Propaganda Campaign, Not Invasion, May Be Nazi Plan

Would Convince Neutrals Futile to Assist Britain Because of Hopeless Position; Many Factors Against Nazi Win

By J. F. SANDERSON—Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, June 26 (CP Cable)—Germany has abandoned temporarily her plans to invade this country and has started on a world-wide propaganda campaign to convince neutrals that it would be futile to help Britain because her position is hopeless, it was suggested here tonight.

Throughout Europe, South America and the United States there is evidence, it was declared here, that Germany is attempting to influence public opinion against Britain, suggesting she is in such a precarious position that further assistance to her would be wasted and could not affect the eventual course of the wrr.

A reliable news source told The Canadian Press that "there is altogether too much defeatist talk these days, too much talk of Britain's impotence, her inability, even her unwillingness to fight on."

There is no getting around the fact Britain is in a tight hole but there are several factors which should be borne in mind when assessing the future course of this war.

The first is the determination of the British people—and it extends through every strata of society—to back the Churchill Government in carrying on the war.

Second is the definite superiority of the Royal Navy over any fleet or combination of fleets Hitler and Mussolini can muster.

Third is the fact Britain has more men under arms in this country than ever before, at least 1,250,000, that production of arms, munitions and planes is increasing rapidly, and that the whole country is mobilized for the single task of turning back the invader who must first escape the navy and the R.A.F. who can concentrate their forces upon defence of the island.

There is neutral evidence to support British claims that the R.A.F. bombing raids on Germany, Italy and enemy occupied territories have done infinitely more damage than raids on this country.

As time goes on this factor will assume greater significance because Italy's entry into the war and the capitulation of the French have added to the efficacy of the Allied blockade on raw materials going to the enemy while the sea routes to this country are still open.

Britain today extended the blockade to the German-occupied zone of France, which means almost the whole of Europe is under the commercial domination of the British navy.

GERMANS CARRY OUT SIXTH RAID ACROSS BRITAIN

Bombs Dropped From Behind Heavy Clouds

FIRES ARE STOPPED

LONDON, June 27 (Thursday) — (CP) — Two German bombers were shot down by British fighters during air raids during the night over Great Britain, the Air Ministry announced today.

LONDON, June 27 - (Thursday) - (CP).—Bombs were dropped in Northeastern Scotland today as the sixth German air raid in nine days spread widely over Eastern England and Scotland.

Anti-aircraft guns barked back at the raiders and little British fighter planes roared up to meet bombers picked out by searchlights.

The speedy craft were seen chasing some of the German planes back to sea.

Raiders, screened behind heavy clouds where searchlights failed to penetrate, dropped several bombs in Northeast England.

Flares dropped by the planes started several fires, which were quickly extinguished by Air Raid Precaution Workers. Anti-aircraft guns and searchlights kept up steady activity, cooperating with the fighter planes.

Although most reports of Nazi raiders came from the East coast sections, bursts of anti-aircraft were heard in one district of Southwestern England. No bombs were dropped there.

A distant booming was heard at intervals in Southeastern England as though bombs had been dropped in the countryside.

Explosions shattered windows in homes and shops and a church in Northeastern England was demolished. No casualties were reported.

Planes flying inland, were heard at great height over the Southeastern coast. Townspeople watched the searchlights grope into the darkness for them, then went to shelters where thousands of Britons have passed many hours of almost every night for more than a week.

New Deal Pushing U.S. Into War Says G. O. P. Platform

PHILADELPHIA, June 26 (AP)—The Republican National Convention gave assent tonight to a platform accusing the New Deal of attempts to "ease" this country into war, and nominating the Republicans as the party of Americanism, preparedness and peace.

Emblazoning a campaign slogan—"The New Deal Administration has failed America"—the Republican document charged the Roosevelt Administration with "the full responsibility for our unpreparedness and for the consequent danger of our involvement in war."

It asserted the New Deal had attempted "to send Congress home during the world's most tragic hour, so that we might be eased into a war by word or deed during the absence of our elected representatives in Washington."

Condemning "explosive utterances" of the President and "all Executive acts and proceedings which might lead to war" without Congress' authorization, the platform said:

"Our sympathies have been profoundly stirred by invasion of unoffending countries and by disaster to nations whose ideals closely resemble our own.

"We favor the extension to all peoples fighting for liberty, or whose liberty is threatened, of such aid as shall not be in violation of International Law or inconsistent with the requirements of our own national defence."

Promises of "prompt, orderly and realistic" building of national defences to the point where no unfriendly power shall ever set foot on American soil and where the Monroe Doctrine could be successfully defended in war, were made.

The Republicans proposed to put "idle men, idle capital and idle farms," to work to produce greater purchasing power. They argued for local control of unemployment relief and increased security for aged to the extent that revenues permit, as well as 'a real job for those in early life who have been forgotten."

British Forces Attack Enemy Coastline; Obtain Information

LONDON, June 26 (CP). —The Ministry of Information announced today that British forces had effected landings at a number of points on the enemy coastline and had "contact with German troops". It did not explain further where the actions took place.

The announcement said:

"In cooperation with the Royal Air Force, naval and military raiders yesterday carried out successful reconnaissances on the enemy coastlines.

"Landings were effected at a number of points and contact made with German troops.

"Casualties were inflicted and some enemy fell into our hands. Much useful information was obtained. Our forces suffered no casualties"

The Press Association described the raids as a "new phase of aggressive action" by the British forces.

Official sources, besieged with requests for further explanation, refused to define "raiders" or hint what country they landed in.

Nazi News Agency Admits Bombings

BERLIN, June 26 (CP)—After withholding the news for six days, D.N.B., the German news and propaganda agency, today admitted damage was caused by Royal Air Force bombing raids the night of June 20. The Air Ministry at London announced these raids, directed at military objectives in Germany and German-occupied Holland, the day after they were carried out.

D.N.B. said 16 persons were killed and 41 injured and that 371 bombs were dropped.

The propaganda agency sought to minimize the raids, carried out successfully against the Schipol airdrome near Amsterdam, damaging enemy aircraft and against military objectives in Northwest Germany, including railway junctions, marshalling yards and other objectives at Essenfrintrop, Osterfeld, Hamm and Ludwigshafen Oppau.

In a second report, D.N.B. said 200 British bombs fell in Helder, Netherlands naval base now in German hands, on the night of June 24.

The agency gave the Nazi-dominated Netherlands newspaper Telegraaf as its "authority" in claiming 36 dead and 22 wounded civilians had been counted at Helder. Numerous fires broke out and many houses were destroyed, the agency claimed.

Child Killed in "Mercy" Flight

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., June 26 (CP).—Flying to hospital here to receive treatment for a skull fracture, 2½-year-old Hope Matvenko, daughter of Paul Matvenko, former Calgary boxer, died Saturday night when the plane crashed in a small lake 75 miles North of here.

Pilot W. H. Westaway and two other passengers were injured. They are in hospital here suffering from their injuries, exposure and hunger.

Pilot Reg Parsons of the Ontario Forestry Air Service found the mercy-flight plane today with the nose buried in two feet of water. The body of the child was under water and was not recovered.

CANADIAN-BUILT WARSHIP IS LAUNCHED

MONTREAL, June 26 (CP).—A warship, built of Canadian materials by Canadian workmen, slid down the ways of a Montreal shipyard today. A Rear Admiral of the Royal Navy wished the Admiralty-grey hull God-speed on its mission of war.

The vessel is a submarine chaser, one of a group of similar vessels being built in Canada for service with the Royal Canadian Navy and the Royal Navy. This craft will go to Great Britain to patrol the dangerous waters of the North Sea.

Alberta Senator Inspector General

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP). — Appointment of Maj.-General William Antrobus Griesbach, Conservative member of the Senate for Alberta, as Inspector-General of Canadian Active Service Force units in Western Canada, was announced tonight at the National Defence Department.

Until now Maj.-Gen. E. C. Ashton has been Inspector-General for military forces in Canada. He now will be Inspector-General for Central Canada, embracing all of Ontario, and Brig.-Gen. T. L. Tremblay of Quebec remains at his post of Inspector-General for Eastern Canada, taking in Quebec and the Maritime Provinces.

Believed to Have Refused Surrender Under Armistice

Daladier Reported Arrested; General Lashes Petain for Failure to Build Mechanized Force; France "Will Be Saved"

GIBRALTAR, June 26 (CP).—It was reliably reported today that French warships and aircraft were assembled in Casablanca harbor of French Morocco where they apparently had refused to surrender to the Germans or Italians under the peace armistice of Marshal Petain.

All of the warships' commanders already had given assurance to General Auguste Nogues, French Commander in North Africa, that they would continue to fight the war with Britain and would not obey the armistice orders from Bordeaux, it was reported.

MADRID, June 26 (AP).—Reports from Algeciras, near Gibraltar, today said the French fleet had left Gibraltar for Casablanca and Algiers in French North Africa.

GIBRALTAR, June 26 (CP)—An unconfirmed report from Casablanca, French Morocco, today said the arrest of Eduard Daladier, former Premier of France, had been ordered.

The report said Daladier had arrived in Casablanca to confer with General Nogues, French High Commissioner of Morocco, but the latter had ordered his arrest "imediately".

LONDON, June 25 (CP Cable)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle, head of the Provisional French National Committee in London, pledged to resist Germany at Britain's side, bitterly attacked Premier Petain tonight for failure to build a French mechanized force and declared France "can, and will, be saved only by us, here."

Earlier he had announced he was forming a French Legion in Britain from the nucleus of the poilus who escaped from Dunkerque to "fight on to victory with the cream of France's Maritime strength."

Branding the French-German armistice as "dishonorable", De Gaulle, in a French language broadcast over the British Broadcasting Corporation system, declared:

"In order to obtain and to accept such an act to enslavement there was no need for you, Marshal Petain—there was no need for the victor of Verdun — anyone would have done."

Replying to Petain's attack on De Gaulle and the London Committee, the die-hard general said that "in these hours of shame and anger for the fatherland one voice must answer you . . . that voice will be mine."

"France has been struck down, not by the number of German effectives, not by their superior courage, but by the enemy's mechanized force, with all its offensive power and manoeuvre-ability," he said.

De Gaulle, who advocated mechanization of the French army long before the war broke out last September, said all the combatants realized the superiority of the German Panzer forces.

"If France didn't have this mechanized force, and had instead a defensive army, an army of position, whose fault was it, Marshal?

"It was you, who presided over our military organization after the war of 1914 to 1918; you who were Generalissimo up until 1932; you, who were Minister of War in 1935; you, who were the highest military personality of our country.

"Did you ever support, demand, insist on, the indispensable reform of this rotten system? yet, relying on the glorious services which you gave during the last war, you claimed the responsibility of asking the enemy for an armistice.

"You held that any prolongation of resistance in the Empire would be absurd. You thought that the effort which is now being made, and which will be made by our Allies, the British Empire, was negligible.

"You renounced in advance the resources offered by immense America. You play a losing game, threw down your cards, emptied our pockets, as if there was nothing left to us.

"This was the result of a sort of profound discouragement, of a morbid skepticism, which may have accounted for much in the disillusion of the final and supreme resistance of our metropolitan forces.

"And it is in the same tone, Marshal, that you ask the France which has been delivered up to the enemy, the France which has been pledged, the France which has been enslaved, to take up its work again, to recreate itself, to rise again.

"But in what sort of atmosphere by what sort of means, in what name do you expect such a rise again? Beneath the German Jack Boot and the Italian Dancing Slipper?"

De Gaulle himself gave the answer: "France will rise again, all right; we shall recreate France."

Schools Close for 2 Months Holiday

With final closing exercises and goodbyes all round, students of Nelson schools closed their books and minds on the 1939-40 school term Wednesday. From now to September, they have no more worries about home work, getting up on time, what the teacher will do if they haven't their work done, and a hundred and one phases of school life that irk a youngster. Of course, there won't be the good times either, but the students are planning to make up for them with two long months and a week or so of holidays.

Final exams were cleaned up at the High School; graduation exercises and a short program were held at both the Junior High School and St. Joseph's Academy; and Hume and Central School pupils called to receive their report cards and say goodbye to their teachers. There was many a sigh of relief or sorrow as they gazed at that one vital word: "Promoted" or "retained".

Out of town teachers will be leaving in the next few days for their homes throughout the Province, while others will take holiday trips.

Border Bridges Dynamited by Ready Hong Kong

HONG KONG, June 26 (AP)—Border bridges were dynamited and a group of girls were told today to be ready to "consider themselves soldiers" as this crown colony watched Japan tighten its net round French Indo-China.

The bridges destroyed were those spanning the Schumchun River, a part of the Chinese frontier of Hong Kong's mainland.

The warning to British women in the colony was uttered by an army official in the formation of a women's auxiliary transport service.

Rumors circulated that the Japanese were planning to blockade Hong Kong in an effort to compel Britain to close the route through Burma over which China has been obtaining supplies.

The British-owned newspaper China Mail said Japanese warships are blockading Haiphong, seaport of French Indo-China some 500 miles Southwest of Hong Kong, and Japanese army headquarters announced its advancing units had reached Lungchow, in Kwangsi Province near the Indo-Chinese border.

Fighting continued beyond the Chinese-British border here. Chinese charged that Japanese warships had shelled costal villages in Bias Bay.

Japanese Wreck Canadian Clinic

CHUNGKING, China, June 26 — (CP).—One hundred and fifty- six Japanese warplanes bombed the downtown district of this wartime Chinese capital today, destroying the dental clinic of the Canadian Mission Hospital and wrecking the Canadian Mission Young Men's Guild building.

All doctors, nurses and patients were safe. Dr. Stuart Allen of Montreal said the damage could not be estimated immediately.

It was the largest number of planes ever to attack Chungking. The raiders came in three waves. Casualties, however, were estimated at less than 200.

Many of the bombs dropped in districts already devastated, and into the Yangtze River, but in the downtown district more than 200 stores and shops were destroyed.

Other foreign properties damaged included the new office of the Friends Mission and the Soviet Embassy living quarters.

Japan Sending Envoy to Hitler

TOKYO, June 27 (Thursday). (AP) — Japan's position regarding Oriental holdings of France, Great Britain and the Netherlands will be brought to the personal attention of Adolf Hitler if possible, an official source said today.

The roving envoy, Naotake Sato, who represented Japan in concluding an economic agreement between Italy and Manchoukuo and Japan, has been given the job of explaining Japan's attitude.

It is understood he already has taken the opportunity, while discussing economic matters with Premier Mussolini of Italy to reach a "complete understanding" on political questions created by developments in the war.

The Japanese Foreign Office said Sato was given no special instructions beyond those to make Japan's position clear, and attempt to learn Hitler's attitude.

KASLO A LEADER

Success of Kaslo rearing ponds was emphasized in discussions, and warm tribute was paid to the Kaslo's efforts by J. J. McEwen, President. He said Kaslo was doing work that would benefit the whole of Kootenay Lake district, for its efforts to improve sport fishing would not only improve the sport for resident anglers but would also bring tourists into the district. He also paid tribute to New Denver's rearing pond development.

Fishing this year had been the best in some time, several members commented. They ascribed the improvement to fish propagation, to partial clearing of a pathway through the log jam on the Lardeau River enabling the Kamloops trout to get through to spawning grounds, and to other minor contributing factors.

President McEwen appointed George Fleury and P. E. Poulin to interview Ald. G. M. Benwell, Parks Chairman, and to follow through in cooperation with him in an effort to have the Nelson rearing ponds established as soon as possible.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. Highland Mine Expected Start Producing Soon

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 26 — Highland Surprise mine will be on steady production starting early in July, R. W. Kennedy, President of the company, reported on his return from a visit to the mine. All phases of the preparatory work are proceeding satisfactorily, he declared.

The new fourth level tunnel, 500 feet from the highest surface exposure, broke into solid vein material carrying good values after cutting through 80 feet of loose rock.

EXPECTED GO 200 FEET

Mr. Kennedy says it was not anticipated that the ore body would be cut on this level until some 200 feet of rock had been penetrated. It appears now that in drifting this 200 feet toward the main objective, the development muck will go to augment mill feed.

The ore cut on No. 4 level is directly on the strike of the No. 3 ore body and indicates better than average values.

The company will start production with about 750,000 of its authorized 3,000,000 shares in the treasury and from $20,000 to $30,000 in the bank, it is estimated.

Tenders Called Ferry "Trailer"

Tenders are being called — to be submitted by July 8—for construction of a trailer to be used in conjunction with the Nelson ferry. Plans and specifications are available from O. G. Gallaher, Nelson-Creston Public Works Department Engineer at Nelson; E. H. Verner, District Engineer, Vancouver; or from the Department at Victoria.

Proposal was made some time ago that a "trailer" might be built which could be fastened to the ferry during periods of heavy traffic, so as to avoid long lineups of waiting cars. When not in use as a trailer it could serve as an auxiliary landing float, it was suggested.

Constable Fisher Suspended During an Investigation

Constable George Fisher has been suspended by the Nelson Police Commission, pending completion of the Commission's investigation of a street melee between the Constable and George H. (Red) Walker Tuesday night. Walker, a recruit, entrained for the Coast Wednesday morning.

Mayor N. C. Stibbs stated the Police Commission, meeting briefly Wednesday, decided to make a complete investigation and in the meantime suspended the Constable.

First steps in the investigation were taken Tuesday night when Constable Fisher told Mayor Stibbs and Commissioners R. E. Crerar and J. J. McEwen of his struggle with Walker in arresting him. Other members of the Police Department supported Constable Fisher's assertion that trouble with Walker was of long standing.

A. H. Allan told the Commission the Constable had been unnecessarily severe in handling Walker.

The Commission hearing was held after a crowd of over 30 men stormed the Council Chamber to demand action.

Betty Dronsfield 1940 Rose Queen Pretty Ceremony

Annual Festival Held by Church of the Redeemer

The lovely garden of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Gilchrist, 417 Second Street, presented a gala scene on the occasion of the annual crowning of the Rose Queen Wednesday afternoon. This event has been sponsored for years by the Church of the Redemr, the queen being chosen by ballot from among the members of the Sunday School.

At 4:30 p.m. a stately procession, led by Lois Whimster and Dolores Ward, dressed in drum majorette costumes, made its way across the lawn to the dais where rustic thrones awaited the approaching queens.

There the retiring queen, Shirley Robinson substituting for Ethel Harmes who has left Nelson, laid off her crown of office, and the newly-elected queen, Betty Dronsfield, was crowned by Mayor N. C. Stibbs. In a few well-chosen sentences, the Mayor reminded the incumbent of the responsibility as well as the honor of her office, and wished her a happy and prosperous reign.

Following the ceremony a series of dances were presented by pupils of Madame Attree's, Gertrude Nagle Molly Murray, Kathleen Wilson, Joyce and Frances Schumaker, and Lois Whimster and Dolores Ward. Mr. Hirst presided at the piano for the accompanying music.

Rev. W. J. Silverwood, in the name of the congregation of the Church of the Redeemer, presented Mrs. Gilchrist with a magnificent bouquet of roses, thanking her and Mr. Gilchrist for their continued kindness in lending their home for this event each year. He also thanked all concerned for making the festival a success.

Tea was served under the trees by the members of the Service Club, Mrs. B. B. Stallwood, Convener. Members of the Girls Women's Auxiliary acted as waitresses.

The bake table under Mrs. E. Calbick and Mrs. Coneau, did a brisk trade, as did the ice cream and soft drinks stand under Miss M. Thompson, the candle stall under the direction of Mrs. E. Langill, and the bean tub with Peggy Triggs and Jean Underwood in charge.

The church committee conducted a white elephant stall in aid of the block assessment.

The principals of the festival were Queen, Betty Dronsfield; Retiring Queen, Shirley Robinson; Ladies-in-waiting, Jean Hammer, Viola Musfelt, Colleen Reid, Peggy Wood; flower girls, Jennie Pedersen, Dawn Virtue, Lois and Joan Calbick; heralds, Lois Whimster, and Dolores Ward; pages, Stanley Skinner, Jerry Brown; crown-bearers, Sheila Paterson, Patty Marquis. Mrs. J. Burgess was in charge of costumes and Mrs. W. J. Silverwood was general convener. A committee of boys headed by David McInnis, gave excellent service by assisting in manifold ways.

Present Plans City Hall Would Call for Expenditure $65,518

Present plans and specifications for a suggested City Hall called for a building that would cost about $65,518, stated W F. Williams, Architect, in a letter to the City Council Tuesday night.

By omitting an elevator, stoker and air conditioning, by simplifying the basement floor finish and plaster work and by leaving the lower room and stair unfinished, it would be possible to save about $12,000. Other savings would make it possible to reduce the cost to $50,000.

Mail to Prisoners Must Be Prepaid; Parcels Special

Postmasters have been notified that on and after July 1 all mail matter posted in Canada addressed to prisoners of war interned in Canada, must be prepaid with postage in the usual way, with the exception of parcels bearing an official red label issued from the Office of the Director of Internment Operations, and reading as follows:

"CANADA INTERNMENT OPERATIONS POSTAGE FREE"

which parcels may be accepted without payment of postage.

There is no change in procedure as regards letters mailed by prisoners of war interned in camps in Canada, which letters are still to be accorded free transmission in the mails.

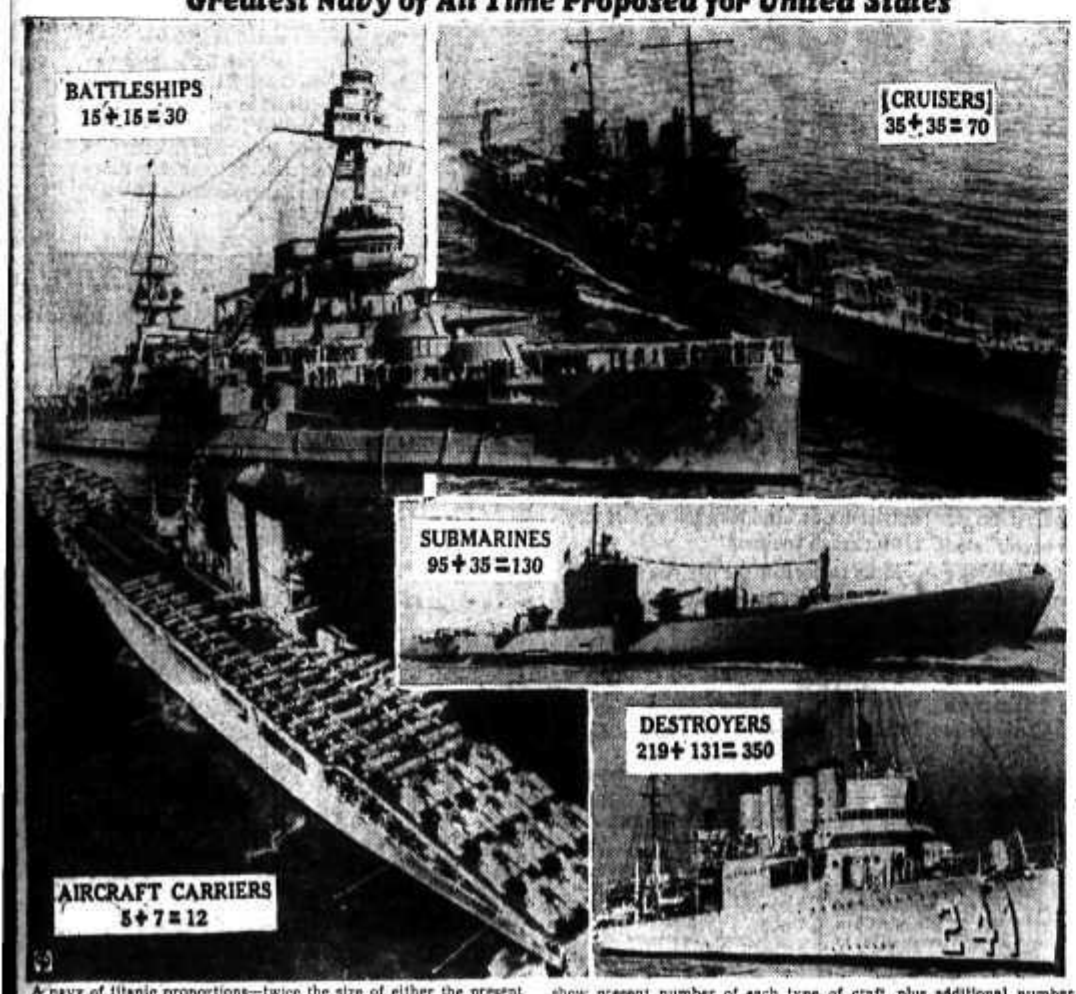
Greatest Navy of All Time Proposed for United States



A navy of titanic proportions—twice the size of either the present British or American fleets and far larger than the present combined fleets of Germany, Italy and Japan—is visualized in the proposed "two-ocean" naval expansion program of the United States. Pictured above are the five chief elements of the American navy. Figures below each show present number of each type of craft, plus additional number planned and eventual total. The program would give the United States a total naval tonnage of underaged war vessels of 2,970,000 tons. Combined with coverage craft the total tonnage would be 3,670,000 tons.

Nazis Bomb Airports and Factories Berlin Claims; Ships Said Damaged

BERLIN, June 26 (AP)—The German high command today issued the following communique:

"No special event in the West.

"In the course of the night, June 25, our fighting planes successfully bombarded several airports and airplane factories in central England.

(The British Air Ministry said "No serious damage was done to any military objective." Three civilians were killed, while five of the German raiders were shot down.)

"Reports now received revealed that on June 24 a bombing raid was undertaken against an enemy transport of 7000 tons off Bayonne which resulted in big fires and an explosion. A German submarine Southwest of Ireland torpedoed the armed British steamer Saranac, 12,000 registered tons, and an additional two armed enemy merchant ships."

"Two of three British Bristol Blenheim planes which yesterday attempted to raid Stavanger airport at Sola were shot down by our chasers. A third disappeared without attacking.

(The Air Ministry did not announce any raid on Stavanger, although this morning's communique disclosed that heavy damage was inflicted early this morning in a raid on an airport near Bergen.)

"British airplane bombs dropped during the night, June 26, in Northern and Western Germany, hit no military targets, and caused little damage. So far as could be established, four persons were killed.

(The Air Ministry announced that airports in the Ruhr and Westphalia were bombed, oil depots and freight yards at Dortmund bombed, an aircraft factory at Kassel set on fire and the Dortmund-Ems Canal bombed with lock gates and barges hit.)

Leak in Roof Civic Theatre Is Referred to Roofing Company

Nelson Teachers Ready Do Their Bit, War Effort

Nelson Teachers' Association has received registration blanks and the teachers have completed them in preparation for offering their support of Canada's war effort in any way possible during July and August, when they will not be engaged in their school work, stated President Derek H. Tye. The move is in accord with a suggestion of the Trail-Tadanac Teachers' Association forwarded to the British Columbia Teachers' Federation that teachers should give fully to the war effort during holidays.

A registration of all teachers, men and women, is under way in the Province.

Turkey and Iraq Pact Is Signed

LONDON, June 26 (CP). — An agreement between Turkey and Iraq for the joint defence of Iraq and French-mandated Syria in collaboration with Great Britain was concluded today at Ankara, Exchange Telegraph Agency reported today in a dispatch from Istanbul.

The accord was the fruit of consultations between the Iraq Ministers of Foreign Affairs and Justice, now in Ankara, and Turkish Cabinet Ministers.

Since France surrendered to the Axis powers both Iraq, which maintains close treaty relations with Britain, and Turkey, which has mutual assistance pacts with France and Britain, have shown increasing anxiety over Syria.

The Turks have feared that Italy might attempt to succeed France as the occupying power in Syria and make it a base for expansion in the Near East.

ANKARA, Turkey, June 26 (AP)—Premier Refik Saydam told Parliament tonight that Turkey is not planning to enter the war, but is "alertly continuing defence preparations." The address came amid concern over the future of French-protected Syria and the possibility of a Bulgarian attack on Turkey from the North.

EVERY EFFORT MADE TO USE CANADA RESOURCES

LONDON, June (26 (CP Cable).—Every effort is being made in conjunction with the Canadian Government to utilize the Dominion's industrial capacity to the fullest extent, Herbert Morrison, Minister of Supply, told the House of Commons today in reply to a questioner.

W. A. Burke, Labor, asked if Mr. Morrison was aware "that statement in the press and private letters received from Canadians express a feeling of great frustration and a feeling that offers from Canada have been very tardily investigated by this country."

PLANE OUTPUT AT NEW HIGH

LONDON, June 26 (CP Cable).—Production of aircraft in this country reached a new high record in the week ended June 22, it was announced today by Lord Beaverbrook, Minister for Aircraft Production.

The Canadian-born Minister gave no figures for the "biggest ever" week but said it embraced all sections of production—frames, engines and armaments.

Lord Beaverbrook said British production of aircraft has risen steadily in the five weeks he has been in office and all losses suffered since May 10, the day Hitler invaded the low countries, in fighting in France and Flanders have been made up.

Importations from the United States are continuous and improving, while Canadian-built planes are being sent here in a steady stream, Lord Beaverbrook said.

"These Canadian planes are very welcome and satisfactory," he stated. "We have tested them with British planes and Canadian performances are more than first rate."

A total of 88 man days was reported by Ald. A. C. Ridgers, Chairman of the Board of Works Committee. Work was listed as follows: Trimming blacktop, 15 days; gravelling streets, 10; grading streets, 6; sidewalks, 1; schools, 19; ditching, 3; garbage, 10; burning dump, 3; parks, 19.

Ald. L. T. Nimsick reported 14 man days work done by the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

Liners Return for American Refugees

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP).—The liners Washington and Manhattan are to be sent back to Europe to return Americans to the United States from the war zone.

State Secretary Cordell Hull announced today that the Washington will sail Friday from New York for Galway, Eire, to pick up an expected 2000 Americans.

The Manhattan, the Secretary of State added, will leave within a few days for Portugal, where some 1200 Americans, including many now in Spain, will embark.

TODAY MAY BE DEADLINE FOR REFUGEES TO SPAIN

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, June 26 (AP).—Tomorrow may be the deadline for thousands of refugees of various nationalities waiting at Hendaye, France, for a chance to cross into Spain. A German spokesman here said Nazi occupation of the last bit of French Atlantic coast would be completed by that time.

Sifting eligibles from frantic throngs of refugees at the border is an unpleasant task for Spanish soldiers and officials.

Municipalities Will Meet at Revelstoke

Annual convention of the Union of British Coumbia Municipalities will be held at Revelstoke September 17 and 18. The Resolutions Committee will meet September 16. A letter to the Nelson Council Tuesday night asked that resolutions be submitted early.

Civic Centre Not Likely Able Pay Interest, Bonds

It was improbable that the Civic Centre, due to decreased earnings, would be able to pay to the city the customary amount for application to bond interest in December, stated Denis St.Denis in a report to the City Council Tuesday night. W. E. Wasson, City Clerk, stated the customary payment for half a year was $2750.

Net earnings of the Civic Centre were down sharply, stated Mr. St.Denis, "possibly as much as 40 per cent."

This was due to reduced attendance at games, the Civic Centre carrying hockey and lacrosse coaches, revenue from the badminton hall being less; receipts from the Recreation Grounds being nil, and lack of rink rentals.

Rossland Adopts Sprinkling Hours From July First

ROSSLAND, B. C., June 26—Water sprinkling regulations become effective in Rossland July 1. This step was decided on by the Council Monday to conserve water, and also to insure that all residents are given an equal opportunity of sprinkling.

Indiscriminate sprinkling, Mayor J. E. Gordon pointed out, made it impossible for those in districts where the water pressure was poor to obtain sufficient pressure. A regulation on sprinkling hours during the early part of the season would not work a hardship, and would mean a more even distribution of water throughout the city.

Hours for the section South of Columbia Avenue and West of Queen Street will be from 7 to 9 a. m. and from 6 to 8 p. m. Other parts of the city will be from 6 to 10 a. m. and from 4 to 10 p. m.

Ald. William Cunningham, who did not think restrictions were necessary for another two weeks, voted against the motion.

SUCCESSFUL LAWYER BORNE SHOULDER HIGH AFTER YOUTH ACQUITTED

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana, June 26 (CP Cable).—Crowds outside Georgetown court house today bore Sir Lennox O'Reilly, K.C., Trinidad barrister, shoulder-high to the court chambers after a jury had acquitted Peter Baguiar, young businessman, of abducting Kathleen Brassington, 18-year-old heiress.

Baguiar, whom Sir Lennox defended, and Miss Brassington eloped to Barmados by schooner last fall after eluding private detectives hired by the girl's father, W. W. Brassington, wealthy Georgetown merchant. Brassington finally located the couple in Bridgetown and charged Baguiar with kidnapping.

The case was believed the third of its kind in the British Empire since 1860, previous ones being in England and Australia.

COAST MAN GETS 60 DAYS UNDER DEFENCE RULINGS

VICTORIA, June 26 (CP)—Garnet Wilfred Blackburn, 35, Vancouver insurance salesman, was sentenced to 60 days hard labor by Magistrate Henry C. Hall this morning for a breach of the Defence of Canada regulations.

Bleckburn was convicted after his arrest by R.C.M.P. officers following remarks passed in an Esquimalt beer parlor derogatory to the Royal Family and likely to prejudice Canada's war effort.

Premier Pattullo Nelson's Speaker for Dominion Day

Premier Pattullo has accepted an invitation from Mayor N. C. Stibbs to give the patriotic address in Nelson's Dominion Day celebration Monday.

The Premier, after taking part in the opening of the Big Bend Highway Saturday, will drive by way of Golden, through Windermere, Sunday, and will spend Sunday night at Cranbrook.

Monday he will drive to Creston to be the guest of Frank Putnam, M.P.P., for Nelson-Creston Riding at noon, after which he and Mr. Putnam will come on to Nelson, arriving here at 6 P. M.

On learning through Mr. Putnam of the Premier's itinerary, Mayor Stibbs immediately wired the Premier the invitation.

The patriotic exercises, to suit this condition, will be at 8 o'clock Monday evening on Vernon Street instead of preceding the children's sports being put on by the Bugle Band in the afternoon.

Mr. Putnam will also be on the program over which the mayor will preside.

Epidemic Aftermath .

Treatment Helps in Palsy Cases

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

What is the Bulgarian treatment for palsy?

The great epidemic of influenza of 1918 had following in its wake a group of distressing cases which were popularly called "sleeping sickness" but which were known technically as "encephalitis." It often happened that as a patient was recovering from this, he had the complication of palsy or uncontrollable tremors.

ENCOURAGING RESULTS

In 1926, Ivan Raeff, a plant collector in the Bulgarian village of Chipka, found that he was able to treat some of the victims of palsy successfully with belladonna root. The Queen of Italy became interested in his work, and in 1935 established a special hospital for this disease in Rome. Tere the treatment was studied carefully by expert nerve specialists and pharmacologists. It was put on a more scientific basis and has undoubtedly been very successful in the treatment of this distressing condition. A hospital was opened in Germany in 1937 to be used exclusively as a centre for this treatment.

Patients must not be encouraged to expect a complete cure, but if they are relieved from the agony of the constant twitching of their muscles and the sleeplessness, the treatment is worth while.

What are crocodile tears?

In fable the phrase "crocodile tears" comes from the old belief that crocodiles shed tears over those whom they were about to devour. Crocodile tears are tears without emotion behind them or with hypocritical emotion.

As a matter of fact, the condition does occur in human beings. It is called the "syndrome of crocodile tears" and occurs after palsy of the facial nerve. Whenever people with this condition begin to eat or move their jaw muscles, tears brim over the eyes and run down the cheek.

SERIAL STORY . . . By Oren Arnold

HAPPINESS, C. O. D.

CHAPTER 23

For the first time in his memory Mr. William Bailey was downright scared.

Bill was a young man with what is known as a barrel chest. He had an expansion range of three inches or more, and had shoulders to match. His hips and legs, somewhat narrow, were very muscular, too. Nevertheless, the mere insistent click-click of a key in a lock all but unnerved him.

He was not afraid of bodily harm. Indeed, for a fleeting second he debated waiting in a crouch and pouncing upon the intruder, whoever it might be.

Then it occurred to him that this might not be an intruder. He himself was an intruder in somebody else's room, and that somebody might be at the dor now. He did not wish to be caught.

When he discovered the only possible place to hide, he went there without realizing it was slightly ignominious to do so or was conceivably even a comic retreat. From somewhere in his consciousness he remembered that people hid under beds on occasion. He lay on his back with his head to one side and waited.

Whoever clicked the key soon met with success. The dor opened, cautiously, and a form stepped in.

When the room light did not come on, Bill worried anew. He could hear sundry rustlings. He heard steps, as of tip-toeing, and finally realized that the newcomer was trying to operate without attracting attention, even as he had done.

"Gosh!" he was almost thinking aloud. "I'm in a pot!"

While he lay there, motionless, a great mass of events, mostly imaginary, streamed through his consciousness. It seemed that every book and short story he had read since childhod and every screen-thriller he had seen came back to him in a rush.

He didn't know what to do.

He heard the other person rumbling in the closet and from his cramped position he thought he caught a faint flow of light. Some streaks of light had stabbed into the room through the poor window shade and around its edges, he remembered. But now, there seemed to be a different glow. It was a flashlight.

The person moved eventually from the closet to the trunk, and stayed there a long while, making next to no noise, searching. Someone was doing exactly as he had done. Who? Why? were questions which assailed him, along with the major problem of what he should do.

"He's bound to find me sooner or later if I stay here," Bill told himself, accurately. "Lordy, I wish I had a gun!"

But no. This wasn't fiction stuff, this was the real thing. He shuddered as he lay there. It was just as well he didn't have a gun. He'd probably get it out and make a fool of himself. Shoot somebody or likely kill. And he had no cause to kill anyone. He had no reason to be in this room, even though he was technically violating a law, and he didn't want to get into any bloodshed. He could explain everything—to the right people.

"For Pete's sake, I shouldn't have crawled under here!" he told himself now. Now I can't fight back or escape or get out or argue or do anything. I—I'll have to just lie here and take it!"

He wished fervently that he had not tried to set himself up as an amateur detective. The city police had been efficient in this matter, they had suspected the criminal in Mr. Merrifield's home even before Bill had, and had placed an undercover agent there. They had promised aggressive action in recovering the stolen diamond watch-bracelet. Why in the devil had he butted in?

Bill was quite worked up about his own folly new. It can be said to his credit that he even grinned to himself—at himself—there under the bed. Being under a bed is a lowly condition for any man with strength in his muscles and pride in his heart. Bill realized he had done something he wouldn't want his friends to know about. Even if he didn't get shot immediately, he'd probably get arrested, and jailed or fined, and a first-class story would be out on him and he'd never be able to live it down. Lordy!

But beyond this in his mind was curiosity as to who the newcomer was. The girl who occupied this room was at Mr. Merrifield's, he knew. Anyway, the rightful occupant would slip in furtively, search the place without lights, and act very suspiciously about everything. Doubtless then it was a real burglar. More than ever Bill wished he had elected to wait in the tiny closet, for there at least he could have jumped out with fists a-flying. Right now he'd give considerable to take a healthy crack at a burglar's chin. It would give him blessed release.

It was a peculiar situation that excited at The Oaks. Lying under the strange bed now, he thought back over the events of the week. His thoughts were racing, but clear. He could see, dimly, the feet of the intruder by the trunk, but could distinguish nothing in detail.

For no sensible reason they brought Gayle Dixon's feet to mind. Gayle had new shoes, pee-a-boo shoes which allowed the end of her big toe to peek out through a hole in the leather. Gayle's feet were ever so tiny, he remembered. Smaller than—than Tempe Hyde's, even, although Tempe was at least three inches shorter than Gayle, and perhaps 10 pounds lighter. Gayle weighed 112 pounds, he knew. That was pretty near ideal.

Bill wondered why his mind wandered so, under this stress of circumstances. Inevitably his doom—whatever it might be—was coming closer. He ought to be figuring out a course of action.

Could he wriggle silently out from under the bed, gain his feet without being seen, and grab the other intruder?

Hardly. If he managed not to touch the squeaky bed springs, the very sliding of his body would attract attention instantly.

And yet, any moment now the searcher would be sure to finish work at the trunk and come to the bed. Or to the dresser and then the bed. Or to the table, dresser and the bed. In any event, he would be discovered within half an hour, he knew. He could think of absolutely no same course of action, so he elected to try the sliding act, regardless of cost.

He slowly moved one leg first. That gave him leverage with which to move his body and finally his shoulders. To his definite surprise he had moved 12 inches or more without a sound. He felt encouraged.

Still straining so as not to touch the bed, and so as to make no faint whisper of sound, he edged eight or 10 inches more—and his head was in the clear. He saw that the other person seemed to be stooping down into the trunk—he could just make out the bending form in the darkness. Because the trunk was rumbling slightly, Bill moved in something of a hurry to take advantage of covering sound. Then with a cat-like movement he actually got to his feet.

CLINK! Clink-clink!

Coins in his pants pocket had slipped out during his wriggling, and as he arose they clinked to the floor, thunderous under those conditions.

The form by the trunk leaped aside.

The flashlight came on—its beam aimed at Bill. Then a voice, from a slightly different direction, spoke a crisp command.

"Stay where you are!" it said, biting, rapidly. "If you make the slightest move, I'll kill you dead as a post!"

Mrs. Golla Asks Compensate Leak

ROSSLAND, B. C., June 26 — Communications read at the Rossland City Council meeting, Monday night, included a letter asking for compensation for damage done to her house by a leakage in the water main, by Mrs. Evelyn Golla. Mrs. Golla claimed that the city was responsible for the damage and asked for the lot adjacent to her home, and free taxes on the four lots which would then be her property, for one year, as compensation. The council decided to obtain information before coming to a decision.

The council was notified that the annual conference of the Union of B. C. Municipalities was being held at Revelstoke on September 17 and 18. It would be necessary to have all proposed resolutions sent in before August 1 to assure that they would be on the agenda. This matter was deferred until next meeting.

Copy of the Rowell Commission Report was forwarded to the council by E. P. McDermid of Vancouver. The books will be held in the City Clerk's office and are open to examination.

Permission for two weeks annual holiday, commencing on June 28 was granted to Victor Falsetto, Rossland fireman.

A letter from the Rossland Parent-Teacher Association expressed appreciation for the use of the city trucks, both in hauling gravel for the race track at the Rossland ball park, and also in carrying chairs from the MacLean school to the high school for a concert held in the Auditorium, last May.

CADDY AGAIN?

VANCOUVER, June 26 (CP). — Three Vancouver nurses wished today that "how to deal with a Cadborosaurus" was included in their training as they told of a brush with a "horrendous" sea monster while bathing in English Bay.

Miss Vivian Knight, formerly of Victoria, said that she and Miss Audrey MacAuley of Courtenay, B.C., and Miss Freda Perry of Vancouver saw the monster raise its head "big with huge eyes, horrifying to see."

"The body came up only once but the head was up all the time," Miss Knight said. "The body, a gray color, had a sharp fin."

If it was Caddy, fabulous monster of British Columbia waterways, it was his first reported appearance in several months.

Children Suffer . . .

Need Humor to Free Life From Horrors of War

By Garry Cleveland Myers, Ph.D.

Some of the horrors of the war are invisible. Even right now in the United States thousands of children are burdened with anxieties and gloom because they hear at home so much talk about the war.

Whereas no intelligent adult can avoid feeling keen anxiety-we need to exercise our intelligence. We need to control our emotions, especially in the presence of our growing children. Even in the home with no children, we need to be calm and not allow ourselves to grow jittery and depressed, however hard we might find it to do so.

Parents who constantly talk at the dinner table or in the family elsewhere of their fears and anxieties about the progress of the horrible struggle in Europe, render themselves less efficient for their work, more gloomy in the family, less patient and more irritable to all about them.

Whether it is one of the blood-curdling favorites of children from 5 to 12 or the war news, whether the horrors related are fanciful or real, the artist on the air stirs up terrors as no print can do. Read the same thing in the newspaper you might hear on the radio and you are not so terrified. You can check so much better with your intelligence on what you read than on what you hear on the air. What must be the effect on the sensitive listening children who can't or seldom do, read reflectively or with perspective?

Therefore, my fellow parents, let me entreat you not to expose your children to the war news on the air. Far better to turn them to the comic items of the radio and the funny pages of the newspaper. Especially to those that make these children laugh.

LAUGHS NEEDED

In these trying days, parents also need to laugh. They need to see movies that make them laugh. They need to hear and tell funny things at the dinner table and at the family fireside. They also need to encourage their children to tell jokes and funny experiences.

Parents of children from 2 to 8 should read aloud from wellselected stories to these children, and more now than ever before. Also let there be much reading in the family to one another—hopeful, cheerful reading.

Let us parents go to church to build in ourselves and our children more faith in the imperishables and gain for them and ourselves more calm and serenity. As never before, let us pray for faith in things that cannot be destroyed and pray for self-control.

SOLVING PARENT PROBLEMS

Q. Writing of a 12-year-old a mother says: "If we ask him to do anything he doesn't want to do, he generally protests loudly and although we try to speak firmly and quietly there is a battle . . . When we tell him he can't have or do certain things, he whines and cries and mutters to himself, sometimes going into a tantrum; so we find it easier to give in."

A—You say yourself that you reward him for the kind of behaviour in him you dislike; he whines. Once you have made a decision, state it clearly and shut up; but prove you have a spine. If, however, you ask him to do something, treat it as a request. Let him choose and don't get mad about it. Sharply draw the line between a request and a command; and don't shift in relation to any situation from a request to a command, else all requests will be commands. Then what hope will you have to cultivate cooperation in that boy?

Midriff Tricks

By PRUNELLA WOOD

Give a tiny waistline all the attention it deserves. You can do it perfectly well in a princesse frock, and you can do it in the dress with set-in waistband or drawstring control. The frock sketched centre is draw-fitted all the way 'round and tied in a bowknot matching those scattered all over the dress. Sky blue chambray printed with deeper blue bows, or the same idea in dusty rose, as well as beige with red bows, are color choices. The bodice has two pockets and is yoked in back.

Back and front views of a gay gingham frock are sketched left and right. The set-in waistband is confined to the back, where most of the skirt fullness is also concentrated. The front is fastened full-length with gingham-covered buttons and belted from each side in ruffle. The only plaid this frock comes in is a combination of red and green and it's a safe bet nobody would want anything different, once she's seen the fabric.

Straight or Curly . . .

Care Will Bring Out Hair Beauty

By DONNA GRACE

"What can I do to make my little girl's hair curly?" This is the plea of many adoring mothers.

Curly hair is more flattering to anyone, but all youthful hair can be beautiful. All it requires is good care to glisten with the inimitable charm of youth. This youthful charm changes as children mature and we advise mothers to make the most of it while it lasts.

You can be very sure if she has straight hair, it will always be straight. She will have permanents and beautiful waves, but the natural growth will be straight, never curly.

Mothers who dislike to have their little girl's hair permanently waved can easily have plenty of curls by using curlers.

The permanent, however, need not injure the hair. A good operator knows just how to treat young hair and will instruct the young girl in the way to arrange the curls herself.

Some children look even more attractive with their natural straight hair. It can be so smart in well-brushed sleekness or in neat braids.

Applications of creams or liquids will not make the hair curly, but lubricating oil treatments are good to refine sunburned or neglected hair. Youthful hair with its natural oil needs only an occasional lubrication. With the weekly shampoo, we advise gentle scalp massage or brushing.

Life's Problem . . .

Common Sense Will Safeguard Sensitive Folk

By CAROLINE CHATFIELD

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

I have searched your column for this problem but have never seen it: Can a couple, where the woman is more than three inches taller than the man, and both are very sensitive about their heights, be happily married? I would like to know how other people feel about this. I have seen quite a few couples of this sort, and they appear to feel very conspicuous. Would this make them unhappy? T. Y.

ANSWER: I'd say their happiness depended upon what was inside their respective heads, rather than upon the respective heights of their heads. However, it's doubtful if an excessively sensitive soul is every happy in the strict sense of the word. There's always somebody around who hasn't the tact to step off sore toes. The strangest thing about these sensitive people is that they are above average in intelligence. They can reason about everything but about the subjects on which they are sensitive.

Perhaps the short man and the tall wife, both sensitive, can't discuss the matter between themselves, but I should say that the best way would be to laugh about it and accustom themselves to hearing themselves laughed at, which of course, they will be. Behind their backs by those who have regard for their feelings. Before their faces by tough-hided individuals who can't fathom the feelings of the sensitive.

WOMEN'S MILITARY UNIT ORGANIZES, HONG KONG

HONG KONG, June 26 (AP) —A sign of the restive times in the Orient is the creation here of a women's auxiliary transport service called a "Serious Military Unit."

"The girls must be prepared to consider themselves soldiers," said a British army official. "The unit was formed to answer a definite requirement in the colony's defence."

TODAY'S MENU

Vegetable Supper Salad
Cold Meat Escalloped Tomatoes
Butter Sponge Cake with Fruit or Berries
Iced Tea

For that hot evening when your appetite demands something dainty, try this vegetable supper salad, with the escalloped tomatoes as the one hot dish.

VEGETABLE SUPPER SALAD

1 pkg. lemon flavored gelatin, 2 cups boiling water, 2 tbsp. vinegar, 1 cup chopped celery, 1 tsp. salt, 1 cup shredded cabbage, ½ cup grated cabbage, 1 green pepper, chopped.

Dissolve prepared gelatin in boiling water, add vinegar and salt and put in refrigerator until mixture begins to thicken, then fold in celery, cabbage, carrot and green pepper. Turn into mold and return to refrigerator until ready to serve; unmold on crisp lettuce and serve with thin slices and cornucopias of cold meat.

ESCALLOPED TOMATOES

4 cups tomatoes, 1 tsp. salt, ⅛ tsp. pepper, 2 cups dried crushed bread crumbs mixed with 2 tbsp. melted butter.

Mix above ingredients, reserving ½ cup buttered crumbs. Pour mixture into oiled baking dish, sprinkle ½ cup crumbs over top and bake until brown and somewhat firm.

BUTTER SPONGE CAKE

2 eggs, ¼ tsp. salt, 1 cup sugar, 1 tsp. flavoring (vanilla or lemon), ½ cup milk, 1 tbsp. butter, 1 cup all-purpose flour, 1 tsp. baking powder.

Beat eggs until very light with rotary beater, then beat in sugar and flavoring. Beat in milk in which is made boiling hot, with butter melted into it. Sift flour, again with baking powder and beat into egg mixture. Pour at once into greased and floured pan, either layer pan or square pan. Bake in 350 degrees F. for from 25 to 30 minutes. Remove from pan 1 minute after taking from oven and put on wire rack to cool. When cool spread a thin coating of sweetened whipped cream over cake, arrange fresh sliced and sweetened peaches, bananas or any kind of berries on top and cover with more sweetened whipped cream—you will need a cup of cream altogether.

KEEP COOL · THE "SALADA" WAY

Infuse 6 heaping teaspoons of Salada Black Tea in a pint of fresh, boiling water. After 6 minutes strain liquid into 2-quart container; while hot, add 1 to 1½ cups of sugar and juice of 2 lemons, strained; stir until sugar is dissolved; fill container with cold water. Do not allow tea to cool before adding cold water or liquid will become cloudy. Serve with chipped ice. The above makes 7 tall glasses.

"SALADA" ICED TEA

When you think . . .

WOW! DOES THAT MAKE MY MOUTH WATER!

"Kellogg's rate FIRST for flavour"

"It is by my judgment of fine shades of flavour," writes Rolland Riendeau, Coffee Blender for London House Coffee, "that I earn my living. So I was interested to enter this blindfold taste test of the four brands of corn flakes. I didn't know one sample from another except by number. It was easy, however, to decide that the sample I later identified as Kellogg's, rated first for flavour!"

You know your breakfast will give you the nourishment you need!

It's a fact! We haven't time nowadays, to work up an appetite for breakfast. So we need an extra tasty, easily-assimilated meal! That's why crisp, delicious Kellogg's Corn Flakes, jam-packed with "carbohydrate" energy, make the right modern breakfast for your family.

They're so nourishing, too! An average serving of Kellogg's Corn Flakes with cream and sugar gives you 223.26 calories—quite as much as slower-to-prepare heavier foods. And they sell so fast they always reach you fresh!

Make tomorrow the day you taste this grand flavour again! You will enjoy Kellogg's Corn Flakes for breakfast and for a bedtime snack. Or if you breakfast away from home, insist on getting the wax-wrapped individual package. Made by Kellogg's in London, Canada.

• The family's choice across Canada! Last year impartial investigators asked 2000 housewives from coast-to-coast, this question: "What is your family's favourite ready-to-eat cereal?" As compared with any other corn flake mentioned, the vote was Kellogg's FIVE TO ONE! They're a boon to housewives, too—no messy pots and pans to clean!

THESE DAYS THERE ARE SO MANY WAYS A WOMAN CAN HELP. I'M GLAD OF A BREAKFAST WHICH TAKES ONLY 30 SECONDS TO PREPARE

YOUR BREAKFAST MUST DO 3 THINGS . . .

1. No time nowadays to "work up" a breakfast appetite. Kellogg's toasted Corn Flakes are the modern breakfast! Their tempting Kellogg flavour helps WAKE YOUR SLEEPY STOMACH!
2. To start the day at top speed, you need energy quick! A big bowlful of Kellogg's Corn Flakes—rich in "carbohydrate" energy—is just what you need to help START YOU QUICK!
3. A breakfast with Kellogg's Corn Flakes and cream and sugar goes on releasing energy for hours—helps avoid that mid-morning slump. They HELP KEEP YOU GOING!

Kellogg's Flavour, result of a formula which only Kellogg's know, makes Kellogg's Corn Flakes the world's most popular ready-to-eat cereal! Economical, too! Have you tried the new family-size package?

Eight Recruits Go From Nelson to Coast Depot

With little fanfare, a Nelson draft of eight recruits for the B. C. Regiment at the Coast was entrained on Tuesday morning. Crowds of friends jammed the station platform, but there was no band to parade the recruits to the station.

The draft consisted of James Allan Bennett, Herbert Ronald Hawkins, George Hinson, John Malcolm McKay, Nelson Earl Roynon and George Harold (Red) Walker of Nelson; Frank Ernest Collett of South Slocan; and Thomas Clifford Gibbs of Erie.

SON DISAPPEARS AFTER 3 YEARS OF PLAYING 'HOOKEY'

PITTSBURGH, June 26 (AP)—A Russian immigrant couple asked police today to help locate their 17-year-old son, whose disappearance just before his scheduled "graduation" from high school revealed he had played "hookey" for three years.

For three years the boy had given his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zellen, the impression he was off to school each morning. He explained his lack of report cards by saying "bright" students didn't receive them.

When graduation day came the Zellens paid for a graduation picture and proudly bought Walter a new suit for the affair. But a few hours before the commencement he disappeared.

His parents had no idea where he spent his "school hours."

About $160 damage was caused to a car driven by Mrs. David H. Ferguson, R. R. 1, when a deer jumped on the radiator at the Slocan Valley Junction road, Provincial Police reported at Nelson Wednesday. In her report Mrs. Ferguson said the deer took three big leaps and landed on the car, killing itself. Mrs. Ferguson was accompanied by her husband and three children. She was returning from Trail on the Nelson-Trail Highway.

The carcass of the deer was turned over to Kootenay Lake General Hospital by the Game Department.

Council Turns Down Ad in Shoulder Strap

City Council decided Tuesday night it could not take a $25 advertisement in the Shoulder Strap, Provincial Police publication owing to current conditions. The City supported the publication previously.

Children often eat too much of tempting foods and then suffer agonizing stomach pains. SEIZURE OF FORD INTERESTS, CANADA, BAN ON SALE OF PRODUCTS IS URGED

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP).—M. J. Coldwell (C. C. F., Rosetown-Biggar) demanded in the Commons today that the Government take into custody all Henry Ford's industrial interests in Canada.

He declared Mr. Ford's refusal to make airplane motors for the United Kingdom was something that could not be dismissed with a "passing reference" in the House of Commons.

Earlier attention of the House had been called to Fords attitude by Conservative Leader Hanson.

In the Senate the question also was raised by Senator F. B. Black (Con. New Brunswick.)

He said the Canadian Government should cancel all purchases of Ford cars and other equipment and forbid their sales in Canada if the report about the engines was true.

Chamberlain Is Target of Attacks

LONDON, June 26 (CP Cable)—The future of Neville Chamberlain as a member of the Churchill Government is becoming more and more uncertain as a result of a big bloc of Parliamentary votes which are determined to oust him.

For almost a month the former Prime Minister has been the target of behind-the-scenes attack for his part in failing to organize the manpower and resources of the nation during the first nine months of the war. At least once Prime Minister Churchill has stepped in to save his Cabinet colleague but the movement against the "Man of Munich" has continued.

In some quarters it is reported that David Lloyd George may enter the Churchill administration in the near future, possibly replacing Mr. Chamberlain.

The whole situation is complicated by the fact that Mr. Chamberlain still commands a big following in the House of Commons as leader of the Conservative party. His following is by no means as large as when he was Prime Minister, but it is large enough to command respect.

Perhaps the biggest single factor which holds Mr. Chamberlain in the Government is the belief—and it has been advanced more than once by Mr. Churchill—that this is no time for political recriminations. It is also being argued that it would be calamitous to divide the political forces of the Conservative, Liberal and Labor Parties, which have been working as a team for the first time since the war started.

Britain Ready for War to Victory Is Answer to Pittman

LONDON, June 26 (CP) — The Ministry of Information tonight voiced "complete disagreement" with the view of Senator Key Pittman, Chairman of the United States Senate Foreign Relations Committee, that "Britain is totally unprepared for defence."

The Ministry disagreed also with the suggestion of Mr. Pittman that "nothing the United States had to give can do more than delay the result of the war." He said "the probability of Hitler's domination of Europe, is evident."

"On the contrary, the warmest appreciation is shown here of the magnificent effort now being made in the factories and workshops of the United States to help Great Britain in the coming struggle, which she is facing with confidence.

"It is felt here that it would be a poor gesture of thanks to America after the aid given if the British people, with their 45,000,000 population, were clamly to lay down their arms without a fight—in any case, Great Britain has not the slightest intention of doing so and is determined to carry the struggle through to a victorious end."

BISHOP JOHNSON IS EXPECTED TO RETURN TO NELSON SATURDAY

Most Rev. Martin M. Johnson, D. D., Bishop of Nelson, who has been in the East Kootenay on a confirmation tour and in Edmonton at a retreat, is expected to return to Nelson by train Saturday morning.

In his month's absence from Nelson Bishop Johnson has confirmed large numbers at East Kootenay points and visited many churches and Indian reserves.

U. S. FLEET MOVES PROVE PUZZLING

WASHINGTON, June 26 (AP)—Secrecy thrown about the sudden departure of the main United States fleet from Hawaii heightened uncertainty today after official intentions toward Japanese moves in the Far East.

Both White House and State Department turned aside questions as to the fleet with cryptic remarks that they had no news.

Undetermined was whether the big battle force was steaming toward the U. S. mainland, for South American waters, or farther out toward the Orient.

Others saw the possibility that Western Hemisphere defence had become so urgent that the Administration had decided upon a large naval demonstration in South American waters. Two American warships are there already, and a third has received orders to join them.

No reports of preparations for the fleet have yet come from the Panama Canal zone.

School Worries Are Forgotten at Novel "After-Exam" Dance

School and all its worries and woes were forgotten for another year Wednesday night as students and ex-students frolicked at a novel "after-exam" dance at the Cathedral Hall.

Sponsored by the Junior Catholic Youth Organization, the dance was a merry affair. Decorations were novel, Chinese lanterns and streamers being used.

Committees in charge were:

Refreshments — Eleanor Maglio, Rena DeLucrezio, and Eleanor Vecchio; Decorations — Silvio Bragagnola, Joseph DeLucrezio and George Lunn; Door — Michael Prestley; Soft Drinks—Silvio Bragagnola, James Eccles, Jr. and George Coletti.

Canadian Ship Used to Block Zeebrugge

MONTREAL, June 26 (CP)—One of the concrete-loaded vessels blocking the mouth of German-held Zeebrugge harbor is a Canadian lake boat, according to Chief Officer Walter Goebel, visiting Montreal today on his way to New York.

Goebel, who declined to disclose the name of the vessel, said he took part in the blocking of the harbor. He told how two blockade ships and their escort of a half-dozen destroyers completed their jobs just 15 minutes before the Germans entered the town.

Wilson Charged With Possession of Watch

Frank Wilson, transient, who was jailed Monday for three months for retaining possession of money stolen from two Fairview homes, will be tried in City Police Court on a charge of possession of a ladies' wrist watch allegedly stolen from Mrs. Francis Rossi at Cranbrook. The charge has been laid by City Police.

Wilson will appear within a day or two.

U. S. Committee Speeds Work to Receive Children

NEW YORK, June 26 (CP)—The United States Committee for the Care of European Children, formed in answer to an "imperative demand from the American people for a unified policy and plan to meet the present emergency," moved today to provide havens for children fleeing the impending "battle of Britain."

Foster parents and funds sufficient to care for "many thousands" of refugee children from the British Isles were asked by the Committee in a nation-wide appeal.

Headed by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, wife of the President, as temporary honorary administrative chairman, the Committee is receiving the unofficial support of the Federal Government, working through Katherine Lenroot, head of the Federal Children's Bureau, in Washington.

Appeals to the State Department by Joseph P. Kennedy, U. S. Ambassador to Great Britain, to speed up the immigration selective process were expected to hasten American evacuation plans.

No figure has been set on the number of children to be admitted. Present plans provide care in family homes for such children as may qualify to come into the country within the limitations provided by law. This limits the quota of British immigrants to 75,721 yearly, and requires posting of bonds guaranteeing that aliens will not become public charges.

The Committee formed in New York is pressing for the relaxation of the restrictions. The Committee will extend financial aid to Canadian organizations which will handle the first contingent.

FIRE CONDITIONS SAID HAZARDOUS IN NELSON AREA

VICTORIA, June 26 (CP)—With hazardous conditions in the forests created by the continued dry weather, forest protection crews have been fully mobilized to handle any outbreaks, C. D. Orchard, Chief Forester, said today.

To date only 246 fires have been reported as compared with 401 at this time last year, but "hazardous" warnings have been posted in the Vancouver, Prince Rupert, Kamloops and Nelson districts. Mr. Orchard appealed to the public to be extremely careful on their outings during the holiday weekend.

NAVAL SERVICE BILL AMENDMENT PASSES

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP). — The Government bill to amend the Naval Service Act to bring civilians serving with the naval service under navy discipline finally passed the Senate today with an amendment to ensure that such civilian workers receive no compensation for illness or disability incurred on naval duty.

The amendment was prepared in committee and simply altered wording of the bill so as to provide that while civilians with the navy should be under navy discipline and control, it must be clearly understood they should not share with regular members of the naval service in the provisions of other statutes with regard to pensions and compensations.

INDIA EMERGENCY BILL GOES TO LORDS

LONDON, June 26 (CP Cable).—The India Emergency Bill, the main provision of which enables the Viceroy of India and the Governor of Burma to conscript European British subjects, pssed through the House of Commons today without division. It now goes to the House of Lords.

L. S. Amery, Secretary of State for India, said that "the Government of India have come to the conclusion that for purpose of urgent expansion of India's war effort, it has become necessary, indeed, to follow the example of this country and introduce compulsory service for military and certain cases for civil industrial purposes."

Registration Under Mobilization Bill Is Being Planned

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP)—Preliminary plans are underway for the national registration announced in the mobilization bill, Prime Minister Mackenzie King told the House of Commons today.

He was relying to a question from G. S. White (Con., Hastings-Peterborough) who wanted to know if registration would take place before the first class of recruits is called under the mobilization act.

Whether or not any of the various classes of recruits would be called before registration takes place, was under consideration and as soon as a decision is reached it will be announced in the House, Mr. King said.

U. S. VISITORS WILL NOT NEED PASSPORT FORMS

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP).—Prime Minister King told the Commons today no passport will be required from United States citizens visiting Canada.

He was answering Conservative Leader Hanson who asked the Government to clarify the position in view of the new U. S. regulation necessitating Canadians visiting in that country to have passports after July 1.

Mr. King said steps had been taken to strengthen border control including stricter immigration inspection at border points and the establishment of officers at points not previously covered.

All that would be necessary for persons coming to Canada would be to satisfy border officials that they are U. S. citizens and are coming to Canada for legitimate purposes.

Canada welcomed tourists and wishes to place no interference in the way of their entering Canada. Here they would find a country strengthening its forces in the fight against Nazi aggression but wholly at peace with its democratic neighbors.

If at the end of the Summer, said Mr. King, it was found necessary to require passports from Americans and to establish consular offices in the United States, ample notice would be given.

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP).—Canadians living in the United States and who wish to remain in that country after July 1 will have to obtain passports the same as Canadian visitors to the Republic.

Permanent residents of the United States are advised to apply to the Canadian Legation at Washington for those passports because passport offices here are inundated with applications.

NAVY CANNOT FORWARD TELEGRAMS TO RATINGS

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP) — The navy announced today that telegrams sent to naval headquarters here for men on service with the Royal Canadian Navy cannot be forwarded except in cases of emergency.

In such cases, steps will be taken to communicate essential information, provided it does not compromise the operation on which the rating's ship may be employed, and only when the bona fides of the sender can be established beyond doubt. Other telegrams will be forwarded by mail.

MARKET LOSS IS HARD BLOW TO TANNING TRADE

TORONTO, June 26 (CP)—Leather company officials here said in interviews today that loss of the United Kingdom market, due to a British import restriction effective June 10, is the most serious blow the Canadian tanning industry has faced. THE NAZI APPROACH

Tactfulness toward the "inferior races" is one of the tinguishing characteristics of th Nazi regime.

Here is the Nazi approach to the South American ples, in a propaganda leaflet in Spanish modestly surnted by an eagle bearing a swastika:

"The Teuton state never had any recourse to disciplin- measures except in cases when it was met by stupid obacy of small states, none of which should ever have a vote or choice in the concert of powerful nations.

"Greater Germany succeeded in extending beyond its ntiers its government, full of benevolence, and its inparable culture, which carries with it, as universally ognized, hope and comfort to the inferior races where very friendly sentiments have been fostered regarding great German ideal. . .

"Groundless terror soon changed to admiration and titude toward the Fuhrer, who in his magnanimity has descended to offer them the possibility of exchanging ir insignificant nationality for the resplendent citizenp of their conquerors."

It is to be hoped the "inferior races" inhabiting the th American republics will be properly impressed with ler's condescension toward Norway, Denmark, Holland, Belgium, as well as toward Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, and will crave a similar magnanimity toward nselves, in order that they may exchange their own ignificance for the higher and more abundant citizenp available to the elect.

THE SAGA OF THE TRAWLER

Among the individual saga of the war is the unforttable story of the British converted trawler that subed and captured, and led into port at Aden, an Italian bmarine.

The British trawlers have been doing a remarkable of sweeping the seas of German mines, doing emergy transport duty, as at Dunkerque, and other dangerjobs that have been cogs in Britain's control of the , which Germany so envies, while other members of trawler fleet have carried on at garnering the Nation's pply of sea food.

But those that have been drafted as an auxiliary navy ve mounted guns, and can do effective battle with certain pes of war vessels, apart from dealing with merchant ips while on blockade duty.

Britain's auxiliary navy, consisting of trawlers, yachts, otorboats, and—in the Dunkerque evacuation—little putts, has a remarkable record of devoted and effective serce, and not 1 per cent of its service ever comes to light, be immortalized.

CONTRACT . . . By Shepard Barclay

WHEN A SQUEEZE WORKS REMEMBER this point about a squeeze play. There are exceptions to it, but very few. It is this: If you are able to run all but one of the remaining tricks to be played, you may put the pinchers on the enemy in case he has to guard two suits. But if you can run all but two of the remaining tricks, you usually cannot worry him. Then he usually will be able to select his discards without marring his hand. One way to correct this sometimes is to give him one trick at the outset, then run the string so as to oblige him to give up his remaining chance for another.

West led his club 5, the J winning. South had heard about squeeze plays, but never studied them much. He decided to run off the eleven tricks he saw, and try to embarrass West between hearts and the last club. First he took six diamond tricks, then the club A and K, and re-entered dummy with the spade A. With three cards left in each hand, East guarded spades, in which he had given a high-low signal telling West to protect other things. West had two hearts and the club Q. So declarer could get only one more trick, with the heart A, losing the last two, so took eleven himself.

If South had planned better he might have scored twelve tricks. After winning the first trick with the club J, he could have given a spade trick and won any return. Then he could have taken the remaining high club, spade A and his string of diamonds. As he played the last diamond, he would have held also the club 8 and heart 3 in dummy, with the spade 9 and heart A-J in his own hand. The spade would go on the last diamond. West, with his two hearts and club Q, would have to discard one, thereby building a trick for the declarer. What's that? West could spoil this with a heart return when he won the spade? Righto. But the only squeeze chance was to trust him not to do that.

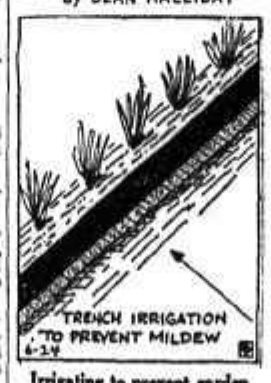
Surface Watering Prevents Mildew
By DEAN HALLIDAY



Irrigating to prevent garden disease

Roses, delphiniums, the perennial phloxes, or any other flowering plants whose foliage is subject to mildew, rust or black spot should not be watered by the overhead method. A system of irrigation ditches in the garden for surface watering is one of the best methods of preventing diseases among plants.

Watering by means of an irrigation ditch can be easily undertaken by making a V-shaped trench behind a row of plants, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph. Let water from a hose flow slowly into the trench until the roots have received a thorough soaking, or several soakings.

After the roots of the plants watered by the irrigation method have been thoroughly soaked with moisture, the soil easily can be replaced in the ditches.

Trail-Rossland Benefit Association Revises Bylaws; Larger Executive

ROSSLAND, B. C., June 26—E. E. Perkins of Rossland was reelected President of the Trail-Rossland Benefit Association Monday night. H. D. Thain of Trail was elected Vice-President and Norman Cunningham of Rossland, Secretary-Treasurer. Members reelected to the executive for one-year terms were Thomas Knight and Kenneth Martin of Rossland, and A. B. Thompson and I. Jeffries of Trail. Elected for two-year terms were Rev. D. S. Catchpole of Rossland, and H. D. Thain and George Benzies of Trail.

Five amendments to the original constitution were passed.

$200 YEAR MAXIMUM

The first amendment—to Article 12, clause 2, paragraph A—placed the maximum benefits to any one member at $200 per year. Previous to this amendment no restriction had been placed on the amount of benefits allowed to members.

The second amendment—to Article 12, clause 3, paragraph G—entitled new members, and dependents of members, to maternity benefits after 10 months from date of their acceptance as members or dependents, provided that the Society was responsible for 10 days hospitalization only in maternity cases. The former ruling granted maternity benefits six months after date of acceptance, and no restrictions were placed on the length of hospitalization.

An addition of one member, making an executive of eight instead of seven, constituted the third amendment—to Article 6, clause 1. The meeting appointed four members for one-year, and four for two-year terms. At future annual meetings, elections will be held for two-year terms, thus alternating the executive, and keeping four experienced members in office each year.

WHEN MEMBER LAID OFF

The fourth amendment—to Article 4, clause 6—provided that members absent on leave without pay, temporarily laid off on account of reduction in staff, or for any other reasons, could, at the discretion of the Board, retain their membership for one month for each year of paid-up membership to a maximum of three months, and that any arrears so due would have to be paid on the return to work of the member concerned. In the original constitution, no definite time limit was fixed in this clause.

Drugs and doctors' prescriptions, on the British Pharmacopoeia only, will be furnished to members, the members to pay one-half the costs and drugs, and prescriptions may only be purchased from pharmacists with which the Association has made arrangements. This is provided in the fifth amendment—to Article 12, clause 4. The original ruling had not defined the types of medicine obtainable under these conditions. This amendment restricts the purchase of patent medicines, or any others not listed in the British Pharmacopoeia.

Junior High Grade IX Students Go to Park for Picnics

Grade IX classes of Nelson Junior High School swam, ate and generally enjoyed themselves at Lakeside Park Tuesday afternoon as part of their school closing celebration. A. E. Cobus, D. G. Chamberlain, and Miss Barbara Lang had charge of the classes.

Grades 7 and 8 students held picnics and parties at the school, with softball games, other games and refreshments.

Relief Grants by Government Are to Be Restricted

New restrictions on granting of relief, particularly to employable single men, will apply after July 31. A letter from the Unemployment Relief Branch, Victoria, indicated it would not contribute to material aid granted such men. Cases of married men aged 30 and under will be reviewed.

The Department's letter to the City Council, received Tuesday night, follows:

"This Department will cease to contribute to the cost of material aid granted to fully employable single men 46 years of age and under after 31st July, 1940. Men in this category who apply for and receive relief next month should be notified to this effect.

"With respect to fully employable male heads of families 39 years of age and under it should be intimated to them when they receive their July allowance that each recipient's circumstances will be reviewed at the end of that month, and it is likely that the same policy applicable to single men will be followed with respect to married men in this age group. Officials concerned may take it for granted that this Department will not contribute to assistance granted to married men 39 years of age and under after July, 1940, excepting for such cases as may be brought to our attention because of local circumstances that might create undue hardship on the family."

The ruling means no Government contribution will be made to relief for single employable single men under 46. The Government contribution now is 80 per cent.

Academy Students Enjoy Picnic and Swimming Parties

Grades V and VI of St. Joseph's Academy enjoyed themselves with a basket lunch, swimming and games at Lakeside Park Tuesday afternoon, while Grade VII and 8 students had a boat trip to Five-Mile Point for a swim. Grades 3 and 4 held a picnic at Gyro Park earlier in the week.

With other students of Nelson schools, the Academy students begin their holidays today.

Study Methods of Parachutist, Ottawa Advises

OTTAWA (CP)—An announcement by the Office of the Director of Public Information says "it has become a matter of the first importance to study the methods adopted by German parachute troops, and to consider how they are dropped, how they are equipped and clothed and what their objectives are."

The parachute troops are dropped to organize local "fifth columnists" and to arm them to create panic and confusion and spread false news among civilians, to harass communication lines, to damage bridges, power stations, wireless, and telephone exchanges, stores and dumps and to give information to aircraft by means of signals.

The parachutists are said to be able to jump safely from a height as little as 150 feet from planes travelling about 75 miles an hour. The planes often are about 1800 feet apart, the aim apparently being to land a company within a space 650 by 1300 feet and to get it assembled within 15 minutes.

The uniform consists of a close-fitting steel helmet resembling somewhat a motorcyclist's crash helmet, a double-breasted tunic, and trousers of the plus-four type. The helmet is narrower than the normal German steel helmet and has neither neck shield nor peak. The blue-grey tunic is cut loose with the collar turned down and open at the neck, with no buttons showing. The trousers are tucked in over boots half-knee high and laced at the side. Each man wears gauntlet gloves.

The light equipment carried by each man includes hand grenades and a gun capable of firing 600 rounds a minute. Other weapons and equipment dropped in special containers attached to self-opening parachutes are filled with ammunition, rifles, field glasses, compasses, spades, smoke candles and wire.

Patrol of the entire country is given as the essential means of defence against parachutists.

Returns to Action

HAROLD TAPANILA

Seventeen-year-old Harold Tapanila will be back in action with the Nelson Maple Leafs tonight when they play the Golden Bears at Trail. He has missed several games lately owing to a variety of reasons, and at the same time the Leafs fell deeper into the league cellar.

Putting two and two together, he may be the one to spark Nelson to their second win of the schedule over the Bruins tonight.

REMEMBER WHEN?

By the Canadian Press

In the days when boxing champions travelled, Jack Johnson, first negro to hold the heavyweight crown, defeated challenger Frankie Moran at Paris in 20 rounds, 27 years ago today. Three years before, Johnson won the title from James J. Jeffries at Reno, and in 1915 lost it to Jess Willard at Havana.

Yankees didn't get Jimmy Foxx because Miller Huggins didn't like the tip. . . . The scout had cried wolf too often for the late Yankee boss, but he did take Miller's advice. . . . The story is true according to Wally Pipp, Yankee first sacker who begged off because of a headache one day and Lou Gehrig took his place. . . . Pipp never got back to first-basing after that.

Ruffing Hurls Yanks to Win In Last West Game

Phillies and Pirates Split Two; Browns Take Licking

(By The Canadian Press)

New York Yankees salvaged a victory today in the final game of their disastrous Western swing in the American League as Red Ruffing bested Mel Harder in a hurling duel for a 3-1 decision over Cleveland Indians.

The triumph gave the Yanks a record of four won and nine lost in their trip through the West.

Philadelphia Athletics tumbled St. Louis Browns out of the American League first division perch they gained only last night by defeating them today 9-4. Sam Chapman with five hits—one a base-clearing home run in the second inning—drove in five runs and had a perfect day at bat.

Boston's Red Sox cut Detroit Tigers down 3-1, a three-run rally in the ninth inning breaking up a pitching duel between Rookie John Gorsica of Detroit and Jim Bagby of Boston.

Chicago White Sox clubbed three Washington pitchers for 15 hits but had to come from behind with a two-run ninth-inning rally to defeat the Senators 7-6.

In the National League, Johnny Rizzo got six hits in seven times at bat—including a homer, triple and double—to give the Phillies an even split in a doubleheader with Pittsburgh Pirates. The Phils won the opener 4-2 with Rizzo knocking in all four runs. The Pirates took the afterpiece 11-6.

The first hit of the year for John McCarthy was a pinch single with the bases loaded in the tenth inning and gave the New York Giants a 10-9 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals in one of the wildest baseball carnivals of the season, a night affair at the Polo Grounds.

Ward, Campbell Ousted by Golf Oldsters, Seattle

SEATTLE, June 26 (AP).—Youth was served today — the hard way —as National Amateur Champion Bud Ward of Spokane and Washington State Amateur Champion Scotty Campbell of Seattle were ousted in first round Northwest amateur tournament matches by a couple of oldsters.

Ralph Whaley, 51-year-old retired Seattle business man and bow and arrow expert, didn't need his quiver of shafts to halt Ward. He won out on the 19th hole over the Broadmoor Golf Club, his home course.

George Butterfield, 58-year-old luggage merchant, another Broadmoor member, sent Campbell packing by taking a 2 and 1 victory. Butterfield is the oldest man in the championship. He won the State senior title in 1938.

In another upset youthful Chester Gordon, Jr., of Seattle took Leo Stell, Seattle veteran, to the 22nd hole before winning out.

Harry Givan of Seattle ,tourney medalist, had to go 19 holes before he defeated Lloyd Byerly of Portland, the Oregon champion.

Portland Women Leading Golfers

SEATTLE, June 26 (AP). — The Pacific Northwest women's golf tournament took on a decided Rose City complexion at the Rainier Golf Club today.

Three Portland women reached the quarter finals of the championship flight, including Marian McDougall, the defending champion, who has won the tournament five of the last six years.

The upset of the day was provided by Nancy Hunt of Portland, who disposed of Mrs. J. K. Priebe of Seattle, tourney medalist, 2 up.

Muriel Veatch, the attractive young blonde from Longview, who is the Washington State women's champion, beat Mrs. A. M. Draper of Seattle, 3 and 1.

Mrs. Mary Mozel Wagner of Portland beat Mrs. Carl W. Jones of Seattle, 7 and 6.

Miss McDougall eliminated 15-year old Betty Jean Rucker of Spokane, 3 and 2.

Columbians Lose Ball Game to Beaverdell

GRAND FORKS B. C.—Although playing a steady game throughout, the Columbia Ball Club was nosed out 5-4, at Columbia Park, by the Beaverdale squad, in a pitcher's duel, in which a total of 22 strikeouts were recorded.

The Columbia nine took the lead twice in the early frames but the Highland Bell Miners came from behind twice and took a one-run lead.

Gene Sarazen is the only golfer to have played in 21 consecutive U.S. Open championships.

Warms Up

Pitcher Curt Davis, a Dodger now, warms up the ol' soupbone in the Ebbets Field bullpen. Curt came to the Brooklyn Dodgers in the same mammoth ivory deal which saw Joe "Ducky" Medwick come to Flatbush. Both came from the St. Louis Cardinals.

Plans Under Way for Scouts and Cubs, Camp Busk

Carefully laid plans to make the forthcoming Nelson Cub and Scout camps at Camp Busk more successful and extensive in value than ever before are in full swing, according to officials in charge.

In preparation to get the camp into final shape, Nelson District Commissioner R. R. Brown, Nelson District Cubmaster Leslie Dee and Association President C. D. Pearson visited the camp last Sunday.

The Cub camp will open July 29 and last until August 3 when the Scouts will encamp until August 10. Mr. Dee will be in charge of the Cubs, and L. P. Walton, Third Nelson Troop Cubmaster, of the Scouts. One of the big attractions of this year's activities will be the new rowboat the Association has procured.

Plans are being made for 50 boys in each camp and officials are anxious to receive registration forms as soon as possible. For precautionary measures all boys will have medical examinations three or four days before going to camp.

Among the opportunities for the boys, will be chances to achieve tenderfoot, second and first class proficiency badge work, which will include swimming and cooking classes. Special entertainment will also be provided on several nights by guest performers.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP). — Believe-it-or-not: Up to today the St. Louis Browns had won more games than the Yanks — and with Yankee castoffs, at that . . . Even though he has been retired for the season, Van Mungo will be cut in for a full share of any series dough the Dodgers collect . . . A Newark sportsman who lost 40 grand on Max Baer when he fought Braddock, has offered Tony Galento $1000 for every tooth he knocks out of Baer's head Tuesday night.

His ear was bent.

They say poor Mr. Ford C. Frick fell out of his easy chair Monday night when one of the radio fellows calmly announced: ". . . all the other games in the Major Leagues, also the National, were rained out."

St. Louis writers say Ray Blades really got tough last Spring and soured the Cardinals with his iron-handed methods . . . Milwaukee has offered Ken Overlin, the N. Y.-California-Virginia middleweight king, $2500 to meet the winner of tonight's Tony Martin-Tony Bruno winner in an over-the-weight go.

Church Softball Play in League Ends Today

The concluding game of the Nelson Church Softball League Men's Division will be played this evening at the Junior High School when St. Paul's plays Senior C. Y. O. Nothing is at stake in this game for the Catholics have already clinched first place, and St. Paul's with the Baptists are out in the cold as far as a playoff berth is concerned.

Junior C. Y. O. and Trinity will meet next in a semi-final series for the right to play Senior C. Y. O.

Bombers Drop Out of Men's Softball; Schedule Revised

High School Blue Bombers have dropped out of the Nelson Men's Softball League, Captain Ted Huyck said Wednesday night after the Bombers defaulted their league game to the Savoy Hotel nine.

Rumors that the Bombers were through were heard for a week, and although they defaulted to the Cycles Monday, they said Tuesday they still planned to play Savoy the following evening. However between then and the time of the game they decided against it.

The Cycles have completed their second half schedule, so the remaining League action will be confined to the Hume and Savoy Hotels and C.Y.O. all three of whom will be in the playoffs.

The next game in the Nelson Softball Association is scheduled for Friday evening when the Rookies play C.Y.O. in the ladies' division. A layoff of a week is enforced by Dominion Day celebrations in Nelson. On July 5 Savoy will play Hume. Savoy-C.Y.O. clash two days later. These games, expected to be two of the most interesting of the season, will conclude the men's league. July 8 the Rookies and C.Y.O. play their last league game.

The playoffs will start immediately after. Each Wednesday from now until the West Kootenay championships get away will be devoted to rep team practices, both men's and girls'.

Up-to-date standings in the men's league follow:

	W	L	Pct.
C.Y.O.	6	1	.833
Savoy	5	1	.800
Hume	5	2	.714

Cummins, Demore Flare Up Again

"He's just pulling another of his fast ones," Con Cummins, Manager of the Nelson Baseball Club, insisted Monday afternoon after he learned his wife had had a long distance telephone call while he was out from Louie Demore, Trail Cardinals' Coach, to the effect that that the Cards were to participate in a baseball tournament at Kimberley this weekend.

Irate at the latest turn of events, Cumming had half a notion to take his own team to Kimberley "just to do Demore out of the prize money." But since many of the players would be unable to get off work, this would be impossible.

The reason for resumption of the Demore-Cummins feud is that Nelson was billed to play a West Kootenay League game at Trail this Sunday "And league games naturally should comes first," says Cummins. "Just because he has a chance at $150, he jumps at that, and to h--l with the league."

Demore's side of the story is that he understood Nelson was planning to make a holiday weekend trip to Spokane, so he wasn't going to be beaten to the punch. However Cummins had hoped to play a game in Spokane on Dominion Day, but he was planning to play in Trail the previous day en route to the States. Trail wasn't going to be left out at all, he says.

Eire Prepares "Irish Welcome" for Any Attack

By NORMAN LODGE
(Associated Press Staff Writer).

DUBLIN, June 26 (AP).—Eire has become "attack conscious" and the term "invasion" is frowned upon by the censor.

From whom an attack might come, or on which side of the little Shamrock Isle, official sources decline to say.

Some weeks ago there was "scare" talk by the members of the Government. The "man in the pub" just turned back to his pint of stout.

Now that is changed.

Every gathering in pub, hotel lobby or on the street discusses "attack"—and the talk is serious.

Through Dublin streets where the only men in uniform a month ago were police, soldiers swing along in forest green. They carry swagger sticks—but wear bandoliers of cartridges and have rifles easily accessible.

WATCH SEA LANES

Airplanes drone overhead and watchful eyes scan the Atlantic and Irist Sea approaches to every coastal town.

Figures on the army's present strength are guarded carefully but high officers say recruiting has been satisfactory. They promise an "Irish welcome" for any attacking force.

Northern Ireland is alert, too.

Only this week the Ulster Government at Belfast ordered strict control of migration to the six Northern countries to keep guard against undesirables whose names are on the "subversive" lists.

The average man believes encirclement of Britain might be attempted by moves on Ireland.

R. A. F. Bombs Chemical Plant, Munitions Dump

LONDON, June 26 (CP).—Bombing of a chemical plant at Cologne and destruction of an ammunition dump on the fortified Island of Heligoland were announced today by the Air Ministry, in relating renewed raids yesterday on Western Germany and The Netherlands.

The statement said;

"Last night R. A. F. bombers continued their attacks on enemy airdromes, rail communications and other military objectives in Holland and Northwest Germany.

"Heavy attacks were made on the airdromes at Arnhem (Netherlands) and Borkum (Germany). At Lingen near the Dutch frontier a railway bridge was destroyed.

DOWN ENEMY FIGHTERS

LONDON, June 26 (CP).—Royal Air Force planes shot down three German fighters near the French coast yesterday without losing any planes in an encounter with a "much larger formation," the Air Ministry announced today.

R. A. F. bombers also attacked Waalhaven airdrome near Rotterdam yesterday and early this morning and inflicted "heavy damage" on a German airdrome at Bomoen, near Bergen, Norway.

R.A.F. HAS LITTLE SUCCESS IN RAIDS ITALIANS REPORT

ROME, June 26 (AP).—The Italian high command today issued the following communique:

"Nothing to report from the metropolitan front and North Africa.

"In East Africa the British Air Force without success raided Asmara and Dire Dawa and two enemy planes were shot down.

(An R.A.F. statement issued in Cairo said that in Asmara hangars and runways of the airdrome suffered direct hits and that at Dire Dawa one Italian fighter plane was severely damaged. One R.A.F. plane was lost in these operations.)

"Enemy attempt to raid Naples were rendered unsuccessful by Italian fighters and anti-aircraft guns which succeeded in driving off the enemy."

Can Be No Limit to the War Effort States Chancellor

LONDON, June 26 (CP). — Sir Kingsley Wood, Chancellor of the Exchequer, told Britons today that "no limit can be put to our war effort; we must throw everthing in."

In a luncheon address the Chancellor said more than £4,000,000 (about $17,600,000) has been offered in response to the government's recent appeal for interest-free loans, and that one man signing himself "confidence" had sent a gift of £200,000 "without any condition."

Sir Kingsley said one of the vital reasons for confidence in the future was the fact that the "daughter nations are throwing everything in and are sending, in increasing measures, men, materials and munitions."

"They will always be by our side," he added.

HOME SECRETARY TO BE ASKED IF HE IS AWARE OF PRO-NAZI MEETING

LONDON, June 26 (CP).—Home Secretary Sir John Anderson will be asked in the House of Commons tomorrow whether he is aware that "former members of the Pro-Nazi organization," The Link, met in London last wek and discussed the question of peace terms under a sympathetic government." The question will be put by J. J. Davidson, Labor.

Contracts for Air, Schools, Plants of $960,000 Awarded

OTTAWA, June 26 (CP) — The construction division of the Munitions and Supply Department today announced awarding of five contracts totalling $960,000.

The Frid Construction Company of Toronto will build a $369,000 service flying school of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan at Brantford, Ont., by November 9, and the Ontario Construction Company of St. Catharines, Ont., will build a $239,000 flying training school at Brantford, also by November 9. The Redfern Construction Company of Toronto has been awarded a $260,000 contract for steel and brick for an aircraft assembly building at Fort Erie., Ont., to be completed by September 13.

East Kootenay Pythians Attend Cresion Rally

CRESTON, B. C.—Creston was the venue Saturday night of Knights of Pythias Lodge officers and members from Fernie, Cranbrook and Kimberley at a social and business rally.

Proceedings opened under the chairmanship of C. C. W. Ferguson of Wild Rose Lodge. Alex Preston, North Star Lodge District Deputy Grand Chancellor, was in attendance and outlined a plan for the future having regard to the tasks that lie before the organization.

W. W. Pritchard of the Cranbrook Lodge briefly submitted viewpoints in support of increased activity as contained in the suggestion of the D.D.G.C. Jim Douglas of Kimberley Lodge asked that each Lodge give careful consideration to conditions in the hope that it would far surpass itself in exemplifying the tenets of the Order.

Great interest was aroused by an address by Chancellor Commander Johnson of Fernie Lodge, who portrayed from an experience of over 30 years the trials that many of the Lodges had encountered and the important party they had played, through the years. He stressed his belief that the loyalty and steadfastness of purpose that had animated the officers and members in the past would in the present and future be heightened and be a source of satisfaction to members and non-members.

The gist of P. C. J. Wilson's, Vela Rose, remarks, were that men had been prone to follow the material side of life and to regard less the cultural and spiritual side. Fortunately the current trend was toward the cultural and spiritual virtues on the basis of friendship.

At this time controlled and unbiased thinking, and a calm and unimpassioned attitude, were necessary for peace of mind, and the benefits of consoling friendship.

After the business session North Star Lodge members, under Jim Douglas, exemplified rank work and won great applause for their efforts.

At the banquet which followed, about 70 sat down.

The hospitality of the local Lodge was applauded by all the visitors.

A beautiful feature of the proceedings was the ceremony of bringing in the flag by the Master-at-Arms of Wild Rose Lodge, accompanied by the singing of "God Save the King."

Hoover Predicts European Famine

PHILADELPHIA, June 26 (AP)—Herbert Hoover today merged his war relief experience of 20 years and his observations on present conditions abroad into a prediction that the spectre of "the most disastrous famine in history" hangs over Europe.

If the present war is a short one, he said, there will be a "short famine," but if it continues for many months the problem of feeding Europe's millions will be unparallelled in the history of human suffering.

The 65-year-old former President, who directed vast European relief activities at the close of the last war, said the postwar task in Europe will not be one of refugees because they can be repatriated, but one of food, because of the number of nations dependent on outside food supplies.

The Belgian City of Brussels, Hoover said, probably will be without food in 30 to 60 days unless aid is provided.

He said he had communicated with Germany, Great Britain and the "refugee Government" of Belgium seeking consent for some third party intervention" to feed the starving. Private charity could not handle the situation, he declared, recalling it took $15,000,000 a month to feed Belgium in the last war.

C. W. L. Is Urged to Shelter Evacuees

SAINT JOHN, N. B., June 26 (CP) —A recommendation that members of the Catholic Women's League of Canada hold themselves in readiness to help refugees and take one child or more into their homes was made to the League convention today by Mrs. Alexander Walker, Toronto, National Convener of Immigration.

She also recommended that members interest others in the work, assist in conveying children to homes of adoption, and in supervising the homes, give the children books and prayer books when needed, and buy them clothes.

A war service report showed all subdivisions active and cooperating with the Red Cross and other organizations.

Hundreds Seeking Passage to Canada

LONDON, June 26 (CP Cable).—Scenes reminiscent of the days of active migration to Canada are being re-enacted in busy steamship offices in London where hundreds of bookings are bought daily.

Most of those making application are the wives and children of Canadians living in Britain who are anxious to send their families back to the safety of the Dominion. Also seeking information at steamship and passport offices are scores of persons with relatives in Canada who are hoping to find a haven for aged persons or children.

VEGETABLES SUPPLIED LOCALLY

Spinach, green peas, head lettuce, onions and radishes are all being supplied locally, while cucumbers, head lettuce, carrots and new potatoes are coming from the Okanagan and Grand Forks area. Field tomatoes, apricots and new Transparent apples are now ready in the Okanagan and are expected to be on the Nelson market during the week. Watermelons, cantaloupe, plums and peaches are coming from California.

Egg prices remained steady during the week, with demand good. Receipts were low. Beef prices remained fairly steady, while the lamb situation improved slightly with increased supplies.

CANNED MILK TO BRITAIN

Wholesalers said it was rumored Great Britain was drawing on Ontario and other Eastern Provinces for canned milk as this was no longer available from Norway and Holland. This would bring a tendency toward increased prices in Western Canada as milk packed in British Columbia was insufficient for the Western demand.

Carlot arrivals of the week included two of groceries, two of meat, one of flour, one of oranges, and one of British Columbia new potatoes.

The basis of the prices is on No. 1 Northern in store at Fort William.

The minimum prices for No. 1 Northern with specified dates follows:

June 26 to 29 (inclusive)	71½
July 1 to August 3	71⅝
August 5 to 10	71⅝
August 12 to 17	71⅞

No. 1 hard wheat has the same figure as No. 1 Northern but the deliverable discount of No. 2 Northern, the announcement said, will be three cents a bushel under No. 1 Northern; No. 3 Northern eight cents; No. 4 Northern 18; No. 4 Special 22; No. 1 C. W., Garnet 12 and 2 C. W. Garnet 15.

The minimum prices, inaugurated on the Dominion Government's request, will remain in force until further notice from the Council.

It was explained that the step was taken in view of the fact that wheat futures prices had been provided minimum figures below which no trades could be made. It was considered wise to do likewise in the cash market.

The futures minimum quotations are July 71⅝ cents a bushel, October 73⅝ and December 74⅝.

Gold Mining Not to Be Retarded by Increased Taxation

TORONTO, June 26 (CP).—Toronto mining men said today increased taxation will not be allowed to retard efforts of Canadian mining companies in producing gold to buttress the Dominion's stock of foreign credit.

This matter was subject to correspondence months ago between the Finance Minister and mining heads, one director said in an interview, and the Minister was assured the mines would cooperate fully.

Another mining director said it would be a simple matter for some companies to lower their grade and thus avoid the excess profits tax, but he felt sure no companies were doing it. The milleheads of all mines fluctuate, this director said, and all the recent slight decrease in the average of grade might be accounted for by the necessary milling of development ore by some companies.

BONDS FALL

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP)—Foreign and domestic bonds dropped fractions to more than 4 points today.

Rome 6½s lost about 4 by noon, and declines of a point or more appeared for Milan 6½s and Italian public utility 7s.

Pressure accompanied surprise at the "easy" terms of the Italian settlement.

Securities Off

LONDON, June 26 (AP)—Losses were general in the securities market today. Chief depressants were the Prime Minister's statements regarding disposal of the French fleet and the French Indo-China question. Mark-downs were again described as "precautionary" because actual selling was limited.

British Government bonds lost as much as ¾ point. Foreign bonds lower included Japanese, Rumanian and Brazilian.

Chicago Wheat Up

CHICAGO, June 26 (AP)—Wheat prices fluctuated within a range of more than a cent today, with selling due to favorable weather offset by buying associated with reports of less promising yields and poorer quality of late maturing new wheat in the Southwest. Prices closed slightly higher than yesterday.

Wheat closed unchanged to ⅛ higher compared with yesterday; July 78⅛-7⅞, September 78⅜-½; corn unchanged to ½ lower, July 60⅛, September 59, oats 38-½ higher.

Active War, Red Cross Work Done by District Women's Institutes, Reports at Nelson Rally Reveal

All Institutes in District Report Activity

Keenness for war work, particularly making up Red Cross supplies, collecting blankets for refugees and so on, were reported by nearly every district Institute when Women's Institutes of the Nelson District staged a successful rally at Lakeside Park Tuesday. Helpful comments and suggestions on the reports were given by Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan of Victoria, Superintendent of British Columbia Institutes.

The women stood in a minute's silent tribute to the war dead.

The Robson Institute reported by Mrs. H. R. Foxley had affiliated itself with the Red Cross Society at Trail at the outbreak of the war. To raise funds baking contests were held in alternate months. Baked articles were then sold or drawn for and proceeds went for war work.

A new park at Robson on which the Institute had done a great deal of work, would be formally opened July 1. Disposal of garbage and care of the cemetery had been other projects during the past year.

Mrs. MacLachlan commended the baking contests and suggested other contests, such as darning socks, making button holes and so on.

HARROP WORKING STEADILY

Mrs. C. D. Ogilvie reported for the Harrop Institute that it had joined the Red Cross Society at the beginning of the war and was working steadily. A New Year's resolution had been to raise the membership from eight and make the year the best in the Institute's history. The Institute had staged a Valentine tea, had given to the Children's Christmas tree fund, and had given $5 to the West Arm Agricultural Fair.

Reporting for Fruitvale Institute Mrs. D. C. Mason said that progress had been made in improving the Community Hall and Mrs. MacLachlan congratulated the Institute for its efforts. Mrs. Mason told of the forest fire that wiped out seven homes in the Spring of 1939 and of the help in rebuilding the homes given by Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co., Ltd, workers at Trail.

DENTAL CLINIC, THRUMS

The Thrums Institute, with only nine members, was buying a pair of blankets for refugees, stated Mrs. R. W. Chalmers. It had worked with the Nelson Institute since war had broken out. Being a small Institute did not hamper its work for it was extremely active. A Dental Clinic had been successful with 26 children treated. The late Dr. H. E. Young, Provincial Health Officer, to whom many tributes were paid during the day, had financed half of $32 for work on the teeth of two children in a family where the father had been unable to pay. The father later obtained work and paid the other half of the cost.

The Institute gave a gold-colored quilt to a former Secretary of the Institute on her golden wedding day. On June 16, when King George VI called for a day of prayer, a successful prayer meeting was held at the home of a member.

Mrs. Chalmers said the Institute would hold a bee in September to prepare apples for drying for Government use, and offered to supply the apples.

19 WOOLEN COMFORTERS

The Slocan Valley Institute, including Passmore, Vallican and Slocan Park, had made 19 wool comforters for the members' own use, said Mrs. Gordon Strong. Over $30 had been cleared on the sale of one comforter. The members were so pleased with them that they planned to make more, carding their own wool. One woman made quilts out of men's suiting. The Institute had staged five dances to raise funds during the year.

The Crawford Bay Institute, along with hard work, had provided paper towels for the Crawford Bay school and helped to support a deaf child in school at Vancouver. It also had worked in the cemetery. Mrs. D. J. McLaughlin reported a membership of 40.

SALMO'S DENTAL CLINIC

Mrs. J. C. Hearn, youngest member in the Salmo Institute, stated that body had given a good deal to the Red Cross and helped in other ways, including aid to the Community Swimming Pool which was now under construction. For a Dental Clinic the Institute raised $150 to help to take care of 150 children. The parents paid $1.50 for each child in addition to the $150 that the Institute raised.

Eighty-three babies were examined at the Salmo Institute Baby Clinic, including a number from Sheep Creek. Gifts were given to each new baby. Mrs. Hearn said that efforts were being made to get younger women to join the Institute.

Mrs. William Postlewhaite, Secretary, reported that the Nelson Institute had turned over $103 to the Red Cross, this being the proceeds of a cooking school held at the Civic Centre. A total of $25 had been given to war work in other ways and this sum had been more than made up by a card party. The Institute enjoyed addresses by Mrs Alfred Watt, President of the Federated Country Women of the World; and by Mrs. Helga Saare of Nelson on Finland. At the Institute Baby Clinic 152 babies were registered in 1939. So far this year there were 140 registered, 51 of them being new babies.

200 CHILDREN RECEIVE EYE HELP

Mrs. H. H. Pitts, District Representative on the Provincial Board, told of the activities of the Mary E. Davidson Memorial Fund. It was started three years ago by a Kootenay man who had donated $2000 for the care of those suffering from poor eyesight. He had made provision in his will so that the fund should continue, she said. About 200 children had been treated so far, several serious operations being financed and glasses provided for a large number. She cited several cases of eye accidents which had been treated under the fund.

A Dental Clinic had been the main project of the Slocan City Institute in 1939, stated Mrs. M. J. Terry. Seventy-three children were treated, the cost totalling $430.

One girl had been sent to Nelson to obtain glasses under the Mary E. Davidson Memorial Fund. It was the intention of the Institute to start first aid classes in the Fall.

The Procter Institute had given 100 articles to the Red Cross and was continuing this work, reported Mrs. W. A. Ward. A good deal of work for school children had been done, including picnics, Christmas tree party, donation of $5 for prizes and so on. The Institute had also looked after the erection of a street light.

HELPED WITH SPORTS FIELD

Assistance in purchasing a South Slocan Sports Field was the main work of the Bonnington-South Slocan Institute during 1939, stated Mrs. O. W. Humphry. The title deed to the field would be held by the Institute until a Sports Association was incorporated.

It had purchased two pairs of blankets for refugees with funds from a military whist drive. Talks had been heard on cancer, Girl Guides, Women's Institute work, prevention of disease, and so on. The Institute sponsored the Girl Guide Company and Brownie Pack, and had put on the Christmas tree program at the school last year.

It had observed its 21st anniversary June 15 with a tea served by the directors.

Willow Point Institute had become an auxiliary to the Nelson Branch of the Red Cross and received its work materials from Nelson. It had given money toward the purchase of a blanket for the Red Cross. One of the activities was the sponsoring of the Girl Guide Company and Brownie Pack.

The Women's Institute House was used as headquarters for the voluntary registration of Canadian Women for National Service last Fall. Proceeds from carol singing had been given to the school Christmas Tree. A party had been given for a member leaving and one for a new member.

Institute Members Hear Leaders at Rally at Creston

CRESTON, B. C. — A well-attended rally of Women's Institute members from the organizations at Creston and Wynndel was held at the home of Mrs. H. A. Powell, Wednesday afternoon, on the occasion of a visit from Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan, Victoria, Superintendent of B. C. Women's Institutes, and Mrs. H. H. Pitts of Nelson the Kootenay-Boundary representative of the B. C. Women's Institutes' central executive.

The meeting was in charge of Mrs Pitts and was opened with a carefully prepared report on the activities of Creston and District Women's Institute since the first of the year, which was read by the Secretary Mrs. James Compton.

Mrs. Pitts spoke briefly, praising the local Institute on its showing for the past six months, and the valuable contribution it had made to Creston Valley's welfare work since its organization in 1915.

Mrs. Pitts expressed the opinion that with the greatly increased population in the valley, possibly the time was opportune to establish other Institutes She then introduced the superintendent.

Mrs. MacLachlan, who has been at the head of the work for the past 20 years, gave an interesting review of the varied activities of Institutes throughout the Province and pointed out several ways in which the usefulness of the organization could be extended.

She made a plea for the use of British Columbia products in the homes. Bringing the subject close home to a fruit district she assured eminent authorities agreed there was more food value in blackberries than in raisins, and that in the essential vitamins and calories the field turnip was superior to oranges.

There was a lively quarter-hour of questions at the close of the Superintendent's talk, after which Mrs. Powell, assisted by Institute members from Creston and Wynndel served tea.

During their stay in Creston Mrs. MacLachlan was guest of the local Institute President, Mrs. Charles Murrell, and Mrs. Pitts was house guest of Mrs. James Maxwell.

Creston Pool Being Prepared for July 1

CRESTON, B. C. — The swimming pool at Exhibition Park was opened for the season Sunday and has been generously patronized. The pool for the next five years will be handled by Creston Lion's Club, which is also assuming management of the Park and the Pavilion.

The club has provided the pool with a new 8-inch concrete bottom, new plank platforms at both ends, both of which are covered with burlap and are this week reshingling and fumigating the two dressing rooms.

Everything about the pool will be in shape for the Royal Life Saving Society display July 1. For the accommodation of spectators bleachers are to be erected at the pool.

At the semi-annual meeting of the Lion's Club, F. V. Staples was reelected President and H. Eastman Vice-President. K. Parsons was elected Secretary and R. Jacobs, Treasurer.

GERMANY OPENS TRADE OFFENSIVE IN S. AMERICA

BUENOS AIRES, June 26 (AP)—Germany has opened a "trade offensive" in lower South America to swing such nations as Argentina and Uruguay away from close economic and military cooperation with the United States, a well-informed source said today.

Agents of the Nazi Government have established contact with Argentine officials, bringing full authority from the Reich to negotiate gigantic barter deals, this informant asserted.

The Canadian dollar closed at its best rate since May 15, up .5 cent to $1.25 cents. (Ottawa Foreign Exchange Control Board rate 9.09-9.91 per cent discount). The Swiss franc held unchanged at 22.58 cents.

TORONTO MARKS UP NEW LOWS

TORONTO, June 26 (CP).—Scattered new lows for recent years were chalked up on Toronto Stock Exchange today with losses for the day ranging up to 1 to 2 points among the senior issues. Little better than 100,000 shares changed hands in the session.

Imperial Oil sold down ⅛ to 8⅛ and International Pete more than a point to 12⅝, both at new lows for a number of years. National Steel Car, Steel of Canada, Bell Telephone, Loblaw B, Ford A and Humberstone Shore dropped 1 to 2 and Canada Packers declined 7 to 65.

Noranda led base metals downward with a drop of 3⅝ points to 43¼. This is Noranda's low since 1937. Hudson Bay and Smelters were off ¾ to a point and Nickel weakened a minor fraction.

McIntyre posted a decline of 1½ to 38½ and Dome and Hollinger weakened fractions. The secondary golds maintained the downward slant, Wright-Hargreaves, Teck-Hughes, Pickle Crow, Little Long Lac, Cariboo, East Malartic, MacLeod-Cockshutt and Toburn being among the weak spots. Central Patricia and Preston held up.

Home Oil lost 5 to 1.45 and Foothills 2 to 30. Royalite was steady at 18.

Futures Neglected

WINNIPEG, June 26 (CP). — Traders completely neglected the wheat futures on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today. Quotations closed at their fixed minimum levels, July at 71⅝, October 73⅝ and December at 74⅝.

No trades were negotiated in wheat futures during the entire session.

A buoyant trend at Chicago, that boosted that market from early losses of more than a cent to a ¼-cent advance before the close, failed to influence support at Winnipeg.

The July future has rested since last Thursday on the pegged price of 71⅝ set by the Government on May 16.

Traders flocked into the coarse grain pit where prices have not been pegged but oats was the only heavy trader. Domestic and investment support sent that commodity up fractionally while barley, flax and rye remained at unchanged levels.

Cash wheat traders displayed interest in high grade Northerns for export account but transactions were confined to the odd carload. Price spreads were mostly unchanged.

Commodity Exchange to Close Saturday

NEW YORK, June 26 (CP)—All markets of commodity exchange, including rubber, hides, silk and metal futures, will close Saturdays for 10 weeks beginning July 6 and continuing through September 7, it was announced today.

Action of the exchange leaves only the cotton market and the securities exchanges operating locally on Saturday during July and August.

MAYOR CLAIMS DRIVES TO BUY WAR EQUIPMENT SHOULD NOT BE NEEDED

LONDON, Ont., June 26 (CP). — Acting Mayor Frank Hughes said today he is opposed to the granting of civic support to individual drives to buy particular pieces of war equipment.

"It is up to our Government to provide itself with adequate money to buy such equipment as it needs, be it more planes or more tanks," he said. "If latest taxation isn't sufficient, then another increase in taxes should be sought."

The acting mayor made his statement after a London Army and Navy Veteran's Unit announced it had decided to petition the City Council to inaugurate a civic fund to purchase a warplane for Canada's Home Defence Unit. The unit announced it is ready to donate $500 to such a fund.

SAYS NOVELIST KILLED

NEW YORK, June 26 (CP)—Hendrik Willem von Loon, American journalist and author, was quoted by the Herald Tribune today as saying that Franz Werfel, novelist and playwright, author of the famous novel, "The 40 Days of Musa Dagh," had been killed by the Germans in Paris.

Russia Adopts 7-Day Week, Speed Production

MOSCOW, June 26 (AP). — Because of increasing war danger and the need of greater production, the Soviet Russian Government adopted today a new working week—six days of work and a day of rest—to replace its revolutionary week of five working days and a day of rest on the sixth.

DEFENCE MEASURE

Abandonment of the six-day week, which was a feature of the changes wrought by the Bolshevist revolution, was recommended by the Soviet trade unions and adopted by the Government.

The Soviet radio said that the number of working hours had been increased in capitalistic countries, and added that "danger for our country also is increasing," and that it was, therefore, necessary to step up the number of working days and hours to improve the nation's defence.

The increase in the number of hours will differ according to the categories of the workers. For most the hours will be increased from seven to eight.

In a message to workers, technicians, engineers, office employees and members of the trade unions, the All Union Central Council of Trade Unions said:

"Throughout the capitalist world—Europe, Asia, America, Africa and Australia—industry and transportation facilities and agriculture have been fully subordinated to the interests of war.

"The screw of capitalist exploitation has been tightened to the limit, workers work 10, 12 and more hours a day, all Sundays and holidays have been abolished. Through this universal militarization of economy the imperialist states have tremendously increased the production of all armaments.

"Thus the war danger for our country has grown, and the international situation become fraught with surprises."

The Council declared "our country should not be less prepared for the production of armaments and other necessary goods than the capitalist countries are."

(The five-day week under which Soviet Russia heretofore has been operating is not to be confused with the "five-day week" familiar in North America. That is, the Soviet worker did not get two days off each week; he worked five days, rested one, and then worked another five days).

Street Shares Off

NEW YORK, June 26 (AP). — All varieties of shares slid lower in Wall Street trading today.

Steels and aircrafts felt the brunt of the pressure, but displayed resilience after losses of around two points. Near the close they improved from their worst. Transactions totalled about 700,000 shares.

The list of backward issues included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Harvester, Douglas, United Aircraft, Phelps Dodge Westinghouse Dow Chemical, Allied Chemical, Dupont, Eastman and Phillip Morris.

Among the more resistant were Standard Oil of N. J., American Telephone, Western Union, N. Y. Central, Packard and Glenn Martin. The last named ran counter to the general trend of aircrafts throughout the session.

The Canadian section was inactive, issues being unquoted or unchanged. In the bond market Canada 4s lost a point.

Creston Berry Crop Shortened

CRESTON, B. C. — The Creston valley strawberry season is well past the peak, but berries will be moving in carloads from Wynndel for the balance of the week. Ten days of continued sunshine has shortened the crop and the outgo will be considerably less than the early-season estimated 40,000 crates.

Along with the heat, root rot and weevil have taken a considerable toll of the 1940 crop.

The refrigerator truck service with strawberries has been extended to Saskatoon with satisfactory results, and is sure to be a factor in the movement of the cherry crop, which will open next week.

Raspberries got on the shipping list Tuesday, but movement is confined to the odd crate or half-dozen lots. These should be coming in volume by the first of the week, and there is a likely crop on the vines if the required rains are forthcoming.

Gooseberries are plentiful, but the much-preferred English variety will not be coming in for another week. These are in great demand and growers are urged to hold them until well-sized and colored.

Black currants have also reached selling agencies, and growers are asked to give them plenty of time to color. These are being shipped in strawberry crates this season.

A few crates of Black Tartarians, Mercers and Early Richmond cherries have already moved, and Bings are due in limited volume by the first of the week. The trade has been advised the 1940 crop is considerably below the five-year average, and will not be more than 75 per cent of normal. The estimate is for 7000 crates, which may be realized if no rain falls in the picking season.

Local gardeners are supplying the home trade with cabbage, cauliflower and carrots. The market is good for the limited supply of head lettuce offering. Creston Co-Operative Fruit Exchange reports one grower still delivering asparagus which is meeting a ready demand in the immediate Crow.

Calgary Oils Gain

CALGARY, June 26 (CP). — Oil issues in the medium and cheaper ranges added gains of fractions to 10 points on Calgary Stock Exchange today. Transfers 2610 shares.

C. & E. was 10 up at 1.25, United ¾ to 4, and Royal Canadian ¼ to 14½. Globe lost 1¼.

111 PUPILS RECEIVE GRADUATION DIPLOMAS AT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Closing Exercises Are Held Wednesday Morning

The spirit of war cast its foreboding shadow over graduation exercises Wednesday morning for the first time in the history of the Nelson Junior High School when 111 members of this year's Grade IX class received their graduation diplomas from Flody L. Irwin, Principal.

"Many of us will now become separated as we leave the doors of this school," said Coral Sahara in her valedictory address. "Most will continue our education, but it means the end of school for some, perhaps to go to war," revealing that one student, Tommy Wallace of IXB, had already enlisted in the service of His Majesty.

"The happy holiday season is here at last," Mayor N. C. Stibbs told the large student body of three grades and visitors. "Dark days are with us," he reminded, "but I hope not for long." He held hopes for brighter days to come, in the form of peace, and trusted the students, the older ones more particularly, would seek to take part in some patriotic endeavor in these trying times.

Winners of the Macdonald scholarships, provided by the late Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald, were Betty Dronsfield and Walter Uchacz, for their outstanding achievement during the year in citizenship, sportsmanship, service and as scholars. Each received $25. Special awards of $15 in War Saving Stamps were given by the staff to Coral Sahara and David Webster, who placed closed seconds to the scholarship winners.

VIKINGS WIN

In a close competition with the other two houses, especially the Spartans, who were nosed out by one point, the Vikings with 146 points won the House award for top athletic work and citizenship during the term. Normans placed third with 138. Alsid Desireau, Vikings' House President, accepted the Trophy from Mayor Stibbs, who was in charge of the presentations. Letter awards were given to Viola Smiley, Margaret Goggin, George Hoover, Bob Morrow, Coral Sahara, Effie Small, Leslie Brown and Betty Dronsfield of the Spartans; Nora Anderson, Walter Uchacz, Hazel Nelson and Rosalie Triggs of the Vikings; and John Maglio of the Normans. Selected by the staff, James Balding and Billy Wetterhaus were named Junior Fire Wardens.

FINE COOPERATION

Speaking for the last time to the graduates, Mr. Irwin said he felt he had to make another valedictory address, only he would include the 15 teachers with the graduating class. He believed the basic cause for the success attained by the Grade IX's during the past year was the manner in which teachers and pupils cooperated, and the certificates which he presented were positive proof. It was not a case of teacher teaching student, he pointed out, but rather the teacher and the student working together. The same fellowship, which existed between children of a like age, also was extended between them and their teachers.

In past years it has been the practice of the graduating class to present a picture as a gift to the school, but this June it was decided to help both the school and the country by presenting the school with three $4 war Savings Certificates, a total of $12, which would eventually be worth $15. Jack Steed handed Mr. Irwin the class' gift. Mr. Irwin said the certificates would be framed with suitable inscriptions.

Miss Sahara, Valedictorian, extended sincere thanks on behalf of her class for "the everlasting patience with which they have guided us." She wished the incoming House bodies success and entrusted the school to the new Grade IX's.

"We have been given a fine academic training during our three years here, but most important of all we have learned to become good citizens," she said.

NEW COUNCILS

Heading the 1940-41 Students Council will be Joan Thompson, President; William Postlethwaite, Vice-President; and George Hoover, Secretary. They were elected by the student body. The House Executives, elected by the individual Houss, and who will complete the Students Council, are Robert Ahrens, Leslie Horlick, and Joan Nagle of the Spartans; Barbara McLennan, Sheila Gallaher and Lucille Carter of the Normans, and Robina Day, Hazel Nelson and Margaret McLennan of the Vikings. They are President, Vice-President and Secretary respectively of their Houses. Mr. Irwin led them in taking their oaths of office.

Completing the program were choral group selections, Grade VIII boys, "The Shepherd Boy" and "God of the Nations"; Grade VIII girls, "Shepherds and Maidens" and Brahms' "The Little Sandman"; Grade VII boys, "A-Hunting We Will Go" and "Jog On"; Grade VII girls, "Echo Song" and "Clouds"; and in an informal group, the Grade IX special music class, J. M. Gibson's "Canoe Song", J. M. Gibson's "The Mountain Stream", "The Seagull" and "There'll Always Be An England". Miss Enid Etter was conductor and Miss Elizabeth Carrie accompanied on the piano.

Health Unit May Be Started In Area
Miss Dunn Tells the Institute Rally

A public health unit might be started in Nelson in the Fall, Miss Nancy Dunn, Public Health Nurse, told the Nelson District Women's Institute Rally at Lakeside Park Tuesday. She suggested that all Institute write to Dr. Amyott, the new Provincial Health Officer, asking that he visit the district in the Fall to tell them about the proposed health unit. A health unit was composed of a public health officer and public health nurses. Miss Dunn participated in starting such a unit in the Peace River District abut six years ago and it was now progressing favorably.

She stressed the importance of a public health nurse in the community.

The nurse must have knowledge of many fields of science and medicine; she must spend three years in hospital training; she must take a board examination; she must spend from one to three years in university; and after that she must gain experience. One of the most valuable persons in the community was the public health nurse.

The child was the "main plank" in the work of the nurse. Association with the child began before it was born through acquaintance with the mother. After that came his care and the establishment of feeding and habit training. This was the reason for well baby clinics.

Miss Dunn then gave directions for keeping milk cool. She advocated putting the milk bottle on an overturned saucer in a pan containing about half an inch of water, with a cloth over the bottle and allowed to hang in the water. A draught would speed evaporation and keep the milk cool.

PRE-SCHOOL AGE NEGLECTED

A much neglected class of children were those of pre-school age, from two to six years old. All preventive work such as vaccination against smallpox, toxoid against diphtheria, and administration of whooping cough serum should be given before the child went to school.

Baby teeth were important. They should be brushed night and morning and should be filled when cavities occurred, for decayed teeth carried germs to the stomach and caused infection. These teeth should be left in the mouth until they were ready to come out, allowing the permanent teeth room to come through straight.

She stressed also the importance of care of the tonsils during this period. A child should be sent to school minus defects, for it meant much to his mental and physical development.

In the tuberculosis division of public health service there was a great deal of work to be done in the home and clinic In rural areas all emergency work was done by the nurse.

Home nursing classes also were stressed In some areas bedside nursing was done, Miss Dunn said, but this depended on the size of the area and the financial background of the patient.

MUST KNOW FAMILY

Th nurse must have a thorough knowledge of the home and background to deal with children. She played an interesting part in public organization.

"Times are serious, I know, but there is still the home front and children must carry on what we leave in this great heritage of ours —Canada," Miss Dunn said. "It is up to us to go after what we want. The saying persists that from little acorns tall oaks grow' and I maintain that the hand that rocks the cradle still rules the world."

Miss Dunn tendered a vote of thanks for her address.

She distributed circulars dealing with nutritious foods for school children's lunches. The circulars suggested diets for lunch box menus and gave a list of foods rich in different elements necessary to a balanced diet.
