PUPILS OUSTED BY SKUNK

Finding the housing shortage somewhat difficult, a skunk took up residence under a frame annex to Onteora school, near Hamilton, Ont., with the result that 250 pupils got a two-day unscheduled holiday. An SOS brought Hugh Halliday, nature writer, who has a pet skunk of his own which has the run of the house, from Toronto. After much digging and crawling under the school annex, Mr. Halliday brought out the offender and here puts him into a bag while pupils hold their noses. Principal W. A. Tindale hoped to get classes back into the regular routine after the school had a weekend to "cool off".

Fail to Settle Windsor Strike

Mitchell Ready for Second Parley; Builders at Work

By The Canadian Press

While strike votes were scheduled last night and today in a number of meat-packing plants across the Dominion, one spot in the Canadian labor picture grew darker yesterday when negotiations to end the five-week-old strike of 10,000 workers at the Windsor plant of the Ford Motor Company were concluded with no settlement reached. Union delegates to the four-way conciliation conference in Toronto said "no end" was in sight for the strike.

Though all delegates to the Ford conciliation meeting where hopeful of an early settlement when they first met Monday, and successive meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday were termed "satisfactory", no settlement could be reached. Labor Minister Humphrey Mitchell, who called the meeting, said that he would be willing to attend another conference if it were found necessary.

Discussions aimed at averting a strike in five Western Canada plants of Burns and Company will be held next Monday, Mr. Justice S. E. Richards announced at Winnipeg Tuesday night. Mr. Justice Richards, mediator in negotiations between members of the United Packinghouse Workers of America (CIO) and Burns and Company, said discussion will centre on a master agreement sought by production employees in Winnipeg, Regina, Prince Albert, Edmonton and Vancouver.

The government took control of five Western packing plants of Burns and Company and Swift Canadian and Canada Packers companies recently when CIO Union employees in these plants considered strike action.

Meetings of miners of Southern Alberta's coal fields on "holiday" nearly three weeks in protest against meat rationing were held Tuesday night but no reported back-to-work action was taken.

About 4000 miners in Alberta and British Columbia are back to work but 5000 men from the Alberta fields are still out.

In Lethbridge, Alta., thirsty citizens looked hopefully to a conciliation meeting between striking bartenders, hotel men and industrial relations officers. The bartenders' strike was called Tuesday. The Beverage Dispensers' Union is attempting to negotiate a standard agreement with all hotels with which it has contracts.

CARPENTERS AT WORK

A five-day-old strike of 28 carpenters and 14 carpenters' helpers, who quit work Oct. 12 on a veterans housing project at Vernon in protest against wage rates, ended today.

The men returned to work at the request of W. Page, organizer for the Carpenters' Union from Vancouver, who told them that the wage scale would be reconsidered.

The men quit work because the carpenters' wage was reduced from $1.10 an hour to $1.02 and helpers' pay was reduced from 81 cents to 75.

Mr. Page announced that a meeting will be held in Edmonton next Tuesday "at which adjustments will be made in wages paid on veterans housing projects."

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17 (CP)—Employees of Canada Packers meat-packing plant in suburban St. Boniface *tonight voted 991 to 23 in fa*vor of giving the executive of the United Packinghouse Workers of America (C.I.O.) Local Union No. 216, power to call a strike if they fail to negotiate a master agreement for a 40-hour, five-day week with the same pay they now are getting for a 48-hour week.

LEAVE IT TO EMPLOYERS WHETHER TAX CUT DEDUCTION MADE AT ONCE

OTTAWA, Oct. 17 (CP)—Employers were given authority today by order-in-council to give immediate effect if they wish to the 16 per cent reduction in personal income tax rates announced in the budget last Friday.

The order-in-council, passed today and tabled in the Commons by Justice Minister St. Laurent, provided that for pay periods ending after Oct. 14 the amount of tax payable "may be" reduced by 16 per cent.

A Revenue Department official said the use of the words "may be" left it up to employers to decide whether the reduction in income tax deductions from wages should be started immediately or left until the start of next year.

The unreduced portion of deductions for the period Oct. 1 to 14 will be adjusted in the next income tax return.

Parliament Faces Job of Redistribution of Representation

OTTAWA, Oct. 17 (CP)—Redistribution of representation in the House of Commons, postponed in 1943 for the duration of the war, will be taken up during the life of the present Parliament, probably in 1946, Justice Minister St. Laurent indicated today in the Commons.

He said he hoped the Government would take the initiative in doing this but stressed that it was the responsibility of Parliament as a whole and expressed the hope the problem would be approached in a non-partisan manner.

The Minister's statement was made on a resolution sponsored by Frederic Dorion (Ind-Charlevoix-Saguenay) calling for action this session.

TOUGH PROBLEM

The resolution confronted Parliament with one of its toughest problems, one that arises partly from the method of redistribution set out in the British North America Act and partly from the shifts in population as between provinces which were disclosed in the 1941 census

Mr. St. Laurent suggested that in considering redistribution next session—he argued that there was not enough time to do it this session — Parliament should consider the effect of judicial interpretations on the system of representation provided in the constitution with a view to possible changes.

(The system is based on the allocation of 65 members to Quebec and a number to other provinces bearing the same proportion to their population as 65 bears to the population of Quebec. It is qualified by stipulations which limit reductions in the representation from particular provinces).

ESTIMATES CUT IN MEMBERS

The 1941 census showed relative declines in population in Saskatchewan and Manitoba which would have resulted in a reduction in the number of members from those provinces and redistribution was postponed. It was argued then that the war had caused temporary shifts of people from those provinces to others.

"The citizens are not on the same footing as regards representation in the House of Commons," said Mr. Dorion.

He estimated that on a straight *basis of representation by popula*tion the House would consist of 225 instead of 245 members distributed as follows with the present figures in brackets: Prince Edward Island 3 (4); Saskatchewan 17 (21); Manitoba 14 (17); New Brunswick 9 (12); British Columbia 16 (16); Nova Scotia 11 (12); Ontario 74 (82); Alberta 16 (17); Yukon 1 (1); Quebec 65 (65).

John Bracken, Progressive Conservative Leader, asked if Mr. St. Laurent recognized the responsibility of Parliament to have the redistribution before the next election.

Mr. St. Laurent said he recognized the responsibility and he hoped the Government would take the initiative in having the responsibility discharged before the next election.

J. F. Pouliot (Ind L-Temiscouata) said he believed the first thing to do was to comply with the constitution of the country. When everyone was preaching economy there were 20 members in the Commons who under the constitution had no right in the House.

PERON AGAIN HOLDS REINS

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 18 (Thursday) (AP) — Col. Juan Peron, after a brief eclipse, returned to power today, forcing the formation of a new Cabinet of his friends and calling a general strike to celebrate "a day of glory for the workers." Railroad trains ceased running out of the capital shortly after midnight.

ABBOTT HEARS PLEA TO SPEED BRIDES TO CANADA

OTTAWA, Oct. 17 (CP)—Defence Minister Abbott today gave a sympathetic hearing to a committee of six Toronto war veterans who presented a brief urging Government steps to speed the arrival of war brides in Canada and said a number of their points would bear investigation.

The Defence Minister, who yesterday estimated 20,000 war brides of Canadian soldiers and 6400 chil*dren of these unions were still in* the United Kingdom, reminded the delegation, however, that repatriation of Canadian troops must be the Government's first consideration.

CRIME WAVE SPREADS TO ONTARIO HAMLET

KING CITY, Ont., Oct. 17 (CP).—Major crime came today to this cross-roads hamlet, 20 miles Northwest of Toronto when two masked and pistol-packing bandits held up the King City branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce and escaped with $2500.

The robbery was the latest in a series of holdups and safe-cracking which has swept central and Western Ontario in the last few weeks. And the robbers, cool and businesslike in their actions, did their features behind polka-dot handkerchiefs.

Police were not in agreement, however, that the two bandits were members of the now-famous "Polka-Dot Gang" said to have been formed in the hideouts of the downtown Jarvis Street area in Toronto and credited with several recent Ontario robberies.

FOULKES TELLS OF AVERAGE FIGHTING MAN

LONDON, Ont., Oct. 17 (AP)—The man who accepted surrender of the German army in Holland—first mass capitulation to the Allies on the Western European front—came home today to a civic reception. Rush in British Troops to Aid Ghurkas Against 800 Rioters; Women Terrorized

By RALPH MORTON

BATAVIA, Java, Oct. 17 (AP) — British troops were rushed to widely scattered areas of Java tonight after Indonesian extremists ran amok in one village, killing 15 persons including Dutch citizens, and other bands were reported terrorizing women internees in several localities.

The worst spots appeared to be at Depok, 20 miles from Batavia, where zealous followers of the nationalist movement shot or hacked to death 15 Netherlanders and Christian Indonesians, and at Semarang, in Central Java, where the Red Cross staff had been seized.

GHURKAS, RIOTERS CLASH

The Indonesian extremists also had seized all Red Cross workers, interhees and the entire staff of the organization for the relief of Allied prisoners of war at Awbarawa and Banjoebirce in Central Java.

Three hundred British troops already had arrived at Depok where Indian Ghurkas of the 23rd Division fought a pitched battle with about 800 rioters.

British authorities finally reported the situation in hand at Depok, but said the Indonesian band still was in the area and was heavily armed.

A British spokesman said patrols were being sent to Awbarawa and Banjoebirce as quickly as possible, and that troops would arrive at Semarang tomorrow.

At Magelang, a few miles South of Semarang, hospitals were surrounded and guarded by young Indonesians with Tommy-guns. No fresh food was allowed to enter.

The Dutch also continued to land troops, arms and relief supplies. Another 700 Dutch troops arrived, bringing the total Dutch forces in Java to 5000.

BLAMES SOEKARNO

The British Commander of Allied forces, Lt.-Gen. Sir Phillip Christison, said he would hold Soekarno, "President of the Indonesian republic," responsible for violent disturbances.

Soekarno, however, blamed the disorders on inflamatory assertions by two powerful Nationalist radio stations and the newspaper "Merdeka" (Freedom), which he said he did not control.

British authorities in Java blamed the current disorders on the inability of moderate leaders to control the "youth extremists".

Girls With No Liquor Permit Refused Jobs

CALGARY, Oct. 17 (CP). — "Girls applying for jobs in Saskatoon have told me that they have been asked to show their liquor permits when they have applied for jobs, and in some cases have not been hired when they failed to produce one," said Mrs. Aden Bowman of Saskatoon, President of the Saskatchewan W.C.T.U., when she spoke last night at the Alberta W.C.T.U. convention here.

Union Threatens Disown Port-Crippling Strikers

LONDON, Oct. 17 (CP). — The Dockers' Union threatened today to disown 46,000 striking dock workers after 11,000 men in London and Liverpool voted to prolong the wildcat menacing Britain's food supplies.

One striker shouted defiantly that the port-crippling strike had "done something the U-boats could not do."

While some 4000 soldiers unloaded food ships, Jack Donovan, Secretary of the dock section, Transport and General Workers Union, declared the Union would not represent the strikers in wage negotiations unless they resumed work immediately.

"WE HOLD TRUMP CARD"

As he spoke, 1150 ship clerks quit at the previously-unaffected Surrey docks in London, throwing another 4000 dockers into enforced idleness, and boosting the national total of stevedores affected to 50,000.

Four thousand London strikers massed in Victoria Park took a stand-pat vote. Twenty-eight men dissented.

Shouts went up as a Liverpool striker, urging the men to stay out, asserted: "We have done something the U-boats could not do. We have closed the ports. We hold the trump card."

Tom Powell, leader of the non-official strike committee, said: "We can accomplish something we have been trying to accomplish for years, if we stay out."

The strikers have demanded a $5.50 a day wage—an increase of about $2.20—a 40-hour week, abolition of piece-work pay, and improved medical services.

New Argentina Cabinet Faces Strike Threat

By LAURENCE F. STUNTZ

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 17 (AP) — A new civilian Cabinet was formed today by Argentina's military Government, but it immediately faced the threat of a general strike.

Followers of Col. Juan Peron, ousted 10 days ago as Vice-President, Minister of War and Secretary of Labor by the Army, kept the capital city in an uproar today as they roamed the streets shouting for Peron. One was injured when police fired tear gas bombs.

Twenty thousand persons tonight jammed into the Plaza Mayo to hear Col. Peron speak, stoned Government House and attempted to break down the doors leading to the Ministry of Navy.

CALL FOR STRIKE

The crowd had assembled when Lt.-Col. Mariano Abarca, Secretary of Industry and Commerce in the administration of President Edelmiro Farrell, announced that Peron, who was ousted as Vice-President and Minister of War would speak —first indication that he apparently had been freed from protective custody.

The General Confederation of Workers, Argentina's major labor organization with a membership estimated at 1,500,000, called for a 24-hour general strike starting one minute after midnight tonight.

Confederation leaders said the country-wide strike was called to protest against "any Government *of Oligarchs" and against "deliv*ery of the Government to the Supreme Court" as has been demanded by the Conservative ele*ment in Argentina.*

There was evidence, however, that not all of labor was behind the strike call.

Leaders of the Textile Union protested against the demonstrations of the Peron followers and charged they had forced workers "by threats backed by firearms" to leave their work.

The Buenos Aires Typographical Union also asked its members to ignore the general strike call which it said emanated from "Nazi-Fascist reactionaries." Other independent union leaders also expressed disapproval.

Those named to the new Cabinet are either outright Conservatives or members of the Centrist Party.

The new Cabinet was formed by Attorney General Alvarex, who will be Minister of Interior charged with maintaining order. Isidoro Ruiz Moreno was named Foreign Minister.

39 Coalition, 6 C.C.F. Elected in Manitoba; 6 'Peg Seats in Doubt

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17 (CP) — Premier Stuart Garson's Coalition Government and the Opposition C.C.F. Party gained a member apiece tonight as vote counting in Winnipeg's 10-seat constituency continued past midnight.

With the election of C. R. Smith, Liberal - Progressive candidate, the Coalition membership increased to 40, while the C.C.F. following in the 55-member Legislature rose to seven with M. A. Gray found successful. Both men were members of the last Legislature.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17 (CP) — The C.C.F. tonight had increased its membership in the Manitoba Legislature, electing six members to the 55-member House in Monday's Provincial general election in which the Coalition Government of Premier Stuart S. Garson was returned to office in a landslide victory.

Eight seats remain in doubt, including six in the 10-member riding of Winnipeg.

Thirty-nine Coalition supporters have been elected while the electors also returned an Independent C.C.F., Berry Richards in the Pas, and an Opposition-Independent, L. G. St. George Stubbs in Winnipeg. At dissolution there were 43 Coalition members and nine Anti-Coalition. Three seats were vacant.

In the two doubtful rural ridings, W. Doneleyko, C.C.F., is leading in St. Clements, and D. R. Hamilton, Coalition Independent Liberal-Progressive, in the Far Northern Riding of Rupert's Land.

Two Coalition and two C.C.F. members were declared elected today on completion of vote transfers under the alternative vote system in single-member constituencies.

A. W. Harrison, Coalition-Conservative, was reelected in Killarney; N. V. Bachynsky, Coalition Liberal-Progressive in Fisher; George Olive, C.C.F., in Springfield, and Ald. E. A. Hansford in St. Boniface.

BALLOT TRANSFER CONTINUES

In Winnipeg, where four members were elected on first count under proportional representation election night, the transfer of ballots continued today, but no additional candidates had reached the official quota—7,222—for election.

Under proportional representation a quota is fixed and each candidate much reach this quota either on first choice votes or subsequent transfer of surpluses.

FOOLS BANK, BUT NOT HORSES

ST. LOIUS, Oct. 17 (AP)—Gerald B. Norris, head of St. Louis Federal Bureau of Investigation office, said today Erwin J. Stuckenberg, self-admitted embezzler of $279,000 from a St. Louis bank, lost most of the money betting on horses with a system "on which he never had a chance to win."

Stuckenberg gave himself up to the F.B.I. Monday night after a check by bank examiners revealed the shortage at the Chippewa Trust Company. He signed a statement, Mr. Norris said, in which he said that the thefts from savings accounts began in 1930 and continued until this month.

Higgenson Claims Baby Fell From Bed

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17 (CP) — George R. Higgenson, 39-year-old Vancouver barber, in his trial on a charge of murder in connection with the rooming house death here last August of a four-months-old baby boy, took the witness stand today in his own defence.

"I loved that baby . . . I loved it like it was my own," Higgenson testified, declaring the child suffered fatal injuries when it fell on the floor.

He accused Mrs. Dorothy Rogers, the baby's mother, of considerable drinking and general neglect of the child.

Describing the tragedy he said he found the baby, which had been left in the care of Pat Parker, 12, while Mrs. Rogers went out with a friend. The child was crying.

" . . . I walked him around figuring he was hungry or had gas on his stomach . . . We had an electric plate and I was fooling with the wires to get it to work so I could heat some water (for the baby).

"I heard a sharp cry . . . looked around and saw the baby (which was lying on the bed) was on the floor," Higgenson continued. "I rushed over and picked him up . . . I put him back on the bed and I couldn't see any marks on him . . . I was pretty drunk at the time . . . I rolled him in a blanket and went to tell Pat (who was in the other room) then went for a doctor."

De Gaulle Ready to Give Up Powers; Urges New Republic

PARIS, Oct. 17 (CP)—Gen de Gaulle told French voters in a broadcast speech tonight he was ready to relinquish the emergency powers he has held since June 18, 1940, and asked them to declare for "a new republic" in the general elections next Sunday.

In the elections France and her colonies, with the exception of Indo-China, will elect 592 delegates and at the same time decide by a referendum whether the elected candidates shall form an Assembly to draw up a new constitution or continue under the constitution of 1875

Another question in the referendum asks—in the event a new constitution is decided upon—whether the constituent Assembly o a government like the present provisional one shall hold power for the seven-month period of the Assembly's deliberations.

Gen. de Gaulle, while refraining from taking political sides, urged a new constitution and approval of a constituent Assembly with limited powers for the seven-month period.

"Economic life is getting under way; the food situation is getting better; ships arrive; foreign commerce is starting, the difficulties disappear little by little," he declared.

Nova Scotia Votes Oct. 23 . . .

C.C.F. to Seek to Topple Liberal Stronghold

HALIFAX, Oct. 17 (CP).—Long-time exponent of the two-party system of politics and Liberal bastion for 66 of the 78 years since Confederation, Nova Scotia on Oct. 23 elects a new legislature with the C.C.F. party making its first full-strength bid for power.

The C.C.F., which wedged its way into the Legislature in 1939 when Douglas MacDonald won a by-election in Cape Breton Centre, then entered five candidates and won three seats in 1941, this year has entered the lists in a majority of the province's 30 House seats.

The Liberal administration at dissolution of the Legislature had 22 seats, against four for the Progressive Conservatives, three C. C. F. and one vacant.

With that margin of strength, the Liberals are seeking to retain the power they have held ever since Confederation, with the exception of the periods 1878-83 and 1925-33 when the Conservatives directed the affairs of the province.

The strongest threat from the C. C. F. is expected to come from Cape Breton—where the party holds three of the five seats in the coal mining Cape Breton County—and in the mining and industrial Eastern section of the province. The party also has entered candidates in the five Halifax county ridings.

The history of earlier elections bred the tradition that urban areas voted Conservative and rural voters favored the Liberals. That was shattered in the last three elections when industrial areas went Liberal by heavy majorities, and the C. C. F. captured three seats in the coal mining area in 1941.

AFTER CONFEDERATION

The first House after Confederation sat under a Liberal premier, William Annand, although Nova Scotia had entered the union under the leadership of that staunch Conservative, Sir Charles Tupper. Hon. H. Blanchard had formed a government July 4, 1867, in protest against Confederation, but later was forced to resign and Annand took his place.

Leader of the anti-Confederationists before this was that most famous of Nova Scotia Liberals, Joseph Howe. Like Tupper, he never sat in the provincial Legislature after 1867. When Blanchard formed his government, Howe was in England trying to have the British Government remove Nova Scotia from Confederation and restore its colonial status.

He changed his views a few years later and served under Sir John A. MacDonald at Ottawa, and just before his death became Lieutenant-Governor of Nova Scotia. The agitation against Confederation was continued by his followers until 1878, when the Liberals were defeated and the Conservatives crossed to the right of the Speaker's chair for their first sojourn in power. They held office until 1882 under S. H. Holmes and J. S. D. Thompson, who like Sir Charles Tupper later became Prime Minister of Canada for a brief time.

Then the Liberals were returned and held sway until 1925 under the leadership of W. T. Pipes, W. S. Fielding, later federal minister of finance, G. H. Murray and E. H. Armstrong. Labor unrest and a strike in the Cape Breton coal fields unseated the government and the Conservatives took office under Hon. E. N. Rhodes.

In 1933 Angus L. MacDonald led the Liberals back to office following an election disenfranchisement scandal. Premier MacDonald was returned in 1937. He was called to Ottawa as Navy Minister. A. S. MacMillan held the premiership in custody for MacDonald who returned to the party leadership this Summer after terminating his five-year stewardship of Canada's naval service.

TOAST-TEA

BY J. V. McARTHUR

Man, says Pascal in his Pensees, is but a reed—the weakest thing in nature—but he is a reed that thinks. It is not necessary that the whole universe should arm itself to crush him. A vapor, a drop of water, is enough to kill him. But if the universe should crush him, man would still be nobler than that which slays him, for he knows that he dies; but of the advantage which it has over him the universe knows nothing. Our dignity consists, then, wholly in thought. Our elevation must come from this, not from space and time which we cannot fill. Let us, then, labor to think well; that is the fundamental principle of morals.

BRANDS SALSBERG WORDS AS "TYPICAL"

TORONTO, Oct. 17 (CP)—Attorney-General Leslie Blackwell of Ontario, Acting Labor Minister, said tonight references by J. B. Salsberg, Labor-Progressive member of the Legislature, on possibility of Provincial Police being sent to Windsor, Ont., are "typical of those who have a vested interest in causing a breakdown in Canadian society."

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17 (CP) — Mayor J. W. Cornett, accompanied by two city aldermen, visited Captain C. C. Hughes-Mallett of the British navy's aircraft carrier, HMS Implacable, here today to tender the city's apology for "the behaviour of a number of citizens who visited the ship last Sunday."

Mayor J. W. Cornett said tonight that he has assured Capt. C. C. Hughes-Mallett of HMS Implacable that City Council will take care of any financial loss experienced through theft of various articles aboard the 31,000-ton aircraft carrier when it was thrown open for public inspection last Sunday.

Need Unity to Make Most of Resources-Brown

CRANBROOK, B.C., Oct. 17 — Unity of trade unions, farmers, small business men, community and social organizations for coping with the real issues of present day conditions, was urged by William Brown, Kimberley miner and Labor Progressive candidate for Cranbrook constituency, at a meeting in Cranbrook tonight.

The real issues, he said, hidden behind the deliberate campaign confusion being created by the other political parties of the province, are jobs, homes and security for everybody. He estimated that 20 to 30 per cent of all people in the district lacked security. He said East Kootenay has developed only 10 per cent of its hydro electric resources, that it has almost unlimited coal, iron ore and other minerals to make it one of Canada's greatest steel and chemical industrial centres. He said there had been practically no construction in the constituency for 15 years, though it had the natural advantage of clay for bricks, limestone, cement and lumber. Unified action on the part of all forward looking organizations, which his party advocates, could develop all these natural advantages.

Mr. Brown was born and grew up at Michel and has lived in this constituency for 22 years during which, he said, he had examined all the resouces outlined. He advocated selective forestry to conserve the resource, reforestation help to the farmer. He said highways should be built and maintained on a business basis from the revenue raised for this purpose without influence of party politics.

750,000 IN UNIONS

Supporting his campaign, A. A. MacLeod, Ontario Labor Progressive member, traced development of trade unionism, through unification of labor against the powerful forces of reaction, to its present Canadian membership of 750,000 active members.

He said the need for collective security had unified Ontario auto workers, hard rock miners, wood workers, and all Canadian workers. Mr. MacLeod said the 10,000 striking auto workers in Windsor metaphorically occupy the front line trenches for all organized labor from Glace Bay to Victoria in a fight for maintenance of the rights of labor. If the auto workers fail, he said all other great industrialists will 'follow up the break to smash trade unions. Similarly uniting of labor interests politically can be a powerful force on behalf of labor, but the B.C. Labor Federation appeal for this unity was rejected by the Provincial C.C.F.

Sam English spoke briefly supporting the candidate. Otto Anderson was Chairman.

Contends Report Libellous; Did Not Oppose Committee

OTTAWA, Oct. 17 (CP)—T. L. Church (PC—Toronto Broadview) today said in the Commons that he did not oppose establishment of a committee to investigate the affairs of Canadian National Railways and Trans-Canada Air Lines.

He said a "libellous" Canadian Press dispatch yesterday had quoted him as saying in the Commons that he was opposed to the setting up of the committee.

(Yesterday's Canadian Press dispatch said: "He (M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader) said he wished to support the setting up of the committee which had been opposed by T. L. Church (PC—Toronto Broadview). Mr. Church said similar committees in previous years had failed to do any good for public enterprise.")

Hansard—official report of House of Commons debates—yesterday reported Mr. Church as saying:

"You can appoint this committee if you like. No doubt it will be appointed, but the investigations by this committee in former years were practically no investigation at all of the system. I have read the reports dozen of times. It reminds me of the War Expenditures Committee, by which we divested ourselves of control."

He added, according to Hansard, that he had spoken on the motion every year and "objected to the appointment of this committee which takes from the control of Parliament the whole policies of the national railway system."

"I do not intend to allow this motion to pass without a protest from one who has been a public ownership man all his life. I fail to see where the public ownership principle has been carried out by the system."

In raising the matter today in the Commons, Mr. Church said he wanted to keep the matter straight.

"I contend that we need some protection from some of the press because a libel on a member is a libel on the whole House of which he is a member. I have the strongest grounds for protesting against this report of what I said in the House."

Hockey Delegates See Commission

Representatives of two hockey organizations interviewed the Civic Centre Commission Tuesday night. They were from the newly reorganized Nelson Senior Hockey Club and the Nelson Amateur Hockey Association. All requests were tabled.

Senior Club spokesmen were W. A. Duckworth, H. M. Whimster and W. P. Kapak. They asked changing of gate percentages from 65 per cent to the Club and 35 to the Commission to 75 per cent to the Club and 25 to the Commission. A considerable number of practice periods for the hockey team would be required. During discussion it was suggested that the City might purchase a truck in which to transport hockey players and possibly other sport teams in order to cut down costs of inter-City games, and this will be investigated.

From the Amateur Hockey Association came Slim Porter, Ron Nash and Verner Linden. Ice time, including Sunday morning practice time, use of the visitors' dressing room when it was not in use, and the usual percentage split of 60 per cent to the Association and 40 per cent to the Commission, were sought. It was also suggested that minor hockey games should precede senior games. Electric heating in the general dressing room was also proposed.

Says Youth Had Mentality of 10-Year-Old

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17 (CP) — A specialist in nervous and mental diseases, Dr. A. T. Mathers, testified today that Armand Proulx, 17, on trial for the murder of Barbara Smith, 15, of nearby St. Boniface last July 28, had the mentality of a 10-year-old child.

Previous evidence stated that Proulx had drank 10 to 15 glasses of beer the afternoon and evening before the murder and after questioning by defence counsel Dr. Bird said that drink would lead to less control and poor judgment as far as social obligations are concerned.

Max Proulx, father of the accused, said his son was one of 14 children and the family live in a five-room flat in Winnipeg. In 1936 Armand spent 13 weeks in hospital and three more in bed at home after the wheel of a dump wagon had passed over his head.

He said his son had been different since then. He had been subject to dizzy spells. "Sometimes at home he can't even speak or move. He talks like a kid, not like a man."

Aero Timber Sold by War Assets Corp.

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17 (CP). — War Assets Corporation announced today the sale of Aero Timber Products Ltd., to Powell River Company for "$950,000 and other valuable considerations."

It is believed the Powell River Company will operate its new holdings in conjunction with already large timber operations in the Queen Charlottes. The new operations will make possible sustained yield on a large scale.

German P.O.W.'s Pass Time by Using Special Skills

By GEORGE A. YACKULIC
Canadian Press Correspondent

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., Oct. 17 (CP) —Counting off the days, weeks, months and years of their captivity, many Germans in the Lethbridge prisoner of war camp have been trying to push the time past by putting to use their special skills.

They have been generally making articles which are permissible, but they have also made some which are prohibited to prisoners of war. Into the latter classification fall the radios and an electro-static machine which were confiscated from the prisoners.

Articles which the captives are permitted to make are their own personal property, and they are helping many a prisoner of war financially.

Hobbyists among the captives have made numerous models of ships, planes and tanks, and jewel boxes, toy house furniture, paintings and statues.

They began to sell these when funds from Germany stopped coming and their canteen credits were exhausted, and during the past five or six weeks have realized several hundred dollars through sales.

None of the captives is paid in currency for his wares but receives the sum in canteen credits.

Most of the work reveals outstanding skill, particularly some statues which were carved by an able sculptor and several oil and water color paintings.

JEWEL BOXES, FINEST ARTICLES

Jewel boxes, showing perfect inlaid work and the result of hundreds of hours of work, are among the finest articles made by the captives and most of them have been offered by the prisoners for about $10. They come in every size and shape.

The Germans' love of things military is manifest in models of naval vessels, war planes and tanks. The models are made with movable parts and true to scale.

One captive was offering to sell a fine model of the Nuernberg for $30 when I inspected the camp recently. The guns on the ship and its hatches were movable. Another captive offered a model of the Bismarck for $20, a third a model of the Scharnhorst for $10.

A true-to-scale tank with movable gun turret and with every link of its traction chains being an individual casting carried a price tag of $15.

RADIOS SEIZED BY CANADIANS

There was no price tag, however, on either the radios or electro-static machine which the captives had made from bits of tin, string, wood and other materials. These were seized by Canadian soldiers and are being safely held by Col. E. D. B. Kippen, commandant of the camp.

Michel Miners Still Standing Pat

NATAL, B.C., Oct. 17.—The Michel miners along with Fernie, although voting to return back to work last weekend are still standing pat with the rest of the striking miners in Alberta who came out on strike on Sept. 27 for more meat ration for miner Nearing the three-week stoppage of work coming Friday the Michel mines have worked four days as per arranged producing coal by the by-product plant working Monday for that purpose. The Michel local officers have had special meetings in Fernie and up the Pass to determine whether the miners should follow those that have returned to work or to still stay out. The situation should come to an understanding before the end of the week as the district is demanding the miners to return immediately as a strike was not called.

Chairman of Food Conference

L. B. PEARSON

QUEBEC, Oct. 17 (CP).—L. B. Pearson, Canadian Ambassador to Washington, was elected Chairman of the Food and Agriculture Conference at the second plenary meeting today.

Mr. Pearson was chairman of the interim commission on food set up at the United National Food Conference in Hot Springs, Va., early in 1943 and directed preparation of the constitution of F.A.O. He has been temporary chairman of the conference here.

Committees on general procedure and credentials were quickly set up without discussion of the nominating committee's report.

China and Mexico were elected to name vice-chairmen and a vice-chairman's vacancy was left, presumably to be filled by Russia when and if that country signs the constitution.

Two vacancies were left on the general committee of nine countries, to be filled by later entrants.

Mr. Pearson annduced a message from the Brazilian Ambassador in Washington advising that a delegation was enroute to Quebec from his country and a Polish delegation headed by former Premier Mikolajczyk, was expected to arrive today

PLYMOUTH, England (CP) — G. Lucas, President of the Motor Agents' Association, said 30,000 or 40,000 skilled an semi-skilled men are needed by the motor vehicle repair trade if the risk of a serious road transport breakdown is to be avoided.

Silverton Told Works Program, School Policy

SILVERTON, B.C., Oct. 16 — At a meeting in Silverton Community Hall Monday, C. S. Leary Coalition candidate in Kaslo-Slocan, outlined the Government policy in connection with the proposed works program passed at the last session of the House. Projects totalling millions of dollars have been listed for immediate action. The delay in starting the work, said Capt. Leary, was not the fault of the administration. Every effort had been made to procure sufficient man-power to fulfill the requirements, but to date little success had been achieved. Mr. Leary stated the Government program would assure employment of labor for a number of years.

The Cameron report for the betterment of the B.C. educational system. said Capt. Leary, would be adopted as soon as possible after election. This program would place British Columbia at the top of the Provinces in progressive education. The cost of putting the report into effect would be borne by the Government and not through increased real estate taxation, and the equalization of the mill rate for school taxes would be carried out.

Alex Bedard, who accompanied Capt. Leary, stated he was still a Conservative, but that the election issues at stake in the Province at this time was brought about by joint administration of both parties, and, said Bedard, "I feel that we would be committing a grave sin if we allowed the inexperienced and untried hand of the C.C.F. party to take the reins of office at this time."

He said Government changed hands when the people lost faith in the administration. It was difficult, he said, for a free people to submit to such regimentation as proposed by the C.C.F. Leader, Harold Winch.

● Authorities say the difference between husky children and those who are poor eaters, underweight and nervous is often simply a matter of proper nourishment, especially an adequate supply of vitamins.

But vitamins alone are not enough. For authorities now agree that vitamins do not work alone. They work as a team with certain other food elements.

For this reason, thousands are switching to Ovaltine. Unlike mere "vitamin carriers," Ovaltine food beverage contains not only extra vitamins but nearly all the precious food elements needed for health and top vitality. These include Vitamins A, B_1 and D, the important minerals calcium, phosphorus and iron, high quality proteins and quick energy fuel-food—a combination of food elements authorities agree are needed for best results.

So, if your child is thin, nervous and not developing properly, why not turn to Ovaltine as thousands are doing. Three normal meals plus two glasses of Ovaltine a day give your child all the extra amounts of vitamins and minerals needed for health and top vitality. 167

Winnipeg Soldier Writes Song in Jap Prison Camp

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17 (CP). — Pte. Elmer McKnight, Winnipeg soldier who converted the misery and loneliness of a Japanese prison camp into a love song, told from his hospital bed here today how he wrote the words and music to "I'll Never Say Goodbye Again."

The tall, blond former Winnipeg orchestra leader, was brought to military hospital here yesterday. He arrived from San Francisco with 21 other Canadian repatriates who docked at the California city aboard a United States transport late last week.

EXPRESSED LONGING IN HEART

"I didn't really intend to do anything with the song," he said. "I just wrote it because it expressed the longing that was in my heart."

He confided that the inspiration for the song was a certain Winnipeg girl, Lorraine Ramsay, his fiancee.

The song had its debut when Elmer and his twin brother, Gerald and a third brother, Melville, organized a prison orchestra. One day when the Japanese were feeling particularly benevolent, the orchestra was given a chance to broadcast short wave from the Yokohama station.

OUT OVER AIR WAVES

The song went out over the air waves and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's short wave receiving station at Ottawa recorded it Federal authorities copyrighted the song in Elmer's name. Later, Gordon V. Thompson, Toronto music publisher, added a stanza to the song and published it, again in Elmer's name.

The song caught on and several radio shows, including Toronto's "Happy Gang," gave it a boost. The result is that Elmer has a little fortune in royalties to come home to.

Rosemont Bridge Planks Show Deterioration

Deterioration of part of the planking on the Rosemont bridge was reported by Alderman G. R. Clerihew to the City Council. The matter was referred to the Public Works Committee, which is headed by Ald. Clerihew. Question of whether the bridge is the responsibility of the City or Provincial Government is to be learned.

City Engineer H. D. Dawson said that some plank ends were in poor condition and he thought another Winter would cause such deterioration that replanking would be necessary.

Asks to Have Trees Cut Down

Request to have at least two chestnut trees cut down in the 200 block on Chatham Street was referred to the Parks Committee with power to act by the City Council Monday night.

Rhos A. Dyke, 707 Cottonwood Street, said that the trees in front of his property at 208 Chatham Street excluded the view and light, were no longer beautiful, extended into the street wires and caused untidiness. Their leaves and nuts made the sidewalk slippery and hazardous.

The Rural Electrification Plan, instituted through the B. C. Power Commission, will bring electric light and appliances to every practicable area in B. C.

The COALITION Government is committed to the successful solution of the P.G.E. Railway problem and the development of the whole of the great and rich area it serves.

Putnam Tells Creston Voters of Busy Coalition Administration

CRESTON, B. C., Oct. 17—Frank Putnam, Coalition candidate for Nelson-Creston, outlined to a good audience in the K. P. Hall here tonight 14 points which the Coalition Government had given British Columbia under its administration. Col. E. Mallandaine, President of the Nelson-Creston Conservative Association, was Chairman. Supporting speaker was C. B. Garland of Nelson, and on the platform was D. K. Archibald and W. L. Bell of Creston.

Previous to his address, Mr. Putnam outlined the reasons for Coalition Government emanating from the Japanese threat following the Pearl Harbor attack.

The 14 points dealt with the raising of old age and mothers' pensions, the expansion and inclusion of trades by the Workmen's Compensation Board, a Government committee to encourage better under standing between labor and management, the forward strides of B. C. agriculture under the Marketing Board, the mobilizing of labor to take off B. C. crops under the Farm Emergency Labor Board, the cost of education and its equalization and the bringing down of the Cameron report, rural electrification, the veterans land reserve, and roads.

In his own district, Mr. Putnam felt irrigation was necessary for successful farming and he had pressed for an overall irrigation system for Creston Valley. He pointed out that his suggestion for farmers working out their taxes had proved beneficial to both farmer and road maintenance. He asked for support of the Coalition Government in order that a strong, experience man like Premier Hart could attend the Dominion-Provincial conference next month, the outcome of which would affect every person in B. C. and Canada.

Mr. Garland criticized the CCF platform of planned economy and their methods of stopping depressions. In the former case he showed that any government planned economy must be paid for by the working man and in the latter pointed out that depressions were of a world wide nature involving all. He concluded with the remark that Nelson was striving to give Mr. Putnam a majority vote of 600.

British Columbia's Great New and Constructive Program of Education and Equity in Taxation

The program of the Coalition Government in British Columbia is essentially constructive. In a positive and definite way it is directed to the improvement of the living conditions of the people of the Province and to the stimulation of commercial and industrial activity to provide employment, and ensure continued prosperity.

Of major importance in this program is the plan for expansion of educational facilities, which is combined with the removal of inequities in taxation for educational purposes.

Premier Hart proposes to spend much more money on education, but to reduce direct educational taxation in both municipalities and rural districts to a flat basis of 5 mills on assessed value of real property and 5 mills on 75 per cent of improvements, with abolition of rural personal property taxes. The result will be that instead of contributing 32 per cent to costs of education, the British Columbia Government will contribute 55 per cent. The burden on the local taxpayer will be lessened. Total expenditures will be increased to $9,529,244, or about $5 millions more than present Provincial Government expenditures.

British Columbia's proportionate contribution from the general public treasury will be the highest in Canada, the direct cost to the individual home owner will be the lowest, but the standard of education in this Province will be the highest in the Dominion.

One of the effects of the new policy will be higher salaries of teachers. Another will be that school districts will be relieved of the 7 per cent assessment on teachers' salaries for superannuation fund, the Province paying this expense. Still another will be special bonuses for teachers in isolated districts. More teachers are to be employed, to reduce congestion in some of the schools. Three millions a year for five years is to be spent on new schools.

There is to be more consolidation of school boards and districts, and provision of the necessary transportation of pupils in rural areas, a matter of very great importance to the people in the country districts. It will mean that the opportunities of their children to obtain equality in educational advantages will be largely increased, and at the expense of the Province as a whole. This is a feature of equalization of the duty of providing for costs of education by spreading it over the Province at large which will be immediately beneficial to people residing in rural areas.

For British Columbia to possess the best system of public education in Canada is vital to every family directly, but it will pay dividends economically. Possession of the highest standard of education in Canada will attract more people to British Columbia, and it will fortify the coming generation for success in developing British Columbia's resources, and further raising our standard of living, already the highest in the Dominion.

Will Help Finance Exports From Canada

Canada emerges from the war in a favored position among nations. Our homes and factories have escaped devastation; our manufacturing resources and skills have increased enormously; our program of price ceilings, wage controls, taxation and war savings has kept our economy sound; we produce vast quantities of goods and materials the less fortunate countries need and want. Our prestige is high abroad; we have many friends.

We shall have no trouble selling our products—our fish, our farm foodstuffs, our metals, our timber. But many of our former good customers are nations who have been trampled down by war; their resources dissipated; their factories blackened ruins. Far from being able to produce goods immediately for exchange with us, they are confronted with the pressing problems of how to clothe and feed their people this Winter. The people of Britain hailed the victory, and then tightened their belts another notch. They are now living under more rigorous austerity conditions than they were during the actual war years.

Our humanitarian instincts tell us we should extend a helping hand to these Allies of ours—and steady them to their feet. From a practical standpoint, it is plain common sense to assist these good customers of ours. That is why a large part of the money to be raised in the Ninth Victory Loan will be used to extend export trade credits to war-ravaged countries.

The money will be spent here for our surplus commodities; it will keep our production high and create jobs during the difficult transition period from a war to a peace economy. Some of the countries who want our goods have money, and will spend it where they are well treated. They will remember our helping hand in the years ahead, when our goods meet with keener competition.

Gobbledegook

From Canadian Delegate Escott Reid now in London comes the assertion that the report under preparation by the United Nations Executive Committee is full of "league lingo, Genva jargon and gobbledegook".

The style, he says, is "stuffy and slipshod".

He asserts that the report, which is to be presented to the Preparatory Commission meeting in London on Nov. 8, should "speak to the people of the world and be written so that they can understand it".

Mr. Reid did not originate "gobbledegook". For that enrichment of our great and ever virile English language we must thank a United States Senator. But we can be grateful to Mr. Reid, who dislikes stuffy and slipshod English, for his work in getting the word by Atlantic cable into the Associated Press offices, with consequent publication throughout the English-speaking world. What the translators in Moscow, Buenos Aires, Paris, Chungking and Vienna did with it we do not know. We can only hope. If accustomed to the duty of translating paragraphs from Variety, which has used "turkey" to good descriptive effect, they may have done well by Mr. Reid's effort.

Anyway, more power to our Canadian delegate in his campaign to have edited out of future international declarations what he would no doubt also describe as the corn.

POWER SOLD AT COST

The B.C. Power Commission has signed its first contract for supplying industrial power in bulk. Approximately 10,000 horsepower is to be delivered from Campbell River in April, 1947, to the new Bloedel pulp mill at Alberni. Although the unit charge has not been disclosed, the assumption is that it will be lower than any now quoted on Vancouver Island or the Lower Mainland.

British Columbia has, in this contract, the first active demonstration of the Coalition Government's policy to establish "vast power reserves for industrial development." Every industrial user of electricity has a direct interest in the venture, because the price to Bloedel may be the eventual base price to the province at large.

Campbell River has a capacity in excess of 150,000 horsepower. High-tension lines will carry it all over Vancouver Island. Soon it will be available in Victoria, in direct competition with current generated by the B.C. Electric unless the Victoria system is taken over in the meantime by municipalities with government assistance.

If Campbell River produces low-cost power in Victoria, how long would Vancouver industrial plants be willing to pay more? Low-cost current is the soul of the entire public ownership project. S. R. Weston, Chairman of the Power Commission, guaranteed, in a recent speech in Vancouver, to deliver power to the public and to industries at cost of generation and distribution.

Can the B.C. Electric meet those rates? Government-owned electricity will not be subject to federal income taxes nor will it have to earn dividends, as the B.C. Electric output is forced to do, to the tune of millions of dollars a year.

The Bloedel contract ushers in a new era of rate-making in British Columbia.—Vancouver Sun.

RIDE OR ROPE

To the young riders and ropers, the boys from the ranches who dream of hitting the top in the rodeo world, Herman Linder has this to say: "The way to learn to ride or rope is to ride and rope." By that he means, to keep riding tough horses the year round or roping calves at every opportunity. It means long, hard, exacting hours; it means taking risks, and it means a lot of disappointments. There is no "royal road" to becoming a rodeo star. But to the boys who have it in them, the instincts and style of great riders, ropers or steer decorators, the path to fame and fat purses still beckons.—Lethbridge Herald.

Deserted Wife—I have been deserted by my husband and a legal separation has been granted me by the court in B.C. with a maintenance allowance for my infant child. He has not paid me this allowance, and I'm working to sustain myself and baby. Can he interfere in any way, and should he attempt to, will the court permit him?

The question of the custody of the child is not referred to as having been dealt with in the separation order. A separation order usually deals with this. Under the Equal Guardianship of Infants Act, both parents have equal rights to custody, but the interest of the child is paramount, if the husband has failed to support his wife and child, it is unlikely a court would give him any right to custody.

Asks If Assurances Herridge Would Sit With C.C.F. Forgotten

To the Editor:

Sir:—It is rather revealing to notice that the members at Ottawa belonging to the C.C.F. find it quite convenient to leave their posts there, for which the taxpayers are paying them $4,000 per year, in order to return to British Columbia to take part in the Provincial election. Apparently the session in Ottawa where the business of Canada is being transacted, is of less interest to them than their Party's affairs. In your columns I notice that Mr. Herridge, M.P., is also on his way.

Possibly Mr. Beatt or Mr. Herridge will be able to explain why the assurance given by Mr. Beatt at a public meeting during the Federal campaign: to wit, that Mr. Herridge was still with the C.C.F., and would be sitting with Mr. Coldwell in Ottawa as one of the C.C.F., has failed to come true. Has this assurance been forgotten so soon?

It appears that the members of Parliament belonging to the older parties put the country and its business first, and personal and party affairs last.

INTERESTED.

Prov. Gov't Gives Hospital Special Grant of $2000; Seek to Resume Pathology Service

Kootenay Lake General Hospital has received a special grant of $2000 from the Government toward the cost of extending the nursery, it was revealed at a Hospital Board meeting held in the Nurses' Home Tuesday night.

Appreciation of the Board was expressed to H. M. Whimster for his efforts toward obtaining the grant. Mr. Whimster and Frank Putnam, M.L.A., interviewed Hon. G. S. Pearson, Provincial Secretary and Minister of Labor, on the matter when at Victoria with the Surface the Highways delegation.

The Hospital Board was told by D. B. Simpson, Secretary, that a letter of thanks for his assistance had been sent to Mr. Putnam as well as a letter of appreciation to the Minister.

A letter from Dr. F. M. Auld, Secretary of the medical staff, asking for the resumption of a pathology service was also read. Dr. Auld said there was no pathology service between Vancouver and Calgary. Dr. F. P. Sparks was not expected to return to Nelson, but a young man in the forces who had been trained in pathology might be available. This letter was referred to the Executive.

Another matter referred to the Executive was the decision on whether the nursery, hallway and sterilizing room floors should be tiled, and repairs done to the kitchen. The estimated cost of this was said to be $1535.

The Board passed a resolution that a concession be given to someone to sell cigarettes magazines and other articles in that line in the main entrance hall of the hospital.

PLASMA FOR HOSPITALS

Miss H. Tregear, Superintendent, told of a report made by Dr. R. B. Brummitt at a medical conference on Friday dealing with blood plasma. There was a large supply on hand and this was going to be supplied to hospitals free of charge, but they in turn must not charge for the plasma.

Miss Tregear also mentioned that the inducto-therm had arrived at the hospital and had cost $472. The inducto-therm is to be used where deep heat therapy is required, and also has surgical attachments, she said.

A discussion was held on the possibility of having three steam tables in the hospital and as to whether they should be heated with gas, electricity or a boiler. This was also left to the Executive to decide.

Tells of R.C.A.F. Sea Tragedy In Which Nelsonite Lost

MONTREAL (CP) — Capt. Christian Neilson, master of the Danish liner Erria, which docked here Tuesday from Copenhagen, told in an interview for the first time the grim story of the loss of 86 members of the R.C.A.F. who were enroute to Britain aboard the Danish liner Amerika.

(Flying Officer R. S. (Bert) Jardine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jardine, Fairview, was one of the airmen lost in the sinking of the Amerika.)

The sinking occurred in April, 1943, but details were withheld for reasons of security. For his part in the rescue of more than 100 members of the R.C.A.F., Capt. Neilson has been awarded the Lloyd's war medal for bravery, and has been decorated by the King with the Order of the British Empire.

He said the Canadian airmen displayed coolness, discipline and high morale, not only when the ship was sinking, but also later on while on the raft on which they escaped.

SAVED MANY LIVES

They did everything possible to pick up those swimming in the water, thus saving many lives as well as their own.

The Amerika had sailed from Halifax, April 14, 1943, and had good sailing weather until April 21, when snowstorms broke out with mountainous seas. About 2:30 a.m. that night, two torpedoes struck on the port side, one near No. 4 hatch and the other under the bridge, about 10 seconds apart.

Passengers and crew proceeded without loss to the assembly area, but owing to the "furious weather" some of the boats were damaged before reaching the water. The R. C. A. F. personnel and the crew were placed on rafts and in two lifeboats.

As the ship sank, one strongly built raft with about 15 airmen struck against one of the funnels, but finally drifted clear of the vessel.

In a little more than a half-hour nothing could be seen except wreckage and red lights indicating people swimming about in the water. The survivors were picked up by the corvette H.M.S. Asphodel.

Capt. Nielson did not mention his part in the rescue for which he won the awards.

1000 Pounds of Clothes in Week, Greenwood

GREENWOOD, B.C.—During the first two weeks of October the Greenwood Women's Institute conducted a successful clothing drive. The first week brought in close to 1000 pounds, 700 of which has been sorted, packed and shipped to the Lethbridge depot. In this first shipment there were over 100 pairs of shoes, all of them in excellent condition.

President Mrs. W. Fritz estimated that the second shipment may contain several dozens more pairs of shoes. The second shipment is being sorted in the W. I. Hall and will go forward shortly.

The Institute launched its Autumn program of social entertainment with regular whist drives.

TO BUY BOOKS

The Community Association of Greenwood Treasurer, Mrs. Helen Fritz, brought in a financial report showing a balance of over $200, to a meeting Thursday. Fifty dollars was set aside for new books and a Committee was appointed to select the new entries.

The House Committee of the Greenwood Public and High School were invited to become permanent active members of the Community Association. The High School boys, under the direction of Mr. Mercer of the High School staff, have laid a basketball floor in the skating rink. The floor was donated by the Greenwood City Council and the Boundary Sawmill Company of Midway, B.C. The opening of the basketball season is scheduled for Oct. 19, when Greenwood All-Stars will play Midway basketballers.

R. B. Wallace welcomed two new members to the Community Association. They were Mrs. M. Andrews and Alec Mercer, both of the Greenwood school staff.

As Secretary of the Theatre Committee, Mrs. Wallace announced that the theatre, being a community venture, will not have to pay the 16 per cent Government tax.

Through their President, N. Onizuka, the Students Council applied for a student's rate for all films shown.

Salmo Board of Trade Advised Interior Air Service Charter Granted; to Push Better Roads

SALMO, B.C. — At the regular monthly meeting of the Salmo Valley and District Board of Trade the members were informed on good authority that the charter for an air service from Lethbridge to Vancouver and return has been issued.

This service will utilize the Cranbrook, Salmo and Penticton airports which are all immediately available to furnish landing facilities and give the Southern Interior and its two largest communities, Nelson and Trail, modern passenger, airmail and air express service that will speed up the business of the whole area involved.

The Salmo airport is well located to serve both Nelson and Trail, it being approximately 25 and 28 miles, respectively, from the airport to these cities. The Boards of Trade in all three communities are striving to impress the Provincial Government with the vital necessity of providing highway access to the Salmo field affording connection to the air service with speed and comfort.

Salmo can provide up-to-date hotel, restaurant, garage and merchandising services for passengers requiring an overnight stay. There is also a possibility that in addition to the Nelson and Slocan areas the Metaline Falls district whose mining activities are extensive, will provide traffic for the air service if the Nelson-Nelway Highway from the border to Nelson is improved as contemplated by the Government.

The President of the Salmo Board, S. A. Curwen, impressed the meeting with the fact that the air service can only be maintained by traffic and that when the service *is inaugurated it is up to the com*munities that stand to benefit, to provide this traffic by agitating for better highways to their airports so that passengers and freight can be handled with dispatch.

Japan Moves Further Toward Democracy

TOKYO, Oct. 17 (AP) — Japan took four important steps toward democracy today.

They were:

1. Emperor Hirohito granted amnesty to nearly 1,000,000 Japanese as an openly avowed move to unite the country "in meeting a great change in history."

2. Four major Japanese industrial holding companies, Mitsui, Mitsubishi, Sumitomo and Yasuda, decided to offer all their shares for sale to the public, the newspaper Yomiuri Hochi said.

3. The Japanese cabinet, in further compliance with the Allied directive for freedom of thought and speech in Japan, decided to repeal the religious organizations law established as a wartime control, Domei agency reported.

4. Allied headquarters issued a directive freeing the Japanese motion picture industry from all government domination to allow it to "reflect the democratic aspirations of the Japanese people."

Action of Japan's four great industrial companies — with their tight grip on the country's economic and political life and avowed target of the Allied occupation policy—is "not enough", Yomiuri Hochi said, advocating state ownership as the only solution for this problem.

The amnesty rescripts affected principally political prisoners whose freedom Gen. MacArthur had decreed.

RECOVER TREASURE

United States 8th Army Headquarters meanwhile reported the arrest of Lt.-Gen. Shigeru Sawada, charged with complicity in the executions of some of the American fliers who raided Tokyo April 18, 1942.

Other headquarters reports disclosed recovery of buried fortunes in diamonds, platinum, gold and silver cached by Japanese Admirals and Generals, and said United States Marines have taken control of labor-rioting coal mining camps near Hakata, where at least two Chinese workers were killed.

American authorities reported the torture-slaying by Japanese of 22 Allied nationals on Tarawa, in the Gilbert Islands, in September, 1942 and disclosed that Japanese agents in Tokyo illegally had searched the pre-war diplomatic pouches of the United States Embassy.

Accused as "Tokyo Rose" of wartime propaganda broadcasts, American-born Iva Toguri was returned to custody of United States authorities today, 8th Army officers announced. They reassumed authority over her case on the grounds that she is an American citizen.

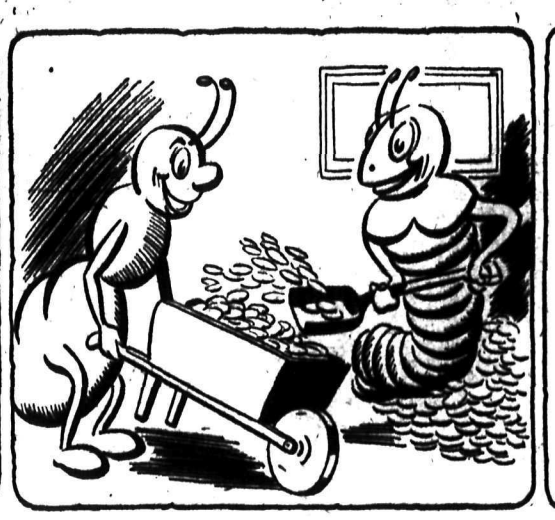
The ANT and the CRICKET

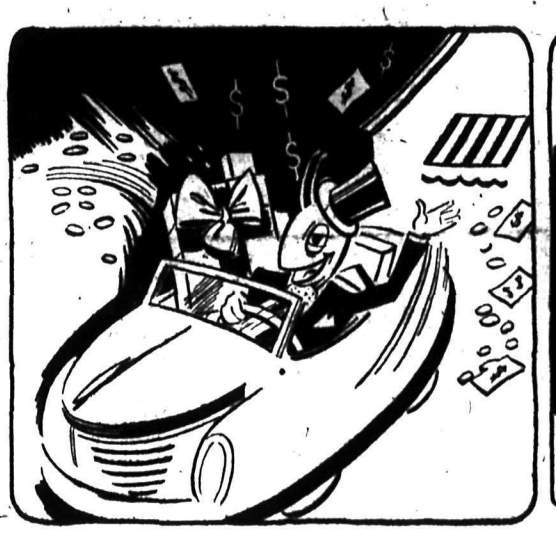
1 When the war was on Joey Cricket was a rather rambunctious fellow. But nevertheless, he made a swell haul on his job . . . just rolling in dough.



2 Andy Ant worked at the same plant. He took in a sizeable bit of cash too. Long hours and overtime sure added up.

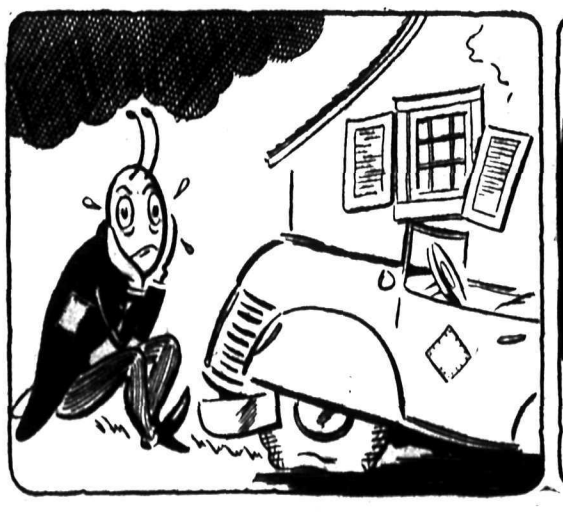
3 "A fool and his money are soon parted", they say, and Joey proved the proverb with a vengeance. No luxury cost too much for him.

4 Andy unloaded his money too, but he put it into Victory Bonds. His interest was in interest (3%) . . . besides he wanted to help beat the Japanese Beetles.

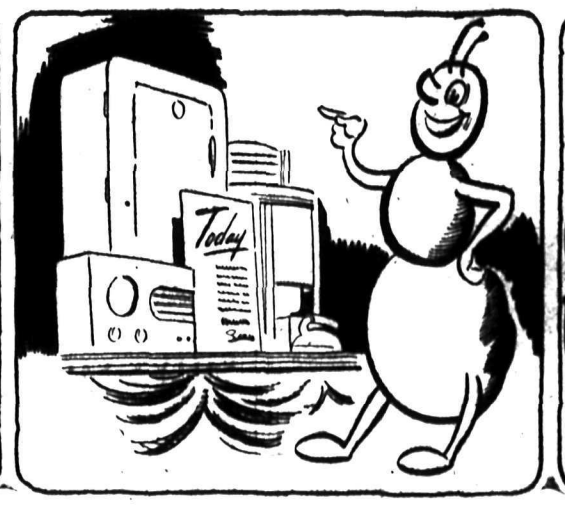


5 Joey bought what he wanted, when he wanted it . . . stuff that was high-priced and scarce. Money burned a hole in his pocket faster than a new bride burns toast.

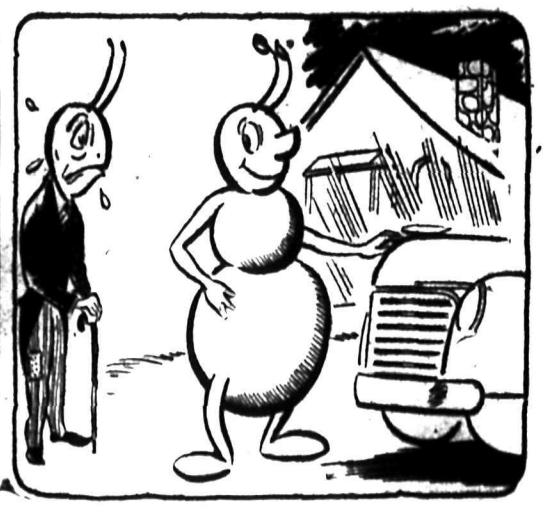
6 Andy sat tight with his growing pile of Victory Bonds. "Joey Cricket", he would often remark, "likes high living . . . but gentlemen prefer Bonds."



7 Now let's look ahead a bit. The war has been over some time. Joey is finished too. Upkeep is keeping him down. Wartime wages and overtime didn't last forever. Life was just a bowl of cherries. Now Joey has the pipe.



8 Andy is still living comfortably. The things he wants are coming back on the market, with postwar improvements, too.



9 Andy's investment in Victory Bonds is paying off. You see . . . there's a moral . . . save your dough for a better buy . . . bye and bye.

ADELAIDE, Australia (CP) — A boy pupil at an Adelaide school was asked who Sir Francis Drake was, put up his hand and said: "Please, Miss, Donald Duck's father."

Market Trends . . .

NEW YORK—Calling off of the six-state soft coal walkout, most serious threat to reconversion, put props under a wavering stock market and favorites, paced by steels, climber 1 to more than 3 points.

MONTREAL — After climbing steadily recently papers and industrials, except for a few leaders, turned downward on average in trading on the stock exchange and curb market. Only pivotal division to make headway was utilities.

TORONTO—The big gold producers had an innings on the exchange market and most of them advanced a point in active trading. The secondary and junior issues perked up in sympathy after the market had shown a lagging tendency until noon. A rumor credited to Wall Street, that there was a proposal to increase the price of gold, started the buying wave. All four groups were up at the close and volume for the day was around 2,800,000 shares.

CHICAGO—Consistent strength in wheat and sharp fluctuations n oats and rye dealings gave the grain futures market an irregular tone.

The rye market, relatively weak most of the session, spurted upward near the close on moderate commission house demand and short covering. Offerings were light and the May delivery scored a gain of 2½ cents at one stage in the upturn.

May and July delivery wheat previously had received major support.

VANCOUVER—Pioneer sold 300 shares at 6.00 for a gain of 15 to highlight trading on the stock exchange. Sales totalled 50,600 shares.

LONDON—The stock market was quiet again although the undertone was firm, particularly among industrials on hopes of tax relief following the Chancellor of the Exchequer's speech.

WINNIPEG—Rye futures prices on the grain exchange rallied from early hesitation with strength at Chicago stimulating a fair demand from commission houses and locals. Offerings were light in the deferred months. Trading was quiet in the first half of the session but quickened somewhat later.

At the close prices were unchanged to 2½ higher with Oct. $1.73¼B; Dec. $1.70-$1.70½; May $1.69⅞A and July $1.63¾-⅞.

There was no export business in Canadian grain although several European countries madel nquiries for oats.

Eight Applications for Electric Light Service

Eight applications for electric light services or increase in service were received by the City Council Monday night and all were referred to the Electric Light Committee with power to act.

Services were sought by T. C. Anderson, Blewitt Road, Frank Bucholski, for service outside the City limits, Robert Clerihew, H. W. Robertson, E. H. Wernham and Nicholas Sodlosky, for North Shore services, Albert Fichten, veteran of five years service overseas, for Rosemont service, and Robert Joy, 924 Hoover Street, for increased service to furnish power for an electric range.

CAN'T FIND SATISFACTORY WAY TO PAY BACK COMPULSORY SAVINGS

CALGAGRY, Oct. 17 (CP). — The Dominion Government would like to pay back compulsory savings to individuals who really need them —but it can't find any satisfactory way of doing it.

Discussing loans and taxation at an interview in Calgary today, Hon. J. L. Ilsley, Minister of Finance, was asked whether people who found themselves in financial difficulties could withdraw their compulsory savings ahead of time.

Mr. Ilsley said that very careful thought had been given this matter. Many such requests had been received at Ottawa from people who found themselves up against an emergency.

MONEY FOR BILLS, HOMES

Some wanted the money for hospital bills; some wanted it to buy or build houses. But nothing could be done; the only policy the Government could adopt was to pay back the savings to everybody at the time allotted, neither before nor after. Could loans be obtained from banks, with the compulsory savings receipts at collateral? Mr. Ilsley shook his head. The compulsory savings were held by the Government in trust for each individual taxpayer; they could not be assigned, and therefore could not be used as security for a loan.

Asked about injustices in the present income tax system, Mr. Ilsley said: "We are planning to revise and reconstruct the entire system just as soon as our relationship with the provinces has been clarified."

TO HOLD MEETING NOV. 26

He pointed out that a meeting was to be held Nov. 26, at Ottawa between Prime Minister Mackenzie King and the premiers of the nine provinces. At this meeting, plans would be made for a general Dominion-provincial meeting on financial matters. As soon as agreements had been reached the Dominion Government and the nine provincial governments, a new, simpler and more equitable system would be placed in effect.

Seize File of Nazi Membership

By EDWARD D. BALL

BERLIN, Oct. 17 (AP).—United States military authorities disclosed today that they had seized the Nazi Party's master personnel files listing nearly 8,000,000 party members, including thousands who were members of Nazi-sponsored groups in the United States, Argentina and other countries.

The files, which also contain the names of 2,000,000 who were rejected as members and a "blacklist" of those expelled from the party, were regarded as among the most important documentary catches yet made.

Apparently those belonging to Nazi-sponsored groups abroad were considered as good Nazis as those at home. They lived in virtually every country, and were particularly numerous in such South American countries as Argentina.

The files gave the Allies the first official figures on the number of Nazi party members. Discounting the number of deaths, expulsions and resignations, American authorities estimated the party at its peak had about 7,000,000 active adherents.

The files contained a careful record of every person who joined the party or who aspired to join. The record of one rejected applicant living in Germany contained a plea addressed to Hitler on his behalf by Fritz Kuhn, former Bund leader in New York.

Lumber Tax Allowance Test Case Opens

VANCOUVER, Oct. 17 (CP).—A test case important to the logging industry opened before Mr. Justice Sidney Smith in Exchequer Court of Canada today when Burns & Jackson Logging Co. Ltd., appealed from a refusal of the Minister of National Revenue to grant them certain deletion allowances in their 1941 income tax returns.

C. H. Locke, counsel with C. M. O'Brian for appellant, explained that special depletion allowances were given the logging operators for 1941 to stimulate production.

This was done, they said, because the heavy income taxes and excess profit taxes had a serious effect upon the industry and timber stands were being exhausted without any real benefit to the operators.

As a result the Minister of National Revenue on Feb. 19, 1942, advised the B.C. Loggers Association that logging operators would be given a special allowance amounting to one-third of the cost stumpage, royalty and taxes. (This would amount to about $1 per thousand feet in costs.)

Burns & Jackson claimed the special depletion allowance $8398 for 1941 and the Minister disallowed $1719 on the grounds that this covered pulpwood which had been sold the B.C. Pulp & Paper Company. Ottawa, they said, took the position that the special allowance was not applicable to pulp wood or fuel wood.

On the other hand the firm claimed that all the logs were cut on the one logging operation.

The hearing is continuing.

Cotton was known to the Babylonians as sindhu and to the Greeks as sindon.

ALMOST CERTAIN POISON WAS HANDED TO LAVAL

PARIS, Oct. 17 (Reuters).—Police seeking to determine how Pierre Laval obtained the poison with which he sought to cheat the firing squad Monday said today it now was almost certain that the poison vial was handed to him as he awaited execution in the death cell of Fresnes Prison.

Conn Refuses to Sign for Title Bout

NEW YORK, Oct. 1 7(AP)—A lot of firecrackers went off around Promoter Mike Jacobs' beak-busting headquarters today, and the loudest of all was a flat refusal by Billy Conn to sign for his scheduled heavyweight title fight next June with Joe Louis.

The last time Billy signed for a Louis fight—in 1941—his manager, Johnny Ray, wouldn't approve the contracts until Jacobs lifted Conn's percentage of the gate, causing Mike to scream "you're breaking both my legs". Today, Ray beefed only over the clause barring Conn from any exhibition or tune-up tussles before the Louis go.

The little blond pilot who built Conn up from a frail kid off the streets of Pittsburgh into the belter who came closest to taking Louis' title, wants Billy to have three tune-ups before meeting the Bomber again. To show he wasn't kidding Johnny said he agreed verbally with Co-Promoter Freddy Sommers this afternoon to have Billy box an exhibition with Al Patterson of Pittsburgh in Kansas City auditorium Nov. 7.

Johnny had no immediate objections over other terms. But after nearly an hour of argument with Uncle Mike, Johnny called for his lawyer to come a-running from Pittsburgh and look over the papers for the fight, which, the promoter said, would go to the town "where we can get the most money."

Thousands in Bonds Stolen From Red Cross

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17 (CP).—Police are searching for non-negotiable bonds valued at several thousand dollars stolen from the Winnipeg headquarters of the Red Cross Society, it was learned today.

They are part of the loot obtained when thieves broke open a safe in the Red Cross office last Saturday night. The amount of the bonds was not immediately known as records were either destroyed or carried away by the robbers.

A cash box taken from the safe was found in a pile of leaves by William Scott, a milkman, who had never "found more than a nickel in my life," as he made deliveries in a residential district. He unearthed the box when he gave the leaves a casual kick.

The box contained $507 in cheques, war savings certificates, a money order, and a bank book showing a balance of $600,000.

Calls on F.A.O. for Example in World Cooperation

By CLYDE R. BLACKBURN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

QUEBEC CITY, Oct. 17 (CP). — President Truman called upon the newly created Food and Agriculture Organization today to set an example of world cooperation in attacking the problem of freeing millions from hunger.

President Truman said the agency offers the United Nations a chance "to begin to cultivate, if not yet to get there, the fruits of vicory" over their Axis enemies.

The message was read by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson shortly before the conference opened a discussion of nutritional conditions and levels of food production in the 30 nations which yesterday became signatories to the F.A.O.

Interest continued to centre on the question of whether Russia will become a full fledged member of the organization. Its delegates participated in the conference, but as yet have not received authorization from Moscow to sign the F.A.O. constitution.

Western Tinge to Ranger Squad

WINNIPEG, Oct. 17 (CP) — At practice sessions here today New York Rangers began to show some semblance of the team that should represent the Gothamites in N.H.L. competition this season.

Coach Frank Boucher said tonight he has chosen the players to dress for tomorrow night's engagement with Chicago Black Hawks.

Lineups for their first exhibition appearance seem to have a distinct Western flavor with 11 of the 18 choices hailing from homes in Western Canada. Bill Moe, only American in the list could be called a Westerner, too, as he comes from Eveleth, Minn.

Forward lines for the game include Alex Shibicky, Winnipeg, Phil Watson, Montreal, and Brian Hextall, Sask.; Alan Kuntz, Toronto, Edgar Laprade, Port Arthur and Harold Brown, Brandon; Hank Goldup, Frontenac County, Ont., Ab Demarco, North Bay, Ont., and Grant Warwick, Regina. The 10th forward will be Tony Leswick of Saskatoon.

Back of the blue line Boucher will have five rearguards: Ott Heller, Kitchener, Ont.; Neil Colville, Edmonton, Muzz Patrick, Victoria, Bill Juzda, Winnipeg and Bill Moe, while goalies Jim Henry of Winnipeg and Chuck Raynor will be dressed.

All but three of the 17 have signed their contracts, Lester Patrick said today. Those still to be signed are Leswick, Warwick and son Muzz Patrick.

Pte. Mac Colville at Winnipeg today met Manager Patrick. "We have reason to believe," Patrick said, "that within 30 days he'll rejoin the team." This would be possible either through discharge or six months leave of absence from the Army.

Ike's Orders Aimed at Ending Threat to Peace

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 (AP)—The State Department tonight made public a directive given Gen. Eisenhower last April to treat Germany as a "defeated nation" in order to prevent her from ever again "becoming a threat to the peace of the world."

The directive set up regulations for Gen. Eisenhower in governing the American occupation zone of Germany. In many respects, the order—subject of much speculation during the six months it was kept secret—paralleled the provisions on Germany in the Potsdam Big Three communique.

There appeared to be no outstanding differences between the two documents and little support of one published contention that the Eisenhower directive was unusually severe and had to be "watered down" at Potsdam.

The differences appeared to be largely ones of detail.

The Eisenhower directive devoted about 500 words to instructions on the program of denazification—a subject which was handled tersely in the Potsdam communique.

On the other hand, the Eisenhower directive was brief and negative on the subject of political activity which the Germans could be permitted. The Potsdam communique went much further, detailing the permitted activities at considerable length.

Gen. Eisenhower was instructed to take no action which might give Germany a higher standard of living "than that existing in any one of the neighboring United Nations."

The island of Tahiti, shaped like the figure eight, is 33 miles long and 402 square miles in area.
