Masked Gunmen Rob Aga Khan, Wife of $800,000 in Jewels

Moslem Ruler on Way to Visit Aly, Rita at Time; Third Major Theft in France in Two Days

CANNES, France, Aug. 3 (AP)—The Aga Khan's wife said today that four bandits robbed her and her husband of jewels and money worth up to £200,000 ($800,000) Only $800 of the loot was in cash

The theft occurred at noon as the Aga Khan and the Begum, with a maid and a chauffeur, left their Riviera villa to visit their son, the Aly, and daughter-in-law, Rita Hayworth, at Deauville.

The Begum said four shabbily dressed men, speaking with Spanish or Italian accent and carrying tommy guns, got away with one 25 carat diamond worth 25,000,000 francs.

"We gave them three large hand bags that were in the car," said the Begum, whose husband is one of the worlds richest men.

She said the bags contained their passports and plane tickets for Deauville.

OFFER REWARDS

The Begum said that she and her husband were offering 5,000,000 francs to anyone who would identify the bandits.

She said the bandits didnt take some less costly jewelry she was wearing.

The four slashed the tires on the Aga Khan's car before fleeing.

The value of the stolen jewelry was first estimated by the Begum at 150,000,000 francs (about $450,000). The Aga Khan, one of the world's richest men, later said it was worth from £150,000 to £200,000 and was insured up to the full value of £200,000.

THIRD LOOTING

The robbery was the third major theft in France in two days.

Tuesday in Deauville, an armed band of four masked men held up the jewelry store of Van Cleef and Arpels and escaped with $320,000 worth of gems.

At Aix-en-Provence, Thursday, messengers of the Bank of France lost 25,000,000 francs in another armed robbery.

The men, who had been waiting in a black automobile, approached the car, holding their guns menacingly and said:

"Keep quiet. Don't make any noise. Hand over those bags and there wont be any trouble."

CANNES, France, Aug. 3 (AP)—Rita Hayworth's mother-in-law said today "there may be an announcement in a few days" concerning reports that the Aly Khan's bride is expecting a baby.

Chinese Reds Reaction to Amethyst Escape Believed Compiled Inexpertly

By JAMES D. WHITE
Associated Press News Analyst
(For Dewitt Mackenzie)

Simple rage—on the local and semi-official level—is the first reaction of the Chinese Communists to the escape of the British sloop Amethyst.

This reaction is going to be worth watching because it may disclose the true temper of the Chinese Reds over an issue that involves their pride and their future policy.

Their first reaction points, but strikes no hammer blow. It shows signs of having been compiled hastily and none too expertly. It was a broadcast by the Peiping Radio, heard in San Francisco by the Associated Press.

There were two separate items. The first was a "news story" from Nanking by the Communist New China News Agency, giving the Red version (and it's a lulu) of the Amethyst's dramatic escape. The second is the Agency's own comment.

The account attributes everything to a Gen. Yuan Chung-Hsien, who is not identified in what appears to be haste of writing. Later, in the commentary, the Agency names Yuan as the "Commander of the People's Liberation Army at the Chinkiang front."

The Amethyst, he says, forced a passing steamer, the Kiangling, to serve as a shield as she started her "infamous" escape. The Amethyst then sank her, as well as a number of junks trying to rescue survivors in the water. Several hundred were drowned, says Yuan, who also charges that British Naval negotiations for the Amethyst's release were merely to stall for the time while sre prepared to escape.

"Categorically denied," is the terse comment from the London Admiralty to this whole account.

Yuan is quoted as concluding: "I firmly believe that the People's Liberation Army and people of the whole country will never forget to avenge those sacrificed. They will never forget and pardon . . ."

He demands punishment, apology and compensation from the British.

The Agency's commentary is along the same line.

Such language, in both items, is threatening but only vaguely so. It might merit serious concern if written in less obvious haste and anger, and in the coherent English which the Peiping Radio usually displays.

Lad Recovering After Swallowing 23 Sleeping Pills

OMAHA, Aug. 3 (AP)—A seven-year-old boy, unconscious and near death some 36 hours after swallowing 33½ grains of sedative, awakened today.

Jubilant nurses reported he cried out in his first real sign of consciousness when a hypodermic needle was being inserted in his arm. Bit by bit consciousness returned. Soon he was complaining of being hungry.

The boy, Trevis Wissenburg, had been near death in a drugged sleep since Monday when he gulped down 23 sleeping pills.

The troops started working the surface or open-cut mines Tuesday.

The strike of 23,000 coal miners, now in its sixth week, is over wages and hours. The miners are asking a 15-per-cent wage increase and a reduction of the work week from 40 hours to 35.

Just Another Nudist

DENVER, Aug. 3 (AP) — They caught a pepping tom at the nudist camp near Tiny Town.

The penalty? The peeper had to strip off his clothing and play volley ball.

After his capture yesterday, he had muttered, "What's my wife going to say?" But five minutes later he was just another nudist.

Officials of the American Sunbathing Association holding their national convention in a secluded mountain setting, said numerous peeping toms have been sighted skulking in the trees, but this was the first one caught.

He was armed with a three-foot telescope.

U.S. Offers Subsidy For Export Wheat

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3 (AP). — The United States Government today is offering a subsidy ranging from 23 to 34 cents a bushel on wheat bought for export under the international wheat agreement which went into effect Monday.

Drafted early this year by 44 wheat exporting and importing countries, the agreement is designed to stabilize world markets and supplies. It seeks to do this by dividing the export market among surplus-producing countries and by maintaining a schedule of maximum and minimum prices in the world markets.

Canada is the largest of the exporting countries with an annual share of 203,069,635 bushels of the 454,000,000-bushel annual alloted world market. The United States share is 168,000,000 bushels a year.

PALESTINIES TAKING SHAPE DEFENCE PLANS

Size, Type of Force, U.S. Aid Discussed By Military Chiefs

DEMONSTRATION

By HAROLD K. MILKS

LONDON, Aug. 3 (AP) — Plans for defending the Atlantic-pact countries of Western Europe took form today at the first conference of top-level British and American commanders here since the end of the war.

*Following a closely guarded, four-*hour conference, Admiral Louis E. Denfeld, United States Chief of Naval Operations, said the completion of a defence setup under the North Atlantic Treaty "might be done before the end of the year."

Denfeld reported "considerable progress" by the joint chiefs of staff of the two countries.

The Americans flew here last night after talks in Germany with Italian and Luxembourg military chiefs and United States occupation commanders. They will see Danish and Norwegian armed forces leaders here tomorrow, then proceed to Paris for talks with the French, Belgians, Dutch and Portuguese.

TWO PROBLEMS

Details of today's discussions at the British Cabinet offices in Whitehall were not disclosed.

It was known, however, that they centred on two problems:

1. The type and size of land, sea and air forces necessary to keep the peace in Europe against any threat of Communist aggression.

2. The extent of financial and military aid necessary from the United States—and to a lesser extent from Britain—to insure the creation of such forces.

PARIS, Aug. 3 (Reuters) — Paris district committees of the Communist-led Confederation Generale Du Travail tonight decided to defy a police ban and call on workers to demonstrate Friday against the visit of the United States joint chiefs-of-staff.

PRAGUE, Aug. 3 (Reuters) — About 12 of Czechoslovakia's 4500 priests have been excommunicated for supporting the Government sponsored Catholic Action Committees, a church authority said today.

Despite Government threats and Communists pressure, priests were almost unanimously supporting the Bishops in their stand against the state, the authority told a reporter.

The informant made this service after the Communist newspaper Rude Pravo today reported a case of a priest being excommunicated for associating with a Catholic Action Committee.

"GOV'T OF CANADA" SWITCHBOARD ANSWER

OTTAWA, Aug. 3 (CP)—Government switchboard operators now answer "Government of Canada" instead of "Dominion of Canada" when calls come through 2-8211, which connects most branches of the Government.

The change, ordered by the Finance Department, which has jurisdiction over the Government's telephone service, took effect at the end of last month when a new telephone directory was issued.

The directory lists Government numbers under "Government of Canada" instead of "Dominion of Canada."

B.C. Business Holds To Record Pace

High-Priced, Luxury Goods Out With Buyers, 2000 More Jobless, Yet Quantity Buying Maintained

VICTORIA, Aug. 3 (CP)—Trade and industry officials of the Provincial Government paint a rosy picture of business activity prospects even though there has been a drop in construction, some retail businesses, wholesale sales, life insurance sales, and employment figures in the province.

"Contrary to development in the United States where business activity is gradually declining, business activity in British Columbia continues to increase or at least maintain the all time high level established during 1948," it is stated in the June edition of the magazine Business Activity, published by the Bureau of Economics and Statistics.

AVOID HIGH PRICES

"It would seem," the publication states, "that people are still buying in large quantities but are not buying luxury or higher priced goods."

Value of imports and exports were running ahead of the 1948 figures.

But the employment index was down with more than 2000 more people receiving social assistance now than at the same time last year.

There were some groups where employment was up, however. They included trade, communication, transportation, mining and construction.

Lions Club Gives Modern Life Saving Equipment to Nelson Fire Department

A donation from Nelson Lions Club to citizens of Nelson District will almost certainly mean the saving of lives.

Modern life saving equipment worth $500 is being given to Nelson Fire Department to replace its present apparatus which is 14 years old.

*The machine is a resuscitator, in*halator and aspirator rolled into one. Inhalation only can be given with the present equipment, artificial respiration having to be applied by the hand method.

The equipment is available for any failure of breathing or of the respiratory system. It will be on call for cases of drowning, heart seizure, electric shock, suffocation, carbon monoxide poisoning and so on.

As Fire Chief G. A. McDonald explained: "A fire department's first duty is lifes aving; its second, the saving of property."

The resuscitator provides mechanical artificial respiration during complete respiratory failure by gently inflating and deflating the patient's lungs with positive and negative pressures. In other words, it forces the air in and out.

When the patient begins to breathe, he obtains oxygen from the inhalator bag. The depth and rate of breathing are thus visible to the operator and at no time is there any question as to whether or not he is responding to the inhalator treatment.

The aspirator may be used to clear the air passages of obstructions to the breathing such as mucus. The equipment will warn if there are obstructions by a clicking sound.

The two oxygen tanks contain 1800 pounds a square inch of 93 per cent oxygen and 7 per cent carbon dioxide. Pressure is reduced to four ounces when the mixture is entering the lungs.

MORE WAYS OF TREATMENT

Fire Chief McDonald explained that the new equipment offers more ways of treating the patients. For instance, where a patient has broken ribs, treatment can be given without the exertion of body pressure.

One man can operate the machine, whereas two were required with the present equipment, one to apply the inhalator and the other to apply artificial respiration. To handle shock, however, two men will still be required.

There is even an improvement in the breathing face pieces over the present equipment. There are two sizes of face pieces, fitting newborn babies right up to adults. There is only one size in the existing equipment.

Fire Chief McDonald had high praise for Nelson Lions Club in donating the equipment to a civic department as a free public service.

The donation was the outcome of on of a number of talks on Fire Department function and equipment which Chief McDonald has been giving the service clubs.

Presentation will be made to the Fire Department through Mayor T. H. Waters and City Council Monda night. Several members of the Lions Club will also be on hand.

The present life saving equipment will not be abandoned, however. It will be used as auxiliary apparatus.

Life saving equipment is brought into action in Nelson District on an average of six times a year. Then there are calls from Kootenay Lake General Hospital.

SAYS WOMEN INDIRECTLY TO BLAME FOR DEATH

VANCOUVER, Aug. 3 (CP). — Two women were described in police court today as "indirectly responsible" for the death of a young man who was killed in a street fight July 9.

Magistrate Mackenzie Matheson dismissed a charge of manslaughter against two men, charged in the death of Archie MacDonald, 26, formerly of Greencourt, Alta.

McDonald, who moved to nearby New Westminster about three years ago, died of injuries suffered in a fight over who would take two women to their homes after a drinking party.

Charged with manslaughter were Maurice Beaudry, 36, of Vancouver, and Robert R. Smith, 17, of nearby Coquitlam.

Said Magistrate Matheson: "The two women (Mrs. Stella Evers and Mrs. Anna Pender) who appeared in this case do not come out of this sorid matter in a very good light. They allowed themselves to be picked up by a total stranger and went drinking and riding with him.

"They are, in a sense, indirectly responsible for the death of this young man."

Fifth Murder Rocks Jittery Toronto

Wife of Earlier Victim Found Shot to Death as Citizens, Police Spur Search for Killers

TORONTO, Aug. 3 (CP)—A hunt for two trigger-mad killers reached fever pitch in this jittery city of 700,000 tonight after Mrs. Gloria McKay was found slain—Toronto's fifth murder victim in a week.

Beaten and shot, the body of Mrs. McKay, 23, was found on the floor of her automobile behind the front seat less than 24 hours after the discovery of the bullet-riddled body of her husband, Robert, 25.

Police, conducting the most intense manhunt in Toronto's history, could find no motive for either killing. They said the pretty young woman had not been violated.

Police said tonight they were told that the couple visited an all-night restaurant in Bradford, 40 miles North of here, with a man about 22 years old. Three men and a woman at Bradford identified photographs of the McKays and said a man of medium height accompanied the couple.

It was announced officially that the revolver used to kill the McKays was not the weapon which killed Alfred Layng during a groceteria robbery Saturday.

DOG DRAWS ATTENTION

Barking of the McKay dog beside the car attracted attention to the West-Central Christie Street parking lot where the killer left the vehicle. The lot is less than two miles from the suburban North York gully where a workman stumbled over the body of her husband yesterday.

Here are the other slayings:

Alfred Layng, 25, killed by an armed gunman before the horrified eyes of his wife and little daughter Saturday. No arrest in the case.

Leslie Hern, 38, dining car steward, beaten to death, July 27.

Arthur Wickert, 38, department store employee, shot to death July 27.

Two men are under arrest, charged separately with murder in the Hern and Wickert killings.

A naroused citizenry turned in hundreds of reports to police tonight in the wake of the slayings, spurred by a $2000 reward in the Layng case and the threat to public safety from armed killers on the loose.

Robbery was discounted as a motive in the case of the McKays. A wallet containing money was found on the front seat of the car and jewelry on Mrs. McKay's body was undisturbed.

CHARGED

Suspects in two other slayings last week were scheduled to appear in court later this week on charges of murder. Harvey E. Southerby, 21, formerly of Windsor, Ont., was arrested for the bludgeon-slaying July 27 of Hern. In Wickert's slaying, his borther-in-law, Philip Gendron, 27, has been charged.

Mayor Hiram McCallum has called a special Police Commission meeting for tomorrow to consider the unprecedented series of brutal killings. He said the slayings "point up the necessity for development of some metropolitan police scheme."

CORNWALL, Ont., Aug. 3 (CP) —A general alarm was sent out to all police cars in the Cornwall area tonight following reports that a man answering the description of the slayer of Alfred Layng had been seen here.

WILL NEVER GIVE UP, SAYS MINNIE MAY

To Again Carry Fight for Kaslo Mine to London

HAS BUYER

LONDON, Aug. 3 (AP).—A gray-haired little lady, her blue eyes flashing, vowed today she would "never give up" her long legal fight to regain possession of a silver, lead and zinc mining property near Kaslo, B.C.

Mrs. Minnie M. May of Thompson Falls, Mont., was angered by a newspaper clipping sent to her from the United States, quoted her as saying "I suppose I'm finished now" after the Privy Council had turned down her latest appeal in June.

She plans to return to the United States soon, Mrs. May said, but in the Fall she will come back to London to petition the Privy Council once again to grant her plea.

COULD SELL

The mine involved is a 265-acre tract about 12 miles from Kaslo. Mrs. May values it at "more than $1,000,000." She said she had a buyer for it if it ever gets out of the courts.

She said she and her husband, David Kind May, bought it in 1916, but lost it in a stockholders' action in 1922. She said the property was taken in a sheriff's sale when stockholders obtained a judgment in that year. Subsequent legal actions, she said, have been based on her contention that the judgment was obtained illegally.

A new company, the Daybreak Mining Company, headed by Joseph Roberts of Portland, Ore., was formed. The Daybreak Mine went into bankruptcy in 1928 and it is the hold on the property of the trustee, Hyland Hartin, that Mrs. May is trying to break.

FOR ANOTHER 33 YEARS

The contest left a trail through the highest courts of the State of Oregon, British Columbia and Canada's Supreme Court and finally reached the Privy Council early this year. Twice the determined American woman went before that august tribunal and both times she went out defeated but not dejected.

Mrs. May said her husband has been an invalid and unable to help her for many years. But she said she is ready to continue the fight "for another 33 years if necessary" to win her claim.

An Interstate Commerce Commission examiner recommended new fares for the ferry, which runs from New York City to Weehawken, N.J.

Among the suggested changes:

Elephants, who have been riding for $1.40, would have to pay $2.80. Not in peanuts, either.

TOLEDO, O., Aug. 3 (AP)—When car brakes screeched in front of Mrs. Herbert McManus' suburban home last night, she rushed to the window expecting to see a near-wreck. Instead she saw two men push two women inside a car trunk, close the lid and drive off at a high rate of speed.

Mrs. McManus called to her husband: "Quick there's a kidnapping out front and I've got their license number. Follow them in your car while I call the sheriff's office."

While McManus gave chase, his wife touched off a three-county road-blockade by city, county and state police.

A little later Mrs. McManus called the sheriff's office back.

"Herbert got them," she said. "The men pulled into a drive-in theatre, bought two 60-cent tickets and drove inside. Herbert saw them unlock the trunk. Then the women got out and sat down in the back seat to watch the movie."

BUTLER, Pa., Aug. 3 (AP)—Things are going to be a lot brighter in Butler Township.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 3 (AP)—A reporter and photographer from the Denver Post had to take off their clothing to get pictures and a story of the nudists' conference near here.

Neither Dave Mathias nor his companion, reporter Blaine Littell, wanted to return to the office empty-handed. So they obeyed orders to strip.

Little's account of the incident:

"They let us keep on our shoes and socks. They told us to tuck our matches and cigarets in our socks.

"Following directions we disrobed in the men's dormitory. Minutes later we emerged, Mathias cowering behind his speed graphic camera and this reporter fluttering his note paper like a fan dancer.

"The first moment was like one of those dreams in which you lose your pants on a crowded streetcar . . . after that it was a cinch. Nothing to it. All you miss are pockets."

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Payne of Billings, Montana, Mrs. Payne's mother, Mrs. Gertie Saunders, and Mrs. Sabre Palmer of Roanok, Virginia were the occupants of the car which was hit by a former weapons carrier belonging to Standard Gravel Company. Mr. Payne was the driver of the auto.

All three women suffered multiple bruises and shock and Mrs. Payne had a shoulder injury. Mr. Payne also had some injuries but was not hospitalized.

The car was travelling from Banff to Radium and the Standard Gravel vehicle was coming from Radium when the collision occurred on a level stretch of road. Apparently the carrier hit washboard and bounced and was out of control when it met the car, cutting through the fenders and radiator of the almost new car. Damage is estimated at about $2500.

100 REGISTER AT CITY TOURIST PARK IN MONTH

City Tourist Park has been much-frequented in the last month by holidayers from the United States, British Columbia and the Prairies.

About 100 visitors have pitched tents or parked trailers at the High Street park since the beginning of July. Thirty-two have signed in since July 20.

Hunting Kootenay Indian Relics
Fun Aplenty to Nelson Couple

Take it from Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gigot of Nelson, collecting Indian relics is fun.

The Gigots, who started the hobby about six years ago, have an interesting assortment of stone implements, fashioned almost entirely by the Kootenay Indians, that they have picked up on jaunts or hunting and fishing trips.

Searching along banks or beaches for remnants of the days before the white man invaded West Kootenay is a pleasant diversion for the couple.

The relic hunters have found over 600 arrowheads, of which they have kept a number of fine specimens. Only about one of every 10 they find is worth keeping from viewpoints of workmanship and material.

Arrowheads are most common, but the Gigots have also retrieved thumb scrapers, used for working bone, wood and hides; awls or drills, arrow shaft scrapers, hide scrapers, small spear heads, pestles, fish sinkers, canoe anchors, hammerheads and war club heads.

Then there are some Indian tools that they don't know the purpose of, although they have surmised what their use might have been.

Flints for the arrowheads, which average more than an inch in length, apparently came from Montana or some other region beyond the Kootenay. The Kootenay Indians were accustomed to move to neighboring territory to trade.

There are about five types of arrowheads used by the Kootenay Indians, varying in size, shape and color. The willow leaf arrowhead is the oldest known style.

Their color may range from black to white and orange to a colorless, transparent flint. Except for particularly weather-beaten specimens, they exhibit marks of chipping and are highly polished and keen-edged.

Most of the Gigots blade instrument finds are extremely sharp. Serrated edges gave the weapons and implements their cutting powers.

PRIZED TROPHIES

Among their prize possessions are two hammerheads of almost identical size and design which were discovered in widely separated parts of the Kootenay. They may be used as bookends.

The Gigots endeavor to obtain the best in workmanship in the relics, and unbroken specimens. They have given scores of arrowheads to friends and to Nelson Boy Scouts, as well as other items.

A sharp eye for spotting the relics has been developed by both Mr. and Mrs. Gigot, although "roll specimens," ones which the movements of nature have defaced until they are hardly recognizable, may deceive them.

Easiest places to find the weapons and tools are along waterways and logical camping places. Chips of flint or granite will often lead the collectors to the objects.

It is their ambition, however, to locate a grave, as it was the Indians custom to bury weapons of the chase with their warriors and various utensils with their women.

FLOOD BARES GRAVES

Several graves were dug up on the island in the South Slocan pool, well known fishing spot, it is said. A number were also washed out under the highway at Castlegar with high water a short while ago.

There are graves throughout Castlegar, Brilliant and South Slocan, the Gigots understand, and they suspect there are some in the Nelson area. Just where they do not know.

However, the Gigots have come upon what they believe to be caches containing arrowheads and lead. The lead indicates that the Indian-cacher had been in contact with the white man and was using the metal for muzzle-loading rifles.

The Gigots have their "finds" neatly classified in drawers and on shelves at their home at 1405 Front Street.

Besides picking up Indian relics, on their hikes, the Gigots may also carry home rare woods or other unusual outcroppings of nature. Mr. Gigot also collects firearms, and makes his own cartridges and bullets for the out-of-date models.

However, the Gigots derive a good deal of amusement and interest solely from hunting for historical pieces o fthe Indian life which a layman might never spot.

Officer Says Accused Told of Wife's Pleas Not To Shoot Boss

EDMONTON, Aug. 3 (CP).—Evidence that the wife of Wilfred Nowell, 45, charged with the fatal shooting of his former employer, Thomas Law, in an argument over $20, had pleaded with her husband not to shoot, was given at the preliminary hearing of a murder charge against Nowell.

Det. Sgt. J. E. Peterson said Nowell had given him a verbal statement to this effect after he was arrested by police carrying drawn guns at the scene of the slaying in Law's downtown office. Nowell, accompanied by his wife, had gone to collect his pay after being fired.

"If Tommy (Mr. Law) had only quit arguing when he saw the gun, it never would have happened," Det. Sgt. Peterson quoted Nowell as saying.

Made Good on 50-50 Chance

HONG KONG, Aug. 3 (CP).—Lt.-Cmdr. John S. Kerans, Captain of the Royal Navy sloop Amethyst on its flight down the Yangtze River from Chinese Communists, said today he gave himself a 50-50 chance when he decided to run the gauntlet of Red shore batteries.

Kerans said he had tried fruitlessly for weeks to have the Chinese Communists release the ship. The 1400-ton sloop was held on the Yangtze River midway between Nanking and Shanghai after a battle in mid-April which resulted in the death of the ship's Captain and 17 crew members.

Communist radio charges that the Amethyst had fired on a Chinese passenger steamer during her escape last Saturday night were denied by Kerans.

He said when the Communists began firing, soon after the Amethyst started downstream behind a Chinese passenger steamer, some passengers might have become panicky, jumped into the water and been drowned.

"There was no possibility that I hit the passenger steamer," he added. "When I fired at the Communist batteries, it was in self-defence and only as a last resort."

Upward Climb in Rents Expected In Cost-of-Living

OTTAWA, Aug. 3 (CP) — That unpredictable price barometer, the Government's cost-of-living index, is expected to show at least one major change when it makes its monthly appearance tomorrow.

The rent factor, which makes up 19 per cent of the total index, likely will show an upward climb. But it is not known what this will do to the index as a whole.

Currently the index, calculated on the basis that 1935-39 prices equal 100, stands at an all-time high of 160.5, advancing a full point during May.

However, when the June 1 index showed no change in the rent factor, this sub-index remained at the May level of 122.4. The Bureau of Statistics which compiles the report, said it was collecting June rent survey results and incorporating them in the July 2 index.

Although the Bureau takes some 65,000 price quotations into consideration in making up the index each month, it considers rental quotations on a quarterly basis only.

It is generally conceded with the gradual elimination of rental controls and the continuing tight housing situation across the country, the rental sub-index may fluctuate sharply from month to month until the situation is eased.

The index actually is broken down into six parts. When it advanced a full point between May and June to the all-time high, it was the food sub-index that was instrumental in causing the rise.

Food is the most important factor in price calculations, making up 31 per cent of the total index. Caused mostly by high American prices, this sub-index climbed 3.4 points to 202.9.

Bearing heavily on the index, too, is the miscellaneous sub-index which makes up 23 per cent of the total. At June 1 it showed no change over its May 2 standing of 128.4 and it appeared to have a steadying influence over the barometer's movements.

Sought Admittance To Charges of Invasion From Amethyst Crew

HONG KONG, Aug. 3 (Reuters)—Lt.-Cmdr. John S. Kerans, Captain of the Royal Navy sloop Amethyst, said today the Chinese Communists had tried to force the British Government, through himself, to admit to charges of invasion and infringement of sovereignty, and to agree to make an apology and pay compensation.

He brought his ship to this British Colony early today after running her past Chinese Communist gunfire from the banks of the Yangtze where she had been marooned after being crippled on her way to Nanking.

Telling his story of the three-month "siege," Kerans said the Communists had made their demands the prerequisite for a safe conduct down the Yangtze.

Kerans said the Communists treated him with formal courtesy. But Col. Kank Ma-Chao, with whom he negotiated, was "prevaricating, vacillating, and constantly making my life difficult."

Kerans said his decision to attempt an escape was influenced by the Amethyst's dwindling fuel and food supply.

The Amethyst was given the biggest reception ever seen in Hong Kong when she tied up in the Royal Navy dockyard.

End Plan for Breaking Up Japanese Economic Giants

By O. H. P. KING

TOKYO, Aug. 3 (AP)—General Douglas MacArthur's controversial program for breaking up Japan's economic giants ended today. The allied occupation commander said it was "accomplished effectively."

Eleven big corporations were tagged for deconcentration by a five-man review board which came here from Washington 15 months ago to make recommendations on 325 firms listed as "excessive concentrations." The board recommended divestment of certain holdings for nine others.

CANADA FULFILS WHEAT PACT WITH U. K. FOR 1948-49

OTTAWA, Aug. 3 (CP) — The Canada-United Kingdom Wheat Agreement for the 1948-49 crop year have been fully carried out, Trade Minister Howe announced today.

The crop year which ended July 31 called for the shipment of 140,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat to the United Kingdom at a price of $2 a bushel.

"Final transactions to complete the third year of the agreement were concluded on July 27 between the Canadian Wheat Board and the imported Cereals Division of the United Kingdom Ministry of Food," said Mr. Howe.

The bilateral wheat agreement is now in its final crop year, with Canada scheduled to ship another 140,000,000 bushels to the United Kingdom. The price will be $2 a bushel, unchanged from the 1948-49 crop year.

Although the nIternational Wheat Agreement to which Canada is a party now is in effect, it will not alter the expiring Canada-U.K. contract.

Canadian Dollars Go Further

"For the same amount of cash, the Canadian family can buy more than the American."

This statement, surprising to most Canadians, was made by Sidney Margolius, top-ranking American consumer expert, in an exclusive report on a survey completed for Maclean's Magazine.

Margolius, noted author of 60 consumer articles and the best seller "How to Get More for Your Money," was commissioned to make an exhaustive study of the living costs of two similar families in two similar cities in Canada, and the U. S. He broke down each family's budget to the last spoonful of cornflakes, and then broke down the general price structure in each city to the last haddock fillet and the last rubber heel.

In the test cities of Hamilton, Ont., and Trenton, N. J., Margolius completed his studies, the report of which appears under the heading, "Would You Live Better in the U. S.?" The two families under study were the Al Bigamis of Trenton and the Oscar Biebers of Hamilton, Ont. Both breadwinners are steelworkers in their respective cities.

Margolius writes: "Food is less costly here in Canada, and this big item more than makes up for the $100 extra Canadians pay for refrigerators or the twice as much they pay for cigarettes." Because of the difference in food costs, the American family studied spent an average of $3.50 per week more on food than did the Canadian family, Margolius notes.

Margolius further reports: "Clothing for the whole family is only slightly more expensive in Canada, despite such differences as the $3 shirt that costs $4." A big item for the housewife was nylon hose. The American housewife pays $1.10 for hers, her Canadian counterpart $1.65.

On children's clothes, the Canadian family has some advantages.

Shelter costs, Margolius found, were a little less than in the U. S.

Margolius concludes his findings: "But while the Canadian's dollars take him farther, he gets fewer of them . . . so the American still has the better standard of living—about 10% better, in fact." "However," he adds, "right now the Canadian is gaining ground." In Canada, living costs are remaining steady and pay continues to rise. In the U. S., wages have been falling almost twice as fast as the cost of living.

Britain's Difficulties

Britain's Socialistic Government has landed that country in a lot of difficulties, which of course was to be expected the moment it started giving the people "free" social services. The people of Britain are finding out to their sorrow that there is no such thing as something for nothing.

Various measures brought in by the Socialist Government have forced increased costs on industry, which have resulted in raising of prices of goods for export, which in turn has forced Britain out of the competitive export market.

Sir Stafford Cripps told the House of Commons that the country must find a way to produce more goods which can be sold more cheaply than at present. The way to do it is to cut the costs. When any method of cutting costs is taken up, however, all the complexities appear. Labor, upset enough under continued austerity, certainly is not going to stand for any reduction in wages. There was resentment enough when Sir Stafford declared that wage increases would have to be ruled out.

Raw materials can hardly be bought more cheaply.

This leaves only one other major element of cost—taxes—where savings might be made. One way to reduce these costs would be to curb Socialistic extravagance and turn the bureaucrats into productive workers.

Says Fatherhood of God Requirement for Brotherhood of Man

To the Editor:

Sir—I would like to answer one part of the letter by W. H. Foster: "Are the churches failing to keep Christ's own commandments to His disciples that Christians should love their neighbors as they love themselves?"

In common with all denominations, Mr. Foster takes the above out of its context, which reads: "Hear O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord.

"And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first commandment.

"And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these."

It has become a common saying that the Golden Rule is, "Do unto others as you would have them do to you"—in other words, that the "brotherhood of man" is the Golden Rule.

It is not! The Golden Rule is, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God." In other words, the Fatherhood of God is first, and the Brotherhood of Man is second. One is the Golden Rule; the other the Silver Rule.

Leave God out of the count and make man the first consideration and you will find the inspiration to brotherhood soon degenerate into a form, without soul or substance.

Only in the recognition of God as the Father of all can we keep alive the spirit of brotherhood.

If we forget the Fatherhood of God, which makes us all one family, we will soon neglect our duty toward our neighbor. Only the love of the Father can keep alive in us the love of the brotherhood.

Technocracy Incorporated would be broken on the same rock, along with Communism.

Canadian Oil Future Pictured As Promising

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Competent opinion considers it a not unreasonable guess that at least 5,000,000,000 barrels of oil may be found in Alberta in the near future.

The current Monthly Review of the Bank of Nova Scotia makes this statement in an outline of the dramatic story of Western oil, under the heading, "Black Gold in Alberta."

"In the short space of two years, Canada's oil outlook has been transformed," says the Review. "In early 1947 the bulk of her modest production of crude oil, equivalent to less than 10 per cent of requirements, was from the declining Turner Valley field (of Southern Alberta) . . .

"Then, on Feb. 13, 1947, the discovery well at Leduc 'blew in', and a new era began in Canadian oil history . . .

"Today Alberta has some 860 producing oil wells—more than twice as many as in early 1947. Nearly a dozen new oil pools have been discovered, of which at least two, Leduc-Woodbend and Redwater (both in the Edmonton area), now are established as major fields.

"Though output is sharply restricted because it has outstripped available markets, Canadian oil production has tripled as compared with two years ago. Without proration, it is estimated that production might shortly be as much as 100,000 barrels a day, equivalent to about a third of Canadian requirements.

"To assure a sustained rate of production large enough to take care of total Canadian needs, 'proved' reserves of at least 2,500,000,000 to 3,000,000,000 barrels would be necessary. Proved reserves in Alberta now are estimated at something less than 1,000,000,000 barrels.

QUANTITIES UNCERTAIN

"The one great certainty about prospecting for oil is the uncertainty of where or in what quantities it will be found. But geologists now talk of Alberta as possibly one of the world's major oil fields.

"Its geological formations, they point out, are similar to those of many highly productive areas in the United States. Its area is nearly as large as that of Texas, the greatest of the oil States, which has proved reserves of 14,000,000,000 barrels, and considerably larger than that of California, the second producer, with proved reserves of 3,500,000,000 barrels."

However:

"Until long-distance pipelines are constructed to carry Alberta oil beyond the Prairies, the oil industry in Alberta must pass through a painful period when production will have to be strictly regulated and when the inability to reap returns on the big investment involved may cause difficulties for many companies."

The Review concludes:

"For Canada as a whole, the development in Alberta holds out the hope that she may in the reasonably near future be, on balance, self-sufficient in oil. Even present production is considered sufficient to justify the projected 20-inch pipe line to Regina (from Edmonton), and serious consideration of the extension to the head of the Great Lakes.

"It does not follow, of course, that Eastern Canadian refineries would receive all the Alberta oil shipped down the Lakes. Duluth (Minn.) is being spoken of as a possible terminus for the pipeline, . . . giving access to the big Middle-Western United States markets.

"Spokesmen for the industry feel that arrangements might be made to ship supplies of Alberta crude to American Mid-West centres in exchange for equal quantities of United States crude for use in Eastern Canadian refineries. To substitute Alberta oil for the California tanker-shipped crude now used in British Columbia would be less easy, since a pipe-line over the Rockies would be extremely costly.

"The prospect of a sharp reduction and possibly in time of a cessation in net imports of oil has in itself important implications for Canada's balance of payments position. Last year aggregate oil imports cost $300,000,000, which had to be disbursed almost entirely in United States dollars since the United States and Venezuela supplied the major part.

"The prospect of reducing United States dollar expenditures substantially makes Alberta oil one of the most important and encouraging recent developments in Canada's economic life."

Reduction in Marshall Aid Money for Canada Goods Expected

OTTAWA, Aug. 3 (CP)—A Trade Department official said today that American business firms can be expected to seek a reduction in Marshall Plan purchases in Canada as surpluses of goods pile up in the United States.

He was commenting on a dispatch from Washington last night which stated that the Economic Cooperation Administration promised to try to help American pulp and paper producers obtain some of the business of the United Kingdom Government now going to Canada.

Paul Hoffman, E.C.A. Administrator, was quoted as saying to a group of Washington State Members of Congress that he would present to Britain their request that Canada's contract for supplying the United Kingdom with pulp be modified. Under the present arrangement, Britain purpchases pulp requirements from Canada and the contract has four months to run.

Six Prisoners Killed in Attempt Of Mass Escape

MORELIA, Mex., Aug. 3 (AP)—Police early today battled 72 prisoners who escaped from the city jail last night.

Six prisoners were killed in the fighting and eight captured, police headquarters said. One policeman was reported dead and two wounded.

The escaped prisoners, armed with rifles, sidearms and other weapons from the jail, were surrounded on a small hill outside the city.

The prisoners broke out of jail shortly before nightfall. They made a concerted rush on guards and overwhelmed them.

Six of the prisoners are listed as "dangerous convicts."

To Close Puget Sound Fishing Area for 24 Hours

SEATTLE, Aug. 2 (AP) — The State Fisheries Department announced today the Puget Sound area would be closed to commercial sockeye salmon fishing from midnight tonight until midnight tomorrow.

Alvin Anderson, Fisheries Director, said the one-day closure was ordered by the International Pacific Salmon Fisheries Commission to equalize the American and Canadian catches.

Anderson estimated 82 per cent of the Fraser River sockeye run will have passed through American waters by the end of this week.

Frenchman Drops Canuck Champ in Fifth Round

By JOHN D. HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL, Aug. 3 (CP) — France's Laurent Dauthuille disposed of Montreal's jolting Johnny Greco in short order tonight when he knocked out the Canadian welterweight champion in the fifth round of a non-title, 10-round boxing match at the rain-drenched Montreal Baseball Stadium.

A near-capacity crowd sat through nearly an hour's heavy rain in the biggest open air fight event of the local season to see Greco, weighing 153½ meet Dauthuille, 155½.

Dauthuille held the edge all the way and Greco attempting to step up into the middleweight class, couldn't seem to get going.

Both fighters had trouble getting their Sunday punches going on the wet canvas.

The K.O. came suddenly at the 2:57 mark of the fifth. Greco had been bulling in, unable to get past Dauthuille's upright stance. Dauthuille went on the attack and hurt Greco with a swift and hammering series of blows. A left hook straightened up Greco, then a right cross finished him. Greco slipped to the canvas, sat there dazed for several seconds, then with a sigh collapsed on his back and was counted out.

The bout established an all-time box-office record for a boxing match in Canada.

Official figures were given at 19,580 fans who paid in $76,523 to better the previous record when Greco fought Dave Castillotte here in 1946. That fight drew a little more than $50,000.

DODGERS UP AGAIN, DOWN AGAIN

By STEVE ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

The Brooklyn Dodgers were back in first place (tied with St. Louis Cardinals) for a few hours Wednesday but after the Cardinals won their night game the Redbirds still were in front again in the National League by a half game margin.

Burt Shotton's Dodgers pounded out a 10-5 victory over Pittsburgh Pirates in the afternoon to gain the temporary tie only to have St. Louis trounce Boston Braves 7-0 at night and regain sole possession of league leadership.

As the Dodgers scored their third consecutive victory over the Bucs, Duke Snider batted in five runs with a single, a double and his 16th home run of the season.

At St. Louis Howard Pollet hurled his fourth shutout and 14th victory of the season for the Cardinals. Pollet allowed four hits and struck out six in what was probably his best-pitched contest of the season. He walked one. A five-run outburst in the fourth by the Redbirds took the pressure off Pollet.

6TH IN ROW

In other National League games the New York Giants won their sixth victory in a row with a 4-1 whipping of Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Reds downed the Philadelphia Phillies 2-0.

In the American League the leading New York Yankees came from behind to beat Detroit Tigers 7-5, Boston Red Sox beat St. Louis Browns 9-3, Philadelphia Athletics edged out Chicago White Sox 3-2 and the Cleveland-Washington game was washed out by rain.

At Pittsburgh Snider's home run came in the seventh with two mates aboard to put the Brooks in front 7-0.

Carl Erskine, freshman right-hander who rejoined the Dodgers in midseason, recorded his first victory, limiting the Pirates to six hits. He pitched two-hit shutout ball for six innings before weakening in the seventh.

For the New York Giants lefty Dave Koslo pitched a five-hitter to register his seventh victory.

At Cincinnati Ken Raffensberger held the Phils to two hits for his fifth shutout of the season and his 11th victory against as many defeats.

CANADIAN IN ON WIN

In the American the Athletics beat Chicago when rookie first baseman Hank Biasatti of Windsor, Ont., grabbed his first hit of the season, an eighth inning double that produced the winning run. Biasatti took over for Ferris Fain two days ago when the regular first sacker was forced to the sidelines by a minor operation.

At New York the Yankees blew a 4-0 lead but rallied for three runs in the eighth inning to come from behind and defeat Detroit. The win put New York four full games ahead of the idle Cleveland Indians.

At Boston Ellis Kinder set a 1949 high for Red Sox pitchers by striking out 14 batters as Boston beat St. Louis. The American League record for strikeouts is 18, held by Cleveland's Bob Feller.

Dom DiMaggio extended his consecutive-game hitting streak to 30 games and stayed just behind the leaders for the American League batting crown. Ted Williams with two hits went ahead of the Browns' Bob Dillinger who was hitless in five trips. After the game the averages were Williams .344, Dillinger, .343 and DiMaggio .342.

Better Golf

By SAM SNEAD

Today we picture the hand position at three different points of the swing. We've over-emphasized the drag away from the ball a bit just to give the point emphasis. The second critical point comes in the swing when the hands are hip-high and the cocking action of the wrists starts. You'll notice it there in the middle hand position. A bit of pressure on the inside of the ball of the left foot started the hip pivot, the shoulder pivot has moved smoothly into the swing. Now when the hands reach the top position shown, the cocking of the wrists has been fully completed. From here on the club-shaft will reach the horizontal position at the top of the backswing by just a bit more hip pivot, and more shoulder pivot. That is getting the club up into the hitting position efficiently. And you cant make a good downswing unless you have made a good backswing. You have arrived at the top of the backswing correctly and there will be no jerkiness in the downswing if you don't get too eager. And remember that it's the clubhead that does the work.

Confident Britons Arrive for Walker Cup Play

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP)—Britain's Walker Cup golf team, hailed as possibly the strongest from that country in the history of the competition, arrived today for its battle with the United States forces at Winged Foot Club Aug. 19-20.

Nobody heard a single "We hope to put up a jolly good show" as Capt. Laddie Lucas and his nine teammates walked down the gangplank of the liner Queen Elizabeth to be met by Francis Ouimet, non-playing leader of the United States team, and other U.S.G.A. officials.

Instead, Sam McCready, the husky Irishman who defeated Willie Turnesa in the finals of this Summer's British amateur, shouted:

"Where's Willie? I hope you've got him sharpened up for me. I've come looking for him."

McCready seemed to reflect the confident attitude of the entire group. Lucas, a southpaw, had this to say:

"I won't predict we'll win, but I know we're going to give your lads a real fight. This team of ours has been put together with more care than any previous British team, and for the first time we have trained seriously as a team."

Members of the squad, besides Lucas and McCready are Ernest Millward, Cecil Ewing, Gerald Micklem, Joseph Carr, James Bruen, Kenneth Thom, Ronald White and Arthur Perowne.

HAMILTON BUMPS WINNIPEG FROM SOCCER RACE

WINNIPEG, Aug. 3 (CP)—Hamilton, Eastern champions, played heads-up ball and defeated Winnipeg Scottish, Manitoba representatives, 4-2 in the third game of a best-of-three Dominion soccer semi-final series. Allan Wins C.I.L. Competition; Beats T. R. Wilson

A. H. Allan won the Canadian Industries, Ltd., Trophy Wednesday afternoon by defeating veteran T. R. Wilson on the 18th hole at Nelson Golf and Country Club greens.

Mr. Wilson, who played par golf for the first six holes, had Mr. Allan two down at the end of the first nine. However, he slipped a little during the second nine and Mr. Allan evened the match on the 17th and came through with a par four on the 18th to win, his opponent taking a five.

Mr. Wilson entered the final by defeating Murray Barbour on the 21st hole in a close match Monday evening. Mr. Allan had beaten Bill Vickers.

There's a Better Way to Pluck Duck

By HAROLD MORRISON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA, Aug. 3 (CP)—A host of scientific discoveries — ranging all the way from improved methods of plucking a duck to the latest finds in explosive production — is finding its way into Canadian industry through a unique licensing method.

Brain products of National Research Council experts, the discoveries are being offered to industry through the facilities of a crown corporation, Canadian Patents and Development Limited, established only a year ago.

The company was set up to protect the National Research Council and at the same time be of some advantage to manufacturing firms constantly looking for manufacturing improvements.

Whenever a Council scientist discovers something of commercial use, the company steps in, gets a patent for the process and then issues licences—for a fee—to the manufacturer who wants to use the discovery.

MONEY FOR RESEARCH

The money obtained for the discoveries is turned back to the Council to help in further research. In most cases the discoverer himself—because he is a Government worker—gets little financial benefit outside of his annual salary.

So far, says the Council, industry is showing "widespread interest" in the company's activities. It is administering licences for 64 patents already obtained. Another eight patents are pending.

These patents are being labelled and described in a handbook put out by the Crown company in answer to the heavy response for information on what is available for licensing.

The patents are a motley group. One relates an improved method of plucking poultry by using wax, another the design of a container for perishable goods, and a third the production of laminated or plywood structures and plastic materials.

Twelve deal with aeronautical improvements for aircraft wing structures, frost and ice prevention and heating devices involved.

Ways of improving flavors in dried fruits, production of non-hardening maple sugar are included in others.

Some 28 are chemical patents, dealing with better ways of treating gases, protection of heat-resistant alloys against carbonization and the manufacture of explosives.

Strong, Salmon Tops in Regatta

KELOWNA, B.C., Aug. 3 (CP) —Two of Canada's finest swimmers came through as expected to take premier honors as the curtain came down today on the two-day 43rd annual Kelowna Regatta—a record-smasher in every respect.

Irene Strong, Vancouver Amateur Swimming Club's brilliant mermaid, amassed 108 points to capture the ladies' aggregate and the Hiram Walker trophy.

Peter Salmon of Victoria Y, despite an upset during the afternoon in the breast-stroke specialty, still had enough points to beat Ocean Falls' Allan Gilchrist, for the senior men's aggregate honors and the Blackwell Challenge Cup.

Toronto's Fred Smith copped the junior men's aggregate and the junior girls' bauble went to Dorothy Cook, another of Percy Norman's proteges from the Vancouver A. S. C.

In winning the senior women's aggregate Miss Strong chalked up six firsts—50 yards free-style; 100 yards back-stroke; 200 yards back stroke; 100 yards breast-stroke; 100 yards butterfly and 150 yards medley.

Salmon won four firsts and one third—100 yards free-style, 150 yards medley; 100 yards butterfly and tied with Peter Mingie of Montreal in the 100 yards back-stroke. Salmon finished third in the 100 yards breast-stroke when two Easterners—Bill Ross, Toronto and Ian MacDonald, Montreal, in that order—upset the dopsters.

Second in the senior women's aggregate with 54 points was Winnipeg's Vivian King who came off with the long distance honors for the regatta with both the half-mile and the mile.

SCULLING CHAMPS

Kelowna Rowing Club's smart doubles crew of Ray Bostock and Alan Moore added the B.C. doubles rowing championship to the Club books by downing the defending champions, Dick Lownsbury and Doug Lewis of Vancouver. The Vancouver pair finished third, with another Kelowna crew of Dave Paulson and Gib Wade completing the mile course in second place.

University of Washington Huskies retained the Lake Okanagan senior fours rowing championship they had held for several years, coming in front of the Kelowna crew by three lengths.

Vancouver quartet were well behind the Kelowna crew who won the B.C. championship the day before.

The party boated 25 salmon, ranging in weight from 20 to eight pounds. Harris also intends to try for some of the big Tyees at Campbell River.

Cherry Production in Creston Area Considerably Higher Than Estimated

Cherry yield of the Creston Dis-trict was considerably greater than early estimates, the fortnightly Horticultural News Letter reports.

The harvest is complete, and al-though rains caused some splitting which reduced the yield in one or two isolated instances, the over-all production was higher than the es-timates.

In small fruits, the raspberry harvest is practically complete and where cultural conditions were good excellent crops were picked.

Early apricots are now coming off, and the size and quality of the fruit is excellent and yields will be high.

Apples in general are develop-ing exceptionally well. Both size and color are very high for the period of the year and yields are expected to be higher than were previously anticipated.

The pear crop is sizing satisfact-orily. However, fire blight is build-ing up and the disease may reduce the harvest considerabl.

Second brood codling moth sprays are being used to combat codling moth, aphis and mites. Up to this point common apple scab has not been a serious problem and if reasonable weather persists, the disease will be of little consequence this year.

In vegetables, with the exception of some of the heat-loving plants, production is excellent. In crops such as corn and some of the vine vegetables, growth is not very good.

The seed pea harvest has started on the reclaimed lands. These crops show promise of good yields, al-though in a few instances blossom-blast and aphis have reduced yields.

Market Trends

TORONTO, Aug. 3 (CP)—Trading continued active, but individual groups failed to follow up advances. Golds, up 2½ points in the previous session, were lower, while base met-als, the other bright spot in Tues-day's market, made a fractional ad-vance. Industrials held steady while Western oils slipped slightly.

MONTREAL, Aug. 3 (CP)—There was a slightly firmer undertone in quiet trading. Mines were lower, but losses were generally for neg-ligible pennies.

Papers and beverages were the firmest groups on the board, while utilities and base metals were mixed. Industrials were slightly stronger.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3 (AP) — The stock market barely avoided a serio-us dent in its Summer advance.

A pickup in prices at midday more than wiped out early declin-ing tendencies.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 3 (CP) —In a dull session, oils continued quiet.

In the mines, Pioneer was off 5 at 3.35, while industrials and un-listed mines continued inactive.

MONTREAL, Aug. 3 (CP)—There was a good demand for Dominion 3s of '66, but the issue remained un-changed on the bond market. Pro-vincials, Municipals and Corpora-tions were steady in dull trading.

LONDON, Aug. 3 (Reuters)—Re-cent sellers of British Government stocks took a well-earned rest. The gilt-edged section of the Stock Ex-change, although fractionally easier throughout the list, was idle for the greater part of the session.

Clapps Pears Make First Show, Eggs Increase

Clapps Favorite pears made their debut in Nelson stores during the week when local wholesale firms received their first carloads. Okan-agan Rochester peaches started to arrive while apricots were just about through. Green and red peppers and pickling onions, as well as other local produce were also among shipments.

Fresh and cured meats were re-ported in good supply. Local eggs however were scarce and were still being brought in from Alberta and the Coast. Egg prices took a con-siderable climb late last week, as much as seven to eight cents per dozen.

Produce for the farmers included two cars of flour, mill feeds and bulk grain.

MISSING ALBERTA MAN FOUND ALIVE

EDMONTON, Aug. 3 (CP)—Ass Rogers, 83, missing from his lonely farm home near Tofield, Alta., 35 miles Southeast of Edmonton, has been found alive, but suffering from severe malnutrition and exposure.

A group of searchers and dogs came upon the aged man yesterday in densely-wooded country less than a mile from his lonely farm home. He was taken to hospital in Tofield, where doctors say complete recov-ery is expected.

CALGARY LIVESTOCK

CALGARY, Aug. 3 (CP)—Trad-ing was slow on the Calgary live-stock market today due to light of-ferings. Mostly plain to medium cattle were on offer. Prices, how-ever, were fully steady. There was a good demand for all suitable butcher stock.

Overnight receipts were light, and today's early truck run was only moderate.

Receipts today: Cattle 30, hogs 2, sheep 6.

Receipts yesterday: Cattle 688, calves 64, hogs 145, sheep 201.

Hogs sold yesterday at $33.75 for As at yards and plants. Sows, $18.50, live weight.

Good lambs, $21 to $22.50; good ewes, $7 to $8.

Good butcher steers, $20 to $21; common to medium, $16 to $19.50. Good to choice butcher heifers, $18 to $19; common to medium, $15 to $17.50.

Good to choice veal calves, $18 to $19; common to medium, $14 to $17.50. Good stocker and feeder steers, $16 to $17; common to medi-um, $14 to $15.50.

GREAT YELDHAM, Essex, Eng. (CP)—Conservative Party supporters in the congregation protested when Rev. Norman Gowing, the new rector here, joined the Labor Party.

MONTREAL (CP) — Britain's austerity is being carried pretty far, observes Pat Pearce, the Montreal Herald's theatre critic. Opening a letter from England she found the envelope was made from an old French war map.

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. (CP) — Mathematicians will probably be hard put to figure out the astronomical odds of this one. Recently four Prince Rupert ladies each had a perfect hand in a one-round bridge deal.

WORSELY, Lancashire, England (CP)—Air raid shelters here have been called "a terror to women and a danger to morals of youth," so the council is to brick them up.

CHRISTCHURCH, N.Z. (CP)—Intoxicated man was found asle in a bed at Christchurch matern hospital recently. Police decided jail cell was a more suitable plac for his confinement.
