Russian Mob Massacres Hundreds of Jews

POLICE STAND BY WHILE SLAUGHTER IS IN PROGRESS

Hebrew Replies to Signal for Uprising By Throwing Bomb Into Corpus Christi Procession and Fierce Sacrifice of Life and Property Follows.

Bialystok, Russia June 14.—A Jewish anarchist threw a bomb among the Corpus Christi procession which was in progress here and killed or wounded many persons.

In consequence the Christians attacked and massacred the Jews and demolished their shops.

Hundreds of persons were killed or wounded.

The bomb was thrown from the balcony of a house in Alexandrovia street.

A clergyman, named Remonoff, was among the killed in the explosion.

After the explosion, the Jews began to fire with revolvers from the windows of the house into the crowd. Soldiers surrounded the house and fired two volleys into the windows.

Meanwhile the exasperated Christians attacked the Jews' stores in Alexandrovia street, demolishing the fixtures and windows, and throwing the goods into the gutter and beating and murdering the Jews.

A crowd of Jews fled to the railway station pursued by the mob, which killed many of them.

Three Jews were thrown from the second story windows of the railroad station building.

The Jews are fleeing from Bialystok and the mobs are pursuing them.

Dragoons have been sent out to protect the Jews.

The Jews arrivng here on the railroad trains have been dragged from the cars and many of them have been murdered.

Troops have cleared the railway station.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon the disturbances still continued.

The leatest despatches from Bialystok, which were received about midnight, report a situation of the utmost gravity. The anti-Jewish outbreak there was still raging. Fighting was in progress in the streets. Fighting was continuous.

The best stores in the city had been sacked and many Jews were dead and wounded.

Figures, however, were not given out and probably the casualties are unknown in Bialystok owing to the continuance of the disorders.

The signal for the outbreak which was apparently deliberately planned, perhaps, as a result of a counter stroke for the assassination of Chief of Police Derkatchoff on June 10, which was attributed to Jewish Bundists, is given as the explanation of the bomb firing. This was followed by revolver fusilades in several quartres of the city.

The police are said to have not interfered with the rioters, who number three-fourths of the population of the city.

The Jews offered the best resistance possible, many of them being armed, but were unable to prevent the pillaging of their homes and places of business.

Finally the military interfered, but according to advices received here, without being able to restore order.

Reinforcements have been sent to Bialystok.

Several members of parliament tonight received messages from Jewish correspondents at Bialystok, declaring that the police apparently had given over the Hebrew population to slaughter. These correspondents urged that the only hope was in an appeal to the ministry of the interior to interfere in their behalf.

A delegation of deputies immediately called at the headquarters of the police department, where they were informed that all measures possible had been taken to stop excesses and restore order.

HE WHO FAILS ONCE NEED NOT TRY AGAIN

Insurance Companies Have Bureau in Which Names of Rejected Ones Are Posted.

Toronto, Ont., June 14.—At the insurance inquiry this morning J. Radshaw, actuary of Imperial Life, gave details of an interesting system pursued by life insurance companies. He said insurance companies are members of a literary bureau in Boston. When a policy is refused notice of this refusal and the name of the applicant, date of his birth, and other information is sent to the bureau. This bureau notifies all its members. If the jected person endeavors to insure with another company he fails to get insured because before the policy is granted this file of rejected people is looked over.

EMPRESS OF IRELAND REACHES LIVERPOOL

Makes an Average of Twenty and a Quarter Knots on Speed Trial.

Montreal, June 14.—A Liverpool cable says the Canadian Pacific Railway company's new Atlantic liner "Empress of Ireland" reached there this morning. On her speed trial an average of twenty and a quarter knots was reached. On the 720 miles from the Clyde to the Mersey a speed of eighteen knots was maintained. The weather was beautiful and the trip a delightful one. Everybody was satisfied.

Speeches were made to the effect that the C. P. R. had become a mighty factor in the unitity of the empire in binding the distant with the immediate west.

Pacific Coast Company Employs Strike Breakers

Seattle, Wash, June 14.—Strikebreakers were today employed by the Pacific Coast Steamship company to scour the city for a crew to man the steamer Umatilla, tied up here by reason of the strike. Their efforts proved successful to the extent that one-half of the steward's department was secured. Two men went to work in the engineer's department. It is humored that the company may seek the aid of other lines with a view to locking out the entire force of union men from vessels operated out of this city. Local representatives of other lines say they will carefully consider the matter should such a proposition be placed before them.

No violence was attempted by the strikers; the presence of a force of policemen tended to quiet all loud-voiced men in sympathy with the union.

May Fair Deserted.

San Pedro, Cal., June 14.—The steamer May Fair was deserted this morning by its crew of twelve men in response to orders from San Francisco to quit the vessel.

VISITS ROYAL CITY AND LEARNS TRUTH

Gentleman From Nova Scotia Is Deceived in Varcouer About Conditions in New Westminster —Will Invest Here.

After driving around this city for a couple of hours yesterday afternoon in company with J. S. Bryson, the well known hardware man, a well known Nova Scotian announced his intention of investing a substantial sum of money in real estate in New Westminster. This gentleman was Peter G. Archibald, of Musquoduboit, Halifax county, brother of Donald Archibald, ex-M.P. for Halifax, who is now on a pleasure tour throughout the continent, accompanied by his wife. This is his first visit to the Pacific coast, and New Westminster was unknown to him until yesterday. While in Vancouver he was told by some friends that it would be a waste of time for him to come over here, as there was absolutely nothing to see, and it was only a one street town.

However, Mr. Archibald was anxious to see his old friend Mr. Bryson, whom he had not met for over fifteen years, when Mr. Bryson was on a visit back east, so he determined to come in spite of all the discouraging reports about the city.

On his arrival, he met Mr. Bryson, and sympathised with him for having to live in a place like this. To say that Mr. Bryson was surprised is putting it mildly, but he determined that Mr. Archibald would carry away a different impression of New Westminster. He invited his guest to join him in a drive, and for a couple of hours he escorted him around the city, giving him much useful information about New Westminster at the same time.

Long before the trip was completed Mr. Archibald had completely changed his ideas of New Westminster, constantly remarking; "I had no idea you had such a fine city here, this certainly is a surprise to me", and expressing his delight at every turn. Several of the city's industries were visited during the tour, including the Brunette Saw Mills.

Mr. Archidald's intentions, on arriving here, were to leave for the East to-day, but after seeing New Westminster, he has posponed his departure, pending substantial investments which he intends to make in this city, His last request to Mr. Bryson as he was stepping aboard the car for Vancouver was to look around for a suitable tract of land which he might buy before going back. His first intention had been to invest in Vancouver property, but he has now decided to give New Westminster the preference, as he is convinced that there are better prospects here than in the Terminal city.

DISASTROUS FIRE RAGES AT NAKUSP

Spark Gauses Conflagration Which Destroys Plant of the Yale Columbia Lumber Company and Other Property.

Nakusp, June 14.—A most disastrous fire raged here tonight, starting at 5 o'clock from a spark in the saw mill of the Yale Columbia Lumber company, totally destroying their plant and entire stock of lumber in the yards.

The entire water front was in danger of being gutted for several hours, many families moving all their household goods to places of safety, momentarily expecting the flames to extend to their dwellings.

The C. P. R. shipyard, which adjoins the mill was also almost in the grasp of the dread flames.

Fortunately about 7 o'clock the wind changed its course and with the help of the pumps of the C. P. R. Steamer Minto, which was got under steam as quickly as possible the fire was confined within a certain area.

The tug Columbia later arrived and is throwing a stream of water on the fiercely raging piles.

The steamer Rossland has also been hurriedly sent for to protect the company's property.

The C. P. R. has lost three box cars and one flat car, but saved several others.

The entire population is working hard to confine the flames to the mill and have made many fruitless efforts to save some of the lumber piles.

The mill had a capacity of 50,000 feet per day and the loss on the plant is about $25,000. The yards contained nearly 2,000,000 feet. The whole is covered by insurance, but the amount is unknown.

Unless the wind changes its course during the night all the outside property is saved.

The company's offices, stores and cookhouses are intact.

Between fifty and sixty men were employed at the mill.

TRAIN WRECKS CAUSE INJURIES AND LOSS OF LIFE

Spike Between Rails Ditches Passenger Train on Pennsylvania Road—Three Men Killed Outright in California Smash-up—Street Cars Collide.

Marietta, O., June 14.—The Southbound passenger train on the Pennsylvania railroad due here at 7:30 o'clock, jumped the track at Elba, while running at the rate of forty miles an hour.

The engine, baggage car and tender went down an embankment, and the rest of the train ran to the edge of the bank.

Engineer Vaughan and Fireman Shackles were fatally injured and many passengers were hurt.

A relief train was sent from this city with all the local physicians and surgeons.

An investigation showed that a spike had been driven between the rails.

Three Killed Outright.

Point Richmond, Cal., June 14.—In the wreck of a passenger and work train on the belt line, between here and Point San Pueblo, about 7:30 a. m., caused, presumably by defective switch, three men were killed outright, and a dozen men slightly injured. The dead are: Charles Allison, machinist; Dennis Griffin, bricklayer; Ray Timberman, bricklayer.

That no more were killed seems remarkable, for there were 250 men aboard the train which was made up of two passenger coaches and two box cars conveying workmen to the brick yard where they were employed.

Street Car Collision.

San Francisco, Cal., June 14.—Three passengers narrowly escaped death on a runaway Fillmore street car this morning when the conveyance came in collision with a McAllister street car at Fulton street. The injured are: John Chester, bruised and lacerated about the body; A. Silverstone, hands and face cut by flying glass, and H. Harris, injured about the arms and legs.

The impact of the colliding cars was terrific, and several passengers were thrown violently to the floor. The Fillmore street car, to which responsibility for the accident is attached, became unmanageable and did not respond to the brakes when Motorman Selageman reversed the current.

PRESBYTERIANS PAY MORE TO MINISTERS

Minimum Salary in the West Is $800 and May Soon Be More.

London, Ont., June 14.—At last night's session of the Presbyterian General Assembly the report of the western section of the augmentation committee was presented. During the year 1905 twenty-three augmentation charges have become self-sustaining and twenty-three mission stations have been transferred to list of augmentation charges. The increased liberality of the people has enabled the committee to raise the minimum salary to $800 and the hope is expressed that the minimum salary would soon reach $1,000 and manse.

Waves of Passion.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—The lower house of parliament was swept today by successive waves of passion evoked by a series of government communications, including Military Procurator Pavloff's rejection of the appeal of the house for a cessation of the executions in the Baltic provinces and the request of the procurator of the district court that the house expel M. Ulienoff, who has been indicted although a member of parliament, in order that he may be arrested pending his trial for press offences. So fierce was the storm that President Mouromtzeff was compelled to announce that he would adjourn the session if the demonstration was continued.

BOYS GO SWIMMING AND DROWN IN CREEK

Two Sons of Arthur Benham of Barrie, Ont., Lose Their Lives.

Barrie, Ont., June 14.—John and George Benham, aged 8 and 10 respectively, sons of Aurthur Benham, were drowned in the creek here yesterday. They went in bathing on the way home from school, got beyond their depth and sank.

Their sisters and a number of little children were present but apparently did not know enough to give an alarm for help. The bodies were in the water over an hour.

EVIDENCE OF MURDER DISCOVERED IN RIVER

Willamette Gives up the Marked Body of an Unknown Man.

Portland, Or., June 14.—The body of an unknown man was found in the Willamette river this afternoon, bearing evidence of murder. The legs were tightly bound with strong wire and there were marks of wire about the hands and body. There was a gash three inches long in the head. The body had apparently been in the water three or four days. The man was about 45 years of age and was well dressed.

New Meat Inspection Bill Fails to Please Roosevelt

Washington, D. C., June 14.—President Roosevelt today expressed his entire disapproval of the new meat inspection bill as completed by the house committee on agriculture. He expressed this view today to Chairman Wadsworth of the house committee, when Wadsworth called on him and submitted a draft of the new measure and asked the president's opinion.

The president declared that the bill was not at all adequate to meet the conditions.

Chairman Wadsworth will refer the president's objection to his committee.

Price of Sockeye.

At a meeting of the Fraser river canners' association held in Vancouver Wednesday afternoon, it was decided that the price to be paid for sockeye during the coming season should be 25 cents a fish during the month of July and 20 cents in August. The July price of 25 cents is to be payable for all fish delivered at the canneries or camps up to midnight of July 31.

POSTMASTER REPLIES TO ATTACK ON OFFICE

Asks for Plain Dealing and Shows Childishness of Some of the Complaints.

Considerable public interest having been aroused by the report in the Daily News of the discussion of postoffice affairs which took place at the board of trade meeting on Wednesday, a representative of this paper interviewed the postmaster yesterday on the subject. In reply to questions Postmaster Kennedy said:

"I have not seen a copy of the letter which the secretary of the board of trade sent to J. B. Kennedy, M.P., at Ottawa, and it would appear from the report in the News that a copy was not available at the meeting; but judging from the reply of the member, as published, and from the report of the discussion, the letter while doubtless well-intentioned, must have been somewhat confusing and also unfair to the New Westminster postoffice.

"The young men of the board of trade who, as members of special committees, have had the question of the improvement of local postal facilities especially in hand for some time, are actuated doubtless by the best of motives and by a commendable zeal which knows no bounds; but in some respects their methods betray a lack of experience, clearness, and business acumen that militates against the objects they have in view and to a considerable extent impairs the influence and usefulness of the board of trade.

"This is strikingly exemplified," continued the P. M., "in regard to the board's actions in this very matter of improved postal facilities. The real object the board has in view, and it is an ambitious and commendable one, it to have New Westminster placed on a "city office" basis, with free city delivery and everything that goes with offices of that class. While it may be doubted whether the department will accord New Westminster exceptional treatment in this respect --that is, make it a "city office" before it acquires the usual standing of towns which have such offices, in population and postal revenue—the board of trade is quite within its rights in agitating to that end; but some of the members seem to think that they are furthering, while they are really hindering, this main object by confusing and obscuring it with all kinds of petty complaints, real and imaginary, against the postal service and postal arrangements as they exist, for the hearing and redressing, where redress is required, of which the ordinary official machinery of the department is amply sufficient without recourse, official or otherwise, to Ottawa.

"This confusing of a lot of inconsequential minutiae with a real public issue, together with a lax and careless use of words and phrases which have a meaning much wider than appears to be intended, accounts for the altogether wrong impression which Mr. J. B. Kennedy apparently got from the letter of the secretary of the board, and which the public generally would take from the discussion of postoffice matters at the board of trade meeting of Wednesday night, according to the reports. The main issue is entirely obscured and the impression is prominently conveyed that there are some special, if not scandalous causes of complaint against the conduct of the New Westminster postoffice.

"In this connection," the postmaster continued, "I see one member of the board is quoted as having 'claimed that irregularities have occurred in the postoffice here.' The member in question probably 'didn't know it was loaded' when he used that expression —it is doubtless just another illustration of the lax and extravgant style of expression indulged in (quite innocently but not always harmlessly) by mebers of the board of trade.

"As an illustration," said Postmaster Kennedy, "of the sort of thing some members of the board of trade lightly term 'irregularities' and upon which this whole furore (outside the legitimate agitation which I formerly mentioned) is founded, and as illustrating the sort of thing that august body makes the subject of special and general meetings, and communications to Ottawa—I was present by special invitation at a special meeting called by the postal committee, three or four weeks ago, ostensibly to consider and discuss the proposal to have this office made a 'city office,' one of the inspectors being also present by invitation. A fraction of the time was devoted to discussing that question and also a request that a railway mail clerk should be put on between this city and Blaine; but the major portion of the time of the meeting was given up to rehashing and retailing petty personal complaints (I use the term not as a depreciatory adjective but as a classifying appelative), extending as far as two years back, that various individuals had to make against the postoffice here, some of which had, and all of which should have, been made to and dealt with by the postoffice inspector at Vancouver. The following (without mentioning names) are fair samples of the complaints: A gentleman who had been invited to the meeting for the purpose, told how, about two years ago, his wife had failed to receive a letter until she specially asked for it at the wicket. Through a misunderstanding about the address it had been placed in the general delivery instead of in the lock box. A member of the board said that another gentleman who was absent had a complaint to make about having failed to receive a certain letter some weeks or months before. Another member recollected a similar case about another absent complainant. Two members who were present each complained about delay in delivery of a registered letter.

"Without going into the merits of any of these complaints, it only needs to be mentioned that there is a proper time, place, and way to make such complaints so they can be properly investigated and substantiated or disproved. It is part of the ordinary routine of the inspector's office to listen to and deal with just such complaints, and my contact with other postoffices in the course of business is sufficient to warrant the statement that New Westminster postoffice compares more than favorably even with some of the more pretentious 'city offices' in the relative number and frequency of such complaints. They are inevitable incidents of postoffice work, which will not be wondered at by any intelligent person when he considers the thousands of letters handled daily, many of them poorly, some of them badly, addressed. One office again is often blamed for mistakes which occur in other offices, and the office is blamed for some remissness on the part of poster or receiver.

"Right here I would suggest to the board of trade that, if it is going to relieve the postoffice inspector of the larger part of his routine duties, it should equip itself to perform those duties judicially, and not foolishly assume as it has been doing, without a particle of evidence, that every complaint against the postoffice that can be raked and scraped together with a fine tooth comb off the streets, is a proved charge. All of which shows that the board of trade, which is a valuable and useful institution in the community in its own province, can only make itself absurd by meddling in these petty departmental matters.

"If I had," said the postmaster in conclusion of his statement, "in any way tried to block or obstruct the usual, proper, and competent channel for the hearing of and dealing with such complaints, there might be some excuse for the extraordinary action of the New Westminster board of trade in respect to these matters. But I have always given every assistance possible in having all complaints fully and fairly investigated, so that there is absolutely no excuse for the action taken, which gives the wholly wrong and damaging impression that there are great, scandalous 'irregularities' in the conduct of the New Westminster postoffice—'irregularities' so serious as to call for the intervention of the board of trade."

Since the institution of the grand lodge in 1874 there has been spent in this work the large sum of $375,500.54.

British Columbia Oddfellows did nobly for their distressed brethren in San Francisco. The sum of $2,027.40 has been forwarded to F. B. Ogden, grand warden of California, at Oakland.

During the year several mergement of lodges have taken place. Banner lodge, No. 31, with Harmony lodge, No. 6, on 12th June, 1905. Perseverance lodge, No. 29, with Harmony lodge, No. 6, on 31st July, 1905; Gold Range lodge No. 22, North Bend, with Cheam lodge, No. 28, Agassiz on 14th April, 1906.

Growth of Membership.

Although there have been no lodges of the male branch instituted during the year, there has been a good increase in membership. One new Rebekah lodge was formed on 23rd May, 1906, at Phoenix, with 33 members and prospects are stated to be good for a large accession. Steps have also been taken to institute lodges of this branch at Cranbrook and Fernie.

According to the report of the grand representatives on 31st December, 1904, there were, on the continent of America, 1,520,621 persons belonging to the order, having funds invested to the enormous sum of $37,645,071.10.

Election of Officers.

Grand Master—F. E. Simpson, Cranbrook.

Deputy Grand Master—T. Embledon, Rossland.

Grand Warden—H. T. Fulton, Ladysmith.

NEVER SATISFIED.

Mr. J. J. Hill is a railway man from the ground up, but he is also a shrewd observer who has made good use of his wide opportunities, and an enthusiastic believer in the future of the West. Nor does he allow his sympathies to be cut off short by the political boundary line. Everything which is likely to affect the growth and development of the Canadian West appeals to him just as it would if no such boundary line existed. Accordingly we find him in a recent speech at Ottawa, turning his attention to the subject which occupies so much of his thoughts and saying some pertinent things about the growth of the newer parts of this country. A natural remark about the importance of endeavoring to secure settlers of the very best class—which means the class best adapted for the conditions of the country—is seized upon by the Conservative papers, eager for every scrap that can be used to forward their organized campaign of slander, and tortured into a censure of the immigration policy of the government. Passing over the implied discourtesy to Mr. Hill, attention is called to the inconsistency of the organs. No act of the government has done so much—been so effectual—in the way of securing the best class of settlers as the Saskatchewan Valley land sale; yet the organs exhaust themselves in denunciation of that very act. The organs recall the man who was always dissatisfied with his dinner. No matter how it might be cooked or served, he wanted it some other way. The dish before him was always disgusting; he "would rather eat a boiled frog." One day, the dish at which he grumbled was promptly removed and another, cooked in a different style, substituted. That did not suit him either; "I would as soon," he said, "have a boiled frog." Promptly the dish was removed and another set in its place. He lifted the cover and there lay—a boiled frog, and the grumbler adjourned to the back yard. When the next election comes along the Conservative grumblers will get their boiled frog—and adjourn to the back yard.

Precept and practice do not always run on the same lines. The Colonist of yesterday has an article in which it takes a very high tone about "newspapers which habitually and unblushingly lie about public men," and in an adjoining column it unblushingly li—, we mean prints a slander about John Oliver, M. P. P., which it (as far as the parts of the story intended to damage Mr. Oliver's reputation are concerned) confesses that it makes up as it goes along, after the fashion of the nursery raconteur.

Britain in Egypt.

Interviewed on his return home to New York on Monday, Bishop Potter, speaking of his trip abroad, after lamenting the use to which the American flag was put in Cairo in advertising patent medicines, said:

"I spent my winter in Egypt and was greatly impressed with the splendid achievements of the British administration of affairs there. It had been thirty years since I was in Egypt, and the change wrought in that time is indeed wonderful. No more brilliant jewel shines in the crown of Great Britain than her achievements in Egypt. On one occasion I was talking with Lord Cromer, and in the course of our talk it was mentioned how seldom it is that the mind of the Oriental changes, and to this observtaion Lord Cromer made this profound remark and astute reply: 'You can change the face of the land by canals and railroads, and you can improve the conditions of a people by introducing a better government, but you cannot change the mind of an Oriental in a quarter of a century. He wil still think orientally. This is the basic fact which we have got to remember in all our dealings with them."

VANCOUVER SLEUTHS PREPARE TO RESIGN

Detectives Mulhern, Jackson and Waddell Plan to Establish a Private Agency.

Vancouver, June 14.—Something of a sensation was caused in civic administrative circles this morning when it became known that three of the best known detectives are preparing to hand in their resignations.

The men who are understood to have decided to quite the force are Detective Sergeant Mulhern and Detectives Jackson and Waddell. Their resignatins have not yet been handed in, and the matter may be delayed for several weeks. Their decision, however, is the result of consideration for a number of months.

The intention of the three officers is to form a private detective agency in the city. For a long time they have been impressed with the possibilities of this business and have been assured of important business from local financial institutions as well as from national detective agencies of the United States. Their intention is also to furnish nightwatchmen for local firms and generally to engage in special police business.

The three officers have long and very enviable records in local police affairs, and have many of the most important criminal captures made in Vancouver to their credit. Mulhern has been on the force eleven years, nearly all of that time as a detective. Jackson has been an officer for eight years, seven of which he has been in plain clothes. Waddell has been a detective between three and four years.

While the detectives are not personally concerned in the forthcoming, investigation, there is no question that the recent turmoil in police affairs has had something to do with their decision.

WHERE HENRIETTA SHINES.

Noted Actress Will Present Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary.

Theatre patrons in this city will rejoice in the announcement that Henrietta Crossman will be seen at the Westminster opera house on June 20th, when she will present her latest New York hit and greatest success the sparkling modern comedy, "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary." Of all the successes this famous actress has made and they are many and conspicuous—none has equalled her triumph in this comedy. No such praise was ever before bestowed upon her as has come from her portrayal of Mary in the comedy, "Mary, Mary Quite Contrary." The theatre-going public is familiar with Miss Crossman's delightful gifts and attainments. Those who have not already enjoyed her work have heard of it, so they know the charm it possesses. But in nothing Miss Crossman has done was she so fascinating, so alluring or was her winesome personality so engagingly exploited as in this modern comedy. Beyond all question in "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary," she has scored the greatest hit of her many triumphs. It goes without saying that this actress will have an excellent company and the play will be beautifully staged. Miss Crossman never fails along these lines. Her name is synonomous with all that is highest and best in dramatic undertakings. Her visit will be justly regarded as a notable theatrical event of the season.

Search for Gold.

Another party of mining prospectors left Wednesday on the hunt for pay dirt. Ed. Hughes, and his brother Tom, of the Lyton hotel, accompanied by J. Cameron, until lately connected with the B. C. E. R. carshops, once again shouldered their prospector's packs and started off. Their destination is the headwaters of the Fraser river, and they expect to return loaded with nuggets. As all three are old and experienced prospectors, they stand a good chance of striking gold in paying quantities. George and Walter Hughes will manage the hotel during the absence of their brothers.

FILIPINOS MURDER AMERICAN GOVERNOR

Lieut. Bolton and Companion Butchered by Chief and His Brothers.

Manala, June 14.—First Lieut. Edward C. Bolton, of the Twelfth Infantry, governor of the province of Davao, Island of Mindanao, and Benjamin Christian, have been murdered on the beach on the west coast of Davao by a Mungalayan and his two brothers.

The murderers have not yet been captured. A report received here by Gen. Wood, from Gen. Weiss, who is at Zamboanga, states that Bolton and Christian passed a night at the Mungalayan's house and were to return in the morning with the Mungalayan brothers as guides. The Americans were unarmed and were attacked unawares.

The Mungalayan has the reputation of being a cut throat and murderer. He is second chief of the Tagacolas who are non-Christian people. Lieut. Bolton was endeavoring to pacify the people by peaceful means and had gone there unarmed. He was considered one of the best officials of the government and had accomplished much. Christian, the other man murdered man, was a discharged soldier and foreman of the government farm at Malita.

A report of the murder received at constabulary headquarters gives the additional information that he Mungalayan is the leader of a band of 200 religious fanatics who are terrorizing the country and recently sacked a place known as McCulloch's, near Malalog. The Americans are gathering at Malalog. One company of regular troops and one company of constabulary were dispatched from Zamboanga at daylight today to scour the country, arrest the murderers if possible, and restore order.

Capt. Langpore has been made acting governor of Davao and placed in charge of the operations.

Rev. Dr. Sipprell, B. A., B. D., principal of the Columbian College, is at present making a tour through the Okanagan Valley, and will visit Summerland on Sunday, where he will preach in the Methodist church on the occasion of the annivrsary services. On Monday he is to deliver a lecture on "The Hope of Age" in the same building.

The C. P. R. steamer Beaver arrived yesterday afternoon from the up-river districts and towns with a heavy cargo of freight and seventy head of beef cattle from Chilliwack for trans-shipment to P. Burns & Co., of Vancouver. Among the passengers were: C. Jaggers, from MacDonalds landing; C. W. Armstrong and wife, and S. Correy from Chilliwack; G. Payne, and F. LeClaire from Mount Lehman; R. Frederickson, from Langley; Mrs. Charley and A. Adams from Hammond.

One of the female patients at the asylum attempted to escape on Wednesday afternoon. Workmen who had been employed in the garden left a ladder lying on the ground, and went away. The patient noticed the ladder, and watching her chance, she propped it up against the wall and climbed over. Her disappearance was soon noticed, and the attendants scattered in all directions looking for her. She was captured before she could get very far away, and brought back to the institution, screaming at the top of her voice.

A large number of city people attended the entertainment given in the Presbyterian church at Tynehead on Wednesday night. At least ten rigs, each carrying capacity loads, travelled between New Westminster and Tynehead, and those who took the trip were well repaid for their exertions. A capital programme was rendered, consisting of piano solos, songs, readings and recitations. The following ladies assisted: Miss Munn, solo; Miss Vass, piano; Miss McLean, Vancouver, elocutionist; Miss Curry, reading. The usual refreshments were served after the entertainment.

W. N. Draper, surveyor, returned from Sumas yesterday morning, where he has been engaged during the past fortnight surveying land for private parties. He returned to New Westminster to attend to business that had accumulated during his absence, and will here about two weeks before returning to complete his work around Sumas and Matsqui. Mr. Draper reports great activity around the country, and says that the crops are coming on fine. There still remains large tracts of land to be surveyed around Matsqui, and he expects to be busy around that district for some time to come.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hampton Bole have returned from their honeymoon, and taken up their residence on Third avenue.

Conductor Dan Starret of the C. P. R. has lately invested in real estate, which may be taken as a sure sign that he does not intend to abandon New Westminster entirely, though his promotion makes it necessary for him to reside in Vancouver in the future. He has purchased a house and lot on Agnes street, and intends to hold it for some time to come.

Giving Them a Chance.

John Oliver, M. P. P., paid a visit to town yesterday and was interviewed by a representative of the Daily News with respect to the story printed in the Columbian, in which a land purchase of his was represented as a transaction more to his profit than to his credit. Mr. Oliver said he thought it better not to discuss the matter through the newspapers, as he proposed immediately to take steps to give the gentlemen who were advertising him as a "grafter" a chance to make their accusation good in the courts. Political hard knocks he could give and take in good part, but when political animosity led men to attack his private character, that was another matter. He had not heard of the Columbian's attack upon him until Wednesday night, and yesterday morning he came to town to see his legal advisers.

Entertained on Vellore.

About forty guests were entertained on board the sailing ship Vellore on Wednesday evening by the officers of the boat, Capt. Cornelisen, the mates Silveston and Homme, and steward Olsen acting as hosts. The party proved to be quite a success, and in return for the courtesy shown to their friends on shore, the landlubbers will entertain the captain and crew in the Eagles' hall tomorrow evening. A long and varied programme has been prepared for the occasion, and the entertainment, which is given under the auspices of the Norwegians in New Westminster, should prove an enjoyable one.

Sandy's Horse Goes Strong.

The latest information obtainable about Sandy Rae's horse is that, after his sensational stunt on Columbia street, and across the bridge, he continued to travel at a good rate of speed, and was reported out about ten miles on the Yale road yesterday morning, and still going strong. A farmer stopped the horse across the river, and after holding it for some time, again turned it loose, giving information later in the day to Sandy about it. He did not satisfy Sandy's curiosity as to the reason why he had not held on to the horse after he had captured him.

Plumbers and Plumbing Regulation By-law, 1906.

A By-law to license and regulate plumbers and to provide for the appointment of plumbing inspectors and to provide for the plumbing and drainage of buildings.

Whereas it is desirable and necessary to license and regulate plumbers in the City of New Westminster, and to provide for the appointment of plumbing inspector, and to provide for the effective plumbing and drainage of buildings;

Therefore the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster enacts as follows:

1. The Council may from time to time, as occasion may require, appoint an Inspector for plumbing and any such Inspector shall be under the supervision of the Board of Health and be given renumeration for his services as the Council shall determine.

2. A Board of Plumbing Examiners shall be appointed annually by the Council. The Board shall be called together by the Plumbing Inspector, who shall be Secretary of the Board, at such times as the Council may find necessary.

3. In case any dispute arises under this By-law as to whether any person or persons employed by any licensed master plumber is a regularly educated practical and experienced plumber, as in this By-law is provided, the Plumbing Inspector may notify the said workman to appear and be examined before such Board of Examiners, whose decision as to the competency of such workman shall be final and conclusive.

4. Certificates of competency may be granted by the Board of Examiners to any plumber producing proof satisfactory to them that the applicant has undergone satisfactory training and due examination, and in absence of such proof to any applicant who shall after an examination before the said Board be considered by them to be competent, and such certificate shall be recorded in the office of the plumbing Inspector, the person receivng the same paying a fee of $1.00 therefor, and such plumber shall be a registered plumber of the city.

Provided that the Chairman of the Board may grant, on being satisfied with the competency of any journeyman plumber applying for the same, a temporary permit to such plumber for a period not exceeding thirty days, which permit shall confer on such plumber the same privilege for that period only as if he held a certificate from the Board of Examiners.

5. Under and immediately after the passage of this By-law, and in every ensuing year on or before the first day of July, any persons desiring to carry on business or trade as a master plumber within the City of New Westminster shall take out a license, which license shall be posted up in the office or shop of the master plumber at all times, for which he shall pay at the time of the issuing thereof a sum of $20.00. Except as hereinafter provided, any person may take out a license under the provisions of this By-law on behalf of a partnership, firm or company of which he may be a member.

6. No person shall receive such a license unless he has a place of business within the City of New Westminster, and furnishes a bond binding himself to the amount of $500.00 with at least two sureties in the sum of $250.00 each to the satisfaction of the Finance Committee, or a bond to the same amount from a guarantee company, that he will employ only registered plumbers who have received and hold a certificate of competency from the Board of Examiners to do all such plumbing work as he may engage to do, and whether he is a practical plumber himself or not, will not permit or allow any such work to be done in connection with the business except by such registered plumbers, and that he will not violate any of the terms and conditions, rules and regulations contained in this By-law, or in any other By-law which shall come into force from time to time in the City of New Westminster respecting plumbing, drainage, sanitary matters and water works within the said City.

7. Every person desiring such license shall file with the Inspector of Plumbing, a petition in writing giving name of applicant, and in the case of a partnership, the name of each member thereof, together with the place of business, and asking to become a licensed master plumber, and said petition shall be accompanied by the bond and fee hereinbefore mentioned.

8. Any change in firm or location of the business shall be promptly reported to the Plumbing Inspector, and the license shall be kept in a conspicuous place at the location of the business.

9. When any member of a partnership or company is licensed individually for the partnership or company, the license may be issued in the name of the firm, co-partnership or company, the said license setting out the names of the members of the firm, co-partnership or directors of the company and the date the license was granted, and no license so granted shall be transferable except with the permission of the Plumbing Inspector.

10. All licensed master plumbers shall be held responsible for all acts of their employees in connection with their business for which such bond and license is issued.

11. Every such bond and license shall be for the year current at the time of the granting thereof, and shall expire on the 15th day of January next succeeding the date of issue.

12. Upon satisfactory evidence furnished to the Plumbing Inspector that any master plumber has been twice convicted by the Police Magistrate, or a Justice of the Peace, of any violation of the provisions of this By-law, or any of the By-laws respecting plumbing, drainage, sanitary matters, or water works, his license shall be, ipso facto, forfeited and returned to the Inspector.

13. Any master plumber whose bonds and license may become forfeited shall not again be entitled to a license until the said declaration of forfeiture shall be revoked by the Plumbing Inspector and if such master plumber is carrying on his business in co-operation, or as a member of a company, the co-partnership or company shall not carry on the business of plumbing from the date of such cancellation.

14. Before proceeding to construct re-construct, alter or change any portion of the plumbing, drainage or ventilation of any building, the owner, his agent, or the master plumber constructing the same shall file in the office of the Plumbing Inspector an application for a permit therefor, and such application shall be accompanied with a specification or abstract thereof, in a blank form prescribed and supplied for that purpose by the Plumbing Inspector, stating the nature of work to be done, and giving the size, kinds and weights of all pipes, traps and fittings, together with a description of all closets and other fixtures, and a plan with a description of the locality sufficient for identification, and showing the drainage system complete. Plans must be legibly drawn in ink on a scale of 1-8 in. to the foot; provided, however, that this clause shall not apply to small repairs which do not alter the plan of the plumbing.

15. A permit shall be granted or refused within seven days from the time of filing of the application, and the permit of the Plumbing Inspector (if granted) shall be valid for six months from the date of issue.

16. If the Plumbing Inspector shall find that the said plans and specifications do not conform with the rules and requirements laid down in respect to plumbing and drainage in the By-laws of the City of New Westminster, he shall not issue any permit for the plumbing and drainage, and it shall be unlawful to proceed therewith.

17. After a plan or specification has once been approved no alteration or deviation from the same will be allowed, except with the written consent of the Plumbing Inspector.

18. From and after the passing of this By-law every owner, or agent of an owner, of any building, doing or causing to be done, any plumbing in such building shall, on the same being passed by the Plumbing Inspector be granted a certificate that such plumbing has been done in accordance with the City By-laws, and on being requested to do so shall deliver such certificate to any person proposing to purchase or occupy such building.

19. No part of any plumbing or drainage work shall be covered or concealed in any way until it has been examined and approved of by the Plumbing Inspector, to whom notice must be sent when the work is sufficiently advanced to be inspected, unless in the case of drainage below the surface of the ground, which the Inspector has failed to inspect within the five working hours next ensuing after being notified, then the ground may be filled in, in case of an emergency affecting the public safety.

20. All materials must be of good quality and free from defects and the work must be executed in a thorough and workmanlike manner.

21. The arrangement of soil and waste pipe must be as direct as possible.

22. The soil, waste and ventilating pipes and traps must, where practicable, be exposed to view for ready inspection at all times and for convenience in repairing. When necessarily placed within partitions or in recesses of walls, soil, waste and ventilating pipes must be covered with woodwork so fastened as to be readily removed. In no case shall they be so placed as to be absolutely inaccessible unless under written permission from the Plumbing Inspector.

23. When the ground is made or unsound the house sewer shall be of medium or standard cast-iron or brass pipe, with joints properly caulked with lead.

24. In sound ground, providing it is outside of the building, hard salt, glazed, vitrified pipe may be used; each length shall be wetted before being laid and the space completely filled with cement mortar, made in the proportion of two of good, clean, sharp sand and one of the best Portland cement, except in wet ground, when a gasket shall be placed around the spigot and forced down to the bottom of the socket and finished with mortar cement, as described above. Each pipe must be cleaned out with a mop after being laid. The different lengths must be laid in perfect line on the bottom and sides. All connections must be through "Y" junctions.

25. Any soil pipe passing through a building, or beneath the floor of a cellar or basement, shall be of cast-iron or brass as in section 23, and shall extend to at least five feet outside the building, and no wall shall be built leaning solidly upon the same.

26. Every vertical soil pipe shall be cast-iron or brass, and shall extend a sufficient height above the highest window, roof, or coping, or light shaft, to the satisfaction of the Plumbing Inspector.

27. No rain water down pipe, or chimney flue shall be used as a ventilator for any sewer trap, soil or waste pipe, or as a soil or waste pipe.

28. Each building in which a water closet is placed shall be provided with a main ventilating pipe of cast iron or wrought iron pipe, galvanized, of not less diameter than four inches, which shall be carried at least two feet above the highest window, opening or light shaft.

29. Soil or main ventilating pipes in an extension must be carried to and above the roof of the main building, when otherwise they would open within 40 feet of any openings of the main or adjoining house.

30. No soil pipe shall be less than four inches in diameter. A waste pipe receiving the discharge of five or more sinks shall not be less than three inches in diameter and shall have two-inch branches.

31. When lead pipe is used to connect fixtures with vertical soil or waste pipe, or to connect traps with main ventilators, it shall not be lighter than:

1¼ inches in diameter, 5¾ pounds per yard.

1½ inches in diameter, 7 pounds per yard.

2 inches in diameter, 8 pounds per yard.

2½ inches in diameter, 10½ pounds per yard.

3 inches in diameter, 13½ pounds per yard.

4 inches in diameter, 24 pounds per yard.

Trap vent pipes shall be of brass, lead, cast or galvanized wrought iron. All traps and fittings shall be equal in quality and thickness to the pipes to which they are attached.

32. All cast-iron pipes must be of the best clean grey metal, free from sand cracks, honeycomb, porous places, air holes, or other defects, and of the grade known as "Standard" which may be used below all fixtures, and for ventilating pipes the grade known as "Standard" of the heavy quality. In buildings over three stories in height the lower three stories must be fitted with the grade known as "medium." The following will be accepted:

Standards 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 inches in diameter.

Below fixtures 3, 4½, 6½, 8½, 10, 20 pounds per foot.

Above fixtures 3, 4½, 6½, pounds per foot.

Medium 5½, 9½, 13, 17, 20 pounds per foot.

All fittings used in connection with such pipes shall correspond in weight and quality. All such pipes and fittings to be coated inside and out with tar and asphaltum.

33. Before being accepted, all plumbing work shall be tested by water or other test approved by and made in the presence of the plumbing inspector. All defective material shall be removed and replaced, and bad workmanship made good, at the expense of the master plumber doing the work.

34. All joints in iron or brass sewer pipe, soil pipe, waste pipe and ventilators shall be made with a gasket of oakum, and lead, hand caulked, and be perfectly gas tight.

35. All connections of lead with iron or brass pipe shall be made with a brass ferrule of the same diameter of the lead pipe, put in a hub of the iron pipe and caulked with lead. The ferrule shall be connected with the lead pipe with a wiped joint. Vent and flush pipes of water closets shall be connected with brass couplings.

36. All connections of lead, waste and vent pipes shall be made with wiped joint.

37. All water closets, urinals, sinks, basins, wash-trays, baths, and all tubs or sets of tubs, adn hydrant waste pipes shall be separated and effectively trapped, except when a sink and washtubs immediately adjoin each other, in which case the waste pipe from the tubs may be connected with the inlet side of the sink traps. Urinal platforms if connected with the sewers must also be properly trapped, vented and automatically flushed with water from a supply tank.

38. Tanks shall be placed as near the fixtures as practicable, and in no case shall a trap be more than two feet from the fixture. All traps must have a cleaning out screw on the under side.

39. All waste pipes from fixtures other than water closets shall be provided at the outlet with strong metal stringers, and all sinks shall be provided with approved grease traps, except when such fixture is to be used for other than household purposes.

40. The waste pipes from no other fixtures shall be connected with a water closet trap.

41. All traps shall be protected from syphonage by a ventilating pipe leading from the highest and outer portion of the trap, either separate or joining the main ventilating pipe, above the highest fixture, or by a sealed syphon preventer, which will only be allowed if in the opinion of the inspector it is impracticable to provide otherwise.

42. For traps in water closets the branch vetnilating pipe shall not be less than two inches in diameter, and not less than three inches for a building of three stories or more in height. Where a bath or basin, or both, are in the same room with a water closet, the vents for the same may join the closet vent above the fixture. In no case shall more than three water closets communicate with the same ventilating pipe unless it is over two inches in diameter.

43. Overflow pipes must discharge into the open air and may have a flap on the end to keep out draught.

44. Every safe under a wash basin, bath, urinal, water-closet or other urinal, water-closet or other other fixtures, shall be drained by a special pipe unconnected with a sewer, waste or soil pipe, discharging into the open air.

45. No drain pipes from refrigerators shall be directly connected with any soil pipe, waste or sewer.

46. Water-closets shall not be placed in an unventilated room or compartment. In every case there shall be an opening to the outer air. All water-closets shall be supplied with water from special tanks, and the water from these shall not be used for any other purposes. No water-closets shall be directly supplied from the water mains or service pipes. Water closet cisterns shall be fitted with ball taps, etc., to prevent waste.

47. Where the trap of a closet is above the floor, the connection with the soil pipe shall be made with brass and rubber approved floor flanges.

48. Overflow or discharge pipes from tanks for drinking water shall never be directly connected with any soil, vent, waste pipe or sewer.

49. No closet or any other convenience which allows the escape into the house of air or gas which has been confined in any part of it, or from the drain or soil pipe, or which allows the accumulation of filth in or about it, shall be fitted up or used.

50. All water pipes must be protected from injury or settling.

51. The plumbing inspector shall have the power to enter upon any premises and examine the plumbing, ventilation and drains, and should the same, in his opinion, be in an unsanitary condition, may notify the owner, or his agents, to have the same put in a sanitary condition, and any person neglecting to do so forthwith, to the satisfaction of the pumbing inspector shall be liable to the penalties of this by-law.

52. The plumbing inspector is also authorized to receive and place on file drawings and descriptions of the plumbing and drainage of buildings executed in the City of New Westminster, prior to the passage of this by-law, and examine and give a certificate, if in accordance with the provisions of this by-law, upon request by owners of said buildings.

JAMES BEDFORD DIES FROM BULLET WOUND

Shot Intended for a Deer Proves Fatal to Resident of Alberni.

Nanaimo, June 14.—James Bedford, the Alberni rancher who was shot on Monday night by Rollins, the hotelkeeper at Alberni, in mistake for a deer, died last night.

The injured man was frightfully wounded, the soft-nosed bullet carrying away the whole side of his face. Rollins, who did the shooting, took careful aim, deliberately shooting him, thinking that he was shooting a deer. He is nearly crazed with grief. Both men were friends. Rollins was looking for a wild steer at the time. He mistook Redfern's brown canvas coat for a deer and fired.

Redford leaves a wife and seven small children.

A communication was received from A. E. Mann, asking for repairs to Rochester road and offering to assist by doing certain work free.

On motion of Brennan and McLean it was resoived to spend $10 in addition to work by Messrs. Baker and Mann.

A complaint being received that a certain party was taking sand from the North road, without having obtained any permission to do so, Coun. Brennan was requested to take steps to protect the council's interest, either by suit or by compelling the party to pay all damages.

Hugh Barn asked for a road to be slashed out to his land the S. ½ of Lot 373 and the matter was left to Couns. Fox and McLean.

Mr. James Cunningham wrote complaining of the bad state of the roads in the West End, and the clerk was instructed to reply that the Council did the best they could with the funds at their disposal and suggesting that Mr. Cunningham become a Councillor next year and try to do better himself.

The school accounts amounting to $105 were ordered paid. This amount includes all arrears due the teachers and also the payment of a note for $135 due the Royal Bank of Canada.

The following accounts were paid: Dingle & Galbraith, printing, $3.75; J. Gatley, oil for hall, $3.80; A. Falconar, road work, $1.40; John Smith, salary, etc., $27.85.

The Land Sale By-law, 1906, was reconsidered and finally passed.

The Reeve and Councillors' indemnity was ordered paid to date.

The building of a culvert from Trung road onto the prairie near Pitt River ferry was left to Couns. Fox and McLean.

J. Smith was given an extension of time in which to complete his contract on the Junction road.

No tenders being sent in for the ditch on the Wilson road it was left to Coun. Fox to get the work done.

TRAVELLER BATTLES WITH DUSKY PORTER

Impromptu Set-to Occurs in Parlor Car on G. N. R. Train Near New Westminster.

Passengers in the parlor car on the G. N. R. train last evening were treated to an impromptu prize fight free of charge, between Cloverdale and New Westminster. A husky travelling salesman and the colored porter were the principals, while the other male occupants of the car divided the several duties of seconds, timekeeper, attendants and backers between them. The cause of all the trouble, according to some of the passengers, was the porter's inability to answer a civil question in a civil manner. When asked by the traveller whether the next stop would be New Westminster, he mumbled something between a gurgle and a groan which could not be translated into any known language.

The traveller, who has more temper than he can conveniently control, rose in his wrath, and told the dusky porter many unpleasant things about his race, and in his energy overstepped the bounds of polite language.

The colored man also had a number of remarks to make, and while he was having his innings, the ladies left the car, presumably feeling that their presence interfered with the proper degree of lurid language which each wished to hurl at the other.

When their angry passions had been roused to white heat, the principals squared up, and without waiting for the word go, pitched into each other, disregarding all the Marquis of Queensbury's rules in their short and strenuous struggle. Before a knockout blow could be administered, the conductor arrived on the scene, and called time. No decision was given, but each is confident that another three minutes would have put his opponent out of the running entirely.

Garden Party This Afternoon.

The garden party to be held this afternoon and evening at Moody Square under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the West End Methodist church will undoubtedly be a success if the weather proves fine. In addition to the usual delicacies in the way of strawberries and cream, cake and coffee, there will be a varied programme of sports and other attractions. A ball game will be played between two of the junior teams. The ladies' races are likely to prove the most interesting, several fleet-footed damsels having promised to take part. The prizes are certainly original in several cases, a big juicy strawberry being the reward for one winner. The second prize will be half a strawberry, the clerk of the course, Rev. A. J. Brace, disposing of the other half.

Interest in Picnic.

A meeting in connection with the B. C. E. R. employees' picnic was to have been held last evening at the company's offices, but at the last moment it was postponed until a later date. The programme of sports and other attractions was to have been drawn up at this meeting. The efforts of the committee who are in charge of the arrangements are being crowned with success, and everything points to a first class picnic this year. The many inquiries that are being made daily at the tram office show that considerable interest is being taken in the outing, and a large crowd will no doubt accompany the street car men on the occasion of their annual outing next Wednesday.

Amsterdam, Holland, June 14.—The Dutch warship Piethelm arrived at Nieadwediep and reported having been in collision with the Belgian steamer Meuse off Haak's lightship. The Meuse sank and her captain and twelve of her crew were drowned.

Large Crowd Enjoys Social.

The social and entertainment given on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Barnabas proved to be a thorough success. Over $35 was realized, and a capital evening was spent by the large crowd present. The free and easy manner of all the guests helped in a great measure, the whole affair being quite informal, and therefore all the more enjoyable. Ice cream, strawberries, and similar refreshments were served at intervals during the evening, and an excellent programme was rendered. An orchestral selection under the leadership of Prof. Judges opened the entertainment, followed by a piano duett by Miss Doris Clute and F. Major. A. S. Leslie's picolo solo was well received, while the vocal duett between Mrs. Frith and Mrs. Emmett was excellently rendered. Frank Lewis next obliged with a guitar solo, followed by a piano solo by Mrs. Frith, who played in excellent style. A. Johnston obliged with a song, which he rendered in capital style. This was followed by a piano duett by Miss Muriel Cotton and Miss Vera Corbould. A concert flute solo by A. S. Leslie and a banjo solo by H. Lewis brought a capital entertainment to a close. Leslie's Fife and Drum band was in attendance, and played selections on the lawn.

WEST-ENDERS DEFEAT REGINAS AT LACROSSE

City Intermediate Teams Put up Good Exhibition of the National Game.

The intermediate lacrosse match between the Reginas and the West End teams last evening, resulted in a victory for the West Enders, with a score of 7 to 4 in their favor. The game was fast, and with one exception, the players behaved themselves. Robertson and Johnson contributed the usual scrap without which no up-to-date lacrosse game can be looked upon as complete, but were quickly ruled off by the referee. After dangling around the fence for five minutes, they were allowed to pick up their sticks and resume the game.

For the Reginas, Wintemute and Smith played a good game, while Clute, who made his first appearance in goal, created a favorable impression, stopping several likely looking shots. For the winners, Galbraith and L. Turnbull were the star players, though the whole team deserves commendation.

George Rennie occupied his usual position of referee, S. Malcolmson and G. Reid acting as umpires, while G. Murphy and C. D. Peele were official time keepers.

The following players scored for their respective teams:

West End—B. Henry, 1; W. Turnbull, 1; H. Johnson, 1; W. Warwick, 2; L. Turnbull, 2. Total, 7.

Reginas—I. Wintemute, 1; V. Furdy, 2; A. Smith, 1. Total, 4.

The following is the order in which the teams lined up:

West Enders—Goal, H. Carty; point, D. Digby; coverpoint, C. Galbraith; first defence, Bert Galbraith; second defence, H. Ackley; third defence, E. Munn; center, W. Turnbull; third home, H. Johnson; second home, W. Warwick; first home, L. Turnbull; outside home, B. Henry; inside home, G. Spring.

Reginas—Goal, Clute; point, Pearson; coverpoint, Spring; first defence, Robertson; second defence, K. Brown; third defence, G. Mannering; centre field, Wintermute; third home, J. Keary; second home, E. Tedrow; first home, C. Bourne; outside home, V. Furdy; inside home, A. Smith.

Bryan Is Reticent.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—Asked to define his attitude toward the presidential candidacy in 1908, Mr. Bryan expressed his pleasure at the complimentary resolutions passed by various state conventions, but said it was too early to make any announcement relative to his renomination.
