20 GERMAN BOMBERS FALL TO BRITISH GUNS

Seven English Fliers Killed in Ontario Bomber Crash

Brings Two-Day Training Toll to 11 Fliers; Bombing Planes Collide Over Farm; All but One Die Instantly

BOND HEAD, Ont., March 13 (CP)—Crash of two Avro-Anson bombing planes after a mid-air collision near this village today took the lives of seven English airmen. Six were killed instantly when the planes crashed. The seventh died on his way to hospital in Barrie. All were from the air training school at Port Albert, Ont.

There was only one survivor, A.C. J. L. Flower of Eastleigh, England, radio operator in one of the planes, who suffered severe injuries which are believed to include a broken back.

The dead are: Flt.-Sgt. M. Dodsworth of York and Sgt. J. C. Bell of Durham, the pilots of the two training planes; Lac. M. G. Solkard, Leeds; Lac. C. T. Douglan, Sherwood; Lac. I. W. Jackson, London; Lac. S. Porter, Liverpool; and Lac. D. A. Rundell, Bristol.

Jackson was alive when he was extricated from the wreckage of the plane in which Flower was injured. He died on the way to hospital in Barrie.

In an early statement, Sqdn.-Ldr. E. E. Vielle, Officer Commanding the Port Albert School, near Goderich, said: "The aircraft were engaged in a navigational exercise, the track of which passed near Camp Borden."

All of the men involved in the crash were members of the Royal Air Force in Canada for training.

First report of the crash was telephoned to Camp Borden by Les Holmes, who farms near the scene of the crash.

The planes collided over the farm of Robert Gummerson and one of them crashed near his barn while the other turned upside down and exploded in a field a quarter of a mile away.

Flower was considered the hero of the crash by men who assisted him and the other survivor from their plane. L. C. McLean of Bond Head who had assisted taking men and bodies from the plane near Gummerson's barn, said Flower's first concern was for his fellow airmen.

Flower and the other survivor were placed on strips of fabric taken from the plane and laid out on the snow. Soon afterwards Dr. Judge arrived and gave Flower a hypodermic. McLean said he believed Flower, a young Englishman, suffered a broken back and that he was in great pain.

"Thanks, pal," he was quoted as saying to the doctor on receiving the hypodermic. "I'm O.K. but are the others all right? What's all the moaning about?" Then he insisted that the doctor leave him to attend to the others in the plane. He was not told that two of his comrades were dead.

McLean said he had seen the two planes over Gummerson's farm, half-a-mile North of Bond Head. One was moving from the South and the other from the Southwest. He said it appeared that the tail or wheels of one plane became entangled in the upper part of the other and then the two planes spun around out of control to crash a quarter of a mile from each other.

By The Canadian Press

Eleven airmen training in Canada under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan have lost their lives in accidents during the last two days, the most serious accident having occurred yesterday at Bond Head, Ont., where seven members of the Royal Air Force lost their lives.

Near Moncton Wednesday two training planes crashed with a death total of two, Lac. D. A. Williams of City View, Ont., and Po. C. Gillard of Vancouver. Lac. Williams was found dead late yesterday in the cabin of his wrecked plane. The body of Po. Gillard had been recovered from the cabin of his craft previously.

Near Saskatoon Wednesday Lac. Gurney Delos Barrett of Toronto and Lac. W. L. M. Starkey of Belize City, British Honduras, died when two R.C.A.F. planes collided in mid-air during a training flight. Fo. I. G. A. McNaughton, son of Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, escaped serious injury Wednesday night when a motor failure forced him to land an Avro-Anson plane on an uncompleted landing field near Yorkton.

Premier Urges Members to Push Up War Measure

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP). — Key war Ministers gave the House of Commons further details of the makeup of the $1,300,000,000 War Appropriations Bill today as Prime Minister Mackenzie King expressed eagerness to get the measure passed so the Ministers could devote more time to work of their departments.

Munitions Minister Howe gave a breakdown of the $180,458,421 allotted to his department, while Air Minister Power and Navy Minister Macdonald did the same for their departments.

Mr. King expressed impatience at the time taken to get the bill through when he refused a request from L. E. Perley (Con., Qu'Appelle) to set aside a time to debate the wheat policy announced yesterday by Trade Minister MacKinnon and Agriculture Minister Gardiner. The Prime Minister said the War Appropriation Bill would have precedence until it passed.

Mr. Howe's breakdown of estimated expenditures in his department for the year starting next April 1 was:

Capital assistance to private companies $71,043,421; capital assistance to Government-owned companies, $39,976,000; direct expenditures by the Government through the department, $16,290,000; Dominion arsenals at Lindsay, Ont., and Quebec, $16,[illegible]000; administration expenses, $3,[illegible]000; working capital in connection with Canadian production, $41,[illegible]000; working capital in connection with aircraft production, $2,600,000.

Mr. Power said anticipated Air Department expenditures in 1941-42 were $421,134,185 plus a supplementary of $83,163, but less $35,000,000 to be received from other Empire countries participating in the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan—a net total of $386,819,348.

Total estimated outlay for overseas air operations was placed at $15,838,916, for the home war establishment at $154,883,960 and for the air training plan, $250,613,309.

Mr. Macdonald's figures, reflecting plans for expanding the navy, gave as the largest item, $56,017,000 for acquisition and construction of ships. His total estimate for 1941-42 was $109,640,304.

New Pregnancy Test Announced

CHICAGO, March 13 (AP).—Development of a simple one-hour test for pregnancy, probably the most remarkable discovery of its kind ever made, was announced today by the University of Illinois College of Medicine.

The new method is a skin test, much like those used for allergy such as hay fever. Besides indicating pregnancy in 30 minutes to an hour, it is easy to give and inexpensive.

The University's doctors have made several hundred trials and report it is 98 per cent reliable and detects pregnancy as early as two weeks.

The test consists of injecting into the skin of the forearm, with a hypodermic needle, a minute amount of colostrum, a watery liquid secreted in the breasts during pregnancy.

No reaction occurs if the woman is pregnant, but if she isn't, the point of injection begins to look as though she had a mosquito bite.

Late Flashes

ATHENS, March 13 (AP)—The Italian Command in Albania threw fresh infantrymen into the assault on a wide front today in what Greek sources termed a continuing series of strong but futile thrusts.

LONDON, March 13 (CP). — Referring briefly today to a new "secret weapon" against night raiders, the Press Association recalled without comment an Italian report of some time ago about "a new English weapon" described as a projectile containing a coil of steel wires which unwound themselves.

SEATTLE, March 13 (AP). — State Forestry Supervisor T. S. Goodyear said 100 fire wardens had been sent into the Western Washington field today to guard against critical unseasonal fire menace.

LOS ANGELES March 13 (AP) —A cloudburst which accompanied showers over most of Southern California today sent a flood down on Newport Beach where it undermined three small houses and washed them into the Bay.

Los Angeles' rainfall for the season is 26.25 inches, as compared with 6.03 at this time last year and the heaviest in 51 years.

2 Smeltermen Receive Burns as Slag Flies

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—An explosion caused by molten slag pouring over on to wet boards creating a steam pocket, occurred in the Antimony Plant of the C. M. & S. Smelter at Tadanac about 11:15 on Tuesday night.

The explosion scattered the slag causing several spot fires which were promptly extinguished by the Fire Department. Damage was estimated between $300 and $400.

Two men, Ernest DeRosa, and Carl V. Holm, both of Rossland, received burns, but not of a serious nature. Both men were taken to the Mater Misericordiae Hospital, Rossland, after receiving treatment at the Trail-Tadanac Hospital.

Veteran Vessel Calls for Help

HOQUIAM, Wash., March 13 (AP) —Its rudder lost, the steam schooner Esther Johnson, a wooden veteran of the Pacific Coast lumber trade, sent out a distress signal tonight from eight miles Southwest of Grays Harbor.

The ship, without a radio, summoned a fishing boat by whistle, and the latter relayed the distress call to the Coast Guard.

The weather was clear and the sea calm so that the vessel did not appear in any immediate danger. The Coast Guard cutter Onondaga, cruising out of Astoria, Ore., was North of Grays Harbor. The Coast Guard said it was expected to reach the Esther Johnson at about 2:30 a.m.

The schooner, which cleared the Grays Harbor bar shortly after 3:30 p.m. today, was believed to carry a crew of 23 under Capt. C. H. Anderson, of San Francisco. It was bound for San Francisco with a lumber cargo of 1,250,000 board feet.

All Disabled Men to Get Pensions

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP). — F. G. Casselman (Lib., Edmonton East), told the Commons' Committee on Pensions today that in all cases like that of last weekend's bombing of a London night club in which two Canadian officers and two non-commissioned officers lost their lives dependents' pensions should be awarded.

Provided it was attributable to "contact with the enemy," any such case should be considered by pension authorities whether it occurs in Britain, Canada or elsewhere, he said.

Mr. Casselman objected to "geographical" definition of the term "actual theatre of war." He said the qualifying phrase should be "wherever contact with the enemy occurs."

The committee, when it rose at noon, adjourned to Tuesday.

Brig.-Gen. H. F. McDonald, Chairman of the Canadian Pensions Commission, told the committee the bill now before Parliament amending the Pension Act will provide particular benefits for ex-servicemen who suffered their disability during wartime.

He said the measure provides pensions for all disabled soldiers but "more liberal benefits for those who suffered their disability during war."

Pensions should not be restricted to dependents of servicemen who died in an actual theatre of war, said Howard Green (Con., Vancouver South).

Gen. McDonald said pensions would be paid dependents of men whose death was attributed directly to military service even in Canada.

Cabinet Leaders Back Scheme for British Aid Plans

WASHINGTON, March 13 (CP). —Three Cabinet members today endorsed a $7,000,000,000 appropriation for the British-aid program and disclosed that figure had been arrived at after an analytical study of British needs as submitted by London.

The officials were State Secretary Cordell Hull, Henry Stimson, Secretary of War, and Navy Secretary Frank Knox. Their statements before an Executive session of a House of Representatives sub-committee were augmented by testimony from Gen. George C. Marshall, Army Chief of Staff, and Harold D. Smith, Director of the Budget.

The hearings began amid recurring reports that 30 or so "mosquito boats", highly desired by Britain for patrol duty, might be transferred to Britain soon, with possibly some destroyers as well.

Afterwards Chairman Clifton Woodrum of the sub-committee proceeded to the House floor and with a minimum of difficulty obtained a unanimous consent agreement that the measure should be taken up Tuesday, with a full day of general debate and a final vote on Wednesday.

The Cabinet members "endorsed the bill definitely and enthusiastically," Woodrum said, and "showed that these estimates have been arrived at not by guess work but after very deliberate examination, thought and study, by the army and navy."

These studies were based, he continued, on a statement of British needs which Great Britain had submitted.

Meanwhile, the Executive branch of the Government turned over to Britain millions of dollars worth of army and navy supplies, first tangible result of the passage by Congress of the historic Lease-Lend Bill.

A veil of secrecy shrouds the nature and extent of the warsupplies.

Hamburg Pounded by British Planes

LONDON, March 14 (Friday)—(CP).—The Ministry of Information announced today that British bombers last night carried out a "successful attack" on Hamburg.

BERLIN, March 14 (Friday) — (AP).—Informed German sources claimed today that at least five British planes were shot down by night fighters and anti-aircraft and a number of others were "heavily damaged" when the Royal Air Force attacked Hamburg overnight.

They said civilians were killed and injured when the R.A.F. attacked residential quarters and non-military objectives, dropping many incendiary and explosive bombs.

No Reply to Alberta Boundary Proposal

EDMONTON, March 13 (CP) — Hon. W. A. Fallow, Minister of Public Works, said in the Alberta Legislature today that the Alberta Government has "not had the courtesy of a reply" from either Prime Minister Mackenzie King or any other member of the Federal Government regarding Alberta's proposal to extend the Province's boundaries North to the Arctic Ocean.

Ship Sinks at Coast

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP). — Two Greek fishermen from the sunken 19-ton seiner La Paloma arrived here today and told how they escaped in a skiff with another crew member when their vessel foundered 20 minutes outside Nanaimo Harbor in the darkness of last night.

The water was calm at the time and the man said he did not know what caused the sinking. The La Paloma gave a violent list, righted herself and then began to go down suddenly. She sank within a few minutes.

COAST SHIPYARD TO BUILD PATROL BOATS

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., March 13 (CP)—Contract for two fishermen's patrol vessels for the Royal Canadian Navy have been awarded the Star Shipyard (Mercer's) Ltd., E. Mercer, Manager, said today. The two will cost [illegible] $100,000 and keels will be laid [illegible] the next two weeks.

"Parachutist" Picked Up by Police in Eire

DUBLIN, March 13 (CP). — Guards at Taghmon, County Wexford, today arrested a stranger who stated that he had landed by parachute during the night from a German plane at a town called Ballycullane in the same County, it was announced tonight.

There was no report of forced landing by any plane in the district where he descended.

"Sunny" California Rains Wreck Bridge

Lashing rain made this Los Angeles' wettest season in 51 years when the downpour began Wednesday after a few days of sunshine. Torrents ripped out half of the Santa Fe Railroad bridge, above, close streets and highways with landslides and stalled hundreds of autos.

Yugoslavia Seeks Way to Escape Hitler Knot

Greece and Turkey Continue War Preparation

BELGRADE, March 13 (AP)—Leaders of this Balkan kingdom conferred at length today in an effort to find a way to appease Germany without lashing their nation to the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo Axis.

Regent Prince Paul and Premier Dragisa Cvetkovic conferred in Deinje Palace, but what conclusions they reached were not disclosed.

Earlier Cvetkovic conferred with Dr. Vladimir Macek, leader of the Croats, and lesser politicians.

Only along the short Greek frontier could Yugoslavia still count on non-Axis friendship, and access to that 100-odd-mile gateway is the principal objective of German pressure.

Greece, which has declared she will continue her fight against the Axis regardless of Yugoslavia's decision, fortified Thrace against attack of a German army on her Bulgarian frontier and continued to move civilians out of the line of possible combat.

Turkey watched the situation calmly, but with warlike preparations. Newspapers advised the public to be calm, and assured the nation that defences are adequate for any contingency.

In German quarters in Belgrade there were reports that Berlin was growing impatient for Yugoslavia's decision and might demand a quick reply to the "invitation to join the Axis".

Yugoslavs still carry over from the First Great War a hatred of the Germans, and, conversely, affection for Britain and France, who helped at Versailles to amalgamate with the Serbs the numerous minor races which form this largest Balkan nation.

Leaders of the army of 1,000,000 still talk of the possibility of military resistance, but political leaders in answer point to the map showing five Axis countries ringing Yugoslavia.

Those who believe in resistance declare the army might carry on guerilla warfare from the Serbian mountains, where blitzkrieg tactics would be of little value.

LABOR MEDIATION BOARD SUGGESTED

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt received today from Labor Secretary Frances Perkins and Defence Directors Knudsen and Hillman a specific recommendation for a mediation board to handle labor problems related to the defence program.

No details on what they had suggested were announced but Miss Perkins told reporters that the idea of a mediation board was taking "definite" shape.

SLASHED BY RAZOR

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP) — Wong Fee Hing, Vancouver Chinese, is in hospital suffering from a severe laceration of the face and police are holding a second Oriental for questioning. Police say Wong was wounded during a quarrel today, when a fellow Chinese drew a razor from his pocket and slashed at his face.

THREE GIRLS DIE WHEN STRUCK BY TRAIN

PRAIRIE SIDING, Ont., March 13 (CP)—Three girls of this Western Ontario district were killed and another was severely injured today when they were struck by a Wabash Railway freight train while walking on Canadian National Railways tracks near here.

The dead are: Irene Myers, 16; Aurelia Barnier, 9, and Doris Myers, 5.

The girls are believed to have stepped out of the way of one train into the path of another.

Steel Industry B.C. Suggestion

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP)—Encouraging factors for establishment of the iron and steel industry in British Columbia have been shown in initial surveys Premier Pattullo said tonight in a broadcast reviewing the Province's war effort and its attitude at the Dominion-Provincial Conference.

Confidence in the reelection of his Liberal administration "when the time comes for the electorate to pass judgment" was expressed by the Premier in a reference to critics' requests for an election.

"Preliminary estimates on the cost of producing pig iron and converting it to steel in ingot form are so encouraging that we feel we should bring the matter to a head by obtaining the advice and opinion of expert consultants, and this we are doing," said Premier Pattullo.

The surveys so far had shown that cheap electric power can be made available, that there is iron ore of high quality and also coke for electric smelting and blast furnace operation. Even if initial production were only ingot steel, it would not be long before finished steel products could be manufactured.

"The present would appear to be opportune time for establishment of such an industry as its output is needed for war purposes and there seems to be no reason why it should not prosper after the war," he said.

FATHER OF FERNIE MAN DIES AT COAST

NANAIMO, B. C., March 13 (CP) —John Quigley, 82, retired miner, died at his home in Extension last night.

He leaves two sons, Jack Quigley, Fernie, B.C., and George, and two daughters, Mrs. Dick Webber Shawnigan Lake, and Mrs. M. A. Bowe, New Westminster.

AUXILIARY SHIP SUNK

LONDON, March 13 (CP).—The Admiralty issued this communique Wednesday night:

"The Board of the Admiralty regrets to announce H. M. S. Manistee (Lt.-Cmdr. E. H. Smith R.N.R.), an auxiliary vessel of the Royal Navy, has been sunk."

Ground Defences Down Five as Hun Blasts New Town

Scream Bombs Add to Din; Defensive Blasts Seen 30 Miles Away; Joyous British Pilots Open Big Offensive

LONDON, March 14 (Friday) (AP)—British night fighters destroyed at least eight German bombers over England during the night, it was learned authoritatively today. This brings the Naxi bombers toll in about 24 hours to 20.

LONDON, March 14 (Friday) (CP) — Five German bombers were reported shot down by British ground defences overnight as relays of raiders returned for widespread attacks.

The Nazi raiders roared over Liverpool for a second successive night attack but its heaviest raids seemed to be concentrated on a Northeastern British town where scream bombs such as were used in France last year added to the din.

The hours-long attack was said to have been the worst of the war for the Northeast town.

The flashes of its fierce defensive barrages could be seen 30 miles away. The fifth bomber bagged was reported shot down in this area; two others fell on the East Coast and two on the South Coast bringing to 17 the number of German bombers reported downed since Wednesday night.

The Press Association credited alert ground defences and night fighter planes with preventing extensive damage in Liverpool and the Merseyside area.

London, too, had an air raid alarm but little gunfire was heard here. Hostile planes were over many other areas of England.

By the time of the attack in the Northeast, four of these night raiders had been shot down: two over the East coast, two in the South of the country.

By ROBERT E. BUNNELLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 13 (AP). — Britain's pilots, thankfully dropping the campaign of caution imposed upon them from the start of the war by the Nazi superiority in supply, rode the air lanes over German territory today in a great developing offensive made possible by the replacements of aircraft expected from across the Atlantic. (Also see "Berlin", page 8).

The counter thrusts of the Nazis, meanwhile, appeared to be faring badly. Seventeen German raiders, expensive bombers, had been shot down in a period of some 24 hours.

In informed quarters it was made plain, with restrained exultation, that the days of Britain's "penuriously defensive" strategy in the air are over and done; that, by President Roosevelt's signature of the United States lease-lend bill, Britain is able at last "to launch a really offensive war" in the skies.

"We were not able to risk exhausting our reserves before because we had quite frankly reached the point where we just didn't have the money for replacing on a cash and carry basis," said the sources.

But now—

Explosions rolled across the English Channel this afternoon to signal a broad daylight British bombing attack upon the Nazi-held French coast which was centred about Calais. An airdrome there was heavily hit, it was announced officially, and bombs burst upon grounded German aircraft.

British fighter planes swept the Channel areas and Northern France at about the same time, destroying a German bomber which had sought to cross the English coast. Only one British plane was lost.

The most significant point of this defence was that perhaps 200 Nazi planes were over Britain during the night and thus the proportion of those destroyed was about one in 20 as contrasted with the one in 30 which had resulted from the best defence previously offered.

When the ratio falls to one in 10, informed sources said, the menace of the night bomber may be said to have been defeated.

For both the offence and the defence in the aerial war new plans were disclosed.

Offensively, the consolidated and four-motored Boeing bombers from United States factories are prominent in the picture for they are expected to widen the attacking area and thus force the Nazis to thin out their anti-aircraft defences.

Defensively, new weapons — nature not disclosed — have been given to night fighter planes and a "shotgun" type of barrage, throwing a complete pattern of shell in heavy and coordinated fire, is being operated.

Assured of replacements, the Air Ministry also is prepared to augment greatly its night fighter patrols. These patrols bagged five of the German planes shot down last night.

New Pension Plan Urged, California

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13 (AP) —A modification of California's "thirty dollars every Thursday" plan for providing pensions for senior citizens received a circulation title from the attorney general here today.

Instead of $30, it would pay $25 every Thursday to citizens more than 50 years old, who do not have an assured income of $1400 a year.

Furthermore, it would create a classification of "junior citizens" aged from 21 to 50. They, if not making more than $16 in a 40-hour week, would receive $7 every Thursday.

The idea was originated by Roy G. Owens, Will H. Kindig and Willis Allen.

To qualify for a place on the ballot, the proposed initiative constitutional amendment must have somewhat over 200,000 signers.

Debt Legislation in Alberta House

EDMONTON, March 13 (CP) — Legislation giving the Alberta Government wide powers to suspend proceedings against debtors in the Province was introduced in the Alberta Legislature today by Hon. Lucien Maynard, Minister of Municipal Affairs, and given first reading.

Authority for the lieutenant-governor in Council to declare a moratorium on certain classes of debts is contained in the Debt Proceedings Suspension Act.

100,000 Boxes of Apples Sold in Week

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP)—A total of more than 100,000 boxes of apples were sold last week, George A. Barrat, Chairman of the B. C. Tree Fruit Board, said here today.

Returns to the growers is expected to be not far below those of last year, Mr. Barrat said.

Apple juice is showing increasing popularity with sales this year in Canada amounting to about 3,000,000 gallons.

Canada Must Attain Efficiency of Dictator Nations While Retaining Freedom Diamond Asserts at Trail

Calls Junior Chamber Canadians Still Too Comfortable

TRAIL, B. C., March 13 (CP). — W. Diamond, Assistant General Manager of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Canada, Ltd., said in an address Thursday night that if Canada is to play her part in winning the war she must acquire the efficiency of the dictator nations while retaining the basic principles of a free people and of a democratic country.

"We are at the bedside of a very sick world, a world that until a few years ago we thought was secure," he told the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"Confident in the future, we of the democracies became slothful both as individuals and as nations. We became neglectful of our duties as citizens, and allowed certain practices to develop in our Governments that we criticized but did not cure.

UNEMPLOYMENT "SOCIAL DISEASE"

"Not only did we of the democracies permit the insidious disease of totalitarianism to infest large sections of the world body, but we permitted the hideous social disease of unemployment to threaten our national bodies; and our attacks on it were as lacking in vigor and as futile as on totalitarianism," he asserted.

"Only when war appeared did we rouse ourselves.

"Thank God, when Britain was fighting with her back to the wall, and Churchill sounded his clarion call of leadership, the free peoples of the world awakened, their vision cleared, the long-sought spiritual awakening took place, and the real marshalling of control forces commenced."

STILL TOO COMFORTABLE

Mr. Diamond said this was particularly true in Britain. Although Canada was a long way from the war and while a great deal had been done Canadians were still too comfortable and had not yet learned the meaning of sacrifice.

"We must make sacrifices, we must suffer, we must work," he said. "Our governing bodies must be decisive, they must eliminate lost motion. All activities must be co-ordinated. Party lines cannot be permitted to constitute obstructions.

"We will win this war because of the spirit of Britain, but let it not be said when the war ends that it was because of the spirit of Britain only, but because of the spirit of the Empire. Here in Trail in our own small sphere, which is part of the Empire sphere, we have a task to perform as individuals and groups," Mr. Diamond continued.

"Those of us who work on the hill have a splendid opportunity of serving by putting everything we have into our work."

Tom Mann, Veteran Labor Leader, Dies

GRASSINGTON, Yorkshire, England, March 13 (CP Cable)—Tom Mann, veteran British Labor leader died today. He was 84.

Born in a mining district, Mann began to work on a farm at the age of nine and two years later went into the pits where he worked until he was 14. Then he learned to become a journeyman engineer in Birmingham and at the age of 21 settled down in London.

Mann was prominent in the famous dockers' strike and espoused such socialist causes as the eight-hour day and the single tax. He visited Russia in 1921 and China in 1927.

Trail Board Told Rates Prohibitive to Salvage Plans

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—That present freight rates are prohibitive to the salvage project being proposed by the Trail Junior Chamber of Commerce, in conjunction with other District Junior Boards, was pointed out by W. R. Thompson at a meeting of the Trail body Thursday night.

Mr. Thompson stated, that, in a letter received from Vancouver, he was told that prices for papers were about $5 to $6 per ton at the coast, and that the freight prices were far above that.

Suggestion was made in the letter that arrangements with trucking concerns, returning to the Coast without loads, or with private cars travelling through to Vancouver might solve the problem, but this presented difficulties in making contacts.

Elmer Sahlstrom, Chairman of the Salvage Committee, thought that if the work of salvaging materials for war purposes were carried on throughout the district, arrangements could be made to have carload shipments of joint contributions from all district centres which might help in distributing the cost of shipment.

The meeting was informed that R. R. Burns, M.L.A. had offered his assistance in the project and was willing to take the matter up with Ottawa if it was thought necessary.

The matter was left in the hands of the Committee for further investigation.

400 at Annual St. Patrick's Dinner

Some 400 persons sat down to pleasantly decorated tables in the Cathedral Hall Thursday evening for the St. Patrick's dinner, annual commemoration under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League of the birth of the patron saint of Ireland.

Potted plants decorated the tables while vases of shamrock were placed in the windows.

Winnipeg Police Prepare Answer Against Charges

WINNIPEG, March 13 (CP) — Members of the Winnipeg Police Commission of which Mayor John Queen is Chairman, today prepared a report for submission to the City Council on charges made against the Police Department by Alderman John Petley.

Deanna Durbin to Be Married April 18

HOLLYWOOD, March 13 (AP).—The marriage of screen star Deanna Durbin of Winnipeg and Vaughn Paul, movie executive, will take place April 18 instead of June 7, as originally planned.

Deanna's parents will celebrate their 33rd wedding anniversary on April 18.

Spring Locust Caught by South Slocan Man

Locusts are in flight.

M. Panchishim of South Slocan on Thursday caught a locust, the first he had seen this year. The insects are toothy morsels, as far as the famed Kamloops trout of the Kootenays are concerned, but ordinarily are not in flight until much later.

CANADIAN ACQUITTED

WINCHESTER, England, March 13 (CP Cable)—Charles Thomas Christie of the Canadian Army, formerly of Toronto, was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter today after demonstrating in court with a Bren gun how he accidentally shot a girl who was watching out of a window nearby.

Rossland Meeting for Service Drive Launches Patriotic Society Instead to Hold One Drive for All Objects

ROSSLAND, B.C., March 13—A meeting called by Mayor John E. Gordon to form a local organization to carry on a campaign in connection with the Canadian War Services Fund designed to assist the war work of six national organizations—the Canadian Legion, Salvation Army, Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Knights of Columbus and I.O.D.E., took a different direction when representatives of lodges, clubs, etc., assembled in the City Hall Wednesday night.

After Mayor Gordon had outlined the purpose of the meeting and had asked for opinions from the various representatives, a new note, not exactly one of opposition, but one of at best very mild approval, crept into the meeting. Gradually the idea was developed that it would be to Rossland's advantage to form a Patriotic Society to conduct only one yearly drive for all war funds and charitable organizations and thus eliminate six or seven or more separate campaigns throughout the year.

It was explained that the Trail Patriotic and Welfare Society had flourished since its organization.

In this connection, Capt. A. Cartmell of the Trail Salvation Army presented material and information as to the manner in which the Trail Society had operated and the contributions it had received.

ADJOURN AND REASSEMBLE

At 9 o'clock a motion that the original meeting adjourn was passed without a dissenting vote, and the assembly then moved toward the formation of the new Society, which will in future handle the collection and distribution of funds for all war and charitable services within the city.

Officers elected were: Mayor Gordon, President; L. E. E. Hamilton, Vice-President; E. E. Perkins, Secretary; G. W. Mara, Treasurer; and L. V. McLeod, Publicity Chairman. The Executive Committee named consists of Dr. B. P. Sutherland, representing the Gospel Hall; H. L. Christian, Knights of Columbus; R. J. Portman, Canadian Legion; Rev. W. M. Cameron, St. Andrew's United Church; J. F. Cooper, Red Cross; Wesley McKenzie, High School; Mrs. W. M. Gresly-Jones, Rossland Soldiers' Cheer Fund; Capt. E. Robertson, Salvation Army; J. Burden, F.O.E.; Robert Anderson, Senior Board of Trade; Mrs. K. Martin, Parent-Teacher Association; Mrs. W. Grubisic, Rebekah Lodge, Monseigneur A. K. McIntyre, Sacred Heart Church; Frank Ellis, L.O.L.; Miss Betty Hood, Registered Nurses' Association; Mrs. T. G. Wood, Girl Guides and H. Reiman, Voluntary Defence Corps.

This Executive Committee might be described as a temporary one, for there were several persons attending the meeting as official representatives who will recommend that the organization they represent name either them or others as permanent delegates.

The Executive will meet again Friday evening, and it is thought that another general meeting will be called for next week.

Rossland Hears Miss Pyper on Propaganda War

ROSSLAND, B.C., March 13—Miss Nancy Pyper of Toronto, a newspaper correspondent who covered the Royal Tour, addressed the Canadian Club in the Court House "What Have We to Fear?", a talk Tuesday evening on the subject dealing with the methods used in Germany to disseminate propaganda, not only in that country alone, but throughout the world.

Miss Pyper presented quotations from Hitler's "Mein Kampf", which demonstrated the attitude of German officials toward propaganda, and their realization of its importance.

The speaker said each individual could be affected by propaganda without being aware of it, but that Canadians should make an honest effort to determine and form in their minds an opinion as to just how propaganda from unfriendly countries could come into their lives and how they could combat its effect by looking beneath the surface of what might appear to be correct information, though not emanating from official sources.

Rose Miller Sets New Five-Pin Mark, Trail

TRAIL, B. C., March 13 — Rose Miller, on Woolworth's team, set a new high single record in the Trail Ladies' Five-Pin League Wednesday night with a 371 individual count, in a game with the Credit Bureau. She made 207 in her first game, and 180 in her last.

Melneczuk Winner Rossland Bridge

ROSSLAND, B.C., March 13—P. Melneczuk won the telephone bridge sponsored by the Rossland Parent-Teacher Association. His score was 7830, while that of the consolation winner, Mrs. J. N. Cran, was 1050. First prize was a $4 War Savings Certificate, and the consolation, four War Savings Stamps.

New Seattle Mayor

SEATTLE March 13 (AP) — County Auditor Earl F. Millikin, a former school teacher, was elected mayor over Police Judge William F. Devin by a majority of 5084 in Seattle's municipal election yesterday.

He will serve the remaining 14 months of the unexpired term of former Mayor Arthur B. Langlie, who resigned the first of the year to become Governor.

The unofficial returns in the mayoralty race gave Millikin 53,146 and Devin 48,062.

LOS ANGELES, March 13 (AP) —Boxing Inspector Tom Cox, credited with being the "discoverer" of Fighter Henry Armstrong, died of a heart attack at his home here today.

Canada Has Great Future—Woodward

VICTORIA, March 13 (CP)—"Canada will be the third industrial nation of the world after the war," Col. W. C. Woodward of Vancouver, Executive Assistant to Munitions Minister C. D. Howe, said in an address here today.

"We should be proud of Canadian industry, and proud of Canadian labor for the work they are doing," Col. Woodward told members of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club at a joint meeting.

Col. Woodward said that 18 months ago he would have said it was impossible for Canada to do some of the things she is doing today. He said that the Dominion, which never before had made anything but rifles, was now producing everything for the British army but guns of the highest calibre.

Trail Chamber to Try Tracing Missing Parcels

TRAIL, B. C., March 13 — Trail Junior Chamber of Commerce Thursday night decided to write to the Postmaster-General in an effort to trace Christmas parcels sent to members of a district unit from proceeds of a special concert last November.

Although letters of appreciation have been received from district members of other units, no word has been received from the Trail-Rossland unit to the effect that their shipment had arrived.

The meeting also instructed Maurice Wright, Secretary, to write to the unit explaining that parcels had been sent, and also send cigarettes to be purchased from the $20 balance left from the proceeds of the concert.

NAZI OIL SPECIALISTS DUE IN RUMANIA

BUCHAREST, Rumania, March 13 (AP)—Fourteen German oil specialists are due here Monday to aid Rumanian authorities in a campaign to increase the country's oil production 20 per cent over the previous maximum. Germany which draws most of her war fuel from Rumania has proposed an increase from the present daily average of 1300 carloads to 2000. Plans call for sinking 150 wells during 1941.

KELOWNA TO STUDY WAR PRODUCTION STANDPOINT

KELOWNA, B. C., March 13 (CP) —A complete survey of the Kelowna district from a war production standpoint will be made by the Kelowna Board of Trade Industries Committee, under the chairmanship of W. M. Vance. The Committee will work in conjunction with the Canadian Manufacturers Association and the B. C. War Contracts Committee.

Record Lumber Sales to South Africa Made

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP). — An all-time record for lumber sales to South Africa of just over 20 million feet is shown in figures just released by the Pacific Lumber Inspection Bureau for February, the previous record was 15½ million feet in June, 1940.

The figures show a large increase in British Columbia lumber certificated for water-borne export. Total was 111,528,000 board feet compared with just over 84 million in January and about 77 million in December.

The total going to the United Kingdom, much of it by rail for shipment from the Atlantic seaboard, was 75,289,000 feet, an increase of 20 million over January.

Blaylock Hasn't Heard About Job as Commissioner

"I have not heard anything about it," commented S. G. Blaylock, President and Managing Director of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company of Canada, when called up at Trail by long distance telephone Thursday night, and his attention drawn to a report in The Vancouver Sun that he was to be one of the British Columbia members of a commission of four that would conduct an inquiry into the complaints that British Columbia industries have not been getting a fair share of war orders.

The story in The Sun said the inquiry was to start shortly, and that word had come from Ottawa that Mr. Blaylock and J. C. Robson of New Westminster would be the British Columbia members of the commission.

Rossland, Trail Chambers Will Hold a Debate

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—An inter-club debate between the Rossland and Trail Junior Chambers of Commerce on the Rowell-Sirois report is planned for May 8, at Trail.

The actual resolution to be debated, and appointment of Trail teams, were left in the hands of the executive, with the agreement that the clubs toss coins to determine affirmative and negative sides. Selection of the Rossland team was left in the hands of F. C. Ransom, Chairman of the Rossland Debate Committee, at the suggestion of A. E. Lane, Rossland representative.

A proposal to invite Senior Trade Board members to the debate was vetoed with the counter opinion that it might appear that the Board of Trade was dictating the policies of the junior organization.

"But we might surprise 'em," commented Olaf Wolff, President.

Trail Chamber Tables Ottawa Census Report

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—Recommendation, received Thursday night from the Ottawa Junior Trade Board, advocating support of their action in protesting the necessity of a 1941 census to Prime Minister Mackenzie King, was filed by the Trail Junior Chamber of Commerce, pending further investigation.

GERMANY MAY HAVE PARTS OF THREE DIVISIONS IN LIBYA

LONDON, March 13 (CP)—Military circles said today it was possible that Germany had parts of three divisions in Libya.

The Germans, they asserted, "as a part of the war of nerves have exaggerated the number they were able to get across" the Mediterranean.

Trail Chamber to Have Ladies' Night

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—Edward Sahlstrom, William Arnold, John Bogson, and Harold Smith were appointed on committee for "ladies night" to be held by the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the near future.

KELOWNA WAR FUND TO GIVE $4000 TO APPEAL

KELOWNA, B. C., March 13 (CP) —A recapitulation of the Kelowna district's war activities today showed that last Fall citizens pledged $15,000 to the Kelowna and District War Activities Committee Fund. Of this sum, the Red Cross was voted $6000 and this week the Committee agreed to grant the Canadian War Services Fund $4000.

KELLY BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS

DUBLIN, March 13 (CP Cable)—John Hall Kelly, Canadian High Commissioner to Eire who died Sunday, was buried today with military honors. A salute was fired as the flag-draped coffin was lowered into its grave at Hasnevin Cemetery.

Members of the Eire Government were headed by Prime Minister De Valera.

The Papal Nuncio, T. Rev. Pascall Robinson, presided at a requiem high mass.

GERMANS MAKE SHIPPING CLAIMS

BERLIN, March 13 (AP)— The Nazi commentary Dienst Aus Deutschland claimed today that since the beginning of the war German armed forces have sunk more than 9,000,000 tons of British shipping space. (British Admiralty figures place the total of British, allied and neutral shipping sunk in the vicinity of 5,000,000 tons.)

TURKEY ASKS PUBLIC TO REMAIN CALM

ISTANBUL, Turkey, March 13 (AP)—The Government newspaper Ulus today termed Turkish defences adequate in the face of all eventualities and called on the public to remain calm. Similar statements were issued by the newspaper Ik-

Trail Ratepayers Body Opposes Putting Fence Round Butler Park

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—Trail Ratepayers Association, Thursday night passed a vote disapproving the erection of a fence around Butler Park, as proposed by the Trail Parks Board. Copy of the resolution, to be drafted by the executive, is to be sent to the next general meeting of the City Council.

This action resulted from a general meeting called by the Association to discuss the proposition, and followed up a petition against the project which had been presented to the Trail Council by several residents of the immediate vicinity.

McINTYRE EXPLAINS

P. F. McIntyre, Chairman of the Parks Board, explaining that he was present unofficially, presented general plans and specifications of the proposed fence, which would cost about $1200 to $1300, he understood, although official estimates had not yet been obtained.

The condition of the old buildings on the grounds were forcing the hands of the Board in this matter, he said. He outlined the general plans of the fence, explaining, to objections raised as to the possibility of the fence becoming in time an eyesore, that shrubbery would be planted around the outside which would, in two or three years, cover the structure.

Construction of a new grandstand, at the Thom Street end, was also planned.

The question of grounds on Shaver's Bench, which had been offered the city by the Trail Rotary Club for a playground, was raised, but Mr. McIntyre, volunteering his own opinion that the location was not central enough, suggested that this was a matter to be dealt with by the City Council itself. The grounds themselves were still being held by the Rotary Club for this purpose, he said.

The main objection raised was the possibility of the erection becoming the "thin end of the wedge" to keep children out and allow organized sports complete control.

Young Trail Woman Suffers Brain Fever After Measles Attack

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—Dr. N. D. C. MacKinnon, Trail Medical Health Officer, reports the first serious complication in Trail following measles. A woman of 24 years of age has developed brain fever.

U. S. Produced 972 Planes in February

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—Airplane manufacturers delivered 972 planes during February, a decrease of 64 from the January total.

William S. Knudsen, director of the office of production management, announced the figures today and said that of the February deliveries 879 planes went to Britain and to the United States army and navy.

The decline in production was attributed by O.P.M. officials to the smaller number of working days in February than in January.

KELOWNA ASSESSMENTS INCREASED $150,907.50

KELOWNA, B. C., March 13 (CP) —An increase of $150,907.50 in value of city assessments was reported to City Council this week by City Assessor P. T. Dunn to bring the total 1941 assessment to $6,327,472. This marks an increase of $1,132,087 over 10 years.

In the school district outside the city limits, assessment value increased by $36,180 in 1941, almost half the total increase for the past 10 years of $80,300.

Hints for Housewives

By BETSY NEWMAN

Potted Veal With Dumplings
Mixed Vegetable Salad
Orange and Grapefruit Marmalade
Coffee or Tea

POTTED VEAL WITH DUMPLINGS

2 pounds shoulder veal, 1 quart (4 cups) water, 2 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 cups diced potatoes, ½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 6 carrots, 4 tablespoons flour, ¾ cup cold water, 1 onion.

Remove fat from meat, cut meat into 1-inch cubes and simmer with sliced onion in water for 1 hour. Add salt, pepper, Worcestershire sauce, potatoes and sliced carrots and continue cooking for 15 minutes. Mix flour with ¾ cup water and thicken mixture. Prepare dumplings and drop by teaspoonfuls on top of meat. Cover tightly and steam for 12 minutes.

DUMPLINGS

1½ cups flour, 1-3 teaspoon salt, 1½ cups all-phosphate baking powder, about 2-3 cup milk, or enough to make consistency of biscuit dough.

Sift together flour, salt and baking powder; add milk and pat or roll on board until ½ inch thick. Cut out with very small cutter and drop into boiling stew. Do not lift lid of saucepan for 10 minutes after dropping dumplings in, or they may fall.

ORANGE AND GRAPEFRUIT MARMALADE

1 grapefruit, 1 orange, 1 lemon, 3 quarts cold water, sugar.

Wash and quarter fruit and cut into thin slices. Remove seeds but do not peel; pour water over slices and let stand 24 hours. Bring to boiling point and boil 1 hour. When cooked, measure amount of fruit and juice together; add 1 pound (2 cups) sugar for each pint (2 cups) fruit mixture. Stir sugar in and let stand over night. Boil 1 more hour and pour into sterilized glasses. Let stand for 1 day, then cover with paraffin. This recipe makes 12 glasses marmalade.

Appeal for War Services Fund Opens March 24

Bearing the badge of official approval, an appeal will be made in Nelson in the two weeks beginning March 24—part of a nation-wide appeal—for funds to the six principal auxiliary service organizations operating in Canada and overseas among soldiers, sailors and airmen. The six organizations are Canadian Legion War Services, Salvation Army, I. O. D. E., Knights of Columbus Huts, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

The objective for the Dominion is $5,500,000 with British Columbia's allocation one-tenth of this. Nelson's quota is proportionate.

About 50,000 Canadians are overseas and about three times that number are in training camps and barracks at home. Many more thousands will be added. To give service to these men is the gigantic job the auxiliary services are called upon to perform. Their service includes supplying comforts, sports equipment, entertainment, educational and personal services and so on. The men are scattered over Canada and England, Iceland and the West Indies, Newfoundland and elsewhere.

The public will be asked to give the amount that would normally be given to all six organizations, were they appealing separately and independently.

Plans are now being completed by the special local committee organized to handle this drive and will be announced later.

Marriage . . .

All Things Come Home at Eventide

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Dear Miss Chatfield:

A husband for 35 years and then driven from home! Please tell me what to do. I made it a habit to turn over to my wife my monthly earnings, keeping out only a small sum for tobacco, and such thing. She didn't try to save anything and I couldn't accumulate anything. When times were hard and earnings reduced she became abusive.

One night, after several months of unusual bitterness toward me, she turned loose and cursed me for everything she could think of. The children resented it and next morning urged me to leave home and come live with them. I now make my home with a married daughter and her husband who are good to me. But it is not home. Even if my wife was cruel I love her more than when I married her. I long to join her and live once again together under our own roof.

Answer:

Let us hope that your wife is as homesick for you as you for her, in which event a couple of letters should serve to reunite you. But, my friend, you should remember that her nature hasn't changed any more than yours has. You have the same old tendency to cling, as the vine to the wall, and she has the same old tendency to dominate. If she was cruel when you lived with her, she will be cruel still. She will curse you again and you'll have to take it or get out.

Who says marriage and a home don't take hold on a pair, if they stick with it long enough? More than a quarter century of punishment at the hands of an unsympathetic woman, release, then a great longing for reunion! Sentimental memories rising up to crowd out recollections of cruelties. Loneliness, emptiness, homesickness in spite of loving children and a comfortable home. What's the answer? "All things come home at eventide."

British Legation Stenographer Dies

ISTANBUL, Turkey, March 13 (AP)—Teresa Armstrong, 23-year-old stenographer of the British Legation in Sofia, died early today.

Her death brought to four the number of dead in the suitcase bomb attempt on the life of George Rendel, British Minister to Bulgaria.

Miss Armstrong was so seriously injured in the explosion in the Pera Palace Hotel that both her legs had to be amputated.

Eclipse Viewed in Early Hours

A partial eclipse of the moon, in the course of which the earth's shadow took a large bite out of the moon's disk, was observed by late home-goers Thursday morning, from about 1:30 a.m. on. The sky was cloudless, and there was a perfect view of the eclipse.

Give Your Hands Beauty Treatment Doing Housework

By ALICE WADE ROBINSON

One out of every three of you play cards. That's what statistics say of adults the country over. Are the hands with which you deal worthy of the hands on which you score?

If your hand texture is not at its loveliest, don't waste time apologizing for it. Your three-some at table may politely smile when hand roughness makes you fumble a shuffle. But, within, they'll wish you were addicted to the hand lotion bottle.

And do take to it or to hand cream at once.

HANDS AS BACKGROUND

Keep in mind another bit of figuring: At the card table, the eyes of your partner and your opponents are never more than 30 inches from your hands and nails. They see all. If you play with this group often, you and they must be well "in the know" on how you keep your hands and how you use them.

How personnaly do you rate? Score on hand and nail fastidiousness for your pride and comfort. Do this even though you fall short on high score with the cards. Carry off on the honors on soft, smooth hand texture, in cuticle tailoring and on polish charm.

Housework can be a beauty treatment. This, though you may loathe protective gloves. If you dislike wearing them all the time at your home chores, do this: rub nails over a softened cake of toilet soap as an additional strengthening guard. Then anoint hands with hand cream or lotion.

Massage either well into hands, about nails and into wrists. All absorbed? No wanoint a bit more into skin. Next, dip hands into a bowl of dusting powder or sprinkle talcum upon them. Brush off the excess—and off to your chores!

TRAIL SOCIAL

By MISS FLORENCE BIRD

TRAIL, B.C., March 13 — Knox United Church manse was the setting Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock for the marriage of Agnes Young, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Deans, 106 Buckna Street, and James Edgar Leslie Groutage of Trail, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Groutage of Victoria. Rev. Dr. K. W. Lees officiated. The bride was lovely in an afternoon frock of Churchill blue featuring a high neckline and embroidered in an all-over design of navy blue. She wore navy accessories and a corsage of Ophelia roses and freesias. Miss Beth Deans as her sister's bridesmaid was attired in a dusky rose crepe afternoon frock with which she wore navy accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses and plumosa. James Street acted as best man. The wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were tastefully decorated throughout. A three-tier wedding cake embedded in pink tulle centred the bride's table, and pink and white carnations formed the floral decor. The table was illuminated with tall ivory tapers in silver scones. After the reception the young couple left for a wedding trip to Vancouver Island. For travelling the bride chose a smartly tailored grey suit topped with a matching grey tweed coat and worn with accessories en tone. One their return Mr. and Mrs. Groutage will take up residence in the Douglas Hotel.

The East Trail W.A. of St. Andrew's Anglican Church met at the home of Mrs. J. G. Best, 904 Nelson Avenue. Rev. L. A. C. Smith gave an interesting talk, after which dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. Barber. Other members present were Mrs. C. T. Conry, Mrs. J. T. Wilkinson, Mrs. R. H. Scott, Mrs. A. H. Yates, Mrs. J. May, Mrs. G. W. Garnett, Mrs. T. Hinton, Mrs. W. E. Marshall, Mrs. A. Stainton, Mrs. F. Findlow, Mrs. A. A. Dawson and Rev. and Mrs. L. A. C. Smith.

The Daly Club of East Trail United Church met Monday evening in the Church Hall, members working on novelties for the coming Spring tea and sale. At the close dainty refreshments were served by Mrs. A. Hutchinson and Mrs. T. Grieves. Twenty members were present.

Moir McLagan was guest speaker Monday evening when Knox Excelsior Young People's Association met in the Church Hall. Mr. McLagan's topic was "The Life and Works of Galileo." It was decided to hold the Young People's Bible classes every other Sunday evening in the manse. Rowland Harrison, President, was in the chair. Devotional exercises were taken by the Misses Marion Harris, Eileen Bowman and Blanche Hollett. At the close of business, refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

The wedding of Lillian Ida, eldest daughter of Mrs. E. Hethe and the late Mr. Hethe, and Private Joseph Todevic, of Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, took place Feb. 15 at Winnipeg. Private Todevic is the son of E. Todevic and the late Mrs. Todevic of Trail. Rev. R. G. Turnbull performed the wedding ceremony and Miss Lilian Irvin played the bridal music. Given in marriage by Corporal Robert Jest, the bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Hilda Bregnar, as bridesmaid, and by her sister, Miss Shirley Hethe, as flower girl. Private Harold McDougall acted as best man. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

The Warfield Branch of St. Andrew's Anglican Church W.A. met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Ridges, 750 Kipling Street. A short business meeting was held, after which refreshments were served by the hostess. Members present were Mrs. G. L. Phillips, Mrs. J. T. Plumb, Mrs. J. Spence, Mrs. Price, Mrs. R. Arnew, Mrs. W. H. Cuff and Mrs. Raine.

The Senior A.Y.P.A. of St. Andrew's Church held its weekly meeting Tuesday evening in the Parish Hall, Ken Johnson, President, being in the chair. After a short business meeting, the members held a work session for an hour. Following this, refreshments were served by Miss Eileen Marshall's committee, and members enjoyed a few games of ping pong.

Rossland Airguns Being Registered

ROSSLAND, B.C., March 13—In his monthly report to the City Council Monday night, Constable William Stark states that no Police Court action was taken during February, and therefore no fines or costs were collected during that month.

The monetary loss from criminal complaints received was approximately $42, without any recoveries. There was one motor-vehicle accident in the City during the month, resulting in property damage to the extent of $15. Registration of air-guns and "BB" guns is now taking place, and to date approximately 45 have been registered. Youths owning guns of this type have been warned regarding using them off their own premises.

Miscellaneous complaints received and attended to included: Juveniles, mischief, etc. 3; curfew bylaw 4; intoxicated persons 3; fire calls attended 1; lights reported out 8; domestic trouble 3; motor vehicle check-ups 5; transients given bed 2; coasting bylaw 4.

Committee to Study War Contract Awards

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP)—Outline of procedure in awarding and checking war contracts will be given the special House committee on war expenditures at a meeting on Tuesday, it was indicated today.

After approving its first report to the House of Commons the committee prepared to start its check on expenditures with a view to ascertaining all possible economy in war purchases.

J. T. Thorson (Lib.-Selkirk), Committee Chairman, said it was planned to have munitions and supply officials give evidence Tuesday in line with the committee idea that the method of awarding contracts should be made clear before individual inquiries were launched.

Can You Sing Istanbul?

Istanbul as the commercial capital of Turkey is much in the news just now.

Ankara, capital of a country that may soon be a fighting Ally of the British Empire and Greece, is one of the world's news capitals at this moment, but if Turkey enters the war, Istanbul cannot escape being one of the strategic spots of war effort and industry, apart altogether from its strategic location.

Istanbul today — Constantinople yesterday.

Probably there are in the Kootenay some residents of four score years, who grew up in Eastern Canada, and who can remember, in the days before free schools, when Constantinople was one of the test words for the spelling class.

It went something like this, in a sort of singsong:

"C-o-n. Is that con?

"S-t-a-n. Is that the stan? Con-stan.

"T-i. Is that the ti? Stan-ti. Con-stan-ti.

"N-o. Is that the no? Ti-no. Stan-ti-no. Con-stan-ti-no.

"P-l-e. Is that the ple? No-ple. Ti-no-ple. Stan-ti-no-ple. Con-stan-ti-no-ple."

Istanbul may soon be constantly in our ears soon, and on our lips, if the tide of war surges that way, with a British fleet and a Turkish fleet attending to matters on the Black Sea.

But it is hardly likely, in future history, to command the popular attention that Constantinople claimed through the centuries.

Recruits for Freedom

Leland Stowe, correspondent of the Chicago Daily News, who after touring the European battlefronts wrote a series of articles on his observations, later answered in detail the various persons who wrote him raising points of inquiry.

Mr. Stowe's answer, like his original articles, reveal he is a firm believer in defeat of Hitler, and of an interesting time for Japan and any others who get into Hitler's boat, provided the United States does a complete job of providing supplies.

To a question, "How can the conquered peoples organize on their own soil any sort of effective revolt when they have no arms or means of getting them?" Mr. Stowe replied as follows:

"Conquered peoples cannot organize armed revolt, but they are already organizing sabotage of various kinds in most of the occupied countries. As the Nazis' lines of communication become more and more extended this increasing sabotage is likely to do a great deal to slow up Hitler's armed forces.

"In another year or two, if the war goes on, Britain should have an army of 3,000,000 or more veteran troops. Wherever she lands an expeditionary force she will find millions of men in the conquered countries waiting for arms and burning with desire to use them against the Nazis. I think Hitler has transformed Europe into an enormous recruiting ground for armies of liberation for tomorrow."

A resident of Iowa asked: "As viewed from the Balkans, which nations now appear to be in the best positions as regards ultimate victory?"

"As viewed from the Balkans," replied Mr. Stowe, "the military situation of the Axis partners and the British is very closely balanced, even though the Balkan peoples overwhelmingly count upon a British victory."

The Balkan peoples overwhelmingly expect British victory: Europe is a vast recruiting ground for armies of liberation.

These are the observations of an American newspaperman who has been on the scene.

This is a war in which moral force will in the end count overwhelmingly, and clearly the lines which will direct it and cause it to build up on the side of the British Alliance have already been drawn.

Today's Horoscope

An excellent year lies ahead of those who have birthdays today. Their business and fortunes will expand, and they will experience much happiness. They should, however, be on their guard against attempted treachery. Born on this date a child will evince exceptional engineering or artistic abilities, and be very clever, popular and successful. He or she will be emotional and impressionable, and because of these qualities, will be liable to be imposed upon.

Verse

THE MERCHANT SEAMAN

(Written by two officers in that gallant service, the Merchant Navy):

You have seen him on the street,
Rolling round on groggy feet,
You've despised him, when he's been out on a "spree";
But you didn't see the trip,
On a dark and lonely ship,
Through a submarine and mine-infested sea/

You have cheered the Navy lads,
In their heavy Ironclads,
You can spare a cheer for Tommy Atkins, too;
You may have a touch of funk
When you read "Big mail boat sunk",
But did you think about the Merchant Service crew?

You have mourned about the cost
Of every vessel lost,
It puts you in a pessimistic mood;
But you've never said: "Well, done."
Or congratulated one,
Who helps to bring your wife and kiddies food.

He has brought your wounded home,
Through a mine-infested zone;
He has ferried all the troops to France by night;
He belongs to no brigade,
Is neglected, underpaid,
Yet is often in the thickest of the fight.

He has fought the lurking Hun,
With an ancient four-inch gun,
And does his bit to get them on the run.
Yet you've never heard him boast,
To the folks who need him most,
In fact he's sort of reticent and glum.

Wouldn't you feel that way too?
If, no matter what you do,
You're still another Merchant Service "bum"?
He can collar Huns, and smite 'em,
To the real "ad infinitum,"
And for "Wops" he doesn't care a damn;

His social standing's nil,
You regard him as a "pill,"
But you've got to hand it to him—
"He's a Man!"

The New Magna Carta

(By the British Ministry of Information).

Nine years ago a problem was solved which had puzzled British statesmen for three hundred years. The problem was this: Every previous Empire in history had been held together by the obedience of the "Colonies" to the rule of the Mother Country. But that would not do for the men of these Islands who went overseas: they claimed a freedom of their own and the right to manage their own affairs.

Step by step a new plan has been worked out. Under this new plan, daughter nations overseas, upon reaching political maturity, are no longer subject to the mother nation. They become willing partners in a free association of equal nations.

By 1931 this new plan of national independence, combined with loyalty freely given to the family of nations, was an accomplished fact—a political reality. The Statute of Westminster, which gave it legal shape, ranks with Magna Carta as one of the great documents of the human race.

Why do we call this Statute of Westminster the "new Magna Carta"? For this reason. The charter signed by King John in 1215 preserved the State of England by safe-guarding the rights of individual citizens: The Statute of Westminster preserved the British Commonwealth by guaranteeing the liberties of member nations.

So the British people solved their problem: but they did more. They gave to other nations on example of a method by which free peoples could live and work together in peace for a common civilization.

We are not fighting for power or wealth: we are not fighting merely for our lives: we are not even fighting only for the liberation of Europe from the evil things. We are fighting in a Crusade to preserve and develop the greatest achievement in free co-operation between nations that mankind has yet seen. The British Commonwealth of Nations has the honor to hold in its hands the future of the world.

Dust of Gold

"Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."
—Heb. 11: 1

Edgar J. Goodspeed translates the above verse in this manner. "Faith means the assurance of what we hope for; it is our conviction about things that we cannot see."

An Anglican Minister in the States had such a real faith and conviction in the words that Jesus spoke, "Greater thangs than these shall ye do" and "The things that I do shall ye do also" that one day he prayed: "Jesus if you ever healed when you were on earth, heal this child now and prove thyself." The result—the child was heeled. Since then many have sought his prayers and many have been healed and brought closer to God. Do you believe God is able today to do in this age what he did over 1900 years ago? Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God.

Press Comment

'THE MATTER IS BEING EXAMINED'

The Minister of Naval Service, Angus L. Macdonald, told reporters of a welcome addition of a former United States destroyer to the Canadian navy to replace the destroyer Margaree lost on active service last October.

It would have been encouraging to hear that the Government had been persuaded to go ahead with the building of more adequate warships, including cruisers and destroyers for the Canadian navy; but after about six months in office, Angus L. Macdonald could only say that "the matter will be examined. It will be a gradual development. After all you cannot build ships or train men overnight. All that takes time."

There is surely the more reason for getting started at least to build warships for the Canadian navy equal in strength to the fine Australian cruisers and destroyers at present under construction in Australian shipyards.

During the 16 months since Canada declared war, great strides could have been made toward the launching of warships designed for service under winter conditions on the North Atlantic.

At this moment, however, the Government is unable to announce even two former Canadian National passenger ships are ready to join the navy after being converted into armed cruisers. They were tied up in idleness when the war began. There has been profound lack of decision in the Government, or the workers in Canadian shipyards would have been inspired long ago to get the converted cruisers into readiness for commission.

Without bewailing the delay, although it goes on from month to month as the climax of the battle of Britain is being approached, there has surely been ample time to allow the Government to come to a decision on the necessity of providing the Canadian navy men with proper ships.—Ottawa Citizen.

OUR FIRST ALLEGIANCE

First and foremost let us all who have taken upon ourselves the privileges and responsibilities of Canadian citizenship fully realize that whatever ties of kinship and sentiment we may have with other lands that Canada must claim our first allegiance. This will make it more difficult for undesirable elements to establish themselves among us. It will also help to bring about what the people of this country need more than anything else, namely a greater faith in Canada and a much stronger unity of ideals and purpose in making it a still greater and honored nation within the folds of the British Empire.

It is not suggested that this country has its fifth columnists, yet Norway has her Quisling and France her Laval. Let us be ready to put into deeds and action the words of the National Anthem of our Dominion: "O Canada we stand off guard for thee."—"Der Nordwestern", German language weekly, Winnipeg.

RUBBER FENDERS

Many a motorist over here has wished for just such equipment after a minor smash. Rubber fenders are now found on some buses here, but it will be one gain from the war if they become standard on private cars.—Victoria Times.

Board of Trade to Ask Howe for Daylight Saving

Nelson Board of Trade will urge Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Munitions and Supply, to extend daylight saving hours to British Columbia. The Board, at its luncheon meeting at the Hume Thursday, instructed the Public Service Committee headed by Dr. G. A. C. Walley to prepare a resolution.

If it was worthwhile in Eastern Canada to economize on power, it was worthwhile in British Columbia, asserted H. B. Gore. This year the B.C. Government would spend $50,000 on a tourist promotion campaign, and the extra hour of daylight would be a great aid to the tourist industry, he claimed, because it would provide a longer evening. Tourists said repeatedly that dark came too soon in this district, and advanced time would provide an additional hour.

R. D. Barnes recalled that daylight saving was "a boon to this district in the last war" and asserted it would benefit the whole community. He said he also had heard tourists complain of "short evenings" in this district.

Polish Film Actor Mysteriously Killed

LONDON, March 13 (CP Cable)—The Polish Telegraphic Agency reported today Igo Sym, Polish film actor and producer who had collaborated with the Germans was mysteriously killed last week in his Warsaw apartment.

As a result of the killing the agency said, Poles in Warsaw were forbidden to organize shows, concerts or entertainments in Warsaw for a month.

The Gestapo also took a number of Poles into custody and announced they would be shot unless the slayer of Sym surrenders.

London Streets Form Own Groups to Protect Homes

By FRANK BACKHOUSE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 13 (CP). — Mobilization of London's civilians for fire-fighting and watching followed rapidly upon the introduction of the scheme by Herbert Morrison, Minister of Home Security.

Every street in the metropolis has formed its own group of voluntary fire-fighters and watchers to protect their own homes.

Let's take Hindmans Road in South East London as an example. This 700-yard stretch is probably one of the best equipped and planned in Camberwell Borough.

Fifty seven of us who live in Hindmans Road volunteered as fire-watchers. Frank Bambridge, middle-aged bus conductor, was appointed leader of the Road's fire party.

First the number of stirrup pumps was increased from four to nine, residents donating money for the extra five. Everyone has been instructed to have a bucket of water and sand at the front gate and each of the 150 houses in Hindmans Road has its own sandbag.

The working schedule drawn up by Brambridge covers the period 10 P.M.-6 A.M. Two men patrol the street during those hours in four-hour shifts. Divided amongst 57 volunteers this means the patrollers are on duty once a fortnight. No schedule was made to cover any "incidents" that might occur during the blackout before 10 P.M. or after 6 A.M. most residents are available at those times for immediate duty in any event.

Our party hopes to save Hindmans Road from serious blazes and relieve pressure on the regular firemen and A.F.S.

Our motto is: "No fires if we can prevent them."

Mrs. Churchill Is Y.W.C.A. Head of War Work Appeal

TORONTO—Mrs. Winston Churchill, wife of Britain's Prime Minister, has become president of the British Young Women's Christian Association war work appeal, according to word received by Mrs. Edith Rouse, World President of the Y.W.C.A., in Washington, D. C. The announcement was made in a letter to Miss Rouse from Viscountess Halifax who was President of the British "Y" War Work up to the time she left England.

The Y.W.C.A. in Britain in common with everyone else, has suffered severely from the heavy bombing raids on London, Coventry, Bristol, Birmingham, Manchester and Sheffield. But according to a report just received by the National Council, in every one of these areas the "Y" is carrying on. When buildings are damaged, records and whatever equipment is left is moved to another building and temporary quarters are set up.

In a recent raid on Bristol, the Y.W.C.A. hostel was completely destroyed and Miss Bryce Buchanan, the warden and 12 residents were killed. In Birmingham damage to Y.W.C.A. property has not been so serious and one of the main buildings is being used as a warden's post a first aid post and a feeding centre in addition to all the regular Y.W.C.A. activities. In Coventry the report goes on, many of the girls in residence were bombed two or three times and were finally left with only the clothes they stood in. Clothing from America was received with great thanks. "There is a great difference in the morale of a girl when she is properly fitted out," the secretary writes.

MEN ASSISTED

"In Sheffield many of the main buildings were destroyed during a heavy raid but the Y.W.C.A. stood intact. Police and A.F.S. men coming in from neighbouring boroughs had nowhere to go for meals, all the mobile canteens were needed by the people in the streets. So the Y.W.C.A. took the men in, fed them and gave them a place in which to rest. A night canteen and a dormitory for stranded girls is also operated by the Y.W.C.A. in this city.

"Another need now being met by the Y.W.C.A. in Sheffield is service to girls suddenly unemployed by the closing of big shops. The Y has opened a number of daytime clubs and classes of all kinds for girls the report states.

In addition to day and night service for civilians, especially the girls and women of England the Y. W. C. A. is serving all the women of the uniformed forces, providing them with mobile service cars, recreation huts and hostels, comforts, libraries, and many other types of service.

SERIAL STORY . . . . . By ELLIOTT FILLION

Murder Makes a Hero

CHAPTER FORTY-FIVE

I flew out of the room. Up the stairs to Janet, I dashed. She was just coming into the hall.

"Wait for me, Janet," I panted. "I'm coming, too. I can help."

But Janet refused my offer.

"No, Nancy," she said. "You're only a little bit of a thing. You stay here and look after Aunt Beulah and Cary."

I think she saw my face harden at her last word. I know I felt my muscles involuntarily stiffen.

Her hand fell insistently on my arm.

"You don't know, Nancy; you can't know what he's going through. I have only a vague idea of it. Don't be too bitter; you may be sorry some day." Her hand fell; she started down the hall.

I looked after her. I couldn't say to her the things which surged to my lips. She had her own burden to bear, she loved her brother, and I would only hurt her unnecessarily. I bit my lip until the sickly salt taste of blood filled my mouth. Did she think that I could ever overlook his cravenness, ever respect him again?

She was halfway down the hall when she suddenly stopped and ran back to me. My heart leaped. Was she going to let me go with her?

"Nancy," her voice was low and urgent, "go up to the attic and watch me from there. You can just see the bridge through the trees. If I — don't make it, send Alice to Wetuxet for help. Remember, I'm depending on you!"

"I will, Janet, I will!" My whole being was stirred by admiration for her. She must think she was going into danger yet she did not falter. She should have been the man, Cary the girl!

I raced to the head of the stairs and watched her, with Johnny, go out the door. The wind was certainly growing stronger, for the combined efforts of Mrs. Gould and old Jabez were insufficient to close the door after them. They called Cary to their assistance, and I leaned over the balustrade and watched him. I should have thought he would be ashamed to death to close that door on his sister and that plucky boy. My heart gave me an unmerciful pang. That fine figure, broadshouldered, that finely carried head, how could such a striking physique be inhabited by a poltroon's soul?

I turned to go to the attic. Mrs. Gould looked up and saw me.

"Are you coming down again, Nancy?" she asked.

"No, Janet asked me to watch her from the attic window."

"Wait for me, I'll come, too."

She came up the stairs and, to my utter surprise, Cary followed. Probably afraid even to remain downstairs alone, I thought scornfully, leading the way to the attic.

I had thought that, better than the attic, I would go onto the Captain's Walk and watch from there, but I dismissed that idea when I felt the tremors which shook the stout, well-built house.

There were two windows facing toward the fishing village. Mrs. Gould and I stationed ourselves in one, Cary silently took his place at the other.

Presently, I caught sight of Janet and Johnny, far below us, struggling against the wind. Their pace was so slow that I was in an agony of fear lest they might not reach Kaye in time. If I felt that way, how much more intensely must her mother be suffering. I slipped my arm through hers, and she took her gaze from the outside world long enough to flash me a grateful glance.

I followed Janet's and Johnny's progress as closely as was possible. Occasionally a thicker growth of trees hid them from sight, and I would be compelled to wait in suspense until the reappeared. When they went down the slope to the fishing village, they were hidden for a time, and I looked ahead to where they must come into sight again at the nearer end of the bridge.

My heart stood still as I looked. Where the bridge had been was an expanse of dashing waves! What would they do?

When those tiny figures came again into sight, I watched breathlessly. They did not hesitate. Steadily they stepped into the water, inch by inch they crept along, hanging to the rail, which at times was submerged. They were a quarter over, a half, three-quarters. A wave which seemed to me mountain high swept down upon the bridge. The world turned black. When I could see again, Janet was steadily moving toward the farther end. Johnny was gone.

How's the Food Over There Nazis Query Travellers

By LOUIS P. LOCHNER
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, March 13 (AP). — It's a man's world more than even in Germany now. This was made plain on our return to Germany from a four-week vacation in the Swiss Alps.

At Basel my wife was unable to obtain a berth because all German sleepers now are reserved for men.

"During these war times men travelling through the night must arrive at their destination fully rested," was the explanation offered us.

On the train, we noticed the look of surprise on fellow passengers when they saw our tanned faces. Other travellers were for the most part pale and it seemed to us that they, as belligerents, were far more nervous than the neutral Swiss.

One stock question asked by virtually everbody who learned we came from Switzerland was:

"How's the food over there?"

One who asked this question immediately added:

"I really need not ask, for I see how well fed and healthy you look."

We re-entered Germany on one of those monthly one-dish Sundays — when all Germany eats only a one-course dinner.

We saw many trains of coal and lumber rolling in the direction of Italy.

One of the most interesting sights along the route was a big flotilla of barrage balloons, like those Great Britain uses, hovering over a large industrial plant.

VANCOUVER WOMEN WARNED AGAINST THIEVES

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP) — Plagued by an epidemic of purse snatchings, police here are suggesting women might start carrying money in the tops of their stockings, again. Other suggestions to women are that they don't walk the streets at night, take along a male escort and leave their purses at home, if they do go out alone.

LONDON, March 13 (CP)— The House of Commons in secret session today heard a confidential report on the shipping situation and Britain's chances of keeping ahead of German raiders in the battle of the Atlantic.

Urges Gov't to Accept Peace Plea of Pope

LONDON, March 13 (CP).—The Government was urged by a Member of Parliament today to accept the Christmas plea of Pope Pius as its peace aim.

Richard Stokes, Labor, recommended in the House of Commons that the Government make a pronouncement similar to the Pope's, which called for a new order in which men and nations must triumph over hatred, mistrust, the idea that might makes right, economic maladjustment and close egoism.

Clement Attlee, for the Government, rejected immediate consideration of the proposal, but said it would be taken into account.

War Saving Drive Definite Success Mann Tells Board

Nelson's War Savings Certificate drive was "definitely a success", Ald. E. A. Mann told the Nelson Board of Trade Thursday.

The drive was complete, with the exception of two or three reports yet to be turned in.

"We are not going to reach our objective, but we knew that before we started," he said. "It was set too high to begin with."

Canvassers had been given a kindly reception in almost all cases, Alderman Mann stated. He thanked Board of Trade members for their assistance.

CITRINE BROADCAST AGAINST REGULATIONS

LONDON, March 13 (CP) — The House of Commons was told today by a Government spokesman that a planned radio address by Sir Walter Citrine General Secretary of the Trades Union Congress, was censored because it violated "standing censorship instructions which prohibit mention of a particular subject in the interests of national security."

Sir Walter said last week he had refused to make a broadcast to United States after the censor had deleted part of his script.

Best Seller Author May Be Deported

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—United States immigration officials, it was learned today, have begun an investigation of Jan Valtin, author of the current best-seller: "Out at Night."

The author's own statements, a justice department official said, were the basis on which the first step in deportation proceedings was taken.

Valtin, who acknowledges the name he uses is a literary pseudonym, described in his book his alleged experiences as a Communist agitator in his native Germany, then as a Gestapo agent and later as an agitator who sought overthrow of the government in the United States. He told also of entering the country illegally and of reversing his belief in Communism.

Necessities . . .

Value Tips When Buying Foods

Here are some facts on "getting the most for your money."

DAILY NECESSITIES

Give the whole family—every day—bread and other grain foods, like cracked wheat, corn meal mush, oatmeal, rice, grits.

Potatoes.

Milk: fresh, evaporated or dried.

One or more vegetables or fruits especially vegetables of green or yellow color.

Molasses, sugar and other fats.

Butter, lard, fat meat, other fats.

Plenty of water to drink.

OTHER IMPORTANT FOODS

Several times a week—Tomatoes, raw cabbage, or raw fruit.

Dried beans, peas or peanuts.

Some lean meat, poultry, eggs, fresh fish, canned salmon, or cheese.

Give young children — Milk at every meal.

Tomato or orange juice every day.

Several eggs a week if possible.

MORE FOOD FACTS

Milk is the cheapest and best body building food. Dried beans are many-sided foods and inexpensive. Lean meat, poultry, fish and eggs are best muscle building foods, eggs being especially important for children. Tomatoes, raw cabbage and orange have high food values. Babies and little children need orange or tomato juice every day. Vegetables and fruits are needed by every member of the family.

Dark parts of grain are important in low-cost diets, since they contain valuable ingredients that are sometimes removed in refined foods. All grain foods are cheap. They are good body builders especially when combined with milk, essential daily food. Cooked in the skins, they retain their full food value.

Foods rich in fat supply abundant fuel and flavor the meal. Too much fat may delay digestion, especially fried fat. Milk fats should be used in foods daily, particularly children.

For babies and young children, food selection and preparation had better be with the advice of the pediatrician.

OLDTIMER BURIED

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP) — Funeral services were held here today for Angus McLeod Fraser, 80, for many years a prominent local union executive.

CANADIAN SOLDIER SENTENCED 3 YEARS

WINCHESTER, England, March 13 (CP Cable) Sgt. Ralph Roswell Bishop, 39, of the Canadian Army, was sentenced to three years imprisonment at the Hampshire assizes today for robbing with violence a fellow Canadian, Pte. James Finn of the Royal Canadian Artillery.

Athlone Praises Services Drive

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP)—Services being rendered the armed forces at home and overseas by Canadian auxiliary organizations "signify to them the affection and thoughtfulness of 'the folks back home'," the Governor-General said in a letter released today endorsing the Canadian War Services fund campaign starting March 24.

The letter, addressed to Maj.-Gen. A. D. McRae, Toronto, National Chairman of the fund, was in acceptance of an invitation extended His Excellency and Princess Alice to be patrons of the drive.

A similar letter of endorsation was released simultaneously from the office of Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Lord Athlone endorsed the principle of the combined appeal, in which the Canadian Legion, Salvation Army, Knights of Columbus, Y.M.C.A., I.O.D.E., and the Y.W.C.A. will seek $5,500,000 to carry on their essential services among Canadian fighting men for the next 12 months.

The campaign will be the only national campaign to be held this year by these organizations and the money will be used on a strictly non-profit making basis to continue education services, entertainment, recreation, sports and personal assistance.

Mr. King's statement gave the Government's "unqualified" approval to the cooperative appeal and expressed confidence in the warmth and generosity of the response which will be made.

NAZIS REFUSE SAFE CONDUCT TO BRITISH

VICHY, France, March 13 (AP)—Efforts to repatriate hundreds of British subjects living in unoccupied France have failed, it was reported today, because of German refusal to guarantee safe conduct. It had been proposed a troopship accommodating 1700 persons be used and the Italians were said to have agreed to her sailing. Some 600 British subjects had signified a desire to take the boat.

Germans Claim Willkie Ancestors Were Driven Out of Germany by Jews

BERLIN, March 13 (AP)— The German Press today gave prominent position to stories alleging that a Jew was responsible for Wendell L. Willkie's father leaving Germany.

First, the grandfather earned his living as a workman in that town, and second, that he was forced to emigrate from his homeland because he and his family had been cheated by a Jew.

The German News and Propaganda Agency alleged Willkie's family was traced in an effort to refute a statement by the American that his grandparents migrated to the United States as a protest against tyranny.

The Berliner Zeitung said Willkie's grandfather was listed in the records as Joseph Wilhelm Willcke, a coppersmith who had hoped to carry on business in his deceased father's shop.

A family disagreement arose over the will, the newspaper said, whereupon the widow of the deceased, stepmother of Joseph Willcke, sold the property to a Jewish neighbor named Bernhard Gerson.

The article detailed an involved financial transaction in which the widow received none of the purchase money but was dispossessed.

"Willcke had enough," the account continued, and "August 14, 1860, he embarked alone on the Steamer Bavaria in Hamburg for America."

Willkie, in a statement in London before he ended his tour of Britain Feb. 5 and broadcast by the British Broadcasting Corporation in its German news transmission, said:

"I am of purely German descent. My family is not Willkie but Willcke —Willkie and German versions of spelling differ.) My grandparents left Germany 90 years ago because they were Protestants against Autocracy and demanded the right to live as free men. I, too, claim that right.

"I am proud of my German blood but I hate aggression and tyranny.

"Tell the German people that we German-Americans reject and hate the aggression and lust for power of the present German Government.

The London Daily Herald at that time said the message would be printed and spread over Germany in a "leaflet raid."

Berlin Is Pounded as Britain Opens Up Offensive War

LONDON, March 13 (CP). — Storming over the Continent from Cologne to Berlin and from the Low Countries to Norway, the Royal Air Force has launched its strongest offensive of the war.

British planes sped across the English Channel this afternoon to follow up "very successful" raids yesterday and last night on Berlin, industrial plants at Bremen, naval shipbuilding yards at Hamburg, airdromes in Norway and the Netherlands, docks at Boulogne and shipping at Ijmuiden, the Netherlands, and at Ostend, Belgium.

With new and more powerful bombers thrown into the assault, a well-placed source declared today that as a result of passage of the United States British Aid Bill, "We now are able to launch a really offensive war."

Britain, he added, is in a position to open up with everything she has because she does not have to worry about where she is to get more war equipment or how she is going to pay for it.

"We are not able to risk exhausting our reserves before because we had quite frankly reached the point where we just didn't have the money for replacing on a cash-and-carry basis," the informant added. "It kept us penuriously defensive."

Big flights of United States-made Consolidated and four-motored Boeing bombers to help British Short Stirlings and Avro-Manchesters in heavy long-range bombing, a well-placed source said, would enable the R.A.F. to spread its attacking area.

This spread, he said, besides increasing effectiveness of the raids, is expected also to force the Germans to disperse their anti-aircraft defences.

Heretofore the Nazis were able to concentrate their guns — and the informant said they had many more than Britain, especially at first — around points liable to be attacked.

Britain's own night fighters are using new weapons in defensive warfare and her barrages are operated on a shotgun system of concentrating a pattern of shells in heavy coordinating fire.

There also is a new balloon barrage described as "lethal."

The British bomber offensive against Germany's home front was viewed by observers as strengthening indirectly the British Middle East forces.

Several "new and more powerful" types of planes were used in the attack on Berlin — first raid on the German capital since Dec. 20.

"Large and numerous" fires were started in Berlin by the raiders using "very heavy bombs."

At Bremen direct hits were scored on "a target of great importance" in the industrial area of the city and at Hamburg "many fires and explosions" were started in shipyards and the industrial section.

Five British planes were lost in these amazing blows, which the Air Ministry itself described as "the heaviest attack yet made on Germany."

"In addition to the older type of aircraft of the Bomber Command, several new and more powerful types were again in action and carried very heavy bombs."

(These may have included new four-motored United States-made bombers which have been flown across the Atlantic.)

The fires started in Berlin were said to have been "especially numerous" in the neighborhood of railway yards.

At Hamburg, Germany's greatest port, the German naval shipyards and industrial district "received special attention."

One Nazi fighter was destroyed over Germany while attempting to intercept the R.A.F. attackers.

Schipol airdrome, near Amsterdam, was also attacked, along with other targets in Northwest Germany and the low countries.

Large fires were reported started among docks at Boulogne, one of the Nazi-held invasion ports on the French Channel coast.

A large supply ship at anchor in the Netherlands harbor of Ijmuiden and other vessels at Ostend and an airdrome in Norway were among the R.A.F. targets.

Fair weather aped the raiders on a 1900-mile round trip which ended the immunity from aerial attack which the German capital has enjoyed for 82 longer winter nights.

Hamburg, a city of 1,133,000 situated on the Elbe River 177 miles Northwest of Berlin, has been raided repeatedly during the Winter by the R.A.F., which has seen heavy damage to the port area. Before the war more overseas trade passed through the city than through any other German port.

Bremen, rated second in importance to Hamburg as a maritime shipping centre, also has been bombed repeatedly. The city which has a population of about 250,000, is located about 60 miles Southwest of Hamburg on the Weser River.

A SOUTHCOAST TOWN IN ENGLAND, March 13 (CP) — Royal Air Force planes crossed the Dover Strait toward the continent this afternoon. The planes roared through bright sunshine, apparently bound for new attacks on German objectives.

LONDON, March 13 (CP) — British fighters and bombers attacked a German occupied airdrome at Calais this afternoon, the Air Ministry announced tonight.

The Ministry also said a Nazi bomber which tried to raid Britain was intercepted and shot down.

LONDON, March 13 (CP) — The Air Ministry News Service reported today that a British plane torpedoed a German destroyer in the Skagerrak last night.

The planes' crew reported it was too dark to see whether the German warship was sunk, but said she ceased firing after the torpedo exploded.

The rear gunner of the attacking plane—a Beaufort—said the flash when the torpedo exploded was "as big as a house."

Italians Fall Before Powerful Greek Resistance

ATHENS, March 13 (AP).—Dispatches from the Albanian front today said the largest scale offensive presumably ordered by Mussolini himself from field headquarters had failed before powerful Greek resistance.

An earlier report said Mussolini had given his generals until Saturday to "do something."

The Italians, dispatches from the front said, have been unable to gain a single inch of ground and in the last six days their losses unofficially have been placed at more than 10,000, including 2000 dead. These figures do not cover the 3500 prisoners listed by the Greeks.

A Greek spokesman said captured Italian officers reported Mussolini has been in Albania almost a week to bolster the morale of his troops and himself had ordered the recent ferocious series of attacks on the central front, attacks which the Greeks reported smashed over a 12-mile sector in four days of bloody fighting.

Greek army circles said the accelerated attacks—described as the heaviest of the war and apparently centred around the vital Tepeleni area—cost the Italians heavily in manpower. The spokesman said the battlefield was strewn with dead and wounded Fascist soldiers.

Italian Island Heavily Bombed

CAIRO, Egypt, March 13 (AP).—British bombers carried out a heavy attack on airdromes on the Italian island of Rhodes last night. Rhodes is on the Dodecanese Island in the Eastern Mediterranean.

CAIRO, Egypt, March 13 (AP).—Mopping up in Italian Somaliland by British Imperial forces "continues in all sectors," the Middle East command announced today.

Royal Air Force headquarters said South African airmen attacked Italian planes on the ground at Asmara, capital of Eritrea, last Tuesday and made damaging raids upon freight trains on the line between Asmara and Cheren, besieged mountain stronghold 42 miles Northwest of the capital.

YEVELLO CAPTURED

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, March 13 (CP).—British headquarters said today it had been confirmed that native Ethiopians fighting on the British side had captured Yevello, oft-bombed Italian strongpoint about 100 miles inside Southwestern Ethiopia.

Says Aid to Britain Is Major Part of U.S. Defence

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP) —Navy Secretary Frank Knox told the House of Representatives Appropriations Committee in testimony made public today that the German, Italian and Japanese fleets comprised 1,835,000 tons as of last Jan. 1, compared with 1,250,000 tons of the United States. Acquisition of the French fleet would swell the Axis strength.

Col. Knox said in testimony on the American Navy's Supply Bill for the coming fiscal year that major units of the two-ocean fleet under construction would not be completed until 1946-47. He added that the U. S. is confronted with these two possible developments:

"1. The defeat of Great Britain in the near future, leaving us to face the united strength of the Axis powers on a two-ocean front.

"2. The possibility of Japan becoming an active participant as a belligerent in the Far East on the side of the Axis.

"It is obviously to our interest to prevent either of these possibilities from becoming realities as it is probable they would result in the United States becoming involved in a war."

The policy of aiding Britain he added, is a major step toward meeting the problem.

Admiral Harold R. Stark, Chief of Naval Operations, reminded the Committee that while "no one can predict with accuracy the turn of events," requests undoubtedly would arise in excess of the $3,358,732,189 sought to carry on the huge naval expansion program during the year starting July 1.

Both Col. Knox and Admiral Stark told the Committee, however, that no further expansion of the fleet beyond that already under contract is contemplated.

The two appeared before the Committee personally Feb. 3. Their testimony, and that of others, was turned over to Congress today with the Committee's report on the Bill.

The Committee learned that the 50 overage destroyers turned over to Britain in exchange for Atlantic base sites were valued by the Navy at $92,141,507 plus $20,478,445 which was spent to recommission them at the beginning of the present emergency. The overall figure included $75,637,543 as the original fixed cost of the craft, $14,100,000 for their equipage, an estimated $2,223,014 for ammunition, $60,877 for provisions aboard them, $45,000 for other supplies and $75,072 for fuel oil.

In that connection, Admiral Stark testified the destroyers were worth more than when originally built because "you could not begin to reproduce them or comparable ships for that price."

Britain Announces Small Red Sea Strait Is Dangerous to Navigation

LONDON, March 13 (CP)—The Admiralty announced today the small Strait of Bab el Mandeb at the Southern end of the Red Sea is dangerous to navigation.

The Admiralty statement said:

"The Admiralty gives notice that the small strait of Bab el Mandeb is dangerous to navigation and that all vessels passing between the Red Sea and the Gulf of Aden should proceed by way of the large strait. Vessels which disregard thi swarning do so at their risk and peril."

Closure of the small strait leaves the Navy only one channel to watch Red Sea from escaping into the to prevent any Italian ships in the open ocean as the land pressure in Eritrea increases, observers said.

The Admiralty declined to disclose how it blocked the small channel between Perim Island and the Arabian coast, but probably used mines.

Bab el Mandeb is divided by the British Island of Perim. The small strait, to the Northeast, is about two miles wide. The large strait ranges from nine to 16 miles in width. Navigators commonly have used the small strait, since it is a shorter and more direct route.

The large strait is adjacent to Italian territory in East Africa and to French Somaliland.

The Island of Dumeira ceded to Italy by the French in 1925, is 16 miles Northwest of Perim and there were unconfirmed reports as much as two years ago that the Italians were fortifying it.

Germans Report "Hell on the Mersey"

BERLIN March 13 (CP)—D.N.B., German news and propaganda agency, today quoted Nazi pilots returning from last night's raid on Liverpool area that destruction on the Merseyside "exceeded that at Coventry."

"Hell broke loose on the Mersey," the agency quoted one pilot saying. He described an "ocean of flames" visible 25 minute's from the scene.

EXTEND TIME ON BEER AND WINE SELLING

Seaman Says Nazis Are Poor Shots

POWELL RIVER, B. C., March 13 (CP) — Seaman-Torpedoman James Maple, home on his first leave in almost a year, hasn't much use for the marksmanship of the Germans.

"Nazis are poor shots," he said, in recounting experiences aboard a Canadian destroyer.

"One night a flight of bombers sighted our ships," he said. "They dropped 100 bombs and not one hit us. Most of the bombs appeared to be duds. We replied with anti-aircraft fire and the planes made off on their way toward England."

U.S. Car Plants' War Production Begins to Roll

DETROIT, March 13 (AP).—The huge manufacturing facilities of the United States automotive industry have begun to "put out" in one of the most extensive military production programs in history. As of today, the bulk of defence materials which it will produce, along with aviation industry and kindred manufacturing concerns, have passed the "on order" stage and are on the way.

This is the "obvious conclusion" reported by the Trade magazine "Automotive Topics" following a survey. By early 1942, plants will be nearing their peak.

Chrysler Corporation, it says, is in production now on trucks, reconnaissance cars, shells and munitions components; by early Fall it will be turning out 25-ton tanks at the rate of five a day and probably about the same time will be in production on airplane fuselages and wing parts.

General Motors is listed as now producing Allison aircraft engines at the rate of 400 monthly with 1000 a month in prospect; manufacturing trucks; diesel engines for heavy naval duty; anti-tank gun mounts, tank transmissions and airplane parts.

The survey shows Ford in production on scout cars and trucks with delivery of aircraft engines scheduled for June; airplane wing and fuselage assemblies for mid-Summer.

Packard Motor Car Company is delivering marine engines for patrol boats near production on its rolls royce merlin aircraft motor.

Studebaker is producing trucks and will be delivering Wright aircraft engines early next year. Willys Overland is producing small scout cars.

Italians Bomb Enemy Naval Base

ROME, March 13 (AP)—The Italian High Command claimed today that Fascist troops had repulsed Greek assaults on both sides of the Vlora River in Albania and inflicted "heavy losses" on the attackers.

The daily war bulletin also said that Italian war planes had bombed "an important enemy naval base" in another phase of the Albanian campaign.

GREEK PAPER SAYS U. S. MAY SEND FORCES

ATHENS, March 13 (AP)—The Greek newspaper Kathimerini, today commenting on the United States' military aid bill, declared editorially that in addition to extending material aid, "American help will go as far as dispatching military forces to Europe if necessary."

U. S. Negotiates to Take British War Contracts

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP) —A high administration official disclosed today that the Army and reconstruction finance corporation are negotiating to take over between $300,000,000 and $350,000,000 worth of British war contracts and factories in the United States.

The official, who declined to be quoted by name, but spoke to reporters in order, he said, to clear up some misapprehensions about what was happening, said the program in no way means that the British will be relieved of the remainder of their obligations in this country."

He explained the negotiations probably would cut Britain's war obligations however, between 20 and 25 per cent, indicating total obligations for weapons and other war materials were about $1,500,000,000.

The official added that since the United States, under the lease-lend bill, would provide all new weapons desired by Britain, that country was expected to pay for the remaining contracts placed with American manufacturers before the bill was passed.

The Reconstruction Finance Committee, he explained, intended to buy through its subsidiary, the Defence Plant Corporation, British-owned munitions factories in the United States.

King Does Not Approve CCF Proposal to Appoint Undersecretaries to Relieve Ministers for War Work

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King said today he did not believe under-secretaries could relieve war ministers from attendance in the House of Commons.

He told the House this when M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. Leader, suggested appointment of parliamentary undersecretaries after Mr. King urged the importance of passing the war appropriation bill so that ministers could be relieved of constant attendance in the House and attend to the work of the war departments.

"I don't believe this House would be satisfied with an answer from an undersecretary to a question asked here," said Mr. King.

The discussion arose when E. E. Perley (Con.-Qu'Appelle) asked Mr. King if he would make time available for debate on the wheat policy announced yesterday by Trade Minister J. H. MacKinnon and Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner.

Mr. King answered in the negative and Conservative House Leader Hanson objected, suggesting the government would make more progress if it agreed to Mr. Perley's suggestion.

When Mr. Hanson suggested debate on agriculture might be limited the Prime Minister said he wondered if Mr. Hanson had the authority of the C. C. F. group in making the suggestion.

Mr. Coldwell said there was no such understanding.

Mr. Hanson questioned the urgency of the war appropriation measure because the money would not be required until after April 1. Mr. King said if the opposition wished to "obstruct" passage of the most important war measure of the session it would have to take responsibility for its actions.

Mr. Hanson said there would have to be full discussion of the sums voted for war appropriations, "but we have arrived at the place where the Government says we have no rights in this House."

Prime Minister King said the Government wanted to let ministers minds be freed of the war appropriation resolution. If discussion was interrupted, the same series of questions might be asked all over again.

Old Agreement Shows Britain Sent Arms, Munitions to U.S. 142 Years Ago

By GLADYS ARNOLD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP)—President Roosevelt's signing of Lease-Lend Bill to aid Britain resulted today in disclosure of details of a British-American agreement reached 140 years ago under which the flow of arms and munitions was in the opposite direction.

Documents on the arrangement whereby 23 cannon and nearly 2000 shots were made available by Britain in 1798 for defence of the United States were uncovered several months ago, said Dr. Gustave Lanctot, Dominion archivist.

But, he added, they weren't made public then "for fear it might be misconstrued as propaganda." Now that the Lease-Lend Bill making available to Britain large quantities of war materials was United States law, it was possible to disclose their contents.

The documents, from Nova Scotia records now in the Dominion archives, show that King George III first loaned and later gave the guns and shot to South Carolina to strengthen defences of Charleston.

The incident took place when there was general alarm over French aggression in 1798 and United States ships carrying supplies for Britain were constantly being stopped on the high seas and their cargoes confiscated by the French.

German Soldiers Patronize Jewish Stores and Accept Bribes in France

By LEON EDEL
Candian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP) — Piecing together stories from Frenchmen newly-arrived from occupied and non-occupied France, interesting light is thrown on the position of the German refugees. Protestant, Catholics and Jews who were forced to leave the Reich and found themselves, in France, once again under the heels of Nazism.

Curiously enough, so far their predicament while painful has had its humorous side, particularly in the case of certain Jewish refugees.

Able to speak German, and having familiarized themselves with France, they were greeted fraternally by German troops—someone to talk German to and do business with.

The Nazis put up signs over Jewish-owned stores indicating them to be non-Aryan—and then proceeded to patronize those stores in large numbers.

At first French citizens, seeing the anti-Jewish signs, tended to flock to the establishments as a note of defiance against the invaders.

Then when they saw the Germans flocking to these stores, they boycotted them. In the process, however, the stores did quite a thriving business.

This has been one of the curious anomalies of the occupation. There are others.

In order to eliminate possible spies and to keep close tally of the French population the German military ordered French authorities to re-register the population. All foreigners, and non-French elements had to receive cards.

German refugees waited in long lines outside French prefectures day after day, but the French were in no hurry to give them the necessary identification papers. There was interminable red tape involved.

The German military authorities considered this a slight to the Reich. German refugees, they ordered deserve prompt attention. And so the self-same Germans who at one time were driven indiscriminately from the Reich, or put in concentration camps, found themselves receiving prompt attention from French officialdom at behest of their original persecutors.

French refugees say that money talks where the German soldier is concerned.

"I have never met soldiers more open to bribery," one refugee said. "And the officers even more so. Slip them money and they will be glad to look the other way, so long as they are sure they can get away with it. And they get away with plenty."

Lethbridge Writer Bemoans Manner In Which C.A.H.A. Dictates Hockey Playdowns So as to Make Profits

From the Lethbridge Herald

Staunch hockey fans of Lethbridge and Southern Alberta are learning today—that the all-powerful Canadian Amateur Hockey Association is a despotic organization. It just about this time every year, the C.A.H.A. shows its claws and faithful fans, who have contributed all season long to the support of the club, discover that the governing body of amateur hockey regards them as merely a means to an end.

The C.A.H.A. relies on these unsuspecting groups in the smaller hockey centres to nurture the various clubs playing under its banner all season long, so that when playoff time rolls around they may step in and pluck the juicy financial plums with a minimum of effort. Looking upon the entire business with the cold and calculating eye of a loan shark, the C.A.H.A. permits no sentiment to affect playoff plans. Games are shifted to the arena with large seating capacities for the simple reason that it means a far greater monetary return for the association. It matters little that the hockey fans who made possible the production of a championship team are left holding the bag.

HUGE TRUST FUND

But while the C.A.H.A. has thrived to a point where it can set up a $50,000 trust fund as insurance on the possibility of lean years in the future, the teams have actually benefitted very little under the new deal. Most clubs are forced to base their financial structure on the hope that they will break even, possibly make a little if they make the playoff grade. If they fail in that objective they are invariably in the red.

Most operators are willing to take that gamble. If it were not for the teams themselves, the organization would not be in existence. But there is very little the individual club can do about it. Collectively the clubs created this Frankenstein and it would take concerted action to bring about a change in the set-up.

Actually the clubs have little or no say in forming the policies of the organization which they support with their contributions. As is frequently the case in governing sports bodies, control is vested in the hands of a clique whose personel changes very little with the passage of the years.

From time to time a team attempts to kick over the traces, with an outstanding lack of success. There are some who will remember the Hamilton Tigers of a few years back who, after winning their sectional championship refused to continue along the playoff path unless the C.A.H.A. made up player salaries. The association refused and the team which Hamilton had eliminated was nominated in its stead.

It so happened that the Tigers formed a team which was favored in many sections to take the Eastern title. They never had a chance to prove just how good they were.

ABOUT THE LEAFS

We have given this outline of the hockey picture in order to acquaint Southern Alberta fans with the situation which confronts directors of the Lethbridge Artificial Ice Company when they commence bidding for interprovincial playoff games. This bidding, of course, is based on the supposition that Maple Leafs will be the team to represent Alberta in interprovincial play.

If Leafs are successful and Calgary Stamps still have a large say in that matter—they will engage the B.C. champs in a best of five series. First game would be played on B. C. ice and the second here. Remaining games would go to Calgary which can guarantee a $500 sellout at prices of 75c, $1.00 and $1.25.

To get more than one game against the B. C. champs, the local arena would have to guarantee sellout prices. This still falls short of what Calgary can guarantee but is close enough to force the C.A.H.A. to give it consideration. There is a possibility that on this basis Lethbridge would get two or three games against B. C. and that in the event of getting past the far Western champs this city would get two games of the Western final on the same price basis.

This is, of course, taking a long view of a situation which may never develop but public feeling must be sounded out now if Lethbridge officials are to make any serious bid against Calgary for interprovincial contests.

That's the situation, fans. It's up to you—and the C.A.H.A.

MONTREAL AGAIN QUEBEC TITLIST

MONTREAL, March 13 (CP) — With Bill Durnan unbeatable in the nets, Montreal Royals captured the Quebec Senior Hockey League title for the third successive year tonight when they set back Ottawa Senators 2-0 in the fourth game of their best-of-five series.

By their win, Royals took the right to meet the winner of the Quebec-St. Herome intermediate series for the Provincial championship and the right to represent the Province in Allan Cup playdowns.

White Sox May Have Big Load of Grief for League

By ROBERT MYERS

PASADENA, Calif., March 13 (AP) — James Joseph Dykes, the rag-grab man of baseball, may cause some of the big money clubs of the American League more grief this season if his newly acquired talent comes up to expectations, as Chicago White Sox observers predict.

Dykes has a well balanced pitching staff, headed by Ted Lyons. He has fair catching, a first-class infield, now that the second base gap has been filled, and a hard-hitting array of outfielders.

Dykes believes he has one big worry of last season's team pretty much in hand, second base. Leading candidate for this job is Billy Knickerbocker, a fugitive from the Yankee bench.

Big Joe Kuhel will be back on first. His batting average last year was .280, but he drove in 90-odd runs to lead the club. Bob Kennedy will resume at third, provided Dario Lodigiani, from Toronto via the Philadelphia Mackmen, doesn't take over.

The outfield will be composed of Mike Kreevich, who suffered a batting slump last year, and the .300 sluggers Julius Solters and Taft Wright. Larry Rosenthal will be on hand for utility service.

The regular catcher will be Mike Tresh. Tommy Turner, an alumnus from Houston, and George Dickey, from Oklahoma City, one of the famous Dickey family, round out their back-stopping corps.

On the pitching staff Dykes has Ted Lyons who probably will post 12 or more winning games.

Eddie Smith, Johnny Rigney—provided the Army doesn't get him—Thornton Lee and Bill Dietrich complete the regular starters.

Red Sox Hitting Now Bogs Down

By The Canadian Press

HAVANA — Peewee Reese will be the "boller guy" in the Brooklyn Dodgers' infield this year, Manager Leo Durocher asked Reese to take charge last year but the Louisville youngster didn't want to boss veterans like Dolf Camilli and Cookie Lavagetto his first year up. This year Reese will be commanded to give directions out loud.

SARASOTA, Fla. — There was some question about what condition Catcher Ernie Lombardi would be in when he ended his holdout and showed up at the camp of the Cincinnati Reds. But his pal, Eddie Joost, described it like this:

"He puts on a uniform, he grabs a bat, steps up to the plate, hits three pitches on a line to the outfield, and says, 'Well, I'm ready.' And he is!"

BRADENTON, Fla. — Ernie Bonham, the young pitcher who kept the New York Yankees in the American League race last season, is suffering from a kidney ailment. His condition was revealed upon the arrival of President Ed Barrow and although it was not considered serious, Bonham was told to take things easy for a while.

SARASOTA, Fla. — Joe Cronin is so dissatisfied with the hitting of his Boston Red Sox regulars that he ordered several of them, including Ted Williams, Jimmie Foxx, Dom DiMaggio and Frank Pytlak to join him in a special batting practice before today's game with Cincinnati.

PASADENA, Calif. — Influenza has put a serious damper on the training progress of the Chicago White Sox. Six members of Manager Jimmy Dykes' squad were in bed today, victims of the flu germ. Latest to be felled was Mike Tresh, who barely had recovered from a head injury sustained last Sunday in a benefit game in Los Angeles.

"We're Sure Not Out Yet," Announces Kimberley Coach Johnny Achtzener

Third Game of Finals Scheduled at Trail Tonight

"We're down, but we're sure not out yet," Johnny Achtzener, Kimberley Dynamiters' Coach, said on Thursday as he contemplated his club's chances of extending the West Kootenay senior hockey finals at Trail tonight.

The Dynamiters know that a loss tonight would dash their championship hopes once and for all, but their spirit hasn't bogged down yet as reflected in the optimistic spirit of their mastermind. They lost the first two games of the best-of-five series 6-2 and 5-2, but in both cases breakaways from Kimberley power plays or ganging attacks accounted for the high scores against them. And another thing, from one end of the team to the other, they're not clicking the way they were against Nelson in the semifinals. Unless of course they are forced to look not so good by a super-team, and the Dynamiters aren't prepared to admit that.

After Achtzener had put his club through a fast workout at the Civic Arena Thursday afternoon, he announced he would use the same lineup again tonight. Which means Campbell in goal, Ettinger, Swaney and Almack on defence, and Wilson, Sullivan and Redding, Redisky, Patrick and Hunt, and Calles up front.

Kimberley still remembers its 1-1 tie at Trail in the two teams' last meeting of the League schedule, and with the defence greatly bolstered by Turner Valley's Pete Ettinger, the Dynamiters are confident they won't bow out of the picture in three straight. Even a tie game would send the series to a fourth game in Nelson Saturday night.

At Trail, Playing Coach Jimmy Morris announced that the lineup of his Smokies would be unchanged. Scodellaro will be in goal, Haight, Morris, Wade and McFadzen on defence, and Cronie, Buckna and Dame, Saprunoff, Hedley Marshall and Duffy on the forward lines. Christensen will again be available for utility duty on defence or on the attacking lines.

BOB MARSHALL THROUGH

TRAIL, B. C., March 13 — Bob Marshall, veteran Smoke Eater wing man, is in the Trail-Tadanac Hospital with an attack of influenza.

"He's pretty bad, and I guess he is through for the season," commented Jimmy Morris, the Smokie Coach.

Vander Meer Not Counted on, but He May Produce

The Cincinnati Reds are packed with pitching power and don't have to depend too much on question marks. Nevertheless, Manager Bill McKechnie forwards the news that he will give considerable time this Spring to his mound corps' most fluctuating commodity Johnny Vander Meer.

Last year, with only little aid from Vander Meer, who spent most of the season on option at Indianapolis, the Reds had by far the best pitching staff in the National League. Their 1941 plans have been made and Meer does not figure too largely in any of them. But the Reds plan to gamble and keep the former no-hit star on the roster. It's an ideal arrangement. If he doesn't deliver, they're still okay.

Those who saw Vander Meer pitch at Indianapolis last year, believe his chances of a comeback this year are excellent.

YANKS CALL UP WASHBURN

George Washburn, who has been in the Yankee farm system since 1935, will get a tryout with the Bombers this Spring. Washburn's trouble has been control. In his first season or two he average six walks per nine innings. He has it down to four now, and expects to improve.

Port Alberni Men Are Prize Marksmen

MONTREAL, March 13 (CP). — Three British Columbia marksmen, Albert Moul, H. Humphries and D. R. Lott, all of Port Alberni, B. C., were recently awarded the Dominion Marksmen Expert Shield award, it was announced from headquarters of the organization here today.

In winning the award, held by only a few hundred of the 40,000 registered members of the organization, the trio posted scores of 5930, 5919 and 5930, respectively, out of a possible 6000 points. To obtain the shield, a minimum of 5860 points is required.

Basketball Now Too Speedy for the Participants

Many eminent basketball experts claim that today's streamlined attack has speeded up the game to such an extent that it will burn the player out. Already there is movement afoot to restore the centre jump-off after each basket in an effort to check the furious pace which the courtmen are maintaining.

Up in Buffalo a group of physicians checked the heart action of high school players before and after contests and found that upon the completion of the game the youngster's heart action was abnormally high. In other tests in which pedometers were attached to the legs of the players it was discovered they were covering between five and 10 miles.

Forrest (Phog) Allen, in an address before the Eastern Basketball Coaches Association, had this to say last December.

"Since the elimination of the center jump-off, the game has become too fast for the younger, immature players of junior high school and high school age. Research by physicians has revealed that the health of the youngsters has been impaired. The boys have found their growth stunted and their general physical organs injured by the terrific pace now called for in basketball."

Allen suggested the center-jump be restored or a ten second lapse follow each basket. Others including Hiram Jones, Health Official of New York schools, also have been clamoring for a change.—New York Daily News.

Boston Trounces Americans 8-3 to Win National League Championship; Detroit Wings Clinch Third Place

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP). — A great Boston Bruins' hockey team — the team that Art Ross calls the best squad that he has ever managed — tonight won the National Hockey League championship for the third straight year by defeating New York Americans 8-3 in a one-sided game.

The Bruins, who first play a home-and-home series with Detroit Red Wings to end the regular season, clinched first place in the league standing and are ready to open at home March 20 against Toronto Maple Leafs in the series (A) of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

While the Americans, eliminated from play-offs and merely playing out the string, put up a good fight, they at no time threatened to defeat the powerful Bruins who scored five goals in the third period. Boston left the crowd of 8424 fans convinced that they are strong threats to win the Stanley Cup which they won last in 1939.

Americans: Robertson; H. Smith, Slobodian; Boll; Carr, Wycherley. Subs: C. Conacher, Armstrong, H. Jackson, Fiskbeiner, Allen, Larson, Thomson.

Boston: Brimsek; Clapper, Des Smith; Cowley; Wiseman, R. Conacher. Subs: Hollett, Cain, Crawford, Hill, Dumart, Schmidt, A. Jackson, Bauer, Reardon.

Officials: Stevenson and Clancy.

First period: 1, Boston, Hollett (Schmidt, Dumart) 2:46; 2, Boston, Dumart (Bauer, Schmidt) 3:59.

Penalties: None.

Second period: 3, Americans, Larson (Armstrong, H. Jackson) 1:18; 4, Americans, Wycherley (Boll, Carr) 3:45; 5, Boston, Bauer (Dumart) 14:27.

Penalties: Carr, A. Jackson, R. Smith.

Third period: 6, Boston, Cowley (Hollett, Wiseman) 4:26; 7, Boston, Schmidt (Bauer) 9:24; 8, Boston, Hollett 10:16; 9, Americans, Boll 12:47; 10, Boston, A. Jackson (Reardon) 15.05; 11, Boston, R. Conacher (Cowley, Clapper) 19:30.

Penalties: None.

DETROIT, March 13 (AP). — Detroit Red Wings made certain of their No. 3 spot in the National Hockey League standings tonight when they defeated Chicago Black Hawks 3-2 on a goal by Bill Jennings in the final two-minutes of play before 5952 fans.

In clinching third place the Wings assured themselves of starting the playoff series with the fourth-place New York Rangers on home ice.

Chicago: Lo Presti; Cooper, MacKay; Dahlstrom; Herzesheimer, Allen. Subs: Wiebe, March, Papike, Bob Carse, Thoms, D. Bentley, Seibert, M. Bentley, Chad.

Detroit: Mowers; Orlando, Stewart; Grosso; Jennings, Abel. Subs: Goodfellow, Liscombe, Howe, Bruneteau, Giesebrecht, Fisher, Whitelaw.

First period: 1, Chicago, Carse (Thoms) 5:24.

Penalties: None.

Second period: 2, Detroit, Grosso (Jennings, Orlando) 2:50; 3, Detroit, Bruneteau, (Howe, Giesebrecht) 4:11; 4, Chicago, Allen (Seibert) 12:26.

Penalty: Jennings.

Third period: 6, Detroit, Jennings (Abel, Grosso) 18:46.

Penalties: None.

Trail and Nelson Lock in Playoff Men's Hoop Clash in Nelson Tonight

Trail and Nelson Girls to Play in Special Curtain-Raiser

"Well, we certainly saw basketball as it should be played," Roy Temple, Coach of the Nelson Nuthatchers, said after coming back from Trail where they absorbed a 56-10 shellacking in the first game of a Kootenay championship playoff series in provincial intermediate A men's basketball playdowns.

"It does look pretty tough to chop down that lead, doesn't it?" was Temple's reply when asked how much chance there was of the Nelson basketballers getting back into the winning when the series is concluded at the Civic Centre tonight at 8 o'clock.

Trail's perfectly-executed screen plays, that effectively blocked the Nelson hoopsters consistently out of the play, comprised the main difference between the two teams. The Nuthatchers were off in their shooting, and but for that, the score could have been of much closer proportions.

DEVISE NEW STRATEGY

Temple said that Thursday his team devised means of dealing with Trail's blocking system, and he expected that fans would see a great exhibition of basketball tonight, even though it seemed out of the question to cut down Trail's big margin.

At 7 o'clock tonight, Trail Jimmies and Nelson Aces will lock up in an exhibition girls' basketball game as an additional treat for the fans. The Nelson girls will be Vera Matheson, Louise Coletti, Mary Del-Puppo, Isabelle Kay, Edna Peacock, Mary McDougall, Doreen Long and Isabel Donovan.

The Nuthatchers' lineup will be exactly the same as for the opening game, with the addition of Roy Mann. Mann was in strip at Trail, but was not used. He is just recovering from a broken leg suffered in City League play nearly two months ago.

The rest of the team will be Olaf Hopland, Joe Hilliard and Arne Henrickson, guards, and Delbert Smiley, Elmer Tattrie, Albert Hooker and Paul Hlookoff, forwards.

Jim Cherrington and Bob Paterson will referee.

The game originally scheduled between the Pucksters and the Fairview Falcons, City champions, had to be called off since two or three of the hockey imports have since left town.

PROMISING PIRATE CATCHER SENT DOWN

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., March 13 (AP)—Eddie Fernandes, promising young catcher, was sent to St. Paul on option today by the Pittsburgh Pirates, whose exhibition contest with the Athletics was rained out.

Fernandes was obtained last Summer from Portland for cash, pitcher Ray Harrell and another player, but failed to continue the fast pace he had set in the Pacific Coast League.

St. Louis Cards Seem About Set

By GAYLE TALBOT
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 13 (AP)—Manager Billy Southworth of the St. Louis Cardinals admits he has more good-looking young players than he knows what to do with for the time being. "And it's a comfortable sort of problem to have, too," he adds.

The Cards, after a disastrous start, came like the wind in the second half of the 1940 National League campaign under Southworth's leadership. This year if a couple of their rookie pitchers come through they should give the champion Cincinnati Reds a genuine battle.

"As I see it, we're going to be in a three-cornered race with Cincinnati and Brooklyn, and I have a feeling Jimmy Wilson will whip those Chicago Cubs in a contender," Southworth said.

"I had an infield problem when we started training, but it's all straightened out now since this Steve Mesner from San Diego took over third base. Martin Marion is set at short and Jimmie Brown will make us stronger at second. Johnny Mize, of course, will take over first when his holdout is settled, but in the meantime I'm using Don Padgett there.

"Enos Slaughter will continue in right field and Terry Moore in center, with Ernie Koy and Harry Walker fighting it out in left. Walker (who hit .313 for Columbus last year) looks very good. Probably I'll use him and Koy to give Moore an occasional rest in center.

"We have the nucleus of a good pitching staff in Lonnie Warneke, Mort Cooper, Clyde Shoun and Max Lanier. And two of the youngsters look great—Spud Krist and Ernie White."

Four Clubs Are Taking Entries for Bird Tourney

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—Entries to the Trail-Tadanac-Rossland open badminton tournament, to take place in the Tadanac Community Hall on March 26-27-28 and 29, are being taken by Ned Rhodes and Jack West, Royals Club; W. O. Williams, Memorial Club; Newton Robinson, Tadanac Club; and Joe McDonnell, Rossland Club.

NEVER LIKE THIS

DETROIT, March 13 (AP).—Fight training was never like this until Joe Louis returned to his home town to prepare for his 15th heavyweight title defence March 21 against big Abe Simon.

That's the testimony of Jack Blackburn, Louis' shrewd trainer, who gazes incredibly at the swanky training quarters and sighs reverently, "those boys in my day wouldn't believe it if they saw it."

The Louis training ring is pitched front and centre on the slickest dance floor in Detroit's Harlem. Each day the 27-year-old champion, who sprang from a $5 a day job to the high income tax brackets, commutes 80 miles from his dude ranch at Utica, Mich., to appear in the air conditioned surroundings of Dance Paradise, an up to the minute jitterbug joint.

Rays from the sidewall tube lighting shine on the camp followers in black leather easy chairs. Meanwhile the 250-pound Simon is training in a comparatively quiet downtown gymnasium.

All-Star Hockey Teams

Board Authorities Luncheon for War Work Discussion

Nelson Board of Trade on Thursday authorized its Council to arrange an informal luncheon March 19 at which W. Lloyd Craig, representative of the B.C. Department of Trade and Industry at Ottawa, can discuss war industry and contracts as affecting this Province.

The Board accepted the recommendation of the Nelson War Committee, presented by Robert Foxall, Chairman, that an informal luncheon should be held and that invitations to attend should be extended to interested individuals.

A committee of A. H. Allan, President of the Board, Mayor N. C. Stibbs, and Mr. Foxall will meet Mr. Craig when he arrives from the Coast March 18 with W. J. Asselstine Minister of Mines and Minister of Trade and Industry.

J. R. Hunter, President of the Chamber of Mines of Eastern British Columbia, invited Board members to attend a luncheon to be tendered March 20 to Mr. Asselstine. Roger Oscarson, of Spokane, will speak on the gold situation in the United States, and other Spokane mining men will also attend.

Board Requested to Aid Survey of Industrial Plants

Advice that the Canadian Manufacturers' Association and the Canadian Chamber of Commerce would undertake a survey of the industrial resources of Canada, and a request that the Nelson Board of Trade cooperate in gathering data, was received by the Board at its luncheon meeting at the Hume Thursday. The request was tabled pending arrival of a questionnaire to be used in making the survey.

The object, the letter explained, was to use Canadian industrial plants to the best advantage in the war effort. By subcontracting plans with the necessary equipment and personnel could aid materially as they were in Britain. The United States, it added, was embarking on a similar policy.

Coal Operators Reject Union Wage Increase Demand

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP) — Bituminous coal operators of the United States today rejected union demands for a blanket $1-a-day wage increase and proposed that the present two-year contract covering wages and employment conditions for 450,000 miners be extended another two years.

The United Mine Workers of America (Congress of Industrial Organizations) asked Tuesday for the wage boost, along with other changes, at the opening of the biennial joint conference of union and management representatives from the eight-state Appalchian region.

The present contract, expiring March 31, provides $6 a day for miners in Northern fields, $5.60 in the South.

Speaking for the operators, Charles O'Neill, President of the United Eastern Coal Sales Corporation, said that if national defence needs changed conditions in the industry as to price and production, the operators and miners could make necessary adjustments in their agreement at a later rate.

Warns Hollanders Against Befriending Jewish Enemies

BERLIN, March 13 (AP)—Germany's Commissioner in The Netherlands, Arthur Seyss-Inquart, in a speech in Amsterdam reported here today, warned Netherlanders that "we are going to strike Jews where we encounter them and whoever favors them must bear the consequences. The Jews are our enemies."

He further proclaimed to Netherlanders that the German watchword is "with us or against us" and claimed the majority of Hollanders wanted to share the German destiny.

"That there is freedom of political activity in The Netherlands," he asserted, "is evidenced by fisticuffs and broken window-panes because at least two political elements are necessary for such evidence."

U. S. WHEAT EXPERT IS VISITING IN LONDON

LONDON, March 13 (CP)—The arrival in London of Thomas Campbell, Montana wheat farmer and a long-time friend of President Roosevelt, is causing speculation as to whether he is here to sell surplus United States wheat.

He denied that he was seeking to sell wheat to Britain, but when he was asked whether Britain could grow her own he replied he believed that would be too costly.

HIS PARTNER TELLS YOU

YOU CAN place one defender with the dangerous holding in certain suits if his partner has bid so as to show extreme length in another suit or suits. In fact, you can sometimes see definitely that the poor chap will have to do all of the guarding of a couple of suits, and is therefore subject to whatever kind of squeeze or end-play you build.

North, of course, took the lead of the diamond J with the Q. Reckoning East's double as based on the threatening cards of the two major suits, he cashed the spade K and finessed the 10, followed by the A. He counted West for the club A, so led the dummy's club 3 and came right up with the K, which held. Seeking to build another club trick, he led the club 2 from dummy, East's Q winning.

With only major suit cards left, East led the heart 10 to the A, and North then laid down the diamond A on the eighth trick. It squeezed East, who at this stage had six cards, the heart 9-8-7-6 and the spade J-9. Unwilling to part with one of his hearts in view of the K-Q-J-3 in dummy, he tossed off a spade, in which North held the Q-5. That enabled North to drop the spade J with his Q and cash the spade 5, discarding clubs from the dummy. He then took in three hearts, giving up the last one to East and making his contract.

Against South's 3-No Trumps if the first three tricks are the club K, club 10 to the A with East discarding the spade 6, the heart 2 to the 10 and Q and the spade 3 returned to the A, should West false-card with his spade Q and, if so, why?

Dominion Gov't Requests Payment of $34,000,000 Provincial Relief Bills

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP) — Premier T. D. Pattullo of British Columbia announced today the Dominion Government had requested payment of Provincial treasury bills totalling over $34,000,000 held by the Dominion Government.

Premier Pattullo declared that nearly $25,000,000 of the total amount was for unemployment relief and added "we do not recognize that the Dominion has a valid claim upon the Province in respect of these unemployment relief monies."

The balance covered advances for purposes other than relief. Terms or method of payment were not known here.

"We have always taken the attitude that unemployment relief is essentially the responsibility of the Dominion Government," he said.

"It is true that we have been paying interest on these treasury bills to the Dominion Government but always in anticipation of final adjustment of accounts between the Dominion and the Province, and it had not been our intention to press the matter until conclusion of the war.

"Recently the Dominion, without previous consultation with us, advised us that we would be expected to meet the costs of direct relief without contribution from the Dominion Government.

"The amount of the Dominion contribution is approximately $1,500,000 for the current year. We have undertaken to meet these additional costs on account of the war and in anticipation of adjustment of the whole account on conclusion of the war."

The direct relief payments were on a basis of 40 per cent by the Dominion, 40 per cent by the Province and 20 per cent by the municipalities. When the Dominion decided it could no longer contribute 40 per cent of the costs the British Columbia Government absorbed the amount.

"I have nothing more to say at the present time anymore than that we do not recognize that the Dominion has a valid claim upon the Province in respect of these unemployment relief monies," said Premier Pattullo.

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP)—The Finance Department has written the Provinces who have loans from the Dominion to ascertain whether the Provinces are in a position to reduce or pay off these loans, it was learned unofficially today.

The action has been taken, it is said, in connection with preparation of the budget which may be brought down next week.

Finance Minister Ilsley declined to comment on reports Britian Columbia had been asked to reduce its indebtedness.

Top Hats in London Exchange Vanish

By PAT USSHER
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 13 (CP)—Blitz blitz:

Eggs are scarce in Britain and when a truckload of them is stolen it's news. Thieves highjacked a truck loaded with 41 cases holding 29,520 eggs from a London street.

Top hats traditionally worn by members of the London stock exchange have nearly all vanished. Exchange members now prefer steel lined bowlers or Homburgs.

London County Council has rescinded a six-year-old ban on cadet corps in secondary schools so facilities can be provided for units of the new air training corps.

Since manufacture of cars for civilian use in Britain ceased last October value of second hand cars has rocketed. Many owners of medium-sized cars bought in 1939 can get more than the original purchase price for them now. Only 176 new automobiles were sold in the United Kingdom last December.

Say Nazi Speedboat Sinks Destroyer

BERLIN, March 13 (AP) — The German High Comanand claimed today that a Nazi speedboat sank a British destroyer off the English Southeast coast yesterday.

The German communque told of air attacks on the Liverpool area, in which it admitted the loss of six planes (as against nine announced in London as having been shot down.)

It also admitted R.A.F. attacks on Berlin and North Sea towns and claimed that only "immaterial damage was inflicted on industrial plants."

GREEK DESTROYER SINKS ENEMY SUB

ATHENS, March 13 (AP) — The Marine Ministry said today the Greek destroyer Psara on convoy duty in the Aegean Sea had sunk an enemy submarine which attempted to sink ships in the convoy.

Hungarian Funds in U.S. Are Frozen

WASHINGTON, March 13 (AP)—President Roosevelt today froze all funds of Hungary in the United States and State Secretary Hull explained Hungary is considered to be under German domination.

Hull said the United States put Hungary in the same category as Rumania and other countries under domination of the Reich and against which freezing orders have been issued.

The action of Hungarian funds, the Secretary added, might have been taken at an earlier date and there was no particular development which caused the order to be issued today.

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau said that the President and the Treasury acted at the request of the State Department but declined to discuss the reasons.

Hungary, the 12th nation whose funds have been frozen, signed the Axis pact about two months ago.

SECRETARY UNABLE TO BE AT AGRICULTURE MEET

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP) — Taken suddenly ill with sinus trouble, Charles A. Hayden of Vernon, Secretary of the British Columbia Chamber of Agriculture, will not be able to attend the annual meetings of the Chamber opening here today. Mr. Hayden's doctor has ordered a complete rest.

Gains Marked on Toronto Issues

TORONTO, March 13 (CP). — Stocks overhanging the Toronto market appeared to be in small quantity today and prices firmed on decidedly small volume.

Gains showed for Preston, Kerr-Addison, San Antonio, Famour, Little Long Lac, Teck Hughes, Bralorne and Cochenour Willans. Pickle Crow, selling with the dividend off, weakened 15 to 2.65 and prices were narrowly lower for Lamaque, Buffalo-Ankerite, Sylvanite, Jason and Senator.

Nickel and Falconbridge advanced narrowly while Noranda and Steep Rock held steady.

Dominion Bridge gained ¾ to 24¾ while Dominion Foundries and National Steel Car weakened ½ to a point.

Home Oil advanced 5 cents to 2.05 and Anglo-Canadian was 2 cents lower at 56. Other Western oils were unchanged.

Resistance to Profit Taking Stiffens

CHICAGO, March 13 (AP). — The wheat market's resistance to profit taking stiffened today but, despite an advance of as much as a cent after midsession the reaction from Monday's high prices continued.

Wheat closed ⅛ to ⅝ lower than yesterday, May 65⅝ to 65⅝, July 62⅛ to 62; corn unchanged to ¼ higher, May 62⅜ to 62½, July 62⅝; oats unchanged to ¼ lower.

Few Favorites Traded at Montreal

MONTREAL, March 13 (CP). — A handful of issues managed to win approval from hesitant traders today on the stock exchange. Many favorites, however, were left on the shelf or remained stationary.

In constructions, Steel of Canada common firmed a point and Canada Cement was ½ ahead. Bell Telephone failed to recover an early loss of a point in utilities. Some strength was apparent in oils and metals, where Imperial rose ⅛ in the former and Noranda gained ⅛ in the latter.

London Trade Dull

LONDON, March 13 (AP). — Slight declines appeared in the stock list today in a barely active market.

The dullness of action was attributed by traders to uncertainties over the Balkan situation.

Moving opposite to the general trend were home rails which gained generally on buying orders from the Provinces. Brazilian and Czecho-Slovak bonds made advances.

Oils, coppers, kaffirs and gilt-edged issues were included on the downside.

CALGARY LIVESTOCK

CALGARY, March 13 (CP).—Receipts: Cattle 140; calves 20; a few early hogs.

Cattle market slow at steady rates. Medium to good butcher steers 7.50—8.50. Good to choice fed calves 8.50—9. Good cows 5.75—6.50; common to medium 3.25—5.50. Stocker and feeder steers 6—7.50.

Last price B-1 10.10—10.20.

TIME PROFIT GAINS

NEW YORK, March 13 (CP). — Time Incorporated, magazine publishers and topical newsreel producers, today reported for 1940 net profit of $3,494,590, equal to $13.80 a common share, compared with $3,206,751 or $13.65 a common share in 1939.

METAL MARKETS

LONDON, March 13 (AP). — Bar silver 33 7-16d, unchanged. (Equivalent 42.50 cents). Bar gold 168s, unchanged. (Equivalent $33.85.)

MONTREAL — Bar gold in London was unchanged at $97.54 an ounce in Canadian funds; 168s in British representing the Bank of England's buying price. The fixed $35 Washington price amounted to $36.50 in Canadian.

Spot: Copper, electrolytic, 12.75; tin 60.50; lead 5.50; zinc 5.65; antimony 15.25.

NEW YORK — Copper steady; electrolytic spot, Conn. Valley 12.00; export, f.a.s. N. Y., 10.70 to 12.00.

Tin irregular; spot and nearby at 52.00; forward 50.87½.

Lead steady; spot, New York at 5.75 to 5.80.

Zinc steady; East St. Louis spot and forward 7.25.

Few Specialties Played on Wall St.

NEW YORK, March 13 (AP).—Buyers took a chance on scattered specialties in today's market and left many leaders to mill about in lower territory. Transfers were around 350,000 shares.

The main sustaining influence, brokers said, still was the multi-billion defence spending plans being whipped into shape at Washington. Shipbuilding issues and a number of other made early response to profits prospects from this source but the majority were unable to hold their advantage. Optimistic earnings statements were plentiful and aided individual stocks.

With the exception of International Nickel, up ⅛ point, Canadian issues were inactive.

Merchant Sales Higher During 1940

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP).—Sales by wholesale merchants during 1940 were at an "appreciably higher" level than during the previous year, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today. Increases were general for all trades and for all parts of Canada.

Automotive equipment and hardware trades reported largest increases in 1940 figures each with a gain of 20 per cent tobacco and confectionery trade was up 15 per cent, clothing trade 14 per cent and footwear 11 per cent.

Gains for other lines of business did not exceed 10 per cent.

CENTRAL PATRICIA GOLD OUTPUT AT NEW HIGH

TORONTO, March 13 (CP).—Central Patricia Gold Mines, Limited, Central Patricia, Ont., today reported 1940 production at a new peak of $1,865,225 and net profit at a new top of $659,099, or 36.3 cents per share, after all deductions. The production returns compare with $1,742,475 and a net profit of $600,196 or 24 cents per share in 1939.

COAST BANK CLEARINGS

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP). — Bank clearings for the week ending Thursday, March 13, 1941, and for the corresponding period in 1940:

	1941	1940
Vancouver	17,434,813	14,277,413
Victoria	16,679,032	1,578,224
N. Westmin.	761,596	665,240

During the first month of 1941, Canada shipped 12,482 head of cattle weighing 700 pounds or more, other than dairy cows, to the United States. This represented 24.1 per cent of the quarterly allotment of 51,720 head.

Flour Up 20 Cents Barrel, Bran and Shorts $1 Ton; Seeds Begin to Move

Lent Brings Demand for Fresh and Cured Fish

Advance of 20 cents a barrel in the price of flour, reported Thursday by flour and feed dealers on wholesale row, was the first change in flour since January 20.

Bran and shorts also advanced Thursday, being up $1 a ton. This was the second advance in successive weeks, feed prices generally having advanced a week ago.

Interest in the flour and feed market has been keen this week, and intensified Wednesday with the announcement at Ottawa of Government policy for the 1941-42 crop year. Trade Minister MacKinnon stated the Government will continue an initial payment of 70 cents a bushel; and that no change is being made in the amount or incidence of the processing tax of 15 cents a bushel at present levied.

To induce farmers to reduce wheat acreages this year the Government will pay for lands turned into summerfallow, sown to coarse grains and rye, or seeded to grass or clover.

SEEDS BEGIN TO MOVE

Movement of Spring supplies is beginning, though the movement is slow as yet. A few sales of seeds have been made.

Lent has enlivened demand for fresh and cured fish, and sales are up. The meat market remains steady, with no price changes listed. Demand is good.

The fresh fruit and vegetable market has steadied again after a temporary disturbance caused by rain in California which limited supplies and interrupted the flow of produce to market.

Grocers reported Singapore pineapple is practically cleaned out, due to unsettled conditions in the East and restriction of shipping facilities.

There is a scarcity of gelatin, and it may affect jelly powders. The scarcity of shipping may also affect tea, coffee and cocoa.

HIGHER TAXES POSSIBLE

Dealers believe the new Dominion budget may affect granulated sugar prices, and there is said to be the possibility of an increase in the processing tax on vegetable oils used in the manufacture of soaps and shortening.

Stocks of canned corn, peas and tomatoes are practically exhausted.

Carlot arrivals of the week included one of oranges, one of fresh vegetables, one of fertilizer, one of Creston alfalfa, two of Okanagan alfalfa, one of Okanagan timothy, one of salt, one of oyster shell, one of flour, two of meats, one of sugar and one of groceries.

A car of jam was loaded Thursday for shipment to the Prairies.

Bralorne and Silbak Premier Climb Five

VANCOUVER, March 13 (CP). — Trading continued light but prices were slightly higher on Vancouver Stock Exchange today. Transactions totalled 7523 shares.

Among the golds Bralorne at 9.80 and Silbak Premier at 75 both climbed 5 and Hedley Mascot was up 3 at 55. Sheep Creek gained 2 to 97 while Privateer at 49 and Premier Border at 3 each closed fractionally higher. Premier was off 3 at 90.

In the oil issues Home rose 2 to 2.00 and Commonwealth firmed a cent at 21.

DOMINION GOV'T DEPOSITS DECREASE

OTTAWA, March 13 (CP).—Dominion Government deposits decreased $12,503,000 to $50,430,000 in the week ended March 12, it was shown today in the weekly statement of the Bank of Canada. Chartered bank deposits increased $900,000 to $212,170,000, while notes in circulation increased $1,069,000 to $358,511,000.

Buying Slack on Winnipeg Mkt.

WINNIPEG, March 13 (CP). — Buyers detoured the wheat futures pit on Winnipeg Grain Exchange during the first half of today's session, allowing quotations to slip a cent under the previous close. Southern interests and mills took some of the slack out of the market near the finish, however, and prices ended ⅛—⅝ cent down, May wheat at 77¾ and July 79⅝ cents a bushel.

It was believed a lower basic wheat board price for Western Canada's 1941 wheat crop than had been anticipated was largely responsible for the buying apathy.

A small export business was reported in the pit but no sales could be confirmed.

DIVIDENDS

Imperial Bank of Canada, 2½ per cent.

Dominion Bank, two and a half per cent for quarter ended April 30.

Police Receipts in Trail $1138 During February

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—Fines and costs collected at the City Police Office during February totalled $1137.50, Acting Police Chief F. H. Steele reported to the Police Commission Wednesday.

Chief Steele's report follows:

"Thirty-two complaints and reports were received and attended to during the month. Twelve of these were cases in which criminal acts were involved, although the majority of this number consisted of traffic violations which were prosecuted.

"Only two accidents were reported and three missing children were located and returned to their homes with the kind assistance of Radio Station CJAT.

"Two transients were given shelter in the cells, and the remainder of the reports received were made up of minor complaints and adjustments.

"Fourteen cases appeared in the City Police Court, of which three were charged under the Criminal Code of Canada; four under the Provincial Statutes, and seven under the City of Trail Bylaws. All of these offenders were fined, which fines were paid. Fines and costs amounting to $1137.50 were collected during the month.

"Officers of the Department were also engaged in aiding the City Engineer's Department regarding their check up on garbage containers. Letters were delivered to violators in this connection.

BYLAW CAMPAIGN

"A widespread campaign intended to inform every citizen of the contents of the new Traffic Bylaw was undertaken, and copies of this Bylaw were distributed to all business houses and to persons registering motor vehicles at the local B. C. Police Office."

LONDON (CP)—Admitting theft of 18,000 cigarettes, two men were fined £15 ($86.75) each.

W. Alan Spear, Former C. M. & S. Employee, Dies

TRAIL, B.C.—W. Alan Spear of Vancouver, who worked in the general office of the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company at Tadanac from 1931 to 1936, died at Vancouver Wednesday.

Mrs. G. A. Wallinger of Tadanac is a sister.

Mr. Spear is also survived by two brothers, Edgar of Pasadena, Calif., and Norman of Berkeley, Calif.

Mrs. Wallinger left Thursday morning for Vancouver.

LONDON (CP) — Three young men—unofficial wardens of a South London Council—working by the light of gun flashes, moved a 250 pound bomb to a churchyard and dumped it under a tree where it was exploded.

Howard Horses Have Won Half Million at Santa Anita, 6 Years

LOS ANGELES, March 13 (AP) —Everyone knows that Charles S. Howard, owner of such handicap horses as Seabiscuit, Kayak 11 and Mioland, has won amazing money at Santa Anita Park for seven seasons, but a survey today disclosed just how much.

Howard horses have won $516,930 since 1935, although the automobile magnate's first two seasons brought in only about $17,000.

Since 1937 his entries in the $100,000 Handicap have never finished worse than second.

In 1937 Seabiscuit finished second to Rosemont; the following year Stagehand defeated Seabiscuit; in 1939 Kayak 11 was the winner; in 1940 Seabiscuit raced to victory and Kayak was second, and this Winter Mioland finished second to Bay View.

LONDON (CP)—An aircraft-fitter was fined £100 for deliberately doing his work badly when he wanted a discharge to take another job.

50 Cranbrook, Trail, Rossland, Nelson Youth at Salvation Army Council Here

"Christ Above All" Is Theme; Secretary Is Leader

"Christ Above All" was the theme of the Salvation Army Young Peoples' Council, conducted Wednesday at the Nelson Citadel by Brigadier A. Keith of Toronto, National Young Peoples' Secretary. Some 50 young peoples of Nelson and vicinity, Rossland, Trail and Cranbrook, attended the Council, first ever held in the Interior.

Brigadier Keith endeavored to bring to the young people the thought that in every aspect of life there was a "Christ-way" of living. In all affairs of life, physical, recreational and temperal, he said, there was a Christ-way. He urged them in their lives to serve others and to practice Christian principles.

AIM TO TRAIN AS CITIZENS, CHRISTIANS

Purpose of the councils was to help and train young people to be better citizens and Christians, Brigadier Keith explained. The plan was originated in the Army well over 30 years ago by Second General Bramwell Booth, although the present council was the first ever held in Interior B.C. In 1940 from Coast to Coast in Canada at least 26 councils, attended by upwards of 10,000 young people between the ages of 13 and 25 years, were held

Brigadier Matthew Junkers, of Vancouver, Provincial Superintendent, was Chairman.

The visiting delegates were Capt. Arthur A. W. Cartmell, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Reimer, Miss G. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson, Miss A. Mitchell, and Miss L. Meacham of Trail; Capt. E. Robertson, Lieut. M. Hutchings, Bandmaster and Mrs. W. J. Mahy and Miss L. Rowe of Rossland; and Lieut. George Fitch, Mrs. R. Chenuz, Miss Minnie Howard, Miss Ruth Burton, Miss Muriel Pepin, Miss Margaret Pepin, Miss Angela Owens, and Miss Gladys Owens of Cranbrook.

URGES ADULTS TO LEAD YOUNG PEOPLE

"Feed my lambs." These were the words of Jesus, Brigadier Keith told a large company of adults attending the evening public meeting, and they carried in them the responsibility of parents and adults toward youth.

Supplying of leadership to the young people, the leaders of the future generation, was the responsibility of adults, he said. "What kind of leaders they are will depend on how we teach and influence them."

"Will they continue to lead in the things that have made Canada great?" the speaker asked. They will, he replied, if the example of their leaders "is great, noble and pure."

"My plea to you," Brigadier Keith said, "is to accept the God-given responsibility of leadership, and influence the youth to be better citizens and Christians."

"TAKE GOD'S SIDE"

Capt. Cartmell of Trail, briefly urged the congregation to "take God's side." He was personally happy to be on the Lord's side, and in Canada where he could make his choice in freedom, he said, for in less fortunate lands people were forced to take sides chosen by those stronger than themselves.

The Lord, he stated, would be found equal to all trials, troubles and temptations. Therefore he recommended the Saviour to all.

Miss Cathrine Williams of Nelson read Psalm 23, while Lieut. M. Hutchings of Rossland and Lieut. George Fitch of Cranbrook sang a duet.

ATTEND SUPPER

After the afternoon council session, some 45 to 50 young people sat down to a supper in the large hall of the Citadel. An open air meeting followed.

Brigadier Keith Wednesday morning addressed a council of district officers and workers on problems of young peoples work and leadership of young people. Besides the Nelson officers and workers, Capt. E. Robertson and Lieut. M. Hutchings of Rossland, Lieut. George Fitch of Cranbrook, Capt. Arthur W. Cartmell of Trail and Major William Kerr of Vancouver, attended the council. Capt. Cartmell for four years was stationed in Nelson.

Previous to coming to Nelson, Brigadier Keith addressed 31 meetings, attended by over 5000, at Vancouver and Victoria. He left this morning for Calgary, after which he will hold councils at Medicine Hat, Winnipeg and Brandon.

Sea Wanderer Is Interned Though He's Independent

By J. C. GRAHAM
Canadian Press Correspondent

AUCKLAND, N.Z. March 13 (CP) — A vessel with a German Captain and owner sailed into Napier, New Zealand, harbor a few days ago as if there was no war. The rest of the crew was equally remarkable, consisting of one New Zealand girl.

The vessel is the 32-foot Ketch te Rapunga, in which its owner and master, Capt. George Dibbern, has been sailing around the Pacific for 10 years.

Dibbern is well known in New Zealand. By a coincidence he was farming in New Zealand when the last war broke out and was interned here.

On his last visit five years ago, a young napier girl, Eileen Morris, who had never been to sea before, joined the crew. She has been aboard ever since.

In the interval the yacht has travelled 35,000 miles and has visited Rarotonga, Tahiti, Honolulu, and the British Columbia and Washington coasts.

On reaching New Zealand, Dibbern said that on the outbreak of war he threw away his German passport and made a new one His homemade passport gives the ence.

declaring his national independ-usual details and shows his place of birth as Kiel, Germany, but declares:

"I, George John Dibbern, through long years in different countries and sincere friendship with many people in many lands, feel my place to be outside of nationality, a citizen of the world and a friend of all peoples."

In spite of his claims, the Rapunga was sealed by the customs authorities at Napier and authorities decided to intern Dibbern.

One New Zealand paper declared: "It is obvious from the very manner of his arrival that Dibbern and his yacht could have been in a position to assist prowling Nazi raiders. He has literally had the freedom of the Pacific."

Lift Restrictions Pend d'Oreillie and Fruitvale Roads

TRAIL, B. C., March 13—All district roads are drying up nicely, and restrictions are being taken off the Trail-Pend d'Oreille road, and the Trail-Salmo road between Trail and Fruitvale, states Edgar Jamieson, General Foreman.

The roads have been graded to Fruitvale and Waneta.
