Pro-Western Khalidi Fails To Form New Jordan Gov't

Dismissed Premier Nabulsi Said Preparing to Take Case to Country

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—An advocate of continued ties with the West failed Thursday in an attempt to form a new government for Jordan, reliable reports said. Leftist forces joined with the deposed premier's party in refusing to co-operate.

Young King Hussein, who suddenly dismissed the pro-Syrian government of Premier Suleiman Nabulsi Wednesday, asked Dr. Hussein Fakhri Khalidi to form a new government.

Khalidi, foreign minister until the Nabulsi government took over last October during a wave of anti-Western sentiment, is considered an elder statesman with leanings toward the West.

A report, without immediate official confirmation, said Khalidi informed the 22-year-old king he was unable to form a new government.

Apparently the so-called National Front, comprised of Nabulsi's National Socialist party, the Baath (Arab Resurrection Socialist) party whose political outlook resembles that of the ruling Leftist party in Syria, and the Communists joined in boycotting Khalidi's efforts.

POPULAR IN STREET

Nabulsi, whose policies have been considered contrary to King Hussein's outspoken opposition to Communist influence, prepared to take his case to the country. He scheduled two political speeches today in Ramallah and Jenin, both in the Palestinian part of Jordan.

Nabulsi is popular with "the streets" because of his consistent opposition to the West, his denunciation of the Baghdad Pact and his policy of unity with Syria and Egypt in the name of "Arab liberation."

Khalidi had little real chance of ordering Nabulsi to resign, the king gave Khalidi only 24 hours to determine whether he could organize a cabinet.

Jordan Future in Balance?

Elsewhere in the Middle East concern was being expressed for the future of Jordan, whose Hashemite king seemed involved in a fight for his throne.

A combination of factors is credited with bringing the crisis to a head. These are said to include:

1. A Nubulsi cabinet decision to establish full diplomatic relations with Russia, apparently in contradiction to Hussein's expressed stand against Communist penetration attempts.

2. An attempt by Hussein to have neighboring Iraq, ruled by his Hashemite cousin Feisal and the only Arab member of the Western-sponsored Baghdad Pact, integrated in an Arab defence system against Israel. President Nasser of Egypt is reported to have quashed the attempt.

3. A move by the Syrians to achieve virtual annexation of Jordan by pushing her into a federal union with Syria. Cairo reports indicate if Nabulsi had not been forced out by Hussein, steps would have been taken this weekend to carry out a anti-Western Syrian regime. Syrian talks with Nabulsi representatives were reported to have been concluded.

Informed Cairo sources said King Hussein had sent the chief of his royal cabinet, Bhjat Talhouni, to Cairo last month with a proposal to include Iraq in an Arab defence arrangement. This was done without the approval of Nabulsi whose sentiments were, like Nasser's, strongly opposed to Iraq's participation in the Baghdad Pact.

Part of Hussein's worry, said these sources, was that Jordan might be left isolated in the event of an Israeli attack at a moment when Egyptian armed forces were badly organized. Nasser is said to have retorted he had enough air troop transports and military planes to give Jordan any aid it needed without Iraqi assistance.

All but 40 Gazettes Recovered

EDMONTON (CP) — All but 40 copies of the latest issue of the Alberta Gazette which detailed sites for mid-Canada radar installations across the northern part of the province have been recovered, officials said Thursday.

The missing copies have been scattered to all parts of the world —advance copies sent to government libraries in such countries as Switzerland, to the parliamentary library in Ottawa and to industrial firms in Canada and the United States. Efforts are being made to get these back also.

The action was started last Thursday. Premier Manning, who had been under opposition criticism in the legislature the previous day about publication of the site locations had telephone conversations April 4 with Prime Minister St. Laurent.

As copies were returned, Mr. Elliot said Thursday, they were piled into a truck and taken under guard to an incinerator and burned. The original plan was to have the pages listing the radar sites removed and the Gazette reissued. Other routine pages in the radar issue probably will be incorporated in the next gazette publication in about two weks.

Union Leader Scores Cold-Blooded Budget

LONDON (CP) — Frank Cousins, one of Britain's leading trade unionists, describes the new budget as "very disappointing."

He said Thursday, the budget, introduced Tuesday by the Conservative chancellor of the exchequer, Peter Thorneycroft, was "rather cold-blooded" in its approach to elderly persons earning under a certain sum.

Speaking of tax reliefs granted those earning £2000 or more annually, he said the concessions apply to a "limited group" of fewer than 300,000 persons.

Cousins is general secretary of Britain's largest union, the Transport and General Workers. He is perhaps the most influential man in the trade union movement and a possible candidate for high ministerial office in any future Labor government. He spoke about the budget in a luncheon address to the Commonwealth Correspondents' Association.

In replies to questions, Cousins acknowledged a very tricky situation industrially and pledged that organized labor will go on seeking improved wages and conditions in the belief that the "men who produce" ought to have a good standard of living and a fair share of the plenty made possible by scientific and technical developments.

RUSSIANS CLAIM BIG A-SMASHER

MOSCOW (Reuters) — A new Russian "atom smasher" will be able to achieve the highest energy ever obtained by physicists, the Soviet newspaper Pravda says.

It says the machine, the proton syncroton, will accelerate protons, positively charged particles in an atom nucleus, to 8,300,000,000 electron volts.

Pravda claims its proton acceleration is 2,000,000,000 electron volts more than the American betatron, until now the world's most powerful atom smasher.

Court Finds Woodcock Insane

TORONTO (CP) — An Ontario Supreme Court jury ruled that bespectacled schoolboy Peter Woodcock is not guilty by reason of insanity of the sex-murder of four-year-old Carole Vyce.

The jury was out for little more than two hours at the end of a four-day trail before Mr. Justice W. F. Spence. The verdict caused no surprise.

The judge told the jury before it retired that he believed the youth was "insane" and "should not be convicted."

"DOOMED FATE"

Assistant Crown Attorney Arthur O. Klein said the prosecution agreed that the 18-year-old student was a schizophrenic.

The child's body, her clothing torn, was found Jan. 19 under a viaduct in east-central Toronto. She had been sexually attacked.

Defence counsel John Brooke described Woodcock as a lonely little boy wha had never had a real friend and as a child "doomed by fate to end on the gallows or in a hospital for the criminally insane."

Executions Bar Peace on Cyprus Says Makarios

NAIROBI, Kenya (Reuters)—Archbishop Makarios, exiled primate of the Greek Orthodox Church in Cyprus, arrived here Thursday on his way to Greece and warned that further executions of Greek Cypriots by the British would bar the way to peace on the troubled island.

Makarios was asked if he thought renewed terrorism would follow the execution of anti-British terrorists. "What do you think?" he replied.

A reporter said he would take this answer to mean "yes." The archbishop said what he meant was that the gap separating British and Greek Cypriots would be made wider.

Makarios arrived here aboard an Air Force plane from Madagascar. He travelled to Madagascar by ship from the Seychelles Islands in the Indian Ocean where he was exiled for a year for his part in the Cypriot union - with-Greece campaign. The British government announced on March 28 Makarios was free to leave the Seychelles but could not return to Cyprus.

The Cyprus Court of Appeal confirmed the death sentence Thursday on a Greek Cypriot youth convicted of carrying bombs and bullets.

LAW EXTENDED

At the same time, the government at Nicosia announced that an emergency regulation, under which suspected terrorists may be detained without trial, has been extended for a further six months until the end of October. Special courts instituted two years ago to try terrorist cases were extended for the same time.

Peka, political wing of the EOKA terrorist organization, Thursday distributed leaflets calling on British governor Sir John Harding to show "real goodwill" by abolishing emergency regulations in reply to the EOKA terrorist organization truce declared four weeks ago.

Emergency regulations were amended last week abolishing the death penalty for all offences except discharging or carrying a firearm, or throwing a bomb with intent to cause death or injury.

A series of other offences such as possessions of arms, ammunition or explosives and consorting with terrorists, which also carried a mandatory death sentence, now are punishable with a maximum of life imprisonment at the judge's discretion.

WARNING SOUNDED

Peka warned that if Harding refused to show goodwill by ending the "torture of detained Cypriots", arrests and searches, "history and international opinion will know whom to blame if EOKA cancels the truce and gives Harding a new lesson in his own currency."

Makarios read a prepared statement in which he said he was convinced he would return to Cyprus soon.

Buckell Committed For Trial

VANCOUVER (CP) — John William Buckell, 43, was committed for trial Thursday on two charges of attempted murder arising out of an abortive holdup attempt on the main branch of the Royal Bank of Canada March 15.

VANCOUVER (CP) — Hearing of an attempted murder charge against 27-year-old Norman Walter Shelley was adjourned Thursday until next Monday pending a decision on whether he is mentally fit to stand trial.

Shelley is charged with the attempted murder of Donna Jean Berry in a hotel in Vancouver's West-End district July 8, 1953. He was arrested on a warrant following his realese recently from mental hospital.

CAMPBELL RIVER, B.C. (CP) — Preliminary hearing opened Thursday for Vernon Ernest Breckon of Vancouver, charged with murder in the knife slaying of William Wallace following a St. Patrick's eve dance.

British Teacher Finds Standard Low in Canada

BEAMSVILLE, Ont. (CP)—The immigrant principal of the Beamsville Public School says he is returning to England with his family because the Canadian educational standard is so low "it's almost impossible to fall below it."

The board of education, when it heard of Peter Gingell's statement Wednesday, said that was fine because it has had its fill of English-immigrant schoolteachers. This community is west of Hamilton in the Niagara Peninsula.

"The standard here is so low that it is almost impossible to fall below it," Mr. Gingell said. "It's so low, in fact, that it insults the powers of gifted children."

Replied the board: English teachers "don't fit in and we don't want anything to do with them. We can get all the teachers we want right here in Ontario."

Mr. Gingell said he was particularly critical of the lack of special classes for extreme cases. The curriculum for the "average" student bored the more intelligent ones and left the slower pupils so far behind they didn't care one way or the other.

Liberals Lead Nomination Race

VANCOUVER (CP) — The Liberals are leading in the race to get candidates in the field for British Columbia's 22 federal constituencies. Sixty - seven candidates from all parties have already been selected.

James A. Byrne, member of Parliament for Kootenay East since 1949, was renominated at a convention in Cranbrook Wednesday night.

He made the 21st candidate nominated by the Liberals for the June federal election.

Progressive Conservatives thus far have nominated 17 candidates and the CCF and Social Credit parties 14 each.

At least a four-party fight is indicated for every B.C. riding. PC, CCF and Social Credit officials said their respective parties will have candidates chosen for all 22 ridings by May 1.

Nigel Morgan, B.C. leader of the Labor-Progressive party, said the LPP expects to nominate five or six candidates but the constituencies—with the exception of one—are "still in the process of being discussed."

Says Russia Mass-Producing Engineers

VANCOUVER (CP) — More to be feared than Russian stockpiles of nuclear weapons are the "ever-growing numbers of Russian engineers," says a University of British Columbia professor.

Dr. Cyril Bryner of the UBC Slavonics branch told the United Nations Association here Wednesday night that Russia "is leaving the west far behind by turning out engineers by the thousands."

Russia's technological advances are becoming "a spectre — she is becoming a more and more formidable, hostile nation," he added.

Dr. Bryner said he hopes Russia's education "will be a self-enlightening process, turning Russia away from totalitarian dictatorship and toward democracy."

Hope To Duplicate Peary Trip

ST. JOHN's, Nfld. (CP) — An American expedition headed by the son of Admiral Robert E. Peary hopes to mark the 50th anniversary of Peary's expedition to the North Pole by duplicating the feat.

Warrant Officer Silas Bowling of the United States Army, co-leader of the new polar expedition said they plan to start in July 1958 and reach the pole in 1959.

Like Peary, the new expedition will leave Cape Columbia on the most northern point in North America and journey to the pole across the ice by dog team, Bowling said.

They will use improved equipment and techniques for sounding the ocean bottom, noting the physical properties of the ice, studying the movement of the sea, crystallization and temperature They will also do hydrographic work and study marine life.

DOLLAR LOWER

NEW YORK (CP) — The Canadian dollar was ⅛ lower at a premium of 4 1-32 per cent in terms of U.S. funds; a week ago 4 1-32 per cent permium.

Pound sterling ⅛ lower at $2.78 15-16.

Thousands Pay Final Tribute to John Hart

VICTORIA (CP)—Women cried openly in the street outside St. Andrew's Cathedral today as the body of John Hart, one of British Columbia's best-loved premiers, was carried through drizzling rain into the church.

The draped coffin, mounted with a large cross-handled sword, passed slowly through a guard of honor composed of the Knights of Columbus from all parts of Vancouver Island and uniformed officers of the old 5th Regiment of which Mr. Hart was honorary colonel.

Crowds jammed the sidewalks and extra police were needed to regulate the mass of cars streaming past the cathedral.

More than 1000 friends and admirers of the late premier filled every pew in the cathedral as the coffin was carried to the steps of the altar and placed on a catafalque bounded by six tall candles.

Pontifical High Mass was delivered by Bishop James Hill of Vimearia with Father Lewis McLellan of Esquimalt, Father D. Johnston and Father A. McDonald, priests at St. Andrew's, assisting.

All statues on the altar were draped in purple.

Controversy Rages Over Norman Case

WASHINGTON (CP) — Controversy erupted Thursday between Congress and the government over who should take responsibility for the publication of information which contributed to the suicide death of Canadain diplomat E. Herbert Norman.

The Senate's internal security sub-committee, which sought to brand Norman a Communist, claimed the state department agreed to publications of its charges. The state department promptly disclaimed responsibility.

Congressional and governmental circles showed increasing concern over the widening rift with Canada, two Senators deprecated the publication of such charges against a foreign diplomat and President Eisenhower repeated his regrets at Norman's death.

Crofters May Not Have To Move

LONDON (CP) — It looks as though the crofters of the Outer Hebrides won't have to pack up and go to Canada after all.

Although the written verdict has yet to be disclosed, sittings of a Scottish Court this week indicate that British officials have succeeded in persuading the inhabitants of South and North Uist that their ancient way of life won't be completely disrupted by guided missiles.

At a hearing Wednesday, counsel for the crofters said all the hubbub was partly a failure in public relations.

"All the crofters really wanted to know," said counsel, "was that the scheme for a rocket range was essential and that they were not being deprived of their ancient rights to a greater degree than was necessary."

Protests arose from the British Air Ministry's plan for a rocket-launching station in South Uist, off the west coast of Scotland. At one point islanders threatened to emigrate to Canada if necessary to preserve a way of life going back some 1500 years.

DR. JOHN BODKIN ADAMS was acquitted in London of murdering an 81-year-old widow, a patient. Verdict ended 17-day hearing in London's famed Old Bailey, longest murder trial in British history.

Queen's Visit Termed Crescendo of Success

LONDON (CP) — Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip came home Thursday ending a French visit that one Paris writer described as a "crescendo" of success.

The Royal couple flew to London after a parting that touched French citizens from Premier Guy Mollet to the flower girls of Lille who entertained the Queen on the last day.

The Queen and Philip drove from the airport to Windsor Castle, to rejoin their own small children, Princess Anne and Prince Charles who had been watching their progress on television.

The whirlwind four-day romance between the 30-year-old Queen and 2000-year-old France was pronounced a resounding success.

Premier Mollet looked at the deeper meaning of the visit for Britain and France when he said:

"The entente cordiale is not only an entente between two countries tied by treaties and long co-operation. It is an entente of two people united for better or for worse."

Andre Maurois of the Academie Française was given the front page of Paris Press to express himself, under a headline reading "Thank You, Madame, for this Happiness Given France."

BACK EGYPT

PEIPING (Reuters) — Communist China and Poland Thursday night jointly declared that "free passage through the Suez Canal must respect Egypt's unshakeable sovereign right" over the waterway. The declaration came in a long statement signed by Premier Chou En-lai and visiting Polish Premier Jozef Cyrankiewicz, ending his official visit here.

Diet a Factor For Long Life

BOSTON (AP)—Having "nervous indigestion" or sufficient willpower so you'll moderately restrict your diet — plus having longevity in your family tree — might help you live to be 106, Dr. Paul Dudley White indicated Thursday.

White, internationally known heart specialist, implied as much in introducing to doctors a 106-year-old "healthy" friend of his—as a demonstration "of the possibility of long life."

Parliament Cabinet's Puppet — Diefenbaker

OTTAWA (CP) — Hon. Earl Rowe, long-time Progressive Conservative advocate of tariff protection, said Thursday that no industry in Canada needs protection more than agriculture.

Finance Minister Harris replied in the Commons that the tariff attitude of the 1930-35 Conservative government has been repudiated ever since by the people of Canada and of the whole world.

The exchange occured as the Commons moved toward the session's close and a pre-election dissolution of Parliament, virtually certain to come today. Prime Minister St. Laurent gave a firm indication that if that happens, the election will be Monday, June 10.

The Commons had before it a government request for a six-month interim supply of money to carry the administration until an expected fall session of Parliament. With the one month of interim supply granted earlier, it would allow the government to operate to the end of October—seventh month of the fiscal year begun April 1.

GOVERNMENT ATTACKED

Detailed consideration of government spending estimates for the full fiscal year will be postponed until the fall.

The interim supply debate provided oppositon members with their last chance of the session to attack the government and they took advantage of the opportunity.

Opposition Leader Diefenbaker said Parliament has become a puppet in the cabinet's hands.

It was a humiliation of Parliament for the government, in the session's dying days, to ask for such "fabulous" sums — $1,714,109,429—with no time for their examination.

"Parliament no longer governs," the Conservative leader said. It was only a shadow of what it should be and its function was becoming farcical.

Stanley Knowles, CCF whip, said the government was playing "fast and loose" with parliament.

FEW IN HOUSE

He referred to the fact that money for increases in welfare payments, announced in the budget to take effect this summer, is being provided through items in the estimates included in the interim supply bill.

The proper way to do that was passing legislation to change the various welfare laws. Conceivably the government might extend the present practice to the point where all government legislation would be handled by money estimates.

The liveliest parts of the debate however, were the speeches by Mr. Rowe, who represents the Ontario riding of Dufferin - Simcoe, and Mr. Harris, whose Grey Bruce constituency is not far away.

Not too many members were present to hear them. Attendance in the 265-seat House at one point was 44, about equally divided between the Liberals and opposition parties.

CAIRO (AP)—An Egyptian applying for an identity card listed his profession as pickpocket.

The morning paper Al Ahram said when police asked for an explanation the man explained he would have been guilty of making a false statement in an official document if he described his profession otherwise.

33 District Scouts to Attend Spokane Event

E. K. Evans, assistant district commissioner, and a Boy Scout troop from Nelson District Boy Scout Association leave today to attend the "Golden Jubilee of Scouting" Exposition in the Coliseum at Spokane Friday and Saturday.

The scout troop, 33 boys strong, is composed of Boy Scouts from troops at Emerald Lake, Salmo, Granite Aoad, South Slocan and Nelson. Only second-class scouts or higher grade are eligible to participate in the exposition held to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scout movement. Another troop of Boy Scouts from Trail District under the Trail District commissioner will also be attending.

Nelson district scouts attending the exposition will be putting on a display of Canadian uniforms, badges and insignia at the exposition. The composite troop is under the leadership of George Penniket, scoutmaster, from the South Slocan Scout troop, and George Morris, assistant scoutmaster, from the Kaslo Scout troop.

Jaycees to Withdraw Moyie Application

Nelson Junior Chamber of Commerce will relinquish their application or the Moyie, as they were not an incorporated society when they applied for the sternwheeler.

Meeting at the Shamrock Grill for their regular supper meeting Thursday, the Jaycees decided to notify CPR officials that they could not meet the requirement of being an incorporated society and so agreed to withdraw their request to obtain the lake steamer on her de-commissioning.

Members expressed goodwill toward and support of the Kaslo Historical Society in their bid to preserve it as a district memorial to the Kootenay steamship transportation.

Teen Town Talk

By E.C.M.

Last week I attended the first meeting of the new Nelson Teen Town council. It was so interesting I forgot to get this column in for Thursday's paper.

The Trail Teen Town is gathering the loose ends together for the 12th annual mayor's conference to be held during Teen Town Week, April 21 to 29. Different teen towns will do different things this week. Some put on a "Mayor for the Day," with the Teen Town mayor taking the place of the City mayor to run the city for a whole day. This is followed by a parade, banquet, and dance.

The Okanagan - Mainline Teen Teen Town Square Dance Festival was a huge success, with Revelstoke High School and Armstrong Teen Town taking the grand championship award in a tie.

Marpole Teen Town in Vancouver is going to have a grand reunion banquet and dance for all former Teen Town members on April 27.

Code of ethics of the Teen Town movement is: "I shall honor my parents, my home and my country. I shall make my most important task that of obtaining an adequate education to fit me for the tasks of life. I shall respect the law, without which there can be no personal freedom among men. I shall be morally upright. I shall abide by the decisions of the democratic majority, even thought I may disagree. I shall respect the opinions of others, especially those older than myself. I shall always remember that, before God, all men are the same, regardless of race, color, or creed. I shall remember that, in the debating hall or at the council table, sportsmanship is just as important as on the playing field.

Cavalcade Winds Up

Fire Chief E. S. Owens, Norman Bowcock, George Gelinas, Chris Trykla and Alex Powell returned home early Thursday evening as the "Cavalcade to Calgary" came to an official close.

Majority of the 24-man expedition returned Wednesday, but the most recent returnees made a 90-mile trip to Drumheller Wednesday and left from Calgary early Thursday morning en route to Nelson.

They encountered similar weather to that which reduced the pleasure of the return trip for the main group the day before. Wednesday's weather between Calgary and Drumheller was not as bad as that which they fought through the next day on the way home, but according to Chief Owens, "it wasn't too good."

Several Drumheller residents said they had watched the Nelson contingent's appearance on television. Chief Owens said he and the others had distributed considerable literature to those they contacted.

Those who made the trip were: Mayor Joseph Kary, E. T. Bodard, M. B. Ryalls, Alderman C. F. Blakeman, Alderman W. S. Ramsay, John Erb, V. C. Owen, J. P. Rivers, Austin Moore, Don Appleton, E. (Chummie) Schumacker, A. K. McAdams, Jack Bailey, Gordon Olson, Henry Stevenson, Frank Beresford, Jack McMillan, Bob Richardson, Chief Owens, Chris Trykla, George Gelinas, Norman Bowcock, Alex Powell and John Short.

Trail, Tadanac, Warfield Plans Outlined to Jaycees

TRAIL —Representatives from the city of Trail, municipality of Tadanac and village of Warfield attended Trail Junior Chamber of Commerce Civic Night Thursday in Crown Point Hotel.

Chairman of the Warfield village board of commissioners told of the plans of his community and pictured a unique golf course and a field track for the future. For the present progress was being made slowly. The budget was running into the red. Costs were more than realized when the community first organized into a village.

"Progress will not be as fast as some of us would like unless we raise taxes right over the limit," he said.

E. H. Gautschi, councillor representing Tadanac, pointed out that their problems were different from Trail and Warfield. Possessing a good location as far as housing and works were concerned. He said that they were pleased to see a library in operation in Trail to which they will be contributing.

PICTURE CHANGES

Mayor L. A. Read sounded a note of optimism in contrast to his address to the Jaycees a year ago. "If I had known the conditions of the city I don't think I would have run for mayor," he said. "Today we are filled with a spirit of optimism while a year ago we were very discouraged."

Outlining the work accomplished in 1956, he said the first step was to obtain engineering help which was secured through the help of Cominco. He gave an outline of the $300,000 projects to be undertaken in 1957 which was made possible through the generosity of Cominco.

A bylaw to raise $125,000 will be placed before the citizens by the end of the month.

Co-operation on the part of the provincial government was good, said the mayor. An engineering study of Rossland Avenue and of a second bridge are to be made. He was enthusiastic about the change in the Municipal Act which will give power for a study of amalgamation of outlying municipalities.

Aldermen L. J. Crowe, Alex Brokenshire, H. S. Dixon and S. N. Mitchell also addressed the meeting concerning the city of Trail.

Appeal Board Sits Here Today

Sitting of the Assessment Board of Appeal, which hears all appeals for assessments throughout British Columbia under the Equalization Assessment Act, will be held at the Court House in Nelson Today.

Chairman of the board is K M. Beckett, Vancouver lawyer, and other members are W. R. Meamish, real estate and insurance agent of Burnaby and R. H. Green Victoria barrister and solicitor and president of the News Publishing Company. Mr. Beamish's father was a Methodist minister in Kaslo in 1911. Reporter for the board is Miss Doreen Jones of Vancouver.

The board has held sittings at Coquitlam, Haney, Chilliwack, Cloverdale, Ladner, Vancouver, West Vancouver, North Vancouver district, North Vancouver City, Kamloops, Revelstoke, Salmon Arm, Kelowna, Peachland, Penticton and Trail.

Mr. Green will conduct the sitting at Kimberley, then rejoin the other board members at Nanaimo. Sittings are scheduled at Victoria, Prince Rupert, Fort St. John, Dawson Creek, Sechelt, Powell River, Ganges, Nanaimo, Courtenay and Richmond.

Lieut.-Governor Visits Kiwanians

An official visit from the lieutenant governor P. Clayton Stewart of Trail was greeted by a 100 per cent attendance of Nelson Kiwanis Club members at the Hume Thursday night. Mr. Stewart heads division 6 of Kiwanis International.

Full attendance was reached when a late member arrived about 7 p.m., and Mr. Stewart was informed. He extended congratulations and also informed the club it had achieved top marks for inter-club visits this year. Nelson club had most delegates at Sunday's Spring Conference at Spokane, he announced.

He brought a message from International President Reed Culp and discussed plans for furthering the Kiwanis movement. The Nelson club had done a "marvellous job" in hosting the recent inter-Kiwanis Club Bonspiel.

Another meeting highlight was the showing of a thrilling Royal Canadian Navy film by Lieut. Gordon Shirley of the navys recruiting team.

Guests also were Rev. Canon George W. Lang of Nelson, Peter Jones of Penticton and Norman J. Backus of Trail.

250 Teenagers Average Turnout For Rock and Roll

"Rock and Roll", the dance that's real cool even on a warm spring night, will be top on the entertainment fare tonight at another of the Civic Centre-sponsored student dances.

It will be the sixth in a season series which in popularity have far exceeded the sponsors' expectations.

Attendance has averaged 250 a night, according to Jack Morgan, Civic manager. However, there have been as many as 400 teenagers on the dance floor.

Every two or three weeks the sponsors import an orchestra. Tonight is one of these occasions. The Trail Serenaders will be on the band stand.

At the next dance, May 10, the crowd will revert to dancing by recorded music, and a special master of ceremonies will be engaged.

Young people from out of town help swell the local crowd in attendance. Sometimes between 40 and 50 boys and girls have come from Castlegar. It's customary for them to come also from Trail, the Slocan, Kaslo and Salmo areas, among other points.

Britain Releases Egyptian Currency

LONDON (Reuters)—The government has agreed to release to the Sudan £15,000,000 worth of Egyptian currency blocked in Britain.

Hundreds See Mayor Open New Supermarket

Crowds packed the aisles of Safeway's new food market in Fairview Thursday night to see Mayor Joseph Kary cut a ribbon marking official opening of the new store.

The big parking area around the store was solid with cars and nearby streets were also lined as city and district people came to watch the ceremonies and inspect the supermarket.

Congratulations were extended by the mayor, and he complimented the company for "your confidence placed in the future of our district. He paid tribute to Wilfred Maynard, manager, and Thomas Milburn, former well known Nelson boy, "who worked hard to give the citizens such a fine supermarket."

He was sorry to hear that Nelson was to lose its brewery, but congratulated Creston for obtaining "such a large development" in the knowledge that the entire Kootenay would benefit. (Interior Breweries announced Thursday that present brewing operations were to be consolidated into one new plant at Creston).

Mayor Kary said he was optimistic for the future of Nelson and district, however, because more major undertakings were planned here. He said opening of the new store was another milestone in the city's progress.

Mr. Maynard, who thanked the mayor, presented Mrs. Kary with a corsage.

Business and civic leaders were taken on a tour of inspection of the supermarket in the afternoon. Staff members personally conducted the visitors to each department, pointing out special features of equipment.

The storage coolers, the streamlined meat processing department and the fruit and vegetable displays particularly impressed viewers.

Company officials here for the opening and Wilfred Maynard, manager, greeted the businessmen and their wives.

Tea was served by PTA members.

Course To Introduce Parents to Scouting

A pre-leaders' training course will be held at Nelson Scout Hall and at Camp Busk this weekend to introduce parents of Cubs and Scouts as well as other interested persons to "the game of scouting."

Jack Scrivener, field commissioner of the Boy Scout Association at Kelowna, will be in charge of the training. He will be assisted by Gordon Fleming of Nelson and John Flamank with the RCMP, Kaslo, who will act as scoutmaster and assistant scoutmaster. Instruction in Cubbing will be in charge of cubmasters L. J. Avery of Salmo and Frank Aikins of Nelson.

The course is being held at Nelson on Friday and Saturday evenings, with the group moving out to Camp Busk on Sunday for "camp training" and then returning to Scout Hall for another training session Sunday evening.

Training will consist of "yarns" or "bites" as the short talks given by the instructors are regularly called at Troop and Pack meetings, followed by active participation in the "training games" by the "boys" taking the course.

Grand Forks To Vote Today On Sewer Plan

GRAND FORKS — Ratepayers in Grand Forks will go to the polls today to decide whether or not the city shall have authorization to borrow $326,000 for construction of a sewer system, the first for the city.

City clerk E. W. Euerby is returning officer for the voting which will take place between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. at the municipal hall.

A majority of three fifths or 60 per cent in favor of the proposal is required for bylaw passage.

The system would serve an estimated 360 homes and 55 commercial premises at the outset, at a conservative estimate.

Sewer rentals and frontage tax would be charged to pay off the debt.

Connections would extend throughout practically all the residential and commercial areas within the city limits, and the system would include a lagoon treatment area.

In preparing plans, City Council has pointed out that the system will mean a saving to those now using private disposal systems, and moreover will make for a more sanitary community.

Discussion on the matter took place Thursday night at a public meeting.

Assize Trial For Woman on Theft Charge

CRANBROOK — Audrey Hanson, former employee of Cranbrook Television Ltd., was committed for trial at the spring assizes in May, following preliminary hearing Tuesday before Magistrate Richard Shiell. She is charged with theft of $1963.65 from her employers between February and August of last year. Bail of $1000 posted when she was arrested in January has been continued.

Alan Graham, Q.C. appeared for the Crown at the preliminary hearing, and Harry McKay and Ricky Heslop of Fernie for the defence.

STANDARD bearer for the Liberal party in Kootenay East in the coming federal election will again be James Byrne, the present Member. The former miner was first elected to the House of Commons in 1949 and won re-election in 1953. He was nominated at Cranbrook Wednesday night before a large number of party supporters.

Creston in Throes Of Building Boom

CRESTON — Creston is experiencing a building boom this spring.

The new dominion department of agriculture building directly across from the elevators is making rapid progress, the cement basement being well in view.

Shell Oil is constructing a modern service station on property across the road from the company's storage tanks. Frank Nadon is also building a service station on the southern trans-provincial highway near the Creston-Salmo cutoff.

There are homes under construction all over Creston, Erickson and Wynndel.

South Slocan Group Asks Extra Policing

SOUTH SLOCAN — The School and Community Club, at its monthly meeting, decided to send a letter to RCMP headquarters requesting the stationing of another constable at the Crescent Valley detachment, to be domiciled, preferably in the South Slocan area.

It was felt that better policing of traffic and other problems through the vicinity is required.

THIRD ATTEMPT

There will be a public meeting Tuesday to attempt to form a South Slocan Recreation Commission under the Community Programs Branch. Several persons in the community have come forward to allow their names to stand for nomination in the formation of the Commission. All district organizations and clubs have been asked to attend, and an open invitation has been extended to all residents. Two previous attempts in past years to organize have met with failure. It is believed this meeting will be successful, as residents have had ample opportunity to see the benefits being enjoyed by both Crescent Valley and Bonnington, since the setting up of their Commissions.

FESTIVAL PERFORMERS

The meeting featured a program by South Slocan contestants in the Kootenay Music Festival held recently in Trail.

Mrs. O. Muir, principal of the elementary school, spoke on the excitement of taking the youngsters to the Festival, and waiting as the competition progressed, to see how they rated. Thirteen certificates, four of them first, were awarded to the children.

Parents were enthusiastic in their applause of the youngsters who entertained them, though several were unable to be present due to a high absentee rate caused by measles. Julie Dahlquist made a presentation to Mrs. Muir on behalf of parents and children for her work.

A recent square dance evening was a success, raising $25 for the Club treasury. It was voted to donate a sum of money to Mr. Puflet, school bus driver, and Mrs. Muir for expenses incurred taking the children to the festival.

CALGARY BURIAL FOR STOCKMAN GEORGE ROBERTS

MARYSVILLE — Burial at Queen's Park Cemetery at Calgary took place for George Roberts of Marysville, operator since 1951 of Marysville stock farm. Mr. Roberts was killed near Calgary at Langdon Corner when the car he was driving in a snowstorm was in collision with a train at a level crossing.

He was 53 years old. Born at Warrock, Minn., he grew up at Lundbreck, Alta., and since his youth had dealt in livestock and horses in southern Alberta and East Kootenay, with Cranbrook headquarters prior to settling at Marysville.

1886 Cheque Exhibited . . .

Old, New on Display As Golden Bank Opens

GOLDEN — A cancelled cheque dated 1886, handled by the original bank at Golden the year the final link in the transcontinental railway between Revelstoke and Golden was completed, was on display among other interesting items when the new building for the Golden branch of the Imperial Bank of Canada was formally opened here.

Thomas King, former Member of the Legislature and merchant here for 60 years, cut the ribbon and made the first deposit in the new branch. He described the first bank in Golden, a private one which succumbed to high taxation in its first year and was immediately succeeded by the Imperial Bank which has served the community since then.

Branch manager W. R. Bell was master of ceremonies for the opening which attracted 400 guests, and Rev. T. Zabelka represented the Board of Trade.

Burnham and Son Ltd., contractors of Banff, were represented by the senior partner. The building is of fieldstone and glass, with mahogany interior and covers 2400 square feet. It provides banking space, office, staff lounge, lavatories, two vaults and furnace room.

The former building has been transferred by the Imperial Bank as a gift to the Golden District Lions Club for removal from the site. It may be demolished for salvage value, proceeds to go to the swimming pool fund, or it may be transferred to a new location for conversion into a clubhouse.

Moyie Splashes Procter Students

PROCTER — Children returning from school in Nelson Monday got off the bus on the Harrop ferry to watch SS Moyie steam by on its return to Procter from Nelson.

One of their fond memories in the years to come will be the dousing they reecived from the swell. So intent were they on watching the boat that the wave was upon them before they realized it.

Pastor Notes Enthusiasm at New Denver

NEW DENVER—Rev. A. A. Burnett expressed delight at the enthusiasm of church members toward church activities, at the annual congregational dinner meeting of Turner Memorial United Church.

Sixty persons attended the turkey dinner and meeting, for which L. R. Campbell was chairman.

Two minutes' silence was observed in memory of the late Rev. J. Herdman, former pastor of the church.

Seven members were elected to fill vacancies on the board. They were William Mott, William Martin, R. Burkett, G. Emary, James Draper, G. H. Croy and William Rowe. Stanley Wilson was elected treasurer, replacing Mrs. E. M. Kirkwood who had held the office for the last 18 years.

A. E. Thomas and Mrs. Draper were elected to the committee in charge of the manse.

Mrs. Kirkwood, Mrs. W. G. Thring, Mrs. Mott and Mrs. Draper reported for various committees.

Spokane Teamsters Put Books In Bank

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Rebel union members won a court order requiring officers of teamsters Local 690 to turn over all books and records to the old National Bank as temporary custodian.

Superior judge Hugh H. Evans also ordered officers of the Local to appear in court April 19 to show cause why they should not be temporarily suspended pending settlement of a revolt within the Local.

FISHERMEN FILL CREELS ON LOWER ARROW LAKE

DEER PARK — The fishing's good on the Lower Arrow Lake this spring.

George Dennis and Ed Brown of Trail spent a few days on a fishing trip around Deer Park and Broadwater. They made a catch of eight fish, weighing approximately 40 pounds. The largest was a 13½ pound Kamloops trout.

On a recent fishing trip at his summer home at Broadwater, Len Nyman of Rossland landed four Dolly Varden, the smallest of which weighed over eight pounds. L. Therrian, also of Rossland caught three Kamloops trout, the largest weighing 12½ pounds.

Morley Wilson and his brother-in-law of Trail caught four Dolly Vardens, three weighed five pounds each and the fourth was a four pounder.

LA FRANCE PLANS DAY-LONG FETE

LA FRANCE CREEK—The centennial committee met to discuss plans for next year's celebrations.

Britain Holding the Line

Inflation and the cost of living may go hand in hand, but it becomes apparent that it has no relation to the standard of living. Here in Canada we have a high standard of living and an economy which is likely to get out of hand and beyond our control. Our greatest fear is inflation, as our own budget recognized.

In England, where the standard of living is not so high, where wages are considerably lower and the ability to spend them on luxuries is less, they also fear inflation. This fear is reflected in their budget, which gives tax relief, not to the many, but to a few.

Since Mr. Thorneycroft, in his budget speech, says that there will always be room at the top, his concessions to those with incomes of over two thousand pounds may point to a belief that in a battle for markets brains are more important than anything else.

The budget contains little for the relief of the great mass of Britons beyond the removal of the amusement taxes and a fifteen per cent reduction on such things as household furnishings. It gives increased income tax allowances for teen-aged children and elderly people.

The chancellor in a radio interview spoke of the value of a large body of "savers" to British economy. It seems a curious fact that a country with a comparatively low standard of living should have such a high rate of saving while Canada with a higher standard of living should have a much lower rate of saving. Thrift it seems is no longer a virtue in Canada.

By saving so much and refraining from buying, the British release more goods for export. This is important for it enables Britain to increase her dollar earnings, for it is in this currency that Britain has to pay for many of her imports.

Despite all efforts inflation seems to be slowly creeping along in Britain. The cost of living rises and the recent strikes indicate that the workers feel that their wages are insufficient. Low wages are, for the time being, important to Britain for they help to keep the cost of goods down and enable her to compete in highly protected markets.

While the British budget may not be an outstanding one, it holds the line on inflation and seems to have been a matter of thought, and consideration. It gives the impression of a Chancellor of the Exchequer with the courage of his ideas.

A Time for Firmness

Britain's Conservative government managed to survive the internal division caused by last fall's Suez intervention and withdrawal. It must now attempt to survive another internal division—this time, over the release of Archbishop Makarios, who was exiled to the Seychelles a year ago for encouraging and assisting the Greek Cypriot terrorists. The present division appears even more serious than that of last fall; it has resulted in the resignation of the highly influential Lord Salisbury, Lord President of the Council, and other cabinet resignations are reported to be imminent.

It is not so much the release of Makarios that leading British Conservatives protest, as the manner and timing of it. The British government has heretofore insisted that he would be freed only if and when he called on the Greek-speaking Cypriots to halt their campaign of violence against British rule. Makarios has met that condition, but in doing so, added one of his own; he told the terrorists to desist only if and when Britain lifts her emergency regulations in Cyprus.

This is enough for Prime Minister Macmillan, who in what he describes as "an act of generous statesmanship," has freed Makarios to go wherever he wishes (save to Cyprus itself). It is not enough for Lord Salisbury, who protests that Makarios' appeal is made worthless by the condition he attaches to it—"a condition so far-reaching that the government have had to state quite frankly that they cannot do what he asks." Lord Salisbury continues:

> The initiative will, I believe, pass more and more to him, and he will be able to edge us along from point to point, with increasing injury to that close and confident relationship with Turkey which should, to my mind, be the main basis of British policy in the Middle East at the present time.

This is, and long has been, the heart of the Cyprus problem. Whatever Britain may do that pleases Greece and the 400,000 Greek-speaking Cypriots (e.g.: the release of Makarios) displeases Turkey and the 100,000 Turkish-speaking Cypriots—and vice versa. Britain is caught right in the middle between a Greek government which wants Cyprus "reunited" with Greece—though it has not been a political part of Greece for millennia—and a Turkish government which prefers to see the island under firm British rule. Further complicating the problem is the importance of Cyprus as a Middle East base to the whole Western Alliance.

In these circumstances, there is only one place to look for a solution. That is in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, of which Britain, Greece and Turkey all are members, and to which the safety and availability of the Cyprus bases are essential. NATO now has the machinery to mediate disputes of this nature through its secretary-general, and the latter, Lord Ismay, has offered to get it working over Cyprus. Britain has accepted the offer, and Turkey has expressed no objections. But Greece refuses, insisting that the island's future should be decided by direct negotiations between Britain and the Cypriots themselves.

Considering that Greece has stirred up a large part of the trouble in Cyprus over the last two years, considering that she has assisted the Cypriot terrorists with men and money, weapons and propaganda, it is utter impudence for her suddenly to come out against intervention. But if she insists, so be it. Let NATO, in that case, proceed to tackle the Cyprus problem without Greece's assistance.

It is scandalous that this problem has not been tackled by NATO before; scandalous that for two years it has been the cause of open and ugly bickering between three NATO members; scandalous that NATO's second most important member-government should now be in serious political difficulties over it. Fast, firm action is needed on Cyprus, and no Western Power should be more anxious to promote it than the one which is now most heavily involved in the Near and Middle East—that is, the United States.—Toronto Globe and Mail.

T. C., New Denver—Easter Sunday this year falls on April 21. I am of the opinion this is the latest date possible. Please state when was the last time it occurred on April 21 and when it will occur again. Also, is March 22nd the earliest possible date for Easter and if so when did it last fall on that date, and on what future year will it recur?

Easter Sunday fell on April 23 in 1905 and 1916; will fall on April 22 in 1962, 1973, 1984 and 2000. March 23, 1913, is the earliest record we have of Easter Sunday, followed by March 24, in 1940. For your further interest, Easter will again fall on March 23 in the year 2008.

Feels Moyie Quitting One Year Too Early

To the Editor:

Sir—In the recent resurgence of interest in preserving a lake sternwheeler for Nelson, do we overlook the possibility of having the Moyie in active service during the Centennial summer?

Would not the idea of Kootenay Lake excursions, well advertised, and at reasonable rates, steaming daily from Nelson, provide a most memorable form of centennial observance?

The Moyie is going off duty one year too early. Is there not some local organization, or group of organizations, and indeed, individual effort, willing to approach the CPR before crews and captains are dispersed and the boilers are cold

His Own Juror

It's a caution how officialdom sometimes gets tangled in its own traces. Another example is to be found in Baddeck, N.S., where one Daniel Murdoch Morrison, 65, was committed for trial on a murder charge one day and had his name called for juror duty the next! Needless to say he was relieved of the latter duty.

It would have been fantastic, were it possible, to have Juror Morrison in the jury box listening to evidence against Accused Morrison sitting in criminal dock. Or, even worse, having to decide on the evidence, and the oath all jurymen take, whether he himself was guilty as charged. At least he would have a sure knowledge about his guilt or innocence!

We recall a curious scene in a Toronto court during a murder trial in the 1930's. One court attendant was, under his assumed name, the "Hangman" Ellis of the time. Day after day during the lengthy trial he listened to the evidence against the accused; saw the accused entering and leaving the court. And in the full knowledge that if the man were convicted he would have to officiate as hangman.

One can imagine the thoughts of the accused had he known that his potential hangman was listening to every word; watching his every move.—Windsor Star.

Getting the Most Out of Gossip

... F. B. PEARCE

The Royal Bank of Canada monthly letter for March is about Rumour, False Report and Propaganda. It is a very moral essay and one that all you people who gossip should read. I have not really read it but I can see that and so just to be contrary as my mother used to say, I am going to give you my version of the same things.

Rumours can be a spice of life especially if you are in the army. Every day there is a new one cropping up and each one is untrue but everyone passes them on dressed up a little more. No one knows how they start but each is credited to good authority. The result is that today when I see a report in the papers quoting a "source close to the president" or "close to Buckingham Palace" I know where it started; in the kitchen of the White House or the palace.

To really enjoy rumours it is essential to have an unbelieving nature. Once they are taken seriously they are apt to be disturbing. But the curious thing that though in the army false rumours can spread fast the occasional truth can spread even faster and seemingly in some occult way beyond the ken of mortal men. One officer who served in the Indian army told me that he would open a letter from headquarters telling of a move and he could walk across the parade ground to his quarters and his batman would meet him at the door and say "I hear the regiment is moving to Delhi, Sir."

KEPT RUMOURS FLYING

It is those occasional truths which kept the rumours flying and many of them were in the nature of wishful thinking. A move was often the basis of a rumour. It the unit was out of the line then the rumour was that it was going in again, if it was in the line then it was going out to rest camp. The variations were just a matter of time and place.

False report was something that the army did not have. That is a purely civilian and peace time pastime. It flourishes at all times but sometimes is at its best at election time. Then tales of malfeasance, malpractice and malice are rampant. They are passed along with embellishments from one to another and often do considerable harm to reputations, largely because people will insist that where there is smoke, there is fire. They forget that perhaps the smoke is being raised by some one else.

GO UNCHALLENGED

A skeptical nature is useful for false reports too. If pinned down, those who spread them cannot give authority for their statements, but too few people challenge them, so they keep on spreading.

Propaganda is now a dirty word but originally it meant an association to spread opinions which means that churches and political parties are propagandists. Those who spread propaganda are usually sincere in their opinions while those opposed to them are convinced they are disseminating untruths. They put it more bluntly and say it is a lot of lies. Obviously, propaganda is in itself a good thing. Churches and political parties are bound to advertise their views and opinions if they are to make converts and recruits.

Basically in dealing with these three, rumor, false reports and propaganda, what is needed is a critical and skeptical approach. There isn't much pleasure to be got from believing evil of any kind. The world is not nearly so bad as many people would have us think.

Start Campaign Against Coast Racketeering

VICTORIA (CP) — Arnold Webb, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, is starting a campaign to clean Victoria of the annual crop of racketeers that plagues this city.

He has announced that anyone having complaints of shady practices, or high prices for poor work, give them in detail — in writing—to the Chamber.

"We're getting dozens of telephone calls now," he said. "If the people will put their complaints in writing, I'll be able to compile actual evidence.

"Then we'll be able to go to City Council and demand more teeth in licencing by-laws, for example. Or, in another instance, the building or some other industry might set up something along the lines of its own policing organization."

"We've got to clean things up. Too many people are being financially hurt."

Mr. Webb said that at the present "there seem to be three or four specific concerns here about which we receive the most complaints."

Bank of Canada Rate Of Interest Higher

PARIS (Reuters) — France on Thursday increased its bank rate to four from three per cent in a credit-tightening move against inflation.

The last change was Dec. 2, 1954 when the rate was lowered from 3.25 to three per cent. It remained one of the lowest in Europe for two years in an attempt to promote investment in France.

COUNT NOSES

LONDON (CP)—A big travel census of rush-hour passengers has started here. One hundred observers will "click in" every bus and train passenger. The idea is to stagger schedules so that congestion can be eased.

Nakusp Couple Married for 59 Years

NAKUSP — Well-known residents of this district, Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunter Gardner recently celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. J. W. Dougan of Kinnaird and Mrs. B. Pearson of Nelson were guests of their parents on the occasion. Also present were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gardner and son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams.

Many beautiful flowers and congratulatory messages came from relatives and friends.

Deer Park WI Okays Program

DEER PARK — At the April meeting of the Deer Park Women's Institute, Mrs. E. Williamson was named as the delegate to attend the West Kootenay District Women's Institute's Conference at South Slocan.

A donation of $5 and a box of used Christmas cards were sent to the Silver Birch School for Handicapped Children. Knitted wool squares were turned in by the members. These are to be sent to Montreal where they will be made up into "Blankets for Hungary."

Several resolutions were drafted at the meeting. These favored a faculty of dentistry at UBC, electrical power for Deer Park and Renata; and the road on to Edgewood. These resolutions will be presented at the conference.

Deer Park Notes

DEER PARK — Assistant Ranger and Mrs. George Benwell and infant daughter of Nelson arrived to take up residence at the Ranger Station here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Williamson were recent visitors to Castlegar where they were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Aasland, on the occasion of their granddaughter's first birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Walker of Silverton arrived to spend a few days at their home here.

Salmo Guiders Encouraged in Camp Site Plan

SALMO — Mrs. Hyson, Divisional camp instructor, held a training course at the home of Mrs. C. Esche. Members of the Guide Association and Guide and Brownie leaders were present.

Instructions were given in general procedure of Guide and Brownie meeting as well as much useful information on camp-life for girls. Mrs. Rizzuto encouraged the Salmo association to try to obtain its own camp site and also to get leaders from this district to obtain their camper's licence.

EDIBLE MOSS

Reindeer moss, a growth that extends over wide areas of the north, is an edible lichen.

WI Furthers Plans For May Conference

SOUTH SLOCAN — The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute, in the WI hall, was concerned mainly with the arrangements for the annual district WI conference to be held at South Slocan on May 9.

Help and assistance with the arrangements is being sought from non-members, and they are being invited to attend the Conference to learn of the work accomplished and the aims of the organization.

There will be no further Public Health Children's Clinics held until July, due to the commencement of a program of Salk vaccine injections to be undertaken shortly.

Canadian Woman May Join UN Commission

By CAROLYN WILLETT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada next year may have its first seat on the United Nations' commission on the status of women.

An external affairs department spokesman said Thursday Canada's success as a candidate for the 18-member, all-woman commission would probably be known at the end of this month when the Economic and Social Council votes on commission membership.

The commission, which finished its annual three - weeks meeting earlier this month, was established under the council in 1946.

Canada has not yet had an official delegate. But about two years ago the government indicated its intention to apply for 1958 membership as a result of growing interest by such women's group as the Canadian Federation of University Women and the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Club.

POSSIBLE DELEGATE

If Canada's membership is approved, a delegate would be appointed later, the spokesman said.

Kathleen Bowlby of Ottawa, national secretary of the United Nations Association has been mentioned among women's groups here as a possible commission delegate.

Miss Bowlby spent three months in New York earlier this year as a special adviser to Canada UN delegation.

The commission's work to improve the social, political, economic, educational and legal status of women throughout the world has resulted in the General Assembly's adoption of two international conventions put forth by the commission.

Earlier this year Canada ratified the convention on the political rights of women and signed a convention dealing with the nationality of married women.

Mrs. Margaret Johnson is past president, Mrs. Robert Barr vice-president, Mrs. Fred Large treasurer, Mrs. Mae Laurie secretary, Mrs. Stan Harrison social chairman and Mrs. Howard King draw chairman.

In presentation of awards for season competition winners were: Mayor Sang trophy, Ellen MacDonald, Lillian Barber, Marion Lewis and Vicki Jolliffe; T. Eaton trophy, Louise Hans, Rita Pinchak, Sheila Lane and Dagmar Back; Mtichell Hardware trophy, Ida Grant, Edna Ferguson, Joyce Conroy and Vicki Jolliffe; Byng Hotel trophy, Kay Sherling, Albertine LaFleur, Gwen Laurie; Haddad and Gartside trophy, Connie Carston, Florence Nelson, Wanda Johnson and Beverley Ostrom; Harry Dorris trophy, Vivian Klinkhamer, Albertine LaFleur, Rhoda Brockington and Kay Horwood.

Salmo Notes

SALMO — Mrs. Betty Newell and sons of Spokane, visited Mrs. Newell's mother, Mrs. E. L. Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Curwen of Williams Lake visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Steele. Mrs. Shirley Anderson entertained at tea in honor of Mrs. S. A. Curwen, who is a former resident of Salmo.

Gold, Mauve In Color Scheme At Salmo Tea

SALMO — Spring flowers made Tea tables and Legion Hall gay when the Salmo Ladies' Auxiliary to the Legion held its Spring Tea and Sale. The afternoon was a success, both socially and financially.

Mrs. F. T. Middleton welcomed the visitors. The sewing table, in charge of Mrs. R. Stenson and Mrs. Brannigen, had a selection of plain and fancy sewing which met with a good sale. Mrs. Alice Hearn and Mrs. A. T. Budden were in charge of the bake table with a large assortment of home baking and were kept busy until sold out.

The Rummage stall under supervision of Mrs. Lorne Farout and Mrs. E. H. Cosnett brought ready sales.

The proceeds of the afternoon ammounted to $96.

Those in charge of tea tables were also kept busy. The lace covered tea table at which Mrs. Henry powered was centred with a silver vase of pink and white carnations. Mrs. Henry who was responsible for the floral decorations, assisted by Mrs. Budden, made gold and mauve. The choice of her color scheme, using daffodils, white, pale pink, and many shades of mauve to deep purple single and double stocks, with pussy willow, and smilax, in golden bowls.

Members in the Kitchen were Mrs. A. Lovestrom, Mrs. I. Tombough and Mrs. J. L. Walton and Mrs. M. Bush. Mrs. Gradin was cashier. Convenors were Mrs. A. Lovestrom and Mrs. Gradin.

LaFrance Creek

LA FRANCE CREEK — Mrs. V. R. Johnson, and daughter Betty have returned from a four day visit to Trail where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Irwin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. MacKay of Creston have started to build their new home here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Trenaman and family have left for Prince George after visiting Mr. Trenaman's mother, Mrs. M. E. Trenaman.

A successful bingo night was held in the La France Community Hall recently, attended by people from Crawford Bay, Gray Creek, La France Creek and Bosswell. The money realized from the bingo is to be used for the centennial project.

Riondel Auxiliary Makes Good Progress in Year

RIONDEL — Since its formation a year ago, the Riondel Hospital Auxiliary has accomplished much in aid of the Victorian Hospital at Kaslo.

Under the presidency of Mrs. Norman Bonnell, the group worked on a number of projects. Besides paying their annual fees of $1 each, members paid 10 cents at monthly meetings and donated small gifts for the hospital such as safety pins, face cloths, tea towels, etc. Cups and saucers, fruit dishes and ashtrays were donated to the Nurses' home.

Proceeds from a dance and contest went to buy three occasional chairs and a play pen for the hospital. Later two dozen white bath towels and 12 plastic tray mats were sent.

A bake sale and contest netted $40, which bought flannelette which members sewed into 19 pairs of pyjamas.

CANVASS

A group of women volunteers conducted a door to door survey to investigate the adviseability of having the Red Cross blood donor clinic visit Riondel. Names of about 100 prospective donors were taken.

A baby bath and $12 for the purchase of baby wrappers for the nursery were other contributions.

Early this year, a bake sale and contest realized $26 which was used to buy flannelette for women's pyjamas. Ten pairs of these were sewn by members.

Your Individual Horoscope

For Saturday, April 13, 1957

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — Your attitude toward responsibilities will strongly affect your returns today. Familiar matters should move along smoothly. Don't turn down any good prospects.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus) — Your planetary aspects encourage activities you like; work or business for which you were trained and all strictly confidential matters. A good day!

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini)—You should be ambitious, optimistic and energetic now. It's also a good time to confer with those in authority, to seek due favors and aid others to advance. Care advised in money matters, however.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer)—Excellent influences for essential work, family and personal affairs; also for healthful recreation, hobbies, travel, study. Avoid extravagance but you can, should have a profitable day generally.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo)—A fine time to cultivate worthwhile friendships, to advance your own and your family's interests. Mental work, difficult tasks and usual daily routine under fine rays.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — Matters connected with medicine, surgery, engineering, aeronautics and the like share fine Saturn and Mars rays. A good day for shopping for necessities. Those handling animals highly favored.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Ideal influences for your likes and talents. Sports, hobbies, handling animals, household affairs among favored activities. Just be careful to avoid recklessness. Rest, read.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 (Scorpio) — This should be peak period, with both your planets, Mars and Saturn, plus your "personal" Moon, in fine array. Accomplish all you can now. Enjoy some recreation, too.

NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius) — While the influences are not wholly favorable to all matters, especially financial transactions, this can be a full, generous day for health measures, routine tasks, homey interests, family get-togethers and travel.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn) — Warm, bright and encouraging rays for private and general interests. Enjoy this period but without neglecting duties. Essentials first, then relax.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius) — This is no time for exaggeration or foolish extravagance. Taking part in community affairs, outings, music, reading, other worthwhile interests urged. You can also make headway in obligatory work.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — There's no need for feeling disturbed or annoyed. There are many fine offerings and opportunities this intriguing day. With sensible care you should have a happy time.

YOU BORN TODAY are interesting, keen, not always understood nor understanding of others. You have a wealth of talent, a vibrant personality, should steadily develop these and all your other God-given assets since they can add to your security, put you in the way of high achievement and contentment. Don't be averse to sound suggestions, advice or constructive criticism. The truly great are humble and gracious. Avoid impatience, selfishness. Cultivate your best qualities. Birthdate: Thos. 5 "Easy-do" ideas

from Mary Hale Martin

"Tomato Juice on the Rocks"

is a delightfully different appetizer, done this way: freeze Libby's Tomato Juice in ice cube trays. Rub edge of glasses with lemon, dip in chopped parsley, allow to dry. Fill with tomato juice cubes and chilled Libby's Tomato Juice. Compliment-winner! Libby's "gentle press" Tomato Juice is sweet and pure—Canada's favorite, by far!

"Nearly Beans 'n' Meat"

Sauté small pieces of leftover cooked meat with a little chopped onion, green pepper and celery until tender and golden. Add Libby's Deep-Browned Beans and a good dash of Libby's Catchup, and heat thoroughly. Delicious! Get lots of Libby's Deep-Browned Beans next time you shop!

"Dad's Favorite Spaghetti"

Brown ½ pound bulk sausage, add 1 can drained mushrooms, minced onion and salt and pepper. Cook till onion is tender. Add 2 cans Libby's Spaghetti, and heat through. Then serve—and get set for compliments! The real flavor secret is in Libby's special Cheddar cheese sauce—and how men love it!

"Gold-topped Tomatoes"

Halve large tomatoes. Score surfaces in criss-crosses. Salt and pepper and spread with topping made by blending half Libby's Mustard and half mayonnaise (dash of celery salt is a nice addition). Broil till golden, and heated through (about 5 minutes in hot oven).

"Flavoring Tip"

Of all flavoring aids, Libby's Catchup is one of the most popular. Good cooks keep an extra bottle handy to their cooking area, and add it to stews, meat casseroles, chili, spaghetti, beans—even home-made soups! Try it! Libby's Catchup is pure tomato—spiced with restraint!

Libby's fruits are matchless! Double your money back if you don't agree!

Kansas City Impresses Fans With Late Rally

By The Associated Press

Exhibition baseball finally made its way back to major league ball yards Thursday with Kansas City Athletics making themselves at home with a four-run rally in the last of the ninth to beat Brooklyn Dodgers 5-4.

The game drew 8531 fans, 34-degree temperature and a light snow.

A single by Irv Noren, late of New York Yankees, brought home the winning runs for Athletics in a hectic ninth for Dodger right-hander Don Bessent. Three singles loaded the bases with one out and Brooklyn ahead 4-1. Gus Zernial singled for two runs and the tying run then came home when Bessent threw wildly on a roller by Johnny Groth. Noren's clincher followed.

Vic Power, Athletics' first baseman, was knocked out and carried off the field on a stretcher in the fifth inning when hit on the head by an attempted doubleplay throw by Dodgers' shortstop Don Zimmer.

YANKEES LOSE

In other games, Richmond rallied with two runs in the ninth to defeat New York Yankees 6 - 5; Jack Sanford and Angelo Lipetri held Boston to four hits as Philadelphia defeated Red Sox 7 - 1; Pittsburgh Pirates walloped Detroit Tigers 10-2; St. Louis Cardinals whacked southpaw Billy Pierce to whip Chicago White Sox 5-0, and Chicago Cubs outlasted Baltimore 7-6.

The Yankees had home runs by Mickey Mantle and Hank Bauer while coming from behind to give Tom Sturdivant a 5-4 lead going into the ninth. But the champs' farm club tied it on a walk and two singles. Sturdivant gave just four hits until the ninth.

Sanford went the first seven innings for the Phils and gave up only Ted Williams' home run and a single by Gene Mauch. The Phils tagged Boston starter Tom Brewer for four unearned runs. Rip Repulski rapped a two - run homer off reliever Russ Kemmerer.

A three - run homer by Paul Smith and a two-run poke by Dale Long got the job done for the Pirates, who smacked rookie right-hander Don Lee for eight hits in the first five innings. Charlie Maxwell homered with a man on for the Tigers against Dick Hall.

HOMERS HELP

The Cards also used a pair of home runs in touching Pierce for seven hits and three runs in seven frames. Stan Musial and Hobie Landrith supplied the power.

The two-home-run idea paid off for the Cubs, too, with the help of two rally-killing doubleplays. Dee Fondy hit both homers, good for four runs. The Orioles, who lost the spring series to the Cubs 10-8, got something good out of the day, however, with a word that outfielder Bob Nieman had suffered only a bruised shoulder — not a possible fracture — in a tumble during Wednesday's game.

Rookie Bill Voss Paces Regal Win

BRANDON (CP) — Rookie Bill Voss scored two goals and assisted on a third and veteran netminder Lucien Dechene skilfully blanked Edmonton Flyers as the Brandon Regals won 3-0 Thursday night to advance to the Western Hockey League final.

Les Lilley scored the third Brandon goal.

Victory gave the Regals the best-of-seven Prairie final by a 4-1 margin. They took four straight after losing the opener, to win the right to meet the winner of the Seattle-New Westminster playoff in the Coast division.

The Regals, who finished on top of the division in the regular schedule, led 2-0 at the end of the first period on Voss' goals and Lilley completed the scoring in the third.

BRUINS FACE ELIMINATION

White-Hot "Boomer" Paces Habs to Third Win of Set

By W. R. WHEATLEY - Canadian Press Staff Writer

BOSTON (CP) — Montreal Canadiens struck for three big goals in the first period Thursday night, two by Bernie (Boom - Boom) Geoffrion, to roll over Boston Bruins 4-2 and take a 3-0 lead in the Stanley Cup final Canadiens broke in front with an attack that briefly disorganized the Bruins. The Bostonians struck back for the only goal of the second period—their best of the game—and shared goals with the high-riding Canadiens in the third.

Floyd Curry and Phil Goyette added to Geoffrion's two goals and Don McKenney and Fleming Mackell scored for the Bruins.

The Canadiens had too much firepower for the Bruins although the Montrealers were outshot 25-21. The Boston attack most of the time lacked cohesion. The Bruins were subjected to stiff checking and found goalie Jacques Plante of Montreal in top form.

BROKE GAME OPEN

Canadiens hit with an unexpected suddenness in the first period and the Bruins were fighting from behind from there on. They started out playing much the same kind of game as they did in Montreal Teusday, when they were blanked 1-0, and were paying particular attention to checking.

Once Canadiens moved into the lead the Bruins were forced to gamble on a more open offensive, playing all men up during most of the second period and the latter part of the third.

Canadiens now become almost prohibitive favorites to retain the championship they won last year. The fourth game of the best-of-seven series will be played here Sunday.

Geoffrion's two goals Thursday night sent his total to 10 for the playoff series so far, in five games against New York Rangers in the semi-final and three in the final against Boston. Montreal's famous Boomer is only two short of the playoff record of 12 held by his teammates Maurice (Rocket) Richard and Jean Beliveau.

LINE BLANKED

Coach Toe Blake of Canadiens came up with a brand new forward line that proved one of the best on the ice. Andre Pronovost was benched and Blake made up a line of Phil Goyette at centre, Don Marshall—normally a defensive centre — on left wing and Floyd Curry, another defensive forward, on the right-wing attacking spot.

The line accounted for two goals. It played against the Boston line of Cal Gardner at centre and Vic Stasiuk and Johnny Peirson on the wings. The Boston line, about the best trio in the last game in Montreal, failed to figure in the scoring.

Montreal's second big scoring line of the Richard brothers and Dickie Moore seemed unable to get going all night. They were kept tied up by Fleming Mackell, Jerry Toppazzini and Larry Regan and were subjected to heavy bumping.

Twice big Jack Bionda, Boston defenceman, flattened the little Rocket, Henri Richard, and at one time spilled both Maurice, the Big Rocket, and the youngster within a few seconds.

BERNIE GEOFFRION

BOOM-BOOM FAST

The Boston threat of bumping Canadiens into submission at the start of the game failed to materialize against the quick scoring thrusts the Montrealers unleashed.

Smith, Jacobs Severely Hurt In PCL Opener

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Two Hollywood baseball players were severely injured Thursday in an opening game of the Pacific Coast League season.

Shortstop Dick Smith and second baseman Forrest Jacobs collided in attempting to field a bloop fly hit by San Diego's Crawford Davidson in the third inning.

They were taken to hospital and attendants reported Smith had a fractured jaw and Jacobs a possible skull fracture.

LAYCOE DESPAIRS AS ROYALS DROP FOR FRIDAY GAME

NEW WESTMINSTER (CP) — New Westminster Royals aren't looking forward to their fifth game against Seattle Americans in their Western Hockey League Coast Division final Friday.

A despairing Hal Laycoe, manager-coach of the Royals, says goodbye to three defencemen after the match — because they will have played their third and final game as amateurs. They are Vernon's Ted Lebioda and Tom Stecyk, and John Yanchuk of Vancouver.

Lebioda and Stecyk will not turn pro and there is no help in sight for the Royals' thin defence line. Appeals to Al Leader, president of the WHL, have been in vain, Laycoe says.

Tall Danish Star Stops Eddie Choong

SPOKANE, Wash (AP) — Tall Finn Kobbero of Denmark displayed tremendous power Thursday night in beating fleet-footed Eddie Choong of Malaya, 15-10, 2-15, 15-4, to retain his men's singles crown in the United States open badminton tournament.

In the night's opening final, red-haired Judy Devlin of Owings Mills, Md., defended her women's singles title by sweeping to a surprisingly easy 11-2, 11-0 victory over Margaret Varner of Baltimore.

Kobbero, 21-year-old son of a Danish newspaper man, combined his terrific backhands with sharp angle shots to clinch the final game and retain the title he won at Philadelphia last year.

LATE BASKET TIES SET

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Cliff Hagan's last-second tip-in lifted the hustling St. Louis Hawks past the favored Boston Celtics 96 - 94 Thursday night, sending the National Basketball Association championship playoff into a deciding seventh game.

FLYERS AWAIT EASTERN CHAMP

FORT WILLIAM (CP) — Spokane Flyers, Western Canada senior hockey champions, left here Thursday for North Bay, Ont., where they will train while waiting for an Eastern champion to be named.

The eastern best-of-seven final between North Bay Trappers and Whitby Dunlops now is tied 1-1. The remaining games in this series will be played at North Bay.

HORNETS EVEN SEMI-FINALS WITH 4-1 WIN

MEDICINE HAT (CP) — Gravelbourg Hornets defeated Kimberley Dynamiters 4-1 here Thursday night before 1100 fans to deadlock their western Canada intermediate hockey semi-final at two wins apiece.

The deciding game of the best of five series will be played here Saturday night.

Gravelbourg snipers were Bill Papps, Mike Fankow, Wally Blaisdell and Tom Donahue. Barry Craig counted for Kimberley.

The Saskatchewan champions were never behind, going ahead 1-0 in the first period. The second was scoreless and Hornets took a 3-0 lead in the third before Dynamiters got their lone counter. Hornets added another before the game ended.

Governor Grants Betting Boosts

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Governor Harriman signed legislation Thursday granting New York's thoroughbred race tracks an additional $40,000,000 in pari - mutuel betting receipts.

The measure also increases the legal racing season in the state to 210 from 197 days.

It was sought by the Greater New York Association, which operates the four flat tracks, as a means of financing a multi - million - dollar reconstruction program that includes a "dream track" at Aqueduct.

Former Champ's Tax Problems May Soon Be Only Nightmares

CHICAGO (AP)—Joe Louis' income tax problem received a series of body blows Thursday that may send his special torment to the canvas for the final count.

In New York, United States Commissioner Russell Harrington of the Internal Revenue Service said in a television appearance that Louis may be able to settle his income tax problems very soon. Joe's taxes mount at the rate fo $287 a day because of interest.

"We're working on that now, and we hope to get that settled very soon," Harrington said. He gave no details.

Louis owes the government more than $1,200,000.

He starts Monday in a new enterprise that will bring him $1000 an appearance from a chain of mid-western super-markets.

He will demonstrate self-defence to children and give each boy a copy of his new booklet on boxing.

"It depends how the first store works out," said Joe. "I hope this juvenile program will grow into a national thing."

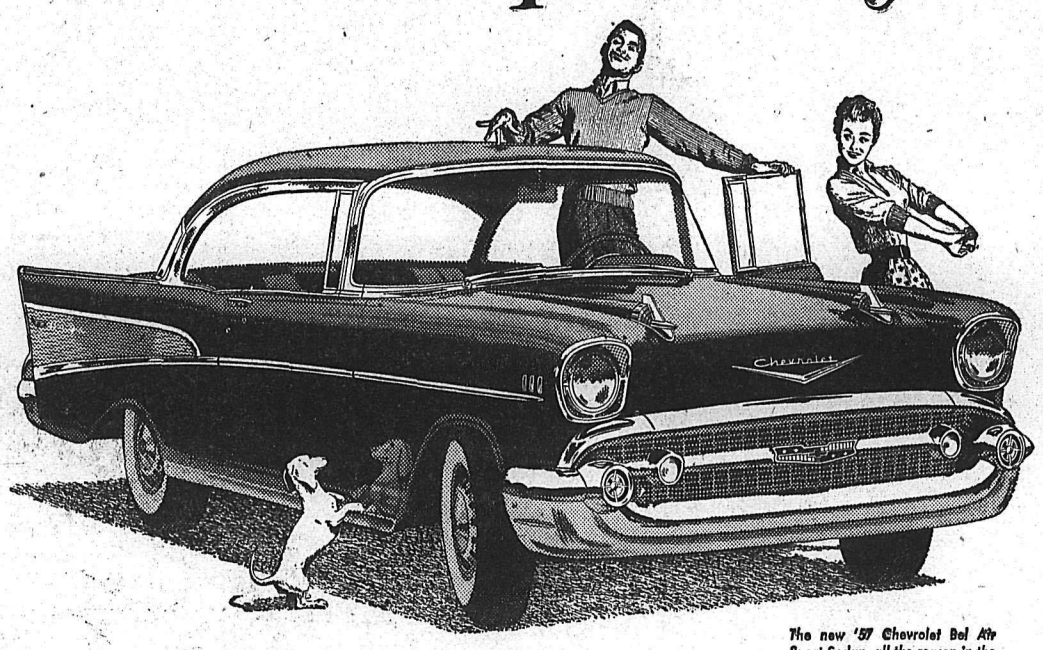
It gives you more to be proud of!



The new '57 Chevrolet Bel Air Sport Sedan, all the reason in the world to hold your head higher!

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

Not just the way it looks, but the way it's put together — the finer materials, workmanship and finishing touches. Not just its friskier, smoother performance, but the deep-down soundness that's special to Chevrolet in the low-price field. Try it out and you'll see it's Sweet, Smooth and Sassy.

You name it. The new '57 Chevrolet has more of it . . . inside, outside and underneath that Body by Fisher. There's a finer ride, smoother performance and a sweeter way of going. For there's a finer balance, a more solid construction, so that great Chevrolet 6 or V8 engine can "get with it" more efficiently, delivering up to 245* h.p. (and so quietly). Chevrolet, you know, won the famous Manufacturer's Trophy as the best performing car at Daytona Beach competitive trials.

There's more luxury, too, more to be just plain proud of. For there's more attention to detail. In Chevrolet, body panels fit snugly. The chrome trim is on to stay. Interiors have the smartness of the custom touch. Everywhere you look in a Chevy, you find the obvious marks of extra care, even to a quiet limousine "click" when you close those big solid doors!

Come on in! Get a close-up of all there is to enjoy in this exciting Chevrolet!

*Optional at extra cost. 270 h.p. high-performance V8 engine also available at extra cost.

Nelson – Fruitvale

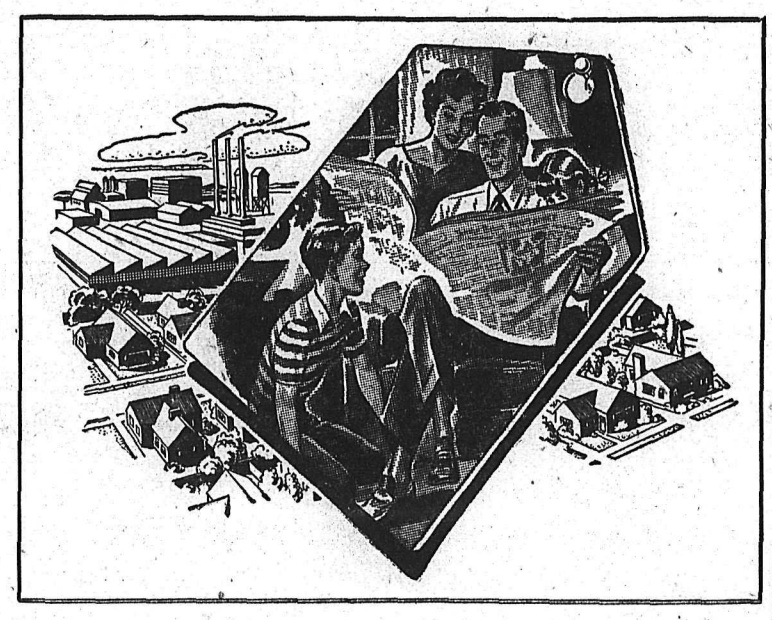
LIBERTY THANKS YOU!

Mrs. Nelson and Fruitvale . . .

WE ARE MOST APPRECIATIVE OF YOUR LOYALTY AND PATRONAGE

Now, at the start of the New Liberty in Fruitvale and our new modern Meat Department addition in Nelson, you find yourself reflecting on the months gone by and are thankful for the many good things that have come to you and your family.

But today, it is only natural that your hopes for the future grow . . . and that you look forward to this year of 1957 as one with even greater aspirations for good health, good fortune and many pleasant friendships.



We, your friends and neighbors at the Liberty, are meditating too. We are thankful for the abundance of food in this land of plenty. We are thankful that because of our tremendous buying power, we have been able to offer you the finest quality foods at the lowest possible prices, and above all, we are thankful to have been of service to you and yours.

Today, especially, it is fitting that we renew our 18-year pledge of maintaining high quality standards, low prices, famous brands and courteous service in every Liberty store. We know that you consider the Liberty store in your neighborhood as YOUR store . . . and we believe, that the only way we can continue to grow is to carefully consider your every food and service need.

. . . therefore,

WE RESOLVE TO BRING YOU:

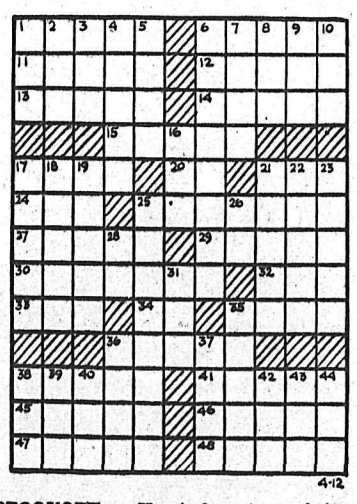
Yesterday's Answer



DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

The range of gains and losses went from fractions to about two points.

Rising Canadian stocks included Canadian Pacific, up ¼ on sales of 11,600 shares and Walker-Gooderham, up 1. Lower were Distillers-Seagrams, down ⅛ on sales of 1700 shares, McIntyre 1½, Aluminium Ltd. 1⅛, Hudson Bay mining ½ and Dome Mines ⅛.

TORONTO (CP) — The stock *market closed mixed after a ses*sion of uninteresting trading with the exception of a few selected industrials.

The industrial index was virtually unchanged from the previous session while base metals lost one - half point and western oils one-quarter of a point.

Feature of the industrial section was the activity in A. V. Roe. The stock gained ⅞ at 18¾ amid a turnover of 25,635 shares, heaviest volume among higher - priced industrials in months. In the previous three months of this year the combined volume on Avro was 27,017 shares.

Canadian Representatives To Hold Prominent Place at Milan Meeting

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor

Canadians, increasingly active in the affairs of the International Chamber of Commerce, will have a substantial round of speaking engagements and other official activities at the chamber's May congress in Naples.

They will also see a lot of Italy.

The Canadian representation will number more than 70, including 39 delegates, many of whom will be accompanied by their wives, and 54 of the group will leave Montreal April 22 for Milan by chartered plane.

In Milan they will meet with Italian business men, visit the international trade fair and be guests at a reception given by the president of the Milan Chamber of Commerce.

R. C. Berkinshaw of Toronto, president of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and president of the Canadian Council of the Chamber, and Paul Bienvenu of Montreal, president of Catelli Food Products, will speak in English and French for the delegation and a presentation will be made to the Milan Chamber.

TOUR VENICE

Following the Milan visit, a large part of the group will tour northern Italy, including visits to Venice and Florence.

They will spend May 1 to May 5 in Rome, where meetings of the senior administrative bodies of the International Chamber will be held, and the Congress proper will be held in Naples May 6-11.

Theme of the Congress will be New Factors of Economic Progress. Major discussion subjects will include international co-operation for economic development; problems of insufficiently developed countries; obstacles to free flow of trade; the common market for Europe; economic repercussions of automation; and world monetary and trade problems.

CANADIAN SPEAKERS

Canadian speakers will include: R. D. Harkness, Montreal, president Northern Electric Company, on Impact of Automation; C. Bruce Hill, St. Catharines, Ont., president of E. T. F. Tools, on The Role of International Fairs and Shows in the Expansion of Multilateral Trade; H. H. Lank, Montreal, president, DuPont Company of Canada, on Market Research, an Instrument of Business Management; and Yvon R. Tasse, Quebec, general manager, trade and industrial bureau of Greater Quebec, on Higher Profits Through Improved Purchase and Stock Controls.

Mr. Tasse will also be co-chairman of the meeting at which he will speak.

Thomas Oakley, Toronto, vice-president, Oakley, Jackson and Farewell, will be co-chairman at a meeting with the topic Towards a Free Multi-lateral System of International Trade; and Howard N. Walters, Vancouver, vice-president, Pleasant Valley Gas and Oil Company, will co-chair a meeting of the international information bureau of chambers of commerce.

About 1500 people from 34 countries are expected to attend the Naples meeting. The chamber, formed in 1919, has its headquarters in Paris and holds a general congress every two years. The last congress was in Tokyo in 1955. Its only Canadian congress was in Quebec in 1949.

Strachan Blasts Bennett In "Contempt" Charge

VICTORIA (CP) — Opposition Leader Robert Strachan, Wednesday night damned Premier Bennett for holding the people of B.C. for their Legislature in contempt.

"Whether they intend to or not, this government is departing more and more from democratic process and is holding the Parliament of the people in greater contempt," he told a public meeting of the CCF Association.

CITES INSTANCES

Mr. Strachan said he had never made the "contempt" charge before, but cited these instances from the recently-completed session to back it up:

Removal by Cabinet of former sergeant at arms Edgar Jamieson, appointed by the Legislature, and removing a right of members to determine whether Jamieson "had been guilty of a breach of faith;"

Premier Bennett's stoppage of debate on the contentious Stewart-Cassiar road issue — "proving this government is not adverse to sweeping something under the rug, anytime they think they are in trouble;"

No throne speech, budget speech or estimates mention was made of aid to UBC, but later announcement of matching grants with industry, without legislative authority, setting "a new concept of university financing;"

Premier Bennett's statement at a political meeting of planned Squamish development, "the day after the House prorogued."

"This is even more damning because he was so upset over Jimmy Sinclair's (Federal Fisheries Minister James Sinclair) statement on federal aid to damming the Columbia," Mr. Strachan added. "The premier almost wept, and I agreed with him that the amenities hadn't been preserved.

"Now I damn him just as he damned Jimmy Sinclair."

If nothing seems to help, if other methods have failed you, give nature a chance and try Kellogg's All-Bran. All-Bran restores the natural laxative bulk you need daily to avoid irregularity. No miracles, no secret ingredients—just good old-fashioned bran doing the job nature intended it to. We recommend a bowl a day served with milk. Kellogg's—the original, ready-to-eat bran cereal with the wonderful bran muffin flavor. Inexpensive, nutritious, effective. Eat All-Bran for 10 days. If not entirely satisfied, return empty carton and get twice what you paid.

Book To Mark B.C. Centennial Year

VANCOUVER (CP) — A 500-page book, to mark British Columbia's centennial year in 1958, is scheduled to be on the market by August.

Advance orders for copies have come from a number of countries and areas in the United States and Canada, a spokesman for the firm reported.

He said the book is being published this year to give the centennial advance publicity.

WAR-WHOOPS and happy smiles were evidenced throughout the "Cavalcade to Calgary" which ended when the majority returned home Wednesday. Taking time out from their round of civic functions and festivities, almost the entire group is making a travesty of the game of curling, which, along with the Nelson Diamond Jubilee, was the purpose of the trip. Back row, left to right, are Chris Trykla, Bob Richardson, Jack Bailey, Gordon Olson and Vic Owen. Mayor Joseph Kary is wearing a tam o' shanter similar to those he distributed at points along the way. Surrounding his worship are an unknown Calgarian and two recognizable Nelson aldermen—Clare Blakeman and Bill Ramsay. Kneeling beside Gene Bodard are Jack MacMillan, Don Appleton, Frank Beresford and Henry Stevenson. John Erb is peering over Beresford's head. Fire Chief Elwin Owens is attempting to prove that new brooms do sweep clean.

B.C. Tree Fruits Expect Big Crop

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — Officials of B.C. Tree Fruits said Thursday a heavy crop of apricots and apples can be expected this year.

Barring Spring frosts, apricot prospects are excellent and a record crop is anticipated, the selling agency said.

Although it was too early to make specific forecasts about apples, ideal winter conditions should make for a much heavier crop than the light yield produced in 1956.

Peaches, too, should go 55 to 60 per cent heavier than last year, while prunes would run about the same as 1956. Pears should yield a "full crop" with Bartletts possibly running 25 to 30 per cent higher than last year.

B.C. Tree Fruits said the 1956 apple crop should be marketed by May 15. Holdings total 214,000 boxes of Winesaps, but orders are on hand for most of them. Last week, 30,000 boxes were shipped. Prices continue satisfactory, officials said.

Movie Gossip...

Handsome George Nader Trounces Hollywood Men's Fashion Styles

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"Men are becoming sheep — just like women — in the field of fashion."

This cold statement comes from George Nader, the handsome, wavy-haired actor. The whole thing came up when his studio suggested that George get a crewcut for his role in The Dark Shore.

"I play an engineer in the picture so they thought I would look more natural in a crewcut," he said. "Ridiculous! Do all engineers wear crewcuts? Of course not."

That started him on a tirade against the Ivy League styles for men, which are all the rage these days. He spoke of the unpadded shoulders, the tiny lapels, the bold-striped shirts with extra button on the back of the collar, the charcoal and other drab colors.

ALL LOOK ALIKE

"I get a kick out of all the actors jumping on the bandwagon with the Ivy League styles," George said. "The fact is that there's only one guy who looks good in them. That's Cary Grant, the others look terrible.

"Most men don't have the figures for Ivy League clothes. They are designed for boys, not men. But now men are abandoning their independence and following the fashions blindly. They end up like the women — all looking alike and most of them looking pretty bad."

Nader, who has made three pictures abroad, said that the European women who can afford it dress more sensibly. They have the sense not to follow fashion too closely, he observed, but to find the style that suits them best and stick with it.

ANOTHER AFFECTATION

If he's anti-Ivy League, Nader also takes a strong stand against the soiled T-shirt school of dress that has been fashionable in Hollywood.

"That's equally an affectation," he said. "There's nothing quite so repulsive as a slovenly character who doesn't look clean. When I'm at home, I like to wear a sport shirt with denims and jeans. But whenever I'm out some place where I'm appearing as a movie performer, I want to look as well-groomed as I can."

Alberta Gov't Calls In Official Gazette

OTTAWA (CP) — The Alberta government is rounding up all copies of its official Gazette in which locations of 15 radar sites on the mid-Canada warning line were published, it was learned here Thursday.

It is understood nearly all copies of the Alberta Gazette containing this information have been withdrawn from circulation but that a few have not yet been run down.

Federal government sources here said the information got into the Alberta Gazette through an oversight and that no legal action is planned, though technically the Alberta government committed a security breach.

Ladysmith To Mark 49th Parallel

LADYSMITH, B.C. (CP)—The City of Ladysmith plans to erect a stone cairn to mark the spot where the 49th Parallel runs through the city, President Stephen Findlay told the Chamber of Commerce. Members heartily endorsed the proposal and will offer assistance if needed.

A plaque will identify the cairn, and "49th Parallel" will be inscribed on it.

The city has acquired the property from the government on a 25-year-lease and proposes to develop it into a small park site. The Canadian Legion hopes to transfer its memorial to the park.
