TAKE LEIPZIG, CLEAR RUHR FORCE

Tank Battle Rages Before Berlin Suburbs

2000 Planes Lash Germany

BY CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

LONDON, April 19 (AP)—More than 2000 bombers and fighters of three Allied Air Commands smashed today for the fourth straight day at rail bottlenecks in the narrowing strip of Germany between the converging Allies in the West and the Russians, and battered traffic moving into Hitler's Bavarian Alps redoubt area.

Some 600 American heavy bombers and 550 fighters hammered railyards and installations at Falkenburg, Elsterwerda and Pierna, all within a 40-mile radius of Dresden.

EARTHQUAKE BOMBS RAIN ON U-BOAT PENS

Others ranged into Czechoslovakia ahead of the U. S. 3rd Army and plastered objectives at Karlsbad, 70 miles West of Prague, and Aussig, 40 miles North of Prague.

Almost simultaneously a fleet of probably 200 planes, R.A.F. Lancasters escorted by fighters, pounded the transformer station at Pasing near Munich, which serves part of a network of electric railways leading to the Bavarian fortress zone. It was the second straight day in which an attack was laid virtually at the foot of Hitler's fortress by British-based heavies. On Wednesday American heavies bombed railways within 15 miles of Berchtesgaden.

R.A.F. Lancasters hit objectives on the German-held island of Heligoland in the North Sea, raining six-ton earthquake bombs on U-boat pens and other targets at the base, raided Wednesday by almost 1000 R.A.F. and R.C.A.F. bombers.

Italy-based U. S. four-engined bombers attacked rail objectives in Austria and Southern Germany and fighter-bombers dive-bombed the railyards at Weilheim, 30 miles Southwest of Munich on the line to Garmisch and Partenkirchen.

45,000 Crack Okinawa Deadlock

By LEIF ERICKSON

GUAM, April 20 (Friday) (AP)—Three American Army divisions, totalling possibly 45,000 men, jumped off yesterday in an all-out assault against the deep, solid Japanese defences of Southern Okinawa Island, the Navy disclosed today.

One of the heaviest big gun bombardments ever launched in support of amphibious troops preceded the big push, with battleships and cruisers helping field artillery. A great cover of carrier planes protected the ground force.

The Japanese fought back furiously with artillery and mortars but the Americans made initial gains of 500 yards on one flank and 800 on the other. They captured the village of Machinato.

ENDS DEADLOCK

The operation ended a 13-day deadlock on the Southern Okinawa front, where the Nipponese have been holding the Americans with a defence four miles or more in depth and extending all the way across the island, about 8000 yards.

An artillery duel has raged unabated along the front since April 16.

There was little possibility of a quick breakthrough. The terrain is cut up by ravines and terraces. The Nipponese were entrenched in interlocking trench and pillbox systems and blockhouses.

PROGRESS ON IE

Further progress by the Marines on Northern Okinawa and by Army forces on Ie Island, to the West, was reported.

The communique also announced a raid by fighter-bombers yesterday at Atsugi airfield in the Tokyo area, in which 21 enemy planes were shot down, two others probably, 26 planes destroyed on the ground and 35 others aloft or aground. A large Japanese cargo ship was left sinking and a medium sized ship was set afire.

Other planes attacked installations in the Palau Islands and a Japanese airstrip on Yap Island in the Western Carolines.

Americans Invade Island Near Borneo

By FRED HAMPSON

MANILA, April 20 (Friday) — American troops, in a fresh threat to Borneo, invaded Balabac Island, 45 miles North of that oil-rich area, Wednesday. Other infantrymen swept 22 miles inland from their new Southern Mindanao beachhead to within 52 air miles of the important City of Davao.

Balabac, about 10 miles in length, is across a narrow channel from American held Palawan. Northern Borneo is menaced also from the East by American forces on Tawitawi, 30 miles away in the Sulu Archipelago.

On Mindanao, the U. S. 24th Division, strongly supported by aircraft, moved 15 miles South of the Parang beachhead established with little opposition Tuesday to capture the Cotabato provincial capital of the same name. Then they drove 22 miles inland to Lumopog.

CAPTURE DROME

The sweep South from Parang was an amphibious shore-to-shore operation which, today's communique said, "took full advantage of the surprise of our landings."

Other troops who landed 35 miles North of Parang captured the Malabang airdrome and quickly put it into operation.

Davao, prime hemp port of the Philippines and one of the best harbors in the Archipelago, apparently was the target of an overland drive. A good highway traverses Cotabato province.

This Southern Mindanao area, hotbed of Japanese activity before the war, has an estimated 50,000 enemy troops and thousands of Nipponese civilians.

THROW BACK JAP ATTACK

On Luzon, a tank-supported Japanese counter-attack at Baguio was thrown back and the tanks destroyed as troops of the 33rd Division tightened their encirclement and destruction of isolated strongholds surrounding the Philippine Summer capital.

Heavy and medium bombers dropped 257 tons of explosives on Formosa air bases and rail facilities, destroying many grounded aircraft, while patrol planes sank a transport loaded with troops in the China Sea.

Russel Brines, AP War Correspondent, reported from Mindanao that 24th Division troops, after winning a 35-mile beachhead between Malaban and Parang on Illana Bay, had advanced about 3½ miles South along the highway to Cotabato.

Find Soldered Lunch Buckets on Greenhill Park

VANCOUVER, April 19 (CP) — Two mysterious soldered lunch pails and a man's jacket with not water bottles sewn in the pockets were found on the Greenhill Park after the ship was wrecked by four explosions here March 6, it was disclosed today at the official inquiry into the disaster.

Sergeant Arthur Owen-Jones of the R.C.M.P. told the Commission he found the lunch pails the day after the explosion, one in No. 2 hold and the other on the deck aft of No. 3.

It was suggested that such devices are a means of removing whisky from ships. Supt. James Gripps of the R.C.M.P. said his investigation revealed no evidence that whisky barrels in the ship's cargo had been tapped.

To Turn Out New Map of B.C.

VICTORIA, April 10 (CP)—Publication in about six weeks by the Provincial Government Topographical Branch of the Lands Department of a detailed map of British Columbia will climax 10 years of continuous effort by surveyors and topographists.

The map will bring up to date one published by the Government 40 years ago. Most changes on the map are in the Northern section of the province of which a wealth of detailed information has been gained by Government and other surveys during the past decade.

E. Kootenay Coal Output 83,727 Tons

VICTORIA, April 19 (CP)—British Columbia coal production in March was 145,418 tons, compared with 182,404 tons a year ago and 132,265 tons in February.

Only district showing an increase over last year was the North where March output of 3272 tons compared with 2741 tons in March of 1944.

East Kootenay, now producing more than half of the total for the province, had an output of 83,727 tons compared with 100,375 tons for the corresponding month of 1944 and 72,802 tons in February.

Kawasaki Devastated

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19 (AP)—Radio Tokyo admitted tonight the industrial city of Kawasaki just South of Tokyo, had been "devastated" by American Superfortress raids last weekend.

The broadcast said 40 per cent of factory workers in Kawasaki were "victims of the ravages of war." Kawasaki is Japan's ninth largest city.

Earlier a Tokyo radio commentator admitted that "a portion of the capital has been completely ruined" by American air raids. The broadcast was intercepted by the Federal Communications Commission.

May Decide Fate of Capital

BY ROMNEY WHEELER

LONDON, April 19 (AP)—The Soviet High Command officially announced late tonight that a great Berlin-bound battle was raging before the German capital and enemy reports said Russian tanks were thrusting toward Strausberg, only 10 miles from the burning city.

Clamping operational silence on what Berlin called "the greatest Red Army offensive of the war," Moscow's nightly communique announced only that Red Army forces had crossed both the Oder and Neisse Rivers East and Southeast of Berlin.

The communique did not reveal the depth of Soviet penetrations due East of Berlin, but said that fighting had been raging for three days for the "capture and extension" of bridgeheads. This was the first Moscow announcement that bridgeheads had been secured.

3 TOWNS TAKEN

Along the Neisse River, Moscow revealed that the towns of Forst, Moskau and Weiswasser, 58 to 72 miles Southeast of Berlin had been captured.

But the Germans said that these forces had driven farther West, crossed Berlin's own River Spree and plunged within 55 miles of the Americans.

Moscow described the drive across the Neisse as in the "Dresden direction."

Enemy broadcasts said the greatest tank battle of all time was raging before Berlin's suburbs, reported by the Paris radio to be under shell-fire. The enemy claimed to have destroyed 1074 Russian tanks in the last 72 hours. The armored struggle that may decide Berlin's fate was reaching its climax, the enemy said, and the Germans were falling back.

Earlier the German radio said the Red Army had launched yet another mighty offensive.

The blow was aimed at the great Baltic naval base of Stettin, Northern anchor of Berlin's crumbling Oder River defence line. Thousands of Red Army soldiers were reported surging across the Oder South of Stettin.

LINK-UP AT HAND

The Soviet radio declared the "curtain was falling on the European war" and said the time when the Allied and Russian armies would link up now was at hand.

Along the entire 170-mile front from Stettin to Saxony, invaded for the first time by the Red Army, the relentless pressure of Russian armies beat back the defensive German arc toward Berlin.

Southeast of Berlin, the Russians had gained at least 22 miles by Berlin's account and they had driven nine miles West of the Spree River to reach the strategic communications centre of Hoyerswerda in their closest approach to the American lines. Hoyerswerda is 31 miles Northeast of Dresden, Saxon capital.

UNABLE TO HALT REDS

The Germans confessed themselves unable to halt the continuous flow of powerful Red Army forces pouring into multiple bridgeheads across the shattered Spree River defence line.

The German High Command said the Russians were throwing into the colosal struggle "men and material to an extent hitherto unknown," while German commentators said the battle before Berlin "has assumed such proportions and ferocity as was never before witnessed in this most bloody of all wars."

The Germans conceded the loss of Wriezen, 23 miles Northeast of Berlin, and Seelow, 6 miles East.

With the highway defence line protecting Berlin gone, Marshal Zhukov's 1st White Russian Army troops and tanks battled 10 miles West of Seelow, and reached the outskirts of Muencheberg, 16 miles East of Berlin, the enemy said.

A Transocean agency report said Zhukov's tank forces had launched an "all-out offensive" with the great drive on Muencheberg, a key road junction in Berlin's outer defences. A massive tank battle raged also East of Buchow, 15½ miles Northeast of Berlin.

Canadian Bomber Group Oversubscribes $1,000,000 Quota

WITH THE R.C.A.F. IN BRITAIN, April 19 (CP Cable) —The Canadian Bomber Group in Britain up to Tuesday subscribed $1,689,000 to the Eighth Canadian Victory Loan, although its quota was only $1,000,000, it was announced today.

8TH POURS OVER PLAIN AFTER BREAKTHROUGH

ROME, April 19 (AP) — British 8th Army troops pouring across the Po Plain after their breakthrough of German defences in the Argenta Gap, were reported tonight within 11 miles of the industrial centre of Ferrara while American and New Zealanders drove within seven miles of Bologna from the South and East.

A special Allied communique tonight said the British 5th Corps commanded by Lt.-Gen. C. F. Keithley was storming Northwest toward Ferrara after a "brilliant break-through" in the Argenta gap near the Italian East Coast.

The towns of Consondolo and Benvignante were quickly captured and the British forces rolled on to threaten Porto Maggiore, only three miles distant.

CROSS RIVER

The Germans have thrown in virtually all available local reserves in their frantic efforts to prevent a general breakthrough into the Po Valley, and numerous counter-attacks have been launched to regain lost ground," an Allied announcement said.

New Zealand and Indian troops forced a crossing of the Quaderna River 7½ miles East of Bologna in a night attack.

An official report described the Argenta Gap defences through which the British forces broke as the "most concentrated yet encountered in Italy."

Fifth Army units moved up slightly in the Serchio Valley near the West Coast, occupying the villages of Perpoli and Vergemoli, roughly 30 miles East of the naval base of La Spezia.

"LOOK, YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE"

PARIS, April 19 (AP) — Lt.-Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., has compelled a large part of the civil population of Weimar, including men, women and children, to visit the Buchenwald prison camp and see for themselves the horrors of the Nazi regime, liberated Frenchmen said today.

The doors of the crematoriums were opened, exposing burned and semi-burned bodies of the victims. On being marched past these ovens some Germans tried not to look at the spectacle, but the repatriates said American officers, on Gen. Patton's orders, compelled the Germans to turn their heads toward the scene.

The French quoted the officers as saying to the Germans: "You must look at this. You are responsible for it."

Policeman Rescues Baby Thrown Off Pier

WEST VANCOUVER, B. C., April 19 (CP)—An unidentified woman threw her five-month-old baby off a pier here today and when a policeman went into the water to save the baby, the woman jumped on top of the officer.

The policeman, Sergeant Ed Mew of the B. C. Provincial Force, managed to reach shore with the woman and her baby. The woman and baby were taken home by relatives.

Sgt. Mew had gone to the pier after the woman was seen loitering there. When he offered the woman a ride to her home, she said: "Okay, we won't need this," and tossed the baby into the water.

TO ADD TO ESSONDALE FACILITIES

VICTORIA, April 19 (CP)—Construction of an occupational therapy building at Essondale Mental Hospital, tenders for which were received early this month by the Public Works Department, has been started. Coast Construction Co., Ltd. which submitted a tender of $44,580 has the contract.

ANOTHER JAP SHIP GOES DOWN: Attacked by B-25's of the U. S. Far East Air Forces, three Jap transports and six escort ships were sunk while attempting to reinforce the enemy base at Ormoc on Leyte Island in the Philippines. This vessel, its decks loaded with enemy war material as well as ducking Jap sailors, is the target of bombs from the big planes.

Herr Goebbels....

Calls on Germans to Discard Rules of Warfare in Defence

By DWIGHT L. PITKIN

LONDON, April 19 (AP)—Adolf Hitler declared today on the eve of his 56th birthday that "we are now starting a battle as fanatical as that which we had to fight for our ascent to power years ago," and Propaganda Minister Goebbels called on Germans to discard the rules of warfare and use every means to defend the fatherland.

"The rules of war of past centuries have become out of date," Goebbels said in his weekly newspaper Das Reich as quoted by the Transocean Agency. "In the battle against the terrible enemy all means are proper, right and allowed." He added that the war "has entered a phase in which onl ythe utmost effort of the nation and everyone can save us."

HOPE DWELLS FOREVER ...

Replying to birthday greetings from Gauleiter Karl Holz at embattled Nuernberg, Hitler's message added that "however great and crushing the enemy's superiority may appear to us, we will break it just as we did in those days," the D.N.B. agency reported in a broadcast.

Holz's message to Hitler said "the last battles for the town of (National Socialist) party meetings have begun" and he pledged himself to "stay in this most Germanic of all towns and fight and sacrifice my life." The agency said Hitler awarded Holz a decoration for this "exemplary behavior."

DON'T FORGET

Goebbels said in a broadcast speech that the Allies were ready "to administer the coup de grace" and asked Germany never to forget Hitler, who he eulogized as if he were already a Nazi martyr.

"We are witnessing the last acts of a tremendous tragedy," he said. "The decision is very near."

Speaking of Hitler as if to immortalize a dead man, Goebbels affirmed:

"Never will history be able to report of this present time that a nation abandoned its Fuehrer or a Fuehrer his nation. This is the victory. What we prayed on the eve of the Fuehrer's birthday in earlier, happier days, we must now repeat more urgently to him: That he may be preserved to us, that he may remain what he is to us and always has been to us, our Fuehrer."

Referring to the death of President Roosevelt, the little Propaganda Minister said: "The perverted coalition between conspiracy has been struck off by fate. It was fate which left the Fuehrer unharmed (in an assassination attempt) on July 20, 1944, among the dead, the seriously wounded and the ruins, so that he might complete his task—under painful and burdensome conditions, it is true, but in conformity with providence.

"This man of truly secular greatness, of unparallelled courage, who lifts and moves the heart, will become God's tool in this process."

SUPPLIES FOR 6 MONTHS

Roundabout reports reaching London from inside Germany said Hitler has assigned the command of the "national redoubt" for a desperate Nazi last stand in the Bavarian Alps to S.S. (Elite Guard) Supreme Leader Hausen, one-legged, one-armed veteran of the Falaise Gap battle in Normandy.

His assignment supposedly includes withdrawing his own army group and bringing the defenders' strength within the mountain fortress up to 325,000 or 350,000 troops, with supplies enough for about six months.

Destroy Villages as "Lesson"

WITH CANADIAN FORCES IN GERMANY, April 19 (AP)—Sogel and Friesoythe, country villages in Northwest Germany, have been destroyed because their civilians fired on Canadian troops.

When the Canadians entered the two towns German soldiers and civilians fired from every house and Canadian lives were lost.

At Sogel, 35 miles Southeast of Emden, the Canadians then ordered the civilians to leave the town before engineers blew it into nothingness, as a lesson.

But the lesson apparently was not learned, for the same thing happened when the Canadians reached Friesoythe, 18 miles Southwest of Oldenburg a few days later. This time the civilians were not evacuated, but the town was destroyed.

FOREIGN DIPLOMATS FLEE FROM TOKYO

LONDON, April 19 (CP)—Foreign diplomats have fled Tokyo because of the increasing tempo and severity of American air raids and have taken refuge at Karuizawa, mountain resort 90 miles Northwest of the capital, the German Agency Trancocean said last night, quoting a Tokyo dispatch.

Rommel's Name in Casualty File

SAALFELD, Germany, April 19—(AP) — When retreating Germans abandoned their big casualty clearing office here they left intact the millions of individual cards but destroyed the elaborate mechanism by which they could press a button and total the casualties.

Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, believed to have died of injuries inflicted by British aircraft, was listed this way in the files:

"Died of heart failure Oct. 14, 1944, at 1:25 p.m. in reserve hospital No. 2, Ulm."

Allied Junction Is at Hand; Seal Off 3 Ports

BY AUSTIN BEALMEAR

PARIS, April 19 (AP)—United States forces today captured the inner German fortresses of Leipzig and Halle, encircled Nazidom's shrine of Nuernberg, already mostly in American hands, and pushed 25 miles South of there to within 70 miles of Munich.

The U.S. 7th Army, driving toward Munich, captured Nuernberg's twin city of Fusrth, with a population of 85,000.

Resounding successes were recorded on the opposite end of the front, where British forces, driving up to the Elbe River 20 miles Southeast of Hamburg, drenched with artillery fire the last bridge across the Elbe at Lauenburg, thus sealing off from the rest of the Reich the defenders of the ports of Bremen, Emden and Wilhelmshaven.

Word was passed down through American troops that ajuction was imminent with the Russians now no more than 55 miles to the East of the U.S. 3rd Army.

Posters which illustrated the silhouettes of Russian tanks said they resembled some of those of the Germans and that Americans should look twice now before they shoot.

SMASH RUHR

The United States 1st and 9th Armies inflicted the worst defeat of Hitler's armies since Stalingrad with the final smashing of the Ruhr pocket, capturing 316,930 prisoners in that campaign, including at least 11 Generals.

The British 2nd Army in a 20-mile gain drove up to within five miles of Harburg and brought that cross-Elbe suburb of Germany's second city of Hamburg within artillery range.

The British forces were on the Elbe at numerous points 20 miles second city of Hamburg within arrushing up tanks and troops.

The Germans predicted that the Allies would land somewhere along the Elbe's mouth from the sea and attempt to take Hamburg and besieged Bremen from the rear.

FLOOD ADDED ACRES

In Holland, the Germans blew a 300-yard gap in the causeway of the Zuider Zee, flooding thousands of additional Dutch acres as the Canadians reached the South shores of the Zuider Zee at two points and rolled up against the old Netherlands defence line 10 miles or so from Utrecht.

All Northeast Holland now was cleared of Germans save for a few pockets on the North Sea, but farther East the Canadians were heavily engaged on or across the Kusten Canal at the approaches to the U-boat nests of Emden and Wilhelmshaven.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, 12th Army Group Commander, declared the first phase of the United States 1st, 3rd, 9th and 15th Armies' offensive East of the Rhine was completed, that there would be a temporary pause for consolidation "before we go into the next," and left the uneasy German High Command to guess which direction it would take.

In that first phase, he said, 842,864 German prisoners had been taken, and all the German forces that faced his armies when the big push began now had been wiped out.

Gen. Bradley's statement that the Ruhr had been liquidated implied that the big munitions city of Duesseldorf had been captured, although it last was reported stil being mopped up. The 20,000 prisoners taken at Leipzig represented half the city's estimated garrison.

With three American armies on, across, or nearing the Elbe River on a front of about 160 miles, and with a salient in the Dresden area driven to within possible 55 miles of Russian lines, the main weight of the Allied offensive veered South toward the enemy's last mountain retreat.

The fall of Leipzig, 75 miles Southeast of Berlin, came suddenly after a morning pincers assault, giving the 1st Army control of a good network of roads and railways radiating from this fifth city of Germany and releasing troops for the second phase. The 1st Army also captured Halle, a city of 130,000, 16 miles to the Northwest.

FRENCH ADVANCE

On the 7th's right flank the French broke all the way through the Black Forest in a 13-mile dash to Tubigen, 20 miles Southwest of Stuttgart, and captured Lahr, 17 miles Southeast of Strasbourg. Stuttgart was threatened with encirclement.

The campaign to free the Gironde River approaches to the big port of Bordeaux was nearing a conclusion. The Paris radio said the Germans had been driven from Point de Graves, the last main strongpoint blocking an opening of the river passage.

Canuck Dieppe Commandos Freed by Yanks

WITH THE U. S. 87TH INFANTRY DIVISION, April 19 (AP) — Sixty-two Canadian commandos wounded and taken prisoner in the Dieppe reconnaissance in force of 1942 have been freed by the U. S. 87th Infantry Division at Tambach, 12 miles South of Gotha in Thuringia.

Some of the Canadians said yesterday they were among the prisoners chained by the Germans for 13 months until their captors changed their attitude and removed the shackles in the Fall of 1943.

Cpl. Harold Nelson of Winnipeg said they had been marching towards inner Germany for seven days after which they were rescued by the Americans.

Among the liberated Canadians was Tpr. Alf Leithead, Red Deer, Alta.

Truman May Have Hand in Settling Polish Dispute

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—President Truman may take a direct hand in an effort to settle the dispute over a new Polish Government before the San Francisco United Nations conference opens.

This development appeared in the making today as it became known that attempts by a three-nation commission have failed and the matter has been checked to a meeting of Big Three foreign ministers here this weekend. The question of forming a provisional government broadly representative of all factions of Poles will be No. 1 on the agenda when Secretary of State Stettinius, British Foreign Secretary Eden and Soviet Foreign Commissar Molotov meet tomorrow or Saturday.

They are expected to receive direct reports from W. Averell Harriman, American Ambassador to Moscow, and Sir Archibald Clark-Kerr, British envoy there. Harriman and Clark-Kerr arrived by plane last night. Molotov is en route.

The American and British ambassadors had been seeking in Moscow to carry out with Molotov the Big Three agreement at Yalta to weld a new regime that could start off with representation at the San Francisco meeting to form an international peace-keeping organization.

But there are sharp indications that disagreements have lifted this problem to the higher diplomatic level of foreign ministers.

B.C. OPEN SERVICE LIBRARY CIRCULATED 51,918 BOOKS IN 1944

VICTORIA, April 19 (CP)—Circulation of books from the Provincial's library's open book service to outlying districts throughout the Province increased from 42,465 in 1943 to 51,918 last year, it was reported at the annual meeting of the Public Libraries Commission held here this week.

E. S. Robinson of Vancouver was elected chairman to succeed H. Norman Lidster of New Westminster.

Wings Blank Leafs 2-0 in Last Period Burst to Stretch Series

DETROIT, April 19 (CP)—Scoring twice in the last period, Detroit Red Wings blanked Toronto Maple Leafs 2-0 tonight before a Stanley Cup play-off crowd of 13,385 fans, sending hockey's "world series" into a sixth game next Saturday at Toronto. Leafs lead the eight-point series 3-2 in games, 6-4 on points.

Bill (Flash) Hollett, Detroit defenceman, broke up a 48-minute scoreless deadlock at 8:21 of the final period, hammering a 40-foot shot into the net past Goalie Frank McCool.

With fewer than four minutes to play Joe Carveth feinted McCool and punched a 10-footer into the rigging to clinch the verdict. Detroit thus registered its second straight victory over Leafs after losing the first three games of the final series.

McCool, who blanked Wings three straight as the series opened, looked for a while as if he might edge Rookie Harry Lumley in the netminding duel, but on the night's play Lumley handled 22 shots compared with 15 for McCool.

OPEN CAUTIOUSLY

Both clubs played cautiously in the first two periods. Detroit missed two great opportunities—one in the first period when Eddie Bruneteau's 30-foot shot bounced off a post and another in the third when Rookie Ted Lindsay's close-range shot went wide.

The teams leave tomorrow for Toronto to meet there Saturday night. A seventh game, if necessary, will be played here Sunday.

Summary:

First period: Scoring, none.

Penalties—Kennedy, Purpur.

Second period: Scoring: None.

Penalty: Lindsay.

Summary: 1, Detroit, Hollett (Carveth) 8:21; 2, Detroit, Carveth (Quackenbush) 16:16.

TOAST and TEA

BY J. V. McARTHUR

C. C. F. Greville, whose Memoirs gave him post-mortem fame that is likely to endure, had many moments of despondency, and in his diary on April 3, 1834, he made the following entry: "Yesterday I was forty years old—an anniversary much too melancholy to think of. And when I think how intolerably those forty years have been wasted, how unprofitably spent, how little store laid up for the future, how few the pleasurable recollections of the past, a feeling of pain and humiliation comes across me that makes my cheeks tingle as I write. It is very seldom I indulge in moralizing in this journal of mine. If anybody ever reads it, what will they care for my feelings and regrets? It is no reason, they will think, that because I have wasted my time, they should waste theirs in reading the records of follies that are nothing more than the great mass of the world are every day committing. Idleness, vanity and selfishness are our besetting sins and we are perpetually whirled about by one or other of them."

WITHHOLD PERMISSION FOR POWER LINES TO U.S.

VANCOUVER, April 19 (CP) — The Vancouver Sun said in a newspage story today that "Fearing that importation of electrical power from Bonneville power administration in Washington will retard development of B. C.'s power assets, the Provincial Government is withholding permission to the B. C. Electric Railway to construct necessary power lines from Bellingham."

The Sun said "A major dispute between the B.C.E.R. and Victoria appears imminent if power company officials insist on carrying out plans they are making with Bonneville Hydro."

Experiment to Clean B. C. Sand for Foundry Use

QUEBEC, April 19 (CP)—Possibility that more gold mines may be located along the fault zones of the Rouyn-Noranda area was foreseen here today by M. E. Wilson of the Geological Survey, Ottawa, speaking at the annual meeting of the Canadian Institute of Mining and Metallurgy.

Dr. Wilson's paper was one of several presented at sectional meetings at the early session. In the geology section, G. W. H. Norman of Ottawa, described the fault zones in the Abitibi area and H. S. Wilson of Bourlamaque, spoke on the structure of Lamaque mine.

In the industrial minerals section, J. M. Cummings of Victoria, told of research conducted by the British Columbia Department of Mines to make British Columbia sand suitable for use as foundry sand.

Silica sand has many industrial uses and is found in a number of places around the world—notably on certain beaches in Belgium where formerly it was the practice to load it on to vessels as ballast, to be sold overseas at a nominal price for use in making glassware or as foundry sand.

In British Columbia, where foundry sand is in considerable demand, there is an abundance of ordinary sand, containing silica mixed with other materials. Investigations had indicated that the other particles could be separated from the silica by a single process of flotation.

In the milling section, H. H. Hales, Mill Superintendent of the Sherritt-Gordon mine in Northern Manitoba, described the milling process used there. Normally the mine produced only copper but, as a wartime measure in common with other Canadian copper mines having a fair amount of zinc in their ore, the Sherritt-Gordon mine had changed its milling process so as to save the zinc for shipment to the United States.

S. Sgt. Parsons Awarded Second Oak Leaf Cluster

AN 8TH AIR FORCE BOMBER BASE, England — Staff Sergeant Fraser W. Parsons, 27, of Kimberley, B. C., engineer and top turret gunner on an Eighth Air Force B-17 Flying Fortress, has been awarded the second Oak Leaf Cluster to his Air Medal.

The award was for "meritorious achievement" during bombing attacks by Lieut.-Col. C. Cox' 388th Bomber Group against Nazi war industries and military targets in cooperation with Allied ground forces.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Parsons of Kimberley, B. C., he had been attending Gonzaga University before entering the U. S. A.A.F. in April, 1943.

Canadians Down Seven Germans

LONDON, April 19 (CP Cable)—Continent-based Canadian Spitfires destroyed at least seven German fighters in air combat over Germany today when the Luftwaffe's remnants reacted briskly to a renewed Tactical Air Force assault on rail lines between the ports of Bremen and Hamburg.

Five German planes were downed in a single patrol over the Hagenau airfield Northeast of Bremen.

Bedard of Nakusp Named McDiarmid Campaign Manager; McBride Assists

TRAIL, B.C., April 19—Alex Bedard of Nakusp, veteran of both Great Wars, has been named campaign manager for Stuart S. McDiarmid, Progressive Conservative candidate in Kootenay West for the coming Federal election which will be held June 11, Mr. Bedard will open an office in Nelson next week which will coordinate the work already under way through the office which the party has maintained in Trail for some months.

Maj. Leigh McBride, native son of Nelson, who is at present in Shaughnessy Military Hospital, is also expected to take an active part in Mr. McDiarmid's campaign and he has been named to assist Mr. Bedard. G. A. V. Sandecombe of Trail has been named official agent for Mr. McDiarmid.

Maj. McBride served with the 72nd Seaforth Highlanders of Canada. He was wounded in the Italian campaign, suffering the loss of an eye, and was a prisoner of war in Germany for seven months. He is a graduate of the University of Alberta.

Mr. Bedard who has operated a ranch at Nakusp since returning from three and a half years overseas service in this war. He also saw service overseas in the First Great War.

President of the Nakusp Board of Trade, Mr. Bedard is Chairman of the National War Finance Committee in that area and has established a record for putting Nakusp over the top.

Officials of the Progressive Conservative party have announced that Mr. Bedard will start campaign work for Mr. McDiarmid almost immediately while Maj. McBride is expected to take part in the last part of the campaign after his release from hospital.

Braves, Giants Halve Double Bill

BOSTON, April 19 (CP)—Boston Braves and New York Giants divided a National League doubleheader today, the Giants winning the morning contest 4-3 and the Braves copping the afternoon tilt 13-5.

Held scoreless for seven frames by Charlie Barrett in the opener, the Giants came up with four runs in the eighth.

The Braves climbed on three Giant hurlers for 15 hits in the second clash. Butch Nieman made three hits and scored four runs while Joe Mack clouted his second homer of the season in the fourth inning.

The Giants failed to hold a four-run lead accumulated in the third innin gwhen Ernie Lombardi, whose two-run single won the opener, clouted a homer with the bases full.

No-hit Jim Tobin settled down thereafter to hold the Giants scoreless for his initial victory.

First game:

New York	4	8	1
Boston	3	7	0

Hansen, Brewer, Gee and Lombardi; Barrett and Masi.

Second:

New York	5	7	2
Boston	13	15	0

SAVE ONE

CINCINNATI, April 19 (AP) — Pittsburgh Pirates salvaged the tail-end of their three-game National League opening series with Cincinnati Reds 5-1 today behind the four-hit pitching of Max Butcher.

Walter (Boom Boom) Beck, 41-year-old Cincinnati starting pitcher gave up two runs in the first inning and another pair in the third.

Cincinnati	1	4	1

Butcher and Lopez; Beck, Fox and Just, Riddle.

DODGERS TAKE SECOND

BROOKLYN, April 19 (AP) — With Sophomore Hal Gregg unfurling a two-hit National League performance, Brooklyn Dodgers made it two out of three today by defeating Philadelphia Phillies 3-1.

Gregg allowed the only run in the sixth when he walked Vance Dinges, who advanced to third on a single by Rene Monteagudo and scored when Jimmy Wasdel grounded out.

CARDS WIN FIRST GAME

CHICAGO, April 19 (AP) — St. Louis Cardinals today scored their first victory of the National League season as they coupled a 12-hit attack and a steady performance by southpaw Harry Brecheen to defeat Chicago Cubs 8-2 before 5417 fans.

Lefty Ray Prim, a 22-game winner for Los Angeles last season and the first of four Cub pitchers, was victimized by five unearned Cardinal runs after two were out in the fourth. Until then, the Bruins held a 1-0 lead on Ed Sauer's second inning home-run. Brecheen scattered seven hits.

Catcher Walker Cooper greeted news he must report for Army induction April 30 with four singles to pace the Cardinal attack.

BABY'S

UPSET STOMACH QUICKLY CORRECTED

BABY'S little "Tummy" is often easily upset. It is easily righted again, too, if you know just how to do it. Let Mrs. M. S. Alway, of London, Ont., tell you: "Baby's Own Tablets are a great help at the first sign of upset stomach, during teething time or when a cold is coming on. They work quickly yet gently to carry away poisons and promote quiet sleep. Walking floors at night is unknown in our home."

And Mrs. W. R. Sharp says: "I nursed my baby shortly after being alarmed over a motor accident and that upset her almost to the point of convulsions. I gave her Baby's Own Tablets and she soon stopped crying—went to sleep."

Equally effective for teething troubles, constipation, simple fever and diarrhoea. Sweet-tasting, easily crushed to a powder, if desired—prompt in action. No "sleepy" stuff—no dulling effect. Buy a box today for sickness so often strikes in the night. 25 cents. Money back if not satisfied.

Tigers Take Champs in Opener Senators Win

ST. LOUIS, April 19 (AP)—Detroit broke off a tight pitching duel by bunching three of their nine singles in the ninth inning today to whip the champion St. Louis Browns 1-0, and win their opening American League series two games to one.

Alton Benton held the Browns to four widely scattered hits while the Tigers pecked ineffectively away at Nelson Potter, Browns' ace right-hander, until he faltered in the final round.

Don Guttridge, Brownie second baseman and the first batter to face Benton, rapped out a double to start the game.

The Tigers hit safely, all singles, once in every inning but the first and third until the ninth, but strong defensive play snuffed out all semblances of incipient rallies.

Detroit	1	9	0
St. Louis	0	4	0

BREAKS TIE

PHILADELPHIA, April 19 (AP) —A 12th inning home run by George Case gave Washington Senators a 4-3 American League victory over Philadelphia Athletics today in their second straight extra-inning game at Shibe Park.

Marino Pieretti, rookie right-hander from the Pacific Coast League, went the route for Washington and subdued the Athletics' repeated scoring bids after Irv Hall doubled the tying run home in the eighth.

INJURIES APLENTY

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP)—Joe Cronin's actual baseball career probably ended today at Yankee Stadium when the 38-year-old manager of Boston Red Sox was carried off the field with a fractured right leg as his club was bowing for the third straight time to New York, 4-3.

The veteran infielder caught his spikes in second base during a seventh-inning rally that tied the score. X-rays showed a "bad fracture of the right leg."

It was day of strange happenings with Johnny Lindell spiking Hershel Martin in the nose while they rolled on the ground after chasing a long fly in the second game. Lindell was hit on the left wrist by Pitcher Mike Ryba to force in George Stirnweis with the winning run in the last of the ninth.

Walt Dubell went all the way in a workman-like job for the home club.

Prisoners' Skins Make Ornaments

WITH THE U. S. 1ST ARMY, April 19 (AP)—Describing the German concentration camp at Buchenwald, Capt. J. Dabney Penick of Montclair, N. J., said today:

"The death, starvation, brutality, filth and bestiality of the whole place was on such a huge scale that you looked at it and still were hardly able to believe what you saw."

He had heard in England that the skin of victims who died at the camp had been made into lampshades, book bindings and wall ornaments. Penick said he did not believe the story then, "but I saw them with my own eyes today."

Penick and Maj. M. Goodwin of Atlanta, Ga., found men who had some of these hideous souvenirs. Penick explained they "were sort of a fad which was started by the wife of the prison commandant."

Penick said there was one piece of skin from a man's chest mounted on a board and covered with cellophane. It contained the tattooed figure of a nude woman and apparently was designed for use as a wall decoration, he explained.

Urges Graduated Coal Price Scale

REGINA, April 19 (CP) — A plan for "thrifty buyers" to purchase coal supplies before the Winter season was placed before the Dominion Royal Commission on Coal here today.

The Commission opened a one-day session here after hearings in British Columbia and Alberta, and next week will meet in Winnipeg.

The plan for early buying was proposed by the Saskatchewan Federated Cooperatives, Ltd., in a brief which urged a graduated scale of prices for coal to induce the consumer to make purchases before the Winter season.

"In attempting to develop a practical plan of coal distribution that will receive the support of the consumer," the brief stated:

"... It will be necessary to have prices sufficiently attractive during the Spring and early Summer to induce the thrifty buyer to put in supplies."

Kelley Wins Second Marathon

BOSTON, April 19 (AP)—Johnny Kelley of West Acton, Mass., won his second Boston Athletic Association marathon today, coming from behind within the last two miles to cross the tape first.

Kelley's time was two hours, 30 minutes, 40 1-5 seconds.

The record of two hours, 26 minutes, 51 1-5 seconds was set by Joe Smith of the North Medford Club in 1942.

Lloyd Bairstow of Lawrence, Mass., crossed the line about two minutes behind Kelley — being clocked at two hours, 32 minutes, 50 seconds.

Third was Don Heinicke of Baltimore.

Fourth to swing across the line was Robert (Scotty) Rankine of Preston, Ont., running for the Sunday Morning Class, Toronto, in two hours, 38 minutes, three seconds.

Then came Lloyd Evans of Montreal with a time of 2:39:43.

Police Continue Probe of Mystery Stabbing

PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., April 19 (CP)—A coroner's jury which began an inquest into the death of Kitty Moen adjourned yesterday until April 25 after viewing the body of the 50-year-old woman who was found stabbed through the heart at her home here Sunday.

The adjournment was granted by Coroner M. M. Stephens at the request of B. C. Police who asked for more time to pursue their investigation into the mysterious death.

The probability that Mrs. Moen's death may be in some way connected with the murder of her sister, Esther Killas, in 1928, is not discounted, but as yet no link has been established, it is understood.

TRAIL PATRIOTIC GIVES $14,200 TO RED CROSS

TRAIL, B. C., April 19—Trail District Patriotic and Welfare Society contributed $14,200 to the Canadian Red Cross Society, according to its statement of receipts and disbursements for March.

Other disbursements were $1056 to the Navy League of Canada, $500 to the Trail Community Chest, $380 to the Junior Red Cross, $229 to the Salvation Army, $200 to the Victorian Order of Nurses, $150 to the Arthur Chapman Chapter I.O.D.E., $146 to the Canadian Legion and $100 to the Queen's Canadian Fund.

Receipts show that campaign collections totalled $13,674.10. Of this total $11,759.15 was for the Red Cross.

MORE B.C. FISH TO GO TO BRITAIN

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP) —Fisheries Minister Bertrand today announced that arrangements were in progress to supply Britain with huge quantities of B. C. frozen fish and other Canadian fish products, and that allocations were being made from 1945 fisheries production to meet other needs of the United Nations.

Mr. Bertrand said under an arrangement being made between the Fisheries Department and the British Food Ministry a minimum of 15,000,000 pounds of sharp-frozen cod and pollock fillets will be supplied to the United Kingdom from Canada's 1945 Atlantic Coast production.

If output permits the quantity may be increased.

Free Time for Campaign Speeches

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP) — Allotment of free time among political parties on Canadian Broadcasting Corporation networks during the forthcoming Dominion and Ontario election campaigns was agreed upon at meetings this week among CBC officials and party representatives in Toronto and Ottawa, Dr. Augustin Frigon, CBC General Manager, said today.

In a white paper issued last year the CBC ruled that to participate in the free time in the Dominion campaign parties must have 61 or more candidates in three provinces and have a national policy.

Officials said 14½ hours free time has been set aside on the national networks. The Liberals will have 5¼ hours; Progressive Conservatives 3¾ hours; C.C.F. 3½ hours; and Social Crediters and Labor Progressives one hour each.

Strange Opposition as Canucks Advance

By DOUGLAS AMARON
Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH THE CANADIAN ARMY IN HOLLAND, April 19 (CP)—It's a strange war. While on the Eastern end of the Canadian bridgehead over the Rhine 3rd Division troops were in savage combat with the enemy for the German industrial city of Emmerich, only five miles inland Les Fusiliers Mont-Royal pushed their way against slight opposition to free two Netherlands towns in less than 24 hours.

Emmerich—a gutted shambles of seared walls, twisted and burned by bomb, shell and flame-thrower — was Germany, another Kleve.

Just a few miles Northeast was Gendringen, Holland, liberated on the evening of March 30 by the F.M.R.S.; 2½ miles further on was the city of Ulft on the River Ijessel, freed by the same regiment on March 31.

Enemy opposition was slight, said the young French-Canadian from Montreal who commands the battalion. "The civilian population were my worst opposition. They're opposing my advance, stopping my men to kiss them and offer them all kinds of souvenirs."

The joyful townfolk of Gendringen and Ulft, their tidy homes largely intact thanks to the dispirited Nazi stand, strung out great red, white and blue flags in the streets and from public buildings, wore orange-colored rosettes on their lapels or in their hair, and clapped and cheered as the infantrymen and their armored support passed by.

A little band of paratroopers made a stand at a road-block outside Ulft. There was a skirmish in which some were killed and 17 were taken prisoner. The scrap over, civilian volunteers poured out with picks and spades to tear the obstacle down. Road gangs joined the sappers and in no time roads through the town were passable for armor and the long lines of supply convoys to follow

One company, helped by tanks of the Fort Garry Horse, was enough to take Geendringen, where opposition was light.

The F.M.R.S. rested overnight, though maintaining pressure on the Germans North of Gendringen as another regiment thrust through on the left in a night infiltration movement. Next morning the enemy awoke to find a whole Canadian battalion behind him and threatening to cut him off. When the F.M.R.S. applied pressure he pulled out of Ulft altogether.

Some Members of Roosevelt Cabinet Leaving

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—Some members of the Roosevelt cabinet are on the way out—it is believed.

Although the feeling has been general here that President Truman might delay any changes for a couple of months, close friends suggested today that one or more new department heads may be named within days.

Most of them pointed to the Labor Department, which Secretary Perkins undoubtedly would like to leave as soon as she gracefully can. Most-mentioned as a possible successor is Sen. Harley Kilgore (Dem. W. Va.)

Sen. Kilgore is satisfactory to the C.I.O. and also has worked with the A.F.L. Both organizations must be reasonably satisfied with the man chosen because he probably will lead a revitalized department containing all labor agencies.

A change also will be made in the agriculture setup, with Secretary Wickard slated to step out in favor of a new man who may take over the duties of war food administrator as well.

Marvin Jones, who fills the latter post, told friends recently he would like to go back to the Court of Claims, from which he was borrowed by President Roosevelt. Mr. Jones still draws his pay as a judge and receives no salary as Food Administrator.

J. B. Hutson, Deputy in charge of agricultural reconversion in the War Mobilization office, might be Mr. Truman's choice for the enlarged portfolio.

Mr. Hutson is a close friend of James F. Byrnes, the former war mobilizer whose sage advice is likely to continue to be welcomed by the President.

Mr. Byrnes went back to his Spartanburg, S. C., home for a rest yesterday, and it is understood he won't come back to Washington for any unofficial advisory position.

When he appears in government service, it probably will be as Secretary of State, succeeding Edward R. Stettinius Jr. By that time the San Francisco United Nations conference will be over with and the way possibly clear for Mr. Stettinius to become the American representative in the proposed security organization.

Canadian Sheep on Way to Shearing Floors

By DOUGLAS GREEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP)—Canadiaan sheep, laboring under heavy Winter coats of wool, now are en route to shearing floors across the country and schools of shearing and wool preparation, designed to assist growers to market wool in prime condition, soon will be held in eight production centres—Carleton Place and Weston, Ont.; Swift Current, Sask.; Calgary, Cardston and Lethbridge, Alta.; and Kamloops and Vernon, B. C.

Agricultural authorities said today it was important that the wool and lambs produced under range conditions be improved. Establishment of the shearing schools represented one aspect of plans for improvement of domestic flocks. Canadian wools, to hold their own in world markets, must equal imported varieties in careful preparation.

Canada's prewar consumption of wool was about 60,000,000 pounds yearly, most of it imported, and during the war imports have risen greatly. In 1938, the domestic output of shorn and pulled wool was 15,628,000 pounds.

By 1943 production reached 17,818,000 pounds, and 1944 output amounted to 19,279,000 pounds, a new high mark. Output this year is expected to approximate the 1944 figure. Exports normally average about one-third of Canadian production.

The sheep population gradually is drifting westward and expanding under range conditions, largely because Western raisers are able to turn flocks on to marginal lands.

The Federal Government pays half the cost of a bonus of four cents a pound for all clean grades of wool grown in provinces which agree to pay the other half. Alberta leads as a wool-producing province, the census of livestock population crediting the province with 1,023,200 head of sheep at June 1 last.

Ontario, Quebec and Saskatchewan follow in that order, with 736,800, 637,300 and 530,900 head, respectively.

LONDON (Reuters)—The Elisabethville, Leopoldville and Thysville, three of Belgium's largest liners which before the war were on the Congo run, took part in the D-Day landings, being used as troop transports.

QUEEN WILHELMINA RETURNS TO HOLLAND: Queen Wilhelmina completes an inspection of Dutch troops in Maastrich following her return to the Netherlands after four years of self-imposed exile in England.

Piano Program, Convention Report Enjoyed by Nelson P.T.A.

Piano selections by Miss Beverley McCosham, and a report by Mrs. C. Brett of the B. C. Parent-Teacher Federation convention, were enjoyed at a well attended meeting of the Nelson Parent-Teacher Association in Central School Tuesday night.

Miss McCosham played two piano selections, "Allemande and Gigue" from the French Suite No. 5 in G Major by Bach, and "Rush Home in Hong Kong", by Abram Chasins, this latter being a piece representing the din and chatter of a busy Oriental street.

Mrs. Brett was the Nelson P.T.A. delegate to the B. C. convention in Vancouver. The theme of the whole convention, she said, was "Our Youth—Tomorrow's Hope."

Several outstanding educationalists spoke to 300 delegates at this 23rd annual convention. Among them were Dr. King, of the Dept. of Education, Reed Fulton, principal of West Seattle High School; Mrs. J. S. Stewart of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers; B. C. Gillie, President of the B. C. Teachers Federations; Mrs. K. G. Kern, President of B. C. Parent-Teachers Federation; J. B. DeLong, school inspector and R. K. Gervin, Trades and Labor Council.

Mrs. Brett said that parents must see that their children are supplied with up-to-date equipment, and up-to-date personalities to teach them.

Children of tomorrow should be prepared for a variety of jobs rather than a single trade.

"One of the most important things," the speaker quoted, "is spiritual training."

Mrs. Brett stated that the B. C. Federation went on record as favoring teachers being able to hold public office if elected. Another resolution pledged the Federation to do all in its power to eliminate racial prejudice and to seek higher education for students with inadequate means.

A presentation of $20,000 to Dr. McKenzie, President of the U.B.C. was made for the Home Management House at the U.B.C. by the Home Economic Endowment Fund Committee.

A panel discussion on "Is Education Out of Date" was another special feature of the gathering in which a student, an ex-serviceman, a parent, a school inspector, a business man, and a professor took part.

Mrs. Brett brought back an Honorary Membership Certificate to the Nelson Association in recognition of its increased membership of 58 per cent.

TEA RECEIPTS $102

Mrs. C. E. Bradshaw, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee reported that the total receipts for the Shamrock Tea were $102.40.

Mrs. E. Hopwood, Sunshine Convener, stated that 13 cards had been sent to sick children.

Mrs. Brett, in speaking for the Membership Committee, said that six new members had joined, making a total of 114 members to date.

Previews of the month's motion pictures will be given at each meeting henceforth, by E. Evans, chairman of Community Standards, assisted by Mrs. H. Harrop.

A committee was formed under the direction of Mrs. Dodman to further the Memorial Scholarships idea, being sponsored by the Nelson P.T.A. for students who have joined the forces from the Nelson schools. J. A. Ballantyne and probably an Arts Teacher will also be on this committee.

A nominating committee for the annual election of officers was formed of Mrs. C. Brett, Mrs. Dyck, and Mrs. W. A. Triggs.

The executive committee was delegated to entertain Mrs. M. A. Kern, retiring president of the B.C. Federation, who will be in Nelson on April 6, and who is on a speaking tour across Canada, sponsored by the Canadian Federation of Home and School.

8 IN STUDY GROUP

A report from the "Pre-School Child and Family Life" Study Group stated it had an enrollment of eight active members. To date they had used the 12 bulletins on Child Psychology for Parents, supplemented by books from the Nelson library, and the Extension Library of the U. B. C., also from the Provincial Board of Health.

A kindergarten teacher, who had had 16 years experience in Toronto, had been a speaker at one of their meetings and as a direct result of their study group, they projected the idea of a kindgarten in this community, and had sent a resolution to the Parent-Teacher Federation convention to urge that Pre-Elementary schools be opened in B. C.

Crossing of Rhine Costs U.S. Army 47,023 Casualties

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP) —The Battle for the Rhine and crossing of the river in March cost U. S. Army ground forces 47,023 casualties, Secretary of War Stimson reported today.

Since D-Day last June, Stimson disclosed, American ground casualties on the Western front totalled 473,215 up to the end of March. Included are 79,795 killed, 334,919 wounded and 58,501 missing.

Stimson disclosed that Army casualties in all theatres reached 813,870 on the basis of names compiled in Washington through April 7. Added to the Navy's losses of 98,608, this put aggregate casualties since Pearl Harbor at 912,478.

Mrs. Roosevelt to Continue Writing Articles

NEW YORK, April 19 (9P)— Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt said today in her newspaper column she would not accept or run for public office or any office at the present time.

She added, however, that she planned to continue her column, "My Day," and her magazine page in the Ladies' Home Journal as well as writing "an occasional article."

George A. Carlin, General Manager of United Features Syndicate, said Mrs. Roosevelt's contract to write "My Day" had been renewed last March 10 for five years.

"Mrs. Roosevelt is a great lady and a great person in her own right," he declared. "Her column will be accepted on its merits. From now on she can speak more freely on all matters."

In her column today, Mrs. Roosevelt said:

"I have two jobs that I consider myself obligated to do and that I want to do. My daily column I have always looked upon as a job which I wanted to have considered on its merits. Because I was the wife of the President, certain restrictions were imposed upon me. Now I am on my own, and I hope to write as a newspaper woman.

"My magazine page is also a contract that I wish to fulfill as well as I possibly can."

Macdonalds and More MacDonalds for the Senate

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP) — With the appointment last night of Hon. John A. McDonald, Nova Scotia Agriculture Minister, as a Senator, the upper chamber will have two Macdonalds and two McDonalds and all of them are "John A."

In fact, three of them are "John Alexander," the same as Canada's first Prime Minister, the exception being Senator John Anthony McDonald from New Brunswick.

The new appointee is a Baptist and a Liberal. John Anthony is listed in the parliamentary guide as an Independent but as there is no Independent group in the Senate, he sits with the Progressive Conservatives along with Senator MacDonald from Cape Breton and Senator Macdonald from Prince Edward Island. The three already in the Senate are Roman Catholics.

LONDON (CP) — Football classes for schoolboys have been held recently at Stamford Bridge, the Chelsea ground, with tuition in dribbling, passing and heading by international players.

Kaslo Plans V-E Thanksgiving

KASLO, B.C.—Kaslo City Council granted W. Hendren a permit to erect a residence to the value of $3000.

It was resolved that:

The rate of trades licences of Tourist Cabins be the same as applied to hotels and rooming houses;

That V-E Thanksgiving Service be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Drill Hall on the day victory is announced.;

That Mr. Bartholemew be asked to review the present electric light rates and bring in a recommendation os to the lowering of present rates on account of surplus power.

A committee from the local Women's Institute waited on the Council presenting a letter received from George S. Pearson, Provincial Secretary, concerning the establishing of a home for the aged in Kaslo. After some discussion it was decided that a letter be sent Mr Pearson asking what assistance would be given in the event of Kaslo establishing a home.

Alderman Sutherland moved that the resolution passed by the Council at a former meeting supporting the Kelowna resolution urging the deportation of Canadian Japanese, be rescinded. Several ratepayers gave their opinion on the subject and after a brief discussion, and with all but one member of the Council being in favor, the resolution was rescinded.

Creston High Receives Gov't. Grant of $2500

CRESTON, B.C.—Highlighting the monthly School Board meeting was the announcement from the Provincial Government of a grant of $2500 for the High School for the term 1944-45. James Holder was in the chair and trustees Cooper, Spencer and Fraser were present.

Along academic lines the High School report showed that during the past month a series of standardized tests were given the junior grades and progress was noted in general. The junior grades, according to S. J. Graham, appeared to be benefitting from experienced teaching and despite the shorter teaching year standards achieved by grades 7-9 appeared satisfactory.

The sale of war stamps at the end of March totalled $1298.25.

The trustees gave permission for six senior track athletes to go to Libby for a track meet lasting two days.

The use of liver to cure night blindness was mentioned in manuscripts before the Christian era.

CROZIER-BYRES

● St. Paul's United Church was the scene of a pretty Spring wedding Wednesday at eight o'clock, when Rev. T.J.S. Ferguson united in marriage Jessie Ann, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Byres, 1307 Hall Mines Road, and Dan Wade Crozier, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Crozier of Armstrong, B. C. Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked charming in a floor length wedding gown of white chiffon crepe, her floor length veil being held in place by a net halo of white rosebuds. She carried a muff of Easter lilies and white rosebuds. Mrs. F. Rose, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of pink chiffon crepe with matching chapel veil and carried a colonial bouquet of red and white carnations. Miss Heida Limacher as bridesmaid was gowned in a pastel green crepe and a matching chapel veil. She also carried a colonial bouquet of red and white carnations. The groom was supported by J. Morgan of Nelson while ushers were F. Rose and W. Leslie. During the signing of the register, Paul Heilscher sang, "O Perfect Love," accompanied by Mrs. T. J. S. Ferguson who also played the wedding marches. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Byres, mother of the bride, wearing a smart street length black crepe dress with large matching hat, was assisted in receiving with the bridal party by Mrs. W. Easton, sister of the bride, who wore a two-piece Dover blue ensemble with matching accessories. The bride's table was covered by a handmade lace cloth, and centred by a three tier wedding cake embedded in white tulle and heather flanked by flickering pink tapers in silver sconces. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. M. Barclay and Mrs. D. T. Heddle, while serviteurs included Mrs. C. F. Gigot, Mrs. H. Scott, Miss Mabel Irvine, Miss Jemima Sutherland, Miss Connie Hamson and Miss Jessie Spratt. For travelling the bride changed to a navy blue tailored suit topped by a gray wool coat with navy accessories. On their return they will reside at 612 Latimer Street.

NELSON-ANDERSON

● The Mission Covenant Church of Nelson was the scene of a lovely Spring wedding Wednesday afternoon, when Mildred Clare, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson of Trail, became the bride of August Einar Nelson of Polwartn, Sask. The bride entered the chruch on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Hanna Busk. She looked lovely in her afternoon frock of turquoise blue with matching accessories and corsage of carnations. Her only adornment was a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Miss Frances Norris, bridesmaid, wore dusty rose crepe with corsage of carnations, and Miss Adrienne Anderson, junior bridesmaid, was dressed in white, and carried a colonial bouquet. The groom was supported by the bride's brother, Joel Anderson of Vancouver. The bride's uncle, J. Carlson, acted as usher. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. N. Ericson of Nelson. During the signing of the register, Mrs. F. R. Enarson and Miss Lillian Ericson sang "The Marriage Prayer" by Alfred P. Gibbs. Following the ceremony a dainty reception was held in the Church. The bride's mother was dressed in black with mauve accessories. At the bridal table, centred by the three-tiered wedding cake embedded in tulle and sweet peas, presided Mrs. D. N. Ericson and Mrs. J. B. Gray, who poured and cut ices. Rev. D. N. Ericson proposed the toast to the bride and the groom responded. Miss Anne Busk sang "There's an Eye That's Watching O'er Thee". Serviteurs included Mrs. E. O. Hammer, Mrs. J. Olsen, Mrs. P. Beckman, Mrs. A. Gustafson, Mrs. F. R. Enarson, Misses Ruth Ericson, Lillian Ericson, Ida Busk, and Anne Busk. After a honeymoon in the Kootenays, the bride and groom will make their home in Polwarth, Sask.

M-m-m-so nice! and so nourishing!

No need to coax young appetites when you serve Shreddies*, flavor-mellowed with tempting, tasty malt. And you can be sure they're getting the nourishment they need for healthy energy. These spoon-size, toasty, golden-brown morsels are made from whole wheat . . . and contain all the vital elements of bran, minerals, protein and precious wheat germ. Youngsters just gobble them up—for breakfast, lunch or supper.

S-W-E-L-L WITH SOUP! Crisp, toasty Shreddies make a hit as croutons in soup. It's an appetizing way to add whole wheat nourishment to light meals.

The Minister of Reconstruction Predicts

Hon. C. D. Howe, Minister of Reconstruction, has outlined his views as to the probable future course of events in Canada for the next two or three years. He predicts:

There will be a notable inrcease in civilian production with "high employment" in all parts of Canada at the end of the war in Europe.

For the war in the Pacific, not less than 65 per cent of current production will be required. The cut-back will release labor, materials and plant capacity for civilian production.

The increase in civilian production will cover wide fields of domestic requirements—trucks and busses, radios, clothing, household equipment and home construction — giving employment to every man who wants to work.

Measured in dollars the cut-back will leave roughly 2 billion per year for continuing war industry, as against the 3 billion now being spent.

Price control in Canada will be continued for some time after the end of the war with Japan.

The adjustment from war to peace production when the fighting in Europe ends, being stage two of reconstruction, will be in progress for some years, during which time Canadian labor will be fully employed without rest for artificial stimulation.

Due to limited shipping facilities the troops will be demobilized gradually. This gradual demobilization will apply both to the army at home and the troops overseas.

The following five-point policy has been decided on to provide jobs in the post-war period:

(1) Increase in domestic consumption, both primary and secondary;

(2) Increased export markets;

(3) A social welfare program;

(4) Stimulation and encouragement of private investment;

(5) A program of public investment.

Two important decisions under the foregoing have already been taken, viz.:

(a) Creation of a government committee which will consider application for a special income tax depreciation from firms ready to invest in capital equipment which will create post-war jobs.

(b) Decision of the Crown Assets Allocation Committee to give priority in the sale of surplus war equipment and materials to purchasers who will use them for the creation of post-war jobs.

Mr. Howe further predicts, and there is every reason for expecting that the prediction will be justified, a tremendous volume of construction of homes. Even in 1944, despite shortages of labor and materials, 35,000 private homes were built in Canada, the largest number in the history of the country.

In contrast to his anti-private enterprise policy in civilian aviation, which will probably be modified by circumstances, Mr. Howe announces that the Government has decided against operating a Government-owner merchant marine. That is all to the good. Canada had a taste of Government ownership of merchant shipping in pre-war days and has little appetite for any more of it.

The Minister speaks of "high employment" during the post-war years, rather than for "full employment". The latter would mean employment for everyone on every working day in the year; "high employment" takes into account seasonable employment. Building, for example, cannot be as active in Winter as in Summer.

The Triumph of the Bailey Bridge

The fact that during the present war great rivers have not proved serious obstacles to the Allied Armies even when enemy has destroyed the bridge is largely attributable to British engineer skill in the production of the famous "Bailey Bridges". While further Allied crossings of the Rhine may in wider reaches, for example, from the British sector at Wesel, where the width is over a thousand yards, be carried out by assault craft—whose success recently was demonstrated by several British crossings of the 1000-yard-wide Irrawaddy above and below Mandalay—the Bailey Bridge seems the most likely method for the narrower reaches, for example, at Coblenz where the width is four hundred yards—where the Germans have only partially destroyed bridges. This British invention was adopted by the United States Forces as a standard field bridging equipment, its plans were also supplied to the Red Army.

At the beginning of the war the existing military bridges could carry little more than 20 tons, but the increasing size of British tanks and the use of tank transporters necessitated the invention of a bridge with heavier capacities, though the sections must still be capable of handling by manpower alone.

The eminent British civil engineer, Donald Coleman Bailey, played a leading part in the development of the bridge bearing his name. It is noteworthy that his rough plans for a new design to be used in offensive operations were made at the end of 1940, during Britain's darkest hour. Within four and a half months the first experimental bridge underwent trials. The essential feature of the Bailey Bridge is its use of relatively light interchangeable components. The standard sections are 10 feet long, consisting only of 17 parts, nine of the parts being used to make the foundation. The heaviest part can be handled by six men. Each section is joined to the next by one steel pin, as simple as constructing a model with a child's meccano set. (The nearest German approximation requires 24 nuts and bolts for each joint).

According to the loading required, the strength can be varied from one row of girders at each side to three tiers, each three girders side by side. The girders are assembled on rollers and pushed out through a gap to be bridged. To overcome the natural sag over the gap the forward section is raked upwards, to form a "launching nose" which is received at the far end on rollers, light enough to be carried across by men straddling the girders. The sag is also countered by weighting the launching end with sections, afterwards usable to complete the bridge. At each end the bridge rests on bearings of an orthodox type.

For the lightest loads, gaps up to 240 feet can be spanned. Much larger gaps can be crossed by forming a pontoon bridge, each section of which can be constructed independently. In pontoon units, pinned together at the bottom, only joints at the top are left open, so that if the load on any one pontoon makes it sink unduly, the top joint is closed up, causing the load to be distributed along the whole bridge.

The simplicity of the construction enables any section damaged by the enemy quickly to be replaced with pontoon sections, which are readily removable to permit navigation. The initial bridge suitable for light tanks may subsequently be built up with additional sections to take heavier types.

PAYING FOR THEORIES

It is only a kind of fanaticism which could persuade otherwise sensible people that public money must be spent, whether needed or not, in order to prove that a long-tested economic system is wrong and another wholly untried system is right. What the CCF overlooks is that the taxpayer who must put up the money is not concerned with theories but results. People, not excepting Socialists, do not relish being taxed to pay for theories. If, after the war, there is unemployment and public works are needed, the money will be forthcoming. —Winnipeg Free Press.

J. S., Creston—About two months ago a read a poem in your paper. I cannot remember the exact name of it, but I know it was about monkeys, and the way they treated their young. It was a sort of ironical comparison between monkeys and men, (Darwin). Could you possibly give me a copy of this?

DARWIN'S MISTAKE

Three monkeys sat in a cocoanut tree,
Discussing things as they are said to be.
Said one to the other, "Now listen, you two,
There's a certain rumor that can't be true,
That man descended from our noble race!
The very idea is a disgrace.

No monkey ever deserted his wife,
Starved her babies and ruined her life.
And you've never known a mother monk,
To leave her babies with others to bunk,
Or pass them on from one to another,
Till they scarcely know who is their mother.

And another thing you'll never see,
A monk build a fence 'round a cocoanut tree,
And let the cocoanuts go to waste,
Forbidding all other monks a taste.
Why, if I'd put a fence 'round a cocoanut tree,
Starvation would force you to steal from me!

Here's another thing a monk won't do—
Go out at night and go on a stew,
Or use a gun or club or knife
To take some other monkey's life.
Yes, man descended—the ornery cuss—
But brother, he didn't descend from us!"

J. H., Rossland—Could you please tell me where I can get the correct rules for playing cribbage?

Any good book of Hoyle should give you the rules of cribbage. These can be bought at almost any book store.

S. C., Nelson—All questions regarding rentals should be taken to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Once Gave Grudgingly on Tag Days But Now Asks to Be Tagged

To the Editor:

Sir—The season of tag days has again rolled around. Some of us give cheerfully, some of us give grudgingly, and some of us give not at all.

I used to belong to the grudging group—but not any more. Too many of my loved ones, or my friends or neighbors have had life made more livable by Red Cross jam, by parcels from home, by curtains around the beds in the wards at our hospital, and by all the other results of the tag days.

So now I am in the cheerful group, have my money ready for the very first tagger (who is giving her time to help the good cause) and ask for a tag instead of waiting to be asked. The taggers seem to like it, and I feel a lot better about it myself.

JUST A THOUGHT.

Revised School Board Estimates Rejected by Rossland Council

ROSSLAND, B. C., April 19 — A request of the Castlegar United School Board for a copy of the Rossland Salary schedule was granted by the Rossland School Board Tuesday evening. Secretary T. H. Yolland was instructed to forward a copy to the Secretary of the Castlegar United School Board.

A letter from the War Assets Corporation acknowledging the School Board's application for Office equipment was filed. It stated that equipment would not be released for some time.

City Clerk J. A. McLeod, informed the Board that its revised estimates had been rejected by the City Council. This letter was filed.

A letter from the Board of School Trustees of West Vancouver asking for a copy of Rossland per capita costs. The letter was filed and the Secretary was asked to write and ask the West Vancouver Board to clarify the purpose of their request and to send them a copy of the School Board's brief to Dr. M. A. Cameron, Commissioner on the Financing of Education.

Mrs. L. A. Read on behalf of the Parent-Teachers, Junior Board of Trade, and the Health Nurse thanked the School Board for the use of the high school auditorium to show the health pictures recently. She also apologized for not contacting the Board before arrangements were made. Chairman A. Turner explained the circumstances and the actions taken. The Board confirmed Chairman Turner's actions in granting the use of the auditorium.

Trustee R. Allison, Chairman of the Finance Committee, reported that the finance situation was not clear. January 1 to March 31, $16,424.65 had been expended. This was compared favorably with that of the same period last year.

D. G. Chamberlain, Principal, reported that during the exam period before Easter, the Secretary was ill and Mrs. F. Batt and Mrs. Young assisted him offering their services as a community effort. Secretary Yolland was instructed to write Mrs. Batt and Mrs. Young letters of apreciation for their valuable assistance.

Mr. Chamberlain also reported the new locks for the high school doors have arrived and had been installed. Chairman Turner asked Mr. Chamberlain to keep a complete record of the keys and to get a receipt from those securing them from him.

He also reported the condition existing from the pavement at the entrance of the school to the road. This was referred to Trustee Lefevre.

Principal Perkins reported that he had three substitutes and inquired what was best to do if he needed more as there are no more available here. The Board instructed him to make the best arrangements he could.

He also reported that the serving of hot cocoa at lunch time had been discontinued, also that his staff was not using the Armories for drill.

Churchill Evades V-E Day Issue . . . .

Atrocities Urgent Matter

By JAMES F. KING

LONDON, April 19 (AP) —Prime Minister Churchill announced today that a "solemn warning" to the Germans against prison camps atrocities is being prepared to be issued over the signatures of himself, Marshal Stalin and President Truman.

The foreign secretaries in Washington—Vyacheslav Molotov for Russia, Edward Stettinius for the U. S., and Anthony Eden for Britain —are preparing the warning to "bring home responsibility, not only to the men at the top who are already on other grounds war criminals in many cases, but also to the actual people who have done this foul work with their own hands."

Sidestepping attempts to draw a hint from him as to when a proclamation on V-E day will come — he declared it would be made jointly with the Russians —the Prime Minister made clear that the matter of atrocities now is taking top priority in Big Three discussions.

The whole matter had become "one of urgency," he said and the warning will be issued by the Big Three in a few days.

He disclosed that he had received only this morning a letter from Gen. Eisenhower, saying "New discoveries, particularly at Weimar, far surpassed anything previously disclosed." The Buchenwald camp was at Weimar.

A parliamentary delegation will leave tomorrow, on invitation of Gen. Eisenhower, to get first hand proof of the atrocities disclosed in captured camps, he announced.

The Prime Minister said "No words can express the horror which is felt by His Majesty's Government and their allies at the proof of these frightful crimes now daily coming into view."

"A solemn warning has been prepared for the German Government, or whatever authorities exist, by agreement with Russia and the United States," he disclosed, and he expressed the hope it would be issued in a few days.

He said Eisenhower had invited him to send members of parliament to get first hand proof of the crimes as they are disclosed.

Mr. Churchill said the whole matter of V-E day, taking in both military and political considerations, would have to be discussed by the "three or four" principal powers engaged, before the final defeat of Germany was proclaimed.

One member asked whether Gen. Eisenhower's statement that V-E day would not be proclaimed until all important centres had been liquidated meant that Norway, Denmark and the Channel Islands and Atlantic ports would have to be liberated first.

Mr. Churchill reiterated that he had "No announcement about V-E day at the present time."

"I do not know myself, why all this talk about V-E day has got about,' 'the Prime Minister said. "No one in the British Government and no responsible gentleman in any of the parties so far as I know has given any special encouragement to this."

PORCUPINE CLUB PLANS SALE

GRAY CREEK, B.C.—The monthly meeting of the Porcupine Club was held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Clark. Those present were Mrs. John Wolfhard, Secretary-President, Mrs. Lymbery, Mrs. Norman Anderson, Mrs. George Oliver, Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Benthien, Mrs. Burge, Mrs. McClaren and Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. Wolfhard asked members to each prepare some item for an apron and fancy sale later on in the year.

Mrs. Clark suggested that the Red Cross should be kept in mind so as to accumulate a donation gradually.

A letter from Mrs. Brewer of Nelson was read thanking members for the quilts and children's articles in the last shipment to V Bundles.

Mrs. Lymbery reported that the Crawford Bay Women's Institute wished to entertain the Porcupine Club at its May meeting and after some discussion it was decided to give definite numbers and make transportation arrangements at the next meeting.

Big Athletic Display to Climax Activities of Nelson Pro Rec Club

Climaxing Pro-Rec activities for the past season, a big display will be given in the Civic Centre Monday by the Nelson display troupe, which includes some of the best talent in the Province, and a large number of members of the Pro Rec classes.

Some of the participants in Monday's entertainment will go to the B. C. Pro Rec championship meet, to be held in Vancouver May 4. Jerry Mathisen, Provincial Pro-Rec Director, has requested that Nelson be represented at the meeting, and said that his branch would be willing to pay part of the troupe's expenses.

Proceeds from the display will be used for the travelling expenses of the Nelson team.

Ed Kelter, Director of Pro Rec activities in Nelson, stated that he thought the team would stand a good chance of winning a place.

The program will include an address by Mayor N. C. Stibbs; tumbling and acrobats by the junior girls; vaulting by the junior boys; tiller chorus by the junior girls; tumbling and partner tumbling by the senior leaders; an acrobatic dance by two little girls, Phyllis Davis and Clare St. Germaine; spring board tumbling by the senior leaders; an acrobatic dance by Sheila Horswill; a general activity number by the junior boys and girls, a tap routine by the ladies; parallel bars by the senior leaders; tap routine by the junior girls; high box vaulting by the senior leaders; trampoline tumbling by the junior boys and girls (four of each); acrobatic novelty by Sheila Horswill; a scarf dance by the junior girls; and trampoline tumbling by the 12 senior leaders.

Hart Outlines Work to Commission

VICTORIA, April 19 (CP) — Premier John Hart, meeting today for the first time with the three-man Power Commission, outlined to the commissioners the work he expected of them and discussed organization of the Board which aims at extending rural electrification and development of power projects.

Later in the day the three commissioners, Samuel R. Weston, Chairman, former Chief Engineer of the B. C. Public Utilities Commission, Maj.-Gen. W. W. Foster, special Commissioner for defence projects in Northwest Canada, and Forrest L. Shaw, Victoria City Solicitor, discussed organization of the Board.

It is understood that Premier Hart emphasized to the Board the necessity of speed of action in setting the machinery of the Commission going. At the last session of the B. C. Legislature $10,000,000 was voted to the Commission to carry on its work.

Canuck Clerks, Batmen Fight for Headquarters

OTTERLOO, Holland, April 19 (CP Cable) — Field guns fired at point blank range over open sights mowed down scores of German troops during the enemy attack on Tuesday on a newly-established Canadian headquarters in this town 11 miles Southwest of Appeldoorn.

Otterloo was attacked by a German regiment, equivalent to a Canadian brigade, and a battery of dismounted gunners. By 8:30 a.m., the attack was broken up, more than 240 Germans were killed, 438 taken prisoner, several of their mortar guns were captured and the rest of the enemy personnel was rapidly being flushed as the area of mopping up operations widened.

The force achieving this smashing victory over a crack enemy formation determined to break out of a Canadian made pocket enclosing them was the ordinary establishment of a Canadian headquarters—clerks, batmen, drivers, switchboard operators and staff officers. Two field batteries were stationed in the area, in addition to the infantry regimental headquarters and one of its companies and a squadron of tanks helped to turn on the heat too.

The enemy was entering the initial phases of the attack when the headquarters arrived at its new location on Monday night. By midnight a full-scale battle was in progress, the full Canadian firepower unloosed in the face of constantly increasing enemy pressure.

The crisis was passed by 6:30 a.m. Tuesday and two hours later the count of bodies began.

Scores of the enemy were killed within a 200-yard range of their guns. Twelve men more fanatical than the rest, managed to reach points within eight feet of gun positions, actually digging themselves in. All were dead when found.

Yet through the whole battle the field gunners never left their field pieces. With the enemy almost within spitting distance, ammunition trucks and tractors blazing to charred crisps behind, they stuck it out.

Lieut. Jim Stone of Ottawa directed the battle in this sector from a battery command post. Until the enemy infiltrating between the guns forced an entrance into the billet he was able to keep regimental headquarters fully informed of progress from there.

As the Germans forced their way in, Stone kicked the wireless set into smithereens and made his way out into a scout car sitting on the far side of the house. There he hooked the vehicle's wireless set onto the regimental frequency and resumed control of the battle.

Two flame-thrower universal carriers, belonging to a company of a Toronto infantry battalion, holding the town, charged one sector under a Toronto corporal. Squirting two terrific sheets of flame in the nerve centre of the German attack they alone killed 60 men whose crisped corpses were collected a few hours later.

An artillery section at this headquarters captured four officers and 118 other tanks, a terrific accomplishment for the small group of batmen, clerks, drivers coordinated under Lieut. David Hutcheson of Montreal.

Within six feet of one pair of guns were the bodies of eight Germans.

WOULD GIVE ALL V.C.'s

A group of five armored vehicles equipped with flails, used by engineers for detonating minefields, attacked Otterloo cemetery, chains whirling and guns firing. They thrashed about like Martian pachyderms for a short while. When the scene of battle was examined later in daylight, the commanding officer, a much-decorated veteran, said: "I would like to be able to give the Victoria Cross to every man in this headquarters. The courage displayed by every one of these men most of whom have done nothing but clerk, bat or drive since the war began, has been of the highest order."

State Department Stands Firm on Polish Question

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP) — The State Department stood firm today against Russia's demand that the Polish provisional government in Warsaw be invited to the San Francisco conference on world security.

The Moscow request had been repeated in a diplomatic note to State Secretary Stettinius yesterday. It was rejected in a State Department statement which said that only a reorganized Polish Government, formed "in accordance with the Crimea agreement," should be admitted to the United Nations conference.

The statement said "Poland is a member of the United Nations and of right should be at San Francisco."

However, the U. S. is standing pat on the Yalta agreement and it is expected that Britain will quickly express a similar view.

The possibility that Prime Minister Churchill, President Truman and Premier Stalin may take a direct hand in an effort to settle the Polish dispute, was not ruled out.

"Sorry, Neighbour..."

TONIGHT, neighbour, you came to me, your old friend, with your grief. You came to tell me your hero son would never come home again.

Now, as your bowed figure shuffles homeward through the rain, I'm confessing to myself the truth I could not admit to you.

You've given me your friendship and respect. You believed I was backing up your son, and all our fighting sons with everything I had.

Well, neighbour, I wasn't; I haven't deserved the faith you had in me. For instance I never did buy all the Victory Bonds I could and should have bought. I was merely a "token" buyer.

Last Victory Loan I bought a $100 Bond. I told myself we needed new things for our house—while your son was sleeping in the mud and cold. But tonight, when I saw your fine face twisted with grief, it suddenly came home to me that though I could never have made any sacrifice to compare with yours or your son's, I could and should, at very least, have tried to match his spirit of magnificent unselfishness.

No, neighbour I cannot tell you these things, but if I could, I would also tell you this: From this moment on, I will try to make amends for my selfishness. In this next Victory Loan I will, literally, invest in Victory Bonds until it hurts. Even then, I won't be making a real sacrifice; I know those dollars will still be mine, to be repaid to me. But I will have done my best, at last, to deserve your friendship and respect.

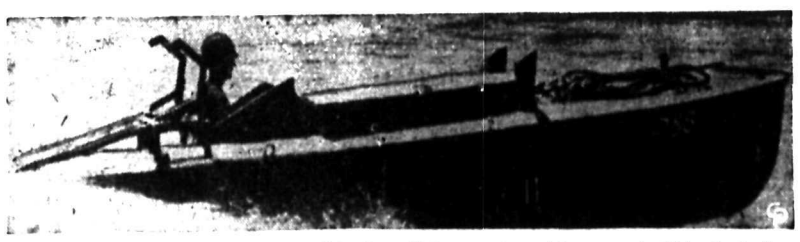
CHURCHILL LUNCHES ON BATTLE-FRONT: Prime Minister Winston Churchill lunches with Field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery, right, and Field Marshal Sir Alan Brooke on the banks of the Rhine River during his visit to that great water barrier in Germany.

ENGLISH CWAC TAKES CANADIAN WARDROBE TO ENGLAND: When Pte. Kim Powell, an English girl who married a Canadian, returns to England shortly to visit her family, she will take with her a whole Canadian wardrobe, the gift of Canadian designers and manufacturers. She is the 20-year-old widow of FO. Lloyd Powell of Edmonton, Alta., and for a while lived with his parents near Edmonton. It was when V-bombs began to fall on London and her home there was demolished, that she, a former member of the English A.T.S., joined the CWACS here. Pictured above, she wears, left, a Canadian-made black crepe dress with white cotton lace peplum, and right, a Canadian suit, topcoat, hat and shoes.



JAPAN'S "SECRET WEAPON" NOW BELONGS TO ALLIES: Invasion of the Kerama Islands off Okinawa's Southwest coast brought about the capture of more than 300 of these "suicide" boats. Described as Japan's secret weapon, they are 20 feet vessels attaining a speed of 3 knots. Designed to carry a heavy demolition charge and operated by one man, they are intended for ramming Allied vessels. Here, an Allied officer "takes a spin" in one of the captured craft.

BRITISH INFANTRY CLEAN UP ON SNIPERS ON NAZI SOIL: British infantry of the 3rd Division are pictured in action against German snipers in Lingen, Northwest of Osnabruck in Germany. Osnabruck was captured in early April during the British advance on Bremen.

LONDON, April 19 (CP)—A disillusioned British public has been told it must expect a 50 per cent cut in house building planned for the first two years after the end of the war in Europe and the Government, in a move aimed at forestalling criticism over official planning failures, has reorganized the Works Ministry to accelerate construction and repair.

Only a few months ago the Government's stated aim was 300,000 new homes in two years—300,000 permanent dwellings and at least 500,000 "portal" temporaries.

Now the objective has been revised by Works Minister Duncan Sandys to 365,000 homes, of which 220,000 permanent dwellings will be finished along with only 145,000 portals.

Market Trends . . .

NEW YORK, April 19 (AP).—Numerous stock market climbers to eight-year peaks were forced by profit takers to seek lower levels.

Dealings slackened at intervals after an active opening but expanded in the final hour. Losers of a point or more were in the majority near the close. Transfers for the full stretch were around 1,800,000 shares.

TORONTO—The gold stocks registered a moderate price set-back in the average but there were spotty recoveries near the close. Other groups, showed little net change. Trading volume eased off to about 2,000,000 shares for the day.

The main interest was concentrated in the gold listings and quite a few traded in good volume and a few at better prices. Elder touched 1.05, before selling down to 95. It closed near the $1 mark for a gain of 10 cents or more.

MONTREAL—Junior mines attracted most of the business in trading in extension of their current activity and price ranges generally were lower. In the balance of business, Montreal Power and its subsidiary, Southmount, were features and moved up.

LONDON—Interest on the stock market was again centred chiefly in industrials. Some bright spots developed, encouraged by favorable dividend announcements and company news.

VANCOUVER—Mines still continued on the downward track while oils held firm.

CHICAGO—Grain markets were easy to weak with the May and July contracts frequently losing a cent or more. Commission house buying steadied the off options which at times were fractionally higher.

WINNIPEG—May and July rye futures boomed to new seasonal highs early when values jumped as much as 2 cents a bushel on moderate buying and light offerings.

Closing values were ⅞-2 cents lower with May at $1.47½, July $1.43¼ and October $1.26¼.

Two Basketball Teams Default In Playoff Series

Both basketball games which were scheduled to be played Wednesday evening in the Nelson Basketball League playoffs at the civic auditorium were defaulted. Pro-Rec's defaulted to Pro's and Boxla Boys to High School Bombers.

None of the teams was able to floor a complete team and pick up games were played.

Arrangements were made for Pros to play Red Wings in another sudden death game next Wednesday evening, in the Women's League.

In the men't league, because of their victory by default over the Boxla Boys, the High School Bombers will commence a two out of three series with the Business Men for the City championship. The first game will be played Monday night at 8 o'clock.

In the pickup games Pros defeated Pro Rec 20-11. For the Pros Isobell Kay looped in 14 points out of the total of 20. For Pro Recs Dorothy Wallace garnered six points.

In the men's game, Bombers defeated Boxla Boys 53-34, when Jim Ball of the Bombers scored 16 points and Verne Hall 14. For Boxla Boys, Don Buchanan loaned by the Bombers, topped the losers, scoring with 12 points.

Teams and scores follow:

Pros—Isobell Kay, 14; Edna Peacock 4; Joan Carew 2; Jean Fisher, Jean Hooker.

Pro Recs—Dorothy Wallace 6; Deanie Burgess 3; Megs Henry 2; and Viola Musfelt.

Bombers—Jim Ball 16; Verne Hall 14, Allan Deschamps 11, Bill Postelthwaits 10, and Stan Fisher 2.

Boxla Boys—Don Buchanan 12; Glen Price 8; Jim Corbett 7, Pete Berry 6, and Walter Thompson 2.

Girls' referees—Glen Price, and Jim Ryley. Boys' referee, Allan Temple and Jim Ryley. Scorekeeper, Allan Corbett; Timekeeper, Dolores Ward.

BEDFORD, England (CP)—Bedford School, founded in the middle of the 16th century, was damaged by fire but the main structure was saved.

Minstrel Show Troupe to Parade Today

Blackface humor with a feminine touch will be enjoyed in Nelson today, when the Grand Forks All-Girl Minstrel Show stages its "Land of Cotton" in aid of the Nelson Red Cross Society.

A matinee will be put on this afternoon for school students and a second performance is scheduled tonight, both at the Capitol Theatre.

Led by the Schools Band, the troupe will parade the length of Baker Street in the afternoon prior to the matinee, just before 3 p.m. School children will leave their classes early to attend the performance.

Miss Margaret Sutherland, director, trained the girls and acted as Interlocutor. The show made a big hit in Grand Forks, colorful costumes, songs, dances and lots of laughs making a well-balanced and peppy show.

Badminton Trophies Won by Crestonites

CRESTON, B. C.—Thirteen Creston badminton players brought home six of the 10 trophies and were semi-finalists in 9 out of 10 events, in the East Kootenay Badminton Tournament under the supervision of C. H. Hare, with Creston, Kimberley and Cranbrook players competing at Cranbrook.

Miss Jean Henderson won the ladies' open singles and ladies' singles handicap, with Mrs. J. P. MacDonald runner-up in the latter event. Mrs. J. P. MacDonald and Miss Jean Henderson won the ladies doubles handicap. Mr. and Mrs. A. Couling won the mixed doubles handicap with Gordon Macdonald winning the men's singles handicap. J. P. MacDonald and Art Couling won the men's handicap competition.

Four Creston ladies, Miss Jean Langston, Mrs. J. P. MacDonald, Miss S. Macdonald and the winner Jean Henderson were the four to reach the semi-finals in the ladies' singles handicap.

15 Senate Vacancies Filled

OTTAWA, April 19, (CP) —Prime Minister King today announced the appointment of three new senators which still leaves three vacancies in the upper chamber. Last night Mr. King announced the appointment of 12 Senators.

The appointments follow

Capt. Brewer Robinson, Summerside, P.E.I., Assistant Manager, Canadian Legion War Services, London, Eng.

Hon. F. W. Pirie, Grand Falls, N. B., Minister of Lands and Mines in the New Brunswick Legislature.

George Percival Burchill, South Nelson, N. B.

With the latest apointments the standing in the Senate now is: Liberals 63, Progressive Conservatives 30; vacant three.

Besides the 12 Senate appointments, Mr. King yesterday named seven new cabinet ministers in a clean up of political business before he leaves for the San Francisco world security conference.

Senate appointments last night were:

Charles Bishop, 69, veteran member of the parliamentary press gallery; Hon. T. A. Crerar, 68, former Resources Minister; W. H. Taylor, 55, Scotland, Ont. former chief government whip; F. W. Gershaw, 62, Medicine Hat, Alta., Liberal member for Medicine Hat; J. P. Howden, 65, St. Boniface, Man., Liberal for St. Boniface; C. E. Ferland, 53, Joliette, Que., Liberal member for Joliette-L'Assomption-Montcalm; Vincent Dupuis, 56, Longeueil, Que., Liberal member for Chambly-Rouville; J. J. Kinley, 63, Lunenberg, N. S., Liberal member for Queen's-Lunenberg; Arthur Roebuck, 67, Toronto, Liberal member for Toronto-Trinity; Hon. John A. McDonald, 55, of Upper Dyke Village, N.S., Nova Scotia Agriculture Minister; A. Neill McLean, Saint John, N.B., Prices Board Fish Controller and C. J. Veniot, 59, Bathurst, N. B., Liberal member for Gloucester.

In addition, Mr. King's announcement designated Hon. J. E. Michaud, who resigned as Transport Minister in the earlier reorganization of the cabinet, as Chief Justice of the New Brunskick Court of King's Bench and disclosed these other appointments;

Hon. Thomas Vien, speaker of the Senate, as member of the Privy Council; J. E. Ferron, K.C., of Louisville, Que., Liberal member of Parliament for Benthier-Maskinonge, as member of the Quebec Superior Court for Three Rivers, Que.; Maj. Armand Sylvestre of Roberval, Que., Liberal member for Parliament for Lake St. John-Roberval, as Deputy Chief Commissioner of the Board of Transport Commissioners and Sqdn. Ldr. Sam Factor, K.C., Toronto, Liberal member of Parliament for Toronto Spadina, as Junior Judge of the County Court of York in Ontario.

Only Mr. Bishop, Mr. McDonald, and Mr. McLean were chosen from outside the House. All the others were sitting Liberal members of the Commons. The new appointments bring the standing in the Senate to 60 Liberals and 30 Progressive Conservatives with six seats still vacant.

Ilsley Explains Family Allowance Plan; Avoid Duplicate Exemption

OTTAWA, April 19 (CP)—Temporary steps have been taken to prevent income tax payers from receiving in full both income tax exemptions and family allowances payments during the last six months of 1945, Finance Minister Ilsley announced today.

Mr. Ilsley said the amount of duplication to be removed would be worked out on a percentage basis for this year while the drawing up of permanent legislation to prevent duplication would be left to the next session of Parliament. The allowances become effective July 1.

Under the temporary plan, persons with taxable income ranging from $1200 to $3000 annually would receive some benefit from the allowances in addition to the tax credit for children, Mr. Ilsley said.

The percentage of family allowance payments which the taxpayer will retain in addition to the present tax credits for children will be as follows:

Taxable Income Over But	Not Over	Percentage
	$1200	100
$1200	1400	90
1400	1600	80
1600	1800	70
1800	2000	60
2000	2200	50
2200	2400	40
2400	2600	30
2600	2800	20
2800	3000	10
3000		0

Conversely, the amount of duplication to be removed would be equal to the following percentage of the actual family allowances received during 1945:

Taxable Income Over But	Not Over	Percentage
	$1200	0
$1200	1400	10
1400	1600	20
1600	1800	30
1800	2000	40
2000	2200	50
2200	2400	60
2400	2600	70
2600	2800	80
2800	3000	90
3000		100

Mr. Ilsley said the table applied to married persons and to others having the status of married persons for income tax purposes. For single persons supporting children and not having married status for income tax purooses and for members of the armed forces special tables could be obtained from the Regional Directors of Family Allowances in Provincial capitals.

The Minister said the result of removing duplication would be as follows:

1. Heads of families with incomes of $1200 a year and under will benefit to the extent of the full amount of the family allowances they receive, and there is no duplication to remove.

"2. Heads of families with incomes in excess of $3000 a year will be allowed to retain their full income tax credit for children if they do not receive family allowances. These taxpayers may, however, apply for family allowances to protect themselves against a possible decrease in income later in the year which might bring them into a lower income range where they would benefit from family allowances. For persons with incomes in excess of $3000 who receive family allowances the income tax credits for children will be reduced by the full amount of family allowances received.

"3. For heads of families receiving incomes in 1945 of more than $1200 but not more than $3000 a year the amount of family allowances received will be greater and in most cases much greater than the adjustment in their income tax which is necessary to eliminate duplication of benefit."

When the Allowance Act was passed a year ago, Parliament "approved the principle that there should be no duplication of benefits" by way of allowances in income tax credits for the same child, said Mr. Ilsley.

The temporary arrangement to prevent the duplication would remain in effect for this year. "The subsequent relationship of family allowances and income tax will be a matter for consideration at the next session of Parliament," he said.

Starlings Invade Pigeons' Home

MILWAUKEE, April 19 (AP)—John Messmer, courthouse custodian, plagued by pigeons, found a measure of relief by an invasion of starlings which drove the pigeons from the county building. Plagued by starlings, however, he greased their roosts and drove them away. Today, alas, the pigeons returned.
