Adrift on a Raft, He Sends Plea for Help

Victoria, B.C., June 20---A despatch received to-night by Supt. F. S. Hussey of the Provincial Police, dated from Ucluluet on the west coast of Vancouver Island, says; "A bottle has drifted ashore on Long Beach, near Ucluluet, with the following message: 'On life raft hundred miles off Columbia Bay, John Meldren, alive, come to my rescue. June fifth, nineteen six'. A life buoy marked 'Louise, San Francisco', has also drifted ashore on Long Beach.

RIDER HAGGARD'S COLONIAL SCHEME IS TURNED DOWN

British Government Committee Reports Against His Recommendation for the Establishment of Agricultural Settlements in the Colonies—Britain and the Russian Jews.

London, June 20.—Parliamentary papers were issued today containing the report of the departmental committee appointed by Arthur Lyttleton, when he was secretary for the colonies, to inquire into H. Rider Haggard's recommendation for the establishment of agricultural settlements in the British colonies.

The report is unfavorable. It recommends that the government take no steps at present to further the scheme of colonization and suggests that the government make a grant to committees formed under the Unemployed Workingmen's Act under certain conditions, or that a grant be given the emigration office to which should be entrusted the arrangements, if a special fund is alloted, to assist soldiers completing their terms of service to emigrate to the colonies.

Objects to Salvation Army.

The committee favors placing persons in the colonies and leaving them to work out their own scheme of living. The committee regards the management by a religious body (referring to the Salvation Army) as undesirable. The committee also believes the expense would be greater than has been calculated and the prospects of return of money advanced would be uncertain.

"Whether we turn to Canada, South Africa or Australia," the report says, "we fail to find an instance of a thorough successful effort at colonization."

ROOSEVELT ASKED TO PROTECT JEWS

Washington, June 20.—Protests have reached President Roosevelt against the outrages against the Jews which are being committed in Russia. Simon Wolff, former president of the Bnai B'rith, had a talk with the president to-day. He told the president he was receiving telegrams and letters from all parts of the United States, protesting against the massacres, and urging this country to take some action in the matter. President Roosevelt expressed sincere sympathy with the oppressed people, but was unable to see how the United States government under the circumstances could do anythlng to prevent the outrages.

SENATE WANTS DATE LABEL ON CANNED MEATS

House of Representatives and Upper Chamber Do Not Agree on Proper Method to Handle the Packing Evil—Senator Proctor Moves for a Conference on the Subject.

Washington, D. C., June 20—Senator Proctor today called up in the senate the agricultural appropriation bill, and made the usual motion for agreement to request for a conference. He said there were two essential points of difference between the two house's amendments to the meat inspection act. One was the omission by the house of the senate provision requiring the date of inspection be placed on cans containing meats, and the other the transfer of the cost of inspection from the packers to the national treasury. Speaking of the latter change, he said that it was radical, and, in his opinion, unwise, and advised that the house amendment on that point be not accepted. The packers, he declared, could afford the expense as an advertisement, for, looked at in that light, the government certificate would be of immense benefit.

Lodge Is Caustic.

Senator Lodge also spoke for the senate provison. He pleaded especially for the dating of labels, because the public has the right to know what it is buying. He thought the packers should pay the cost of the inspection. He did not agree that the consumers woud not feel the effect of the tax, for judging the future by the past, the packers would find in a tax of a few mills, an excuse for an increase of several cents a pound on the meat they sell, and a similar decrease on the stock they buy. He charged the Chicago packers with trying to defeat the legislation.

REGIMENT MUTINIES AND KILLS OFFICERS

Another Russian Outrage Is Reported From Town of Riasean.

Bialystok, June 20.—Three official investigations are to determine the responsibility for the excesses of the last week. These are to be conducted by the commission of the lower house of parliament, the minister of the interior and the ministry of justice. A despatch from Risean to the same paper reports that the Bolchieff regiment has mutinied and killed several of its officers.

THE DESERTER'S AGE IS HIS SALVATION

Henley, of the Vellore, Allowed to go by Compassionate Magistrate.

An adjourned sitting of the police court was held yesterday afternoon, at which the case of John Henley, who had deserted from the sailing ship Vellore after signing the ship's articles and receiving an advance was considered. The evidence in the case was taken at the morning sitting of the court, and upon resuming his seat in the afternoon, Magistrate Corbould stated that as Captain Corneluissen had agreed to withdraw the charge, and as the accused was well up in years, he decided that he would not inflict a penalty in this case. Henley has never been a sailor in his life, although he has made several voyages as a fireman on steamers. After being liberated, the old man made a bee line for Vancouver, where he expects to obtain work.

FIFTEEN MEN BURIED UNDER MASS OF EARTH

New York, June 20.—Eleven men out of a gang of fifteen digging in an excavation in the Milliken Iron Works at Marine Harbor, S. I., were buried today when one side of the hole caved in on them. Three men were dead before they could be gotten out. Three others were badly hurt.

MAKE ATTEMPT ON PRETENDER'S LIFE

Moroccan Sultan's Friends Try to Assasinate His Opponent.

Melilla, Morocco, June 20.—Adherents of the Sultan of Morocco last night unsuccessfully attempted to assassinate Bu Hamara, the pretender, while he was sleeping in his tent. The Sultan of Morocco complains bitterly that during the progress of the Algeciras conference he was never consulted. He added that he desired to have a clause inserted in the treaty empowering him to dismiss the European commissioners as soon as, in the opinion of the European governments, Morrocco was established on a firm and sound basis.

Fisheries Commission.

The British Columbia fisheries commission met at Vancouver yesterday afternoon, all the members being present. It is understood that the work of the commission during the summer will be the examination of the whole field covered by fishery operations in the province. At yesterday's session a memorandum from the canners' association, which was in effect a precis of their memorial presented to the commission in November was handed in; also a petition, bearing a large number of signatures of residents along the river, protesting against the closing of the river above Westminster bridge.

DRUNKEN HINDOOS COMMENCE A RIOT

Overplus of Strong Liquor Makes Nasty Customers of Orientals Employed at the Fraser River Saw-mills—Provincial Police Turn Out.

A maddened mob of infuriated Hindoo fanatics raised merry Cain at the Frasier River Sawmills last night about 9 o'clock, and for a time bloodshed seemed imminent. Strong drink was, as usual, the cause of the disturbance, and almost without exception all the employees of the mills were raving drunk, and in an ugly mood.

After the pandemonium had been raging some considerable time, and there seemed to be no intention on the part of the Hindoos to quiet down, a hurry-up call to the provincial police was sent in, and Chief Spain and Constable Wilkie immediately set out for the scene of the disturbance; but evidently some inkling that the police were coming got out among the Hindoos, for they separated into groups, which finally broke up the mob altogether, so that by the time the police arrived at the mills, the trouble was all over, though evidences that the Sinkhs had been having a high old time were to be seen all around. No arrests were made in connection with the disturbance.

MAYOR KEARY SCORES HOTELMEN

The lax methods under which certain hotels in this city are conducted came in for some very strong condemnation at last night's meeting of the license commissioners at the city hall. Several hotels were named as having allowed young girls and women to frequent their premises. The mayor stated to the proprietors present that if another such case came to his notice, they would have their licenses revoked immediately, and he warned them to be more careful in future about allowing these people on their premises. All the hotel licenses were renewed for the balance of the year, the Telegraph hotel proprietor giving notice that his new premises would soon be ready for occupation.

CANUCKS' CHANCES BRIGHT AT HENLEY

Toronto Argonauts Expected to Run Away With Grand Challenge Cup.

Henley, June 20.—The Argonauts of Toronto were afloat today and this evening were seen to advantage over nearly the full course. From the standpoint of physique the Canadians have made a splendid impression. Sir John Edward Moss, one of England's greatest amateur authorities, says it is the most powerful crew he ever saw. Other experts express a similar opinion, saying the Argonauts have a good chance to take the Grand Challenge cup from England for the first time. It is generally admitted in English rowing circles that the third Trinity, Cambridge, is the only crew likely to trouble the Canadians unless the Belgians should prove good.

SHINGLE WEAVERS ARE OUT ON STRIKE

All Union Men on Puget Sound Ordered to Quit Work This Morning.

Bellingham, Wash., June 20.—To-night the time for the settling of the differences between the mill owners and shingle weavers of Ballard expired and word was sent out from Ballard ordering all union men of the Sound to go out on a sympathetic strike. About 2,500 shingle weavers are affected directly by the order and it is possible that in the neighborhood of 5,000 men will be thrown out of work as a result. Many of the millmen have announced their intention of closing down their entire plants if the weavers do not return to work in the morning. In Bellingham 250 men went out tonight.

WEALTHY MISTRESS MURDERS SERVANT

Body of Unfortunate Girl Bears Marks of Forty-five Wounds.

Sioux Falls, S. D., June 20.—Mrs. Emma Kauffman, wife of a wealthy Sioux Falls brewer, was given a preliminary nearing today on a charge of having caused the death of her maid servant, Agnes Polreis. She was hissed when she was brought into the court room, and when she came out an angry demonstration was made, and cries of "Lynch her!" were heard. As a result of the hearing, Mrs. Kauffman was held on a charge of murder. The case will be called for trial in November.

Miss Polreis, who was 17 years old, died June 1, and was buried at Parkston in this state. The body was later exhumed and was found to bear forty-five separate wounds.

TRAMWAY PICNIC IS GREAT SUCCESS

Charmer Carries a Big Crowd of Holiday Makers—No Accident Mars the Fun.

Yesterday's tramway picnic was a tremendous success right from the moment the Charmer cast away from the wharf and steamed out on the journey to Ganges Harbor. A large crowd of pleasure seekers were on board, and everyone was in the best of humor. The two bands engaged for the occasion discoursed sweet music at half-hourly intervals, and once on the ground a long programme of sports was carried out. The number of those who took part in the excursion was about 500, and the excursionists enjoyed fine weather throughout the trip.

The result of the sports is as follows:

BRITISH EMBASSY REACHES NORWAY

Trondhjem, June 20.—The arrival and reception of the special embassies from Great Britain and France, headed by the Prince of Wales and Admiral Boyke respectively, today gave the crowds pleasing spectacles of royal pageantry. Besides the salutes of the arriving warships and the responses to them, there was an extended exchange of international courtesies and from morning until night guns boomed in the harbors. The only public appearance of the royal family of Norway was when they went to greet the Prince and Princess of Wales, which was made the occasion of a patriotic demonstration. The baby crown prince has taken a wonderful hold upon the hearts of the Norwegian people and if he retains his place in their affections through the years he will be one of the world's most popular monarchs when he comes to the throne.

BLAMES TRUSTS FOR SPREAD OF ANARCHY

Washington, D. C., June 20.—In discussing the agricultural appropriation in the senate today, Mr. Lodge, referring to the group of men in control of the packing industries, said their history had been one of utter defiance of law and public opinion. He referred to a recent published interview with Nelson Morris, in which the great packer showed contempt for writers of books, and the Massachusetts's senator said as the writing of a book brought about the present situation, it may occur to the packers that "the writng of books is not so contemptible."

The men responsible for the meat packing and Standard Oil monopolies, said Mr. Lodge, have done more to advance socialism, anarchy unrestrained, and unwholesome conditions in the United States than all of the socialists in the world.

He said the people would resent their food being tampered with and made sport of for mere insensate greed for money, and that they are rightly insisting that these packers be put on the same basis as manufacturers.

KNEW NOTHING OF BROTHIER'S RELEASE

Minister of Justice Sends Statement of His Connection With the Case.

To the secretary of the Vancouver Reform Association Hon. Mr. Aylesworth, federal minister of justice, has sent a statement of what information he has in connection with the recent release of Desire Brothier, the convicted procurer and perjurer. The letter, which is addressed to Mr. H. H. Stevens, reads as follows:

"Dear Sir:—I am today in receipt of your memorial, signed on behalf of the association of which you are the secretary, protesting against the release of one Desire Brothier from the British Columbia penitentiary.

"I have read your memorial in which you call upon the minister of justice for a full explanation of the course which has been taken in this matter. I regret that I am not able to furnish any explanation beyond a statement of facts. I took charge of this department on the 4th of June inst., and until some days afterwards had never heard of this case; but upon investigating it, I found that the prisoner Brothier had been released from custody on 29th May, under the direction of the governor-general, dated 22nd May. The action of the governor-general in the matter followed upon a recommendation from the late minister of justice, and I d not find upon the file any statement of the reasons which influenced the minister to make the recommendation in question, nor am I aware what such reasons were.

"I might add that in Great Britain the prerogative of clemency is exercised upon the direct and exclusive responsibility of the home secretary. In this country the instructions of the governor-general, under the royal sign manual, are that the like prerogative shall be exercised by the governor-general upon receiving the advice in that behalf of one of his ministers, and in practice such advice has been given upon the responsibility of the minister of justice alone.

"I remain, yours faithfully,

"A. B. AYLESWORTH."

This letter proves conclusively that, whether his predecessor, Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick, was or was not worthy of blame for the action he took, the present incumbent of the office can in no way be held responsible for the prisoner's release.

Further than this, it is now clear that none of Mr. Fitzpatrick's colleagues had any cognizance of the case until the matter was brought up in the house by Mr. Macpherson on the receipt of protesting telegrams from Vancouver. According to Hansard, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in opposing the motion for a return of all papers connected with the release of Brothier, made this decisive and straightforward statement:

> "The first intimation that I had of it (Brothier's release) was when I received a telegram a few days ago from the city of Vancouver asking for an explanation of it."

The premier's contribution to the debate, in full, is appended, reproduced in the words of Hansard:

"It (the power to grant pardon) is a prerogative of the sovereign. It is a prerogative which in later practice is not exercised arbitrarily, but only on the advice of the cabinet in capital cases and on the advice of the minister of justice in other cases. The exercise of this prerogative is always a painful duty; but I am not prepared to admit that in all cases parliament has the right to claim communication of all the reasons which have caused the minister of justice to advise a respite or a pardon. The House will readily understand that if the doctrine were to be admitted that in all cases parliament would have the right to have the papers brought down, very many matters which have been sent to oblivion would be made the butt of discussion on the floor of this House. Very often it happens that men who have been convicted belong to respectable families; they have committed an error, for which they have to pay the consequences, and sometimes they are released on ticket of leave or otherwise and become respectable citizens. At the present time there are men who have been released on tickets of leave who are living honorable and respectable lives. Under such circumstances I am not prepared to say that parliament should have the communication of papers which might bring sorrow and trouble to many respectable families. I am not prepared to say, however, that this rule is absolutely without exceptions. There may be exceptions, and it may be that the present case is one of those exceptions. But I would like the House to bear in mind that the late minister of justice of Canada was a man very careful in the discharge of his duties, and, for reasons of his own, reasons which I am not prepared to defend or assail at the present time, he thought it advisable to release this man, who evidently is worthy of no sympathy whatever, but who, on the contrary, seems to have been a most infamous character. I am not prepared to say at this moment whether the minister of justice was right or wrong. This action was taken by him in the course of business and the first intimation that I had of it was when I received a telegram a few days ago from the city of Vancouver, asking for an explanation of it. I did not know on what ground the man was released and asked for communication of the papers. If the House, at some future day, thinks that the papers ought to be brought down, I am sure the government has nothing to conceal. If the Minister of Justice has refused up to this point to bring down the papers, he has followed the well understood practice of the department since the first days of confederation."

BENCHERS SUSPEND A NELSON LAWYER

Barrister S. S. Taylor Cannot Practice Again Until July 7.

Barrister S. S. Taylor of Nelson has been suspended by the benchers of the B. C. law society, and can not practice again until July 7. The suspension is the second in many years in British Columbia. It is the last phase of the suit of the Centre Star Mining Company against the Rossland Miner's Union and others tried at Victoria two years ago, in which the company won.

Before the action was tried Mr. Taylor, acting for the miners, and having fears and doubts of the result, wrote a letter advising the miners to make early disposition of their property as a protection to themselves, their wives and children and against a judgment the company might obtain. Such a letter of advice was directed to Alex. Constantine, but he became a witness for the company, and the letter got into court and before the Chief Justice, who made some rather severe criticism of Mr. Taylor's action. It is upon this criticism, brought to the notice of the benchers by Mr. John Eliot, a bencher and now practicing in Vancouver, that the benchers suspended Mr. Taylor for thirty days.

INHUMAN CRUELTY TO A DUMB ANIMAL

Left for a Week Without Food and With Head Tightly Checked.

Stern justice should be meted out to the man who stole a horse and rig from a Vancouver livery last week and for whom the Terminal City police were searching New Westminster a few days ago. The horse has at last been recovered—but the state in which it was discovered reveals a depth of inhuman cruelty almost impossible to credit. In a terribly exhausted condition the poor animal was found by boys of West Fairview, Vancouver, on Tuesday. When the owner, Mr. Rose, went to claim the horse he found it in such a shape that it was with the greatest difficulty that it was removed to his stable, and there appears to be little chance of the poor brute surviving its horrible suffering. From the fact that the horse was found with all the harness on, and the check rein in place, it is a practical certainty that it had no food or water since Wednesday night last. Its mouth was terribly cut by the bit and the wound had ulcered and was polluted with vermin. The horrible suffering of the dumb brute under such conditions can easily be imagined.

THEN AND NOW.

Ten years ago the country was in the throes of a general election, in which the conservative's cry was: "A Liberal victory will destroy the industries of Canada." Ten years ago yesterday The Globe, then (as now) the leading "Mechanics Wanted" medium in Ontario, published five mechanics wanted advertisements. Yesterday the mechanics wanted column called for the services of two hundred and twenty men. It is rather hard, under these conditions, to pump wind into the old Tory balloon.—The Globe, Toronto.

JOHNNY TACKUM IN SHADOW OF GALLOWS

Coroner's Jury Brought in a Very Damaging Verdict—Prisoner Is Committed.

For the third time in his eventful career Johnny Tackum, alias Johnny Hill, alias Sook Sais, the Indian now under arrest in Vancouver, is in danger of the gallows on the charge of murder. For the second time he has been arrested by Constable Jones, and for the second time W. J. McGuigan, Esq., M. D., has held an inquest over the body of one of Johnny Tackum's victims.

The coroner's jury, after hearing the evidence, came to the conclusion that Charles Newell came to his death by a wound caused by a bullet wilfully discharged at him from a rifle by Johnny Hill.

The main witness yesterday was Charley Jimmy, a son of Annie H. Hill, wife of the accused, and brother of the wife of the deceased. He said that Johnny Hill, or Tackum, had been drinking. He was under the influence of liquor. He wanted Newell to drink and Newell refused. Newell and this witness, with Newell's wife and two children, started off in a canoe. Tackum asked them to stop and then ran back to his shack and got his rifle, from which the magazine had been removed and which Tackum called his gun in distinction from a more complete rifle with the magazine. The canoe was about thirty feet from the shore when Tackum got to the water's edge. He called out "Come back here," and then took deliberate aim at Newell and fired. Newell never spoke before or after the shot. He just dropped back dead. The witness and Newell's wife then took the body to Church House. The witness heard nothing said by anyone after the shot, as he was paddling to get away. The witness recognized a magazineless rifle produced in court as the one used by Tackum.

Dr. Poole testified to making a post-mortem on Newell. He produced the fragments of the bullet taken from the body and also the heart of the dead man, showing where the bullet had penetrated it. The bullet had gone in at the front of the left shoulded, passed downwards and slightly backward and toward the right. It went through the chest muscles, broke the third left rib and went through the wall of the heart close to the base. It then went through the bodies of the fourth and fifth vertebrae, through the back part of the liver and lodged between the ninth and tenth ribs in the soft tissues on the right side of the back. The result of the heart wound would have been immediately fatal. There was nothing that could have possibly caused death outside of the gunshot wounds.

John Tackum has been committed to stand trial for the murder, and will face a judge and jury at the next criminal sessions.

"Well, Mr. Lambkin, how do you like being married?"

"Not in the least. I am no longer allowed to smoke, drink or to go out alone."

"Then you must be sorry you married."

"I am not allowed to be sorry, either."

THE GROWING TIME.

The signs of the times are pointing unerringly to the fact that New Westminster is to become a very important agricultural, manufacturing and electric railway centre in the very near future. The beautiful and fertile valley of the Fraser river is soon to be given transportation facilities from different points for the marketing of the products of the soil, the canneries and the manufacturies of various kinds, and when those facilities are obtained an era of great prosperity will have begun for the valley and for New Westminster.

This city is the logical centre for the commerce and trade of the valley and the different lines which will converge here will make this place the distributing point for its products. This new condition is bound to bring wealth, activity and a rapid growth to New Westminster; in fact its effects are already beginning to be felt through the confidence that is being inspired in those who anticipate the future results and who are farseeing enough to take advantage of the condition at present.

The new line from New Westminster to Eburne will be one of the most important arteries of commerce that will extend out of the city. It wil open up a portion of the valley adjacent to the Straits, lying level, and of marvellous fertility, and having advantages unsurpassed for manufacturing institutions, agriculture and suburban and country homes. Some of the sites along this portion of the river are unexcelled for natural beauty and generally delightful environment. There are many such points from which views of the valley and delta for many miles may be obtained and far beyond to the mountains of the south where old Mount Baker, one of nature's grandest and most imposing monuments, rises skyward, a mighty although silent spectator of the changes that man is effecting about it.

Being on the Mainland side of the river this portion of the valley has the very best kind of water and from all points will, with the travelling facilities that the railway will afford, be within easy distance (a matter of minutes) from New Westminster.

THE LAW AND THE TRUSTS.

In many quarters there is an idea that it is only the poor and the friendless that are punished for crime. The New York World draws attention to the numerous instances of wealthy corporations and important persons recently convicted. Despite all miscarriage of justice, the courts have been doing effective work.

"It is barely two months since the Supreme Court sustained the demand of a New York grand jury that the Tobacco Trust must produce its books and papers for investigation by sweeping aside the trust officials' plea of immunity. Simultaneously in the Paper Trust cases the fiction was destroyed that a trust agent, in shielding himself from prosecution, necessarily shields his corporation. No decision of greater importance in anti-trust proceedings of the government has been announced. It opens the way for convicting the most refractory of our criminal combinations out of the mouths of their own officials.

When the Burlington Railroad and its traffic managers were convicted the other day in a federal court at Chicago, they recognized the hopelessness of their case and promptly paid heavy fines imposed under the Elkins act. In the Northern Securities case the government was brought face to face with one of the most powerful financial and legal combinations this country has ever seen, and overthrew it promptly and finally."

In Canada some very effective work has been done in the same direction. The memory of the Toronto plumber's combine is still green. As the Toronto Globe said recently, although trusts flourish under protection, the law can still make them uncomfortable.

THE CONDEMNED BOOKS.

In their annual charges to the Synods of Ottawa and Toronto, the bishops of these dioceses have, as noted in our news columns yesterday, declared war upon the high school geography in use in Ontario. Because the author accepts the "nebular hypothesis" in astronomy, they accuse him of teaching infidelity. Their lordships may banish the book from the Ontario schools more easily than they will find a scientist of repute to deny its teaching.

They may convince a few people that there is, somewhere, a conflict between science and religion, but many of the leaders in religion today refuse to recognize any such conflict and a conviction that it exists has always proved harmful to the true interests of religion.

The Daily News would not care to print in plain English its candid opinion of the wretch who poisoned Mr. Stewart's "Sport" night before last. One can understand that any citizen should demand the destruction of a vicious dog, but to poison a valuable animal which, aside from its value, was a household pet, is the act of a person lost to every consideration of decency. The members of the kennel club and others interested should get together and endeavor to devise some means whereby such outrages can be prevented or punished.

Cunningham, New Westminster, (acclamation); recording secretary, Mrs. F. Andrews, Victoria, (acclamation); treasurer, Mrs. Gordon Grant, Victoria, (acclamation.)

The morning and the afternon programmes were carried out as published, and in the evening a couple of stirring temperance addresses were given by Mrs. C. Spoffard and Miss E. E. Page, United States national organizer. During the evening the choir contributed several pieces, and W. Hicks, of Vancouver, sang a solo. Later, in company with Mrs. Parker, he took part in a duett.

After the opening exercises and music, Mrs. C. Spoffard, of Victoria, gave an interesting address, in which she told of her work during the past twelve months. She had travelled 2,000 miles, attended 48 meetings, spoke in connection with W. C. T. U. work to over 3,000 women, organized ten new unions, and had just returned from the Okanagan convention.

A banner was presented to Mrs. McNaughton, president of the Victoria Union, as representing the union which had made the most progress during the past year. Mrs. McNaughton responded in appropriate terms, and hoped that all the unions would strive to win the banner next year.

A DOUBLE MURDER STARTLES HAZELTON

Posses Are Out After Indian Who Is Suspected of Horrible Crime.

Hazelton, B. C June 20.—A double murder was committed here early Tuesday morning. Alexander McIntosh, halfbreed, and Max LeClare, a guide from Kamloops, are the victims, and the murderer is alleged to be Simon Johnson, an Indian of the Kipsco tribe. McIntosh and Johnson quarreled on Monday night and when the dead body of the halfbreed was found yesterday in the middle of the road, a mile and a half from town, suspicion at once pointed to the Indian. McIntosh had been shot from behind, apparently while riding into town. A man was at once sent on the hunt for Johnson.

Half an hour later an excited Indian rode into town from Kipscrex to say he had discovered another body. It turned out to be that of LeClaire. He, too, had been shot in the back while returning to his camp on the Kipscrex trail, north of Hazelton. LeClaire's horse is missing and it is supposed the Indian killed the guide in order to get the animal, so that he might escape on it. Posses of Indians are on the trail of the supposed murderer.

The public schools of this city will hold their regular closing exercises on Friday afternoon next, commencing at 1:30. Owing to the entrance examinations being held the last three days of this week, the principals will be unable to hold exercises in their rooms. The public are cordially invited to attend the several junior divisions, however.

The B. C. Packers' tug Terra Nova ran on a rock Tuesday evening in Plumpers Pass as it was proceeding to Point Roberts with a scow load of coal. The damage done to the boat has not been yet ascertained, but judging from the reports which have reached here it should be somewhat light as the boat is expected to be floated in a few days.

The steamer Ramona arrived from Chilliwack and the upriver districts yesterday afternoon with a heavy cargo of freight, among which was a carload of cattle consigned to Vancouver. The list of passengers was somewhat light, among them were Mrs. J. Paul, H. C. Smith, L. Evans, J. Willis and M. McSwain, from Chilliwack; J. Selkirk, from Mission; J. M. Johnson, from Langley; and Mrs. Parker from Charnley's landing.

The ladies of the West (Presbyterian) church have spared no pains to render attractive their lawn party to be held on Friday (tomorrow) afternoon and evening at the residence of Mrs. John Mackenzie, St. Patrick's street. From 6 to 7 p. m. a substantial tea will be served. Admission free.

A garden party is to be held at the Columbian hospital in the near future, at which the usual delicacies in the shape of cake and cream, strawberries and other fruits will be served. A small charge for admission will be made, and the proceeds will be devoted to the hospital fund. The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated for the occasion with electric light or Chinese lanterns, and the city band most likely will be in attendance. Mrs. J. C. White, wife of the warden has kindly offered to put the grounds of the penitentiary at the disposal of the hospital board for the occasion, but nothing has been decided as yet.

A serious runaway accident seemed imminent on Columbia street last evening but owing to the resourcefulness of several bystanders trouble was averted. A driver, who seemed to be a stranger in the city and in the art of handling horses, was proceeding up Columbia street when the team, which was from a local livery stable, became somewhat unmanageable at the approach of the Sapperton car, one of the horses bucking a little. It became entangled in the harness and was thrown to the earth. A number of men rushed up and relieved the frightened animal of his harness, while he was held down by Chief Watson, who happened to be on the scene. With a little coaxing the horse was persuaded to rise to its feet again and after the harness was replaced, a badly frightened man drove the team up Columbia street and across the bridge to the Surrey side of the river, where such things as street cars are unknown.

VETS AND SENIORS WILL MEET TO-NIGHT

Men of History to Cross Their Sticks With Brawn of 1906.

The unexpected arrival from Victoria yesterday of Stanley Peele has caused another hurried change in the plans for the long expected lacrosse match between the Veterans and the 1906 Seniors. Through some mistake, the intimation that the match had been postponed until next week did not reach Mr. Peele in time to prevent his departure from Victoria, and he arrived yesterday prepared to defend the honor of the old team which did such good work only a few years ago. As he could not have returned again to take part in the postponed match, a hurried meeting was called and it was decided that the game would be pulled off tonight at 6:30.

Captain Bob Cheyne is feeling so happy over the expected result of the game that he almost feels sorry for the defeat they are going to administer the boys who have succeeded his band of trusty stickhandlers, while Tommy Gifford is more than disgusted that the probability that his team can be beaten should be entertained for one moment, and he is going about with blood in his eyes and a ready denial that the Seniors are in doubt as to the issue.

Plumbers and Plumbing Regulation By-law, 1906.

A By-law to license and regulate plumbers and to provide for the appointment of plumbing inspectors and to provide for the plumbing and drainage of buildings.

Whereas it is desirable and necessary to license and regulate plumbers in the City of New Westminster, and to provide for the appointment of plumbing inspector, and to provide for the effective plumbing and drainage of buildings;

Provided that the Chairman of the Board may grant, on being satisfied with the competency of any journeyman plumber applying for the same, a temporary permit to such plumber for a period not exceeding thirty days, which permit shall confer on such plumber the same privilege for that period only as if he held a certificate from the Board of Examiners.

5. Under and immediately after the passage of this By-law, and in every ensuing year on or before the first day of July, any persons desiring to carry on business or trade as a master plumber within the City of New Westminster shall take out a license, which license shall be posted up in the office or shop of the master plumber at all times, for which he shall pay at the time of the issuing thereof a sum of $20.00. Except as hereinafter provided, any person may take out a license under the provisions of this By-law on behalf of a partnership, firm or company of which he may be a member.

6. No person shall receive such a license unless he has a place of business within the City of New Westminster, and furnishes a bond binding himself to the amount of $500.00 with at least two sureties in the sum of $250.00 each to the satisfaction of the Finance Committee, or a bond to the same amount from a guarantee company, that he will employ only registered plumbers who have received and hold a certificate of competency from the Board of Examiners to do all such plumbing work as he may engage to do, and whether he is a practical plumber himself or not, will not permit or allow any such work to be done in connection with the business except by such registered plumbers, and that he will not violate any of the terms and conditions, rules and regulations contained in this By-law, or in any other By-law which shall come into force from time to time in the City of New Westminster respecting plumbing, drainage, sanitary matters and water works within the said City.

7. Every person desiring such license shall file with the Inspector of Plumbing, a petition in writing giving name of applicant, and in the case of a partnership, the name of each member thereof, together with the place of business, and asking to become a licensed master plumber, and said petition shall be accompanied by the bond and fee hereinbefore mentioned.

8. Any change in firm or location of the business shall be promptly reported to the Plumbing Inspector, and the license shall be kept in a conspicuous place at the location of the business.

9. When any member of a partnership or company is licensed individually for the partnership or company, the license may be issued in the name of the firm, co-partnership or company, the said license setting out the names of the members of the firm, co-partnership or directors of the company and the date the license was granted, and no license so granted shall be transferable except with the permission of the Plumbing Inspector.

10. All licensed master plumbers shall be held responsible for all acts of their employees in connection with their business for which such bond and license is issued.

11. Every such bond and license shall be for the year current at the time of the granting thereof, and shall expire on the 15th day of January next succeeding the date of issue.

12. Upon satisfactory evidence furnished to the Plumbing Inspector that any master plumber has been twice convicted by the Police Magistrate, or a Justice of the Peace, of any violation of the provisions of this By-law, or any of the By-laws respecting plumbing, drainage, sanitary matters, or water works, his license shall be, ipso facto, forfeited and returned to the Inspector.

13. Any master plumber whose bonds and license may become forfeited shall not again be entitled to a license until the said declaration of forfeiture shall be revoked by the Plumbing Inspector and if such master plumber is carrying on his business in co-operation, or as a member of a company, the co-partnership or company shall not carry on the business of plumbing from the date of such cancellation.

14. Before proceeding to construct re-construct, alter or change any portion of the plumbing, drainage or ventilation of any building, the owner, his agent, or the master plumber constructing the same shall file in the office of the Plumbing Inspector an application for a permit therefor, and such application shall be accompanied with a specification or abstract thereof, in a blank form prescribed and supplied for that purpose by the Plumbing Inspector, stating the nature of work to be done, and giving the size, kinds and weights of all pipes, traps and fittings, together with a description of all closets and other fixtures, and a plan with a description of the locality sufficient for identification, and showing the drainage system complete. Plans must be legibly drawn in ink on a scale of 1-8 in. to the foot; provided, however, that this clause shall not apply to small repairs which do not alter the plan of the plumbing.

15. A permit shall be granted or refused within seven days from the time of filing of the application, and the permit of the Plumbing Inspector (if granted) shall be valid for six months from the date of issue.

16. If the Plumbing Inspector shall find that the said plans and specifications do not conform with the rules and requirements laid down in respect to plumbing and drainage in the By-laws of the City of New Westminster, he shall not issue any permit for the plumbing and drainage, and it shall be unlawful to proceed therewith.

17. After a plan or specification has once been approved no alteration or deviation from the same will be allowed, except with the written consent of the Plumbing Inspector.

18. From and after the passing of this By-law every owner, or agent of an owner, of any building, doing or causing to be done, any plumbing in such building shall, on the same being passed by the Plumbing Inspector be granted a certificate that such plumbing has been done in accordance with the City By-laws, and on being requested to do so shall deliver such certificate to any person proposing to purchase or occupy such building.

No part of any plumbing or drainage work shall be covered or concealed in any way until it has been examined and approved of by the Plumbing Inspector, to whom notice must be sent when the work is sufficiently advanced to be inspected, unless in the case of drainage below the surface of the ground, which the Inspector has failed to inspect within the five working hours next ensuing after being notified, then the ground may be filled in, in case of an emergency affecting the public safety.

20. All materials must be of good quality and free from defects and the work must be executed in a thorough and workmanlike manner.

21. The arrangement of soil and waste pipe must be as direct as possible.

22. The soil, waste and ventilating pipes and traps must, where practicable, be exposed to view for ready inspection at all times and for convenience in repairing. When necessarily placed within partitions or in recesses of walls, soil, waste and ventilating pipes must be covered with woodwork so fastened as to be readily removed. In no case shall they be so placed as to be absolutely inaccessible unless under written permission from the Plumbing Inspector.

23. When the ground is made or unsound the house sewer shall be of medium or standard cast-iron or brass pipe, with joints properly caulked with lead.

30. No soil pipe shall be less than four inches in diameter. A waste pipe receiving the discharge of five or more sinks shall not be less than three inches in diameter and shall have two-inch branches.

32. All cast-iron pipes must be of the best clean grey metal, free from sand cracks, honeycomb, porous places, air holes, or other defects, and of the grade known as "Standard" which may be used below all fixtures, and for ventilating pipes the grade known as "Standard" of the heavy quality. All fittings used in connection with such pipes shall correspond in weight and quality. All such pipes and fittings to be coated inside and out with tar and asphaltum.

33. Before being accepted, all plumbing work shall be tested by water or other test approved by and made in the presence of the plumbing inspector. All defective material shall be removed and replaced, and bad workmanship made good, at the expense of the master plumber doing the work.

34. All joints in iron or brass sewer pipe, soil pipe, waste pipe and ventilators shall be made with a gasket of oakum, and lead, hand caulked, and be perfectly gas tight.

35. All connections of lead with iron or brass pipe shall be made with a brass ferrule of the same diameter of the lead pipe, put in a hub of the iron pipe and caulked with lead. The ferrule shall be connected with the lead pipe with a wiped joint. Vent and flush pipes of water closets shall be connected with brass couplings.

36. All connections of lead, waste and vent pipes shall be made with wiped joint.

37. All water closets, urinals, sinks, basins, wash-trays, baths, and all tubs or sets of tubs, adn hydrant waste pipes shall be separated and effectively trapped, except when a sink and washtubs immediately adjoin each other, in which case the waste pipe from the tubs may be connected with the inlet side of the sink traps. Urinal platforms if connected with the sewers must also be properly trapped, vented and automatically flushed with water from a supply tank.

38. Tanks shall be placed as near the fixtures as practicable, and in no case shall a trap be more than two feet from the fixture. All traps must have a cleaning out screw on the under side.

39. All waste pipes from fixtures other than water closets shall be provided at the outlet with strong metal stringers, and all sinks shall be provided with approved grease traps, except when such fixture is to be used for other than household purposes.

41. All traps shall be protected from syphonage by a ventilating pipe leading from the highest and outer portion of the trap, either separate or joining the main ventilating pipe, above the highest fixture, or by a sealed syphon preventer, which will only be allowed if in the opinion of the inspector it is impracticable to provide otherwise.

42. For traps in water closets the branch vetnilating pipe shall not be less than two inches in diameter, and not less than three inches for a building of three stories or more in height. Where a bath or basin, or both, are in the same room with a water closet, the vents for the same may join the closet vent above the fixture. In no case shall more than three water closets communicate with the same ventilating pipe unless it is over two inches in diameter.

43. Overflow pipes must discharge into the open air and may have a flap on the end to keep out draught.

44. Every safe under a wash basin, bath, urinal, water-closet or other urinal, water-closet or other other fixtures, shall be drained by a special pipe unconnected with a sewer, waste or soil pipe, discharging into the open air.

45. No drain pipes from refrigerators shall be directly connected with any soil pipe, waste or sewer.

46. Water-closets shall not be placed in an unventilated room or compartment. In every case there shall be an opening to the outer air. All water-closets shall be supplied with water from special tanks, and the water from these shall not be used for any other purposes. 47. Where the trap of a closet is above the floor, the connection with the soil pipe shall be made with brass and rubber approved floor flanges.

48. Overflow or discharge pipes from tanks for drinking water shall never be directly connected with any soil, vent, waste pipe or sewer.

49. No closet or any other convenience which allows the escape into the house of air or gas which has been confined in any part of it, or from the drain or soil pipe, or which allows the accumulation of filth in or about it, shall be fitted up or used.

50. All water pipes must be protected from injury or settling.

51. The plumbing inspector shall have the power to enter upon any premises and examine the plumbing, ventilation and drains, and should the same, in his opinion, be in an unsanitary condition, may notify the owner, or his agents, to have the same put in a sanitary condition, and any person neglecting to do so forthwith, to the satisfaction of the pumbing inspector shall be liable to the penalties of this by-law.

SENSATIONAL TURN IN HAZARD TRIAL

Echo of Valencia Wreck Heard Again From Los Angeles Criminal Court.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 20.—New and astonishing developments have taken place in the case of E. L. Hazard. H. M. Rowland, of Oxnard, father of the little girl, Lulu Rowland, who was wronged by Hazard, has come forward in an affidavit which says that he was wrong when at the preliminary hearing he swore that his daughter was under sixteen years of age at he time Hazard made a victim of her, but that she was more than sixteen.

If that be true Hazard is a free man and he will have the father of the girl whom he wronged to thank for it.

But with Rowland it is quite different. No sooner had he filed his affidavit with the district attorney than that official had him arrested charged with perjury. The district attorney says that Rowland perjured himself at the preliminary hearing. Or if he did not, he has sworn to a falsehood in his affidavit.

Rowland is now in the county jail, occupying a cell not far from the one in which Hazard is restlessly pacing and before he gets freedom again, says the district attorney, the reason for his action will be sifted to the very bottom.

Other affidavits in connection with this case have been filed at the district attorney's office and there is a strong belief that before the matter is settled there will be many sensational developments. Rowland in his affidavit says that he swore falsely about the age of his daughter out of a desire for revenge.

Just why the tragic fate of that daughter has softened his heart toward the man she accused, he does not explain. It will be remembered that during the interval between the preliminary hearing and the time set for the trial of Hazard, the latter sent Lulu Rowland and her sister, Helen, north, in care of his son, Roy Hazard. They sailed on the Valencia and met the common fate of that vessel's passengers.

Residents of New Westminster and Vancouver will remember that during the week of the Valancia wreck excitement two men appeared from the south, Rowland and Hazard, the former looking for his two daughters and the latter for his son, all of whom were lost on the ill-fated steamer. At that time part of the disgraceful story of Hazard's dealings with one of the missing Rowland girls was made public, and now the above despatch from Los Angeles brings a sequel which throws more light on the subject.

"Protection is Brigandage."

A significant political dinner was given at New York on the 2nd under the auspices of the tariff committee of the Reform Club. Henry B. B. Stapler presided and the speakers were ex-Gov. Douglas of Massachusetts, Congressman John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, Prof. William G. Sumner of Yale, Congressman Henry T. Rainey of Illinois and ex-Congressman John Dewitt Warner of New York, president of the American Free Trade League. All the speakers were against protection, but Mr. Warner was bolder than the others. Speaking on "tariff for revenue only" he said:

Protection is a respectable form of brigandage, and tariff for revenue only is a tariff so adjusted as to give incidental protection to our manufacturers by duties so balanced against their greed that the government shares with them the taxes their fellow-citizens pay. In fixing such a tariff there is the same temptation to lie, the same motive for bribery, the same premium on trickery, as in the case of a tariff solely for protection.

Letters were read from Grover Cleveland, Alton B. Parker, and Henry Watterson. All were conservative, though in opposition to protection.

"First Catch Your Hare."

The household economics committee of the Federation of Women's Clubs is reported to have mapped out a plan for economical living. By elaborate estimates they show how a young man and his wife can live comfortably on $100 a month. This plan would be ever so much more useful if it were supplemented with one for getting the $100 a month. When it is considered that only exceptional employees command more than $20 a week, plans for living on $100 a month are of limited value.

WILL WOMEN LET THE MURDERESS BE HANGED?

Mrs. Myers, Who Helped Kill Her Own Husband, Sentenced to Die on June 29.

Kansas City, Mo., June 20.—Will the state of Missouri hang the young woman of attractive appearance and fair education, who has been convicted of what the supreme court terms the foulest deed in the criminal annals of the state?

The execution of Mrs. Aggie Myers is set for June 29. "The woman of iron," the police of Kansas City call he, because of her calmness under circumstances which would drive most women mad or to suicide. And the "woman of iron" she has remained during the two years since she and her paramour, the ill-favored, squint-eyed cook, Frank Hottman, first were charged with the murder of Aggie's husband, whose chief aim in life seemed to have been to keep her happy and contented.

Only once has the woman weakened. It was when her mother, Mrs. Brock, called upon her in the jail at Liberty, Mo., and bemoaned the affirmation of the death sentence. Mrs. Myers wept. The imminence of a terrible fate seemed to impress her for the first time. Protesting her innocence, as usual, despite the most convicting chain of circumstantial evidence, backed by the confession of Hottman, she sobbed with tear-stained cheeks an appeal for help, the first she has made.

"I know the women are against me," she said; "they are harder on me than the men. I don't see how they can act so. I never would say a thing against another woman. If I could not say something good, I would keep still."

But, yielding to the entreaties of her mother, Aggie Myers penned "To the Women" a cry for help.

Mrs. Myers always has maintained that negro burglars slew her husband, and that she fainted while he was fighting them. Hottman says he and Aggie wanted to marry and decided to remove the only obstacle. Here is the story of the crime, as accepted by the law:

Myers was at home, sick in bed. The woman let Hottman into the house at midnight, and the scheme was for him to brain Myers with a single blow. But it glanced off, and Myers fought like a demon. "Help me, honey," he called to his wife. Her answer was to stab him in the back with scissors and to fetch his razor, with which she and Hottman slashed the husband fearfully. He died in his own blood in a corner of his cosy cottage.

No popular sympathy for Mrs. Myers has appeared in Kansas City, where the details of the case are well known, but with the approach of the date of hanging, women's clubs throughout the state may seek executive clemency from Gov. Folk solely on the ground that Missouri should not apply the extreme penalty to any woman.

The Reason and the Remedy.

There is, of course, one way says a Chicago paper, in which the disgusting management of the Chicago packing houses might be reformed without governmental interference. If the working classes were fairly paid for their work, every one who worked would receive a much larger income than now; and, as a result, every worker would be much more scrupulous about his working environment. Such conditions as are described in the Neill-Reynolds report would be impossible if the employed class were in a position to bargain upon an equality with the employing class. But when workers are plentiful and opportunities for work few, a onesided competition for opportunities to work sets in which forces the workers to accept almost any conditions of work, for their alternative is starvation. The natural effect is degrading to the workers; the inevitable result is brutish conditions both in living and in working environments. Governmental inspection may serve some use in improving working conditions. As a dam may hold back the running waters for a time and to a degree, so inspection may slightly check the degrading tendency. But the tendency can be reversed only by removing all possible obstacles to employment. Of this method, however, it is hardly worth speaking; for valuable vested interests, enormous vested interest, profit by such obstructions. And must not vested interests be maintained at all costs and hazards?

BRILLIANT GATHERING AT SOCIETY WEDDING

Friends Turn Out to Wish Mr. and Mrs. Mainwaring-Johnson Bon Voyage.

Very pretty indeed was the scene witnessed in St. Barnabas' church yesterday afternoon when, in the presence of a large number of invited guests and interested spectators, Miss Helen Chaplin Clute, fifth daughter of Mr. J. S. Clute, local inspector of customs, became the bride of Mr. Stanley Mainwaring-Johnson, youngest son of Mr. L. Mainwaring-Johnson, of Victoria. The church was gaily decorated for the occasion and the picturesqueness of the scene was enhanced by the large gathering of people, who are recognized leading members of local social circles, with whom the bride is extremely popular, and whose presence served to make the event a notable one. To the strains of hymeneal music played by Mr. Frank Major, who presided at the organ, the bridal party passed up the aisle, the bride, (attended by Miss Elevena Martin) being the cynosure of all glances. Critical and admiring eyes noted that the bride's handsome gown was of cream liberty satin over taffeta, with bertha of Brussels point lace. She wore a bridal veil and sprays of orange blossom and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Miss Martin's bridesmaid costume was of organdie inserted with valenciennes and a white picture hat, her bouquet being of pink carnations. Miss Doris Clute, the maid of honor, likewise wore blue organdie inserted with valenciennes and carried pink carnations.

After Rev. C. W. Hougton had performed the solemn rites which united the two young people as one in the eyes of the law and the church, and after the musical service, in which a full choir (composed of friends of the bride) participated, had been concluded, the bride and groom, accompanied by their attendants, left the church. As they departed they were showered with a profusion of flowers, fitting emblems of the congratulations extended to the happy couple by the host of those interested in their welfare.

From the church the principals and guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, which was prettily decorated. There a recherche breakfast was served and the intimate friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Mainwaring-Johnson were given an opportunity, in speech and toast, to wish them bon voyage on the journey of matrimonial life. Those who had the honor of being present at this pleasant scene included: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown, Mrs. Sivewright, Miss Clarkson, Mr. C. G. Major, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gordon, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. Yuenghing, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Pearson, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stilwell Clute, Mr. and Mrs. A. Malins, Miss Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Major, Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Houghton, Miss Eleanor Brown, Miss Gertrude Brown, Miss Dorothy Lee, Messrs. R. Brown, J. Brown, K. C. Brown, F. Major, A. Sivewright, W. Gordon, Roy Pearson, Leslie Pearson, G. B. Corbould. From Vancouver: Mr. and Mrs. F. Lumsden, Mr. H. C. Janion, Mr. C. O'Brian, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rand, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Thompson and family, Miss Edna Lumsden, Mr. Carl Lumsden, Mr. Walter C. Brown, Mr. Gerald Rand. From Victoria: Mr. and Mrs. Mainwaring-Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. Fagan, Mrs. F. J. Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Beauchamptye.

The groom's gift to the bride was a pretty pin of French art, studded with pearls; to the maid of honor, a crescent and fleur de lis of pearls and to the bride's maid a spray of pearls. The groomsman was Mr. W. R. Gordon, city editor of the Columbian.

On the 4:35 train the young couple left for the south to spend their honeymoon, receiving the farewells of their friends at the station amidst a shower of rice, confetti and flowers. The departing bride, flushed with the excitement of the occasion, looked extremely handsome in her striking going away gown of navy blue chiffon broadcloth, with all-over lace blouse and navy blue and white tip hat.

ETHERINGTON-HARDMAN.

The Ash street home of Mr. Alfred Hardman, of the firm of Hardman & Bryson, was last night the scene of a happy gathering when, at 8 o'clock, his eldest daughter, Miss Elsie Hardman, took the vow of allegiance to Prof. A. E. Etherington, of Columbian College, and became his wedded wife. The contracting parties, who stood under a bridal arch of ivy and roses, were respectively assisted by Miss Beatrice Hardman, sister of the bride, who gracefully played the role of bridesmaid, and Mr. Gordon Davidson, B. A., of Columbian College, who stood by his faculty colleague through the ceremony. The wedding was solemnized by Rev. A. J. Brace, pastor of the West End Methodist church, assisted by Principal Sipprell, D. D., of Columbian college. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Brace, who presided at the organ, and who introduced a pretty though unique feature into the ceremnoy by playing throughout it a little love song in subdued tones.

The bride looked extremely handsome in a beautiful gown of white voile. She wore the conventional embroidered veil, surmounted by a crown of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid, too, was clad in white voile. The whole house was lavishly decorated with flowers, ivy and roses being used with profusion in every room. After the nuptial knot had been secured, fifty-four guests sat down to a sumptuous supper, at the close of which Rev. A. J. Brace acted as toast master and proposed the health of the bride and groom. The latter replied on behalf of his wife, and Principal Sipprell, in a witty speech, replied for the two.

Rev. Mr. Bowell, bursar of the college, then proposed the health of the lady who had assisted the bride and of the host and hostess—a toast to which Mr. Hardman, father of the bride, fittingly responded.

A surprise came to the newly married couple when Mr. A. P. Halliday read them a congratulatory address from the church, representing the Quarterly Board, the Ladies' Aid, and the Sunday School—organizations in which both the bride and groom have been very active. He also presented them with a beautiful solid silver tea service on behalf of their friends in the church. In addition to this gift, a large number of costly and handsome presents were showered on the pair.

The evening was spent pleasantly in social intercourse, Miss Alvina Munn contributing a pretty Scotch ballad. Mrs. Brace and Miss Villa Hall played piano selections and the college glee club ran through the whole gamut of old time popular student songs. At 11 o'clock the bride and groom drove to their new home on Oakland street, leaving Mr. Hardman's residence amidst a shower of rice and old boots. Mr. Etherington, who has been a member of the Columbian College faculty for the last two years, has severed his connection with that institution and will shortly take charge of the new commercial college which he is himself about to open.

DALY-FALLOWFIELD.

Mr. H. Daly, of Port Kells, and Miss Jane Fallowfield, of Kensington Prairie, were united in the bonds of holy matrimony at the residence of the bride's father yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Arthur De B. Owen, of the Reformed Episcopal church, New Westminster. The newly wedded couple will spend their honeymoon visitng the Sound cities.

McKAY-SAUNDERS.

A pretty wedding took place at Coquitlam on Tuesday evening, the contracting parties being Kenneth McKay and Miss Maud Saunders. The ceremony took place in the Presbyterian church, the groom being attended by Mr. Newmant, and the bride by Miss Craig. A wedding supper was served at the residence of George McKay, at which over sixty guests sat down.

A Contrast.

Remembering the big surplus which the Canadian P. O. department shows, read this from an American paper:

The real cause of the postal deficit it evident from the statistics of railroad earnings. Approximately one-tenth of the gross earnings of the eight principal railroads of the country is derived from mail contracts. Their postal earnings for 1905 were approximately $45,500,000, out of gross earnings for the same period of $445,000,000. Does anyone believe that the mail transportation of these roads is one-tenth their total transportation service? Much more probable is it that he suppressed proofs of graft are true, and that the railroads, through connivance with postal officials, are robbing the government.
