Canadian Brigade Set for Korea

Will Leave Fort Lewis Within Two Weeks; Others to Return to Canada

BY DOUGLAS HOW
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Feb. 21 (CP) — Canada shortly will send a full brigade of 6,000 to 7,000 men into action in Korea under the United Nations flag.

Defence Minister Claxton made the announcement tonight to an applauding Commons.

He said the unified command of the United Nations asked Canada Tuesday whether the 25th Infantry Brigade — the core of the Army's Special Force — was fully trained, and if so, whether it could be sent to Korea.

Cabinet agreed today that the 2nd Battalions of the Royal Canadian Regiment and Royal 22nd Regiment and supporting arms "should shortly proceed to Korea and join the second battalion of the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry."

Battalions of the three regiments fought together in the first division in the Second World War.

At Fort Lewis, Wash., training base for the Special Force, Brig. J. M. (Rocky) Rockingham told his men between 5000 and 6000 of them will leave for Korea soon and said the units involved have been advised to be prepared to move in two weeks.

About 1200 to 1300 Canadians are now in Korea. The newcomers will round out a full brigade in infantry backed by the 2nd Field Regiment of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, a squadron of self-propelled anti-tank guns, engineers, signals and other arms.

The remainder of the special force, between 3000 and 4000 men, will remain in North America, probably moving to Wainwright, Alta., from Fort Lewis. It includes the 3rd battalions of the three infantry regiments now earmarked as training battalions.

Mr. Claxton was asked by reporters whether the new move will delay dispatch of a Canadian brigade group to Europe as part of Canada's commitment to Gen. Eisenhower's integrated force.

He referred them to his recent speech in parliament in which he said "the force we propose to send (to Europe) will initially be a brigade group or regimental combat team and we hope that it may arrive at about the same time as the additional U.S. forces, but this may depend on events in Korea."

It is considered likely that for the time being the remainder of the special force will be brought back to Canada and formed into a new brigade. The men were originally recruited as reinforcements for the units now are going to Korea or already there.

The units going to Korea will take front-line reinforcements with them but it still may be necessary to draw in time on the group kept here. With recruiting booming, the government will probably build up the second brigade and train reinforcements which could be used for both.

Unless Korean casualties are unexpectedly heavy, this would in time probably free Canada to maintain brigades in both Korea and Europe.

GO BY SHIP

The Princess Patricias — they are now with the 27th British Brigade—went to Korea 1100 strong, about 300 beyond the normal strength of an infantry battalion. It is likely that other units will do likewise. They are expected to cross the Pacific by ship.

Arrival of the 25the Brigade in Korea will clear the way for establishment of a commonwealth division consisting of the Canadian Brigade, the 27th and 29th British Brigades. The British Brigades consist largely of units from the British Isles plus an Australian battalion and a New Zealand artillery regiment.

The R.C.R.s are under Lt.-Col. Robert Keane, 36, D.S.O., of Fort William Ont., and Ottawa, a permanent force officer. The Royal 22nd is under 31-year-old Lt.-Col. J. A. Dextraze, D.S.O. of Montreal who left the army after the war — he commanded a battalion at 24 — and went into the lumber business.

WOULD DEVELOP B.C. OIL

Kamloops Member Sees Huge Income From Industry

By GEORGE FINLAY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VICTORIA, B.C., Feb. 21 (CP)—British Columbia should make exploration attractive for the oil industry, the Legislature was told today by S. J. Smith (Cln—Kamloops).

He hoped to see developments in the Peace River country and removal of oil controls as forecast in the throne speech would be a step forward.

Mr. Smith, an oil dealer himself, could see benefit for British Columbia's 200,000 motorists with removal of controls.

An immense income for the province could be developed from its own oil and gas, he said.

"The best geological authorities in Canada are agreed that we have oil and gas in huge quantities in that part of the Peace River country which lies within the province."

British Columbia, he added, is hundreds of millions of dollars behind Alberta in oil exploration.

Debate on the throne speech opened today with A. B. Ritchie (Cln.—Salmon Arm) and Mr. Smith moving and seconding the address in reply to the speech.

HOSPITAL STUDY

Both discussed the controversial hospital insurance scheme, now showing a deficit of some $7,000,000 in the first two years of operation.

Mr. Smith said there must be increased premiums or a restriction in service. The present premium is $33 a year for a married person and $21 for single persons.

He suggested that a careful study be made of the possibility of eliminating diagnosis from insurance coverage.

"It is my belief that a considerable item of cost is due to diagnostic services, including X-rays and laboratory tests."

He also suggested a possible solution would be the introduction of co-insurance on a basis that would make the patient responsible for a deductible portion of his hospital bill.

Mr. Ritchie was against further exemption for any group under the insurance plan. He would eliminate religious groups from exemption.

"There are too many trying to use this cloak as an excuse to get out of paying their premiums."

Mr. Ritchie also told the House that development of Northern areas is essential.

Rich mineral deposits and agricultural lands must be developed to maintain the high standard of living in B.C. and to make room for its growing population.

He said completion of the Trans-Canada Highway should be considered as a defence measure.

Debate will be continued tomorrow by Harold E. Winch, C.C.F. opposition leader.

PENTICTON, B.C., Feb. 21 (CP) — The Department of Public Works has called for tenders for construction of an addition to the Penticton Post Office building at a cost of approximately $200,000.

Saskatoon Students Edge Albertans 9-8

Gary Thode and his mates from Saskatoon Tech last night carried off the Canadian School Curling Championship for Saskatchewan for the third straight year by edging a tough Alberta rink 9-8 in the final game of the round-robin.

The Saskatchewan quartet, favorites all through the three-days competition, were given a terrific run by Bob Harper's Calgary rink before a costly gamble in the 9th end by the Alberta skip paved the way for the victory.

Saskatchewan had maintained a slim edge throughout most of the game and were leading 6-4 going into the eighth end only to have the Alberta boys overtake them with a three-ender.

Alberta earned second spot by defeating British Columbia 9-4 in a 6-end playoff following the 9-game round robin late Wednesday night. The playoff was necessitated to decide the second prize award when the two teams finished with identical 7-2 records.

End-by-end results:

Alberta	403 020—9
British Columbia	010 201—4

In the crucial 9th end the Saskatchewan boys narrowly escaped disaster when several missed shots allowed Alberta to build up a strong two-lie when the skips stepped into the hack.

A third Alberta rock was nudging the lone Saskatchewan house stone in the front of the 12-foot circle and needed only a slight raise to give Alberta three.

Harper, trying for three, sent down a takeout stone in an atmpt to knock out the Saskatchewan rock. He missed disastrously and took his own shot rock out to give Saskatchewan shot rock.

Thode was quick to take the opportunity of recovery and took out the Alberta second-rock to lie two after his first shot.

Harper then missed a second takeout attempt, this time hitting one of his own guards and leaving Saskatchewan lying two. Thode made no mistake in planting a third counter into the four-foot circle which gave him a big three and a 9-7 lead coming home.

The unnerved Alberta boys then missed badly in the 10th and left Harper a near impossible chip raise to tie the game with his last rock. Harper made a good try but missed by a whisker to count only one.

Here is the end-by-end score:

Saskatchewan	1201 0110 30—9
Alberta	0010 3003 01—8

PLAYOFF

The loss forced the Alberta rink into a second-place tie and a playoff with Eric Bisgrove and his Kimberley High School quartet who swept final round games Wednesday to draw even. Both rinks lost only two games while winning seven.

The curlers and visiting officials will move on to Trail today to be entertained by C.M. & S. and the Trail Curling Club for most of the day.

They will return to Nelson by bus tomorrow and entrain for homes in the East at 9 p.m.

Combined Allied Troops Advance in Korea

By ROBERT EUNSON

TOKYO, Feb. 22 (Thursday) (AP)—Allied troops of five countries advanced today in a new offensive along a front of more than 50 miles in muddy Central Korea.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, resuming his daily communiques as United Nations commander, said his troops already have gained up to six miles in the new drive, opened at 10 a.m. yesterday.

A special U.S. Eighth Army communique listed one gain of about eight miles by South Koreans West of Hoengsong.

Elements of the 9th and 10th Corps — including Americans Britons, Australians, New Zealanders and South Koreans — leaped from trenches and began the push against withdrawing Reds. An Indian field ambulance unit moved up with the troops.

A Ninth Corps spokesman said the drive was "a vital phase of the Korean campaign."

Gen. MacArthur had ordered the attack Tuesday during a visit to the central front pivot of Wonju.

The 60-mile front, one of rugged mountains, extends from near Yangpyong on the Han River eastward past Wonju. Yangpyong, a former Chinese Communist headquarters town abandoned to the Allies this week, is 27 miles East and slightly South of Red-held Seoul.

On Wednesday Reds defending Seoul repulsed two Allied patrol attempts to cross the Han River.

The Allied punch in Central Korea fell in the same area where last week seven Chinese Red divisions were chewed up trying for a break-through.

That enemy effort, although it failed, had ground to a halt a limited offensive opened by Lt.-Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's army Jan. 25.

MacArthur's summary today said the biggest advance in the resumed offensive was scored around Hoengsong, 10 miles North of Wonju. Hoengsong was the first point overrun by the Chinese in their abortive break-through attempt.

Rain-lashed American infantrymen moved half way back to Hoengsong Wednesday and bumped into the outpost line of an estimated 10,000 to 15,000 fresh Chinese Reds. The Communists were reported under orders to hold Hoengsong at all costs.

Ridgway watched the new offensive get under way in weather so bad that Allied planes were unable to provide combat support.

AP Correspondent Nate Polowetzky reported that an American division on the East flank of the central front gained more than five miles in the first hour Wednesday against North Koreans.

A South Korean armored column joined in the drive in East-Central Korea, jumping off from the crossroads mining town of Pogan.

It smashed into the right flang of a Red-held salient, wheeled North along mountain muddy roads and pushed to within five miles of Pyongchang, which is 25 miles East of Wonju.

Tanks, trucks and jeeps slipped and slid on the slick roads. Bridges were washed out.

United Nations naval forces on both coasts continued shelling Korean shores for the eighth straight day.

TOKYO, Feb. 22 (Thursday) (CP)—Through an error in an announcement at United States 9th Corps headquarters it was reported in an Associated Press dispatch Wednesday that Canadian troops had gone into action on the Central Korean front.

The original announcement at 9th Corps headquarters had listed troops of nine countries, including Canada, Greece, France and India, in action. Eighth Army headquarters later said only five countries were represented in combat.

JET BREAKS OCEAN RECORD

Crosses Atlantic in 4 Hours, 40 Minutes Trying to Beat Sun

GANDER, Nfld., Feb. 21 (CP) — A twin-jet British bomber failed today in a race to beat the sun across the North Atlantic, but landed with the fastest crossing in history — four hours and 40 minutes.

Strong headwinds slowed the black and grey Canberra bomber which has a speed rating of better than 600 miles an hour, on its 2100-mile flight to Gander from Aldergrove air base, near Belfast.

The sun made the swing in 3½ hours — 600 miles an hour. Nosed out by an hour and 10 minutes with an average speed of about 445 miles an hour, the bomber's three-man crew emerged here with the comment:

"Lead us to the coffee."

The first jet aircraft to fly the Atlantic without refuelling, the Canberra beat the best previous West-East record by 30 minutes.

Squadron Leader A. E. Callard was at the controls.

Callard had hoped to beat the time difference between North Ireland and Newfoundland, but acknowledged he was trying to do it the hard way—against prevailing Westerly winds.

Despite the unexcelled time, however, the crossing will not be recognized as an official international record because the British Royal Aero Club was not asked to send official observers to check the flight.

With Callard were Flight Lt. E. A. J. Haskett, navigator, and Flight Lt. A. G. R. Robson, radioman.

Coast Sulphate Workers Withdraw From T.L.C.

VANCOUVER, Feb. 21 (CP) — Vancouver pulp and sulphite workers withdrew from the Vancouver and District Trades and Labor Council (T.L.C.) last night in opposition to the council's policy to rid the organization of Communists.

Decision to disaffiliate by the International Brotherhood of Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers, Vancouver Converters, Local 433, ousted six union delegates from their seats and reduced the number of T.L.C.-affiliated trade unionists represented in the council by more than 400.

In a letter to the council executive, the Sulphite Workers' Corresponding Secretary, Ford MacKinnon, referred to President Tom Alsbury's election statement that the council would uphold the T.L.C. constitution and drive all reds from the organization.

"The council said it would not go on a witch hunt," wrote MacKinon, "we prefer to wait and see. Outside that is."

MacKinnon went on: "The council is functioning as something less than or at least, other than a voice for labor.

"Our delegates note with no little uneasiness the council's changing attitude to opposition. Balancing the harm that could accrue to our local through possible future opposition to the council policy, we therefore move to withdraw."

"The statements in the letter are incorrect," declared Alsbury. "We have no desire to throttle opposition as long as it is expressed in the proper form.

Highlight was the presentation by the board of an engraved gift to E. Salvador, president of 1949-51, by the incoming president, Mr. Langston, following the presentation of the gavel.

Other guests present were Messrs. Tonkin of Kaslo, Irwin and McNaughton of Cranbrook, Clark and Ante of Vancouver, and Dr. Ness a newcomer to Creston.

BACK RIONDEL

Mr. Salvador's report covered the success of the Board's efforts in regard to the bid for a provincial jail which was declined because the site was away from population centres, participation in power rate hearing, sponsorship of a prize for a valley slogan by the Kiwanis Club, aid to the community of Riondel in matters of mail, telephone and roads, welcome of Hon. H. Anscomb on his visit to Creston, support of efforts to have the B.C. Hop Co. locate on Kootenay Flats, completion of valley road projects and their possible hard surfacing this year, the visit of Hon. E. C. Carson to Creston and the opportunity of hearing stewardship reports from Walter Hendricks M.L.A. and James Bryne, M.P.

Mr. Armstrong outlined methods that must be adopted to have tourists revisit B.C. after their initial Canadian trip.

He stated his community and association were pressing for the Creston-Salmo road.

He explained tourist bureau would be set up at Yahk and possibly Creston to keep tourists in Canada and on Canadian routes. Communities, he said, must adopt a friendly attitude to tourists when they visit and see that accomodations are up to standard.

Guy Constable related the events leading to the Libby dam planning and his efforts, later endorsed by the Board in a telegram to the Premier, to call a meeting of all East Kootenay parties to determine the interests of this section of the province before the hearing. He urged that the Libby proposal be regarded on its own merits and not be connected with or be used as a football for any other provincial project.

And in This Corner —

LONDON, Feb. 21 (AP)—A Government spokesman assured the House of Commons today that the Barbary apes of Gibraltar, despite their sullen faces, are well fed and in the pink.

Colonial Secretary James Griffiths, whose job it is to see that the apes shall not perish from "The Rock," said furthermore the colony now numbers 30, an increase of 10 since the end of the war.

Conservative Leonard D. Gammans had expressed concern over whether you can feed an ape decently on the present Government allowance of fourpence (about five cents) a primate a day.

It is legend that if the last ape dies Britain will lose Gibraltar.

Winston Churchill, as prime minister in 1944, honored the legend by ordering the ape population raised to 24 without delay. The tribe then was down to a scrawny dozen or so

"The allowance of fourpence a day each is still sufficient," Griffiths said. "I am assured the apes are well fed and in excellent health."

"Is it not a fact," asked Churchill, "that there is an undue predominance of males?"

After all, replied Griffiths, Churchill ordered the population raised to 24 and the Labor Government is already six over the quota.

Griffiths chopped off the exchange by promising solemnly: "I shall convey to them the keen interest of this House in their welfare."

Curling Brought Them Important Opportunities, Bishop Tells Rinks

"You have been given a greater opportunity to represent your province, its people, its way of life, its traditions and culture", Canada's school curlers were told at a civic banquet held in their honor at the Hume Wednesday night.

As "ambassadors", Most Rev. Martin M. Johnson, D.D., Bishop of Nelson, told the participants in the Canadian Schools Curling Championships they had represented their provinces "nobly", and he offered them "the hearts of the people of the City of Nelson."

The curling event was a "new chapter in the list of the City's embellishments." Never before had Nelson played host to representatives of nine provinces. The students had until now known of the other parts of Canada through the dull pages of the geography book, but curling had improved this situation.

GREETINGS IN FRENCH

Bishop Johnson also paid tribute to T. A. Wallace, "father of high school curling in British Columbia." He also gave a special greeting to the Quebec rink, addressing them in French.

Mounted group pictures of all the rinks were presented to the 40 members of the 10 rinks by Aldermen Alex Sutherland, Arthur Foster, W. S. Smith and S. J. Newell after introductory remarks by Acting Mayor R. P. Riesterer.

FOR GREATER ACTIVITY

Ray Grant of Victoria, representing Hon. W. T. Straith, Minister of Education, presented medallions to curling officials for "meritorious service." Mr. Grant earlier in the day had presented medallions to the student curlers.

Mr. Grant said the curling games here were the first he had seen. He hoped to see activity in student curling at the Coast stepped up, stressing that there was an athletic side as well as an academic side to the learning process.

John Cameron of Winnipeg, representing the Sifton newspapers, presented buttons to Ken Watson of Winnipeg, General Chairman of the Canadian Schools Curling Association; T. S. Shorthouse of Nelson, General Chairman of the event at Nelson; T. A. Wallace of Nelson, B.C. Schools Representative, and to Charles Scrymgeour of Winnipeg, Honorary Secretary of the Association.

The buttons, he said, would be presented annually at future championships.

PICTURES FOR SCHOOLS

H. Farenholtz of Nelson introduced the 10 "fathers", or Nelson hosts, of each rink, the hosts then presenting to the skips of the rinks colored pictures of Nelson which will be presented in turn to the principals of the schools the rinks represented.

In appreciation of their work, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Wallace were presented with a beautiful bouquet by Acting Mayor Riesterer. Mrs. Wallace responded briefly.

Speaking on behalf of the curlers and representatives, Ken Watson expressed thanks to those responsible for staging the event.

Others at the head tables were Ald. Joseph Kary, Chairman; Fred Hamilton, Ontario representative of the Association; Ernest Irving, Alberta; and John Thom of Nelson, executive member of the Dominion Curling Association and Secretary to the B.C. Schools Curling Committee.

Songs were enjoyed and selections given by the Nelson High School Barber Shop Quartet.

Wage increases of 13¾ cents an hour and six statutory holidays with pay are being recommended for acceptance to the members of the Cork Province and Kootenay Belle Units of Nelson Local 901 by the bargaining committees and by local management to the company directors. The wage increase would bring the miners' rate to $10.60 a day.

Other proposals included in the recommendations are two weeks annual vacation after two years service, shift differentials of four cents and eight cents and a contributory life and non-occupational accident insurance altogether estimated to provide benefits of more than 20 cents per hour in these, the first agreements at these operations.

Preliminary negotiations had been carried out separately with the two companies, but with both units proposing identical agreements and the companies replies identical. The last meeting at which agreement was reached was held jointly.

V. McDowall of Kootenay Belle and D. McLean of Cork Province represented the companies and Arthur Bennett, Ben Frie, C. A. Short, John (Lefty) Turner, of Kootenay Belle and Mike Hanchar, Lawrence Bond, Paul Augustine, Frank Chidley, Lloyd Dickie of Cork Province assisted by District President K. Smith made up the joint bargaining committee for the union.

Canadian Citizenship a "Holy Rite" McKenzie Tells 21 New Citizens

Canadian citizenship is a "holy rite", Rev. Father LeRoy McKenzie told 21 new citizens from West Kootenay who swore allegiance before His Honor Judge E. P. Dawson in County Court at Nelson Wednesday.

In every age citizenship has been regarded as the highest honor a country can bestow, he said.

"Canadian citizenship is a holy rite because it was won by the life blood of British and French adventurers and made noble by the fathers of Confederation," he said.

If you are willing to accept a heritage of peace you should be willing also to strive for peace and its perpetuation. You should never think your efforts too meagre.

"In our age we have seen peoples conquered, degraded and enslaved by individuals — Hitler, Mussolini and Stalin.

"The error of the past has been to think of peace as passive and static rather than something very much alive — that joy and tranquility which exist only when every member of society works for the common good of mankind."

Father McKenzie challenged the new citizens to take an "active and sympathetic part" in community affairs and to build for the peace of the world.

Mrs. R. B. Brummitt, first vice-regent of Kokanee chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, welcomed the 21 and with Mrs. H. E. Thain, second vice-regent, distributed I.O.D.E. certificates to them. A National Film Board film entitled "Passport to Canada" was shown.

Oaths of allegiance were taken by Andrew Anton, Wong Fong Kaw, Wong Chew King, Ma Lung, Wong Guey Mee, Torsten David Nystrom, Andy Olsen, Gee Pong, Frank Wong, Wong Yue Yick and Mah Soy Yuen, all of Nelson, Albin Nelson, Jakob Speidel, Anna Tajenar and Katherine Weiberg all of Creston, Mah You Hong of Erickson, Jiro Katagiri, Teiji Morishita and Takeji Samejima of Slocan City, Mah Wing See of Willow Point and Yoshio Shiozaki of Rosebery.

Judge Dawson also recommended for approval citizenship applications from Seto Yue Chow of Nelson, Mary DeGusti and Della Maud Griffith of Creston and Heizira Matsubayashi of Slocan City.

The Weather

Skies are clear in most regions of the province and in all but the more Northern regions of the province. This condition is expected to persist. A weak disturbance crossing the Northern Gulf of Alaska is expected to cause increasing cloud over Northern sections.

With clear skies the mercury is expected to fall quite rapidly to give near zero readings at Interior points and freezing temperatures over much of the coast.

Identify Body as James Anderson

The body of a man discovered by Corra Linn power plant employees from under a log boom Tuesday, has been definitely identified as that of James Anderson of Nelson, victim of a drowning accident last Summer.

Mr. Anderson vanished into the night when a boat from which he had been fishing overturned in Grohman Narrows two miles West of Nelson. Dragging operations failed to recover his body.

An inquiry will probably be held.

Sciankowy spent three days in Kootenay Lake General Hospital as a result of the assault at Blewett.

Kaslo Presses for Work on Local Airport, Mine Roads, Highways

KASLO, B. C., Feb. 21—The Kaslo Board of Trade held a well attended supper meeting in the King George Hotel Feb. 15, under the chairmanship of President G. "Monty" Armstrong. Subjects of paramount importance to the district were dealt with.

The condition of roads during the Summer of 1950 was discussed at length and replies to letters from various government officials and members of Parliament were read, in which the Board was assued that evreything was being done to obtain larger appropriations for 1951 road repairs.

A letter from the Hon. Walter Hendricks, former Kaslo businessman, and now M.L.A. for the Nelson-Creston Riding, assured the Board of his full support with regard to the maintenance of the Balfour-Coffee Creek section of the Nelson-Kaslo Highway.

Another matter discussed and of wide interest in the district, and to be put forward by the Board of Trade, is the re-conditioning of the Bjerkness airport, five miles South of Kaslo. The Board decided to ask Mr. Bjerkness for permission to clear the field and put it in good condition for landing purposes.

It was pointed out that this airport is ideal, as the field runs North and South and is only effected by North and South winds. Another great advantage is the complete absence of fogs in this area.

Other items of interest dealt with were the B. C. Telephone service improvements, the Anscomb schedule and the Tourist Information Bureau.

The Roads and Bridges Committee was authorized to draw up a resolution to be sent to the Hon. E. C. Carson, Minister of Public Works, in support of a letter to Mr. Carson from the Kootenay Belle Gold Mines at Retallack, regarding the condition of the Kaslo-New Denver road conditions. Pressure is being brought to bear on the Minister on the matter of this road, which is of great importance due to the great amount of trucking done by the mining industry in this area. Hundreds of thousands of tons of ore and concentrates were conveyed by trucks over the road in 1950.

Immediate action is necessary if this industry is to continue at its present, or increased capacity.

The Kaslo Board of Trade has pledged its full support in the matter.

Opening of Mount Baker High School at Cranbrook Planned

CRANBROOK, B. C., Feb. 21 — Cranbrook District School Board will accept transfer of the new $700,000 Mount Baker Junior-Senior High School from Dawson and Hall Ltd., contracting company on an unnamed date next month. The contracting company is already clearing its temporary buildings from the site through sale.

Official opening date was also tabled by the Board, and may be prior to transfer of equipment from the present High School, or after installations are complete in the Easter holidays, prior to occupation by students April 2. Department of Education officials will be invited to the ceremonies which will be open to the public.

Transfer of nearly 200 junior high school students from Central School will relieve pressure there temporarily, but the bumper crop of primary students expected next September will necessitate resuming use of the former High School for primary grades of children from the Southern end of the city, leaving all three buildings in operation.

The Board will present its 1951 budget of $265,819.24 at a special meeting of rural school representatives next Saturday for approval in their share of costs. School rate of taxation for rural areas will continue on this basis at 8 mills.

The Board endorsed accounts totalling $5664.86 for payment at its meeting.

Cranbrook School Rate at 50 Mills

CRANBROOK, B. C., Feb. 21 — School rate in the city tax for 1951 will be 50 mills with acceptance by the City Council at a special meeting of the $265,819.08 budget prepared by the Cranbrook District School Board. The whole budget is up 25 per cent compared to actual costs in 1950, largely due to the hoist in teacher salary requirements to $147,519 from $116,668.81 last year, and increased cost for building operations with addition of the new Mount Baker Junior-Seior High School.

City share of the whole cost is $91,986.20 compared with approximately $73,000 for 1950. City tax rate in 1950 was 54 mills of which 41 mills were for schools. Last year's mill rate for debentures will be slightly increased this year with the fire department and additional electrical equipment bylaws approved in 1950. Rate last year for debentures was 7½ mills, while rate for general operations was 5½ mills.

Don't be HALF-SAFE

by VALDA SHERMAN

Many mysterious changes take place in your body as you mature. Now, the glands under your arms begin to secrete daily a new type of perspiration containing substances which will—if they reach your dress—cause ugly stains and clinging odor.

You'll face this problem throughout womanhood. It's not enough merely to stop the odor of this perspiration. You must now use a deodorant that stops the perspiration itself before it reaches—and ruins—your clothes.

As doctors know, not all deodorants stop both perspiration and odor. But Arrid does! It's been proved that the new cream deodorant Arrid stops underarm perspiration 1 to 3 days safely—keeps underarms dry and sweet.

Remember this, too. Arrid's antiseptic action kills odor on contact—prevents formation of odor up to 48 hours and keeps you "shower-bath" fresh. And it's safe for skin—safe for fabrics.

So, don't be half-safe. Don't risk half-safe deodorants. Be Arrid-safe! Use Arrid to be sure. Arrid with Creamogen will not dry out, and it's so pleasant and easy to apply. Get Arrid—Canada's largest selling deodorant—today!

Rossland P.T.A. Gets Lesson in Fly-Tying

ROSSLAND, B.C., Feb. 21—Rossland Parent-Teacher Association, meeting in McLean School, was introduced to the fundamentals of fly-tying by Bob Bowen, a young man who obviously knows his subject.

There are hundreds of different types of flies, he said, and explained the materials and tools used in this profitable hobby.

With a sketch, he pointed out the various stages of the work, and later demonstrated by making a fly in a few minutes of deft work and passing it around for the audience's inspection.

Also on the program was a song by eight-year-old Jeannette Beaulieu, accompanied by Miss Vivian Johnson.

Miss M. Mackay read a brief address on Founders' Day which commemorates the formation of Parent-Teacher association for the purpose of improving conditions for children and young people everywhere. The day honors the founders of national, provincial and local associations.

The executive's revised budget for the year, totalling $227, was adopted by the general meeting. Membership was reported by Mrs. W. C. Holm as 200.

It was announced that during Education Week March 4 to 10, Open Day will be held at the High School March 6. Parents were urged to visit classrooms during the afternoon. At night parents will again have an opportunity to talk with the teachers prior to the program featuring a panel discussion in which Mrs. C. Shobe will represent the P.-T.A. Parents of Public School children may visit McLean School in the afternoon March 8 and have been invited to discuss their children's problems with the teachers after classes are dismissed.

Rossland P-T.A. will sponsor the nomination of Mrs. W. Veitch of Fruitvale as a vice-president of the B.C. Parent-Teacher Federation at the Easter convention. A report by convener Mrs. O. Tobiasson told of the work done by P.-T.A. members in judging costumes and races on Children's Day of the recent Sno Sho. Chairman Mrs. A. Coombes reported on a meeting of the scholarship committee which reviewed the scholarship program and added to it an award for industrial arts. It is hoped also to obtain a sponsor for a commercial award.

Mrs. K. Martin reported on the annual meeting of the Welfare Society which she attended as P.-T.A. representative. It was decided that this year's ways and means project will be a smorgasbord, probably in April.

Members were urged to attend first aid classes which begin this week and which are for both men and women.

In response to a suggestion from the Fraternal Order of Eagles, future meetings of the association will open with 30 seconds of silent prayer for peace in the world.

WINNIPEG A TENT TOWN IN HER YOUTH

WINNIPEG, Feb. 21 (CP) Oldest living pioneer of Manitoba's Lilyfield district is an 89-year-old woman who remembers when Winnipeg was little more than a tent city and buffalo grazed the Prairies.

She is white-haired Mrs. H. E. Riggall, who came to Winnipeg in 1882 as a young bride. Main Street was "just a mudhole" and the city was recovering from a bad flood.

"I can remember the present site of Grace Church (in downtown Winnipeg) was a mass of tents," Mrs. Riggall recalls. "My husband and I pitched our tent there too."

Later the couple moved to Lilyfield to take up farming. She has memories of a herd of buffalo trampling across the potato field and ruining the crop.

"Our first home was just a shack," she says. "When it rained the water came in the roof. I used to have to hold an umbrella over our two-month-old baby."

Council Readies For Busy Year at Koolaree

The West Kootenay Religious Education Council's Committee on Dates have been busy in the past week fitting into a schedule, all the camps anticipated for the 1951 season. The inclusion of a Work Party, Junior Girls and the Young People's make for a full program from the time school is out on June 27 through until Sept. 4.

The work party, which will go to camp over the Dominion Day weekend, is comprised largely of men of the A.O.T.S. Club. They will finish up the kitchen extension commenced last year and will be concerned with the new water system and modern sanitary arrangements in the camp.

The Fraternity boys will carry on with their project of building the new Administration Hut commenced in the Fall. They will open the campsite, readying it for the first camp which goes in on July 3.

The Junior Girls camp, new last year and a great success, will again function this year, as well the Young People's, the latter being extended to a week at the close of August.

The various committees will be meeting regularly planning program, study work, handicrafts and other projects.

The camp dates are: Opening Camp and Work Party, June 29-July 2; Senior-Intermediate Boys, July 3-July 14; Junior Boys, July 14-July 24; Junior Girls, July 24-Aug.3; Senior Girls, Aug. 3-Aug. 14; Intermediate Girls, Aug. 14-Aug. 24; Young People, Aug. 24-Aug. 31; Camp Fraternity Sept. 1-Sept. 3.

In 20 years, Koolaree has served over 5000 boys, girls and young people, last year over 400 attended the camps.

Londoners Enjoy Brief Sunshine

LONDON, Feb. 21 (Reuters)—The sun peeped out over London today to break a rainy spell which beat all records.

Clerks worked in their shirt sleeves, umbrellas were left at home for the first time for a week, and Spring seemed on its way.

But not far from the sunny capital rain was still falling in the Thames Valley, with the River two inches up in places. Flood waters, built up over a week, were still flowing over 10 counties.

Rainfall so far this month—4.43 inches against a normal average of 1.54 inches—has broken all known records for 100 years. The previous record was 4.13 inches recorded in 1879.

In the North today there was a sudden spate of snow, and ice-crusted roads held up traffic in Scotland.

And He Wed Three . .

VIENNA, Austria, Feb. 21 (Reuters) — A 33-year-old Austrian, Franz Rath, promised marriage to 19 women, had 11 children by nine of them, and "married" three, said police who arrested him Monday. He was charged with obtaining money, jewels and property from all 19.

Think of the Bees When Planting; Even Vines and Vegetables Helpful

By RUBY BATE

This is the time of year when growers sit in an armchair and dream of the gardens they would like to have. Gardens without weeds, mildew, or pests. The seed catalogues are read and reread. The bee-keeper, too, is on the other side of the hearth dreaming of colonies that do not swarm, never ball their queen, get no disease, and bring in bumper crops, and with the Western Canadian Bee-Keeper or the Gleanings in Bee Culture not far away.

Dreams are good, but why not help those dreams come true? A little planning now may go a long way towards that end. This is February and an overwintered colony will soon be starting to show signs of renewed activity. The queen should soon begin to lay again. To help her it would be good to give them some warm syrup. Don't forget sulfathiazole. Prevention is better than cure, and sulfa is your insurance against disease.

Now, too, is the time to plan improvements in bee-pasture. White Dutch clover, alsike, and pellet clover are all good honey plants. Pellet clover is a new clover named after Frank Pellet, who is an authority on honey plants, and the author of "Honey Plants of North America". Alfalfa and hairy vetch are plants that will find favor with the bees. Sweet clover is good and when planted along roadsides or waste places are great boosters.

Perhaps you've been thinking of planting shade trees or windbreaks. Then choose nectar secreting plants. Maples, Linden (basswood) Accacia, Catalpa are a few.

Lots of shrubs are attractive to the bees, so in making a shrubbery choose from among Indian currant, snowberry, the buckthorns, barberry, buttonbush, pea-bush, pea-tree, cotton easters, sumas and privets.

VINES VALUABLE

Don't overlook the vines, as many are good honey plants. Various species of ivy, nearly all species of hedera and ampelopsis are rich in nectar and are swarming with bees during their period of bloom.

The flower garden, too, can be a great help to the bee. Some garden flowers rich in nectar are catnip, borage, chicory. Lavender once seen in old fashioned herb gardens and in many places escaped and became naturalized, are good sources of honey. Horehound and motherwort brought to this country from abroad are rich in nectar, but inclined to spread as weeds. Rosemary is a famous bee plant. Marjoramand houndstongue, and nearly all the mints are good.

Among the purely ornamental plants are mignonette, cleome, globe-thistle, thoroughwort, batchelor button, heather, goldenrod, giant hysup, gallardia, buddleia, heliotrope and a host of others from the scilla, which blooms as soon as the frost is out, to the dahlia, late in the Autumn.

Among the vegetables are asparagus, melons, pumpkins, squash, cucumber, onion, celery and parsnip.

So bee-keeper here's to a bumper crop in 1951. Make your dreams come true.

C.C.L. Launches Training Scheme

OTTAWA, Feb. 21 (CP) — The Canadian Congress of Labor announced today it is launching a campaign to provide funds for leadership training in trade unions of Southeast Asia.

The step is in line with a policy declaration passed at the C.C.L. annual convention last September advocating action to meet the threat of Communism.

The authorized version of the English Bible ordered by King James in 1604 was published in 1611.

Alberta Calf Sells For Record Price

LETHBRIDGE, Feb. 21 (CP)—A record price of $42 a hundredweight for a 360-pound stocker calf was paid yesterday at the Lethbridge stockyards. The animal, raised by Leonard Thompson of Lomond, was purchased by Lincoln Sammons of Milk River.

What was believed an all-Canadian record of $40.25 per hundredweight was set for calves here Friday.

And, in the same package, there's grated cheddar cheese to sprinkle in for good cheese flavour. And so easy to prepare! "Kraft Dinner" is off the shelf — into the pot — onto the table!

SALMON BASKETS

Make baskets by placing 2 slices of bread, crusts removed, into buttered custard cup. Bake at 372 deg. F., 5-10 minutes. Flake 1 lb. Salmon and fill hot baskets. Make sauce by melting ¼ cup butter with 2 egg yolks in double boiler, stirring constantly. Water in bottom of double boiler should not be boiling. As mixture thickens, add another ¼ cup butter. When thick, remove from heat, add seasonings. Pour sauce over Salmon Baskets.

"On Location" in the English Channel during the filming of Warner Bros.' "Captain Horatio Hornblower" . . . Virginia Mayo was thankful for Jergens Lotion. She says her hands were red and raw from the sea air, the stinging spray and the ropes on the bosun's chair. But soothing JERGENS LOTION on her hands and face softened and smoothed her lovely complexion for romantic close-ups. Yes, being liquid, Jergens quickly supplies the softening, soothing moisture dry, thirsty skin needs. And Jergens contains quickly absorbed ingredients — no heavy oils to coat the skin! So take a tip from lovely Virginia Mayo, starring in "Captain Horatio Hornblower". Make a regular hand-beauty habit of soothing Jergens Lotion. 15c, 33c, 57c and $1.00.

All have 5-speed Radiantube Units . . . Lifetime Porcelain inside and out . . . and a host of "easy cooking" features. Big Appetites At Breakfast? Well, here's a wonderful way to satisfy them! . . . Put QUAKER MUFFETS on the table and let the family help themselves. Not only are these crispy toasted golden brown biscuits good to eat, but they're good for you, too! In Quaker Muffets you get 100% Whole Wheat—yes, the bran and valuable wheat germ are there with the body-building protein, minerals and energy-giving qualities of the whole grain. For a breakfast that's really different, try them with fruit and milk or cream . . . and your family will be back for more! Right at this moment I'm adding Quaker Muffets to my shopping list — how about you?

Choose A "Love-Of-A-Dress"—a gay scarf — a bewitching parasol — and admit you're choosing them with a man in mind! Don't we all? And that's why so many, many women insist on the subtle flattery of Woodbury's fate-tempting, new powder shade — "COQUETTE". For "Coquette" powder is the delicious, delightful, golden rachel shade that men like best on you! And it's so gloriously fine and silken smooth! That's because it's Woodbury—with the unique ingredient that gives your skin the fabulous satin touch! And such clingability . . . and tantalizing, crushed-flower fragrance that lasts for hours! If you don't play the temptress with Woodbury's fate-tempting "Coquette" — some other woman will! So ask for it today . . . 20c, 39c and 69c.

Let's Confess It — with today's high living costs — we all need a little help with our money problems! Well — I've lately come across a way to run the family finances that has helped me more than just a little. I haven't been a Personal Planner for long, but the BANK OF MONTREAL Personal Planning system has already begun to pay dividends in peace of mind. It's showing me how to run my money, instead of my money running me. And that's so important to happy living! I'd like you to try Personal Planning . . . it's such a down-to-earth, practical system of money management and it's flexible, too. With a bit of careful planning, you can tailor it to suit your needs and income, so that you'll come out on top. To find out all about it, just ask for the booklet called "PERSONAL PLANNING" at your neighbourhood branch of the B of M.

Fruitvale F.R.A. Elects McInnis For Third Term, End Banner Year

FRUITVALE, B. C., Feb. 21—The annual meeting of the Fruitvale Recreation Association was held in the parish hall Feb. 15 with about 25 people in attendance. It is the first year for some time that it hasn't been necessary to call a second meeting in order to get business for the year completed. Not since its infancy has there been so much enthusiasm displayed.

During the past Summer Hugh McInnis reported that considerable work had been done on the grounds. Both electricity and water had been laid into the property up to the stands. He said he appreciated the cooperation he had had from those who had helped so willingly and hoped that in future the FRA would work more closely and in better harmony with the other local organizations.

The financial sheet revealed that the year had been a good one. The receipts for May 24 had been the best in sixty years, and had netted $1133.37. The FRA had sponsored the Fruitvale All Stars last year at a cost of $609.37, part of which was for uniforms. The sum of $262.03 had been collected at the ball games. To improve the grounds and laying in of the waterline and electricity, involved an outlay of $1294.99. Both the "A" shift softball and the midget teams received grants. Total expenditures for the year were $4018.07, total receipts were $4567.84.

Membership was down in 1950, being only 32 people. This is a very low percentage of parents who really wish their children to have better pastime facilities.

On the recommendation of the Secretary-Treasurer, it was approved to split that post and have the Secretary separate from the Treasurer's.

The following officers were elected:

President, Hugh McInnis (third term); Vice-President, Pete Morissette; Secretary, Mrs. Thomas Anderson; Treasurer, Alex Paterson; Board of Directors, Gordon Grieve, Jr., Ronald Hill, Mrs. Rozella Webster and Denis Miller.

HUGH McINNIS

The members present at the meeting were unanimous in agreeing to give more attention and consideration to playtime facilities for the young people, but good leadership is not the only essential thing. It was pointed out very strongly that parents have to back leaders. Until there is the fullest backing and cooperation of all parents, there isn't much a leader can do, no matter how good and willing he is, for the young people.

The Executive were empowered to investigate more fully the cost of fencing the ballgrounds and the laying in of a cement block suitable for dancing, rollerskating and tennis, and if a good price can be had, to complete the work.

Plans were discussed for the annual May 24 sports and a complete sketch of events is to be prepared by the Executive for the next regular meeting at which representatives of all local organizations are to be present.

Give American Views on Canadian Defence Efforts

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (CP)—Canada, as one of the 12 North Atlantic partners, has been getting increasing attention in the United States press recently, with editorials praising her defence program and special articles analyzing her steps to meet the world crisis.

The New York Times sent reporter Richard H. Parke on a two-week survey of Canada. His five stories contained little news for the average Canadian but they informed the American reader on Canada's part in the battle against Communism.

Another series of articles appeared in Scripps-Howard newspapers published in New York and 17 other cities from Washington to San Francisco. Reporter Charles Lucey dealt with what were described as "the conflicting views" of the two countries on the world crisis.

All writers have attached importance to the Dominion's natural resources. When the New York Journal-American ran a special 10-page section on Canada, it carried a three-quarter-page map showing the location of the country's iron, oil, pulp and titanium resources. Editor Leslie Gould wrote of Canada as the United States' partner and friend—"probably its only real friend in this troubled world."

Reporters Parke and Lucey agreed that Canadians are not as excited as Americans about the Korean war.

The Times reporter noted that

"Canada . . . wants neither to be hurried nor pushed. But now as her Parliament debates a $5,000,000,000 three-year defence program, she has decided to multiply her effort."

Her defence program "would seem to indicate that the Dominion, like the United States, is pledged to fight to the finish."

Lucey found everything "quite relaxed" North of the border. He considered it of interest to Americans that Canada and little Iceland are the only two North Atlantic Treaty nations "without some form of compulsory military service."

If war broke out, he said, Canada would be "right in there with the U.S." But he found Canadians doubtful of Washington's political and military leadership.

Editorial praise came from the New York Herald-Tribune which saw in Canada's defence program "a thrill of reassurance" for the Western world. The Washington Star found in it an indication that "our good neighbor . . . can be counted upon to do its full share if the worst happens."

The St. Louis Post-Dispatch noted that "proportionately, the Canadian defence effort compares very favorably with those of France and Great Britain."

Brands Letter as Communist Move

LONDON, Feb. 21 (Reuters) — The Government today threatened to jail anyone inciting military reservists to disobey call-up orders.

The move follows circulation of a chain-letter urging 235,000 wartime service men to ignore recall for 15 days' training this Summer. Shawcross told Parliament last

Attorney-General Sir Hartley Shawcross told Parliament last week that he believed the chain-letter was sent out by a Communist-run organization.

A new government bill, sent to the House of Commons for approval, lays down penalties up to two years' imprisonment or a £500 ($1500) fine for incitement to disaffection.

Barbara Stanwyck Obtains Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 21 (AP) — Barbara Stanwyck today obtained a divorce from Robert Taylor—a divorce which, she testified, he requested. Composed and low-voiced, the movie star told Judge Thurmond Clarke:

"Shortly after Mr. Taylor's return from Italy in December" — where he had been making a movie —"he came to me and asked for a divorce."

Asked by her counsel what her reaction was, Miss Stanwyck said:

"I was very shocked and grieved. It made me quite ill. For several weeks I was under the care of my physician."

The Taylors were married May 14, 1939, and separated last Dec. 14. She complained then that she had been a "long distance telephone wife" for a year, during her husband's absence.

Legion Offers Aid In Cranbrook Civil Defence

CRANBROOK, B.C., Feb. 21 — Fullest possible assistance to the city in any program of organizing civil defence it undertakes will be offered by the Cranbrook Branch of the Canadian Legion, the organization decided at its February meeting. Written confirmation of this has been forwarded to the council, and W. A. Burton as public relations officer of the branch will go into further detail at the next City Council meeting.

Civil defence programs are a municipal responsibility, and in view of this the branch will not undertake to organize a Cranbrook plan, but will cooperate in the fullest measure with any municipal plans.

Showing of films by the branch at the high school during Education Week which starts March 13 will also be undertaken.

High Court Ends Divorce Tussle

LONDON, Feb. 21 (Reuters) — Charles Preston-Jones today won a divorce from his wife because he claimed she gave birth to a baby he couldn't have fathered because he hadn't seen his wife for 360 days before the birth.

He had been in Germany serving with the R.A.F. at the time. The baby was born in August, 1946.

For him it ended a four-year legal round of hearings and appeals in five courts.

A London high court today divorced Preston-Jones, 31, from his 39-year-old wife, Bertha, on instructions from the legal division of the House of Lords—highest British domestic court. He petitioned for divorce on the grounds of adultry.

"God bless the child," said Preston-Jones at one hearing. "But he's just not mine."

The Hebrides

All is not well on the Western Isles, the euphemistic title given to the Hebrides. The rugged terrain and the rough seas at their best have given the inhabitants only a thrifty living, and there have been frequent periods of bad times. Apparently they are in the midst of another now.

The chief Islands in the Outer Hebrides are Lewis-with-Harris, or "Long Island". They contain almost one-half of the 60,000 population of the Hebrides, and are dependent to a large extent on the weaving of the famous Harris tweed and on the herring fisheries. Both seem now in the doldrums. The Windsor Daily Star quotes Chairman John Maciver of the Lewis District Council as appealing for authorities to "come here and see for themselves the empty harbor and the idle looms."

"You will hear no laughter of young people in our villages. There is no one here between the ages of 20 and 40, except those who cannot leave," complains a Lewis Councillor.

The Hebrideans are among the finest of folk; hardy, thrifty, and determined. Many parts of the world have been enriched by emigrants from the Hebrides, and Canada has been a Mecca for them. They are of the stuff of which pioneers and fine immigrants are made.

There are 500 Hebridean islands in all, of which fewer than one-fifth are inhabited. The majority are too small or too poor to afford even a meagre existence.

Hebridean authorities fear that the islands will be almost completely depopulated. If there should be a mass exodus from the Hebrides, our immigration services should get on the job and invite all the Hebrideans to Canada.

To the Moon

Those who sought reservations on the first passenger rocket to the moon were perhaps not so beforehanded after all. A United States Navy engineer says the plans are ready for a rocket that he thinks will work.

The planning is being done at a secret missile base. There are blueprints, and the engineer insists techniques and materials are ready for building it when the time is ripe.

This latest conception of a carrier to transport people to the moon and back will some day be considered elementary and crude, points out the Spokane Spokesman-Review. In the development of the automobile and airplane, engineers were reminded that no machine can be perfected until its first theories have been improved on the basis of actual experience. Tragedies and failures are inevitable in creating any mode of transportation. It will be so in interplanetary travel.

Although the present plans may look practicable, undoubtedly there are factors which the inventors do not yet understand. They will not know and try to overcome them until the early theories have bumped into practical difficulties that will appear when flights are attempted.

It would seem rather over-ambitious for man to strive to go elsewhere about the universe until he can learn to put things in better order here on earth.

He has so far been unable to bring about peace between his nations, decent food and housing for all his fellow humans, and widespread adoption of the Golden Rule. Until he can at least accomplish this much, it is presumptuous of him to nose into the business of the other planets.

Present Anscomb Service Makes Cross-Lake Business, Visits Difficult

Sir—With reference to the Nelson Daily News report that the Nelson Board of Trade is endeavoring to get extended ferry service on the Main Lake, as I understand it, to give better service to the great flow of tourists in the Summer, this would in my opinion be a very good thing, and should be a big enough reason for the Provincial Government to take steps to improve the service as soon as possible.

For me, however, there seems to be a still greater reason why there should be a later ferry service in the evening and an earlier ferry service in the morning, and that is to serve the people in the district who the year 'round are depending on the ferry, and who each and every year pay a great deal of money in ferry tolls to the Government. The proposed extended Anscomb ferry service would be appreciated by all the people who live in Nelson and work on the Kootenay Bay side of the lake, and who have to travel on the ferry every weekend. People who have their homes in Nelson and work across the Main Lake have very little time to be with their families because in order to catch the last ferry on Sundays one has to leave Nelson in the early afternoon, and never have a chance to be with the family a whole Sunday, so there is no use to plan to go out with the family, for the ones who have to be back to work on Monday morning. With an earlier and later ferry service, they could leave for work late Sunday night or Monday morning.

For people residing on the Kootenay Bay side of the lake, at present there are also many drawbacks. With the present late ferry starting times, there is little use to go in to Nelson on Saturdays because one would have insufficient time there due to many offices and supply houses, etc., closing at 12 o'clock, and, when one has to leave Nelson early in the afternoon to catch the last ferry, it is difficult to find time to go back and forth in one day. Many at present find it much more convenient to go to Creston, which is much farther away, but when they go there they don't have to rush back to catch a ferry before the stores close, and they can even have time to eat and go and see a show before they go home.

As it now looks, the population is going to increase on the East side of the Main Lake. When they reach the production basis at Riondel, and when they get electric power across the Main Lake, no doubt there will be some other developments of different kinds in the district, so communications should be up to date, which can hardly be said at present, when in order to have any time in Nelson in many cases it takes two days to go in to Nelson from Kootenay Bay and other points along the East side of the lake.

A later and earlier ferry service would not only be a benefit to the people who travel on the ferry regularly, but also to the country as a whole, and it would mean more business for Nelson. The above is probably something that the Board of Trade in Nelson should bear in mind, because I think that money from working people and other people in the district should be just as welcome as money from tourists.

Hoping for an extended ferry service on the Main Lake at the very earliest date.

Mrs. J. N., Erickson—In adjourning a meeting is it necessary to have a seconder?

Yes.

W. T., Penticton—Could you give me a list of classical novels dealing with humble or low-class people, and perhaps having pastoral settings?

Almost any of Thomas Hardy's novels could be placed in this category, Hardy today ranking as a classic. There are, of course, Fielding's "Tom Jones", and Richardson's "Pamela"; Dostoevsky's "Crime and Punishment"; John Galt's "The Ayrshire Legatees" or "The Annals of the Parish"; Sir Walter Scott's "Old Mortality". Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe" could also be included in the list.

H. D. T., Penticton—Kindly give a recipe for making fudge so that sugar will not separate. How can one prevent the sugar from separating?

Two cups sugar, two tablespoons corn syrup, three-quarters cup milk (scant), four dessertspoons cocoa, butter, vanilla. Cook sugar, syrup, milk to good boil, add cocoa, cook till it forms ball in water. Let cool, add butter and vanilla, and beat till it creams. The use of corn syrup will prevent the sugar from separating.

Western Allies Stand Firm on Question of Satellite Armament

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

The firm stand of the Western Allies, in demanding a clarification regarding all the Communist bloc European armaments, is an encouraging development from the popular view point in the democracies.

It is taken as a positive move which confirms the determination of the Western powers not to allow themselves to be pushed about.

It measures up to the general belief that two-fisted firmness towards Bolshevism is the only attitude which pays.

The call for clarification of the Russian armament position comes in connection with the projected four-power meeting. Russia has been insisting that this deal only with disarmament of Western Germany, declaring that Western plans to raise an army in Western Germany were most disturbing to world peace.

This extraordinary proposal drew similar notes from Britain, the United States and France to Moscow, calling for a discussion not only of German armament but that of Russia's East European satellites. These notes coincided with reports by Czechoslovak exiles in Paris that the Soviet bloc was preparing to attack Yugoslavia April 15.

To put the situation on thumbnail, what the Western powers appear trying to do is bring Soviet Russia out into the open as regards her plans for Bolshevist expansion. By the same token, Moscow is taking cover in order to avoid disclosing her hand.

There must be a showdown on this score sooner or later. Without it Moscow will continue her military-economic war of attrition to add to her already vast bloc of Red countries. So we have a right to take encouragement from the new move by the Western powers.

They'll Do It Every Time — By Jimmy Hatlo

Today's Bible Thought

The expectation of a speedy end of the world has induced the same distribution several times in modern history. When the end did not come, individualism had to be restored.—And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all as every man had need.—Luke 2:45.

Aunt Het

The Sports Eye

BY CLIVE FLEMING

There were four extremely proud teen agers last night heading a parade of School curlers around the Civic Centre arena which resounded with the skirl of bagpipes and the spontaneous rounds of applause.

They weren't happy just because they had won the Sifton Cup or the silver cups for the individual curlers. They had represented, not only the proud Saskatchewan in the highest event of Canadian School Curling ,but they had brought honor back to their home city of Saskatoon with them.

Gary Thode and his fellow curlers Roy Hufsmith, Orest Hryniuk, and Gary Cooper made their deliveries magnificently and were well deserving of the honors which they now claim. Saskatoon's ambassadors of sportsmanship put on a great show, and were given a great battle by their neighboring province, Alberta in the fight down to the wire. Alberta's titlists, skipped by Bob Harvey, a great curler, were not finished though, they were forced to play another great representative, Kimberley's foursome skipped by Eric Bisgrove.

They were all great curlers, and they all achieved the prime purpose of the event, to display and increase in great competitive sportsmanship.

Thod was in a jam in several ends as his third Gary Cooper, who had curled magnificently throughout most of the championship, was rather erratic at times, and Bob Harper's foursome often had two or three shot rocks when Thode delivered. Only magnificent shotmaking by Thode saved the day on many ends, as the Saskatoon quartet snuck in for one counter.

Thode made a terrific shot, getting a roll to the button in the first end when Harper was counting three. After he was trailing by three rocks, Harper pulled off a great raise through a two foot port on the last rock of the third.

Thode got a great break in the seventh, after he chipped an Alberta rock and rolled to the four foot circle, bumping another Harper rock. Harper had last rock, with a three end a sure thing by just knocking out Thode's stone, but he missed his shot, letting Thode count one, thereby keeping his lead.

Harper curled beautifully for three in the eighth, but Thode, who seldom misses a draw shot, pulled in for a third counter after he had already two shot rocks.

That left the Saskatchewan rink with a two-rock margin going into the final end. Thode kept just one move ahead of the battling Calgary foursome, and it was all for Bob Harper, skip of the Alberta rink, to draw in for one rock, after trying a near impossible raise.

Today the curlers finish their list of events with a visit to Trail, where they will see the magnificent Cominco Arena, which could be a future site of the same event, and the Cominco plants.

Next year the championship will be played in New Brunswick.

First-place Detroit Red Wings and and second-place Toronto Maple Leafs remained five points apart as Leafs fought from behind a two-goal deficit for a 2-2 National Hockey League tie in the Ontario city Wednesday night.

Zellio Toppazzini's third-period meanwhile gave New York Rangers a 2-2 with Boston Bruins in New York. The tie left the Rangers still one point back of the third-place Bruins in the battle for a playoff spot.

The game settled nothing as far as the race for top goal-tending honors between the two rooky net minders was concerned. Toronto's Al Rollins, who has split much of the net chores with veteran Turk Broda, has a slightly better goals against average than Terry Sawchuk of the Wings but the result left the difference unchanged.

Saskatchewan's Only Loss

British Columbia's representative in the Canadian Schools Curling Championships, Kimberley High School, alone defeated Saskatchewan in the playdowns, trimming the Prairie team 12-8 Tuesday. It was Saskatchewan's first loss in the entire series, for the team swept its own provincial playdowns. Here the Kimberley boys sweep a rock in during the game as anxious Saskatchewan boys watch. Eric Bisgrove, Donald Jarrett, Alvin Peterson and Ralph Shore form the B.C. team, Gary Thode, Gary Cooper, Orest Hryniuk and Roy Hufsmith of Saskatoon Technical Collegiate, the Saskatchewan rink.—Vogue photo.

13th Kootenay Ladies' Spiel Goes on Today

TRAIL, B.C., Feb. 21 — More than 100 women armed with brooms will march on Cominco Arena here today. There's no need for alarm, though: it's the three-day 13th annual Kootenay Ladies' Bonspiel.

Twenty-six rinks from Creston, Cranbrook, Kimberley, Rossland, Nelson, Trail, Salmo and Vancouver will match shots for the Grand Aggregate trophy and six cups. A rink skipped by Mrs. L. Maartman of Kimberley won last year's spiel.

An executive meeting is scheduled for this afternoon and tonight the visiting curlers will be guests of the Trail club.

Kimberley Bird Stars May Go To Quebec Meet

KIMBERLEY, B.C., Feb. 21 — Kimberley High School Curlers, who won the British Columbia title in the 'spiel at Nelson, aren't Kimberley's only champions this Winter.

For their showing in British Columbia Badminton tournaments, High School students Bert Fergus and Carol Stanton have been invited to take part in the Canadian Junior Championships in Quebec next month if they can get support financially in Kimberley.

It is expected that the two badminton stars will make the trip. Efforts to finance the entry are already meeting success.

Flyers Challenge Chatham Maroons

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 21 (AP) —Spokane Flyers, Western International League hockey champions, today issued a challenge to the Chatham, Ont., Maroons in a hope of winning at least a moral victory in a long-standing dispute.

Flyers offered to play a seven-game series next month here or in Ontario.

The dispute arose last year when Spokane defeated New York Rovers in a series they believed would settle the national championship. At the same time, however, another playoff was started in the East and Chatham was the winner.

Since Chatham and Spokane could not agree to terms for a playoff, the Amateur Hockey Association named Spokane the Western champion and Chatham the Eastern titlist.

SPOKANE ARENA ROBBED OF $2000

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 21 (AP) —Burglars who broke into the Spokane ice arena last night took about $2000, gate receipts from the Western International Hockey League all-star game.

Trail to Honor Four "Old Faithfuls" Tonight

TRAIL, B.C., Feb. 21 — One of the season's largest crowds is expected to be on hand Thursday night when the Trail Smoke Eaters wind up their 1950-51 home schedule against Nelson Maple Leafs. The final home ice classic is billed as "Old Faithful Nite" and fans will honor four of Trail's most illustrious hockey sons.

The game will be the second last of the regular season for the Smokies who finished in second place in the Western International Hockey League. Nelson and Trail meet again Saturday in Nelson for their final game.

The presentation of gifts to Trail "Old Faithfuls" Mike Buckna, Ab Cronie, Jimmy Morris and Duke Scodellaro promises to be one of the highlights of the season. The desire of many fans to honor these players has been long-standing and collection of funds for gifts has been going on steadily. Besides getting a chance to show their appreciation for many years of outstanding hockey service by these players, fans may also see them in action once again. Permission has been obtained from the Nelson club to dress the quartet and Trail Coach Bobby Kirk is expected to use them during the game.

Of the four players being honored, Ab Cronie is the only one still in the Smoke Eater lineup. This season, his 17th with the club he has seen action both as a forward and as a defenceman.

Cronie was a member of the famed Smoke Eater team which captured the Allan Cup in 1938 and teamed with Joe Benoit and Bunny Dame in one of Trail's great forward strings. Cronie coached the Smoke Eaters to the B.C. title two years ago.

Also with the 1938 champions were Jimmy Morris and Duke Scodellaro. Morris was a long-time Smokie rearguard and forward and coached the team several years after retiring five years ago. He now is a W.I.H.L. referee.

Probably the top ice personality of the group is goal-tender Duke Scodellaro. His unorthodox style which took him on forays outside his citadel and his high flip shots across the blue line delighted local fans for years and amazed players and fans alike in outside cities. Scodellaro retired from active playing last year and this season is Trail's sub-goalie.

Mike Buckna performed as a forward many seasons and last year was playing-coach. Despite a recurring back injury in recent years, Buckna continued to play his usual aggressive game. Visits to Czechoslovakia interrupted his Smoke Eater service several times. He returned to Trail three years ago after coaching a Czech team.

Buckna retired from senior ranks a year ago and now is playing coach of the Engineering Ironmen of the Smelter Hockey League.

The ceremony will take place between the second and third periods. The four will receive gifts and a cash present.

Kimberley Senior-B and Kid Pucksters Prep for Playoffs

By LARRY RATCLIFFE

KIMBERLEY, B.C., Feb. 21 — This last week must have set some sort of a record in Kimberley for teams representing this city in action. No less than eight hockey games and two basketball contests against other centres highlighted the already sports-crowded early weeks of February.

From Dynamiter right down to Pee Wee, all classifications of hockey either saw action or began strenuous practices. Except for the Dynamiters, the locals won most of their contests, too.

The High School hockey squad, built around the Alberta-British Columbia champion juvenile team and bolstered by a few boys from other grades of hockey, ran wild in their two encounters here with Creston and Cranbrook. After walloping Cranbrook 20-5 in an unusually rough battle Wednesday evening, the Harry Brown-coached locals slammed Creston 20-2 Friday. It was Kimberley's fifth straight victory, without a loss, and it gave Kimberley a scoring average of 14-3.

The Midgets under new coach Eddie Semenzin, continued to work out as did Bantam All-Stars. The Juveniles are taking advantage of every game that comes along to get in shape for what is generally expected to be another banner year. With most of the players on the High School squad, and with several even taking part in the Intermediate contest, Coach Harry Brown is keeping his Champs continually in action, something that was near an impossibility last season.

With the Matthews brothers (brothers of Nelson Leaf Red Matthews) and Pagura still ready to spark the offensive, and with Pelto returning to action on defence, to form the backbone, the Juve coach should be able to offer a more balanced squad than last season. Andy Port, the fellow who starred for Calgary Buffs in a few games, is back.

The Juveniles entered the Commercial League, made up of Cranbrook and several Kimberley Intermediate clubs, and have been taking the rough and speedy brand of hockey of that league in stride.

Intermediate hockey, too, began serious workouts, with Harry Brown, one of the busiest men in town, also handling them when possible. Taking players from the three teams including the Juveniles, the Senior B's drubbed Michel 10-2 here Saturday night.

Bantam and Pee Wee playoffs have already started, and are nearing completion. All-Star games and practices are now holding most of the interest among the youngsters in these two classes. So far the Pee Wees All-Star outfit have won two games, downing Cranbrook 3-1 at Cranbrook, and then returning home to whitewash them 4-0. The Bantams have seen action only once, against the Cranbrook Midgets at Cranbrook, where the bigger Cranbrook crew outclassed them 5-2.

Kilburn Holds 3-Point Lead

REGINA, Feb. 21 (CP)—Bidding for his second consecutive league scoring title, Edmonton's Colin Kilburn maintained a three-point lead in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League scoring lists.

Howe, Abel Still Lead Scorers

MONTREAL, Feb. 21 (CP)—With interest split between the Detroit-Toronto battle for top National Hockey League honors and a three-way contest for third and fourth playoff spots, the results of last week's games may have set the pattern for the remaining five weeks of play.

The official statistics of the league showed Red Wings and Leafs far enough ahead of the pack that their only worry appeared to be which would finish on top.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Market Trends

NEW YORK, Feb. 21 (AP) — Only a modest volume of business was generated by rising prices.

Gains and losses spread out around $2 either way, but plus signs predominated.

Canadian issues gained with McIntyre climbing 1, and International Nickel ½ while Canadian Pacific, Dome Mines, Hiram Walker and Distillers Seagrams each were unchanged.

TORONTO (CP) — Prices advanced strongly. Trading was moderately active and volume was about 1,850,000 shares.

Industrial advances ranged to more than a point with steels and papers chalking up the greatest number of issues ahead.

Agricultures, utilities, foods, refining oils, retail stores and manufacturing companies showed a majority of gains. Constructions, liquors, textiles and banks were mixed.

Canada Cement was an industrial standout as it jumped about $2.50. Base metals climbed slowly with small advances. East Sullivan, Falconbridge, International Nickel, Labrador, Noranda, Steep Rock, Waite Amulet and Pend Ore were lead issues higher. Consolidated Smelters eased.

MONTREAL (CP) — Securities pushed steadily higher as the session progressed in slow trading.

The industrials rose over a wide front in a follow-up to Tuesday's late-hour rally and gains ranged to as much as four points in one case.

Consolidated Smelters led an otherwise fractionally higher senior metal group with a two point jump to 145. A small list of senior oils and banks were steady to a trifle firmer.

Mines also moved into higher price ground, but Western oils were narrowly mixed.

LONDON (Reuters) — Caution and a generally easier trend was apparent in London. Markets remained under the influence of labor troubles in the railway, dock and engineering trades.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Trading was fairly active as oils and metals were firmer and golds remained steady.

In base metals, Pend Oreille was up .10 to 8.90 and Silver Standard was up .02 to 2.72.

Calgary Livestock

CALGARY, Feb. 21 (CP)—Trade was fairly active on the Calgary livestock market today, though offerings continued to increase. Good butcher steers were steady, but butcher heifers were weaker in spots and no strictly choice kinds were available. Cows were steady to weak, bulls strong to 50 cents higher.

All classes of stocker and feeder cattle were in keen demand at steady to strong prices. Good stock calves were strong to 50 cents higher and veal calves fully steady. One, strictly choice vealer sold Tuesday at $40.25. On offer were 837 cattle and calves.

Noted Australian Entertainer Here

Undoubtedly one of the most interesting personalities ever to visit the Kootenays is the Australian stage, screen, radio and recording star, Tex Morton.

"Tex", gets his nickname, not from Texas, U.S.A., but from the district of Texas, New South Wales, Australia, where he has his Winter headquarters for his huge rodeo and Australian circus.

Starting his studies of hypnotism in 1932, while he was a psychology student, he in turn has been a professional kangaroo shooter, rodeo rider, circus performer, sailor, professor, lecturer and yodeller.

In 1935 he was discovered by the Columbia Record Co., and has since then been the Australian "King of the Cowboys", being one singing cowboy who has actually won several firsts and seconds in rodeo championships.

He is recognized as one of the finest hypnotists in the world today, holding a Ph.D. in psychology and a B.A. in psychosomatic medicine. He has also written several widely-read books on the subject of hypnotism.

Robert Morton prides himself on his clean and wholesome entertainment and having seen the comment of the Press of South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, we can state he has broken all attendance records for 14 years, since the amazingly successful tour of Sir Harry Lauder.

Prof. Morton was born in Nelson, New Zealand, and has been looking forward to visiting Nelson, B.C., so he can, as he says "send a telegram to my mother and our local Chamber of Commerce, just for fun from Nelson to Nelson."

Generally speaking a lot of people have the mistaken idea that all hypnotists are of the "Svengali" type of person, whereas says Dr. Morton, usually the best hypnotists are quite unobtrusive in manner, merely making the "suggestions" while the subject or patient, must of course, do the actual relaxing and take instruction from the operator or hypnotist.

A local person will be hypnotized by Morton and placed in a local shop window to sleep for several days and nights until awakened on the stage. Persons can sleep quite safely for periods up to 14 days in an hypnotic trance and when awakened feel wonderfully refreshed and relaxed. ***

London Dockers Back for Week

LONDON, Feb. 21 (Reuters) — Dock workers in London, Liverpool, and Glasgow, who stopped work yesterday when seven dock workers leaders appeared at a London police court charged with inciting wildcat strikes, went back to work today.

Authorities at the three docks described the situation as normal.

Last night the strikers voted to return to work but to come out next Tuesday when the seven men appear before the court again.

Bevan's Speech Pleases House

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Feb. 21 (CP)—Correspondents who started to write the political obituary of Aneurin (Nye) Bevan can put their notes back in the bottom drawer, labelled "hold indefinitely."

Sick as he seemed a couple of months ago, Britain's new Labor Minister now is definitely restored to his usual robust health. Once again Nye ranks close behind Prime Minister Attlee and Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison as the Labor party's top personality.

The change has been wrought largely by a single speech. Last week Bevan stood up in the House of Commons without a note and delivered an address which even the Conservative press applauded. Praise came unexpectedly, too, from Winston Churchill, long Bevan's arch-rival.

As in all Bevan's speeches, it wasn't so much what he said as the way he said it. He also contrived to speak refreshingly on a topic which usually depresses orators—Russia. Somehow he made the Soviet colossus seem less dreadful than people imagine.

"I do not believe that a nation, however large its manpower, coldly contemplates launching 25,000,000 tons of steel per annum against the combination of 140,000,000 tons per annum," Bevan said.

At another point: "One has only to read a Communist thesis today to see that it has not changed in the 100 years since Karl Marx wrote it, and I am a considerable student of Karl Marx."

This blunt speaking from the man generally accepted as the leader of Labor's left wing (excluding the pacifist elements) was welcomed by most newspapers. Although Bevan has never belonged to the group of apologists for Russia, most people were glad to have him reaffirm his position.

The reception accorded Bevan's latest Parliamentary effort contrasts strangely with the way political pundits were talking before he switched from the Health Ministry to replace George Isaacs as Labor Minister.

Emergency State For New Zealand

WELLAND, N.Z., Feb. 21 (Reuters)—Prime Minister Sidney G. Holland announced tonight that the Government has declared a state of national emergency because of the Dominion's dock strike.

All ports in the country were still idle today. The strike began Sunday, waterside workers demanding a pay increase of from 4s 3d. to six shillings (60 to 84 cents) an hour.

The employers have refused to pay more than four shillings an hour.

The Government yesterday suspended the Waterfront Industry Commission, which guarantees the dock workers privileges such as an assured weekly wage, after the men had defied a government order to resume.

Eisenhower Takes Over Command

PARIS, Feb. 21 (AP) — Gen. Eisenhower arrived today in Paris to assume command of his Atlantic Pact army.

He and his party flew here from Cherbourg, where they had landed earlier from the Liner Queen Elizabeth. They were met by members of his staff and left immediately by car for Eisenhower's residence at Versailles.

Soviet Flags at Peace Meeting

BERLIN, Feb. 21 (AP) — The "World Peace Council," opening a three-day session in East Berlin, today called on world Communism to oppose rearming of West Germany and Japan.

The pro-Kremlin Council, summoned from far and wide, set up committees to draft resolutions pinpointing the Soviet-inspired aims of keeping the former Axis partners defenceless.

The politics to be adopted by the Council before Saturday night will amount to gospel for Communist followers throughout the world.

In a huge Soviet-sector hall decked with Red flags, the Council opened its public sessions shortly before noon today with Pietro Nenni of Italy in the chair.

On the rostrum were such international figures as Dr. Hewlett Johnson, "Red Dean" of Canterbury; Ilya Ehrenburg, top Soviet journalist, Jean Lafitte of France and Professor Kuo Mo Jo, President of Communist China's "Peace Committee."

Troubles Never Come Singly to Mothers

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Feb. 21 (AP)—When Virginia Sue Bailey, 2, tumbled from a stool in her home and broke her thumb a chain reaction set in. Her mother, Mrs. Herbert M. Bailey, started to take her to hospital. A brother, Ronald Lee, 4, ran to open a door and bumped into the glass, cutting his face. Mrs. Bailey made her way to the hospital with the two children. As she was ascending the steps she slipped and fell, fracturing an ankle. Hospital employees gathered up the three Baileys, took them inside and treated them.

Gardiner, Webb Continue Talks

LONDON, Feb. 21 (CP) — Agriculture Minister Gardiner of Canada today continued discussions on the Anglo-Canadian Wheat Pact with Food Minister Maurice Webb

Gardiner yesterday met Hugh Gaitskell, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to open talks for an adjustment of the price paid by Britain for wheat supplied under the four-year agreement begun in 1946.

R. H. S. Turns Down Kamloops Request

LONDON, Feb. 21 (CP) — If Canada wants a national horticultural society it will have to be a home-grown variety.

Otherwise it won't have the blessing of Britain's Royal Horticultural Society, an august body which started in 1804 and now has about 39,000 members.

The British society, secretary C. V. L. Lycett said today, has decided to turn down a proposal from a member in Kamloops, B.C., John Pinder-Moss. Under the Pinder-Moss plan, the British Society would establish a branch to be known as the "Royal Horticultural Society's Canadian Institute."

Lycett said the suggestion found no support here simply because Canada is too big.
