Wants No Tax on Income Under $5000

Winnipeg C.C.F. Urges Minorities Rights Bill; Name Head of Crimes Section

By D'ARCY O'DONNELL
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Sept. 13 (CP)—Requests ranging from the abolition of income tax on all incomes of $5,000 a year and less to the establishment of a Bill of Rights for the minorities in Canada were heard today in the Commons as the Throne Speech debate continued.

P. H. Ashby (S.C. — Edmonton East), who turned farmer on his return from the First Great War, asked for the tax abolition in his maiden speech and said his constituents wanted increased old age pensions and a reduction in the taxes on consumer goods.

The request for a minorities' Bill of Rights came from another new member, Alistair Stewart (C.C.F.—Winnipeg North) who clamed there was need for such a bill because of racial discriminations in Canada.

HERRIDGE SPEAKER

A variety of other suggestions were heard from other speakers, among whom were J. M. MacDonnell (PC—Muskoka-Ontario), Maxime Raymond (BP—Beauharnois-LaPrairie), and H. A. Archibald (C.C.F.—Skeena).

At the night sitting the speakers were J. S. Sinnott (L—Springfield), Park Manross (PC—London), A. M. Nicolson (CCF—Mackenzie), H. W. Herridge (People's CCF—Kootenay West), Fred Rose (Lab Prog—Montreal Cartier), A. E. Robinson (PC—Bruce), and D. F. Brown (L—Essex West).

These announcements preceded resumption of the debate:

1. Finance Minister Isley said Prices Board and Retail Merchant officials will meet in Ottawa Wednesday as a result of protests arising out of the reintroduction of meat rationing.

2. Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced that Lt.-Col. C. H. S. Macdonald was heading a War Crimes Section at Canadian Military Headquarters in London to deal with war crimes against Canadian servicemen or civilians.

3. Labor Minister Mitchell disclosed that conciliators of his Department were attempting to settle the Ford Motor dispute at Windsor, Ont.

$60 MONTHLY AT 50

Mr. Ashby, short, stocky member of the party which advocates monetary reforms, said the people of his constituency wanted pensions of $60 a month at the age of 50. They wanted the taxes on consumer goods to be reduced so as to bring prices below the pre-war standard.

Through tax reductions and increased allowances to the people there would be created purchasing power which would enable Canadians to buy the things they always have wanted.

VETS WANT BETTER TREATMENT

He warned that veterans of this war were not going to stand for treatment such as was accorded veterans of the First Great War. He personally promised to give veterans the name of every Member of Parliament who did not demand that the needs of veterans be filled. And veterans would see that such members were not served by them.

The Government had to learn that its sole source of revenue was from the people. It was impossible to have a prosperous people by making them pay in taxes the money that would make them prosperous.

Mr. Stewart said there was discrimination in Canada not only in immigration laws, but also in educational institutions.

"A little over a year ago in Manitoba a group of us, Canadians, accused the Board of Governors of the University of permitting racial discrimination of the vilest type to exist in the faculty of medicine of the university," he said.

PREFERENCE LISTS

"The charge was denied, at first loudly, and as time went on with lessening vehemence, because the facts were undeniable. Here is what happened. When the applicant for admission to Medical College sent in his name he was placed in one of four lists—the preferred list, the Anglo-Saxon, the French and the Icelandic. Then followed Central Europeans, and these central Europeans came from Northern Norway down to the Southernmost boundaries of Europe.

"Then, as one would expect, there was a separate list for Jewish people and then, as one would not expect, there was a separate list for women.

"Because we publicized this discrimination and challenged the Board of Governors with it the situation has been corrected.

"Let the members of this house think that this shame rests only upon Manitoba, I would say something to those members who come from Montreal and Toronto, because in these two institutions of learning, McGill University and University of Toronto, they will find that this discrimination exists against people because of race, which is a scandal in a democratic country."

Mr. MacDonnell said that the final decision on the removal of wartime controls should be left to Parliament. Cabinet Ministers were too busy to be in a close touch with situations and senior officials in charge of controls believed in their work and could not take an impartial view on the abandoning of controls.

CALLS FOR ADOPTION

Mr. Raymond called for immediate adopting of the throne speech. Prolonged discussion in the debate only delayed the introduction of government legislation.

Mr. Archibald said that as a new member and an industrial worker Parliament seemed to him divorced from reality.

The throne speech sounded to him like the Liberal program advanced by former Premier Duff Pattullo in British Columbia in 1933. He had taken part in many of the strikes and demonstrations of unemployed at that time and all the workers got from Mr. Pattullo was the advice to "Root, hog, or die."

Recently a statement just as brutal had been made by Reconstruction Minister Howe.

DOES NOT FORESHADOW PROSPERITY

The workers in those days were met with tear gas and clubs. The black list was common on jobs.

"Are we to expect that again or are we to have a strong, militant trade union movement to protect the workers?" he asked.

"The speech from the throne does not foreshadow prosperity. On the contrary it is the prelude to mass unemployment."

He said he was ready to support all measures for the general good, but believed a new system, Socialism, was required.

TOAST and TEA
BY E.A. McARTHUR

As illustrating one of the differences between English and American treating habits, a well-known American newspaperman recalls the time he was in Havana in 1898. There were several war correspondents there at the time, and among them was a roly-poly Englishman. He invited his fellow pressmen up to his room for a game of poker. They had just become seated when he ordered a bottle of champagne—and one glass. The Americans stared, but liking the little Englishman, they just took it for granted that this was the way things were done in England. So they all followed suit, and spent the evening each with his own glass, and each with a bottle of champagne. They reported that they all had a good time. Later on they were to recall the name of the little English war correspondent. It was Winston Churchill.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 13 (AP)—Driving for third place in the National League, Pittsburgh Pirates parlayed a meagre seven hits into a double victory over Boston Braves today, winning 4-3, 2-0.

Fritz Ostermueller hurled the shutout, scattering six Boston blows and allowing only one runner to reach third.

In the first game, Al Gerheauser stood off a Boston rally in the ninth that came within one run of tying the score.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 13 (AP) — New York Giants dropped their sixth straight National League game by the margin of one run today when they were beaten by Cincinnati Reds, 3-2.

Trailing 2-0, the Reds jumped on Jack Brewer for three hits in the seventh to score all their runs for their second straight conquest of the New Yorkers.

Bad Ninth for Tobin Loses Game for Tigers; Athletics Score

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 13 (AP)—Veteran Jim Tobin blew up in the ninth inning today, giving up three hits and two walks, and the American League-leading Detroit Tigers lost to the Athletics, 3-2.

Bob Estalella strolled across with the winning run as Tobin, with the count three balls and two strikes on Ed Busct and the bases loaded, failed to get a corner with the pay-off pitch.

The Tigers suffered another loss they could ill afford with a five-game series against the fast-stepping Washington Senators staring them in the face, starting Saturday.

Detroit	2	9	1
Philadelphia	3	7	0

Tobin and Swift; Flores, Knerr and Rosar.

SOX WIN IN 10TH

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—Bill (Hard Luck) Zuber hit into another bitter goose-egg today, as Chicago White Sox blanked New York Yankees 7-0, all the runs coming in the 10th inning, when Zuber was knocked from the box, after having blanked the Pale Hose with one hit during the first nine frames of the American League game.

It was his fourth straight loss, and his 11th in all, compared with four won.

Chicago	7	8	0
New York	0	7	0

(10 innings.)

Dietrich, Johnson and Tresh; Zuber, Turner and Robinson.

REDS GIVE IT AWAY

BOSTON, Sept. 13 (AP)—Boston Red Sox flubbed ninth-inning routine double play set-up today to give St. Louis Browns a 2-1 American League victory.

A 1-1 tie prevailed as Milt Byrnes opened that frame for the Browns by singling. After Vern Stephens sacrificed, Chet Laabs was purposely passed to rig up the double killing. Len Schulte then grounded to short and Laabs was forced at second.

While making his pivot, Skeeter Newsome threw wild into the Red Sox dugout and Stephens romped in with the winning run.

"Who Freezes the Plumbing?"

OTTAWA, Sept. 13 (CP)—There was some confusion on ministerial benches and much laughter in the Commons today on a question on a plumbing freezing order.

J. H. Harris (PC—Toronto Danforth) asked Finance Minister Ilsley if the plumbing freezing order could be withheld until houses partially constructed were completed.

The order, he added, froze certain fixtures needed in completing new construction.

Mr. Ilsley rose uncertainly and said he didn't think it was his department.

Mr. Harris tried Reconstruction Minister Howe who shook his head and said he hadn't heard of it.

One member shouted: "Who freezes the W.C.S.?"

Another member added: "Who freezes the plumbing?"

Cabinet members shook their heads and the members laughed.

Interpreting THE WAR NEWS

By JAMES D. WHITE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Prince Fumimaro Konoye is a blue-blood who obviously would much rather play golf than politics.

But twice he has served as Premier at critical times—first when Japan began war in China and next trying to soften Anglo-American indignation at what Japan was doing there.

His blood is so blue that he has actually refused the Premiership at other times.

Konoye yesterday told Associated Press Correspondent Russell Brines that he thought he could have avoided war with the United States in 1941 if the Japanese military had let him. He indicated that in a way he was glad Japan surrendered last month because this would mean the end of the military, which he said didn't always keep the Government informed of what was cooking and often got the empire in hot water.

Konoye did not explain how the Navy was persuaded to make the strike at Pearl Harbor, opening war in the Pacific, except to suggest that it had its share of fanatic young officers.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—The acclaim of New York's millions was heaped upon Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright today with a welcome so overpowering the hero of Corregidor found it "hard to take."

Says Present Chaos Rests Not Only With the Gov't

MONTREAL, Sept. 13 (CP).—A. R. Mosher, President of the Canadian Congress of Labor, said last night that responsibility for the "present chaos" in Canada's labor market rests not only with the Government but also with the people who have elected this Government. He spoke at a regional conference of C.C.L. members, held in protest against the recent layoffs in the war industry.

Approval was given at the meeting to a resolution which asked: Jobs for all who are capable and willing to work; full recognition and security to organized labor and effective amendments to P. C. 1003 and 9384 with a national labor code; establishment of a minimum wage of $30 per week; reduction of the 48-hour week to 40 hours with no reduction in the take-home pay; adequate programs of public works to take up the slack of unemployment caused by the cancellation of war contracts.

First Official Word of C.P.R. Staff in the Orient Has Been Received

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 13. — Breaking the long Jap-imposed silence with the first official word concerning Canadian Pacific Railway staff in the Orient, a cable from David Drummond, Oriental Manager at Hong Kong, was received by George Stephen, Vice-President of Traffic, here this week. Oddly enough a letter sent by Mr. Drummond when he was a prisoner of war and dated March 23, 1944, arrived here one day later than the cable sent September 9, 1945.

STILL INTERNED

The cable said that Mr. and Mrs. Drummond, their daughter, Mrs. E. A. D. Green, and Mrs. P. O. Sheppard, widow of the freight agent at Hong Kong were "still interned but reasonably well considering the long spell of inadequate, unsuitable food and living conditions." Mr. Sheppard died in prison as a result of injuries received during the defence of Hong Kong.

The cable mentioned the deaths of two other C.P.R. people on the Hong Kong staff, notice of which had been received earlier through the Department of External Affairs, Ottawa. They were T. C. Monaghan, Purchasing Agent and Catering Superintendent, who was allowed to remain at liberty because he declared his Irish nationality and was executed later by the Japs for espionage and L. E. N. Ryan, Agent of Freight and Operating Departments, who died from anaemia, pneumonia and beri beri while interned.

Russia's War Damage Is Over 125 Billion

MOSCOW, Sept. 13 (AP). — A State commission reported today that incomplete data showed German damage against the Soviet Union during the war as 697,000,000,000 rubles figured at 1941 price levels.

(The Soviet monitor in London said 25 rubles in 1941 had the value of a pound. This would be at the rate of 18 cents to the ruble. On this basis Russia's war damage would amount to $125,360,000,000.)

The report does not include reduction in national income as a result of the war, cost of food and similar articles confiscated by the Germans, or losses incurred by the slowing down of the natural economic development of the country. Even the damage figures the categories covered are not complete.

The Germans destroyed or partly destroyed 1700 towns, more than 70,000 villages, 6,000,000 buildings and deprived 25,000,000 persons of roofs over their heads in a territory inhabited by 85,000,000 persons, the report said.

Other figures included in the report were:

Hospitals destroyed—49,000.

Schools destroyed—84,000.

OXYDOL WASHES SO CLEAN

Your biggest wash comes

WHITE WITHOUT BLEACHING

Oxydol is Far Ahead of Other Soaps in Preventing "Dirty Grayness"

Tests Prove Oxydol Washes Clothes CLEANER and WHITER!

Yes, Whiter! In wash test after wash test — Oxydol proved that it actually washes clothes cleaner and whiter than many other soaps which, unlike Oxydol, fail to get out that last possible trace of stubborn dirt and grime!

White and Bright Wash after Wash! You know, soaps often leave tiny discoloring particles caused by dirt in the clothes and the "hardness" of the water. These impurities stick in the clothes and turn gray or yellow under ironing heat. But Oxydol combats "dirty grayness" in an unusual way. It actually helps prevent grayness particles from forming in the clothes!

New "Hustle-Bubble" Suds Lift Dirt Out! Oxydol's new "Hustle-Bubble" suds are so active they lift dirt out. And they work longer, too—long after suds from many other soaps are all tired out. Yes, with Oxydol all your white things—except for unusual stains—come so clean they're White Without Bleaching. Sparkling white!

So Safe for Colors, Too! And Oxydol is so safe—safe for wash colors, rayons and your own precious hands. Its rich, safe suds wash your colored clothes so clean they fairly sparkle!

Next washday use Oxydol—and enjoy a wash so clean it's actually White Without Bleaching!

Air Training Plan Graduated 131,553 Aircrew

OTTAWA, Sept. 13 (CP).—The British Commonwealth Air Training Plan trained and graduated 131,553 aircrew including 72,835 R. C. A. F. men, Air Marshal Robert Leckie, Chief of the Air Staff, said in a final report to members of the Supervisory Board of the plan. The report was compiled after the wind-up of the plan March 31 of this year but was made public only Wednesday night by Air Force headquarters.

R.C.A.F. CONTRIBUTED

The R. C. A. F. contributed 55.4 per cent of the graduates, 72,835; R. A. F., 32 per cent, 42,110; the Royal Australian Air Force 7.3 per cent, 9606, and the Royal New Zealand Air Force 5.3 per cent, 7002. These figures do not include 5296 R. A. F., and Fleet Air Arm personnel who received training in R. A. F. schools in Canada and were graduated before July, 1942, when these schools became part of the B. C. A. T. P.

Peak for the plan was reached in January, 1944, when there were 73 B. C. A. T. P. flying training schools and 24 R. A. F. transferred schools in operation, the report said. Units and schools in the span of the plan —Dec. 31, 1939, to March 31, 1945—totalled 359 and operated from 231 sites.

High of contruction contracts was reached in 1942 when approximately 1000 were awarded for expenditures up to $80,000,000. Approximately 7000 buildings, hangars and drill halls were constructed under the plan.

Use what you like to wash but never forget to rinse in Blue. It's the sure and simple way to prevent bed linen, table linen, towels and all white clothes turning yellow. Just a swish or two in the last rinse water does the trick.
Seven colours combine to make white. One of these colours is blue. There is no true white without Blue.

Peachey, Industrial Arts; D. Roberts, Library and Art; Miss E. Varcoe, English and Math.

SIX DAY WEEK

The Rossland Junior-Senior High School is organized on the "Six Day Week" Plan for the year 1945-46. This means that the subjects are arranged on a six-day cycle, instead of the customary five day cycle.

The first day of regular classes was "Day One" of the cycle, and the succeeding school days are known as "Day Two, "Day Three" etc., with "Day Four" falling on Monday of this week. The cycle will be repeated with "Day One" falling on Thursday this week.

By using this system the time table becomes much more flexible and it is possible to offer a greater variety of options. It has the added advantage of minimizing interruptions caused by holidays and special events.

The number of periods per day is reduced to seven to make up for the extra day in the cycle, so that four periods are held in the morning and three in the afternoon. The total amount of time per day is not changed, so each period is somewhat longer. In order to arrange for four periods in the morning and three in the afternoon, it is necessary to commence school at 8:37 a.m. and to dismiss it again at 3.37 p.m.

Blind Girl on Way to Britain to Wed Blind Fiance

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 13 (AP).—A blind girl, Mary Mansfield, 33, and her seeing-eye dog have started the long journey to Britain where Miss Mansfield will wed her blind fiance in the culmination of a romance that began in braille 10 years ago.

Miss Mansfield, an honors graduate of Colorado College and the operator of a newsstand in the Colorado Springs post office for the last seven years, has never met her husband-to-be, Chris Marstom of Northill, Bedford, England, an inspector in an electric plant.

EDITED BRAILLE MAGAZINE

Blind since birth, Miss Mansfield formerly edited a braille magazine. Marstrom, who was blinded in an accident when he was 14, was a contributor. After a three-year correspondence, they became engaged, and the war then delayed their marriage for six years.

Expects Company Will Employ as Many as in War

TORONTO, Sept. 13 — The employment outlook in Canada's electrical manufacturing industry was the subject of a statement made today by D. C. Durland, President, Canadian General Electric Company, Limited.

"In 1939," said Mr. Durland, "our Company employed 4500 persons. Today, we have 9000 people on our payroll. The outlook indicates that we may expect to continue to employ this number of people.

"Low-cost electricity derived from Canada's abundant waterpower is one of the Dominion's outstanding assets. Already Canadians are the greatest per capita users of electricity in the world. In the past 12 years the output of central stations has more than doubled, and last year was 43 per cent greater than in 1939. Much of this electric power is being released for civilian use and many utilities are now planning to increase still further their generating capacity.

"The 300,000 new houses, which authorities say must be built in the next few years, will require much equipment for electrical living. Seventy per cent of Canada's existing homes now use electricity. Rural electrification will result in thousands of additional farm homes and buildings being electrified."

The major industry with the highest accidental death toll in 1944 was farming.

300 to Attend Lions Club Charter Night

Lions Club members and their guests, 300 strong, will dine in Nelson Saturday night when the newly formed Nelson Lions Club receives its Charter. Lions from many British Columbia, Idaho and Washington points will attend.

The Nelson Club is finding it difficult to get accommodation for the large influx of visitors. Hotels and tourist cottages are unable to handle them all. Many residents have come forward to offer rooms, but many more rooms are required.

A large number of the visitors will be seeing the district for the first time and scores have indicated plans to fish and play golf.

Washington Lions will come from Coulee Dam, Hillyard, Ritzville, Odessa, Fairfield, Spokane and Walla Walla. Idaho will be represented by Worley, Lewiston, Coeur d'Alene and Bonenrs Ferry Clubs, while Vancouver, Burnaby, Ladysmith and Creston will send B. C. delegates.

Shirley Temple's Fiance Hopes to Hitch-Hike Ride

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 13 (AP).—Sgt. John G. Agar, whose engagement to Shirley Temple, 17-year-old screen star, was announced last June, said today he hoped to hitchhike a ride to Los Angeles by Army bomber for their wedding next Wednesday.

When the engagement was announced, wedding plans were left indefinite pending the Sergeant's furlough. The blond, 24-year-old, six-foot Sergeant said today the Army had granted him the 15-day furlough but he was having difficulty getting travel reservations. He said he is hoping to leave tonight or early tomorrow for California but with reservations on commercial planes a problem he is pinning his hopes on an Army bomber.

BARTON—CAREW

● One of the prettiest morning home weddings was that of Lorraine Verna Carew, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. The Work of the Salvation Army Must Go On

There is nothing quite like the Salvation Army. No other organization fills quite the same needs. None had deeper or broader human sympathies and understanding.

Its activities are carried on, at home and abroad, by small groups of hard-working and sincere people, deeply devoted to the principles of the Salvation Army's founder, General Booth.

In times of war, the functions of the Salvation Army are extended, and with larger groups of workers, to the service camps and to the battle areas. No one who has talked with servicemen needs to be reminded of the popularity of the Salvation Army and its canteens and other depots. The Salvation Army is both admired and respected for the services that its members so freely render.

The war is over, but that only means changes in the work to be carried on by the Salvation Army, rather than any diminution of work. There is still much to be done for servicemen. Many scores of thousands have yet to be demobilized. Social work among civilians all over the country will present all the old problems, plus many additional ones. Hence the present campaign for funds.

The Inherent Weakness in Socialism

The inherent weakness in Socialism is that in the long run it places a ceiling on initiative. Human nature may be all wrong in finding its greatest stimulus in the "profit-motive" which Socialists so enjoy abusing, but the fact is that attempts to abolish it have never worked out. Russia tried it, but soon realized its error. Immense bonuses are being paid to management in Russia for increased and more profitable production and workers operate on a piece-work basis.

The world at large operates on the basis of private enterprise, not because it enables some men to enrich themselves, but because experience has proved that it most rapidly develops a better standard of living.

The Dire Need for Clothing Overseas

This advertisement is from "Politika", leading newspaper of Yugoslavia's Capital.

Behind its offer of "ample reward" for a patched old shoe is a grim story—a story that applies, not only to the woman who placed the advertisement, but to millions of men, women and children in war-ravaged lands abroad.

To them, the loss of an old shoe or a tattered coats is a major catastrophe.

These millions, victims of Nazi or Jap aggression in recent years, were robbed of everything except the clothes they happened to be wearing when the invaders struck.

In the horror-filled years which followed, their garments and shoes wore thinner and thinner; were patched and repatched, often with paper and waste, until there was nothing left to patch. During those years, uncounted thousands died from exposure; others lost feet, or hands to the biting cold; millions contracted tuberculosis and other wasting diseases, or became quick victims of the wartime epidemics.

These millions have been freed from Axis slavery and oppression by our victorious Allied armies. They have been invited to become full partners with us in shaping and maintaining the secure and peaceful world of the future. Only with their cooperation can that world be made secure and peaceful.

But war has laid waste their cities and towns, their homes and the industries which once supplied them with clothing, shoes, bedding and other of life's necessities.

Health cannot come to their sick, nor can strength return to their weak until they have adequate clothing. Those physically able to start the tremendous task of reconstruction cannot do so while virtually naked and shoeless. Not until their bodies are adequately protected can any of them regain their self-respect and confidence and look with brave, hopeful eyes to the future which we have pictured.

In Europe alone, 125,000,000 — of whom 30,000,000 are babies and little children—still are suffering—many of them dying—for want of these things. In China and elsewhere, the situation is equally tragic.

Canada's place in UNRRA is high. Her responsibility is great. The National Clothing Collection is an opportunity to meet part of that responsibility.

Nazi-Indoctrinated Dutch Children a Problem

The task of reeducating and caring for some 15,000 Dutch children who have fallen under the influence of Nazi teachings during the occupation, has been entrusted to a special bureau of the Civil Affairs Administration. In most instances these children come from Dutch Nazi homes where one or both parents have been arrested for treason.

The children fall into two groups which present totally different problems. Those under 14 years of age have not been indoctrinated to any great degree and educators believe that proper surroundings will eradicate every vestige of Nazism. Consequently, an attempt will be made to place each child in the home of some relative with the proper qualifications, and if no relative is found, the child will be sent to live in the home of a suitable Dutch family. In the event no home is available the children will be placed in one of the government hostels especially built for the purpose. At these hostels aspects of family life will be retained as far as possible. A special council for the discussion of personal problems will be available to encourage the children to solve them in a democratic way.

The group of children between the ages of 14 and 18 present a more difficult problem. Many of these boys have seen service with the German forces and exhibit many of the mental distortions common among the German soldiers. Educators face an entirely new phenomenon in this group. They must discover to what extent the minds of these children have been warped by contact with Nazism and what the effect has been on their outlook. The educators stress the importance of useful work in their reformation and every effort will be made to replace the imposed discipline of the Nazis with the self-discipline of a free and democratic people.

BRITISH FILMS IN U. S.

During the past two or three years the products of the British film industry have reached a higher level of excellence than ever. From some aspects the standard reached in the documentary field has been unparalleled, while in the fiction film a good deal of the leeway between the excellence of the American film and the inferiority of the prewar British films has roused ambitions that they should win access to the American market. In many recent discussions on films, in Parliament and elsewhere, it has been alleged, without adequate evidence being produced, that British films are cold shouldered in America. This is an important matter upon which the public would like more facts and some expression of expert opinion.—Glasgow Herald.

MEDICAL MEMORIALS

The proposal of the Baruch Committee on Physical Medicine that medical centres be established as war memorials has a grim logic. Since war is a bloody business of death and suffering, what more appropriate form could such memorials take? And as a reminder of the fact that "war is hell" they should dispel its glamor for future generations. There is also another virtue in the idea, which is that war, besides taking life, promotes the technique of saving it.—New York Herald Tribune.

I. R., Nelson—Could you please tell me how to clean a white parchment shade that has turned very yellow?

There are few satisfactory methods for whitening parchment. However, try bleaching a bath of water and finely ground indigo, and then finally letting it stand in a solution of hydrosulphite of sodium to which acetic acid has been added, for 24 to 48 hours.

What Else Would A German Do?

(By Lester M. Hunt in International Teamster)

Rev. Martin Niemoller, the German pastor, has become quite a hero to some Americans these past few years since he was imprisoned by Hitler, supposedly for opposing the Nazi program.

Niemoller typified the "good Germans" with which Germany was populated in the minds of soft-hearted Americans. When Niemoller got out of prison Germany would echo with the tramp of feet, marching not to war but to Sunday school, they told us.

Had not Niemoller risked his life for the Christian principles he preached from his pulpit?

It now develops that Niemoller did not risk his life for Christian principles. In fact, he offered it for Nazi principles! He volunteered to fight for Hitler, the man who had closed his church and put him in a concentration camp.

Who says so? Niemoller himself! He amazed Allied war correspondents who interviewed him recently on his release by Americans from a German concentration camp. They expected from Niemoller a spiritual rallying cry that would electrify the world and unite the "good Germans" behind the principles Niemoller professed from his pulpit.

But no such call came. Only the sordid confession that Niemoller, the man of God, had volunteered to serve Hitler as a submarine commander. He had offered his life to perpetuate in Germany and extend over the world the hideous Hitler philosophy, enforced by such beasts as Himmler, Goering, Goebbels, Ley, etc.

He ofered his life to make a concentration camp of the entire world under a bloody heresy that would have destroyed all religion. That was what Rev. Martin Niemoller, the "good German", did.

And when questioned in astonishment by the war correspondents, Niemoller offered only the brutal justification:

"What else could a German do?"

"If soft-hearted Americans who made a martyr of Niemoler are allowed to dictate our policy against Germany it won't be long before the "good Germans" will be at our throats again, for a third time.

Twice, in a single generation, they have slaughtered our sons.

Already they are sharpening their knives again.

What else would a German do?

Creston Council Finds No Money Voted Toward Station and Facilities

CRESTON, B.C., Sept. 12, 1945—The Council is writing C. E. Lister, C.P.R. Kootenay Division Superintendent, to the effect that reports show no money was "voted for the Creston station and facilities and as Creston is considered a hot spot for railroad traffic that commissioners feel the district has been done an injustice and would appreciate the courtesy of an explanation." Decision to write Mr. Lister was made Monday at the Council's September meeting.

A letter was to be written H. Beninger that he built in contravention of the building by-law.

Applications were received from property owners residing on land adjacent to the Northwest boundary of the village to be included in the town limits. The Council could take no action until a petition signed by at least 65 per cent of the property owners, expressing the same wish, was received.

NO SUNDAY BUILDING

Provincial Fire Marshal Walker was in town during the week and the Council leafned he had examined the school and that recommendations were made. He will return at a later date it was understood.

Building on Sunday's must cease was the Council's conclusion and a letter will be sent one citizen to this effect.

Building permits were issued to Frank Romano for a shed, H. Young for a garage, Mrs. M. Young for a house and H. Ellard for a house.

Water permits were granted to L. Mulligan, T. Leamon (will be granted a permit when plans for water conservation from Goat Mountain go through) and F. Romano.

FENCING NEW CEMETERY

Superintendent W. Ferguson was given the go ahead with fencing the new cemetery to his own satisfaction, but allowing for a 30 foot roadway.

The by-law regulating the time and hours of sale for petroleum products was given its final reading and is now law.

The village are buying land from the Creston Valley United School District for road purposes for the sum of $1.00.

The sidewalk on the East side of Creston Motors will be replaced and hydrants in the vicinity of the old cemetery and Plumb's corner have been installed.

South Africa Watches Canada's Debate on Flag

Written for The Canadian Press
By DAVID FRIEDMANN
South African Press Association

Perhaps nowhere outside Canada will greater public interest be taken in Canada's parliamentary search for a new flag and clarification of the definition of Canadian citizenship than in South Africa, whose independent constitutional development since the adoption of the Statute of Westminster has been rapid without in any way distributing the solid bonds with other members of the British Commonwealth.

South Africa, like Canada, has two official languages, English and Afrikaans. To meet the sentiments of the two sections of the Union's 2,250,000 white population the South African Parliament has succeeded in giving the country two flags, two anthems and two nationalities.

The flags of the Union are:

The Union Jack to denote the association of South Africa with the other members of the group of nations constituting the British Commonwealth, and the National Flag.

Both flags are flown from the Houses of Parliament and from the principal government buildings in the capitals of the union and the provinces, and on government offices abroad.

The Union Jack is also embodied in the National Flag, the design of which is as follows: three horizontal stripes of equal width from top to bottom, orange, white and blue. In the centre of the white stripe the old Orange Free State republican flag hangs vertically, spread in full toward the pole followed by the old Transvaal Republican Vierkleur (Four-color) spread in full away from the pole. The superimposed flags are of the same size.

FIRST FLOWN IN 1928

The national flag was first officially flown in South Africa on May 31, 1928—the 18th birthday of the Union of South Africa. The basis of the flag is the "Prinsevlag" (Prince's Flag) under which the Dutch originally won their independence and achieved their "golden age" in the 16th and 17th centuries. It was carried by William of Orange to England's shores in 1688. It is therefore a significant reminder of the measure of co-operation between the ancestors of the two white races in South Africa.

The new flag was not introduced to South African public without long, bitter controversy. This raged in and out of Parliament and it was not until three years after the original bill to authorize the Government to choose a design and proclaim it as the National Flag was submitted by the late General Hertzog's Government that both sections of the people were satisfied with the compromise design.

South Africa has two national anthems—God Save the King and "Die Stem van Suid Afrika" (The Voice of South Africa"). Although the Government of the day did not insist on placing this recognition of the two anthems on the statute book, it was agreed by Parliament to allow the people to accept these national airs and today both are played at all official functions. Canada itself recently honored General Smuts in Ottawa by playing "Die Stem" when he attended an official ceremony at the Cenotaph.

In the Senate royal assent was given to bills authorizing expenditures of $400,000,000 for war and demobilization purposes in the next two months and of more than $29,000,000 for civil administration purposes in the next month.

Mr. Arsenault, who helped reorganize the former Conservative party into the Progressive Conservative party at its Winnipeg convention, spoke from the Liberal side and said the Liberal party was now the "only national party" enjoying support in all provinces and from all classes of people.

For years, he said, a section of the Conservative party had sought to make political capital out of stirring up racial dissension. At the Winnipeg convention he and others hoped that at last the party had rid itself of "the Tories and reactionaries". He had great admiration for Mr. Bracken who for a year and a half had kept the party on the new policy.

But, following the defeat of the Progressive Conservatives in the Saskatchewan election and the rise of the Bloc Populaire in Quebec, a change had taken place. These developments caused those in control of the party to throw over a "gentleman's agreement" made at the Winnipeg convention and return to the old methods of stirring up anti-Quebec feeling.

PROGRAM CALLING FOR STEPS TO ENSURE HIGH LEVEL OF INCOME APPROVED

OTTAWA, Sept. 13 (CP). — A five-point reconstruction program calling for steps to ensure a high level of income, equitable distribution of Canadian production and abolition of restrictive controls, was approved at a two-day Social Credit Association convention, it was announced today. The five-point program:

1. That the Government take whatever steps are necessary to ensure that the national income be maintained at a level high enough to meet the people's desires to consume or their capacity to produce.

2. A scientific means of distributing equitably among all Canadians the production of their efforts, to the end that every Canadian might be guaranteed a just share of the national income.

3. In order to ensure the foregoing, that an immediate and thorough reform of the electoral system be undertaken which will secure to the people complete, effective and continuous control of their representatives in Parliament, for only through the establishment of true political democracy can the individual citizen really become free.

4. That all bureaucratic controls which restrict the people's established freedoms be abolished.

5. That an immediate and progressive downward revision of taxation be undertaken by the Federal Government.

The next national convention of the Social Credit Association will be held in Quebec City April 4, 5 and 6.

Charge Meat Going Rotten in Storehouses

TORONTO, Sept. 13 (CP). — Members of the Ontario Livestock Exchange yesterday charged that meat storehouses are full to capacity and that no more can be handled for the Wartime Prices Board with the result that meat in large quantities is going rotten.

Protests were wired Minister of Agriculture Gardiner and Prime Minister Mackenzie King as well as Progressive Conservative Leader John Bracken.

Museum Staff Makes Study of Plant, Animal Life in Hope-Princeton Area

VICTORIA, Sept. 13 (CP). — In anticipation of Manning Park becoming one of the most popular outdoor playgrounds in British Columbia following the completion of the Hope-Princeton highway, the provincial museum staff is making a complete study of plant and animal life in that area.

WIND UP SUMMER SURVEY

Survey parties now are winding up a Summer-long survey of the highway route. It is expected tenders for the road, which will link Hope and Princeton, the Okanagan and other interior points, directly with the Coast, will cost several million dollars.

Dr. C. Carl, director of the Provincial Museum has recently returned from a month-long study of animal and plant life in the park. He was accompanied by G. A. Hardy, botanist and entomologist for the museum, and Frank L. Beebe, artist and birdman for the Vancouver Parks Board.

Dr. Carl and his staff now are preparing data on their trip in preparation for publishing information on the park. Work on timber and geology in the park area has already been completed by the B.C. Forest Service and the Mines Department and it is hoped to have all this information integrated into a publication for those who in future will visit the area.

150 MILES FROM COAST

The park which is only 150 miles from Vancouver will be on a main East-West highway once the Hope-Princeton road is completed. Because it is across the Coast Range divide, thus offering a great variety of scenery as well as terrain for hiking, fishing, horseback riding and skiing, it is believed the Ernest C. Manning Park will become one of the most popular in the Province.

The highway will follow the Allison Pass, cutting across the Coast Range divide, headwaters of the Skagit and Similkameen Rivers, at about 4500 feet.

The Park, which is 171,500 acres, was created in 1941 by the Province in memory of E. C. Manning, late Chief Forester of British Columbia.

Mountains in the park rise to 8000 feet and are always snow-capped. Hope, 20 miles from the Park's Western boundary, is only a few hundred feet above sea level.

C. C. Fields, Grain Official, Passes

WINNIPEG, Sept. 13 (CP).—C. C. Fields, 65, prominent Canadian grain official, died in hospital here today. Born in the State of Kansas, he was President of the Norris Grain Company of Canada.

Mr. Fields was a Past President of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, and a member for 40 years.

Members of the Exchange observed two minutes' silence during today's session in memory of their former associate . . .

Mr. Fields started his grain career at Wellsville, Kansas, in 1900, and seven years later entered the Norris Grain Company as manager of its Wichita office. Later he moved to Kansas City, Mo., and in 1910 came to Winnipeg.

He was a director of many other grain firms and associations, including the Norris Grain Company, Chicago; the Lake Shippers Clearance Association, Winnipeg, and the Winnipeg Grain and Produce Exchange. He was also connected with hardware firms at Bozeman, Montana, and Eaton, Colorado.

Mr. Fields served as President of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange in 1924, and again in 1934.

Mrs. Fields, a son, Carol and a daughter, Mrs. Harold Smith of Winnipeg, survive.

RESERVE JUDGMENT IN HAINEN APPEAL

VICTORIA, Sept. 13 (CP) — British Columbia Court of Appeal today reserved judgment until Tuesday in connection with the appeal of William Hainen, Vancouver soldier, from a death sentence for the murder in Vancouver last May of Olga Hawryluk, 23-year-old waitress.

Concluding his argument for the crown, A. M. Whiteside, said that there must be proved incapacity by virtue of drunkenness.

After reading witnesses evidence that the accused's attitude was rational on the night of the crime, Mr. Whiteside said that witnesses agreed for the most part the man was not drunk.

Saying that the jury was well instructed, Mr. Whiteside added that it came to the decision a murder was committed and that the accused committed it, also that the accused had not proved his incapacity to do so because of drunkenness.

In reply A. E. Branco, counsel for the appellant, said that the jury recommended mercy which showed that if the direction to the jury had been proper it would have returned a verdict of manslaughter.

Mr. Whiteside who spoke last said that a recommendation of mercy might mean that the jury did not believe in capital punishment.

France has issued a four-plus-one francs semi-postal marking the 100th anniversary of the birth of the great French actress. The deep plum brown stamp lists her birth date as 1844, although current reference books say she was born in Paris October 23, 1845. She died in 1923. Making her debut in 1862, Mme Bernhardt visited North America in 1881 and again in 1887, 1891, 1900, 1905, 1910, 1913 and 1916.

SPORT-TIPS #5 SOFTBALL PITCHING by Ace Percival

formerly "Canada's most versatile athlete" in Played on many championship teams! Now our leading all-round coaching expert.

Part of every athlete's success is due to the right training . . . part to right eating . . . part to knowing the 'inside' tricks. Here's one that leading softball players use. Try it when you pitch.

CLIP AND SAVE!

To gain speed and control, draw arm well back and up in before-delivery pitching position. Lean upper body forward as arm goes back.

Swing arm and body in long "follow-through" after pitch. Don't use jerky, short motion. Try to acquire smooth, relaxed pitching action.

To pitch fast "drop," draw back of hand back toward you as you let ball go. Ball should leave hand rolling off tips of fingers. Hand and arm follow-through in upward motion.

Sheep Creek Gold Mines to Be on Full Output

VANCOUVER, B.C.—Both mines of Sheep Creek Gold Mines Ltd. will be back on full production as soon as men are available, H. E. Doelle, Managing Director, told the annual meeting in Vancouver. Meanwhile, the gold mine, which has produced $7,500,000 since 1936, is running about half capacity.

Available crew is on development and putting the plant in shape to start at short notice.

The company, Mr. Doelle said, got about 3-1 cents per pound net f.o.b. cars at Zincton for zinc under wartime contracts. Present market price of eight and a quarter cents per pound would bring practically the same net return after freight and smelter charges and U.S. duty.

Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. can sell either in U.S.A. or in U.K. and the company was well satisfied with results from recent sale of zinc concentrates to Trail smelter.

Husband Admits Strangling Wife

CRANSTON, R.I., Sept. 13 (AP).—Police said today Gordon M. Newcomb, 42-year-old Providence oil dealer, confessed he had strangled his wife, Mary Ann, 40, whose body was exhumed before daylight from a three-foot grave in a garage.

CHARGED WITH MURDER

Police said Newcomb, father of two children, would be charged with murder tomorrow.

The decomposed body of Mrs. Newcomb was dug, blanket-wrapped, from the floor of the garage where Newcomb kept his truck. She had been missing since July 28.

The search followed an appeal to police yesterday by Newcomb's 13-year-old daughter, Kathleen, to find out what had happened to her mother.

Search Continues for 4-Year-Old

VANCOUVER, Sept. 13 (CP). — An intensive search continues today for four-year-old Dianne Blunt who has been missing from her home since Tuesday afternoon.

The entire police force was instructed to watch for traces of the girl and school students and soldiers from Hastings Park encampment are aiding in the search.

Many clues have poured into headquarters concerning her disappearance, but the only important lead uncovered so far is that a child resembling Dianne was seen alighting from a tram Tuesday evening in South Granville District, several miles distance from her East End home.

Dianne was last seen by her parents playing in a sawdust pile a few feet from the back door of her home.

Indians on Warpath Again

OTTAWA, Sept. 13 (CP)—The Indians are going on the warpath again, this time they'll use the white man's methods.

That's the keynote that emerges from a pow-wow 100 delegates of the North American Indian brotherhood has been holding here on Indian rights and demands with Resources Minister Glen and officials of the Indian Affairs Branch of his department.

While the Indians feel they were well received by Mr. Glen and the branch members, there still are a few inequities in the matter of treatment which they think should be straightened out.

Andrew Paul, President of the brotherhood, said the brotherhood plans to place the requirements of Canadian Indians before every Member of the Commons and the Senate in the near future.

GIVEN UP SCALPING

"We've given up scalping," said Paul, turning to Chief Tom Jones of Cape Crocker, Ont., "because many of the Members of Parliament have so little hair that it's not worth while—haven't we, Tom?"

"Yes, that's right," sighed the Ontario Chief, "not enough hair to hang on the belt."

One of the things the Indians will be seeking will be full old age pension rights as now enjoyed by the white man. At present, the aged and infirm on the reservations receive an allowance of only $2.50 to $4.80 a month against the white rate of $25 monthly.

The delegates deferred until their next convention the matter of full voting rights for Indians in Federal and Provincial elections.

ANNOUNCES PLUMBING DISTRIBUTING PLAN FOR SERVICE PERSONNEL'S HOMES

TORONTO, Sept. 13 (CP).—The Prices Board Wednesday announced a distribution plan for plumbing materials designed to facilitate construction of homes for returning service personnel. The announcement brought immediate criticism from the Master Plumbers' Association of Canada, which said it will demand that the order be rescinded.

Under the plan, manufacturers of bath tubs, lavatories, sinks, single section laundry tubs, closet bowls, closet tanks, closet seats, range boilers, soil pipe (and fittings) and septic tanks are required to report proposed monthly production and distribution to the Board.

At the same time, said Distributive Trades Administrator J. H. Thomson, the Board will receive details of requirements of contractors from the Munitions Department's priority officer. The Board then will notify wholesalers which materials should be reserved for priority jobs and how much can be made available to other home builders.

In commenting on the order, Roy Belyea, Past President of the Plumbers' Association, said "our entire Association from coast to coast" will call protest meetings if the order is not rescinded.

"What the Association objects to is that so much stock-piling is being held for Government houses which are only in the foundation or up to the rafters while other completed houses can not be occupied for lack of plumbing."

BOSWELL SOLDIER ON WAY HOME

BOSWELL, B.C.—Sgt. P. L. Hepher of the Canadian Army and son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hepher, arrived in Canada recently on the Pasteur after serving overseas three and one-half years.

Sgt. Hepher joined the Army in September, 1940, and was stationed at Victoria until going to England in January, 1942. He was married early this year to Miss Mary Anderson of Fleet, Hampshire, England, who will join her husband as soon as transportation permits.

Market Trends . . .

NEW YORK—The stock market turned irregularly lower for the first time in 10 successive sessions during which the averages negotiated a series of climbs to highest levels in more than eight years.

TORONTO—Golds and Western oils boarded slight gains in mid-afternoon trading on the stock exchange and industrials and base metals were the losers. Sales at 2 p.m., were 721,000.

VANCOUVER—Surf Inlet hit a new high at 47 but closed at 45 after selling 14,210 shares. The total turnover was 39,174 shares.

CHICAGO — Reports that the United States Government is ready to ship huge amounts of wheat to war-ravaged Europe boosted wheat futures as much as a cent a bushel. Other grains were firm with wheat, except the nearby rye deliveries.

September rye was off more than a cent at times on selling influenced by announcement that 150,000 bushels of cash rye would be delivered today on that contract. Traders had expected no deliveries, and authorities said tenders of this amount indicated there was not much demand for rye of that quality.

Wheat closed ⅛-⅞ higher, September $1.67⅝, corn was up ¼-⅝, December $1.16, oats were ¼-¾ higher, September 61⅛, rye was ⅝ up to 2¼ cents down, September $1.51¼-$1.51, and barley was unchanged to 1 cent higher, September $1.11¾.

WINNIPEG—Export business in oats with the United States amounted to 1,000,000 bushels on the grain exchange.

In other trading rye futures fluctuated widely on moderate buying and selling orders.

At the close values ranged 1¼ cent lower to 1 higher with October at $1.63⅝.

LONDON—Desire to await further developments dominated the stock market again and the session was quiet.

MONTREAL—Papers worked up to a new eight-year high in trading on the stock exchange aid curb market. Other key groups were inclined to falter on average.

C. van Braam, Cranbrook, Dies

CRANBROOK, B. C. — C. van Braam, aged 68, well known here during his 33 years of residence, died in the St. Eugene Hospital after a short illness. He came first to Bull River in 1912 and soon afterward moved to Cranbrook and became accountant for various local firms. He was also an expert photographer and conducted a photography business for some years.

Born in Leiden, Holland, his full name was Cornelius Adrian Eliza van Braam Houckgeest, and he was a member of a well known Netherland family. During the war years his family contacts were cut off but early this year his son-in-law, G. Faulkner, Canadian Army, got in touch with them in Holland.

Surviving him are his wife and daughters, Mrs. Faulkner and Margo van Braam here, relatives in the Netherlands and a brother in Buenos Aires.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Alan Gardiner from Christ Church.

BUTCHERS WIN CONFERENCE

Herridge Foresees "State Capitalism"

Would Have Youths Visit Abroad as Memorial; Lauds Agriculture Federation

OTTAWA, Sept. 13 (CP)—J. S. Sinnott (L-Springfield) continuing the throne speech debate, said tonight in the Commons that nothing was too good for the men who had served Canada in the armed forces.

The constituency of Springfield was one of the largest and most varied in population of all Canadian electoral districts.

"We have people from every part of the world and we all get along very well together," he said.

The task of providing employment for all in Canada was going to be very difficult, and the cooperation of opposition would be needed.

Because of the advance in the use of machinery it might be impossible to find jobs for all. However, the machinery should be used to provide jobs and to earn a decent living for the people.

BALKS AT RADIO FEE, REGISTRATION

Park Manross (PC—London), making his maiden speech, asked that the Government abolish the $2.50 annual radio fee.

"I think the purpose of registration cards is over," he said. "Of course various governments are still using the back of them and I will soon have to get a new one. But I don't think we should have to carry around a dog tag just so governments can carry on their liquor administrations. They have ration cards for that purpose."

He did not believe the taxpayers money should be spent any longer in maintaining the registration card system, which had been invoked to keep a tag on manpower.

"It didn't work because it would have taken a lot of courage to make it work and the Government did not have that courage," he said.

H. W. Herridge (People's C.C.F.—Kootenay West) said he entered the House under unusual political conditions. He was nominated by the C.C.F. organization in his riding as a supporter of the Regina manifesto and the general national program of the C.C.F. He had support from trade unions, farmers and veterans organizations but because of differences in the party sat as a People's C.C.F. representative.

In the building of a permanent peace the organizing of people 'n different groups apart from governments would play a great part, said Mr. Herridge. The Canadian Federation of Agriculture was to be congratulated for the part it is taking in promoting a World Congress of Agriculture.

There should be other organizations supported by governments to bring peoples together. Instead of erecting monuments of stone to the dead from the war it would be a good thing to establish a fund to enable some 'teen-age children from every constituency to visit other countries and attend international youth conferences.

Mr. Herridge said he did not believe capitalism was going to collapse. Instead he thought the world was entering a period of state capitalism in which the larger industries would be financed from Government funds.

"In my opinion this will be a most dangerous time," he said. "It will prove whether we are to go into a totalitarian economy or become a genuine democracy and a cooperative commonwealth."

Mr. Herridge said he looked forward to the time when the Government would own the banks and the great monopolies, when there would be a wide extension of provincial and municipal public ownership all resting on a base of cooperative organization of economic activities.

To Discuss Ration Headaches; Wire About Waste

By The Canadian Press

Canada's meat rationing problem moved from behind the counters of innumerable butcher shops across the country today to the floor of the House of Commons where Finance Minister Ilsley announced that officials of the Prices Board will meet next Wednesday with Dominion retail merchants to discuss rationing with them.

This was a partial victory for the men who keep stores in innumerable towns and cities in the Dominion. It did not promise them that their headaches caused by re-introduction of rationing would be cured, but it did prove that the protest meetings they have been holding for days now had gained them a hearing.

CARRY-OVER 'CAUSE MARKET OVERTAXED

Agriculture Minister Gardiner answered a telegram from members of the Ontario Livestock Exchange charging large quantities of meat were going bad in Toronto warehouses because Wartime Prices Board could not handle any more by saying the carry-over of 3000 head was due to the fact the weighing capacity of the market could not handle the weekend intake. He denied that it was due to lack of buyers.

In their protest, the members of the Livestock Exchange had telegraphed Agriculture Minister Gardiner, with a copy to Prime Minister Mackenzie King, that since rationing "local butchers are doing no business, and many shops are closing up." They suggested that it be permitted to ship excess cattle to the United States.

To John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, they wired that prices were lower due to unnecessary Government restrictions and that there was a serious situation facing cattle producers.

Meanwhile, retail butchers across the country continued to protest rationing.

WIN BACKING

In Ottawa Alderman Martin Walsh placed on City Council order paper a motion asking that the city go on record approving of the suggested plan of butchers to refrain from selling meat for a week unless the Government submits sufficient evidence to justify the re-introduction of rationing.

This was in line with decisions made in Edmonton where 150 butchers said they would strike Sept. 24 unless rationing problems were eased, and in the Halifax-Dartmouth area where a meeting will be held to sanction a strike for the same date. Eight new Brunswick centres will be meatless after Sept. 24, butchers say, unless something is done.

SHOW STOCKS DOWN

At Ottawa tonight Prices Board officials issued figures showing stocks of meat were down from last year.

On Sept. 13, 1944, Board officials said there were approximately 70,000,000 pounds of meat in storage, including 40,000,000 pounds of pork, 21,000,000 pounds of beef, 60,000,000 pounds of veal and 3,000,000 pounds of mutton.

Today the total meat in storage was about 47,000,000 pounds including 23,000,000 pounds of pork, 17,000,000 pounds of beef, 5,400,000 pounds of veal and 2,000,000 pounds of lamb.

In answer to charges that meat was going to waste under rationing, officials said that the actual reduction in meat consumption under the ration was about 12½ per cent.

Call on Police So Ford Office Staff Can Return

WINDSOR, Ont., Sept. 13 (CP) — The Ford Motor Company of Canada, Ltd., tonight broadcast an announcement to its office employees telling them to report for work tomorrow and saying assurances have been received of police protection to enable them to pass picket lines which barred entrance to the sprawling 240-acre property of the strikebound plant this morning.

10,000 ON STRIKE

Company officials declined to amplify the brief announcement, broadcast over a Windsor station (CKLW).

The announcement followed a company appeal during the day to Police Chief Claude Renaud for police action to enable the 1000 or so office employees to go to work. Production work in the giant plant, largest automotive works in Canada, has been at a standstill since yesterday when Local 200 of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) called a strike involving 10,000 men.

The Company request was discussed today by the City Police Commission which instructed the chief to have his force exercise its judgment in handling the picket lines. Tonight Chief Renaud said he did not interpret his instructions from the Commission as assuring police protection for all office workers seeking to enter the plane.

The strike, although only in its second day, appeared indefinitely deadlocked with no move from either party for a settlement of the dispute which hinges on Union security and other demands in a new collective bargain agreement.

CHARGE VIOLENCE

The charge that "violence was used" in some cases by pickets barring entry of office workers this morning was made in the Company letter, signed by its solicitor, John B. Aylesworth.

Still threatening is a strike of members of U.A.W. Amalgamated Local 195 which has about 8000 members among 12,000 employees of 30 plants. In 12 of these plants, with a payroll of more than 6000 Union members already have voted to strike "if necessary" and some Union officials said today they may take action in a few days. Their strike votes have not yet received approval of the U.A.W. International Executive Board which sanctioned the Ford walkout.

THE BEAVERDELL

Taking the name of Beaverdell, near Greenwood in the Boundary district, the first of four fast-freight liners being built for the Canadian Pacific Railway is shown during her launching on the Clyde at Port Glasgow, Scotland. The Beaverdell is expected to be in service early next year and will resume the London-to-Canada run as soon as possible.

She is one of four new liners being put into service to replace five Beaver boats lost during World War II.

Will Know Next Week If B. C. to Vote on Liquor Law Change

VICTORIA, Sept. 13 (CP)—British Columbians will know this week if they are to vote Oct. 25 on changing the liquor law of this province. The Cabinet's decision must be made this week if the plebiscite is to be taken at the same time as the election, it was learned today.

While no member of the Cabinet will talk officially on the question of a plebiscite, beyond the statement of Premier Hart that it has been "under consideration," it is known that it has been a much-discussed subject in Government circles.

CHURCH, SERVICE VIEWS FACTORS

One of the major factors delaying a decision has been the difficulty of assessing the "church vote." Liquor laws have been the subject of pulpit controversy since Anglican Bishop Horace E. Sexton recently called for revision of laws he described as "stupid." Roman Catholic Bishop Cody supported the viewpoint of Bishop Sexton.

United Churches and others have been equally outspoken in opposing any change in the liquor law.

Another factor is the servicemen's view of the present liquor laws in the light of their experience elsewhere in Canada, the United States and overseas.

Many servicemen have taken a definite stand favoring something after the style of the English "pub," adapted to British Columbia conditions.

Just what question might be asked in a plebiscite is a matter of speculation. It is considered probable, however, that the electors might be asked to state whether they approve of sale of beer and wine in dining places.

Hotel and resort owners have been assessing the possibility of revision of the liquor law and some have even gone so far as to consider alterations to premises.

SIGNS SURRENDER OF BURMA

RANGOON, Sept. 13 (Reuters)—Gen. Ichida signed in the Government House here today the Japanese surrender of Burma to Britain's 12th Army.

"You will be given the instrument of surrender," said Brig. E. F. E. Armstrong, 12th Army Chief of Staff," and you will sign it."

Ichida, his face impassive, accepted the instrument and signed.

FIRST HONG KONG REPATS AT VANCOUVER TODAY

VANCOUVER, Sept. 13 (CP) — First group of Canadian soldiers who were taken prisoner at Hong Kong to return to Canada will arrive here tomorrow afternoon. They are members of the Winnipeg Grenadiers and Royal Rifles of Canada.

Following their arrival here they will be taken to the Little Mountain Army Depot where they will receive the medal ribbons for the 1939-40 Star and Canadian Volunteer Service Medal with maple leaf clasp.

It is expected all will leave tomorrow night for their homes in Manitoba and Eastern Canada. They will get 42 days' leave and travelling time.

FORMER BIG TIME PITCHER DIES

NORMAN, Okla., Sept. 13 (AP)—Darrell (Cy) Blanton, one time major league baseball pitcher, died today. He was 56.

Blanton's best year in the majors was with Pittsburgh in 1935 when he won 18 and lost 13 games.

Denies Any Political Motive by Steelworkers

TORONTO, Sept. 13 (CP) — C. H. Millard, national director of the United Steelworkers of America, (C.I.O.) in a statement issued today denied any political motives on the part of the Steelworkers in attempting to arrange a government-labor-management meeting in Ottawa, as charged yesterday by Hon. C. D. Howe in stating the Minister's reasons for cancellation of the scheduled parley.

"Mr. Howe's statements in the House of Commons yesterday regarding his cancellation of the steel industry meeting on Wednesday are at variance with the facts," said Mr. Millard. "Mr. Howe said that I asked an apology from him. At no time was an apology requested by me. I did ask for a retraction of the statements made by him at the Lambton Golf Course, and expressed the opinion that, 'if this was government policy I had little interest in going on with the meeting'. I later said there was no basis for newspaper reports that I would not attend the meeting at Ottawa."

The controversy arose from an unscheduled interview sought by four Research Enterprises Limited Union officials with Mr. Howe at Lambton Golf Club, Sept. 4. Mr. Millard's statement claims that "the Steelworkers have done all possible to avoid making the important matter of steel industry reconversion a political issue," and promises to make public all correspondence with the Department of Reconstruction relating to the steel meeting which the Minister cancelled.

Tank Unit Goes to Ottawa as a War Trophy

By WILLIAM BOSS
Canadian Press War Correspondent

WITH CANADIAN FORCES IN THE NETHERLANDS, Sept. 13 — (CP)—One of the original tank units with which the Governor-General's Foot Guards hit Normandy is going to Ottawa as a war trophy.

The machine is "Forceful III", in which Lt.-Col. Edward M. Smith of (190 Carling Avenue) Ottawa led his squadron as a Major before taking over command of the unit. The only other tank in the regiment which came through the Northwest Europe campaign is "Fantastic", battle-wagon of Maj. A. G. N. Smith of Toronto.

The Foot Guards' return to Ottawa, scheduled for next Spring, will end a regimental war record second to none. So far 21 decorations and awards have been received by the unit's personnel and more are understood to be forthcoming.

Once the 4th Canadian Armored Division was committed to the exploitation of 2nd Canadian Corps' Rhine bridgehead, the G.G.F.G. had business aplenty until the end of the war.

In the long advance, one of the unit's reconnaissance troops was commanded by Lieut. Peter Collins of North Vancouver, B. C., who won the M.C. for an action near the Kusten Canal.

The unit's medical officer was Capt. William East of Winnipeg.

CANADIANS SAFE AT MANILA

MANILA, Sept. 13 (CP)—The big, gray Canadian liner Empress of Australia docked at a battered pier tonight with her 1815 liberated war prisoners and internees joining a welcoming United States band in singing "God Save the King" and "O, Canada".

Passengers included 337 Canadians captured at Hong Kong in 1941, the last of that nationality there.

"Work Till You Die," Jap Taskmaster Taunted Prisoners

By WILLIAM STEWART
Canadian Press War Correspondent

MANILA, Sept. 13 (CP Cable)—One of the toughest prison camps in which Canadians were held in Japan was at Niigata, a city of 1,000,000 population some 150 miles North of Tokyo, where starving prisoners performed hard labor under clubbings in coal yards, warehouses and a foundry.

There were 250 prisoners there and 89 of them died of pneumonia, beriberi and dysentery during their stay there from September, 1943, until they were liberated. The prisoners were undernourished and without medical supplies.

DIES FROM PUNISHMENT

During the winter it was bitterly cold and the camp was swept by great snowstorms, one of which made it necessary to move from one barracks to another through snow tunnels. During one period storms tied up railway traffic and the camp was isolated for three weeks. Practically until the moment they were freed most of the prisoners believed they would spend their last days in Niigata.

At various times the prisoners lost up to 60 pounds, some of which they made up by stealing food while on one warehouse job. When they were caught stealing the prisoners were clubbed until they couldn't walk.

Private Leonard Mulvaney of Winnipeg saw an American prisoner clubbed to death in February, 1944, and a Canadian was forced to stand outside the guardhouse for four days in freezing weather, wearing only his trousers and without shoes. He suffered severe frostbite and died later.

"YOU ARE MY SLAVES"

The Canadians were taken to the camp from Osaka just two years ago. They were addressed upon arrival by a stringy, bearded Japanese who seemed to have charge of all prisoner labor in the Niigata area. He soon came to be known as "Bluebeard."

This is what "Bluebeard" told the prisoners in fairly good English:

"You are my slaves. You are descendants of the Anglo-Saxon piracy that we are fighting today. You are here to work and you shall work until you die and be glad to.

"If you prove to be willing workers we will send you home when the war comes to an end. That will be when the Americans on their hands and knees are begging for mercy. It will be the year 1950.

"Though you are sick in body and mind your hands belong to me."

Another Japanese at Niigata was just the opposite type to "Bluebeard" and sometimes took beatings himself when he spoke up in defence of the prisoners. His name was Hiira Hashi and he often told the prisoners that the United States was "Ichi ban" — No. 1.

STILL COCKY

The Winnipeg private would have liked to have got an opportunity to serve in Japan and get some of his own back from the Japanese soldiers. Those in the Niigata area are still cocky, he said, because they were never defeated in battle and saw comparatively few raids.

British Troops Arrest European Believed to Be Spy

SINGAPORE, Sept. 13 (Reuters)—British troops have arrested a European suspected of being the spy who furnished the Japanese with information which led to the sinking of the British Battleship Prince of Wales and the Battle Cruiser Repulse off Malaya in December, 1941.

The name of the man was given as Kemperley but his nationality has not yet been determined.

RADIO WORKERS STRIKE OVER

NEW YORK, Sept. 13 (AP)—The strike of engineers and technicians in the National and American Broadcasting Companies ended tonight and the men returned to work, J. R. Mandelbaum, United States labor conciliator, announced.

Mandelbaum said representatives of NBC, ABC and the union resumed contract negotiations immediately.

$50 FINE FOR HARBORING DESERTER-SON

BURNABY, B.C., Sept. 13 (CP)—Mrs. A. Froelich was fined $50 when convicted in police court here today on a charge of harboring her son, Charles Edward Froelich, a deserter from the Canadian Army.

New Castlegar Board to Work for Airport, Bank, Bridge, Exchange

CASTLEGAR, Sept. 13—Castlegar's newly organized Board of Trade reached a milestone in its young history here at the Anglican Hall tonight when it held its first dinner meeting and entertained members of the Trail and Nelson Boards of Trade. About 40 sat down to a sumptuous dinner.

The Castlegar Board has several ambitious projects scheduled, the meeting was told by A. T. Horswill, Vice-President. The Castlegar Board, he said, will boost plans for an airport, will study possibility of incorporation, hoping to see a bank open here, seeks installation of a telephone exchange and will put its weight behind a move for building of a bridge across the Columbia. R. A. D. West, President, welcomed the visiting Board members. Congratulations of the Trail and Nelson Boards were extended by Doctor C. A. H. Wright, Trail President, and H. A. Doak, Nelson Vice-President.

BIG OPPORTUNITY

The grand opportunity for development that lay before Castlegar was emphasized by congratulating speakers.

The new Board would be a fine thing not only for Castlegar but for the whole Kootenay District, Dr. Wright stated. It was good to get someone to speak for the community, and he hoped that eventually a Board would be formed at Fruitvale.

The new Board would do well to consider the many possibilities ahead as a result of development of the Columbia Valley. He foresaw the time when landing facilities would be needed for boats from across the line. There were also many possibilities for agricultural progress, and he saw no reason why irrigation could not be introduced to speed fruit development.

Mr. Doak conveyed the best wishes of the Nelson Board for success. He said he felt that in a place of Castlegar's size it was highly important that there be some organized body to represent the people. Through the Board's voice, the sound opinions of the people could express the community's needs.

All speakers complimented the ladies who prepared the delicious banquet.

VICTORIA, Sept. 13 (CP)—British Columbia is not affected by cancellation of 27,000 temporary housing units ordered by Britain from the United States under lend-lease, Trade and Industry Minister Carson said today.

TOJO RESTS WELL

YOKOHAMA, Sept. 14 (Friday) —(AP)—Gen. Hideki Tojo, Japan's Premier at the outbreak of the Pacific war, slept well last night and his condition was "quite satisfactory" early today.

Temperature of the General who three days ago attempted suicide with a shot which missed his heart, remained at 99. His pulse was 105. He ate a good breakfast.

BYRNES SUMMONS BALKANS EXPERTS TO BIG-FIVE CONFERENCE

LONDON, Sept. 13 (CP) — While the Big Five Council of Foreign Ministers today took time off for translation and study of a series of documents, State Secretary Byrnes of the United States summoned his Southeastern European representatives for an anticipated airing of the turbulent Balkan political situation by the Council.

The disclosure that these key American representatives had been called to London was made by United States Embassy sources after Mr. Byrnes conferred with King Peter of Yugoslavia and the Greek regent, Archbishop Damaskinos.

When the Council resumes its scheduled discussions tomorrow on the drafting of a peace settlement for Italy, Mr. Byrnes will have at hand Arthur Bliss Lane, Ambassador in Warsaw, Robert Patterson, Ambassador in Belgrade, Maynard Barnes, Minister in Sofia, and Burton Y. Berry, American representative on the Allied Control Commission in Bucharest. They arrived by plane today.

WANT DEMOCRATIC SETUPS

The potentially explosive Balkan situation was brought into the Big Five discussions by British and American insistence that representative democratic regimes be established before there is any discussion of peace treaties for Hitler's former satellites.

There was no confirmation for reports circulating in London that Russia had refused to discuss the Romanian situation during the conference. Diplomatic observers said that from a purely diplomatic standpoint Russia would not make such a move, since it would bar using Romania as a lever in Italian and other subjects.

Mr. Byrnes' talks with King Peter and Archbishop Damaskinos were considered significant because of their general relations to the Balkan question but no details were announced.

Montreal Lad Gives Tojo Blood Transfusions

MONTREAL, Sept. 13 (CP) — Capt. I. Roy Gold, U. S. Army Medical Corps doctor who was in charge of the transfusion of whole blood given former Premier Tojo of Japan, is the son of Mrs. Sarah Gold of Montreal and is a native of Glace Bay, N. S.

Capt. Gold was educated at Glace Bay and at Dalhousie University, Halifax, and interned at Montreal and Brooklyn hospitals.

187 Airmen Arrive at Coast Sunday

Japs Given Chance to Round Up War Criminal Suspects

TOKYO, Sept. 13 (AP) — The Japanese Government at its own request was entrusted today with the task of arresting suspected war criminals, possibly to head off a hari-kiri epidemic among the accused.

(A high Government authority in Washington said the United States hopes for a quick, vigorous action against Japanese war criminals similar to measures taken against Germany's guilty.)

The Japanese Cabinet in special session wrestled with the problem of what to do with elements within the Government that may be unsavory to Gen. MacArthur and his army of occupation.

BLAMES MILITARISTS

As one step, the Chief Cabinet Secretary, Taketora Ogata, was stripped of his position as President of the Board of Information (propaganda) but for the moment he clung to his Cabinet position.

Some Japanese sources, including the Superintendent of the Tokyo Police, denied that Ogata belonged to the Black Dragon Society of Terrorists, as Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters charged in ordering his arrest.

Prince Fumimaro Konoye, Vice-Premier, conferred with Gen. MacArthur at the Supreme Commander's Headquarters.

Earlier Konoye declared in an interview that as Premier just before the attack on Pearl Harbor, he had tried to head off war by arranging a meeting with President Roosevelt. He said his plans were frustrated by the militarists and Japan's own international reputation as a liar.

The even tenor of occupation was maintained, meanwhile, with the Japanese Government announcing the dissolution of two hotbeds of militarism and aggression.

In accordance with Gen. MacArthur's demands, Imperial Headquarters was disbanded, and 15,220 students of the Naval College were dismissed.

Emperor Hirohito was advised of the dissolution of Imperial Headquarters, set up in 1940 to coordinate Army and Navy operations, by three of Japan's top ranking militarists.

They were Gen. Yoshijiro Umuzu, Army Chief of Staff who signed the surrender documents, Admiral Soemu Toyoda, Navy Chief of Staff, and Gen. Sadamu Shimomura, Minister of War.

TO SPREAD OCCUPATION

Gen. MacArthur's Headquarters announced that Gen. Walter Krueger would arrive at the Western Kyushu naval base of Sasebo Sept. 20 to arrange for the landings of his United States 6th Army of occupation two days later.

The following day the United States 8th Army of occupation will begin moving into Northern Japan's port of Aomori.

Eighth Army Headquarters emphasized that the Japanese Government was given no time limit to round up war criminal suspects, but indicated that some progress would have to be shown within two days or the Americans again would take over.
