MEXICAN SITUATION SUDDENLY BRIGHTENS

John Lind Returns to Mexico City and Washington Hopeful of a Better Understanding—Huerta Must Not Be President—Mexican National Pride Only Other Hindrance to Peace.

Washington, Aug. 28.—President Wilson received a long message from John Lind at Vera Cruz late tonight, outlining the prospects of a settlement of the Mexican problem in most optimistic terms.

While absolute silence was maintained at the White House there was a well defined impression in official circles that the Huerta government and Mr. Lind had reached a preliminary agreement which might lead to peace in the southern republic.

It was stated on high authority that the situation was more encouraging than it has been at any time since Mr. Lind went to Mexico. The message to the president was essentially a summary of the points made by the Huerta government in its last note, which was carried to Vera Cruz today by Col. Manuel M. Guasque.

Basis Franker.

While no details were made public, it is understood that both the United States and the Huerta government feel that they can now renew negotiations on a franker basis.

There were persistent reports that Huerta had stated he would make public announcement of his intention not to be a candidate in the coming election, but they lacked confirmation in official circles.

Only One Condition.

Interest was manifest in Lind's suggestion that all proposals be laid aside for the present, except that which asks Huerta not to be a candidate in the coming elections. It was learned that while President Wilson knew the gist of Mr. Lind's second proposal, he was not acquainted until today with the text of the communication in which Mr. Lind promised that, if his last suggestions were accepted, assurances would be given American bankers of the moral support of the American government for a loan to rehabilitate the finances of the present Mexican regime. The White House view of the offer of the loan was that should the present effort to bring about peace appear to be bearing fruit it would be incumbent upon the United States to help Mexico straighten out her financial tangles.

Huerta Can't Run.

The statement of Senor Gumboa that Huerta, as provisional president of Mexico, was prohibited by the constitution of Mexico from succeeding himself, and that the American contention, therefore, was unnecessary, was scrutinized closely. Some officials pointed out that no guarantee existed that Present Huerta would not resign prior to the election and thereby make himself eligible. It was suggested too, that to accept the citation of the Mexican constitution as sufficient restriction on Huerta's candidacy, might be construed as a recognition of Huerta as the constitutionally chosen ruler.

However, hope was found in the vigorous disclaimer of Senor Gamboa that anyone should have suspected Huerta of desiring to become a candidate. This was regarded as a tacit implication that Huerta finally would not enter the presidential race.

Just Pride Interferes.

The chief difficulties now, according to administration officials, are the questions of pride and national honor involved. Protestations by Senor Gamboa that to yield to the contentions of the United States would be a surrender of sovereignty, and would permit a foreign government to veto the candidacy of individuals in Mexican elections hereafter, have been met by the statement of officials here that the United States has not the slightest desire to interfere wih the sovereign rights of Mexico.

Press Helps.

There was confidence in official circles that by the exchange of other communications between Mexico and the United States their positions on this point would be further clarified. Imputations of dictation would be removed, and any changes brought about in Mexico, at any rate, would result from voluntary acts of the Mexican administration. So far as the Washington government is concerned it has been made plain that it hopes merely that a peaceful settlement of the difficulties may be reached regardless of how the Mexican authorities are influenced to compose the situation. Confidence of this was given today through frequent cautions by the administration officials to the press to avoid injuring the sensibilities of the Mexican people by reference to "concessions," "triumphs," or "defeats."

CURRENCY BILL APPROVED AT LAST

Democratic Caucus Passes Big Measure Almost Unanimously.

After Weeks of Discussion Bill Is Ready to Go Before House—Few Amendments Made.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The administration currency bill, after three weeks of discussion, was finally approved by the house Democratic caucus tonight by a vote of 163 to 9. The nine dissenters were Representatives Henry, Eagle and Callaway of Texas Hardwick of Georgia, Loebeck of Nebraska, Buchanan and Fowler of Illinois, Neeley of Kansas, and Sisson of Mississippi.

After agreeing to the bill, the caucus adopted a resolution by an almost unanimous vote, declaring the bill to be a party measure and that "members of this caucus are pledged for the bill on its final passage, without amendment, provided, however, the banking and currency committe may offer amendment in the house."

The feature of today's session was the adoption of a committe amendment as a substitute for the section on bank reserves, which in effect simply served to clarify the section as originally drawn.

The measure will be re-introduced in the house tomorrow by Chairman Glass, referred immediately to the banking committee, which meets next Thursday. It is expected the bill will be at once reported back to the house, which Mr. Glass predicts tonight will pass it within ten days, many Republicans having indicated their purpose to support it.

BI-LINGUAL POSTCARDS NEW IN CANADA ONLY

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—While the new bilingual postcards are an innovation so far as domestic use in Canada is concerned, cards sent from Canada abroad—the 2 cent postcard—have always been in English and French. The rules of the international postal union call for postcards being in French as the official language of the union and also the particular language of the country they come from. The new rule, therefore, simply applies to cards for circulation in Canada only.

SUIT AGAINST CITY BY DISCHARGED POLICE

Two Edmonton Men Will Fight for Pay Due Them—Other Employees Take Legal Action.

Edmonton, Aug. 28—Samuel Wright and John S. Edwards, the two members of the city police force who were recently discharged by Chief Carpenter, today issued the statutory papers starting suit against the corporation for a month's wages due them from the date of their dismissal. City Commissioner Chalmers, whose duties were reduced by the council on Tuesday still occupies his office and has no intention of resigning. He is to reply to the charges against him.

Commissioner Chalmers does not believe the council has any authority to say what his duties shall be. These, he says, are fixed by the city charter.

City Auditor Richardson is preparing a scheme in reply to the charges of the committee. His lawyers are considering bringing suit for damages for dismissal against either the city or the aldermen as individuals. Gas Engineer Brodie and his staff are going to ask for a month's salary in lieu of proper notice.

DEMAND MAY CAUSE SAN FRANCISCO TONG WAR

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Possibility of another tong war here was revealed at a meeting of the Chinese Six companies, when the Hip Sing tong made a formal demand upon the Louis Fong association for $3000 indemnity for the shooting in Portland of Fong Lim by Fong Woo, of this city. Fong Woo is a member of the Louis Fong association and Fong Lim of the Hip Sings.

When Fong Lim was shot the tong made an informal demand on the Fongs for $3000, with which to send the dead man's widow and child back to China. The demand was refused. The tong men threatened warfare and the case was appealed to the Six companies.

HINDUS OUTWIT IMMIGRATION MEN

Find Continuous Route From India, Thus Picking Flaw in Dominion Regulations.

Victoria, Aug. 28.—After a careful and thoroughly careful study of the regulations dealing with Hindu immigration to Canada and an exhaustive enquiry into the routes of different steamship companies which come to this country from the Indian empire, the British subjects of that eastern domain have succeeded in paving the way for their entry into Canada. It is expected that the Hindus will arrive here in the future in as large numbers as the Chinese and Japanese.

When the Nippon lines Sanuki Maru was berthed at the outer docks last evening the immigration officials here found that they were confronted with the Hindu problem again.

Three natives of the Asiatic country applied for admission to this country and today they are being examined by the officials and in all probability will be permitted to remain. The small party which arrived yesterday is the second to come in the last month and now that the Hindus find that, provided they can pass the health examination and comply with the other requirements of the regulations, they can enter Canada, they will be flocking here in large numbers.

The Dominion regulations state that the Hindu must come here by direct voyage from the land of his birth. This question of coming direct has been bothering the Hindu for some time.

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha has a service from Bombay and Calcutta to Yokohama and Hongkong and as they connect with the trans-Pacific boats of the line the Hindu decided to try this route and see what the outcome would be. The Sado Maru, which arrived several weeks ago, brought five new Hindus and they were admitted to Canada. It is understood that this party and the one which arrived yesterday on the Sanuki were used to test the new plan.

ASQUITH TURNED THE OTHER CHEEK

Two Rude Militants Broke Up His Little Golf Game, But He Let Them Do It.

Elgin, Scotland, Aug. 28.—The British prime minister was the object of an attack this afternoon in which his chivalry restrained him from adequately defending himself. While he was golfing with his daughter on the Lossiemouth links, two stalwart suffragettes, who had quietly come up to the green, sprang at him suddenly. They knocked off his hat, grabbed him by the clothing and dragged him some distance over the grounds.

The prime minister bore his rough treatment complacently and refrained from using force to make them desist while they imparted to him their opinion that he was a scoundrel and a past master in the arts of Annanais.

CRUSHED UNDER WAGON.

Kamloops, Aug. 28.—A distressing fatality occurred near Beresford on Monday evening about 9 o'clock when Steve oKti was conveying a couple of harvest hands from Kamloops to his Steve Koti was conveying a couple of wife, had visited Kamloops on business, and they were driving back with two men whom they had engaged to assist in the fields. Near Beresford, however, one of these men, an Austrian, named Steve, swayed suddenly and fell from the wagon. Before the vehicle could be stopped both wheels had passed over the unfortunate fellow, who was fearfully crushed. Steve managed to gasp out a request for a drink of water, but death quickly released him from his sufferings.

The body was brought to Kamloops and is being held pending the coroner's inquest.

PALACE OF PEACE OPEN TO WORLD

Carnegie's Gift to Nations Consecrated in Presence of Royalty.

The Hague, Aug. 28.—The palace of peace was inaugurated here this afternoon, when the ceremony of handing the edifice over to the charge of the Dutch foreign minister was carried out in the great court, in the presence of Queen Wilhelmina, the Dowager Queen Emma, and Prince Consort Henry. These were surrounded by a distinguished gathering of diplomats, representatives of peace and people prominent in all the arts and sciences.

Abraham Van Karnebeck, president of the Carnegie foundation, with a splendid speech, handed the palace into the care of its appointed custodians. He eulogized the interest shown in the peace movement by the queen and emphasized the significance of the inauguration of the palace, expressing a full meed of thanks for the generosity of Andrew Carnegie.

Important Move.

J. Reneke Van Swinderen, the retiring Dutch minister for foreign affairs, then accepted the custody of the building on behalf of the diplomatic corps in which it is vested under the presidency of the Dutch foreign ministry. He referred to the opening of the palace of peace as an important page which had been added to the history of arbitration, the significance of which was deepened, he said, by the presence of so many statesmen, and lawyers of international standing. Then after a few sentences in French eulogistic of Andrew Carnegie, who he said had placed the fruits of his strenuous labor at the service of humanity, Mr. Van Swinderen turned to Mr. Carnegie, who was standing at his side, and breaking into English, said: "Mr. Carnegie, there is no doubt I should think, that you are today the happiest man from the United States, seeing these surroundings, the transformation of your beautiful high spirited munificence into the future seat of international tribunals."

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Hundreds of delegates are arriving for the conventions of the National Association of Letter Carriers and the National Women's Auxiliary to the Letter Carriers. The two conventions open Saturday and will continue until September 5. It is expected that 1100 will be in attendance at the men's convention and 300 at that of the women.

One of the important questions to be considered will be the measure providing for the retirement of aged postmen, now before the congressional committee on judiciary.

An important event of the double conventions will be a Labor Day parade in which 3000 uniformed postmen will participate.

This step has been taken by the German admiralty so that the vessel may be available in case of necessity, as the cruiser Bremen has left American waters.

JULY STATEMENT SHOW DECREASE

Monthly Banking Report for Canada Shows $7,000,000 Drop in Deposits —Circulation Also Less.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—Several noteworthy decreases are strikingly indicated in the July bank statement out tomorrow. The statement is belated because under the new act which came into force in July, the banks have up to the 20th instead of the 15th of the month to mail their returns and several availed themselves of the limit. There are decreases of $6,000,000 in circulation, approximately $7,000,000 in deposits and $500,000 in domestic call loans.

The largest variation is in current loans which decreased from $899,000,000 in June to $858,000,000. In July call loans outside Canada and current loans remain about stationary.

Banker Gives Reason.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—Financial men say they are not much concerned by the fact that there was a falling off of six million dollars in the deposits made by the public, compared with June, as shown in the bank statement for July, issued today by the financial department.

Davis Finnie, assistant manager of the Bank of Ottawa, says that it is quite true that the deposits for July may have been affected by the withdrawal on the part of the Canadian Pacific railroad of several million dollars from the banks for the purpose of retiring bonds valued at $35,000,000 not due until July 1, 1915.

"That may be one cause," said Mr. Finnie, "but there has been a falling off for some time in deposits. There has been a general decline in the value of stocks and bonds, followed by an increase in the rates of mortgages. While the financial market continues in the condition it has been for some time, there will continue to be a general falling off in deposits, for people with money will see better opportunities for investment with safety assured, at a higher rate of interest than 3 per cent. as the banks pay.

"Where there is a noticeable falling off in one or more banks then there may be some special reason. I assure you we are not greatly concerned about that $6,000,000 in July compared with June.

AMERICANS LEAVE ON WILSON'S ADVICE

All Who Can Get Out of Mexico Do so—Cannot Understand Warning.

Several Battles Reported in Country But at Mexico City Everything Is Quiet.

Mexico City, Aug. 28.—It is fully expected that a resumption of negotiations between the United States and Mexico will occur tomorrow on the return to the Mexican capital of President Wilson's personal representative, John Lind. Mr. Lind is hurrying back from Vera Cruz on the strength of Senor Gamboa's note, which he received this morning, and according to the understanding the Mexican government is prepared to make some concessions to the American demands.

Among Americans resident in Mexico the urgent warning from the United States government that they should leave the country immediately, at first caused anxiety, in some cases approaching consternation, and later a general determination to abide by the government's injunction, no matter what the monetary cost.

Seek Information.

The American consulate general was crowded throughout the day by Americans of all classes, seeking detailed information. The consul general, Arnold Shanklin, was unable to give any advice other than that based upon instructions from the state department to send to all consuls in his district a message that they should advise all Americans in their territory to leave Mexico at once.

Many Leaving.

Most of the Americans who called at the consulate are planning to register their property and obey Washington's injunction. The great majority of those who have been able to arrange their affairs have already departed from the capital and some from other places. Those who remain have for the most part interests to leave behind, which would mean the sacrifice of their only means of livelihood.

The warning has created something like consternation on the part of not a few Americans. It will undoubtedly, however, result in a new exodus and the general determination is to abandon everything they possess in the belief that their lives are endangered, but in what way they are unable to understand.

Fever Among Soldiers.

Laredo, Tex., Aug. 28.—Thirty-five hundred men perished in the seven constitutionalists attacks on Torreon between July 17 and July 28, and since that time fever has become epidemic, food is scarce and no aid has been able to reach the city, according to travellers from the vicinity of Torreon, who reached here today. No more than 25 Americans remain in the city and all are reported safe.

The constitutionalists are declared to have lost 3000 men, most of them in a disastrous attempt to flood the city by diverting the course of Nieda river from its head gates through the valley. They were caught in a cross fire from federal machine guns. They later withdrew to Durango. The federal loss was about 500.

Reports also were received here today of the burning of the Labella Union cotton print factory, ten miles from Saltillo, last Friday, by a band of rebels under Juan Muniz. It is stated that Muniz first demanded a "loan" of three hundred thousand pesos, reducing it finally 10,000 pesos, and was this was ignored the plant, valued at $500,000, was destroyed.

First Battle.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 28.—The first encounter between constitutionalists and federals in the movement of Carranza's combined forces on Chihuahua took place three days ago at San Andres, 50 miles from Chihuahua, according to Colonel Baca, of Carranza's staff, who arrived here today. Baca said he had not learned the outcome of the engagement.

Smuggled Aeroplane.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 28.—Manuel Bauche Alcade, a Mexican rebel officer, was arrested here today on a charge of aiding Didier Masson, the French aviator, to smuggle his aeroplane from Los Angeles Cal., to the rebels in Sonora, last May. He was released on $2500 bond.

ALBERTA LEGISLATURE MEET ON SEPTEMBER 16

Edmonton, Aug. 28—A proclamation has been issued by the lieutenant governor in council calling the members of the legislature together for Tuesday, September 16. Last year the custom of meeting on Thursday and adjourning after the formal opening until the following Monday was changed and the house met on Tuesday and at once proceeded with the business of the session. The same course will be followed this year.

For Better Babies.

Everett, Aug. 27.—The Snohomish county fair association is planning to have a "better babies" contest for the coming fair at Snohomish, following closely the plans for the contest at the state fair at North Yakima. A committee of women from the Snohomish county legislative committee has charge of the contest.

SIX ARRESTED FOR HAVING WHISKY

Five Indians and One White Must Face Magistrate This Morning.

One Clever Lister Stowed Flask Under Arm-pit, But Detective Burrows Found Him Out.

Great activity was exhibited by the local police force yesterday in following up several clues of white men supplying Indians with liquor, and as a result of their search, one white man and one half breed were lodged in jail for the evening on a charge of supplying firewater to the redskins, while four of the latter race were also taken into custody, having been found with liquor in their possession.

A unique way of hiding the whiskey from the police authorities was practiced by one of the men taken, for after being searched none of the stuff could be located in his clothing, although during a second search Detective Burrows found a small flask stowed away near the arm-pit in such a position as not to excite curiosity.

The fact that the canneries are now shutting down, due to the sockeye run having petered out, is the cause of many Indian workers coming into the city armed with a good sized roll, which unfortunately falls a prey to the depredations of the liquor runners.

Owing to the fact that a material witness in several of the cases is wanted in Vancouver county court this morning to give testimony, Magistrate Edmonds will open the daily session at 9 o'clock instead of 9:30.

WOMEN SHOW LACK OF SELF RESPECT

Sit in San Francisco Court and Hear Vile Evidence Despite Judge's Warnings.

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—For the first time since the story of her husband's infidelity became public, Mrs. Maury I. Diggs heard it today from the lips of Marsha Warrington, the "other woman."

The girl told the same story that branded Diggs a white slaver and told it more confidently, more firmly, more audibly, though in less detail. In the case of F. Drew Caminetti, now on trial, as in that of Diggs, she remains the chief witness for the government, although the name of Lola Norris is the one coupled with that of Caminetti in the indictment.

Vulgarly Curious.

Diggs was at the rear of the court room, among the spetcators, many of whom were women. Renewed interest in the case was shown today by increased attendance. There was the spectacle again of long files in the corridors, jostling for admission. One woman who had been a constant attendant at the Diggs trial, arose from the morning session and took her place at the head of the file, there to stand for two hours without luncheon that she might be present for the afternoon session.

The very pointed admonitions of the court had no effect on these women, young or old, and they ranged in age from girlhood to past 70. When the testimony and the exhibits became unavoidably salacious—so much so that the policeman testifying hesitated and looked about him nervously before asking the court if he should plunge into specific details—Judge Van Fleet gave warning that no women could remain and hear what was about to be spoken except at the expense of her delicacy. No one stirred.

Tomorrow will be the last day of the Caminetti trial this week. Lola Norris will follow Marsha Warrington on the stand.

Among Diggs' friends it became known today that he is planning to open an architect's office here, pending a decision on his petition for a writ of error to the U. S. circuit court of appeals. His counsel have announced that if the court of appeals finds against him, they will carry the fight to the supreme court. Sentence on Diggs will be pronounced next Tuesday.

RUIN AND DEATH BY TYPHOON IN JAPAN

Tokio, Aug. 28.—Extensive ruin has been caused in Japan by the typhoon which has raged here for several days. Scores of people were killed and hundreds of bridges and houses destroyed. In Tokio itself 15,000 houses were inundated, while in the country the railroads and the crops were much damaged.

THEY'RE HANGING MEN IN CHINA NOW

Peking, Aug. 28.—Both of the parliament houses passed resolutions requiring the government to try members of parliament who had been under arrest before the supreme court in Peking. The government afterward hinted that it would comply with the request, but the deputies representing the southern provinces [illegible] their district of the government.

Mexico, Salmon Run, and Crops All Effect World's Money Market

New York, Aug. 28.—Wall street reached the conclusion today that this country's relations with Mexico had improved sufficiently to justify a more confident position in the stock market. With characteristic eagerness to anticipate as far in advance as possible a solution of the Mexican problem, and with characteristic readiness to jump to conclusions, speculators bought stocks on a scale that produced a broad and active market. Progress upward was uninterrupted from the opening of the market to the close, and material gains were scored in all departments. Bull traders who had sold their stocks in fear of serious complications, took on new lines. Shorts turned about and closed out their contracts. Although it was realized that no definite developments had occurred, sentiment for the day, at least, was decidedly bullish.

Withdrawal of $1,000,000 gold for shipment to Canada was announced. The shipments follow a recent sharp decline in Canadian exchange in New York.

Little Effect in London.

London, Aug. 28.—Money was easy and discount rates were quiet today. The settlement on the stock exchange was concluded satisfactorily and after hesitating in the forenoon, the market finished firm in most sections. Mexican issues recovered from a period of early weakness, despite political uncertainties. Home rails were dull on fears of labor troubles.

President Wilson's message had little effect in the American section. The opening was steady at the light decline, but the losses were regained on covering on the early trading. New York supported the market in the afternoon and values made further gains. The close was steady.

New York Helps.

Montreal, Aug. 28.—There was a slight response in the local market this afternoon to the strong tone which New York displayed and a few issues, chiefly C. P. R., Brazilian, Richelieu and Iron rose into higher ground.

Salmon Packers Off.

Toronto, Aug. 28.—Business was moderately brisk in Toronto stocks today and the market showed a generally steady tone. Reports that the British Columbia salmon pack would not be so good as expected accompanied a little selling of British Columbia packers common stock, which dropped off three points to 134. Dominion canners was also in better request, the bid rising a point to 67.

Wheat Prices Break.

Winnipeg, Aug. 28.—There was a big break in the wheat prices on the American markets. Good crop prospects, generally slow export demand and favorable weather were influencing factors. American corn markets were also easier and Liverpool wheat closed ½ lower. Continental markets were also lower.

THAWITIS.

A homocidal maniac escapes from an American asylum, gets across the Canadian border, is caught and the papers are full of the case, print pictures of him, his relatives, his lawyers, the men who captured him, tell what he eats, how he sleeps, why he doesn't wear a pale blue tie with light green socks and altogether act as though their principal mission in life was to print the biographier of lunatics.

That's what they call live newspaper stuff these days.

Of course, if the papers would'nt print such a lot of rot the public, of necessity, wouldn't read it and up to that point the papers are to blame, but, then, on the other hand, the papers wouldn't print it if the public didn't want it and in that regard the fault lies with the people who read.

If Thaw had not had millions at his back to carry on an expensive legal fight he would have been executed long ago for the killing of White, so that all this public interest is being taken in a man who missed the electric chair simply by reason of his dollars and a doubt as to his sanity.

The sore part of the whole matter is that the Canadian papers are worse offenders than the journals across the line, where the home of the yellow press is supposed to be located. Supposedly staid publications in Toronto, Montreal and elsewhere throughout the Dominion are spoiling the appearance of their front pages with columns of the Thaw stuff and the people are gobbling it up with the avidity of a sucker after worms.

Altogether it's sickening.

London expects to be the best lighted city in the world when its new system of high pressure gas is installed. If high pressure gas does the trick, there's all kinds of latent illumination in some of these new towns you see advertised.

In some of the countries of Europe, when they find it hard to catch a slippery criminal they have his map exhibited in the moving picture theatres. There'd probably be a howl in this fair land if the people were asked to surrender their good money to see a succession of back and front views of Bill the Thug, Louie the Dip and others of that ilk.

The American papers are doing their best to marry off Vincent Astor, the eighty-millionaire, but, while Vincent appears to be willing to be led to the matrimonial pool, he hasn't yet shown any symptoms of thirst, at least not so much as some of the mamas who have their optics glued on that overgrown fortune.

Ladies, get your furs to match your hair; that's fashion's order for the the coming winter, but if you have a particularly good set of furs left over from last snow time and the man you promised to love and cherish shows disinclination to part company with the necessary simoleons, then it is permissible to get your hair to match your furs.

Being a republic doesn't make oriental heads any safer in China than when the Manchus held the emping job in the Forbidden City. Every day some of the folk over whom Yuan Shi Kai rules are getting in the way of the executioner's sword and having their feet cut off just below the chin.

When the local musicers get through discussing their troubles there'll hardly be enough wind left in the whole bunch to blow an E flat cornet.

President Wilson is reported to have outlined a waiting policy with regard to Mexico. So has Huerta: he's waiting to see what Wilson's waiting for.

That Minneapolis man who made seven different attempts to kill his wife may not be all that is expected of a fond husband, but he evidently possesses the perseverance that wins success in life.

HEINE GETS RELIGION IN SOMEWHAT LARGE BUNCHES

Spokane, Aug. 28.—"I'm a Christian and the Bible teaches me that I shall not swear, so I refuse to be sworn," declared Peter Heine, a German preacher, convert of Sister Bilkiss, when arraigned in police court on the charge of disorderly conduct for making an attempt to steal his baby from his wife. Heine, clad only in shirt, trousers, suspenders and shoes, began a tirade before Justice Witt and was forcibly placed on the witness stand by Bailiff Smith. Several times during his exhortation he was quieted by the judge. His wife testified against him and declared that Heine is a worthless character and that he has not added to her support for several months, but has instead been walking the streets of the town with a Japanese preacher, another convert of Sister Bilkiss.

Fifteen days in the city jail was the penalty meted out by Justice Fred Witt. "I refuse to take the sentence," shouted the preacher, and then leaping from the witness stand he walked down to where his wife was seated and addressed a score of abusive terms to her, the woman hiding her face in her handerchief.

"I will just double that sentence," said the justice, "and make it 30 days in the county jail because of your display of religious mania while in the presence of the court."

For two hours after Heine was taken back to the detention room of the police court awaiting the completion of the court session he was crouched on his knees in a corner of the room praying for delieverance. He was finally picked up by Emergency Officer Daniel Phelan and carried to the police elevator. After being lodged in his cell he made the night hideous with exhortations and pleadings that the justice who sentenced him be severely punished.

WOULD RID CITY OF CHRONIC KNOCKER

Chatham's Mayor Offers to Buy Out Pessimistic Alderman—Worse Than Smallpox

Chatham, Ont., Aug. 28.—Mayor Dunn has replied to the open letter addressed to him by Ald. M. Houston of this city. Ald. Houston charged that the mayor had attempted to bribe him when he offered him a lump sum for all the real estate owned by the alderman.

Mayor Dunn says, in part: "Some people are born pessimists and always see the dark side, and are naturally what in modern western parlance are called 'knockers.' This is their misfortune. For many years Ald. Houston has been fighting assessments, and scarcely a year passes that he is not before the court of revision crying down the value of property in the city. During his term of office he has lost no opportunity to cry blue ruin.

"Several business and public-spirited men have looked upon this as detrimental to the city's business interests and the city's welfare, and concluded that if Ald. Houston was so dissatisfied with his lot, he might desire to move to some other more congenial spot, if relieved of his property. It was purely a business proposition that was put to Ald. Houston, and the use of the words, 'open bribery,' is an absolute perversion of the facts, as Ald. Houston well knows, notwithstanding his self-paraded righteousness and honesty.

"This whole matter has arisen from Ald. Houston's objections to the assessment, and when he insinuates dishonesty and improper motives on the part of others in the assessment, he deliberately tries to mislead the public. A chronic knocker is more abhorrent than smallpox."

The controversy between the mayor and the alderman is causing wide comment throughout the city, and is about the liviest sensation the city has had for many months.

DRIVEN TO STEAL FOR CHILDREN

Father, Jailed for Theft, Fears for Future of His Motherless Family of Six.

Spokane, Aug. 28.—Grief-stricken at the plight of his family of six motherless children, for whose sake he has stolen frequently in the last six months, Charles Freeman's greatest worry at the county jail, where he was taken Friday to serve a six months' term for larceny, is over the fate of his youngsters.

"I don't want to see them parted," he said yesterday afternoon. "But I dno't know what they are going to do. I don't know who is taking care of them, but I suppose Hildegarde, the oldest, is mothering them.

"The police said I caused them more thoruble than any one else in the city, but I haven't done anything like what they said of me. It's been nip and tuck for the last three years to get enough to live on, and I have had very little work. My own health broke down for a while following my wife's death three years ago and that kept me down.

"I became desperate when we got to where we had nothing and took what came first to hand.

"I was a foreman under Contractor P. L. Peterson for years and have worked on many of the big jobs of the city. If I had had the money for immediate needs last spring I could have got a job with the Inland Portland Cement company, as the manager. Mr. Brown wanted me to go to Metaline Falls then, but I had no money nor means to look after the children, and besides had hopes of another job soon. But things went from bad to worse, and when we finally got down to nothing I had to take things for the youngster's sake."

BROTHERLY LOVE DRUG ON MARKET

Toronto, Aug. 28.—A bull, a horse, some geese, a stack of hay, and two brothers, Tom and Jim Willey, produced one of the most humorous cases seen in the county police court for a long time. A. E. Ward, J. P., presided and it took him all his time to listen gravely to the evidence. The brothers and their wives, however, were serious enugh.

This is the way it came about. The two brothers have farms adjoining one another in Lansing township, now the corner of Wilson and Bathurst streets. Tom had a stack of hay, about two tons, he claimed, and it was built near the line fence which separates the two farms—two feet away, said he and his wife.

Jim has a horse and a bull, as well as all kinds of geese. The horse, Tom alleged, ate away over half a ton of the hay out of the stack by reaching over the fence, and spoiled three rows of mangels. The geese got through the fence and pulled up the seeds in the garden and ate the turnips.

Total damage, said Tom and his wife, was $3250. They summoned brother Jim and his wife. F. Slattery represented Tom.

Jim said the stack overhung on to his property and it was natural for the horse to eat it.

"How far was the side of the stack from the fence?" counsel asked Mrs. Thomas Wiley.

"Oh about two feet."

"Did you see the horse eating the hay?"

"Yes, I certainly did."

"How far away is it now after the horse has eaten some?"

"About eight feet."

"Why, that must be a giraffe, not a horse, what kind of a neck has it?" asked Mr. Slattery.

"How do you know they were his fowl that trespassed?" Mr. Ward asked Tom.

"I know them, all right. They are not mine, anyway."

"What kind are they?"

"He keeps all kinds."

James says he will pay for the damage if a valuator is appointed to assess the damage. This is to be done and the case was adjourned for a week.

BOTHERING THRESHERS NOW.

I. W. W. Agitators Take to Fields But Not to Work.

Rosalia, Wash., Aug. 28.—I. W. W. agitators have succeeded in tying up threshing operations in a few places around here and with the strike of 15 men, who were working in I. D. Lemley's crew, on the R. J. Fisk place, the situation is becoming serious.

The agitators have been urging harvest hands to strike for a uniform wage of $3 per day, and in several instances small crews have made this demand and farmers have paid it rather than stop harvest operations. However, the majority of the farmers have come to town and secured other men, rather than submit to the demand. The customary wage is $2.50 per day and board.

Citizens are becoming aroused over the situation and despite the fact that four or five agitators are constantly serving terms on the rock pile, there are enough malcontents at large to hamper work in several places.

The crew working on Otto Ringer's machine, seven miles from town, has quit, demanding $3 wages.

Glad News for Him.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 28.—George L. Hutchin, general manager of the Portland rose festival for many years and one of the best known publicity men and Elks on the Pacific coast, has received word that, by the death of an aunt in Illinois he has fallen heir to an estate said to be valued at $50,000. He received notice of the legacy from the public administrator in the home town of his relative today. Hutchin is president of the Pacific Coast Festivals association.

WESTMINSTER PORT :-: PACIFIC COAST

COLUMBIA STORAGE TO STAY AT THIS PORT

Big Concern Said to Have Reached Agreement With City Over Harbor Changes.

With the harbor improvement work progressing, the city council and the harbor committee are busy in arranging details connected with the removal of the existing buildings and industries, now located on Front street, to a point further out in the stream. It is understood that a majority of the present water lot leaseholders have come to an arrangement with the city authorities which will mean that New Westminster loses none of the business being done along the waterfront affected by the improvement work.

Yesterday a meeting between the harbor committee, the city council and the representatives of the B. C. Packers' association, owning the Columbia Cold Storage building, was held in the mayor's office, when the situation to be faced by the company in moving out further in the stream just as soon as the improvement work is completed, was thoroughly discussed.

While nothing definite was given out by either side it is understood that an amicable agreement was made which will mean this company, operating the halibut fleet, will remain in the city.

TAKING HARDWOOD PILES FOR SIX DOCKS

For several days past a gang of men has been at work at the boneyard on Lulu island loading hardwood piles to be taken up the coast for various government works. The piles used are those brought from Australia some time ago and stored here.

In all they will be used at six places up the British Columbia coast for docks, wharves and other works.

The tug Fearless, of the J. Mayers company, has been put in dry dock at Lulu island. She has been out of the water all week and the work of repairing should soon be completed.

WILL DOCK TODAY.

Chilian Barque to Come to Hastings Mill for Lumber.

Vancouver, Aug. 28.—Having discharged most of her ballast in the stream the four-masted Chilian barque County of Linlithgow will come alongside the Hastings mill tomorrow morning to load a cargo of lumber for Valparaiso. The owners have not yet appointed a successor to Captain Mueller, who died at sea on the voyage to Vancouver, and the Chilian mate is still in charge of the ship.

P. G. E. RUSHING WORK ON LINE

Good Progress Being Made—Distinguished Visitor Now in Vancouver.

Vancouver, Aug. 28.—The work on the construction of the Pacific Great Eastern railway, which is now in progress on the north shore, is making considerable headway, and it is stated that the company will, under ordinary conditions, have the line completed according to agreement well within time.

The construction work is being carried out by P. Welch, who has four camps along the line of route, which are employing about 300 men in clearing, grading and pile driving. Mr. McKellar is superintending the construction. At the No. 1 camp, situated in the city west of the Fell docks, about 70 men are employed, and the clearing of the right of way has been completed with over a mile of the roadbed constructed which extends from the Fell docks west to almost the Capilano Indian reserve. There are several small bridges to construct in order to connect the embankments divided by the mountain streams.

McGill Faculty.

Several additions have been made to the faculty of McGill university college, as shown by the calendar for the coming academic year. H. T. Logan, B.A. (McGill), B.A. (Oxon), has been appointed lecturer in Greek; E. A. Stone, Ma.E. (McGill), lecturer in engineering; Professor L. Killam, B.A., formerly professor in science in Mount Allison, New Brunswick, and B.Sc. (McGill), lecturer in mechanical engineering. Lectures will begin this year on Tuesday, September 30. Supplemental examinations in applied science commence August 28; summer school in surveying opens September 1; and supplemental examinations in art begin September 19. Christmas vacation begins December 29, and ends January 5.

Bartenders Warned.

Two bartenders were given warning that their licenses would be cancelled by the license commissioners yesterday if they should again strike customers. William Pierce and Philip Hanafin were the men. Hanafin was said to have struck a debtor when he refused to hand over $10. George Bush had his license suspended for a month for selling liquor in flasks for consumption outside. Four bartenders' licenses were granted and three refused.

Organizing Progress Club.

The organization of the members of the Progress club into sections is now being undertaken by the club officials. These sections will be known as the club welfare, publicity, industrial development, provincial development and the civic improvement sections. Letters are being sent out to all the members requestinig them to specify which section of the work they wish to become identified with. The object of this new move is to give every member of the club an opportunity to do some work along whatever line he is interested.

TO GIVE SCHOLARSHIP TO YOUNG ARCHITECTS

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—One of the most important questions that will be dealt with by Canadian architects at the convention of the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada to be held in Calgary September 15 and 16, and the convention of the Ontario Architects' association in Hamilton on October 15, will be the education of young architects.

It is altogether likely that travelling scholarships, providing an excellent architectural course abroad, will be founded by Canadian architects. This scholarship will likely be awarded to the most successful student, at the architectural course at Toronto university and McGill.

SPORT CHATTER.

(By the Potter.)

Forgetting all about lacrosse, Pat Feeney, Johnny Howard and Bill Bailey made a good haul of fish yesterday in the north arm. The catch was the envy of many a Columbia street pedestrian who passed the trio when they arrived in the city.

The Burnaby Field Hockey club will hold its annual meeting in the Edmonds club rooms at 8 o'clock this evening.

Minto cup lacrosse games and the provincial fair remind even the thoughtless that summer is getting on. Well, that is summer's way—always slipping from us, like money and youth.

One thing Harry Thaw has had the satisfaction of seeing the eastern townships in mid-summer. If Harry could only see a real lacrosse game the trip would be a success, the immigration law notwithstanding.

It is only a short time ago that the English Olympic committee turned down the offer of Lord Northcliffe, better known as Alfred Harmsworth, of a gift of $500,000 with the idea that if such a sum were to come from one individual for training athletes, it might make the proposition look cheap. Northcliffe stuck a joker in the offer when he claimed the right to select the athletes himself. Now comes an appeal from lord this and lord that for a national contribution of half a million dollars and only $25,000 came in the first week. Perhaps they regret their hasty action.

The death of Bull Young in the Vernon arena last Friday is sounding the knell of boxing in the state of California. One cannot give much sympathy to the promoters when they send a green man like Young into the ring against a well trained fighter like Willard.

Says the Minneapolis Daily News: "From Vancouver, B.C., come the tidings that Willie Ritchie will fight Eddie Moy for the lightweight championship on Labor Day. Wheinell is Moy and by what right is he fighting for title."

Eddie Tinner, a one armed telegrapher of Poukeepsie, N.Y., is some ball player. He is winning is games as a pitcher while is batting average is over .300. Send him along to help Bill Graham win the lower mainland championship.

One of the Patricks is here, and another is to come. Then the brothers will tour the east; but what will happen next. Any way, it will be the part of prudence for those having charge of hockey players not to allow their charges to stray far from home or stay out nights. If Con Jones made trouble, what can two Patricks accomplish along that line?—Montreal Star.

GOOD CHANCE FOR B.C. HOP GROWERS

Small Crop Across the Border and Demand There Is Stronger Than Ever.

North Yakima, Wash., Aug. 28.—"I believe that the hop crop of the Yakima valley will be about two-thirds of the normal," is the declaration of M. L. Pincus, of Portland and North Yakima, one of the leading growers and buyers of the northwest.

"I have spent a week in going over the hop yards of the valley and I believe that estimate is correct," said Mr. Pincus. "That includes both the old and new yards. The hops are also uneven this year; that is, some are more matured than others.

"I have visited all the hop yards in Western Washington and know conditions there. There are but 68 new acres, from which I expect about 350 bales. The old yards will produce about 65 per cent. of what they did last year.

"Our Oregon correspondents estimate the Oregon crop to be 85,000 or 90,000 bales, if it is all harvested. The hot weather there has done a great deal of damage. The Portland quotations now are 18 and 20 cents. It is well known, however, that early hops are always quoted from 2 to 5 cents a pound less than they bring later in the season.

"Every hope grower of Washington, Oregon and California will understand why such efforts are being made to break up a legitimate market. Posted hop dealers know that the English and German yield will be but a little over 50 per cent. of last year's crop with a two-thirds crop in the United States.

"Never in the history of hop business did conditions warrant such good prices for the coming crop. The crop is now made, the burr has formed and we can estimate what the yield will be. It can not improve any and conditions may arise that will seriously affect it.

"The crop for the United States for this season will be just about 241,000 bales, Oregon being estimated at 90,000, California 85,000, Washington 36,000 and New York 30,000. The United States consumed last year over 250,000 bales of domestic hops alone and will take more this season."

Championship Baseball Saturday and Sunday

North Vancouver vs. Westminster at Queen's Park—Circle F. vs. Coquitlam.

After days of wrangling, the battle for the baseball championship of the lower mainland will take place at Fraser Mills on Sunday afternoon between the Circle F nine and the Port Coquitlam aggregation. The winner of this game will clash at Queens park some evening next week against the winner in the North Vancouver-New Westminster game to be played here on Saturday afternoon.

The fight is on and there will be plenty doing for the fans of this vicinity during the next few days.

Got Together.

Managers Gay and Fitzgerald, of the Circle F and Port Coquitlam nines respectively, got together and arranged all the details of the affair to take place at the Mills on Sunday, which should prove the most interesting encounter seen on a local diamond this season.

Special cars will be run out to the Mills at 1:30 and 2:30 o'clock that afternoon in order to accommodate the crowd.

Saturday's game should also be a winner as both Manager Jones of North Vancouver, and the manager of the Westminster team are feeling confident of emerging from the semi-final with a clean slate ready to take a crack at either Coquitlam or Fraser Mills.

ALL CANADIAN HOCKEY MAY BE UNDER ONE HEAD

Practically all the N. H. A. magnates are of one opinion that the sooner the national winter game is placed on a firm foundation the better it will be for all concerned. The eastern men have reason to feel that way. Ever since the Patricks started the Pacific Coast league they have come off way ahead in the matter of players, although they have had to pay high for them.

Grabbing such stars as Ernie Johnson, Eddie Oatman, Prodgers and Cyclone Taylor were the coups of the B. C. men last season which not only forced the N. H. A. to go after additional material to fill the gap, but also raised such dissension among the remainder of the N. H. A. teams that the magnates were forced to come through with additional coin.

If a commission is formed it is a safe bet that the Patricks will lay down a set of rules which will make it binding on the eastern men. This spring the lacrosse fans saw Vancouver and Westminster agree with the Big Four on a commission plan, but little came of it.

That was one occasion where the eastern men came out on top, for with the agreement signed by Con Jones and the Westminster club they had little fear of a raid, and therefore offered the players any amount they saw fit. But there was no commission formed.

ROVERS AND ALL-STARS BOTH SET ON WINNING.

Saturday's soccer fixture, the second between the Rovers and the All-Star city team, which will take place in Sapperton park, will doubtless be a real test between the two aggregations since the Rovers are determined to wipe out the stain of last week's defeat.

That the victory of the city eleven was a surprise to the more experienced players is putting it mildly, and despite the statements of the manager of the Rovers that a three goal lead in his favor will be the outcome tomorrow afternoon, the fact that the city men will play an even better game than they did last week is not to be lost sight of.

Sept. 13 or 20 Dates Named For Coming of D.L.A. Team

Saturday, Sept. 13 and Saturday, Sept. 20 are the dates suggested by the Westminster lacrosse club for the holding of Minto cup games between the Salmon Bellies and the Irish Canadians, the champions of the Big Four.

Such information was wired to Geo. Kennedy, the owner of the Canadians and also a big sport promoter in the east, but changes may be made with the present plans in event of the Agricultural society deciding to make professional lacrosse one of the features at this year's exhibition.

Interest is being worked up among the fans on the outcome of the struggle between east and west in event of the D. L. A. champs making the trip, and noting the present condition of the bunch under Tom Gifford, caused by the long layoff, the struggle will by no means be one-sided, in fact after a long season in the east the visitors will probably be favorites for the first time.

The executive of the R. A. & I. society held their weekly meeting this evening when a final decision will be made whether to guarantee a stated price to the teams, or whether to rely on other attractions at the fair.

Would Draw Fans.

Last year the Cornwall team, the champions of the now defunct N.L.U., came out to try and wrest the cup from the shores of the Fraser, but the result was a foregone conclusion, their playing not being on a par with the coast league, hence the failure to break any attendance records. Should the exhibition people, however, decide to take up the question with the teams with good publicity, thousands of fans from the lower mainland, interior and also Vancouver island will make the trip to Westminster in order to get a glimpse at the eastern stars.

WEST ENDS ON TOP

Sapperton Comes Out Second Best in Last Night's Lacrosse Match—Score 4 to 2.

Another victory was notched by the West End intermediate team last evening when they defeated the all-star Sapperton aggregation at Queens park. The final score was 4 to 2.

The game was one of the most fiercely contested of the season, the session being intersperced by two pugilistic encounters which ended in four players gracing the penalty bench, and gave Tim Mahony plenty of work keeping track of the play.

West Ends took the lead in the first quarter when Pentland and Allison notched one each. The former and Storme were in the scoring in the second period, during which time Bert Johnston slammed through the first for Sapperton.

After five minutes of play in the second half Johnston again scored.

Huff and Bill Patchell laid on the stick, the former and J. Chambers leaving the field for ten minutes, while close to time Feeney and Follis clashed and received the limit.

LEACH CROSS COMING

Will Be on Hand Tomorrow for Labor Day Fight with Frank Barrieau

Vancouver, Aug. 28.—Leach Cross, one of the three greatest lightweights in the world, will appear at Brighouse on Labor Day afternoon in a 12 round contest against Frank Barrieau, the local championship hope of the 135 pound class. Cross is due to arrive in Vancouver from San Francisco Saturday morning, and inasmuch as he has been in constant training for the Los Angeles battles against Joe Rivers and Johnny Dundee, he will be in excellent condition to take on Barrieau.

The signing of Cross for the Labor Day bout came as a big surprise, after the local promoters had officially witnessed the signatures of Freddie Welsh and Willie Ritchie to articles binding them to box 20 rounds here on September 20 for the world's championship. In all probability Cross will be matched to meet the winner in this city.

No Quibbling.

Cross and Barrieau will meet at a weight which gives the local man all the advantage. Cross, who is a legitimate 133 pounder ringside, is allowing the local man to come into the ring at 138 pounds ringside. Cross displayed a commendable spirit when he accepted the match on five days' notice showing himself to be a boxer who has wares to display and was anxious to show them to the public. He made no quibble over the terms, accepting the club's offer at a moment's notice, and taking the first train to the scene of battle.

The men will enter the ring at 1:30 p.m. sharp.

NOISY ROOSTERS SPOIL VALUES

Odd Arguments Advanced in Eastern Court of Revision—Smell of Hops is Bad

Toronto, Aug. 28.—To say that Toronto's tax bill would be higher were it not for the crowing proclivities of garrulous chanticleers who, as soon as the first streaks of dawn dart over the housetops, commence to "trumpet to the morn," is an assertion which will be vouched for by the court of revision.

So many and varied are the argumentsand reasons offered by appellants for a reduction of their assessment that a smile never despoils the court of its dignity, even when the argument offered borders on the ridiculous.

At the hearing of the Ward 6 appeals a visitor affirmed that the price of eggs had forced her neighbors to have their eggs newly laid right in their own back yards. She didn't mind this or even the consequent clucking of hens, were it not for the fact that the latter needed male protection. It was the early morning conversazione indulged in by the roosters, as well as other detrimental features that earned her a reduction of her assessment.

Next came P. H. Gain, who is "cursed by cats and dogs" and whose plaint received the sympathetic interest of the chairman. "Dogs and cats should be barred from the city," said he, as he knocked $150 off the assessment.

Commissioner Ardagh doesn't mind the smell of hops but whether he quaffs "the nut brown ale" or not, is a question outside the jurisdiction of the court, yet Mrs. Bicknell, of Dovercourt road, lives "near the smell of quaffs the "nut brown ale" or not, is off her land and $500 off the assessment on her house.

CHILDREN TELL OF THEIR LIKES

Rising Generation of Paris Gives Its Views on Games, Toys and Other Things

Paris, Aug. 28.—In the Archives Sociologiques appears the result of a fascinating inquiry, which might with advantage, be imitated in other lands. Mlle. Robert has investigated the influence of streets on children, by asking 571 children of all classes the following questions: "With whom do you play?" Two play with their dogs. Two prefer to play alone. 'All the others like playmates; 88 preferring playmates bigger than themselves, and the rest seek playmates of their own size. "What game do you play?" The majority prefer games without toys, and the most popular games at all ages are "hide-and-seek" and "robbers and thieves." Marbles are by far the most popular toys. "Do you like the streets?" Three hundred and eight yes, 193 no. Fifty-seven are frightened of people, one of dogs, 38 of accidents, 23 of carts. One hundred and fifty seven like the street because they can play there; 63 because the air is good; 23 because they like to move about; 39 are attracted by "horses, beautiful things, pictures, horses and carts," and one declares that he "loves liberty."

The fourth question was "What do you look at in the street?" Two hundred and sixty-nine said shops, 113 pictures and posters; 103, people;71 animals; 61, carts; 30, nothing; 17 monuments; 12, cinemas, theatres and cirucuses; 10, funerals, accidents, animation and balloons. "Do you look at the shops—and what shops?" Thirty-three no; 460 yes. One hundred and fifty-nine favored book and picture shops; 145, toy shops; 141, food and fruit shops; 61 clothes shops. "What posters do you look at?" Fifty-eight, none at all; 231, circus posters; 474, moving pictures or cinemas. Up to nine years old they are only interested in colors generally or in isolated letters. At about eleven years, political, official and sporting posters commence to attract attention. Though these data have been collected in France there is no reason to suppose they do not hold good elsewhere.

YOU BE THE JUDGE, WE DON'T ASK YOU TO TAKE OUR WORD

for any statement made in this advertisement. I might say right here and now that I wish you to be the judge. Come and see for yourself; look over the bargains offered and see if I am not making prices which were never before made in this or in any other store in this city. This is not a profit making sale but a real bargain festival. Mothers bring your children; husbands bring your wives. Now is the time to get good clean wearing apparel for little money. If we were to sell dollar bills at a handsome reduction you would line up in front of the store. Now here is the same proposition, so get in line; get here early. Don't let your neighbor beat you to it.

Vests for Ladies

What fashion dictates for fall Wear, "The Stroller."

Ladies and gentlemen, especially ladies, but by no means forgetting the gentlemen, we have with us the new fall styles. And the greatest of these is neither the silhouette skirt nor the tango gown, but the "stroller" which has a vest to it and pockets in the skirt and pockets in the jacket and pockets in the vest and looks just like a man's suit except that it isn't. It is neither daring nor diaphanous, which is something of a relief, and it is said to be popular and sensible at one and the same time.

There have been jacket and skirts with pockets in them before, but the crowning glory of the "stroller" is its waistcoat.

It is none of your compromise "vestees," but a real man's vest, with watch pockets, a strap behind, and all the rest of it. It calls for a watch chain straight across the front and is not feminine to any extent whatever.

An Accurate Adaptation

The jacket, too, is exactly like a man's coat, hanging straight from the shoulders and decidedly masculine as to sleeves and lapels. The only thing to give it away is the ornateness of the buttons, of which there are three, the conventional number. The skirt has a pocket in each side, is of plain tailored design and possesses two buttoned slits, and the whole suit is made of the most mannish fabric obtainable.

The "stroller," which is an absolutely accurate adaptation of men's styles, is a novelty in all the fall styles. And it is not a freak either, but a sensible, practical fashion that is going to be popular because of its general utility value. Business women will be much taken with it.

The intrusion of the masculine waistcoat into women's garb is further illustrated by some more elaborate suits that have the "vestee" as an added attraction. The "vestee" is not a separate garment but is part of the jacket, and is a sort of delusion in that it is only a false front, so to speak. It is fancy and frilled and runs the whole scale of colors. It has pockets, however, and is there several ways when it comes to looks.

PROPHESIED DIAPHANOUS SKIRTS 200 YEARS AGO

Cornish, Col., Aug. 28.—The arrival of the diaphanous hobble, and the slit skirt, which threaten the modes of 1913, is the fulfillment of the prophecy and the hopes of Sir Charles de Puyster Goodwin, of Scotland, who lived 200 years ago, according to ancient manuscript found yesterday by Miss Faith Corson Smith in an old trunk in the attic of her home.

The manuscript was dated November 10, 1704, and reads in part:

"The time hath come when I think there is much to be revealed to my children's children in clothing the human form. I cannot believe that men will forever wear wigs, swords and knee breeches and such-like fopperies.

"Ladies should not be so circumspect in their dresses, which are cumbersome, and the long trains which please their majesties of this year of our lord seem to be naught but a design to conceal that which the creator meant should be revealed.

"Perhaps posterity will learn that there is nought to be ashamed of in that which God hath created, no matter what station in life may be mentioned.

"The creator never meant men and women to be so burdened with velvet ribbons, lace and powder that his handiwork should be concealed or distorted. The Romans, it seems to me were much more sensible than we are today, and it may be in a dozen scores of years that peoples of the world will grow these late changes which are only worse than those which were their immediate predecessors."

Sir Charles lived on the Scottish side of the border until he became involved in political offenses that made him a fugitive to London, where the fashions of the times evoked his displeasure and his prophesy.

KIPLING STANZA TELLS HIM OFF

Toronto, Aug. 28.—Kipling, the poet of the empire, saved a man in Toronto from jail. Ruyard wasn't in "our midst," but the manner of the man's rescue from the cells is another glorious example that the pen is mightier than the sword, especially when its words sink into a sympathetic heart. It was in the police court. Col. Denison was on the bench when the name of Victor S. Mendoff was called. A broken-down, somewhat pathetic figure was Mendoff, as he pleaded guilty to stealing some articles from a fellow roomer. But the light of a better manhood momentarily returned, and there was more than simply words when he explained with pride and some dignity: "I was a member of the Marines, and have three good conduct badges."

The colonel heard the remark, but after a searching, sceptical look, said shortly, "ten days." Then it was that the fine baritone of Crown Attorney Corley broke into Kipling:

"A blooming hermaphrodite
Soldier and sailor, too.
But to stand and be still
To the Birkenhead drill
It a d—— tough billet to chew;
But they done it—
His majesty's soldiers and sailors, too."

Every word seemed to bring the military magistrate some recollection. With the last words he was sitting upright with his chest thrown out. Suddenly he leaned over the desk, and, looking at the prisoner, issued a staccato command: "You go, but stick to the red, white and blue."

So Kipling freed Victor S. Mendoff, late of the British navy, from the cells. The old mariner walked out of court with some of his old-time alertness. He had got another chance.

Woman Gets Off Lightly When Auto Drops On Her.

Gifford, Wash., Aug. 28.—F. L. Daily, clerk for the allotting crew on the south half of the reservation, accompanied by his wife, met with an accident while coming from Fort Spokane in an auto, to the new camp that is being established at Inchelium, across the river from here.

Mr. Daily was driving the car and when at the top of the long grade, near Bissel, the auto suddenly swerved to one side and plunged over the bank. Both occupants were thrown out and the car turned a complete somersault, landing right side up, but falling directly on top of Mr. Daily in its first tumble. Mrs. Daily was scratched and bruised considerably, while Mr. Daily escaped without a scratch. One wheel of the machine was badly smashed.

This farce has made a hit in the same way as Get Rich Quick Wallingford and will be of interest to New Westminster theatre-goers.

PROVINCIAL HOUSE TO DECIDE ARMORY SITE

Nothing will be done in the matter of obtaining a new site for the armory of the 104th regiment until the next session of the provincial legislature.

Mayor Gray yesterday said that the old cemetery property, on Eighth street was a possible site for the building promised by Col. Sam Hughes, minister of militia, but until the city obtained a clear title to the site, nothing could be done.

At the next session of the Victoria assembly the site matter will be taken up with the provincial authorities through Thomas Gifford, M.P.P., when it is expected that little difficulty will be met.

WOMAN NOT HURT BY FALL FROM TRAIN

Medicine Hat, Aug. 28.—To fall off a passenger train going at full speed and escape with only bad bruises, was the remarkable experience of Mrs. Meyers. She was accompanied by her daughter on the Crow train and while going from one car to another, fell off. Being missed, the train was stopped at the next station and an engine sent back. Mrs. Meyers was found walking along the track. She was brought to Medicine Hat hospital but her injuries were very slight.

TO INVESTIGATE METHODS OF SASKATOON POLICE

Saskatoon, Aug. 28.—An investigation into the police force methods is called by the mayor, who is chairman of the police commission, for 1:30 tomorrow, following charges made by a local newspaper against R. WILL TAKE YEAR TO BUILD PANAMA CANAL GATE

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—The San Francisco firm that obtained the contract for the two great floating caissons to be used at the entrances to the Panama canal, received orders today to begin work on one of the big gates. The cost of constructing the caissons will be $400,000 and it will take 200 men a year to build it. The gate will be 113 feet long, 56 feet in beam and 65 feet in depth. It will have a draft of 61 feet and will weigh about 10,000 tons.

The two entrance gates are designed for use in case it is found necessary to close the canal to make repairs on the ocean sides of the first locks.

At the Theatres

Edison Theatre.

"The White Slave," an interesting Vitagraph two part drama, will be the feature of the bill at the Edison theatre today.

The story deals with the revelation to a white girl that she has black blood in her veins and that she is a slave of the estate on which she lives. It is a stirring tale of love, hatred and revenge and possesses valuable educational features, dealing as it does with the time of slavery in the antebellum days. The manner in which humon lives were bartered and the evils of the laws dealing with the slave question are strikingly illustrated. The play may be pointed out as contrasting the trying problems of the past with the quieter conditions of the present. The beautiful character of the girl and her utter helplessness to overcome an accident of birth creates a powerful effect upon one's sympathies and emotions.

Royal Features.

There will be several interesting features at the Royal theatre on the new program starting with today's matinee.

One of the most sensational photoplays ever staged will be presented by the Gaumont company, which is known the world over for its novel and exciting films. Fantomas is one of their most wonderful productions and is just crammed full of excitement. The name of Gaumont is sufficient guarantee of excellence in production and photography. There will be a laughable Keystone with Ford Sterling and Mabel Normand in the star parts. Sterling is the funny Dutchman and there is no use mentioning Mabel, as everyone who visits picture theatres is well acquainted with her. A Thanhouser comedy and an American drama will round out the picture part of the entertainment, and Karl Karey will be heard in late popular songs and will also tickle the piano in his own inimitable way.

COULDN'T PUT HIM IN THE ASYLUM

Provincial Policeman With Insane Indian, Had to Keep Charge in City Jail Until Today.

Refused admittance at both the provincial jail and the asylum, a provincial constable from the Chilcootin district was forced to ask the assistance of the city police last evening, in harboring an insane Indian who was brought down from the interior, having been committed to the asylum as insane. The redskin, it appears, made himself a dangerous person among his tribe and also with the white settlers in the district, having chased a white woman when armed with a gun, before being picked up by the police.

A party of four made the trip, another constable having brought a white man down to the provincial jail where he will serve out a sentence for an offence.

The insane Indian will probably be taken to the asylum this morning.

AMERICANS STAYING IN MEXICAN CITIES

Douglas, Ariz., Aug. 28.—Although Sonora was flooded with consular notifications of President Wilson's instructions for Americans to leave Mexico, there was no apparent response today. It was predicted that a few women and children will leave the country, but nearly all men, mining agents, declared would remain at their work the Nacossaria mining district carried more passengers than on any day this month.
