RUSS THROW 1,500,000 MEN INTO ASSAULT

90 Divisions Open Great Offensive On Southern Front

Germans Claim Waves of Dive Bombers Sent Against Russ on Central Front; Russ Also Smash at Northern Lines

By NOLAND NORGAARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 12 (AP)—The Soviet Southern armies were reported attacking 1,500,000 strong tonight on the Southern front from the Sea of Azov Northward of Kharkov in the Ukraine and other great Russian offensives were breaking the German lines at vital points all the way up to Lake Ilmen on the front South of Leningrad.

In the South, Marshal Timoshenko was declared to have cast more than 90 armored and infantry divisions into the great struggle, his immediate objectives being Kharkov, Stalino and Taganrog and his apparent ultimate aim to throw the invader back across the Dnieper River, tearing from him every lodgment from which he might attempt to mount a fair-weather drive toward the Caucasus oil fields.

Tonight's regular Soviet communique said "our troops, breaking the resistance of the German Fascists, continued to advance and in certain sectors of the front occupied several populated places."

Advices from the front said the Russians had broken strongly held German lines at several places and seized two large junction points in two days of deadly fighting that forced the Nazis to call vainly on reserves.

Exact locations were not identified.

Simultaneously, heavy Soviet tank forces were smashing ahead in the Orel sector 250 miles north of Kharkov.

ADMIT BREAK-THROUGH

The German High Command admitted over the Berlin radio that the Russians had broken through the line northeast of Orel and that the mass attack had put the Germans entirely on the defensive.

On the central front, Red Army dispatches said heavy offensive blows had endangered the German positions in a vast area north of the key city of Smolensk, costing the Nazis tremendously in lives, munitions and food.

London sources expressed belief that the Russians finally had breached the defence works of Rzhev, one of the keystones of the whole elaborate system by which Hitler had hoped to hold a deep salient aimed towards Moscow.

Fresh dispatches from the central front today said the Germans now were trying frantically to defend themselves in fields and forests as well as in fortified settlements.

An early cleanup of the whole Staraya Russa area before the Germans can mass sufficient relief forces was declared by qualified sources in London to be an essential part of the Soviet program.

This would free two or three Russian Army Corps and would permit of a quick thrust westward towards Lake Peipus.

Such an operation would expose the flank and rear of all the German armies besieging Leningrad and holding the Volkhov-Lake Ladoga front.

BERLIN (From German Broadcasts), March 12 (AP)—The German radio claimed tonight the German Air Force has sent waves of dive bombers against Soviet tanks and infantry concentrating for attacks on the Central Russian front.

The radio claimed dive bombers destroyed 36 heavy tanks and silenced two heavy artillery batteries.

CANADA SETS UP UNIFORM PRICES FOR NEW AUTOS

To Cut Differences in Prices Across Country

TO REDUCE PRICES

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP) — A new price policy under which a uniform pricing system for automobiles has been established over Canada, was announced tonight by the Munitions and Supply Department.

One source said the order would mean lower prices for automobiles at points in the East and West most distant from automobile plants.

While addition of freight charges to the uniform price will result in variation of prices across the country the differences will not be as great as at present, it was predicted.

After March 16 every purchaser of a new motor vehicle will pay the same price, apart from freight charges, for any given model of any given make, regardless of where in Canada the sale is made.

The new order was issued by J. H. Berry, motor vehicle controller, approved by R. C. Berkinshaw, as chairman of the Wartime Industries Control Board and concurred in by Donald Gordon, chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

"To the established retail price at the manufacturer's plant, or at his headquarters in Canada, the dealer will add a charge to cover an agreed transportation cost from the factory to the dealers' location, plus a charge of $25 per passenger car or motorcycle, or $35 per truck or bus, to cover the unloading and the servicing that is necessary before sale," the statement said.

Production of passenger automobiles for civilian use has been ordered halted effective March 31, automatically limiting the number of cars to which the uniform price can be applied.

Motorcycles and trucks, to which the order also applies, will still be manufactured but production is being reduced and capacity of plants engaged in manufacturing these vehicles will be devoted largely to meeting war needs.

EAST KOOTENAY SENATOR MAY BECOME LEADER

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—Senator J. H. King (Lib., British Columbia) has been Acting Government Leader of the Senate whenever Senator Dandurand has been absent and this gave rise to speculation here today following Senator Dandurand's death that the East Kootenay Senator is likely to succeed him.

The Senate Leader is named by the Government of the day rather than by the Liberal Senators themselves and it has been the custom for the leader to be a Minister Without Portfolio in the Cabinet.

The Senate stands adjourned until March 17.

Jap Radio Seized in Mexico Raids

MEXICO CITY, March 12 (AP)—The Mexican General Staff announced today that several arrests had been made and a clandestine radio operated by a Japanese had been seized in the United States border state of Coahuila.

The radio station was seized near Rosita, a mining town, after it was traced by experts from the federal communications ministry.

No Truth to Rumor of Coming Jump in Butter

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—The Wartime Prices and Trade Board, in a statement intended to allay 'rumors' that the board intended to increase butter prices April 1 and exempt butter from the maximum prices regulations, said tonight butter is under the price ceiling and will remain there.

"There is no foundation in fact for either of these rumors," the statement said.

JAPS PAUSE AS 13 SHIPS KNOCKED OUT BY PLANES

Allied Air Power Is Preparing New Attacks

CANBERRA, March 12 (CP). — The Japanese, having suffered heavy losses among their initial invasion fleets in the waters of New Guinea North of the Australian mainland, appeared today to be taking breath for new efforts to consolidate and extend their positions on that island.

Allied air power, which was declared here to have dislocated the enemy's time table in two days of strong, running counter-offensive, meantime was being marshalled for heavier attacks, particularly in defence of Port Moresby, the Southernmost major New Guinea harbor lying only 300 miles above Cape York in Australia proper.

There was no further word of new enemy convoys previously reported heading for Port Moresby.

A recapitulation indicated today that at least 13 enemy transports had been knocked out off New Guinea and nearby New Britain. (This apparently was arrived at by consolidating the enemy's more recent losses off New Guinea with those inflicted earlier in his landings on New Britain.)

The known and officially confirmed score off New Guinea itself—this in the area of the Northeastern port of Salamaua — remained at seven enemy ships sunk, breached or burned, although it was believed that two additional vessels were damaged.

Port Moresby again was raided by the enemy yesterday, it was added, but anti-aircraft guns kept the attackers at a high level and there were no casualties.

Australians declared that the nearer the enemy approaches to the mainland, the more he narrowed the range of planes based in Northern Australia and thus the greater would be the punishment inflicted upon him.

Victoria Cross for Dead Airman Hero

LONDON, March 13 (Friday) (CP Cable)—FO. Kenneth Campbell, 24, member of the Royal Air Force volunteer reserve, has been awarded the Victoria Cross posthumously for his suicide torpedo attack on a battlecruiser, possibly the Scharnhorst, at Brest on April 6, 1941.

Neither Campbell nor the crew of his Beaufort, including the navigator, Sgt. James P. Scott of Toronto, returned from the water-skimming flight carried out in the face of point blank fire from anti-aircraft ships about the cruiser and a heavy concentration of anti-aircraft guns on the hills overlooking the harbor.

AXIS STORES IN BRAZIL SMASHED BY WILD CROWDS

"Kill Them!" "Dogs!" "Traitors!" Yell Thousands

ASSETS OF AXIS SEIZED BY GOV'T.

RIO DE JANEIRO, March 12—(AP).—Furious throngs of Brazilians stormed big German department stores and other Axis enterprises on Rio's main avenues today in hours of rioting after this largest Latin American republic had advanced to the edge of war by seizing many assets of German, Japanese and Italian subjects.

Inflamed by the sinking of four Brazilian ships, crowds shattered the show windows of German department stores, ripped out window and counter displays and forced other German firms to run up Brazilian flags.

Thousands milled in the broad thoroughfares, shouting "kill them!" "Traitors!" "Dogs!"

A sudden rainstorm and some 2500 civil and military police finally dispersed the crowds in late afternoon after they had stormed German and Japanese businesses, causing heavy damage and injuring a few Axis nationals.

GUARD BIG BANKS

Police guarded the big German banks, Banco Allemao Transatlantico and the Banco Germanico America Do Sul in the centre of Rio's financial district. They were equipped with sub-machine guns, tear gas guns and other Rio equipment. About 50 other Axis-owned or controlled business establishments, which were attacked or damaged in the afternoon, also were guarded.

However, authorities were most gentle with the demonstrators and made little effort to aid several Germans and Japanese who were manhandled during the day.

The demonstrations started shortly afternoon before the "Casa Lohner" owned by Germans. Passersby snatched up paving blocks and hurled them through a show window.

Suddenly a customer, apparently a German, appeared in a doorway and shouted: "Viva Allemanha!" (Long live Germany!)

This set off a spreading melee. Police extricated the customer from the angry pedestrians.

In the morning President Getulio Vargas, declaring Germany, Japan and Italy were "united in aggression," ordered various percentages of Axis assets confiscated in reprisal for the ship sinkings.

Axis subjects with fund or credits of more than $100 were directed to surrender 10 per cent of amounts up to $1000; 20 per cent up to $5000 and 30 per cent of all great sums.

These funds will be held as a guarantee of indemnity for Brazil's losses.

WINNIPEG, March 12 (CP). — Members of the Winnipeg Grain Exchanges were notified by the Exchange President, S. A. Searle, today that the Canadian Wheat Board is prepared to take over open May wheat futures as of April 30, 1942, at 79⅛ cents cents a bushel.

The announcement followed notice from the Board March 6 that open wheat futures would be taken over "on or before July 31, 1942."

Mrs. Nielsen Does Not Like Wheat Plan

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—Mrs. Dorise Nielsen (Unity North Battleford) tonight said in the House of Commons she could not approve the governments legislative program for the 1942 wheat crop.

"I find it impossible to see where this policy is in the best interests of speedy prosecution of the war," she said.

GNEISENAU HAS HEAVY DAMAGES FROM BOMBINGS

R.A.F. to Carry War to Huns Despite Short Nights

LOTS OF TARGETS IN WESTERN AREA

By DOUGLAS AMARON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 12 (CP Cable)—An official source disclosed tonight that the battleship Gneisenau, which escaped to a German haven in the Dover Straits battle of Feb. 12 was badly battered and is undergoing repairs in a dry-dock.

The same source indicated that improved and faster types of bombers will carry the war to the Nazis despite the approach of shorter nights of Spring and Summer.

"There will be plenty of targets in the West to bomb no matter how long the war continues," this source said, scouting a suggestion that Germany is moving heavy industries eastward.

Even in peacetime it would take years to effect such a movement, this source said.

Photographs have disclosed, that the 26,000-ton Gneisenau, now at Kiel, has had her deck plating removed from turret "A" forward to her bow. Plating has also been removed on the port side of turret "B".

It is possible, he added, that the bomb damage is deeper than one deck down.

Concerning the continuing air offensive, the source said:

"The full-scale raids on Germany have started. The Essen attacks are comparable in weight to raids on Coventry, if not heavier . . . the total tonnage of bombs dropped on Germany is approaching the tonnage Germany dropped on the United Kingdom. Possibly within two months the R.A.F. will exceed the Luftwaffe bombs ton for ton."

The broad strategy dominating the Bomber Command's choice of targets has been that which is of best help to Russia and to the Royal Navy in the Battle of the Atlantic.

The sources emphasized the Royal Air Force's numerical parity with Germany in the light of the extent of the war round the world. The R.A.F. of necessity is dispersed by demands in the Far and Middle East.

HEAVY FIGHTING GOING ON IN CHINA

CHUNGKING, March 12 (AP)—The Chinese reported tonight that heavy fighting still is going on in the Shanhsien-Tingtai-Hotsieh area in Southwest Shantung Province, in North China, with both sides suffering heavy casualties.

Ten thousand Japanese troops attacked Chingsa positions Northeast of Tangtao, and the Chinese are resisting stubbornly, a communique said.

SINK FOUR SHIPS IN ATTACKS IN CARIBBEAN AREA

Survivors See Axis Supply Ship for Submarines

SHELL STEAMSHIP

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—Sinking of four vessels in or near the Caribbean area was disclosed today and survivors of one told of seeing a craft which they believed was a supply ship for Axis submarines.

The lost ships were the United States steamship Oregon, two vessels identified only as a medium sized British tanker and a small Swedish freighter, and a fourth described merely as a "vessel."

Two men were known to be dead as a result of the attacks and perhaps 11 missing.

The craft identified only as "a vessel" was torpedoed last Friday off the Bahams. British authorities at Nassau announced that 38 survivors reached that port Saturday, to be met at the docks by the Duke of Windsor, Governor of the Colony.

One member of the crew was killed in the torpedo explosion and another died before the party of survivors was brought to Nassau.

Cuban authorities permitted disclosure that the Oregon had been shelled and sunk some 50 miles off Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic. Ten survivors were landed at Baracoa, Cuba, by the guardian of the West Indies Frit Company's fleet. Sixteen others were reported landed at Puerto Plata.

Here in Washington the Navy Department announced the torpedoing in the Caribbean area of the British tanker and Swedish freighter. Subsequently, District Naval Headquarters at San Juan, Puerto Rico, authorized publication of further details including the arrival there last Monday of 83 survivors— the entire personnel of both ships.

Capt. A. Henney, master of the tanker, was quoted as saying he had seen what was perhaps a submarine mother ship.

Warn Against Restricting Acreage; War May Make Wheat Great Asset

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—Warnings against undue curtailment of wheat acreage and depletion of wheat stocks were heard in the House of Commons today from Gilbert Weir (Lib. MacDonald), a Western farmer with a training in scientific agriculture, and T. L. Church (Con. Toronto-Broadview), a city lawyer.

Mr. Church said he feared there might be less labor available for farms later on and that cutting down production now might be a mistake. Mr. Weir said he thought a substantial wheat reserve should be maintained as it was the only food product which could be accumulated and stored.

"I am opposed to the policy of restricting acreage," said Mr. Church, "because in my opinion it is a great mistake in the present condition of the world.

"In a short time you may not be able to find manpower to work the farms of Canada because the average city man is no use on the farm."

He expressed regret that large quantities of Canadian wheat had not been moved to Great Britain and stored there before the war when ships were available.

"My own view is that we should not deplete our wheat stocks," said Mr. Weir. "In other activities in connection with the war we are using up our production as fast as it can be brought forward.

"Apparently wheat is the only thing that we can stock as a reserve. It may be one of the best assets we could possibly have—probably the only tangible asset when this war is over. I think we should attempt to keep a reasonable carryover of grain in this country."

Prime Minister Mackenzie King and other party leaders spoke in appreciation of Rt. Hon. Raoul Dandurand, Government Leader in the Senate who died here last night.

Canadian Weapons Play Big Part in Russian War; Exports Jump Sharply

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—Canadian weapons are playing an increasingly important part in the Battle of Russia, with Canadian exports to that country valued at almost $4,000,000 in February against $2,743,000 in January, Trade Minister MacKinnon announced tonight.

Indicative of Canadian support given nations fighting Japan, Germany and Italy were goods valued at $6,730,000 sent to India in February, $4,902,000 to Australia, $17,000,000 to Egypt and $3,297,000 to Iraq, all representing sharp advances over previous exports to these countries.

Mr. MacKinnon said total exports for February were valued at $165,519,000, $16,000,000 more than in January and about $67,000,000 more than in February last year. Goods sent to the United Kingdom were valued at $59,282,000 or $4,296,000 more than in January.

"Bren guns, other guns, tanks, tractors, universal carriers and other carriers of all descriptions needed in war are going to the battlefronts and are being accompanied by huge quantities of food for the men and women who are manning the defences of civilization," Mr. MacKinnon said.

U. S. Sub Sinks Three Freighters, Cargo Ship; Two Seaplanes Downed

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP)—A United States submarine venturing deep into Japanese territory was reported officially today to have sunk three enemy freighters and a passenger-cargo ship, raising to 149 the total of vessels of all types damaged or destroyed by United States forces in the Western Pacific.

This latest blow at Japan's ability to keep her far-flung forces supplied was matched moreover, by a simultaneous announcement that two Japanese fourengined seaplanes had been intercepted by American fighters west of Midway Island Tuesday and one was shot down.

The only cost of these actions to United States forces was the damaging of one fighter plane, and the wounding of its pilot, who managed, however, to return safely to the base on Midway Island.

Today's was the first word of enemy activity in the vicinity of Midway, 1,300 miles northwest of Pearl Harbor, since Jan. 29, when a Navy communique said two Japanese submarines had been driven off by artillery fire which damaged one of the raiders.

Recognize Danger, Remember Stakes Put Everything Into Fight, Canadian Head of Salvation Army Urges Nelson

"Whatever comes let's recognize the danger, let's remember what we have at stake, let us nerve ourselves and say we shall not fail—let us know everything we have into the fight."

This was the message of Commissioner Benjamin Orames of Toronto, territorial commander for the Salvation Army in Canada, Newfoundland, Bermuda and Alaska, when he spoke Thursday night at a public meeting at the Capitol Theatre.

He urged a whole-hearted effort to "convert the death rattle of our times into the birth pangs of a new and better order—the one enunciated by Christ.—When men embrace that teaching shall we see the realization of the great song sung that first Christmas morn—'Peace on Earth, Goodwill to Men'."

Commissioner Orames described the Union Jack as a flag combining three crosses and asked: "Shall the flag of the three crosses continue to fly at the masthead or shall it be replaced by the crooked cross?"

GREAT LOSSES BUT MUCH REMAINS

The empire had suffered great losses in materials, men, and money, but it still held "precious, priceless freedom." It still had their majesties, fighting forces constantly growing stronger, regiments of laboring men and skilled artisans, women workers, British determination and bulldog tenacity.

"The men with fortitude and heart will win. Our people have that," he declared.

The empire still had the man for the hour, Winston Churchill, with a great fire burning in his heart. Its universities, clubs, churches, banks, trade unions, parliaments, post offices were open and operating. It had a free platform and free radio. It had the friendship and aid of the United States.

"And God remains — the God who delivered the children of Israel—the God of the nations is still on the side of the nation that is trying to do right."

"Keep your hearts up, your zeal intense and your chins up," the speaker demanded.

SPEAKERS, CHOIR AND TRAIL BAND ASSIST

Mayor N. C. Stibbs was chairman. Brigadier Matt Junker of Vancouver, Divisional Commander for B. C. led opening hymns; Brigadier Alfred Keith, National Young Peoples Secretary, led in prayer; Rev. J. G. Holmes read the scripture lesson; and Rev. H. R. Stovell pronounced the benediction.

C. B. Garland welcomed the Commissioner and W. A. Harrison thanked him. Capt. W. M. Graham expressed appreciation to those who helped in staging the meeting.

The Canadian legion band of Trail conducted by Rowland H. Hill led the singing of hymns and anthems, and played the familiar "Swords and Shields" march.

On the stage Trinity Girls' Choir and High School Girls' Glee Club, directed by Miss Amelia Hanna and accompanied by Miss Evelyn Gunn, sang "Land of Hope and Glory." Trinity Choir sang "O God of Love".

Appearing on the platform, besides those who spoke, were Ald. R. A. Mann, Mrs. John Cartmel, Miss Vera B. Eidt, W. R. Grubbe, L. E. L. Bailey, J. R. McLennan, Mrs. C. W. Tyler and Sgt. Frank Lloyd.

Laundry Fire Loss $18,000; Smiley Building Damage $600; Two Firemen Have Eye Injuries and Chief Hurt

Building losses in the Nelson Laundry and Dry Cleaners fire at midnight Wednesday were approximately $18,600, consisting of $18,000 in the laundry building, which was totally destroyed and $600 in the nearby Kootenay Apartment building, which was scorched. No estimate has been made of losses in laundry and clothing.

The Laundry was the property of H. Corbin, Nelson, and Max Woogman, Rossland, who took it over about a year ago. The apartment building is owned by J. W. Smiley. Burned awnings, scorched woodwork and a damaged roof comprised the majority of the damage to the Apartments. The Vogue Studio occupying the ground floor of Mr. Smiley's building, suffered minor losses in the rapid removal and subsequent replacement of material and equipment.

LAUNDRY PARTLY COVERED

Loss on the laundry is partly covered, and on the Kootenay Apartments is fully covered. Owners of laundry and clothing will be unable to claim damages, it is understood.

Fire Chief G. A. McDonald stated Thursday the alarm was turned in at 11:55 p.m. Wednesday.

A number of persons phoned in alarms, but Kerby Grenfell was first. Cyril Edgington, W. W. Wait and Archie Malcolm also phoned the department.

Firemen remained on the job long after the crowd dispersed. Chief McDonald remained until 3:30 a.m. During Thursday firemen periodically returned to the scene to wet down the charred remnants and this will continue today.

Firemen who fought the blaze believing there were 500 gallons of gasoline in the building learned Thursday it was not gas but cleaner's solvent. Mr. Corbin warned the fire chief at an early stage that the liquid was in the building and at a late stage, when the main fire was out, the firement continued to pour water into the basement to make sure all flames were extinguished, believing liquid stored there was gasoline. On Thursday, however, it was established that it was cleaner's solvent, with a flash point of 110 compared with zero for gasoline.

THREE ARE HURT

The solvent caused injuries to Jack Bell, Fireman, and Donald Bush, a volunteer helper. Chief McDonald suffered an elbow injury. This is to be X-rayed to determine whether any bones are broken.

A.R.P. volunteers who have been training as auxiliary firemen joined firemen and volunteers in fighting the flames, thus obtaining their baptism of fire.

Cause of the fire has not yet been established. The building was vacant for approximately 5½ hours before the alarm was sounded.

There were many sidelights to the fire: Empty streets filled rapidly. Apartment tenants who had watched the fire from their windows for a time were evacuated in a matter of minutes by volunteers who helped them move furniture and personal effects into the West Transfer building. Horses in the Transfer building, made nervous by the glow of the flames, were moved to the Transfer wagon shed on Hendryx Street, but still were nervous there and did considerable neighing.

Mrs. Kline and children, occupying a basement suite in the Apartment, appeared to be in danger of being flooded out, but friends helped them to get out. Volunteers who helped Robert Nelson move photographic equipment out of the Vogue Studio failed to close a sliding panel protecting printing paper, but fortunately the cupboard was nearly empty and little paper was "fogged."

Most dolorous spectators were those who had sent household laundry and suits and clothing to be cleaned. Stevenson's machine-shop across the narrow lane at the rear of the laundry building, was protected by a concrete wall and although it was the building closest to the burning building, apparently was not damaged.

Trail, Kimberley to Play for Right to Meet Navy Team for B. C. Crown

CALGARY, March 12 (CP) — Eliminated from the A.B.C. Senior Amateur Hockey League, Trail Smoke Eaters and Kimberley Dynamiters are scheduled to open a best of three game semi-final British Columbia Hockey Championship series at the Smeltjer City Friday night.

This information was given to The Albertan tonight by Jim Little, Secretary and Business Manager of the Taril club which left for home tonight.

SO MUCH PIFFLE

"Early this morning I was advised by long distance from Trail that Smoke Eaters had to be home to engage Dynamiters Friday night," stated Mr. Little. "It is supposed to be a semi-final series with the winner advancing into the B. C. finals against the Navy Club of Victoria. Seems like so much piffle to me.

"Smoke Eaters were eliminated fairly and squarely by Stampeders in the A.B.C. League semi-finals and in my opinion they are not entitled to a second chance to advance into Allan Cup competition.

"But if the C.A.H.A. is determined that Kimberley is to be given this chance, I guess Trail has no alternative but to go ahead and demonstrate that Smoke Eaters are the best senior hockey club in British Columbia. And don't be surprised if we are back in Calgary to play Stampeders in the Western finals of the Allan Cup. And wouldn't that be a real one!"

MAY PLAY SATURDAY

It is believed that Little was in error when he said in Calgary that Trail and Kimberley would play Friday night as B. C. midget and inter-provincial junior hockey is already scheduled at Trail tonight. Possibly the senior game will be played Saturday night.

Stamps, Leafs, Meet Saturday

CALGARY, March 12 (CP). — A.B.C. Senior Amateur Hockey League final will open at Victoria Arena Saturday night between Calgary Stampeders and Lethbridge Maple Leafs.

At the suggestion of Dr. W. G. Hardy, Edmonton, past president of the C. A. H. A., the teams plan a best-of-seven playoff but before this can definitely be decided a vote must be taken among C. A. H. A. executive to authorize setting back of other playoff dates which may be affected by a long series in Alberta.

Men Called to Service May Receive Leave Under Amended Regulations

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—Men called for compulsory military training who have been enrolled less than three months may be granted leave of absence for sufficient reason under amended reserve army regulations tabled in the House of Commons today by Defence Minister Ralston.

Agricultural organizations and some members of the House have asked for steps to provide that Agricultural production shall not be hampered through calling men to military service when their place in farming operations is of vital importance.

The amending Order-in-Council tabled by Col. Ralston provides that the leave may be granted "upon such circumstances, reasons or grounds being established as would have entitled him when called out ab initio to postponement of the commencement of his training" by reasons of existing provisions.

He may also obtain leave by reason "of extreme hardship to those dependent upon such man."

The man desiring leave must first apply in writing to his Office Commanding, giving the reasons on which the application is based, together with statements corroborating the facts. The application will be made by statutory declaration or attestation under oath and will be transmitted with the recommendation of the Officer Commanding to the District Commanding, who may forward it with his recommendation, to the appropriate National War Service Board.

The Board may review the case and make recommendation to the District Officer Commanding as to the period of leave which may be granted. The proviso is made that whenever the exigencies of the military situation require leave be curtailed or refused, the District Officer Commanding may refer the Board's recommendation to National Defence Headquarters for final decision.

In addition to such applications, the War Services Boards will be authorized to head applications for leave on similar grounds from personnel of the active Army as are referred to them b ythe Adjutant-General, Maj.-Gen. H. F. G. Letson.

When a soldier appears before a board for the hearing of his case he will do so at his own expense.

Another amendment provided for in the order set forth that when a man has been enrolled under the National Resources Mobilization Act, he must advise the District Officer Commanding of his new military district of any change in address. In advising the officer, he must give both his old and new address, his regimental number and times and places of service.

SERIAL STORY . . . . . By JERRY BRONDFIELD

No Refuge From Love

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

KURT WILHELM pursed his lips and blew a thin cloud of smoke ceilingward. He watched it intently for a few seconds with narrowed eyes.

"What I am doing here is not quite a point for public information," he said. "What I want with you? That is something different." He took Molla's hand in his, perhaps to relive old times. Perhaps I can make you forget—certain things. When I discovered you were in America, Molla, it felt good here." He put his fist over his heart."

"No, Kurt. No. That can never be again. Some things I will never forget, nor forgive, Kurt."

"Then you hate me?"

"It's no longer hate, although I did hate you once for what you did. You—". She shrugged. "Now, I simply regard it as part of a horrible nightmare. You're an intelligent man, Kurt, you should understand."

"I do," he said. "I would be a hypocrite if I didn't say I do not blame you. But I thought perhaps you would see the light. Just as millions of others are seeing it."

"Light? They see no light, Kurt. Only here in America do people see light."

He ground his cigaret into an ash tray. "You sound like a silly school girl who has had propaganda shoved down her throat."

Molla laughed out loud. "Look who speaks of propaganda being forced on people," she said bitterly.

He smiled, but it wasn't a nice smile which flitted over his handsome features.

"Even if I could, I wouldn't force my attentions upon you, at least not sentimental attentions."

"That is what I mean, Kurt," she said slowly. "That is what I want to know. There are some things you are not telling me."

"When the time comes I shall tell you. There may be certain little ways you can help me while I am in New York. Needless to say I shall expect your cooperation."

"There is no way in which I can help you, Kurt."

His voice was grim. "Yes there are . . . and you will. You have no choice in the matter, or don't I make myself clear to you?"

It was clear to Molla. All too clear.

Molla tried not to let herself think of Kurt Wilhelm all week. All she could do was hope against hope that he would leave her alone.

She wanted particularly to forget about him because Saturday night was the big night with Tay.

Enid came in while she was getting dressed. Molla slipped into a blue and silver gown with a heart-shaped neckline and a wide flare from the hips down.

"I hope this is all right," she said anxiously. "It's the only evening gown I was able to salvage when I left London, and I just am not able to afford a new one right now."

Enid gave her a quick, critical look. "There are 10 million girls in America who would wish they had as little to worry about as you. It's beautiful."

Molla laughed nervously. "I hope so. I've never been to an American night club, you know. I'm just a little bit frightened. Do you think Tay will like me?"

"Like you? Listen, my little Norwegian nymph, that guy is—" Enid paused. "All you'd need is six lessons from Madame Enid and you'd have him floundering at the end of your line. I guess that's what you don't have, though," she sighed.

"Have what?"

"A line. You know—the method or formula followed, by which each individual female of the species snares the male. Maybe you just called it something else in Norway."

Molla laughed. "Is it necessary?"

"In most cases, yes," Enid said. "Take a good look around you tonight wherever you go and you'll see various applications of it."

Head Pains . . .

Eyes Often Cause of Chronic Ache

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

Among chronic reflex headaches, those that originate in the eyes are among the most frequent and the easiest to relieve.

The eyes are used from twelve to fifteen hours every day. Therefore irrespective of the location of the headache or its severity, the eyes should be examined by a competent oculist in every case of chronic or recurrent headache.

Headaches due to eye disturbances usually affect both sides of the head. However, a sufficient number of them are one-sided, resembling in this migraine, so that one-sided headaches cannot be dismissed as not being due to eye disease.

DUE TO EYE STRAIN

While most headaches are due to eye strain, the cause of this strain should be determined and the eyes fitted with glasses to relieve any existing condition which might be causing this strain.

A number of inflammatory diseases of the eye, such as iritis and glaucoma, manifest themselves first by headache alone. An extremely important warning is that in any person over the age of forty who has a sudden headache, severe and boring in character, radiating deeply through the orbit over the side of the head and down the neck and shoulder, should have medical consultation immediately. It suggests acute glaucoma, one of the most serious of all eye diseases.

The careful oculist will inquire, before treatment is prescribed, as to the mode of living, the occupation, reading ability and the use of light.

Girls . . .

Warns Against a Hasty Marriage

(By BEATRICE FAIRFAX)

Mrs. Roosevelt has cautioned girls against entering into hasty marriages as the result of "patriotic fervor."

She made it clear that she did not allude to marriages resulting from engagements over a period of time, since such selections were a question of individual decision.

While Mrs. Roosevelt did not say so, there are an increasing number of girls who confuse a good-looking man in a uniform with what they are pleased to call "love at first sight."

In such unusual times as war brings about, it is increasingly hard to distinguish between the genuine and the whipped-up emotions brought about by the time, and the willingness of youth to get into the stream of things.

Mrs. Roosevelt showed clear insight when she said, "It is probably wiser not to curtail your preparation for life by a hasty marriage because your beau is going into the Army."

There are exceptions, of course. But for the average girl who wants an attractive man to go with her, it will be well for her to watch her step before she pledges herself to those terribly solemn words, "Until death do us part."

The Rape of Hong Kong

If the rape of Hong Kong followed the pattern of the rape of Nanking, then we must imagine scores or hundreds of thousands of Chinese in that once proud city of over 1,000,000 people massacred. The Japanese soldiery butchered 200,000 in the Manchurian capital.

The hundreds of men, women and children tied together and then felled by sheets of machinegun fire, one incident of the Manchurian massacre, are paralleled by the British soldiers and officers bound hand and foot and then bayonetted to death.

We are told that over 77,000 Chinese of Hong Kong were "severely questioned," the Japanese euphemism for torture. This is the gloating Japanese announcement.

The picture of Japanese beasts wreaking their whims and desires on the helpless populace committed to the mercy of the conqueror must stir the blood lust in every normal human being, to vow that never will the sword be sheathed until this foul race is blasted from the lands it has seized, compressed back into its own brooder, and payment in blood, and in razed cities, exacted for its foul crimes.

Can there be a white man, can there be a Canadian, who can mentally assent to this kind of occurrence, by doing nothing about it?

What is found to have happened in Hong Kong may have since happened in Singapore, another city in the million class, may be happening now in the Dutch East Indies.

Nothing should stay the hand of Canada from putting forth every possible effort to turn the war back upon Germany and back upon Japan, its main and unspeakably foul authors, as quickly as possible, and to defeat that should be the most complete in history.

TRAGEDY OF STEFAN ZWEIG

Stefan Zweig, an Austrian Jew with an international reputation as an author, fled from Vienna when the Nazis took over that city, and his books were burned in the public square. He went to England, to the United States, to Brazil, and this week he and his wife were found dead of poison in their home at Rio de Janeiro. Zweig left a note saying he was 60 years old, a man without a country, and too weary to begin life all over again.

This pitiful case emphasizes the tragedy which overwhelmed so many of the brightest minds, the keenest brains, in Germany when the Nazi blight spread over that country and beyond its borders. In the Nazi philosophy is no room for intellectual freedom, no place for truth because it is truth, and those who saw in time the coming of the black storm got out of the country — as Zweig got out. Some went only as far as France, and were caught up again by the plague. Others, among them Mann and Einstein, found safety on this continent.

But even for the luckiest of these scholarly refugees life never can be the same again. The world they knew has crashed about them, and the friends they had made are dad, interned in German prison camps, or scattered about the earth. They are strangers even in a friendly land. Stefan Zweig could not stand it any longer, and we read of his death as we read the anouncement of his latest — and last—book. This historian and biographer is one more sacrifice to the brutal gods of Hitler. —Ottawa Journal.

RELEASE FROM WHAT?

In the reports so far available of Prime Minister Mackenzie King's lengthy explanation yesterday of this government's plebiscite plan, the outstanding assertion credited to him is that there will be "no conscription overseas because it has not become necessary, and may never become necessary."

If this quotation is correct—if Mr. King flatly declared that conscription for overseas service is not to be the issue decided by the plebiscite — then it is not easy to gather just what commitment of the ministry, and from which it seeks release, is to figure in the voting.

In the last election followers of Mr. King were pledged to "all-out" war, subject to their reservation that they would not impose conscription for overseas service.

If Mr. King still says, "no conscription," what else is there for the Prime Minister and his adherents to seek release from?—Vancouver News-Herald.

Now Is Time to Trail, Not When Enemy Here

To the Editor:

Sir—As one listens to the radio about the terrible atrocities being committed against our Canadian brothers who arrived in Hong Kong to give their very all so that we might live, one naturally ponders how long it is going to be before the general complacency of our people changes.

Surely we are not going to wait for the invader to storm our very doors before we get into active training and action.

It is understood that the Nelson platoon of the Rocky Mountain Rangers reserve corps are about two-thirds up to strength—surely we can at least bring this platoon up to full strength; if we are not willing to have two or more platoons training in readiness for any crisis which may arise.

There is only one way to be assured of ultimate victory and that is "to be prepared" for any adverse condition that may arise.

It is all right to talk about shooting with rifles and Bren guns, but surely we realize that discipline and training are essential at this period of the crisis.

Manning Pool for Merchant Seamen

By BRUCE WEST

Halifax—sitting high on a hillside overlooking Halifax harbour is a great block of new frame buildings which seems destined to be one of the focal points in the grim Battle of the Atlantic.

Swiftly erected during the past few months, it will house the men who go down to the sea in the ships of Canada's fast growing merchant marine. Known as a "manning pool," it will serve as a gathering spot for merchant seamen from all parts of the country.

It marks the recognition of the Merchant Marine as a fourth arm of the services and will be of vital importance in the big job of providing crews for the new ships now sliding down the ways with increasing rapidity.

It is part of a vast plan now being put into motion by the Department of Transport. In charge of the plan's operation is Arthur Randles, Director of Merchant Seamen.

To such manning pools will come seamen who have lost their ships in the war at sea, sailors who have left their trade on Canada's lakes and men who have had their training at newly established schools for seamen which form part of the plan.

PAY WHILE WAITING

While waiting at the manning pool for their call to ships, the sailors will receive pay allowance, board and lodging. Thus will men who have lost their ships be spared the weary business of hanging around port, sleeping in "flop-houses" while searching for another berth.

The new Halifax manning pool is made up of a number of modern buildings. Sections are set aside for captains, other officers and seamen. Captains have their own rooms, lesser officers sleep two to a room and seamen sleep three to a room.

Each floor is equipped with spick and span wash rooms and shower baths. Dining rooms are neat and ship-shape and in them is served food from a stream-lined kitchen equal to that of any first class hotel.

If a sailor from a torpedoed ship is picked up at sea by a vessel heading for Canada, he goes directly to the manning pool upon his arrival in this country. There he merely gives the required information on himself and the ship on which he served and from that moment on becomes a paid "guest" of this comfortable lodging place. He draws his allowance until he is again called to sea.

If he is in poor health as a result of his experience at sea, he is placed in a small, clean hospital until he is able to get around again.

In the coming months of the war, veterans of the seven seas and men from the farms and cities of inland Canada will rub shoulders within the walls of these manning pools as the Dominion musters every available man for the big task of keeping the supplies rolling across the oceans of the world.

And when the rugged sailing men come back from their perilous voyages, such institutions as the manning pool and the Allied Merchant Seamens' Club at Halifax will remind them that their country realizes and appreciates their courage and their value in this greatest of all wars.

FLAMES RACE THROUGH NELSON LAUNDRY

Hundreds of spectators drawn by the fire siren and the glow of flames at midinght Wednesday saw the Nelson Laundry and Dry Cleaners building, Baker Street, destroyed in less than half an hour. This photo shows the front of the building at the height of the fire. Shortly afterward the walls and roof collapsed. The fir tree at the right became a flaming beacon.—Photo by Jack Brown.

WHY GAS IS RATIONED

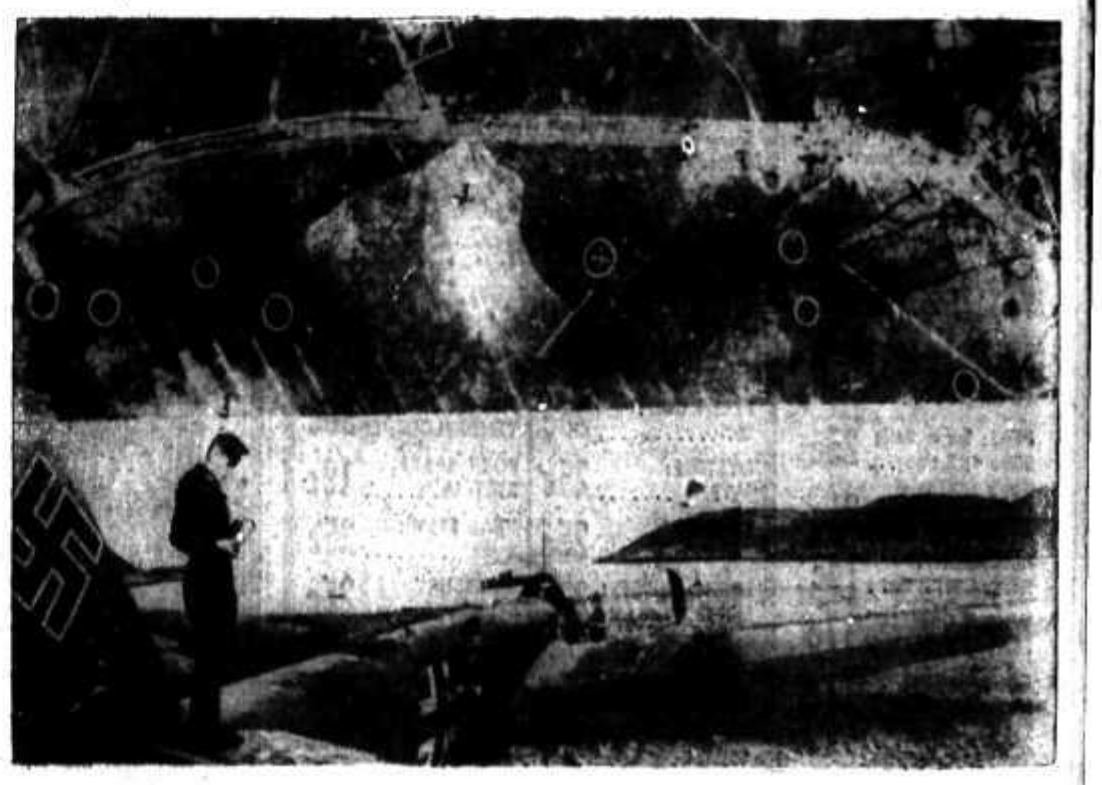
This photo was taken from a U. S. bombing plane searching for the Axis submarine which torpedoed the tanker near Curacao in the Dutch West Indies and left it burning. The toll of vessels sunk by the undersea raiders in the Caribbean is near the 30 mark.

NEW DIET MAKES THEM HAPPY

After months of effort to line up a steady supply of imported bamboo for its two baby giant pandas, the New York Zoological Park found a large supply of it in the front yard garden of a Long Island, N. Y., resident. In their native China, pandas feed almost exclusively on leaves and twigs of certain types of bamboo. Top, the pandas give visible evidence of their joy at getting the food to which they were accustomed. Bottom, they munch contentedly, at peace with the world.

JAPS PLAN INVASION OF CANADA

Dies Committee agents have seized detailed maps drawn by Japanese spies to guide an invasion of the United States through Alaska and Northwestern Canada. The maps were seized from a Japanese agent after the U.S. entered the war against the Axis. Chairman Martin Dies (D.) of Texas is shown with the document which will be included in the committee's report on Japanese activities.



AXIS AERIAL LOSSES IN NORTH AND SOUTH

From up near the Arctic Circle and down in "sunny" Sicily come these photographs telling of Axis aerial losses. The upper photograph is an official British R.A.F. reconnaissance picture of wreckage and damage done by low-level day attack of R.A.F. Blenheims and night bombing by R.A.F. Wellingtons on the Castle Vetrano airdrome in Sicily. Forty-four enemy aircraft were destroyed. The photograph shows completely destroyed planes on the ground, and three partially damaged ships. Only 11 total wrecks are shown — but this photograph was not made until three days after the raids (because of bad weather). Dump of wreckage marked by white triangles on right, would indicate large toll. The lower photograph shows men of the Soviet navy examining a German J-88 bomber shot down by anti-aircraft gunners of the Soviet fleet. The barren Barents seashore furnishes final roosting place for this battered bomber.

Moslems Will Not Accept Any Union With Hindu Group

BY H. R. STIMSON

BOMBAY, India, March 12 (AP)—Mohammed Ali Jinnah, president of the All-India Moslem League, reiterated today his view that the only solution of the Indian problem acceptable to his organization would be "India's division into separate autonomous Hindu and Moslem states."

Jinnah is leader of India's minority of 77,000,000 Moslems. There are 240,000,000 Hindus in India.

SEES DEFERMENT

Sir Bijoy Prosad Singh Roy, president of the National Liberal Federation who has urged Indians to join the fighting forces, expressed disappointment over Prime Minister Churchill's statement before the House of Commons yesterday, and said it meant only further deferment of the solution of the political deadlock.

While he conceded the difficulty of Sir Stafford's assignment, he said the latter would be helped by his broad sympathy with India.

The times of India hailed Sir Stafford's selection "as peacemaker" as a "great tactical stroke."

"The fact that he comes as the personal emissary of Churchill's War Cabinet," the Times declared, "should convince India that Britain means business."

The Bombay Chronicle, which supports the All-India Congress Party of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, deplored the additional delay but proposed the Indian factions adjust their differences and publish their "united demands even before Sir Stafford lands in India."

The extremely Nationalistic Free Press Journal said his appointment was "a brilliant tactical manoeuvre. Whitehall is venturing out of the Maginot Line of the August declaration."

(In August, 1940, Britain promised India "free and equal partnership" in the Commonwealth as soon as possible after the war.)

"If things go well all may go forth hand in hand with our fellow fighters against Fascist tyranny," the Journal added.

GHANDI SKEPTICAL

WHARDA, India, March 12 (CP)—Commenting on the British Government's announcement of plans for post-war Dominion status for India, the former leader of Hindu Nationalists, Mohandas K. Ghandi, professed today to see no sign of settlement for the Indian question.

The man who recently renounced formal leadership of the All-India Congress Party said that Britain must confess "the greatest crime against India" —which he defined as imperialism—and undo it.

LONDON, March 12 (CP Cable)—Graham Spry, Canadian member of the staff of Sir Stafford Cripps, will accompany the statesman on his mission to India, it it was learned authoritatively today.

Sir Stafford's entourage will be made up mainly of officials of the India office. Only a few members of his personal staff will make the trip.

Ontario Raps Western Farmers for Wheat Grab

BY C. R. BLACKBURN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—Eastern farm sentiment against bonuses and other financial aid to Western wheat growers has cropped up in the House of Commons where the Government's program for the 1942 crop has been under debate all this week.

Yesterday S. Murray Clark (Lib., Essex South) said price ceilings and war conditions had made it almost impossible for Ontario tobacco and sugar beet growers to carry on.

But he said he believed his constituents would prefer that any money aid they might receive from the Government be used for munitions to defeat the enemyy.

He expressed the hope that Western wheat farmers would similarly prefer that the estimated $56,000,000 it proposed to give them from the Federal treasury this year be applied to purchase of airplanes and tanks.

U. S. to Double Flying Training

WASHINGTON, March 12 (AP).—The Civil Aeronautics Authority's civilian aviation training program today was ordered more than doubled in size and geared completely into the war effort as a part of the urgent expansion of United States air power.

The War Department explained it was worked out in cooperation with the Army Air Forces.

The number of students given elementary pilot training is to be raised from 25,000 to 45,000 a year, and the facilities of the secondary flying course tripled to train 30,000 students annually.

In addition training is to be provided for the first time for ground technicians. About 31,000 are to be given this training anually.

Jap Premier Boasts of Victories and Threatens India With Slavery

TOKYO, March 13 (AP)—Premier Gen. Hideki Tojo, summing up three months of war, told a special session of the Japanese Diet today that "all enemy strongholds in the Southwest Pacific are in our hands." The special session was called to celebrate the conquest of the Netherlands East Indies.

"The main fleet of the United States and Britain already has disappeared from the surface of the Pacific," he declared.

"The United States and Britain, who under-rated the national strength of Japan and refused to satisfy he claims she was entitled to, forced Japan to open hostilities," he asserted.

"Now these countries are facing the fact that no battle can be fought without being lost and that no position can be successfully defended.

"The United States and British Governments have slight hope in the future and boast of their extensive re-armament problems . ."

Tojo said that Germany and Italy were winning victories "which parallel ours," but he warned the Diet the war was not yet won.

"Japan must win further brilliant victories and continue her military operations to smash the United States and Britain and to establish the new order in greater Asia and thereby secure world peace," he said.

Referring to China, Tojo declared: "Communications with the United States and Britain were cut with the fall of Rangoon and the Chungking Regime now is completely isolated. America and Britain can only give Chungking worthless gold, for which the Chinese people will sacrifice their flesh and blood.

"Britain is again trying to deceive India with all possible means of flattery," Tojo continued.

"If the British leaders betray the long-cherished wishes of the Indian people and the Indians throw away this opportunity there will be no salvation for India and she will pass into posterity as a country of slaves. India now faces the decision to liquidate her past and make a resolute stand."

"Grannies" Among Women on Full Time at War Jobs

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, March 12 (AP) — At a time when most octogenarians are spared as much of the rigor of war as possible, some half dozen women—the eldest of them 85—are working in a Midlands factory helping make small parts for airplanes.

They're known to their fellow employees as "the grannies". Their grit and stamina are a quiet inspiration to all. They work eight-hour shifts, six days a week, and not infrequently put in a half day extra.

Special privileges? None would affront these women now by suggesting favors merely because of their age. Their performance has been described as altogether acceptable and at times distinguished considering their years.

Far down the succession of calendar years there now are rising up in aircraft production groups of young girls who, reckoning by age, might be great granddaughters of the grannies.

DO 50 PER CENT OF WORK

Excellent sources said it has been established that women could do 50 per cent of work in aircraft factories. The ministry of aircraft production has said women actually are doing 50 per cent of the work in many engine plants.

Women test planes to determine the effects of atmospheric conditions on new craft. They serve in aeronautical inspection department getting preliminary training before going to factories for inspection of parts.

Hardly less responsible is the repair end which likewise has brought commendation to the women.

From the radio field, laundries, various peacetime goods factories, and a great variety of technical occupations girls and older women have come to the aircraft production.

Most of them remain anonymous. Even when a woman herself is a pilot, the public may be a long time hearing about her.

Such a woman is Mrs. Aubrey Burke, 22-year-old granddaughter of the first Lord Aberconway, and mother of two small daughters.

Formerly a maker of model airplanes, she is manuacturing plane parts requiring extraordinary accuracy. She is an engineer with unusual qualifications and familiar with every operation of her factory.

Japs Admit Three Warships and Six Others Lost in Raid

TOKYO, (From Japanese Broadcasts), March 12 (AP)—Imperial headquarters acknowledged today that three of its warships were damaged and six other ships sunk, beached or damaged in landing operations Tuesday at Lae and Salamaua on the Northeast coast of New Guinea.

The announcement said one cruiser, two destroyers and three "requisitioned ships" were damaged slightly. Two other "requisitioned ships" and one military transport were reported sunk or grounded.

Japan's first spearhead apparently was blunted by the fierce aerial blows yesterday at hangars and runways of Saluama and Lae, following up the aerial onslaught the day before which sank, burned or beached at least seven ships and brought to at least 18 the number of Japanese transports put out of action off New Guinea and New Britain.

The blows of the R. A. A. F. (bolstered by big United States bombers) were believed to have seriously dislocated the Japanese invasion timetable.

One spokesman declared the Japanese would take an ever harder pounding as they came further into effective range of fighters and bombers based in Northern Australia.

He said that the attacks yesterday and the day before when seven Japanese ships were officially recorded as put out of action were only a beginning. The Australians said two more ships were believed damaged in the Tuesday attacks.

WINS AUSSIES TIME

CANBERRA, Australia, March 12 (CP)—Two days of air attack which littered the Japanese-won beachheads of New Guinea with the wreckage of an invasion armada and battered potential Japanese bases gave direly threatened Australia valuable hours today to muster fighting power for a stand on her own shores.

Remember Hong Kong Is Slogan for War Production

LONDON, March 12 (CP Cable).—"Remember Hong Kong!" is becoming a war production slogan.

Telegrams proclaiming the phrase and urging workers to redouble their efforts will be dispatches tomorrow from a little Surrey factory to other war plants.

A young Surrey welder, angered at the disclosure of the Hong Kong atrocities, suggested the telegram idea to the management and fellow workers, who agreed to subscribe to the costs.

French Die-Hards Refused to Spend Credits for Army

RIOM, Unoccupied France, March 12 (AP)—Pierre Jacomet, former Administrator of National Defence Industries, one of the defendents in France's "war guilt trials," told the Supreme Court today the die-hards of the French Army did not even spend the credits assigned to them until Leon Blum, one of his co-defendants, assumed power as Premier in 1936.

Jacomet declared the Army's credits were carried over and accumulated year after year. In October, 1936, he said, he found 300,000 francs still unspent from the 1935 allotment.

Jacomet, who as General Secretary to the War Ministry used to be considered the man who held all the strings in his Ministry, surprised the audience and his fellow-defendants by devoting almost his entire defence to supporting a claim that his responsibility in the office was strictly limited.

His arguments were in sharp contrast to those of the previously-heard defendants, who without hesitation, accepted full responsibility for their terms of office and the best for their terms in office.

Jacoment charged the Renault Works with profiteering in the manufacture of tanks, asserting the price of the Renault tank fell from 290,000 francs to 190,000 francs the moment the firm's monopoly was broken.

Beaverbrook May Not Go to U. S.

LONDON, March 12 (CP)—Prime Minister Churchill disclosed today that a projected production coordination mission by Lord Beaverbrook in the United States has been cancelled and that it is uncertain whether Lord Beaverbrook will go to Washington.

The Prime Minister informed the House of Commons that the Production and Labor Ministries would share responsibility for the allocation of Britain's labor power.

Mr. Churchill said that Lord Beaverbrook, who has been one of the Prime Minister's staunchest supporters and foremost lieutenants, is "understood" to be prepared to undertake the trip to Washington but that he is "not quite sure."

Lord Beaverbrook, a chronic sufferer from asthma, turned down reappointment in the new war cabinet because of his health, but his mission to the United States was to have placed him on virtual cabinet level as Britain's counterpart to Donald M. Nelson, head of the U. S. War Production Board.

The Ministry of Labor still will be responsible generally for the supply of labor, the Prime Minister explained, but the Ministry of Production will determine what calls for it demand precedence.

A.R.P. Organization Gratifies Chairman of Advisory Council

VICTORIA, March 12 (CP)—Preliminary to the first meeting of the newly formed Advisory Council on A.R.P. matters, W. C. Waring of Vancouver, Council chairman, met Premier John Hart today to discuss his duties and the authority under which the new committee will operate.

At the conclusion of the conference, Mr. Mainwaring expressed his satisfaction and said he was gratified so much already had been accomplished.

"It has been a revelation to me that so strong an organization exists, and I feel that the public should know that their safety and welfare have been considered from all angles."

Nazi Prisoner Tries to Steal Plane for Escape

OSHAWA, Ont, March 12 (CP)—A daring attempt by an escaped Nazi prisoner-of-war to steal a plane of the Royal Canadian Air Force was foiled today with the capture of the German airman, one of two who escaped from the nearby Bowmanville Officers' Camp last night.

Frederick Oeser was caught by an instructor at No. 20 Elementary Flying Training School near here as he was about to take down a flying suit. About an hour earlier, the second of the two prisoners, Bidward Fidieg, surrendered at a farmhouse on the Eastern outskirts of the city.

Oeser told his captor, identified only as a Link Trainer instructor named Bowman, that he intended to steal one of the planes on the field and fly it to an isolated spot in the United States.

Officials at the airport said Oeser apparently crept on to the flying field early today and stayed hidden until he believed the field was clear.

Oeser, 23, and Fidieg, 27, both were lieutenants in the German Air Force.

"UNAWARENESS" LED TO HONG KONG'S FALL

WINNIPEG, March 12 (CP).—Mrs. C. N. Expert Destroyed Oil Refineries

By DANIEL DELUCE
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

MANDALAY, Burma, March 11 (Delayed AP)—Destruction of Rangoon's oil refineries according to a scorched-earth plan was carried out by an expert who said today he also had witnessed the Russian demolitions on the Southern Soviet front last year.

He said that when military authorities decided last Saturday that Rangoon was untenable, demolition squads touched off their fuses. Explosions were heard and fires broke out all over the city.

Details of purely military demolition are not available. But they are presumed to have included barracks and stores of war equipment. Among the civil installations dynamited were power and light plants, harbor installations, docks, railway equipment, motor transport, and the telephone, telegraph and wireless systems.

Say Hun Crews to Man Warships

MOSCOW, March 12 (AP)—A Tass dispatch from Cairo reiterated today reports said to have reached there that the Vichy Government has turned over to Germany a number of its warships including the 35,000-ton battleship Clemenceau and the 26,500-ton battleship Dunkerque.

Today's Tass dispatch said that, according to latest information, Grand Armiral Erich Raeder, Commander in Chief of the German Fleet, had ordered specially-trained German crews to be ready by April 10 to man the warships.

The dispatch said the seamen were being trained in naval schools set up at Toulon, on the Mediterranean, and at Rochefort, Bordeaux and Brest, on the Atlantic coast. Some 2,000 seamen were said to be at Toulon, being schooled to man the Dunkerque and a number of other vessels, including two cruisers.

DID YOU TAKE A LAXATIVE TODAY?

Do you really know why constipation is so harmful?

You probably know that constipation sets up poisons in the large intestine or colon. But do you know that these poisons seep through the walls of the colon and infect the bloodstream? They set up toxic accumulations in kidneys and liver and are contributing causes of rheumatic pains, sciatica and backache.

Most laxatives only act in the colon. Kruschen does more. It is the laxative with a double action. Besides ridding the colon of stagnating waste matter, Kruschen's mineral salts have a diuretic action. They flush the kidneys, help to clear the bloodstream of all poisonous matter, and so protect your whole system from that form of infection.

Could Smash at Heart of Germany By Norway Route

BY FRED VANDERSCHMIDT
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, March 12 (AP)—Cumulative military and political evidence indicates the imminence of highly-important operations centring about the area between the desolate North Cape at the top of Norway and the cruel 1,000-foot granite cliffs of the Russian Murmansk coast.

Major air and naval operations already are under way, involving German capital ships, British torpedo planes undoubtedly operating from an aircraft carrier, other British warships and United Nations convoys.

Free Europe, a review of international affairs published in London, said today an Allied Spring offensive in the West should have a good chance of success, for the forces now concentrated in the British Isles presumably are stronger than those the Germans have disposed from Kirknees, Norway, to Hendaye, France.

This commentary declared both military and political reasons commended Norway as a spot where the Allies could strike with overwhelming forces. It added that control of Upper Scandinavia would give the United Nations a convenient link with Russia through Finland and would put them in position to strike directly into the heart of Germany.

An offensive at the top of Europe might well be the extra contribution to Russia's cause which the Soviet Union gives every evidence of expecting. There is plenty to win: A successful push could wipe Finland from the war, open and protect the whole Allied-Russian supply line via the excellent port of Murmansk and re-establish the Allies in Norway where they could organize and supply increasing resistance by the population.

A common British-Russian-American fighting front could be thrown quickly across the thin top of Finland and this front in time might provide just the impetus the Russians need to turn the whole German flank and collapse it upon the Baltic States and East Prussia itself.

There are some 1,500 miles of sea from the present U. S. bases in Northern Ireland to the North Cape, but it is barely 30 miles across the Northeastern extremity of Norway to Russian territory, and only 550 miles further East to Murmansk.

Eight hundred miles straight South of Murmansk, reachable almost directly by railway, is the Staraya Russa front where the Russians have pushed back closer to Germany than anywhere else. Staraya Russa is only 130 miles from Latvia and then it is just 400 miles to East Prussia.

Australia Sends Food to Singapore

CANBERRA, March 12 (CP)—Premier John Curtin announced today that foodstuffs are being sent by Australia to Japanese-Occupied Singapore in an effort to ensure the proper feeding of Australian prisoners.

"We were asked to send the stuff," the Premier said.

"It was put to us very straight that it had to be for everybody, including the native population. It goes into the common pool and the Japanese distribute it."

LONDON, March 12 (CP)—Australia's action in sending food to Japanese-Held Singapore for the benefit of imprisoned Australians there is without parallel so far as qualified sources here could recall today and they were frankly puzzled how it could be accomplished.

The concensus was that there could be no certainty the Australian prisoners would get the supplies or even that the "Pool" would be administered in a fair, humanitarian way. It was assumed, however, that Australian authorities had decided they had no choice but to take the chance.

Troubles Mount for U. S., British in Jap Held China

By REV. FRANK PHICE
(American Methodist Missionary)

KINHUA, Chekiang Province, China, March 9 (AP) (Delayed).—All news obtainable from evacuees and other sources indicates that American and Britain nationals in Shanghai and other occupied cities of East China are safe, but their financial difficulties are increasing, their food is limited and their freedom restricted in varying degrees.

In Shanghai, Shaching, Chefoo and some other cities movement is permitted within the city, but in Wuhu, Nanking, and many inland cities missionaries are confined to their homes.

Many married couples have been separated and there is small prospect of their being united at present.

In some cities churches are closed. In othres they are open under Japanese observation.

Many mission hospitals are open under Japanese supervision, but medical supplies are insufficient.

The food situation in Shanghai is growing worse and approximately 30,000 workers are unemployed. There have been many deaths from starvation.

Britain Tightens Gas Restrictions; Sports Events Cut

LONDON, March 12 (CP). — All unessential motoring will disappear this Summer from Britain's roads under a new rationing system which will withhold gasoline from everyone except those proving "genuine need." It was officially disclosed today as the Government clamped down on wartime frivolities with sharp new measures to restrict sports events.

Geoffrey Lloyd, Parliamentary Secretary for Petroleum, said replacement of the present basic gasoline ration—which allows motorists fuel for 200 miles of driving a month—by more rigorous controls would be gradual. He explained the purpose of the change is "to end pleasure motoring for the present" and ultimately to take "all unessential cars off the road."

Herbert Morrison, Minister of Home Security, said restrictions on sports events, such as racing and boxing, also would conserve gasoline and, further, reduce the number of hours lost in vital industries.

Both spoke in the House of Commons.

Britons were told there will be no further restrictions on theatres, movies, dancing and football.

But they also were told that dog racing will be limited to one day a week at each track, that horse racing will be restricted to a few tracks—also with an eye to economy in transportation—and that professional boxing, already sharply curtailed, will be further reduced.

National Health is Vital to Victory

A vital factor in Canada's war effort is the ability of men and women to meet the unceasing demand of industry, agriculture, and the armed forces. Ill-health definitely reduces this effort. According to Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Pensions and National Health:

"Sickness last year cost Canada more than the Commonwealth Air Training Plan. Fifty thousand workers in industry are constantly ill and unable to work."

(The loss in productive labor of 50,000 man-days equals the time required to build seven medium bombers.)

1942 Victory Loan Campaign Slides Into Background

With the organizers in each of the three districts leaving for their homes at Vancouver and only local secretaries and stenographers remaining to clear up the final work, the Second Victory Loan, which closed Saturday, slid rapidly into the background Thursday.

The Kootenay-Boundary and Nelson organizers, N. C. P. Graves, H.A. Matthews and J. L. Burns, left by car Thursday morning, intending to travel via Trail, Paterson and Spokane. Mr. Graves reported to B.C. loan headquarters that all organizers were leaving for home Thursday. G. V. Ballantyne and W. Edwards were stationed at Cranbrook, and F. A. Sherrin and L. N. Hill at Trail.

Except for the odd late subscription, or reports from distant points coming by mail, Victory Loan figures are now complete. Additions still to be reported are unlikely to make any material difference to the figures, which show East Kootenay at $1,055,900; Nelson Unit at $1,060,300; and Trail Unit at $1,139,350.

Gov't. Deposits Gain

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP) — The Bank of Canada announced today in its weekly bank statement that Dominion Government deposits had increased $217,212,000 to $291,182,000 in the week ended March 11 and said that the abnormal increase reflected transfer by the government of part of the proceeds of the second victory loan, on deposit with the chartered banks, to the Bank of Canada.

"This was in preparation for repatriation of the remaining Dominion and Canadian National Railways bonds held in the United Kingdom, which will take place later this month."

Says Banning of U.S. Trucks Hits Munitions Flow

DETROIT, March 12 (AP) — Harvey J. Campbell, Vice Chairman of Executive Secretary of the Detroit Board of Commerce, telegraphed President Roosevelt today an assertion that Canada was impeding the flow of war materials to Eastern points by banning American trucks from its highways.

He said the prohibition was ordered by C. D. Howe, Canadian Minister of Munitions and Supply, and asked the President to aid in lifting the restriction.

"Trucks carrying essential war materials between Michigan cities engaged in production at this end and Niagara frontier and New England factories at the other end should be routed through Ontario to save precious time, tires and gasoline," Campbell's telegram said. ". . . Detroit industries protest such refusal of cooperation of our Canadian ally."

Campbell charged Howe with being a "one-man botileneck" and in a statement added:

"It's about time someone informed Mr. Howe . . . the war is being fought on behalf of the people of the United Nations and not for the exclusive benefit of the railroads of the U.S. and Canada."

OTTAWA, March 12 (CP)—Permission for American trucks to carry goods through Canada would only be possible by an amendment to the Customs Act and no consideration is being given at present to any change, an official spokesman said tonight.

Officials recalled that an application to allow short-circuiting of American trucks through Canada was considered by a committee and turned down early last Fall.

Joint Committee to Seek Solution Rossland Ration

ROSSLAND, B.C., March 12 —The Junior Board of Trade's Civic Committee, consisting of Fred Fletcher, Pete Fowler, assisted by Ald. A. F. Snowball, will meet shortly with Mayor John E. Gordon and representatives of the Rossland Cooperative Transportation Society, to seek a solution of the position some 200 Trail Smelter employees living here will be in when gasoline rationing becomes operative.

The situation aired at the Board of Trade's meeting Tuesday night is the same as that described by Ald. A. F. Snowball when the City Council met Monday.

The Council decided at that time to petition the Dominion Oil Controller to grant a special rationing concession to approximately 40 owners of private cars, who carry some 200 persons to and from their work at Trail Smelter.

Interpreting The War News

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

Lunging Russian stabs at Nazi defence lines North of the Smolensk area represent another race against time—the time when the Spring thaws inevitably immobilize both armies on most of the front.

Mud and overflowing streams make a vast quagmire of the Russian steppes for weeks as the Winter breaks up. They impose greater obstacles to major military operations than did the terrible Russian Winter which wrecked Hitler's Eastern "crusade."

Over the wide and confused front from South of the Smolensk pivot Northward to the Leningrad area where the Russians are striking the most effective blows it seems unlikely that the Nazi high command can count upon favorable ground and weather conditions before June.

Hitler's forces are trying to cling to their present positions, but new break through at various points are reported from Moscow and London, unofficially. There are also indications that with the Leningrad siege line cracked, the garrison of that city has been strongly reinforced and has joined in Russian offensive both along the coast of the Gulf of Finland and Southwestward down the Leningrad-Pskov rail and road system.

Rupture of German communications lines at the vital Pskov crossing apears to be the main Red objective on all the front North of the Valdai Hills. If that can be done before Winter breaks, the whole Northern flank of the German line would be undermined and perhaps driven out of Russia proper.

Official reports from Russia do little to help map the battle front accurately. Their general tenor clearly indicates, however, that the Red high command expects smashing victories which could disrupt Hitler's Spring offensive program.

CONTRACT . . . By Shepard Barclay

JUMP ALL THE WAY UP

WHEN YOU have learned from your partner that he has good support for your suit, including enough general strength to make a free bid after an intervening overcall, and then the other opponent injects a bid of still another suit, your further action depends upon the type of hand you possess. If your strength is mainly in good high card holdings, there is no hurry. Then it usually will pay to go slow and give the opponents plenty of chance to bid some more, so you may score a profitable double. But if you have great distribution with minimum defensive values, you should shut them out of further bidding by jumping immediately as high as you can.

North: ♠ A Q 8 5 ♥ 9 6 2 ♦ Q ♣ Q 9 5 3 3
West: ♠ K ♥ A K J 5 3 ♦ J 10 8 5 2 ♣ J 6
East: ♠ 9 6 ♥ 10 7 ♦ 9 7 4 ♣ A K 10 7 4 2
South: ♠ J 10 7 4 3 2 ♥ Q 8 4 ♦ A K 6 3 ♣ None 1

(Dealer South North-South vulnerable.)

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	2 ♥	2 ♠	3 ♣
3 ♠ Dbl	4 ♦	4 ♠	5 ♦
1 ♠ 4 ♠	2 ♥	2 ♠	3 ♣

Notice how South cut out further conversation at table 2 by jumping to 4-Spades, a very sound bid. Also notice what happened at the other table where South made a minimum bid of only 3-Spades on his second turn. That gave West a chance to bid his diamonds at a none too dangerous height. East could feel pretty sure, from the course of the auction, that his partner had at least five of them, so made his sound sacrifice bid with only three cards of the suit.

The 5-Diamonds sacrifice was set only two tricks, giving North-South a mere 300 points. The spade A was led for one trick, and later the defenders got three tricks with their high trumps, but that was all.

Where South jumped to 4-Spades over East's 3-Clubs, West didn't dare try to show his diamonds at the level of five. So North-South scored a vulnerable game, worth 420 points, losing only the first three tricks, to the heart K, heart A and a heart ruff.

Tirpitz Failed to Get Near Convoy; Eugen Badly Hit

LONDON, March 12 (CP). — The Stockholm correspondent of the News Chronicle reported today that the new German battleship Tirpitz, which put back into a Norwegian port after being attacked Monday by British torpedo-carrying planes, failed to get within 300 miles of "her prospective prey"—a convoy which now has reached Russia.

Neither his article nor the Admiralty communique yesterday disclosed whether the Tirpitz, sister ship of the sunken Bismarck, suffered any damage in the attack North of Trondheim.

The dispatch from Stockholm said, however, that the Tirpitz was built "on the German plan for comparatively short sea trips" and that the crew, when in harbor, lived in barracks ashore. This, the dispatch said, allowed more room for watertight compartments which made the ship almost invulnerable to aircraft attack.

The correspondent said he had learned, too, that the 10,000-ton German cruiser Prinz Eugen was "lying in Trondheim harbor badly holed" as a result of the torpedo attack off Norway Feb. 28 by the British submarine Trident.

The News Chronicle's correspondent said many bodies were found floating in the cruiser's flooded compartments when she managed to reach port.

SCHOOLS CLOSE, ARP WORKERS RUSH BUT IT WAS NOT RAID CALL

VICTORIA, March 12 (CP). — Eleven hundred school children in the nearby Oak Bay District got an unexpected holiday today and scores of doctors, nurses and other A.R.P. workers answered rush calls when a telephone engineer making a cable transfer left a switch open and allowed two air raid sirens to blast for about five minutes.

Hunt Prepares Spray Schedule for Spring Fight Against Orchard Pests

With Spring fast approaching and bringing with it the annual battle of the orchardist against scab, codling moth and other pests, E. C. Hunt of Nelson, District Horticulturist, has prepared a spray calendar for the Kootenay and Arrow Lakes areas, Grand Forks and Creston districts. Spraying for peach leaf curl should be under way now and oil spray for mealy bugs may start soon.

"This schedule," Mr. Hunt points out, "lists only the spray applications that should be applied this year in the districts named. In some cases additional sprays may be necessary on account of other pests. Information on such special treatments will be found in the general recommendations on the spray calendar. More detailed information may be obtained from the local agricultural offices."

Mr. Hunt advises growers that "if you have achieved satisfactory results with any particular spray program continue with it. If you have a neighbor who is succeeding in his pest control, find out the reason for his success."

SCHEDULE

The Horticulturist gives the following schedule for time application, pest to be attacked and materials to be used:

First spray:

Pink stage, for apple scab—lime sulphur, 1¾ gallons to 100 gallons water; calcium arsenate, 4 pounds to 100 gallons water.

Second spray:

Calyx stage, just after petal fall, for apple scab and codling moth — Lime sulphur, 1¾ gallons to 100 gallons water; calcium arsenate, four pounds to 100 gallons water; casein lime spreader, not over one quarter pound per 100 gallons.

Third spray:

First cover spray, eight to 10 days after second spray, for apple scab and codling moth—Same mixture as for second spray.

Fourth spray:

Second cover spray, 10 to 12 days after third spray—Same mixture as for second and third sprays.

Where little if any codling moth is known to be present in the apple or pear orchard, the time between the second and third, and between the third and fourth sprays, can be extended to two weeks.

FOR CODLING MOTH ALONE

"There might be one or two sections in the district where little is any apple scab is present; and in such sections lime sulphur would not be required and only codling moth sprays would be applied. For codling moth control only, use lead arsenate, 3¾ pounds, in place of the calcium arsenate and the same amount of spreader, and start with the calyx spray or second spray listed in the schedule," Mr. Hunt advised.

"A fourth codling moth spray may be necessary in badly infested areas or in heavily infested orchards. For this fourth spray, second brood, use cryolite, 3¾ pounds to 100 gallons of water, and not over one-quarter pound of casein lime spreader."

OTHER PESTS

"For mealy bugs, use a dormant oil spray before the buds burst in the Spring, usually March 15 to the first week in April. Dormant spray oil of 110 viscosity and not less than 55 per cent unsulphonated residue is satisfactory when used at the rate of four gallons to 100 gallons of water. But Diesel oil of about 45 viscosity and about 75 per cent unsulphonated residue is just as effective and much cheaper when used at the rate of four to six gallons to 100 gallons of water. Emulsification of the oil may be accomplished by casein ammonia, casein lime, or lignin pitch. Details of the emulsification procedure are given in a separate circular available from the District Horticulturist office. Borough spraying is essential for satisfactory control. Spray on a sunny day if possible and when little or no wind is present, as every portion of the tree must be hit by the spray, he continued.

"For peach leaf curl, use lime sulphur, one gallon to eight gallons of water, or 4-4-0 Bordeaux mixture. These sprays must be applied as a dormant spray and before budscales separate. Spray now for this disease."

Market Trends . . .

WINNIPEG, March 12 (CP).—In routine trading bolstered by moderate Canadian and United States mill support wheat futures on Winnipeg Grain Exchange today closed unchanged with May at 76⅝B cents a bushel and July at 80⅝B.

LONDON—Firmness ruled generally throughout a quiet stock market today. British funds were up slightly on investment demand.

NEW YORK — Recovery trends seeped into today's stock market but they were distinctly specialized and many leaders continued to struggle in lower territory.

In steels and motors selective gains soon ran to a point or so with a few recently weak high-priced performers tacking on 2 to 3. Dealings slowed toward the last when p marks were reduced.

TORONTO—New low prices since 1934 were posted by the industrial and the gold groups in today's Toronto Exchange market.

Utility, food, steel and miscellaneous industrials worked lower. Montreal Power traded in quite heavy volume and weakened slightly to a new low at 19⅝.

MONTREAL—Utilities and carriers edged towards higher ground but metals and industrials were mainly lower on the Stock Exchange today.

Higher were Brazilian, Power Corporation and Winnipeg Electric A.

CHICAGO — With flour buyers and millers back in the market for limited quantities, wheat prices rose almost 2 cents a bushel today. Wheat closed 1⅝ to 1⅞ cents higher.

VANCOUVER, March 12 (CP)—Few price changes were registered on Vancouver stock exchange today. Trading interest remained dull as transfers totalled 6,400 shares.

Negative Wins in Y.P. Debate

Stoutly defending the negative in a debate, "Resolved that Movies are Injurious to Youth," Miss Marjorie Maber and Miss Lorna Moir won the decision of the judges at St. Paul's Young People's meeting Wednesday night. The affirmative was argued by Miss Hazel Stout and Jack Whiteside. Judges were Rev. H. Stewart-Forbes, Leonard Bushell and Victor Howard.

Mr. Stewart-Forbes, new incumbent at St. Paul's, was introduced to the Young People.

Miss Hazel Stout, assisted by Miss Edna Cant and Miss Jean Loan, conducted the devotional period.

Reno Shareholders Approve Distribution of 20 Cents a Share

VANCOUVER, March 12 (CP)—Shareholders of Reno Gold Mines Ltd., today approved by a vote of 154,630 to 715 a capital distribution of 20 cents a share amounting to $376,000, to be effected by reduction in capital.

Chairman G. F. Gyles said the proposed distribution will leave more than $50,000 of working capital with more to accrue from sale of machinery and claims.

Previous efforts for a similar resolution were defeated several weeks ago when shareholders failed to obtain the necessary 75 percent of votes cast.
