Reserves Called to Fight Fires Following Lightning Displays

50-Mile-an-Hour Winds Fan Flames

KAMLOOPS, B.C. (CP)—Shock troops and reserves Friday night were being mustered in many parts of British Columbia to battle a savage onslaught of new forest fires following a severe lightning storm.

The storm, accompanied by 30- to 50-miles-an-hour winds, cut a 400-by-50-mile swath through valuable stands of pine, spruce, hemlock and fir Thursday night. More than 50 new outbreaks had forest protection officers reeling.

The storm struck an area from Tweedsmuir Park in the cattle-rich Cariboo country, 310 miles northwest of Vancouver, southeastward to Penticton, in the heart of the fruit-growing Okanagan Valley, 150 air miles east of Vancouver.

The situation was the same in both the Prince Rupert and Kamloops forest districts.

SITUATION CRITICAL

"Everything seemed to explode Thursday night," said Tegid Jones, forestry spokesman at Smithers.

Norm McRae, assistant Kamloops forester, said here "the situation is extremely critical . . . worse now than it has been all summer."

The storm came at a time when the manpower and machine situation in the Prince George and Prince Rupert districts reached the critical stage.

Forest service officials said the 2,522 fire fighters who have been working in the districts for weeks without time off are under great strain.

"Many of the men are bone-tired," said Jones. "They've been out on the fire lines working 24 hours a day for three weeks and need a rest and help. We are putting together new crews."

The crews are volunteers. There has been no conscription in the area.

Pilots of the essential water bombers are also feeling the strain after hours in the air. Many of their aircraft are soon due for overhaul and there are no replacements.

A total of 696 men, assisted by 62 tractors, were fighting 161 fires, 44 of them the result of the Thursday night storm, in the Kamloops district.

Two logging camps, owned by H. J. Gardner and Sons Ltd., were destroyed during the night when winds fanned two "spot-sized" fires between Horsefly Lake and Horsefly River, 20 miles south of here, into a 15,000-acre inferno.

In the Tweedsmuir Park district, the 30,000-acre Iliguk fire was reported crowning — flames jumping from treetop to treetop. It was burning through second-growth pine and spruce on a six-to-eight mile front and stretched back 20 miles.

Five ranches lay in the path of the conflagration, three miles from its most advanced section. A huge fire guard, stretching for three miles along the front of the blaze appeared to be holding the fire.

"But with the fire entering a crowning phase, things could change quickly," said Mr. Jones. "A second guard now is being cut closer to the ranches."

Cattle in the district have been moved to safety.

In all, 856 men manned the fire lines of 61 fires burning in the Prince Rupert district. Sixteen aircraft, including five water-bombers, more than 50 tractors and several trucks have also been pressed into service.

The Prince George district—one that covers one-third of B.C.'s physical area — held its own during the night despite high winds. No new outbreaks were reported and more than 1,700 men continued to bolster defences at 89 fires.

Red Guards Fire Warning Shots

Ulbricht Claims Right To Control Access Routes

CP from Reuters-AP

BERLIN — Scattered incidents were reported on the East-West border Friday as East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht came out with new threats to allied access to West Berlin.

Ulbricht declared all Western "intervention" must go and claimed the right to take control of the access routes — land, water and air — after the signing of a German peace treaty with Russia.

Meanwhile the Associated Press reported that Communist guards fired warning shots to scare away about 30 West Berliners who had crowded to the barbed-wire barrier in the French sector.

The warning rattle of sub-machine-gun fire came after a guard warned the crowd to "go back 100 metres or we will shoot."

GAS THROWN

A West Berlin police spokesman said East Berlin police in another incident Friday night used a water cannon and threw tear gas grenades at a crowd near the border in the U.S. sector.

The spokesman said the West Berliners gathered to jeer the East Berlin police after a group of U.S. soldiers had withdrawn from the border. West Berlin police dispersed the crowd.

A U.S. army spokesman said the U.S. troops had not in fact been withdrawn. "The companies rotate on a 12-hour basis. This must have happened when one group left and before the next one arrived."

The spokesman said there had been no incidents reported from any point along the 16-mile U.S. sector border.

Ulbricht called on President Kennedy to "let West Germany out of NATO and give West Germans something of freedom from foreign occupation and intervention."

Want Churchill 'Kicked Upstairs'

WOODFORD, England (AP) — Admirers of Sir Winston Churchill sprang to his defence Friday against a campaign led by the Woodford Guardian to turn him out of the House of Commons as to old and unrepresentative of his constituency.

The paper suggested the 86-year-old statesman should be elevated to the House of Lords —kicked upstairs, in effect—because he rarely appears in the Commons now. Moreover, he lives elsewhere although he has represented this district in the eastern London outskirts continually since 1924.

Under British law, legislators don't have to be residents of the areas they represent.

The counter-attack was led Friday night by Percy Moll, chairman of the Woodford Conservative Club, who dismissed demands for Churchill's retirement as out of tune with local wishes.

"One or two cranks do say they think the old man should give way," he said. "But as far as we are concerned, we think he has done so much that we will never turn him out."

Wage Scales Agreed On

KAMLOOPS (CP) — Uniform wage scales and working conditions for lay employees in five interior hospitals were agreed upon in recently-concluded negotiations, it was announced here.

It is believed it is the first time in B.C. that all hospitals in a region have agreed to uniform conditions.

The staffs of all hospitals will receive a two per cent wage increase this year and Royal Inland workers will get three per cent more effective Jan. 1 and the other four hospitals will receive four per cent.

The changes affect Kamloops, Penticton Hospital, Kelowna General, Vernon Jubilee and Queen Victoria at Revelstoke.

The uniform wage schedule will apply to all hospital employees hired after July 1. The wage rates were not available.

Real Estate Fraud May Affect 50

VANCOUVER (CP) — Police said Friday almost 50 persons could have been defrauded of $1,000,000 in real eastate deals.

They said evidence points to 17 persons being defrauded of $550,000 and they have yet to interview 30 more alleged victims which could swell the total past $1,000,000.

Fraud charges would likely be laid next week and civil actions may be brought.

The frauds are said to involve apartments and motels throughout the city which changed hands for small amounts of cash and shares now claimed to be useless.

Three directors of eight companies were involved in the investigation.

Police said one man complained he turned over property worth $130,000 for which he was to receive a registered mortgage against a downtown motel. He also received 58,000 shares in two companies.

The man said the mortgage was never registered, his money was gone and he now was living in a single room.

A woman reported that her husband suffered a heart attack and died when they found that a $48,000 equity in a motel they turned over was lost. The woman now was living on social assistance.

William A. Craig, a lawyer hired by the attorney-general's department to oversee the investigation, said in many cases individuals acted against the advice of their lawyers.

76,500 Put On Active Duty

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. defence department Friday ordered 76,500 army, navy and air force reservists to active duty, most of them on Oct. 1.

The call-up was announced by Defence Secretary Robert McNamara at a press conference.

It applies to 46,500 army, 6400 navy and 23,600 air force personnel.

Two Policemen Escape Disease

RICHMOND, Ind. (AP) — Two city policemen, exposed to spinal meningitis by their mouth-to-mouth resuscitation work Sunday, were at work in apparent good health Friday.

Doctors had said this would be the day patrolmen John Geiger, 30, and Collins Dickerson, 29, would become ill if they caught the disease from one-month-old Mark Green.

The disease has a five-day incubation period.

The patrolmen revived the baby, but he died a day later. The policemen have been taking sulpha pills since the baby's ailment was found to have been spinal meningitis and they were instructed to report to their doctors immediately in case of fever or pain.

Also under medication is Dickerson's two-year-old son, Kevin, who drank from his father's iced tea glass before Dickerson knew he had been exposed to the deadly disease.

B.C. Firefighters "Just Can't Win"

VICTORIA (CP) — Fires are flaring up in British Columbia forests faster than timber crews can put them out.

A forest service report here Friday said firefighters quelled 527 fires in the last week. But 559 new outbreaks occurred during the same period.

"We just can't win," said an official.

Cost of waging the fire war increased by $814,000 during the week for a season total of $2,591,000. It compares with a cost of $4,467,604 at this time last year.

UN Demands France Withdraw Troops

UNITED NATIONS (AP) — Without a single dissenting voice, the UN General Assembly demanded Friday night that France pull her troops back into her base at Bizerte and negotiate to give the base up to Tunisia.

The assembly adopted a resolution to that effect by a vote of 66 to 0 with 30 abstentions. Three countries were absent.

But France had served notice that she would ignore any decision the assembly reached, and she boycotted the five-day special session that led up to the vote.

Her North American allies split on the roll call. Denmark, Iceland, Norway and Turkey voted for the proposal. The United States, Canada and others in the alliance abstained.

VOTES YES

Others voting in the affirmative were the European neutrals, the nine-nation Soviet block, six Latin-American countries and all Afro-Asian countries except Japan, which abstained.

An overwhelming majority also ignored a U.S. warning that adopting such a specific proposal might make negotiations harder to get.

The resolution was sponsored by Yugoslavia and 31 Afro-Asian countries. Adopted just as it was introduced Monday, it said the assembly:

1. Reaffirms the Security Council's July 22 resolution, which called on France and Tunisia to withdraw to July 19 pre-fighting position, and "urges the government of France to implement" that decision fully.

2. "Recognize the sovereign right of Tunisia to call for the withdrawal of all French armed forces present on its territory without its consent."

3. "Calls upon . . . France and Tunisia to enter into immediate negotiations" to devise measures for the withdrawal of all French forces from Tunisia—which would mean French evacuation of the Bizerte base.

200 Families Evacuated As Fire Gains Ground

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Two hundred families in the community of Glenwood, 15 miles west of Gander, were being evacuated Friday night in the face of a new forest fire onslaught.

There were also reports the residents of the towns of Clarenville, Milton and Shoal Harbor, all on Placentia Bay, had started to leave their homes because of dense smoke from a fire 70 miles away.

A forest ranger said they had not been ordered out by authorities but residents had decided themselves to leave. Clarenville, the largest of the towns, has a population of about 1,200.

The women and children of Glenwood were being taken by bus to Gander along the Trans-Canada Highway, open only to emergency traffic.

PRIME TIMBER BURNS

The fire which threatened Glenwood was the Neil's Brook blaze which burned through almost four miles of prime spruce stands Friday.

The same fire burned through transmission lines carrying electricity to Gander from Rattling Brook. Gander and its huge international airport were operating on emergency generators.

More than 200 soldiers move into the Glenwood fire area Friday. Officials describe it as potentially the most serious in the province. Unless it is contained soon, it will be within range of Gander and the central Newfoundland airport town will be menaced from two sides.

Friday night a fire about five miles east of the town was burning out of control — as it has been for several days—but the wind was driving the flames from the town.

ROAD LINK CUT

Gander was virtually cut off by road from the east. RCMP-escorted convoys of firefighting equipment and men were the only traffic getting through. The town is jammed with evacuees from communities on Bonavista Bay.

Heavy smoke hung over all eastern Newfoundland. By 2 p.m. Friday in St. John's and many other places, the smoke was so bad cars were moving with lights on.

Army headquarters were set up at Gander with Lt.-Col. M. H. Batemen, officer commanding the Royal Canadian Dragoons, directing the firefighting operations. Over-all commander will be Brig. S. E. E. Morres, acting officer commanding the army's Eastern Command. The army equipment included three single-engine spotting planes.

Resources Minister Keough of Newfoundland ordered all male civil servants to stand by for possible firefighting action during the weekend. They were ordered to stay within sound of their radios. This action follows Premier Smallwood's declaration of state of emergency Thursday.

PM Hints at Military Buildup

OTTAWA (CP) — An increase in the armed forces manpower ceiling and higher expenditures for both military and civilian equipment and supplies may be among the defence projects to be recommended to Parliament when it resumes its session Sept. 7.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker said after a cabinet meeting Friday — the fourth this week — the government has concluded the general phase of its study of Canadian preparedness in light of the Berlin crisis.

He declined to comment on the crisis itself, apparently unwilling to add Canadian comment to an already tight diplomatic situation, and said he could not spell out details of the government's program yet.

There was a proper time and place for doing that, he told reporters. Thursday, he said the cabinet would be recommending additional appropriations when the House of Commons comes back from its seven-week summer recess Sept. 7.

Bank Sues Gouzenko

TORONTO (CP) — Igor Gouzenko, former clerk in the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa who exposed a Russian spy ring in 1945, is being sued by the Bank of Montreal.

The bank is suing for $1808.47 in principal and $41.40 in interest on six promissory notes given the bank. The bank also seeks other charges and interest on an overdraft.

A writ issued Thursday described Gouzenko as living in York County. Since 1945 he has been living in seclusion under another name. It is believed only the RCMP know his name and address.

Five Killed In Explosion

The victims, all civil service employees, were not identified.

The cause of the explosion was not immediately known. Those killed composed an entire crew working in the area at the time.

DOLLAR UNCHANGED

NEW YORK (CP) — Canadian dollar unchanged at 96 31-32 in terms of U.S. funds. Week ago 97 3-64.

Pound sterling 1-16 lower at $2.80 19-64.

MONTREAL (CP) — The U.S. dollar closed Friday at a premium of 3 5-32 per cent in terms of Canadian funds, up 1-32.

PENTICTON (CP)—A memorial service will be held in the United Church here Saturday for W. E. Budgeon. The man disappeared and is presumed drowned in Skaha Lake following an apparent boating accident. Police have given up efforts to recover the body.

Beds in Hospital Corridors Banned

PRINCE GEORGE (CP) — Prince George regional hospital has instructed its administrator not to allow beds to be placed in the hospital's corridors.

The directive, requested by Administrator Gordon Townsend stated: "On no account must there be occupancy of beds in corridors."

Last spring, there were as many as 30 patients sleeping in corridor beds in the 125-bed hospital, resulting in at least three warnings from the provincial fire marshal's department ordering Townsend to clear the hallways or face a stiff fine.

A deadline set for June 30 was met, but the hospital's medical and surgical wards have been operating at 100 per cent occupancy since.

The hospital has been pressing the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service for completion of unfinished areas which would provide space for an additional 38 beds.

Diefenbaker Sends 1000 Soldiers To Fight Fires

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister Diefenbaker Friday ordered more than 1,000 soldiers into combat against Newfoundland forest fires.

An initial force of 222 troops landed at Newfoundland's Gander Airport Friday aboard RCAF transport planes as the federal government responded quickly to an urgent call for help from the stricken island province.

The decision to add more than another 1000 men to the initial contribution was made after a second plea from the Newfoundland government.

A 410-man group was set up from Camp Gagetown, N.B. More Gagetown men and a force from Camp Valcartier, Que., were being equipped for an airlift of a further 400 men today and Sunday.

The soldiers are equipped with gear for forest fire work and have tents and mobile kitchens to make them self-supporting and able to move into any region.

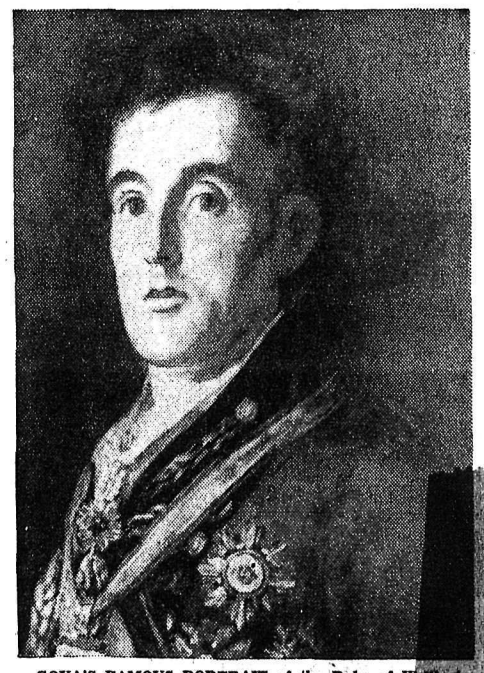
MINISTERS FLY IN

Three cabinet ministers also were en route by air to the fire scene along with seven federal fire-fighting experts and eight fire-fighting foremen from the National Parks Service.

Mr. Diefenbaker told reporters after a cabinet meeting that the moves were taken after a personal call from Premier Smallwood asked federal aid in battling one of the worst forest fire situations ever to face a Canadian province.

An army spokesman said units across the country have been put on the alert to have all available fire-fighting gear set to move and army bases have been told to keep troops on a standby basis.

"We feel the sympathy of all Canadians goes out to the people of Newfoundland," Mr. Diefenbaker said. "We want to do everything we can, consistent with proper requests."



GOYA'S FAMOUS PORTRAIT of the Duke of Wellington, purchased as a national treasure by the people of England, has been stolen from its hanging place in the National Gallery in London. Suspect IWA Behind Fires

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Premier Smallwood of Newfoundland said Friday "most of the Newfoundland people believe the IWA is behind many of the fires" burning in the province's forests.

The IWA is the International Woodworkers of America (CLC) decertified as bargaining agent for Newfoundland's 15,000 loggers during a 1959 woods strike.

H. Landon Ladd of Toronto, eastern director of the IWA, said in an interview with radio station CJON here that he was "astounded that the premier would give even lip service to such an outrageous statement. It is a very cruel hoax on the Newfoundland people."

Mr. Smallwood was asked in an interview whether he thought some of the province's fires were deliberately set.

The premier said it didn't matter what he personally believed but he said he knew what most Newfoundlanders believed.

"It doesn't matter what I think, but I know that most of the Newfoundland people believe the IWA is behind many of the fires."

Asked for elaboration, Mr. Smallwood said, "Isn't that enough?"

Mr. Ladd told CJON that the premier's statement was "another case where he seeks temporary gain by trying to raise the wrath of the Newfoundland people against the loggers and their IWA union."

The IWA was replaced during the 1959 strike by the Newfoundland Brotherhood of Woodsworkers but recently has been attempting a comeback in the province.

And in This Corner . . .

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here's one bright note on the international scene. The Soviet Embassy here isn't building an atomic bomb shelter.

"Of course not," second secretary Ivan P. Azarov said Friday. "We rely completely on the American government for protection."

Notre Dame College Addition Springs Up

Work is going ahead at a fast clip on the construction of a second and third floor to Bonaventure Hall at Notre Dame College with the first posts set in place Friday for the walls of the third floor—exactly one week after the first lumber was unloaded last Friday.

Twenty carpenters and eight helpers, working directly for Notre Dame College which is acting as contractor, are speeding the job to completion for occupation at the commencement of the fall term.

The carpenters are local men and working under direction of Ted and Wayne Abercrombie, foremen, and Norbert Doyle, construction superintendent, all of Vancouver.

Notre Dame College is employing the men.

The building should be finished to the point of constructing the roof about one week from Wednesday, Ted Abercrombie said.

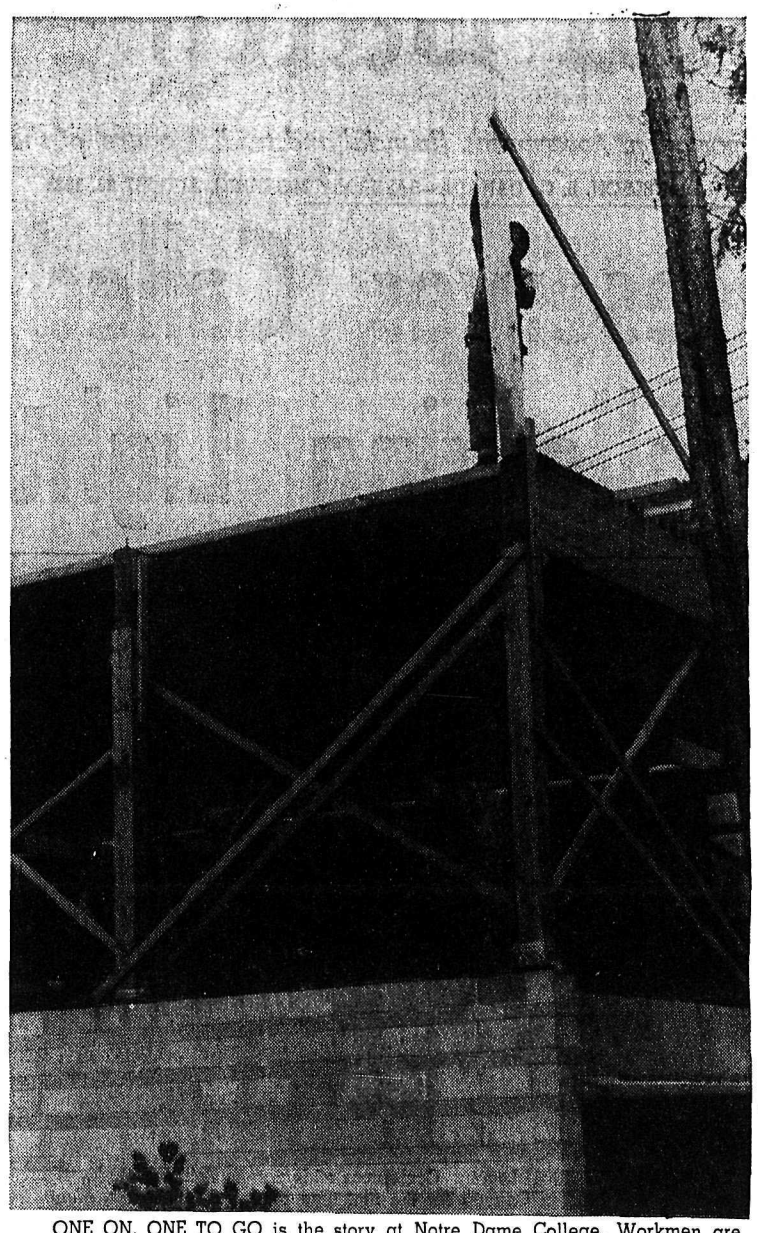
Norbert Doyle was builder of the men's residence on the campus. It was started in March of this year and painters are putting the finishing touches on now. Floor tile is also being completed. Work on the college is aided by the surrounding terrain. The high bank surrounding two sides of the building enabled the construction of a 100-foot ramp to the second storey.

One stairwell, at the south end, was already completed for two stories. The other was begun from the basement after carpenters cut a hole in the existing building.

The additional space will provide increased library and recreational facilities. Addition of the two storeys is part of an over-all program of expansion by the college, which included the renovation of the old hospital nurses' residence into a dormitory.



ONE ON, ONE TO GO is the story at Notre Dame College. Workmen are seen setting first post in place for third floor while carpenters still swarm around the newly-added second floor. Lumber for the two-storey addition was unloaded just a week ago, and aim of the college is to finish the job in time for the fall term.—Daily News photo.

Pair Chooses Trial by Judge

Two Americans charged before Stipendiary Magistrate William Evans with three separate offences of theft, Friday elected trial by judge without jury.

William H. Geist and Richard M. Staneslawski, both U. S. citizens, are charged with theft of mine equipment.

Geist's bail was set at $600. Staneslawski has already been convicted on another charge of theft on which he was given three months in jail.

Allan P. Matovich of Trail was fined $20 when he pleaded guilty of speeding at Apex.

William W. Poznekoff of Nelson was fined $10 for speeding at Fruitvale.

A. E. Jarvis of Nelson was fined $15 for speeding on the North Shore.

In juvenile court, a juvenile was fined $10 for failure to produce an insurance card.

Another juvenile was fined $20 and had his licence suspended for three months when convicted of careless driving. He hit another car that was stopped for a traffic light on Baker Street, court was told.

Logging Conference Visitors Tour Celgar, Dine at Golf Club

A group of 30 persons, 15 board members, wives and children, attending the two-day Intermountain Logging Conference here Friday attended a luncheon and toured the Celgar Ltd. pulp mill, completed a business meeting, and had a supper and social evening at the Nelson Golf and Country Club.

It is the first time the group has held a meeting in Canada.

The prominent leaders in the logging industry in the Inland Empire and Southern British Columbia set the dates — March 26-27-28 — for the next conference. The site will be decided today.

Charles Keim, of Bigfork, Mont., the secretary-manager, said the conference has been held in Spokane for the past 17 consecutive years.

Mr. Keim said various cities in the Inland Empire are clamoring for the conference. Yakima, Wash., Boise, Idaho, and Missoula, Mont., as well as Spokane are anxiously awaiting the news.

The Intermountain Logging organization has a membership of about 1500 logging operators, including employers and employees. It takes in logging operations in the U.S. east of the Cascade mountains to a point west of the Rocky mountains and in Canada timbered areas in southern B.C.

The organization is now in its 24th year and was organized in Montana in 1938.

The organization's aims are to improve the ability of the employee on the job and logging methods. It has a program of training employees at all levels, Mr. Keim said. Also programmed are studies in forest management methods, timber acquisition, improvement of the working relationship between the logger and federal and state authorities, conservation methods and safety.

Mr. Keim said the number of directors here was reduced by the fire situation in the U.S.

Today a breakfast meeting was scheduled to begin at 7:30 a.m. in the Nelson Hotel to be followed by morning and afternoon sessions. Tentative plans for informal social activities have also been made, Mr. Keim said.

Robert B. Walkley, BCRF, of Nelson, and former logging manager for Kootenay Forest Products, Ltd., is this year's president of the loggers' organization.

The tour was conducted by William Backman, a British Columbia director of the loggers' organization, and logging superintendent of Celgar Ltd. Several other entertainment features are also planned for the visitors.

Lightning Leaves Trail of Damage

A rash of 43 new forest fires was reported in the Nelson Forest District Friday as result of electrical storms the day before. This more than doubled the number of fires in the district.

Extent of any of the new fires is unknown. At present, there are 67 fires in the district. Battling them are 167 men compared with 116 Thursday.

Largest fire is a 700-acre blaze in immature timber at Arrowhead. It is now under control.

The fire hazard is moderate.

Considerable telephone cable damage was reported by the B.C. Telephone Company as result of the storm. Upper South Nelson and Fairview were hardest hit. Circuits across the lake were also out.

Police and firehall phones in Nelson were rendered unserviceable for about 15 minutes in the afternoon. Three banks of resistance lamps were destroyed in the central office. This was due to one severe flash and it also temporarily disabled long haul equipment affecting remote areas across the lake and on Granite Road.

Considerable trouble was also experienced in Salmo and Ymir.

Cable splicers and maintenance crews working until midnight on Thursday restored most services. Others were back in operation late Friday.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Williamson

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon for Mrs. Jessie Williamson, well-known resident of Nelson, Trail and Rossland who died in Kootenay Lake General Hospital Wednesday.

Rev. Peter W. Faris was the officiating clergyman. Organist was Mrs. H. O. Borch.

Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd," and "The Church Is One Foundation."

Pallbearers at the chapel were R. D. Barnes, Harry Burns, G. A. Hoover, C. W. Appleyard, Clyde Emory and R. B. Morris.

At Trail her casket was carried by her two brothers, Alex and Thomas Page, and her nephews, Ira, John and Jack Page, and Edward Fodar.

Interment was at Mountain View Cemetery, Trail.

Public Hearings Next Month on Power Projects

VICTORIA (CP) — Public hearings will be held in the Kootenays at the end of September to thrash out local problems involved in building three dams for the Columbia River power project.

Definite dates for the hearings are not final, but the B.C. Water Rights Branch plans to visit several areas affected by dams on the Arrow Lakes, at Mica Creek and Duncan Lake, a branch official said Friday.

OTTAWA (CP)—The Board of Broadcast Governors held another closed meeting Friday to investigate a proposed sale of stock in CFTO-TV Toronto to the American Broadcasting Company.

Company Cancels Insurance On Homes of Doukhobors

TRAIL (CP) — An insurance company has cancelled fire insurance coverage on Doukhobor property and homes in a wide West Kootenay area, and a second is believed to be taking similar action.

T. A. McRae, chairman of the Kootenay and Boundary Citizens Committee on Doukhobor-Canadian Affairs, said the Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of British Columbia, cancelled policies covering Doukhobor homes in Robson, Castlegar, and the Slocan Valley Doukhobor areas.

The action follows the burning by terrorists of 26 Orthodox Doukhobor homes in Ootischenia during weekend. Thirty-six persons were made homeless.

ONLY DOUKHOBORS

Mr. McRae said homes owned by non-Doukhobors are not involved.

He said Mutual's agent here said the company had decided against Doukhobor insurance business. Premiums had been returned and policies cancelled "for cause."

He believed another B.C. company was also cancelling insurance on Doukhobor property but other insurance companies did not seem to be alarmed at the weekend's arson incidents.

COVERAGE FOR ALL

He quoted a Nelson representative of a number of large national companies as saying he would offer coverage on Doukhobor homes anywhere except in communities of the radical sect such as Krestova and Goose Creek. Freedomites have been blamed for terrorism in the past.

Mr. McRae said he had been assured two years ago by a number of responsible companies that they would insure Doukhobor property.

Earlier this week, burned-out residents of Ootischenia complained they could not obtain insurance. But Mr. McRae said none is known to have applied.

Youth Swims Lake Windermere

INVERMERE — Carl Russell, 25-year-old Nova Scotia youth, swam the 12-mile length of Lake Windermere Friday in 6 hours, 40 minutes.

He entered the lake at Fairmont and swam to the northern end at Athalmer. His companion, Roger Askey, 17, of Invermere had to drop out three miles from the start because of leg cramps.

Russell is a lifeguard at Fairmont Hot Springs. The feat has been accomplished once before by Mrs. Rosemarie Plueschow, 30, of Invermere.

Water temperature at start was 69 degrees and rose to 72. During the swim, Russell said he felt the cold badly the last mile and his face went numb, but he walked out of the lake and had a cigarette and hot coffee. Two rowboats manned by lifeguards and a power boat accompanied him.

James Monroe was sworn in as president of the U.S. at the first open - air inaugural in Washington in 1817.

U.S. Trades Goods for Cominco Lead

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. agriculture department said Friday arrangements have been made for exchanging $18,000,000 worth of farm commodities for 100,000 tons of refined pig lead.

The lead will come from the Australian operations of the Broken Hill Associated Smelters Proprietary, Limited, and the Canadian operations of Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company of Canada, Limited.

The principal farm commodities involved in the multilateral exchange are tobacco for Japan, Italy and Portugal; feed grains for Japan and some wheat and feed grain to Peru and other countries.

Under a barter transaction, the agriculture department enters into contracts with business firms for the strategic materials needed. Such firms are paid in the form of surplus agricultural commodities. The companies, to get their money out of the transaction, then sell these commodities on the world market.

LEAVING for Vancouver today is Miss Nelson, Sheila McGovern, to participate in the Miss Pacific National Exhibition contest. Competition takes place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Surgeon Directed Brain Operation by Telephone

Emergency brain surgery, directed by long distance telephone, failed to save John Iafrancisco, who died after a fist fight in a Field, B.C. rooming house July 21.

Brian G. Devlin, about 20, formerly of Campbell River, B.C., was recently committed to trial in Field. He is charged in connection with the beating death of a youth in a fight over a girl friend. Devlin appeared at a preliminary hearing before Magistrate A. S. Daw last week.

Evidence by 18 witnesses indicated that Iafrancisco died after a fist fight in the washroom of the CPR rooming house in Field.

Police termed as erroneous a report that Ianfrancisco was beaten to death with the porcelan top of a toilet tank at a Cranbrook hostel.

An RCMP spokesman in Field said in a telephone interview Friday, "No one knows what took place in the washroom. There was a fight, that's all we know. The toilet tank top was entered in evidence but it was not proved it was used a weapon. The accused was supposedly threatened with it but that's all we know.

Devlin was arrested by RCMP 20 minutes after the fight and charged with assault causing bodily harm.

Iafrancisco was taken to Golden Hospital complaining of a severe headache and facial injuries. At the hospital brain injuries were diagnosed. Doctors at Golden phoned Dr. A. Hepburn in Calgary, who advised an immediate operation. This was performed. Golden doctors were given instructions over the telephone by Dr. Hepburn.

The patient was then taken to Calgary by ambulance where a second operation was performed.

Devlin was charged with murder at 2:30 p.m. July 22, only minutes after Iafrancisco died in a Calgary hospital.

He will appear for trial at the Fall Assize.

Witnesses said they entered the washroom and found the victim bent over a wash basin with blood gushing from his head. Evidence was put before the court that Devlin went to the rooming house to talk to Iafrancisco about his association with Donna May to whom Devlin has been engaged.

An argument allegedly ensued.

The prosecution was conducted by John Spencer of Kamloops with Dudley Edwards of Vancouver acting for the accused.

Kimberley Chapel Dedicated By Mormon Councilman

KIMBERLEY — Completed Kimberley Chapel of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints for its Kimberley district congregation has been dedicated for regular use by Dr. Theodore M. Burton of Salt Lake City, assistant to the Mormon Council, during his tour of Alaska-Canada Mormon missions.

The chapel is located on Warren Avenue at Higgins Street in Blarchmont sub-division. Norman Salvisen of Logan, Utah, is president of the Kimberley mission and he and his wife arrived here on the mission two months ago.

About 100 attended the dedication service, including president of Vancouver mission, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Weilenmann, and its secretary, Stanley Dickenson, and Cranbrook mission president Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Atwood. Special badge of service was presented to Percy Lye of Kimberley, long-time member of the Church in acknowledgement of his services in the area and volunteer work on the chapel.

Ed Forster of Calgary described the history of the building, under construction by volunteer labor since its purchase as an ice-cream bar several years ago. Under church regulations the chapel conforms in being debt-free before dedication.

Past president of Kimberley mission, Ed Forster was also among the speakers. The chapel is now in the service of the congregation for regular use in the varied church activities of its members.

Young Woman Given Suspended Sentence at Trail

TRAIL—An 18-year-old mother who attempted to kill herself Sunday, was given three months suspension of sentence by city magistrate Parker Williams Wednesday evening.

Carole Dorothy Theresa Chernenkoff, who is separated from her Fruitvale husband, pleaded guilty to a charge of attempted suicide.

Sentence was suspended on condition she return to the home of her parents in McLennan, Alta., and undertake to be home by 10 o'clock each evening for the next three months.

Mrs. Chernenkoff was said by RCMP to have slashed her wrist on Bay Avenue with a razor blade at 1:15 a.m. Sunday.

Sixteen stitches were required to close the wound when she was rushed to Trail-Tadanac Hospital.

Mrs. Chernenkoff told police she attempted to kill herself following a dispute with a young man who had promised to marry her when she had obtained a divorce.

Penticton Firm To Appraise Properties on Arrow Lakes

Appraisal of 60 parcels of privately-owned properties, which would be directly affected by the construction of a storage dam on the Arrow Lakes, is to be undertaken by a Penticton firm retained by B.C. Hydro.

Most of the properties involved are summer homes, many owned by Trail families.

The property owners concerned have been informed in a letter from Columbia River coordinator Garth Griffiths that the firm of S. H. Cornock Appraisals of Penticton has been instructed to complete the job within the next six weeks.

The letter goes on to state: "Assuming necessary authorizations are granted, construction could start in the early summer of 1962. Obviously, we would have to complete our negotiations with you in order to acquire ownership of your property before work commenced."

The communication asks the co-operation of the property owners and stresses that the appraisers are authorized only to appraise and value, and are not authorized to negotiate nor to discuss problems connected with the project.

B.C. Hydro cautions the property owners, however, that they are not to assume, from this development, that the project has been slated to go ahead.

They are being told that the appraisal is being arranged so that in the event of the project proceeding they will be assured of equitable treatment.

Power Consumption Rises in Cranbrook

CRANBROOK — Net gain of 50 meters to the city electrical system has been recorded so far this year, city electrical superintendent George Burch has reported for July to the city council.

Consumpiton during the month was 1,555,390 kilowatt hours, about 16 per cent higher than the 1,330,640 kwh consumed during the same month last year. Line extensions were completed extra-municipally to areas of Jimsmith Lake, Slaterville and Kootenay Orchard.

Fire Chief Vernon Doll reported for his department four fire calls during the month, three of them outside city limits for which charge was levied to a total of $84.15 for services of men and use of equipment. No damage ensued from the single city alarm. Cranbrook District Ambulance, operating from fire hall headquarters, answered 24 calls during the month.

City Tourist Camp receipts during July tallied $8024.50, nearly $500 higher than for the same month last year. Camper interest in rental of tenting space reached a new peak.

Works Superintendent Emil Erickson reported base-coating with asphalt of nearly one-third of a mile of city streets, and laying of two-thirds of a mile of curb-to-street asphalt strips. This latter is now available under local improvements petitions bylaw to eliminate dust on gravel flanks of asphalt.

Twelve new water connections to city supply were installed during the month, and 902 feet of four-inch pipe laid. Surplus run-off at the city reservoir at 2,250,000 gallons a day was termed satisfactory, but probably due to lawn sprinkling average pressure dropped to 93 pounds, lowest point since the second city supply main was installed in 1959.

The city airport accommodated 411 aircraft arrivals and departures during the month of which 93 were commercial airline flights.

U.S. Customs Tariff to Be Simplified . . .

August 29 Deadline for Canadian Exporters Views

By ALAN DONNELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — The deadline is fast approaching for Canadian exporters to speak up, if they want to, before the United States congress starts passage of vital legislation to simplify and streamline the U.S. customs tariff.

The administration bill adopts in full the mammoth 10-volume report on customs simplification made public last November.

This monumental job is the product of six years of work by the U.S. tariff commission—the first major overhaul of the American tariff structure since 1930.

The commission wasn't authorized to recommend changes in the level of tariff protection. Some changes affecting individual items were inevitable, however.

Companies involved, including Canadian exporters, have until Aug. 29—next Tuesday—to make written submissions to the ways and means committee of the House of Representatives. The deadline was announced Aug. 15 by chairman Wilbur D. Mills.

WANT OPINIONS

Trade department officials here said Wednesday they are anxious that any Canadian firms affected by the proposed revision should make their views known.

The trade department already has assembled a list of export goods which would bear heavier tariff rates under the new tariff scheme. These include some forest products, some minerals — especially alloys — and a few manufactured items.

The government has brought these cases to the attentions of U.S. authorities, and it is hoped further Canadian objections might be met through a supplementary study, undertaken by the U.S. tariff commission, which is not expected to be ready before next Tuesday.

One of the goals of the streamlining operation was to simplify the process of deciding the tariff classification of imports into the United States. This has been one of the big beefs of Canadian exporters, who have complained for years about delays and uncertainties in the U.S. tariff machinery.

4000 West Berliners Still Go to E. Berlin Jobs Daily

By CARL HARTMAN

BERLIN (AP)—About 12,500 West Berliners were drawing their pay from East Berlin two weeks ago, but between 1,500 and 2,000 have switched to jobs in West Berlin since Communist barricades went up across the divided city.

About 4,000 West Berliners still commute to the east each day—theatrical people, shop, office and factory workers.

Most of the others on Communist payrolls are employees of the Communist - run railway system whose jobs are in stations and yards in the west. They rarely cross over to East Berlin except to collect their pay cheques.

The Communists created a labor shortage in West Berlin when they barred some 80,000 East Berliners from crossing the border to jobs they held on the Western side. But with a labor shortage of their own the Communists made special arrangements for West Berliners who work in the east.

CROSS EASILY

The daily commuters can cross over without special passes required of other West Berliners. They are subject only to the inconvenience of an identity check and an additional transfer on the subway or elevated trains.

East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht has invited Westerners working in East Berlin to move there. But a Western official who watches these things closely said he has yet to hear of anyone taking up the invitation.

Some 1,500 of the commuting workers are actors, singers and musicians in the heavily subsidized Communist theatres and opera houses.

The best known is Walter Felsenstein, director of an East Berlin opera house. His controversial productions, often with a tinge of Marxist message, have won prizes and prestige for the East German Communists.

Felsenstein crosses from the American to the Russian sector every day in a Mercedes. The Communists scratch up hard Western currency for a good portion of his pay.

Injunction Halts Pickets . . .

Detroit Newspaper Publishing Again

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Free Press was publishing again Friday as a federal court injunction halted picketing by striking Miami (Fla.) Herald pressmen. The picketing had prevented production for five days.

U.S. District Judge Theodore Levin issued a five-day restraining order Thursday after the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) held the picketing was a secondary boycott, and thus illegal.

Free Press pressmen had refused to cross the picket line. It was set up last Saturday by the Miami pressmen. They have been on strike at The Herald since Aug. 1 in a contract dispute.

The Free Press and The Herald both are published by Knight Newspapers Incorporated, headed by John S. Knight.

NEW HEARING AUG. 29

The injunction at The Free Press, Michigan's only morning newspaper, is effective until Aug. 29, when a hearing will be held for the union to show cause why the order should not be made permanent.

In an affidavit accompanying the NLRB's petition for the injunction Henry Weidler, Free Press manager, said the strike was costing the paper $30,000 in circulation and $40,000 in advertising revenues a day. The paper has an average circulation of more than 600,000.

Weidler said 1,700 Free Press employees were deprived of income totalling $42,500. Most production and mechanical workers were laid off, but editorial employees were kept on.

William Simkin, director of the feddral mediation and conciliation service, announced increased efforts to settle the strike against the Miami Herald.

The Herald has continued publication. The strike involves a dispute over job assignments, starting time and pay.

RUSK'S SON MARRIES

BUENO AIRES (AP)—U.S. State Secretary Dean Rusk's son David married an Argentine brunette at a Roman Catholic ceremony attended by 700 persons Thursday night. The bride, Delcia Bence, 20, is the daughter of a wealthy physician and cattleman. She and David met in 1957 when she was a student in Scarsdale, N.Y., his home town.

Fall Graduation To Be Held In Windermere

INVERMERE — Four students will graduate this year from the first autumn graduation ceremony to be held by Windermere School District No. 4. The date is Septemebr 8 and the event will be held in David Thompson high school.

Graduates are Jeanette Stevenson of Edgewater high school and Cheryl Hickson, Connie Forbes, Brian Godlien, Giles Peatfield and Gary Hollingsworth of David Thompson high school at Invermere.

Special speaker at the graduation ceremonies will be P. Pullingerm, district superintendent for Cranbrook and Fernie school districts for the past year. Prior to that, he was attached to the department of education in Victoria as assistant to local school superintendents throughout the province.

Before being appointed district superintendent, he had several years' experience as a teacher and school principal.

Former Winnipeg Business Man Dies at Niagara

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont. (CP) John Tindal McLellan, 43, assistant general manager of Pakfold Business Forms, died suddenly at his home Friday.

He came here in April from Winnipeg, where he was general manager of Western Business Forms.

Mr. McLellan was a member of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs and was national vice-president of the Canadian Graphic Arts Association. His wife, a son and a daughter survive.

Never-Ending Search

The Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce in its current Commercial letter says that automation is a powerful weapon which Canada must make full use of in the fierce competition of world trade.

This is true. It is an important weapon, but there are others which should be used in the fight for trade. Basically all trade depends on price and quality. Canadian manufacturers are constantly striving to improve the quality of their products and making them cheaper. In large manufacturing plants automation may be the answer to the question of cheapness —in smaller ones the increased efficiency in mechanization may be the answer.

There is a difference between automation and mechanization, though the difference is sometimes hard to see. The wheel was man's first attempt at mechanization and all machines operated need someone constantly to control them. The ideal of automation is a series of operations which can be carried out by pressing one button and continue indefinitely. If interruptions occur these will be dealt with by servo-machines without the aid of man.

Improved mechanization can effect economies. The best examples of automation are to be found in large plants. As the Commercial Letter points out, because of the initial high cost, automation is economically sound only in cases where large scale production is possible. Because it has less scope in primary industry, complete automation may not be possible, at least for the present, for many branches of industry in Canada.

In the meantime we should not be bemused by automation. It is not the answer to all our problems. Nor should we imagine that it will unduly affect our social life. There will be some who will be thrown out of employment by improvements in both mechanization and automation but society adjusts to this as it has before in history.

Automation is not an end in itself. It is a tool and should be considered as such but the primary purpose for which it should be used, cheapness in production, can often be achieved in other ways. The search for these should go on.

Canada, B.C. Subjected To Pure Financial Fancy

For reasons best known to himself and the interests he serves, the financial editor of an influential British newspaper, which enjoys a large national and international circulation, has gone out of his way to warn his readers that the Canadian economy is on the brink of disaster.

"Canada," he says, "is rapidly acquiring the financial reputation of one of the more unstable South American countries."

Using the hitherto unrelated events of the Coyne affair and the B.C. Electric takeover as his launching base for this flight into financial fancy, the self-styled expert labels the latter action "one of the most shattering blows to the cause of international investment in a long time."

No doubt a large number of Canadians might agree with his view if he had stopped there. But not satisfied with castigating Premier Bennett's government, he overreaches himself to condemn the federal government for not stopping the expropriation.

Rounding off his astonishing criticism — and not forgetting that 25 per cent of the B.C. Electric Company had been owned by British shareholders — the author comes to this conclusion:

"For a country whose prosperity is largely dependent on imported capital and which is relying on Britain to protect her interests during the Common Market negotiations, Canada is following a very foolish road indeed."

Thus, with one wide sweep, Canada is written off as a bad investment and relegated to the category of a Peru or a Chile.

If such an accusation had been levelled at us through the pages of one of Britain's lesser, sensation-seeking journals, the matter could be laughed off as it deserves to be. But the Sunday Telegraph is looked upon as an authoritative and responsible publication not given to this type of mish-mash and irresponsible story-telling.

And therein lies the danger of this report. Many of its readers will accept it as gospel, unaware of its author's almost complete lack of knowledge of the present situation in Canada.

To Canadians it simply demonstrates an ignorance of many things: from an understanding of the separate authorities over our federal and provincial affairs, to the fact that capital expenditures in all sectors of our economy stand at a record $8.5 billions this year — a 3 per cent increase over 1960.

We Canadians have long been conditioned to being the victims of misrepresentation and misunderstanding in the United States. It is a source of never-ending wonder to us how little our neighbors to the south know about us and our country.

But from Britons we expect a little more — especially from those who are accepted as qualified interpreters of the international scene.

—Victoria Colonist.

Subversion of Spectacles

We wonder if there were any of the "Old Bolsheviks" around to witness the Titov celebration in Moscow. If so did they blink at the extent to which a strange new age has invaded their grim world? What did they make of scenes which appeared quite natural on American TV screens —the stage-managed spectacle televised for world consumption, the parade in luxurious motorcars, the front-row honoring of wives, the free and easy greetings?

Except for men hugging and kissing other men it could have been an American political rally. How has the Communist state been infiltrated and subverted that it should so imitate the folk ways of capitalism!

Of course we know thatt he Soviet Union long ago found it useful to adapt the incentive system to its purposes. Indeed, regard for exceptional effort or talent are often greater than in Britain or America. Western women's fashions, even cosmetics, are edging in. And what are the young people coming to, with their craze for jazz and the adoption of Western sports, including subsidized amateurism!

For the Old Bolsheviks the Americanized Titov celebration must have seemed the last step in decadence. The next would be a ticker-tape parade. Only where do they get ticker-tape?—Christian Science Monitor.

Interpreting the News

By ALAN HARVEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Watch for another angry protest by the farmers of Brittany within the next few weeks.

They are far from happy. The men who squirted liquid manure on the streets and formed tractor barricades in last spring's surprisingly determined demonstrations regard recent government moves to meet their protests as feeble and inadequate.

It is a real problem. There is a measure of prosperity in the "golden belt" of Brittany, the coastal strip of one of France's most ruggedly picturesque provinces. Fishing, tourists and a sprinkling of industry fill the pockets of the seaward-looking Bretons.

Things are vastly different in the bleak interior, the heartland of a province that many Frenchmen from other areas look down upon as vaguely backward. Bretons are suspicious characters, the visitor is told, they cling to the old ways and they don't like strangers.

SWITCH PAINFUL

Early in August, this reporter toured "basse Bretagre" — the lower part of the province—visiting farms in the Morbihan district. This is one of the hardest hit in the province's painful transition from a rural to an industrial economy.

The "paysans" proved hospitable, but bitter. Sipping home-made cider, a young farmer wiped a moist finger on his bare bronzed chest and said:

"It is time I quit the land. Today is my 25th birthday. I work 16 hours a day, seven days a week, and I never have a holiday.

Youth is leaving in great numbers. Today there are about 250,000 Bretons living in Paris compared with the 150,000 population in Rennes, the bourgeois capital of Brittany.

SOME GO TO U.S.

Every year, some 20,000 Bretons forsake their native province. One small village, Roudouallec, is said to have lost about three - quarters of its young married people to the United States in the last three or four years.

Farmers list many grievances. It now takes two kilos of butter to buy a bag of fertilizer: In other words, costs have risen while prices the farmers receive for their products remain stable. Farmers are too small for economic agriculture: A process of "remembrement," or redistribution, is going on but it takes time.

In a sense, Brittany is like a colony of France. It is remote from centres of industry, transportation costs are high and the things it has to buy cost more than those it has to sell.

In September, about 20 youthful farm leaders will be tried ther agitation by the hard-up by a court for acts of protest. There is every indication that this will be the signal for fur-farmers of Brittany.

BIG SPECIMENS

Largest of the world's 700 species of hummingbirds, that of the South American Andes has a length of about eight inches.

Trail Petitioner Scores Council

To the editor:

Sir—Concerning the business of seeing Mayor Read and Alderman Curran in connection with our request there be no restrictions on single parking between the 1900 block and the end of Topping Street, I went in to see both of them, and both in each of their respective offices ordered me out. Yet they said in the Trail Times to go to them for advice instead of politicians.

(Editor's note: The writer had told Trail City Council that petitioners had taken legal advice from Peter Dewdney and H. W. Herridge, MP, for Kootenay West.)

Mr. Herridge did sit down and speak to me which is more than our mayor and aldermen would do. As for the running of city affairs, it was only legal matters that we spoke about.

(Editor's note: This is a reference to Mayor Read's comment that the Trail council was "quite capable of running the affairs of the people of Trail and can do it nicely without the opinions of those gentlemen.")

We did not speak on how to run the city as Mayor Read said. The report in the Times did not give a complete picture.

Ald. George Barnsley (traffic committee chairman) mentioned that he saw cars parked against the wall and felt that the fire engine had enough room to get by if the cars were parked correctly. But he also said that there were three residents parked on the sidewalk on the upper end of the street. We informed him that the first one belonged to people visiting from Vancouver; the second was a small model car belonging to a man not actually a resident who immediately moved it when we told him it would affect our efforts in trying to get parking; and the third car belonged to a constable of the RCMP Trail detachment.

A week ago Monday I went to city hall and when I found a meeting was in progress asked if I might be permitted to go in. When I knocked at the door Alderman Barnsley asked me to "come in, Jim," and told me that while he had not spoken to the constable he thought my ticket would be cancelled. (Mr. Whaley received a ticket for parking his car on the street. He was washing it at the time, he said.)

I brought up the problem of the parking and one of the aldermen told me to get out of that meeting.

I told him that I have been a taxpayer for six years and my father was one for 30 years before he died 17 years ago; and that I would leave when I was ready because I had as much right in the meeting as he or any*one else had.*

My legal advice is that the moment I was asked to come in to the office that it was no longer a private meeting, but a public meeting and the alderman had no right to order me out.

Were they afraid of the truth? And as for seeking advice, as a Canadian citizen and a taxpayer I have a right to seek advice from whomever I please — or are they supposed to tell you who you may see and who you may not.

Official B.C. College of Physicians Says . . .

Doctors Should Be Required by Law To Report Suspected Criminal Abortions

VANCOUVER (CP)—An official of the British Columbia College of Physicians said Thursday night if there was a law ordering doctors to report suspected criminal abortions to police, authorities may get assistance in solving the problem of 4,000 illegal operations annually in Vancouver.

Registrar Dr. W. R. Lynn was commenting on a statement by city prosecutor Stewart McMorran earlier that the medical profession refused to help police trap abortionists.

Dr. Gunn said doctors cannot now report post-abortion cases to police because there is no way of telling whether the abortion was the result of an illegal operation. Doctors would leave themselves open to a law suit if they made a false report of a criminal abortion.

Mr. McMorran said the lack of co-operation from the medical profession is the main reason police get only enough evidence for an average of six prosecutions a year despite the estimated 4,000 criminal abortions performed annually.

The police were almost never informed in the hundreds of cases of women admitted to city hospitals suffering from infections or other illnesses caused by bungled abortions.

COMPELLED BY LAW

He said joctors are compelled by law to report any gunshot wounds that are treated.

"But there is no law to compel a doctor to report suspected criminal abortions—you must remember that a doctor has no way of proving this if a patient denies it.

"I think that if it were mandatory for a doctor to report such cases, it might get at the problem."

Dr. Gunn said he knows of cases where doctors have used considerable pressure to find out if criminal abortion had taken place. He also said it is not the duty of doctors to hunt out abortionists to treat the patient.

ADDITIONAL APPROPRIATIONS TO BE ASKED

OTTAWA (CP) — Parliament will be asked to pass additional appropriations when it meets Sept. 7 to pay for a buildup of military and civilian preparedness in view of the Berlin crisis, Prime Minister Diefenbaker said Friday.

He said he could not give details until they had been placed before Parliament, now nearing the end of its seven-week summer recess.

Mr. Diefenbaker was asked about reports the government is enlarging its present $10,000,000 stockpile of medical supplies. He said he could not confirm or deny them but Parliament would be asked to approve the expenditure of additional funds.

Your Individual Horoscope

By Frances Drake

For Sunday, August 27, 1961

Look in the section in which your birthday comes, and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — Some planets could be termed "on a rampage" now. Would be wise to ascertain just what should be decided upon and done before undertaking matters. Why not take someone to church with you?

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus) — "To paint the lily" could be applied to today's tendencies. If you have a good thing, appreciate it but don't try to overimpress, overdo, overindulge, whatever the case. Moderation!

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini) — You who have so much innate vigor and vitality for life and who can recognize opportunities and possibilities so quickly should aim never to let these true ASSETS be dampened. Plan, manoeuver.

JUNE 22 to JULR 23 (Cancer) —Vibrant indications from a well aspected Moon configuration bids your talents step forward in the quiet as well as glamorous spots. You can help others to confidence, thus gain more.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo) — More than one way to get around a difficult proposition, issue, matter. Seek ablest means, and follow only routes that will benefit the person, people, worthy causes. Shun mere schemers.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — Originality, exercise of the mental processes can put day in a happy frame for you and yours. Waste no time thinking over troubles, look forward, thank God for blessings—they ARE many.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Look out for prestige seekers: many about. And those who like you for material reasons. Know who real friends are, seek them out for free hours. Generally favorable rays.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 (Scorpio) — Keep personal affairs within your immediate family, don't discuss them even with "best friends." It will not be wise and can work out to your detriment. Be cheerful, but firm.

NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 21 (Sagittarius) — When someone has done you a favor, be your natural, quick self to thank them, then go one step further—see where YOU can do one, even for a different person. Good will is badly needed.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn) — Also among the many favored by strong, benefic planetary aspects. But let no charlatan wield a compelling wand. Yours should be a usefully active day, with the soul's needs first.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius) — You could waver between which matters or interests to indulge and eventually waste whole day, but we think you won't, for this Sign has a outgoing, democratic.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — What you lose one way, you will gain another, if you keep strong your Faith, and apply those fine old assistants, Hope and Understanding. Steer clear of impostors, pretenders; enjoy some fun.

YOU BORN TODAY are among the thinkers, the discriminative. Could become a profound phisosopher, and gifted artist, of the lively arts especially. Your planet Mercury indicates quick thinking, often a speedy solution-maker. You know exactly what you wish, and because you make prompt decisions, others feel at times you are overriding them. You do not mean to be domineering, so better practice regular giving in or asking "what do you think?" This way you can keep things on even keel and make the truly big success out of life you are capable of. As clerk, bookkeeper, typist you are the same accurate person as artist or politician. DON'T fret over health—yours is normally fine. Birthdate of: Chas. G. Heyd, surgeon; Jos. Reed, Sec'y to Pres. George Washington; Theodore Dreiser, novelist.

For Monday, August 28, 1961

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

MARCH 21 to APRIL 20 (Aries) — Some unfriendly influences; vim from your planet Mars. Progress depends upon effort, how you set your schedule then carry it out. Captialize on your practicality, alertness.

APRIL 21 to MAY 21 (Taurus) — Concentration and patience may be "on edge," nerves tend to be ragged. Recognize signs of irritability, and YOU be the peacemaker, understanding and calm, as you can be so effectively.

MAY 22 to JUNE 21 (Gemini) — May be asked to contribute more in energy, resources, ideas, other abilities than you feel necessary. But check, perhaps this IS essential. Gemini always has much to give for the worthwhile.

JUNE 22 to JULY 23 (Cancer) — Rays show need here for some extra discretion, a philosophical mind and a good share of that old faithful (at any time), Good Humor. Don't let little things get at your.

JULY 24 to AUGUST 23 (Leo) — Results greatly depend upon how you accept responsibilities, whether you are feeling up to par, and whether you may be heavily burdened now. Please let Leo's infectious smile conquer.

AUGUST 24 to SEPTEMBER 23 (Virgo) — You can be ingeniously persuasive now, so careful what you say, do, especially before those who will take your example. Healthy period for vigorous forward-thinking action.

SEPTEMBER 24 to OCTOBER 23 (Libra) — Some inelegant moments may disappoint, but there is always the silver lining to every "cloud." Be careful to avoid unwise implications, intrigue, overindulgences.

OCTOBER 24 to NOVEMBER 22 (Scorpio) — Don't hesitate to consult sources of knowledge, and seek other means of succeeding if what you are doing does not compliment your talents. Some important news, observe.

NOVEMBER 23 to DECEMBER 21 (Saggittarius) — Take heed how you interpret anyone's remarks, your obligations, and whatever today. Obstructions can be smoothed away. Manifest your faith in mankind and your own ability.

DECEMBER 22 to JANUARY 20 (Capricorn) — Nothing worthwhile is unimportant, also anything worth doing is worth doing well. These are not new observations, but they ARE too often forgotten. Saturn promotes ingenuity.

JANUARY 21 to FEBRUARY 19 (Aquarius) — Undue anxiety tabu. You may be tempted to hurry or pass lightly over the more urgent issues and matters. Some unpretentious advantages turn out most powerful when rightly grasped.

FEBRUARY 20 to MARCH 20 (Pisces) — Perseverance and kindly understanding of human frailty in its cantankerousness and constant errors will give you a vantage point for high gains. Good influences.

YOU BORN TODAY have more than a few characteristics and talents for top achievement, and for a happy, even powerfully active life. Be sure you do not place material accomplishments above the values that make life truly worth living. You will attain through friends, be complimented often — so make up your mind NOT to let this fool you into assuming leadership position at all times. You CAN lead, not just ably but brilliantly, with integrity, astuteness, but so must others in family, and associations. Invention, mental strength prominent this year. Don't fret over probable problems. Birthdate of: Sir Edw. Burne - Jones, painter - designer; Mother Elizabeth, founder of Sisters of Charity; L. E. Grinter, engr., bridge builder, educator; Edison Marshall, explorer, author.

Nagas Kills Leader Of Loyalist Group

SHILLONG, India (AP) — A group of educated jungle tribesmen named Nagas, who are fighting for independence from India, have killed the head of a new state government which India created in hopes of winning their support.

Dr. Imkongliba Ao died Thursday at the Army Hospital in the Naga Hills in the Tuensang area of East India, according to reports reaching Shillong, capital of Assam. He had been shot Tuesday by a person who escaped into the jungle.

This was the third attempt on the life of Imkongliba, since he became leader of the loyalist Nagas who are supporting the Indian government.

Last February he was named president of the Nag a interim council which would prepare the area for statehood.

Nagaland is a rugged area of steep mountains and thick jungle on the Indian border with Burma. Its 14 tribes are collectively called Nagas.

SOUGHT INDEPENDENCE

When India became independent in 1947, some Nagas asked the British government to grant them separate national status. This was refused and nine years ago the Nagas, under the leadership of Angami Z. Phizo, began guerrilla war against India in an effort to obtain independence.

Prime Minister Nehru said independence for the 6,000 square mile land-locked area was ridiculous and sent in the Indian Army.

The government says 1,500 Naga rebels, 300 troops and 93 government servants have been killed in a savage war of ambush and midnight raiding.

Rebels charged the army with brutality and wanton destruction of Naga villages but this was denied.

Imkongliba, who was a government medical officer until 1955, became head of the loyalist movement.

The government claims to have the guerrilla attacks under control and says only 1,500 rebels are left. But the rebels continue to raid throughout the area and down onto the plains of Assam, despite the efforts of 30,000 troops in the area.

Some Reach West Largest Foreign Colony in East Berlin Is Swiss

BERLIN (AP)—Some of the hundreds of foreign residents trapped in East Germany by the closing of the borders have been able to reach the West, diplomatic sources said Friday.

A Swedish woman succeeded on her second attempt. It was her failure to get into West Berlin to go to the Swedish church that drew attention to the plight of the foreigners hemmed in with their East German neighbors by Communist orders since Aug. 13.

A Belgian woman living in East Berlin persuaded Communist police to let her through the barbed wire and concrete wall "to make a telephone call in the West." It is impossible to telephone between the two parts of the city.

An Australian living in East Berlin got through by waving his passport at the guards. It was assumed they took him for a tourist instead of a resident.

The biggest foreign colony in East Germany is the Swiss, numbering more than 3,000. There about 1,300 Dutch nationals, about 150 Americans, 200 Britons, 115 Swedes and smaller groups of other nationalities.

In Ottawa, the external affairs department said there might be a small number of Canadian students in East Germany who would be affected by the order.

Gold Highest in Several Months In London

BERLIN (Reuters) — Nervousness about the international situation brought renewed buying of gold in London this mrning.

At the daily meeting of bullion dealers the official daily price was fixed at $35.17⅝ per fine ounce—the highest in several months.

With continued demand after the fixing, the price rose again to about $35.18.

These prices were significantly above the United States official selling price of $35.08¾. The London price rose above that limit early last month.

Creeping up persistently for the last two weeks, it has held higher than at any time in the years from the reopening of the market in 1954 to the big breakout last year.

INITIAL CHOLERA SCARE IN HONG KONG SUBSIDES

HONG KONG (AP)—A total of 62 cholera cases have been reported in this refugee - packed colony in the last week, the Hong Kong government announced Friday.

Of these, six were fatal and five are considered in critical condition.

About two - thirds of Hong Kong's 3,000,000 population have been inoculated in the last seven days.

However, the initial cholera scare seemed to have subsided. There are no longer queues in front of government inoculation centres and many public swimming pools which were ordered closed now are open again.

Vancouver To Be Home of Kimberley Wedding Principals

KIMBERLEY — Knox United Church in Prince George was the scene of a wedding of wide interest in the East Kootenay when Anne Elizabeth Feyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Feyer of Prince George, became the bride of Thomas George Masich of Vancouver, son of Mrs. Annie Masich of Marysville.

Rev. J. Balsdon officiated at the double ring ceremony. Baskets of yellow roses and white stocks decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a short dress of silk organza with fitted bodice an dfull skirt featuring a three-tiered train effect at the back.

She wore an elbow length veil and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations.

As bridesmaid, Miss Sharon Schnopf of Prince George chose a dress of mauve chiffon, with white accessories and a bouquet of yellow and white carnations.

Mr. Dave Masich of Kimberley was his brother's best man and Mr. Arthur Helin and Mr. John Olsen, both of Prince George, ushered.

The wedding reception, held in the Elks' Hall, was attended by 150 guests. The bride's mother wore a navy afternoon dress with white accessories, while Mrs. Masich chose a beige ensemble with mahogany brown ascessories. Both had white carnation corsages.

Mr. Evan Short proposed the toast to the bride.

The bride's table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake, flanked by white tapers and summer flowers.

Telegrams were read from Prince Rupert, Trout Lake, Vancouver and Kimberley, Homer, Alaska and Fort Willam, Ontario.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. A. Masich, Marysville; Mr. D. Masich, Kimberley; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen, Kimberley; Mr. and Mrs. William Forsythe, Cornell Mines; Mr. H. Feyer and daughters, Homer, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. W. Feyer, Masset, B.C.; Mrs. Gladys Drezet and son, Quesnel; Mr. and Mrs. A. Helin, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hewitt, Mrs. W. Denluck, Miss J. Haupt, Messrs. R. Smith, R. Strand, W. McLeod, B. Kangus R. Melville, M. Alger, G. Jensen and L. Quast, all of Prince Rupert.

Our Father's Business

A book has been published by a Vance Packard called the Status Seekers. I gather that when people read it some like it; some laugh at it; some hurt by it; some just plain don't believe it yet there is a whole world of truth in this book and has much biblical support for what it says.

Now I do not know what you know about SOCIOLOGY, or what it means, but in a nutshell it deals with the structure, meaning and purpose of society. And in this day and age when so much seems to hinge on what we have rather than on what we are; WHO WE KNOW RATHER THAN WHAT WE KNOW; what we say to the the right people, rather than what we beleive; I am not sure that the writer of this book did not have a real point.

From the youngest child demanding a dime because one of his playmates has a dime to the adult businessman and his wife looking for bigger cars, bigger homes, bigger parties, bigger incomes, more prestige, more community recognition, here we find the STATUS SEEKERS. However, let us notice that there does not seem to be any place in the gospels which ties this type of thinking and living to the teachings of Christ or any of the world's great teachers. It certainly finds no place in classical philosophy . . . at least not in Aristotle, Socrates or Plato.

So this continual seeking after material gain, social prestige and UPMANSHIP has very little, if anything to do with the Christian principles which you and I believe.

There is a quotation . . . describing a "MAN" and it goes like this:

"He was a flop at 33.
He never owned a thing.
He had nowhere to lay His head.
He was never really adjusted to society.
He never had a successful career . . . for He jumped from carpentering to intinerant preaching.
He didn't care about fashions or possessions.
He never rode when he could walk except that time He took a donkey.
He believed in forgetting self instead of asserting, realizing and extending self.
He went from popularity to suspicion — to hostility . . . to rejection . . . to betrayal . . . to death by crucifixion on a cross . . .

Well, what kind of a career is that for a grown man? Answer: He changed the whole course of history . . . and provided mankind with a philosophy of living. His name — Jesus of Nazareth . . . Messiah, King, Savior of Mankind.

Now and if we will just sit back and think of what this quotation says to us — it may well be by comparison we will see the status seekers , , , as very poor people indeed, morally and spiritually. Indeed this has been confirmed the last few days by a well known doctor, who states frankly that such people do not make good parents. They are insecure within, and he pulled no punches as to what he thought of them.

Let a man and his family give themselves to the life and work of Christ in his Vineyard . . . and they will find a wealth which they can find in no other way. Let a man and his family devote their lives to the acquiring of prestige and material gain without reflecting on the fact that:

"But for the Grace of God they are nothing," and there is small satisfaction to be gained from what they have.

Perhaps you know the tragic story of the young woman, a social climber who was determined to marry for money. The character of the man in question did not concern her too much, as long as he could be known as a swell guy . . . AND provide all the material things the young woman wanted to further her social aims. This whole scheme turned out to be one of the greatest domestic tragedies possible.

Perhaps this was the kind of situation our doctor had in mind when he was addressing the medical convention down east . . . outwardly prosperous but inwardly secure. Not at all, just an empty social shell.

"He that humbleth himself shall be exalted . . . for in quietness and peace shall be your strength."

—Rev. Canon W. Silverwood, Church of the Redeemer.

Motorists Pass By While Child Lies Dying

CHATSWORTH, Calif. (AP)—Motorists on Alabama Ave. merely glanced curiously at a group of screaming women. Meanwhile, a little girl lay near death, a three - quarter inch nail lodged in her throat.

Alma Gomez, 4, ran home from play Thursday, crying that she had swallowed a nail. Her mother, Mrs. Carmen Gomez, 32, had no telephone or car.

She ran into the street, carrying Alma. Neighborhood women joined her. None of them had cars or telephones.

When passing motorists refused to stop, one woman ran to a house with a telephone. A rescue crew rushed the youngster to a hospital.

She was dead when they arrived.

31 Teachers Ready To Go Under Aid to Africa Plan

MONTREAL (CP) — Thirty-one teachers are attending a Canadian school here for the last time for at least a year.

Starting next week, they will be teaching in Kenya, Ghana, Nigeria, North Borneo or other parts of Asia and Africa.

The group, finishing up a briefing course at Macdonald College in nearby Ste. Anne de Bellevue, is being sent abroad under the Commonwealth aid to Africa program and the colombo plan.

The object is to train teachers and set up study programs in the underdeveloped nations.

It is the first time teachers are being sent abroad under the African aid program, on which the government is to spend $10,500,000 during the next three years.

The teachers come from Ontario, Quebec, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and British Columbia. There is even one—Bernard Mullen of Baker Lake—from the Northwest Territories.

He is assigned to Binatang, Rejang delta, Sarawak, where he will be group headmaster for Dayak primary schools.

The teachers vary in experience and specialties. All are to bring their families with them and will be paid by the federal government while serving abroad.

Rupert Papin, 28, has the most varied experience of the group. A native of Trinidad, he came to Canada eight years ago. He teaches French in the high school of Barriere, B.C., and has been assigned to the government technical school in Takoradi, Ghana.

Philadelphia Bishop Heads World Methodist

OSLO (Reuters) — The Methodist bishop of Philadelphia, Fred Piece Corson, was installed Friday as new president of the World Methodist Council.

The installation was conducted by Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of St. Louis, a former president. Bishop Corson succeeds the Rev. Dr. Harold Roberts of Richmond England.

Addressing the final session of the 10th Methodist world conference, Bishop Corson said "The age calls for a shift in Protestant tactics. We must move from a negative to a positive approach."

He said protestantism appeared to be the victim ofthe paradoxical situation of increasing in favor while diminishing in influence.

APPEAL TO CHURCHES

The conference ended tonight with an appeal to Methodist churchs to strengthen the sense of common purpose between racial and social classes within each nation.

"The ark power that animates our racial tensions is the power of fear," the appeal said. "It can be removed only the power of reconciling love."

Laymen attending the conference said Thursday there is need of a clear statement on the Laity's role in the church's life.

LISTER — Mr. and Mrs. John Bird, pioneer residents of Lister, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at an open house attended by a large number of local and valley friends. Tea serviteurs were Mrs. M. K. Powers, Mrs. R. T. Millner, Mrs. J. C. Heme and Mrs. C. P. Bird.

The main table held a single-tier wedding cake, which was flanked by golden candles and a vase of tea roses. The centre table was decorated with a bouquet of yellow 'mums and golden pom-pom 'mums, the gift of Mrs. M. K. Powers, sister-in-law of the honored couple. There was a profusion of other flowers, gifts of friends.

Mrs. Bird wore a corsage of sweetpeas, the same as she had worn 50 years ago. Mr. Bird had a boutonniere of white carnation. Other honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bird of Calgary and son and daughter-in-law, who were that day celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Quick of Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. J. Draper of Nelson.

All guests signed the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bird were married in Christ Church, Cranbrook, on August 16, 1911, by Rev. E. P. Plewelling, residing in that city until moving to Camp Lister in the spring of 1920, after the former had returned from overseas service with the 54th Kootenay Battalion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bird were also honored at a cabaret party in the Deer Lodge Hall sponsored by the Deer Lodge community club.

This function was attended by a large number of friends from the district and other points in the valley.

Leonard Huscroft was MC. Two films of the B.C. coast and Alaska and one of Germany from the Creston Film Council were shown by G. Hills.

The honored couple were then presented with two sun cots, 2 rattan shell chairs and a table for lawn use. The presentation was made by Harry Demchuk on behalf of the club and community.

A toast was proposed to Mr. and Mrs. John Bird by M. Powers, who also read congratulatory messages from Prime Minister Diefenbaker, Premier Bennett, Lt.-Gov. G. Pearkes, Hon. W. D. Black, and Mr. Murray McFarlane, MP.

Dancing commenced, with Mr. and Mrs. Bird leading with the Anniversary Waltz.

Emergency Disaster Kits Ready

TORONTO (CP)—Seven hundred emergency disaster kits are ready to be distributed to 47 hospitals across Ontario.

Dr. S. C. U. Shier, assistant director of emergency health services for Ontario, said Thursday night every hospital with "disaster plan" will be entitled to one of the kits for every 25 beds.

The kits — containing stretchers, transfusion equipment, burn dressings and other common medical supplies—are being distributed from army depots under a federal plan to accelerate stockpiling of medical supplies in Canada.

Ontario is the third province to reach an agreement with the federal government, following British Columbia and Manitoba.

Dr. Shier said the major regional depots at Camp Borden and Petawawa are considered sufficiently remote to escape destruction in a nuclear attack.

He said the kits could be rushed to urban centres from a depot in the event of nuclear attack.

Noisiest Objections From Canada, Says Economist . . .

Claims New Zealand Has More To Lose Than Canada

LONDON (CP)—Canada's attitude toward British membership of the European Common Market is assailed Friday by a British economist.

Nicholas Davenport, writing in The Spectator, says Canada has always pursued a "realistically selfish" policy in relation to United Kingdom trade.

Now that Britain was negotiating to join European Economic Community the "noisiest objections" came from Canada and Australia, no doubt for "local political reasons."

But, says Davenport, Canada has no special right to export her unemployment problem to Britain.

"Having made such a mess of her own economic policies it is not for her, I suggest, to lecture us on ours."

Basically, Davenport's article presses home the point that tiny New Zealand, rather than Canada or Australia, will be the real loser if Britain does join the European community. In 1959-60, the writer adds, Britain took only 17 per cent of Canadian exports and 26 per cent of Australian, compared with more than 50 per cent in the case of New Zealand.

Davenport says one possible solution might be for Britain to offer some form of economic union to New Zealand.

In his reference to Canada's alleged selfishness in trade, Davenport says at the 1958 Commonwealth economic conference in Montreal Canada refused to "bind" — make permanent—certain tariff preference margins. Recently, "a government commission" had proposed a 10-per-cent tariff on British automobiles.

RAPS FINANCIAL POLICL

"The cause of Canada's present economic plight has been her absurd financial policies, namely, an overvalued currency extra dear money and too great a dependence on the United States. The forced departure of the governor of the Bank (of Canada) has at least enabled the government to get rid of the exchange premium and secure a small discount, together with cheaper money, and if it now had the courage to devalue its currency once and for all by 10 per cent it could face its export future with confidence.

"But if it thinks it can cover its huge payments deficit by exporting more of the products of its secondary industries to the U.K.—most of its manufacturers are subsidiaries of American combines — it is going to be taught another sharp economic lesson."

Says National Officers Have Sabotaged Meet

SUDBURY, Ont. (CP) — Don Gillis, president of Local 598 of the International Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union (Ind.), charged Friday a planned conference of workers in all branches of the nickel industry was "sabotaged by the national officers of the union."

Mr. Gillis called off the meeting, scheduled for Saturday.

He said other locals at first showed keen interest in the proposed conference but then sent telgrams saying delegates would not attend because members of the United Steelworkers of America Union (CLC) had also been invited.

Mr. Gillis said the telegrams arrived here after national union officers circulated reports that the steel men would attend.

"The fact that steel delegates would be at the conference was well-known at the start," Mr. Gillis said, "and it was not until the action of (national officer Mike) Solski and his colleagues that there was a reaction against it."

ENGINEER ESCAPES

KRONACH, Germany (AP)—The chief engineer of an East German power plant escaped to West Germany Thursday, slipping past Communist patrols and over a death strip planted with land mines. West German police at this Iron Curtain cross over point said the 50-year-old man gained freedom after walking about 188 miles from his East Berlin home.

Eskimo Cooperatives Benefit by Popularity of Arctic Char Delicacy

By JIM WHELLY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

EDMONTON (CP) — Arctic char—a piquant, pink - fleshed Arctic Ocean delicacy, netted by an Eskimo fishermen's co-operative at Cambridge Bay, N.W.T., 1,200 miles northeast of Edmonton.

Such notes soon will be appearing on restaurant menus from Winnipeg to the Pacific coast as the first shipment of 10,000 pounds of the trout-like fish is distributed by an Edmonton brokerage firm.

The char arrived in Edmonton this week after a six-hour flight from Canada's most northern commercial fishing operation and a second 10,000-pound shipment is to follow before the char season ends in late September.

Each shipment—with a retail value of about $11,000—could return as much as 80 cents a pound to the Eskimo fishery which is directed by the department of northern affairs and natural resources.

MARKET STRONG

The char has been available on the eastern Canadian market since 1958, when a trial shipment of 1,500 pounds was shipped to Montreal from the Eskimo fishery at Frobisher Bay in the eastern Arctic. Within days, a repeat order came in, indicating a strong market. The Frobisher Bay fishery — a pilot project since 1958— is a co-operative this year under all-Eskimo management. Two have been set up in northern Quebec.

Featured under its Eskimo name, Ilkalupik, char was served at the state dinner in Ottawa during the visit of President and Mrs. Kennedy. Ilkalu is the Eskimo word for fish—any fish—and pik means "something special."

Some of the Frobisher Bay fish made its way to restaurant markets as far west as Edmonton—where it was a featured delicacy at as much as $4.75 a plate.

PRICE MAY DROP

Harry Bradley, manager of the Edmonton firm distributing the char, says this price will come down because of the Cambridge Bay supply.

The fish arrives in Edmonton whole and frozen, gutted with the head on, in 60-pound cartons with each seven-to-eight pound fish wrapped in parchment.

"They're a beautiful, bright, glistening silver color," he says, "darker across the back with rows of red dots and red stripes along their sides."

The use of Arctic char in commercial fisheries bas been reserved by the federal government for Northwest Territories residents, with highest priority being given to fisheries co-operatives owned by Eskimos, Indians and other local people who lack adequate livelihood from other sources.

The northern affairs department also has met with Newfoundland government officials and the department of fisreries to plan commercial development of potential Labrador char fisheries to the best advantage of both the territories and Newfoundland.

But the char is not only a gourmet fish—it's a fisherman's fish, full of fight induced by cold Arctic waters.

Some of its economic values lies in its ability to lure fishermen-tourists into northern Canada where local catering industries are being encouraged by the federal and territorial governments.

CROWDING A PROBLEM

LONDON (Reuters) — The overcrowding problem in British prisons has reached a critical stage, the 1960 report of the prison commissioners revealed today. The report said Britain's prison population had reached a record level of 28,500. It said the numbers of men sleeping three in a cell has passed the 7,000 mark.

FIGHTS

By The Associated Press

Boston — George Colton, 127, Tewksbury, Mass., defeated Jimmy Connors, 139, New Bedford, Mass., 8.

Koufax Hurls Dodgers Within 2½ Games of National Lead

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

New York Yankees kept their two-game first-place margin in the American League Friday night as Ralph Terry shut out the last-place Kansas City Athletics 3-0.

Jim Archer, southpaw hurler for the Athletics suffered his 10th defeat but succeeded in keeping the Yankee home run twins, Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle from gaining ground on Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs.

In other AL games, Detroit Tigers shut out Washington Senators 6-0, Chicago White Sox beat Cleveland Indians 3-2, Baltimore Orioles defeated Minnesota Twins 5-2 and Boston Red Sox whipped Los Angeles Angeles 12-6.

END LOSING STREAK

In the National League Los Angeles Dodgers broke out of their 10-game losing streak with a 7-2 victory over first - place Cincinnati Reds.

Sandy Koufax stopped the Reds on five hits in earning his 14th triumph.

In other NL games, Pittsburgh Pirates beat Chicago Cubs 1-0, St. Louis Cardinals defeated San Francisco Giants 7-3. Milwaukee Braves and Philadelphia Phillies split a doubleheader, the Phillies taking the opener 9-4 and the Braves the second game by the same score.

Maris scored what proved to be New York's winning run in the fourth inning after Archer hit him with a pitch. He went to second on a long fly by Mantle and scored on a single by Bill Skowron.

RAINS STOPS PLAY

Jim Bunning pitched a two-hitter to lead the Tigers to their victory over Washington. The game was shortened to eight innings because of rain.

Bunning, a tall, lean right-hander who now has a 15-9 record, had a no-hitter until there was one out in the seventh.

Chicago White Sox took over fourth place in the AL from Cleveland by edging the Indians behind the 13-strikeout performance of Juan Pizarro.

Dave Philley set a major league pinch - hitting record as Baltimore defeated Minnesota.

The switch - hitting Philley sent a dribbler down the third base line for his 23rd pinch-hit of the season. That beat the mark of 22 set in 1932 by Sam Leslie of the New York Giants.

SNIDER HOMERS

The Dodgers went right to work on Bob Purkey, Cincinnati's starter and loser, getting two runs in the first inning. Maury Wills beat out a bunt and scored on Jim Gilliam's triple to right. Snider tripled home Gilliam.

Duke Snider belted his homer in the third. Los Angeles scored on Frank Howard's solo homer in the fourth and his two-run shot in the sixth.

At St. Louis, Ray Sadecki pitched a six-hitter and drove in a run to help St. Louis Cardinals score their victory over San Francisco.

The Giants came up with three errors, a wild pitch and a passed ball to make Sadecki's conquest an easy one.

Milwaukee Braves battered Philadelphia pitching for 21 hits and a 9-4 victory in the nightcap of a doubleheader after the Phillies had taken the opener 9-4 with a 13-hit attack including two-run homers by Charlie Smith and Don Demeter.

The Braves' second - game victory snapped the Phillies' four-game winning streak, their longest of the season.

HITS GRAND SLAM

Boston scored nine runs on four homers — including the first grand-slammer of Carroll Hardy's major league career—and belted Los Angeles Angels, 12-6.

Hapless Als Tumble To Gilchrist's Power

MONTREAL (CP) — Toronto Argonauts rode the power running and kicking of Cookie Gilchrist to a 15-10 win over Montreal Alouettes Friday night in the Eastern Football Conference. Attendance was 18,522.

At half time it was Toronto 6-0. The points came on Gilchrist's short plunge for a touchdown.

His field goals carried 31, 24 and 12 yards.

The Als, pitifully weak throughout on offence, counted on a quarterback keeper play by Nellie Yarbrough and Bill Bewley's convert and 22-yard field goal.

The 245-pound fullback scored all Toronto's points with a touchdown and three field goals, giving Argos their first win in three starts this season.

It was Montreal's fourth game and third setback. Alouettes have a tie with British Columbia Lions of the western conference.

The win lifted the Argonauts into a second - place tie with Ottawa Rough Riders.

GOAT AND HERO

Cookie, the hard - to - handle 28 - year - old who won the league's scoring title two years running, was as much conspicuous by misplays as he was in leading the Toronto attack.

Twice he fumbled and once dropped a pass in the Montreal end zone with no Alouette defender within 10 yards of him.

But when the Argos needed the big play, he was there to pull the club through.

In 19 shots at the Montreal line, he piled up 132 yards.

Soberdash Placed on Waivers by Ticats

HAMILTON (CP) — Hamilton Tiger-Cats of the Eastern Football Conference today placed halfback Don Soberdash on waivers. Soberdash, who missed most of last year with injuries, was out of the early games this year because of a bruised hip.

EARLY BANKING

One of the earliest references to banks in Canada was in 1792 when a Montreal group established the Canada Banking Company.

Nimrods Set Sights For Earlier Hunting

District hunters can stop polishing their guns and start shooting Sept. 9 when the 1961-62 deer season officially opens. The season opens Sept. 1 for bear and alpine animals.

Major change from last year is that the game season opens much earlier this year. Changes which will affect deer hunting are the opening dates and length of season for antlerless deer. In game management area 8 the antlerless season starts Oct. 21, while in area 10 the season starts Sept. 30 and area 11 Nov. 25.

Another change is the use of plastic tags rather than metal tags for the tagging of deer. The new plastic tags are expected to be foolproof. They can only be used once.

In condensed form here are the 1961-62 game laws including season opening and ending dates, and bag limits.

(Copies of the game booklet can be obtained at the Court House, sporting goods stores, or game officials.)

Game Management Area 8 which includes Grand Forks-Greenwood Electoral District:

Bear — No closed season on black or brown bear; grizzly Sept. 1, 1961, to June 30, 1962.

Deer — Bucks only, over one year of age, Sept. 16 to Dec. 3; antlerless (includes does and all animals under one year of age), from Oct. 21 to Nov. 19.

Mountain sheep — Rams only, having three-quarter curl or better, Sept. 23 to Sept. 29; mountain goat from Sept. 23 to Sept. 29.

Ducks (except Eider ducks), geese and coots, Sept. 30, 1961, to Jan. 3, 1962; Wilson's snipe, Sept. 30 to Dec. 3; mourning doves, Sept. 2 to Sept. 30.

California quail, Oct. 14 to Dec. 3; grouse (blue, Franklins and Ruffed), Sept. 16 to Dec. 3; partridge, Oct. 14 to Dec. 3; Ptarmigan from Sept. 1 to Dec. 3; pheasants, cocks only, from Oct. 14 to Nov. 19.

Game Management Area 10 which includes the Rossland-Trail, Nelson-Creston and Kaslo-Slocan Electoral Districts:

Bear — No closed season on black or brown bear; grizzly, Sept. 1 to June 30, 1962.

Deer, bucks only, over one year of age, Sept. 9 to Dec. 10, except that portion starting at the junction of Kootenay River and Goat River, thence along the north, east and west banks of Goat River to the mouth of Arrow Creek to its junction with Okell Creek; thence along the east bank of Okell Creek in a northwesterly direction to its headwaters thence in a straight line due north to the headwaters of Huggard Creek, thence along the south bank of Huggard Creek to its junction with Duck Creek; thence in a straight line in a north-westerly direction to a point on the Nelson-Creston Highway where it crosses Drywash Creek; thence in a straight line due west to the Kootenay River, thence southerly along the east bank of the Kootenay River to the point of commencement, Sept. 9 to Dec. 31; antlerless deer includes does and all animals under one year of age, from Sept. 30 to Dec. 10 with some exception for bucks.

Caribou, bulls over one year of age and cows and all animals under one year from Sept. 1 to Dec. 3, with exception of that portion of the Nelson-Creston electoral district situate and lying west of Kootenay Lake and River, and south of a straight line running due west and west through Ymir.

Elk, bulls only over one year of age and antlerless animals from Sept. 9 to Dec. 31 in that portion except of caribou in GMA 8. In that portion embracing the watershed of the south portion of Kootenay Lake south of Crawford Creek (east side) and south of Seaman Creek (west side) Sept. 9 to Dec. 3. For bulls throughout the remainder of the area, Nov. 25 to Dec. 3.

Mourning doves, Sept. 2 to Sept. 16; pheasants, cock birds only, Oct. 14 to Nov. 19.

Game Management Area 11 which includes the Columbia, Cranbrook and Fernie electoral districts except Yoho and Kootenay National Parks:

Deer, bucks over one year of age, Sept. 9 to Dec. 3; antlerless animals Nov. 25 to Dec. 3.

Caribou, bulls over one year of age and cows and all animals under one year, Sept. 1 to Dec. 3.

Moose, bull only over one year of age, Sept. 9 to Dec. 3; antlerless animals, lying north of the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway Nov. 25 to Dec. 3.

Mountain sheep, rams only over one year of age Sept. 1 to Oct. 22.

Elk, bulls only over one year of age, Sept. 1 to Dec. 3; antlerless animals, Sept. 9 to Nov. 5.

BREAK-INS PROBED

KELOWNA (CP) — Thieves made off with some $300 in cigarettes and cash from a Canadian Legion branch here early Friday. A ladies' wear shop also was burgled during the night and women's clothing, including maternity skirts, taken.

TINY TIM TOO BIG

TRAIL (CP) — Wanted: One fastball uniform to fit a 305-pound man. Must be available by Saturday.

Trail's entry in the Western Canadian senior A fastball championships starting here Saturday has acquired 305-pound pitcher Gordie (Tiny Tim) Hueston of Victoria.

But they are unable to find a uniform to fit his massive frame. A manufacturer has been asked to make one by Saturday.

Kappless Stamps Tackle Roughies

CALGARY (CP)—The Kappless Calgary Stampeders tonight take their first interlocking licks of the 1961 Candian Football League schedule against the big ones—Ottawa Rough Riders.

Stampeders meet the fearsome Grey Cup champions without the services of quarterback Joe Kapp—traded Wednesday to B.C. Lions—and unable to play any of the four men obtained from Lions in exchange.

Roughies were hungry and comparatively healthy as they began a two-game excursion into Western Conference ranks. They will rest Sunday and tussle with their Saskatchewan namesakes in Regina Monday.

The Ottawa - Calgary game will be televised in Western Canada by the CBC.

CLAIR CONFIDENT

Ottawa coach Frank Clair said complacency was his club's greatest worry in tackling the Stamps and Roughies, who stand fourth and third respectively in the young schedule.

Clair plans to make more use of Ron Lancaster at quarterback, where Russ Jackson has been handling duties since Ottawa's first and only loss this season, against Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

"We had a good year last season with both of them playing on offence," Clair said before leaving Ottawa Friday, "and we want them both to play again this year."

Rookie Jerry Keeling will start at pivot for Calgary, and probably stay there for at least another game until former B.C. quarterback Jim Walden finishes his homework on offensive patterns.

Hurler Satchel Paige Returns to Baseball

PORTLAND (AP) — Satchel Paige is returning to the mound in organized baseball.

Bill Sayles, general manager of Portland Beavers of the PCL,

SATCHEL PAIGE

said earlier this week that the Negro player had promised to report to manager Ray Katt to pitch in Thursday night's game at Seattle but was due in late. He is scheduled to pitch Sunday.

Paige, who has kept his age a secret, went to the majors 13 years ago after playing in Negro ball leagues for many years. Bill Veek signed him in 1948 to play for Cleveland Indians.

Paige played with the Indians two years then went to the old St. Louis Browns. He has been barnstorming recently with Negro teams.

GUARANTEE ?
JUST WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Did you ever investigate? If so, you will find a car guarantee is only as good as the dealer who sells it. His reliability and dependability in servicing the used cars he sells.

Our used cars are guaranteed exactly as they are represented (IN WRITING)). We offer just a plain "SQUARE DEAL POLICY" to all. For over 40 years we've been selling used cars under this policy. Thousands of satisfied, happy customers can vouch for our Square Dealing.

We invite you to investigate our policy.

Plan Water Service To Trois-Rivieres

MONTREAL (CP)—Plans for the first deep penetration of the St. Lawrence River in mid-winter were announced Friday by a Danish shipping line.

J. Lauritzen Lines of Copenhagen announced it will maintain regular sailings in the winter as far up the St. Lawrence as Trois - Rivieres, 70 miles northeast of Montreal.

Roger Paquin, manager of Quebec Terminals Ltd., Canadian agent for J. Lauritzen Lines, said winter navigation as far as Quebec City has been so successful that the company has decided to try coming farther.

Using ships especially reinforced for navigation in ice, Lauritzen Lines maintained a regular scheduled service to Quebec City throughout the past winter.

"The ships have never been delayed more than two or three days by ice," Mr. Paquin said, "and then only during the worst conditions."

Mr. Paquin said the line has no immediate plans to go as far as Montreal — which normally shuts down its harbor for the winter freezeup—but "we don't say this is impossible. We are looking to the future."

The transport department said it intends no attempt to provide special ice-breaker service for the Danish ships, but navigation to Trois - Rivieres should not prove excessively difficult.

Department engineers said tidal and current action helps to keep the channel clear to Trois-Rivieres in any case, and jams that form downstream are generally not hard to break up.

Terrorism Against Terrorism Now the Rule in Algiers

ALGIERS (Reuters)—Twenty-three persons were killed and 40 were injured in bomb attacks Thursday during the feast of Maulid, anniversary of the birth of the prophet Mohammed.

Observers here said terrorism against terrorism now seemed to be the rule and that Thursday's victims seemed to have fallen foul of one of three groups fighting against one another and against the French government.

The Corporation of The City of Nelson

Municipal Voters' List 1961-62

The following persons are qualified to have their names entered on the Municipal Voters' List:

(a) AS OWNER-ELECTORS, British subjects of the full age of twenty-one years who, and corporations (see below) which are owners of real property within the Municipality.

(b) AS RESIDENT-ELECTORS, British subjects of the full age of twenty-one years who are resident and have resided continuously for not less than six months within the Municipality immediately prior to the submission of the declaration (see below) and whose names are not entered on the list as owner-electors.

(c) AS TENANT-ELECTORS, British subjects of the full age of twenty-one years who and corporations which are and have been tenants in occupation of real property within the municipality continuously for not less than six months immediately prior to making the declaration (see below) and whose names or the names of which are not entered on the list as owner-electors or resident-electors.

All resident electors and tenant-electors as in (b) and (c) above must complete a statutory declaration as provided for in Section 34 of the Municipal Act. Declaration may be made in the months of AUGUST and SEPTEMBER ONLY. Forms may be obtained at the City Hall and must be completed and returned to the City Clerk before 5:00 p.m., September 30th. The name of an owner-elector is placed on the list of electors automatically upon registration of his or her title prior to September 30th, 1961.

It is pointed out that the name of the corporation shall not be entered on the list of electors unless there is on file with the Clerk, a written authorization naming some person of the full age of twenty-one years, who is a British subject, to be its agent to vote on behalf of such corporation.

Additional information, if required, may be obtained by inquiry at the City office. Phone number 1800.

C. W. R. Harper,
City Clerk.

Former Policemen Sentenced to Prison in Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—Six former Chicago policemen drew prison sentences ranging up to five years Thursday for helping a burglar loot a number of Chicago stores. Two other former policemen were fined $500 each.

In a climax to a scandal that rocked Chicago and led to a reform of the city police department, Judge James B. Parsons imposed these sentences:

Allan Brinn, 31, one to three years; Alan Clements, 30, Frank Faraci, 43, and Alex Karras, 28, two to fiv eyears each; Sol Karras, twin brother to Alex, two to three years, and Peter Froark, 29, six months in jail and fined $1,000.

Peter Beeftink, 53, and Henry Mulea, 46, were fined $500 each.

The eight were charged with conspiracy to commit burglary and to receive and conceal stolen property.

Suggest Berlin As Seat of United Nations

LONDON (Reuters)—Fenner Brockway, Labor member of Parliament, announced Friday he has sent letters to neutral leaders urging them to propose to the United Nations that unaligned governments be asked to negotiate a settlement of the Berlin dispute.

In a letter to President Tito of Yugoslavia and President Kwame Nkrumah of hana he warned that "the massive military preparations which are being made may start the war which neither side wants."

Brockway also suggested that Berlin should become the international capital of the world, the seat of the United Nations and all international agencies.

"Would it not be possible," he said, "to convert Germany, the starting point of two world wars, into the disengaged pivot of a neutralized central Europe?"

Odds... and Ends

by M. D. B.

I have a notion if there were fewer homesick tourists there would be fewer disillusioned immigrants. A headline that came to my desk said that Poles look upon Canada as utopia and it set me thinking. You know how it is when you go to another city, another province, another country or another continent how you brag about things back home. True, when you are away and someone asks you about the place you call home, you promptly reach into your pocket, pull out your rose colored glasses and, having shone them to a high brilliance, proceed to tell your audience of the wonders, the sheer delights of that fabulous land in as convincing terms as you can muster.

* * *

After listening to you expounding the virtues and unsurpassed beauties of Nelson, B.C. or Canada, omitting any mention of faults or drawbacks, the gullible listener is inclined to say to himself, "Ah, such a place must be heavenly, I must go there someday, to where the land flows with milk and honey."

* * *

The sad part in some cases, is that they do come to these distant fields they thought were greener. When I was in Montreal I talked with a young woman from Germany. She and her husband apparently had been given glowing reports about Canada and they decided to come. They had been in Montreal four months, and her husband, a mechanic, had been unable to find work. She was a hairdresser and had a job in one of the large salons there, but she was most dissatisfied. "Why did they tell us to come?" she asked, "Why did they lead us to believe that everything would be wonderful?"

* * *

Well, there you see what homesick tourists do, but you know, I don't think they will ever change. All you have to do is see someone in a strange town meeting, by chance, an acquaintance from their hometown — they greet each other like bosom pals and can talk of nothing but things back home. I guess it is just something none of us can help (who wants to anyway?)

* * *

Incidentally, the headline I mentioned at the beginning went with the story carried in Friday's paper on Page four which told of the wonderful selling job the Warwick brothers did for Canada while they were coaching a Polish hockey team.

* * *

And now I will say goodbye for now. You probably won't hear from me for two weeks when I get back from holidays, with, I hope, a fresh and buoyant outlook. I imagine I'll be taking along my rose colored glasses, as far as Nelson goes.

THIEF TO DIE

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet court Thursday sentenced a truck driver to death by shooting for stealing furs and textiles from a state enterprise, the Soviet news agency Tass reported. Eleven other defendants received prison sentences of seven to 15 years, Tass said. The condemned man was identified as A. V. Konykhov.

When the U.S. ratified its constitution in 1787 it had only 24 centres of more than 2,500 inhabitants.
