Britain Said Planning Defence Cuts

World-Wide Arms Reductions Forecast by Dulles

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary Dulles Wednesday forecast new reductions in the armed forces of nations around the globe including Russia.

He told a press conference this is a "general trend," mainly because nations are relying more on atomic-hydrogen weapons and less on manpower.

A reduction of East-West tensions also is a factor, he said, because this means "there is less risk of war than was the case."

Replying to questions, Dulles said he would make no political objections to any move by North Atlantic Pact allies to cut their forces, if competent military authorities decided fewer men are needed to guard Europe against surprise attack.

Dulles spoke out in the wake of reports that some defence department authorities are considering substantial cuts in the American army, navy and air force during the next three years.

Admiral Arthur Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, has been reported pressing this drive in the face of opposition from army leaders.

Dulles, in an obvious move to avoid taking sides publicly in the dispute, insisted that while he was discussed "the broad general policies," he knows nothing about the scope of the manpower slashes being considered.

He expressed hope, however, that political developments will be favorable enough in the next 10 years to bring back some of the U.S. forces stationed overseas, mostly in Western Germany.

Dulles sought to counter the impact in West Germany of Washington dispatches which reported that high officials believed it might not be necessary for the Germans to mobilize all 12 divisions pledged to the Atlantic Pact. He said on this point:

"The agreed force goal for the federal republic of Germany is 12 divisions and unless and until there is some change by the joint action of NATO, we believe that the commitments should be fulfilled."

Massey In Historic Cariboo

QUESNEL, B.C. (CP)—Greeted by the biggest crowd on his B.C. tour, Governor-General Vincent Massey arrived here by special train over the Pacific Great Eastern Railway from Prince George Wednesday for a visit to this province's historic Cariboo country.

More than 1000 persons crowded the town ball park in 85-degree heat to see the Queen"s representative in Canada.

Since the vice-regal party entered B.C. July 12, sunshiny weather has followed, even for three days in the Queen Charlottes where fog and rain are the rule.

This lumbering, ranching and farming centre came into being in the 1860's as a supply centre for the fabulous goldfields, 50 miles east in the Barkerville area. Nearly a dozen planer mills and a $1,000,000 plywood plant provide the bulk of employment for this city of 5500.

However, each fall, in one of the continent's longest cattle drives, ranchers 225 miles north of here still drive cattle to the Quesnel fall sale.

Baby With Charmed Life

SEATTLE (AP) — To hospital attendants watching over him, 14-month-old Kirk Norby is the little fellow with the charmed life.

Kirk was run over by his father's one-ton truck Tuesday. A wheel passed over the small of his back just above the hips. He was crawling away when his father, Edwin, saw him.

A doctor said the tot apparently was "squeezed and unsqueezed" like a rubber ball. A tire left its imprint across his back.

But Wednesday the little fellow sat up in bed. He had a hearty appetite that astounded the nurses. A doctor said he may be able to go home tomorrow.

An examination showed bruises on his stomach and left hand and near his hips and spine. Tests are being made for possible internal bleeding.

Wheat Exports At 10-Year High

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada's wheat exports, helped by a surge of spring shipments, reached a three-year high in the 10 months up to May 31, the government reported Wednesday amid indications that a good crop is shaping up on the Prairies.

The 234,000,000 bushels exported in the first 10 months of the crop year which ends July 31 cut Canada's huge stocks to 600,000,000 bushels, the bureau of statistics reported.

This country's wheat shipments trailed those of the United States, world's leading exporter, by 35,700,000 bushels.

Wheat stocks, at 599,800,000 bushels on June 1, were 58,000,000 bushels higher than a year earlier.

EXCELLENT PROGRESS

Meanwhile, the bureau said western crops are making excellent progress toward the harvest which will be in full swing about 1½ months from now.

Radcliffe to Meet Cypriot Today

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Lord Radcliffe will confer today, with Dr. Themistocles Dervis, long-time mayor of Nicosia and a member of the inner cabinet of the Greek Cypriot National Assembly.

A spokesman said Lord Radcliffe, British legal expert here to gather information for a self-government constitution, would call on Dervis at the municipal office.

It will be Radcliffe's first meeting with any Greek Cypriot leaders, who until now have refused to see him and have insisted that only deported Archbishop Makarios could speak for them.

DOLLAR HIGHER

NEW YORK (CP) — The Canadian dollar was 5-32 higher at a premium of 1 31-32 per cent in terms of U.S. funds. Pound sterling ⅛ lower at $2.79 23-32.

Disarm Under UN Agreement, St. Laurent Writes

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent has written to Premier Bulganin reasserting this country's "firmly held view" that disarmament should be accomplished under United Nations agreement with machinery to ensure it is carried out.

He said Canada is all the more ready to work for that agreement because it believes the passage of time makes the disarmament problem more difficult.

"But if there is a corresponding willingness to co-operate in these negotiations on the part of the Soviet government, significant and gratifying results can still be attained."

Mr. St. Laurent's letter, replying to a June 6 message from the Russian premier, was a reiteration of the Western stand that arms reduction must come about through multi-nation agreement instead of unilateral action.

EDEN'S REPLY SIMILAR

The letter from Bulganin, similar to others sent to Britain, the United States, France, West Germany, Italy and Turkey, was accompanied by the May 14 Soviet announcement of a 120,000-man out in Soviet forces.

Bulganin said he hoped Canada "will deem it possible to take measures conductive to the solution of the disarmament problem" but did not specifically suggest a cut in Canada's forces.

Mr. St. Laurent's reply was made after consultations among the 14 North Atlantic treaty countries. It was similar in many aspects to British Prime Minister Eden's reply on Monday to Bulganin.

Canadian officials have expressed the view that the Soviet leader's letter, with its reference to Russia's unilateral action in reducing its armed forces, may be an attempt to cut the ground from mission and its five - member sub-committee of which Canada is a member.

Mr. St. Laurent's letter was delivered Monday to Soviet Ambassador Chuhavin here and tabled in the Commons Wednesday.

MILNER BLAMED FOR SLOW RETURN OF BOXCARS

OTTAWA (CP) — CPR solicitor Ian Sinclair Wednesday launched a blistering attack against Transport controller Roy Milner charging him among other things with failing to use his powers to force prompt return of boxcars from terminal elevators.

Mr. Sinclair told the Commons agriculture committee that Mr. Milner had "confessed" he was not a transportation man and had proven to the railways that when he asked for more cars he did not know where he was going to put them.

Mr. Milner, he continued, had not justified his contention that the CPR had let him down badly when he called for more boxcars last spring and his supporting argument could only be described as "a confession and avoidance."

Mr. Milner, controller since the federal transport powers were first invoked in 1951, is resigning at the end of 1956, though he will remain on as a member of the board of grain commissioners.

TITO, NASSER TALKS CONTINUE TODAY

By STAN SWINTON

BRIONI, Yugoslavia (AP) — Presidents Tito and Nasser Wednesday announced a tightening of bonds between Yugoslavia and Egypt. Then they traded views for 5½ hours with Prime Minister Nehru of India.

Nehru said the three-nation talks were only a friendly exchange without any decisions.

Tito called the three-nation talks "very, very successful—cordial and friendly."

Athalmer Mill Burns To Ground

INVERMERE — Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the planer mill and trimmers of the Windermere Lumber Company Ltd. at Athalmer operated by William Foyston.

The alarm was raised shortly before 6 a.m. Wednesday by a neighbor, Mrs. Frank Dreier and B.C. Forest Service fire fighting equipment and the Invermere fire truck responded.

Loss is estimated at about $12,000. The lumber yard was undamaged except for loss of 4000 feet. A truck, partly damaged, was rescued.

Mr. Foyston has been in the lumber busines sabout 10 years, four of which were on the present site. He plans to rebuild immediately.

RCMP are investigating the fire.

Military Command Shifted to Hawaii

WASHINGTON (AP)—The defence department, in a sweeping change, Wednesday shifted command of all United States military forces in the Far East and the Pacific to Hawaii.

It placed a navy man, Admiral Felix Stump, in over-all charge. Since the Second World War, army generals have headed the Far East command.

The department said it will abolish the Far East command in Japan and move the United Nations command from Japan to Korea.

The general overhaul of its command structure will take effect next July 1 to "simplify the command and organization" of all United States forces in the Pacific-Asian areas.

TO FAR EAST

GENEVA (AP)—UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold left Wednesday for a four-day armistice checkup in Israel and the Arab countries.

Hammarskjold headed first for Beirut, Lebanon. He planned to fly to Israel today and to Cairo Saturday.

McKeon, a Marine combat veteran, is charged with four violations of the uniform code of military justice including possession of alcoholic beverages; oppression of recruits; manslaughter and drinking intoxicating liquor in the presence of a recruit. March Could Be Called Maltreatment

By BEN PRICE

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — A stern marine lieutenant-colonel said Wednesday the type of march on which Staff Sgt. Matthew C. McKeon led six marines to death could be called maltreatment.

Lt.-Col. Robert A. Thompson, McKeon's former boss, appeared as a prosecution witness in general court martial of the 31-year-old former drill instructor from Worcester, Mass.

McKeon has been charged with involuntary manslaughter, oppression of recruits and two counts of drinking on duty status as a result of the march on which he led the 74-man recruit platoon into a tidal creek.

The impassive sergeant pleaded not guilty Tuesday to the major counts and the court entered a plea of not guilty for him on the lesser counts.

CLAIMS METHODS NORMAL

Before Thompson, recruit battalion commander, appeared on the stand, the defence argued that McKeon owed "no apology to anyone" for marching the six marines to death in a soggy marsh.

Defence counsel Emile Zola Berman of New York City held that if any apology is due it "should not be made by McKeon."

Berman contended that the training methods used by McKeon were normal at this training centre.

Thompson, under cross-examination, was asked if he considered a march such as that conducted by McKeon maltreatment.

"Without adequate reconnaissance, without adequate safeguards . . . with full knowledge that some members of the platoon could not swim . . . it would be maltreatment," Thompson told Berman.

Adventurers on Tour of Americas

MONTREAL (CP) — A makeshift, horse-drawn covered wagon was to pull away from the steps of city hall today, carrying three young adventurers on another lap of a planned 35,000-tour of the Americas.

Paul Lapointe, leader of the group, said Wednesday in an interview that preparations have been completed for continuation of the tour, started June 13 at Ste. Anne de Beaupre, Que.

Lapointe said he and his partners will head from here toward the eastern townships and the United States border. He anticipates that the trip, described as an "adventure for experience's sake," will take from three to five years.

Steelworkers Reject Offer

HAMILTON (CP)—The United Steelworkers of America Wednesday rejected a package offer of 15½ cents an hour from the Steel Company of Canada and stood pat on demands for a 48-cent boost.

The union refused the Stelco offer at the end of the first day of conciliation board hearings in what is considered the key contract dispute in the Canadian steel industry.

Company and union officials said rejection of the Stelco offer did not mean a strike is imminent.

Coast Waterfront Fire Controlled

VANCOUVER (CP) — A three-alarm fire on the Vancouver waterfront at the Evans, Coleman and Evans Ltd. Pier No. 2 was brought under control in less than an hour late Wednesday.

For a time it threatened the 10,000-ton Italian freighter Elka, and a small coastal ship, the S. D. Brooks, but they escaped damage. The flames were controlled after damage to a dockshed wall.

The pier is located at the foot of Columbia Ave., where Evans, Coleman and Evans, builders' supply house, stored large quantities of paper, lumber and asphalt shingles in a dock warehouse.

She Likes It

VANCOUVER (CP)—The tallest woman attending the annual convention of the American Assosiation of Tall Clubs here this week enjoys being tall.

"I wouldn't lose an inch for anything in the world," said Jean Peak of Atlanta, who stands six feet four inches in her stockinged feet.

"My height makes the men around me think twice before they try to push me around," said the graduate mechanical engineer, the only woman on the designing staff of a Gerogia aircraft plant.

Among the 195 delegates to the convention are several men six feet 10 inches tall.

Although the clubs are social in nature, they also campaign for larger beds and wider choice of oversize clothing.

Reductions Part of New NATO Strategy, Reports Indicate

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

LONDON (AP) — The government was reported Wednesday working on plans to slash Britain's defence program by more than £178,500,000.

Informed sources said a reduction-amounting to nearly one-eighth of Britain's £1,500,000 defence bill this year—would be part of a general recasting of NATO strategy. They emphasized that results of the government's reappraisal of defence policy have not yet been officially considered by the cabinet.

A government spokesman would not comment on the size of the reduction contemplated by the government. He said whatever cuts may be decided upon, Britain will stand by its international commitments. He added that final decisions about Britain's future defence spending will be taken only after full consultations inside the 15-nation Atlantic alliance.

NATO's permanent council in Paris is expected to begin fixing allied military goals and strategic aims for 1957 and 1958 by September. Three months later foreign ministers of the 15 nations are due to act on their recommendations.

Several British newspapers had Wednesday front-page reports that Prime Minister Eden and his colleagues are thinking in terms of a £357,000,000 reduction—representing nearly one-quarter of the country's defence bill—for the 1957-1958 fiscal year.

Britain's contingent of four divisions in West Germany also would be halved, the newspapers say. These reports came on the heels of demands by the Opposition Labor and Liberal parties for a complete revision of defence spending.

MAJOR FACTOR

The spokesman described these reports as "highly exaggerated" and "without official inspiration."

There is nevertheless no doubt that Britain's economy worries have been a major factor in Eden's reappraisal of defence spending.

Eden himself defined an equally important factor when he told a political rally Saturday that the H-bomb deterrent should help to base the economic burden of defence.

He said: "We have our commitments. We stand by them but scientific discoveries must influence our defence plans. We have to work things out so that the new deterrents lighten rather than increase the burden."

HEAT BRINGS FIRE HAZARD

VANCOUVER (CP)—Continuing clear skies, coupled with very low humidity, are bringing the forest fire hazard on the B.C. mainland to a peak.

D. B. Taylor, Vancouver district chief forester, said Wednesday conditions in the woods are approaching those of late April and early May of this year, when forest closures went into effect.

He said the situation is "bad all over, but especially dangerous in the Squamish and Fraser Valley areas."

"Vancouver Island isn't in too bad shape because of relatively high humidity, but lower coastal regions are experiencing very low humidity, 24 hours a day."

Mr. Taylor said no forest closures are contemplated in the immediate future.

"Logging companies are watching themselves very closely," he said. "And we are keeping a pretty close eye on the situation."

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — The state division of forestry has ordered all logging and industrial operations in forested areas of southwest Washington to shut down from noon Wednesday to midnight Friday.

Assistant state forester Loren Tucker said the closures were ordered because of low humidities and dry east winds which caused hazardous conditions in timbered areas.

Campney Denies Charges

OTTAWA (CP)—Defence Minister Campney Wednesday denied charges levelled at his department by Lt.-Gen. Guy Simonds who retired last summer as army chief of staff.

He dealt specifically in the Commons with allegations by Gen. Simonds in a magazine article that the chiefs of the armed forces are denied an opportunity to place their views before the minister and that the Canada-United States joint board on defence acts as a barrier between the Canadian and American chiefs of staff.

Mr. Campney said the chiefs are consulted "at every turn" on development of military policy. They could always confer with him and did so "very frequently."

VIEWS CONSIDERED FULLY

The chiefs of staff committee had proved highly useful and its efforts had been successful. The chiefs were also members of the defence council, where their views were given the fullest consideration.

The chiefs also attended meetings of the cabinet defence committee, of which the prime minister is chairman.

Mr. Campney said he is surprised that anyone would criticize the Canada-U.S. defence board, which had rendered "yeoman service" in relations between the two countries.

Tot Loses Sight In Fight for Life

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Mike Sibole's eyesight was sacrificed Tuesday to give him a 50-50 chance of growing to manhood but in a world of darkness.

The surgeon who removed the four-year-old boy's left eye, asking to remain anonymous, said it is an even chance that with the eye and a large section of the optice nerve came all the cancer cells which have cost Mike both eyes.

The last thing Mike saw was a doctor in a green skull cap bending over to administer the ether.

Mike was a brave patient, the doctors reported. He didn't cry and he wasn't afraid.

FAMILY PRAYS

He looked a little sleepy when he walked into Holiday House Hospital, holding the hands of his mother, Mrs. James M. Sibole, and grandmother, Mrs. Henry Malone.

His father, Rev. James M. Sibole, parked the car and then hurried into the small private hospital.

While Mike was in surgery, the family sat in his room praying for God to guide the surgeon's hands.

There were other prayers, too.

A woman who didn't give her name called the hospital and said she was one of a group that prayed throughout the operation. Was it successful? she asked.

"It went according to schedule" the surgeon reported. Whether he excised all the cancer cells and saved the child's life can't be determined yet.

VAIN ATTEMPT

Mike was under the care of Dr. A. B. Reese in New York for treatments by drug and x-ray — all his body could stand — in a vain attempt to save the left eye from the cancer which cost him the right one two years ago.

VICTORIA (CP)—With the right bait, they say, you can catch anything.

Peter Jubb, 17, caught a 25-foot power cruiser while he was fishing from the breakwater Tuesday.

He was fishing for bass, but a power cruiser was on the line —200 feet of which sang off his reel before the cruiser crew saw the line and stopped the boat.

The line was unhooked and Jubb changed his bait.

CHESTER, England (AP) — On April 28, 1953, Mrs. Lilian divorced Humphrey James on the grounds that he has misbehaved with Irene Mansel.

On April 4, 1955, James having promised to be good, Mrs. James remarried him.

On Monday Mrs. James won a second divorce on the grounds that Humphrey had misbehaved again—with Miss Mansel.

TRENTON, Tenn. (AP)—Trenton police pulled John Sward's 14-year-old automobile to the side of the road for a routine safety check. Inside they found:

A small hotplate, wired to the battery, for cooking.

A water cooler, doubling as refrigerator, containing eggs, bacon and other food.

A back-seat sink, where Sward could wash himself and the dishes.

A folding bed.

A hose, connected with a water tank on the roof, to provide running water.

A trunkful of groceries.

Lashed to the top, besides the water tank, was a bicycle. In case he had car trouble and had to get help, Sward explained.

After an eight-hour delay, while the cops checked with Sward's hometown Minneapolis police, they decided there was nothing wrong with the rig and sent the 28-year-old tourist on his way.

KLGH Closure Order Postponed Two Years

A two-year postponement of the closure order of Kootenay Lake General Hospital and the Nurses' Home has been received from the provincial fire marshal, hospital administrator R. H. Procter told members of the hospital board Tuesday night.

Closure of the two buildings was ordered by the fire marshal last year and the closure was to have been in effect by June 30 of this year.

Mr. Procter stated that the extension had been granted upon request to the fire marshal at Victoria. He also informed the board that the maintenance committee is planning a program for the improved appearance of the Nurses' Home, for public safety and for workability.

The board approved an application from Dr. J. Carpenter for appointment to the medical staff of KLGH.

A 1952 graduate of the University of Alberta, Dr. Carpenter practiced in Salmo before leaving for Vancouver two years ago to take post graduate studies in urology.

In connection with Dr. Carpenter's appointment, Mr. Procter pointed out that approximately $26,000 of additional equipment will be needed in the surgical room for Dr. Carpenter's use as a specialist in urology.

ACCEPT BUDGET

The 1956 budget for Kootenay Lake General Hospital, proposed by BCHIS, was accepted "with reservation" by board members. The budget calls for a rate charge from $13.40 to $12.95.

"Although we feel that the budget is unrealistic, we will attempt to confine our expenditures to the 1956 budget as laid down by BCHIS," board chairman J. W. Graham said.

Mr. Graham noted that the Nelson hospital is one of three in the province with an operating surplus. "Our excess is used to offset the deficit of other hospitals in the province," he said.

Financial report indicated a $4788 deficit to the end of June. Mr. Procter pointed out that the deficit has been caused mainly by salaries and wages and an increase in dietary food items.

The financial statement for the year to date showed a working capital of $41,446.73, compared to $16,414.95 at this time in 1955. Total assets were $96,469.98, compared to $85,591.40 in 1955 and $55,023.25 liabilities, compared to $69,176.45.

In a report on hospital statistics, R. H. Procter noted that the average number of patients remained steadily higher. Patient days in June totalled 2401, compared to 2180 in June of last year, and admissions totalled 304, compared to 339 last year. For the first six months of 1956 a total of 15,754 patient days were recorded and 1853 admissions.

A vote of confidence was made by board members in acting superintendent of nurses, Mrs. Eileen Welsh. Mrs. Welsh was appointed to the post upon resignation of former superintendent Mrs. Elizabeth Bucknell last month.

Earlier it was believed she fell down the cliff. Her body was found at the side of the Columbia River, her face submerged in water.

Police said Mrs. Daku apparently went for a walk beside the river and either had a heart attack or a fainting spell. Results of an autopsy have not been announced.

Boatsmen Urged To Use Caution In Bridge Navigation Channel

Hot weather has seen a marked increase in boat traffic on the West Arm and has also brought new warnings to boatsmen negotiating the marked channel in the bridge construction area.

Some boats are being driven too close to underwater cables by taking the wrong course and have barely escaped serious damage, officials said. Both dredge and pile-driver are in midstream now. Speed must also be cut because a diver is working in the area.

For daytime upstream traffic, white barrels and piles marked with black bands mark the 200-foot-wide channel on the port, or left, side, while on the starboard side are white buoys marked with a red band.

At night the boats must travel between two green lights on the port side and red lights on the starboard side, also travelling upstream.

Other red lights are showing, but these are not in the channel, and boatsmen were urged to keep away from these for cables are stretched between them. At night, floating equipment also carries two red lights, one six feet above the other.

"Diver working," signs are posted at both channel entrances, and boats are now required to travel "dead slow" so as not to endanger the diver.

All instructions were approved by the department of transport and all are standard international aids to navigation, it was explained.

Tourist Family's Opinion of City Changed

An irate family of tourists have decided to stay the week in Nelson and district.

That's right. They were fed up with Nelson, its highways, its traffic and its accommodation. They'd started out to Kaslo but the rough and narrow road got the best of them at Ainsworth so they turned around and came back and got caught in the famous Sunday traffic across the West Arm ferry and had to wait two hours. They wanted to stay in the city trailer camp but conditions there were inadequate. So they were going to leave. But they went and saw the mayor first.

His Worship pointed out the pilings that will soon become the West Arm bridge and asked the unhappy tourists to bear with him awhile. He explained that the tourist camp was to be demolished and a new one built and that it was open now only because of a pressing need for accommodation during Mid-Summer Bonspiel week. He suggested they drive up the scenic West Arm and pitch camp at a tourist camp there, that they visit the Nelson Golf Club and stop at their cocktail bar, that they take their children to Lakeside Park for a swim and remain for supper.

They did and they were back the other day to tell His Worship how much they were enjoying the city and district.

Mark Creek Floods To Be Thing of Past

Work On Ending Problem To Start This Year; Three-Way Split In Costs

KIMBERLEY—A permanent solution to the Mark Creek flooding problem will start this year, Mayor Clifford Swan has advised the council. Cost of the project will be shared by the provincial government, the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company and the city of Kimberley on a yet unannounced basis.

Montreal offices have advised that Cominco will make a "reasonable contribution" to the project, and offered their engineering and drafting services. In addition they will spend between $18,000 and $20,000 on widening and straightening the channel above the city.

Premier Bennett, contacted by telephone by Mayor Swan, stated that Kimberley can count on government help in the project.

PREPARE ESTIMATES

With time at a premium, a committee representing the government, Comico and the city has studied the creek and is preparing plans and estimates. Already recommended is the purchase of a number of properties to allow for the widening and straightening of the channel in the city itself and negotiations for their acquisition were authorized by the council.

The Mark Creek flood caused thousands of dollars damage in 1948, and this year's spring runoff damaged a large part of the open concrete flume that carries it through the centre of the city.

Work on the project will be contracted, and Kimberley's share will be financed from a surplus built up in recent years for such emergencies.

Golden On Verge Building Boom

GOLDEN — This community is on the edge of the largest building boom in its history.

Most immediate project is the new Imperial Bank of Canada building for the business section, contract for which was let to Burnham and Son of Banff. Occupation of the new building is expected in the fall.

Department of Education approval has been given the plans for the new elementary school to replace the building completely demolished by fire several months ago. Estimated cost is $185,000 and the school will have an activity room in addition to classrooms. Call for tenders will be issued soon, and will also ask tenders for an activity room addition to the Parson school.

LIQUOR STORE

A barber shop and service station in the business area have been started, and a new provincial government liquor store will be undertaken as soon as a suitable location is found.

In the pending stage is the new Golden Hospital, plans for which are now being revised on instructions of the provincial government to meet regulation requirements. The new nurses' home at the hospital property is now completely occupied.

KIN CONCERT WINS APPLAUSE AT NEW DENVER

NEW DENVER — A concert sponsored by the Kinsmen Club of New Denver-Silverton and starring Crawford Clarke and his accordion, supported by guest artists Miss Roberta Takahara and John Wood, was well received by a capacity audience at the Bosun Hall.

Mr. Clarke, owner director of music studios in Nanaimo and other points on Vancouver Island, received a great ovation from the audience after each selection. Miss Takahara, a brilliant young Japanese dancer who started her dancing lessons in Japan at the age of five, and who now, at the age of 12 has all the poise of a professional dancer, did three intricate Japanese dances which were well received by the audience. Mr. Wood's monologue was also enjoyed. Miss Takahara was presented with a bouquet of flowers by the Kinsmen club and a gift from Mr. Clarke.

Hospital Budget Dilemma Continues

TRAIL (CP) — The Trail-Tadanac Hospital "has no hope in the world" of operating in the black of the budget set recently by the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service, board chairman J. H. D. Hargrave said Tuesday. Mr. Hargrave said the effect of the new budget is to decrease basic hospital revenue from $595,000 last year to $374,000 this year.

Hospital administrator D. O. Stevenson was instructed to prepare a letter explaining that the hospital is operating at minimum staff now and the board can see no way of reducing expenditures.

Ho Hum, Let's go to the Beach

Climate, so the geographers tell us, has much to do with a nation's character, industry, scientific advancement and its standard of living. All this may be true, and since this very welcome lovely hot July weather descended upon us we are quite prepared to believe it.

The House of Commons, that mirror of Canadianism, is wearily continuing its labors. Mr. St. Laurent says he will not accept the Speaker's resignation, presumably because it would be too much trouble to elect a new one, and so few of us want to be troubled during this hot spell. The Opposition says that Mr. Beaudoin is very much persona non grata to them, that Mr. St. Laurent has no right to make such a decision, and that the House should be dissolved. They would very much like to make a burning issue of the matter, but the weather is all against them. Who wants burning issues when the sun is burning on the beaches? Such things are for cooler days when our moral indignation can raise our bodily temperatures in comfort.

Industry, as a moral quality, seems in this weather to be somewhat sub-standard. Machines roar unceasingly about the landscape, but men who in cooler weather, with eyes alight, leaped to their work, now approach it with anything but hurrying feet. There is none of the joy of performance, but a spirit of mañana which would do credit to our Latin-American friends. Tomorrow will do quite well for the problems of today.

The creative instinct seems to be dormant. Columnists are not so interesting as they were last winter, editorials are lacking in punch, and even the news fails to excite us. As for statistics, which used to claim our avid attention, they are now only figures, and what are figures? The province may have made a profit of $22,000,000 on its liquor business, and there may be surpluses in both the provincial and dominion budgets, but we pass them by and do not even concentrate on our own lack of surplus.

As for our standard of living, if it depended upon present performance it would not be very high. Fortunately our wants at the moment are few: just a few cooling drinks and the minimum of clothes. (If we only dared wear Bermuda shorts!)

Perhaps we should declare a state of emergency which demands our attendance at the beach with the family, or insists that our presence at the Summer Bonspiel is important, or that the depleted state of the Kootenay Lake fishing needs our individual investigation. Anything would be better than work these days.

Why Not Try New Approaches To Meet Sons' Problems, Ask Friends

To the Editor:

Sir—As a Friends meeting whose members seek to grow in Christian practices, we are looking for another avenue of approach to meet the problems connected with the Sons of Freedom.

While other Friends may feel differently, we are saddened by the present New Denver situation which forcibly separates a child from his home. Believing that democratic education is necessary if democracy is to flourish in Canada, we sympathize with the B.C. government in its attempt to treat all people impartially under the law. Yet we feel that Christians should be searching for alternative approaches to education which do not separate children from their homes. A loving home is a primary right of every child. New Denver home can offer good physical care, but it cannot equal a loving home.

It would simplify the problem if the Sons were as kindly in their public relations as they are in their homes. We are grieved by the acts of violence on the part of some of the Sons, such as tearing clothing, or destroying homes or public property. Such acts cannot appear to us to be in the spirit of love which showers kindness on the good and the evil alike.

We, as Christians, have the responsibility of returning good for evil. Regardless of who is responsible for evil in this matter, it seems to us that the real solution to this minority problem lies in unfailing friendship, and in the unceasing search for a better way.

What suggestions are we offering to government and to the Sons as an alternative to the present school enforcement policy? Churches have schools which are adjusted to meet the demands of their faith. Have alternative schemes of education been offered by, or to, the Sons of Freedom in the past months?

Canada is a friendly country; why not continue to offer a friendly hand in the faith that over the years misunderstandings and wrongs may be corrected and friendship grow among us, who, after all, are neighbors.

On behalf of the Argenta meeting of the Society of Friends (Quakers).

ANNE RUSH.
Clerk.

Argenta, B.C.

Inaccessible Plugs

There is something seriously wrong with the architecture of the average home. Or, if not that, with the arrangement of the furniture within the home. It seems impossible to find an electricity outlet that isn't behind something.

In this modern age, with the number of electric appliances forever increasing, the wall plugs are important to our lives. Many appliances, cleaners, small radios, toasters, etc., are moved from one spot to another. They have to be "plugged out" and "plugged in."

Yet in some homes it is virtually impossible to find a wall plug which is not behind a chesterfield, a piano, a refrigerator, bookcase or some other awkward and heavy piece of furnishings. One has to be either a giant or a contortionist to get at a plug. Perhaps it is because most rooms are now small and most wall space is hidden by furniture.—Windsor Star.

?Questions? ANSWERS

Open to any reader. Names of persons asking questions will not be published. There is no charge for this service. QUESTIONS WILL NOT BE ANSWERED BY MAIL except where there is obvious necessity for privacy.

Reader, Trail—Would you please tell me whether or not it is compulsory that an employer pay overtime, or time-and-a-half, when an employee works overtime, even if he does not belong to a union?

As there are certain exceptions according to arrangements with employer we have been advised to tell you to send full particulars to the Department of Labor, Court House, Nelson.

B. P. S., Trail—It is my intention to begin a photo finishing service (developing, printing, enlarging of roll films) as a spare-time occupation. I have had considerable experience in this work and would like to know if there is some type of provincial licence that I would be required to have, and what such licence would cost? I would like to know if I would have to make a separate income tax return or could I add my income from this source to that of my regular job?

There are many angles to this question and the best way to find the answer is to write to the Trail City Hall, stating circumstances, and whether you are residing in an area where businesses are not permitted. Regarding income tax, you would definitely have to list receipts from spare-time occupation. You should also list all expenses in operating the business.

M. T., Nelson—In the Old Country—England—there is a superstition that if it rains on St. Swithin's Day, July 15, there will be rain for forty-five succeeding days. Can you tell us the origin of that? It rained here on the 15th and if there is anything in the old saying we are in for rain well into August!

According to Brand's Popular Antiquities, first published in 1795, St. Swithin, Bishop of Winchester, dying, was canonized by the then pope: "It was his desire to be buried in the open churchyard and not in the minster as was usual with other bishops, which request was complied with. But the monks, on his being canonized, taking it into their heads that it was disgraceful for the saint to lie in the open churchyard, resolved to move his body into the choir, which was to have been done with solemn procession on the 15th of July. It rained, however, so violently on that day, and for forty days succeeding, as had hardly ever been known, which made them set aside their design as heretical and blasphemous, and instead they erected a chapel over his grave, at which miracles are said to have been wrought."

In the Coal Oil Era

It is probably the lot of a great many professions that they can't recognize themselves in the Hollywood film versions of them. Certainly nobody in our own profession has ever found the slightest resemblance between the screen newspaper office and the real one. But now the Canadian Senate has taken over from Hollywood in this transformation. Senator J. W. deB. Farris there brought his rigors to bear on editorial writers who had urged the Senate to amend the pipeline bill. He said these men "have eyeshades over their eyes, cigarettes in their mouths, and we don't know who they are."

In passing, our researches indicate that the last eyeshade left an editorial writer's furrowed brow one day in the middle Thirties, about the time the electrical industry started its modern renascence in office lighting. Other researches tend to show that the cigarettes of such editorial writers as use them spend 99 per cent of their time and combustion in ashtrays, rather than in mouths.

But that is incidental. The real question is: If Senator Farris doesn't "know who they are", how does he know that they wear cigarettes and eyeshades? Somebody told him, naturally. But if an opposing counsel brought such a case into court Senator Farris, as an astute and distinguished lawyer, would be first to holler "hearsay"; indeed, never a man to do things by halves, he might well add "frivolous and irrelevant". On the other hand, of course, it is always possible that the Senator has been seeing too many movies—which is obviously hypothetical, inferential and inadmissible.—Toronto Globe and Mail.

Mrs. Benthien of Gray Creek Is 83

GRAY CREEK — The 83rd birthday of Mrs. Max Benthien was celebrated at the home of Mrs. C. C. Feenie.

The oldest and the youngest residents of Gray Creek were present, as Mrs. LaJeunesse brought her two-months-old son Maurice. A gaily decorated cake the work of Mrs. Fred Simpson was cut by the guest of honor, using a mother of pearl handled silver knife. Tea was poured from a delicate Spode teapot of Indian tree design.

Mrs. Benthien opened presents and cards from the Gray Creek Women's Club, Mrs. R. Reilly of Crawford Bay and Mrs. J. Gunther of Kootenay Bay. Members of Gray Creek Women's Club present were Mrs. Feenie, Mrs. Horst Wirsig, Mrs. George Botham, Mrs. George Petrescu and Mrs. Robert LaJeunesse and Mrs. A. W. Lymbery. Mrs. Gunther helped with the serving. Other old friends of Mrs. Benthien's to wish her a happy birthday were Mrs. D. McLauchlin and Mrs. Reilly of Crawford Bay and Mrs. Fred Simpson of La France Creek.

During the afternoon two pressing matters of the Women's Club business were brought forward for discussion by the president, Mrs. Feenie. Mrs. Wirsig promised to attend the meeting of the newly-organized Crawford Bay Sports Club in order to report proceedings, and a small silver cup will be given to the most promising pupil in W. LaPlante's swimming classes.

The gifts were placed in a large box fashioned like a trunk and drawn into the room by Gail Forslund and Terryl Milne. The bride was assisted in opening the many gifts by her sister Ellen.

NEW YORK (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera, famed old queen of American musical companies, cancelled the 1956-57 season Tuesday night because of a labor squabble.

Opera lovers hoped for a change of heart on both management and union sides. They remembered a similar cancellation in the summer of 1948.

The glittering Opera House on Broadway faced a dark and silent winter that year because of a wrangle with a musicians union

The opening of the new season, a gala social event each year, had been scheduled for Oct. 29.

Take Westerns Seriously In Great Britain

LONDON (AP) — The other day a roaring Western was on view in a London movie house, and a horrible thing happened.

The villain galloped down the gulch at the head of a swarm of wicked horsemen, and all the kids shouted encouragement. They thought they were yipping for the sheriff's posse. Instead they were cheering the forces of evil.

The men who made the movie had changed the immemorial rules of the orthodox western. They had dressed their good men and their bad men in similar costumes and in the swift action it was impossible to tell which was which.

VIEWERS PROTEST

Innovations such as that have led to a lot of letter writing. The Times has received letters from many readers deploring any tendency to "improve" Westerns. A noted British screen writer, T. E. B. Clarke, wrote:

"From decades after the first screen cowboy bit the dust, convention decreed that good men should wear white hats and bad men black hats. It is unfortunate to find them no longer paying such meticulous attention to their dress."

John Calle lamented another fault in some of the modern Westerns:

"In statutory bouts of fisticuffs it is surely tradition that blows should be exchanged in strict alternation, and that both hero and villain should proffer their jaws to even the most telegraphic punches."

"Several times lately I have been horrified to see the hero actually duck under the villain's punch and so unfairly land two blows for the villain's one. This unbecoming conduct will tend to produce in us a sneaking admiration for the villain, who is willing to take it on the chin, and our contempt for the hero who is not."

MORE COMPLAINTS

Odd bits of observation on what makes a standard Western turned up in The Times.

"Surely a distinguishing characteristic of a good man is his ability to discharge up to 20 shots from a six-shot revolver without going through the formality of reloading,' wrote one commentator.

But the writers of Westerns who mix up their horses, it was pointed out, have one dramatist on their side. Shakespeare has Richard III, one of his blackest villains, say in Act V:

"Saddle White Surrey for the field tomorrow.

Firemen Study Area in Case Of Sudden Call

OTTAWA (CP)—Firemen from two Ottawa stations are studying their area, block block, to acquire a pre-determined plan of attack in case of fire.

The program enables firemen to get to know places where they may some day fight fires.

Each evening during slack periods the men make a tour of a certain block. Notes are taken of fire escapes, laneways, backyards obstructions, windows and doors.

After studying the block, the men return to their stations for a chalk-talk and a discussion with their district chief on what they learned.

Newly-appointed fire chief Maynard Dolman said the program will be a workout so that men in all Ottawa stations will know their fire area.

"The block inspection is of special use to men who are shifted from one station to another," he said.

STILL ON GUARD

Fire control doesn't suffer from these training programs. While men and equipment are away constant radio contact is kept with the station.

"In fact, if they happen to be in the area of a fire, they may be able to respond even faster than from the station," Chief Dolman says.

He summed up the program this way: "If you can see what should be done during the day, you can do it at night."

2. For salads, top Libby's Pineapple Slices with chunks of Roquefort or Cream Cheese. Spoon on Cranberry French Dressing (stir 2 tablespoons canned Cranberry Sauce into ½ cup French Dressing).

*Libby's Fruit Cocktail— 5 luxury fruits!

3. For desserts, Libby's Fruit Cocktail gives you five favorite fruits without peeling. Luscious! And try it with ice cream. Wonderful hardly describes it!

4. For salads, arrange this on greens: drain Libby's Fruit Cocktail, toss with walnuts and heap on slices of canned jellied-cranberry-sauce. Pass your favorite dressing.

Libby's fruits are matchless! Double your money back if you don't agree!

4 "Easy-do" ideas from Libby's

Mary Hale Martin

"Scrumptious Supper Dish"

Sauté bits of leftover cooked meat with a little minced onion, celery and green pepper until tender and golden. Add Libby's Deep-Browned Beans and Libby's Catchup, and heat thoroughly.

N.B. Be sure to use Deep-Browned Beans. Only Libby's make Deep-Browned Beans—by an exclusive process that Deep-Browns every individual bean, flavoring it through and through with Libby's luscious-tomato sauce. Get lots—everyone will want "seconds"!

"Savory Spaghetti"

Sauté ½ lb. bulk sausage till cooked; add drained can of mushrooms, minced onion, salt and pepper. Cook till onion is tender, then add 2 tins of Libby's Spaghetti (Libby's is the spaghetti with the cheddar cheese sauce—and its zesty flavor makes this dish really super eating). This serves 4 heartily!

"Pork Chops à la Libby's"

Give pork chops a special tang. After browning, cover with green pepper rings and Libby's Tomato Catchup, and cook over low heat until chops are tender and cooked through.

Taste the extra-richness of Libby's Catchup! It comes from a generous hand with tomatoes. The folks at Libby's use more tomatoes, to give their Catchup a "more tomatoe-y" flavor. If you haven't Libby's Catchup on hand now, get some next time you shop. We guarantee it'll please you. (Double your money back if you don't agree).

"Tangy Barbecue Sauce"

Simmer together till flavors blend: ½ cup Libby's Catchup and ¼ cup each brown sugar, Libby's Mustard, and vinegar; and a good dash Worcestershire sauce.

Marvellous for basting frankfurters and hamburgers, as you broil or barbecue them.

N.B. Check your pantry for Libby's Mustard and if necessary get some next time you shop. It has an extra-zesty flavor you'll like —in recipes as above, and just as it comes from the jar!

Boy Evangelist Draws Crowds

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (Reuters)—Elias Munrambadoro, a six-year-old boy evangelist, has attracted crowds of 2,000 persons ot Salisbury's African township of Harare on the last two Sunday afternoon.

The boy, whose mother says he first "began to speak about Jesus when he was about six months old," shows no signs of self-consciousness when he silences the big crowds by calling on them, in the language of the Mashona people, to come to God.

A police spokesman said that although the boy obviously had the ability to sway large gatherings, his preaching was "completely innocuous."

He showed "amazing self-assurance" and ability quite unusual for his age, the spokesman added.

The SHORT CIRCUIT

By JOHN SHORT
Sports Editor

Are you going to the football game Saturday afternoon?

That is the question I have been hearing more and more often as the week progresses and the Calgary Stampeders make ready for their first full-fledged football game of the season.

I'm going. But are you?

If you are, fine. If you aren't, why aren't you?

I realize it's probably none of my business, but I'm curious. (Readers are asked to remember that the writer said curious, not nosy.)

In this space Wednesday morning I attempted to clarify some of the simpler misunderstandings arising around some of the questions I have been asked since the Stampeders arrived in town July 8.

Now, how about letting me ask a few questions?

Have you ever seen a game of Canadian football played while sitting in the stands? Have you ben able to find the time to get down to Civic Recreation Grounds some morning or afternoon to watch the boys work out? Have you ever seriously tried to find out just why the Canadian game differs from that played in the U.S.

If you haven't, Mr., you haven't lived.

That is a big statement, the one you just read. It takes in plenty of territory. And it was supposed to.

Because in what other games you find 12 men pulling together for a touchdown play, which is usually far more dramatic than any bases-loaded homer, any fine fielding play, any hockey breakaway or any stiff body check you care to remember.

Watching breakaway backs like Aramis Dandoy, Joe Pagliei, Lynn Bottoms or Joe Yamauchi scoot away from defenders to romp over the opposition is, to dust off an old cliche, poetry in motion.

Watching starry ends like John Alderton, Bryan Engram or Bill McKenna reach up to haul in a perfect pass is the most beautiful play in sport. Watching a spiralling punt soar toward a distant point is the only scene in the sporting world that is a near-equal for beauty.

But, when you go to the football game—and I hope you don't miss the opportunity presented either this Saturday or the one following—I wish you would remember one thing.

For every speedy end or fancy-stepping halfback or long-throwing quarterback, there are three or four more who never hear the plaudits of the crowd. They are the linemen, the mules, the residents of no-man's land, who make it possible for the sensations to be sensational.

So, in this game, you find everything, including a comparison with the business world. For every John D. Rockefeller or Jack Kent Cooke to make a million, there are dozens of John Does or Jack Sprats to help him.

Football is like big business. The many combine for the glory of the few.

It may sound theatrical, but it's life.

Final-Stroke Lunge Gives Marathon Win to Lumsden

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (CP)—Marathon foes Cliff Lumsden and Tom Park churned on target like twin torpedoes Wednesday night with Lumsden lunging to victory by a fraction of a second in Atlantic City's 25-mile world championship swim.

The powerful Torontonian won by just half a stroke over the Canadian-turned-Californian in a marine photo-finish which brought a glorious end to Lumsden's runner-up jinx in the Atlantic City extravaganza.

The winning time was nine hours slower than the record Park set in the 1954 inaugural. Park, a U.S. citizen now but a native of Hamilton, was a whisker behind at 9:51.00.2.

Park was the winner here in 1954 and 1955 with Lumsden coming in as runner-up both times.

WINNER GETS $5000

Lumsden picked up $5000 in prize money with his kick to victory at the end of a course that included sharks among its hazards.

But first across the finish line was Denmark's Greta Anderson, who matched the powerful Canadian-breds in stamina to take the $1500 top prize for woman contestants.

The girls began the grind half an hour ahead of the men so the time for the 1948 Olympic 100-metres freestyle champion was 10 hours and 17 minutes, fourth best of the marathon.

Steve Wozniak of Buffalo, N.Y. finished third for the third year in a row. Don Sabbath of Levittown, Penn., was next.

No. 2 finisher among the women was Muriel Ferguson of Toronto, followed by Lies Put Jamnicky of Montreal.

The Atlantic City record for women, which is held by Marilyn Bell, also stands. The Toronto teen ager covered the course around Absecon Island in 10:07.28 two years ago, before her conquests of Lake Ontario and the English Channel.

The stamina shown by Miss Anderson was amazing. The 1948 Olympic 100-metres freestyle champion, who had been in front by virtue of her earlier start, dropped behind Lumsden and Park but then spurted in the final laps to reach shore ahead of both the men's winner and the runner-up.

Between Lumsdon and Park it was a neck-and-neck battle for the last 10 miles with each holding, then relinquishing, the lead

Swimmers were bothered at one time by two five-foot sharks which threw a mighty scare into some of the nine women who started out. The sharks, while not man-eaters, can be dangerous but were beaten off with the oars of the accompanying boat crews.

NEW DIRECTOR'S GOLF, SOCCER PLANS PROGRESS

Nelson's new recreations director Joe Johnson has already met with success in planning of two of his proposed Summer activities for local boys and girls.

He has been informed by golf officials that Nelson golf course will be available any Saturday morning to young aspirants of the game. Johnson, who hopes to stage a golf competition this Summer, said Wednesday he would be "quite willing to help local lads" from 18 down who are interested in the game.

And in reply to a previous announcement that he would be glad to meet young soccer players, the recreations director Wednesday was approached by a group of girls for some tips on the game. There has been some girls' soccer activity here previously and Johnson said he would endeavor to assist its continuation.

He is also planning a tennis tournament for boys and girls.

Levy Heavy Fines Against Gomez, Adcock

MILWAUKEE (AP) — One of the wildest melees of the current National League season resulted Wednesday in a $250 fine for pitcher Ruben Gomez of the New York Giants, a $100 fine for first baseman Joe Adcock of Milwaukee Braves and a three-day suspension for Gomez.

In addition, Gomez drew a severe reprimand from Warren C. Giles, league president, who stipulated that the fine be paid personally by the Giant's pitcher, not his team. Adcock was not suspended.

The Puerto Rican righthander touched off a mad fracas involving players of both teams in the second inning of Tuesday night's game when he twice hit Adcock—once with a pitched ball and once with a deliberately thrown ball. Adcock, with most of his teammates in pursuit, charged after Gomez who ran to the dugout and disappeared up the ramp leading to the clubhouse. Order was restored by the umpires and half a dozen police officers. The Giants eventually won in 11 innings, 8-6.

WRESTLING "CAT" DIES

VANCOUVER (CP)—Jack McLachlan, 53, nicknamed "The Cat" for his panther-like speed in the wrestling ring, died of a heart attack Tuesday at his home in suburban Richmond.

Two years ago he attempted a comeback but returned to retirement because of a strained heart.

KILLED BY BASEBALL

LEVIS, Que. (CP) — Gerard Caron, 13, died Tuesday night a few hours after he was struck on the head by a baseball. Caron continued to play following the accident but later complained of a severe headache. He died shortly before midnight.

Miss Calgary Stampede Due Here To Feature Saturday's Parade

With the first Calgary Stampeder intra-squad game only two days away, Coach Jack Hennemeier Wednesday released the lineups of the rival squads.

But that was not the most important news of the day as far as connoisseurs (that's a word and a half, if ever there was one) of feminine pulchritude are concerned.

The most important news was that Miss Calgary Stampede will arrive in town in time to feature a parade Saturday morning before the game. Miss Stampede will be escorted by the Calgary Stampeder Quarterbackettes, a bevy of lovely ladies who do much to brighten the atmosphere of Western Interprovincial Football Union contests during the regular season.

To aid those spectators who know little or nothing about Canadian football, booklets will be circulated at the game explaining a few of the finer points. Additional information will be featured in the program, said Civic Centre Manager Jack Morgan.

On the field for the two practices at Civic Recreation Grounds Wednesday, things went better by far than they had the day previous, when Coach Jack Hennemeier cut the afternoon workout short because as he said, "they weren't thinking."

Jack told the Daily News Wednesday evening that he was all but certain this year's squad would be better balanced than the he had in 1955, his first year as coach of the WIFU club.

He has big shifty backs in profusion and is not at all disturbed by any lack of speed that may exist. "Up here, the small backs aren't as useful as in the States," he said, "because you only have 10-yard blocking. After that, they're on their own."

With backs like Joe Mastrogiovanni, Joe Pagliei, Jim Harryman, Jim Sides, Pat Oleksiak and Aramis Dandoy, not to mention his group of talented Canadian ball-carriers Jack is well endowed with backfield ability.

Otis Douglas, who joined the group Monday morning to help with both training and coaching duties, said it was likely that only Baz Nagle, who was born in Nelson, would not be able to work today.

He apparently ran a little too hard in the practice-concluding sprints and there was a possibility that he injured his sore leg all over again. A modicum of good news from sick bay was available with the knowledge that Pat Oleksiak's ribs were only cracked, not broken, and the hefty halfback would be ready for action within three or four days.

Lineups:

EAST

Alderton, Meaking, Morgan, Lamb, Allnright, Geary, Leachman, Prendergast, Stevenson, West, Macklin, Brown, Mastrogiovanni, Burnthorne, Jones, Pullar, Horton, Lane, Muir, Dandoy, Wylie, Valdec, Lunsford, Muntz, Sides, Pagliei.

WEST

Engram, Durham, Hess, Ceddes, Pajaczkowski, Tomlinson, Borger, Tonn, Cook, Klosterman, Langford, O'Hara, McKenna, Carter, Simms, Nagle, Oleksiak, Graves, Yamauchi, Yakunin, Bottoms, Harriman, Huffman.

Vancouver Raising Money for Museum

VANCOUVER (CP) — City council will be asked to put up $300,000 as its share in the financing of a $1,250,000 maritime museum in the city's Kitsilano district. The grant would depend on a guarantee from the Native Sons of B.C. to back the centennial project. The lodge hopes to obtain a $24,000 federal grant and raise the balance with private and public subscriptions.

The special centennial museum committee has recommended that the museum become a peranent memorial to B.C.'s 100th birthday in 1958.

BRUCE EDWARDS SIGNS

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati Redlegs Wednesday signed veteran catcher Bruce Edwards as a free agent. Edwards, 33, formerly played with Brooklyn and Chicago in the National League and with Washington in the American League.

Edwards batted .310 with Vancouver in the Pacific Coast League earlier this year.

A X Y D L B A A X B

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

A Cryptogram Quotation

Polio Figures Less Than Half B.C. '56 Cases

VICTORIA (CP) — There have been only 22 cases of polio in British Columbia this year compared with 51 last year, a spokesman for the provincial health department said Wednesday.

"It is too early yet to say how much salk vaccination has contributed to the drop," the spokesman said. "Most doctors agree that B.C. has had a heavy insidence of polio for a number of years and it seems to go in cycles. This year's drop may be part of the cycle."

This year 176,000 B.C. children have received first shots of salk vaccine. Last year 45,142 children received the vaccine.

Of all the children in B.C. last year, 55,130 were elegible for vaccination. Of those who accepted 14,865 were five-year-olds; 22,951 were six-year-olds and 7827 were seven-year-olds.

Of the total group, 43,250 completed the scheduled three injections.

In 1953, record year for polio in B.C., there were more than 130 cases at this time. About 780 cases were recorded for the year.

SPENDS MILLIONS ON TESTING SITE

HONOLULU (AP) — Britain is spending millions to turn tiny Christmas Island into its own version of the United States' H-bomb testing ground base at Eniwetok, a technician recently returned from Christmas said here.

"In the last six weeks hundreds of British soldiers and thousands of tons of equipment" have been poured into the small and low-lying coral atoll, the technician said. He did not want his identity disclosed.

Prime Minister Eden has said the tests will be "high air bursts . . . in the megaton range." He said they will be made "far from any inhabited island."

The main British base on Christmas is being set up at Cassidy Field, an air base the U.S. built during the Second World War.

Although both England and the United States lay claim to Christmas, the island has been under British administration and its copra plantation is owned by a British firm.

Market Trends

NEW YORK (AP) — Profit-taking interrupted the summer rise as the stock market closed irregular.

Hudson Bay Mining led Canadian issues on the New York exchange with a jump of 1¾. Aluminium Ltd. was down 5⅞ while Canadian Pacific was up ½ and Distillers-Seagram gained ⅜.

TORONTO (CP) — Industrials rolled to more than a three-point index gain at the stock market but a late wave of profit-taking reduced the western oils and base metals advances. Golds dipped lower, marking the first index loss in any section of the market this week.

National Petes gained 30 cents among leading western oils while Canadian Devonian added 25 cents and Triad 20 cents. Husky was ahead 15 cents. Canadian Atlantic, Cnadian Pipe Lines nd Security lost 15 cents. Western Leaseholds was off $1.70 on a 100-share sale.

MONTREAL (CP) — A few losses of a point or more were noted but industrials generally continued to improve in moderate trading on the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges.

Aluminium dropped two points as Noranda and International Nickel firmed ½ in the base metals. Algoma slipped one while Atlas advanced two in a mixed steel section. Banks were strong with Nova Scotia and Toronto-Dominion ahead a point.

Odds ... and Ends

... by M. D. B.

A walk around the park these days gives you a good idea of what sort of shape the human race is in. Personally I think I like those of the little tots — as they bend over their sand castles — they have the most come-patable little bottoms, don't you think?

• • •

See where the circus, as we have known it, is to be a thing of the past. This is a sad state of affairs, although we realize it has been on the way out for quite a few years. Twenty-five to thirty years ago the circus really used to be something. I remember the parades to the ballgrounds the best.

• • •

The big Jumbos dressed like rajahs' mounts swinging along Baker Street, the crazy clowns cutting their capers, how we laughed at their comical antics, and monkeys and beautiful ladies in dazzling costumes and the band. Oh, there was a parade for you!

• • •

And wasn't it fun to watch those big elephants help put up the big top. It must have been this that made me feel elephants were almost human. I've always had a sinucere affection for these patient beasts whose skins fit them something like new army uniforms.

• • •

I cannot figure out whether my funny bone was nearer the surface in those days or whether clowns were really funnier. Certainly we used to laugh at them till our faces ached. I've always had a secret desire to dress up as a clown and go in a parade, if I was sure no one knew it was me, and I imagine I'm not alone in this desire. Think I ought to gather just such a group together to be on hand for our parades, I'll have to give it some thought.

• • •

But I do feel sorry for today's children who will be robbed of those wonderful circus thrills. Maybe this isn't the death knell, we'll hope not anyway.

• • •

See where Soviet textbooks must be revised because Uncle Joe turned out to be such a bounder. The Kremlin knows he can't be left out entirely for that would eliminate quite a few years of Russian history, so he'll have to be put in but I hate to think what color he will be painted.

Marilyn Tricks Milling Crowd

LONDON (Reuters) — Marilyn Monroe was "smuggled" into a London theatre to see a play with husband Arthur Miller.

It was supposed to be secret, but it took a decoy car and four truckloads of extra police to get her out through the crowds that packed the theatre exits after news of the star's visit leaked out.

Marilyn was wearing a sensational flesh-colored lace dress. Everywhere in the theatre necks strained to see where the dress ended and Marilyn began.

The play she chose was South Sea Bubble. The Noel Coward comedy stars Vivien Leigh, actress wife of Marilyn's latest movie partner, Sir Lawrence Olivier.

Marilyn and her husband sat with Olivier. Afterwards they left in the Olivier limousine from the front entrance while Marilyn's own car waited at the stage door to draw off some of the milling crowd outside.

INFANT DIES

Surviving him are his parents, four sisters, Arlene, Judy, Gwen and Billie, and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. J. Yadernuk and Mrs. Annie Palmer, all in Cranbrook. Rev. F. D. Wyatt officiated and burial was in Westlawn Cemetery.
