BROKER REVEALS BANK'S METHODS

In the Case of the Ontario Bank, Evidence Is Given Which Shows Need of Independent Audits.

Toronto, Nov. 9.—Chas. McGill, ex-general manager of the wrecked Ontario bank, was again before Magistrate Denison to-day, on the original charge of making false returns to the government.

A. E. Ames, of the banking and brokerage firm of A. E. Ames & Co., was on the witness stand, and explained certain transactions between McGill and his firm as shown in a "C. M. special account." Crown Attorney Corley filed cheques, amounting in all to $65,000, which went to the credit of McGill with Ames' firm.

Witness said the firm did not know the amounts were the bank's money. The magistrate asked if the evident use of some of McGill's paper in New York and Montreal would have the effect of varying things in Toronto. Ames would not say so.

"Then," said the magistrate, "the entry on the bank's book, indicating that you owe the bank $136,000, is a false entry?"

"We did not owe the bank that money," said Ames.

Herbert McKay, counsel for McGill, asked Ames to say that, assuming McGill was acting for the bank, the account might appear as against the bank.

"As a broker, you can tell me whether it is customary for banks to speculate in stocks, buying and selling on margin?" said the magistrate.

"There are margins and margins," was the answer. "There is a difference in kind. A bank may buy securities and make only a part payment. Canadian banks," Ames said, "sometimes undertake large underwritings on only part payments." He spoke of cases of stock buying by banks, but would not say it was frequent or ordinary.

Ames swore that when the July report was made to the government, showing an apparent debt of $136,000 by Ames' firm to the bank, McGill must have known the statement to be incorrect. He also said McGill in his stock dealing sometimes sold short, which was a pure gamble.

The Insurance Commission.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—Reports of the insurance commission will be in the hands of members of parliament within a week after the opening of the session. This will mean that if any legislation is required as a result of the report, it can be framed and introduced before the holidays. This morning there were no witnesses, and the commissioners sat in private, summing up evidence. The next public meeting will be held some time next week, and will probably be the last. The only thing of any importance that remains to be done is to hear evidence of the life insurance managers' association.

Steamer Touched Bottom.

Montreal, Nov. 9.—The Donaldson line steamship Athenia, McNeil, from Montreal to Glasgow, went ashore this morning at Cape Roue, 45 miles this side of Quebec, but was floated at high water this afternoon and proceeded to Quebec. It is thought she did not receive any serious damage.

Not Guilty.

Morden, Man., Nov. 9.—M. Doyle, accused of murdering V. Weiler at Snowflake, Man., last year, was found not guilty by the jury this afternoon.

"READY, AYE, READY."

London, Nov. 9—At the Lord Mayor's banquet to-night in the Guildhall, responding to the toast "The Imperial Services" War Secretary Haldane said that he and the first lord of the admiralty, Lord Tweedmouth, realized it was a solemn duty on their part not to diminish the country's fighting force by one whit. It was the duty of a Christian people, the speaker continued, to set an example by reducing the expenditures for armaments, but unless they had a response from other nations this was impossible.

The speaker hoped the time would come when nations would look back upon these days as a period of barbarism, and wonder why they had spent millions in this manner. But until that time arrived, it was in the interest of peace itself that no nation let down its strength, and it was the duty of Great Britain to maintain its fighting efficiency. The Marquis of Ripon, who was almost inaudible throughout his speech, replied to the toast, "His Majesty's Ministers." He expressed the government's satisfaction that it had been able to continue the foreign policy of Lord Lansdowne, and said he was glad to be able to declare, after consultation with Sir Edward Grey, that at present all indications pointed toward peace. "We wish to be, and we are," said the Marquis of Ripon, "on friendly terms with all nations."

Cute Yankees Find A New Expedient

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 9.—A new phase of the fisheries dispute between American fishermen and the Newfoundland government has developed. Three masters of Gloucester, Mass., fishing schooners have arrived here for the purpose of securing crews made up of Nova Scotian sailors to proceed to Newfoundland fishing grounds for herring. It is thought if this plan proves successful, other Gloucester captains may adopt it. This will offset the effect of the Newfoundland government's contemplated action to prevent Newfoundland fishermen manning American vessels.

GRAND NEW HOTEL CRASHES DOWN

Planned As The Finest Structure On The Coast, It Falls Into a Heap of Ruins---Many Lives Lost.

Long Beach, Cal., Nov. 9.—The huge structure of the $750,000 Bixby hotel, under course of construction on the beach here collapsed without warning at 9.45 to-day, supposedly as the result of faulty construction, killing between twelve and fifteen workmen and injuring more than a score of others. The building was of reinforced concrete and the men were crushed to death beneath the tons of mortar and iron. Only two of the dead have been recovered.

Upward of twenty injured have been removed to the Long Beach Hospital, which is filled to overflowing. It is statted that more than fifteen workmen are still buried in the debris.

R. A. Lee, who was taken from the ruins with his leg gashed and suffering from internal injuries, said:

"I was at work on the fourth floor of the building, nailing down a joist. I noticed four or five laborers carrying a heavy beam from the front toward the central portion of the building. When they arrived about the centre, I saw them let the beam fall with unusual violence. The whole building shook and then seemed to crumble and fall beneath us. I saw workmen jump in all directions in attempting to escape the wreckage. I fell straight back into the interior of the structure. When I struck the ground below I lost consciousness and knew nothing more until some men rescued me."

The Hotel Bixby was to have been one of the best appointed hotels on the Southern coast. The total cost of the building was estimated at $750,000. The plans called for 276 guest chambers and the building covered a ground space of 175x348 feet. Four storeys of the structure had reached completion. It was being built on the beach facing the ocean.

Amateur Cowboy.

The drunken bravado of a logger and the antics of an infuriated cow provided a few minutes' amusement around the C.P.R. depot yesterday afternoon, the grand finale being exciting enough to satisfy the most exacting. The cow was one of a number which were being driven along Front street, but she managed to stray away from the herd and was proceeding along Columbia street, when the logger interposed in her path, and grabbing her by the horns, attempted to throw the animal in the most approved matador fashion. Having never been in a Spanish bull fight, however, the cow did not understand, and objected to the attentions of the would-be toreador in no uncertain fashion.

With a sudden thrust of her head, she managed to break the loving hold the logger had on her horns, and then the fun commenced in earnest. The cow assumed the offensive, and attempted to pin the man to the ground by goring him with her horns. As the logger appeared to be in imminent danger of being impaled on the furious animal's horns, several bystanders went bravely to his rescue, and a fight for the possession of the bone of contention commenced. The cow was finally overpowered by sheer weight of numbers, and the logger was rescued from his perilous position.

WELL-KNOWN MAN ACCUSED OF SMUGGLING

Government Official is Said to Have Abused His Position to Cover Criminal Acts.

Seattle, Nov. 9.—J. A. Bunce, for years a deputy under Sheriff Cudahy and until recently the partner of Nelson, late candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, in a private detective agency, was arrested this morning upon a complaint sworn out by W. M. Rice, special agent of the treasury department, charged with smuggling.

This is the most sensational case with which the customs officials of the coast have had to deal in years, not only because of the prominence of the man involved, but because of the methods employed by him in carrying on his alleged illicit business. Bunce is said to be worth $75,000.

At the time of his arrest Bunce was ostensibly working in the interest of the United States government to unravel a band of smugglers which he and his men had reason to believe were operating in and around Lynden, on the British Columbia line, but it has developed, from such investigation as has been made by the federal officers, that Bunce is the man that was sending contraband goods over the line.

A Terrorist Outrage.

Warsaw, Poland, Nov. 9.—The mail robbery at this station last night was the work of men well armed and mounted. The walls of the station were riddled with hundreds of bullets from the revolutionists. One of the clerks endeavored to catch the bomb thrown at the car, but it exploded and cut off both his arms. The authorities admit the loss of only $[illegible] in cash, besides the unknown [illegible] of the registered letters. The [illegible] have not yet been overtaken [illegible] Cossacks sent in pursuit.

Robbed the Cop.

Toronto, Nov. 9.—While Police Constable Robert Lewis was asleep in his home on Ossington avenue, early yesterday morning, burglars robbed the house, carrying away a purse and money before being disturbed.

PRESIDENT DISCLAIMS ALL INTERVIEWS

White House Statement Warns Public Against Reports of Talk With Roosevelt.

Washington, Nov. 9.—This statement was made public at the White house to-day: "For many years it has been the invariable practice never to attempt to quote a private conversation with a president. It has been found, as a matter of fact, that the man who quotes such a conversation usually misquotes it, whether consciously or unconsciously, and such an alleged conversation is under no circumstances to be held as calling for either explanation or denial by the president. The president is responsible only for what he himself says in public, for what he writes, or for what he explicitly authorizes the proper government officials to state in his behalf."

Football To-day.

A representative city football team has been gathered together for the purpose of meeting the Rovers at Moody square this afternoon, and a good game of soccer will be indulged in. Although the game is supposed to be in the nature of a practice for the Rovers, the team that has been selected to meet them is one that will give them all they want in the way of work before they are allowed to score many goals. The game has been called for 3 o'clock, and all juniors who will be using the grounds as a practice field at the time will be requested to hie themselves away very quick, and not make any bones about it, either. Tim Mahoney will carry the whistle around the field and keep an eye on the players during the game. The teams will be composed of the following players, all of whom are requested to appear sharp on time: Rovers—Goal, Davidson; backs, Leamy, Kirby; half backs, Anderson, S. Turnbull, Peele; forwards, Ambrose, Johnston, Brown, L. Turnbull and Wun More. City team—Goal, Parkinson; backs, Wedge, Etherington; half backs, Purdy, Kirkpatrick, McAdam; forwards, Oddy, Mathews, Turner, Ryall, Canfield.

TRIUMPHANT HARRIMAN TO GO ON GRIDIRON

Interstate Commission Getting Ready to Make it Hot for "Harriman System."

Washington, Nov. 7.—A general investigation of what is known as the "Harriman system" of railroads, under the authority conferred by law, is one of the subjects to be discussed by the interstate commerce commission. Because of the pressure of work on the committee, and the great amount of labor and time involved in such an undertaking, the merger thus far has been considered only in a tentative way, and no formal decision has been reached as to when the proposed enquiry shall begin or the methods to be followed in securing the conviction desired.

Looking for Coal.

Charles C. Hopkins, representing the Skaget Commission Co., of Sedro Wooley, Wash., was in the city yesterday and was trying to make arrangements with the local coal merchants to handle Canadian coal at Sedro Wooley. The recent coal mine strikes have played havoc with the coal trade on the other side, and the American mines cannot supply fuel fast enough for consumption, and the people of the Sedro Wooley district are almost entirely dependent on the importation of coal for fuel. It is possible that a large business in coal may result from Mr. Hopkins' visit if terms are arrived at.

New Mill at Ruskin.

Another shingle and saw mill is to be built at Ruskin early in 1907, by a gentleman who hails from the Netherlands, and who arrived here recently for the purpose of investing his capital in some remunerative enterprise. Large timber reserves have been secured in the neighborhood, and these will be exploited first. The manager of the new company intends to build a road up to the mill, and men are already working at the grading, and have over three hundred yards completed. The new mill will be built a short distance from the Fraser River Lumber Co.'s plant, and will be in full operation by next spring.

"ERIN GO BRAGH" FITS THE CASE

Irishmen Capture Big Events at Athletic Society's Meeting in New York.

New York, Nov. 9.—Martin J. Sheridan, of the Irish-American A. C., was the star performer to-night at the opening games of the two days' indoor championship meeting of the Amateur Athletic union of the United States. He was victorious in throwing the 56 pound weight for height and in putting the eight pound shot, with marks of 15 feet 3 inches and 61 feet 8 inches respectively; the latter, being a new record, gave him a lead above all other competitors. Winners: 300 yard dash, Lawson Robertson, Irish A. C., time 34 seconds; 56 pound weight for height, Martin Sheridan, I.A.A.C., 15 feet 3 inches; 1,000 yards run, Melvin W. Shepard, I.A.A.C., time 2.27 4-5; running high jump, H. A. Gidney, Boston A.A., 5 feet 1½ inches; standing broad jump, Ray C. Ewry, N.Y.A.C., 11 feet 2½ inches; pole vault for distance, M. J. Sheridan, I.A.A.C., 17 feet 1½ inches.

Lockmaster Drowned.

Peterboro, Ont., Nov. 9.—Chas. Fuller, lockmaster on the Trent canal at Burleigh Falls, was drowned yesterday. He tripped on some object while a vessel was passing through the canal, and fell to the water, thirty feet below.

Fat Job.

Montreal, Nov. 9.—It is announced on good authority that Hon. Chas. Fitzpatrick, chief justice of the supreme court of Canada, is to resign shortly to become general counsel for the Grand Trunk Pacific at a salary of $35,000.

Missing Ship.

Halifax, Nov. 9.—The Norwegian coal steamer Finn is missing, and fears are entertained as to her safety. There is an unconfirmed report that she struck on Byron Island in the Magdellan Islands and went to the bottom with all hands.

LONDON PAPERS TALK ABOUT U. S. ELECTION

The Weeklies Published To-day Have Notable Comments on American Politics.

London, Nov. 10. — The leading weekly reviews make the recent elections in New York state a feature of their comment.

The Saturday Review describes W. R. Hearst as the Cataline of American politics and President Roosevelt as the Cicero and "father of his country who saved it by coming from Oyster Bay to vote in New York"(!)

Continuing, the paper says Mr. Hearst did not altogether fail in doing what he set out to do. He is defeated but not crushed as a presidential candidate, "who should be Mr. Bryan and Mr. Hearst rolled into one."

The Outlook says: "The election from first to last is among the most dramatic episodes in American politics. President Roosevelt, in his tremendous indictment of Mr. Hearst, imperilled his own credit. Nothing but the overwhelming response of the people could have justified this extraordinary appeal, and this was not forthcoming."

The Spectator believes that defeat by so narrow a margin shows "both the reality of Mr. Hearst's power and the depth of the grievances which he proposes to remedy," and adds: "Mr. Hearst remains a victorious and dangerous force in American politics." Then, speaking pessimistically, the paper says: "The conduct of the election was a disgrace to both parties. The whole business, from beginning to end, was a painful proof of the degradation of public life in the United States."

Labor Fight in Hamilton.

Hamilton, Nov. 9.—The street railway company announced to-night that it would start running cars Monday morning. There are 32 cars and 100 men are required. These the company says it has secured. Strikers say they will only ask the employes of the Cataract company, from which the street railways secures power, to go out in sympathy as a last resort, as it would tie up all of the city's manufacturing concerns also, being dependent upon it for power supply.

RETURNS STILL TELL A STORY OF PROGRESS

Freight Shipments and Bank Clearings Indicate Large Volume of Trade.

Fort William, Ont., Nov. 9.—Some idea of the business handled by the C.P.R. at the docks in Fort William can be gained by the increased tonnage of flour and package freight. In October, 1905, the amount was 72,000 tons; in October, 1906, it was 133,030, an increase of practically 100 per cent., as during four days, when the strike was on, work was at a standstill.

Bank clearings for the week tell the same story of growing business. Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Ottawa, Vancouver, Quebec, Hamilton, St. John, London and Victoria all show increases over corresponding week last year. Out of eleven cities named in the reports, only one shows a decrease.

Preparing for Baseball Smoker.

The baseball club boys are getting right down to business in connection with their forthcoming smoker, and have issued tickets, which are now being sold by volunteers at six bits for the ringside seats and four bits for all other chairs. Cards calling attention to the attractions at the smoker have also been distributed throughout the city, and may be seen in most store windows. Handsomely ornamented cups have been secured, and will be presented to the winners of the wrestling contests, which are the main attraction of the evening.

A meeting of the committee was held last evening in the fire hall, when the programme for the entertainment was revised and several new names added. It was decided to send a delegate over to Vancouver to-day for the purpose of selecting a referee for the wrestling matches between Cunningham and McKinnon and Wise and McDonald.

Voluntary Advance.

Brisbee, Ariz., Nov. 9.—All miners employed by mining companies at Brisbee and Tombstone have received notice of an advance of 25c a day in wages to date from Nov. 1.

UNCLE SAMUEL HAS A LITTLE WAR ON HAND

Mexicans Ambush a Body of Texas Rangers, and Four Ambushers Are Killed.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 9.—A detachment of Texas rangers en route to Rio Grande City to investigate the assassination of Judge Welch, which occurred Monday night, were attacked by a body of armed Mexicans, and a bloody fight resulted. One Mexican was killed and many wounded. Governor Lanham is rushing troops to the scene, and the situation is regarded as critical. More fighting is expected before the troops arrive.

Another despatch from Laredo, Tex., says that four Mexicans were killed, one wounded and two captured. The rangers suffered no casualties.

Minister Wounded.

The Toronto Globe says: "Rev. A. J. Fowlie, 35 years old, a Presbyterian minister at Coldwater, was out duck shooting on Georgian Bay, when he received a gun shot wound in the right leg, above the knee. With Clifford Leatherbeld, Rev. Mr. Fowlie was in a canoe, when a sudden 'tipping' discharged the gun, which was lying in the bottom of the craft. The injured man was carried to the home of Dr. Harvie, who accompanied him to Toronto. Rev. Mr. Fowlie was admitted to the general hospital, and Dr. Peters performed an operation, extracting many pieces of shot. The limb is badly injured."

Mr. Fowlie is well known in the province, having been formerly Presbyterian minister at Princeton. Last year he supplied Cloverdale, Mud Bay and Tynehead for a time, and refused a unanimous call to those congregations.

Concert at Langley.

A most enjoyable concert given by the Ladies' Aid was held in Langley Prairie Presbyterian church on Nov. 7. The concert being well advertised, the church was packed to its utmost capacity, even standing room being at a premium. The Rev. Mr. Farrer, of Cloverdale, officiated as chairman, and gave the audience a speech on the instalment plan, part being delivered after each number on the programme. A long and excellent programme was rendered, to the delight of all present, an interesting part of which was a contest between five members of the Loyal Temperance Legion for a silver medal. This was won by Maggie Symonds, though all deserve credit for their efforts. The talented Miss Munn, of New Westminster, gave several solos that were enthusiastically applauded, while Miss McLean, the Scotch elocutionist, of Vancouver, was recalled time after time. Mr. Allen, of Fort Langley, gave several well rendered selection. WORSE AND WORSE.

The McBride organs are getting so badly mixed over that business at Ottawa, in which the premier cut such a ridiculous figure, that no one can predict with what absurd statement about the matter they will next favor us. The latest sample occurs in the Columbian of Thursday, which talks about "the refusal of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to make a grant satisfactory to this Province." This, as everybody knows, is absolute falsehood, and, since everybody will at once recognize it as false, it is silly falsehood.

Then the Columbian goes on to babble about the submission of the claim of the Province to an independent board of three which should "assess" the amount to be paid. What does "assess" mean? The chief McBride organ, the Victoria Colonist, says the board or committee would be empowered merely to express an opinion. Is that what the Columbian means? That, at all events, is the position of the Government. How would it help the Province? But before that question comes another. Why should the claim of the Province, or the moral liability of the Dominion, be submitted to such a board until the matter has been threshed out between the Province and Dominion and an agreement found to be impossible? Mr. McBride refused to thresh it out. When Mr. Whitney made his million dollar proposal, before a chance was given the Dominion Government to intervene, Mr. McBride bounced out and banged the door. And when the Dominion Minister of Finance offered to intervene—said in effect, "Come back with me and let us see if those other Premiers will not consent to do a little better," Mr. McBride refused again.

In such circumstances, to insist upon putting the matter into the hands of a talkee-talkee commission, which could do no more than bring a certain moral compulsion to bear upon Dominion or Province, as the case might be, is ridiculous; and, coming from either side, until negotiation is exhausted, it is insulting to the other. The latter objection applies also to a proposal for arbitration. International controversies are not submitted to arbitration until diplomacy fails to adjust them; how much stronger the argument for exhausting efforts towards diplomatic adjustment when the question is a domestic one—all in the family, so to speak. Our Conservative friends keep on crying, "There should be no politics in this," and yet at every move—by every word—betray the fact that they look upon the Government at Ottawa as a hostile power.

The Columbian next proceeds to inform us that J. A. Macdonald, Liberal leader in the Province, is "up against it." Here again, as in the independent committee argument, we are somewhat at a loss to know just what is meant by the language employed. What is the "it" against which Mr. Macdonald is "up"? If "it" is the Government, we advise Mr. Macdonald to be careful how he leans against it; it's a mighty shaky support.

Mr. Macdonald was talking to the papers the other day about this matter. Here are a couple of sentences:

"The Premier has placed himself in this unhappy position. On the one hand, if, as he now claims, the conference had no business with British Columbia's special demands, he should have taken that stand at the outset, and so eliminated that question from the deliberation of the conference altogether. On the other hand, if by reason of the terms of union constituting in effect a partnership, it was necessary that all the provinces should join in any change in their contractual relationship, Mr. McBride should have stayed at his post, and have gone down fighting if need be for the rights of his province. It is absurd to say, as he said in Victoria, that there was nothing he could do but withdraw.

"This question of better terms is a matter of plain and honest business dealing and diplomacy. To drag such a question into the arena of party politics is a crime against the people of this province."

These are the words rather of a man who has the other fellows "up against" something hard, than of one who is in that position himself.

It will probably strike the average white man that the Indians of the Songhees reserve could hardly have hoped for better terms from the Government, had they been voters, and there was immediate prospect of a doubtful election for the federal seat at Victoria. They have been given far more consideration at Ottawa than has been accorded to the Province as a whole in its demand for better terms.—Province.

We copy the above paragraph as a typical Tory comment. It shows very plainly how extremely anxious the McBride Government supporters are to "keep politics out of" the better terms matter; and it also shows the sweet reasonableness with which they approach consideration of the subject. The fact that the Ottawa Government has kept on the generous side of justice in dealing with a tribe of Indians under its control is, of course, absolute proof that neither justice nor generosity can be expected from it in dealing with Provincial claims. The ordinary man may not be able to see this, but that only shows how far the insight of a Tory editor transcends that of the ordinary man.

The Weather.

Victoria, Nov. 9.—A disturbance still hovers on the northern coast of British Columbia, and has caused unsettled and rainy weather from Port Simpson southward to Upper California, and somewhat higher temperature on the immediate coast. In Atlin the temperatures are low, and in the Yukon the cold has steadily increased, reaching at Dawson 16 below zero. In the prairie provinces the pressure is moderately high, and the weather generally fair and not much change in temperature. Temperatures:

To-morrow, Rev. Dr. Sipprell, principal of Columbian college, will conduct the forty-seventh anniversary services of the Wallace street Methodist church, Nanaimo.

Still another football match between the Columbian college junior team and an aggregation representing Queen's school, of Vancouver, will be played off at Moody square this morning.

Charles Richards, of Sumas, was admitted to the provincial asylum yesterday morning, on the recommendation of the chief of police, who acted upon instructions received from relatives of the unfortunate man.

Three months' imprisonment was the sentence imposed on J. Brew in the police court yesterday morning. Brew was convicted of selling whiskey to an Indian woman early in the week, and was not given the option of a fine.

The Fraser River mill was compelled to shut down a part of its machinery yesterday morning owing to the scarcity of logs, and the men were given a holiday in consequence. A large boom was expected to arrive at the mill last night, so that everything will be in readiness for work again this morning.

After receiving a thorough cleaning, the city reservoir was again filled with Lake Coquitlam water yesterday afternoon, and all the cleaning apparatus returned to the city. The cleanness of the water drained off proved to be a pleasant surprise to a large number of people, who had been hoping for the best, but expecting the worst all along.

A weekly prayer meeting has been started on Thursday evenings by the residents of the Blue Mountain school district. The meetings are held in different houses, and the attendance is gratifying, considering the inclement weather. For the next week or two the meetings will be held at Mr. Hawthorne's house.

W. C. Chamberlin, the jeweller, is busy getting ready for the Christmas trade. Already several new lines of artistic silverware, jewellery, oak goods, cigar and cigarette cases, etc., have arrived, and a most imposing and delightful stock of choice presents is on view. 210-1

An executive meeting of the Local Council of Women will be held in the board of trade room on Monday, Nov. 12, at 3 o'clock, and the regular monthly meeting of the council will take place immediately afterwards, beginning at 3.30 o'clock. All members and ladies interested are cordially invited to attend.

The induction of the Rev. T. R. Peacock, as Presbyterian minister at Central Park, took place last evening, the Rev. R. J. Wilson, of Vancouver, acting as moderator. The Rev. J. S. Henderson, of St. Andrew's church, was on the platform at the meeting, and made a short address.

The attention of the police was called to the cruel manner in which a Chinaman had poultry packed in a pen at the market yesterday. The wretched birds were so jammed together that they could hardly breathe, and a few, as a matter of fact, were dead. The Chinaman will appear in the police court and answer to the charge of cruelty to the birds.

A steer which is supposed to have escaped from a herd brought down for the Fraser River meat market last week, has been roaming at large for some days past, and was seen yesterday in the vicinity of Sixth avenue and Third street. The steer is reported to have broken into a stable in search of fodder, and to have walked out again when his hunger was satisfied.

A young man named Stickley was arrested in Vancouver on Thursday afternoon, on a charge of having stolen a coat from St. George's hall, New Westminster, during fair time. He was brought over here during the evening. He was arraigned in the police court yesterday morning and pleaded not guilty, the case being remanded until this morning. Stickley states that he bought the coat from a waiter in Vancouver, and that he had no idea it had been stolen.

The King Edward, the government dredge, is doing great work on the Annieville bar, and is removing 4,000 cubic feet of river bottom a day, in spite of the fact that the pump is on its last legs and is only doing half it should do. Yesterday another hole was punched in the side of the pump which threatened to delay operations seriously. A block of wood was stuck in the opening, however, and the work went along as merrily as ever. Just as soon as the balance of the machinery for the new pump arrives, the King Edward will tie up and have the old pump removed and the new one installed. It is expected that 6,000 cubic feet per day will then be removed. The channel is being deepened so that there will be twenty-eight feet of water at low tide. The current is, however, very strong, and the sand is continually drifting into the cut again. It is prophesied by experts that the continued work on the channel will in time do away with this difficulty of filling in.

The residents along the line of the Port Moody road who are adjacent to the new Burquitlam post office, are preparing to make a vigorous kick against the name, "Burquitlam," which they consider to be very confusing, being so similar to the near-by Coquitlam office. A movement is being made to secure the signatures of all the patrons of the post office which will be forward to the postal authorities with a suggestion for another name.

The High school and the West End boys will meet at Moody square this morning, when they will proceed to play off a scheduled football game. The teams are very evenly matched, and should put up a good game. Tim Mahoney has agreed to referee the match, and will call time at 10 o'clock. The High school line-up is as follows: Goal, Corbett; backs, McGowan, J. Gifford; half backs, Davidson, Barclay, Tidy; forwards, Munn, Sharp, Oxenbury, McKenzie, Currie.

L. R. Kerbaugh, an advertising agent until recently employed by the Daily Columbian Printing & Publishing Co., Limited, is at present under arrest in Vancouver, charged with having forged a cheque for $5 to the prejudice of the aforesaid company. Kerbaugh was arrested in Victoria, Chief McIntosh having received information that he was staying there at the time, and wired for his apprehension. As the forgery was committed in Vancouver, the case will be tried there. Kerbaugh is also said to have appropriated certain sums of money which he had received on behalf of the Columbian, and may have to face that charge also.

The latest move to be made by the enterprising firm of Gilley Bros. is the construction of a private railroad. The stock has not yet been placed on the market, but it is expected that the railroad will soon be in full operation, and track laying will commence early next week. The railroad is to be constructed at their wharf on Front street and will be used for the purpose of loading coal from scows on to flat cars. It is to be an elevated road (at one end), and the elevated end will be right over the spot where the flat car will sit on the railway siding. The cars, full of coal, will be pulled up the incline by means of a donkey engine, and will dump their load automatically into the flat car on the siding of the common, everyday railway underneath. Then gravitation will take the car back to the scow for another load.

During a newspaper men's convention, a number of journalists were one afternoon talking of the tricks of "the faithless types," when Henry Watterson said:

"While I've heard of a great many funny typographical breaks in my time, about the oddest and most humorous transposition of the types that ever came within my observation was that in a New York paper some years ago. That sheet used to print its shipping news on the same page with the obituaries. Imagine the glee with which its readers found the captions exchanged one morning, whereby a long list of respectable names were set forth under the marine head, 'Passed Through Hell Gate Yesterday.'"—Harper's Weekly.

Men Have Not Degenerated.

It is common to hear of the giant people who lived in the old days, yet it is decidedly uncommon to find proof that the average ancient was any larger or more powerfully built than the average person of the present day. The Egyptian mummies show these people to have been of medium size. The remains taken from the catacombs do not differ in size from the people of the present, while the armor which was worn by the warriors of the long ago fit as readily the forms of people who are not at all gigantic or at least extraordinarily above the average either in girth or stature. There were great men in the old days, but as great still obtain in this twentieth century.

BEST ON EARTH
THE MONARCH RANGE

It utilizes all the heating power of the hard coal, soft coal, wood, coke. Ordinary steel and cast iron ranges are fuel wasters. They work well until the bolts become loose where steel is bolted to cast iron.

The Monarch range is different. It is constructed with malleable iron frames, to which the steel is rivetted, not bolted. It is only in this way that absolutely air-tight joints can be made. There is no stove putty in Monarch air-tight seams—no danger of leaks.

FRIDAY'S MARKET REPORT

The weather had a bad effect on the market yesterday, and caused the number of buyers and sellers to be decidedly slim. Some of the vendors of pigs and poultry did not arrive on the scene of action until the market was about over. They were met at the door, however, by the buyers who were keen for business, and the poultry was sold before the stock was fairly beneath the market roof.

The regular buyers and sellers were all in their places and did a satisfactory day's business. There was a fairly plentiful supply of beef carcases, and the demand for first-class stock was good. The poorer stuff went begging and sold for below the market quotations. There is a little larger supply of mutton coming in from week to week, which is all snapped up in a hurry. The hides were also bought for tanning purposes. A considerable quantity of wool was also offered and changed hands.

The offering of veal was not up to the usual standard, while the demand was stronger than it has been for the past few weeks. Hogs are coming in in large quantities, and were all sold at prices quoted.

Eggs are still a scarce article, and have become a luxury. They now retail at 5c apiece and 50c per dozen wholesale.

The poultry market was brisk and offerings were good, considering the weather, and the condition of the roads. There were more ducks than usual on the market, and one lot presented a most disreputable appearance, and were so crowded in a small box that one of the number was smothered. They were released from their captivity and penned in beneath the coops.

There were a few pens of Embden geese offered which were sold at prices quoted. Apples sold at from 75c to $1.10 a box, and the offering was fair. Among those who offered fruit on the market were A. Knutson, Whonnock; E. Gill, Sumas; C. L. Clarke, Langley; Taylor Bros., Mount Lehman; C. D. Delson, Hazelmere; A. Ramsay, East Burnaby. W. Barr, of Collingwood, was one of the largest buyers of apples.

The florists were all on hand and offered a choice variety of flowers and fruits, embracing violets, carnations, dahlias and chrysanthemums.

A considerable quantity of dressed fowl was sold on the market at 18c per pound, and ducks with the feathers on sold at 35c per brace for teal, and 75c for mallards.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Matter intended for this column should be addressed, "Social Editor, Daily News, P. O. Box 402, New Westminster."

W. Burley, a well-known lumber dealer of Neepawa, Man., is a visitor in the city, and proposes making his home in the west. He will in all probability embark in some mercantile enterprise at a point near New Westminster.

The government cruiser Petrel arrived in port yesterday from Victoria and brought G. A. Keefer, of the provincial public works department. Mr. Keefer has been on the sick list for some time, and this is the first trip he has taken since becoming convalescent.

J. R. Patterson, who has been a resident in this city for the past six years, left yesterday for London, Ont., where he will spend the winter with relatives. He will return to the west in the spring.

J. LaPile, who has been a guest at the residence of Dr. Drew for some time, will leave to-day for his home at La Padae, Quebec.

J. S. Clute, inspector of customs, returned yesterday from an official trip through the Northwest Territories.

Hugh Armstrong, M.P.P. for Portage la Prairie, Man., was a visitor at the market yesterday. Mr. Armstrong is at the head of one of the large fish packing companies which operates on both Lake Winnipeg and Lake Manitoba. All summer he has a large army of men and women preparing fish for shipment. In the winter the fishing still continues and the fish are sold in a frozen state. At Selkirk the company has large hatcheries, where the small fish are kept until able to rustle for themselves. Mr. Armstrong had but a short time to spend in the city, but hopes to return again and take a look into the Fraser river methods of handling the fish business. He was accompanied by two former Portage la Prairie men, James Eadie and Charles Fox, now of Vancouver.

Fred Lynch returned home yesterday after an extended tour, during which he combined business with pleasure in a very happy manner. Mr. Lynch's itinerary included Calgary and all towns of any importance along the line.

Miss Lillooet Armstrong gave a very pleasant dance last evening which was enjoyed by a large number of her friends. Miss Freese, Frank Major and others were responsible for the very excellent music, and dancing was kept up till quite a late hour. Among those present were Miss Dougherty, Miss Alma Leamy, Miss Veda Leamy, Miss Eleanor Brown, Miss Gertrude Brown, Miss Muriel Cotton, Miss Alice Macnamara, Miss Josephine Martin, Miss Nora Armstrong, Miss Violet Ladner, Miss Gladys Corrigan, Miss Margaret Lewis, Miss Alma Lewis, Miss McBride, Miss Doris Clute, Messrs. Mrs. A. M. Herring was at home to her friends yesterday afternoon from 4 to 6, and was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Arthur Herring and Miss Herring. The floral decorations were beautiful, the tea table especially being a mass of pink and white chrysanthemums. It was presided over by Mrs. C. S. Keith and Miss Lavery, who were ably supported by Miss Laidlaw, Miss Ross and Miss Myrtle Mack. Harper's orchestra gave some delightful selections during the afternoon. Among those present were: Mrs. W. J. Armstrong, Mrs. T. J. Armstrong, Miss Armstrong, Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. Houghton, Mrs. DeWolf Smith, Mrs. Brymner, Mrs. Briggs, Miss Briggs, Miss Naomi Briggs, Mrs. McColl, Mrs. Curtis, Mrs. Drew, Miss Wise, Mrs. Homer, Mrs. Dickinson, Mrs. E. Stilwell Clute, Miss Peele, Miss Wardle, Miss Rowan, Mrs. Rothwell, Mrs. Bourne, Mrs. Trapp, Mrs. Jones, Miss Jones and Mrs. Sinclair.

James Bell, advance agent for the "Arizona" Dramatic company, arrived in the city yesterday on business connected with his company.

The first of a series of dances under the auspices of the Royal City orchestra was given last night in Johnson's hall, Sapperton. There was a good attendance, and the music furnished by Darcy's orchestra was of a satisfactory character.

James H. Collensen, of Chilliwack, was in the city yesterday on business.

Mrs. Cameron, of Vancouver, accompanied by Miss McCharles, of Boston, spent a few hours in the city yesterday afternoon, the guests of Mrs. J. D. B. McDonald.

Economy

SARGENT'S Gem Food Chopper is an economical addition to any kitchen. It saves time and lessens labor, and thus economizes the housekeeper's time and strength. With it many attractive and appetizing dishes can be made from what might be wasted if it were not for the Gem.

It chops food of all kinds—meats, vegetables, fruits, bread, crackers, etc. It does not mash, squeeze, tear or grind, but chops the food as you want it—fine, coarse or medium. Easy to operate, self-sharpening. No kitchen complete without it.

Another Blow to C.A.A.U.

Montreal, Nov. 9.—The skating association of Canada has resigned from the Canadian Amateur Athletic union. It will join with the Montreal Amateur Athletic association and 25 other associations, who will resign, in a movement to form a new body to govern athletics in Canada in the future. The resignation of the skating association will, in a way, be as great a blow to the C.A.A.U. as the resignation of the M.A.A.A.
