EMPEROR WILLIAM AT MAINZ.

London, Aug. 18.—(12:30 a. m.)—An Exchange Telegraph company dispatch from Mainz says the German emperor, accompanied by three of his sons, including Crown Prince Frederick William, has arrived there.

AUSTRIAN CRUISER SUNK.

Paris, Aug. 17.—The ministry of marine announced today that a French fleet under Admiral De La Peyreri had sunk an Austrian cruiser which was blockading the Montenegrin port of Antivari.

GERMANY OFFERS TERMS TO BELGIUM.

Brussels, Aug. 18.—Ultimatums by Germany have not ended. Last night the Belgian government received a note from the German commander of the German forces to the effect that when Brussels was captured Germany would be willing to make terms with the Belgians. The latter has replied to the note to the effect that under no consideration would such and offer be accepted.

BATTLE IN PROGRESS IN BELGIUM.

London, Aug. 18.—(3:20 a. m.)—The Daily Express says:

"There is little doubt that a great battle is now occurring in Belgium between the Germans and the Belgian and French allies.

"Our correspondent, in a dispatch, indicates that the Germans are advancing on the historic battleground of Waterloo and that events of the greatest importance are in progress."

AUSTRIA KEPT BUSY AT HOME.

London, Aug. 17.—In a dispatch from Cettinje, Montenegro, the correspondent of Reuter's says Montenegro's forces have been engaged for the last two days with a strong detachment of Austrian troops in the neighborhood of Grahavo. The Montenegrin casualties in dead and wounded were forty-five.

On August 16, the Austrians attacked the western frontier of Montenegro from Krivosije to Grahavo; at the same time Austrian vessels bombarded the Montenegrin position of Lovoen.

FRENCH WIN STRATEGIC POSITION.

Paris, Aug. 17.—The war office today announced that the French troops have occupied the important peak of Donen, where they have captured 500 Germans.

The peak of Donen is in the northern Vosges, and commands the most northerly pass into France. Its strategic importance at the present juncture is inestimable. It has never been fortified because of the difficulty of moving large bodies of troops through the pass, but now it is in French hands the pass is effectively barred against German assault.

GERMAN AND BRITISH NAVAL FIGHT.

London, Aug. 18.—(2:00 a. m.)—A Paris dispatch to the Daily Telegraph says:

"It was reported that an engagement between a German and a British warships has occurred off the Canary Islands. It is stated that a German cruiser has been sunk and also that a British cruiser has captured a German ship containing munitions of war."

The British official news bureau has no information concerning these reports.

BRITISH CRUISERS IN ATLANTIC.

New York, Aug. 17.—The British cruisers Drake and Good Hope are now on duty off the Atlantic coast, according to announcement by the British consulate here tonight. It was stated that word had been received from Admiral Craddock, in charge of the British fleet in these waters, to the effect that these cruisers had arrived Saturday.

The Drake, it was said, will remain on patrol duty between New York, Bermuda and the West Indies, with five other British cruisers already here. The Good Hope will go directly to Halifax to await further orders.

It is understood at the consulate that an unidentified British battleship, the first to be in these waters since the war began, is on its way here and will larrive during the week. The battleship's destination is unknown, it was said.

Seat of Government Moved to Antwerp

London, Aug. 17.—(10:27 p. m.)—A Reuter dispatch from Brussels says:

"The seat of government has been moved to Antwerp. Measures have been taken for the defense of Brussels because of the approach of German cavalry."

RECRUITING OFFICE FOR 104TH REGIMENT

Detail of Men Under Lieut. Diamond Have Charge of Quarters in the Trust Block.

A downtown recruiting office was opened at the entrance of the Westminster Trust block yesterday by officers of the 104th regiment. Lieut. Diamond and Provisional Lieut. O'Brien were in charge of the station, several of the members of the regiment being stationed there, some dressed in the olive drab service uniform while others wore the new full dress uniform of the Fusiliers. A husky sergeant wore his busby.

Recruiting parties were sent up the valley yesterday visiting several small stations where the martial spirit has been increasing during the past week.

In front of the Westminster Trust block many Hindus and Japanese halted, casting wistful glances at the sign prominently posted to the effect that recruits were wanted.

ENGLAND AND CANADA ARE SHORT OF TEA

Embargo on the Beverage Has Not Been Relaxed But May Be at Some Future Date.

Montreal, Aug. 17.—That there is but four months' supply of tea in England, and only three weeks' supply in Canada, was the statement made this morning by George Mann, manager of the Montreal branch of a tea company.

"The British embargo on tea will not be raised yet," he said, "according to the latest advices from our head office, which quotes the official notice sent out by the government, as follows:

"'It is not proposed to relax the embargo on tea for the present. Developments will be carefully watched in case it proves possible to effect such relaxation at a later date.'"

London, Aug. 17.—A Daily Mail despatch from Copenhagen Sunday says the latest news from Berlin admits the loss of two German aeroplanes and their crews.

PARLIAMENT OPENS TODAY

There Will Be No Pomp and Splendor at the Special Session.

Members Will Get Down to Business at Once and Transact Necessary Business Without Delay.

Ottawa, Aug. 17—The session which opens tomorrow will be devoid of the usual splendor, pomp and social features which usually attend the first day of parliament. No preparations have been made for the accommodation on the floor of the Red Chamber of the usual galaxy of beautifully gowned women, and there will be no reserved seats in the gallery. Those who desire to attend may do so, but there is no preparation for their attendance.

His Royal Highness, the Governor General, will appear in his field marshal's uniform. His aides will be garbed in service khaki instead of in full dress parade scarlet, while others will be attired also in keeping with the state of war which exists in Canada.

Speech from the Throne.

The speech from the throne will deal entirely with war measures—a declaration of loyalty to the throne; a war budget of from fifty to seventy-five millions to defray the expenses of military preparations; the sending of an overseas force; the enactment of a moratorium act; emergency bank legislation, and amendments to the criminal code necessary to restrain and prevent disorders during the present crisis.

The state drawing room, state dinner and state ball, which have been features of all openings since Confederation, have been tabooed.

Get Down to Business

Parliament will get right down to business at once and any lengthy debate on the address will be discouraged.

The address in reply to the speech from the throne will be moved by Donald Sutherland, M. P. for South Oxford, and seconded by D. O. Lesperanz, member for Montmagny.

In the senate the reply to the address will be moved by Senator Bolduc and seconded by Senator Ed. Smith, of Winona.

Today's trains brought in quite a number of members, but the majority will arrive on the morning trains.

104TH REGIMENT PARADES TONIGHT

Active Service Contingent Will Lead in Full Dress Uniforms—Line of March.

The entire strength of the 104th regiment will parade through the streets of New Westminster this evening. As orders for the active service contingent to entrain are expected to arrive within a day or two this will probably be the last parade of the regiment except when the foreign service boys march to the depot.

The parade will leave the armory promptly at 8 o'clock. The line of march will be from the barracks in Queens park to First street, to Royal avenue, along Royal to Columbia, thence to the B. C. E. R. tram office, thence up Eighth street to Carnarvon, thence to Sixth street, thence to Third avenue, thence back to the barracks.

Regiment Musters 425 Men.

The regiment now musters a strength of 425 members and it is expected that every man will be in line.

The parade will be headed by the regimental band. Then will come the volunteer members of the foreign service contingent numbering 135 members. These will be dressed in their bright scarlet uniforms, while the other members of the regiment following will be in the service khaki uniforms.

Naturally the citizens of the city will turn out this evening in full force and thousands will line the streets to witness the defenders of the empire march on parade. While it has not been announced it is more than probably that there will be marching and counter marching on Columbia street, and the regiment will be put through

London, Aug. 18.—2:50 a.m.—A despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Paris says: "The recruiting of a corps of rough riders is proceeding rapidly. Several American cowboys and cavalrymen are among its members. The Americans have promised to furnish the best mounts money can buy for the entire body. The troops will be self-supporting and are expected to start for the front within ten days."

Paris, Aug. 17.—Accordig to official reports made public today, a German aeroplane reconnoitering over Gives, in the department of Namur, Belgium, was met with a hot fire from the Belgians. The machine fell near Hastiers. Shortly after this, at Dinant, a party of ten Uhlans encountered a detachment of Belgians. Seven of the Uhlans were killed and three captured.

JAP CRUISER AFTER THE LEIPZIG

WATCHED BY U. S. GUNBOAT

San Diego, Cal., Aug. 17.—Under orders to follow the German cruiser Leipzig, the Japanese cruiser Idzuma left the harbor here late this afternoon with decks cleared for action. Captain Moriyama, commander of the warship, made no secret of his plans.

"We are going to San Francisco," declared Captain Moriyama just before his ship left. "If the Leipzig remains near San Francisco, we shall remain there too. If the Leipzig leaves for Samoa or for the Canadian coast, we shall follow wherever she goes. The Japanese consul general at San Francisco will keep me informed by wireless as to the German warship in its movements."

Captain Moriyama said he firmly believed that the demand sent by the Nipponese government to Germany would result in a declaration of war against the fatherland before midnight Sunday. He would not comment upon the outcome in a clash with the Leipzig, but said that in the event of success the Idzumo would steam to the south Pacific to seize the German naval base in those waters.

Shortly before the Idzumo sailed the United States torpedo boat destroyer Hull left the harbor at a fifteen mile knot clip. Off Point Loma, however, the American warship slowed down and it is believed the Hull's commander has orders to watch the Japanese cruiser in order to protect American neutrality.

LEIPZIG WILLING TO FIGHT

San Francisco, Aug. 17.—"We shall engage the enemy whenever and wherever we meet him. The number or size of our antagonists will make no difference to us. The traditions of the German navy shall be upheld."

Such was the parting speech of Captain Haun, of the German cruiser Leipzig tonight to a group of newspapermen aboard the war vessel which with 575 tons of coal in her bunkers, sufficient to carry her to Apia, Samoa, the nearest German port, lies at anchor in this port ready to put to sea before her 24 hours of grace shall have expired.

Taking on Supplies.

Today has been a busy one aboard. Fresh meat, various provisions, 100 tons of fresh water and a quantity of lubricating oil have been taken aboard since she dropped anchor at 1 a.m. The only hitch is the proceedings occurred when Collector of the Port Davis ordered coaling stopped until written application had been made by the German vice-consul, Henry Von Schaek. This formality having been accomplished, coaling the ship began in earnest at 10:45 a.m. and continued until after sundown.

A Visit of Courtesy.

Accompanied by Lieutenant Heidler and Vice-Consul Von Schaek, Captain Haun landed shortly aft. noon and visited Mayor Rolph at the city hall. Later in the day the mayor returned the visit at the German consulate. During the exchange of courtesies Captain Haun decided to present to the zoo at Golden Gate park two Japanese bear cubs, mascots aboard the Leipzig. Mayor Rolph accepted the gift and the animals were disembarked just after dusk.

Captain Haun expressed himself as anxious for an engagement with war vessels of the other belligerent nations and seemed greatly interested in a rumor that the French cruiser Montcalm is headed up the coast. Regarding Japan's ultimatum to Germany he was silent.

Boston, Aug. 17.—A shipment of more than 600,000 bushels of grain to England in five British steamers will be made from this port during the present week.

London, Aug. 17.—10:30 p.m.—The following statement was issued tonight by the British official press bureau: "Any action Japan takes against Germany will not extend beyond the Chinese seas, except insofar as may be necessary to protect Japanese shipping lines."

Japan's Plans Interest U. S.

Washington, Aug. 17.—Japan's sudden entry into the European war situation as a factor that might quickly increase the range of the great conflict to the far east, commanded wide attention today, both among officials of the Washington government and diplomats generally.

The attitude of the United States, it became clear, would be of non-interference in the controversy between Japan and Germany. This was reflected somewhat in the studied reticence of both President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. The president had been asked early in the day whether the assurance of Japan that she would eventually restore Kiau-Chau to China in case that territory was obtained from Germany was regarded as satisfactory here. Mr. Wilson replied that he saw no reason to question Japan's good faith in that connection, but carefully refrained from expressing any opinion on the merit of the ultimatum of Japan's attitude. Published reports to the effect that the president had expressed himself as satisfied with Japan's course were promptly denied by Secretary Tumulty tonight at the direction of the president.

President Will Express No Opinion.

"The president feels it incumbent on himself," said Secretary Tumulty, "as the head of a neutral nation to express no opinion whatsoever on the attitude of Japan or any other country."

Army strategists discussed among themselves whether Japan might not also take the German possession in the Samoan and Carolina islands, which are on the American lines of communication to the Philippines and how that eventualy might affect the interests of the American government in the Pacific.

May Include All Possessions.

It was pointed out in Japanese circles that the ultimatum to Germany applies specifically to the German occupation of territory on the Asiatic mainland, nothing being said about the German insular possessions in Australasia. However, it was explained that in the event of Germany's refusal to meet the Japanese demands, and of Japanese success in war, the conditions imposed upon Germany might be extended so as to include the cession to Japan and to her ally, Great Britain, of all of these island groups gathered in by Germany during the past quarter of a century.

Germany recently has tried to indicate to the United States government the community of interests that exists between the two in their Asiatic holdings. Last week this took the form of a suggestion that the eastern waters and shores be neutralized by mutual consent.

1914 EXHIBITION CANCELLED ON ACCOUNT OF THE WAR

R. A. and I. Directors Take Patriotic View That Best Interests of Public and Organization Will Be Served by Dropping Fair for This Year and Working for Great Event in 1915.

After careful consideration of every angle of the situation, the board of directors of the Royal Agricultural and Industrial society, at one of the most representative meetings held by that body in years, last night decided, on account of the unfortunate war crisis and the consequent unsettled state of affairs throughout the country, to cancel the annual provincial exhibition for 1914 and to bend all its energies to laying the foundation for the greatest fair in its history to be held in New Westminster in 1915, when extraordinary traffic will be drawn to this coast by the Panama-Pacific event at San Francisco.

It was only after a careful and deliberate survey had been taken of the situation created by the great war in which the British empire is engaged that the action reported above was resolved upon. The directors felt that in dealing with the crisis which has arisen they had to consider the immense prestige which enormously successful exhibition held here in the past have created for the society, and the high standards set by these had to be lived up to if a fair were held this year. As against this, the war had developed a situation and created a problem without a precedent. The outbreak of hostilities already had affected Canada and, of course, British Columbia to a great extent; trade conditions on account of the war were, for the immediate future, a matter of conjecture only; militia enlistments already made the possibility of still further drafts being levied for service had necessitated extensive business rearrangement and above all hung the cloud of the empire's war which demanded the first attention and interest of every patriotic subject.

Under these circumstances the directors of the Royal Agricultural and Industrial society reached the conclusion that they could not definitely assure the public of a fair for 1914 up to the standards of the past and in justice to the public they felt that, rather than prejudice the good name of the society and the prestige it has gained by so many former successes, the exhibition for 1914 should be abandoned and all efforts directed towards preparing for a great event next year.

HUNTING GERMAN UHLANS POPULAR BELGIAN SPORT

Reconnoitering Parties Become Lost and Suffer From Starvation—Germans Disguise Themselves in Belgian Uniforms and Deceive Enemy.

Brussels, Aug. 17.—I have just returned from an automobile tour in Eastern Belgium where I found the popular new national game of Uhlan hunting in full swing. Stray parties of German cavalry which have lost themselves in the country between Warem and the Belgian line were being chased from pillar to post by Belgian scouts who took a considerable number of prisoners. Some of the captives, all of whom were suffering from acute hunger, had not the slightest idea of their whereabouts. Many indeed were under the impression that they had reached France.

German Patrol Lost.

The reconnoitering forces seemed to be wholly unprovided with comforts. One German patrol, which ran into the Belgian outpost, was quite convinced until it was fired on that it was making its way back to the German position whence it had started two days ago.

The horses of these men were thoroughly exhausted.

A great deal of desultory fighting took place along the northern portions of the lines on Sunday. There was an engagement in the country southwest of Louvain. I arrived at that spot in time to witness the end of an encounter in which the cavalry on both sides were fiercely engaged. The forces of Prussian cavalry, consisting of Uhlans and Hussars, with a mounted machine gun section, the strength of which I estimated to be from 1000 to 1200 men, came from the direction of St. Trond, with the intention, apparently, of affecting a surprise.

Wore Belgian Uniforms.

I am informed that they have recourse to a ruse of war, which, if true, is worthy of condign punishment. The advance guard of the party were wearing the uniforms of Belgian gendarmes. It is supposed these uniforms were taken from gendarmes who were taken prisoners

Grant Pardon To Deserters

Soldiers Who Deserted Will Be Cleared If They Now Enlist.

Ottawa, Aug. 17.—A despatch has been received from the war office requesting that the widest publicity be give nthe following army order:

"His majesty the king has been graciously pleased to approve pardons being granted to soldiers who were in a state of desertion from the regular forces on August 5, 1914, and who surrender themselves in the United Kingdom on or before September 4, 1914, or at any station abroad where there are regular forces on or before October 4, 1914. They will forfeit all service prior to date of surrender, but such services may subsequently be restored under the conditions laid down in the king's regulations for restoration of service forfeited under section 79 of the Army act.

"Deserters who enlist between August 5 and October 4, 1914, both days inclusive, in any colonial corps which may have been or may be placed at the disposal of the imperial government for the war, will be granted a free pardon, and at the expiration of their service in such corps will not be claimed for further service in the regular forces of the United Kingdom. They will, however, forfeit all service rendered in the regular forces of the United Kingdom prior to the date of such enlistment. The provision of this order will not be applied to men who have fraudulently or improperly enlisted."

CARRANZA AND VILLA FACTIONS FIGHTING

Supporter of Provisional President Executed in Sonora by Followers of Villa.

Nogales, Sonora, Mex., Aug. 17.—Fighting between the Governor Maytorana and Calles factions of Sonora was renewed today in an encounter at Quijano, thirty miles south of here. The result is not yet known. Four hundred volunteers, reinforcements for the Calles side, left here late today.

For shouting "vivas" for Governor Maytorana, who is generally believed to have Villa's support, Maria Huguez, brother of the secretary of state of Sonora, was executed here last night.

Colonel F. Elias Calles, commander of the Sonora garrisons, has been upheld by Carranza in his past troubles with Maytorana.

British Forces Under French

English Papers Give Composition of the Expeditionary Army.

New York, Aug. 17.—English papers received here today give details of the composition of the British expeditionary forces under command of Field Marshal Sir John French. The field force is composed of three army corps, such comprising two divisions, and there is an extra cavalry division under command of Major General Edmund Allenby.

Each army corps is formed of 24 infantry battalions of about 1,000 men each on a war footing, six cavalry regiments each with batteries of horse artillery of six guns each, eighteen batteries of field artillery of six guns each, eighteen batteries of field artillery, two howitzer batteries and troops of engineers, signal corps, army service corps and other details.

The British field force therefore should contain 72 infantry battalions, 18 cavalry regiments, 24 batteries of horse artillery, with 144 guns, 54 batteries of field artillery with 324 guns, six howitzer batteries and the usual details according to the latest British list issued at the end of July.

The first army corps is commanded by Lieut. Gen. Sir Douglas Haig, the third by Major General W. P. Pulteney, and the second was led by Lieut. General Sir James Grierson, who died suddenly today and has been replaced by another general.

Horse Prices Were Reduced

Dealers Attempt to Hold Up Government But Become Reasonable.

Ottawa, Aug. 17.—The attempt made by the alleged horse dealers combine to hold up the militia department in connection with the purchase of horses for the Canadian artillery at the eighteen different points where batteries are being mobilized, has been frustrated by the department. Prices asked by dealers have ranged all the way from $200 to $450, but when it became known this afternoon that five carloads of horses picked up by the department at other points had arrived in the capital, they took a big tumble. Some good horses were bought at as low a figure as $145, while the general average was about $165. It is anticipated that the remainder of the horses required will now be secured at reasonable figures.

General Benson, of the imperial army, has arrived in the capital to buy horses for the British forces. It is understood, however, that he does not propose to pay exorbitant prices and that if dealers are disposed to raise them, a maximum price will be fixed beyond which General Benson will not go.

French Lady Badly Treated

London, Aug. 18.—1:20 a.m.—A Reuter despatch from Rennes, France, says:

"Madame Guillon, a wealthy resident of Combourg, a town a short distance southeast of Saint-Malo, has arrived here, and told how her husband and baby were killed by a mob in Hanover, Germany. The grief-stricken woman said:

"'We were expelled on August 2 from Kolberg, a town of Prussia in Pomerania, and tried to reach France through Switzerland. But we were turned back before we reached the German frontier and compelled to retrace our steps and go by way of Holland.

"'On arriving in Hanover, my husband and myself were arrested as spies and stoned by a mob, despite the efforts of the police. My husband, unfortunately, lost his self control and cried "Long Live France," and "Long Live England," whereupon he was shot.

"'Two friends who tried to intervene also were killed. Our baby, which wore a cap bearing the word "France," was torn away from me, dashed to the ground and killed.

"'My brother-in-law was thrown into prison at Bentheim. I escaped, and after various adventures, succeeded in reaching Holland.'"

TUESDAY MORNING AUGUST 18, 1914.

JAPAN'S POSITION.

The ultimatum which has been despatched to Germany by Japan bears a striking resemblance in what may be read between the lines to that which was sent by Austria to Servia and which precipitated the general European conflict now raging.

Austria so worded her demands on Servia that they would produce war and Japan, taking a leaf from the Austrian book, has presented to Germany such alternatives that the government at Berlin is left practically no other choice than a break with the Japanese.

An ally of Great Britain and self-constituted protector of what she terms the peace of the Far East, Japan seeks an entry to the conflict with a far-seeing eye for what it will bring her in territory and prestige.

That Germany should comply with the Japanese demands for the removal or disarmament of German ships in Oriental waters and the unconditional abandonment of Kiau Chau, where so much money has been spent in fortifications, is inconceivable. In her present plight Germany cannot afford to give a single evidence of weakness and what her answer will be to the mikado's proposition is a foregone conclusion.

With Japan embroiled and the range of hostilities extended from Europe to the Far East, the affair becomes more than ever a matter for serious consideration on the Pacific coast. There are other interests in the Orient than British and Japanese. The United States have the Philippines to look after there, with Honolulu closer at hand to guard and it will take some masterly diplomacy on the part of the Washington authorities to steer a course clear of all trouble.

NOTHING TO DO BUT WAIT.

The European war promised many startling features, but none more so than that which has developed on account of the scarcity of reliable news from the front.

The operations of an Arab patrol in the midst of the Sahara desert never were more safely screened from public gaze than the maneuvres on the Belgian frontier. The heads of the armies of the different nations engaged have made up their minds that the enemy shall not profit by any leakage in information and the lid has been shut down so tightly that there is not one jot or tittle of really reliable news coming in, save the practically unimportant announcements handed out by the official bureaus.

To a generation which has been accustomed to read the happenings of the world from its morning paper at the breakfast table, the situation is novel, while, to the people of the countries directly interested, it is nerve-racking.

There is absolutely nothing to do but wait. Of war correspondence there is none; the hands of the press are tied till a catastrophic defeat is administered to one army or the other, the world will not know what has been going on behind the curtain of silence which the military censor has dropped over central Europe.

EMPLOY DAY LABOR ON SAPPERTON SEWER

New Tenders Will Be Called for the Work Next Week—Opportunity for Idle Men to Work.

The Sapperton sewerage scheme No. 2 is back to the same position as existed two months ago. After discussing the matter from all angles, the new situation caused by the proposal of A. L. Lewis of the Brunette Saw Mills company to divert the trunk sewers along Columbia street to join the outfall originally intended for exclusive use by the Glen Brook sewer, compelled the city council last night to return all cheques to contractors which had been held by the city since tenders were in some weeks ago. New tenders will be called for the proposed outfall adjoining the Glen Brook sewer and also tenders on the original outfall through the Brunette Sawmills property. The tenders received for the "A" and "B" section from the board of works will be accepted when the outfall has been decided upon.

This will mean that day labor will be employed on the main section of the sewerage scheme under the superintendency of the civic board of works.

Contractors will do the work on the outfall on account of the difficult nature of the project which would require special machinery not at the disposal of the city.

The proposed diversion of the main trunk sewers along Columbia street has been found by City Engineer Blackman to be more expensive than the original scheme and unless the cost of the outfall is cut down some difficulty will be experienced in order to keep the total expenditure within the estimate previously obtained by the city.

Last night's action will mean a two week's delay on letting contracts, Engineer Blackman expecting to complete all details by the middle of the week and he will then allow prospective contractors seven days to tender on the two outfalls.

The decision to have the sections A and B completed by day labor will mean the elimination of all disputes between the city and private contractors as to local residents being employed. It is expected that labor employed on the work will be supplied by the present board of works force, supplemented by men supplied through the municipal labor bureau.

It is understood that the work will not be rushed through, it being the plan to give all residents out of work in the city and capable of holding their own on such work, a chance to earn a living by spreading the scheme over several months.

Excellent Display of Fruits, Vegetables and Flowers—Striking Example of Resources.

Exhibitors at the annual Burnaby flower show which was held on Friday and Saturday last, well maintained the high record for horticulture for this district, all the judges being unanimously of the opinion that the various classes were far superior to those exhibited at the first annual show held in 1913. ROYAL THEATRE.

"The Million Dollar Mystery," episode No. 6, or "The Coaching Party of the Countess," drew big crowds as usual at the Royal Theatre all day yesterday. This chapter is intensely interesting and was well liked. "The Money Lender," a good drama by the American company; Cyril Chadwick, the well known English comedian in "Algy's Alibi"; a really funny comedy by the Tannhouser company, and a rapid-fire Keystone scream, "A Barnyard Flirtation," makes an excellent program. The above bill will be repeated today.

"Atlantis," in six powerful reels, is the extraordinary feature for Wednesday and Thursday. This world-famous novel by Gerard Hauptman, the winner of the $40,000 Nobel prize for literature, has been filmized by the Great Northern company, of Copenhagen, Denmark, at an enormous cost of over one hundred thousand dollars, with the result of giving the world the greatest film masterpiece ever attempted. The actual sinking of a big ocean liner at sea is pronounced the most remarkable and realistic scene ever produced. The terror strikcen passengers, the heroic rescues, are a few of the scenes never to be forgotten and gives a vivid portrayal of the Titanic and Empres sof Ireland disasters. The story follows closely the absorbing and thrilling novel which bears its name, and is produced on a scale of magnitude in keeping with the distinguished author's graphic word picture of human emotion and peril at sea. "Atlantis" is now showing in all the leading theatres in Europe and America at big prices, but the Royal Theatre management announces that their prices will remain the same.

FAIRY TALES DON'T GO WITH MAGISTRATE

Alfonse Had Half the "Evidence" Inside and Escaped with Warning—Police Court Case.

"Sounds like a fairy tale," said Acting Magistrate Clute in the police court yesterday morning when a Siwash named Alfonse Miller tried to persuade him that he had obtained two bottles of booze as "presents" from an obliging white man. One of the flasks Alfonse was carrying in his pocket, while the contents of the other had gone its way down his thirsty gullet. As there didn't seem to be any means of getting at the root of the trouble, his worship let Alfonse off with a lecture and a warning.

Henry Alec, the next Indian to bat, had his victim all picked out in the shape of Walter Countryman, whom he charged with having supplied him with four bits' worth of cheap red eye. Henry was right there with the conversation and drew a suspended sentence verdict from the court, while Countryman got a hundred dollar fine or two months in the coop.

The greatest punishment to Henry Burk is to keep him out of jail. Already he has done six months as a vag and yesterday he admitted that he was just a plain tramp, the admission being accompanied by a hopeful gleam in his optics, which gleam faded considerably when the court informed Henry that its decree was that he beat it inside of two hours. Henry had hoped for another jail term and if he hangs around long enough he stands a chance of outmanoeuvring the authorities and attaining his desire.

Jimmy Dunn remembered regretfully that he had a family to support when he peered over the dock on a drunk charge. Considering the hard times, the court gave Jimmy a chance to get back to his fishing and his family.

its system of drills for the edification of friends and admirers. During the past week that the boys have been in camp and undergoing daily drills a wonderful improvement has taken place and the precision which marks the work of officers and men will be surprising.

Overseas Contingent.

Members of the overseas contingent encamped with the 104th regiment at Queens park were given special treatment yesterday on the parade grounds, the officers putting the men to the hardest kind of drilling yet experienced. Both morning and afternoon the contingent, split up into several sections, were drilled on the oval, the rest of the regiment receiving training in another section of the park.

Regimental Smoker.

Last night the regiment held a smoker in the horse show building where a good card of local talent events were gone through. A. G. Williams was on deck and rendered several patriotic vocal selections. The smoker came to an end with a strenuous wrestling bout between Captain Tom Cunningham and R. C. McDonald, of the Y. M. C. A., the referee calling it a draw.

SCOTTISH SOCCER

The National Game Opens Strong, Although War Talk Fills the Air in Great Britain.

The commencement of the Scottish soccer league on Saturday was an indication that despite warlike preparations and martial law being in effect in the old country at the present time, the Englishman and Scotsman desire recreation.

It is altogether probable that the entire league schedule in the first and second divisions of English football will be carried out this winter. War or no war, as long as England is not invaded by a foreign foe, the six-penny admission will be found somewhere.

Out here in British Columbia where the danger of a sea or land fight is very remote there appears little reason why soccer should not be carried out on a large scale this coming season. Many of the players in Vancouver and district will undoubtedly be called to the colors and many too will see active service, but there are more players in sight.

SPORT CHATTER

(By the Potter.)

Hal Sheridan came out with a story last week that the Federal league was on its last legs. A clear case of rebuttal was shown by President Gilmore on Sunday when he announced that Fielder Jones, the Northwestern league prexy, had signed to manage the St. Louis Feds. Jones will get $30,000 for three years besides a big block of stock.

Our old friend Joe Christainson, who was accustomed to operate with the Maple Leafs of this city some two years ago, has been signed by Bob Brown, of the Vancouver Beavers Joe and Billy Weingartner played with Blaine last season and this until the border town team busted up. After that they went to Bellingham where on Sunday Bob Brown lamped the heavy hitter.

Juliet failed to warble very loud to Romeo Hagen, a Seattle scrapper, at Fraser Mills last night.

Tommy Walsh is the most optimistic member of the overseas contingent of the 104th regiment. Yesterday the midget manager of the Columbus team was quoted as making plans to enter a strong team in the city league next season. The next thing we'll know is a wire as follows: Berlin, Germany, Christmas Day, 1914. —Tommy Walsh headed a baseball nine from New Westminster, B. C., here today which defeated all comers in the championship series of Europe. The games were played in the stadium originally intended for the 1916 Olympic games.

WAGE REDUCTION CLOSES SHINGLE MILL

Shingle Weavers Walk Out When Cut Is Announced—Mill Closed, But May Reopen

The big shingle plant of the Canadian Western Lumber company at Fraser Mills was closed down yesterday noon on account of a strike among the shingle weavers who objected to a second cut in their wages.

At the time the general reduction was announced a week ago the shingle weavers received a cut of one cent per thousand, making their scale 16 cents per thousand. This they stood for, but the camel's back was broken yesterday when a new scale was placed in effect making the scale 13 cents. This wage is said to be lower than at any point on the Pacific coast.

The men walked out yesterday and the plant closed down. Efforts are understood to be under way to secure other men to take the strikers' places.

The office force was badly wrecked following the general reduction, their wages being slashed some 20 per cent. In addition to this all the unmarried workmen at the mills are compelled to eat at the company's boarding house, while trading at any other place than the company's store by the married help is, according to the order, looked upon with disfavor. Last week one of the leading groceries in the city which hitherto had a weekly trade at Fraser Mills aggregating some $500, received one solitary order and that from a family which was on the point of moving out.

New Argentina Battleship.

Boston, Aug. 17.—The crew of the new battleship Rivadavia, Argentian, arrived from Buenos Ayres today and the work of preparing the big sea fighter to go into commission will be begun at once. The 900 sailors reached Massachusetts water on the transports Panta and Chaco. The Rivadavia will be cleaned and painted at the Brooklyn navy yard late in September.

London, Aug. 17.—A Reuter despatch from Berlin says the German emperor's departure for the front has occasioned patriotic outbursts by the newspapers of all parties.

LEASES READY FOR SIGNING

Waterfront Lots Can Now Be Secured by Business Firms.

Strong Objection Voiced at Discrimination Shown in Purchasing Militia Supplies.

The Brackman-Ker lease of waterlots was finally settled last night at the city council and with the passage of the bylaw and the agreement is now ready for the company to go ahead with its plans of constructing an elevator and buildings which are estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $40,000.

The bylaw and agreement ratified last night differed very slightly from that held up two weeks ago, with the exception that the whole of the improved area along the waterfront has now been properly surveyed and the plans filed at the land registry office.

The Grain Growers B. C. agency lease bylaw was given its third reading while that affecting Joseph Mayers was given first and second readings. Both are drafted on the same principal as the Brackman-Ker lease.

New Shipping Lights.

With the completion of the new channel at the mouth of the river, the harbor committee of the city council will take up with the marine authorities at Ottawa the matter of new lights for use of shipping. River Pilot L. H. Ford in his monthly report to the pilot board stated that the buoys for navigation had been changed. Range lights, however, were needed, a fog signal should be placed at Garry Point and lights should be installed between Steveston and New Westminster, the report stated. The Annacis bar was reported to allow a draft of 27 feet, at 11.6 foot tide, which was rapidly moving away.

Chairman Annandale and the harbor committee will take up the matter.

City Engineer Blackman reported on a visit to Coquitlam lake on August 13 where he found conditions very satisfactory.

Local Merchants Passed Up.

Alderman Kellington, under the heading of new business, drew attention to the fact that local business men were being passed up in favor of Vancouver merchants in the matter of the purchase of supplies for the local militia now encamped at Queens park. He thought it only right that New Westminster should be the base for purchasing foodstuffs for the 104th regiment. He received the support of Alderman Annandale.

Alderman T. H. Smith, paymaster of the regiment, reported that yesterday afternoin he had taken up the matter with the brigade officers in Vancouver who explained that such a change would mean the establishment of an army service corps. Mayor Gray spoke on the matter as did all the aldermen which was followed by the drafting of a telegram to Colonel Taylor at Ottawa protesting against existing conditions.

Ask for Inquest Expenses.

Burnaby and Delta municipalities will be asked to repay the city for the cost of holding inquests on residents of these suburban districts.

Chairman Annandale, of the harbor committee, reported a meeting to be held on Wednesday morning with the representatives of the B. C. Packers' association in connection with compensation on account of the removal of the buildings formerly housing the Cold Storage company.

Rio Janeiro, Aug. 17.—The British cruiser Glasgow has captured the Hamburg-American steamship Santa Catharina, which sailed from New York July 25 for South American ports.

WAR ENCYCLOPEDIA

DINANT—This Belgian city, about eighteen miles south of the strongly-fortified post at Namur, which is the principal base of the French and English armies, already has earned a place in the present war as it did in previous conflicts. Two days ago the French are reported to have administered a severe check to the Germans at Dinant, which was the scenes of battles in 1466, 1554 and 1675. Dinant lies on the main branch of the river Meuse, which forks about a mile south of Namur, the other branch flowing southwest to and across the French border. The fact that the Germans have advanced as far as Dinant bears out the assumption that the kaiser's army of the north is adhering to its original plan of attempting to reach France by way of the valley of the Meuse. Should the Germans succeed in passing Dinant in any great numbers they would be compartively free for a dash for French territory, which is only eleven miles distant.

JAPAN.—The immediate prospect of this country joining the Triple Entente in its struggle with Germany and Austria under the provisions of the Anglo-Japanese treaty of alliance is focusing considerable attention on the mikado's army and navy. On the sea Japan has 17 battleships, 13 armored cruisers, 2 protected cruisers, 13 second class light cruisers, 4 third class light cruisers, 4 unprotected cruisers, 3 torpedo vessels, 59 torpedo boat destroyers, 50 torpedo boats and 13 submarines. Building and almost completed, she has one first class battleship, 4 battle cruisers and 2 submarines. The Japanese army has a peace establishment of 230,000 and a first and second line war footing of 750,000, capable of increase only limited by her amie population.

MALTA.—This is the British naval base in the Mediterranean sea and is an important point in the present war, particularly since the opening of hostilities with Austria and in view of the impending trouble with Turkey. Malta was acquired by Great Britain by the treaty of Paris, in 1814, together with the neighboring island of Gozo. The area of the two is about 120 square miles and their estimated population is 211,000. Malta is heavily fortified, and has an extensive arsenal and large dockyard. Malta is said to have been converted to Christianity on the occasion of the shipwreck of St. Paul in 58 A. D. After passing through different hands and being used as the base for many piratical expeditions, Malta was handed over to the Knights of St. John in 1530. In 1565 it sustained the famous siege when the last effort of the Turks was successfully withstoow by the knights under their grand master, La Vallette.

GRENADIER GUARDS.—This corps, considered the crack foot of the British army, recently received the Prince of Wales as a lieutenant. The Grenadiers are divided into three battalions, in the first of which the prince is enrolled. The colonel-in-chief is His Majesty the King; the Duke of Connaught is colonel and the lieutenant-colonel of the battalion to which the Prince of Wales belongs is Lord Ardee. The regimental headquaraters is at Buckingham Gate.

COSSACKS—These hardy cavalrymen form the most mobile arm of the Russian army and are recruited principally from warlike tribes in Little Russia. Their mounts are the hardy, shaggy Russian ponies, which are as well able to withstand privations as their riders. The men formerly were armed with lances and some regiments still carry that weapon, but most of them are equipped with carbines. As riders they are second to none in the world. As a race the Cossacks are closely allied to the Ruthenians.

when the Germans entered the city. The Germans were consequently able to approach close to the Belgian line without exciting suspicion.

A number of the inhabitants of the district joined the Belgian soldiers and several parties were picnicking in the woods close to the outposts. Suddenly a terrific fire was opened by the Germans, who were advancing under the guise of friends.

Sudden Attack Causes Confusion.

The dismounted Belgian cavalry were thrown into momentary confusion by the suddenness of the attack. They rallied at once, however, and with drawn swords charged the enemy at once.

The gendarmes turned and fled leaving the brunt of the fighting to be borne by the dragoons and hussars, the latter belonging to the seventeenth regiment. The gallant Belgians literally cut their way through the Germans, piercing the enemy until they came under the machine gun fire of the enemy, but quite undismayed, they reformed and wheeling about, dashed again into the German cavalry battering them right and left. It might have gone hard with the Belgian horsemen, but at the phsychological moment a battery of artillery came into action in support of the cavalry.

Germans Retreat in Disorder.

The guns fired on the Germans who, being absolutely without cover, were in a few minutes thrown into complete disorder and retreated pell-mell. The Belgian squadrons, thirsting for a fresh rush at the enemy, could not be restrained, and followed up their early brilliant charge by sabering the rear ranks of the Germans. In this last dash, the Belgians cut off and made prisoners a number of hussars who apparently had had enough of the encounter and finding themselves cut off, raised their carbines, stocks uppermost, in token of surrender.

Belgians Indignant.

Great indignation was expressed by the soldiers who took part in the day's engagement at the deception practiced by the Germans in their attempt to surprise the Belgian position. I, myself, did not actually see the Germans dressed in Belgian uniforms, but I am assured by several officers who were present at the beginning of the fight that the advance guard of the Germans was unquestionably composed of men in Belgian uniforms. Everybody expressed profound regret that none of the military decoys were taken prisoners, for the Belgians would have been within their rights in ordering their summary execution. The prisoners whom I saw belonged to the Seventh hussars.

Prisoners Ate Ravenously.

All seemed to be very glad to find themselves safe in the Belgian lines. They ate ravenously of the food offered them. All told the same story of being utterly sick of the war, the why and wherefore of which they knew nothing about.

MRS. GILLIS THANKS PUBLIC.

I wish to thank the general public for their kind patronage during the period in which I have managed the Royal theatre. Although being continually hampered and cautioned to keep expenses down it has been my aim to give the public as good a show as possible under the circumstances. In case I hold a like position in Westminster again I will endeavor to offer at all times only such entertainment as will be consistent with the dignity of our native manhood. My house will be a theatre for mothers, daughters, wives and sisters; where purity of thoughts will be conserved above all other things.

WHEN you smell hot bread round our mill know that it's "Baking Day" in our laboratory.

Peep in and you will find our head chemist minutely examining a whole row of bread he has just baked. These loaves are the final result of exhaustive analytical tests of both wheat and flour.

He only calls his flour ROYAL STANDARD after it has made golden, creamy white, velvety bread.

To make bread like that simply say to your grocer—
