Dancing Delights Festival Crowd

TRAIL, B.C., April 20—The dancing came on in the Kootenay Musical Festival in Trail High School auditorium tonight—and the audience loved every minute of it.

The folk steps of the young competitors and their colorful costumes gave their performances the touch of an unrehearsed show, and lifted the tension of the regular festival classes.

The inter-city standing is Nelson 83.1; Trail 82.2; Rossland 81.2.

E. S. Henderson of Spokane, adjudicator, said he judged on accuracy, rhythm and general effect. But he emphasized that the competitors should dance for the fun of it, and not for marks.

Young Harold Menkes of Trail highlighted the evening by winning the Bach and Beethoven pianoforte championship classes. For the Beethoven pianoforte championship, he was awarded a bust of the composer newly-posted by the Trail Registered Music Teachers' Association and a scholarship, and for the Bach championship, the Argyle Cup.

The biggest crowd of the festival jammed the auditorium and applauded the dancing wildly.

Class 169—Elocution, ladies,open—"Romeo and Juliet" act three, scen 2 by Shakespeare—and "My Last Duchess" by Browning—Barbara Hyndman, Nelson, 86; Mrs. Grace Poole, Trail, second; Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, Rossland, third; Betti Hall, Trail; Mrs. Dorothy Calder, Trail; Etuka Cameron, Trail; Ann de Morvey, Trail, Pat Tench, Rossland.

This was very good work indeed, said Miss Olive Garrood of Kamloops. There was evidence of good teaching, and it was hoped that the competitors would take good advantage of the instruction. The adjudicator was also happy that so many were interesting in speech and elocution. The first task of an elocutionist was to visualize the poem and through facial and body movements and the voice, translate into reality.

Class 173—Folk dancing, open, Scottish—"Road to the Isles" by Gordons—Kinnaird Folk Dancers, Group 2, first; Mrs. L. Zinio's Folk Dancers, Group 1, Trail, second; Kinnaird Folk Dancers, Group 1, third; Trail Folk Dancers, Group 1, Trail; James L. Webster School, Trail; Trail Folk Dancers, Group 2, Trail; Mrs. L. Zinio's Folk Dancers, Group 2, Trail.

Class 175—Folk dancing, open, American—"Cotton-Eyed Joe" or Oklahoma mixer—Trail Folk Dancers, Group 1, first; Trail Central School, second; James L. Webster School, third; Trail Folk Dancers, Group 2; Kinnaird Folk Dancers, Group 1; Kinnaird Folk Dancers, Group 2.

Class 176—Folk dancing, open, Mexican — "Mexican Waltz" — James L. Webster School, first; Kinnaird Folk Dancers Group 1, second; Kinnaird Folk Dancers Group 2, third.

Class 178 — Folk dancing, open, French — French minuet — Trail Central School Group 1, first; Trail Central School Group 2, second; James L. Webster School and Kinnaird Folk Dancers Group 1, tie for third; Kinnaird Folk Dancers Group 2.

Class 179 — Folk dancing, open, Finnish — "Spinning Waltz"—Kinnaird Folk Dancers Group 2, first; James L. Webster School, second; Kinnaird Folk Dancers Group 1, third.

Class 180—Folk dancing, open, square dances—"Captain Jinks", and "Wearing of the Green"—Kinnaird Folk Dancers, Group 2, first; Kinnaird Folk Dancers, Group 1, second; Trail Central School, Group 1, third; Trail Central School Group 2; James L. Webster School.

Mr. Henderson introduced three of his dance students from Spokane, Isabel Wright, Lane Ruud and Joanne Cogley, who gave several dances.

Tragic Accident Breaks Pacific Military Silence

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — Strict military radio silence in the Pacific is being broken today to reach Pte. Fernand Leduc of the Royal 22nd Regiment en route to Korea, with the news that his wife and four-year-old son were killed in a railway crossing accident yesterday at Masson, Que.

Word of the double fatality is being forwarded to Lt.-Col. J. A. Dextraze, commanding officer of the unit, who will break the news to Pte. Leduc.

Mrs. Leduc, 34, and her son, Maurice, were killed when a freight train backed over them at a level crossing at Masson, 20 miles Northeast of Ottawa. Mrs. Leduc saved a baby in a carriage by pushing it out of the way as the train struck her.

An army spokesman said arrangements will be made for Leduc to leave his unit at the next-port-of call and return home if he wishes.

Manitoba Raises University Fees

WINNIPEG, April 20 (CP) — The University of Manitoba will raise its tuition fees, President A. H. S. Gillson said today, in commenting on similar action by the University of British Columbia.

Dr. Gillson said higher rates here will go into effect this Fall but he didn't know what the increase would be.

Parliament At a Glance

By The Canadian Press

John Diefenbaker (PC—Lake Centre) urged the Government to rid Canada of what he called galloping inflation.

Postmaster General Rinfret said a report that ordinary postal rates are to be increased is without foundation.

The Commons heard new protests against the handling of divorce bills by Parliament.

MONDAY

The Commons will resume the budget debate. The Senate will not sit.

Fire Destroys B. C. School and Village

PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., April 20 (CP) The school house and teacherage at the Naas River village of Canyon City was destroyed by fire Thursday. Loss was placed at $10,000.

Indian Supt. F. E. Anfield flew North today to make temporary accommodation for school and teachers.

COMMIT TWO FOR TRIAL ON ENTERING CHARGES

PORT ALBERNI, B.C., April 20 (CP)—George Milton Payton and Lloyd Charles Brusch, both of Vancouver, have been committed for trial on charges of breaking and entering.

The charges were laid in connection with a $2600 safe robbery of the McLennan, McFeely and Prior, Limited, Hardware store here on April 1.

FOG

38 Bel[illegible]ed Dead; One Ship Wallows In Sea of Flames

NEW ORLEANS, April 20 (AP)—Two oil tankers collided in a dense dawn fog in the Gulf of Mexico today with a probable death toll of 38. Both ships were swept by flames after the crash.

The Esso Greensboro was left a blazing hulk with only five of her 42 crew members rescued. The 10,000-ton tanker wallowed in a sea of flaming oil spilled from the 140,000-barrel cargo she was carrying from Arkansas Pass, Tex., to Baltimore and New York.

The 26,500-ton super tanker Esso Suez, the other ship in the 5 a.m. collision, was cut by a 20-foot gash in her bow about 10 feet above the water line. She was able, however, to put out the fires that swept her forepeak, and proceeded toward New Orleans. She is expected here tomorrow.

First Mate Walter Brehm of Lyndhurst, N.J., was the Suez's only reported fatality. But four of her 44 crew members were badly burned.

The Suez was en route in ballast from Baltimore to Corpus Christi, Texas.

The Esso New York, which raced to the Grensboro's aid, radioed early this morning "no one believed alive on board."

Later, after rescuing four crew members of the Greensboro, one badly-burned, and recovering two charred bodies, the New York abandoned rescue efforts, saying there appeared no hope of their being any other survivors.

A third body was recovered late today. The body was picked up in the sea near the Greensboro.

But a PBM (amphibious plane) sighted a fifth survivor late in the day and dropped a life raft and rations. The man climbed aboard and was later taken aboard the Esso Burlington, also at the scene. He was reported badly burned.

A Coast Guard PBY (another type amphibious plane) reported sighting only an empty lifeboat and two mattresses on the rough sea near the Greensboro.

MAY BLOW UP

Lieut. William Schmidt, pilot of the plane, said the smoke from the blazing Greensboro "was at least 500 feet high and the water was burning near the ship. Oil was spread over a two-mile area. Flames leaped 150 feet into the air.

"I just don't know the adjectives to describe the scene. She'll still be burning tomorrow unless she blows up," he said.

A Coast Guard officer here said the fire spread so rapidly Greensboro crew members could put only one boat overside.

Chambermaid Admits Stealing Jewels From Hotel Guests

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—A $31-a-week chambermaid was arrested today by detectives who said she stole $350,000 to $400,000 worth of jewels from guests in 35 hotels.

Mrs. Julia Arbotofsky, 44, was accused of rifling the rooms over a 2½-year period. She was charged with grand larceny and held in $2500 bail.

Police said she admitted the thefts and that they found $30,000 worth of jewelry and 233 pawn tickets in her apartment.

Saving Time a Week Away

By The Canadian Press

From sea to sea Canadians will tumble out of bed to greet the sun an hour earlier Sunday, April 29.

The reason is they set their clocks an hour ahead before retiring to conform to Daylight Time which is ushered in for 1951 on that date. Practically all will revert to Standard Time Sunday, Sept. 3.

This will be the rule for most Canadians.

Alberta banned Daylight Time a few years ago by an act of the Legislature and Prince Edward Island has ignored it since its inception.

Windsor, Ont., will not use the fast time because its life is so interwoven with Detroit which does not change its clocks.

With these exceptions the device which brings an extra hour of sunshine in the evenings is observed in all the bigger centres and most of the smaller ones across the country.

In British Columbia Daylight Time is mandatory through an act of the Legislature. Clocks don't change in the East Kootenay for residents long have maintained advanced time on a year-round basis for its obvious advantages in the apparent extension of daylight hours in a mountainous area.

MacArthur Storms N.Y. in Greatest U.S. Hero Acclaim

By DON WHITEHEAD

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP)—A roaring multitude today gave Gen. Douglas MacArthur the greatest acclaim the United States has ever heaped upon a returning hero.

The mass outpouring of people and emotion— police estimated the crowd at 7,500,000—swelled into a thunderous tribute to the famed soldier who has sparked a bitter conflict over American policy in Asia.

The ovation rolled from the green expanse of Central Park down into the grey stone depths of Lower Manhattan during four hours and one minute.

With Mrs. MacArthur and their 13-year-old son, Arthur, near his side, the General told a huge crowd at City Hall:

"As I watched your throngs, a great pride and a great confidence came upon me for here I saw in this great city, this melting pot of the world, an indomitable force which cannot fail to maintain our freedom and our way of life."

Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri presented the General with a gold medal as a tribute from the people of the city.

An inscription on the medal says: "In defence of honor and liberty and the fundamental principles on which free institutions may rest."

MacArthur said:

"We shall never forget it (the reception). You have made us feel that we are indeed home."

The demonstration began last night when 1,500,000 impatient admirers turned out to cheer him on his drive into the city from the airport. It grew into a wild acclaim that swept through Manhattan like a storm wherever the General appeared, waving and smiling to the people.

The MacArthur parade wound through 15 miles of city streets banked with masses of people in a holiday mood.

They strained for a glimpse of the man with the gold-braided cap who was seeing this city for the first time in 14 years. Other millions in the city and across the U. S. watched the spectacle on television sets.

The thunder of cheers began when MacArthur stepped from the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel at 11:06 a.m. to enter an open car which led the 50-motor-car parade.

HOLIDAY DECLARED

The crowds began gathering three hours before the parade. It was a day of bright, warm sunshine.

Downtown office workers were given a holiday. The younger fry shinnied up trees and lamp posts and onto fences.

Police Commissioner Thomas Murphy, who announced the official crowd estimate said the Broadway crowd was packed 100 deep at places.

The turnout was almost double the 4,000,000 who greeted Charles Lindbergh in 1927 and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1945.

Piled ticker tape caught fire at one point on lower Broadway after MacArthur had passed. But police quickly put out the blaze with a hand extinguisher.

Outside St. Patrick's Cathedral, Francis Cardinal Spellman and six bishops were waiting to greet the MacArthurs.

MacArthur stepped from his car to clasp Cardinal Spellman's hand while the crowd roared its approval.

BRITISH WORRIED

LONDON, April 20 (AP) — A fear that Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Washington speech will set off a bitter anti-British campaign in the United States was evident among Britons studying the American reaction tonight.

Now that he has had his say before Congress, some British officials felt a sharp reaction by the Americans against Britain might:

1. Endanger American aid to the buildup of West European defences under the North Atlantic Treaty.

2. Lead to sharp public controversy over policy toward Red China, on whose recognition the two allies have agreed to disagree.

3. Delay a statement of Korean aims by the 14 countries contributing men to the United Nations forces. The main purpose of the statement — as it originally was planned — was to induce Communist China to enter negotiations for a settlement.

British officials are saying nothing publicly about the debate over Far Eastern policy raging in the United States.

Privately, they fear an increasing number of Americans will join in critiicizing Britian, accusing the Labor Government of swaying unduly the policies of President Truman.

Servicemen Liable To Income-Tax

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — Canadians serving in Korea will be as liable for income tax as any of their countrymen, Finance Minister Abbott said today.

He told Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes V.C. (PC—Nanaimo) he is not contemplating granting tax exemption to the men who go to Korea. He said he feels no group should be exempt.

Fail to Find Missing Fighter Plane

PRESQUE ISLE, Me., April 20 (AP) — A far-flung aerial search failed today to turn up any trace of an RCAF fighter plane that disappeared in a mysterious dive over Northern Maine wilderness Thursday.

Canadian and American aircraft swept some 3000 square miles over river valleys and sparsely-settled border country in their search for Flt.-Lt. Robert E. Kent, 28, of Vancouver.

FINAL SPEECHES TODAY ON WORLD TARIFFS

TORQUAY, England, April 20 (Reuters) — Seven months of international trade dickering ends tomorrow.

Tired men and women from 40 countries taking part in the World Tariff Conference will hear final speeches from L. Dana Wilgress, Canadian High Commissioner to Britain and Conference Chairman, and Sir Stephen Holmes of the British Board of Trade.

Wide Protest Pensions Checks for Hospitals

Pension Act Forbids Seizure Says Newspaper; Attack Hospitals Taking Checks After Patient for Two Weeks

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP)—A new storm of protest—this time from 30,000 old-age pensioners — today surrounded the British Columbia Hospital Insurance Commission.

Hospitals were instructed this week that after May 1 the $50 monthly checks of old-age pensioners who are patients for more than two weeks are to be collected and cashed, leaving only a $5 "comfort" allowance for the pensioner.

The hospitals under the order, will allow pensioners money for keeping up room rent and other outside expenses.

Lloyd Detwiller, chief commissioner, denied there would be seizure of checks.

"If the pensioners does not comply with our request, we are prepared to sit down and discuss why not."

But the 30,000 members of the Old-age Pensioners Association were urged to defy the new order.

"We are instructing pensioners to refuse to endorse their checks to hospitals until the whole matter has been cleared up to our satisfaction," said Mrs. Elsie Buckley, vice-president.

Hospital commissioners said pension checks are designed to take care of current needs but it was obvious "abuses could occur if pensioners remained too long in hospitals."

Pensioners do not have to pay premiums under the compulsory Hospital Insurance scheme, but under the new order they would contribute to ther care if in hospital for more than two weeks.

The legality of the new move has been questioned and the Old-age Pensioners Association will seek a ruling from the National Health and Welfare Department in Ottawa.

The Old Age Pensions Act definitely forbids seizure by any creditor of a pensioner's check.

The commission has been under fire of labor unions since hospital premium rates and a co-insurance plan introduced last month.

Labor protested to the Provincial Government, presenting a protest petition of 200,000 names.

The petition demanded a reduction in rates or that the Government call an election on the issue of hospital insurance.

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — The Vancouver Sun says in a dis- British Columbia Hospital Insurance Commission has no right patch from Ottawa today that to seize an old-age pensioner's check when he goes to hospital.

The Sun reported that officials of the National Health and Welfare Department said that Old Age Pension Act definitely forbids seizure by any creditor of a pensioners check.

FIRE DESTROYS HALL

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Fanned by a stiff wind fire today destroyed the C.C.F. hall of Victoria Avenue and damaged a community hall.

DIVER AIDS IN WEAPON SEARCH

Funeral Today for Shooting Victim

No new developments have been reported in the strange shooting of a 20-year-old Doukhobor youth at Ootischenia Monday night with which the victim's father has been charged.

R.C.M.P. searchers have not yet recovered the murder weapon, a heavy-calibre rifle which was fired at point-blank range through bedclothes into the sleeping body of Joe Davidoff.

A fruitless four-day search of the area surrounding the youth's communal home has led Police to consider the possibility that the weapon was thrown into the Kootenay River at a point about a half mile from Austra village.

Friday, a police service dog which had been flown in from Penticton to aid in the ground search, was "relieved of duty" and an underwater diver brought in from Kimberley for river search operations.

Diving operations are likely to begin some time this morning, providing the current does not prove too strong.

Doukhobor funeral rites for the victim are to be conducted at Ootiscenia this afternoon.

Chinese Reds Avoiding Battle

TOKYO, April 21 (Saturday) (CP)—The biggest British task force of the Korean campaign pushed acros the 38th parallel and deep into Western North Korea Friday, meeting only token Chinese resistance.

Giant centurion tanks wallowed across the Imjin river to lead the advance.

On the other battlefronts Lt.-Gen. Matthew Ridgway's morning communique reported three company-sized Chinese counter-attacks which the allies repulsed South of Chorwon. Elsewhere there were clashes resulting from aggressive patrolling.

In general, the Chinese were avoiding battle even though the U.N. forces headed straight for their buildup area on the central front.

DEFINITE BUILDUP

The U.S. Eighth Army's new commander, Lt.-Gen. James A. Van Fleet, offered no predictions on the next phase of the war during a front-line visit. He said it was "anybody's guess" what the Communists would do next, but added:

"There is a definite buildup and I imagine he (the enemy) would like to take another shot at us. We're ready for him—if he does."

Smudge Pots Burn In Okanagan

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Orchardists were lighting fires in the Okanagan Valley tonight. At the same time, volunteers were fighting to control fires elsewhere.

This paradox was brought on by the frost menace in the Okanagan, where thousands of smudge pots burned for the third night straight, and the three-week dry spell in B.C. bushland.

The weather office said weather in the Okanagan would continue clear and cold.

The frost has already taken an estimated toll. It left a trail of blackened blossoms, striking at cherry crops and other stone fruits. Tender buds and blossoms withered. Most apple trees escaped damage.

Meanwhile more than 100 men were fighting 30 fires burning in the vast Vancouver forest district.

All were reported under control.

Forest service officials said the majority of the blazes resulted from slash clearing fires which jumped out of bounds.

More than half the fires were concentrated in the Chilliwack and Langford Ranger districts.

Other fires were burning or smouldering in the district surrounding Harrison Lake, Dewdney, Squamish, Sechelt, Pender Harbor, Cortez Island, Courtenay and Alberni.

NEW ZEALANDER WINS 12 BOTTLES OF BEER

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, April 20 (Reuters)—Victor Troughton, 50, landed in a light plane today at the farm near here which he left 32 years ago to emigrate to New Zealand. It was the end of a 7000-mile junket—first by plane from his New Zealand farm, then by airliner to Britain, and again by a hired plane to his old home. He made the trip on a bet and wins 12 bottles of beer.

Barge to Carry Cars Over River At Northport

Traffic across the Columbia River at Northport, Wash., will resume Saturday morning, the Board of Trade was advised in Nelson Friday.

Secretary J. A. Bracken said a barge for carrying cars and a boat will be put into service at the U. S. immigration center.

Meanwhile, Rossland Board of Trade has been notified by Hon. E. C. Carson, Minister of Public Works, that the new bridge being constructed at Northport is expected to be ready for traffic late in July or early in August. The Minister said road construction between Rossland Paterson, Canadian customs point, was expected to be finished about the same time.

Salmo-Creston Trek to Publicize Route Mooted

A trek over Lost and Summit Creeks trails to publicize the feasibility of the Salmo-Creston highway is being discussed by the Associated Board of Trades of Eastern British Columbia leaders.

The suggestion is that members of the Boards of Trade, Government officials and newspapermen make the trek arriving at Creston during the Diamond Jubilee celebrations May 17, 18 and 19.

The suggestion from Dr. C. H. Wright president, was discussed by Creston Board of Trade at its April meeting.

The proposal for the Salmo-Creston road has been a subject of Boards of Trade promotion for years.

LONDON, April 20 (Reuters) — The Labor Government last night won an eight-vote victory—294 to 286—on increased postal and telegraph charges.

The vote was on an opposition motion criticizing recent increases in postal and telephone charges totalling £8,000,000 ($22,400,000) a year.

Diefenbaker Would Rid Canada Of "Galloping" Inflation

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)— John Diefenbaker (PC—Lake Centre) urged the Government today to rid Canada of a "galloping" inflation which threatens to drive the country's defence costs to "bankruptcy heights."

"We can't fight Stalin with a 58-cent dollar," he told the Commons in a budget debate address.

At the same time, he suggested the Government fight Communism by extending aid to under-privileged Asiatic countries and to appeal to the United States Government to return Canadian boxcars needed for movement of wheat.

A half-dozen speakers stepped into the flagging debate, including W. A. Boucher (L—Rosthern); James A. Byrne (L—Kootenay East), P. E. Gagnon (Ind.—Chicoutimi), C. W. Carter (L—Burin-Burgeo) and W. Chester S. McLure (PC—Queens).

Mr. Diefenbaker said inflation was mounting day by day with no effective action by the Government. Some termed it "runaway" inflation, but he thought that it should be called "galloping inflation."

URGES ECONOMY

There was talk, too, about increases in hidden taxes, but "the greatest hidden tax of all today is inflation." Those who lived on fixed incomes were suffering from the high cost of living.

"While we talk," said Mr. Diefenbaker, "prices rise."

He urged the Government to economize to a greater extent and to form a commission to study Government spending.

Calling for aid to impoverished Asian countries, he reported on his attendance to the Commonwealth Parliamentary Conference in New Zealand last Fall. Canada should have sent her best grain to India to help that Commonwealth partner meet her current food shortage.

He said that farmers of the non-white races attending the conference had asked the white representatives not to use the atomic bomb against colored races again lest that action set off a global racial conflict.

He urged the Government to disclose to the Chamber its policies on Formosa and a series of other international questions. The people had a right to know the Government's stand on questions which concerned their future.

Mr. Byrne said the opposition recognized the need for raising huge sums to cover defence expenditures. The opposition members had criticized the taxes imposed by Finance Minister Abbott, but they had offered few suggestions on how the money should have been raised.

He believed there should have been an increase in liquor taxes rather than those on more essential goods.

He suggested that all income earned in overtime or on an incentive basis be exempted from income tax. As another means to increase production, a halt should be called to the compulsory retirement at 60 or 65. Those already retired and able to work should be re-employed.

He urged that before large sums are spent on the St. Lawrence seaway a survey be made of the economic conditions of Eastern and Western Canada. A steel industry should be established in British Columbia.

Vast Throng Greets MacArthur

Man. Legislature Prorogues

WINNIPEG, April 20 (CP) — The third session of Manitoba's 23rd Legislature prorogued tonight completing the longest sitting in 26 years. It lasted 11 weeks.

Prorogation came at 10:55 p.m. The House commenced its sittings Feb. 1. Actual sitting days numbered 53 during which time 110 bills were presented.

Premier D. L. Campbell said that a special session may be called to deal with the government's power legislation.

Yesterday Winnipeg city council called for a referendum on the power question, snarling the government's plan to equalize power rates throughout the province.

Among the bills given royal assent was one that enabled farmers to vote on whether they wanted to continue compulsory marketing of coarse grains in Manitoba.

Another bill provided for the province to take over residential rent control when the Federal Government vacates the field April 30.

Premier Campbell also presented a record budget of $43,774,914 for the 1950-51 fiscal year. No increase in taxation resulted.

A bill amending the Hospital Aid Act was also approved which will increase the rates paid by municipalities for indigent patients.

Amendments in the milk control were approved, including the right of retailers to sell milk at less than maximum board prices.

The province decided to delay its liquor investigation for another year.

Fernie Trophies Win in Boone, Crockett Show

FERNIE, B. C., April 20—Fernie District's supremacy as a big game stand was shown clearly in the annual New York Boone and Crockett show of game trophies.

First prize in international competition for the biggest bighorn ram was won by the entry of Fernie Game Warden J. J. Osman; second prize was won by the entry of Mrs. A. L. Musser, of Spokane, who was guided on her trip here last Winter by Gordon Eftoda of Michel, and third prize went to Dr. R. Stearns, of Minneapolis, whose trip in this area was with guide Anton Rosicky of Wardner.

Lee Smith, of California, won the first prize for a Rocky Mountain goat with a trophy shot in the Fernie District, while being guided by Mike Bahar of Natal.

Cattle Demand Continues Strong

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Only minor adjustments were made in cattle prices this week and not all markets were affected, the Agricultural Department reported today in its weekly livestock review.

Supplies were about the same as in the previous week and were of generally good quality. Domestic demand continued strong and buying for export also was good.

Toronto was up $1 on good and choice veals at $35-$37 and $2 better on mediums at around $34, with others down to $30 and below.

Toronto settled $1 below last week's close with Grade A hogs $30 and sows $26 dressed. Montreal's decline was $2.

A seasonably small lamb supply at Toronto opened $1 lower on Monday and took another similar cut later to close at $38 for good Ontario feed-lot lambs, which is $4 below the record high of two weeks ago.

EXPORTS DECLINE

Beef cattle exports to the United States in the last week included 2077 head for immediate slaughter and 1706 for further feeding, a total of 3783 head.

OLEO IMPORT BAN WOULD BE ENDED

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — The Government is preparing to cut the last of the margarine prohibitions out of federal dairy legislation.

This will be done, it was learned today, by an amendment to the Dairy Act, the amendment will have the effect of eliminating a long-standing Dairy-Act ban against the import of margarine and butter substitutes.

This won't mean that Canada's doors will be immediately opened to a flow of butter substitutes from across the border.

Their import is prohibited by a customs tariff, put into effect 30 years ago when a dairy lobby told the government that margarine ingredients were no more than the "scrapings from the insides of cows' stomachs."

WAY OPENED FOR JEEP PRODUCTION IN CANADA

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — A United States vehicle company has finally dropped opposition to the use of its patents for a jeep production program in Canada, authoritative sources said today.

This means that one of the big hurdles has been crossed in the development of an extensive military vehicle production program in Canada, linked to the over-all, three-year $5,000,000,000 defence effort.

American Stockmen Help Kinsmen in Stampede Plans

Nelson's initiate stampede fans are going to get a corral display with all the trimmings—including a brand of bull fighting that puts the Mexican variety to shame.

That's the promise of Joe Kelsey and Howard Peelgren of Tonasket, Wash., who blew into Nelson this week to help set the stage for the first annual Kin Stampede here on June 22-23.

These two showmen are supplying all the stock for the mammoth event and plan to bring more than 100 head of bulls, steers and buckin' broncs to test the skill of the cowboys.

Included in the herd will be Texas Longhorn steers and Brahma bulls, the latter variety one of the toughest and meanest known.

Peelgren explains that the Brahma, unlike the Mexican bulls, does not close his eyes when he charges. He is able to change direction quickly so that the usual deft sidestep employed against the Mexican bull is not usually good enough against this fellow.

Illustrating his own special technique against the Brahma at the Kin Stampede will be Felix Cooper, colored toreador from Tiajuana, Mexico. Both Kelsey and Peelgren rate Felix way up there among the world's best and point out that when he's not in the arena, the boy doubles as a first-rate clown of the show.

In addition to the bull-fights all the usual stampede events will be on exhibition. These include saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, calf-roping and steer wrestling.

All these events are expected to produce top-notch competition for the Kin purses totalling more than $1250 in prizes. In addition, each contestant will pay an entry fee of $15 for each event entered and this will be added to the purses.

Kelsey and Peelgren expect between 60 and 90 experienced competitors will be on hand for the Stampede.

Among those expected are Gene Pruett of Yakima, Wash., world's champion bronc rider in 1949; Carl Olsen of Cardston, Alta., champion in 1947; Gene Ranbo of Salinas, Cal., three times winner of the International Rodeo Association award; Bill Linderman of Red Lodge, Mont., national all-round champion in 1949-50; Eddie Akridge of Beaver, Okla., and Deb. Copenhaver of Creston, Wash.

Although modest about their own skill, both Peelgren and Kelsey know their way around the corral. Kelsey was all-round champion for four consecutive years at the Lake Chelan, Wash., rodeo.

The pair will furnish the stock for 18 rodeos and stampedes this season, including events at Vernon, Penticton and many other points throughout Oregon, California, Idaho and Washington.

Peelgren is already busy setting up the stampede corrals and chutes at the Civic Centre grounds. He plans five long chutes and a large stock enclosure. The corral itself will measure 250 feet by 175 feet which should give ample elbow room for pursuer and pursued.

Construction will be in portable sections which will allow easy dismantling and storing until needed in June, also for stampedes here in future years.

Peelgren expects the chutes and fences will be ready some time next week.

Leduc Criminal Charges Dropped

EDMONTON, April 20 (CP) — Twelve charges of criminal negligence against the Leduc Utilities Limited will "be dropped", Attorney-General Luceien Maynard of Alberta announced today.

The charges followed the Remembrance Day Leduc Hotel blast and fire last year when 10 persons were killed. The charges concerned each of the 10 deaths and serious injury of two others.

Mr. Maynard said "a review of the evidence and verdict in the trial of Wilfred Gray, Leduc uitility engineer, on similar charges, has promted the decision."

(Mr. Gray was acquitted by a supreme court jury.)

He said the charges against the firm have not yet been withdrawn, "but they all will be dropped."

Rumor Field in Lubianka Prison

GENEVA, Switzerland, April 20 (AP)— Reports from underground sources in Czechoslovakia said today Noel Field, American mystery man of the cold war, is a prisoner in dread Lubianka Prison, where Russian Secret Police hold political prisoners.

The report said Field, an American Intelligence Agent during the war who has been missing since May, 1949 behind the Iron Curtain, was brought to Prague to confront Dr. Vlado Clementis, former Czech Foreign Minister now facing trial on charges of Titoism.

This was between Feb. 22 and March 7, the reports said.

CYCLIST KILLED, MAN INJURED IN COAST ACCIDENT

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP)— A youthful cyclist was killed and a pedestrian injured today in separate traffic accidents in Surrey municipality.

Name of the cyclist—who was hit by a truck—was withheld pending notification of next-of-kin.

Clifford Nixon, 27, was hurt in a freak accident involving a truck.

The vehicle load shifted as it swerved to avoid Nixon and several bags of seed cascaded down on him.

He was taken to hospital with head lacerations and shoulder injuries. His condition was satisfactory.

NAMED TO B. C. CIVIL DEFENCE

VICTORIA, B. C., April 20 (CP) —Two important appointments to the British Columbia Civil Defence Organization were announced today by R. A. Pennington, Civil Defence Committee Chairman.

Brig. G. A. McCarter of Saanich has been named an assistant to Maj.-Gen. C. R. Stein, Civil Defence Chief in B. C.

Maj. A. Cathcart Bruce of Vancouver has been selected to take a special instructors course in Ottawa next month. If successful, he will become chief instructor at the Provincial instructional centre.

At the same time, Mr. Pennington announced the first instructors school probably will be set up near Vancouver in July. After training sufficient instructors in that area it will move to Victoria. When finished in this area, the school then will go "on the road."

METAL PRICES

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — Spot nonferrous metal prices. Copper, 24½ cents a pound, Connecticut Valley. Lead, 17 cents a pound, New York. Zinc, 17½ cents a pound East St. Louis. Tin, $1.42 a pound, New York.

Named Assistant To C.P.A. President

VANCOUVER, April 20 — W. G. Townley of Vancouver, was today named executive assistant to the President of Canadian Pacific Airlines with headquarters here. The announcement was made by G. W. G. McConachie, President.

A graduate of the University of British Columbia, Mr. Townley was vice president and general manager of Capilano Airways Ltd., Vancouver, until that company was taken over by CPA in March, 1947, at which time he became superintendent of CPA's operations at Vancouver.

Senators Grapple In Angry Affray

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)— Three Senators grappled in an angry fray today as a climax to an argument over Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Far Eastern policies. Those present agreed no blows were struck.

The "shoving around" was in a radio studio.

Senator Homer Capehart (Rep.—Ind.) told reporters he pushed Senator Hubert Humphrey (Dem.—Minn.) out of a radio recording studio after Humphrey "called me a dirty name."

Capehart said he also pushed Senator Herbert Lehman (Dem. Lib.—N. Y.) back sharply when the New York Senator tried to intervene.

Senator Robert Taft (Rep.—O.) was the fourth participant in the radio program which was being recorded. He said no blows were struck and he did not hear any exchange of epithets.

"I am a peaceful man," Taft said. "All I did was to help separate them."

B.C. Flowers to Brighten London

LONDON, April 22 (CP)—A gift of 100 pounds of British Columbia flower seed, designed to brighten British bomb sites, was formally handed over at a ceremony today.

W. A. McAdam, Agent-General of British Columbia in London, presented the seed to the London Garden Society as a gift from F. O. Blake of Vancouver, retired manager of a West coast seed company.

A £40 ($158) check from George Townend of Duncan, B. C., donated to cover the seed purchases by the Society in Britain, was presented by Frances Matterson, Assistant Matron at a Duncan hospital, who is on a holiday here.

Accuses Ottawa of Mocking Democracy

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Labor will fight for increased wages to protect its standard of living, J. Stewart Alsbury, B. C. district president of the International Woodworkers of America (CIO), said here.

Increased wage demands will be made because of the federal government's failure to impose price controls.

In a radio broadcast last night Mr. Alsbury said:

"We can only conclude that the government condones a deliberate effort to force down our living standard and the workers are left with no alternative but to fight for increased wages.

"The federal government is making a mockery of democracy when it disregards the wishes of the general public."

Meeting Postponed

A meeting of City Council and Kootenay Lake General Hospital Board with a representative of the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service, which was to have been held Friday, has been postponed.

Rossland Wartime House Owners Submit Improvement Suggestions

ROSSLAND, B. C., April 20— As each owner of a wartime house in Rossland is to receive $100 worth of work by the city on city property surrounding his lots, many suggestions were submitted for improvements at a wartime housing property owners meeting tonight in Legion executive room.

William Keane, who is in charge of the work, told the meeting that work would get under way as soon as garbage collections were finished.

J. Reecke of Trail, in charge of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation here, said that any exterior painting to be done will be especially well done this year. If efficient work was not being carried out, he asked owners to phone him and work would be stopped immediately.

Discussion took place on flaws in the houses, and Mr. Reecke and Mr. Keane explained that everything in the houses might not be up to regulation, but that wavers were made at the time the houses were built owing to shortages of materials.

Rocks for walls around the properties will be supplied by the city. Mr. Reecke explained that but for exceptional cases, no repairs would be made on houses after sale.

A motion was passed calling for coverage of a mine shaft between Sixth and Seventh Streets for children's protection. Copies of the motion are to be sent to the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company and City Council.

Mr. Reecke said rumors had been circulating that if tenants would not buy their houses, they would be sent to homes in Sunningdale subdivision in Trail. This was untrue, he said. A vigorous campaign was being launched to sell all the houses for two reasons; first, that the government is cutting down on small down payments and there is likely to be a change in the present selling rate, and secondly that his company is now agent for national defence. Therefore it would be difficult to handle a few renting houses.

He said also that the Corporation was not selling to civilians and in instances where houses re-sold, it advised re-selling to veterans if possible. Of the 125 wartime houses in Rossland, 84 had been sold.

Golf-Playing Lumbermen Reach Tourney Finals

PINEHURST N. C., April 20 (AP) —Hobart Manley of Savannah, Ga., and Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N. C., a couple of golf-playing lumbermen, today reached the finals of the North and South amateur tournament.

They completed the conquest of the Walker Cup contingent that began the tournament strong Monday, with Manley eliminating regular Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, 3 and 1, and Patton scoring over cup alternate Bill (Dynamite) Goodloe of Vladosta, Ga., 3 and 2 in 36-hole semi-final matches.

Mild Booing for Pres. Truman

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)— President Harry Truman tossed out the first ball today as the 1951 baseball season began officially in the nation's capital. He was mildly booed as he entered the ball park but the demonstration subsided quickly.

Tommy Byrne, veteran New York Yankee lefthander, was on the mound for the visitors and Sandy Consuegra, Cuban right-hander, hurled for the Washington Nats.

The crowd of 31,000 saw the chief executive make the first pitch, left handed, from his box near the home dugout. Allie Reynolds, Yankee pitcher, caught the ball and had Mr. Truman autograph it as a souvenir.

The players of both teams scrambled for the ball which bounced off the upraised hands of Joe Collins, New York first baseman, into the mitt of Al, who leaped high for it.

Work Stoppages Lower in March

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Time lost through industrial disputes in Canada during March was less than in the previous month or in March, 1950.

There were 27 work stoppages involving 4754 workers during the month, for a time-loss of 15,135 man-days. The figures for February were 18 stoppages, 4508 workers and 18,878 days.

In March of last year, there were 22 tie-ups, involving 5600 workers and with a time-loss of 25,041 days.

The Weather

Synopsis—All B.C. temperatures were below the long time average for mid April. Coldest afternoon was experienced in Kimberley where under a cloudy sky the mercury could barely reach 36. Coastal temperatures were in the mid-fifties. This was in sharp contrast to the Southern part of Alberta where four inches of fresh snow were on the ground and temperatures stayed well below the freezing point.

Cloudiness blankets much of the Southern Interior but is expected to clear and most interior valleys will experience several degrees of frost.

A slow increase in cloudiness is looked for on the coast on Sunday.

Scouts to Plant Seeds at City Approach Soon

Nelson Boy Scouts will turn gardeners again this year.

Last year the Scouts, under the direction of Frank Holt, City gardener, planted seeds at the North Shore ferry approach and at the City limits on Ymir Road.

The boys will bend their efforts this season to improving the North Shore ferry landing, and in the next two weeks Scouts of the No. 5 troop will begin plantings under Scout Master John Clark. Mr. Holt is donating wild flower seeds which have just arrived from England.

Other troops will weed and water the annuals coming up.

Cupid Aims at Ontario Seamen

MELBOURNE, Australia, April 20 (CP)—A second Canadian seaman from the Canadian Cruiser Ontario has married an Australian girl he met during the warship's Australian visit.

Ab. Ray Mots, 21, of Winnipeg, was married today to Miss Marion O'Connel of Melbourne. The bride was delayed when she lost her way en route to the ceremony. She arrived 25 minutes late.

Mots met his bride when his ship called in Brisbane recently where she worked in a military hospital.

A week ago, Ab. Seaman William G. Hutcheson, 20-year-old British Columbian, was married to Iris Lillian June Holland after knowing her for only a week. They met at a Sydney dance and within 24 hours applied for a special marriage licence.

At Winnipeg, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mots said they have had their share of service marriages in the family but admitted they were "surprised and shocked" by the one today.

"This is the first I've heard of it", Mrs. Mots told reporters.

A daughter, Mrs. J. B. Sullivan has lived in Melbourne seven years since meeting and marrying an Australian airman in Canada during the Second World War.

Two other daughters here married navy and merchant navy men.

British General Praises Ridgway

TORONTO April 20 (CP) — The British Commonwealth is a great Asiatic power and its opinions of the East should be respected, General Sir Neil Ritchie told the St. George's Society here last night.

Gen. Ritchie, chairman and commander of the British joint services mission in Washington, said there are "hundreds of thousands of Asiatic subjects with whom we can claim some sympathy and understanding in their outlook and ideals."

Principal speaker at the Society's annual dinner, he praised Gen. Ridgway of the U.S. Army, present United Nations commander in Korea. "He is a great leader and the equal of any general in any country."

VANCOUVER POLICE OFFICERS LEAVE FORCE

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Two top Vancouver police officers will leave the force—possibly for good—on May 1.

The Police Commission today approved leave of absence for Inspectors F. O. (Fred) Fish and W. G. (Bill) Bridgman, detached from the force to take top posts with the Civil Defence Board.

Air Vice-Marshal F. V. Heakes, Civil Defence Coordinator, said their jobs with his organization will last "at least a year—probably longer."

Rossland, Nelson Girls Elocution Champions

TRAIL, B.C., April 20 — Rossland and Nelson elocution students shared championship wins in the Kootenay Musical Festival in K.P. hall here this afternoon. The hall was packed for the long classes.

Judy MacAuley of Rossland won the junior elocution championship class, and the Wood, Vallance Hardware Cup, and Nan Bruce of Nelson won the intermediate elocution championship. She will receive a new Knights of Pythias Cup.

Results:

Class 164—Elocution, boys under 15: "If" by Rudyard Kipling and "A Plain Direction" by Thomas Hood—Edward Thompson, Nelson, first; Derek Fraser, Rossland, second; Richard Calder, Trail, third; Fred Salekin, Castlegar; Donald Chaluck, Nelson.

Miss Garrood was delighted to see boys attack this difficult piece. They got the mood quite well but she warned them against stressing unaccented words. Before they could interpret the poem, the boys had to have a picture in their mind.

Class 165—Elocution, girls under 15: "To the Evening Star" by William Burke, and "The Dromedary" by A. Y. Campbell—Nan Bruce, Nelson, 83; Lois Haley, Rossland, second; Marion Mauchline, Fruitvale, third; Beverley Daly, Rossland; Evelyn Nyberg, Carolyn Schulte, Maralynne Richardson, Margaret Clair and Sherrel Riley, all of Castlegar; Judy Anne Desbrisay, Mary Simpkinson, Ann Hartley, Beatrice Lindley and Charlotte Ransom, all of Trail; Barbara Hyndman and Sheilah McPhail, both of Nelson, Marlene Gladdish, Fruitvale.

Class 166—Elocution, boys under 18: "When Icicles Hang by the Wall" by Shakespeare and "The Lobster and the Maid" by F. E. Weatherley—Ralph Lewis, Nelson, 80, 83.

The girls got the feeling and the mood of the first piece but they didn't keep the line moving. More facial expression was needed. There was some good word coloring.

Ralph Lewis presented beautiful work. His tone and inflections were good. He had a good stage presence, and could go far in dramatics.

Class 167—Elocution, girls under 18: "Off the Ground" by Walter de la Mare and "Margaritae Sorori" by W. E. Henley—Ann McDonald, Nelson, 84, 85; Maureen Kennedy, Nelson, second; Mildred Elmes, Rossland, third.

"Off the Ground" was a most difficult piece to put over effectively. The girls got the mood very well. In the second poem, the adjudicator was pleased to see that two of the girls used gestures. Miss McDonald gave a very sensitive performance.

Class 71—Elocution, under 16 years, competing for the Dr. W. J. Endicott Cup — Bible reading — Barbara Hyndman, Nelson, 86; Darlene Nesbitt, Edgewood and Derek Fraser, Rossland, tie for second; Shawn Harold, Nelson, Mildred Elmes, Rossland, and Beverley McLeod, Edgewood, tie for third; Alyse Mathison, Nelson; Jimmy DeLang, Trail.

All these competitors were far too good, and it was almost impossible to choose a winner. Because Barbara Hyndman was older, she could give a more mature reading.

John Garfield Set For Unamerican Activity Hearings

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)— Film star John Garfield, who says he has never been a Communist, is the first witness scheduled before the House of Representatives Unamerican Activities Committee when it resumes its Communism-in-Hollywood hearings Monday.

Garfield, and probably Academy Award winner Jose Ferrer, will headline a list of a half dozen or more movie personalities to be heard next week. Ferrer also has denied he ever was a Communist.

Pravda Reveals Ukraine Unrest

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — The Soviet Ukraine has a new Premier, and there has been no indication what happened to the former one.

This comes to light in a buried paragraph in Pravda, official newspaper of the Kremlin.

The item carries a suggestion of a purge brought on because of rising peasant resistance to the new super-regimentation of farmers. The Ukraine long has been the centre of resistance to the Kremlin's new idea of amalgamating collective farms into vast super-collectives.

The new Premier is V. V. Matskevitch. This was revealed in a sentence at the end of the article which railed at "shortcomings" in the Ukraine Party. The sentence said: "The plenary session discussed a report by Comrade V. V. Matskevitch, Chairman of the Ukraine Republic Council of Ministers."

The latest records available list D. S. Korotchenko as the Ukraine Council of Ministers, Chairman and Premier.

BLEWETT ROAD IMPROVED

BLEWETT, B. C., April 20—B. C. Provincial Public Works Department graders have been at work on Blewett road this week, vastly improving the road surface. The road is in its best condition since late last year.

Crews and equipment last Fall completed replacement of Sandy Creek bridge, about half a mile from the main highway, with a culvert and fill. Visibility and driving conditions have been bettered by cutting down a nearby corner and removal of material at the gravel pit.

Long trailer trucks hauling poles for the Cominco power transmission line project are additional traffic on the road.

First Scout Camp At Salmo in May

First District Boy Scout camp of the year will be held at Salmo the weekend of May 12.

All Scout troops in Nelson District will attend with their leaders. These include troops in South Slocan, Willow Point, Nelson's five troops and Ymir and Salmo troops.

Don Ure, District Commissioner, will be in charge, and each troop will be under its Scout Master and will leave fully-equipped. The boys will do their own cooking in patrols and instruction will be given in first aid, knots and whipping, signalling, tracking, trees and shrubs, compass, map reading and estimations.

Transportation from Nelson to Salmo will be handled by the group committees, and upon arriving at Salmo, the boys will hike two to three miles to the camp site.

District KP Contests Lined Up

NEW DENVER, B. C., April 20— New Denver Lodge No. 22, Knights of Pythias, plans to hold its public speaking contest Monday.

Contestants from Slocan City and Silverton will participate. L. R. Campbell will be Chairman.

Salmo Lodge will hold its contest on the same day.

The final contest will be held in Castlegar on a date to be decided the last week in April.

To Tour Western Naval Divisions

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Capt. Angus G. Boulton, Director of Naval Reserves and his Assistant Director, Cmdr. W. A. Childs will leave here late this month on an inspection tour of Western Naval Divisions, naval headquarters announced today.

They will visit divisions at Port Arthur April 25; Winnipeg, April 27; Regina, May 2; Calgary, May 4; Vancouver, May 8; Victoria, May 11. They return to Ottawa May 24.

This Week At Victoria

By LEO. T. NIMSICK
M.L.A. for Cranbrook

This week has been marked by the disappearance from the Order Paper of bills, petitions, resolutions and questions.

We had an interesting few minutes when the hospital insurance petition containing 205,000 names was presented Monday night. Although a division was called, and the Government was upheld in its decision not to consider the petition, nevertheless it demonstrated how quickly the public will respond on such an occasion. While it looks as though not much was accomplished by the petition, I am sure that it will do much in the future in the interests of good Government.

The bill permitting the coloring of margarine was defeated. Therefore the housewife who wishes or has to use margarine will either use it in its present colorless state or go through the messy job of mixing in the coloring.

Since this is my last news report for this Session, I wish to thank the Editors for the kind privilege they have extended to me in publishing these reports. It gives me encouragement to know that you, the constituents have had the opportunity to read how I have been endeavoring to carry out my duties as your representative. In addition, I wish to ask any of you who consider these reports to be in the interest of democracy to express your appreciation to the publishers whenever you have the opportunity. With that I will say au revoir until the next Session.

Travel Schools For Slocan Area

NEW DENVER, B. C., April 20 —The travel school for Slocan District Board of Trade is sponsoring a series of travel schools to be held as follows: Slocan City, April 25; New Denver, April 26; Silverton, April 27. These meetings will be open to all interested.

Speakers have been chosen to deal with subjects pertaining to history, geography and natural resources of the district. Special emphasis will be placed on the importance of selling the district to tourists and visitors in order that the maximum benefits may be enjoyed.

A. L. (Sandy) Harris of New Denver, Oldtimers Hydroelectrical Power Operators and Game Conservationist, is convener of the program.

Speakers will include Rt. Rev. Bishop Hugh Embling, James Draper, Neil Tattrie, Mrs. J. A. Greer and many others.

FINED FOR EXCEEDING RESTRICTED SPEED LIMIT

Peter John Hlookoff, Nelson truck driver, paid a fine of $75 when he appeared n R.C.M.P. Court Friday on a charge of exceeding the 25 m.p.h. speed limit on a restricted speed highway March 30.

Hlookoff pleaded not guilty when he appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans April 13 and was remanded until yesterday. He said he had not been aware that he was exceeding the speed limit at the time and that he had later discovered that the speedometer was not registering properly.

He was convicted and ordered to pay the fine.

J. S. Reid Named Kimberley Moose Lodge Governor

KIMBERLEY, B.C., April 20 — Election of officers was held by the Kimberley Moose Lodge with the following being chosen:

Governor — J. S. Reid; Junior Governor—W. Marusyk; Prelate — C. T. Gover; Secretary—E. Turner; Treasurer—A. Montemurro; Trustees—E. Stone, A. J. Trinder and George Ross.

Junior Past Governor is R. Almack.

Other appointments will be made before installation April 29.

This lodge has had a very active week. On Friday they held another of their popular public dances. On the 14th a spaghetti dinner attracted a large crowd, Mr. and Mrs. A. Montemurro being in charge of the cooking arrangements. A social evening and dance completed the entertainment.

Local Moose will be celebrating their silver anniversary this month and many outside lodges are expected to attend. A public dance. a social evening for members and initiatilon of the silver anniversary class as well as installation of officers will be held.

Robert Service Wins Cranbrook Oratory Title

CRANBROOK, B.C., April 20 — Robert Service, speaking on turning points of history in communications development, took the Cranbrook High School oratory championship here, with last year's winner, Nina Tomich, on development of ideals a close second, and Mary Jean Levirs third. Other entries were Louis Savarie and Zo Brown.

Tom Smith was chairman on behalf of the Knights of Pythias Lodge who sponsor this event, and judges were Rev. Charles Tarry, G. E. K. MacDonald and Mrs. J. M. Falkins.

Winner of East Kootenay centres championship will compete here Sunday for the district championship toward regional and international finals and scholarship awards sponsored by the K.P. Lodge on an international basis.

Power Usage, Building Permits Up in Cranbrook

CRANBROOK, B.C., April 20 — City power consumption last month at 472,320 kilowatt hours, outstripped the same month last year by 12 per cent, city electrical superintendent G. W. Burch has reported to city council. Net gain of ten active meters to the city system is reported so far this year.

Building permits issued during March were far above average at estimated $100,230 for ten projects, city works superintendent Emil Erickson reported. Water supply condtions were above normal at 5,895,000 gallons per day surplus runoff.

Fire Chief James Gordon reported eight fire alarms during the month with total loss $146.61, all covered by insurance. He also reported the city's new fire truck chassis had been delivered to Woodstock, Ont., by the factory for custom building to meet city requirements for special equipment.

SLOCAN TRADE BOARD TO HEAR E. E. HYNDMAN

NEW DENVER, B. C., April 20—Council of the Slocan District Board of Trade meeting at the home of Thomas M. Leask in Silverton, decided to hold the next regular general meeting at Silverton on Tuesday, April 24.

Guest speaker will be E. E. Hyndman, Inspector of Schools, reporting for the blood donors committee. Quentin A. Forsythe said that the first step in the campaign would be a general meeting in the New Denver Legion Hall on Monday.

On May 7, M. D. Robertson of of the Red Cross Society, is ex-Vancouver, Blood Donor Chairman pected to visit the district and to lay definite plans for the visit of the clinic June 20.

Elocution Class Festival's Largest

TRAIL, B.C., April 20—Seventy-three children between the ages of eight and twelve years stood up and recited poems that had taken weeks of practice before elocution adjudicator Miss O. Garrood of Kamloops in the Kootenay Musical Festival in K.P. Hall Friday morning.

The morning session got under way with the largest class of the festival. Thirty-eight boys and girls competed.

Results:

Class 162 — Elocution, under 12 years — "The Last Antelope" by E. F. Piper and "Wander-Lust" by Gerald Gould. — Priscilla Heywood, Rosland, 80, 83; Barbara Haight, Rossland, second; Darlene Nesbitt and Beverley McLeod, both of Edgewood, third; Alistair Fraser, Lynn Offin, Barbara Haight, Barbara Osborne, Margaret Page, Patricia Henry, Wendy Caddick, Donna-Faye Haley, Moira Bayley, all of Rossland; Glenna Shier, Frances Rhodes, Judith Ransom, Michele Ann Birch, Joanne Davies, William Ferraro, Bobby Somerville, Norma Gill, Sheila Fenton, Patricia Wilkinson, Danae Williams, Arthur More, Gloria Cooke, Dianne Matthews and Linda Thatcher, all of Trail; George Zebroff, Betty Jean Lampard, Darlene Harding, Maureen Lipsett, Frank Perchudoff and Terry Keefe, all of Castlegar; Walter Kooznetsow of Tarrys; Darlene Nesbitt and Beverley McLeod of Edgewood.

Miss Garrood said she thought it was remarkable that so many young people should find the study of speech interesting and should study it. She was impressed by the fact that direction on the whole was very good, and that the youngsters spoke out. The four "M's" of good speech were—meaning, mood, music and movement — some of this was evident in these classes.

Class 161 — Elocution, under 10 years — "The Wonderful World" by W. B. Rands and "Tip-Toe Tale" by Dixie Willson — Judy MacAulay, Rossland 79, 83; Robert Pratt, Tarrys, second; Billy Fraser, Nelson, third; Judith Cameron, Nola Landucci, Norm oy Bentley, Brenda Hamson, Valerie Lucas, Terence Heaps and Katherine Hall, all of Trail; Robin Amsden, Bonnie MacDonald and Mary Fink, all of Nelson; Alex Reibin and Fred Kooznetsoff, both of Tarys; Darlene Ratzlaff, Connie Kenny, Ellen Higgins, all of Fruitvale; William Armstrong, Douglas Schneider, Lois Hewgill and Heather Harris, all of Rossland.

"I did enjoy this class!" Miss Garrood said. The first poem was very lovely and also a difficult one for young children. Some of the contestants had a better idea of looking at the world than others. There could have been more freedom of movement. It was natural for those with imagination to want to express themselves with movement. On the whole there was not enough facial expression or change of mood and tempo.

Class 160 — Elocution, under 8 year — "The Worm" by R. Bergengren and "The Musician" by M. Chute — Robert Landucci, Trail, 79, 82; Danny Barrett, Fruitvale, second; Marion Dolson, Trail, third; Barbara Lee, Trail; Lilly Zeibin, Lilly Fillipoff, Nadeen Perehudoff, eanette Chernoff, Olga Rezansoff, Clara Rezansoff, all of Tarrys; Noreen Moore, Adeline Alexander and Lynda Williams, all of Fruitvale.

Fined for Operating Unlicensed Truck

Storms Contracting (Pacific) Ltd. was ordered to pay a fine of $25 and costs in RCMP Court Friday by Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans on a charge of operating a truck without a licence.

Superintendent O. W. Smith, appearing for the Company, pleaded guilty and paid the fine.

The charge resulted from investigation of an accident April 9 involving the truck in question and another vehicle on the Ymir Road.

GIVEN THREE MONTHS FOR OBTAINING MONEY ON FALSE PRETENCES

John George Jones of New Denver was sentenced to three months in jail when he pleaded guilty to obtaining money by false pretences in RCMP Court. Stipendiary Magistrate W. E. Evans presided. Jones was defended by L. M. McBride.

The complaint alleged that Jones received $100 in advance pay from a logging contractor on the strength of a claim that money was owed him by a previous employer, then left for the Coast.

Yale Mine Will Bring Production To Capacity by End of the Month

AINSWORTH, B.C., April 20 — When its sink float unit goes into operation at the end of the month, Yale Lead and Zinc Mine here hopes to bring its production to capacity.

First milling of the firm was done earlier this month when the new mill was opened. More than 10 district mining men attended the event and inspected the plant. The mill opening was delayed owning to lateness of equipment arrival.

The plant consists of a sink float unit capable of treating 300 tons daily and a selective flotation concentrator of 180 tons daily capacity which is in operation. All ore passes and bins are full and a large quantity of ore has been stockpiled in dumps.

Spare Those Muscles When Spading Garden

If you want your garden plot to be well prepared, spade it yourself. Weeks may slip by waiting for a workman to do a job which, by the proper approach, can be reduced to enjoyable and beneficial exercise.

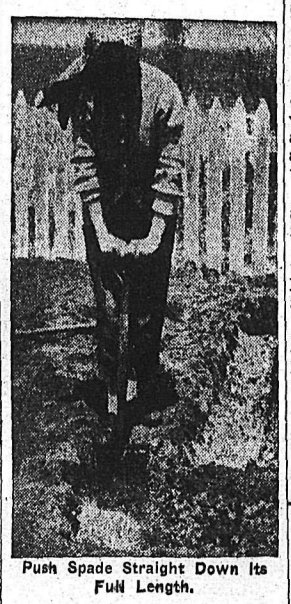
The secret is to take it easy. Spading is not hard work if done a little at a time. A space 30 x 50 feet can be spaded in a leisurely way in eight hours. One hour a day for eight days, and the job is done.

But first, be sure the soil is in condition to spade. Never work soil which is too wet; and if the soil is heavy, don't wait until it has become too dry. There is a point between extremes when even heavy clay can easily be lifted, and will crumble under a blow from the spade. You can tell this point by using the "mud pie" test.

When Soil Crumbles in the Hand, It is Dry Enough to Work.

Mould a ball of earth in your hand, and pat it to make a mud pie. If the pie holds together, the soil is too wet to spade. If it crumbles, then you can go ahead.

Systematic spading makes the job easier, and more complete. Here is one way to do it: Set a definite task for your first day's work, say a strip six feet wide, running the shortest dimension of the garden. At one end dig a ditch, say one foot wide and the depth of the spade, removing all soil from it.



Push Spade Straight Down Its Full Length.

Pile this soil near the opposite end of the strip.

Now begin to spade with the blade not parallel to the trench, but at right angles to it. This enables you to lift the soil more easily, and deposit it in the trench. The spade should be driven down, not on a slant, but perpendicularly to its full depth. Take a small slice of the soil so your back is not strained. Lift it up, turn the spade over, so that the top soil falls underneath and bottom soil on top. In filling the first trench, you have opened a second.

If you wish to spade under manure, spread it evenly over the area, except for the top of your initial trench. When this first trench has been dug, clean the manure from the top of the next trench and throw it into the bottom of the first; then proceed with your spading, piling the soil on top of the manure.

When you have finished your day's quota, you will have an empty trench, which should be filled with the soil you removed from the initial trench.

$804,000,000 In New Homes In '50 for Canada

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Canadians spent a record $2,335,000,000 on new construction in 1950, $804,000,000 of it on new homes.

But even at that the annual volume of house-building activity last year showed no appreciable increase over the preceding year for the first time since the end of the Second World War.

This, Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation reported in its quarterly summary, Housing in Canada, was due mainly to the continued rise in building costs.

The combined index of prices of residential building materials and wage rates in the construction trades advanced 12 percent last year compared with less than one percent in 1949.

Dwellings started during 1950 numbered 93,200, of which 90,400 were in new structures and the remainder conversions. This compared with 89,500 new structures and 3422 conversions in 1949.

A total of 90,000 were completed last year, including 87,300 new homes. This was a decline of one percent from 1949, when 90,955 dwellings were completed, 87,500 of them in new structures.

Non-residential construction during the year amounted to more than $1,530,000,000 last year, compared with $1,328,400,000 in 1949.

Landlord Fined In Attack on Tenant With Axe

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 20 (CP) — Alex Podkydailo, a landlord who removed windows from a tenant's building, today was fined $500 and ordered to post a bond of $1000 to keep the peace for two years.

He was convicted of occasioning actual bodily harm to E. A. Harrison, a tenant, March 8.

During the tenant-landlord dispute Harrison was injured when Podkydailo attacked him with an ax and hatchet.

Harrison charged the landlord removed the windows. But the landlord said he was only making repairs.

Author Protests Against Damming Rare Scenic Lake

COURTENAY, B.C., April 20 (CP) —There is no need for destruction of Buttle Lake as one of the rare scenic spots of the world, Campbell River Author, Roderick L. Haig-Brown says in reply to the arguments recently advanced in the controversy over the proposed damming of the lake by the B.C. Power Commission.

A 68-foot storage dam on Upper Campbell Lake, together with the existing storage dam at Ladore Falls would assure the full potential of the entire watershed and a handsome safety factor as well, he says.

"There are other alternatives," Mr. Haig-Brown added, "that would not flood a single stick of timber on Buttle Lake or down out a single beach or creek."

"Buttle Lake is one of the rare places of the world that it is completely untouched by man," he states. "It is nearly 20 miles of safe and pleasant water amid magnificent mountains and with magnificently-timbered shores.

"Cut away the timber, drown the natural beaches by a rise and fall of 45 feet every year (which would occur if the lake were to be dammed) and nothing of all this is left," he declares.

"A park the size and quality of Strathcona, within easy reach of the province's main centres of population and man flow of tourist travel, is much too important an asset to be handled carelessly according to the whims of hydro-electric engineers," the author says.

Ottawa Floods Claim Victim

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) —Further evacuations and reports of looting of abandoned homes on the Quebec side of the rampaging Ottawa River today sent 30 members of the army into action in the flood-stricken areas.

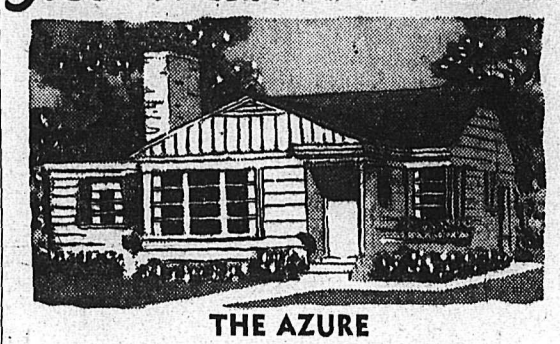
The floods claimed one victim. Hyacinthe Malo, 78, of Gatineau Mills, Que., nine miles Northeast of Ottawa was carried away by the swift current after losing his balance in a rowboat.

A one-inch rise in the levels of and Gatineau Rivers at Gatineau Point, five miles Northeast of Ottawa, hardest hit in the floods, marooned 18 more families. More than 150 families of the small town already have been evacuated and harbored in churches and local halls.

Looting was reported at Gatineau Point and at Gatineau Mills, where 75 families have been forced from their homes.

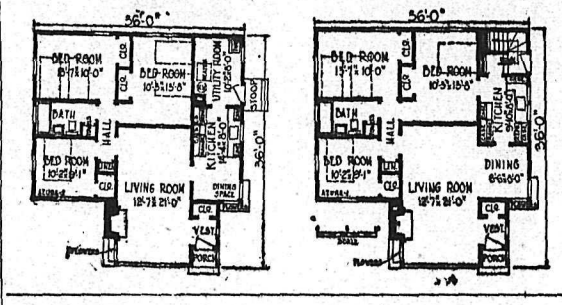
Capt. George Chagnon, in charge of operations in the Point area, said his men would be augmented by soldiers and amphibious equipment from Montreal.

The Modern Home



THE AZURE

This home, although not large, is immeasurably spacious. It contains three bedrooms, one of which is sufficiently large to accommodate twin beds, and plan 1 has a dining area just off the living room, and very effectively eliminates the necessity of a room set aside for that purpose. In plan 2 this dining space is incorporated at one end of the kitchen.



Chief Justice Labels Forest Act Shocking

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP) — Chief Justice Wendell B. Farris today described British Columbia's Forests Act as "shocking" during hearing of a court case.

He was told that two booms of logs valued at more than $8000 were seized last September 14, and that the owners were not notified until they received a letter from the Forestry Department dated Sept. 23.

Counsel for the owners, Harrison Mills, said the Act allows only 10 days from the date of seizure in which to enter protest.

"This is the most outrageous Act I have ever read," Chief Justice Farris said. "A man might have his whole life savings destroyed for some minor infraction under the arbitrary provisions of this statute, which does not even fix the penalty.

"Government officials constitute themselves judge and jury," he added, "but it seems to me that a man should have the right to appear before an independent court and not have his guilt or innocence determined by the very officials who are making a complaint against him."

The Harrison Mills booms were seized for alleged mis-marking by the owners.

The Chief Justice decided he had no power to extend the time to protest regarding the larger boom, valued at $7000. But he did order a hearing regarding the smaller boom.

The case was adjourned for one week and counsel for the logging company will dispute the validity of the seizure on the ground that it was not made by a sheriff.

Imports Highest Ever

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — Canada, in the first two months of 1951, went on the biggest foreign spending spree in her history.

Her imports of $601,400,000 in January and February were $389,000,000 higher than the $212,000,000 in the same period last year and the highest ever, the Bureau of Statistics reported today.

Exports, too, were riding high, but shipments valued at $525,600,000 were running lower than imports, making for a $75,700,000 trade deficit for the two months.

Trade officials said it was too early to tell whether this deficit is shaping up into a long-term pattern. At the moment, it was not considered serious. Canada probably would regain her traditional surplus of exports over imports as the year progressed.

Total trade for the two months came to $1,127,000,000, a heavy gain over last year's $837,400,000.

As usual, Canada did most of her shopping in the United States, running up an import bill of $432,300,000, again higher than last year's $297,600,000.

Exports to the U.S. of $345,300,000 jumped from $263,300,000, but failed to keep up with imports. This made for a deficit with the U.S. of $87,100,000, more than double last year's $34,400,000.

Shipments to Britain totalled $73,800,000, down from $79,000,000. Imports totalled $61,700,000, a $10,000,000-climb from last year's $51,500,000.

Movie Gossip—

James Stewart Tackles New Part In DeMille's Great Circus Epic

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, April 20 (AP) — James Stewart is taking a lesson from Harvey. In his new film, the actor's face doesn't appear, either.

Don't get me wrong. Stewart isn't as invisible as the king-size rabbit. He's playing a clown in his new film, and he'll appear in heavy make-up throughout the story. Not once will you see his real face.

The film is the new C. B. Demille epic, "The Greatest Show on Earth." Stewart plays a man who has committed some clouded crime in his past. He hides from the law by taking a job as a clown in the circus.

Stewart is taking considerably less than his usual salary of about $150,000 per picture. And the role is smaller than those of the other stars — Cornel Wilde, Betty Hutton, Gloria Grahame and Dorothy Lamour.

STEWART'S HAPPY

I found Stewart happily hiding behind his make-up.

"This is quite a part," Stewart drawled. "If you sneeze, you're liable to miss me." He works 15 days of the 100-day shooting schedule.

I asked him why he is doing the role.

"Wal, it's a good part, even if it is short," he replied. "And I've always wanted to work for this man (Demille)."

Stewart isn't the only one performing unusually in the film. Betty Hutton has learned to do her own stunts as the aerialist. She hangs by her hands, flies into a half-turn and is caught by a bona fide circus performer.

"I practised at the studio, doing it at 26 feet above the ground," she told me. "That wasn't so bad. Then we went with the circus and I went up to 46 feet. Believe me, I was scared. But once you're up there, you don't have time to think about it."

Single Transferable Vote in Federal Elections Urged

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — Two Opposition Members urged today in the Commons that the single transferable vote system be used in Federal elections to assure representations of the majority of voters.

J. A. Ross (PC—Souris) said that 121 of the members in the 262-seat Commons were elected with minority votes. They defeated their closest opponent, but they lacked an over-all majority.

The Government, he said, which won close to 190 seats in the 1949 general election had received less than 50 per cent of the vote.

Robert Fair (SC—Battle River) also urged adoption of the single transferable vote. The system is used in provincial elections by both Manitoba and Alberta.

3 Competitions Set for Air Cadets

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — The Air Cadet League of Canada today announced establishment of three national competitions designed to bolster the training of air cadets. Special trophies will be awarded.

The "Token of Friendship" trophy donated by the Air Training Corps of Great Britain, will go to the provinces whose cadets obtain the best average score on the Air Cadet Flying Scholarship courses held at the flying clubs each Summer.

A Flying Training Trophy, donated by the League's past president, M. Banker Bates of Hamilton, will be awarded annually to the cadet who obtains the highest marks on the R.C.A.F. scholarship flying training courses held each Summer.

The Royal Canadian Air Force Association Proficiency Trophy is to be awarded annually to the most proficient air cadet squadron.

Trinidad is the most Southerly of the West Indies, lying only seven miles from Venezuela.

Site for Home Should Have Careful Study

Here are a few questions on the homesite a future home builder might pin up for reference:

Will it or can it be made to enhance the beauty of the type home you are contemplating?

Are the surrounding homes of good design and proper size so that your home will not seem out of place?

Is the general area going "downhill" or increasing in value?

Is transportation available and adequate?

Do the types and locations of schools and churches meet your requirements?

Will you have access to shopping?

Will the zoning requirements, subdivision restrictions, or building codes permit you to build the type of home you want?

Are police, fire and other municipal services adequate and commensurate with the tax load?

Are public utilities such as water, electricity, gas, sewers and telephones at your disposal?

Are the road, walks, dainage and street lighting adequate?

Will you be able to place your proposed home on the site to gain the most advantage of the sun and prevailing winds during the year?

Will the site meet or accommodate any part of the following outdoor living requirement of your family: space for garden, fruit trees, entertaining, barbecue pit, terrace, rubbish disposal, drying or sunning clothes, play yard, hobby or game area, and space for pets?

Churchill Urges Atlantic Sharing

LONDON April, 20 (Reuters) — The Government tonight defeated by 11 votes a Conservative challenge to the choice of an American admiral as Allied supreme commander in the Atlantic.

Voting was 291 to 280 against a Conservative motion in the House of Commons to reduce the salary of Defence Minister Emanuel Shinwell, the usual parliamentary method of criticizing a Government's defence policy in a debate on defence appropriations.

Churchill, twice head of Britain's Admiralty in wartime, said he doesn't think it necessary to have a supreme Atlantic commander.

He said it would be unfair to a distinguished officer such as Adm. William Fechteler, generally believed the choice for the job, to have all the nominal responsibility but no real power.

But if a supreme commander has to be appointed, he should be based in Britain, regardless of nationality, Churchill added.

"I ask that this matter should be reconsidered from the beginning and that command of the Atlantic should be agreeably divided between Great Britain and the U.S. on equal terms," he said.

Canada's Wheat Stocks Higher

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP)—Canada's stocks of wheat, substantially higher than a year ago, totalled 352,822,423 bushels at March 31, the Bureau of Statistics reported today. This compared with 250,170,749 last year.

Of this amount, 161,450,000 bushels were on Canadian farms, again sharply higher than last years 112,000,000 bushels.

Holdings were greater for all coarse grains, with the exception of flaxseed which was lower.

Stocks of oats totalled 229,799,721 bushels, compared with last years 139,097,376; barley, 111,021,149, compared with 66,109,901; rye, 10,929,093, compared with 10,419,921 and flaxseed, or linseed, 2,974,052, compared with 6,752,807.

Shawcross Ends Stone Incident

LONDON, April 20 (AP) — Scots who swiped Britain's Coronation Stone of Scone committed "a vulgar act of vandalism" Attorney-General Sir Hartley Shawcross said today, but he told the House of Commons he won't have anybody arrested for it.

Shawcross said three or four ardent Scottish nationalists linked to the spectacular theft have admitted their implication, but he said he didn't think the public interest required direct criminal proceedings.

The stone, known to Scots as "Scotland's Stone of Destiny" was looted from Scone Abbey in 1296 and brought to England. Scots, whose rulers for eight centuries had been crowned while seated on the stone, never let up in their demands for its return. But the English regard its rightful place as Westminster Abbey.

New Code for Building of Homes Issued

OTTAWA, Ont.—A 77-page booklet—"A Code for Dwelling Construction"—for buildings housing one or two families—has been issued by the National Research Council's Associate Committee on the National Building Code here.

A condensation, in simple language, of National Building Code regulations applying to dwelling construction, the booklet is intended as a guide to building officials. The Committee points out this simplfied Code must be accepted by a municipality before it can be enforced locally.

Covering every aspect of home construction, the new book devotes six pages to heating and plumbing requirements. Details discussed include municipal water supply, required fixtures, quality, and installation of plumbing, smoke tests steam and hot water piping, domestic furnaces and room temperatures.

In the booklet's introduction, it is stated that a completely revised version of the National Building Code itself will likely be available in 1952.

The World of WOMEN

World Peace Can Be Achieved, W.I. Told

"Enough people working for peace can have a great influence in deciding the future of the world," Rev. A. R. T. Dixon told Nelson Women's Institute at its meeting Friday afternoon in W.I. room.

People of the world wanted peace, he said, yet they were divided on insignificant points such as color and creed. They should unite on more common ground, such as their joys, sorrows and tribulations.

Mr. Dixon noted that after the First World War people had faith in the League of Nations and "talked peace," but that after the Second World War an alarming attitude arose. "No one talks about the possibilities of peace any more."

FOUR ATTITUDES

There were four points of view today on how peace might be attained, he said. There was the "MacArthur" point of view, and Mr. Dixon felt many agreed with the General's opinion that the United Nations should "strike, and strike on every front" when the time was ripe.

Mr. Dixon described as the "Truman" point of view the attitude of people that the war in Korea should be localized and a world police force established until an international authority and an international army are set up.

Thirdly, there were those who thought war weapons such as the atom bomb should be banned, and lastly, those who visualized a world movement for peace based on Christianity.

Mr. Dixon said he was a member of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, a world-wide movement which aimed at peace through prayer and study. Mr. Dixon suggested that the Women's Institute movement, with its international work in the Associated Countrywomen of the World, might associate itself with the Fellowship of Reconciliation.

TEA FOR VISITOR

A tea was planned for Monday at the home of Mrs. R. A. Custer, president, for Mrs. F. E. Davis of Barrow-on-Soar, Derbyshire, England, a well-known member of the British Women's Institute who is on a four-month tour of Canada under the British Imperial Relations Trust, who arrives Sunday. Heads of other women's organizations will be invited to attend.

Mrs. Hogg was appointed official delegate to the district W.I. conference in Kinnaird May 15.

The public was reminded of the Mary E. Davidson Memorial Fund, for eye and ear treatment for indigent children under the age of 16 in the district.

New Denver Choir At Nakusp Service

NAKUSP, B.C. April 20— Robertson Memoral United Church, Nakusp, was filled to capacity when the Choir of Turner Memorial Church, New Denver, journeyed to Nakusp to bring a special service of song.

Golden Wedding Celebrants

Memories of a day 50 years ago in England came flooding back to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Billings of Kaslo when they cut this "wedding" cake at a reception in St. Andrew's United Church hall. Golden wedding celebration of the couple, who have lived in Kaslo since 1918, was a big event. Mr. Billings is a former city electrician. —Orrell's photo.

Mrs. E. W. Bell, Early Nakusp CGIT Organizer, Laid at Rest

NAKUSP, B. C., April 20—Funeral services for Mrs. Lelitia Naomi Bill, wife of Ernest W. Bill, who died in the Arrow Lakes Hospital, Sunday morning, April 15, at the age of 85 years and 11 months, were held in the Robertson Memorial Church on Thursday afternoon.

Many friends were there to pay their last tributes of esteem to one of Nakusp's best loved citizens. Thirty of the Canadian Girls in Training, which included many of the first girl members, formed a guard of honor at the church door and at the Nakusp cemetery where the body was interred.

Rev. B. S. S. Hartley conducted the services and when speaking of Mrs. Bill, he made mention of the devoted wife and mother. He praiesd her unselfish devotion to the young girls of the district in Sunday School work and C.G.I.T., whose lives were a living memorial to her.

Mrs. Bill carried on this work for 17 years, starting when the C.G.I.T. movement was very young.

Pallbearers were B. McRobert, E. C. Johnson, John Grigg, J. W. Bailey, Joe Kirk and J. S. Crowell.

Many lovely floral tributes filled the church.

Mrs. Bill is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Hugh Jones of Vancouver.

Mrs. Bill in England, who was Nurse Lala to the King and Royal Family, is a sister-in-law.

The two hymns sung by the congregation were her favorites, "Rock of Ages", and "Blessed Be the Tie That Binds".

Nakusp District Passes Red Cross Objective

NAKUSP, B.C., April 20 — Mrs. Peter Hurry, convener for the district Red Cross drive which was under the auspices of the Pythian Sisters and helpers at Nakusp reported the objective was $500.

The proceeds from down lake points with canvassers from the Women's Institute are West Arrow Park, $48.50, East Arrow Park, $19.50; Burton $48.20 and Nakusp $397.26 to total $513.46.

75,000 WIs In England, Member Says

NAKUSP, B. C., April 20—There are 75,000 Women's Institutes in England, Mrs. F. E. Davis of Barrow-on-Soar, Derbyshire, England, one of two British National Federation W. I. members touring Canada for the British Imperial Relations Trust under the chairmanship of Lady Reading, told a special meeting of Nakusp Women's Institute. East Arrow Park was represented.

All these Institutes are working for the betterment of the country, she said.

Mrs. Davis expressed her thanks to the people of Canada for the food parcels received in England during the war years and now.

Mrs. Morton gave a Pauline Johnson reading, and Mrs. Graham Elder also gave a reading. Arts and crafts of local talent were shown to Mrs. Davis.

Mrs. A. E. Fowler, President, presented the visitor with a colored picture of SS Minto.

Rossland L.A. Gets New Members

ROSSLAND, B.C., April 20—Five new members were initiated into Ladies' Auxiliary to Fraternal Order of Eagles at its meeting here.

They were Mrs. G. Yarmoluk, Mrs. Arnold Campbell, Mrs. William Dorey, Mrs. C. Hayes and Mrs. Reginald Langman. Mrs. H. B. Collier of Kimberley was a visitor.

Discussion centred on a joint installation to be held in June, and final arrangements were made for a Spring tea.

Plain Talk

It had to come sooner or later. Washington has started to straighten out the gobbledygookers. The lads who write and weave the amazing maze of officialese are finally going to be unwound.

Plain English is going to go into the defence mobilization regulations, says Washington, and Canadians can offer up a silent prayer that the germ that inspired this gem of wisdom is catching. Business Week gives an idea of just what the simplication of the rule-writers language can mean. For instance, this one graced the regulations papers:

"Ultimate consumer means a person or group of persons, generally constituting a domestic household, who purchase eggs generally at the individual stores of retailers or purchase and receive deliveries of eggs at the place of abode of the individual or domestic household from producers or retail route sellers and who use such eggs for their consumption of food."

This was rewritten to read:

"Ultimate consumers are people who buy eggs and eat them."

Let's hope that a turning point has been reached. Plain talk will lead to straight thinking all down the line. And who knows, but the day may soon be upon us when a consumer being called a consumer will also be thought of and treated as a consumer.

Telephone Tapping Not for Canadians

Legalizing wire tapping of telephones by the police is not viewed with any enthusiasm by the Abbotsford, B.C., News, and we heartily echo its feeling:

"Laws tend to have an amazing elasticity in such matters. In more countries than one, such practices have been used by totalitarian rulers to spy upon and ultimately wipe out honest opposition. Such technological snooping is thoroughly repugnant to the democratic concept of government. It is hoped that federal authorities will decide that the activities of bookmakers are not sufficient injurious to warrant the introduction of police-state methods by the police of any Canadian province."

Spring, 1951 Style

Ah, April! Ah, Spring! Just when young men's thoughts are starting to turn to thoughts of love and twosomes, some killjoy mentions the cost of living.

Your Horoscope

Forget to brood or worry; communicate, write or otherwise express yourself. Be confident. Born today, a child is likely to be robust and successful.

FOR SUNDAY, APRIL 22: Your next year should be one of monetary benefits. Born on this date, a child may be sensitive, but successful.

Urges Provision Be Made to Welcome, Assist Soldiers

To The Editor:

Sir—I was interested in the Salmo soldier's mother's letter. It does seem the boys pay plenty sometimes. They too pay B.C. Hospital Insurance premiums for their families, at least while on this side, certainly they pay income tax.

Some are glad to give the boys rides on their often-last leaves, others are splendid sending direct to the boys such things as Canadian smokes, woollen socks and other comforts which really are appreciated. Others sometimes think it foolishness our boys are in Korea, but let me remind you a good soldier obeys orders.

One point I'd like to make for others is that affairs are not organized to any great extent yet for the soldiers returning. Could not each fair sized city throughout Canada make some provision for stopping places for lads making their way home, perhaps through change of circumstances to another province from his point of discharge, some sort of welcome to let them know we're glad they are back? There isn't the fanfare there was in the last war, but still there is a war on for many of us.

ANOTHER SOLDIER'S MOTHER.

Verse

Life and Love

I

Life is a dream we ascend;
Moments grind swift to their end,
As rolls the tide to the shore,
Washing the waves in the sand.

Life is a memory dear;
Moments that yield to the year
Surely must show their response
Deep in the thought of a tear.

Hearts pas on like endless waves,
Memories go to the grave.
God, may we heed to Your Word,
Lest that our souls are not saved.

II

Love is a life of fathom'd beauty,
Such that only death can reap;
Born of silence, mankind's duty,
Nature's talent sown in sleep.

Time is dead, and has no keeping
Where the tendrils of love entwine;
Fears are bled, but Love is sleeping
Till its flowers of faith repine.

Love is Life wherein the Present
Drinks of memories from the Past,
Calling back in silver quiescence,
Hoping for a placid aftermath.

Love is power,
Real as its hour;
Born in tears,
Lived in fears.
Life is a dream . . . but Love is its stream.

—W. D. TURNBULL.

FIRST STEP TO KNOWLEDGE

The only time a man feels that he has nothing to learn is when he has just finished his freshman year at college. Later on, he will realize that the first step to knowledge comes when he realizes how little he has learned.—Guelph Mercury.

BAD ENOUGH NOW

On second thought Kitchener Council turned thumbs down some time ago on a proposal to place advertising on parking meters. Winnipeg Council also rejected the idea recently. Parking meters certainly add nothing to the beauty of a street. They are tolerated because of the fact that they distribute parking space more equitably. Hanging advertising on them would only make them worse eye sores.—Kitchener-Waterloo Record.

It's Been Said

Genius is 1 per cent inspiration and 99 per cent perspiration.—Thomas A. Edison.

M. Q., Nelson—To settle an argument, who said the following: "God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb," and "There but for the grace of God go I?" The last one I am sure is from Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," the other has started an argument.

"'God tempers the wind,' said Maria, 'to the shorn lamb,'" is from "A Sentimental Journey" by the Rev. Laurence Sterne; "But for the grace of God there goes John Bradford" is reputed to have been said by John Bradford (1510-1555) on seeing evil-doers taken to the place of execution. It was quoted before Bunyan's time.

Curious, Trail—If the Stone of Scone was "stolen" by the English King Edward I, from where did he take it?

Old Scone, Perthshire, was the capital of the Northern Picts and was also known as the Hill of Belief from the fact that it was here the first recorded National Council was held (906), and it was also the centre from where the Pictish King promulgated the edict regulating the Christian Church. Long before the abbey was founded in 1115, Scone was the seat of a monastery probably founded by St. Columba, and Kenneth was alleged to have brought the Stone of Destiny (on which the Celtic kings were crowned) from Dunstaffnage Castle on Loch Etive, and to have deposited it at Scone from where it was "removed" in 1296 to Westminster Abbey by Edward I.

W. S. A., Nelson—I have been haunted for a long while by the opening words of a poem by Lewis Carroll: "I could not see for blinding tears the glory of the west . . ." I would like to know where I could find the complete words of it?

We are indebted to Mrs. C. G. Duff, Willow Point, for the following information: "I wrote to a friend who is one of Lewis Carroll's nieces asking where to find these lines, and have just received a reply telling me they are the opening of a poem entitled 'Valley of the Shadow of Death,' that appeared in the volume 'Three Sunsets and Other Poems,' by Lewis Carroll. The lines should read:

'I could not see for blinding tears
The glories of the West . . ."

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO

From The Daily News of April 21, 1941

Three houses near Salmo were threatened by a bush fire in a small clearing before firefighters could be rallied to battle the flames. Winds drove the flames rapidly making it difficult for fighters to get control of the fire.

Miss Beth Ambrose left Sunday morning for Canora, Sask., where she will visit her home for a couple of months.

25 YEARS AGO

From The Daily News of April 21, 1926

Utmost expedition in construction of the Five-Mile pipe line will be used by Hydraulic Engineer A. L. McCulloch and City Engineer J. A. Ferguson if Mr. McCullock meets the wishes of the city. Mr. Ferguson is preparing for work on the pipe line to begin Monday and a rush construction job has been asked by Council.

Two new shingle mills are being built in the Salmo area. Messrs. Greene and Bailey of Vancouver have purchased the Gray and McCaslin shingle mill at Boulder and are having it moved to Ross Spur. It will be rebuilt there and ready for production in a month. The other mill is being constructed on the South fork by C. A. Cawley and the Lindstrom brothers.

Market Trends

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — Stocks slumped in a short session split by the celebration in honor of Gen. MacArthur.

Most Canadian issues were down. The only two winners were Hiram Walker which gained ½ and Dome Mines up ¼. Distillers Seagrams was down ⅜. Canadian Pacific and International Nickel both eased ¼. McIntyre was unquoted.

TORONTO (CP) — Prices moved in a mixed and narrow path.

Act vity was again extremely quiet and volume was about 1,200,000 shares.

MONTREAL, (CP) — Securities moved irregularly as the session progressed in fairly active trading. However some strong spots gave the market a lift.

Calgary Livestock

CALGARY, April 20 (CP) — Receipts were extremely light on the Calgary livestock market this morning, with only 200 cattle and calves available. Good to choice butcher steers and heifers were closing with a strong undertone, but cows were barely steady, bulls and veal calves were fully steady. All classes of stocker and feeder cattle were in strong demand.

Thursday's sales were 349 cattle, 38 calves, four hogs.

Hogs and sheep closed steady Thursday, hogs at $29.50, sows at $20.50, good lambs at $35.50 and good ewes at $16 to $17.50.

Good to choice butcher steers 32.50-33.90, common to medium 28.50-32.00. Good to choice butcher heifers 31.50-33.00, common to medium 27.50-31.00. Good cows 28.00-29.00, common to medium 24.50-27.50, canners and cutters 20.00-24.00. Good bulls 29.50-30.50, common to medium 26.00-29.00. Good stocker and feeder steers 32.00-34.50, common to medium 28.00-31.50. Good to choice veal calves 36.00-40.00, common to medium 28.00-35.00.

Reorganization Wellington Mines Is Launched

SPOKANE, April 20 — First steps toward the reorganization of the Wellington Mines, Ltd. in the Slocan, were taken here this week. The company has been an intermittent shipper for more than 50 years.

I. G. Nelson of Nelson, president of the firm, authorized announcement that a new company, to be called New Wellington Mines Ltd., NPL, will be formed to take over the present company's assets and resume operation. Wellington will then be liquidated.

The present firm established in 1927, is a successor to Wellington Mines company of Ottawa, organized in the late 1890s. Leasers took over in 1901 and a second period of activity followed in the late 1920s.

Following another period of inactivity, the mine was reopened in 1946, but funds then raised were insufficient to finish the exploration needed.

The ore is silver-lead and the property, which adjoins the Whitewater, a mine with a $600,000 dividend record, has more than a mile of crosscut tunnels, developing the Wellington and Whitewater veins.

Officers besides Mr. Nelson are J. H. M. Greenwood of Nelson, vice-president and director; P. G. Morey of Nelson, secretary; Roy E. Dahl of Spokane, director; Edward Pohlman of Spokane, assistant secretary and director, and Dr. L. E. Borden of Nelson, director, who was unable to attend the meeting.

The shares are listed on the Vancouver Stock Exchange.

William Chapman, Canadian poet who died in 1917, was a French translator in the Senate at Ottawa.

Senators Down Yanks Twice

By STEVE ROBERTSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Washington Senators handed the powerful New York Yankees a double setback in a day-night American League doubleheader Friday, taking the measure of the world champions 5-3 in the afternoon and 8-4 under the floodlights.

The dual victory, marking the delayed home-town opening of the season for the Senators, gave Washington undisputed possession of first place in the league.

President Truman delivered the opening pitch in the day game — and incidentally showed better control than the regular hurlers who followed him.

Max Surkont, sophomore Boston righthander, throttled Philadelphia Phillies with two hits as the Braves squeezed out a 2-1 victory in Philadelphia over the National League champions. Surkont also drove home the winning run with a fly ball.

In the only other day game in the National League, Brooklyn registered a 7-3 victory over New York Giants in a ragged opening before 30,870 fans at the Polo Grounds. Don Newcombe, the Dodgers' 19-game winner last year, held the Giants to five hits, yielding only one in the last five innings.

TIGERS BLANKED

Chicago White Sox blanked Detroit Tigers 5-0 in Chicago for their third straight American League victory behind the three-hit pitching of Randy Gumpert. The issue was settled in the third inning when the Tiger defence flew up behind starter Ted Gray and the Sox scored three runs.

Philadelphia Athletics spoiled the American League opener at Boston's Fenway Park by trimming Boston Red Sox 6-3 before 11,461 Beantown fans. The victory, first for the A's in Boston since Sept. 12, 1948, was at the expense of Mel Parnell, Boston southpaw who had run up a string of 10 consecutive triumphs over the Athletics.

Bob Feller turned in a five-hit pitching job as Cleveland Indians defeated St. Louis Browns before 48,316 in Cleveland. It was the third straight American League victory for the Tribe and the third successive loss for the Browns. Feller, his curve breaking sharply, fanned eight. He yielded five hits but wasn't in serious trouble, although pinch-hitter Hank Raft homered off one of his deliveries in the ninth.

Five Yankee pitchers gave up 13 walks in the game at Washington while Sandy Consuegra of the Senators went the distance and held the heavy-hitting world champions to four hits. The Senators only connected for two hits but Tommy Byrne, who walked three men, Bob Muncrief, who combined with Byrne to allow five, and their successors, pitched away the game.

It was Washington's third straight victory and the Yankees first loss.

In the night, Senators-Yankees contest, Al Sima, a sophomore Southpaw, scattered 10 hits behind the 12-hit Washington outburst.

Mickey Vernon led the Senator onslaught with a perfect night at the plate. He tripled, doubled, hit two singles and drove in four runs.

St. Louis Cardinals were outhit 9-7 but won their first home game of the National League season by whipping Chicago Cubs 5-1 before 15,592 fans at Sportsmans Park in St. Louis in a night game. Gerry Staley, who went all the way, was the winning pitcher.

Indians Trounce Yanks 10-9 In Second Game

The Indians took a close 10-9 victory over the aFirview Yanks Thursday night in the second game of the Nelson Midget Baseball League.

Arnold Sherwood went the full game for the Indians, striking out seven batters, walking four and giving up ten hits. The young hurler was backed by fine fielding with only three errors by his support.

Al Dawson and Wilf Marquis shared the mound for the Yanks. Between them they struck out 12 hitters, handed out seven free passes and six hits. A total of 12 errors was counted against their fielders.

Sommerville and Culley of the Indians both counted doubles for the only extra base hits in the game. The Indians were most effective at picking the runners off on bases.

Umpire was Rich Mason while the scorekeeper was Bob Nuyens.

Sherwood and Reid took over the batteries for the Indians while Dawson, Marquis and Isakson took over duties for the Yanks.

Next games are scheduled for Saturday morning when a double header will see Fairview meet the Ghosts while the Indians will take on the Cardinals.

Kennedy Still No. 1 Leaf

TORONTO, April 20 (CP) — Montreal Canadiens can have Rocket Richard and his goal-scoring wizardry. Toronto hockey followers will settle for tenacious Ted Kennedy whose dogged centre-ice play has brought the Maple Leafs to within one game of their fourth Stanley Cup championship in five seasons.

Kennedy and his mates came home today from Montreal where they took a solid grip on the trophy by taking two games in the Canadiens' home ice. They headed for St. Catharines, Ont., to rest before tomorrow night's fifth game in the best-of-seven series, which they lead 3-1.

Although Toronto fans look for their club to wind up things by carrying off the fifth game, there is sound reason for Montreal victory hopes. All four games so far have een settled by one-goal margins in sudden-death overtime. Sid Smith, Kennedy, and Harry Watson have pulled the overtime trigger for the Leafs. Richard got the home run goal for the Canadiens.

Until Watson and Howie Meeker got the range for a goal apiece at Montreal last night, the 25-year-old Kennedy's line had scored all Toronto's goals in the series. He was the main factor in standing off the challenge from Boston Bruins i nthe semi-final series. Kennedy isn't the leading scorer—he has four goals and four assists in 10 games—but he's been No. 1 Leaf all the way.

It's been the same way over the years. The Leafs went out in the semi-final round of cup play in 1944, Kennedy's rookie year. In 1945 his seven goals topped the individual scoring records as the Leafs won the cup. He missed most of the 1945-46 season with an early injury and his team failed to make the playoffs.

He was a mainstay for the Leafs in their three successive cup triumphs in 1947-48-49 and when he got hurt in semi-final play a year ago the team bowed out to Detroit Red Wings.

Trail Team Ready To Meet Noranda

TRAIL, B. C., April 20— Frank (Deacon) Wait, coach of the Trail intermediate hockey club, champions of Western Canada, said today his team will be glad to meet the Noranda Copper Kings, Eastern champions, for the Dominion title.

The Copper Kings won the Eastern crown last night from Fredericton Capitals and their spokesman said they would challenge Trail.

"Certainly we'll play them. Of course, there will be a matter of wages to look into," said Deacon.

Sport Briefs

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) —Sixteen three-year-old horses are scheduled to clash tomorrow in the $40,000-added Wood Memorial at Jamaica, and it's quite possible the result will produce the Kentucky Derby favorite.

SAN MATEO, Calif., April 20 (AP) — Calumet Farm's Citation, greatest money-winning thoroughbred in racing history, heads an imposing list of 23 nominees for the Bay Meadows handicap at Peninsula track April 28. The $60,000-added fixture will be over 1⅛ miles.

CAMBRIDGE SAILS

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — The Cambridge University crew, victorious over Yale and Harvard during a brief American visit, sailed for home tonight aboard the Queen Elizabeth.

CLEVELAND, April 20 (AP)— A Western Reserve freshman pitched a 10-0 no-hit victory Thursday over Akron University in the first college baseball game he ever played. Dennis Rinaldi, 17, of Euclid, O., fanned 11 and walked four of the 34 batters he faced.

TORONTO, April 20 (CP)—Galt Black Hawks will operate in the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A series next season and again will be sponsored by Chicago Black Hawks.

NEW YORK, April 20 (AP) — Kid Gavilan carved out a unanimous 10-round decision over Aldo Minelli, game Italian veteran, tonight in his first tuneup for his May 18 welterweight title bout with Johnny Bratton. The decision drew a chorus of boos.

Chandler May Enter Kentucky Governorship Race

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP) — Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler is seriously considering giving up his lame duck baseball post for the Kentucky governorship race, friends said today.

After telling Representative Noble J. Gregory he may seek the governorship, he mentioned the possibility to Senator Thomas R. Underwood. They, like Chandler, are both Kentucky Democrats. They both emphasized, however, that Chandler did not say definitely that he would be a candidate.

The former Kentucky governor and U.S. Senator, who has been turned down twice in his bid to have his commissioner's contract renewed, lunched Wednesday with Gregory at the capital. He saw Underwood later. Then he left for his home in Versailles, Ky.

Underwood and Gregory disclosed this information today after the Associated Press was informed in New York Wednesday night that Chandler might leave his post within a week.

If Chandler resigns, baseball would be ruled by the Executive Council until a successor is named.

Kimberley Boys Sweep B.C. Gym Competition

KIMBERLEY, B.C., April 20 — Kimberley boys this week won another "first" when the gymnasium team placed first in the B.C. Gymnastic Competitions held at Vancouver. Members of the team, Terry Bailey, Ross Patterson, Billy Van Oene, Laurie Benson ond Collin Pearson. also placed first second, third, fourth, and sixth in individual competition.

Also travelling with the boys was Wilfred Tennessee from the St. Eugene Mission who brought honor to the Kootenay Indians by placing second in the Junior Class.

W. Wilcox, K.A.A.A. Recreational Director, who trained all the boys, accompanied them on the trip.

Jackie Robinson Claims Umpires Out to Get Him

NEW YORK, April 21 (Saturday) (AP)—The New York Daily News said today that Jackie Robinson, star Negro second-baseman for the Brooklyn Dodgers, has accused National League umpires of "being out to get me."

"I know what they're doing," the News quoted Robinson. "I'm not blind. They're out to get me. One of them went up to Dressen (Charley Dressen, Brooklyn Manager) before the season started and said as much. Claimed that I'm trying to show up the umpires, and they weren't going to stand for it.

"I'm not trying to show anyone up, but I think I'm entitled to make a beef as much as anyone else."

Robinson became involved in a minor controversy during the Dodgers-Phillies game at Brooklyn Wednesday. When plate umpire Dusty Boggess called him out on a third strike, Robinson threw away his bat and shouted something to the umpire as he trotted to his position.

Ford Frick, National League President, said he had been informed of no incident.

"If they (the ball players) get out of line," said Frick, "we will take care of it. If they don't we pay no attention."

LAST DISPUTE FOR CHANDLER?

CINCINNATI, April 20 (AP) — A. B. (Happy) Chandler today heard what may be his last dispute as Commissioner of baseball.

It revolved around radio broadcasts of Detroit Tiger games into what four clubs of the Central League claim is their territory.

They want $40,000 of broadcast money for the season, or they want the practice stopped.

It is understood here the clubs—Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Flint and Saginaw—would divide the money.

After hearing the arguments, Chandler took the matter under advisement.

Lawyers for the Central League asked tha the announce his decision by May 1. He said he will try.

Irvine May Be Master Coach of Canadien Empire

MONTREAL, April 20 (CP) — Dick Irvin, completing his 11th season as coach of Montreal Canadiens, can sign for at least another two campaigns, General Manager Frank Selke made it plain today.

Praising the Regina resident highly for his work in moulding the present team, Selke said an assistant could be provided so Irvin could become "the master coach of Canadiens' hockey empire."

Selke's statement said also that though Canadiens "find themselves on the brink of defeat" in the Stanley Cup final against Toronto Maple Leafs, "we are all very proud of our team."

Despite its desperate position of trailing Leafs 3-1 in games in the best-of-seven final, the team has played in "four sensational overtime games" and "with a bit of luck can still go on to win the Stanley Cup."

PRAISES ROCKET

Then he singled out Maurice (Rocket) Richard, Canadiens' brilliant right-wing star, for special praise:

"I would like Rocket Richard to know that I consider it an honor to be associated with him in hockey."

Irvin, whose work this season Selke called the "finest contribution to the coaching profession," had no immediate comment on the general manager's statement.

There was no indication as to what the job of assistant to Irvin would entail, or what the "master coach" position might mean.

Since Selke's regime began in 1946, he has built up junior hockey in Montreal and elsewhere in Quebec Province. Canadiens have farm clubs or working agreements with all minor professional leagues and with amateur organizations that extend into Western Canada.

From the coaching ranks of any of these organizations or even from possible retirements in the present club, might come the assistant to 58-year-old Irvin. But Selke gave no hint.

Irvin, silver thatched, has been player and coach since before the first World War. He is a native of Hamilton but has lived in Regina for many years.

From 1915 to 1926, except for his army service, he played professional hockey as a forward in the Pacific Coast Hockey League, in the heyday of those organizations as professionel league. From there he went to Chicago Black Hawks for three years.

St. Mikes Trounce Quakers for Series

TORONTO, April 20 (CP)—The powerful Toronto St. Michael's Monarchs moved into the Alexander Cup finals tonight with a handy 9-3 victory over Saskatoon Quakers. Monarchs won the best-of-seven series in four straight games.

Monarchs, who won the first game 8-5, the second 4-1 and the third 4-2, will meet either Valleyfield Braves or Sydney Millionaires for the Canadian Major Hockey Championship.

The smooth-skating Toronto squad made it look easy in the final period as they blasted in six unanswered goals, all of them beating netminder Jackie Gibson cleanly.

Quakers managed to keep up Monarchs in the first two periods and then fell apart in the last. They matched Monarchs with a 2-2 tie in the first session and a 3-3 deadlock by the end of the second.

Johnny Ubriaco and Bill McCracken led the winners with two goals each. Singles went to Gord Hannigan, Ken Watson, Sam Kennedy, Eddie Mulligan and Dusty Blair. Bob Wiest, Team Captain Charlie McCullough and Cy Rouse accounted for the Saskatoon goals.

SUMMARY

First period—1. Saskatoon, Wiest 8:43; 2. Toronto, McCracken (Sullivan, Fowler) 10:31; 3. Toronto, McCracken (Fowler, Mesich) 15:14; 4. Saskatoon, Rouse (McCullough, Wiest) 19:42.

Penalties—Arundel, Kuzma, Milford, Zeidel.

Second period — 5. Saskatoon, McCullough (Heindl, Rouse) 3:36; 6. Toronto, Mulligan 8:24.

Penalties—Arundel, Zeidel.

Third period — 7. Toronto, Hannigan (Sullivan, Meldrum) 1:32; 8. Toronto, Ubriaco (Hannigan, Meldrum) 1:52; 9. Toronto, Watson Mulligan, Wilson) 10:51; 10. Toronto, Blair (Watson, Mulligan) 11:30; 11. Toronto, Ubriaco 12:05; 12. Toronto, Kennedy 14:50.

Penalties—Parker, Kennedy, Zeidel, McCracken.

Near-Record Rainfall Floods Towns of Southern Ontario

One of the heaviest rainfalls in history hit Southern Ontario, flooding basements, stalling cars and rendering ordinary travel impossible. This scene shows Brampton's main street under 20 inches of water that spilled over the Etobicoke River banks.

U.S. Sends Food To Hungry India

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today approved sending $95,000,000 worth of food to India immediately to stave off a famine. Half would be an outright grant and half a loan.

The administration had proposed making a gift of 2,000,000 tons of grain to India.

The Senate probably will take up the wheat bill next week.

Fewer Police Than Firemen in 'Peg

WINNIPEG, April 20 (CP) — Winnipeg has 150 more firemen than policemen, Mayor Garnet coulter said today.

The mayor blamed a 100-man deficiency in police strength on low salaries. Increases were recommended today of $7-$50 a month. There are 325 men on the force at present, policing a population of about 230,000.

Longest single bridge span in the world is the central span of the Golden Gate Bridge at San Francisco, 4200 feet.

Allow Disclosure On Tax Returns

OTTAWA, April 20 (CP) — The Government would be allowed to disclose some information contained in tax returns of corporations under a bill introduced in the Commons today by Stanley Knowles (CCF — Winnipeg North Centre.)

Mr. Knowles told the House the measure would partly remove the secrecy restrictions which now bar the Government from giving members of parliament information filed by companies. He said it might have a "salutary" effect.

The bill would not effect the secrecy of personal income tax returns.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

U.S. to Plant Castor Beans

WASHINGTON, April 20 (AP)—The castor bean will make its debut this year as an important cash drop in the United States.

The Government is encouraging large-scale production of castor beans because of military need for the oil processed from them. Castor oil is in demand as a lubricating oil for military planes, particularly jet planes. Quick drying, it is also used in protective coatings.

The U. S. has depended largely upon Brazil for castor oil, but Brazilian supplies will not cover increasing needs.

Agriculture Department plans call for the planting of about 20,000 acres of irrigated land in Arizona and California, 4000 acres of irrigated land in Oklahoma and 52,000 acres of non-irrigated land in Oklahoma and Texas.

To encourage plantings the Department will enter contracts with farmers for purchase of their beans, thus assuring the grower of a ready market even before his land is plowed. The Department also will help supply harvesting machinery.

Poor Diet, Faster Pace, Weakens Nanaimo Students

NANAIMO, B.C., April 20 (CP)—Junior works and plays too hard in the opinion of J. B. Litch, senior principal of Nanaimo School District.

He said high school-age youngsters since the war have been setting themselves a faster and faster pace. The result could be ill-health, fatigue and an early case of ulcers.

Mr. Litch was commenting on a report of Dr. E. W. R. Best, District medical health officer, that 40 per cent of the Nanaimo high school population is suffering in some degree from inadequate diet and fatigue.

"The modern day youth has so much to keep him busy both in school and out that he's willing to sell himself short on his sleep," said Mr. Litch. "Parents and teachers have got to cooperate to discourage this trend."

Sentence Shocks Young Offenders

NANAIMO, B. C., April 20 (CP) —Two young soldiers got a nasty jar from Magistrate Lionel Beevor Potts today when they chose prison sentences in place of suspended sentences for attempting to steal a car. They got six months in the young offenders section at Oakalla.

"I can't take it. Send me to prison" exclaimed the elder lad when suspended sentence for a year was suggested. It would carry the restriction there must be no drinking and curfew would be 10 p. m.

"And me too," echoed the other lad only 18 years old.

But when they heard the six months sentence both blanched, obviously badly shaken.

Later they paraded before Major Cook, O.C., 119th AA Battery, Gordon Head and asked if they could appeal the sentence, which they may do.

District Forest Service Air Patrols Started

The B.C. Forest Service in the Nelson forest district has begun its air service in conjunction with forest fires and emergencies.

The plane was put into service this week and has already been used in the district. Equipped with pontoons, the craft operates under contract with the Central B.C. Airways and is piloted by Don Thompson of Nelson.

During the Summer months and up to Nov. 15, the plane will be used for spotting fires and subsequent to lightning storms in areas not covered by lookouts, to fly men and supplies to lookout areas not accessible by other means of transportation, and to fly firefighters to various ponts in case of emergency

The aircraft is stationed on the Nelson waterfront.

Mother Severely Burnt in Effort To Rescue Child

HANEY, B. C., April 20 (CP) — A one-year-old child was burned to death and its mother was severely injured when fire destroyed their cottage home today.

The mother, Mrs. Ricky Paul, 25, is in Royal Columbian Hospital in New Westminster with severe burns.

The father was working in the bush North of Haney and did not know of the tragedy until some time later.

A neighbor, Art Tadlow, who saw smoke pouring from the small home, attempted to rescue the child. Flames scorched his eyebrows and face and prevented him from entering the burning building. He had to restrain Mrs. Paul from entering the house.

NOT SUN, NOT SMOKE, BUT MOON IN HIS EYES

VANCOUVER, April 20 (CP)—A motorist here had a new excuse to offer police when he ran into a parked automobile.

He said the moon got in his eyes.

The officers didn't arrest him. But they report he may be summonsed on a charge of dangerous driving.

JOINVILLE, Ile d'Yeu, France, April 20 (AP)—A medical bulletin said today the condition of ex-marshal Henri Philippe Petain, imprisoned former chief of the French state, remains critical. He will be 95 next Tuesday. He is suffering from Pneumonia.

Barrel Bullfighting Is Tough Game

This fella might look docile at the moment but he's a mean critter when aroused. "Jazzbo" Fulkerson (in barrel) and George Mills are shown needling the big Brahma into a charge on the barrel in which Fulkerson bobs up and down. Mills' job was to distract the bull from the barrel when things get too warm for comfort. This shot was taken two years ago at the Calgary Stampede, not long before Fulkerson was killed doing the stunt at an American rodeo. This is one of the acts of daring to which patrons of the first annual Kin Stampede will be introduced on June 22-23.

Purchase Prairie Bush For Bombing Range

EDMONTON, April 20 (CP) — Government officials said today 75 Alberta trap lines and two timber berths will be eliminated by establishment of a $14,000,000 super-bombing and rocket range on the Alberta-Saskatchewan border 100 miles North of Lloydminster.

Announcement of the big R.C.A.F. development was announced in the Commons yesterday by Defence Minister Claxton.

Premier E. C. Manning said the Defence Department had been negotiating for months for the 4600-square-mile range site and "final agreement undoubtedly will be reached in the near future."

Officials said responsibility for compensating the 75 Alberta trappers and two timber berth holders rests with the Dominion Government. Thirty-six of the trappers are Indians.

They said the location of the range was shifted one mile North to miss the Wolf Lake Metis colony, under jurisdiction of the Alberta Welfare Department.

Land on the East and West side of the range has been settled but settlement on the range itself is impossible because it is wild muskeg and bush country. The logging roads into the two timber berths are the only travel arteries. Almost all of the range area is unsurveyed.

There are some settlers and more traplines on the Saskatchewan portion of the range. Officials said they will be moved by the Federal Government.

Kinsmen Inter-Club Meeting Postponed

Fast Action Douses Hospital Blaze

CHILLIWACK, B.C., April 20 (CP)—Fast action by three fire fighting units prevented serious damage when fire broke out at the Coqualeetza Indian hospital at Sardis, B.C., yesterday.

Twenty girl patients were evacuated, but were returned to their beds within half an hour.

The fire started on the roof of the hospital annex, but was extinguished in 10 minutes. Damage, estimated at only $50 was quickly repaired.

Duncan Hears of Communist Plans

DUNCAN, B.C., April 20 (CP)—Mayor J. C. Wragg told city council last night that Communists are prepared for action in the event of an emergency.

"The boast of having more than 800 of their members ready to go into action here and the surrounding lumbering districts," he said.

He said Communists are openly bragging that they have made plans to disrupt vital services.

"Success of civil defence measures in Cowichan Valley will depend upon control of the Communists in the area."

B.C. Forest Fire Destroys Home

BELLA COOLA, B.C., April 20 (CP)—A forest fire has destroyed one home and for a time threatened a large sawmill in Bella Coola Valley.

The home of Andy Svidsdahl was burned out yesterday, but his wife and young daughter escaped although all household property was lost.

The fire swept to within 100 feet of the large sawmill of the Northcop Logging Company at Hagensborg before its path was switched.

A North wind of almost gale proportions is lashing the fire making it impossible for the fighters to do anything but extinguisn spot fres. The sawmill with its large stockpiles of cut lumber was not considered in any danger as the wind was carrying the fire away from the mill. There are two more fires in the Bella Coola Valley but they are not at the moment constituting a hazard.

Carpenters Face Lack of Work

VICTORIA, B.C., April 20 (CP)—With new home building practically at a standstill, and work on several big construction jobs either suspended or completed, Victoria carpenters are facing an unemployment problem.

Many carpenters are reported to be looking for work, according to C. A. Mudge, Manager of the local unemployment office.

"This is the only group in this position just now," said Mr. Mudge. "We are scraping the bottom of the barrel to find workers in all other trades."

Alex Sims, of the Carpenters and Joiners Local 1598 Brotherhood, said that about 40 of his members were out of work. "The position is not so bad as that," he said, when asked about a radio statement that there were 300 idle carpenters in Victoria.

Mr. Sims expected renewed demands for carpenters as soon as the big new plywood and pulp mill projects get under way.
