SUNDAY TRADING

QUESTION DISCUSSED FROM ONE POINT OF VIEW.

Why One Storekeeper Should Not Overlook Any Business While Another is Open to Get the Almighty Dollar.

Editor The Nicola Herald, Sir;—Divers people have, during the past few weeks, been greatly excercised because certain stores in the Valley remain open Sundays.

Certainly there is a great deal to be said against Sunday trading, yet at the same time it is almost impossible to draw a hard and fast line. Upon ordinary occasions the storekeepers scarcely ever refused a customer who had driven ten or more miles on the Sabbath day for the express purpose of obtaining goods.

Now that a series of railroad camps are scattered throughout the valley, it is almost imperative for storekeepers to open up for at least part of the sabbath. The average railroad man has only one day in the week upon which he is able to transact private business, and that day comes between Saturday and Monday. Even railroad men have homes and loved ones; are these men to be deprived of facilities for sending away their hard earned pay, or are they to be compelled to run the risk of losing it all at the hands of some unscrupulous comrade, or to be subjected to the temptation of passing a brightly lit saloon when in possession of ample funds. It is unfortunate that the storekeepers cannot agree among themselves as to their hours of Sunday trading, but such an un christian spirit of rivalry is abroad where ever two or three storekeepers are gathered together, that unity for good or evil is next to impossible. At the present time there is more cash in circulation in the district than ever before and no one can be surprised if storekeepers and others take thought to gather in as much of the golden harvest as possible. Most of the opposition to Sunday trading comes from those who are not yet within the golden zone, but their time will come, and we shall then see if their doors remain closed when cheques and cash are on the stoop waiting to be taken in.

One thing is absolutely certain and that is that no one would be more pleased to see universal Sunday closing than the,

MAN BEHIND THE COUNTER.

A Little Brown Boy.

Editor Herald;—Allow me to have the pleasure to spare me few lines in your paper.

I questioned the other day to one of the Orientals why he would not go to church, but his immediate answer made me feel displeasure.

Editor Sir; I heard that one of our kinemen was praised by multitude on account of his demeanor at such and such a church three weeks ago last Sunday. But if they praised his belief not his apparent conduct I express a hearty gladness.

Oh, heaven; if thou holdest the all nations equally, I implore the to spread thy mercy upon them all, to let them read thy words and hear thy speeches freely no matter they were rich or poor. Believers or heathens.

Martial Law for Poland.

A St. Petersburg despatch says: Martial law will be declared throughout Poland. It has been declared at Kroonstadt.

DRANK POISONED BEER.

Vancouver Man Dead and His Wife Barely Alive.

Mr. Thomas Jackson, of 1284 Melville st. Vancouver, is dead, and his wife is not yet out of danger as the result of a Sunday morning drink.

The circumstances surrounding the case are exceedingly peculiar. The statement of near friends who had lived with them for months and known them for years, was that they were a very happy couple.

The indications were that both had suffered from poison, and as the coroner suggested the evidence pointed to strychnine.

They had been in apparent good health and spirits on Saturday night and with a friend, had chatted and joked and had a cup of tea. In the morning Mr. Jackson said he would take some Epsom salts, a common physic with him, and got a bottle of beer from a package that had been obtained the night before. This he opened gave his wife a glass and offered one to Mrs. Jones, his mother-in-law. She declined and he took the balance of the pint bottle.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson completed their dressing and went downstairs for breakfast They were both in the kitchen, when Mrs. Jackson complained of being ill. Shortly after both dropped to the floor. Jackson was dead in an hour and a half afterward. Mrs. Jackson on whom a stomach pump was used, is still alive and may recover.

The beer was labeled "Red Cross Lager Beer, bottled for the Gold Seal Liquor Co."

The convulsions, which it is said the victims went through, the attempts to vomit with the result of the bringing up only a frothy slime, all point to strychnine poisoning.

As soon as there was no doubt that Mr. Jackson was dead the police and coroner were notified who summoned a jury.

After hearing two witnesses it was decided to adjourn the case for a week. Coroner McGuigan explained to the jury that so far the case was one of the most serious that he had had to deal with for a long, long time. It would be necessary to have an adjournment for a post mortem and also to have the beer and salts analyzed. The matter might be one of suicide, or murder, or it might be one of adulteration, in which the whole community were interested. He could not say that the matter would be ready to go through to a finish in a week. Analysts sometimes took a long while to finish up such a piece of work. The jury are held pending further investigations.

J. P. McConnell and J. Millar returned from Spences Bridge this week and are looking over the Aspen Grove section.

Barclay Bonthorne and O. W. Refuse of Vancouver, spent a few days in Nicola this week, and also visited properties at The Forks and Coutlee.

J. H. Foster, representing Kelly, Douglas & Co., and C. V. Jones representative of the Mason & Risch pianos were in Nicola this week doing business for their firms.

Stuart Henderson M. L. A. for Yale and Miss Henderson arrived by special stage at noon today. Mr. Henderson will spend several days in this section.

A. W. Strickland, manager of the Bank of Montreal, Nicola has in his possession a facesmile of the issue of the London Times of November 7th, 1805, with the account of the death of Lord Nelson and the Battle of Trafalgar.

At a general meeting of the Nicola Athletic Association held in the Bank of Montreal building, Nicola, on Saturday evening a large number of members were present, including lady members, great enthusiam being shown.

The chair was taken by the vice-president, A. W. Strickland, and after the minutes of the previous meetings had been read the ordinary business was brought up The resignation of R. H. Winny as president was received with regret. Mr. Winny not feeling that he could take an active part in the affairs of the Association asked that his resignation be accepted, but he would endeavor to do all he could for the association.

On motion the nomination and election of a president was left over until the next general meeting.

Communications were also read from Mrs. Pooley, and John Clapperton, Victoria.

A few amendments were made to the by-laws, after considerable discussion on each amendment.

Three trustees were elected to hold in trust for the association any land or property which may be acquired. The trustees are A.W. Strickland, Rev. W Govier and Ric A. Fraser,

The matter was also brought up that all members should wear the club colors at celebrations and competitions under the auspices of the association. Members can receive the colors of the association from the secretary for a small fee.

The meeting after a very interesting two hours adjourned.

A meeting of the executive committee will be held on Tuesday evening, 21st.

A meeting of the Lawn Tennis Club was held in the court house, Tuesday evening to discuss the advisability of disbanding. After a short discussion those present decided to turnover the assets of the club to the Nicola Athletic Association, to here after superintend the affairs as far as the Lawn Tennis club is concerned.

FOOTBALL.

The Game Last Saturday Was a Good All Round Game.

The football game held on Saturday afternoon last under the auspices of the Nicola Athletic Association proved a great success. The game was played on Broadbent's field and in all there were about eighteen players. Both sides put up a stubborn game and played remarkably good ball considering the players were not in strict training. The game resulted in a win for Mr. Kimpton's side by a score of 4 goals to 2.

W. G. Murray on behalf of the football club of the association this week sent a challenge to Coutlee players for a game to be held at Nicola on Friday afternoon. The challenge has been accepted and all preparations are being made for a good afternoons sport. The game will start at 3 o'clock. Refreshments will be served on the grounds.

Railwaymen Scrap.

Midway, Nov. 16.—Close upon five hundred men in the employ of the C. P. R. and V. V. & E. Railways at Midway last week were engaged in fighting for supremacy and right of way over a disputed section of land in the vicinity of Midway along the route both roads purpose to follow into the Similkameen. Picks and shovels are the favorite weapons and several times revolver shots have been fired. Several arrests have been made of men alleged either to have used guns or had revolvers in their possession.

Behind barricades erected by the opposing parties hundreds of men face each other, and last night several encounters took place when one or other party would attempt to work under cover of darkness.

Sheriff Wood of Kamloops has gone to the scene and with provincial constables will endeavor to quieten matters.

Looking Over The Work.

R. Marpole superintendent of the Pacific division of the C. P. R. and H. J. Cambie, the chief engineer, arrived at Coutlee on Monday afternoon looking over the constructon work which is going on. They visited the Forks and looked over the ground in the vicinity of Charters ranch. They returned to Spences Bridge next morning. Mrs. Marpole accompanied her husband on the trip.

Fruit Packages.

Notice is given that at a meeting of the Board of Horticulture held on the 31st of October last it was resolved that the following words be added to rule 6 of the rules and regulations of the board of horticulture. viz:—

"No person or firm shall use for any purpose, other than fuel, any box barrel or package, which shall have contained imported fruit.

Alberta Elections.

Only one Conservative has been returned in Alberta, Hiebert of Rosebud though Robertson of High River may possibly win. The house is expected to divide 23 Liberals, two Conservatives. Sherman labor candidate, Pincher Creek, beaten in final returns and Marcellus, Liberal was elected.

For the past season there has been a great loss of horses near the coast by glanders and this disease has now gained a foothold in parts of the Okanagan. Dr. Tolmie, provincial vetinary inspector, last week caused the killing of about 20 horses on Okanagan Lake, while other cases have been detected and many horses placed under quarantine.

OTTER FLAT NOTES

RAILWAY SURVEY PARTY MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.

Working From Coquahalla Summit Down to Otter Valley.—Public School Opened at Skookum Illahie.

The V. V. & E. survey party are making good progress and are working from Coquahalla summit down to Otter Valley. Packer, Luke Gibson is camped at Dan McKay's and can easily make the trip in with supplies in one day.

Ed. Tingley, road man, has his cabin near completion and expects to appoint his reception day at an early date.

Dan McKay had the misfortune to fracture a small bone of his leg last week, but is making satisfactory progress to recovery.

Otter Valley is now fully occupied by ranchers from Otter Flat to the Canyon, and clearing brush is the order of the day. The Valley is second to none as a hay and grain producer and vegetables of all kinds do well. Mild winters are the rule, notwith standing a heavy snow fall once in a number of years.

The new school house at Skookum Illahie is completed and a teacher has been appointed. The opening of a school in this section fills a long felt want. Inspector Gordon on his last visit reported favorably for it, and the parents along the road donated and assisted in building the school house.

Achilay Todd, the eminent mining expert is inspecting some of the prospects in this neighborhood. He expects to visit Quilchena at an early date.

Grand Trunk Terminus.

The exact location of the Pacific terminus of the Grand Trunk Pacific, has not yet been definitely decided on, not withstanding all reports to the contrary. That it will be some where in the vicinity of Port Simpson may be taken for a settled fact, but whether on Kaien Island or on the mainland is a matter that is at present at issue between the Indian department of the Dominion government and the officials of the Grand Trunk Pacific. So said Hon. Henry R. Emmerson minister of railways and canals for the Dominion of Canada who arrived from the East, accompanied by a party of friends, who have been on a lengthy tour of inspection over nearly all railways of Canada. Mr. Emmerson says the terminal will be located, "he hopes, next spring" when he will go north with Mr. Morse.

The Telford Case.

At the afternoon sitting of the Full Court at Vancouver last Wednesday the bench was occupied by Justices Irving, Martin and Duff. The Telford case was the first case taken up, their Lordships agreeing unanimously to sustain the appeal against the judgdment of Mr Justice Morrison who reversed the decision of the Medical Association that Dr. Telfords name should be struck from the roll. The judgment of the full court sustains the decision of the Medical Council.

Against Turkey.

A London despatch says: It is officially announced that the powers have agreed to a demonstration against Turkey should the Porte persist in the refusal to inaugurate financial reforms in Macedonia. Great Britain and Germany are included. The Atlantic fleet has been ordered to remain at Gibralter pending orders.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The state superintendent of insurance for Missouri last Wednesday suspended the certificate of the New York Life Co. to do business in that state. Owing to the recent investigations going on, the state superintendent says that he has "cause to suspect and does suspect and believe that the funds of the said company have been impaired by the diversion of large sums for illegal and wrong purposes and that further continuance of the said New York Life Insurance Co., in writing of life insurance in this state is hazardous to the public and to those who hold its policies."

The people of Canada should take warning aud consider carefully where they place their money for life insurance, as the investigations going on in New York have shown up the leading insurance companies of the States as being a nest of grafters and boodlers.

All Canadian insurance companies are reliable and the report of the government can be depended upon. Patronize home companies and your money will be safe and families depending on the protection to be obtained from same will receive their full amount.

The Nicola Athletic Association for the promotion of amateur sport, is receiving the liberal support that an association of its kind should. Several donations have been made and are being put into a separate fund, to be used for the erection of a club building. An association of this kind does a great deal for the welfare of the young people, and the encouraging and advancing of healthy sport has its effect The officers and committee have, we believe, propositions on hand to make the association a solid factor in Nicola.

The Monetary Times in its last issue has a timely article on the wages and employment in Canada. It says: One thing to be remembered in connection with the average wage-earnings of the industrial classes in Canada, as stated in the census reports, is the fact that many, probably most, of the industries, is considerably smaller than it needs to be. It can be said with reason that, to a considerable extent, the average wage earnings of industrial workers might be appreciably increased.

Last week the medical association had a session at Victoria when twenty-five appeared for examination to secure licences to practice in British Columbia. Eighteen were successful. Out of this number surely there is a chance to rib up a law suit of some kind as undue influence is always credited by those who are the unsuccessful.

The elections in New York city are interesting events Thirty thousand voters who applied for ballots at the mayoralty contest were refused, their names having been previously voted.

Something seemed to drop pretty hard over in Alberta and Saskatchewan last week at the provincial elections.

C. F. FLICK.

TO ADVANCE MR. E. S. CLOUSTON.

He Will Probably Become Vice-President of Bank of Montreal.

In the financial circles in the East the question of the retirement of Lord Strathcona from presidency of the Bank of Montreal is being very generally discussed.

While nothing official has been announced by the Bank of Montreal it is very generally believed that at the annual meeting of that institution which will take place on December 4, the announcement will be made that Lord Strathcona will retire from the presidency, assuming the position and title of honorary president, and retain his seat on the board of directors.

The necessary legislation, creating the office of honorary president, was passed some time ago by the Canadian Parliament, so nothing stands in the way of making the change.

The advancement of Sir Geo. A. Drummond to the presidency of the Bank of Montreal would naturally follow. This would leave the vice-president's chair vacant.

The general impression is that E. S. Clouston, the general manager, will become the vice-president, adding this title to that of general manager.

However, in well informed circles, it is generally believed that this phase has not yet been discussed, and that no decision will be arrived at until the time for the annual meeting approaches.

Lord Strathcona's active connection with the Bank of Montreal dates back many years. In 1882, while he was still Donald Smith, he became vice-president, and in 1887 he was elected to the presidency.

Sir George Drummond became a director of the bank in 1882, and in 1897 he was elected vice-president.

Mr. Clouston's connection with the bank dates back to 1865, in which year he was appointed general manager.

Jas. Orr Dead.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser has this reference to the career of deceased; Few men were more widely known in British Columbia during the last thirty years than "Jimmy Orr" as he was affectionately called by his intimates. He had led the life of a pioneer and had known the ups and downs that are so frequently associated with the early settlers in a new country. The youngest son of the Rev. Dean Orr, he was born in Liverpool on April 26, 1826, and was brought to this continent when only six years old. He was educated in the United States and Ontario. At an early age he was engaged in various enterprises and occupied a number of different official positions. Among such he was clerk, assessor and collector for New Westminster, and also clerk of the police court of that place. He was also interested on Williams creek Cariboo during the gold excitement. In 1865 he was employed by the government of the crown colony to make explanatory surveys as to the fitness of the valleys of the North Thompson and Fraser rivers as routes for a railway. For three years he was an assistant paymaster of the Canadian Pacific Railway construction. At one time he was also manager of a fishery on Queen Charlotte Island. Mr. Orr located lots in what is now the city of Vancouver, and in the celebrated arbitration on what is known as "squatters claims" Mr. Orr was awarded two lots on the north side of Cordova Street, between Cambie and Abbott streets.

For a number of years Mr. Orr was active in political matters. He was a member of the legislative council in 1863 and 1864. He was an unsuccessful candidate for the representation of New Westminster district in the legislature in 1878, but was elected at the general elections in 1892 and 1886. He was a candidate for Vancouver city in 1890 but was defeated.
