days we may do something of this kind for Canada. Mr. Stewart Wallace's Dictionary of Canadian Biography does not attempt the detailed sketches which will the English and American works but provides only the barest details, with some reference to sources of information. Various types of Who's Who have also appeared and are still appearing but none of them are comprehensive, though the material that we have for such a dictionary is of the most interesting and challenging variety.

A two-hundred-year-old milestone on the Potsdam road in Germany, the circular part of which forms a sundial, has been moved to a Berlin museum and a replica set up in its place.

This heat situation is beginning to get on my nerves. Daily the sky assumes its blue and this gives way to starry skies at night. Outside of a few suggestions there hasn't been a cloud in the skies for days. Old Sol just sits up there and beats down upon the pavements, the houses and the particular office roof under which I labor. I try to smile.

Someone asks, "How do you like the heat?" I reply "It's fine," all the time knowing I am telling a great big untruth. But why do people ask such foolish questions on days like this?

This heat lowers one's vitality. It is hard to get down to work. It is nearly killing me to think straight and attempt to write this balogna for you people to read.

Personally I think there should be a ban on all columns during hot weather. Of course we have some things to be thankful for. We should be thankful it is no hotter. We might be on the Sahara desert, but thank goodness we are not. Oh, heck, if this heat keeps up another day or two I will have run out of ideas for columns dealing with the heat. Boy—take this copy before I swoon!

CONTRACT BRIDGE

By E. V. SHEPARD
"Teacher of Teachers"

Here is a very interesting hand that appeared in the regular Monday duplicate at the Knickerbocker Whist club, intended only for experts, and limited to an eight-table Howell movement. A small slam may be made either at spades or clubs, but the best call of all is 6 No Trumps, played by North, where I sat, as an automatic grand slam should be made for top score. The heart suit invariably was led, regardless of the final call, or which player made the opening lead.

North: ♠ K 10 ♥ A K 2 ♦ K J 10 ♣ J 10 9 5 3
West: ♠ J 8 6 4 ♥ J 10 9 5 ♦ 7 4 3 2 ♣ 7
East: ♠ 7 3 ♥ Q 8 6 4 ♦ Q 8 6 ♣ K 6 4 2
South: ♠ A Q 9 5 2 ♥ 7 3 ♦ A 9 5 ♣ A Q 8

At our table 6 Spades was doubled by West, who expected to win a trump trick, definitely locating four or five trumps to the J. Even if he held the missing K of clubs he would not double on that honor, as I had made an opening bid of 1 Club, while neither red suit had been called. Either at spades or no trumps the spade suit had to be played abnormally, to capture the missing honor.

Try first the automatic grand slam. It is interesting. The contract is 6 No Trumps by North. The opening lead is the 4 of hearts. West will show possession of the J and 10 by forcing declarer's K, through play of the 9. Lead the J of clubs. East will refuse to cover. Lead a low club. Win with dummy's Q. West will show out, making it impossible to capture the K. Lead a low spade. Finesse the 10. Lead the K of spades. Enter dummy with its Ace of clubs. West had best let go his lowest heart. Lead dummy's Ace and Q of spades, picking up West's J. Discard declarer's lowest heart and lowest club. East can let go two hearts.

Now for the squeeze. Lead the last spade from dummy. Let go declarer's 10 of diamonds. Keep the 10 of clubs, to make East keep his K so that the Q of diamonds may be picked up, if he happened to hold it. East will let go his last heart, which he would not do unless he knew his partner could stop that suit. Everyone now is down to his last four cards, as shown on diagram below.

North: ♠ A ♦ K J ♣ 10
West: ♥ J ♦ 7 4 3
East: ♦ Q 8 6 ♣ K
South: ♥ 3 ♦ A 9 5

Lead the heart from dummy. Win with declarer's Ace. East must hold his good club, forcing him to discard his lowest diamond. Lead the K of diamonds. East plays his 3. Still declarer is not sure which defender has the Q. Unless the Q appears on the next lead declarer will put up dummy'ce Ace, insuring the small slam. When dummy's last diamond is led, East has to play the Q. The Ace wins, and dummy's 9 completes the grand slam, which of course, could not be bid.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

During the meeting recently of the American Medical association, there was an all-afternoon discussion among the obstetricians of the subject of analgesia in labor—or, in plain words, methods of lessening the pains of childbirth.

From the widespread and lengthy report of this discussion, which appeared in newspapers and especially weekly magazines, the impression might easily be gained that American doctors had never heard of any such problem.

The fact is that this is his regular daily routine.

"The first question a woman wants to ask, after it is certain she is going to have a baby, is about making the delivery comfortable," said a good, sound average American doctor to me the day after the discussion (and that means about the best type of practicing physician in the world). "We sit down and talk about it at least an hour. I have to know the subject in all its aspects."

At the A. M. A. meeting most of the excitement was caused by the paper of Dr. Gertrude Nielsen, who said that women should not be deprived of the experience of the pains of childbirth; and that the use of analgesics would do great damage to her personality. "The pains of childbirth have been greatly exaggerated in the minds of American womep."

Other obstetricians pointed out what is perfectly true, that any analgesic yet known is likely to delay the labor and depress the respiratory function of the new-born baby.

Yet, I do not believe that the medical profession would be willing to have the idea get abroad that they do not know of comparatively safe and efficient means for such purposes.

SUCCESS OF MEANS DISCUSSED

A careful reading of the transactions of that afternoon session would show that most of the time was taken up with a discussion of the success of such means. The barbiturate group of hypnotics, and ether, olive oil rectal injections and paraldehyde combinations are used by conservative men with good results.

The amount of pain there is in childbirth depends on circumstances. Women with five or six children have told me that it didn't hurt at all—at least not enough to make a fuss about it. Other women are very sensitive to pain, and the experience is frightening. I have seen some births myself, and I must say I don't think the mothers get exactly a whale of a lot of fun out of it.

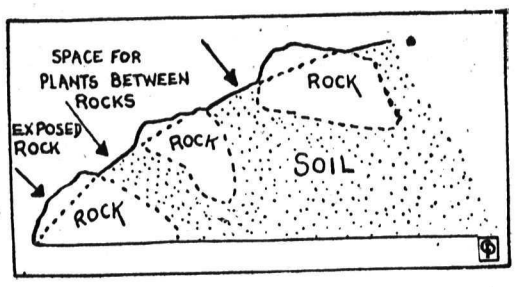
For such as need it, properly selected analgesics are available, and under ordinary economic conditions such as are enjoyed by readers of this newspaper are very competently administered.

The idea that the pains of childbirth—the curse of Eve—are a divine command and that it is blasphemous to interfere is an old one, and James Y. Simpson, who introduced the use of cholorform in labor, was hounded on that score. It may be of interest to recall that it was a lady by the name of Queen Victoria who broke the prejudice when she employed John Snow, the first professional anesthetist, to attend her at the births of Prince Leopold (1853) and Princess Beatrice (1857). And Queen Victoria was generally considered to be a godly woman.

TODAY'S GARDEN-GRAPH

By DEAN HALLIDAY

Copyright, 1936, Central Press Association, Inc.



ROCK BOTTOM FACTS ABOUT A ROCK GARDEN

When making a rock garden, do not construct one that resembles a pudding with stones stuck on like raisins. In a properly and permanently constructed rock garden, the stone work underground is equally as important as that which shows above the surface. Avoid, also, a jumbled mass of stones with little soil in between them.

In placing rocks in a rock garden bury at least two-thirds of each rock under ground, as shown in the above Garden-Graph. In no other way can you be certain that the rocks are permanently placed. Few amateur gardeners take the trouble to follow this important method of making a rock garden.

Rocks in a rock garden act as foils or frames for the plants. The rocks also help to hold moisture for the benefit of the plants.

Vernon street at the corner of Josephine presented a busy appearance as the scene of the public market yesterday morning. In spite of the showers early in the day a large crowd assembled and the ranchers had no difficulty in disposing of their stocks of fruit, vegetables, meats and dairy produce. Spring chickens were in good demand, there being a splendid showing of young birds just right for broiling. These brought 50 cents each. Large quantities of raspberries were on display and local honey made its first appearance.

JEWS ENTITLED TO PALESTINE, SAYS F. W. NASH

The Editor, Nelson Daily News:

Sir—The editorial re Palestine Riots in your issue of July 7, leads me to offer a few remarks together with citations from Scripture. The account in Genesis of the origin of both Jews and Arabs is very interesting. Both peoples are descended from Abram, later Abraham. Ishmael, ancestor of the Arabs, was the son of Abram by his concubine, Hagar, an Egyptian women. The Jews were descended from Isaac, son of his wife, Sarai, the one of whom it was said, "In Isaac shall thy seed be called."

God led Abram, then called Abraham, to Canaan and give him this promise: "All the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed forever." Now today who are the seed of Abraham to whom this promise was given?

For 10 years Abram wandered in Canaan, a childless old man, and his faith in God faltered, and at the suggestion of Sarai his wife, he took her maid, Hagar, to wife, and Ishmael was born from whom the Arabs are descended.

For 15 years longer Abram's faith was tried before Isaac, the son of promise, was born to his lawful wife, Sarai.

Isaac and not Ishmael is the lawful son of Abraham to whom the promise was made, for it was said, "In Isaac shall thy seed be called." Now the Israelites, the descendants of Isaac through his son Jacob, possessed the land of Canaan for about a thousand years, while the children of Ishmael wandered in the deserts of Arabia. Then, because of the sin of the Israelites, they were driven out of the land and scattered all over the world, as we read in Jeremiah, "Thus saith the Lord of Hosts—I will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them."

This is a graphic picture of the Jewish race during the last two thousand years, and true yet. But the prophet Jeremiah also wrote, "For lo, the days come, saith the Lord, that I will bring again the captivity of my people, Israel and Judah, saith the Lord; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it."

The Prophet Ezekiel said also: "I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel." And in Amos I read "I will bring again the captivity of my people, Israel, and they shall build the waste cities and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the friut of them; and I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the Lord, thy God."

This last prophecy is being fulfilled now by the Jews who are going back to Palestine. Now what right have the Arabs to the land? They have been in possession of it for centuries past while the Israelites, now represented by the Jews, were scattered among all nations. Many people think that the long possession of Canaan, or Palestine, by the Arabs gives them the best right to the land, but what use have they made of it?

That land was described as flowing with "milk and honey" and "the glory of all lands" but they turned it into a desert while they had it in possession. Now the Jews, who have been going back there for some years past, are planting vineyards, and orchards, and gardens, and reclaiming the wast lands, and building the ruined cities, and the Arabs are trying to drive them out. It should be very interesting to any Bible student to watch now what is going on in Palestine.

I think that Mussolini and the Pope are now fishing in the troubled waters of Palestine for their own ends but watch the outcome.

F. W. NASH.

Duce's Daughter Is Ill

An official government communique from Rome announced the grave illness of little Anna Maria Mussolini (pictured above with her pet), six-year-old daughter, and youngest child, of Il Duce Benito Mussolini. The child lies on her sickbed in Mussolini's summer home, the Villa Braschi, in Tivoli. Her illness is described as acute infantile paralysis.

Cubs Default to Trail Beavers

Team of Cubs and Giants Lose

TRAIL, B.C., July 22.—After a long interim in the Trail city Bantam Baseball league, a scheduled game Wednesday afternoon was defaulted by Cubs to Beavers, to put the latter in top position in the loop. Harry Rothery, Cub coach and manager, was unable to field a team as the majority of his lads were away on holidays.

However, Beavers played a squad comprised of a few Cubs and the remainder of Giants and handed them a 6-1 defeat in a battle that was heads-up baseball throughout.

Both chuckers held their opponents to a few hits, the only large blows being collected by Wolfe and Mathews of the Beavers, who poled out a triple and double, respectively.

Score by innings:

Beavers	301 002x— 6
Cubs-Giants	000 001 0— 1

Teams were:

Beavers—Saprunoff p, Simpson c, Mathews 1b, LeDuc 2b, Erickson 3b, Bilesky ss, Edmunds lf, Price cf, T. Wolfe rf.

Cubs-Giants—Buna p, Monaldi c, Borsato 1b, Dwyer 2b, Angerilli 3b, A. Tognotti ss, Battistella lf, Balano cf, McLeod rf.

Boys Hope Hand Out Same Stuff as Gave Trail

Nelson boxla team goes to Rossland tonight to continue the West Kootenay league war. After their success against Trail the locals are more than anxious to do the same thing with Rossland, and in view of the reversals which have featured league games lately, they are quite likely to turn in a surprise. The team is almost the same as that which beat Trail, with Wick substituting for Cherrington on defence.

The boys will leave by private cars from the Civic Centre arena about 5 o'clock.

The lineup will be: Gibbons, goal; Atwell, Horswill, Smiley and Wick, defence; Bishop and Fleet, rovers; DesBrisay and Bonneville, centres; Carr and DeVoin, Cooper and Paterson, forwards.

Deer Park Plays Trail on Sunday

Strengthened Visitors Expected to Put Up Tough Battle

TRAIL, B.C., July 22.—The Deer Park baseball team will make its second visit to Trail Sunday to engage in another Eastern Washington league fixture with the local nine.

H. R. "Hank" Lauriente, manager of the Trail team, stated Wednesday that although Trail took Deer Park into camp easily on their last trip here, they have strengthened considerably since then and will be a tough crew to beat.

Since their defeat in Trail, Deer Park has won three games from Ritzville and taken two from Medical Lake, the crew that Trail defeated last Sunday in an uphill struggle.

On the mound in those last five victorious games was Christie, who is gaining a reputation for himself as a difficult pitcher to hit.

Deer Park has a man named Lowen on first and Bud Guter at second, who are recent additions to the squad. Si Hinkle, who caught for Occidental Life team that beat Trail by a 1-0 score last year, will be behind the plate for the visitors. Brown in the outfield is another new recruit and all have an enviable batting average.

Hank is not positive of his lineup for Sunday but stated that Bogstie would be slated for mound duty.

Predict Win for Britain in Tennis

LONDON, July 22 (AP).—With Adrian Quist, Australian champion, injured and possibly unable to play, experts tonight predicted a 4-1 victory for Great Britain in her defence of the international tennis prize—the Davis cup—against Australia starting Saturday.

The decision whether Quist, who injured his foot against Gotfried von Cramm of Germany in the inter-zone final last Saturday, will play has not been made. Earlier this week his physician ordered Quist to take a 10-day rest.

Cricket Scores

LONDON, July 22 (CP cable).—Closing scores of English first-class cricket matches, started today, follow:

Worcestershire 130 (Daley six for 47, Gover four for 41); Surrey 210 runs for three wickets (Squires 99); at the Oval.

Derbyshire 216 (Worthington 135); Yorkshire 102 for four; at Sheffield.

Warwickshire 108 (Todd six for 35); Kent 140; at Maidstone.

Glamorgan 231; Nottinghamshire 95 for one; at Nottingham.

Sussex 304 (Melville 110; Nichols five for 108); Essex 74 for four; at Ilford.

Middlesex 126 (Boyes four for 37); and 28 runs for no wickets; Hampshire 112; at Bournemouth.

Lancashire 278 for two (Iddon 92, not out, Paynter 71, not out, Hopwood 67); vs Gloucestershire; at Bristol.

BLIND GIRLS WIN

LONDON (CP). — A blind girls foursome defeated a sighted crew in a mile race at the Women's Amateur Rowing association regatta at Hammersmith recently. It was the first time a sightless boat won using sliding seats.

OLYMPIC HOOPERS LOSE BALL IN OCEAN

ON THE WAY TO THE OLYMPICS, Aboard S.S. Duchess of Bedford, July 22 (CP).—Canadian Olympic basketball players had their first workout aboard ship today and Coach Gordie Fuller quickly decided it would be the last until they reach Berlin. After the players had chased the ball around the rain-washed deck for a few minutes it bounced overboard and the practice was over.

Captains for the men's and women's track teams were elected today. Betty Taylor, the Hamilton hurdler, will captain the girl's team and Dr. Phil Edwards, the colored Montreal 800-metre man, will head the men's division.

BANKERS OUT OF SOFTBALL

Albert (Major) Wallach, manager of the Bankers' Men's Softball club, announced Tuesday that, due to the difficulty of fielding a full team, and with the transfer of George Rossington to the Woodcutters, the club was dropping out of further competition in the league, and would default its scheduled game with the Kootenay Valley team Thursday. In the schedule for the balance of the season only six teams will figure.

An effort is being made to get the Trinity Men's club and the B.C. Telephone club to play a league game this evening, but no definite statement was issued last night as to whether the game would be played today or not. The Bugle Band and Safeways are scheduled to play Friday at the Junior High school and the B.C. Telephones will play the Woodcutters at the recreation grounds Monday.

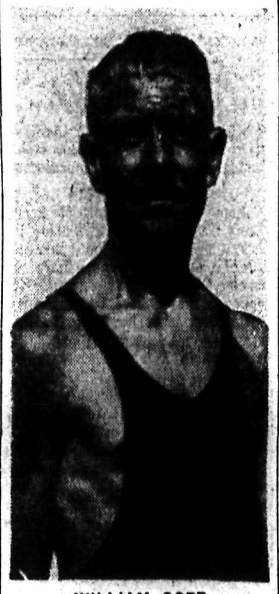
Swimming Now Ideal declares Mr. Gopp, Trail



WILLIAM GOPP

TRAIL, B.C., July 22—"I have never enjoyed so wonderful swimming, the weather is ideal." These were remarks of William Gopp, noted Trail aquarian who will be 66 years of age on December 8 this year, "I am looking forward to that day," he said, "as I compare my swimming ability at that time with previous years."

The other day Mr. Gopp was swimming in Jubilee pool when unbeknown to him, his wife was sitting on the bleachers watching the youngsters and incidently espied her husband. After he recognized Mrs. Gopp she stated she believed her husband was getting younger every day.

Mr. Gopp is another Trailite who is living in keen anticipation of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting company employees' picnic at Nelson on July 25 when he has a whole day to splash around in the waters of Kootenay lake.

"I would like to see the picnic committee sponsor a swimming race for old men—say, 50 or over—so there could be some sport for everyone to enter. A race across the lake would be fine for men of that age." he said with a gesture of the hand.

WORTHINGTON IN TEST CRICKET

LONDON, July 22 (CP cable).—Thomas Worthington, Derbyshire professional, has been chosen to line up with England in the second test cricket match of the year against India at Manchester, July 25. He takes the place of Maurice Leyland, Yorkshire batsman, who was injured yesterday in a game with Nottinghamshire. The 31-year-old star played for England in the four tests against New Zealand last winter in the Antipodes.

GOLF

by ALEX MORRISON

Putting surfaces vary as to speed. This variance can exist on one course, certainly there is bound to be quite a difference between the greens of a number of courses.

Few players are equipped to meet this change of speed. A heavy putter is all right for slow, heavy greens, but it is a dangerous club on thin, fast greens.

Slick putting surfaces require delicate strokes, the kind that can be made only with a light club.

Every player should carry two putters in his bag, one of medium weight for the slower greens and a lighter one for the fast surfaces. The heavier putter can be one of the aluminum type.

Even playing over the same course you'll find that a change of putters will improve your putting. Of course, you can use your old favorite in such a way that it really serves as two clubs by taking a shorter hold.

LOVELY SETTING AT THE BAYONNE

45 Men but Only Four Women; Many Flowers

KIMBERLEY, B. C.—Is is interesting to live on a mountain top in the woods? Here are a few lines from Mrs. A. Mennie at the Bayonne mine, 24 miles from Tye:

"There are 45 men at work here now but only four women have come in. We are still in tents but will soon have cabins. The country about us is beautiful. I never saw so many wild flowers. All the ones I have ever known are here and so many new ones. The Indian Paint Brush vividly colored and has perfume.

One evening after work my man and I put the kiddies to bed and walked to the top of the mountain, an hour's walk. We were rewarded with the most glorious view, 70 miles in every direction and all mountain tops. Coming down there was a gorgeous sunset, a canopy of changing, glowing color and close above and around us.

"So many of our friends are here from Camborne and Kimberley that we are a community and a very happy one. I love it here and it will be better still when more wives of our friends come in.

"Deer and bear are plentiful."

Style Leader

According to stylists, Lucille Ball, youthful contract-player, is the best-dressed girl in Hollywood. This is the first time that such an appellation has not been hung on a feminine player of stellar rating. Miss Ball is shown on the studio lot wearing a smart dress of "tete de negre" crepe splashed with a nasturtium yellow floral print. Even her sailor hat of chocolate brown toyo straw has an extra touch of perkiness about it, which shows her to be one of those fortunate young women who know how to wear hats.

CHAPTER 32

Joan forgot to think of herself Long after the last cadence of Julian's voice was silent, his last simple statement was there between them with its dramatic import of his quiet acceptance of a thing that must have been a tragedy.

"I fell in love too late!" he had said.

Joan wanted to comfort him, to voice the sweet sorrow his words had stirred within her. Her own loss of love, her belief that she would never again experience an emotion so tender receded before the wave of sympathy she felt toward him. She was sorry in her heart for the woman who could not have, or did not want Julian's love. His cup should have been brimming over.

"I'm sorry," she said, touching his hand and his heart.

"It's all right," he said, and then they talked of other things.

What manner of woman could she have been? Perhaps she was already married, this woman that Julian loved. Perhaps even now she grieved for what could not be. Whoever she was and wherever she might be. Joan found herself thinking of her in the days that followed. And in her own heart she could understand why Julian did not want her to marry and leave him because she suffered a feeling of loss at the thought that Julian might have married the woman he loved and so the intimate, delicate relationship between them—for all that it was employer and employee however friendly—might not be completely full.

Had that relationship been of a different sort, had Joan not lived beneath the same roof with Julian and if their work had been of a nature less dramatic, their destinies might have been clarified to both of them and each might have spared the other pain. But that was not to be.

Thinking of Donald, Joan was sometimes to wish that she could run away, that he had never asked her to marry him, that he had not tempted her with an escape from a lonely life. For Donald did tempt her; he wooed her in the little ways that make strong bonds of silken threads. He sent her white lilacs that made her think of earlier springs when she had discovered the quickening of life in her first love for Win. Because it was her first love, she clung to the belief that it was the greatest, not knowing that a womans heart is often capable of many deeper loves.

He sent her a biography she had spoken of once and forgotten. He took her to indoor polo matches and outdoor art exhibits. He took her to the opera and to marionette shows. He bought her an absurd little toy kitten and pointed out the pear-shaped daimond he said he wanted to buy for her the minute that she would permit to do so.

And all the while that he was doing the little things that made her love him, she was facing the increasing knowledge that she was not in love with him, that she wanted to keep this forever as a friendship and not as a marriage. Yet she did not dare tell him that. She was afraid to give up something that made her happy.

Suppose that Julian were to go away, to want to get another secretary? All manner of vague suppositions suggested themselves to her. She couldn't go back to teaching school and ever be happy again. As for another secretarial job, where else could she ever be happy?

She needed Donald and Donald needed her, else why should he ask her to marry him.

"Why do you want to marry me?" she asked him.

"Maybe, I'm in love with you," he answered. "But of course you know I don't believe very much in that sort of thing. If being proud to be with you, being contented in your company, if trying to think of things to do to make you happy, is being in love, then I guess I am."

If that were all there was to it, Joan thought perhaps she was in love with—the name that came into her mind was not Donald's.

"Joan you aren't the type of girl who would keep a man dangling. Why can't you tell me that you'll marry me? You haven't said 'yes' and you haven't said 'no,' not that I shall take the latter. I warn you I shall break down your resistance.'

"Donald, there isn't any point in my saying 'yes' now. You are not yet free. I wish, if there were any chance of it, that you and Linda might work it out together and be happy. She loved you one time and I don't believe that love ever dies. Isn't there any chance of that?"

"Not the slightest. You're changing the subject, young woman, but if you don't want to talk about it, shall we discuss the Russian ballet or must I listen to the latest news about your job? Detestable thing!"

"It's not at all detestable, Mr. Newberry. It's grand! It's getting very exciting because Jul—Mr. Sloane is starting a great play. How wonderful it must be to have some one thing you want terribly to do and then to be doing it!"

"Marrying you is the one thing I want to do."

Joan smiled at him and went on, "That's what Mr. Sloane wants to do. Oh, I didn't mean marrying me. I meant . . ."

"Why doesn't he?"

"Doesnt want to marry me?" Joan caught her breath. "Good heavens, Donald, why should he? I'm not his kind at all."

"I don't know why he hasn't proposed long ago. Lucky dog, to have you at his beck and call, seeing you every day, having you talk about him as though he were something or someone who lives on a different plane from mere mortals. Does he know how you feel about him?"

"That I'm a hero-worshiper?" she inquired tartly. "No. Speaking of mere mortals, the title of his new play is 'Mortal on Olympus.' He's writing it and going to cast and produce it himself. Think how marvelous that will be!"

"Extraordinary!" he said and dismissed the subject.

So much for Donald. Joan was relieved that the situation did not call for an immediate answer or action. She tucked the whole thing away in the back of her mind and applied herself to her job. There would be time enough to meet that when the play was finished and in the theater. Donald would dance attendance on her, of that she was now certain. Her very indifference to the outcome was the strongest tie with which she could bind him.

Sometimes she wondered if she would have lost Win had he not been so sure of her. He always knew that she was waiting for him and he had though it unimportant. Joan had learned another valuable lesson that did her no good. The taste was the taste of ashes and knowledge was without power.

Fortunately Joan had little time to ponder on her problems and when she laid her tired head on her pillow at night, it was to lose herself in dreamless slumber. For Julian had finished his play and it was going into production.

It was not yet completely cast but the sets were in the process of design and all the pageantry that was required was now a fantastic industry. Julian was all over New York and his library was a madhouse.

Joan came into it to find Sheila in silver foxes and tears one late afternoon.

"Where is Julian?" she demanded hysterically.

"I'll call him," Joan said and did.

"My dear!" Julian gathered Sheila into his arms and petted her as though she were a child. He took her hat off and laid her furs aside.

Joan went out very quietly.

Why hadn't she known! She had once believed that Sheila True was the woman that Julian loved. Now Sheila was going to marry Pierre Duran. She was the woman that Julian had "fallen in love with too late."

Creston Hospital Is Busier

CRESTON, B. C.,—The attendance was light at the July meeting of Creston Valley Hospital association directors, which was in charge of the vice-president, G. Sinclair, in the absence of the president, Frank V. Staples.

The secretary's report showed 402 hospital days, compared to 588 in May, and 343 in June, 1935. Figures for the half-year ending June 30 showed continued growth of hospital service, there being 2842 hospital days so far in 1936, as contrasted with 2033 in the same period in 1935.

The meeting passed votes of thanks for gifts to Canyon, Erickson and Creston Women's hospital auxiliaries, Mrs. J. G. Abbott, H. H. Gobbett, Mrs. Garfield, L. T. Leveque and J. W. Robinson.

One change in the staff is noted, Miss Richmond of Cranbrook replacing Miss Broley, who resigned her position in view of her approaching marriage. The housekeeper, Miss Rentz is on vacation, and her place is taken by Mrs. G. A. M. Young.

Market and Mining News

CORN SMASHES SEASON'S HIGH

CHICAGO, July 22 (AP)—In a buying stampede late today corn smashed the season's high price record for July and September contracts, the market skyrocketing 3¾ cents a bushel.

Special government forecasts that a new wave of heat would spread in the corn belt tomorrow, with temperatures up to 105 degrees, led to sudden rushes to purchase corn futures on a big scale.

Corn closed strong at nearly the day's top point 1 cent to 3½ cents above yesterday's finish, July 94¾, September 90⅝-91, Dec. 82⅝-⅞, wheat ⅛-¾ up, July 104¾, September 104-104⅛, December 104⅝-¾, oats at ¼ decline to ½ advance, September 37¼-⅜, and rye showing ½ to 1 cent bulge, September 71½. In provisions, the result varied from 7 cents setback to an equal gain.

June Exports Up

OTTAWA, July 22 (CP)—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics today reported net exports for June as valued at $2,558,256 compared with $2,146,958 in June last year. Bacon and hams shipped to the United Kingdom made up the bulk of the exports.

N.Y. LOWER

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP).—The stock market stuttered today after its recent lengthy bullish oration.

With the list climbing, barring only a slight interruption since July 8, some traders became a bit nervous and decided that profit taking discretion probably was wiser at the moment than stand-pat valor.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off .4 of a point at 67.3, against an advance yesterday of .5. Transfers totalled 1,453,350 shares, compared with 1,582,940 in the preceding session.

Wheat Consumption on Increase

LONDON, July 22 (CP cable).—The international wheat advisory committee, established by the world wheat conference in 1933, devoted itself in the course of its eighth session today to the problem of increasing wheat consumption.

Before it was a report from the secretariat forecasting an upward jump in world net exports of wheat flour for the 1936-37 season.

F. L. McDougall presided at the meeting at which 19 countries are represented, including Canada, the United States and Argentina, three of the biggest wheat-producing countries.

GOVERNMENT BONDS UP

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP).—U.S. government and high grade corporate bonds displayed independent strength in the listed market today while issues that usually reflect stock trends were a shade lower. Foreign dollar bonds did little either way. Cuban 5½s were ⅛ higher at 47⅝ and Italian 7s and Poland 7s edged forward for small gains. Norway 6s dropped about a point.

HONEY YIELD LOWER

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C., July 22 (CP).—Heavy spring rains and floods in the Fraser Valley have resulted in a scarcity of clover, dandelion, thistle and other blossoms and will seriously curtail this season's honey yield, bee-keepers announce. The average honey yield in British Columbia is around 750 tons and it is estimated this figure will be cut by approximately 40 per cent this year.

The Second Byrd Antarctic Expedition brought back plant specimens from within 200 miles of the south pole.

INDUSTRIALS OFF

TORONTO, July 22 (CP).—Industrial stocks backed up on the Toronto exchange today under selling pressure and the softer influence of the Wall street board. Many individual listings finished with gains.

International Nickel lost ⅛ at 50⅞ and Brazilian Traction and C.P.R. were slightly lower. Consolidated Smelters gained a full point to 57 and Ford A was steady at 19¾.

VICTORIA, July 22 (CP).—Close to $10,000 in virgin gold washed from the streams of British Columbia, has been acquired by the provincial government in the last year under its new small purchase plan for placer miners, the department of mines estimated today.

U.S. DOLLAR STEADY

MONTREAL, July 22 (CP).—Leading currencies declined narrowly on Montreal foreign exchange today. Pound sterling lost ⅛ cent at $5.02 11-16 while the French franc eased .01 cent to 6.62 cents. The United States dollar was even at 1-16 premium.

$1,000,000 Star

So much faith has Charlie Chaplin in Paulette Goddard (above), beautiful actress who is said to be the comedian's wife, that he is willing to risk $1,000,000 in producing pictures of her. Charlie says she is "absolutely unique as a screen personality."

MONTREAL OFF

MONTREAL, July 22 (CP)—The stock market was influenced by weakness in Wall street late today and all but a few selected issues were jolted slightly in resultant selling. Volume decreased.

Lake of Woods preferred jumped four points to 147 following declaration of a dividend of $1.75 per share, payable Sept. 1, to stockholders of record Aug. 15. The common topped 26, new peak before closing up more than a point at 25. Ogilvie flour firmed slightly.

FOREIGN MONEY LOSES AT N.Y.

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP) — Leading foreign currencies continued under pressure today.

In addition to the Spanish situation, which further depressed the peseta despite official control measures, there were increased offerings of gold bloc currencies from the continent. The French franc lost .00⅝ of a cent, Dutch guilders yielded .05 of a cent and Swiss francs dropped .03½ of a cent. The pound sterling lost ¼ of a cent.

The Japanese yen steadied following the reopening of markets in Tokyo which were closed following rumors of an impending change in the exchange setup. The unit closed .02 of a cent higher. Dealings were limited.

The Canadian dollar extended its discount from 1-16 to 3-32 of one per cent.

WINNIPEG LOSES

WINNIPEG, July 22 (CP). — Wheat prices continued to sag on the Winnipeg grain exchange today as liberal selling broke through thin support. The decline came despite a bullish government crop report and unfavorable weather over most of the North American spring wheat belts.

Values closed ¾—⅞ cent lower, with July at 93¾, October 92¼—½ and December 91⅝ cents a bushel.

Export business was placed at 500,000 bushels.

MINES HIGHER

TORONTO, July 22 (CP).—Mining shares continued their advance today on the Toronto stock exchange with several issues posting new record highs in the good action.

Hard Rock advanced 30 cents to close at 3.25 after touching a new peak of 3.29. Chrenium made a 17-cent gain to 2.45 and O'Brien, Bidgood Kirkland, McWatters, Canadian Malartic Beattie were substantially higher.

Trail Legion Band Has Fine Program

One of Three Bands to Play at Picnic

TRAIL, B.C., July 22—Canadian Legion brass band, one of the three to travel to Nelson to provide music at the C.M. & S. company employees' picnic on Saturday, July 25 has arranged a fine program of varied selections which will be given under the baton of Conductor William Donnelly.

The program follows:

March, "Viva Birkinshaw" by Rimmer; overture, "Bohemian Girl" by Balfe; baritone solo by Arthur Barrett, "Gipsy's Warning" by Hartman; selection "Iolanthe" by Sullivan; Cornet duet by Bruce Forteath and William Thatcher, "Sandy and Jock" by Sutton; chorus "Comrades in Arms" by Adam; selection "Minstrel Memories" by Rimmer; anthem "To Thee, O Lord" by Leach; march "Lochnagar" by Hood; extras "Jessie's Dream", Old Comrades" and "Sliding Easy".

GOLD TRAIL GOLF STARTS TODAY

VANCOUVER, July 22 (CP).—If practice rounds are any criterion, Vancouver's golfing public is due to witness some par-busting performances tomorrow when some 90-odd professionals from all parts of the continent and a few smart British Columbia amateurs hit the opening of the evergreen gold trail over Shaughenessy Heights course in the Golden Jubilee $5,000 golf championship.

Will Discuss Laws for Busses, Trucks

OTTAWA, July 22 (CP)—Initiation of uniform laws throughout the Dominion for regulation of highway bus and truck traffic will be taken up at a meeting of Dominion and provincial government representatives later this summer, it was learned today. It is not anticipated, however, that any new laws dealing with this problem will be established until next year's sessions of provincial legislatures and the Dominion parliament.

DROWNED IN SLOUGH

VICTORIA, July 22 (CP).—Provincial police said today they had received a radio report that Lloyd Thomas, 19, of Terrace was drowned Tuesday night in Brauns Island slough. The body was recovered.

MORE ABOUT FOREST FIRES

There is no telephone connection with the fire area, which is on the road between Nelway and Columbia Gardens, but as there was no bad wind to deal with, so far as reported, quick results were hoped for. Under present conditions of high fire hazard, due to the extreme hot wave, the forest branch is acting to arrest every fire in its tracks.

The fire is in the same district as the Reeves-McDonald mine, but the latter is not threatened.

(By Canadian Press)

Forest fires blazed in Alberta Wednesday but fires that raged for nearly three weeks in northern Ontario were definitely checked or altogether extinguished by rains and forestry branch officials prepared to disband hundreds of hastily recruited fire-fighters.

No estimate of the Ontario loss has been made but the total is expected to reach at least several million dollars. The flames raced through valuable timber in the Algoma and Sudbury district and in northwestern Ontario.

No rain came to the relief of harassed Alberta, and fires burned with renewed fury. They raged in the southwest corner of the province, the west-central district and in the northwest. Extra men were rushed from Coalspur to fight flames along the Brazeau river, 100 miles southwest of Edmonton. Near Saunders, a blaze previously checked broke out with additional vigor.

A new fire roared over a wide front in the Flathead valley of British Columbia, on the border of Alberta. More than 100 men fought the flames. The nearby summer resort of Waterton National park was not thought to be endangered. Fires in the Jasper park area faded before the onslaught of fighters.

"There is so much smoke it is hard to tell what the exact situation is," officials said regarding a fire near Saunders, south of the Brazeau river blaze. The fire has been burning for 12 days, fought by 160 men.

PLEADS GUILTY ON CHECK CHARGES

VANCOUVER, July 22 (CP). — Charles Mulvey today pleaded guilty in police court to three charges of passing worthless checks and was remanded to Monday for sentence. The checks totalled $90.

The old psychological theory that reward helps learning apparently works: an experimenting educator reports that school children learn best when offered monetary rewards.

MORE ABOUT GIBRALTAR

Exploding shells menaced the British city. Residents and refugees were panicky. Splinters crashed at Europa, southern-most point of the rock; a "dud" plumped into the sea near a commercial coal hole; a shell blew apart high over the Catholic cathedral; shrapnel fell near the luxurious Rock hotel, high on the west face of Gibraltar.

After the last planes headed back across the straits to north Africa two chimneys and a roof garden on the hotel were found to have been badly damaged by exploding shells.

The warships, lying off the rebel strongholds of Algeciras and La Linea, trained guns on the bombarding planes as the fliers dodged low about the rock like swallows to escape the vicious fire.

The rebel planes roared over in two flights, the second group of four drawing the heaviest strafing. The aim of the gunners was poor, however, and none apparently was touched.

Fascist radio broadcast from Seville, picked up in Lisbon, Portugal, said rebel planes had sunk three loyal warships off Cadiz. The ships were bombarding the town, the broadcast said.

LA LINA RECAPTURED

Copyright 1936, Havas News Agency

MADRID, July 22 (CP-Havas).—The Spanish government, fighting desperately on all fronts to prevent rebel troops from reaching this capital, announced tonight loyal forces had recaptured La Lina, near Gibraltar, and had ousted all insurgents from the vicinity of Madrid.

General Francisco Franco, leader of the revolt, announced in a broadcast from Ceuto, Spanish Morocco, that the fall of Madrid was imminent. He urged all civil guards to join the Fascist-Monarchist insurgents in the attempt to "liberate Spain."

A serious shortage of gasoline in the capital was revealed tonight when the newly organized trade union committees practically commandeered the entire motor fuel supply for use of the fighting forces.

Four planes which took off from Barcelona returned tonight after dropping 70 bombs on the rebel barracks in Zaragoza.

The Seville radio station, in the hands of the rebels, denied late tonight Zaragoza had been bombed. It also claimed all other reports broadcast from Madrid and Barcelona were false. In all the regions occupied by the insurgents, complete calm reigned, the rebels stated.

Every road into Madrid was closely guarded tonight. The tactics of a group of Fascists, dressed in uniforms of the Spanish fleet, who attacked loyal troops from small trucks led to this emergency measure.

RETAKE SAN SEBASTIAN

HENDAYE (On the Franco-Spanish frontier) July 22 CP-Havas).—Spanish loyalists, in counter attacks against Fascist-Royalist rebels in the north, recaptured San Sebastian and killed the northern rebel leader, Gen. Emileo Mola, today, dispatches reaching here tonight said.

A large column of armed leftist miners, streaming eastward from Bilbao, stormed and recaptured the city after sharp fighting, refugees and other sources reported. The sound of heavy firing along the Basque coast near San Sebastian was heard here all afternoon.

CHILLIWACK PIONEER DIES

Foundation Stone Is Laid for Cathedral

LONDON, July 22 (CP cable).—The Archbishop of Canterbury today laid the foundation stone of Guildsford cathedral, only the second Anglican cathedral to be built from its foundations since the Reformation.

Guildford cathedral will stand on rising ground outside the town of Guildford, in Surrey. The site has been almost equally condemned and applauded.

The other cathedral built completely since the Reformation is Liverpool. It was started 30 years ago but was designed on such immense lines that though building has proceeded steadily it is still far from complete.

Deputy Sheriff Is Killed in Fight

TALLADEGA, Ala., July 22 (AP)—A deputy sheriff was killed and nearly a score of other persons shot down here tonight in a sudden burst of gunfire near the Samoset cotton mills, where a labor disturbance has brought repeated violence for several weeks. Chief Deputy Sheriff John J. Bryant of Talladega county was slain as he and other officers answered a call to the mill to quiet disorder.

BARNEY ROSS WINS

WASHINGTON, July 22 (CP).—Barney Ross, welterweight champion of the world, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Phil Furr, welterweight champion of the District of Columbia, here tonight in a non-title bout. Ross weighed 142½ and Furr 148¼.

Restrictions on Sprinkling

Residents in some parts of the City, notably in the uptown sections, are suffering from shortage of water. This is not due to a shortage in the total supply of water available, but to WASTE of water by unnecessarily long hours of sprinkling of gardens.

To meet this situation, water users are hereby notified to restrict sprinkling, until further notice, to the following hours:

WEST OF COTTONWOOD CREEK AND ROSEMONT, 8 TO 9 A.M., AND 4 TO 6 P.M.

SELWYN STREET, DOUGLAS ROAD AND ADJACENT TERRITORY, 8 TO 9 A.M., AND 4 TO 6 P.M.

ALL THE REST OF THE CITY 7 TO 8 A.M. AND 6 TO 8 P.M.

If necessary to enforce these regulations, the services will be discontinued and a charge of $5.00 made before the service is renewed.

By Order,
W. E. WASSON,
CITY CLERK.
