Bigger Canadian Voice Needed in Pacific — Green

OTTAWA (CP)—Angus MacInnis, acting CCF leader, Thursday described the new American policy on Formosa as a step towards world war, and criticized the Canadian government for not protesting it strongly.

But Solon Low, Social Credit leader, went so far in the other direction as to give support to suggestions that it should be followed up with a blockade of the Chinese coast and that the Korean war should not be limited to Korea.

Between those two opposite views, Gordon Graydon (PC—Peel) foreign affairs specialist of the official opposition, steered a quieter course in the Commons during an external affairs debate.

He said he sees "nothing alarming" in the decision to deneutralize Formosa. He suggested that "a firm policy" rather than one of "hesitation and appeasement" would more likely bring peace than war.

Howard Green, (PC—Vancouver Quadra) said "it is high time the Canadian government demanded a full voice in Pacific affairs." The government should move for a Pacific pact. There was "grave concern" on the Pacific coast about the lack of such a pact. And to Canadians on the Pacific it might be a matter of "life and death."

FORMOSA CONCERN

Mr. MacInnis said Canadian concern over the new policy on Formosa is great and that there was no need for the Canadian government to acquiesce without protest. The danger is not only the probability that this will extend the Korean war but that it is only the first in a series of decisions that will bring World War III."

"Canada should say in a firm voice that cannot be mistaken that we won't be bound by this or any other order taken without consultation with us."

The United States decision to call off the buffer of the 7th fleet between Formosa and Red China was a new "American isolationism—decisions taken in isolation, decisions which involve other nations policies they have no voice in framing."

The military dangers could not be over-emphasized but there were great political dangers in giving aid to Chiang Kai-shek, a "corrupt, reactionary, remnant of the old Asia" because this could lead to loss of Asiatic friendship. Asiatics in those non-Communist countries which now were so vital would be far from pleased by any move to help Chiang try to regain power.

MUST BE CONSULTED

"We have a major responsibility to exert the strongest pressure to prevent U. S. steps that bring us any closer to war . . . It is not sufficient for us to make our views known after the event. We must be consulted. If we are not consulted, we must make strong representations.

"We should make clear to the U. S. government that they can't trade on the fundamental unity of the free world by counting on our support for every action to which their political exigencies at home may lead them. They should be told that if they enter the Chinese civil war, they enter it alone."

Canada was willing to take her part in joint actions "only if we are consulted at each step . . . being told is not enough."

The new situation created a danger that Canada—with commitments in Korea—could become involved in the Chinese civil war. Now is the time, he said, to tell the U. S. administration that Canada does not intend to become involved in that war.

Mr. Low agreed that Canada should never hesitate to speak up firmly to the U. S. when her views so decreed.

Planned Power Project A Spark to Industry

New Development to Feed Smelter, Chemical Plant

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Vancouver Province says in a newspage story today that a huge hydro-electric development "which would dwarf the gigantic Alcan project" at Kitimat, is a "definite project for Northwestern British Columbia and the Yukon."

The story says the project will lay the base of one of the "world's biggest metallurgical and chemical industries."

"This was learned today following an announcement from Thayer Lindsley, president of Frobisher Ltd., big exploration and development company with world-wide chemical and metallurgical interests."

"Mr. Lindsley announced that funds were being set aside for survey of the water power resources of the Yukon, under a permit from the Dominion director of water power," the story said.

"Although aluminum and magnesium are reported to be important in the new process, the company's plans are said to involve a wide range of metals which can be smelted by cheap electricity."

The story says the area concerned involves the 17,000-square mile Atlin Lake, Taku Lake and Lake Laberge basin which drains into the Yukon River "and holds a potential of more than 5,000,000 horsepower.

It says this compares with the Aluminum Company of Canada's potential at Kitimat of 1,600,000 horsepower.

The area is the same area recently investigated by the Aluminum Company of America to supply power to its proposed project in Alaska.

Part of this basin is in B.C. and part in the Yukon.

SUDAN MAY CHOOSE FUTURE

U. K., Egypt Agree On Sudan Question; Troops to Leave

By EDWARD POLLACK

CAIRO (CP)—Britain and Egypt have formally agreed to let the Sudanese choose their own future, and Premier Mohamed Naguib has announced that the door is open wide for "a successful understanding" on the withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal zone.

Talks on the Suez are coming soon, Naguib said.

The final settlement of these two key problems in Anglo-Egyptian relations could clear the way toward tighter cooperation between this strategic Moslem country and the Western powers in the cold war, perhaps in a Middle East defence command.

A public holiday was called for today in the Sudan, a land of desert, forests and cotton fields that stretches from central Africa to he Red Sea. A ceremonial parade of celebration is to be held before Governor-General Sir Robert Howe Saturday in Khartoum, the capital.

Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, in announcing the Sudanese accord in the House of Commons in London, said it was a "reasonable settlement of this question which has long bedevilled our relations with Egypt."

Eden said: "I hope that it may have its beneficial influence on Anglo-Egyptian relations."

Farmers Oppose Lifting Milk Price Controls

VICTORIA (CP) — Premier Bennett dared the British Columbia legislature opposition late Thursday to defeat his minority government on a minor point. When the vote came, the opposition abstained from voting.

The technical issue arose over a night sitting. The premier wanted a sitting Thursday night—he got it—to speed up the throne speech debate, in which no Social Credit members are taking part.

The CCF, Liberal and Progressive Conservative opposition opposed a night sitting. They said they had been given only an hour's notice of a night session after an agreement that no night sitting would be held before next week. Their members had not had time to prepare their speeches, especially the new members.

At one point, CCF leader Harold Winch said: "How low can you sink, Mr. Premier?" The CCF and Liberal benches cried: "Shame, shame."

Mr. Bennett was called to order by the Speaker when he tried to speak a second time on the same motion.

During the afternoon sitting, a CCF member and a Progressive Conservative teamed up to oppose any lifting of price controls on milk above the producer level.

Robert Strachan (CCF-Cowichan-Newcastle) read telegrams from farmers saying abolition of controls would be a "staggering blow" and would cause "discord" and reduced prices for producers.

Agriculture Minister Kenneth Kiernan said last week the government intends to scrap milk price controls above the producer level. Legislation is not needed to do this. Distributors said they expected that prices would fall about two cents a quart.

Mr. Strachan said that if the government could reduce prices without hurting the farmer, it was robbing the public if it did not do so immediately.

He said removal of controls would leave distribution in the hands of a few large companies, resulting eventually in monopolies.

He won support from Larry Giovando (PC-Nanaimo) who waved a sheaf of telegrams which he said were protests from farmers over proposed removal of controls.

Vincent Segur (CCF-Revelstoke) said the Social Credit government is the most reactionary administration in Canada.

Abbott to Issue Short-Term Bonds

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott Thursday announced a new issue of $300,000,000 short-term Government of Canada bonds to provide for redemption March 2 of $325,000,000 in maturing bonds issued in 1950.

The new issue consists of two maturities—one 16-month two per cent bonds maturing July 1, 1954, and two 16-month 2¼ per cent bonds maturing July 1, 1955.

The new 16-month bonds are being offered at 98.75 to yield about 2.96 per cent to maturity and the 1955 maturity is priced at 97.85 to yield about 3.21 per cent.

Both are non-callable to maturity. In each case interest is payable Jan. 1 and July 1, with the first four months' interest payable July 1, 1953. The issue will be offered immediately through investment dealers and banks.

Islander Offers Dutch Land

VANCOUVER (CP)—Clear title to 20 acres of land has been offered to two or four flood-stricken Dutch families who might want to establish new homes in Canada.

The offer came to the Netherlands Flood Relief Fund here from George Molecey, who lives near Nanaimo on Vancouvr Island.

The land was offered in four parcels of five acres each or two of 10 acres, whichever is more practicable, without reservation.

"I am told some of the land would be suitable to bulb growing and thus possibly be a spot for a happy home for some of your countrymen," Mr. Molecey wrote fund officials.

Henry Taudin-Chabot, flood fund secretary, said families will be canvassed in Holland for takers.

Report from Victoria

BY JAMES K. NESBITT

VICTORIA — Leo Nimsick, CCF member for Cranbrook, was most annoyed with the government when he rose to speak in the House Thursday night.

He had been billed to speak Friday afternoon. But Premier Bennett, determined to get the throne speech debate over, decided instead on Thursday night sitting.

So, perhaps, it was quite natural that when Mr. Nimsick got up he promptly fit into the government. He started off by saying that, well, Mr. Speaker, isn't it a fine thing, when we look back at the premier and education minister Rolston in the old days championing the rights of private members and here they are now hamstringing all their own private members, not even allowing them to speak. A fine thing, snorted Mr. Nimsick. Why, he said, it's just like a puppet show—the premier sitting in his ivory tower clutching 17 Social Credit strings—and trying to clutch other strings, too, by forcing a night sitting that nobody wanted.

And then Mr. Nimsick got very personal with the premier. He said the premier used to be the talkiest man in the House. Well, all will be well, said Mr. Nimsick. Mr. premier sat in opposition last year, and Mr. Nimsick would like to warn him that, because of the way he's acting now, he'll be right back in opposition again one of these days.

Bennett—the name Bennett reminded Mr. Nimsick of R. B. Bennett—and Mr. Nimsick would like to remind B.C.'s Premier Bennett that once R. B. said he'd blast his way into the markets of the world. B.C.s' Mr. Bennett, said Mr. Nimsick, unless he's careful, will blast his way clear out of the House altogether. B.C.'s Mr. Bennett looked quite unimpressed by all this—merrily smiling his famous smile.

TWO HORSES

The Social Credit government, said Mr. Nimsick, tries to ride two horses across the stream at the same time. One day, he said, it's going to be voluntary hospital insurance, and the next day compulsory hospital insurance; one day the minister of public works says he wants toll highways and the next day he says he doesn't; one day the minister of finance says there's a $20,000,000 surplus and the next day the premier says there isn't; one day the attorney-general says one beer at a time and the next day he says two. All this completely baffled Mr. Nimsick.

And, speaking of toll bridges, Mr. Nimsick flew into a quite splendid rage. Toll bridges are ridiculous, he said—they're a negation of democracy, and a move back to the Middle Ages. A fine thing, said Mr. Nimsick, yes, a fine thing, for the government to say to the people of Castlegar and the people of Nelson that they must pay toll on bridges to get across the lake. — Why, that's the government shifting its own responsibility onto the people.

"It's another form of taxation—toll roads and toll bridges," said Mr. Nimsick. "Castlegar needs a bridge and needs it very badly—it's an absolute necessity."

Mr. Nimsick, being a good Kootenay member, said the government should do something about the Doukhobor situation.

$207,000 SPENT BUT NO ACTION

He said $207,000 had been spent preparing a report on the Doukhobors, but that nothing, absolutely nothing, had been done about it. There should have been a special session last Autumn to deal with Doukhobors, Mr. Nimsick said. "Why," he said, "it's got to the point that in West Kootenay that if there is a fire everybody says the Sons of Freedom did it, whether they did or not.

There's a situation there where a lot of people are going to take the law into their own hands. A lot of innocent people are going to be persecuted. And, as far as the Doukhobors are concerned, the more they're persecuted the more they seem to thrive on it.

Mr. Nimsick contemplated sweepstakes and raffles, and as he did so, he grew almost speechless—and then the words came back to him in a flood. "What nonsense, what nonsense, Mr. Speaker—outlawing raffles. I think it's time this province permitted sweepstakes and raffles to a small amount," he said. The churches depend on raffles, he said, "so how in the name of goodness can you say they're un-Christian. You've got your stock markets and you've got horse racing—and that's a far bigger gamble."

FEDERAL MATTER

Attorney General Bonner noted that sweepstakes and raffles are a federal matter. Yes, said Mr. Nimsick, that's right, but the Attorney General could protest, but, of course, he doesn't.

U.S. Does Major Decontrol Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States government lifted price ceilings Thursday from poultry, eggs, soaps, gasoline, crude oil and all rubber products.

Altogether, thousands of items in 18 major commodity and service groups were decontrolled in the Eisenhower administration's second big move within a week to restore free markets.

Milk was kept under ceilings in a decision that reversed earlier reported intentions to free it from controls.

Price Stabilizer Joseph Freehill said the latest decontrol would be effective at midnight Thursday night.

10,000 Needed in Observer Corps

VANCOUVER (CP)—Ten thousand British Columbians are needed to serve in the RCAF civilian Volunteer Ground Observer Corps, it was announced today.

Sqdn. Ldr. C.H.C. Hoseason, the commanding officer of No. 1 district Ground Observer Corps said the corps needs that number for the portion of B. C. now organized.

"If the whole province was organized it would require 20,000 volunteers," he said.

Six Britons Seek To Conquer Everest

LONDON (Reuters) Six British mountaineers have set off to continue the hitherto-vain struggle to conquer Mount Everest, the world's highest mountain.

They are the vanguard of a 10-man expedition which will make Britain's second post-war assault on the 29,002-foot peak sometime in April. Theirs will be the 11th organized attempt—nine of them British—since their fellow-countrymen first tried to plant the Union Jack atop the gale-whipped summit in 1922.

Arsonist Sought

VANCOUVER (CP)—An arsonist who threatened a Vancouver rooming house caretaker with a knife after attempting to set fire to the building early today is being sought by police.

The fire was started in a bathroom of the downtown building at 4 a.m. A tenant notified the caretaker who fought the blaze until firemen arrived to extinguish it.

The caretaker, A. Basheresse, said he attempted to question a stranger about the fire shortly after it was discovered but the man pulled a knife, threatened him and fled.

Gazette Report Budget Leak?

VICTORIA (CP)— Rupert Haggen (CCF-Grand Forks-Greenwood) asked in the legislature Wednesday whether there has been a budget leak through the cabinet. He referred to a letter to the editor in the Grand Forks Gazette of Jan. 22.

The letter, signed by Albert Maida, president of the Christina Lake Social Credit Club, declared the 1953-54 budget will be $144,000,000 and that $35,000,000 will be spent for road construction.

The letter also said the Social Credit government has already broken up two "monopolies," the "Brewer's combine" by issuing two new licences for wineries, and the "trucking franchise."

The Jan. 22 letter said there will be a redistribution of seats. This was not announced officially in the House until last week.

NAGUIB PLANS U.S. VISIT

CAIRO (AP)—Premier Mohamed Naguib announced Thursday night that he intends to visit the United States "in the very near future."

Can't Return Skull Of Sitting Bull

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Great White Fathers in Washington have sent word to the worried Sioux Indians that they can't return Sitting Bull's skull for a very good reason—they don't have it.

The Indians figure only a proper resting place would permit his "valiant spirit to gain rest in the happy hunting grounds, rather than wander aimlessly."

The Smithsonian Institute has one of the world's largest collection of skeletons, but Dr. T. Dale Stewart said he's sure Sitting Bull isn't among them.

First B.C. Steel Wall Up on Slocan Road

CRESCENT VALLEY—The first steel retaining wall in British Columbia is nearing completion on a re-routed portion of the Slocan Highway just North of here.

The three-quarter mile section of the highway is being re-routed to avoid a dangerous railway crossing about a mile from Crescent Valley. The highway runs almost parallel to the railway tracks, and is situated above the level of the old road.

About 300 feet of the 400 by 10 foot retaining wall are completed. Work will commence on the balance when a link with the old portion of the road is complete. The retaining wall consists of steel bins. These giant containers, measuring 10 by 5 by 10 feet are filled with dirt and piled the required height. The retainer will enable the road to parallel the railway track alongside which runs a steep sandbank. Work is expected to be completed early in Spring. A new railway crossing will be located just North of Crescent Valley.

About three quarters of a mile North of the relocation work, widening of the highway has been completed and grade improvement is under way. About three-quarters of a mile is affected and is expected to be finished by Spring.

B. C. Hotels Say Juices Popular

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C. (CP) —The B. C. Hotels' Association reported Thursday that the introduction of juices and snacks in hotel beverage rooms has been orderly and are proving popular with the public.

President J. E. Bengert told the monthly meeting here that the association is working in close cooperation with the liquor control board in implementing changes and looked for even closer liaison with the board.

"We have advised all association members to cooperate to the fullest extent possible, to improve their premises where possible and to strictly observe all laws," he said.

Nelson One of Seven Centers Proposed for TV

VANCOUVER (CP) — The Vancouver Province says in a newspage story Thursday that at least seven British Columbia communities are "being thrown open to television interests, beginning March 26."

"CBC board of governors will consider applications for the private licences in such areas as Victoria, Prince Rupert, Prince George, Dawson Creek, Nelson, Kelowna and Kamloops," the paper says in a dispatch from Ottawa.

These centres are merely a rough guide. It does not shut out the possibility of an application being approved for a centre like Chilliwack."

"The CBC move is designed to fill the gap in the west between the more lucrative centres of Winnipeg and Vancouver which have been reserved as CBC assignments."

VANCOUVER (CP)—Dr. George Aldon Greaves, 69, head of the Vancouver General Hospital physical department for 36 years, died here Wednesday.

Born in Kingston, Ont., Dr. Greaves retired four years ago.

Coast Board of Trade President Believes Investors Fear CCF

VANCOUVER (CP) — President Ralph C. Pybus says the Vancouver Board of Trade favors a new provincial election rather than have the CCF form the government if Social Credit is defeated during the present session of the legislature.

"At the last election nearly 70 per cent of the electors voted for free enterprise parties," said Mr. Pybus. "Surely it should not be considered that a period of Social-Credit administration is an acceptable alternative without a new reference to the voters."

He referred to an earlier statement in the House that the Liberals would rather see the CCF form a government than for B.C. to have another election now.

Mr. Pybus said B.C.s progress industrially depends on keeping a strong flow of investment capital coming into the province.

"It would be harmful should investors come to the erroneous conclusion . . . that this province is on the verge of having a Socialist administration," he added.

Witchcraft Law Abandoned

DOVER, Del. (AP) — It's no longer against the law to practise witchcraft in Delaware.

The state assembly voted Tuesday to abolish Delaware's ancient witchcraft law which read in part:

"Whoever shall pretend to exercise the art of witchcraft, fortune-telling or dealing with spirits, shall be fined not exceeding $100, and may be imprisoned not exceeding one year."

Its exact year or origin has been lost in the mists of legislative antiquity.

Blizzards Blow as Flood-Wracked Countries Prepare for High Tides

LONDON (CP) — Britain, The Netherlands and Belgium have mobilized tens of thousands of troops and volunteers to face grave threats of new floods.

As the three-country alert began Thursday with the ominous mounting of the season's highest tides, violent blizzards continued to raise havoc in Northern and Central England, Sweden, Denmark and Northern Germany. The blizzards, worst in years, are in their fifth straight day in many places.

Scores of villages in England, Sweden and Denmark are isolated by mountainous drifts, and sea and land transportation is paralyzed over wide areas.

Along the Dutch and Belgian coasts and the English East coast—devastated by the disastrous flood of 12 days ago—a new zero hour is nearing with the rising tides. The tides will hit their peaks Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Strong-to-gale winds now buffet the English East coast and full gales at the peak of the high tides could send great new floods crashing through sea defences weakened or destroyed by the last floods.

More than 2000 persons died in the storms and floods from Jan. 31 to Feb. 2.

Scores of breaches remain in sea and river banks in England and Holland despite a day-and-night race against time by armies of soldier and civilian construction workers.

3 MILLION SANDBAGS

Belgium called a state of emergency all along its coast and the RAF organized a 20-plane airlift to rush 3,000,000 sandbags from the continent to bolster England's defences.

Another 1,500,000 sandbags will be flown to England by British European Airways from as far away as Italy. A number of American air force planes also have joined the airlift, it was reported.

France, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Norway, West Germany and Portugal offered the sandbags in response to urgent appeals from British embassies abroad. Italy and Portugal offered their own planes to help in the airlift and Belgium is shipping 500,000 sandbags by sea.

Deadline for completion of the operation is 6 p.m. Sunday — peak of the flood danger.

HALIFAX (CP)—How much is a schoolhouse worth?

There's an abandoned one on Gerard's Island, not used any more as only one family, and no children, live there.

The school board suggested it be sold. The only resident of the island offered $5 with the idea of converting it into a hen house. The offer was refused.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The three Winston brothers, who got in some pretty good licks in assorted flavors during the last 12 months, have reached the end of the free ice-cream-cone trail.

With the final scoop of vanilla came the expiration of an agreement with the proprietor of their neighborhood ice cream store, James R. Gregory. The arrangement was Gregory's way of saying thanks to the boys' father, Cabell G. Winston, who helped catch a gunman who robbed the store of $15 a year ago.

By Gregory's official count the boys polished off 3552 cones during the 52 weeks. Gregory figured the whole operation cost him about $177.

OSNABRUECK, Germany (AP) — Godfried Bueren, wealthy amateur scientist, liked his theory that the sun has a cool habitable core so well that he offered a 25,000-mark ($5952) reward if anyone could disprove it.

The German Astronomical Society got to work and presented evidence to three scientist judges.

The judges decided in favor of the society, but Bueren balked on paying, declaring his theory was not disproved.

A court now has ordered Bueren to pay the reward. Bueren still isn't convinced. He gave notice of appeal.

Voice of Christ, Not Popular Way, Should Be Guide

The need for people to revert to the authority and mind of Christ instead of allowing the tremendous power of public opinion to affect their every-day living was stressed in a speech heard by a large number of Nelson businessmen Thursday.

Rev. Wayman K. Roberts, minister of the First Baptist Church at Vancouver, here to conduct the "Christ for You" meetings, was speaking at a luncheon at the Hume.

The Utilitarian creed, "I'm just as good as anyone in church," was spoken by hypocrites who were putting themselves "on the spot," yet this creed formed the belief of vast numbers. It was amazing how much public opinion impinged on the way of life of people, so much depended on what the "other fellow says," or on what was the popular thing to do.

He saw it as a moral and spiritual crushing, influencing many and making it hard for many to turn to the ways of God. They were told not to be "silly, no one pays any attention to that sort of thing," but "we've got to come to the place where we are prepared to recognize that the final standard is Christ's; to stand properly on our own feet."

Illustrating how the minority could rule, he recalled a writer who said the Bolsheviks who formed a minority group, were able to take over Russia because it was the only group of men who knew exactly what they wanted; they had the power of a clear conviction and were able to step in and take over.

VOICE OF AUTHORITY

"We've got to restore to Jesus Christ the position of a regal power," Mr. Roberts said. "He is King and Lord. He came direct to us from heaven so that his is the voice of authority."

When he said to his disciples, "I say with you," there was a ring of authority in his voice. This authority must be recaptured. It should not be, "I say this, and I say that," it should be, "What does Christ say?"

Deep in "our system we feel the need of something higher up and we need to reach up above our little lives and find something more fundamental and stable. Let's get above the small petty things where we can hear a clear voice which speaks with absolute authority."

Chairman was Rev. Theo T. Gibson. Hymns were sung with Very Rev. T. L. Leadbeater accompanying at the piano.

DERAILED SLOCAN FREIGHT CLEARED

NEW DENVER — Service was restored on Canadian Pacific Railway's Slocan line at 10 a.m. Friday morning following clearing of a derailed freight train which had been running East from Rosebery.

A broken rail caused the derailment, the engine turning over on its side and the tender and two empty ore dump cars being derailed. Three days were required to clear the line.

Trail Teachers Granted 6.5 P.C. Wage Increases

TRAIL—An average increase of 6.5 per cent in the 1953 wage scale was granted teachers in Trail School District No. 11. This is one of the highest increases granted Kootenay teachers by an arbitration board.

Teachers in the Castlegar area received an average increase of approximately four per cent through a decision of the same board.

In the elementary basic classification for Trail teachers, the award increased starting salaries by $100 to $2300. Maximum in this classification was raised from $3300 to $3560 for women after nine years' experience and from $3600 to $3840 for men with 11 years' experience.

In the secondary basic classification, starting salaries were increased by $100 to $2800 and the maximum was hiked from $4200 to $4620 for women after 13 years' experience and from $4600 to $4800 for men after 15 years' experience.

Annual increments for all teachers was set at $140 per year. Formerly there were two increments of $150 and the remainder at $100.

Largest boosts received were $560 per year for secondary men teachers with 14 years' experience, and $520 per year for secondary women teachers with 13 years' experience.

Teachers' demands called for increases ranging from $300 per year to $500 per year.

The four per cent increase granted Castlegar teachers is reached by wage hikes from $85 to $225.

Balfour Plans Community Centre

BALFOUR — Interest in community affairs is mounting steadily throughout the Kootenay. While Harrop-Longbeach residents have launched a community hall building program, an across-the-lake neighbor, Balfour, is drawing up plans for a community centre.

The building committee tendered a vote of thanks to the Balfour Women's Institute who have donated $500 toward a building fund. The hall will be a joint effort and the W.I. will be entitled to use the building at any time free of charge.

Representatives of both groups including Mrs. A. Carlsen, L. Sweeting, T. Craigdallie and J. Erickson will investigate three sites. These locations were volunteered by K. Chandler, C. Race and C. Suitor. A recommendation will be brought in by this committee at the next meeting.

In an effort to raise the necessary money needed for construction costs, $5 non interest bearing shares will be sold.

Paradise Mine Shut Down

INVERMERE — Sheep Creek Gold Mine Limited's Paradise mine shut down early this week because of a further drop in base metals prices.

The mine has a fluctuating history of production and its fortunes have been closely woven with the fortunes of the Windermere district.

Mining was discontinued December 5 when base metals prices slumped. Development work, however, was continued until Monday when operations were closed down completely. All portable equipment has been removed. The closure affected 18 employees.

Sheep Creek Gold Mines' Mineral King, situated in the same district, will continue. Currently, diamond drilling is under way there.

Sheep Creek re-opened the Paradise Mine in 1949, several years after the company had purchased the property. The mine was closed for three months during 1950 but had since operated steadily.

Mrs. May Seeks Back Taxes

VANCOUVER (CP) — Minnie Mead May, veteran of more than 35 years litigation over the Gibson mining property near Kaslo, was in Supreme Court again today.

At the moment, she is seeking to compel the trustee and the secretary-treasurer of the bankrupt Daybreak Mining Co. to pay the 1952 taxes on the property which she alleges they withheld illegally from her.

Mr. Justice A. M. Manson gave her the leave she sought to serve Mrs. Katherine M. Hartin of Trail as trustee and the secretary of the Daybreak Co. in Portland.

INVERMERE — Dr. F. E. Coy of Invermere is at Ottawa to attend a two weeks course in civil defense technical training. He joined other B.C. representatives from New Westminster, Summerland, New Denver and Castlegar.

H. Newcomen Elected Invermere Fire Chief

INVERMERE — H. A. Newcomen has been appointed fire chief for the village. Corbin Mitchell was named captain and F. W. Hillier, lieutenant. A meeting, at which a volunteer fire company was formed, stemmed from an address on fire prevention by Cranbrook Fire Chief J. Gordon.

The new company will inspect the fire engine and have it put into working order. Regular fire practices will be held.

And Then the Cats Will Moo

Listening to American announcers on the radio talking about the U.S. "constitooshun", their various "institooshuns" and the problems of their "stoodents" makes one wonder how long it will be before the use of the "ee-oo" diphthong is dispensed with entirely.

For anyone who enjoys the niceties of accurate diction this sloppy habit is as irritating as finding sand in a sandwich. Unfortunately, Canadians prone to dogging American footsteps at a conservative distance eventually arrive at the same destination, and are fast adopting this Americanism.

It is amazing when one considers to what lengths this habit may lead.

For example, in church on Sunday mornings the minister will tell of the "good nooz" and wonder why there are so "foo people in the poos".

School boards may consider it a good move to begin "distribooshun" of poetry books in the schools and encourage "poopils" to take an interest in "elocooshun".

It would then be necessary to listen to the cats "moo".

Early Reports Help Assure Protection

Nelson owes a debt of gratitude to Mrs. H. W. McLellan, the citizen whose consciousness of her public duty saved this city from an incendiary fire last weekend.

One of the biggest problems police officers encounter in trying to protect the public is a lack of co-operation from the very people who benefit from their services. Too frequently reports of suspicious characters, of molesters and such come in to police as much as 24 hours after the occasions that are subject of the reports. For some reason citizens seem to think police are capable of miracles in following a cold trail. The best police work is possible when they can be on the job as soon after a crime or an alarming incident as possible.

The Nelson woman not only frightened the would-be incendiarist away from his task at the gas tank area, but had police and firemen advised immediately. She set an example in co-operation that all who expect proper police and fire protection might well remember.

No Comfort There

Premier W. A. C. Bennett knows better now just where he stands. If he was taking any comfort from the presence of Mr. E. T. Kenney and his five Liberals in the Legislative Assembly, it must have been dispelled when Mr. Kenney spoke out in favor of the CCF having its chance at government if the Social Crediters are defeated on the floor of the House. The Premier will know now how it feels to be surrounded.

ON THE SILE

By E. V. DURLING

In England a man married one of twin sisters. They were identical twins. The other twin sister, a bachelorette, came to live with the newlyweds. After a brief period the man sued for a divorce. He said he couldn't tell the difference between his wife and her identical twin sister. And that the women were taking advantage of this. Wonder if many men who marry twins have similar troubles as to identification. Seems a man who marries an identical twin should have her tattooed or fingerprinted, or both.

A THING OF THE PAST

There are now 22,000,000 women with salaried jobs in the U.S. Of these, 55 per cent are married. This is a terrific blow for the claim that "a woman's place is in the home." Most of the single girls now working will probably keep their positions after marriage. So, young fellow, you might as well resign yourself to the fact that after you are married you will have to help with the housework. As a protective measure you better take a course in domestic science, including cooking. How do you think you are going to look in an apron marked "His"?

NEW FASHION FAD

Operations for face restyling seem to be of common occurrence in Paris. Appears they are not considered any more serious than a beauty shop treatment. In fact, in France there are now "fashions in noses". A television entertainer named Jacqueline Joubert recently had her nose restyled. The change made Jacqueline so glamorous that many French women decided to acquire a similarly shaped proboscis. The style is referred to as the "pussy-cat nose". Cost of a nose restyling operation in Paris is about $300.

LONG SHOT

In World War II, during the height of the bombing of London by the Nazis, Lloyds offered an insurance policy which was the equivalent of betting 1000 to 1 that any particular person would not be killed or injured by a bomb. That is, for one pound a person could get a policy calling for payment of 1000 pounds if the policyholder was killed or injured in a bombing.

PRELUDE TO A HANGOVER

"Madness After Midnight." That's the catchy title of a book by Jack Clicco. Deals with the author's experiences as a night-spot employee and owner in London's Mayfair and Soho districts. Particularly interesting is a description of a Soho night club called The Morgue. At this place all the tables were shaped like coffins. The waiters were dressed as devils. The lighting, pale green in coloring, made all the customers look like corpses.

READING BETWEEN THE HEADS

Phrenology is enjoying a revival in England. Inspiration of the revival was a prediction made by a phrenologist of the future of Prince Charles, soon to be named the Prince of Wales. It is interesting to note phrenology reached the peak of its popularity when Queen Victoria requested a phrenologist to examine the shape of the heads of the children of the Royal Family and predict their futures. Incidentally, phrenology was originated in the 18th century by a German named Dr. Joseph Gall. A phrenology reading is a complicated affair, but it is claimed by experts on the subject that persons whose heads are unusually wide between the ears generally have great success.

QUEENLY PASTIME

At one time Queen Victoria of England had 83 dogs. She knew every dog by name and frequently took care of the feeding of all of her 83 pets.

"Men Against the Sea"

(Christian Science Monitor)

Usually it is those who go down to the sea in ships who are meant when the phrase "men against the sea" is used. But the phrase is no less vivid when applied to those rugged Dutchmen who over a period of centuries have wrested acre after acre from the sea by construction of dikes and have converted this land to agricultural use.

Within the past week tough-willed Hollanders have faced what a news writer aptly describes as their "biggest battle against the sea since the Middle Ages." Their small country has borne the heaviest brunt of terrific storms which brought floods on the top of the Spring high tides to parts of England and Belgium as well.

There is a cruel note in the fact that The Netherlands Government only a few days before had avowed its ability to get through the next six months or more without the post-war financial aid which it, in common with other European countries, has been receiving.

E. W., Creston—Would you please inform me when we had the last perfect month, as in February of this year, starting on a Sunday and ending on a Saturday?

February, 1942, began on Sunday and ended Saturday.

Mrs. J. L., Trail—Can you give me the address of the dry-cleaning establishment in th district that does dyeing? And also, can you tell me how to remove stains on linen caused by evaporated milk?

There are no firms that do dyeing in this district. There is a firm in Vancouver that local dyers recommend: Roy Stevens, Tri-Cleaning and Dyeing, 1170 Burrard Avenue, Vancouver. Have you ever tried dyeing at home? It is simple and effective when done in a washing machine. The beater keeps the articles moving and so prevents streaking. As for the evaporated milk stains, we can only suggest a solvent obtainable at any drug store or hardware store, or sending the linen to a professional cleaner.

Student, Salmo—Where could I write for folders or booklets on the geography of France?

We are not quite sure what you mean by this question, but if you want a good map, write to any of the shipping companies that issue folders and maps for tourists, such as the Cunard Line, New York; The Canadian Pacific Steamships, CPR Station, Vancouver, B. C.; The French Line, Marine Building, Vancouver, B. C.

M. E. B., Trail—Could you tell me if there is any chance of getting employment in the new diesel servicing plant being erected by the CPR in Nelson? I have been wondering if I could obtain work there in the line of work I do.

Write to the National Employment Service, 356 Baker Street, Nelson.

Looking Backward

10 YEARS AGO

From the Nelson Daily News of Feb. 13, 1943

Nelson Board of Trade, on recommendation of its Roads and Bridges Committee, decided to ask Hon. Herbert Anscomb, Minister of Public Works, how much of the appropriations for road work in B. C. this year will be spent on the Southern Trans-Provincial Highway between Yahk and Grand Forks, and of this sum, how much will be spent in the Nelson-Creston riding.

An appeal for support of the food dealers' War Savings Stamps campaign to raise $1000 was made to the Board of Trade.

Mining and Natural Resources Committee of the Board was instructed to deal with and report upon the Kaslo proposal that legislative amendments to permit employment of Japanese in mines and forests be introduced.

25 YEARS AGO

From the Nelson Daily News of Feb. 13, 1928

By unanimous vote, the Nelson Board of Trade passed a resolution to invite the Boards of Trade throughout the Kootenay territory to co-operate in urging upon the Provincial Government the bringing into force of Provincial daylight saving.

Trail intermediate hockey boys, who defeated Michel here, left tonight for Grand Forks, where they will meet the Greenwood team tomorrow night in the second game of the Provincial intermediate championship series.

Nelsonites will publicly mourn the passing of Field Marshal Earl Haig, commander-in-chief of the British armies on the Western Front. He died recently in England.

Warfield Community Hall Nears Completion

By LOUIS FRYLING

It was only a few years ago that the recently incorporated Village of Warfield came to another important decision toward unity and progress. Members of the Warfield section of the subdivision wanted a community hall and set up the necessary organization to plan this project. In 1948, the opportunity to join the Trail District Recreational Projects Society was made available and the advantages of so doing were considered favorable by most residents.

Because of this decision this dream of the residents is today becoming a reality and the first floor of a $35,000 hall has already been completed. With 2954 hours of voluntary labor marked down, this system of getting things done is working satisfactorily in the Warfield District. A labor coordinator keeps a steady flow of volunteers coming to the project who work under an experienced paid supervisor. An added incentive is the opportunity to earn a season hockey ticket for a certain amount of donated hours of work.

WORK TO CONTINUE

Following a winter recess, work on the hall is expected to continue very shortly, weather permitting, and the job finished up by the end of the summer. The committee will then look around for other projects to tackle such as swimming pool or playgrounds. In the meantime, as a sideline they are carrying on park improvement work, all of which is adding to the beauty and value of the district.

Next week a district-wide canvass will be undertaken for new members and opportunity given to existing members to increase donations if they so desire.

The investments offer a great return not only in recreational facilities but in actual wealth with added value to the entire district.

The Sault Ste. Marie canals on the Great Lakes carry more traffic than the Suez and Panama canals combined.

COMINCO PAYS B. C.'s HIGHEST FIRE INSURANCE

TRAIL—British Columbia's highest single fire premium is paid by Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada Limited, which is insured for $160,000,000, business editor of a coast paper states. Several firms, the writer says, share this "colossal" risk.

Butter Shortage Looms at Coast

VANCOUVER (CP)—The Western Canada Produce Association Thursday reported many of its members are short of butter and said no relief is possible until the Federal government releases more of its New Zealand and Canadian butter.

A statement issued here said Western Canada prices have not gone up but will unless government action is taken.

"The wholesalers who have not their own manufacturing source of supply will simply go on the open market and bid up prices on the small quantities of surplus butter which is available in the winter n onths."

Stocks in Vancouver Thursday, said a spokesman, total 1,500,000 pounds compared with 3,000,000 at this time last year. Present retail prices range from 69 to 71 cents a pound.

The association represents the produce trade in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia.

Committee Approves Netherlands Bank

OTTAWA (CP)— The Commons banking committee Thursday approved a bill to incorporate the Mercantile Bank of Canada, sponsored by the Netherlands' most powerful banking group, the Nationale Handelsbank NV of Amsterdam.

The bill has passed the Senate. It now goes to the Commons for third reading. A charter to operate will be granted after the legislation is given royal assent by the governor-general later in the session.

Only a "few people" will be brought from Holland to man offices and the remainder would be hired in Canada.

Alfred Garneau, the Quebec poet, was chief translator in the Canadian Senate until his death in 1904.

Sommerfeld-Huscroft Vows Said in Lister Ceremony

LISTER—A pretty afternoon ceremony was solemnized here in Bethlehem Lutheran Church when Dawn Elaine Huscroft and Alfred Sommerfeld were united in marriage by Rev. K. F. Sterzer of Creston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Huscroft of Huscroft, B.C., and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sommerfeld of Lister.

The ceremony was performed against a background of tulips, daffodils and green fern.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore nylon net over satin with lace redingote, a fingertip veil with a silk maline bridal halo and pearl bead trim. She also wore a double strand of pearls, gift of the groom, and carried red roses and white carnations.

Matron of Honor, Mrs. Arlene Gleeson, bridesmaids, Miss Violet Sommerfeld and Miss Shirley Huscroft and flower girl Miss Dorothy Huscroft wore similarly styled gowns of marquis over taffeta and carried carnation nosegays tinted to match their dresses of blue, green yellow and mauve.

Mr. Harry Sommerfeld was best man with Mr. Donald (Mickey) Huscroft and Mr. Fred Sommerfeld, ushers.

Mr. Helmuth Rinas, guest soloist, sang "I'll Walk Beside You" accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Huscroft, organist.

The bride's mother chose a gown of dark green crepe, rose coat and black accessories, and wore a white carnation corsage.

Navy dress, wine coat and grey accessories were chosen by the groom's mother who also wore a white carnation corsage.

Pink and white streamers, white bells and red roses decorated Deer Lodge Community Hall where the reception for 150 guests was held. A three-tier wedding cake with a horseshoe shaped top and white doves holding silver rings centred the main table flanked by tapers. Serviteurs were Betty Powers, Anita Lang, Freida Herman, Elizabeth Kranabetter, Ruby McKee, Lorna Lannovie, Annelore Rinas and Thelma Provosy. Mr. John Bird of Lister proposed the toast replied to by the groom.

MESSAGES

Telegrams of congratulations and best wishes were read from Scotland, Toronto, Vancouver and from Prince George.

For going-away the bride chose a winter white wool dress with gold thread, three-quarter length mouton coat and brown accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses.

The couple will honeymoon at United States points.

Out-of-town guests included Miss Violet Sommerfeld and Miss Rose Kranabetter of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fleming and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey of Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sommerfeld and Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hobden of Kimberley and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Larsen of Cranbrook.

TULIP-LINE BY DIOR FOR SPRING OF '53

PARIS (AP)—Dior's new silhouette for Spring of 1953 is the tulip line—wide but sloping shoulders, ballooning bosom, then hug-me-tight straight to the hem.

In short, Christian Dior has joined the health faddists in advising that you throw out your chest and pull in your tummy and hips. At his opening Thursday, the czar of style turned thumbs-down on the loose-waisted silhouette favored by many Paris houses.

Dior's only concession was big loose coats or jackets, but the dress beneath was always slim as a flower stem. Full skirts, finely pleated like the fluted undersides of mushrooms, began to appear for afternoon and were prevalent for cocktail and evening wear. A sliding-off decolletage generously bared the shoulders.

Emphasis was put squarely on the bustline by sleeves cut in one with the bodice, and pushing forward over the bosom a stiffened puff of material. Skirts were slightly shorter, but only by a hairsbreadth.

Two Invermere Infants Christened

INVERMERE — At a double christening ceremony at Trinity United Church, Invermere, Sunday, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Seymour of Athalmer received the names Jeffery Perry. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Seymour.

Other principal was the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kirsch of Wilmer who received the names Sheila Lois. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Degarness.

Rev. A. A. Burnett of Invermere officiated at the ceremony.

Mrs. Hodges Enjoys First Legislative Talk

VICTORIA (CP) — Mrs. Nancy Hodges (L — Victoria) said Wednesday that she enjoyed making her first partisan speech in the British Columbia Legislature in four years.

For the previous three sessions she was Speaker, the first woman in the Commonwealth to hold such a post.

Speaking in the throne speech debate, she said she had had to rule impartially for three years and it was a pleasure to get back into a political scrap in the Legislature. She promptly did so by roasting the Social Credit government.

Mrs. Hodges also admitted she is over 60.

She said she could see no reason why women are retired from the B.C. civil service at 60 while men are retired at 65.

"If women over 60 couldn't get into this Legislature, the minister of education wouldn't be here—and I wouldn't either," she said.

The education minister is Mrs. Tilly Rolston, first woman to hold an active cabinet post in any provincial legislature in Canada.

Mrs. Rolston laughed with the rest of the members.

Commerce Introduces Modernized, Enlarged Bank to Nelson Saturday

A step from the outdated into the modern has been taken by Canadian Bank of Commerce at Nelson with completion of an enlarging and renovation program.

Spacious and ultra-modern, the bank accents privacy for the customer.

Official opening is set for Saturday afternoon when a number of Nelson's oldtimers, among the first to open accounts at the bank, will participate in opening ceremonies.

Refreshments will be served by the ladies auxiliary to Kootenay Lake General Hospital.

Built in 1905 by John Burns, the Bank has operated 48 years with no renovations.

Its history dates back even farther to the 1800s when it operated as the Bank of British Columbia.

Previously 50 by 26 feet, the bank has been extended to the back of the building 61 feet to give an area of 3050 square feet.

Sawtooth counters to give additional privacy, sound-proofing and recessed indirect lighting are some improvement highlights.

A new vault constructed by the local contractor, T. H. Waters Company Ltd., with two specially built steel doors, brought in from Toronto, complete with safety deposit boxes, takes the place of the old vault now being used as a book vault. Two booths, for safety deposit box customers, add to convenience and privacy for owners.

The back wall of the bank is window, giving 400 square feet of lighting.

From the manager's office a view of the entire bank can be had while anyone being interviewed cannot be seen by customers.

Modernistic trend is reflected in color scheming with two walls painted a pale green and contrasted by darker shades on the remaining walls.

Modernizing and enlarging includes the basement. Lunch room, recreation room with ping pong table, wash rooms and storage and stationery rooms, are provided. An oil furnace has also been installed and an overhead sprinkling system has been completed.

Two upper floors of the bank which have housed the offices of Messrs. Wragge and Hamilton, since the bank was built, will also be renovated. Staff apartments also form part of the upper storeys.

The Grand Rapids on the Saskatchewan River near Lake Winnipeg drop 71 feet within five miles.

Mr. FRED THOMPSON will be in charge of caretaking of the new premises of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. ***

ANNOUNCING

BUICK'S GREATEST CARS IN 50 GREAT YEARS

HERE you see pictured the Golden Anniversary Buicks—engineered, styled, powered and bodied to be fully worthy of their paragon role in this fiftieth year of Buick building.

A quick listing of simple facts will reveal just cause for celebration. Let's start off with the new 1953 Buick Custom.

★ It has a newly-designed Fireball Straight-8 Engine.
The importantly stepped-up Fireball Straight-8 actually gives the 1953 Custom with Dynaflow even better performance than the 1952 Roadmaster. And this brilliant new performance is achieved with amazing economy and without the need for premium fuels.

★ It has Fireball Horsepower.
Engine horsepower per pound has been increased to 130 on Dynaflow-equipped models and 125 on cars equipped with Synchro-mesh transmission for more brilliant performance.

★ It has a compression ratio of 7.6 to 1.
New combustion chamber raises compression to 7.6 to 1 with Dynaflow, shortens flame travel for greater power and fuel efficiency.

★ It has a new *Twin-Turbine Dynaflow Drive.
Now adds far swifter, quieter, more efficient getaway to infinite smoothness at all speed ranges.

★ It has GM Power Steering.
This year the Buick Custom with Dynaflow Drive offers you the wondrous handling ease of GM Power Steering.

★ It has a still finer ride.
The softest, steadiest, most buoyantly level ride that Buick's advanced engineering has yet produced.

Optional at extra cost.*

A General Motors Value

Buick SUPER 4-Door Riviera Sedan

WORLD'S NEWEST V8 POWERS The Super-The Roadmaster

Yes, there's wonderful news about the 1953 Buick SUPERS and ROADMASTERS, too. For instance, they're powered by a completely new V-8 engine with one of the highest compression ratios in the industry. It develops 188 horsepower for Roadmaster, 170 for the Dynaflow-equipped Super, and it's so compact that a new, more manoeuvrable chassis has been built around it!

But no listing of facts and features can do justice to the phenomenal Golden Anniversary Buicks. No words can really tell you the beauty you see, the comfort you feel, the excitement you experience when you make first-hand acquaintance with these big, beautiful, bounteous Buick Customs and Supers and Roadmasters for '53.

So come in and see for yourself that these are, in simple truth, Buick's greatest cars in 50 great years!

Around the KOOTENAY in Sport

By JACK KAVANAGH

Len Walker got his wires crossed a little in his column Feb. 10. He stated Jack Pratt taught the Dynamiters their famous power play in 1935. Len's statement sent us charging to the old scrap book and we found out that Johnny Achtzener was the man that was responsible for the five-forward power play that was respected across Canada. Mr. Walker also said Achtzener joined the Dynamiters after the 1935-36 season started. To put Len on the right track we would like to tell him Achtzener arrived in Kimberley Dec. 10, 1935, before the Kootenay league got under way.

Achtzener never did receive the credit he deserved for bringing the Allan Cup to Kimberley. He didn't walk into any bed of roses and winning the Allan Cup wasn't an easy task. In checking through the scrap book, we found a very interesting write-up by the well-known sports writer, Harry Scott of the Calgary Albertan. This article may help Mr. Walker:

"Patrick experiment is not new," was the headline. The story went on, "according to a report from Windsor, Ont., Lester Patrick, New York Rangers manager, is in the midst of a hockey experiment that may have an effect as electrifying as introduction of the rabbit ball in baseball. It appears that Patrick experiment is to use five forwards in a concentrated drive to get goals."

"Not that I wish to take any credit away from Patrick, but he might as well be informed right now that his experiment is not a new one. Any Calgary fan who saw Kimberley Dynamiters perform here a few years ago will know that they saw the British Columbians make a concentrated five-man drive in their Allan Cup series against the Prince Albert Mintos the Spring of 1935-36. No one can take credit away from Johnny Achtzener for that style of hockey he taught the Dynamiters, and which enabled them to get results. When they had five men consistently on the attack in their games here, I said at the time it was screwy hockey, but nevertheless got results." Don't feel too bad, Len. I was also under the same impression as you until I checked the record book.

Curling . . .

Kimberley Legion Branch 67 played host to the first East Kootenay zone bonspiel last weekend. The 'spiel was a roaring success, with 35 rinks participating in its two days, a total of 13 outside rinks coming from Creston, Cranbrook, Fernie and Marysville.

Two competitions were held, with Ralph Whibell's rink winning the primary event and Ab Lilley's rink the secondary event.

Creston will be the scene of next year's 'spiel.

The second annual hotelmen's bonspiel will be held the weekend of Feb. 20 and over 50 rinks are expected to participate. The 'spiel is open to any rinks in Canada but the catch is each rink must include at least one lady.

Skating carnival . . .

Kimberley's North Star Figure Skating Club is staging their gigantic ice carnival this weekend. Mrs. Theresa Mellor, the club pro, has rounded out a very interesting program with many top outside skating artists. The show includes 20 acts and the fans are assured of top entertainment.

Here 'n' there . . .

Kimberley Dynamiters will have made a total of 12 road trips in league play, six to Spokane and six to the West Kootenays. Here are Sunday, there are only 16 rinks some interesting figures on their first 10 jaunts: The club shelled out $624.05 for hotels, $1267.68 for transportation and $2296 for meals. . . . Stu Cruickshanks, a former Dynamiter defenceman, was picked on Scotland's all-star team this year. Stu may play for Milan in the Italian league next Winter. . . . Gerry Barre will be sidelined for a few days with a knee injury sustained in Nelson last week.

Bruins Down Wings 3-1; Canadiens Take Hawks 3-2

By The Canadian Press

Fleming Mackell provided two of the Boston goals as the Bruins snapped top-place Detroit Red Wings' National Hockey League eight-game unbeaten-string with a 3-1 victory Thursday night. The triumph, only the second the Bruins have gained in 11 tries against the Stanley Cup champions this season, moved Boston into a fourth-place tie with the idle Toronto Maple Leafs.

At Chicago, the second-place Montreal Canadiens closed to within three points of the Wings with a 3-2 victory over the Black Hawks.

Dickie Gamble scored two goals to leave the Hawks two points in front of the Leafs.

The Hawks moved in front in the first period on a goal by rookie Sid Finney, up from Calgary Stampeders of the Western Hockey League. Gamble's first goal at 5:30 of the same session tied the count and the Canadiens went in front to stay when Gamble connected again at 10:54 of the second frame.

Dickie Moore, who assisted on the first of Gamble's goals along with Elmer Lach, shot Canadiens in front 3-1 on a solo effort.

The Hawks cut Canadiens' margin to a single goal when Jim Peters tallied with less than three minutes to play in the second period, but they couldn't connect in the final.

At Boston, Mackell's first marker came during the 14th minute of play when, after taking a forward pass from Eddie Sandford, he trapped five attacking Red Wings and blasted goalie Terry Sawchuk with a rifle-like angle shot from 25 feet.

The Red Wings stormed back 19 seconds later and Reg Sinclair polished off a power play by caging John Wilson's rebound.

Mackell clinched matters during the second minute of the middle session by slapping in Johnny Peirson's pass.

The masked Peirson, playing with a fractured jaw, set up a goal for Joe Klukay later in the period.

For the third straight game Detroit's great Gordie Howe, who is leading the league with 72 points, was denied the 200th goal of his NHL career.

Salmo Claims Mexico, Norway 'Spiel Entrants

CRESTON, B. C. — Entries are being received from rinks to compete in the 8th annual Butterfly Bonspiel here March 5 - 6 - 7 - 8.

Highlight of the entry list so far is a Salmo rink which at the moment has one of its members located in Mexico and the other in Norway. Assurance was given the two will be on hand for the 'spiel.

In other curling matters Mrs. A. Sutcliffe was elected to the executive dealing with the Ladies' Kootenay Bonspiel. Two local competitions in the men's Club are scheduled, the Rotation Skip and the Third man skip competitions.

The mixed bonspiel will be the last week in February with rink personnel to be announced later.

DiMaggio Bets On Yankees

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Joe DiMaggio has picked New York Yankees to pound home first again in the American League baseball race.

The old Yankee Clipper, one year removed from the battle of baseballs, also thinks he could make a comeback if he wanted to try.

"I'm not planning on it," he hastened to add. Joe is 38.

Joltin' Joe, here visiting relatives, said: "I can't see any team beating the Yankees."

Leafs Take Trail Smokies 8-3 in Fast Play

Spokane	48	25	20	3	241	217	.552

Nelson Maple Leafs Thursday night got back onto the winning side of the WIHL ledger as they outskated and outscored the Trail Smoke Eaters to the tune of 8-3. It was one of the fastest games seen on Nelson ice in some time.

The first period started fast with both goalies making some exceptionally fine saves. Sofiak made a fine save when Fritz Koehle was right in alone, and a few minutes later with Corrado home-free Rodzinyak came out to outguess him.

With the game just minutes old, Gare and Moe Young tangled and were chased by Referee Johnny Lang.

At 13:25, with Bobby Kromm serving a penalty, Fritz Koehle scored the first goal of the game when he took a pass from brother Red and beat Sofiak cleanly. Nelson went two up at 19:04 when Lovett took a pass from Ruml and gave Sofiak no chance as he fired one home from just inside the blueline. The period ended with Trail pressing hard.

The second period saw Trail going all out in an attempt to get into the scoring and at 1:50 their hard pressing paid off when Cavanagh beat the Boomer cleanly after taking a pass from Young. This situation was short lived. Twenty seconds later Haley and Ruml broke away and after several passes, Don Haley tucked the puck in behind Sofiak for Nelson's third counter.

Play continued to be fast and both Sofiak and Rodzinyak were called on time and again as the teams played wide open hockey. Nelson missed a chance to go further in the lead at the seven-minute mark when Gilhooley had Sofiak beaten, but hit the goal post with a knee-high drive. At the other end, both Young and Bursaw were in on the Boomer but he outguessed them. At the 13:17 mark McClenaghan scored one of the prettiest from Red Koehle and gave Sofiak goals of the night as he took a pass no change.

GANG ATTACK

Less than a minute later the Leafs, not satisfied with four goals, came down on the attack once again and this time it was Ruml scoring on a three-way play with Lovett and Haley.

Trail scored their second counter before the end of the period when Moe Young beat the Boomer. After taking a pass from Bursaw, he sidestepped the only Nelson man between him and the goal. The period ended with Nelson all around the Trail net and Sofiak putting on a performance of fine netminding. In turn he kicked out shots from Lovett, Ruml and Anderson.

MISCONDUCTS

Play in the third period remained fast, although it got a bit rough at times and after a penalty-less second period, the referees were called on to hand out eight in this session, including misconducts to both Sinclair and Sofiak.

Dale Anderson also received a five minute penalty for boarding.

Nelson continued to press the attack and at 6:19 Fritz Koehle blinked the light behind Sofiak after taking a pass from Hyssop. This was by far the nicest passing display of the game. Hyssop came down the left side and after eluding several Trail players passed to Fritz who was sitting on Sofiak's doorstep.

This was the first of three fast goals as Nelson poured on the coal and less than a minute later Haldane scored on another play from Hyssop. Just 59 seconds later the Leafs rammed home their last counter as Haley scored from Ruml and Gare. Toward the end of the game Nelson was two men short with Anderson sitting out a major and Red Koehle a two-minute tripping penalty when on a four-man ganging attack Kromm banged the puck past Rodzinyak after taking a pass from Corrado.

Kelowna High Rink B. C. Champs

Tommy Bell's rink from Kelowna was Thursday declared the winners of the B.C. title replay in the High School Bonspiel.

They won both of their Thursday games, first taking the measure of the Nuyens rink of Nelson 10-7, and then coming from behind a three-point deficit in the seventh end to overtake the Salmo rink for a 10-8 victory in the final game.

The final game was by far the most exciting. Some 150 fans in the gallery thrilled to the shots of the boys on the ice as they battled down to the wire.

The Kelowna rink will represent B.C. at the Dominion students' 'spiel at Saskatoon next week. They take the place of the Cranbrook crew, disqualified because of age regulations.

The turning point came in the eighth end when, with Salmo holding what looked like a comfortable 7-4 lead, Kelowna scored a four-ender to take an 8-7 lead. The game was tucked away in the ninth when Strandberg with his last rock missed completely what was an ordinary knockout shot and the Bell rink picked up another two points. The tenth end saw the Kelowna rink turn to a knockout game and when the last rock was thrown Salmo was able to score but one point.

The game started off with the skips from both clubs pulling off some remarkable shots and for the first three ends it was nip and tuck as first Kelowna scored one and then Salmo and then Kelowna again, but in the fourth end Strandberg came in with a tremendous knockout shot that gave Salmo a four-ender and a 5-2 lead. They added one more in the fifth and then in the sixth Kelowna came back with two. Salmo picked up another in the seventh and it looked like they were home-free when the roof fell in on them in the fateful eighth.

The victory was a great one for the Kelowna boys, who have been curling as a rink only since Christmas. The only player who has curled for more than two years is the skip, Tom Bell, who has had three years' experience. This is the first year that the boys have entered competition.

Kelowna — Tommy Bell, skip; Ralph DePfyffer, third; Don Gillespie, second, and Bill Gaddes, lead.

Salmo—Pat Strandberg, skip; Leo Dreuge, third; Terry Anderson, second, and Ron Avery, lead.

Score by ends:

Kelowna ..... 1010020420—10
Salmo ..... 0104101001— 8

HOLD EARLY LEAD

In the morning game, the Bob Nuyens rink from Nelson, who the day before had eliminated Cranbrook rather handily, got away to a bad start. Kelowna took a three-ender in the first to take a lead which they never gave up throughout the remainder of the game. Kelowna went on to pick up one in the second and then Nelson answered with one in the third. Then Kelowna scored two more in the fourth and another in the fifth. Nelson did come back in the sixth when they scored a three end to shorten the lead to 7-4, but after Kelowna got one in the seventh. Nelson tightened up the game a little more with a two-ender in the eighth but at this point Nelson faltered once again and Kelowna sewed up the game with a two-ender.

Kelowna — Tommy Bell, skip; Ralph DePfyffer, third; Don Gillespie, second, and Bill Gaddes, lead.

Nelson—Bob Nuyens, skip; Rich Mason, third; Joe Bourque, second, and George Robinson, lead.

Score by ends:

Kelowna ..... 3102101020—10
Nelson ..... 0010030201— 7

Gavilan Eager for Try At Middleweight Title

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — Welterweight champion Kid Gavilan, fresh from obliterating TV's top boxing attraction—a cruelly-outclassed Chuck Davey—clamored today for a shot at the middleweight crown against Randy Turpin or Bobo Olson.

The killer from Cuba blasted the Davey invincibility myth Wednesday night before a Chicago Stadium crowd of 17,150 which paid a record welter bout gross gate of $275,454. Gavilan weighed 146½, Davey 147.

"It's now middleweights for me," said the jaunty Gavilan, unmarked in his 10th-round TKO triumph. "I want to take on Turpin or Olson. Either one after this tournament business."

He was referring to the elimination tournament proposed to screen some 11 contenders for Sugar Ray Robinson's vacated 160-pound title.

"Let Turpin or Olson find out who is champion and then I fight that guy," said Gavilan, who already has licked five of the middleweights trying to elbow into the title picture.

Davey, gasping desperately for breath, was unable to come out for the 10th round. Gavilan had felled him four times—once in the third and three times in the brutal ninth.

MIS-MATCH

This match—or mis-match as first was announced—was a cruel ring experts contended since it awakening to the legions of TV fans mesmerized by Davey's cute southpaw style that had riddled two washed-up former champions, Ike Williams and Rocky Graziano, and earned him a crack at the title.

Yet, on points, Davey was making a battle of it. This was because Gavilan let the blonde gamester get off the hook in the third round and then fooled around by switching southpaw himself in the fifth and part of the sixth rounds.

Gavilan conceded after the fight that he knew he could put Davey away any time after the third. Even fighting as a left-hander, Gavilan was accorded no worse than a draw in the fifth and sixth and one official even gave him both rounds.

It was Davey's trainer, Issy Kline, who prevented Chuck from coming out for the 10th round. Davey wanted to do.

"I had the doctor Irving Slott of the Illinois Athletic Commission look at Chuck," said Kline. "He was gasping for breath from a punch to the adam's apple. He suggested we call it quits. I'd have done it anyway. If Davey went out for that 10th, he'd have been killed."

The beginning of the end came in the eighth when Gavilan opened a gash on Davey's right cheekbone. Davey came out fighting in the ninth. He started exchanging punches with the Kid and thereby signed his own death warrant.

COUNT OF NINE

A jolting right floored Davey for a count of nine. Gavilan smashed a left hook that floored Davey again for nine.

Gavilan moved in for the kill. His right-hand punches to Davey's head sent him reeling through the ropes and nearly out of the ring. He sprawled on the ring apron and might have slipped off, but photographers held up their arms for protection and steadied Davey for the instant he needed to regain balance.

Davey staggered to his feet at the count of nine just before the bell ended the round. But it was obvious that between-rounds ministrations would be of little or no help.

Gavilan, even if he slayed the TV goose that laid the golden egg, collected approximately $85,000 for his 40 per cent slice of the announced net gate of $211,415. Davey got 20 per cent, or about $42,500.

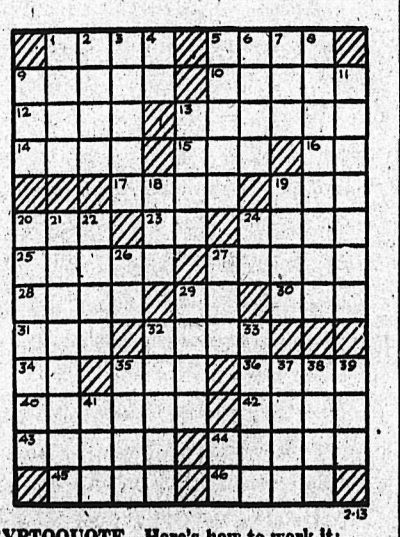
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

F W H X A U Z P D C A F D C Z H V K W A O
F X D C N S C A F D N F N A O C U H K C S C N U
F D C T H C U S C H F X Z X Q — L K X P A W A O

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: A BURNS IS INFINITELY BETTER EDUCATED THAN A BYRON—CARLYLE.

Market Trends

NEW YORK (AP)—Security and commodity markets throughout the United States were closed Thursday in observance of Lincoln's birthday.

TORONTO (CP)—Prices shifted listlessly lower toward the stock market's close today. Uranium issues recovered from morning weakness and several chalked up good gains.

Western oils held firm. Golds dropped more than half a point on the exchange index while industrials and base metals showed minor index losses.

MONTREAL (CP) — Prices turned irregularly higher in quiet trading.

Trans Mountain Pipe Line featured the session as it moved up one point at 43.

On the upside were Imperial Tobacco, B.C. Power, Seagrams, Hudson Bay Mining and Canadian Vickers.

LONDON (Reuters) — Domestic issues led the way as trading closed generally higher today.

Government securities were quietly higher. Among industrials demand was mainly for first-grade issues in practically all groups.

Foreign bonds were firm.

South African gold shares showed signs of life and interest broadened. Coppers and diamonds were firm.

Winnipeg Grain

WINNIPEG (CP) — Winnipeg grain cash prices:
Oats: No. 1 feed, 73⅝.
Barley: No. 1 feed, 1.18¼.

You can't go "ALL-OUT"

If you feel "ALL-IN"

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "tired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulate the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter. 83

Cranbrook Teachers Win 3 Per Cent Boost

CRANBROOK—A board of arbitration awarded increases totalling about $5000 to Cranbrook teachers, an approximate three per cent increase over the 1952 wage scale.

Arbitration board chairman was A. R. Dahlstrom of Trail, with T. E. H. Ellis representing the board and F. L. Dryer the teachers. Both are Vancouver lawyers.

Total payroll for 50 teachers in 1952 was approximately $168,000 and the increase awarded, which is binding on both parties, averages $100 per teacher per year.

Specifically the award set the elementary basic minimum at $2300, compared to the former $2200, and the maximum after ten years at $3800, compared to the former maximum after eleven years of $3850. Secondary basic salary was increased from $2650 to $2750, and the maximum raised to $4700 after 13 years, from the former $4600 after 13 years.

Award now clears the way for completion of the 1953 budget for presentation to the city council for approval before mill rate for city property owners is set. In 1952, Cranbrook had the highest school rate in the province at 59.1 mills.

C. Joseph First Elected Chief in East Kootenay

INVERMERE — Camille Joseph is the first Kootenay Chief to be elected by ballot. Recent amendments and changes in the Indian Act call for elections of ruling chieftains, replacing the previous inheritance law.

Councillors elected are Dominic Nicholas and Mose Michael. Other candidates for chief were Lucien Jimmy and Gus Alpine and for councillor Albert White.

The Kootenay Indian band reside on the Columbia Lake Reserve near Fairmont.

No election was held on the Shuswap Reserve. The band there has dwindled in numbers and there are not sufficient qualified full-blooded members of the band. The last chief there was Baptiste Thomas who resigned two years ago because of ill health.
