A YEAR'S PRODUCT

PROVINCIAL MINERALOGIST ISSUE ANNUAL REPORT.

Value of Production Exceeds All Former Years.—Boundary and Coast Districts Have Considerable Increase.

The report of the provincial mineralogist. W. F. Robertson, for the past year has been issued. It gives gratifying information as to the year's production of mineral, showing a greater value having been from the mines in 1906 than in any previous year, The report says that the production for the year 1906 was $24,980,546, which is 11.2 per cent greater than that of 1905, 3.16 greater than 1904, and 42.8 greater than 1903.

The tonnage of ore mined in the province, exclusive of coal, was 1,968,872 tons, some 257,193 tons, or 15 per cent greater than in 1905.

The total production for all years up to and including 1906 shows that coal mining has produced more than any separate class of mining—a total of $79,834,798—followed next in importance by placer gold at $68,721,103, and third by lode gold at $41,015,697.

The metal gold derived from both placer and lode mining, amounts to $109,736,800, the greatest amount derived from any one metal or mineral, the next most important being copper, of a total gross value of $35,546,578, followed by silver at $25,586,008, and lead at $17,625,739.

The copper production last year was 42,900,488 pounds, valued at $8,238,565, as compared with 37,629,251 pounds the year before valued at $5,876,222 showing an increase in the tonnage of production and in value of $2,412,243.

The gross output of the coal mines of the province for the year was 1,899,076 tons (2240 pounds) which with 17.230 tons taken from stocks, makes a total consumption of 1,916,306 tons. Of this total amount, 1,361,728 tons were sold as coal, of which 681,899 tons were for consumption in Canada and 679,893 tons were exported, while 381,773 tons were used under the companies' boilers, etc., or sold locally.

The amount of coke manufactured was 199,227 tons (2240 pounds) which together with 11,670 tons taken from stock, made the sales for the year 210,-897 tons.

Annual School Meeting.

The annual school meeting for Nicola district was held in the school house on Saturday morning last:

The reports of the trustees and auditor were received and adopted, and the amount for school purposes for the year was placed at $325.

Nominations for the election of a trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the term of office of Walter Clark expiring, brought forth one nomination, that of Mr. Clark, who was declared unanimously elected.

It is quite evident that the ratepayers are well satisfied with the labors of the trustees, as the small attendance at the meeting shows that they have every confidence in the way the business is transacted.

Nicola Coal Mines. Ltd.

Work is being prosecuted on the Nicola Coal Mines Ltd., property on Lindley creek. W. A. Angstead has charge of the work which is progressing well. It is the intention of the company to continue development work and by fall expect to have the property in shape to ship some coal.

IRRIGATION CONGRESS.

The irrigation congress opened at Calgary on Wednesday, July 17th, and is attracting a considerable amount of attention. A large number of delegates attended from Britisb Columbia, and about one hundred delegates were present at the opening meeting. There were also present several well known irrigation authorities from the United States, where the problem of irrigation is being treated in a thoroughly modern and scientific manner.

One satisfactory result of the congress is the proposal to form an international irrigation association and plans to this end are being organized among the delegates.

Unfortunately for this district the date of the congress was very inconvenient, those most interested having to harvest the hay crop, and there is therefore no representation from Nicola Valley. It is hoped that next year the congress, which should be an annual one, endeavors to which end are being made, will be held in some part of this province, and preferably in the upper country, when a strong effort should be made to have this district suitably represented at this important gathering.

Timber License Decision.

A decision rendered last week in the supreme court of Canada is one of utmost importance to the timber interests and mill men and timber land speculators in British Columbia. The government issued a Mr. Norton a timber license, Mr. Norton later claiming a renewal of it. The government disputed his right to this renewal, and Norton declared a petition of right and wanted to have the question tried out in court as to whether he was legally entitled to renewal. The provincial secretary, Mr. Fulton, refused to allow the question to be decided by the courts and refused to submit the question to the lieutenant-governor for his fiat, it being necessary to obtain in order to settle a question of this kind.

Norton then commenced his action, claiming the provincial secretary had no right to deny him this accession to the courts, and that his action in refusing to submit the petition to the lieutenant-governor was an illegal act of obstruction. Mr. Norton sued for damages. The trial came on in July last before a special jury, but the trial judge ruled that Mr. Norton had no case, withdrew the case from the jury and dismissed the action. Norton then appealed to the full court. Mr. Justice Irving was of the opinion that Mr. Norton had a good case of action against the department for what he had done and that he was entitled to have it left to a jury; the other members of the court, the chief justice and Mr. Justice Martin were of the opposite opinion, the result being that Mr. Norton's appeal to the full court of British Columbia was dismissed. Mr. Norton then appealed to the Supreme Court of Canada, where he was successful, Mr. Justice Irving's dissenting opinion being upheld by that body.

Court Nicola. A O. F.

At the regular meeting of Court Nicola, A. O. F,, held last Friday evening, the installation of officers for the ensuing term was performed. A large number of members were in attendance. Court Nicola is in a prosperous and flourishing condition and new members are being added to the Forestic band at almost every meeting,

On Sunday morning a parade of members to the Presbyterian church took place, where Rev. D. K. Allan, a member of the order, preached a very impressive sermon.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

DISPUTE OVER GOLDEN SOVEREIGN IS SETTLED.

Miss May Sutton Becomes Owner of Handsome Challenge Trophy.—Nicola to be Included in Racing Circuit.

The litigation between John E. Bate and partners and McConnell and Millar, which was with reference to the Golden Sovereign and Great Republic mineral claims, at Aspen Grove, and which has dragged along in the courts for about a year has at last been amicably settled between the parties. J. E. Bate returned from the coast this week, and reported that a settlement agreeable to both parties had been arrived at out of court, and further litigation has been ended.

It will be remembered that these two claims formed part of the well known Golden Sovereign group of mineral claims, and which were bonded to an eastern syndicate, who did considerable development work on the claims. The showings were satisfaetory and it was a surprise to many who had seen the excellent showings, when the bond on the property was allowed to lapse. There is reason to believe that work on these claims will be resumed and a vigorous attempt made to satisfactorily develop the property.

Proposed Racing Circuit.

Nicola Valley is anxious to be included in the proposed racing circuit and will make an effort to form a turf association, and secure a good track somewhere in the valley. In the meantime the Revelstoke Turf Club, which has taken the initiative in the formation of circuit has been made aware of the ambitions of the Nicola horse lovers.---Kamloops Standard.

Tennis Championship.

May Sutton, of California, again won the Welsh tennis championship last Saturday by defeating Miss Lowther by 6-0, 7-5.

As this is the third time the American has captured the title she is absolute possessor of the $4,200 championship trophy presented by the late Marquis of Bute.

Smi's's Next Trial.

The trial of former mayor of San Francisco, Eugene Scemitz, on four extortion charges, has been set for August 10th.

At the last decenuial census, the population was 5,371,315.

In six years there has been an increase of 1,133,585.

If the present growth is kept up, the population will be over seven and a half millions when the next census is recorded.

PREMIER RETURNS

COAST CITIZENS ACCORD PREMIER McBRIDE OVATION.

The Coast Cities Receive Prime Minister Royally.—Premier Delivers Speeches Outlining Success of His Mission.

Richard McBride, prime minister of the province of British Columbia and leader of the Conservative party in the province, returned to his native home New Westminster on Saturday night and was given a welcome such as has never been seen in the Royal City before. In spite of the inclement weather a large concourse of non-partizan people gathered at the railway depot to welcome him.

After the welcome was over in the Royal City the premier was escorted to a special car and on its arrival at Vancouver another procession was formed and a royal welcome extended to the premier with speeches, after which the premier and party left on the boat for Victoria. On Monday evening the citizens of the capital turned out en masse and the premier escorted to the opera house where an address was presented and replied to by the premier.

Hon. Mr. McBride's successful trip to London is a great credit to his statesmanship, and as a result of his work the claims of British Columbia for better terms can again be put forward.

The following is an extract from the premier's address to the citizens of New Westminster on Saturday evening:

"As a result of my work the objectionable features in the bill have been removed and Winston Churchill is standing as sponsor for British Columbia to further the final decision in the matter which has not yet been settled. I bear with me to his excellency the lieutenant governor of this province a letter from the secretary of state, specific mention, in so many words, that the objectionable words would not appear in the bill as it will be passed by the imperial parliament. The result of this is that our demand upon the federal treasury is stronger and better than ever before and the federal government and the eight provinces who opposed British Columbia in her fight have been forced to admit that she is entitled to better terms. In addition to that we have the official sanction of the imperial government for more favorable and better terms at the hands of the federal government."

High School Examinations.

The rural high school entrance examination results for the province were announced last Wednesday by the department of education. Of a total of 345 candidates in the four inspectoral divisions in the province, 143 candidates passed, or about 41 per cent. In division No. 1, embracing Vancouver and adjacent islands 30 passed out of 80 who wrote. In division No. 2, embracing the lower mainland, 65 passed out of 137; in division No. 3, embracing East and West Kootenay, 15 passed out of 46 and in division No. 4, embracing Yale, Lilloet and Cariboo, 33 passed out of 82.

The list of those who passed for this district is as follows: Number of candidates, 8; passed, 2; Matilda W. Marquart, 678; Douglas A. Wright, 637.

B. C. Log Output.

The output of logs for the coast district of the province for the fiscal year amounted to 339,343,662 feet. The scaler estimates that the cut from the Dominion lands and the interior will equal that amount, making approximately 700,000,000 as a grand aggregate.

PROVINCIAL FINANCES.

The Vancouver Province, in a recent issue, contains the following appropriate article:

"The McBride government has abundantly justified the confidence which has been reposed in it by the people of British Columbia. It has justified that confidence in every way that will appeal to an intelligent and progressive public. It has refused to permit the provincial domain to be appropriated by the federal authorities, it has declined to allow the assets of the people to become the spoil of aggressive corporations, it has insisted on the rights of the province to an adequate subsidy from the Dominion, and when it was repulsed in its efforts to secure such a subsidy, it secured what amounts to an endorsation of its claims from the Imperial parliament; it has now demonstrated the care and fidelity with which it has administrated our domestic affairs, by placing a surplus of over a million dollars in the treasury. This financial achievement is in no respect of less moment or worthy of less popular applause than other and perhaps more spectacular successes of the administration. When we look back to the condition of things which obtained, financially, in British Columbia when the present government took office, some four years ago, we can hardly express more gratification than surprise at the manner in which the province has been lifted from a state of virtual bankruptcy to one of comparative opulence, to one at least of easy circumstances. To accomplish this meant making the most of all sources of revenue, of pruning expenses to fractions and administering the contributions of the public with a skill hitherto unknown at Victoria. It will be said that the period of exceptional prosperity helped the government. It undoubtedly did but the government in its turn did much to make that period of success possible and it took advantage of the prevailing prosperity to place the public finances on a sound and secure basis. While the people made money and increased their cost of living, the government saved, and the result is found in the financial report of the fiscal year just ended, which is now ready for inspection by the people.

The credit for this excellent showing is largely due to Hon. Mr. Tatlow, the finance minister, who has certainly set an example for successors in this office. With the increased funds thus at the disposal of the administration we may well expect the initiation of provincial works which will contribute still more to the progress of British Columbia, and induce a period of still greater prosperity because extended over a larger area.

The irrigation conference is being held at Calgary this week. Representatives from all parts of the province are in attendance. Nicola district is not represented.
