INTERVENTION MAY RESULT IN ANNEXATION

Badly Mixed Condition of Cuban Affairs May Lead to "Benevolent Assimilation" of Cuba and Its Incorporation With the United States.

Havana, Sept. 21.—Peace for Cuba, unless accomplished through American intervention, seems to be further away than it was when Secretary of War Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon began negotiations to harmonize the opposing factions. The arrival to-day of three of the largest United States battleships and two cruisers, besides those already here, has had little effect on the insurgents in the field, and when the leaders of the revolution were approised of the big squadron now in Cuban waters, they greeted the information with Spanish expressions to the effect that "they cannot come to the bush." A meeting of the executive committee of the moderate party was hastily summoned this evening, and it was voted unanimously to accept whatever disposition of the controversy Messrs. Taft and Bacon may decide upon, in the hope that such a concession will induce the Liberals to yield similarly. The latter, however, have as yet not signified a willingness to accept the decision of the American mediators. The rumor is abroad to-night that President Palma, the members of his cabinet and the representatives and senators elected last December will resign to-morrow, thus conceding practically all that the insurgents have been contending for, and opening a way for the settlement of the difficulty without American intervention. President Palma declined to be interviewed on the subject, and other members of the government stoutly denied the rumor. The American peace emissaries will devote their time to-morrow to hearing what the commanders of the insurgent forces have to say.

It is understood that Secretary Taft has sent a gloomy message to President Roosevelt, saying that private reports received by him from the interior are to the effect that a state bordering upon anarchy prevails throughout almost the entire island, exception being made of the sections on the coast. It is known that Secretary Taft has decided absolutely not to treat with armed rebel forces. This is taken to mean that American intervention and American occupation must inevitably follow. Intervention, as contemplated, would mean the taking over of the entire island pending some final settlement. Secretary Taft's advices from the interior are that the people are controlled by neither the government nor the Liberals, but are simply dissatisfied with conditions in general. Secretaries Taft and Bacon heard to-day the first American testimony on the situation given by the committee of ten Americans selected for this purpose at the meeting held here Sept. 18. They also heard General Freyre and Andrade and Alfredo Zayas. The latter outlined the claims of the Liberals. The arrival this morning of the American squadron was the spectacular and impressive feature of the day, and the presence of the warships suggests evidences of intervention. The truce between the opposing forces continues to be observed. The government, however, is moving troops toward the city, and the rebel force under Pino Guerra is coming rapidly toward Havana to connect with the rebels surrounding the capital.

Secretary Taft has cabled to President Roosevelt regarding the gravity of the situation, and Mr. Roosevelt is expected to dictate the future programme of his commissioners.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT IN EIGHTY-EIGHT HOURS

Quebec, Sept. 21.—The Overseas Mail train reached here this afternoon two hours ahead on its schedule time and an hour later the C. P. R. steamship Empress of Britain was on her way down the St. Lawrence for Liverpool. The Overseas train left Vancouver Monday night at 7 o'clock, six hours behind its scheduled time, and arriued here today at two o'clock, having crossed the continent in 88 hours, allowing three hours for the difference in time, or at an average speed of 35 miles an hour. This is a long distance record for an unbroken trip by one continuous train. The distance to be covered under the new mail contract is over 12,000 miles, and three fourths of the mileage has been made sharp on time, leaving the Empress of Britain plenty of leeway to land the Oriental mail within the stipulated 30 days. The Empress carried 130 first cabin passengers, of whom 19 were from the Orient, 115 second cabin and 150 third. Canadian Pacific officials are naturally jubilant over the easy fulfilment of a feat that some imagined was beyond accomplishment.

Preparations For Fair Are Well Advanced

Inside, outside and all around the exhibition buildings the result of the extensive alterations and repairs is becoming apparent, and in about another week everything will be in readiness for the fair. The ground has been rolled and levelled, the grass is being cut and mown, the buildings are being painted and whitewashed outside, while on the inside a regular transformation is taking place. Everywhere stands are being erected, stages are being put up, notices are being spread, and the busy carpenter is everywhere to be seen. Upstairs in the industrial building sits Manager Keary, busy directing and arranging all details which still remain to be attended to before the place is ready to receive the exhibits from all parts of the province and many different parts of the Dominion.

Mr. Keary is very sanguine of the ultimate success of the exhibition, which promises to equal, and in many cases surpass, the Dominion exhibition of last year. There will be a larger number of stock shown this year than has been shown previously in any exhibition in Western Canada, not even excepting Winnipeg or Brandon. Four carloads are coming from Eastern Canada, these being consigned from Maxville, Ont., Markdale, Ont., and Brampton, Ont., while one carload is coming from High River, Alberta. This last carload comes from the ranch belonging to J. A. Turner, who is reputed to own some of the best cattle in the grazing province.

The school exhibits this year will be in charge of Miss Rogers and Miss Grey, while the manual training school will be under the direction of Mr. Nelson, who has intimated that he will have the school running both morning and evening. The space devoted to educational work in the industrial building will be equal to that devoted last year, and the manager expects that a very creditable showing will be made.

The first shipments of machinery for the manufacturer's building will arrive early next week. The machinery in motion this year will be one of the finest displays made here up to date. The fancy work department will be the biggest ever seen in this province, and special attention will be devoted to this. Altogether the exhibition this year promises to be a bigger success than ever.

RESOLVE TO HAVE A LABOR PARTY FOR DOMINION

Trades and Labor Congress Decides to Have New Political Party in Canada to be Called the "Canadian Labor Party."

Victoria, B.C., Sept. 21.—By a vote of 68 to 7, the Trades and Labor congress this afternoon decided for a new political party in Canada under the name of Canadian Labor Party.

The subject was reached at the morning session and was under debate when recess was taken. On reassembling the debate was continued, and the constitution and platform of the new party was finally adopted on the above division.

The first business of importance before to-day's session of the Trades and Labor congress was the matter of the sheet metal workers' trouble at Montreal. The following resolution was passed: "Resolved, that this congress heartily endorse the efforts of the sheet metal workers to secure the decision of the privy council in the suit of the Metallic Roofing Co. against Local Union No. 30, and that the executive be instructed to take the most effective means available to aid the sheet metal workers financially in reaching the privy council.

A resolution was approved expressing confidence in the innocence of Haywood, of the western miners' federation, Moyer and Pettibone, held at Boise, Idaho, to answer for the assassination of ex-Governor Steunenberg.

A series of resolutions was adopted affirming the attitude of the congress with respect to state-aided immigration and Asiatic labor. With respect to Hindu settlers, the resolution says that on account of diseases prevalent among them, these people are "absolutely unfitted to be allowed into this country, and that by reason of practices obtaining among Hidus as a people, they should be altogether excluded from Canada, apart from the fact that their presence among us must necessarily tend to lower the standard of living among the working element of Canada."

Old Resident Dies.

James Robertson, a well known resident of this city for many years, died yesterday at his residence in Vancouver from consumption, at the age of fifty-four. The deceased came here about fifteen years ago from London, Ont., to take charge of the installation of the plant in the power house at Burnaby, and was for eleven years chief engineer at the power house. Four years ago he removed to Vancouver, but was a frequent visitor to this cit. He leaves a widow and one son, James, who is employed at the Schaake machine works.

The funeral will take place on Sunday, the service being read at the residence in Vancouver. The body will be interred in the Oddfellows' cemetery, Sapperton. The funeral will be under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, Lodge No. 3, the members of which will attend in a body.

City of Seattle Floated.

Victoria, Sept. 21.—The steamer City of Seattle, which went ashore on Trial island on Thursday morning, was successfully floated this afternoon, and under her own steam proceeded to Esquimalt, where she will be docked for examination.

Interesting Item from Spain.

BUSINESS IS GOOD ALL OVER CANADA

Bradstreet's Weekly Report is a Story of Continued Prosperity from East to West.

Winnipeg, Sept. 21.—The greatest amount of grain yet marketed in a single day this year at C.P.R. points was recorded yesterday, when the figures amounted to exactly 600,000 bushels, and other grains 41,00. Last year on the corresponding day of the month the figures were 414,000 wheat and 3,000 other grains. The totals to date since the beginning of September are: Wheat, 6,948,000 bushels; other grains, 276,000. Last year the totals were less than half this bushelage, being 3,002,000 and 100,000 respectively.

New York, Sept. 21.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: An unexpected early and large movement of wheat of a good grade to market had stimulated trade throughout Canada. Warm weather has rather interfered with retail trade in fall and winter grades, while slightly helping the distribution of some light fabrics. Canadian cotton mills are much behind on deliveries. At Montreal dry goods are more active and dairy products are in better export demand and firm in price, and leather prices tend upwards. Country trade is better, but city retail trade is quiet. Warm weather is a drag on trade in Ontario. Building is active and helps all lines of material, including hardware, at Toronto. The wheat crop in Manitoba is moving to market more rapidly, and grading better than expected. Average yields are very large. Business has a buoyant tone at Winnipeg, where dry goods are active and groceries and hardware move freely. Slow deliveries are a source of complaint. Collections are good. Export trade and industry are active in British Columbia. A light salmon pack and higher prices are indicated. Failures number 26 as against 17 last week and 30 in this week a year ago.

Following are the weekly bank clearings as compiled by radstreet's for the week ending Sept. 20, showing percentage of increase and decrease as compared with the corresponding week last year: Montreal, $28,790,373, increase 4.8; Toronto, $20,779,084, increase 4.7; Winnipeg, $10,607,716, increase 7.4; Ottawa, $2,101,490, increase 8.6; Halifax, $1,585,297, decrease 10.5; Vancouver, $3,240,208, increase 55.4; Quebec, $1,707,888, increase 10.5; Hamilton, $1,711,659, decrease, .6; St. John, $1,286,184, increase 23.1; London, $1,102,157, decrease 8.1; Victoria, $829,711, decrease .8; Calgary, $979,801; Edmonton, $737,114.

BIG FOUR-MASTER DOCKS AT MILLSIDE

The Ship Curson Arrives to Load Lumber at the Fraser River Mills.

The first four-master full-rigged ship to pass up the Fraser river was towed through the draw of the big bridge yesterday afternoon by the Lorne. The vessel is the Curzon, which was at one time propelled by steam. The craft is 1,764 tons burden, and at Millside will add to its present cargo of one million feet of lumber, which was received aboard at Chemainus, from which port the vessel came here, 800,000 feet more.

The big boat had a somewhat eventful trip across the gulf. The hawser struck the mast of a Japanese fishing boat and cut it clean off. There was a run for the life belts by the crew and a few screams on the part of the Japs as their boat keeled over and almost capsized. The ship also during her passage ran over a number of nets. She expects to be able to leave for Valparaiso in about a week or ten days.

The Mongolia Safe.

Honolulu, Sept. 21.—The steamer Mongolia, which went ashore on Midway island, was floated at 8 o'clock to-day. She is exyected to reach here under her own steam.

HE STRONGLY OBJECTS TO MAYOR'S REMARKS

Mr. Vachon Tells the News that His Worship Was Unjust.

"I certainly think that was rather a mean trick Mayor Keary played me the other evening, when he said at the meeting of the license commissioners that he hoped the Windsor hotel would now be conducted in a better manner than in the past. I have been in business here for over fifteen years, and during that time no one can say that I ever cheated him out of one cent. I have always paid my bills regularly, and when I decided to leave the city a few weeks ago, my first step was to inform all my creditors, and ask them to send in their bills to me. I think the mayor's remarks were most uncalled for, and I certainly am going to let him know what I think of him."

A. Vachon, the late proprietor of the Windsor hotel, was the speaker, and he was objecting to the intimation thrown out at the license commissioners' meeting to the effect that the Windsor had not been properly conducted in the past. Mr. Vachon further stated that he had never had any difficulty with the commissioners, and that on several occasions they had even stretched a point in his favor when he had been a little behind time in paying his yearly license. Last year he was four or five days behind time, but no one raised any objections. "The Windsor hotel," continued Mr. Vachon, "has always been properly conducted; in fact, it was one of the best conducted hotels in the city," and he failed to see what the mayor meant by the remarks he had made at the meeting.

"Not only do the mayor's remarks have a tendency to smirch my reputation in this city," concluded Mr. Vachon, "but in the event of my wishing to enter the hotel business again, either here or in Vancouver, they are likely to hamper me in the obtaining of a license. I wish to repudiate any assertion that the Windsor was not conducted in a proper manner during the time I was in charge of the hotel."

SEATTLE MAN DEFEATS VANCOUVER WRESTLER

Dr. Roller, of Seattle, Rolled the Vancouver Man Easily.

Vancouver, Sept. 21.—At the Vancouver Athletic club to-night, Dr. Roller, of Seattle, won the wrestling match with Jack Carkeek, of Vancouver, winning in two straight falls, the first in twelve and a half minutes and the second in six and a half minutes. Roller proved too speedy for the local man.

The Scandinavian ladies of the Lutheran church will hold a bazaar in the Eagles hall next Wednesday evening.

MILK VENDORS QUESTION DECISION OF COURT

Farmers Fined for Adulteration of Milk Intend to Appeal Against the Judgment.

The Langley milk adulteration cases came up for hearing yesterday before Capt. Pittendright, S.M., and apparently came to nothing in particular. Two of the cases, those of T. Mufford, sr., and C. Mufford were the ones tried, and each was fined $2.50 and costs for adding water to the milk they sent into Vancouver for sale. The balance of the cases were dismissed on account of a technicality. The evidence of Dr. Fagan brought out the fact that the milk had only been analyzed after having become old. In the cases of the two who were fined, and who were defended by J. P. Hapton Bole, Dr. Fagan stated, in response to Mr. Bole's cross-examination, that the milk which had come from their cans had not turned, and he was quite sure that the impurities existed.

In view of Dr. Fagan's testimony as to the condition of the milk, the remaining cases were dismissed.

The ranchers in question are in a very angry mood over the manner in which their names have been dragged before the public, and went to their homes yesterday afternoon with their minds almost made up to call an indignation meeting and withhold their milk supply from Vancouver in future.

A representative of the Daily News called on Mr. Bole and asked him if the rumor that he intended to appeal the two cases which were fined $2.50 and costs each was correct.

Mr. Bole said, "We certainly will appeal, as I fail to understand why all the cases save those in which I appeared were dismissed, as, if anything, the evidence of the prosecution, in my two cases, was weaker than in the others. But one can never know the vagaries of some magisterial minds. However, my clients are determined not to put up with what they consider is a decision not justified by the law or applicable to the case or the facts.

"An appeal will mean a new trial, when all the facts brought out will clearly demonstrate that the extraordinary judgment of the magistrate herein cannot be sustained on any grounds."

The Other Side.

The members of the police force in this city take exception to a letter inserted Thursday evening in the Columbian, calling attention to an arrest which had taken place the previous night. The writer, who signs himself "Taxpayer," insinuates, under cover of an assumed name, that the police have nothing better to do than to arrest anyone whom they happen to run across on the street, and in reference to the arrest of the individual in question he states that the arrest was noticed by several people who know the man to be a respectable citizen. The insinuation that "the police interfere with men who are annoying no one in order to keep the police court busy" is resented by the members of the force, and is far from being the case. The city police do not arrest a man unless he is either incapable and has no one to look after him, or else is creating a disturbance, and are more anxious to see the drunkard safely inside a hotel than to escort him to the lockup.

In connection with this particular case, a conversation between the man who was arrested and Officer Stevens, which took place yesterday morning, may enlighten matters a little. The man approached Officer Stevens and enquired why he had arrested him the previous evening. Upon being assured that he had not arrested him, as he went off duty at 6 o'clock, and that the arrest must have been made by Officer Bourke, the man exclaimed, "Well, I was so drunk at the time that I couldn't tell the difference between you and Bourke."

The same man has been arrested several times previously for being drunk, and on Wednesday evening he was taken to the police station about 7 o'clock and released on bail shortly before 11 o'clock. Four hours in the lockup is generally sufficient to sober up most men, but this one had to be assisted to the car, and was not therefore in a thoroughly sober condition even when he was allowed out.

One Way to Beat Monte Carlo.

A Frenchman found a way of beating the game at Monte Carlo. He went to a roulette table and threw down upon the rouge $1,250 in notes pinned together. Noir turned up, but before the croupier could gather in the notes the Frenchman snatched them up and made a rush for the door, exclaiming dramatically as he passed out: "My children's bread? Never! Never!" There was a burst of laughter from the astonished spectators and gruff exclamations from the officials. But they did not follow him, and he was allowed to go free with the money. The plan unfortunately would work only once. It has not sufficient continuity to make a "system."

Ingenious Young Man of Nantes.

There is an ingenious young man at Nantes—that is, if he is still at Nantes and has not been removed to a more appropriate place. He was due to undergo his term of military service. Now, a widow's only son is by a beneficent rule exempt. What could be simpler! This young man slew his stepfather and presented himself to the authorities in the pathetic position of a widow's only son. But inquiries were made into the matter, and that is why one is not quite sure whether this ingenious young man is still at Nantes.

What Spanish Titles Cost.

Spain has 600,000 titled persons—that is to say, about one in every thirty-eight inhabitants. But such titles are held as less than nothing by the original peerage of the country. These are known as the grandees and form an aristocracy entirely of birth, some of them, like our old landed gentry, having no handles at all to their names, and yet entirely refusing to mix with even dukes of new creation. To become a Spanish baron £400 is sufficient. A viscounty costs double that amount, while to be made a count a payment of £1,200 is necessary.

Care of Umbrellas.

A wet umbrella should never be left open to dry, as stretching while damp makes the silk liable to split. It should be placed handle downward and left to dry uniformly.

JUDGE BOLE WRITES ABOUT BEAUTY SPOTS

"Overseas" Edition of London Mail Has Interesting Letter From His Honor's Pen.

Under the general heading of "The Parliament of the Empire," the following interesting letter appears in the London, England Daily Mail "overseas" edition:

The Fraser River.

Sir,—As different persons are giving your readers their ideas of fine scenery, I may be permitted to say that in my opinion one of the most beautiful views on the American continent is to be found on the Fraser river, at New Westminster, from a point on Columbia street north of Leopold place.

Below you the mighty Fraser, nearly a mile wide, is hurrying to the ocean. The up-river view extends for over six miles, set in the deep green of the pines; while in the background is a setting of superb mountains of various and picturesque outline, and the sapphire sky and fleecy clouds form a fitting dome to such a picture.

While mountain scenery has its attractions, still it is true, as Disraeli puts it, that "a landscape without water is like a drawing room without a mirror"—and with such scenic surroundings we have here a climate equal to that of Devonshire—free from malaria and extremely healthy. Yours faithfully,

W. NORMAN BOLE.

New Westminster, B.C.

To Revise the Rules.

A meeting between representatives of the Vancouver, Victoria and New Westminster lacrosse clubs will be held this evening at Vancouver for the purpose of revising the rules of the constitution of the British Columbia Amateur Lacrosse association. The rules were last revised about five years ago, but since that time many amendments have been added to several of the clauses, and it is with the intention of embodying the amendments into clauses that the revising committee will sit this evening. The delegates will be: The Rev. R. R. Bolton for Victoria, M. J. Barr for Vancouver, and Wells Grey for New Westminster.

The question of the double referee system will also be discussed, and it is likely that the present system will be amended. A well-known lacrosse enthusiast stated yesterday, while speaking of the immediate changes, that he was not satisfied with the double referee system as it was at present. He suggested that there should be only one referee, who would have an assistant, who would be judge of play. The referee should have absolute authority over the players, and his rulings would control the game. The judge of play would merely be on the field so as to assist in keeping the players in their proper places, and would not be called upon to give decisions at all. Under the present system, when the two men have equal powers there is always the danger of a clash occurring between the two referees, and this would involve them fere with the harmony of the game.

Interesting Exhibit.

The making of boots, from the hide to the foot, will be the interesting exhibit shown at the exhibition by the shoe firm of J. Leckie & Sons, of Vancouver. Messrs. Leckie will install a motor, and a competent man will be in charge, who will explain to interested parties all the mysteries connected with the manufacturing of footwear.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 22, 1906.

The Manufacturers' association, which is now on its way west, is to arrive at the coast on Monday and remain until Thursday. John Hendry is the vice-president for British Columbia.

What may be called an interim settlement has been reached in the water supply question at the capital. Whether it will hold water or not an outsider cannot undertake to say, but if it does the problem is solved for the time being.

The McBride papers are not in favor of Hindu immigration. O, no! certainly not—but—but—but. Mighty funny, is it not, how that "but" will butt in whenever one talks about the desirability of making this a white man's country?

The Okanagan board of trade is pushing the matter of having a proper exhibit of the district's resources at the provincial fair in this city. It was pointed out that thousands of visitors from the Northwest might be expected to visit the fair, and such a fine opportunity of advertising the Okanagan should not be missed.

Winston Churchill, the American, like his British namesake, is stirring things political; and like him also, he is out on a reform ticket. He wants to curb the railway influence in the politics of the state and to have direct primaries, tax reform and the elimination of the legislative "lobby."

It is understood that the Dominion parliament will meet not later than the middle of November. As the judges have now reported the unseating of Mr. Fielding to the speaker, thus making his seat officially vacant and clearing the way for a new election, it is to be presumed that he will be in his place on the floor of the House when parliament meets.

The Nelson Canadian has discovered that the election rumors have a purpose. That purpose is, to give the editors of Liberal papers an opportunity to write articles on high finance. But it is not the finance alone of the present government that is "high"; its whole record may fairly be said to be in that overripe condition

The steamer Minto, which conveys passengers across the Fraser to and from Chilliwack, to connect with the C.P.R. at Harrison, is making but one trip a day now, as the shortening days make it impossible to connect with the afternoon trains and get back to Chilliwack by daylight. It is certainly time that Chilliwack had direct railway communication.

The gold output of Rhodesia and the Rand, South Africa, for the first eight months of this year is stated at over four million ounces, three-fourths of it described as "fine." Canada's total gold production for last year is stated at fourteen and a half millions of dollars. It would appear, therefore, that as a gold country we are a long way behind South Africa; but in other respects we are as far or farther ahead of it.

The capture of another poaching schooner by the D. G. S. Kestrel, the other day, has again brought to the front the matter of an effective patrol of our coast waters. Probably few British Columbians realize the enormous wealth which is waiting to be drawn from the coast waters of the province. That wealth goes now, very largely, to enrich enterprising poachers. The Kestrel does something to protect it, but she is too slow a boat for the service, and more than one boat is wanted. It is to be hoped that the fisheries commission, before it concludes its labors, will make strong representations on this subject to the government.

Experience is the best teacher. Housekeepers, who have tried them all, say WINDSOR TABLE SALT is the perfect table salt.

The last issue of the government Gazette has 65 new notices of applications for leave to "cut and carry away" timber from provincial lands. Only sixty-five! Some of these notices cover one parcel only; some include a number of parcels. There may be some fractional pieces; but if we call the total 60,000 acres we shall not be very far out. Pretty nearly time we has a forestry convention?

The Nelson Daily News cracks a joke at the expense of the Governor-General. His Excellency admired the mountain town and said so; but in Victoria he expressed a wish that it were possible for him to have a residence there and divide his time between East and West. This was wired to the Nelson paper, which prints it under the heading, "False, Pickle Earl!" But our Nelson namesake should remember the obligations of governors and other potentates in the matter of the judicious use of "soft talk."

Some papers think, at least they say so, that Bryan's chances to be the next president of the United States have been dwindling rapidly away since he arrived at home. Quite possibly that view of the matter may be correct; it certainly looke a little that way on the surface. But one can't most always sometimes tell. The election does not come off to-morrow; in fact, several hundred to-morrows will have become yesterdays before really active election work even begins. And a great deal may happen in the meantime. Bryan is a "mighty smart man," and he has a number of the same brand among his advisers. It is more than likely, therefore, that he knew just what he was doing when he antagonized some of the party bosses. The first result, of course, is a slump in his presidential stock; but he has two years' time to get over that and put himself in the limelight as the man who looks to the people and not to the "machine." He did that when he was first nominated, and notwithstanding the short time and some bad planks in his platform, he polled a very big vote.

Oysters, Eastern and Olympia, served in any style at Kenny's restaurant.

F. G. J. Regis, of Pittsburg, is a visitor in the city and is staying at the Depot hotel.

Miss Lydia Johnson has resumed her classes in singing at 738 Queens avenue.

Two hundred barrels of fish oil was received here yesterday from the ollery near Ladner, and is being reshipped via the C.P.R. to a tannery in England.

A blue grouse has been added to the local zoo, this being the gift of W. T. Cooksley, who secured the bird a few days ago and handed it over to the zoo management yesterday.

M. Konigsberg, of Winnipeg, was in the city yesterday, the guest of Dave Gossman. Mr. Konigsberg is taking a trip along the Pacific coast, and will leave again in a few days for the prairie capital.

Ah Wah, a Chinese laborer, was buried yesterday in the Chinese cemetery, having died at the Chinese hospital a couple of days ago from consumption. D. Murdie had charge of the funeral arrangements.

F. R. Glover, late local manager of the B. C. E. R. company, returned from the Okanagan valley yesterday, having consented to assume control of the survey work in connection with the new tram line to Chilliwack. Mr. Glover is expected to arrive here today from Vancouver.

The postal department, in response to a request from the Burnaby people, has made a change in the naming of the West Burnaby post office. The office will hereafter go by the name of Burnaby Lake. The other Burnaby office will still retain the name of East Burnaby.

A letter received here yesterday by a business man conveyed the information that a party of farmers from Calgary, who were here spying out the land about two months ago, will return to settle here as soon as their harvest is over. They will dispose of their holdings in Alberta and take up mixed farming in this neighborhood.

Annie Hart, a woman from the restricted district, was arrested by the police yesterday evening, after a charge had been made by a young man, who complained that the woman had taken ten dollars from his pocket while he was in her company. The case will come up before the magistrate this morning.

Two Chinamen were arrested yesterday afternoon by Chief McIntosh, who happened to stroll into their store while a game of fan tan was in progress. Both Chinks put up the bail necessary to ensure them their liberty until this morning, when the police magistrate will sit in judgment on their misdeeds.

John Layfield, of the Colonial hotel, is suffering from the effects of a collision with a street car, having been struck while crossing the track near the C.P.R. depot. At a late hour last evening M. Layfield was suffering considerably, but had not yet consulted a medical man, so that the extent of his injuries could not be ascertained. He had considerable difficulty in breathing, and complained of pains in the region of the heart.

G. C. Woodson returned to the city last week after an absence of a couple of years, which he spent across the line. Mr. Woodson, who is a tonsorial artist, conducted a barber's shop here for some years, and is at present negotiating for the purchase of their business with an established firm, and will likely wield the shears in this city once more in the near future.

Ben Ferriss, of Mission, was in the city yesterday on business and called upon several old friends. Mr. Ferris recently purchased the hotel at Mission that had been conducted for several years by H. Windybank, and since taking possession on the first of this month he has made extensive alterations in the place, which will be of great convenience to the travelling public.

An important real estate deal was concluded yesterday, whereby Messrs. Mahon, McFarlane & Mahon assumed control of lot 92, Burnaby, consisting of 204 acres, for a sum in the neighborhood of $15,000. The property was sold by the executors of the estate of the late J. R. Gilley, and is considered to be one of the finest parcels of land in Burnaby municipality. The land adjoins the Claude Hill estate property, and the Burnaby power line runs through the heart of it. The deal was negotiated by private parties.

Fresh Eastern and Olympia oysters in bulk at Kenny's restaurant.

The funeral of Einar Haggman, a young man who died last Thursday from tuberculosis at the Royal Columbian hospital, took place yesterday afternoon at the Oddfellows' cemetery, the Rev. J. P. Bowell officiating. The deceased had been an inmate of the hospital for some months previous to his demise. Some years ago Mr. Haggman lost his right arm as the result of a shooting accident when he was out duck hunting, and had been unable to work since. His father, who resided here for mnay years, is now in a dying condition at Kamloops, another victim of the dread white scourge.

There will be no baseball game against Blaine this afternoon, as the border town horside chasers are unable to come over. This is rather a disappointment for the locals, who had been looking forward to this game for some time past, and who had been training hard to be in fit condition when they met. The boys have been out practising every evening this week, and are now in good condition for the games to be played during the exhibition. It is likely that a scrub team will be picked up for a game this afternoon, as the players are anxious to get all the exercise they possibly can before the exhibition opens. The New Westminster men have no fear as to the outcome of the games during the fair, and are confident that they will surprise the American teams when they meet on the diamond in a fortnight's time.

A complaint has been made to the city police that a lady living on Royal avenue is keeping a cat in her house which is suffering untold agony from injuries received recently, and which cannot be relieved except by death. The lady refuses to allow the cat to be killed, but unless this is done immediately, the police will enter proceedings against her for cruelty to animals.

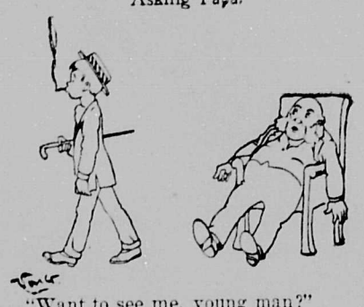
Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PROVERBIAL WISDOM.

Of course
One swallow
Does not make a summer;
Neither,
If anybody should ask you,
Does one summer
Make a swallow.
Doesn't this canned wisdom
Of the ancients
That comes
Wrapped in small packages
Give you a pain?
As a matter of fact,
One swallow
Never tried
To make a summer
Or even
A week of spring.
The swallow
Is too busy
Getting a living
To be boosting itself
As the sole proprietor
Of a summer factory
When it isn't.
It knows that the government
Pays experts
Large sums of money
To do nothing
But make weather,
So why
Should it bother?
Isn't it a strained
And unreasonable idea
Anyway,
When you come to think of it,
That any one
Should ever
Have held the notion
That one swallow,
Unaided by a steam heating plant,
Could have made a summer?
A whole flock of them
Working for six weeks
Couldn't, unaided,
Make even a pleasant day.

Asking Papa.



"Want to see me, young man?"

"Yes. I called to inquire if you have any special objections to becoming my father-in-law."

"Well, of all the nerve"—

"Because if you have, perhaps you'd better remove them, as you are slated to serve in that capacity. Good morning."

He Didn't Do It.

We are pleased to note that the court martial has pronounced Rojestvensky, the Russian fleet admiral, not guilty, deciding that it wasn't his fault that Togo won the battle in the sea of Japan.

While it is admitted that Rojestvensky was among those present on that large occasion, yet all eyewitnesses, whether they were on the ground or just qualified by looking at magazine pictures, agree that he was about as much responsible for what happened as the president of the United States is for a cyclone or a runaway horse.

He didn't ask Togo to be present on that joyous occasion and to bring his folks; hardly. In fact, he wasn't fixed to receive company. It was clearly a case of butt in on the part of the Japanese admiral, and the court martial did well and wisely in listing the Russian commander with the innocent bystanders.

Had Two Bosses.

"How do you like minding the baby?"

"Oh, it is something of a change from minding my wife."

So the Receiver Will Know.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

Hard work doesn't always give poverty the busy signal.

We rarely see any reason why our neighbor shouldn't be satisfied with what he gets.

Few imaginations, no matter how strong, add anything to the family larder.

When you run across a stumbling block use it for a foot rest.

FRIDAY'S MARKET REPORT

Yesterday's market was well up to the usual standard, and the available stabling accommodation was all occupied. Apples are now pouring in thick and fast, and those offered are all A1. Gravensteins, Wealthies, Alexanders, Pippins and Hyslops were the leading varieties. Large quantities are being sent to the Manitoba market. The eastern crop being a comparative failure, gives the western growers an extra good chance. Among those who had fruit on the market were J. Kirkland, Ladner; W. H. Nelson, Langley Prairie; L. Milburn and J. O. Lee, Langley; W. Bartlett, Sumas; J. de C. Wetherel, East Burnaby; W. Henton, Ladner; Taylor Bros., Mt. Lehman. J. K. McGregor placed a considerable quantity of crab apples on the market.

Poultry was well up to the standard, and 36 pairs of pigeons were bought by a Vancouver purchaser at 30c per pair.

About fifty cases of poultry changed hands. W. Oppenshaw, of this city, bought a large quantity, as also did Ryliffe, Chin Lee and Martin Daiber, of Vancouver.

Eggs were noticeably scarce. About 20 cases changed hands at 37c wholesale.

Vegetables were a feature of the market. The supply was plentiful and the stock was varied and good. Pickling onions retailed at 4c per pound. Green tomatoes were 50c a box; ripe tomatoes from 50c to $1; green corn, 15c per dozen; citron, three for 25c; squash, 20c each; celery, three for 10c; beets, parsnips and carrots, four bunches for 10c; cucumbers, 50c per dozen.

W. Whiting, of Burnaby, had the largest and most varied display. Chin Lee had some exceptionally fine heads of corn and cabbage on sale.

Beef and veal were plentiful, and many carcases were sold wholesale on Thursday afternoon. W. Livingston, of Ladner, and F. Cooper, of Silverdale, were the largest sellers. Among the buyers were the local butchers and a number of Vancouver firms. All the usual butchers were in their places, and their stalls looked somewhat bare when the time for cleaning up came along. M. Monk, as usual, had a monopoly of the fish trade, and seemed to be pretty busy.

Cut flowers are becoming scarce. Asters and dahlias made up the sum total of Mrs. Tidy's supply. She also had for sale all kinds of bulbs, as well as coleus, asparagus fern, smilax and begonias in pots.

T. Davis, the Burnaby florist, also had asters and dahlias cut, and the usual pot plants. He also offered honey in the comb at 20c per box.

J. Muirhead, in addition to cut and pot plants, had apples, Gravensteins and Wealthies.

A large auction sale was held and a number of head of horses and cattle changed hands at fair prices.

Summary of Market.

Beef and veal, good supply, sold at quotations; mutton, lamb and pork scarce and good demand. Eggs scarce; usual ready demand for all in sight. Fowls and chicks, good supply with demand equal. Apples, liberal supply and good demand. Pears scarce, fair demand.

Quotations.

Beef, forequarter, 4c to 5c lb.
Beef, hindquarter, 8c to 8½c lb.
Veal, 7c to 9c lb.
Lamb, 12c to 13c lb.

Porl, 9c to 9½c lb.

Onions, $25 ton.
Eggs, 40c dozen.
Butter, 30c lb.
Fowl, $6.50 to $7 dozen.

Justice Duff is Favorite.

Ottawa, Sept. 21.—It will be necessary to appoint at once a judge for the supreme court in the place of the late Mr. Justice Sedgewick. The court meets on Oct. 2, and it is possible that Chief Justice Fitzpatrick may not be able to sit on some of the cases. It is almost certain that the new judge will come from British Columbia. Mr. Justice Duff, of the supreme court of British Columbia, is said to be first choice, and he is therefore likely to get the position. There are some applicants from eastern provinces, but it is said that the west will have the first call.

Mission Band of Hope.

Many varieties of home-made cake will be for sale to-day, from 3 to 5 in the afternoon, at the manse, 118 Ash street, where the members of the Mission Band of Hope of West (Presbyterian) church will hold an afternoon tea and sale of cake for the purpose of raising funds for their winter's work. Admission is free. It is hoped that many will take advantage of this opportunity of spending a pleasant afternoon and helping on the young people in their good work.

Wrecked by Dynamite.

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Fifteen persons are believed to have been killed, probably fifty injured and almost the entire business section of Jellico, Tenn., wrecked by a terrific explosion of dynamite early to-day in a car in the yards of the Louisville & Nashville railway.

Jellico, Tenn., Sept. 21.—Twelve deaths, the injuring of scores of other persons and $500,000 damage to property were caused here to-day when a car load of dynamite standing on a track near the southern railway depot exploded with a report that was heard for 20 miles. Buildings were shattered in the business section, and nearly every piece of glass within a radius of one mile was broken. The explosion occurred at 8 a.m. The freight car, belonging to the Pennsylvania railroad, contained 450 boxes of 20,000 pounds of high explosives consigned to the Rand Powder Co. at Clearfield. Two causes are assigned for the explosion. One is that three parties were shooting at a mark on the car and that a bullet entered the car and caused the explosion. The other is that while the car was standing on a side track a carload of pig iron was switched against it, and that the impact caused the explosion. Rescuers began work soon after the explosion, and medical aid was asked of Knoxville, which sent a dozen physicians. Twelve of the most seriously injured were sent to the Knoxville hospitals. The holding of inquests over the bodies of the victims was begun to-day.

Manufacturers at Calgary.

Calgary, Sept. 21.—Calgary did herself proud in the reception tendered the Manufacturers' association here to-day. The entire party was met shortly before 10 o'clock at the irrigation canal a few miles east of the city, driven from there to the city, examined the irrigation canal and drove round the city, examining the wholesale and manufacturing part particularly. They were afterwards entertained at a banquet at which 250 people sat down.

Newfoundland Fishery Question.

St. John's, Nfld., Sept. 21.—The representatives of the American, British and Newfoundland governments are negotiating a modus vivendi regarding the winter herring fishing about to open on the west coast of Newfoundland. The Americans claim the right to use purse seines, the use of which is forbidden by the law of Newfoundland because of the destructive effect of these appliances.

The home of G. I. Blair was the scene of a wedding on Wednesday last, when the sister-in-law of the proprietor of the home, Miss Jessie Culbert, became the bride of William Hunter. Both of the contracting parties came from Langley, where they will make their home in future. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. de B. Owen, rector of St. Paul's Reformed church. The bride was supported by her sister, while her two little nieces made charming flower girls. After partaking of the wedding collation the bridal pair left on a trip to Victoria.

Home from England.

J. W. Peck, provincial boiler inspector, arrived home safely yesterday from England, where he has been spending the past few months. He took a brief look into his office in the court house, just to see that it was still there, and spent the balance of the day in looking in on his old friends and explaining how he enjoyed himself. He says he had a delightful trip and will soon be ready for work again.

W. Orr, a wealthy rancher from the neighborhood of Moose Jaw, Sask., is in the city for a few days while on a tour of the Pacific coast. Mr. Orr, who is a middle aged man and well supplied with money, is visiting all the fairs and exhibitions on the coast, and will leave here Sunday for Victoria, where he will remain until the fair is over. He will return here for the provincial exhibition.

Discouraging Quest For Capital.

One of Pittsburg's bank presidents is a friend and most unassuming benefactor of ambitious young men. He is sympathetic when listening to cases which merit encouragement, but can also dismiss an interviewer with admirable abruptness.

A youth on one occasion entered the banker's office and jovially announced that he intended going to college. He intimated that a little assistance in the matter of obtaining a scholarship would be a most convenient asset with which to start on his career.

"And to what profession do you aspire?" questioned the president graciously.

"I won't give up," asserted the young man boldly, "until I am privileged to place after my name the letters D. D. LL. D."

The banker turned in his chair and intimated that the interview was at an end by saying tersely:

"A capital idea, sir, but one entirely beyond the resources of this bank."—Harper's Weekly.

Why He Did Not Resign.

Sir William Wightman held office in the old Court of Queen's bench far beyond the prescribed time, and at last, on the eve of the "long vacation" he took a sort of farewell of his brother judges. However, when "the morrow of All Souls'" came around he turned up smiling at Westminster hall. "Why, Brother Wightman," said Sir Alexander Cockburn, "you told us that you intended to send in your resignation to the lord chancellor before the end of August." "So I did," said Sir William, "but when I went home and told my wife she said, 'Why, William, what on earth do you think that we can do with you messing about the house all day? So, you see, I was obliged to come down to court again."—Dundee Advertiser.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

SOME PASS HOLDERS.

The pass at old Thermopylae,
According to the story,
Was held by men of Greece, and much
It added to their glory.
In modern times the congressmen
And officeholding classes,
As resolute as any grand
Old Grecian, hold the passes.

You know the tale of ancient days,
For doubtless you have read it.
The way they stuck to that old pass
Was greatly to their credit.
But now to hang on to a pass
We think is simply awful—
A thing no gentleman would do
And very much unlawful.

The way they stuck to that old pass
Was really quite a wonder,
For where could one observe in it
The smallest bit of plunder?
The modern statesman if he had
A pass like that would chuck it
And kick for one that called for rides
Until he kicked the bucket.

But while you're talking every one
In just about that boat is;
There's something strange about a pass
That makes us all take notice.
And statesmen are not all the ones
Who try to cut the caper;
We all of us are reaching for
That precious bit of paper.

Profitable to Be Right.

In the great society function which is to be pulled off in New York in the form of a murder trial the insanity experts can be depended on to lead science in by the halter and prevail on it to say a few good words for the defendant with a bank account. The insanity expert can be depended on to know on which side of his bread the oleomargarine is spread. He can easily convince himself that black is white, or at least a very pale gray, if thereby his bank account will look as though it had been playing the races and won on a 40 to 1 shot.

People who have examined them closely, looked at their tongues and felt of their whiskers assure us that the insanity expert is human, which may be the reason why he can always find a man with money insane when politely requested to do so.

For Practical Purposes.

By faith you can move mountains
And cause the hills to crash,
But you can't pay a tailor's bill
By faith, no odds how strong your will—
He wants the ready cash.

Had Met Him.

"Old Skinflint has built him a cottage overlooking the sea."

"Ever have any business dealings with him?"

"No, but I understand you have."

"Overlooking the sea, you say?"

"Yes."

"Well, it is the only thing he ever overlooked."

He Passes It Around.

"He is all wrapped up in the cause."

"That is no reason why he should rap everybody who isn't."

Vain Regrets.

Where the rushes quiver slightly,
Where the little waves run lightly
And the sun is shining brightly
In a valley far away,
Where the grass the edge is rimming
There's a hole with water brimming,
And it beckons me to swimming;
It is calling me today.

I would gladly hasten to it,
And with joy I'd paddle through it
As I proudly used to do it
Like a little water rat.
But I cannot have the pleasure;
It for me's a vanished treasure;
I've a waist of ample measure,
And I'm stiff and slow and fat.
