CHILLIWACK LIBERALS HEAR GOOD SPEECHES

Party in New City Is Strong And Preparing for Coming Dominion Election.

Supporters of the Liberal party in Chilliwack and district are increasing in numbers at a rate that is bound to cause the Tory disciples uneasiness at the present time and worry at a future date when Dominion elections will bring the political situation into the limelight. The strength of the Liberal party in that riding was demonstrated at a meeting of the Chilliwack Liberal party held in the I. O. F. hall on Wednesday evening, when important addresses were given by C. W. Munro, M. L. A., of Chilliwack, and A. Hardman, of this city, each of these gentlemen making strong addresses in the interests of the Liberal cause. A large audience listened and cheered the speakers until eleven o'clock, when all present adjourned to the Hub restaurant, where a banquet was served by J.W. Galloway in an unexcelled manner.

Following the disposal of the tempting viands placed before the guests, speeches were made by a number of prominent Chilliwack and outside Liberals, songs being interspersed at intervals. Among those who contributed to the merriment of the evening were R. Marshall, vocal solo; J. Nichol, reading; M. Short, cornet solo; A. R. McKenzie, reading; R. C. Barwell, song, and several others.

Prominent among the after-dinner speakers were C. W. Munro, M.L.A., who, in a comprehensive address on "Our Principles," touched at some length upon the work which had been done in the Provincial house during the past session, dealing more particularly with certain legislation which had been introduced by members of the government and to which objection had been taken by the Liberal members sitting on the opposition benches. Mr. Munro referred to the proposal to transfer the supervision of liquor licenses in unorganized districts to the absolute control of the provincial police, a proceeding with which he disagreed, as it would mean that only political favorites would be permitted to conduct a licensed hotel, a state of affairs not conducive to fairness or strict observance of the law. Local needs were also touched upon by Mr. Munro, who concluded an excellent and well delivered address amid rounds of applause.

In replying to the toast of "Our Association," A. Hardman, of Westminster, spoke in a clear and incisive manner of the need of hearty co-operation among the different political associations scattered throughout the districts, pointing out that it was only by uniform and concerted action that the best results could be obtained. He warned his hearers against letting petty differences interfere with their allegiance to the party which had done so much for Canada during the years it had been in power, winding up with a strong arraignment of the tactics and actions of the leaders of the opposition at Ottawa, who had during the present session done all in their power to focus the attention of the country upon so-called scandals and graft charges, none of which had ever been proved to exist outside the imagination of Foster and others of his ilk.

Other speakers of the evening included D. C. McGillivray, president of the association; J. H. Ashwell, J. A. McLeod, T. B. Henderson, H. Kipp, E. J. Campbell, R. C. Barwell, R. J. McIntosh, J. S. Mercer and G. I. Thornton.

THOUSAND VOLTS PASS THROUGH MAN'S BODY

Frank Miller Mistakes Order, Picks up Live Wire and Is Seriously Injured.

Screaming and raving from the effects of the passage of a thousand volts of electricity through his body, Frank Miller, of Vancouver, a lineman in the employ of the B. C. E. R., was yesterday borne to the Royal Columbian hospital, held in a rig by four stalwart men. The accident occurred at the corner of Begbie and Clarkson streets, where the 1000 volt wires which supply juice for power purposes to the city are being changed for wires to carry two thousand volts in view of the increasing demand. In order to make the change, the wires were lowered to the ground and cut at the upper end of Begbie street, thereby shutting off the power from the wire on the lower side. Miller was stationed by the foreman, A. Chalkley, of Vancouver, at the corner of Clarkson with instructions not to touch the wire until he received word that it was dead. Miller, however, heard the foreman call to the upper gang to cut, and apparently thinking that the order was meant for him, seized the live wire with his pincers. Persons who were watching operations at the time saw a spurt of blue flame as the steel instrument touched the wire, then saw the stricken man fall to the ground writhing in agony, with blood pouring from his mouth, gripping the pincers in a grasp which he was powerless to release. His comrades forced the instrument from his badly burned hand and bore him on an improvised board stretcher to Thompson's livery, where he was attended by Dr. Hall, until a rig was in readiness to take him to the hospital.

The accident was due to more than one cause. Miller mistook the order meant for others; he then made the mistake of seizing a wrong wire. The third, which only increased the severity of the shock, was the fact that the insulating material on the pincers which he used had become worn, bringing the bare steel into contact with his hand; it is generally conceded, however, that the strength of the current would have caused it to come through the insulation even had it been intact.

Miller is doing well, according to the latest reports from the hospital, and in a few days will show but little of the effects of the shock.

SAN FRANCISCO SUPERVISORS WOULD QUIT PLAGUE FIGHT

San Francisco, May 7.—A resolution declaring that San Francisco has not had a single suspicious case of disease since January 30, and that it is the opinion of the board of supervisors that the heavy burden of maintaining a large sanitary force longer in the city should not be forced upon the citizens, but should be taken up by the United States government, was unanimously adopted at yesterday's session of the supervisors.

SIXTY KILLED IN KHYBER PASS FIGHT

London, May 7—Sixty Afghans were killed in the fighting which took place between a large Afghan force and the British troops last Saturday at a point in the Khyber pass near Landi-Khotal, according to a despatch sent in by a correspondent with the British column.

A message is published here today from Lahore giving the Afghan dead at 300, but this communication is discredited.

"This Is My 45th Birthday"

William M. Davidson.

William M. Davidson, superintendent of public schools of Omaha and one of the most prominent educators in the west, was born May 8, 1863, at Jamestown, Pa. He received his early education in the public schools of Kansas and later graduated from the Kansas State normal school at Emporia. Since 1882 he has been continuously engaged in educational work, with the exception of two years he spent as editor of a newspaper at Emporia. He was superintendent of schools at Topeka from 1892 to 1904, when he accepted his present appointment as superintendent of public schools at Omaha. Dr. Davidson is the author of several school text books that are widely used and has attained prominence as an institute worker and lecturer on educational subjects. He is a member of the leading educational and scientific societies of the United States and has been honored with the presidency of the National Educational association.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS MADE AT FRASER RIVER SAWMILLS

Largest Lumber Sawing Concern on American Continent Will Soon Be in Full Operation Again—Half a Million Dollars Spent in Improving the Equipements and Installing New and Up-to-date Machinery.

"The people of Westminster do not realize what they have here," remarked Manager Rogers, of the Fraser River sawmills, yesterday as he reeled off a string of figures that fairly made the reporter gasp in astonishment. "We will be ready to cut timber" he said, "by early fall, and the mill, which is by far the largest on the entire Pacific coast, if not in the world, will have a capacity of between 100,000,000 and 120,000,000 feet of lumber annually. We will employ at least 300 men, of whom half at least will be white men, skilled labor. Our pay roll at a conservative estimate, will be twelve thousand dollars per month, all of which will be spent in and around Westminster."

Mr. Rogers showed the newspaper man over the giant structure chatting easily the while of vast quantities of material that had been sunk in the construction, of thousands of dollars spent here and tens of thousands there, shiploads of concrete, forests of piles, and whole quarries of crushed rock, to say nothing of the vast amount of lumber used in the building, all from the saws of the mill. Gradually it dawned on the visitor that here was an enterprise of which not only the city of New Westminster, not only the province, or the Dominion, but the whole of the empire might well be proud, dwarfing into insignificance the mammoth mills of the United States, a plant capable of handling with ease the largest log that could be floated to its reach. The giant engines that will animate the at present sleeping frame will develop nearly three thousand horse power and by their aid a log of twelve feet in diameter and 120 feet in length may be lifted into the mill as readily as a shingle bolt, and passing by the great band saw in the centre of the building, thence to the resaws and the gangs, be reduced in a few minutes to marketable material.

What the operation of such a concern will mean to this city it is difficult even to conjecture. What the ordinary small inland mill can cut in one year, this vast equipment will turn out in a single week without unusual effort. With a supply of limits, estimated to be capable of producing at the smallest calculation 2,000,000,000 feet of logs, the mill can run for twenty years at full blast without cessation. Eighty per cent. of the output, one hundred millions of feet per year, it is estimated, will find a market in every part of the world, carried in the vessels of every nation. Thus the great mill itself, requiring nothing but the co-operation of Father Fraser, will make of Westminster a great port for ocean liners, independent of the improvements pending which of themselves will tend to promote the upbuilding of a maritime metropolis here.

Not only are the owners of the mill building up a lumbering business, but they are also building a town around their plant, a town that from its commencement will be favored with utilities that cities many times its size cannot boast. The company owns over 480 acres of land around the mill, and has nearly completed a number of buildings, including a large store block, office building and seventeen dwelling houses for the employees. A palatial residence has also been erected for the manager on the hillside above the town.

Waterworks will be built during the year, the water being brought from Lake Como through a twelve inch main. Tenders for the construction of the system are now being called. Twelve new houses, furnished with every modern convenience will be erected for the use of employees at once, and others as required. A hospital is another of the institutions planned for Millside by the lumber company, to which purpose a large building at present used for the manager's residence will be devoted, a doctor from the city visiting the hospital each day for the care of the patients. The town itself will be situated on the north side of the railway track, that portion of the property to the south being reserved for mill purposes. The yard at present being cleared will without difficulty accommodate 25,000,000 feet of lumber, and there is at the present time nearly that amount piled there from the output of the old mill. This yard will be driven with piles to raise the product from the ground.

Some idea of the great extent of the mill may be gained from a perusal of a few of the figures given by Mr. Rogers. The mill was originally built by the Ross MacLaren company of Vancouver, but was run for a short time, less than a year. For fourteen years the big building lay still and silent, the owners not having the necessary means for successfully carrying on the huge concern. It was taken over two years ago by Lester W. David, who operated it for two years until its purchase by the present company last fall. It was originally intended to repair and remodel the building, but as the work proceeded, it was found that few of the old timbers remained in a condition fit for use, and the original portion of the mill now standing is scarcely discernible. Half a million dollars has been sunk in the great undertaking. The new mill is 455 feet in length and 72 feet in width, with an engine room 44 by 76 of solid brick walls and massive concrete foundation. Over a thousand new piles were necessary in the reconstruction of the main building, 1200 piles were driven to support the engine foundations penetrating into the earth to a depth of eighteen feet. Twenty-four hundred yards of concrete were used in the construction of the beds for the engines and the boilers. Of the latter there are sixteen, eighteen feet in length and 72 inches in diameter. The power will be furnished by three engines, the largest of these being a Reynolds-Corliss twin 22 by 42, the fly wheel, one of the largest in Canada, being eighteen feet in diameter and 62 inches in width. The second sized engine is of similar build, 18 by 42, with a fly wheel 18 by 37. The baby of the trio is a single Hamilton engine 24 by 30, with a fly wheel 13 by 36, developing 350 horse power. The burner for the destruction of all waste material is now built to a height of about 40 feet, but when completed will be 106 feet in height and with a diameter of 33 feet. It required 400 piles to support the foundations.

The sawing equipment of the mill consists of three massive band saws and a gang saw. The big saw rig is an eleven foot Allis-Chalmers band, with a 72-inch four block carriage and two block trailer. This equipment handles with ease a log up to ten feet in diameter and 120 in length and is capable of coping with much larger logs at pressure. Steam devices for handling the logs are fitted throughout the mill. The main carriage runs on a ninety pound rail, rivetted to ½ by 10 inch steel plates. In addition to the big saw there is a nine foot Allis-Chalmers double cut band, with a 60 inch four block three track carriage, the track being of 60 pound steel rail rivetted to ½ by 8 inch steel plates. The centre rig is a nine foot double cut resaw with a 48 inch four block carriage. The gang saw is of Wicks make, 60 by 14 inches, running 54 32 by 7 inch bands. This machine is operated by an independent engine, a 24 by 30 Hamilton. The other equipment of the mill proper consists of a 16 foot slasher, an 84 inch double edger, with ten 30 inch saws, a 60 inch shingle edger with five 30 inch saws, a 44 foot 22-saw automatic trimmer and a 44 foot 20-saw automatic trimmer. The large band saws are all set on concrete foundations supporting 16 by 16 posts.

A feature of the equipping of the mill is that there are no hanging shafts, these being all set on bridge trees built on solid concrete so that there is a minimum of vibration, and every portion of the shafting is readily accessible, this portion of the machinery being confined to the lower floor of the building. A massive glass cupola extends along the entire roof of the building.

The old wharf, 500 feet in length and 125 feet in depth, is being thoroughly repaired and will be extended for another 500 feet, making 1000 feet over all, sufficient to accommodate every vessel of whatever size that may come to the mill for lumber. At present there is no provision made for a box factory or cedar mill, but the company contemplate the erection of these departments in the future.

The News man was conducted through the main buildings of the new town by the foreman, W. S. McLeod, who explained all the improvements that were being made in his particular branch of the work in a most interesting manner. The office block is a handsome two storey building, the ground floor equipped as offices, the upper floor as living rooms for the staff. All are lavishly furnished. The office provided are for the president, A. D. McRae, the secretary, R. H. Brown, the log manager, the sales manager, and the general offices respectively. Upstairs there is a board room, four bed rooms for the staff with baths and other conveniences, and a handsome sitting room. Across the main street is the store and post office, the latter being in the rear of the store proper. Upstairs in this building is a large hall, 40 by 52, which was opened last Friday with a dance. There are four bedrooms on the upper floor, also for the mill staff. An interesting feature of all the buildings is that every portion of the material was made on the spot.

With such a start, Millside appears to have a great future before it, and its residents confidently expect that before many years have passed it will be the mecca of the largest vessels of the Pacific.

DUTY ON SUGAR IS REDUCED IN ENGLAND

Change Will Become Effective on Raw and Refined Sugar in May.

Legislative Library.

London, May 7.—The new budget presented to the House of Commons today reduces the duty on sugar from four shillings and two pence to one shilling and ten pence per hundred weight.

The budget was presented by the premier, Mr. Asquith, instead of by the chancellor of the exchequer. This departure from precedent is a result of the recent change in the cabinet.

Mr. Asquith, after commenting briefly on the present slackening of trade throughout the world, following the boom year of 1907, announced that Great Britain's realized surplus for the year 1907 has amounted to $23,630,000, which he said would be largely applied to the reduction of the national debt, which has already been reduced by approximately $90,000,000 during the past year.

Mr. Asquith estimated the total expenditure for 1908-09 at $764,345,000 and the revenue on the existing basis of taxation at $788,850,000. The reduction in the sugar duties will be effective May 18 on raw and refined sugar, and on July 1 on articles manufactured with sugar.

WESTENDERS WALLOP WEAKENED REGINAS

Intermediate Lacrosse Match Finds Red Sweaters Easy for Greens.

West Enders	7

Few followers of lacrosse were surprised at the result of the first intermediate game of the season yesterday, although some east end supporters were disappointed. As anticipated, the Westenders won the match easily scoring seven goals. The Reginas failed to tally.

Superior stickhandling ability was clearly shown by the winners, who had the advantage of considerably more practice than the Reginas, several of the players on this latter team being notorious shirkers. Apart from the better form accruing from daily practice, the Westenders had the advantage of weight on their side, bulk being of some use in an exciting lacrosse match where a fistic argument is always a possibility and on occasions a probability. There were no scraps last night.

Nelson Kenny, who replaced Morrison on the Regina lineup, made his debut in intermediate company. While quick and willing, Kenny is far too light to play against the Westenders, and will not likely be called upon to do so for some time to come. "Pete" Latham, who was to have shown the old timers that he is still there with the goods, remembered an engagement in Vancouver and defaulted. The absence of Morrison and Latham contributed some to the defeat of the Reginas, but even with these two on the lineup, the victory would have rested with the wearers of the green sweaters. Next week the boys from the Occident will turn out wearing glad rags.

The Reginas showed weakness in the home, three youngsters being assigned to this part of the field. The defence was kept busy most of the time, "Chick" Robertson being particularly active with his stick. There was very little to pick out in the individual play of the winners, the home being, if anything, stronger than the other end of the field. Munn, who graced the net with his presence, was an interested spectator of the match most of the time.

During the last quarter thirteen players bunched up in front of the Regina goal, each team having about equal representation in the scramble. In the scrimmage the goal posts were forced out of position, the net trailing on the ground. No goal was scored.

Much adverse comment is being expressed by followers of the game at the action of "Doughey" Spring, who has elected to play against his old team, the Reginas, this year, his excuse for joining the stronger aggregation being that the boys from the east end are not turning out to practice in earnest this season. This may sound all right as an excuse, but it is not considered the action of a true sport.

Tallies were scored as follows:

Reginas—Nil.

Westenders — (1), Swanson, G. Spring; (2), no goals; (3), C. Spring, C. Spring; (4), G. Spring, E. Warwick, G. Spring.

Kill Messenger To Loot Small Safe

Denver, Col., May 7.—Train robbers who boarded the Denver & Rio Grande train No. 4 at Castle Rock early today, shot and killed Express Messenger Charles H. Wright, aged 60, employed by the Globe Express company. From the dead messenger the robbers took the keys to a small safe in the baggage car, which they opened and took the contents, in all worth less than a hundred dollars. A big safe on the car which contained a large sum of money, the combination of which is known only to clerks of the company in the principal stations along the route, was tampered with, but the robbers were unable to enter it. The robbery was discovered by William Bysop, chief night clerk of the Globe company's office at the Denver union depot, who went to the car to get express matter.

A Story of Ole Bull.

A curious tale of Ole Bull is told in a book on violins and violinists. It seems that in 1831, being then twenty-one years of age, the famous violinist wandered to Paris. The cholera was raging and Malibran singing. He went to hear her, and his landlord decamped with his possessions, including his violin. He was speedily reduced to extremity. During the last dinner that he was able to pay for he made the acquaintance of a remarkable man. To this stranger Ole Bull confided his miseries. At the conclusion the stranger said abruptly, "Well, I will do something for you if you have courage and 5 francs." "I have both," said Bull. "Then go to Frascati's tonight at 10 o'clock, pass through the first room, go into the second, where they play rouge et noir, and when a new taille begins put your 5 francs on rouge and leave it there." Bull did as directed, and when his 5 francs had become 400 he took them up after an episode with a woman who attempted to take them. Red continued to win, and had he left his money longer he would have won an independent sum. The stranger who was present as his elbow, was Vidocq, the French detective, already a European celebrity.

Mrs. Craigie's Habits of Work.

It had been Mrs. Craigie's habit for many years to begin her work at 1 o'clock in the morning, no matter how late she had been up the night before. Up and on she wrote till 11:30, never being able to do more than half an hour's work at a time, a disability which makes the amount she produced the more amazing. After luncheon—even after a luncheon at the Carlton—she wrote again until it was time to pay calls and to talk at tea tables as idly as if she had been idle all day, a feat of unbending which few women and fewer men can perform. But after dinner she was always tired. "At night," she confessed, "I never by any chance do anything. I cannot even write a post card then."

An Interesting Experiment.

Take an ordinary glass filled with water and put in as much soda as the water will take up. Tie one end of a string to a common bean and the other end to a wire which is laid across the top of the glass, thus submerging the bean. In a very few minutes the bean will begin to be covered with little spines, and in a short time it will resemble a tiny porcupine. The reason of this is easily explained. The bean is quite porous and soaks up a good deal of water, but the soda cannot enter the bean and therefore attaches itself to the outside.

Snow and Rain.

The first man to whom it ever occurred to find out how much rain was represented by a given fall of snow was Alexander Brice of Kirknewton, who in March, 1765, made a simple experiment with the contents of a stone jug driven face downward into over six inches of snow. What he learned was that a greater or less degree of cold or of wind when the snow falls and its "lying a longer or shorter time on the ground" will occasion a difference in the weight and in the quantity of water produced. "but if," he added, "I may trust to the above trials, which I endeavored to perform with care, snow newly fallen, with a moderate gale of wind, freezing cold, will produce a quantity of water equal to one-tenth part of its bulk." So that a fall of snow of ten inches represents a rainfall of one inch.—London Chronicle.

THE KIND THAT GROWS

At Ryall's Drug Store

ALL OVER THE HOUSE.

The Prevention and Cure of Facial Eruptions--Various Notes.

An application that sometimes helps to clear away a crop of pimples is made by shaking together until well mixed a wineglass of lime water, half as much olive oil and a pinch of powdered borax. The skin should be thoroughly cleansed with either a bran bag or almond meal, rinsed and dried; then use the mixture, which will be a thick white emulsion, and wipe off gently with a soft cloth. This leaves the skin pleasantly soft and is really a sort of antiseptic to prevent the forming of a suitable soil for the microbes which cause boils, acne, etc.

Where pimples come to head, in place of pressing out the contents nip a fine needle in boiling water, prick the place and touch with a drop of hydrozone, which will dry up the place and leave no mark.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Getting Rid of Moths.

When fighting moths in a room or closet, try burning gum camphor. The windows and doors of the room should be closed and all the bureau or closet drawers left open. The smoke should be allowed to remain in the room about an hour, after which time the room may be thoroughly aired.

After every possible precaution against moths has been taken in a closet where woolen goods are to be stored for the summer leave a piece of red flannel in the middle of the floor. Moths are said to have an especial fondness for this tidbit of moth diet, and if any intruders remain they will choose it in preference to the garments on the shelves. The trap, of course, should be watched and burned if moths are discovered in it.

Cucumber Freckle Cream.

For light summer freckles try cucumber milk. Slice without peeling four large cucumbers, add a cupful of water, boil until soft, cool and strain. To one and one-half ounces of juice add an equal portion of alcohol and one-fourth ounce of powdered castile soap. Let stand overnight, add eight ounces of cucumber juice, one ounce of oil of sweet almonds, twenty drops of tincture of benzoin and a pinch of boric acid. Shake well. Apply twice a day with a sponge.

PROTECTION FOR BRITAIN.

Hon. Joseph Chamberlain's policy of protection would seem to have taken hold of the English electorate, if the defeat of Minister Churchill in Manchester and the virtual defeat of Mr. Torne in East Wolverhampton mean anything.

The Education Act and the Licensing Bill were no doubt strong factors against the Government, but it must be admitted that the strong feeling against the Chamberlain policy of protection because the British public mind was not fully alive as to its necessity and possibilities, coupled with the fact that outside of some centres the commerce of Great Britain was boomed and the pinch of the falling off of the metal trades was not felt seriously in the other lines of commerce.

But the financial stringency effecting practically the whole civilized world was bound to have some influence on Britain's markets, and what she could have produced or manufactured within the British Isles, has, by the panic struck people of other lands, been dumped into the British home market and sold at prices little above those of raw material, so that the mills and manufactories in other lines were brought to suffer alike with the metal trades and the general business of the county slumped.

The nullity of Mr. Chamberlain's campaign, and the hopelessness of seeing his policy adopted in his lifetime, would seem to have turned, so that early fruition of his labors is one of the possibilities we may look for, and the aged statesman may yet rejoice at seeing the commerce and trade of his beloved country put upon a sound and sane basis as the resulting capstone of his brilliant career. There can be no doubt as to the return of the Unionists to power and it is unfortunate in some respects that the Asquith Ministry will not have time to do anything or indicate what it really could do in directing the ship of state.

WHY NOT "FIGHT FAIR?"

The persistent attacks of the Opposition in the House of Commons upon Hon. L. P. Brodeur give rise to the reflection as to how these gentlemen would like to have applied to them in private life the rules which they seek to apply to ministers.

Mr. George Taylor, the chief Conservative whip, is a business man of long standing and of high repute, not only in the section of the country in which his factory is located, but also throughout the Dominion.

How would he like a business opponent to apply to him the rule which he applied to the Minister of Marine yesterday?

If a trade rival were to approach Canoque, and, either bill the town or "load up" the newspapers with stories discreditable to Mr. Taylor's financial standing, he would be the first man to declare that the offender must pay the penalty before the courts of the county and of the province, and, if need be, of the Dominion—and (if either client had money enough left) of the Empire.

He would not be content with the statement that a man came into his town and affixed to the most prominent position in that town a statement that Mr. George Taylor had been derelict in his trust as the chief official of the Carriage Company. He would at once seek out that man, or his legal representative, and ask for an explanation. And if he did not get the explanation he would be the very first man to complain of the injury done to his business by outsiders who come in to make business for rival firms.

Yet, what did he do yesterday? He made a charge against the Minister of Marine, without direct knowledge of the facts. That charge will be blazoned forth in all the Tory newspapers of this country today, and for days to come; yet, when the Minister rose to give his explanation, Mr. Taylor declined to give him the opportunity.

And it was only after Mr. George Taylor—having launched his poisoned darts, with the knowledge that they would be used where they would do the most good from his political point of view—had disappeared that the Minister of Marine had a chance to reply.

Where then was Mr. Taylor? He had gone home.

That is the sort of campaign which the Conservative party is conducting in Parliament today.

How would you like it in your own business or in your own private life?—Ottawa Free Press.

BOATS ARE RACING TOWARDS DERELICT

Vancouver, May 7—A telegram from Clayoquot reports the steamer Otter, of the C. P. R., derelict with a broken tail shaft, twenty-six miles west of Ahousent, off the west coast of Vancouver island, with a part cargo of whale oil. The weather is good. The steamer Tees left at 8 p.m. and the B. C. Salvage company is sending the tug William Jolliffe, its fastest salvage steamer. There will be a race between the two steamers, the C. P. R. steamer being forced in the endeavor to prevent the salvage boat from securing the derelict and earning salvage from the company.

TUPPER NOT TO GO BEFORE CONVENTION

Vancouver, May 7—Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper in a letter to R. W. Holland announces that he will not permit his name to go before the Conservative nominating convention for reasons to be explained later. He adds that he has abandoned the idea of calling a meeting to consider the action of the Conservative club in issuing a written request to Conservatives to abstain from canvassing in favor of any prospective candidates.

This afternoon delegates from every part of the Westminster district of the Methodist church will be present to attend the annual meeting of the district in Sapperton church.

Hear Miss Burns at Columbian Methodist college tonight. The college girls are presenting a first class concert. **

The local branch of the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends held a social at their regular meeting last evening, a most pleasant time being spent, the lodge orchestra giving a program of excellent selections.

A dance is scheduled for this evening at the new hall at Millside. The first dance was held there last Friday evening and was largely attended, many of the citizens of Westminster spending the evening at the mill town.

At midnight the firemen of No. 1 hall were called from their beds to answer a call in Chinatown, where the sleeping Celestials had been aroused by a blazing chimney. Chemical from the Babcocks was sufficient to remedy the trouble and in half an hour all was again quiet.

A scratch cricket match has been arranged for Saturday afternoon at Moody square, when all members of the club are requested to be present. After the game, the team which is to meet the Victorias here next Saturday will be picked. Outsiders attending the game Saturday and wishing to join the club are requested to make themselves acquainted with the management. Play will commence sharp at 2 o'clock.

The Westminster Realty and Employment Agency has now been taken over by Messrs. Rose, Sinclair & Philpot, who are prepared to supply all employers of labor any help, male or female, they may require. Men wanted at all times to fill positions. **

This evening a special meeting of the city council will be held for the consideration of a number of matters that have been held in abeyance. It is expected that the representatives of the new gas company and the representative of the opposing party will be present to state their claims to the council. It is also probable that Joseph Martin, K.C., will meet the council in order to discuss the selling of liquor by clubs in the city.

The carpenters union met last evening to consider the case of a number of union men who were working below the union scale of wages, on the new Cunningham block, Sixth street. These men have been working on permits, but the meeting last night decided to cancel these and the men were instructed to leave the job unless the schedule rate of pay was granted. Most of the men immediately agreed.

The attention of the News has several times been called to the condition of the basin west of Gilley's new wharf, which is now being dredged out. All manner of rubbish has been permitted to accumulate there, old boats, portions of logs, and even dead animals. The nostrils of many who have occasion to pass that way have been daily offended by this refuse, but the scavenger appears to have failed to discover this breeding place of disease.

The sessions of the Pacific Kreds, at present in convention in this city, are being largely attended by adherents of the Lutheran church, meetings being held daily in St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal church and also across the river. The subject of discussion yesterday was "Thy Kingdom Come," several of the most prominent speakers in attendance taking part in the debates. Tomorrow afternoon as many of the delegates as can spare the time will take part in an excursion up river, gasoline launches for the trip being supplied by members of the local Lutheran church. On Saturday evening a mass meeting will be held either in St. Paul's church or in the Odd Fellows hall. The conference will close on Sunday.

Strange Rites In Burial.

When Lady Florence Paget married the Marquis of Hastings, she entered a family which has observed some rather unusual rites in the burial of its dead. Her own funeral in the churchyard at Grendon was strictly conventional, in accordance with the traditions of her own family and that of her second husband, Sir George Chetwynd. But her sister-in-law by her first marriage, the Countess of Loudon, had her hand cut off and buried separately from the rest of her body. "I bide my time," is the legend over that hand's sepulcher. And her nephew by her first marriage, the late Marquis of Bute, has two tombs, the one in which his body mainly rests at home and the urn which contains his heart in Palestine, on the spot which his widow and his daughter are now again visiting.

Disqualified.

Although Mrs. Harlow loved her husband and admired what she considered his good points, it was a never ending source of amazement to her that he had been chosen to fill the office of mayor for three successive terms.

"Everybody knows how much I think of James," she said in a dazed way to one of her husband's cousins. "I always said and always should say that he is as good as gold. But if you'll tell me whether you think a man who is color blind and who brings home toys that won't go when you wind them and who still thinks I could like olives if I'd only try is fit for such a position why, all I can say is I don't."—Youth's Companion.

A Chinese Idea of Foreigners.

The following is a quite modern Chinese conception of the foreigners' treatment of infectious cases: "If an epidemic broke out two foreigners took the sick away and put them in a little room, washed them with lime water and then locked them up so that no one could see them on purpose that they might soon die and not propagate the disease. Wives and children might cry and weep, but the foreigner would but drive them away with sticks, for until dead no one must see those faces again. Better for all of us to jump into the sea than submit to this."—South China Post.

Antiquity of an Old Tune.

When Napoleon's army was in Egypt in 1799 and the band struck up the tune which in England is set to the song "We Won't Go Home Till Morning" its effect on the Bedouins was electrical. They leaped and shouted and embraced one another deliriously. They averred that they were listening to the oldest and most popular tune of their people. It is thought that the tune was brought to Europe from the dark continent in the eleventh century by the Crusaders.—St. James' Gazette.

Synopsis of Canadian North-West Homestead Regulations.

Any even numbered section of Dominion lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however, be made at an agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is rejuired to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).

(4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.

(5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa, of intention to apply for patent.

Do You Intend Building?

"There is no time like the present" is an old saying but more especially does this apply to building operations at this moment. LUMBER HAS GONE DOWN to a very astonishing extent. It is, however, very questionable if it will remain so much longer. Labor is also much lower and more available than it was this time last year. Make inquiries and convince yourself. DON'T PROCRASTINATE until prices go up again.

Of course you will have to procure a lot and this is where WE CAN BE OF ASSISTANCE TO YOU. We have been given the EXCLUSIVE SALE of what is beyond the least shadow of doubt the most desirable property in the City of New Westminster. WE DO NOT MEAN AWAY OUT IN THE SUBURBS where it is necessary to use fancy names in order to attract prospective purchasers BUT IN THE VERY HEART OF THE BEST RESIDENTIAL SECTION OF THE CITY.

It is situated on FIRST STREET between SECOND and THIRD AVENUES. FACING ON THE BEAUTIFIED PORTION OF QUEEN'S PARK, it commands a magnificient view of the Fraser River and the Pitt Mountains. You can also see all the LACROSSE MATCHES and other sports without going out of the house. Be sure to look at these lots before buying elsewhere. Nearly every lot faces on a 66-foot street and has a lane at therear. Below is a plan of the property which you might cut out and take with you when you go to pick out your lot. If one lot is too small for your purposes you can take two or three and have just as large a frontage as ybu want. If you cannot aford to buy lots facing on the Park look at the back lots, the prices of which are absurdedly low. Remember: WE ARE THE ONLY FIRM IN THE CITY WHO CAN SELL THIS PROPERTY.

Board and Ball Trick.

Get the cover of a cigar box or any other thin board about five inches long and cut two small holes in it. Then arrange the strings and balls shown in the diagram.

The trick is how to get the large ball off the string without untying it or removing any of the smaller balls.

Push the ball close up to the right hand hole and pull the right loop of the string as far toward the left hand hole as it will come. Then pass the loop through the hole and over the left ball, as indicated in the second diagram. This will cause the two loops to separate, and then the ball will come off with ease.

Reversing the operation, you can easily put the ball back into its original position. — Columbus Dispatch.

A Church For Children Only.

The Rev. Henry A. King of the Oakley Avenue M. E. church, Kansas City, proposes to start a church for children only. He wishes them to take the part of the official board, the organizers, the ushers and the congregation.

Politeness to Foreigners.

From Europe, Asia and Africa,
From North and South America,
These names of places come to me
To teach me my geography.

And so it's no more than polite
To put my playthings out of sight
And for a moment give my mind
To visitors who are so kind.

Much Law, Poor Case.

Among lawyers there is a saying that in the trial of a case an attorney if light on facts must be heavy on law. The other day an attorney was preparing to leave his office in one of the big office buildings to go to the courthouse to try a case. From the shelves of his library he had taken many large law books containing decisions and opinions of higher courts. At intervals a boy went in and out of the door, and each time he bore in his arms a stack of the books, which he carried to an express wagon that stood in the street below. The attorney was to use the books in the courtroom. Another lawyer, who is of southern birth and who always addresses his friends with some army title, watched the boy as he went in and out carrying the law books. Then he dug his hands deep into his trousers pockets and said to the lawyer:

"Well, Ah'll sweah, kunnel, you must have no case at all."—Kansas City Times.

Weigh in Your Mind
the difference between our coal and others before investing your cash. Of course it is burning up money, but you might as well have as much fire as you can for it.
The cleanness of our coal is one good point. Its free burning quality is another. Give us your order and you'll find many more.

GOVERNOR OF THE YUKON ON HIS WAY TO OTTAWA

Alex. Henderson Speaks of Good Prospects in Land of Buried Gold —Political Pot Will Boil.

Lieut.-Governor Alex. Henderson, of the Yukon, who has been on the coast for the past few days, leaves this morning for Ottawa, where he will spend some time before returning north. Mr. Henderson spent some time in the city yesterday, calling upon a number of old friends. In speaking to the News on conditions in the land of gold and ice, the visitor expressed his unbounded confidence in the result of the coming season, prospects being exceptionally bright for a good year with the mining men.

Politically, the Yukon would be a warm spot when the Dominion elections come along, as two candidates would be in the field, Dr. Thompson, the sitting member who was sent to Ottawa as an Independent and later blossomed out as a full-fledged Conservative, having wisely decided not to try and carry the nomination a second time. Dr. Thompson will in future devote all his time to his medical practice.

Relics in Nanaimo.

Nanaimo, May 6—These are the days when old relics are being unearthed in Nanaimo. Yesterday, while carpenters were tearing down the old Bevilockway store on Commercial street, old papers, manuscripts, etc., bearing dates of the early sixties, were brought to light.

Move to Settle Railway Stike.

Denver, May 6—The first move toward the settlement of the Denver & Rio Grande shopmen's strike was made at noon today, when the company made new contracts with a committee representing the car repairers and inspectors. The contracts are about the same as the others.

Negroes Turned Back.

Lethbridge, Alta., May 7.—Canadian Immigration Agent Humphry has refused admittance at Coutts to twenty negroes coming with Corry Bros.' grading outfit, which is going to do irrigation work at Calgary.

Calgary Improvements.

Winnipeg, May 7.—Calgary yesterday voted to spend a quarter of a million on civic improvements.

W. S. Collister & Co
THE STORE FOR WOMEN'S WEAR

"It's Turned Bad!"

This will be the constant complaint of many careworn housewives in New Westminster this summer. Is it going to be yours, Reader? Why not study economy this summer by keeping your foodstuffs in a handy sized refrigerator, and not to deliberately throw away your money by allowing the heat to turn good food into unwholesome and distasteful rubbish. Why not always have the food crisp and tasty, both for yourself and your guests? To counteract the effects of heat by a modern convenience is the true and practical economy. Why not call and see us about an inexpensive refrigerator? We have both the galvanized and poreclain lined in great variety.

And say, isn't it time to think about Fly Netting, Mosquito Doors and Window Screens.

Now, we shall be pleased to see you and to cheerfully show you the goods, whether you buy or not.
