NAVY HUNTS RAIDER AS SHIPS CALL HELP

Greeks Make Gains, Hurl Back Italians

More Hills Around Koritza Base Occupied; Hundreds of Prisoners Including General Taken; More Material Captured

By MAX HARRELSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

ATHENS, Nov. 8 (AP). — Greek troops occupied more hills surrounding the besieged Italian base at Koritza today, captured hundreds of additional prisoners, including the commanding general of Mussolini's Centaur division, and hurled the Fascists back generally along the mountainous battlefront, authoritative sources said tonight.

The capture of the additional hills was said to have forged a strong new link in the iron ring being drawn around Koritza, which for almost a week has been pounded day and night by Greek artillery.

Capture of the prisoners, on the central front, was declared to have raised the total to more than 2500 since the 12-day-old Fascist invasion started.

The Greek High Command announced that in all there were five officers among the prisoners taken during the day. In addition, it announced a number of guns and other war materials fell into Greek hands.

Italian air raids were "insignificant" during the day the communique said, with only one village bombed. One Italian raider was reported knocked down.

At the end of the first 12 days of this new war neutral experts said the Greek positions now are as good as better than on the first day of the Fascist assault.

The Italians, according to available military information, had been thrown back both in the centre sector and on the Northeastern or right Greek wing in the territory of Albania—the country from which the invasion was sprung.

The Greek High Command announced that Italian attacks on the Greek left, in the theatre near the Ionian Sea, had been repulsed.

Thus the entire Greek line appeared to be not only holding firm but pressing back the Italians in a great arc.

The day's actions were heavy and artillery fire boomed intermittently through the high, rugged terrain of the defence line.

Neutral observers said they could find no evidence of any break in Greek communications and reported troop and civilian morale was high—due in part, perhaps, to British aid.

Italian air activity is continuing to harass the Greeks. The Ministry of Home Security reported Italian fliers had bombed villages, rural districts, towns, and shepherds' settlements in the interior.

It was asserted there had been "slight damage and a few casualties."

The precise nature and extent of British aid to Greece was not disclosed here, but reports received from Cairo said the British middle East command was giving valuable help.

Reserve officers of the classes of 1914 and 1915 in infantry, artillery, cavalry, motor transport and veterinarian corps were called up effective Sunday.

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, Nov. 8 (AP)—A strong Greek attack toward Koritza, in Albania across the Grecian frontier, was resisted today by Italian troops aided by aircraft, it was reported tonight from the front.

The Greek right wing was said to have made small advances in its attempt to capture the town of Seba Gora, Northeast of Koritza.

SEVERAL KILLED AS GERMANS HIT WORKERS CENTRE

20 German Planes and Probably Six More Destroyed

ATTACK SHIPPING

By EDWIN STOUT
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Nov. 9 - (Saturday) - (AP). — Nazi raiders intensively attacking a wide area of London overnight scored a direct hit on an air raid precautions centre, killing several persons, but the assault slackened after midnight with long intervals of quiet.

Incomplete reports to the Air Ministry said 20 German planes were destroyed during Friday, 15 of them by one hard-hitting Royal Air Force squadron. In addition, six more German planes were said "probably" to have been destroyed and two damaged.

Mist shrouded the Dover Straits as the raiders roared across to drop many flares followed by explosives.

The only fatality reported from a Midland city under attack occurred when an anti-aircraft shell crashed through the window of one home.

Workers' homes suffered in nine-tenth of the damage rolled up by the bombers.

Anti-aircraft fire on the Thames Estuary was reported to have brought down two of the night's first invaders, though others crashed through the thicket of fire to scatter flares over widely separated areas and then drop bombs.

The two planes bagged by the gunners were not believed to have been included in the Air Ministry's total.

"A large number of dive-bombers with strong fighter escorts attempted on several occasions to attak shipping of our East and South-east coasts," the Ministry said.

"On each ocasion they were heavily engaged by our fighters, and 15 of them were shot down by one squadron. Six of our aircraft are reported lost or missing, but the pilots of two of these are known to be safe."

Passengers of Six Cars Stuck in Highway Snow

REVELSTOKE, B. C., Nov. 8 (CP).—Six automobiles and their passengers, including five women and a baby, were reported stuck in deep snow on the Big Bend Highway 70 miles North of here today and tonight the British Columbia Department of Public Works sent highway crews to the scene.

A big motor snowplow and other equipment left here to clear the highway through to the six-car caravan.

At the same time another crew left Golden, East of here, to work Westward to the stalled machines. Police accompanied the Golden crew.

Some of the cars were said to have run out of gasoline after bucking snowdrifts and were unable to replenish supplies because all gasoline stations along the highway between here and Golden shut down when the highway was officially closed for the Winter recently.

Mighty Attack on Krupp Works Sets Huge Fire

LONDON, Nov. 8 (AP). — A four-hour Royal Air Force bombing attack which left the vast Krupp armament works in Essen, Germany, enveloped in a huge sheet of fire—the longest and mightiest assault yet loosed upon that vital Nazi war foundry—was announced by the Air Ministry tonight.

The bombardment began a little after 8 o'clock last night and went on intermittently through the night and into the early morning hours. When it was over returning pilots said that flames could be seen 80 miles away.

The raid was launched by an extraordinarily big force of medium and heavy bombers. The Ministry said some of the heaviest calibre bombs yet carried into Germany were dropped.

Explosives were loosed by the uncounted ton, fire bombs by the thousands, and every section of the great works was reported hit — workshops, machine shops and even the plants' administrative buildings.

Blasting Breaks Foreman's Ribs

TRAIL, B. C., Nov. 8—John Anderson, Road Foreman in charge of repair road work at the Fruitvale cutoff, is a patient in Trail-Tadanac Hospital, suffering from injuries to his right shoulder and four broken ribs, received when he was struck by falling rock during blasting operations. He is reported to be improving.

Italy's "Failure" Is "Not Displeasing" to Nazis Says Radio

ANKARA, Turkey, Nov. 8 (AP).—The Turkish radio said tonight "Italy's failure in Greece" is not displeasing to Germany, and cited these "reasons":

1. "Germany doesn't like the Italian policy of conserving its own strength while Germany does all the fighting."

2. "Italy's strength hinders Germany in efforts to reach an agreement with France. If Italy were weakened and militarily embarrassed Germany could more easily force Italy to renounce part of her claims on France."

3. "Germany is flattered by the inference that only Germany can manage a blitzkrieg"

Late Flashes

CHUNGKING, China, Nov. 9 (Saturday) (AP)—The Central Chinese Government protested vigorously to France today over the transfer of two Chinese courts in the French Concession at Shanghai to the control of the Japanese-sponsored Nanking Government.

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP)—A Reuters News Agency dispatch from Athens said tonight that according to unconfirmed rumors reaching the Greek capital the Italian commander in Albania has been replaced by Marshal Badoglio, Chief of the Italian General Staff.

TOKYO, Nov. 9 (SATURDAY) (AP)—The newspaper Kokumin today said opposition still exists in Japan to the nation's entry into the Rome-Berlin Axis and it demanded that the government "eliminate" as traitors all Japanese holding such views.

PIONEER MAN DIES

CAMPBELL RIVER, B. C., Nov 8 (CP).—Funeral services are being arranged today for James McIver, known as the "Father" of the Oyster River district where he was shipwrecked in 1887.

R.A.F. EFFICIENCY ACKNOWLEDGED IN ITALY

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP).—An "unexpected tribute" to the Royal Air Force in the Italian newspaper Gazetta Del Popolo, published in Turin, was quoted by the British Broadcasting Corporation tonight.

"In accordance with our custom not to underestimate the enemy we must acknowledge that the British air force is still notably efficient," the B. B. C. quoted the newspaper as saying. "Unless the British air force is destroyed, any attempt to invade Britain is most difficult, and its success dubious."

Social Crediters Back Cooperation Action

EDMONTON, Nov. 8 (CP).—Social Credit members of the Alberta Legislature today endorsed the resolution passed by New Democracy members of Parliament inviting all Canadian groups desiring to unite "in progressive action" to communicate with the Alberta Social Credit League.

The caucus of Legislature members ended today after four days of deliberations.

REGINA HAS SNOWFALL

REGINA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Reginians awoke today to discover that during the night one-inch blanket of snow had fallen. By noon another one-tenth of an inch of snow had been recorded. The mercury tonight was close to the zero mark.

Germany Prepared to Meet Any Combination Says Hitler

Stormy Speech Made Behind Closed Doors

BRITISH BOMBERS KEEP IT OFF AIR

MUNICH, Nov. 8 (CP).—Hitler, in a stormy speech in the Munich Lowenbraeu beer cellar, tonight boasted that Germany is "strong enough to meet any combination in the world."

Surrounded by Nazi party stalwarts in the Memorial Eve observance of the party's unsuccessful beer hall putsch in 1923, the German Fuehrer proclaimed he was determined to carry the war to a decisive conclusion and rejected any compromise.

He claimed German production capacity is the highest in the world and the Reich soon would have the capacity of the rest of Europe added to its own.

"Just as I, as a National Socialist, rejected every compromise in the fight for Germany," he said, "just so today I reject now and here any compromise."

Just one year ago the Fuehrer escaped death from a time bomb planted in the beer hall, scene of the annual celebration.

Tonight he spoke behind closed doors to his old comrades of 17 years ago, in contrast to the open-house festivities heretofore.

Hitler claimed that Germany's casualties in the present war to date were only a little more than half those of the Franco-Prussian War of 1870-71.

(German casualties in the 1870-71 war are listed in German Encyclopaedia as 25,279 killed in battle and 14,904 dead from other causes, such as illness).

Hitler condemned what he called the nightly attacks by the Royal Air Force on the German civilian population and stressed the reprisals of the German air force and military power.

The last 12 months he viewed as the greatest in German military history. Most of his one-hour speech was devoted to extolling the "virtues" of the Nazi party and reviewing its struggles and the course of the war.

The radio did not carry the speech to the people; they were informed the text would not be carried until 12:30 p.m. Saturday (2:30 a.m. PST). In the meantime, only a brief summary was made public, and that without direct quotations.

(The British Broadcasting Corporation indicated the reason Hitler's speech was kept off the airwaves Friday night was because British bombers were over Germany.)

Even Hitler's appearance was unheralded. Ostensibly he came here for the official opening of the annual Art Exposition.

Tomorrow, the anniversary of the 1923 putsch which launched the Nazi revolution, is Memorial Day for those who fell in the street brawls and this year it has been designated as "Work Day" for Germany.

Hero's Comrade Crashes Plane as Ammunition Goes

By J. WES GALLAGHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

SALONIKA, Greece, Nov. 8 (AP).—A 23-year-old Greek aviator credited with shooting down two Italian planes before jumping from his flaming ship minimized his own exploits today to praise a companion who, he said, deliberately crashed into the wing of an Italian bomber when his ammunition ran out.

Tossing on a hospital cot and speaking slowly because of a bullet in his lung, Constantine Lalpropoulof said he learned later his compatriot, Lt. Marinos Mitralexis, not only wrecked the Italian plane, but landed his own damaged craft and captured the Fascist fliers.

Three Greek pursuit ships engaged 18 Italian bombers, escorted by 12 fighters, and finally drove them off after a desperate 25-minute fight at 15,000 feet above Salonika four days ago the young flier said.

Directorate Shaken Up by Mussolini

ROME, Nov. 8 (AP)—Mussolini shook up the directorate of the Fascist Party today, replacing seven of its 14 members in what Fascist commentators called a "significant reform."

The move was understood to be the forerunner of a new party constitution redefining duties and responsibilities of Fascist leaders.

Internees Try to Annoy Officials Handling Letters

BY GLADYS ARNOLD
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Young Nazis in Canadian internment camps delight in trying to annoy or irritate authorities by writing "great Germany" on the outside of letters to their home folks, censorship authorities said today.

Another trick is to write letters home which are merely one long complaint, giving the fantastic stories of life in a Canadian camp.

Under international arrangement, however, the representative of a neutral government has the right to inspect internment camps in the Dominion at any time he chooses to see that rules governing prisoners of war are carried out. Germany's representative in Canada is the consul-general of Switzerland.

Under international law prisoners of war must be allowed one letter and one card a week. In Canada the prisoners are allowed two letters and a card.

Special letter cards are given to them upon which is printed "Prisoner of War Mail" and the postage is free for all countries.

A large volume of letters comes in with every overseas mail for more than 8000 prisoners in Canadian camps. These men were moved to the Dominion at the request of the British Government from the United Kingdom for safe keeping.

In the censor's offices here huge bundles of square European envelopes in all colors are sorted out and checked over before being forwarded to the internees. On the outside of many of them the red and black swastika and German Eagle Stamp show they have already seen censorship in Germany.

Two Saved in Drama at Sea

PORT ALBERNI, B. C., Nov. 8 (CP).—Captain J. Gillespie and his crew of the Vancouver seiner Gospak returned to the fishing grounds of the Gulf of Georgia today, the dramatic rescue of two men from the wrecked seiner Liberty just another episode in their adventurous lives.

A third man, George Stilnovich, died shortly after being pulled from the water by the Gospak's crew after the Liberty piled on a reef in Useless Inlet early yesterday. Captain Walter Carr of the Liberty and John Lenic were pulled from the water, but Carr's brother, Augustine, disappeared in the surf after shouting to the Gospak to rescue Stilinovich first.

John Keinich, Jim Richardson and Matt Jurjevich swam ashore and walked barefooted in their underwear several miles to Ecoole, 37 miles South of here. Richardson and Jurjevich are in hospital here recovering from shock and exposure.

Ridley and Dorado Wireless Distress Calls on Atlantic

Australia Announces U.S. Ship Sunk by Mine and Most of Crew Saved; Ridley Afire and Dorado "Sinking Slowly"

DISCOUNT CLAIM CONVOY DESTROYED

LONDON, Nov. 9 (Saturday) (CP)—Naval circles expressed the opinion today that British warships are hunting for one or more German surface raiders in the North Atlantic but discounted German claims that an entire convoy totalling 86,000 tons was destroyed.

They said there seemed to be little doubt that a destructive attack had been made, but questioned whether a raider whose position already had been compromised by distress signals would risk further disclosure by sending a radio report to Berlin so soon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (CP)—An appeal for assistance came tonight from the 4993-ton British steamship Ridley, afire off the Cape Verde Islands off the coast of West Africa.

The Ridley's distress call, intercepted here by Mackay Radio, did not give her exact position but said she requires "immediate assistance". Her position was estimated by shipping circles here to be about 340 miles off St. Vincent, one of the group of islands. Cause of the fire was unknown.

The Ridley, built in 1937, trades out of Newcastle, England.

The SOS was the second from the Atlantic heard here today. The freighter Empire Dorado, a British ship believed to have been purchased recently in the United States, asked this morning for "help urgently," saying she was "sinking slowly."

No further word came from the vessel and the British Admiralty maintained its usual silence on maritime affairs. It could only be presumed naval aid had been sent to the distressed ship which said in her appeal that casualties were aboard.

The Empire Dorado's message, picked up here by Mackay Radio, said: "Sinking slowly. No means of getting away. All lifeboats smashed. Two rafts still alongside. Help urgently needed. Casualties aboard."

Reason for the distress call was not given but it was presumed here the vessel was being attacked.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 9 (Saturday)—(AP).—Australian Navy Minister William Hughes announced today that the United States ship City of Rayville had been sunk, presumably by a mine, and that all but one of her crew of 38 had been rescued.

No other details were given.

Other sources reported that the Navy Minister announced that a British vessel from overseas was sunk off the Australian coast with loss of one life, probably due to a mine. These sources said all passengers were removed safely, and one member of the crew of 66 was lost.

It was not known whether these reports alluded to the safe or different ships, or whether there had been some confusion in identification of the vessel.

A dispatch from Sydney said Mr. Hughes spoke of a British ship and added that "rumors regarding loss of any other vessel off the Australian coast are unfounded."

An earlier report said survivors were landed at a fishing village this evening and said the explosion occurred shortly before midnight yesterday. They said the ship sank in less than an hour.

The explosion was caused either by a mine or a time bomb or other explosives concealed in the hold of the ship.

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP Cable).—The U-boat has replaced the bomber as the No. 1 menace to Britain and with a German sea raider loose in the North Atlantic, naval experts here agree the Admiralty has one of the biggest problems of the war on its hands.

Although German bombers have done great damage throughout Britain they have not menaced the nation's war effort to anything like the extent the U-boats have done in the past five months.

The big reason for this increase has been Germany's possession of submarine bases from Norway to Spain along the Western seaboard of Europe since the collapse of France.

It is believed some Italian submarines may have escaped through the Straits of Gibraltar to work in cooperation with German underwater craft in the Atlantic.

It is probable the Germans have discovered the secrets of the Asdic submarine detector with which all British naval vessels are equipped. It has been suggested the Germans gained their knowledge after the collapse of France, probably by examining the Asdic on some French naval vessel.

Italian Tirades, New Alarms Give Worries to Swiss

BERNE, Nov. 8 (AP)—Switzerland had an uneasy night of air alarms tonight and at the same time Italy—once full of compliments for this little federation—loosed a violent press and radio campaign against the Swiss.

Twice before midnight the air sirens sounded over Berne and other cities in Western Switzerland. The first alarm came before the nation's lights went out at 10 p. m., under the Army's new blackout orders.

But in Italy, where only a day or so ago the press complimented the Swiss for this blackout order, certain newspapers and radio broadcasts were turned in sudden fury against the Swiss, described as "a people of hotel boys, cashbox keepers and chocolate makers."

The press attacks were limited to a number of less important Italian papers.

"We will place the name of Switzerland—which for months has allowed air violations by enemy aircraft—side by side with that of our detested enemy," said an article in the Popolo di Brescia, written by a former Italian vice-consul to Zurich.

Answering Axis attacks on the Swiss for permitting Royal Air Force raiders to go unpunished for violations of Swiss territory some Swiss papers pointed out British planes which are over German-occupied territory at least three hours are over Switzerland only half an hour.

If the Axis cannot stop British night raids, they argue, how can the Swiss be blamed?

Van Loon to Speak on C.B.C. Program

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP) — Next speaker in the Sunday night broadcast series "Let's Face the Facts," arranged for the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation by G. H. Lash, Director of Public Information, will be Hendrik Willem van Loon, it was announced tonight.

Mr. van Loon, American author, lecturer and historian, will be heard Sunday night at 4:30 p.m. PST.

GENEROSITY, ITALY SAYS, REASON FOR DELAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP) — The Rome radio in a broadcast tonight by the Columbia Broadcasting System, claimed the reason the Italian Army has not made greater gains in Greece is due to Fascist "generosity."

"What British cabinet ministers have taken for delay in Italian military operations has been nothing else than generosity. Italy has waited for Greece to show some sign of repenting, and therefore has tried to make the Greek people feel as little as possible the tragic weight of war."

CHINESE CLAIM SUCCESS ON YAMCHON HEIGHTS

HONG KONG, Nov. 8 (AP) — Chinese claimed today their forces had occupied several heights overlooking Yamchow, near the Kwangtung seacoast, and said recapture of the city was imminent.

Since Nov. 3, they asserted, the Japanese have been setting afire many buildings in the city, presumably as a prelude to withdrawal, and had torn up a light railway which they built between Yamchow and inland points.

Legion Band In Trail Will Add Woodwind Group

TRAIL, B. C., Nov. 8—The Canadian Legion Band is planning to change its instrumentation from its present entire brass complement, to the standard concert instrumentation, comprising both brass and woodwinds.

The increase in the band's personnel and the larger potential library at its disposal will enable the band to present programs of greater variety.

In announcing this change, Bandmaster Rowland Hill expressed the desire that any woodwind players in the city who are interested in identifying themselves with the band get in touch with him as soon as possible.

Seek Revision of Fur Agreement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — The United States State Department issued notice of intention today to negotiate with Canada a trade agreement to revise the existing agreement concerning importation of silver and black fox furs and skins.

An existing Canadian-American agreement now limits importation of silver and black foxes to 100,000 units including furs, parts of furs and skins and articles made from fur skins.

The purpose of the new agreement is to make the quota of 100,000 units apply only to whole skins and live silver foxes for pelting purposes, and establish separate unallocated quotas for the importation of parts of fox furs and skins and articles made from furs.

Confesses He Choked and Cremated Child

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—A two-day search ended today when police said a building superintendent confessed he had choked and cremated Genevieve Connolly, 10.

"Something snapped in my mind," was the explanation Assistant District Attorney Sylvester Ryan said was given by the Superintendent, Thomas Conroy, 38. He quoted Conroy later as saying the girl had threatened to tell her mother he had kissed her in a hallway.

Conroy and the Connollys came from Westmeath, Eire, and the parents had appealed to him for help in their quest for their missing daughter since her disappearance Wednesday night.

Conroy has one son, six.

20 Baptist Young People Visit Trail for Social Evening

Twenty Young People from the Nelson First Baptist Church Thursday journeyed to Trail for a social evening with the Trail Baptist Young People. This was a return of the visit paid the Nelson group by the Trailites a few weeks ago.

Following a welcome by President Derek Groom, the groups entered into a brief devotional.

After the more serious part of the meeting, the Young Peoples divided into three groups and enjoyed competitive games and contests. Refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed after the singing of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

$118,700,000 Deficit for Year in Canada

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP). — An over-all deficit of $118,700,000 was shown in the public accounts for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1940, tabled in the House of Commons today on behalf of Finance Minister Ilsley.

Total expenditures for the year amounted to $680,793,000, and total revenues from all sources $562,100,000 in round figures.

War expenditures amounted to $118,291,000, virtually the entire amount of the deficit which brought the net Dominion debt, as of March 31, 1940, to $3,271,259,647.

Professional Engineers of Eastern B.C. Discuss Shortage of Men for War Industries and Means Overcome

Means of meeting the threatened shortage of professional engineers for essential war industries—a shortage already evident in Eastern Canada—were discussed when the Eastern District of the Association of Professional Engineers of British Columbia met at dinner at the Hume Hotel Friday night to greet J. C. Oliver of Vancouver, Registrar for the Province. O. G. Gallaher of Nelson, East District Chairman, presided.

It was the annual visit of headquarters officials, Ernest Redpath of Vancouver, President, was called back to Vancouver while en route to Nelson.

Expansion of war industry had already brought a shortage in Eastern Canada, Mr. Oliver explained. Professional engineers were joining in the proposal being made to the Dominion Government for establishment of a Board to study the allocation of technical men and skilled artisans, and it was expected the Engineers would be represented upon the Board if it was formed, Mr. Oliver said. The purpose was to assure that essential war industries would be able to obtain technical advice and skilled labor.

Mr. Oliver reported the Engineers' scheme to bring the children of Old Country Engineers to Canada "for the duration" had, for the time being at least, been laid aside due to the decision of the British Government that it could not support such schemes, at least until Spring

CURLING AT TRAIL IS PLANNED

The meeting delegated Rupert Haggin of Rossland and Boyd C. Affleck of Fruitvale to arrange an Engineer's curling match in Trail shortly as the basis of a general get-together.

Mr. Oliver stressed that the Association was emphasizing the policy of keeping members in touch with headquarters by visits of officials to the various districts and by bulletins.

Attending the meeting were: Mr. Oliver, Boyd C. Affleck, Fruitvale; R. W. Haggin, Rossland; G. F. Chapman, Mr. Cox, A. A. Lambert, W. J. Tindale, William Wadeson, South Slocan; F. J. Donkin, Harold Lakes, James Cherrington, W. H. Foster, J. F. Coates, O. G. Gallaher, H. D. Dawson, A W. Davis, H. C. Hughes, Stanley Jackson, E. W. Widdowson and Roy Pollard, Secretary, Nelson.

Drivers' Exams in Trail Are Resumed

TRAIL, B. C., Nov. 8—Constables C. R. Pennock and H. H. Fehur who are conducting drivers' examinations in the West Kootenay District, returned to Trail Friday, and have again established their testing station at the Trail Garage on Bay Avenue.

Albanian Port Bombed by R.A.F.

CAIRO, Nov. 8 (AP)—The Royal Air Force reported today it had carried out a five-ton bomb assault on Valona, Albanian port opposite the "heel" of the Italian boot, in the second heavy raid there in as many days.

Twice yesterday British planes swept over Valona and spread havoc among Italian planes on the ground at its airfield, a communique said in a follow-up to a similar attack Wednesday.

Italian planes rose to meet the attack and killed the gunner of one British plane. Two British planes failed to return from other operations over Albania.

Across the Strait of Otranto, British reconnaissance planes flying over Brindisi to observe damage done in a British raid Wednesday, encountered four Italian fighters but escaped after seriodsly damaging one of the Fascist craft, the communique said.

Mediterranean Battle Hinted

LA LINEA, Spain, Nov. 8 (CP)—Observers from this Spanish point near Gibraltar claimed tonight they saw a British destroyer and submarine entering Gibraltar late today several hours after a fleet of 14 warships steamed away from the fortress. They claimed the destroyer and submarine seemed damaged.

Departure of the British ships was followed by heavy cannonading far out in the Mediterranean. La Linea observers said the ships consisted of one battleship, two cruisers, eight destroyers, two submarines and an aircraft carrier.

Ball Moguls Plan Reserve Fund Battle

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—The principal fight that is likely to be waged in the convention of the minor leagues at Atlanta, Ga., next month will be over the reserve fund that the National Association has accumulated over the husbandry of Judge William G. Bramham.

Baseball men say that the fund now amounts to about $300,000 and at least two amendments seeking to slice it will be offered on the floor. One of these will propose that the tax on sales of players which is levied for the benefit of Bramham's central office be cut from two per cent to one per cent. The other will come out openly for reducing the present pool by distributing part of it back to the clubs that are members of the Association.

Priority Committee Change Is Suggested

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—The Government has before it a recommendation that a new Priority Committee be appointed to coordinate Canada's industrial war effort, it was stated officially tonight.

The Committee would be under Munitions Minister Howe. It would be composed of representatives from Finance Department, the three Defence Departments, and the Departments of Munitions and War Services.

The Committee would be given authority to rule which war supplies should have priority and as a result which plants should be assisted in filling the demands.

Uphill Says Metals Could Be Made for Plants of War

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Establishment of a blast furnace in the Fernie area would mean hundreds of industries in the Kootenay, Thomas Uphill, Labor, Fernie, told the Legislature today.

"Fernie is the centre of a mining district containing all the necessary ingredients for producing pig iron. We have plenty of waterpower, limestone, coal, and a vast quantity of scrap iron is scattered around the Kootenay country," Mr. Uphill said.

"Canada is in immediate need of the tools of war and if a cupola and foundry could be set up at Fernie the scrap metal in the Kootenays could be melted and castings made for Eastern assembly plants."

Turning to the war itself, Mr. Uphill said there were two schools of thought among the people. One school would win the war first and leave questions of settlement and social betterments until it was over. The other school claims that the war would be easier to win if the people knew what they were fighting for and if war policies were outlined clearly.

"We haven't lived up either to the principles of Democracy or Christianity," he said. "If Jesus Himself came to Canada today and expounded his views he would be jailed or deported.

"Democracy has not failed, but colossal ignorance has prevented us from enjoying its benefits. But, I would rather live under the present system than the which seeks to dominate the world."

Under the present system, said Mr. Uphill, there always will be unemployment. All governments had tried their best, but failed. Nothing short of a complete change in the economic setup would be able to provide employment when the war was over, and plans should be formulated now to take care of post-war problems.

Mr. Uphill believed the Defence of Canada Regulations were too drastic.

"Criticism should be welcomed," he said. "We can always gain from our critics. If the Empire had gone to the aid of Republican Spain a few years ago, we wouldn't need to worry about Gibraltar. If we had exercised a more friendly feeling toward Russia, conditions might have been different today."

The Fernie Member believed that Labor should be represented on all public bodies in Canada to insure greater consideration for the worker. He was pleased that a higher relief scale had been granted by the Government today and wished it was even higher.

He concluded by asking that the old age pension be granted to those of 65 years and that the pension be increased to $30 instead of $20. He cited laws in the United States, some of which provided for $45 a month at the age of 60 and said that in 46 states the age limit was 65.

Latin Americans Fight Propaganda

By The Canadian Press

Uruguay, which has preferred charges of plotting against the state against eight Germans, has led the 20 Latin-American republics in measures to check subversive activities by undercover representatives of the Nazis and Fascists.

All are banded together under the pact of Havana, aimed at preventing any European-owned territory in the Americas from changing hands, and most of them have taken steps against foreign activities—steps that have curbed the teaching and demonstration of Nazi-Fascist ideology.

In Uruguay the trial of eight Germans charged with an attempt to convert the nation into "a German colony of peasants" has not been completed. But it has had one important result. Julio Dalldorf, press attache in the German legation there, was charged with being the director of Nazi activities in Uruguay and had to leave the country.

Adolfo Fuhrmann, one of the accused Nazis, assumed responsibility for the plot but called it a "joke."

The various central American Republics just after the war issued simultaneous decrees, banning foreign political activities, emblems, uniforms, schools and so forth.

BONNINGTON

BONNINGTON, B.C.—Mrs. McDonald of Vancouver is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jerome.

Constable and Mrs. W. Martin and daughter Patsy plan to spend a couple of weeks at the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. George Biddlecombe and son Arty spent a weekend in Trail with Mr. and Mrs. A. Biddlecombe.

Mrs. E. C. Johnson has returned from Spokane where she visited her daughter Dorothy, who is a nurse-in-training at Deaconess Hospital.

Mrs. G. F. Chapman visited Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Biddlecombe have as guest their neice, Clarice Biddlecombe of Trail.

GREEK NO SISSY DESPITE HIS FRILLS

NEW YORK (CP)—The Greeks dress their soldiers differently on different occassions. For ceremony, certain Greek army units are decked out in showy frilled skirts like dancers. The Greeks like to dance, too.

When there's real military business to be taken care of, Greece can outfit members of its small standing army in serviceable uniforms and equip them with modern rifles. Greece probably would run out of equipment if she called up all of her reserve forces, but her standing army is well equipped.

First Trainees Are Home Again; Arrive by Bus

Tales of military training at Vernon are being heard throughout the Kootenays today. The first group of trainees under the Canadian national training plan is back home. The next group is due in camp November 22.

Trainees from Kootenay-Boundary points climbed aboard buses at Vernon Thursday night and drove directly to their home towns with only brief stops. It was a cold drive over the Cascade summits. On one summit the snow was about a foot deep.

Four busts, one of them on regular schedule, were used to transport the Kootenay-Boundary lads. Leaving early Thursday morning another bus transported the men from the Arrow and Slocan Lakes districts to their homes.

Three of the Kootenay trainees enlisted in the Active Service Force, though where they would serve was not known to the men who returned home. They were Alistair McKenzie of Trail, now a lance-corporal; William Lang of Nelson; and Joseph Lanphear of Castlegar. A number of other Kootenay men who had previously made application to various services were called out while they were in camp.

Arab Bloc May Join War Pact

CAIRO, Egypt, Nov. 8 (AP) — Formation of an Arab bloc to resist any Axis aggression in the Near East was being discussed in Arab circles here tonight coincident with a state visit to King Farouk's court by the Emir Abdullah of Transjordan.

Well-informed sources said Transjordan, Iraq and Saudi Arabia would be parties to such a pact with support of Arabs in Palestine and Syria. Egypt will not be asked to join until details have been worked out, these sources said. The pact also would be aimed for eventual inclusion of Iran and Afghanistan.

Iran, Afghanistan, and Iraq have a pact with Turkey providing their assistance to Turkey in event Turkey is attacked.

The Emir Abdullah is believed to be strongly in favor of Arab support for Turkey.

Britain has seen the vital Near Eastern oil fields as the ultimate goal of Germany and Italy in their Mediterranean operations, and observers believe she would give unstinted support to such an Arab bloc.

CASUALTIES

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP Cable) — Three Canadians were included in the Royal Air Force's 51st casualty list issued tonight which contains 340 names, the biggest category being 85 missing.

The Canadians

Killed in action: PO. Hugh William Reilley of London, Ont., whose wife lives in England.

Killed on active service: LAC. J. W. Colley whose father J. Colley lives at Westmount, Que.

Wounded on active service: Sgt. D. J. Capel of Toronto whose next-of-kin live in Bristol, England.

'Japan Is Market for Dutch Indies'

By HELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer

TOKYO, Nov. 8 (AP) — Complete cooperation between Japan and the Netherlands East Indies is not only desirable but inevitable since authorities in Holland's rich colony "realize that to maintain their island government they must shake hands with us" Ichizo Kobayashi, Japanese Commerce Minister and head of a special commercial commission to Batavia, said today.

"War has closed Europe as a market to East Indies products," he declared in an interview. Therefore, steel, Bauxite, nickel and agricultural products must be sold to Japan. . . The Dutch realize the importance of close relations with Japan."

Japan is the only nation in the world in a position to invest capital and develop resources in the Indies, he contended, and if Japanese capital flows there, Japanese immigration could be expected to follow."

Winnipeg Officers Get Promotion

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Lt.-Col. R. O. G. Motton of Winnipeg has been appointed General Staff Officer (Grade 1) training at National Defence Headquarters here, the Defence Department announced today.

The Department also announced that Maj. F. J. North, M.C., of Winnipeg had been named Deputy Assistant Adjutant General at Ottawa, succeeding Maj. E. A. Anglin, now Major with the Governor-General's Foot Guards.

Ontario to Join Govt. Conference

TORONTO, Nov. 8 (CP)—Premier Hepburn said today that Ontario will join in the Dominion-Provincial Conference called by Prime Minister Mackenzie King and to be held in Ottawa next January. He added that Ontario is opposed to any move to "raid" Ontario taxpayers for the benefit of other provinces.

Victoria Out for Ship Orders

VICTORIA, Nov. 8—Award of additional contracts for the construction of vessels of the corvette type in Victoria to the order of the Dominion Government is expected shortly, it was intimated in shipbuilding quarters.

Local firms, with contracts already in hand, will shortly have vacant launching ways, and in view of announcements from Ottawa of the intention to keep shipbuilding berths busy during the war emergency, an announcement along this line may be expected within the immediate future.

A number of British Columbia yards have submitted bids on vessels of both the corvette and minesweeper class.

It is probable that future shipbuilding on both coasts will take the form of larger vessels than those now being built, possibly cruisers.

Another phase of shipbuilding within the bound of possibility is the construction of cargo vessels as plants on this coast are equipped for the building of such vessels.

Announcement was made today in Vancouver by Clarence Wallace, President of the Burrard Drydock Company Limited, that his firm had submitted tenders for the construction of several large cargo ships.

W. R. Devenish, General Manager, Canadian National Railways Western Lines, announced during an inspection tour of the Northern British Columbia coast this week, that a contract for the construction of two more minesweepers had been awarded to the Prince Rupert Drydock.

The industry in Victoria has been felt out regarding the construction of not only additional corvettes for naval service, but also for cargo vessels which are needed to maintain Britain's lifeline.

Yarrows Limited, Esquimalt and the Victoria Machinery Deport Limited, have building berths here which can be utilized immediately, and both local firms assert prospects for new orders are bright.

Britain and Canada to Get Half New U. S. Defence Items

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — President Roosevelt said today he had established a rule of thumb policy whereby Great Britain and Canada would be supplied 50 per cent of United States defence items now coming off factory lines, including large bombers and other things needed both here and abroad.

At his first press conference since he was elected to a third term Mr. Roosevelt also reported that United States and Mexican Army officers have carried on conversations regarding joint defence similar to those with other Latin American countries.

The President said that heretofore, in regard to defence items needed both by the United States and Great Britain, the United States was selling to Britain abou 45 per cent of its new production and was retaining about 55 per cent here.

Making plain that there would be some exceptions to his rule of thumb policy, the President said that, generally speaking, Britain would get half of needed munitions and other armaments and that this would apply to large bombing planes now coming off the line.

For a while, he said, the United States might need more than 50 per cent of some items and less in others.

Japanese Lift Ban on Pearl River

HONG KONG, Nov. 8 (AP) — Japanese authorities in the South China port of Canton announced today that the Pearl River, closed since the beginning of September to shipping between Canton, Hong Kong and Macao, would be reopened tomorrow.

British quarters welcomed the lifting of the prohibition, however, as a favorable development in British-Japanese situation following the British abandonment this week of compulsory removal of British women and children from Hong Kong.

Pensions and Pay for Civilian Defence

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP).—Pensions and pay for injuries were provided for the civilian defence forces today in a protective program announced by the Home Security Ministry for air raid wardens, firemen, ambulance drivers and others.

Provisions included 13 weeks' pay for those injured or wounded on duty, pensions for those wounded so badly as to be unable to work, after protection against bombs at civil defence posts, rotation of work in the heavily-bombed areas with rural workers taking turns in the cities, a funeral allowance, and the privilege of using the Union Jack for a pall as in soldiers' and sailors' funerals.

Roosevelt Out on Election Forecast

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — President Roosevelt disclosed today he had again been way off in his guess on the elections' outcome.

He told his press conference he had forecast 340 electoral votes for himself. The way the returns stood today, he had won 449 and Wendell L. Willkie 82.

On the basis of his 340 vote forecast, Mr Roosevelt laughed and asserted he had lost several pool wagers at Hyde Park on how various sections of the country would go.

Greeks Adopt Nonchalant Attitude to Raids; Prefer Open Trench Shelters

SALONIKA, Greece, Nov. 8 (AP) —Residents of this Macedonian city hastily piled sandbags about important buildings and dug trenches in open spaces today to prepare for an aerial siege from the Italian air armada.

In three days this once-powerful city has been transformed into a trench-scarred citadel.

Most of the residents prefer open ditches to cellar shelters during air raids because they can see what is going on outside.

A hit on an Italian plane brings them charging out of the trenches like infantry going over the top so they can be on hand where the plane lands, whether it is loaded with bombs or not.

One Italian plane which fell in Salonika was torn to shreds in a few minutes by Greeks seeking souvenirs.

The government was forced to issue regulations prohibiting residents from taking parts from fallen planes before the authorities can take control.

While the city rushed its air raid preparations new anti-spy regulations made every Greek a counter-espionage agent.

Citizens were warned today to watch their conversation and to report suspicious actions of strangers.

The Greeks took this warning to heart, and when an American newspaperman puled out a notebook passing Greeks eyed him suspiciously. When the newsman started to speak English, however, they broke into smiles.

Many of those who fled from the city when the Italians first attacked are filtering back.

Those who remained have adopted a nonchalant attitude toward air raid alarms. Children play a Greek version of hopscotch with bomb fragments.

Even in buildings converted into hospitals for the civilian wounded there is an air of confidence.

In one hospital, I saw a boy swathed in bandages as the result of an air raid. He did not speak of his pain, but asked me:

"Mister, did you see our soldiers shoot down that Italian plane? I saw it fall. They can't beat us."

Legislators Are Hearty Beef Eaters but the Speed Bothers Famous Chef

By GLADYS ARNOLD
(Canadian Press Staff Writer)

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Canada's parliamentarians are hearty beef-eaters, Chef Louis Martin of the Parliamentary Restaurant and Cafeteria says they like substantial steaks without too many frills.

"A thick, juicy steak, rare and with plenty of onions, that's what they like best," Chef Martin told The Canadian Press today. But he shook his head over the speed with which the nation's legislators tuck away their food.

They want their service fast. Then they eat fast and according to the chef they think while they eat.

Chef Louis, who prepared all the food for the receptions at Rideau Hall during the Royal visit in 1939, is proud of the fact his father was the personal chef of King Edward VII and chef in the home of Lord Curzon and the Duke of Richmond.

"King Edward knew the Mediterranean so well and also my home at Nice," said Louis. "He took my father back to England from there."

Chef Louis has travelled and followed his profession in almost every country in the world, and in every province of Canada. Four brothers are chefs. A fifth is a head waiter.

His chief disappointment is that none of his three sons want to follow in his footsteps—"They say it's too hard work" and they aren't far wrong. Louis leaves home at 7 a.m. and returns at 9 p.m. He dines with his family only on Sundays.

Windsors Expected in U.S. This Month

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—The Daily News says the Duke and Duchess of Windsor are expected to visit New York sometime between Thanksgiving, probably Nov. 21, and Christmas.

The Duke and Duchess, says the paper, have consented to make personal appearances at a charity ball to be given for the British War Relief Society and the allied relief fund, which merged forces yesterday.

Meat Should Be Included in Diet

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

The other day, in browsing through a second-hand book store, I came across a now long-forgotten volume, but on the title page was the name of the author, a name used by more than a million people a day in this land of the free choice and the plentiful food supply. It was J. H. Salisbury, M.D., and he left his name on Salisbury steak as indelibly as Lord Sandwich left his on another delicacy.

The contents of the book, as I say, have long been forgotten, but it may come as something of a surprise to many to know that once a reputable and conservative medical man should have advocated an almost exclusively meat diet. In states of health—that is, for a normal daily diet, Salisbury believed in a general fare with plenty of meat, but in certain disease he thought that meat alone was the beneficial thing and he advocated that it be chopped up fine.

HAIG AGAINST MEAT

The idea was very popular in its day ,and then a cloud came over the reputation of meat. And I think I can put my finger on the time and the name of the cloud. It was a book called "Uric Acid," by Dr. Haig, published about 1890. Haig, who was also a reputable physician, believed that nearly all chronic diseases come from an accumulation of uric acid in the body and uric acid comes from meat.

His book was a wonderful boon for a doctor who didn't like to think too much. Here were nearly all the diseases known to man listed with case histories to show that when the patients were taken off meat they got well. It was so easy. I don't know whether you've noticed it, but doctors are inclined to be a little faddy — especially about chronic diseases. Nowadays they would have put those patients on vitamins. In Haig's day they took them off meat.

The truth lies between the two extremes. Our methods of chemistry have improved since Haig's day. We can determine exactly the uric acid contents of the blood — and there are few people who have any retention of it.

A BENEFICIAL FOOD

Meat is a good, beneficial, and for some purposes, almost indispensible part of the diet. One need not go as far as the famous Salisbury and eat nothing but meat, but it carries no hazard to eat is every day.

Even in certain diseases — kidney ailments, and high blood pressure—where twenty-five years ago many doctors prohibited meat, nowadays they think the patients need a certain amount.

Business Offers Fail Flat When Girl Is in Love

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Dear Miss Chatfield:

We went together for two years, were engaged and planned to be married by this time, when I found out his family were foaming at the mouth about me. They couldn't bear to see their son marry a girl of different nationality. I didn't tell him the real reason for breaking the engagement—just told him I didn't love him, which was a big lie. He continued to date me and we were still in love. There is no doubt. I started to date other boys when I broke my engagement and one of them has asked me to marry him. He is well-to-do and could give me much more than the first boy but love rings in my ears and it is not for him. Please advise me what to do.

Distracted.

Answer:

Big lies don't get us anywhere in this life; certainly not where love is concerned. Now, Miss Distracted, tell number one the whole truth, ask him to talk matters over with his family and find out if they are of the same opinion still. It's entirely possible that they may change their minds when they learn what you two young people mean to each other.

Some bright people argue that love isn't essential to a successful marriage if the pair are congenial friends, have character and a determination to build a permanent partnership. Even those people would hardly argue that a girl can marry one man while loving another man and make the husband happy or be happy herself.

They frequently say nowadays that women are climbing out of their romanticism, that they are more and more regarding marriage as they would a business career and thinking of love as they would of a bonus which was not included in a budget, something they didn't permit themselves to count on, nonetheless acceptable and convenient. Maybe so; but believe me the gals have yet a long way to climb. When love rings in their ears, they can't hear the business proposition very clearly; not the young ones anyhow.

Hair . . .

'About 1 in 10,000 Allergic to Dye'

By DONNA GRACE

While we may say, with a few exceptions, that most women seem to have no trouble in using the modern hair dyes, there are those exceptions who may be allergic to all such mixtures, not only in the dyes for the hair but even in fabrics.

Since it was discovered that some could not use dyes without a bad or at least annoying reaction, the law was passed to remind all operators to make a test before applying any dye. Most of them had been doing this for years as it seems they themselves were first to discover that one may be allergic to such things.

We are still telling you all this because so many women still feel that because they cannot use dyes themselves it is therefore injurious to everyone. As a matter of fact the great majority of mature women seem to have used it safely for years.

It proves that the use of this beauty aid should never mean a risk of any kind. When the test is made the reaction should determine whether or not one may be allergic to dye.

Those who find there is a bad reaction should never think of using dyes. We are told, that there is about only one in 10,000 who may be allergic.

What a Grand Girl!
Energy, Poise and Personality

She has energy, poise and personality and is always so sure of herself. Worry and irritability are farthest from her thoughts for she is filled with the joy of healthful living.

Most any girl can have similar attractiveness if she gives proper attention to her health. Anaemic condition, jangled nerves and tired, languid feelings soon give way with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. And what a pleasure it is to win back the joy of healthful living.

The foundation of all beauty is health. Creams and makeups have their uses but they cannot take the place of vigor and vitality.

SERIAL STORY . . . By RUPERT GRAYSON

Before the Blitzkrieg

CHAPTER THIRTY

"I'm only hoping you won't get too much excitement. Are you — armed?" asked X.

She shook her head.

"Good heavens, no! If Otto or any of the others were to find a handy little automatic in my bag, it would start all sorts of awkward questions. But I have my wits."

"They certainly seem to be pretty efficient," he conceded.

"Then it's settled that I go—if I can persuade Otto to take me, and I don't think there's much doubt about that. Now, what are my instructions?"

"Oh, the usual. Find out all you can, and communicate with me as soon as you can—with safety. And one other thing—I've an idea that one of my boys is knocking around that place, somewhere. He may be a prisoner; he may not. I can't tell. But I want you to get in touch with him, if you can, and if he's in any trouble do all you can to help him. Actually, there are two of them there, but only one is mine. The other is an Air Force officer named Hazeldeane—my fellow's name is Gun Cotton."

"Oh! The husband of that delightful person we met the other night?"

"Exactly. You have a good memory for names. Is your memory for faces as good?"

"I think so."

"Then take a look at these photos. This is Hazeldeane, the Air Force chap. And this is my man, Cotton."

She took the photographs in her hand and examined them carefully.

"All right," she said, handing them back. "I shall know them if I see them."

"Well, I can't give you any further instructions—I'm so accursedly in the dark myself. Understand, these fellows may be Fascists, or communists, or just plain bandits, out of their own hand."

"I'm pretty certain the latter," Coral interpolated.

"That may be. Only one thing is certain—they're dangerous. And if they once suspect you . . ."

He did not finish his sentence, but the silence was significant. The girl only laughed.

"Don't look so serious. It's all in the game, you know!"

X rose, and held out his hand.

"You're a plucky girl," he said gravely. "And I'm lucky to have got you. But do, please, remember that I want to keep you—and don't take unnecessary risks. Find out all you can—help those boys if they need it, and—good luck be with you!"

"Thanks!"

They gripped hands for a moment, and then X turned and left the cubicle.

He left the place by the same way as he had entered it, and, a few minutes later, Coral Merridew followed his example, but by the shop entrance.

Gun knew that the odds were rendered stronger against him by the fact that Trent, as a precaution, no doubt, had left the light on. Therefore, Gun, wallowing in the luxury of that cool-sheeted bed, must close his eyes, in case Trent should take a last glance at him. And the temptation for "just five minutes" was, perhaps, the strongest temptation he had ever known.

At last he decided that it was time to get busy. From Trent's bed came the sound of deep, regular breathing—a little thick, as of one who has indulged in a trifle too much alcohol. That, Gun decided would be the effect of the pellet. But for the drug, he might have suspected that Trent might be just "playing 'possum," but now he was pretty sure he wasn't.

However, he left nothing to chance. He suddenly sat up in bed:

"Trent! I say, Trent!"

There was no response from the other bed save the deep, regular breathing of the man in it.

Gun was satisfied, and got quietly out of bed. He slipped on his trousers, but not his shoes, and put his electric torch in one pocket, and the automatic in the other.

Now came a ticklish job—to get the keys from under Trent's pillow. The brute had the clothes pulled up well over his face, too.

Gun crept to the bedside on his hands and knees, and very softly began to explore with one hand. It was nervous work and Gun's nerves were not in the best trim. He was surprised and annoyed to find himself wet with perspiration after a few seconds. His fingers touched something hard and cold which raised his hopes for a moment, and then caused him to curse inwardly. It was not the keys, but the pistol. And the keys were behind it.

Nothing for it but patience. Slowly, with the tips of his fingers Gun worked the automatic aside a little, bit by bit, until at last his fingers could get past it, and the tip of the forefinger could hook itself around the keyring. Then the business of drawing it slowly toward him, not inch by inch, but fraction by fraction.

But it was done at last, and he had the keys in his hand.

Then, still on all fours—there must be no shadow across the face of the sleeper—Gun crept to the door, opened it—very slowly, in case it should creak—and at last stood in the passage outside.

He closed the door behind him noiselessly—then realized that he had forgotten to fake his bed, in case Trent should wake, or partially wake, and take a glance at it.

Hands and knees again, and back into the room. More quickly and less cautiously this time—the precious minutes were slipping away all too quickly.

Gun arranged the bolster to look as much like a sleeping form as possible, and then back to the passage. On his feet once more, and the legs still shaky, curse it.

Now another danger to be faced. The bungalow was queerly designed, and to get to Trent's office he had to pass through the kitchen. Sambo's domain, and if the Negro was still awake. . . .?

Gun strained his ears but could hear no sound, except for Trent's breathing coming faintly through the closed door. He catfooted to the closed door of the kitchen, turned the handle very slowly, and opened it an inch. No light in the kitchen, and no sound.

Red Cross Campaigns for New Clothing for Victims of Air Raids

VANCOUVER—F. W. Tuffrey, Commissioner B.C. division of the Canadian Red Cross Society has received word that a nation-wide compaign in the women's and children's wear industry for thousands of dollars worth of new clothing to be sent to air-raid victoms in the British Isles was announced by J. P. Levee of Montreal, executive director of the National Associated Women's Wear Bureau.

All branches of the trade, including textile mills, will take part in the campaign. Committees have been formed in Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver.

The facilities of the Canadian Red Cross Society will be used to ship the clothing overseas and to handle distribution in the areas where the garments are needed most urgently.

STUFFED PORK HEARTS

Half cup water, 4 thin slices bacon, 1½ cups bread dressing, 2 pork hearts.

Wash hearts with cold water, remove tough skin and vein, stuff with dressing and sew up. Put in casserole, lay strips of bacon over top, pour water in dish and put in hot oven. After 15 minutes reduce heat, cover and bake slowly for 2 hours. Thicken gravy in pan and serve on platter with browned potatoes. Serves six.

DRESSING

1¼ cups crumbs, 1 onion, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼teaspoon pepper¼ teaspoon dried powder sage, 1 egg.

Crush bread crumbs fine and mix ingredients together, adding egg last. You can also add 1 tablespoon of butter or other fat if you like. Make moist, but not wet, with water or milk and stuff heart.

SCONES

Three cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1 tablespoon sugar, ¾ teaspoon salt, ¾ teaspoon soda, 3 tablespoons shortening, 1 cup sour milk or buttermilk.

Sift dry ingredients together, add shortening, mixing with fork; add liquid to make soft dough. Turn out on floured board, toss lightly until smooth. Cut into 4 equal parts, shape each into round about ½ inch thick; cut into quarters to make triangular pieces, place on greased baking pan and bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Split, butter and serve hot. Makes 16 scones.

Diamond Wedding Celebrated by 80-Year-Old Stones Couple, Burton

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stones

BURTON, B.C.—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stones were at home friends on Wednesday, Nov. 6, on their Diamond Wedding Anniversary.

During the day many old friends dropped in to congratulate the couple, both over 80 years of age.

In the afternoon tea was served, the table being tastefully decorated in white and silver with vases of golden-bronze Chrysanthemums, centred by a one-tier wedding cake, also decorated in white, silver and gold.

Numerous congratulatory messages were received from all parts of British Columbia and England, including one from Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Mr. and Mrs. Stones were married November 6, 1889, in the Parish Church of Hartwith, Near Harrogate, Yorkshire, England. Mr. Stones was organist at this Church for a number of years, and both Mr. and Mrs. Stones were teachers in the Hartwith Church School for 12 years.

Coming to Canada in 1893 with their one son, William, they settled in South Vancouver just at the time that city was recovering from the effects of the great fire.

Farming on their South Vancouver property they lived there for 27 years during which time a second son, Herbert Ward Stones, was born, and the eldest son, William, died in 1906. After the war when their only remaining son was invalided out of the Navy they came to Burton on account of their son's health and have lived there since.

Sunflowers Are Huge at Creston

CRESTON, B.C., Nov. 7.—This has been an outstanding year for sunflowers at Creston. Previously the red ticket had gone to A. Confort's 14½-foot sample. This was followed by the Fred Smith entry of one with 31 well developed blooms, and a length of 11 feet. This week H. H. Gobbett is displaying a sunflower head that measures 24 inches across and is the biggest of the sort ever grown in the valley.

Cut Assessments Municipal Areas

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP).—In municipal areas throughout British Columbia land assessments were reduced by $9,522,732 last year and improvement assessments were increased $15,900,806, according to the annual report of the Department of Municipal Affairs made public today.

The trend is the subject of a special note by E. H. Bridgman, Deputy Minister. The big decrease in land assessments was in district municipalities which cut them by $8,871,794. These same areas increased improvements by $5,394,918.

Total debentures debt of the municipalities, exclusive of Vancouver, was reduced by $276,633 during the year. The municipalities paid off $1,003,044 of maturities but incurred new debts of $726,211 for various projects.

Against total debts of $130,699,755 for all municipal areas, including Vancouver, there are investments totalling $30,496,830 in sinking funds. These are short of theoretical requirements by $16,400,000 but of this figure Vancouver accounts for $14,400,000. Other areas are short by slightly less than $2,000,000.

Total municipal receipts from all sources were $21,988,794, an increase of $82,000 from the previous year. Disbursements were down from $22,124,547 to $21,502,524.

Internees Favoring Britain May Help Canada's War Effort

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Internees of the refugee type in Canadian camps who are sympathetic to the British cause, may help in the war effort, according to plans maturing at internment operations headquarters here.

An official said today that friendly internees in four or five camps might be segregated and assigned to work for which they had been trained and which would contribute directly to the war effort. All this work will be purely voluntary.

At present internees who are liable to work under International Law, are doing work in the bush and on the roads. The proposal is that those who are not unfriendly to the British cause may be permitted to do more essential work, the Government providing what machinery is necessary.

Women's Hospital Auxiliary Plans Bridge Parties

Kootenay Lake General Hospital Women's Auxiliary decided to hold a series of bridge parties this month to replenish funds, at the meeting Friday in the Nurses Home. Mrs. J. A. Fraser and Miss Gladys Ewing were appointed to be in charge of the bridge arrangements.

The Lutheran Church Silica Street had donated 41 jars of fruit and a promise of a quantity of pickles later, which was the only response to the Auxiliary's appeal for fruit this year, Mrs. F. A. Sparks, President, reported.

Miss Vera Eidt, Superintendent of Kootenay Lake General Hospital, gave an interesting account of Hospital Auxiliary activities reported at the B. C. Hospital Convention held at Victoria.

After discussing the annual Auxiliary gift to the Hospital, it was decided to renew the subscriptions to the magazines given last year, as this had proved to be both a popular and useful gift, Miss Eidt reported.

Election of officers for 1940 was completed with the Executive Committee being named by acclamation. Members are Mrs. H. M. Whimster, Mrs. B. B. Stallwood, Mrs. R. B. Morris and Miss C. Horton. Mrs. D. B. Wright was appointed Tea Conveners and Mrs. A. D. Tullock in charge of flowers.

Tea was served by Mrs. Wright assisted by Miss Eidt. Mrs. F. A. Sparks conducted the meeting.

Mary Ling Heads Junior C.Y.O. Here

Miss Mary Ling, former Vice-President, has become President of the Nelson Junior Catholic Youth Organization, filling the vacancy created by the resignation from office of President George Lunn. Miss Ruby Jarbeau has been elected Vice-President, Miss Louise Du-Mont Secretary, and Miss Dorothy Trainor, Treasurer.

Lunn was unable to carry on the Presidential duties because of his recent employment as an announcer at CKLN.

The new committees appointed were:

Spiritual—Eleanor Vecchio, Joseph Selinger and Rosella Poulin.

TRAINEES RETURN FROM ARMY CAMPS

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP) — Hundreds of young British Columbians called up a month ago for compulsory training returned to civilian life today from camps at Gordon Head near Victoria and at interior Vernon.

A special boat brought Vancouver trainees back last night from Victoria and the pier was jammed to overflowing with wives, mothers and sweethearts of the 21 and 22-year-olds.

Similar scenes were enacted when trainees from Vernon arrived this morning aboard a special train over the Canadian National Railways.

NELSON POLICE WILL TAKE FIRST AID INSTRUCTION

Nelson Police Department members are to take a course in St. John Ambulance Association first aid work. Instruction wil be given by Fire Chief G. A. McDonald.

"The course will prove invaluable to the officers in their work, enabling them to assist in cases of accidents or sudden illness," said Chief G. R. H. Bone, himself an ardent St. John Ambulance man.

Tower of London Hit During Raid

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP) — The Tower of London and the Church of Saint Clement Danes in the Strand have been hit by bombs in recent raids, it was officially announced today.

Much of the historic interior of St. Clement Dane's, regarded as one of the most beautiful churches designed by Sir Christopher Wren, has been destroyed but the structure still looks proudly down on the Strand.

A bomb fell near the church, demolishing windows and making most of the interior "almost a shambles", as the Rector, Rev. W. Pennington-Bickford, put it.

Two of its most precious parts escaped damage, however. They were the stone altar dating back to the pre-Reformation days and the pulpit, carved by Grinling Gibbons.

The ancient Tower, the scene of many events in English history, served in its day as a fortress, a Royal residence and a prison. Its tall spire on the shore of the Thames is one of the historic landmarks of London.

The Crown jewels were removed from the Tower to safer keeping at the outbreak of the war.

Like St. Paul's Cathedral, the Church of St. Clement Danes was designed by Sir Christopher Wren. It was built in 1681 and a tablet in one pew recalls that Dr. Samuel Johnson once worshipped there.

DOMINION GUIDE SECRETARY GUEST AT NELSON DINNER

Nelson Girl Guide Association entertained at a dinner at Grenfell's Friday honoring Miss Kathleen McMahon of Toronto, Dominion Secretary. Tables were laid for 20.

Among the guests were Mrs. W. A. McCabe of South Slocan, Divisional Commissioner; Mrs. W. C. Motley of Bonnington, District Commissioner; and Mrs. John Cartmel, Regent of Kokanee Chapter, I.O.D.E.

Nakusp Institute to Send Christmas Cakes to District Soldiers

NAKUSP, B. C.—At the November meeting of the Nakusp Women's Institute it was decided to send Christmas cakes to all soldiers of the Nakusp District. Mrs. A. E. Fowler offered her home for a card party to raise necessary funds. Hostesses will be Mrs. A. Stanley, Mrs. J. Parent, Jr., Mrs. P. Jupp and Mrs. O. Salstrom.

Clothing for refugees in Canada and overseas were requested from the Nelson Refugee Committee. Nakusp members were asked to contribute toward a parcel which is to be sent to Nelson as soon as possible.

Arrangements were made for the packing of fruit which has been canned locally for the Red Cross.

A donation of five cents a member is being given in conjunction with other institutes of the Dominion to the Department of Defence.

Dr. H. F. Tyreman has offered to examine children under school age and a day is being arranged for that purpose.

A letter from Needles with regard to a district health nurse was set aside while further information is sought. It was decided to drop the Youth Training plan on account of insufficient interest.

Mrs. W. L. Maxwell gave a very comprehensive paper of world events of today. She also spoke of the Peace Garden between Canada and United States. Tea hostesses were Mrs. G. H. Gardiner Jr., Mrs. P. Henke and Mrs. F. W. Daglish.

Mrs. Gardner, who leaves shortly to reside in Vancouver, received a parting gift which was presented by the President, Mrs. F. Rushton.

Letter From Former Erie Man Shows Courage of English; Tells of Escapes

The courage and confidence with which the people in Great Britain face their foes and the future is shown in a letter from C. W. W. Hansen of Margate, England, to his Nelson friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson, 221 Gore Street. Mr. Hansen for many years was a farmer at Erie. He returned to England in 1925.

Considerable bombing has been carried out in the Margate area, where Mr. Hansen lives, and in his letter he told of his own neighbors' narrow escapes. But they face the future with confidence and he wrote that he was already preparing for next Spring's planting on his farm allotment.

Ingenuity by which the people in England are conserving even envelopes was illustrated by the fact that the envelope in which Mr. Hansen received Mr. and Mrs. Johnson's letter had been turned inside out, strengthened with brown paper, and used for his reply.

HAS NARROW ESCAPE

The letter in part reads as follows:

"You are fortunate to be in Nelson during these days. Although we are in great danger in all parts of the country from the malicious work of our evil and despicable foes, I personally consider myself fortunate that I can in my small way help to destroy this canker which has attacked the whole of Europe and is a menace to the Western world. I am proud to be one of the only nations which is at the moment holding the enemy at bay, an enemy who through the fine work of our forces and the courage of the people generally is already beaten even if he does not know it. He will know it next year.

"I had a pretty narrow escape yesterday morning (October 2), two whistling bombs exploded within 50 feet of where I was digging on my allotment. As soon as I heard the scream of the bombs I threw myself flat on the ground. A man I know had an even narrower escape. He was going to work in his garden but his wife insisted he go into the next garden and dig potatoes. He was working when a bomb fell in his own garden exactly where he had intended working. A wooden fence broke the blast but he was blown over, though unhurt.

"One woman who always went into her shelter when the alert sounded was away shopping and a bomb landed full on her shelter and blew it out of the ground. Her shopping saved her life. The same happened to two other women, but it was their home which was destroyed, not a shelter."

SAVE PAPER

"I have run an allotment this year in spite of the exceptionally dry weather. I managed to get some satisfactory results, 3½ hundredweight of potatoes from 28 pounds of seed. . . . I am now getting ready for next Spring. . . ."

"Today and last night have been free from air raid warnings and we hope it may continue through the night.

"You will notice how we use every scrap of paper in writing and return envelopes in order to conserve our resources and lend our savings to the Government."

"Kindest regards. . . ."

Immigration to Canada Decreased

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP) — Immigration to Canada decreased 43.9 per cent during the six months ended Sept 30 last as against the same period in 1939, the Immigration Branch reported today.

The Canadian population was increased from all sources of immigration by 6746 persons of whom 2698 were adult females and 2296 were adult males. Children under 18 numbered 1752.

Immigration from the United States increased 22 per cent. A total of 4160 citizens of that country came to Canada, but northern European immigration was down 86.7 per cent at 207 nationals.

Canadians resident in the United States returning to the Dominion during the six months numbered 2546. Last year the figure was 2552.

HOW CAN KOOTENAY TRAINEES DO THIS?

While they returned to civilian life they will not be entirely dissassociated from the army. They will be members of the Non-Permanent Active Militia, enrolled in militia units near their homes. They will be encouraged to be active militiamen, turning out during the Winter for drills and parades with their units.

The above is from an Ottawa dispatch dated Nov. 6 concerning the first group of men completing their month in training camps and outlines the policy of the Department of Defense.

How are men in Kootenay to "be encouraged to be active militiamen, turning out during the Winter for drills and parades with their units" when we have no units of the Non-Permanent Active Militia in the district?

Nelson Board of Trade and other organizations which have been pointing out this to the Government at Ottawa for some time have received only negative replies. So have representations that men eligible for training in this district should be provided wtih the opportunity of training in N.P.A.M. units at home instead of going into camp, advantages which the Government has announced the intention of establishing in other parts of the country.

THE GUN AND THE FENCE

An Idaho bird hunter crawled through a wire fence the other day.

Yes, we all know how to finish the tale. He dragged his shotgun after him by the muzzle. And of course shot some one.

Usually the man who hauls a loaded firearm around by the muzzle is his own victim. In this case the double charge of shot missed the man with the gun, and killed a fellow hunter who was crawling about 20 feet ahead of him. The son of the accidental slayer was a witness of the fatal demonstration of how not to cross a line of fence with a gun, loaded or unloaded.

The Daily News suggested the other day that persons applying for hunting licences should be required to demonstrate their knowledge of how to handle a gun, one of the crucial points being how to take a gun through a fence. If the members of this Idaho hunting party had all been required to put a dummy gun through or over a wire fence, to show a responsible official they knew how to do this simple maneuver safely, this fatality would not have been recorded.

To judge from some of the complaints aired by stock farmers in Eastern Washington and adjoining Idaho, it would do no harm to have a picture of a cow brought to the attention of intending big game hunters in some instances.

A WINTER SONGSTER

If you heard, by the water's edge, on this day and date, a bird song that would do a canary no discredit, what kind of songster would you look for?

The Lapland Longspurs, the Streaked Horned Larks, the Snow Buntings, all from the Arctic, can and do twitter agreeably as they take retreating flight. Their songs, one would imagine, would be reserved for their nuptial season, in the Arctic. The Longspurs and the Horned Larks, however, are presumably far away—on the Southward trail, having sojourned but briefly. Possibly the Snow Buntings, which are here for the Winter, will be trilling in the Spring before they take wing for the North. But the present songster is not a Snowbird.

Rarely a Rusty Song Sparrow, lingering months behind its fellows; gives its sweet little song—a faint and abbreviated reflection of its vigorous Summer roundelay.

But the charming song the much-favored hearer may encounter today is not from Song Sparrow.

The songster is the Dipper—yes, the Dipper, or American Water Ouzel, whom most would never suspect of such an accomplishment.

Met in the wilds, the Dipper, bobbing and swimming and diving, and walking on the creek bottom, is a silent bird—to most observers, at all events.

But a cheerful clatter or twitter, mostly uttered during flight, has often emanated from Cottonwood Creek, this Fall, as the Dippers have carried on, in, or, over, or under the water, as the creek hastens to the lake.

Perhaps the Dippers' reach their peak in Winter, or perhaps early Spring, and possibly now life for them is on the crescendo.

At all events, the Dipper today raises his voice in a pleasant song, a song much like that of the canary, but not so full-voiced and boisterous; a song also that in parts hints of the Song Sparrow or the Vesper Sparrow; a song also that has a little suggestion of the Catbird, which makes up its composition as it goes along and includes a little of everything.

A splash and a ripple, then from the water a plump little gray bird, somewhat smaller than a robin, emerges, to mount a boom-stick, a few yards from the track beside the wharf. There it carols blithely, in a long-sustained song—just as if the hills were not white with snow and as if Winter was not knocking at the door!

Winter and Summer alike, the Dipeprs are with us, though not always or often evident. Their favorite nesting site is behind a small waterfall, through which they fly with as little concern as through a curtain of sunshine.

"No! Thee stops there till I goes and fetches police. Happen thee might 'ave dropped there in a parachute!"—Humorist.

When the War Is Over?

(According to Old Moore's)

THE YEAR OF THE GREAT CONJUNCTION—1941

The story of the world in the melting pot. That is the story I shall endeavor to unravel as I write in this month of May in the year of grace 1940. Dark and obscure as the immediate outlook appears, I see in the astrological portents the silver lining to the sombre clouds, to hearten the weary and heavy laden hearts of all mankind. This 1941 Almanack will be published during May preceding the year for which it is dated and before I proceed with the general survey of the state of the world in 1941 and beyond, it is very pleasing to note that close inspection of my astrological data shows that a great moral cr peoples' drive will be made to end the present devastating world-wide conflict before or during the early Autumn of nineteen hundred and forty.

The map I have erected proves clearly that there will be a great psychological force operating through the minds of the people, especially in the minds of the rank and file of the German population. The Nazi organization started this War of Nerves, the main objective being to intimidate and weaken the minds of the peoples of other nations so that they would finally bow to the bestial ideology of the Nazi leaders. But their main weapon will return as a boomerang and will cause their own undoing because the German people will consciously return to the only cure for human sorrow and tribulation, namely, the principle of true Christianity as portrayed in the Sermon on the Mount and the day of the return to this belief should come much more quickly than is generally imagined. In any case, it is obvious that the Autumn and Winter months of 1940-41 will be of a trying and nebulous nature and most important influences in the shaping of history will arise, but the great conjunction of Saturn and Jupiter which takes place every 20 years will fall again on February 15, 1941. The immediate change from Capricorn to Aquarius as rising sign appears to be symbolical of the general changes foreshadowed by the horoscope. For many years the influence of Capricorn, which contains Mars in the World Horoscope, has been dominant in world affairs. The change from Capricorn to Aquarius foreshadows the end of this influence and the gradual dawning of a period of better international understanding (which will lessen the power of Dictatorship) and the return of the Monarchial system in a modified form as indicated by the rising of the sign. The rising of the Sun and Venus indicates a more general peaceful and prosperous era and through the next 20 years the world will see many far-reaching political and social changes which will lead ultimately to an era of lasting happiness and contentment for the peoples of all nations.

Mars occupies an elevated position and is in a favorable sign in sextile to the Sun. From this we can conclude quite definitely that the War spirit which prevails so strongly as I write this article in May, nineteen hundred and forty, will change to a new point of view.

The presence of Mars in Sagittarius will have an important effect in the destiny of Spain and it is highly probable that the tenure of office of General Franco will come to an end.

Important changes in the Government of England will come about, and the Colonial structure of the Empire will be the subject of extremely important conferences. In this respect Ireland will probably resume the status of a Republic because the influences show that the North and South will combine in a way that will settle this long-standing controversy.

It must and will be a period of reconstruction for all countries, including the United States of America, but the actual result will be a time of understanding and international goodwill and so the change of the influence of Capricorn to that of Aquarius will lead ultimately to an era of 20 years or more of peace and prosperity for all mankind.

On the other hand, Saturn and the Moon in the sign Virgo have a general rulership over world affairs this year, betokening a certain amount of economic stress.

Yet finally Britain and her far-flung Empire will emerge stronger and more uniform from the time of testing—but there will be no room for complacency.

E. K. E., Fernie—What is the name given to taking a score overlooked by an opponent at cribbage?

The term is muggins.

M. T., Trail—Is buttermilk good for one's skin, if so, how is it used?

Buttermilk is said to be beneficial to the skin and has a mild bleaching quality. It is used in various ways. Applied straight on the skin or as a pack when mixed with oatmeal are perhaps the most general methods.

C. M., Nelson—In what light should a goldfish bowl be kept?

The goldfish bowl should have a Northern or Northeastern exposure in Summer, while in Winter it should be placed where it will get the sunlight for from two to three hours each day. The light should enter the bowl in about the same way it enters a stream. If too much light is admitted it will stimulate the growth of low vegetation known as algae, which causes the water to turn green.

Hunter, Trail—Our source of information on borrowing a gun was the Provincial Police, Nelson.

CONTRACT . . . By Shepard Barclay

BLAME ONLY YOURSELF

MANY players are prone to blame their own hard luck for what occurs to them—not only hard luck in the way that opposing cards are located, but in the way that the opponents played the cards. How often we hear someone say, in effect, "If he hadn't made that lead against me, I would have made my contract." Perhaps he could have made his contract anyway, by a bit more astuteness.

North: ♠ 6 3 ♥ K Q 8 7 2 ♦ J 8 ♣ A 9 7 3

West: ♠ K 10 8 ♥ 10 5 3 ♦ 9 7 6 ♣ Q 10 5 2

East: ♠ Q 9 7 5 4 ♥ A 6 4 ♦ K 4 3 ♣ J 6

South: ♠ A J 2 ♥ J 9 ♦ A Q 10 5 2 ♣ K 8 4

(Dealer: South. North-South vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
1 ♦	Pass	1 ♥	1 ♠
1 NT	Pass	2 ♣	Pass
2 NT	Pass	3 NT

Let's take what happened about this contract at several duplicate tables. At one West made the worst spade lead of all, the K. South won with the A, led a heart to East's A, took the next spade when East underled the Q, then ran all the rest of the tricks, counting a successful diamond finesse, and so made three overtricks. At another table it was the same except that, after East won with his heart A, he cashed the spade Q before leading to South, who therefore made only two overtricks.

At a third table West led the spade 8, the Q losing to the A. South sent a heart to the A and East returned a spade, West getting two tricks but blocking the suit, so that South made one overtrick.

At a fourth table West led the spade 10, the best lead. The Q covered and lost to the A. When East won then with the heart A, he led his spade 5 to the J and K, and West returned the 8 to the 9, giving East a chance to run enough spade tricks to set the contract.

Poor South was downcast about being the only player who encountered that defense. But it was his own fault. When East returned the spade 5, he might have played low. West could have won that trick with the 8 or K. If with the latter, he would then have had to present South a trick with the J, and if he won it with the 8, his K would have blocked the suit and South therefore would have made his contract plus an overtrick. But suppose East had held the K and returned that 5 anyway? Then South's play would have been the J. That raises the question of how likely East would have been to do that with such a holding. Your guess is as good as anyone's else.

Do you understand the type of lead-throwing end-play whereby the declarer is unable to find an entry to one or more set-up cards in the dummy except by making a defender lead to them? Can you set up an example of it?

Poppies

By G. S. REES

"They cease to have who cease to give".

Poppy Time once again, and in the welter of another widspread war—the second within the lifetime of this generation — our thoughts incline towards that one-time tortured terrain across the sea where still—

". . . The poppies blow,
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark their place . . .

These lines, with their universal appeal, are inseparably linked with Canada's Day of Remembrance, and have provided the Dominion—and the British Empire—with an emblem that has become a perpetual challenge to the call of a renewed gratitude for the valiant self-sacrifice of kith and kin in the world war that lasted "Three years or duration," and is now becoming more and more a fading vision with its outlines altogether insecure. The quiet and scholarly medico of the Canadian Corps—a man well beloved by his peers—who penned the stanzas of the deathless "In Flanders Fields"—one of the finest poems born of the agony of war—died in the prime of life at a base hospital near Boulogne (now tormented with R.A.F. bombs) during the ending year of last year With many a comrade-in-arms, he sleeps on a sunny slope facing the sunset and the sea—in some corner of a foreign field!

Now from the land that holds our beloved dead,
Out of their poppied graves they rise again,
As they foresaw—"They could not sleep', they said,
If it should prove that they had died in vain!

AFTERMATH OF HAVOC

The tinsel tokens that splash city streets and stores with crimson glow today are replicas of the scarlet weed amid the alien corn; they have become our Remembrancer of the yesterdays, reminding us among other affairs of Canada's rise to nationhood in the New World on the blackened battle-zones of the Old. They call to remembrance our bounden obligation towards the battle-scarred and disabled veterans who, through no fault of their own, are no longer able to meet with their comrades in the busy marts of commerce to gain their daily bread; their necessities have been enlarged through grevious hurts sustained in the insensate hopper of a wanton war fomented by a power-mad people who once again have been allowed to become the common enemy of civilized humanity. We must never allow this to happen again.

"THERE SHALL BE NO NIGHT"

Tall green candles stand the stems
Lighted by flames of red.

Benjamin Franklin's words in a crisis of America's pioneer days may serve as our motto on this occasion—"Though the sun has gone down and it may be long before it rises again let us make as good a night of it as we can—we can still light candles"!

We can aid in lighting with embroidering flame the dusk of our brother-men, who in the long ago lustily trod the roads of war in the flower of their manhood, but who can march no more to roll of drum and blare of bugle brass.

Let the paper poppy we wear today also testify to an individual determination to make this "our finest hour"; each after his own manner, to ensure that the present domination of force and falsehood is broken for all time, and mankind set free—under Divine guidance—to build a new Way of Life. "This is the hour. When courage knows her own." It was Epictetus who said that every burden has two handles; one by which it can be carried, and one by which it cannot. The wise man finds the handle by which he can carry his burden! We have found the handle by which our Empire's heavy load can be carried, and freedom eventually preserved in a tumbling world now trembling on the brink of an atavistic barbarism. This handle that has no doubt or confusion in its composition—nor even apprehension, is fashioned after the deep conviction of the rightness and therefore ultimate triumph of the Cause to which we have committede heart and hand at whatever the cost: and this with an assurance that rises superior to the consideration of individual liberty, or even of life itself!

TIME HONORED APPEAL

Rain or shine, one and all on this adventurous anniversary will rally to the call of the Canadian Legion, as in all preceding years since the commencement of the Long Reprieve, and ungrudgingly pay their own price for a Veteraft poppy fashioned in skill by ex-warriors who still carry on with high hope and a cheery courage even as in the long ago. Once again, ladies and gentlemen, "Noblesse oblige"!

New District Rules Taken Against Jews in Belgium

BERLIN, Nov. 8 (AP).—A far-reaching law against Jews has been decreed in Belgium by Gen. Faulkenhausen, Commander of the Nazi Army of occupation, it was reported today.

The chief points of the decree, according to the Dienst Aus Deutsland, follow:

1. Jews who fled from Belgium during the German invasion will not be allowed to return. Local officials must register all Jews over 15 years.
2. Jewish enterprises, clubs, institutes and other groups as well as factories, land, forest and property belonging to Jews, must be registered by May 1, 1941.
3. Hotels and restaurants owned or operated by Jews must display a sign outside in Flemish, German and Walloon dialect, reading "Jewish business," effective Nov. 30.
4. Jews will not be allowed after Dec. 31 to hold public office. Jewish civil service employees will be pensioned.

It was said that affairs of religious organizations would not be affected by the new rules.

VERSE

REMEMBRANCE DAY

We called it Armistice: Alas! the name
Meant but a truce in pirate's greed for fame,
Or war-lord power; that they might build again,
New guns, new blood, to furnish war's red rain.

Remembrance Day! Let us remember well
The duty passed to us by those who fell:
Sleep they well now? or, wakeful, watch the fray,
That we, their heirs, complete the task today?

Today, with us, Remembrance Day: to them
Who dared their all for freedom in their day,
Do they fly now, with power and vision clear,
To guide their heirs to goal they held most dear

Today, what cloud of witnesses unseen,
Soul's memory clear to view the mortal scene,
The heroes of all freemen of the past
May pray their sacrifice bring fruit at last.

J. Queen Reelected Mayor of Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8 (CP).—John Queen was re-elected Mayor of Winnipeg by acclamation today when civic election nominations closed and no other candidates had filed nomination papers.

It will be Mayor Queen's sixth term of office. He was first elected for the year 1935 and with the exception of 1937 has held the position since that time.

STOCKHOLM (CP)—Shortage of gasoline has made the use of trolley buses imperative in Sweden and the first line has been opened in Goteborg. Stockholm will have similar lines shortly.

Six Teams to Compete In Christmas Turkey Bowling at Canadian Legion

Series of Challenge Matches Included in Schedule

Annual Christmas turkey tournament of the Canadian Legion Bowling Club opens Tuesday with six teams competing for eight big turkeys to be presented Dec. 23—in time for Christmas dinner.

Interspersed with the turkey tournament will be a series of challenge matches in which will compete teams from the Legion Bowling Club, the Legion, City Council, Veterans Guard, Voluntary Training Corps and Sims'.

J. H. Chapman of the Legion Club announced that each member of the team winning the tournament would receive a turkey, and that turkeys would be awarded for highest aggregate score by each skip, third, second and lead not on the winning team. Thus no player may win two turkeys.

Players still absent after the fifth frame of any game must, unless they are covered by a substitute in their class, take the low score of the opposing team. All games will start at 7:30.

THE TEAMS

Teams, in order of skip, third, second and lead, are:

Nick Cassios, H. H. Sutherland, Con Cummins, Miss J. Riley.

R. R. Brown, Sam Fawcett, C. D. Pearson, Mrs. Con Cummins.

Dave Muir, W. Wood, P. Vecchio, Mrs. J. H. Chapman.

Frank Sims, Steve Hilliard, George Benwell, Mrs. J. Edwards.

Fred Anderson, Irvin Black, Fred Carmichael, Mrs. Victor Graves.

Ross Riley, Milton Sims, J. Bayliss, Mrs. J. Annable.

THE SCHEDULE

The schedule for both tournament and challenge games follows:

November 12—Nick Cassios vs R. R. Brown.

November 13—Challenge game, City Bombers vs Legion Hurricanes.

November 14—Dave Muir vs Frank Sims.

November 15—Ross Riley vs F. Anderson.

November 19—R. R. Brown vs Frank Sims.

November 20—Challenge game, Veterans Guard vs Voluntary Training Corps.

November 21—Nick Cassios vs Ross Riley.

November 25—Nick Cassios vs Fred Anderson.

November 26—Dave Muir vs R. R. Brown.

November 27—Challenge game, Legion Hurricanes vs Veterans Guard.

November 28—Ross Riley vs Frank Sims.

December 2—R. R. Brown vs Ross Riley.

December 3—Fred Anderson vs Frank Sims.

December 4—Challenge game, Veterans Guard vs Voluntary Training Corps.

December 5—Dave Muir vs Nick Cassios.

December 9—Nick Cassios vs Frank Sims.

December 10—R. R. Brown vs Fred Anderson.

Legion Lions Issue Open Challenge to Any Nelson Bowlers

Legion Lions, a selected team of bowlers from the Canadian Legion alleys, Friday night issued an open challenge to any team or aggregation of teams in Nelson.

The Lions include Nick Cassios, H. H. Allen, R. R. Brown, Dave Muir and Walter Duckworth.

Fans Anticipate Rugged Hockey Team in Nelson

Railbirds who watched Nelson Maple Leafs work out at the Civic Centre Arena Friday night wore lit le smiles of satisfaction as they left the rink. It was far too early to pass judgment on individual ability, even the most rabid admitted, but there was a definite promise in the candidates on the ice of a husky and rugged team.

It was the second workout—the first using sticks—and the lads demonstrated that it's going to take a lot of plugging and real hockey ability to hold a place on the Nelson club this season.

Some 300 fans watched the workout.

Football Titles May Be Decided

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—Championships might be decided in three of the United States' most important football sectors tomorrow.

Minnesota and Michigan, the two big undefeated, untied powers of the Mid-West, clash at Minneapolis. Minnesota halts the great Tommy Harmon and wins, the Big Nine will be as god as delivered to the Gophers. Michigan, if victorious, still would have to overcome Northwestern and Ohio State.

Down in Dallas Texas Aggies face Southern Methodist University, the biggest obstacle in their path to another Southwest Conference crown.

Out in Palo Alto, Calif., Stanford Indians risk their perfect record against Washington Huskies in a game that should decide the Pacific Coast Conference title.

Notre Dame takes on the Navy, at Baltimore.

Cornell, the East's best-scoring machine, is expected to have a nice romp at the expense of Yale.

Alabama and Tulane meet in the South's outstanding struggle, with the winner likely to finish as runner-up to Tennessee for the Southeastern Conference title. Tennessee meets Little Southwestern.

Sports Roundup

BY EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)— Alva Bradley is hurrying here from Cleveland and the boys are wondering whether he'll talk to Babe Ruth. . . . Harvard coaches won't say so out loud, but they think they have a chance to upset Penn tomorrow. . . . The gossips say they baseball trade winds will blow Eddie Miller of the Bees to Cincinnati for Billy Myers and $60,000 next month.

TODAY'S GUESS STAR:

C. L. (Poss) Parsons, Denver Post, "I am going into the tough Southwest Conference for the week's most likely upset—Arkansas to topple a favored Rice eleven. . . . It's homecoming at Fayetteville and the Razorbanks have their bristles up for this one."

Paste this in your hat: Horace Stoneham says Mel Ott will stay at the polo grounds as long as he can stand on two feet—also that the Giants aren't about to sell Harry Danning or their Jersey City farm. . . . Jimmy Thomson, just back from an exhibition tour of Alabama left the boys talking about his terrific drives. He drove a 350-yard green at Tuscaloosa; got over a Dutch 300-yard; from the tenth tee at Anniston and hit the 340-yard tenth green at Montgomery.

DEER VISITS SCHOOL

APPLEDALE, B.C.—The Appledale school children and teacher, Mrs. De Cocq, were excited when they were visited by a deer. Quite a few of the children petted it.

KNOWLES SENT TO TULSA

ST. PAUL, Nov. 8 (CP). — Ross Knowles of Fort William, defenceman of the St. Paul American Association Hockey Club, tonight was sent to Tulsa on loan with option to purchase. Knowles came to St. Paul from Omaha in a trade for Emil Hanson, Canmore, Alta., product now with Minneapolis.

Alberta to Discuss C.A.H.A.-Pro Plan

EDMONTON, Nov. 8 (CP)—The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association agreement with the National Hockey League calling for payment to amateur clubs sending players to professional teams will be discussed at the Alberta Amateur Hockey Association's 27th annual meeting here tomorrow.

Other matters on the agenda include assistance in furtherance of hockey in the military forces, organization of minor leagues and participation of Alberta teams in a C. A. H. A. plan to play games for the benefit of the Canadian Red Cross fund.

Tick Hall Top Batter for the Trail Indians

TRAIL, B. C., Nov. 8—Tick Hall led the batting averages for the Indians Men's West Kootenay Senior Baseball champions, both in the season's play, with .443, and in the final playoffs against the Trail Cardinals, with .400.

Hogan Big Golf Money Winner

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—Ben Hogan, the Texas-born pro who plays out of White Plains, N.Y., has finished in the money in each of the 22 tournaments in which he has started this year to lead United States golf professionals in money-winning as well as in point-scoring for the Vardon Trophy.

Figures released today by the Professional Golfers Association show Hogan with $9655 in prize money, a lead of $1628 over Jimmy Demaret of Houston, Tex., and 400 Vardon points, 27 more than Sam Snead of Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa.

The little Texan also has the best scoring average of the year, 70.63 shots for 71 rounds. Snead is second with a 71.17 average for 58 rounds.

Jorgens and Tucker Go to White Sox

CHICAGO, Nov. 8 (AP)—Signing of Orville Jorgens, younger brother of Arndt Jorgens, veteran reserve catcher with New York Yankees, is announced by Chicago White Sox.

Jorgens, 29, a right handed pitcher, developed a sore arm last season and was released by San Francisco of the Pacific Coast League. He has seen service with Philadelphia Phillies and two International League clubs, Baltimore and Montreal. White Sox officials said club trainers have cured his arm trouble and that he would report at Spring camp.

The White Sox also announced purchase of Thurman Tucker, young centrefielder, from Okalhoma City of the Texas League.

Senators to Play Seven Night Games

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — Reluctantly keeping up with the times, Clark Griffith, President of the Washington Senators today gave in to night baseball and announced that the Senators would play home games under the Arcs next season.

Lots of Hockey Talent Working Out at Kimberley

KIMBERLEY, B. C., Nov. 8 (CP) —An imposing array of hockey talent is working out daily at a gym here with but one thought in mind—to win a place on the Kimberley Dynamiters hockey team.

Trying out for goalie along with Ken Campbell and Al LaFace is Cliff Kilburn, formerly of Edmonton Athletic Juniors. Lyall Swaney, ex-Regina Vic-Aces is among the defence possibilities along with Tommy Almack, Jack Corbett and Bill Burnett.

Centremen will be chosen from among Benny Redisky, ex-Coleman, Alta., Canadian, Leo Bariboau, Gordon Wilson, Ernie Strong and Joe Downey.

Jack Witherspoon, ex-Red Lake Thunderer and Mike Patrick, ex-Calgary Stampeder and Roamer are in with Sam Calles, Ikey Armstrong and Carl Sorenson for the right wing position.

"Curly" Hunt, ex-Calgary Columbus Club junior and ex-Gonzaga Bulldog is trying out with Jack Colvin, Chris Sorenson and Ralph Redding for the left wing spot.

Dave McKay, formerly of Edmonton and Sully Sullivan, former Yorkton Terrier, are likely to be in the tryouts. Johnny Achtzener is all set for coaching duties.

Falcons Ring Up Easy Win

Sure shooting by Delbert Smillie provided 15 points for the cause of the Fairview Falcons in a men's basketball game at the Civic Centre Friday night as the Fairviewites trampled the Scrubs 41-31.

The Falcons had things well in hand from the start and coasted to victory after taking a 23-10 lead in the first half.

Lineups with scorers follow:

Fairview — Glen Price 7, Arne Henrickson 6, Jack Winlaw 6, Art Smith 10, Paul Hlookoff 4, and Delbert Smillie 12.

Scrubs — Doug Winlaw 11, Bud Ruppell 6, Bill Barwis 12, Jim Brown, Bill Buchanan, Ernie DeJong 2, and Don Gibbon.

Edmonton Puck Squad About Set

EDMONTON, Nov. 8 (CP)—Playing-coach Eddie O'Keefe is just about set on his Edmonton Flyers squad for the Alberta Senior Hockey League and listed 17 players, including eight newcomers.

O'Keefe, who led the league in scoring last season with 53 points, will have three forward lines, including a speedy trio just up from junior ranks—Joe Dutchak, centre, and Al Newsome, left winger, stars with Edmonton Maple Leafs last Winter, and Pat Gannon, right winger, who played at Sheep Creek, B.C., a year ago.

The other forward newcomer, Joe Brown of Edmonton, a right winger with Kirkland Lake Blue Devils, Allan Cup holders last Spring, will be on a line pivoted by O'Keefe with either Alex McSporran or Alex Watt on the left lane.

The reliable Bob Crossland-"Ducky" Skinner-Les Bird trio will remain intact, at least for the start of the season which opens Nov. 16 against Turner Valley Oilers here.

A rugged defence pair has been added in Gordon Sherritt from Portage La Prairie, Man., and Walter McIntyre of North Battleford. The other rearguards are Gordon Watt, with Olds Elks last season, and Benny Glingspoon, veteran Edmontonian.

Dave Pow, mainstay of Drumheller Miners a year ago, will share netminding duties with Gordon Robbins, last year's Flyer goalkeeper, and the 17th player, Bob Haxby, has been named utility since he is just as capable on the defence as on the forward line.

Conn Ready to Take on Louis

PITTSBURGH (CP)—Billy Conn's Irish eyes are smiling and it isn't all because he's courting the world's heavyweight championship.

He's also courting a girl—he won't disclose her identity because her father "would kill me." He wants to get married but—"I've got to make a lot of money first. I've got to lick Joe Louis."

That's a pretty big order for a 23-year-old but behind that goal is the fact that poor boy Billy "came up from the alley" to light heavyweight king and fortune in four short years.

"I got only $2.50 for my first fight," recalls pugilism's "white hope," "I didn't have nothing—didn't have a suit of clothes. I had to bum rides downtown. My manager Johnny Ray took me off the street corner and made me a champ.

"Fighting made a high class gentleman out of me. See this house —$110 per month—that big automobile downstairs. Look at these $5 ties, $20 hats, $20 shoes, this $75 sport coat. I take care of all the family—the whole join'. Theres mother, dad, two sisters and two brothers—Jackie, who's quit fighting, and truck-driver Frankie are joining the Navy. If Uncle Sam sends for me I'll be ready.

"But I've got a lot of big things to do. I've gotta lick Joe Louis. I could whip him right now—any day. I'm the next heavyweight champ. I can't miss. And I'm not bragging either."

COURT ASKS WOMAN TO RETURN FOOTBALLS

LONDON (CP) — Mrs. Emily Wood, of Shepherds Bush, London, was summoned by the Queens Park Rangers Soccer Club for wrongfully keeping their footballs.

Mrs. Wood told the court "for 30 years this has been going on. These dangerous balls used to come over onto my back-garden when the American baseball team was using the ground."

Magistrate Paul Bennett expressed deep sympathy but asked her to return the balls as she had no right to keep them.

Tigers, Montreal in Position to Tie Second Place

BY SYDNEY GRUSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

TORONTO, Nov. 8 (CP)—Hamilton Tigers and the unnamed 12 from Montreal may be at the bottom of the interprovincial football union standings, but they're going to have a lot to say about the final set-up of the Big Four before dusk hits the East's stadium tomorrow.

As they wind up the regular season tomorrow, the Tigers and Montreal are in a lovely spot to throw the Eastern playoffs into added confusion by bringing about a tie for second place in the Big Four.

To achieve a tie with Argonauts for the second play-off spot, the Tigers must win in Ottawa while Montreal beats the Argonauts in Toronto. Four weeks ago this would have been laughed at, but the rapid improvement of the bottom clubs in the last couple of weeks makes it a distinct possibility.

Big Doug Turner, whose inspired defensive work on the secondary line has featured Tigers' last two triumphs, led a fit and ready Tiger into Ottawa for the clash.

They shut out Argonauts 5-0 last Saturday and reach the Ottawa game at their peak.

Argos know just what they're up against in the burly Montreal Club, which lost to Riders last week by only three points. If the Argo running attack doesn't spruce up from its Hamilton showing, then Montreal should be able to win on the punting of Gord Noseworthy, one of the East's best.

Prepping for the Ontario Union playoff, Sarnia Battery meet Camp Borden in a "home" game for the Soldier at London, Ont., while the unbeaten, untied Toronto Balmy Beach polish up against the Alerts in Hamilton.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By The Canadian Press

The British government, 18 years ago today, disallowed a boxing bout between Joe Beckett and Battling Siki, negro fighter, scheduled for Dec. 7, 1922. Similar action had been taken 11 years earlier when Jack Johnson was barred from fighting Bombadier Wells. In the late 1930s, however, Larry Gains, Toronto negro, competed in England and won the Empire heavyweight title.

Likely Successor as Indians Chief Not Scared of Job

CLEVELAND, Nov. 8 (AP)—Roger Peckinpaugh, a leading candidate for Cleveland Manager in 1941, is a brave man.

He isn't scared of those big bad Indians.

"My understanding is the trouble was all between Oscar Vitt and the players," Peckinpaugh commented today. "Vitt is gone now so I don't see why a new manager would have any difficulties."

Peckinpaugh was discussing a Cleveland news story quoting 'two usually reliable sources' as saying Peck—fired as Cleveland Manager in 1933 because the team was losing —had been chosen to pilot the 1941 club.

"I hope that's right," the former shortstop said. "I would be glad to have the job. Right now you know as much about it as I do. I haven't signed a contract and I haven't talked with Mr. Bradley (President Alva Bradley) recently. I know I'm still in the running."

Bradley plans to announce the new manager next Tuesday. He reiterated today Peckinpaugh is one of the three leading candidates," and named Luke sweil, Indian coach, as another.

"There's something in the wind that prevents my talking about that third man at this time," Bradley added.

Peckinpaugh managed the Indians 5½ seasons, winning 416 games and losing 402. The Indians finished third, fourth three times and seventh.

$300,000 Price on Two Hurlers

By WHITNEY MARTIN

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP)—Gerald Nugent, owner of Philadelphia Phillies of the National Baseball League, would give both his arms for $300,000. Both are right arms and they swing from the shoulders of Kirby Higbe and Hugh Mulcahy, a pair of upper case pitchers tied to an Agate Baseball Club.

Nugent, to show his impartiality, has slapped a price tag of $150,000 on each wing, which might discourage some fish which might arise to the bait.

Taking both Higbe and Mulcahy from the Phils would seem, at first glance, like clipping the claws of a tiger, although it's true the club hasn't scratched anything but bottom for some time.

Nugent says he needs the money to operate. A last place club with the knot hole attendance of the Phils just can't afford to keep men of the value of the two pitchers. The money which might be obtained through their sale, could be used to buy several young players, who, in the long run, probably would do more toward lifting the team out of the cellar.

Four clubs might be prospective buyers—Brooklyn Dodgers, Chicago Cubs, Pittsburgh Pirates and Cincinnati Reds.

Cranbrook Students Clear Woods Tract for Playing Ground

CRANBROOK, B. C., Nov. 8 (CP) —Athletically minded students of Cranbrook High School who were without a playing field solved the problem by clearing a large tract of woods owned by the city and converting it into a soccer field during their physical training periods.

The city cooperated with the boys in stumping the section and levelling it. The boys hope eventually to have a sod field and a cinder track for the sports.

Illinois Can Clamp Down on Race News

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 8 (AP) —Attorney General John E. Cassidy today ruled that the Illinois racing commission has authority to clamp a censorship on race track news if "the dissemination of such tends to encourage a violation of the gambling laws of the State."

The Racing Commission Secretary, George H. Foster, has asked Cassidy's opinion on a proposed regulation to bar transmission of race news —including radio and telegraphic descriptions of running of the race, the result and betting odds—until 30 minutes after the completion of the race.

Kootenay Men to Vernon Puck Meet

Three Kootenay delegates leave this morning for the annual meeting of the B. C. Amateur Hockey Association in Vernon Sunday. A. W. (Gus) McDonald of Trail and A. S. (Pat) Aitken of Nelson, President and Secretary respectively of the hockey body, will attend, while Jimmy Livingstone will represent the cause of the Kimberley puck fraternity.

FOOTBALL TAME WITHOUT CO-EDS

DENVER, Colo. (CP)—The university here thought it could get along without girl cheer leaders and drum majorettes at its football games. So last year these jobs for co-eds were abolished. The girls said you'll be sorry, you'll want us back. And they were right. One season's experiment was enough. Denver found the football scene wasn't quite as exciting without the co-eds' glamor. So the girls were welcomed back this Fall with a lot of new tricks in their repertoire.

OLD MARE GIVES U.S. JUMP CUP

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP). — She's chiefly described as a "no-count" mare, and the best information you can get is that she's of uncertain age and parentage, but big old Enterprise is giving the United States cavalry something to cheer about at the 55th annual National Horse Show.

For the last six years, the army's individual riders have been playing second fiddle to the military of such countries as Mexico, Chile, Eire and France in the matter of jumping horses in international competition. Then, along came Enterprise. Young Capt. David Wagstaff, Jr., of Fort Myer, Va., rode her out on the tanbark at Madison Square Garden, and, with the crowd of 10,600 cheering him on, piloted the old mare over the 11 difficult jumps to win the Bowman Challenge Cup for the United States Army for the first time since Lieut. Carl Raguse did it with Dakota back in 1934.

....THEN SMITHFIELD TOLD ME HIS SECRET!

1.—I don't know anyone more likeable . . . . in fact everybody votes old Smithfield a "great guy." Funny, I thought the other day, Smithfield never earned big money, yet he always enjoys the good things of life. How does he do it?

2.—That night I called on Smithfield, and when he handed me a glass of rye, I knew Smithfield—and I knew it would be the best. "How can you afford such luxuries on your modest income?" I asked.

3.—Smithfield smiled. "A simple matter. The best is always the cheapest in the long run. I never compromise with quality," he said. I raised my glass, and tasting its contents mentally agreed with him.

4.—Still unconvinced, I replied, "You may differ, but I'm afraid these imported ryes are beyond my means." Smithfield was amused. "Do you know that some of the world's best ryes are distilled right here in Vancouver?"

5.—"You see," he added, "This rye has the clear, amber color and authentic flavor that all distillers seek. I doubt whether it could be so perfectly distilled with any other water than Vancouver's pure, non-alkaline kind."

6.—"That being the case, don't you think it would be sheer prejudice to pay more for imported brands?" he asked me. I had to agree. Funny, Smithfield is the least dogmatic of men—yet he is always convincing.

East End Quickly Adjusted to Life In Shelters; Not Much Faith in Sirens

By DREW MIDDLETON

LONDON, Nov 8 (AP)—There is no peace in London's bomb-harried East End where, after two months of almost continuous punishment by German air raiders, residents have re-arranged their lives.

This morning, I watched them troop out of air raid shelters at 7 a.m. The women and children had been in there since 7 o'clock last night. Most of the men had been there since 10 p.m. after their nightly beer and game of darts in a nearby pub.

One of the men said the people quickly adjusted themselves to the routine of shelter existence.

"We have a committee that sees there ain't any loud talk nor drinking so we'll have something 'ot before we start 'ome.

"We got no faith in them sirens, though. We stay in the shelter until daylight, no matter what time the 'all clear' sounds.

"The kids sleep in one second and the older folks in another.

"Funny, we don't talk about bombs any more, although some women lie awake almost all night looking over at their young ones. Some mothers are sending their children away. Hurts them, it does, but who'd want a kid to grow up like a wild thing living in a cave?"

Instructions for Sending Parcels to Prisoners of War in Germany

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—The personal parcel service to British prisoners of war in Germany, interrupted some time ago, now has been resumed, the Prisoners of War Information Bureau announced today.

The announcement said the next of kin or one relative might send one parcel not exceeding 11 pounds in weight every three months to a British prisoner of war or internee, but not more than one parcel every three months would be accepted from all sources.

The announcement gave the following instructions:

The following inscription must be written over the address: "Prisoner of War Parcel" with the German translation "Kriegsgefangenensendung" immediately below. In the lower left-hand corner of the address label, the parcel must be marked "Postage Free"—"Gebuhrenfrei." The address should be in printed block capitals, and must include the following information:

Navy, Army or Air Force number, rank, surname, followed by Christian name or initials.

British (Canadian) prisoner of war in Germany.

Camp name or number.

Base Post Office, Ottawa.

The parcel may not contain any of the following articles: Food, except bar chocolate; cigarette papers or paper cigar or cigarette holders, photographic apparatus, field glasses, sextants, compasses, electric torches and other instruments for use of military and naval purposes, medical comforts, rugs and pharmaceutical products; written communications (letters must be sent separately by letter post); printed matter, maps, pictorial illustrations and photographs; money; writing paper, notebooks, stationery, stamps and playing cards; fountain pens, pens and ink; telegraphic and telephonic materials; radios and radio materials; heating apparatus, inflammable materials, matches, spirits and solidified spirit; luggage; tins and other receptacles which cannot be conveniently opened for inspection; weapons including also large pocket knives and scissors (nail scissors excepted).

Prisoners of war in Germany are not allowed to receive newspapers or periodicals.

(In Canada a good deal of reading matter, newspapers and magazines is allowed internees. Such reading matter is thoroughly read by censors before distribution).

Big Transport Crashes Into Sea After Collision

RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 8 (AP)—At least 21 persons were killed today in the collision of a twin-engined transport plane of the Brazilian V.A.S.P. line and a small advertising plane. Both fell into Botafogo Bay.

The crash occurred as the big transport was taking off from Santos Dumont airdrome.

While it plunged into the water in full view of thousands along Rio de Janeiro's waterfront, the small plane plummeted into a house and was so battered that the bodies of its three occupants could not be removed immediately.

Of the 18 killed on the transport, three were crew members and 15 were passengers, including Hernandez Cata, the Cuban Minister to Brazil, and Evendro Chagas, a Brazilian scientist well known abroad.

A spokesman for the aviation authority said that despite rescue efforts, all aboard the V.A.S.P. plane were killed.

The accident, one of the worst in Rio de Janeiro aviation history, occurred less than 10 minutes before the arrival of a Pan-American transport plane from Buenos Aires carrying an Argentine financial mission en route to Washington.

V. A. S. P. airlines began operations about three years ago with German planes and pilots. Recently it had been using Brazilian pilots and had acquired modern transports built in the United States. It operates two round trips daily between Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paul, Brazil's second city.

Staples Chief of Creston Lions' Club

CRESTON, B.C., Nov. 7. — At their November meeting President Frank V. Staples; First Vice-President, H. Eastman; Second Vice-President, T. Crawford Jr.; Secretary, K. Parsons; tail twister, Allan Speers; lion tamer, Dr. W. N. Fraser.

A special committee of H. Eastman, H. K. Legg, A. E. Davies, L. Kemp, P. Putnam, W. R. Long, R. Parsons and the President was named to investigate the possibility of putting on a carnival

This year the Lions are handling Park pavilion and Exhibition park, on a five-year lease from the village, and at midsummer made a considerable expenditure on rehabilitating the swimming pool at the park.

Flying Officer Heads B.C. Conservatives

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP).—Flying Officer E. V. Finland, Member for Esquimalt, has been appointed the new whip of the Conservative party in the House. He succeeds Lieut. Col. Macgregor Macintosh, who leaves this week-end to resume his duties at Lethbridge small arms training centre.

Fo. Finland is stationed here with the Western Air Command.

BRITISH ENVOY TO U.S. KNIGHTED BY KING

LONDON, Nov. 8 (CP) — King George today conferred a knighthood of the order of the Thistle, one of British most distinguished orders, on the Marquess of Lothian, British Ambassador to the United States.

Lord Lothian is now in England on a brief furlough.

Naxis Give Reason for Not Pledging Safety U.S. Ship on Atlantic

BERLIN, Nov. 8 (AP) — Nazi spokesmen, explaining Germany's "inability" to guarantee safe conduct of a United States vessel to remove several hundred Americans still in the British Isles asserted today that American authorities chose to disregard German advice in the case of the U.S. Army transport American Legion which passed through the German-proclaimed danger zone around Britain whereas Germany had suggested another route.

Because of the United States action in the case of the American Legion, the Germans declared, the Reich could assume no responsibility for safety of a refugee ship to and from Britain.

Marchbank Heads Creston Bird Club

CRESTON, B.C., Nov. 7.—Tuesday night Creston Badminton club heard the financial statement for 1939-40 as presented by A. W. Millin, Secretary-Treasurer. Officers for 1940-41 were elected as follows: President, W. A. Marchbank; Vice-President, Ted Baldwin; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss M. Hamilton.

B.C. Relief Allowance for Food Increased

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP).—An increase of 10 per cent in Provincial Government Unemployment relief allowances for food was announced today by Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor.

It is to take care of rising costs of foodstuffs and will become effective when the next allowances are drawn.

For family relief the present food scale per month is $3.90 for the first adult, $.85 for the second and $3.75 for each dependent. Thus a typical family of two adults and 3 dependents received $25 for food. This will be increased by $2.50.

Clothing, fuel and shelter allowances are in addition to the food allowance and are not affected by the order.

CRESTON-LAKE AREA EXCEEDS RED CROSS AIM

CRESTON, B.C., Nov. 7.—The Red Cross 1940 drive for funds is closed and in the Crawford Bay-Creston-Kitchener area a total of $1767 has been collected. This is $300 in excess of the 1939 drive, and is more than $500 over the objective. Expenses were only $7.10.

Receipts at the various points are announced as follows: Sanca $9.00; Canyon, $32.25; Riondel, $7.75; La France Creek, $7.00; Boswell, $45.41; Crawford Bay, $63.75; Gray Creek, $5.35; Sirdar, $6.80; Kitchener, $12.25; Camp Lister, $45.45; Alice Siding, $46.52; Erickson, including Long, Allan & Long packing shed, $217.25; Wynndel, including Burns & Farstad sawmill, $154.35; Creston, including Reclamation farmers and Charles O. Rodgers Limited mill and camps, $1113.15.

WANTS BRITAIN TO BUY U. S. FARM PRODUCTS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — Senator William H. King (Dem., Utah) asked the United States Congress today to modify the Johnson and Neutrality Acts to enable Great Britain to purchase farm products on credit in the United States.

Previously King introduced a measure to extend credit for purchase of munitions.

Wall St. Reacts to Rallying Spree

NEW YORK, Nov. 8 (AP). — The stock market suffered from a slight profit-taking hangover today after yesterday's biggest rallying spree in more than a year.

Decline ranged from fractions to 2 points or so. Closing quotes were above the bottom.

General Motors reported the best October sales since the organization of the Company and U. S. Steel disclosed last month's shipments of finished products were the second highest on record.

A number of stocks touched new 1940 highs before slipping. Among these was U. S. Steel.

Curtis-Wright declared an initial dividend of 50 cents and the issue edged forward.

Firmness Holds Winnipeg Wheat

WINNIPEG, Nov. 8 (CP)—Mill buying and minor support from Southern interests contributed to a firmness in wheat futures prices at the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today and closing prices were ⅛-¼ cent higher with the December future at 72¼ cents a bushel, May at 76⅝ and July 78⅛.

The mill purchases were believed to be connected with domestic flour sales.

December oats futures and all barley prices established seasonal high marks during the session in the coarse grain pit. Both grains appeared to be going into strong hands. Crushers and investment support appeared in flax, and rye prices moved higher in sympathy with other grains.

Montreal Slack

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP).—Trading slackened off somewhat in today's late stock market dealings but leaders continued to find support.

Dryden, St. Lawrence Paper preferred, Howard Smith and St. Lawrence Corporation displayed fractional improvements but Price Brothers, Howard Smith preferred retreated fractionally.

Noranda and Nickel eased slightly in metals although Hollinger posted a small advance.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP)—Spot: Butter, Quebec 29¾-⅞; Quebec fresh 29¾-⅞. Eggs, Eastern A-large 47B; A-medium 44A.

New Senator Gouin Son, Grandson of Former Premiers

MONTREAL, Nov. 8 (CP)—Leon Mercier Gouin, whose appointment to the Senate for the division of Salaberry, Que., was announced Thursday by Prime Minister Mackenzie King, is a son of Sir Lomer Gouin and a grandson of the late Hon. Honore Mercier, both former premiers of Quebec.

Born in Montreal in 1891, he attended Loyola College here and was graduated from the University of Montreal as a doctor of laws. He studied later at Oxford University and at Queen's University, Kingston, Ont.

Admitted to the bar here in 1916, he practised law in his father's office, later entering into partnership with the late David Murphy, a former partner of his father.

He was named a King's Counsel in 1923 and today is a partner in the firm Beaulieu, Gouin, Bourdon, Beaulieu and Montpetit. He is a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada and professor of labor legislation at the Ecole Des Hautes Etudes Commerciales.

Mr. Gouin is married and has four children. His wife has been ranked with the leading playwrights in French Canada.

Ireland Guards Northern Ports

LOUGH SWILLY, Eire, Nov. 8 (AP)—Units of Eire's tiny navy patrolled the waters of Lough Swilly today in fulfillment of Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's promise to guard naval bases against any attack.

Lough Swilly, in the County of Donegal in the extreme North of Ireland, was one of the most important of the bases used by the British Fleet in the last war. Guns installed there by Britain still throw practice shots out to sea in Eire defence manoeuvers.

NORTHERN P.M. SAYS BRITAIN WARNED

BELFAST, Nov. 8 (CP Cable)—Viscount Craigavon, Prime Minister of Northern Ireland, today declared the present situation in regard to the refusal by Eire to allow the British Navy to use its port is a "complete vindication" of the stand taken by Belfast at the time of the Anglo-Irish pact of two years ago.

Commenting on Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's statement that Eire would continue to deny the use of her ports to the British submarine-hunting forces, Lord Craigavon said:

"I gave a solemn warning to the British Ministers from time to time on the dangers bound to accrue from such unnecessary action as the surrendering of these valuable bases for British use as protection not only for Great Britain and Northern Ireland but for Eire also.

"The fruition of my fears is to me a matter of very deep regret. All the sacrifices Ulster has made in the past have been fully justified by having secured for His Majesty's Forces a pied a terre in Ireland from which they can successfully combat the dangers which confront us by land, sea and air. What has happened is a complete vindication by the Government of Northern Ireland since it took office."

Wheat Crop Estimate 547,179,000 Bushels

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP).—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics, in its second estimate of Canada's 1940 wheat crops today placed it at 547,179,000 bushels, 13,928,000 below the first estimate of production issued last Sept. 4.

Alberta's 1940 wheat crop now is estimated at 190,000,000 bushels, a reduction of 13,000,000 from the September estimate.

The Saskatchewan estimate remains unchanged at 260,000,000 bushels and Manitoba's crop is estimated at 70,000,000 bushels, 1,000,000 below the first estimate.

"Accordingly," the report said, "the total prairie province estimate stands at 520,000,000 bushels, compared with the September estimate of 534,000,000 bushels. Included in the above estimates are Manitoba's Durum wheat crop now placed at 6,500,000 bushels and Saskatchewan's Durum crop of 4,000,000 bushels.

Gold Shares Gain

LONDON, Nov. 8 (AP)—Prices increased and the trading tempo accelerated in the securities market today.

Gold shares again advanced on Cape Town buying. Coppers and other base metals closed unchanged to a shade higher.

Associated Electric Industries, General Electric, Ltd., Imperial Chemical and Dunlop advanced as much as one shilling.

Gains among domestic rails ranged from ¼ to ½. Oils and rubbers moved a slow but steady rate.

Consolidated Ore Treatment Rates and the Slocan, McNaughton's Theme at New Denver; Shows How Applied

Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company ore treatment rates and how they applied to Slocan ores were outlined by R. B. McNaughton, Consolidated Metallurgist, in an address Wednesday night at New Denver to the Slocan District and Nelson Boards of Trade.

Mr. McNaughton, following a description of processes and products of the Company, said:

"I would like to take this opportunity of clarifying some questions that have been raised from time to time about our ore treatment rates. As an example, I would like to examine an article which appeared in the press recently.

In this article the author advocates that a smelter should be built to treat customs ores produced from the small mines in British Columbia. He says "—it should be noted that customs ores with lead, zinc, silver and gold content, shipped to Trail Smelter, receive no allowance for zinc—although zinc is today at a higher price on the world market than is lead."

"Two points are mentioned here which can be answered very readily. It is a fact that we do not pay for zinc in a lead ore. No sane lead metallurgist, and you may wonder if, and how, a lead metallurgist does remain entirely sane, will pay to have zinc on his charge. As proof of this statement, I defy you or this author to show a single lead smelter in the world that does not penalize zinc and penalize it heavily.

NO PENALTY

"We steadily reduced our zinc penalty up to January, 1939, when it was cut out altogether, and this was a year and a half before our slag fuming plant came into operation. The zinc we make in this process is more expensive than that made from concentrate and while we can operate economically on our own ores, the fact is that we could not do so on ordinary markets if the zinc had to be paid for.

"The second point is that zinc is selling for a higher price on the world market than lead. This is quite true but this person is apparently not aware that our plant, in common with other Empire smelters, has been virtually conscripted for the duration of the war and we sell, and are glad to sell, our lead and zinc at contract prices which are substantially below those quoted on the American metal market. Surely even the author of this article cannot expect the smelter to buy the metal in customs ores at American prices and sell it at a loss.

"We all know that some British Columbia producers are selling their ore in the United States at a more favorable price than they can get from Trail, under present circumstances. This is, in fact, an excellent thing to do because the shipper makes more money and our government can use all the American exchange it can lay its hands on right now.

"This author says further: 'It is sheer folly to suggest that the mining industry of British Columbia should be left to two or three great corporations. It is highly desirable that those enterprising groups of citizens that open up and develop smaller properties should be encouraged and should have made available to them smelting facilities that would enable them to profitably operate their properties.'

BASIC PROBLEMS

"He says that many properties are unable to operate owing to the present inequitable system of treating customs ores in B.C. You all know that the Consolidated owns a lead and zinc mine at Kimberley. You may not know that when they bought that mine no one had the faintest idea how to separate the lead and zinc in this ore, or for that matter, how to treat the products even if they were separated. Well, we've been working at each of these basic problems for 30 years and we still have a long way to go before we reach perfection; and while we were developing our processes, many of which are unique in the metallurgical world, an astonishingly few 'groups of enterprising citizens' came forward to assist the Company, either morally or financially.

"We provide a market for a difficult ore, moreover, we present the operator with the advantages that our expensive experience has provided and is continuing to provide in the treatment of zinc and lead ores, and in addition to this we charge lower treatment rates than are applied anywhere else in similar ores; and yet this author says the small operator is ill treated.

"I would like you to keep one little thing in mind when you hear someone talk as this man has talked in the press. We treated over 1,000,000 tons of Sullivan ore in experimental plants and spent a very great deal of money before we had a process that looked promising enough to justify the knowledge that the Sullivan could supply a continuous stream of ore for many years. Are any of you naive enough to imagine that a customs concentrator or smelter could afford a program like this for each of the many ores that must be treated?

It is perfectly natural to question treatment rates and metal payments because in any transaction the seller wants some assurance that he is not getting the short end of the bargain. It has always been our practice to pass on to the producer the savings that are made possible by technical advances, but we have never asked the producer to bear any part of the increasing basic cost of our operations. Metal prices may vary up or down, but the cost of the things we use in producing that metal has always tended to rise and probably will continue to do so.

HOW RATES WORK OUT

Suppose we consider an actual lead ore which might have been produced in the Slocan district.

Au	Ag	Dry Pb	Zn	S	SiO_2	Fe	CaO
.01	81.9	31.0	12.2	12.9	23.9	6.3	1.1

In 1918 the net returns to the shipper would be	$22.42
In 1919 the net returns to the shipper would be	25.50
In 1921 the net returns to the shipper would be	28.47
In 1922 the net returns to the shipper would be	31.24
In 1924 the net returns to the shipper would be	32.35
In 1925 the net returns to the shipper would be	33.96
In 1927 the net returns to the shipper would be	34.12
And today the net returns to the shipper would be	38.31

In calculating these returns the same metal market prices were used throughout—London lead £10-10-0; Sterling @ $4.86 or 2.26c per pound. In other words, if metal prices had remained the same, the producer would get $14 more a ton for his ore today than he would have received for the same ore in 1918. Don't forget that a laborer in our plants in 1918 was paid $3.38, whereas he is getting over $5 today and that everything else has gone up in proportion—except metal prices.

The same thing applies in the case of zinc concentrates and an examination of our ore purchasing schedules will show that the shipper gets a bigger return for zinc ore than he has ever received before.

The only answer to this situation is that technical advances have more than kept pace with the increasing cost of labor and materials.

Just one other thought—our Government contract prices for zinc and lead are, as you probably know, £17-6-3 and £15-1-3 respectively at New Westminster. Some of you may wonder how the current London price of lead is around £25. Shortly after the British Metal Control started proportioning lead to the various Old Country manufacturers it was apparent that some of this metal was being exported at the world price in the form of cable sheathing and so on and the manufacturers were making a neat profit on the deal. This didn't seem like the old Etonian idea of cricket so the Control stepped in and established an arbitrary price of £25 on lead for export, and pocketted the difference.

Will Ask for Free Transportation or Low Rate for Soldiers on Leave

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Low rate or free transportation for soldiers on leave will be sought by at least two House of Commons members during the present session, according to notices of motion published today.

G. H. Ross (Lib., Calgary East) has given notice of a resolution that consideration be given the granting of free transportation to all troops other than commissioned officers when proceeding on leave prior to embarkation for service outside of Canada.

T. L. Church (Con., Toronto-Broadview) has a resolution calling for consideration of a long list of proposals for betterment of the troops, including daily allowance for car fare and low-cost commutation railway tickets.

Mr. Church also has given notice he will introduce a bill, "an Act to amend the Railway Act (Soldiers' Fares)" which it is believed has to do with free transportation for men on leave.

Mr. Church also advocates a system of life insurance for soldiers in the Expeditionary Force, and assumption by the Federal Government of costs of guarding federal, provincial and municipal public property.

Thomas Reid (Lib., New Westminster) questions the Government as to whether Kurt and Erich Grunebaum had with the Foreign Exchange Control Board.

Mr. Reid also asks for details of naturalization certificates issued between September 1, 1939 and September 30, 1940, to former citizens of Germany, Italy, Russia and Japan.

Recent resignation of Alan B. Plaunt from the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Board of Governors is subject of a question from D. G. Ross (Con., Toronto-St. Paul's) who wants copies of all correspondence between Mr. Plaunt and the CBC or Dominion officials since January 1, 1939.

VALONA UNDER HEAVY FIRING

ROME, Nov. 8 (AP)—Friday's Italian High Command communique: "Our operations are proceeding on the Epirus (Greek) front.

"Our Air Force, overcoming unfavorable weather conditions carried its offensive action over highways near Lake Presba and the stronghold of Cortu, repeatedly scoring direct hits on objectives. All of our planes returned.

(The Greek High Command announced that no damage of military importance was caused in yesterday's Italian air raids).

"A formation of six enemy planes attacked Valona (in Albania). They were met by quick air and anti-aircraft reaction. Four planes were shot down and two others probably shot down. Some members of the crew bailed out with parachutes. Two English pilots were captured.

(British communiques have not mentioned any R.A.F. attack on Valona).

"Between 3 a.m. and 4:30 a.m. enemy planes met by intense anti-aircraft fire, dropped three bombs on the railroad station at Brindisi, two incendiary bombs near the station, damaging some tracks, water pipes and a freight car.

(The R.A.F. announced that a naval dockyard, destroyer and submarine pens, the main railway junction and railway sidings were the objectives effectively attacked in this raid).

French Hand Over Shanghai Courts

SHANGHAI, Nov. 8 (AP) — A Japanese spokesman announced today that authorities of Shanghai's French concession had handed over to the Japanese-sponsored Government at Nanking control of two Chinese courts in the concession, bringing Japan's long-standing ambition to dominate foreign areas of the city much nearer fruition.

The court have purisdiction of 300,000 Chinese residents and thousands of Europeans not enjoying extra-territoriality privilges in the French concession.

An atmosphere of tension surrounded negotiations which preceded the transfer. French armored cars, police and troops patrolled districts aroun dthe courts while Japanese gendarmes talked with the new judge inside.

Chinese newspapers which had anticipated the step declared that by taking over the courts the Japanese now control the French concession without formally occupying the area.

A Japanese army spokesman again denied Chinese reports of a general Japanese withdrawal from the Yangtse Valley, and asserted the Japanese are not quitting any points with the exception of Nanning and vicinity.

NOTES FROM LEGISLATURE

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP).—A special committee of 11 members — seven Liberals, two Conservatives and two C. C. F. members—was named to consider amendments to the Elections Act. The committee composed of Messrs. Straith, Kenney, Forester, Perry, Tupper, Putnam, Murray, Maitland, Bruhn, H. E. Winch and Cameron, will report to the House such recommendations as may be deemed advisable.

Answering questions on the order paper today, Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary, stated there were 68 residents and 17 day pupils in the Deaf and Blind School. Seven applications for admission have been approved and others are being investigated. The school has a capacity of 70 beds.

British Columbia used 18,617,096 pounds of butter in 1939, Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, replied to another question. Of this amount 8,896,679 pounds were produced in the Province.

SIR G. WILKINSON IS LORD MAYOR OF LONDON

LONDON, Nov. 9 (CP).—George Wilkinson was installed today as Lord Mayor of London, succeeding Sir William Coxen. Sir George is a former sheriff of the city of London.

ABSENTEE VOTES TO DECIDE WASHINGTON GOVERNOR

SEATTLE, Nov. 8 (CP)—Supporters of the two contenders for governor of Washington State settled down today to await the counting next week of approximately 25,000 absentee votes that will decide the close election.

Today C. C. Dill, Democrat nominee, was trailing Arthur B. Langlie, by 2043 with only five small precincts missing out of the state's 3,018. The vote was Langlie, 376,808; Dill 374,761.

Demands Debate on B.C. Position

VICTORIA, Nov. 8 (CP)—Premier Pattullo is expected to head British Columbia's delegation to the conference called in January at Ottawa to consider the Rowell-Sirois report.

With him probably will go Hon. John Hart, Finance Minister, Attorney-General Wismer, Hon. G. M. Weir, Provincial Secretary and government experts. Definite personnel of the delegation has yet to be announced.

With the legislature in session Premier Pattullo's announcement of the Government's attitude toward the report was the chief topic of conversation in government circles today.

In regard to income tax British Columbia has been taking the exact opposite position to the Rowell report, arguing that this field should be reserved to the Province.

Indicating the legislature has not heard the last of the matter for the present session came today when Harold Winch, C. C. F. leader, issued a statement demanding a full dress debate on British Columbia's position before the conference in Ottawa. This was in reply to Premier Pattullo's announcement the Government would not divulge the details of its plans before the meeting.

Mr. Winch warned that if the Premier would not reconsider the C.C.F. Party will drag it into the budget debate and go into all sides of the question.

Big Bend Closed

VANCOUVER, Nov. 8 (CP)—Officials of the Public Works Department of British Columbia Government announced late today both ends of the Big Bend Highway, in the interior, were closed on account of a heavy snowfall.

All automobile clubs and highway traffic officials have been notified.

ASK FOR CAMPAIGN UNDERCOVER MATERIAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — Politicians and public-spirited citizens were requested today to send all examples of "scurrilous and vicious campaign literature" used in this year's United States election to the special Senate committee appointed to police the national contests.

BRITAIN TO HAVE 12,000 U.S. PLANES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP) — The Priorities Board announced today that the British Purchasing Commission will be permitted to negotiate orders with the United States aviation industry for an additional 12,000 planes.

The 12,000 planes, the board said, will be built in existing plants and other facilities now developing.

Great Britain already has orders in effect in the United States for 14,000 planes, President Roosevelt said in his Boston campaign address last week. At the same time he had announced that Britain had asked permission to order 12,000 additional. He said then that he had asked the Defence Commission's Priorities Board to give "most sympathetic consideration" to the request.

TODAY Is POPPY DAY

Poppy Day marks the culmination each year of the efforts of disabled Ex-Service men to earn a livelihood making 'Veteraft' Poppies and Wreaths, which are offered to the public to be worn and displayed on Remembrance Day.

All Poppies and Wreaths handled by the Legion are manufactured in Veteraft Shops operated by the Dominion Government. Those who wear a Poppy will recall our Canadians who gave their lives and will also, by this purchase, remember and help many still living, who, though they returned, nevertheless sacrificed body and livelihood in defence of our national honor and liberty which we hold so dear.

Canadians Must Consume Less, Save More, Invest in Loans, Says Claxton

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 (CP). — Unless Canadians tighten their belts, Canada's effort will "fall short of what is necessary to stop the Nazis," Brooke Claxton (Lib. Montreal-St. Lawrence-St. George) warned today in the House of Commons as he moved the address in reply to the speech from the throne.

"It is now becoming evident that we are not going to be able to produce all the war materials we shall need unless we restrict the consumption of articles which divert work or materials from war purposes," he said, although he recognized that the diversion from private consumption to public use was a puzzling question to the individual.

Canadians had to consume less, save more and steadily invest in war savings certificates and war loans. People had not begun to realize yet how great the financial burden was or that it was going to become much greater.

Mr. Claxton endorsed the Government's move to implement the recommendations of the Royal Commission on Dominion Provincial relations as an essential war measure. He lauded, too, its joint defence arrangements with the United States.

Speaking, he said, for 3,000,000 Canadians living on farms and 2,000,000 others depending on farm prosperity, he asserted Western Canada had to have prices for farm produce commensurate with the price of goods the farmers had to buy.

Conservative Leader Hanson moved the adjournment of the debate when Mr. Jutras finished his speech. Mr. Hanson will open his speech, expected to contain considerable criticism of the Government's conduct on the war effort, when the House resumes Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Claxton urged the Government to keep the people informed to the fullest degree possible what is doing, so there would be understanding for its actions. He urged it also to "do everything it can to develop in the nation a spirit that can do for Canada what it has done for the people of Britain."

He urged the Commons, while preaching democracy also to see that democracy was practised. For instance, however much some Members disagreed with policies which had been advocated by the veteran Parliamentarian, J. S. Woodsworth (CCF Winnipeg North centre), they "could not help respecting the sincerity of his views or the fearless way in which he put them forward."

"What is important is that he had the right to express his views," Mr. Claxton said.

Germans Praise DeValera Stand

BERLIN, Nov. 8 (AP) — The German high command claimed today that surface worships of the German navy operating in the Atlantic "have destroyed completely a British convoy on the North Atlantic route, sinking 96,000 tons of shipping."

Nazi officals elatedly claimed that Germany had dealt a hard blow to Britain's North Atlantic supply route from Canada and the United States.

Foreign circles seemed overjoyed at the stand of Prime Minister De Valera of Eire against use of Irish ports by British warships.

"De Valera needs no amplification by us," they said.

WANTS WILLKIE TO HEAD U.S. DEFENCE COMMISSION
